Quick Tax Cut Highly Desirable, Burns Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Arthur F. Burns of the Federal Reserve Board said today he opposes permanent tax reductions but hopes Congress will act quickly to approve a temporary tax cut.

"I believe the magnitude of tax reduction suggested by the President is reasonable, a temporary cut is reasonable, and a quick tax cut is highly desirable," Burns told the House Ways and Means Committee.

Burns said that instead of dealing with "problems of income distribution and income redistribution, I would push a flat percentage cut for individuals" and a "quick tax cut would be more beneficial than one that comes along later on."

In response to questions at a hearing on tax-cut legislation, Burns said he is against a permanent tax cut now because it would be "dangerous to reduce taxes permanently and thereby erode the tax base of this country."

Burns said the Federal Reserve system will allow a moderate expansion of the country's money supply to meet heavy deficit spending by the federal government.

But Burns said the Federal Reserve would not contribute to a new round of inflation.

"You can ... expect from the Federal Reserve system, as long as I'm there, that we will not release a new wave of inflation on this country," Burns told the House Ways and Means Committee.

Making clear that he feels inflation remains the nation's most serious threat, Burns urged Congress to reduce federal spending below what President Ford has proposed.

Despite high interest rates, Burns said there is no shortage in the supply of money in the United States.

"The important thing for the economy is not the supply of money — this country is awash with liquidity — what it lacks is confidence and the willingness to use the money that has already been created and is lying around," he said.

NEWMONEY

Asked by committee Chairman Al Ullman, D-Ore., whether the Federal Reserve system would make sufficient new money available to finance the proposed $35 billion and $50 billion budget deficits in 1975 and 1976, Burns said the system would try to expand the money supply and bank credit at a moderate rate.

CAUGHT BY SURPRISE — Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller is caught by surprise Wednesday as a Republican supporter reaches out at a GOP fund-raising dinner at the Chanticleer Restaurant in Milburn, N.J. Incident happened as Rockefeller stood in a receiving line at the $250 a plate dinner, at which he was guest speaker.

SUNBATHING BREAK? — Undraped plastic mannequins lined up at the sunlit window of an office in downtown Tokyo today offer an unusual sight, at first glance, to viewers in nearby buildings.

Complications Beset Emergency Pay Raise

AUSTIN (AP) — Complications beset a $93 million emergency pay raise bill today, as time grew short for it to apply to state employees' March 1 paychecks.

Sen. Lloyd Doggett, D-

Austin, the sponsor, planned to ask for a joint House-Senate conference committee to quickly iron out the problems.

Gov. Dolph Briscoe has lauded the bill to raise the pay of 125,000 government workers an emergency. It passed the House Wednesday, 135-3.

RUSHLOOMS

Senators were expected to rush through the bill today until it was learned the bill, as it cleared the House, was probably unconstitutional.

The other requires reimbursement of the general revenue fund for raises given employees who normally are paid from special funds consisting of such things as occupational license fees and earmarked taxes.

Enrollment Here Could Top 1,400

Howard College has set a new all-time enrollment total and has a good chance of exceeding the 1,400-mark for the first time.

L. L. Lewis, director of admissions, said that through Wednesday afternoon there were 1,224 enrolled on campus.

In addition, the Lamesa center has 91 and the San Angelo center 78, making a total of 1,393. The previous high was 1,373.

Lewis said that there are still 28 applications pending in the business office, and several of these appear to be certain of completion. He also noted that the enrollment totals quoted are after the drops had been eliminated to this point.

The previous high for a Spring enrollment was three years ago when the total was 1,194, so that this year's total is up by some 200. Normally the Spring enrollment declines from the Fall.

Extension Of Clemency For Draft Dodgers Due

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — President Ford has decided to order an extension of conditional clemency for one month, the head of the Clemency Information Center said today.

Chet Briggs, director of the center, which is sponsored by the National Council of Churches, said at a news conference he had been told by a White House source late Wednesday of the planned extension.

The clemency program is divided in three parts, one administered by the Clemency Board, another by the Justice Department and the third by the Defense Department. Nessen did not indicate whether Ford also was considering extending the portions administered by the defense and justice departments.

ment processes unconvicted draft evaders.

Each segment of the program reported an increase in calls and signups as the Friday deadline neared.

Ex-Big Springer Is Found Dead

Word was received here this morning by Allen Biby of 2106 Nolan that his daughter, Mrs. Lily L. Looby, who was raised in Big Spring, was murdered this morning in Cochester, Conn.

Her body was discovered at her home. She had been shot in the face with a shot gun, according to Sgt. William Buchert, Connecticut State Trooper.

DESERTERS

NBC-TV reported Wednesday night that Ford would give a one-month extension to the President Clemency Board.

The board processes convicted deserters and draft evaders.

The military processes only unconvicted deserters, while the Justice Depart-

ONE MONTH

Ford was expected to announce his decision later today. One report in Washington said it was expected Ford would grant a one-month extension in an effort to sign up thousands of draft evaders and deserters who have failed to come forward.

Cong. Mahon Insists He Isn't Planning To Quit

The 74-year-old native of Colorado City stopped short of saying he would be a candidate for re-election in 1976 but termed stories of his rumored retirement as "utterly absurd."

Stories about Mahon's possible retirement had appeared in the syndicated column written by Rowland Evans and Robert Novak, which appears regularly in The Herald.

Mahon has served as chairman of the Appropriations Committee in Congress for the past decade and easily retained that position in a recent election, although 94 votes were cast against him, compared to only 19 in 1973.

Mahon has been a member of congress for 40 years. Howard County formerly was a part of the 19th District, which Mahon serves. The veteran solon is the only congressman the 19th District has ever had.

HEAD BLOWN AWAY Officer Breaks Into Tears

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — Testimony was to continue today in the ninth day of the murder trial of Larry Ross, 21, and Selwyn Gholson, 20, charged in the Sept. 14 shooting death of state trooper Hollie Tull.

Bartholomae, Hull's longtime friend and riding partner for four years, testified that when he arrived at the scene, he saw "a body" next to Tull's patrol car.

"It didn't look like Hollie," Bartholomae said. "The head had been blown away."

BULLETIN

"Here sweetheart, here sweetheart."

A local veterinarian, a highway patrolman, ambulance attendants and others were all put in the position of trying to catch a poodle dog that escaped during a two car wreck three miles south of Big Spring on highway 87 around 1 p.m.

The World At-A-Glance

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Sugar warehouses across the nation are full and sales have been so slow some refineries have been forced to shut down. It is a sharp comedown for sugar, which rose 400 percent in price last year to join oil as a symbol of shortage and inflation. Raw sugar has fallen $24 since it topped out at $64.50 per 100 pounds last Nov. 20. The world's largest refinery, the C&H plant in San Francisco, called a five-day layoff.

LONDON (AP) — Americans dealing in gold illegally were among the speculators who made fat profits in the European gold rush late last year, according to some London bullion dealers. The speculators cashed in their profits Dec. 30, the day before the U.S. government lifted its 41-year ban on Americans owning gold. London dealers said the speculators included Americans, businessmen from Europe and Lat Arab sheiks, hoarders from France and other countries and the financial directors of some international corporations.

Teacher Who Posed Nude For Playgirl Is Fired

APPLE VALLEY, Calif. (AP) — A parade of pupils testified at an appeal hearing that they still respect a high school teacher who was fired after posing nude for a magazine.

A final decision on the dismissal of Lou Zivkovich, a physical education instructor at Victor Valley High School, went to a three-member panel on professional conduct. The panel is expected to make a decision within three weeks.

Supt. William A. Tarr of the Victor Valley Joint Union High School District said Zivkovich was dismissed because he failed to set a good example for his pupils.

However, 17 pupils and teachers testified Wednesday that they did not lose their respect for Zivkovich after his appearance in the centerfold of the June 1974 issue of Playgirl, and that he did not lose his effectiveness as an instructor.

In a resolution for dismissal filed by the school district, Tarr said, "As a teacher your private life serves as a model influencing the lives and beliefs and in fact the way of living of the young people you come in contact with. A teacher's public life should be a model we want our young people to grow up in."

Zivkovich's lawyer argued the case must be decided solely on whether his client's nude appearance had any effect on his job as a teacher.

NUDE BODY IN BOX Relative Of One-time British Minister Slain

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Police are seeking the slayer of a man who acquaintances say was a distant relative of a former British prime minister.

The body of Joseph Chamberlain, 34, was found in a box in a trailer Wednesday on the parking lot of an apartment complex where he lived.

United States, police said. An autopsy was ordered to determine the cause of death. Detectives said they believe he died Monday night.

Chamberlain worked for an oil exploration firm. When he did not show up for work Tuesday, two friends went to the apartment to check on him.

She was taken to Medical Center Hospital in Odessa for probable back injuries and minor cuts. Her car collided with one driven by Horace Tubb of Garden City Route, when she pulled out on to the highway. Tubb was not injured in the accident.

MOSCOW (AP) — Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko has added a two-day visit to Syria to his Middle East trip, Tass announced today. The Soviet news agency said Gromyko would visit Damascus Saturday and Sunday. It announced previously that he would arrive in Cairo on Monday to continue consultations with the Egyptian leaders. Egypt's Middle East News Agency reported that after his talks in Cairo, Gromyko would visit Iraq.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government export restrictions on wheat and soybean sales are being relaxed following cancellation of large purchases of U.S. wheat by the Soviet Union and mainland China. Beginning today exporters will be allowed to sell up to 100,000 tons of wheat and soybeans to foreign buyers without prior approval from the Agriculture Department. Since October the limit has been 50,000 tons.

Six Supply Ships Clear Red 'Shooting Gallery'

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Two more fuel tankers and four bargeloads of rice and ammunition got through the Communist blockade of the Mekong River to Phnom Penh today. At least three ships were lost on the way from South Vietnam.

Port officials said one tanker was sunk by Khmer Rouge rockets, another was beached and abandoned, apparently because of damage, and a freighter was left in the river after her rudder was smashed.

It was the third and largest convoy to run the river gantlet in the past week. It also brought the first rice shipment to reach the Cambodian capital since the last convoy before the blockade, on Dec. 24.

An estimated 8,000 insurgent soldiers now control both sides of the river for some 45 of the 60 miles between the South Vietnamese border and Phnom Penh. All roads into the city have been cut for months, and priority in air supply is given to ammunition and other military material.

Phnom Penh, was hit by 10 rockets and damage was heavy.

In South Vietnam, two rockets killed seven civilians in a hamlet eight miles northwest of Saigon and wounded two others, the Saigon command reported.

COOLER It will be cloudy and cooler this afternoon, with a 30 per cent chance of rain this afternoon, with increasing cloudiness and cooler temperatures on hand for tonight and Friday.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. James B. Allen, the leading practitioner of the Senate filibuster, is threatening to talk to death a rule change that would weaken his favorite legislative tactic. A proposal by Sens. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., and James B. Pearson, R-Kan., would allow a filibuster to be stopped by a three-fifths majority of those voting instead of the present two-thirds. The rule change is expected to come to the Senate floor soon.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A special government study group is investigating atomic power plant safety, a concern highlighted by a Nuclear Regulatory Commission order shutting down 23 plants to check for flaws in a key emergency system.

Alarm Shatters Calm At Home

Who said days are always the same in a nursing home? At Big Spring Nursing Home at 901 Goliad, the fire alarm woke everybody up Wednesday morning at 6:14 a.m.

There was lots of excitement for a while, especially when the nursing home personnel could not get the alarm shut off and sent for police for assistance.

ROCKET ATTACK

The daily rocket attacks on the Phnom Penh airport continued. Military sources said nine rockets hit the air force sector of the field, killing two soldiers and damaging a T28 fighter-bomber. The sources said the naval base at Chhruy Changvar, half a mile from

Ted Hale Little, Robison Win Citizenship Awards

The Howard County Sheriff's Office has joined the list of law enforcement agencies seeking Ted Hale, who has three pages of aliases on record in connection with a number of fraud incidents.

Hale is accused of posing as an electrical company worker checking a switch box of an elderly Knott man on Jan. 2.

The defendant, the complaint alleges, told the victim, who can read and write little English, he needed a new switch box for $3.86. Hale, the sheriff's office contends, prepared a check for this amount for the victim.

But when the canceled check came back, it had been altered to $3,865 and labeled for concrete, material and labor.

A deputy with the Port Allen, La., sheriff's office identified this as Hale's usual method of operation. And the victim, the Howard County Sheriff's Office reports, identified the photo of the man.

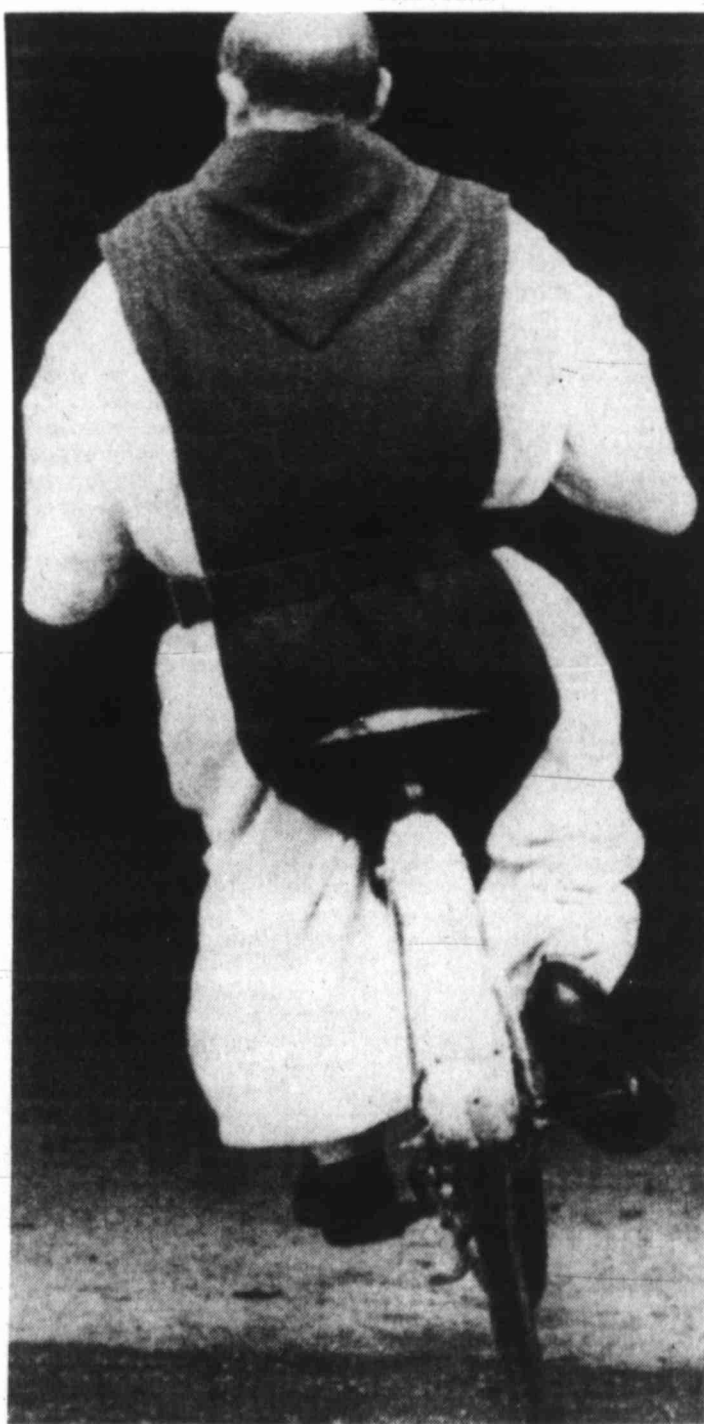

Hale is wanted also in Dumas, Tex., and Shreveport, La., for similar recent forgery cases.

About three weeks ago, Sheriff A. N. Standard said, a man was contacted by phone and asked to withdraw some funds from a local bank to help the caller who claims to be a bank examiner. The man refused, Standard said.

Grice Sets Bond For Man Here

Promise Of Snow In Plains

By The Associated Press

Cold and sometimes freezing rain chilled Texas' Panhandle-Plains sector today, and there was a promise of snow there by early Friday.

Official observers credited the moisture to a trough of low pressure in the Panhandle and to warm, damp air from the Gulf of Mexico overrunning a cool layer nearer the ground behind a weak and nearly stalled front, which eased into the state two days earlier. By early morning its forward edge lay along a line linking Paris, Groesbeck, Fredericksburg and Rocksprings.

The rain froze around Dalhart in the Upper Panhandle, and it was raining toward the south past Lubbock, into the Big Bend country and to around Uvalde and Seguin in areas farther to the east. There also were scattered showers and light rain along the old front in West Texas near El Paso and Hondo.

In addition fog cloaked much of the Texas coast, again cutting visibility to zero in some areas. Snow was forecast on the heels of the rain in the Upper Panhandle, and light rain or drizzle was predicted throughout the rest of the state.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 33 degrees at Dalhart and Amarillo in the Panhandle up to 71 downstate at Alice, Brownsville, Cotulla and Victoria.

Unemployment Claims Change

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Employment Commission said today it will begin taking claims for extended unemployment benefits Feb. 3 at all TEC offices over the state.

Under the new provisions unemployed persons who filed initial claims for jobless benefits within one year prior to Jan. 26 and who have exhausted those benefits are eligible to file a claim.

Over 50,000 Have Enrolled At HC

Howard College has proven itself to be a stable asset to Howard County, and in the view of Dr. Charles Hays, president, a new physical education-civic center building would enhance that asset.

He touched upon the College's progress since it was founded in 1946, noting that the cumulative enrollment was 50,650 and assets over $5,000,000.

"What has this cost the taxpayers of Howard County?" he asked member of Downtown Lions Club at their Wednesday meeting at the Settles. "Our budget is over $1,800,000 a year, of which $422,000 comes from local taxes, so we get 4-1 on our investment there. But the big thing is that we save people here at least a million dollars a year by having a college at home."

Statewide, the community college is the biggest Texas bargain, he noted, for 40 per cent (or 200,000) of post-secondary education enrollment is in the two-year colleges, which get only 13 per cent of the state's college financial outlay.

Turning to a proposed new community facility which trustees have ordered into the planning stage, Dr. Hays said that in general terms the building would have price tag of around $1.5 million, (of which some $500,000 already has been pledged from private sources), would provide some 66,000 square feet of space, seat 4,000 permanently with another 1,500 to 2,000 move-in seats. It would be, he said, available for any community function and would be located at Kentucky Way and Birdwell Lane.

"I am confident that it would pay its way operationally," he said. "And we believe that anything worthwhile is worth going after, so we ask you to consider what we have done and what we can do."

Firms Owned By Minority Races Benefit From Move

The Small Business Administration (SBA) recently cited Air Training Command (ATC) for support of government efforts to channel federal business into firms owned by minority races.

Maj. Gen. Robert W. Maloy ATC vice commander, accepted the certificate of appreciation from Frederick S. Neumann, director of Region VI of the SBA.

The award is in recognition of 27 contracts totaling more than $2.8 million let by ATC during the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1974.

The command exceeded the Air Force goal of at least one contract per base awarded to a minority owned firm in FY 74. One base awarded five contracts to minority owned firms. Webb's contribution was one contract to the Nu-Wa Janitor Service for the amount of $190,369.25 for FY 74. This business employs 38 people on base with some working full time and some part time. The FY 75 contract to the same firm is in the amount of $202,000.

The objectives of the program sponsored by SBA are to assist minority businessmen in getting government contracts and training them to manage a business during a specific time. This helps them to become self reliant in competing with other businesses within the dollar range in their specialty line.

The award to ATC is one of only two presented in SBA's Region VI. This region covers Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico.

U.S. Will Join Hospital Probe

FSSH OBSERVED

Federal authorities in Dallas have decided to join in an investigation of Texas mental institutions, including the Big Spring State Hospital, stemming from a lawsuit filed in 1973 on behalf of several patients at the Terrell State Hospital, according to the Associated Press. The suit was expanded to include all mental institution patients, claiming that their rights are being violated by lack of proper treatment facilities and methods.

A Justice Department spokesman said Wednesday its role will be as a friend of the court, but it may choose to take sides if the evidence warrants.

Michael Lottmann, an associate director in the civil rights division, met with lawyers in the case to discuss possible involvement in the statewide probe.

He told U.S. District Court Judge William Taylor, Dallas, that the government staff would help gather evidence on an advisory basis and would inform the court if the investigation warrants federal participation on behalf of the patients.

A team of state and investigative personnel, federal staff and experts for the plaintiffs will be observing the Big Spring State Hospital operations on Wednesday, Feb. 5, to evaluate treatment standards for the patients. The team has already visited some hospitals and will be continuing the probes at each of the hospitals.

Although Lottmann and lawyers for the patients questioned whether an adequate probe could be made before the April 7 trial date, Judge Taylor said he would not postpone the case. Taylor said he still hopes to complete the trial while the legislature is in session in case state action is necessary.

State Attorney Lynn Taylor agreed and said, "This has been delayed long enough. We're ready to go to trial April 7."

PROBE DISTURBS

The state's lawyers also complained to Taylor that medical experts and photographers have been "disturbing" the patients while conducting their probes into the hospital operations.

Judge Taylor told the lawyers to report at once any specific incidents in the future for him to consider corrective action.

'Tot' Decals Are Available

Fire Chief Alvie Harrison today reminded Big Spring residents that free "Tot Finder" decals are still available.

These decals, displayed on front doors or front windows, alert firemen to search the home immediately for small children in event of fire. The same purpose is served for elderly people.

"All anyone has to do is stop by the Central Fire Station at Fourth and Nolan and pick up the decals," said Chief Harrison. "Those unable to come by should call us at 7-6083 and we will deliver one."

Blood Services Plan Donor Typing Center

Blood Services will operate a donor and typing center here Friday in Highland Mall, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Donors are urgently needed to meet demands of 34 hospitals in the West Texas area serviced by Blood Services, which maintains area headquarters in San Angelo.

Those who do give a unit of blood during the day will get six months of blood services guaranteed for themselves or their families. (This does not include hemophiliacs.)

In addition, there will be a free typing service operated all during the day. Anyone is welcome to have his or her blood typed, and mothers of small children are asked to bring their youngsters if they would like to know blood classification of the children. This can save individuals a substantial lab fee.

The usual time for registering, receiving the unit of blood, and brief rest usually is about 20 minutes. Each donor is given a "mini-physical" such as blood pressure, pulse, hemoglobin, etc. before blood is received.

Should those giving blood have need for a transfusion for them or their families within a six months period, Blood Services will see that they get the blood without charge.

Blood Services has operated a similar clinic periodically at Howard College here, and at high schools and colleges in the area.

Pancake Supper Slated Feb. 20

As in the past, it will be held in the dining room of the Dora Roberts Student Union Building on the Howard College campus from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.

This is a Thursday evening, also happens to be the date for the Texas Western-Howard College basketball game.

Tickets (all you can eat for $2) will be in charge of Bob Boodwin, and Gene Gresham is general chairman of the project.

Special Budget Group Is Ready To Function

By OMAR BURLESON, M.C.
17th District, Texas.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — On several occasions during the last congress we discussed in this column the creation of a Joint House-Senate Budget Committee which has as its purpose a review in advance of spending levels of the Federal Government for the following year.

That committee is now organized and expects to begin its studies and deliberations in the weeks ahead.

This effort is the next best thing to a Constitutional Amendment proposed by a number of us here in the Congress which would put the Government on a "pay as you go" basis. Such a Constitutional Amendment would be similar to that which we have in our own State of Texas, except there must be provided a waiver of such requirement in times of national emergency such as war.

To restate what has been said before, the purpose of the Committee is to set ceilings on expenditures related to revenues received in all forms of taxation. At the present time, revenues are estimated in the President's budget in the early part of the year and we will get those figures on February 3. In the same message, the President will lay out the amounts to be spent for the numerous programs of the Federal Government.

More often than not, revenues are underestimated, as they were last year, and spending likewise is greater at the end of the year than recommended by the Executive Branch.

This latter inconsistency is usually the fault of the congress by enacting new programs and activities which have to be paid for. Some have to be paid for soon after enactment while others constitute a sort of a C.O.D. which has to be paid for three, four or five years in the future. By reason of these long-term commitments the Congress has control over less than 30 per cent of all the huge expenditures of the Government.

A joint committee between the house and senate will attempt first to do its own estimating of income and set ceilings on expenditures for each program. It will then consolidate total costs according to the expected income. As it is now, these two have only a nodding acquaintance.

The purpose of the joint committee of the congress is not to rely on the Executive Branch alone but to assume our Constitutional responsibility in seeing that we get back to a more sound fiscal operation.

This is all well and good if it is made to work. It will be up to Congress to make it work but the whole idea is surrounded by skepticism as to whether or not we are willing to say we will go so far and no farther.

The deficit for this fiscal year 1975 will be more than $30 billion and unless steps are taken to get our economy in better shape, there is little doubt that it will reach more than $70 billion in the 1976 fiscal year beginning next July 1. There is no doubt that the deficit in the next two years will be far beyond any red ink which has gone on the books in the history of our Country. The interest alone on what the Government owes is now more than $32 billion and is one of the best examples of the more than 70 per cent of "uncontrolled" expenditures.

At no time could I have chosen a less opportune time to serve on the Budget Committee between the House and Senate but I have been elected to do so, accepting it as one of the biggest challenges of a career.

With inflation and recession at the same time revenues will be off and spending continues to climb.

The second tip is from Rixi Markus of Great Britain, the only woman among the 32 Grand Masters accredited by the World Bridge Federation and the only woman invited to enter the competition.

Mrs. Markus suggests that, when attacking a suit in which you have to lead from a doubleton honor, you should not always make the near-automatic lead of the high card. At times, there is a possible advantage to leading the low card when partner is marked with length and entries. As an example, she cites this hand from a recent rubber bridge game.

CHANGE OF PACE IN OIL SPRINGS

Percentages To Pumps

OIL SPRINGS, Tex. (AP) — W. A. Miller seems out of place in the backwoods of Nacogdoches County, although he wears greasy-stained overalls and spends his time tending a dozen or so oil pumping units.

With his polished speech and carefully trimmed white mustache, a conservative business suit would make him the exact picture of—well, a securities broker, perhaps.

NOT ANY MORE

That's exactly what he doesn't want to be. Not any more.

The fact is, 10 years ago he retired as a licensed securities broker. Now, after a career that involved handling millions of dollars in investments, at 73 Miller is content with a business that nets about $7 a day after taxes and royalties.

"It's like a ten-cent store," he said, "you have to watch the little items."

Miller contracts the drilling and now has 18 wells,

"about half a dozen of which are usually muddled up," he adds.

"We get about a barrel a day from each well—about 12 barrels."

Miller's oil lease is about 15 miles from Nacogdoches near the Melrose community.

The site is off the highway, down a red clay logging road and just around the bend from historic Oil Springs where Texas' first oil well was drilled in 1866.

He has a trailer house nearby and his home is in Houston. On most weekends, he drives to Houston or his wife comes to East Texas.

CURBSTONE OPERATOR

"I usually spend five or six days and then go back to Houston," he said. "But sometimes I'll let those few days stretch into two weeks."

Taking care of the pumping units takes about four hours a day. The rest of the time goes to fishing.

"I'm strictly a curbstone operator," he said.

When Miller retired in 1964, he loafed for the first six months but decided that wasn't for him.

"If a man sits down and doesn't want to get up, then he's ready for that long trip," he said.

POWER PROBLEM

Getting into the oil business was strictly an accident, he said.

"Shortly before I retired, I dealt in oil-producing properties for a company in Louisiana," he said. "They went broke, and I was paid off in oil leases."

As for the securities business, "I can't say that I miss it."

If Miller has regrets, it's that the shallow oil fields of Nacogdoches County aren't being developed to potential.

The problem is lack of electrical power.

"Generators are hard to find," he said. "With the oil shortage, every rig in the country is working."

FUB Declares One-Way Tickets To Anyone Unhappy With Life In U.S.?

Directors of First United Bancorporation Inc., the Fort Worth based multi-bank holding company, declared a cash dividend for the first quarter of 1975 during their meeting Jan. 21. The dividend amounts to 15 cents per share and is payable March 31, 1975, to shareholders of record March 17, 1975.

First United's network of subsidiary banks include First National Bank of Fort Worth, State National of Odessa, Cleburne National, Great Southwest National Bank in Arlington, Farmers-First National in Stephenville and Citizens National of Temple.

The corporation also owns interest in four Tarrant County banks, including Gateway National Bank, Seminary State Bank, Security State Bank and University Bank.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Texas congressman wants the government to provide one-way tickets out of the United States to anyone unhappy with life here.

Republican Rep. James M. Collins said the proposal would reduce hijackings by persons attempting to leave the United States and "provides for the relocation of people in our country who prefer a governmental system different from our Republic."

"If someone dislikes the United States so much that they want to live in another country, it is better for them and better for us that they leave," said Margaret Bryant, the congressman's legislative assistant.

"We're trying to encourage people who want to get out to get out," said the assistant. "A lot of people are unhappy with the United States, as evidenced by hijackings, and we're giving them a chance to leave."

A bill introduced by Collins would permit any citizen 21 years of age or older to apply to the secretary of state for free transportation to any foreign country. Upon application, U.S. citizenship would be renounced and after the person left the United States the right to reenter would be relinquished for 65 years.

Collins stressed that his bill does not call for deportation and that any decision to leave would be voluntary.

"Not only would the bill benefit those wishing to leave the country and those citizens wishing to see the retention of a safe Democratic

Bill Aimed At Slicing Cost Of Paperwork

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Bill Archer, R-Tex., introduced a bill aimed at reducing the cost of federal paperwork Tuesday.

The combined federal and public costs for record collection and management hit a staggering level of some $50 billion in 1973 alone and those costs were borne by the American consumer through taxes and increased costs for goods and services," Archer said.

His bill would strengthen the role of the General Services Administration in developing more efficient records management systems.

"This will mean eliminating duplication and unnecessary forms wherever possible," he said. Archer said that if all federal records in 1973 were put in one file drawer, the drawer would be more than 1,300 miles long.

"It's high time that we put an end to the wanton proliferation of costly, unnecessary federal forms and concentrate instead on the efficient use of only the forms that are absolutely necessary," he said.

Critically Vital Panel

Rep. Omar Burleson, who is congressman from this district, points out in his news letter this week that the joint House-Senate budget committee, of which he is a member, is beginning work on trying to get a better fix on probable revenues and probable expenditures for the next fiscal year.

As he pointed out, this is more than a formidable challenge; it is an almost critical task. Until now, the means of relating expenditures to revenue have been limited and ineffective. Congress simply did not have the tool for assessing the authorized and appropriated expenses which might come up in any one year, then comparing it with solid estimates on revenue. So much federal financing is by the back-door method—that is, programs authorized in previous years showing up for funding in future years with further action.

It generally is agreed that for the next couple of years the federal government will operate deeply in the red. Guesses range from $18 up to $50 billion or more deficit. Some experts think that the federal government could pay out $100 billion more than it takes in within the next two years.

This could create all sorts of problems, if not fiscal ruin. Obviously, the government would have to go on the market to borrow this, and that would mean shorter money supply and probably higher interest precisely at a time private sources need easier money at a more reasonable rate to finance improvements and production.

Moreover, already financing the federal debt is running past $30 billion a year. We can ill afford going on increasing this millstone.

Hence, if there was ever a time when the best of management techniques are brought to bear in controlling expenditures and trying to hold them to revenues, that time is now.

Whose Parking Space?

We note that the county is talking about more parking space on the courthouse lawn. One proposal is to reduce the grass and shrub area to provide more space.

Before getting into that, we want to know to what purpose this is being done. Has the number of emergency vehicles so increased that this is a pressing need, or is it for an official or employee space? If it is the latter, we can't see that Howard County is obligated to provide a parking place for an official or an employe simply because they are on the county payroll. Other taxpayers would or should be entitled to equal consideration. And that goes for other public agencies.

So, first of all, let's be certain we are talking about space only for emergency vehicles and for space of individuals physically incapacitated. Otherwise, if county officials feel they must be subsidized for parking (as a preferential treatment), buy or lease an off square lot and improve it. Don't go carving up the lawn.

Warning From Right

Rowland Evans

WASHINGTON — The White House has just been handed this tough warning from the Republican party's right wing: President Ford will be held responsible for any leftward drift on the part of vice president Nelson Rockefeller.

SPECIFICALLY, the warning concerns the biennial Senate fight on the anti-filibuster rule, Rule XXII, which may require a parliamentary decision by Rockefeller as presiding officer of the Senate. Clarke Reed, Mississippi state chairman and a nationally important conservative leader, put it bluntly to White House chief-of-staff Donald Rumsfeld last week: we will hold the President responsible for whatever Rockefeller does; we will blame the President if Rockefeller's ruling helps anti-filibuster forces.

ALTHOUGH PASSAGE of civil rights legislation has taken much of the old racial sting from the Senate Rule XXII, fight, conservatives want to retain the filibuster as a weapon against the liberal majority. But Reed's warning to the White House far transcends filibusters.

It is intended to put Mr. Ford on notice that, having nominated Rockefeller against the wishes of the right, he is now responsible for Rockefeller's actions. The toughness of the warning reflects a growing feeling in the Republican party, particularly among its conservatives, that Mr. Ford will not run in 1976.

DESPITE REED'S WARNING, there is no sign of the President giving any stage directions at all to his vice president on how to handle the rules fight. The White House says the decision is Rockefeller's. Rockefeller would clearly prefer to finesse the question by saying it is a matter for the Senate itself to decide. But that may be impractical, leading to the possibility of a ruling that would cause Mr. Ford new trouble with his party's conservatives.

SHOCK INSIDE the White House over Rep. Al Ullman's weighty threat to block President Ford's stiff levy on imported oil resulted in an unannounced top-level meeting to consider possible delays.

With Mr. Ford himself presiding, two option papers were examined—and discarded—with the majority, including Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, strongly arguing against any retreat.

But there was debate, and it centered on this politically dangerous aspect of the President's energy program: where will the political blame be placed if taxpayers are forced to buy high-cost fuel resulting from the import duty ($1 a barrel starting Feb. 1, $2 on March 1, $3 on April 1) but have to wait many months for the proposed 12 per cent income tax rebate?

DELAY COULD BE forced by lengthy congressional debate over the form of a tax cut, during which the overwhelmingly Democratic Congress will also be trying to repeal the oil import levy.

Although recognizing the risk that Mr. Ford, not the Democrats in Congress, could well get blamed by middle and low income families watching their home-heating bills rise month by month, consensus of advisors was that retreat before Rep. Ullman's threat would be far worse.

Forget The Alamo

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Last week it was reported in the newspapers that a Saudi Arabiansheik made an offer to buy the Alamo, Texas' most revered shrine. It seems Sheik Al-Aharis Al-Hamdan contacted a Houston lawyer; told him his son had been in San Antonio and had been taken with the beauty of the famed Texas fort. Since he loved his son very much, he wanted to buy it for him.

THE ATTORNEY immediately contacted Gov. Dolph Briscoe and was informed the Alamo was not for sale. This came as a surprise, since this is the first time since the oil crisis that anyone in the United States has refused to sell something to an Arab sheik.

But I'm sure there will be other calls from the Middle East concerning our monuments.

"This is Sheik Abdullah Ben Doom. I am looking for a small wedding gift for my daughter. What would you suggest?"

"Wal, Sheik, how about a priceless diamond necklace and tiara?"

"I HAD SOMETHING a little more sentimental in mind. When my daughter was a schoolgirl she visited the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City."

"Yes?"

"I would like to buy it for her."

"I'll check it out for you, Sheik — one Mormon Tabernacle. If for some reason it's not for sale could you give me a second choice?"

"SHE ALSO SAID she liked Yosemite National Park."

"Right. If I can't get Yosemite, do you think she'd take the Yellowstone National Park instead?"

"My daughter didn't say anything about Yellowstone. It has no sentimental value for her."

"What about Las Vegas, Sheik? It would be kind of fun when she cuts open the wedding cake to find the deed inside."

"IT'S TOO FRIVOLOUS. My daughter is a very serious person. Could you tell me how much they're asking for St. Patrick's Cathedral?"

"Not offhand, but I'll call the cardinal this afternoon and see if he'll accept an offer. You wouldn't consider the Metropolitan Museum of Art as an alternate would you?"

"I want something that has a little romance to it."

"There's always the Grand Canyon."

"I THINK that's a little showy."

"What about Princeton University?"

"Hm. That's not a bad idea. But I'll be honest with you. If I'm going to buy her a school, I'd rather buy her Oxford. It has a more antique feeling to it."

"By the way, what news do you have about my offer to buy Grant's Tomb for my grandson?"

"I'm working on it, Sheik, I'm working on it."

'Get Sick Now, Pay Later'

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP)—Many thousands of jobless workers already have lost or soon will lose their protection against medical expenses because of termination clauses in their health insurance contracts.

Although some large national Blue Cross plans, such as in the steel, automotive, telephone and oil industries, continue protection from four months to a year, the majority of plans protect the jobless worker for only 30 days.

The situation, which has gone relatively unnoticed, could cause severe personal hardship for the families of the unemployed as well as for many financially strained hospitals.

Already, said Alex McMahon, president of the American Hospital Association, medical institutions are preparing "get sick now, pay later" plans. Some hospitals will be badly pinched, he said.

The problem is worsened by the tendency of individuals to get sick more often during times of recession and unemployment, according to a study made by Blue Cross. McMahon said the hospital industry as a whole could meet the challenge, but said many institutions will have to borrow, postpone improvements, and reduce research and community activities.

There could be some deterioration in the quality of care, he said.

"We already have told hospitals to be very careful about committing their money," McMahon said. "We can't manufacture it." While inequitable, he said some hospitals might have to raise charges for patients able to pay.

The failure to protect laid-off workers during a time of financial stress seems to be a serious oversight on the part of unions, legislators and insurance officials, although most proposals for a national health insurance program contain remedies.

At the moment, however, three alternatives are open to the worker threatened with loss of hospital and medical insurance: 1. He or she can convert from company group coverage to nongroup individual coverage.

A Blue Cross study of 74 Blue Cross plans showed 38 offer a laid-off worker a conversion policy with the same benefits. In 36 plans the workers obtain less comprehensive coverage.

2. The jobless worker can apply for Medicaid. Eligibility varies from state to state, as do benefits.

3. If unable to qualify either for insurance or Medicaid, a jobless worker and his family can use the emergency rooms, clinics and outpatient departments of voluntary and municipal hospitals.

The Period And Exercise

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am 48. I am healthy and always have had regular periods.

I recently started a couple of rather strenuous exercise classes, putting pressure on the old stomach and uterus that have been relaxing so many years.

My period started shortly after this, then stopped in a couple of days until I resumed the exercises, then went a couple of days more.

Would this sudden, heavy exercise cause this change in my periods? I had my check-up not too long ago and there was nothing wrong. — Mrs. M.B.

I doubt that there is any cause and effect relationship between the exercise and the change in your periods. I suspect it is more of a coincidence.

At your age, menstrual irregularity, in the matter of time as well as quantity, is not uncommon. And having had an examination and been found normal, it should not worry you. However, it would be wise to be checked again in six months if the irregularity continues.

And incidentally, although you don't mention it in your letter, I would guess that the exercise was beneficial in reducing any of the discomfort you may have suffered in previous periods before the exercising. I have suggested to readers complaining of such discomfort that exercise can be helpful.

Note to R.M.: Ejaculatory incompetence can mean one of two things. It can mean that a climax is reached but without ejaculation of seminal fluid. This is unusual. The other possibility is that ejaculation occurs, but the fluid escapes backward into the bladder. This may follow prostate surgery. It is not equated with impotence, which means that the man cannot perform the sex act at all.

Low blood sugar is often the cause of faintness, headaches, visual and emotional disturbances. To learn how it can be identified and brought under control, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald for a copy of "Help for Hypoglycemia," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

No More Rights

Around The Rim

Marj Carpenter

Well, I've sat around and tried to ignore the issue, but I'm going to have to come out against equal rights for women. I hope Texas votes for repeal.

I've heard over and over the popular quip, "Women are only good for two things and one of them is cooking." I disagree. I think the most important thing we do as a woman (or as a person) is raise our children, if we've been fortunate enough to have children.

And when your children turn out well, you can feel womanly and proud.

bus gets up and gives me a seat.

I don't want Girl Scout Cookies to turn into Person Scout Cookies.

I even hate the word Chairperson. As far as I'm concerned, they're still chairmen.

I don't like the phrase Ms. When I was a Miss, I was proud that I was. When I was a Mrs., I was proud that I was. I think some Misses have contributed more to the world than some Mrs.'s. I've known dedicated teachers who never married, who helped children more than some of their mothers.

I have held what at one time was considered only a man's job. I've even been a sports reporter, which is still considered a man's job. Sometimes I had to battle a little, but I always got to hold the job that I desired.

I SOMETIMES use earthy language and I hope they don't instigate legislation for women using obscene language around men. I may be in trouble.

I want men to be men, and women to be women, and both of them do their very best in life to accomplish something worthwhile. As for the ones who are neither men or women, I don't give a hoot about them being able to marry. I wish they'd go crawl under a rock somewhere and take their rights with them.

I don't think women should just be a sex symbol, but if some women want to be, let them.

I've been a little too busy to worry about it — raising kids, making a living, helping when the children were small with their Sunday School classes and choir and scout groups, trying to be interested in the world around me, always trying to stand up for what I think is right, trying to stay informed, trying to help keep the public informed, trying to be a true friend to my friends, and just trying — from one day to the next. Please don't give me any more rights.

Private Eye Game

By JAY SHARBUTT

NEW YORK (AP)—It was a cold, grey day when I arrived at NBC to see "Archer," a new private eye series they say is on TV tonight. I was curious about it because I'm in the private eye game myself.

I had a whiskey, punched a guy tailing me, glommed a secretary and made sure my shoulder holster was tight. Then I entered the screening room. It was quiet there. Too quiet. You could hear a pin drop.

THE SHOW STARTED. It was still too quiet. A guy called Brian Keith, about 45, stocky, with straight teeth and a crooked smile, played Lew Archer. The credits said Lew Archer is a gumshoe created by Ross MacDonald, who writes books. So far, so good, I thought.

It was then I heard the pin drop. It fell as these healthy parents were telling Archer they'd gotten a letter from their 22-year-old son. He was doing 20 years in a Turkish slammer on a drug rap.

Somebody picked up the pin and muttered, "Excuse me." I paid no attention. The son's letter was more important at the time.

It said he could bribe his way out of jail if they'd give 50 big ones to a guy named Androcles, who was acting as a courier. The parents hired Archer to tail Androcles in case it was a flim-flam.

IT WAS A FLIM-FLAM, a serious one. Archer learned the kid was not in jail. The kid was in an underground radical group called "Lovers of the Earth." At least, that was the name of the group's VW bus.

The bus was at a Beverly Hills mansion surrounded by an electrified fence and guarded by two black watchdogs. The group and the mansion were run by a fuzzy-haired radical Archer knew was really a con man.

Only this customer was no ordinary bunco artist. He got his rich-kid, do-good followers to put the bite on their folks for big dough, using the old jail gag. Then he bumped them off.

It was quite a scam. He told the kids, who seemed to be nudging 30, he wanted to redistribute the world's resources.

ARCHER DECIDED to straighten him out. He got a pal to infiltrate the group. The pal was young, wealthy, and fuzzy-haired. He was also the editor of a radical underground paper called "Underground."

If you watch this show tonight, you'll learn the rest, maybe. At the end, I had a whiskey, punched a guy tailing me, glommed a secretary and made sure my shoulder holster was tight. Then I left the screening room. But something kept bothering me.

It was the pin. The one I heard drop in the screening room. I went back and found the guy who'd picked it up. He gave it to me. I took it to the police lab for analysis. Something was on the head of the pin.

Lt. Cofnowsky, a friend from the old days, gave me the report.

"It's the plot of a show called 'Archer,'" he said.

Intellectually, people like your husband know all the answers, but don't apply them to themselves. They are forever making promises to "straighten up." You should not take repeated abuse, however.

First of all, you need support from local people who can help you. Is there any way the folks at AA can be asked by your husband to help him? Then you would profit by joining the women's auxiliary. Norman Roberts, athletic director and football coach visited the Herald's sports department armed with literature and releases to publicize a worthwhile forthcoming sponsored Coahoma Quarterback Club event.

The club has booked Moore's nationally known All-American Red Heads for Coahoma's gym Monday night at 8. Coahoma's school faculty will provide stern competition.

Doors to the gym will swing open that night at 7. Tickets prices: Advance — adults, $2.00; high school students, $1.50; and grade school, $1.25; door — adults, $2.50; high school, $2; and grade school, $1.50.

The Red Heads have played before 10 million spectators in 29 seasons, playing men's teams only and playing strictly men's rules.

Known originally as the Swedes, they were taken off the road in 1935, and replaced by Red Heads.

All players were RED HEADED. Then came the change to All-American Red Heads as National AAU Stars of All-American status were added to the roster. In 1950, the Red Heads won 129 out of 169 played. In 1953, they were to surpass this with 134 wins — all against men.

Since 1936, the team has not failed to record at least 100 games or more each season. In 1972, the Red Heads won 558 games out of 642 played.

In 1955, Coach Orwell Moore bought the team from "Ole" Olsen. The Red Heads were moved to Caraway, Ark., in the spring of 1956, and at present the adopted home.

Articles featuring the famous girls have appeared through the years in top publications such as Life, Sports News, Sports Life, etc.

SUPERSTAR VICTOR — Professional volleyball player, Mary Jo Peppler, rounds a turn in the cycling event ahead of olympic skier Kiki Cutter. Peppler came from behind Wednesday taking first place in the basketball throw to win the women's Superstars event here and $34,100 with a 41 point total.

Coach Grabs Attention

EL PASO, Tex (AP) — A statuesque, 6-1, professional volleyball player who has yet to make her first serve for money, has become the first winner of the Women Superstars competition.

She is Mary Jo Peppler, player coach of the El Paso Juarez Sol volleyball team, one of seven franchises of the new International Volleyball Association which hopes to start activities later this year.

Miss Peppler who says "you learn to play volleyball for self-fulfillment, not for money or attention," grabbed a lot of attention Wednesday when she won the competition at Rotonda, Fla., defeating basketball player Karen Logan and diving champion Micki King.

The title came with $34,100 in prize money.

"I guess I started the Superstars competition as a darkhorse who got to be more of a lighthorse as time wore on," she said Wednesday.

"Things looked kind of dim for me," she said recalling that she was in third place going into the final day of competition.

"Maybe it was the fact that Laura Ching's dad gave me some good luck charms that helped me win," Miss Ching, a fellow competitor, finished fifth.

Miss Peppler graduated from Sul Ross State in Alpine, Tex., with a degree in physical education in 1971.

"I've been in athletics for more than 40 years," said Dr. Paul Pierce, Sul Ross physical education chairman.

"and I can say without fear she is the best woman athlete in the United States and probably the best in the world."

"She is an outstanding athlete and an outstanding person," he added. "She is intelligent and gracious. She is the type that would be the best at everything."

Miss Peppler moved to El Paso from Houston last year to join the Juarez-El Paso team in a league in which teams are made up of men and women.

Trojans Break Draft Record

NEW YORK (AP) — It started with excitement and anticipation when Atlanta selected quarterback Steve Bartkowski as the No. 1 choice in the National Football League's 40th annual collegiate draft.

It ended with a whimper, 20 hours, 56 minutes later with crumpled coffee cups as weary club representatives recorded Pittsburgh's selection of Nebraska guard Stan Hegener as the 442nd and final choice in the 1974 draft.

In between there were two days of drafting, 17 rounds, a number of important trades, and always the ominous shadow of Judge William T. Sweigert's remark that the whole exercise was "illegal and unreasonable."

Judge Sweigert delivered that opinion last month in his decision on Joe Kapp's suit against the NFL. Commissioner Pete Rozelle might have had that in mind when he began the draft by saying, "Order in the court."

By the time the draft had reached its conclusion, Southern California had set a record with 14 players selected, one more than the number picked from Ohio State. Nebraska was next with 12 picks followed by Maryland's 11 and 10 each by Oklahoma, Penn State and Notre Dame.

There were 244 offensive players chosen, 186 defensive selections and 12 punters or place kickers. Runners were the most prominent picks with 75 selected followed by 66 defensive backs, 54 linebackers and 48 wide receivers.

Bartkowski's selection by Atlanta came as the result of one of 18 trades involving established players. The Falcons had surrendered tackle George Kuntz to Baltimore for the draft's No. 1 selection.

In later deals, New Orleans swapped defensive end Billy Newsome to the New York Jets for their No. 1 choice, and Chicago picked up running back Sid Edwards from San Diego and tight end Greg Latta, a World Football League player who belonged to Baltimore, in exchange for a pair of third-round picks.

Washington, which doesn't care much for draft picks anyway, swapped a couple of them to Baltimore for guard Glen Ressler and wide receiver Cotton Speyrer.

Connors Evades Answer Sooner End Sports Briefs

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — What is billed as the heavy-weight championship of tennis has started to take on the appearance of a prize fight.

Jimmy Connors said Wednesday night that unless a "happy medium" was reached, his $100,000 winner-take-all match with Rod Laver might not come off as scheduled Sunday.

Laver, on the other hand, complained that the playing surface at Caesar's Palace was too fast — and asked that the tennis balls be removed from their containers a few days early to slow things down.

Connors' manager, Bill Riordan, said the world's No. 1-rated tennis player would refuse to meet Laver unless Pancho Gonzalez — the hotel's tennis pro — stepped down as referee.

Riordan, denying he was trying to generate publicity for the nationally-televised match, said Laver and Connors had agreed to another referee. He said he and Gonzalez had gotten into a shouting argument on the telephone over the matter.

But Gonzalez denied it and added, "Frankly, I'm tired of him and his penny-ante acts."

Riordan said Connors had agreed the issue was worth calling off the match over.

But Connors evaded a yes-or-no answer when asked if he would pull out if Gonzalez remained as referee.

Connors did say, "We're going to have to reach a happy medium some time before one minute to 10 Sunday morning or maybe there'll be no match."

Most observers felt the controversy was built up because Connors has been a close friend of Gonzalez, who served as his coach for several years.

Gonzalez said there had been no agreement on who was to referee, but added he would step aside if it meant cancelling the match.

Connors did say, "We're going to have to reach a happy medium some time before one minute to 10 Sunday morning or maybe there'll be no match."

NEW YORK (AP) — The sleeper of the National Football League draft may be a young giant who hasn't played serious college football in two years but still was good enough to make an all-star post-season game last month.

He's John Carroll of Oklahoma, a 6-foot-5, 220-pounder who "probably would have been our starting wide receiver but for a knee injury," according to Coach Barry Switzer of the national champions.

Carroll, a blue-chipper until he hurt his knee was drafted in the sixth round by the San Diego Chargers.

Except for doing Oklahoma's punting and a little placekicking, he only appeared in two games last fall as a wide receiver and didn't catch a pass.

"We were just blowing people out when I got in and we didn't really want to score," he said.

But Carroll impressed the scouts in the Blue-Gray Game, catching several passes and doing the punting and placekicking.

"I think I can make it with the Chargers," he said. "All I know is I'm the first wide receiver they took."

Switzer agrees.

"He's a great athlete," the coach said. "He was also a great basketball player and a great track man. Not many guys his size have his kind of speed. He runs a consistent 4.7 forty and he's done 4.6. I think he can be a pro tight end as well as a wide receiver."

Carroll played split end on a team that didn't throw much in 1972, catching 17 passes for 343 yards and three touchdowns. He hurt his knee in the second game of the season but continued to play until the next-to-last game, when he re-injured it and required surgery.

The previous year, he led the nation in kick scoring with 80 points on 53 conversions and nine field goals and booted a 53-yarder against Auburn in the Sugar Bowl.

In the spring of '73, Oklahoma needed a tight end so Carroll, an all-around athlete, was tried there.

"My knee injury really wasn't that serious, but it didn't have a chance to heal," he said. "It was only a cartilage, not a ligament. I'm okay now."

Unfortunately for Carroll, while he was sidelined, Tin Sogul w Billy Brooks, both exceptional receivers, moved ahead of him.

"I told the coaches I was healthy," he said, "but Owens and Brooks were established and they could do the job. I'm just glad they let me punt."

TENNIS

LONDON — The All-England Tennis Club announced prize money at Wimbledon this year will surpass $250,000 for the first time.

RICHMOND, Va. — Top-seeded Bjorn Borg of Sweden defeated Hans Kary of Austria 6-0, 6-1 in the first round of the Richmond World Championship Tennis Tournament.

DAYTON, Ohio — Fourth-seeded Harold Solomon of Silver Spring, Md. scored a 6-0, 6-2 victory over Ivan Molina of Colombia in the second Dayton Professional Tennis Classic.

ROANOKE, Va. — Roger Dowdeswell of Rhodesia overcame a 4-2 deficit in the tiebreaker of the final set to oust third-seeded Juan Gisbert of Spain 6-2, 3-6, 7-6 in the first round of the $25,000 Roanoke International Tennis Tournament.

MERRIFIELD, Va. — Janet Newberry recorded a second-round 6-2, 6-4 upset over France's Francoise Durr to join No. 2 seed Margaret Court and fourth-seeded Virginia Wade in advancing to the third round of the $75,000 Women's Professional Tennis Tournament.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL EAST STROUDSBURG, Pa. — Dennis Douds, a nine-year veteran of the East Stroudsburg State College coaching staff, was named head football coach.

Karras, 'I'm Blind'

NEW YORK (AP) — Take away Alex Karras' glasses and the erudite ex-tackle resembles Samson without his hair — powerless.

Karras is very blunt about his eyes. "I'm blind," he says simply.

Really now, Alex, what is your vision? "Zero-Zero."

During his All-Pro National Football League career with the Detroit Lions, Karras wasn't terribly concerned about his eyes. After all, seeing where you're going isn't what's important to a defensive lineman. Getting there is what counts.

Once, the Lions figured that if Karras was an All-Pro without being able to see anything, he'd be even better if they lifted him with contact lenses.

It seemed like a good idea but it didn't work.

"It was an entirely different type of game," said Karras, when he put on the contacts and saw what was going on around him.

Karras had become used to chasing shadows and locating the ball carrier by the flow of the play. Now he didn't need that extra sensory perception but he found he didn't play as well without it.

"I just didn't like it at all," he says. "I was used to compensating so much for my problem that seeing actually threatened to destroy the whole way I had learned to play the game. I lost all my instinctive moves and wasn't as sensitive."

The experiment lasted only one game and afterwards, Karras went back to what he describes as his Braille system of playing defense.

Actually, his vision problems turned out to be an advantage for Karras, who now broadcasts football games instead of playing in them. All those fancy fakes in the backfield were wasted on him. He couldn't see them.

Robert C. Simmons, an optometrist from Clinton, Iowa who has treated Karras, said his patient's problem is nearsightedness. "He mostly sees shadows, fuzzy masses unless he is wearing glasses," said Dr. Simmons.

So, Karras, who has worn glasses since he was seven years old, dutifully donned them whenever he left the football field.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland Indians' General Manager Phil Seghi announced that he signed six more Cleveland Indians to their 1975 baseball contracts Wednesday.

The new signers were outfielders John Lowenstein and John Jeter and pitchers Tom Buskey, Bruce Ellingsen, Eric Raich and Bob Grossman.

Twenty-three of the 38 players on the roster have now signed.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Refunds due Cleveland Browns' 1971 season ticket holders under the government's Phase I price freeze regulations that year have been mailed out, the Browns announced Wednesday.

The refund involves the preseason doubleheader and the first five regular season games of 1971 through Oct. 31.

Purchasers of single game tickets for the six games, who kept their ticket stubs may secure refunds by mailing their ticket stubs with a stamped self-addressed envelope to the Browns.

TOKYO (AP) — Koichi Wajima of Japan, the world junior middleweight boxing champion, will make his first title defense against Yuh Jae Do of South Korea sometime in June.

when Wilson James scored a field goal with 1:13 remaining to send Western Kentucky ahead 87-85. Odemns scored with 25 seconds to go, but LaSALLE'S Charlie Wise came right back to cut the margin to two again with 16 seconds left.

With nine seconds left, LaSalle got a break when Odemns was called for traveling, but Western Kentucky stole the inbounds pass and Johnny Britt dribbled in for the final field goal.

LaSalle, which was up 46-38 at halftime, was led by Taylor and Bryant, each with 22 points.

Donnie Von Moore scored 17 points as Kansas whipped outmanned Colorado. The victory left the defending Big Eight champion Jayhawks at 3-1 in the conference, one-half game behind Nebraska, 4-0.

In other college basketball games, 10th-ranked North Carolina whipped Wake Forest 101-91; No. 13 Marquette stopped Xavier 73-55 and No. 20 Kansas breezed past Colorado 81-59.

LaSalle's 11-game winning streak went out the window

'SAVE' RULE Relievers Must Finish Contest

NEW YORK (AP) — Relief pitchers must finish a game in order to qualify for a "save," according to new baseball rules announced today.

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn also announced that the Official Playing Rules Committee has approved new regulations dealing with specifications for bats and for errant throws by a pitcher which end up out of play.

Proposed by the Baseball Writers' Association of America, the new pitching rule now requires relief hurlers to qualify under three categories in order to get credit for a save.

The rule stipulates that a relief pitcher credited with a save when he is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his team and is not the winning pitcher.

He also must enter the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitch for at least one inning; or enter the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck; or he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Prior to now, it was possible for more than one pitcher to qualify under the previous provisions. If that happened, the scorer was to credit the save to the pitcher he judged to have been the most effective, or not to credit a save at all.

The new bat specifications were caused by some players using a "cupped" bat — one with an indentation on the thick end. At its annual convention in December, baseball approved legislation to eject from the game and give a three-day suspension to any player using an illegally filled or doctored bat.

Another rule strengthened in the December meeting directs umpires to eject any pitcher who is found to have a foreign substance on him or in his possession. The previous rule had allowed for a warning prior to ejection.

The other rule clarification just approved allows a runner or batter-runner to advance two bases if a ball pitched to the batter or thrown by the pitcher from the rubber to a base "remains on the playing field, and is subsequently kicked or deflected into the dugout, stands or other area where the ball is dead."

The runner is entitled to only one base is the ball goes directly to a dead ball area — without additional impediments.

MOD Day Ellen Cooley Included In Reserve Class Here Friday

March of Dimes Day will be observed on radio stations KHEM and KFNE-FM Friday rather than today, as previously announced, according to Vaughn Martin, chairman of the Caprock MOD chapter.

The dawn-to-dusk marathon will accept donations throughout the day. All revenue will be used to fight birth defects.

Two other local stations, KBST and KBYG, will also dedicate the day to the local March of Dimes campaign, giving spot announcements throughout the day to the crusade.

The Mothers' March for donations, which got under way here the past Monday, will be extended to the Washington School and Cedar Crest School areas Friday, it has also been announced.

Collections to date exceed the total raised last year, although the exact total is not yet known.

Martin again urged local citizens to support the crusade, pointing out that birth defects is a national problem. One in every ten families personally is hit by the tragedy, he pointed out, and the only way the ratio is going to be diminished is through research and consecrated effort.

Crocker Enters Council Race

H. V. (Burr) Crocker has filed as a candidate for the city council in Place No. 4. The election date is April 1.

He retired from the Big Spring fire department May 1, 1971 with 42 years service, 28 of them as chief.

"Realizing that the city has many problems," he said, "I ask for the opportunity of service to our citizens in helping meet these problems and make our city a still better one."

"I served under six city managers and always managed to live with the budget of my department, and most of the time was able to return some of the allotted funds to the city. It is and always has been an aim of mine to see that the taxpayer received a dollar's value for each dollar of his taxes."

"I am not running against anyone, but on my own in the hope of being of service to our community."

Crocker and his wife, Lona, a retired Licensed Vocational Nurse, live at 1707 Benton, their home for 41 years and where they reared their four children, Ann Miller, Lubbock; Malinda Blackburn, Dallas; H. V. Crocker Jr., Big Spring, and John W. Crocker, Eastland.

He is a member of the First Methodist Church and of its men's class, Chamber of Commerce for 30 years, American Association of Retired People, and fraternal orders.

While he was with the fire department, city firemen began repairing toys in 1931 for needy children and helped found the Firemen's Cheer Fund with the late R. W. Whipkey to get funds for parts, supplies, etc.; also joined with Mr. Whipkey and Mrs. Tom Phillips to found the Milk and Ice Fund. He has been active in numerous other affairs over the year.

THRIFTY STROGANOFF made with chicken and reduced calorie count by cooking with low-fat yogurt, also helps in the money end of grocery buying. Pretty mismatched serving dishes were bought in thrift shop.

Thrifty Stroganoff With Chicken And Yogurt

For the budget's sake, settle on chicken, an economical main dish that you can make into an elegant Yogurt Chicken Stroganoff. And stretch the budget still further by substituting low fat yogurt in place of sour cream in the sauce. The flavor will still be rich and the texture creamy, but your calorie budget won't be strained!

As for the cook, Yogurt Chicken Stroganoff is virtually a no work entree. Do the onion chopping and chicken slicing early in the day, then put the whole stroganoff together in a matter of minutes.

YOGURT CHICKEN STROGANOFF
1-3rd cup chopped onion
1 1/2 cups sliced mushrooms (4 ounces)
2 tbsps. butter
2 1/2 level tbsps. flour
1 (10 1/2 oz.) can condensed chicken broth
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. dill weed

1/4 tsp. prepared mustard
1 (8 oz.) container low fat yogurt
1 tsp. sugar
2 cups cooked chicken strips
1 1/2 tbsps. chopped parsley
1 large tomato, sliced

Saute onion and mushrooms lightly in butter. Sprinkle with flour, and mix well. Add broth, salt, dill weed and mustard, and simmer 5 minutes. Stir in yogurt and sugar; heat, stirring, until smooth. Add chicken and 1 tablespoon parsley; cook over low heat a few minutes longer until piping hot. Turn into serving dish and garnish with half slices tomato and remaining parsley. Makes about 3 cups (4 servings).

Mocha Velvet Is Dieter's Dessert

If you've been on a diet (that's always a good reason for a shopping spree!), then Mocha Velvet won't set you too far back in calories. Low fat milk has fewer calories than whole milk — almost half the butterfat content has been removed! Although the recipe calls for a half cup of sugar, this stretches to make six to eight servings of Mocha Velvet, so sugar is minimal per person.

Prepare this easy-do pudding before you go out. Just be sure your refrigerator raiders know that this is for you after your return! Pour yourself a steaming cup of coffee and help yourself to mocha velvet. Now that's a real bargain!

MOCHA VELVET
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup sugar
2 1/2 tbsps. unsweetened powdered cocoa
1 1/2 tbsps. freeze dried instant coffee
1/2 tsp. salt

3 cups low fat milk
1/2 tsp. rum extract
3 egg whites
Cinnamon
Combine gelatin, 1/4 cup sugar, cocoa powder, coffee and salt, and mix well. Stir in 1 cup milk. Heat slowly, stirring, until gelatin and coffee are dissolved. Stir in remaining cold milk and rum extract. Set pan in ice water to chill until mixture begins to thicken and jell. Beat egg whites to soft peaks. Gradually beat in remaining 1/2 cup sugar to make meringue. Chill a few minutes longer, until mixture mounds on a spoon. Spoon into glasses; chill until set. Sprinkle lightly with cinnamon before serving. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Spicy Sauce For Chicken Diet Dish

Good news to dieters is the combination of low-calories canned fruits that can be paired with chicken to make a really taste-satisfying main dish.

A 1-pound can of low-calories chunks may be used in the place of the 8-ounce can of pineapple slices.

DIETER'S CHICKEN WITH PINEAPPLE
1 broiler fryer (about 3 pounds)
1/4 cup soy sauce
2 tbsps. lemon juice
1 large clove garlic, crushed
1 tsp. minced peeled fresh ginger, if available
1 can (8 ounces) low-calorie sliced pineapple

Have the chicken cut into serving-size pieces: 2 wings, 2 pieces of breast, 2 legs, 2 second joints, 2 pieces of boned back meat. (Use giblets and liver in some other dish.) Wash and dry chicken.

On a small platter or similar dish, thoroughly mix together the soy sauce, lemon juice, garlic and ginger. Turn chicken pieces in this marinade and allow to stand for a few hours, turning once or twice.

Remove chicken from marinade and arrange on a rack in a shallow pan. (Reserve marinade.) Place pan so chicken is about 6 to 8 inches from high heat. Broil until charred looking on one side (10 to 20 minutes); turn.

Drain pineapple (reserving juice) and add to pan under chicken. Spoon reserved marinade over pineapple. Continue broiling until chicken is charred looking on top side and is tender — about 10 minutes longer.

Remove chicken and pineapple to serving dish; remove rack from pan. Add the reserved pineapple juice to the pan; stir over low heat to get up drippings; serve this sauce with the chicken and pineapple. Makes 6 servings.

Turnips Mixed With Apples

A vegetable and fruit are paired with an interesting dressing.

Medium-size white turnip, pared and thinly sliced (2-3rds cup)
Large apple, unpared and sliced (1 and 2-3rds cup)
1 tbsp. cider vinegar
2 tbsps. peanut oil
1 tsp. soy sauce
1 tsp. sugar
Salt and white pepper to taste
1 tbsp. sesame seeds, toasted

Mix together all the ingredients except the sesame seeds; sprinkle with the seeds. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

Don't Cut Out Nutrients When Lowering Calories

COLLEGE STATION — For many people, the holiday season is directly followed by the "January Blues" — when they're trying to lose those excess pounds gained during the holidays.

"Cutting down on calories, not valuable nutrients, is the important thing to remember when reducing," Sally Springer, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said this week.

The four sources of calories in a daily diet are fats, carbohydrates, protein and alcohol. But in addition to supplying calories, fat, carbohydrates and protein also perform specific body functions. For that reason, they shouldn't be completely eliminated from the diet," the specialist advised.

She suggested trying to avoid high-calorie foods such as concentrated sweets or fats that supply few other

Calorie Counters Like Seafood, Apple Combo

There's little difference in apple varieties as far as calorie count goes, but performance is something else. Choose the Winesap or Golden Delicious for all purposes, both fresh and cooked, but select the Red Delicious variety for all fresh uses, such as salads and fruit cups. Any one of these varieties are good for a between-meal or late-evening snack. The Winesap has a tart, tangy flavor; the Golden Delicious has a sweet, delicate flavor; and the Red Delicious, tall, broad-shouldered and with five points at the blossom end, is a juicy, richly flavored apple.

CRABMEAT WALDORF
3 apples, unpared, cored and diced
2 tbsps. lemon juice
2 cups flaked crabmeat
2 tbsps. chopped pickle

2 tbsps. chopped pimiento
1 small-size cucumber, pared and sliced
Salad greens
1 apples
2 hard-cooked eggs, quartered.

Sprinkle lemon juice on diced apples. Toss with crabmeat, pickles, pimiento and cucumber. Serve on a bed of salad greens on individual salad plates. Core and slice remaining unpared apple; garnish salad with apple slices and egg quarters. Makes 4 servings.

BAKED APPLES WITH SHRIMP
2 apples
1 cup tiny shrimp, fresh or canned
2 chicken bouillon cubes
1 cup boiling water
1 tsp. dehydrated onion flakes
1/2 tsp. curry powder
1 tsp. lemon juice

Boston lettuce or watercress

Remove core, hollow out center of each apple to make a cup about 1/2-inch thick. Combine scooped out apple with shrimp. In a saucepan, dissolve bouillon cubes in water, stir in onion flakes, curry powder and lemon juice. Simmer about 5 minutes to blend flavors. Combine half of bouillon with apple-shrimp mixture, spoon into apple cups. Place in small baking dish, pour remaining bouillon over and around apples. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 20-25 minutes. Serve on a bed of lettuce or watercress. Makes 2 servings.

Mayonnaise Is Easy To Make

This fabulous easy-do mayonnaise is only 16 calories per tablespoon — and it's good!

EASY LOW-CAL MAYONNAISE
1 cup part-skim ricotta cheese
Juice of 1 lemon
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. dry mustard

1 tsp. celery salt
1 hard-boiled egg (a few drops sweetener, optional)

Peel the egg and put it in your blender along with everything else and go — about two minutes worth, or until the egg is thoroughly dissolved and everything is creamy smooth. Refrigerate to thicken.

Jackson Will Not Chalk Up 'Scoop' With Announcement

WASHINGTON (AP) — On the night of Feb. 6, following the CBS Thursday Night Movie, Sen. Henry M. "Scoop" Jackson of Washington will give the nation the unsurprising news he is a candidate for the 1976 Democratic presidential nomination.

For Jackson, his formal announcement will make little difference in a campaign that has been going on ever since the 1972 Democratic nominating convention.

OUTFRONT
There has been no question for months that the 62-year-old Jackson, long a Senate power, would try again for the presidency despite a 1972 bid that flopped.

Many party leaders consider him the front-runner, although his 10 per cent rating in the latest Gallup Poll puts him in fourth spot behind Gov. George C. Wallace, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. George McGovern, the latter two noncandidates.

Because of that status, and the fact that he is deeply involved in the congressional work, Jackson's activities after Feb. 6 won't be much different than they have been for the past year.

BEST PLATFORM
"His best platform is the Senate. He's going to operate from that position," said Robert G. Keefe, the former executive director of the Democratic National Committee who became political director of the Jackson Planning Committee on Dec. 1.

Keefe worked in 1972 for Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and for the AFL-CIO effort to stop McGovern.

Jackson, meanwhile, will continue to challenge the oil companies and the Ford administration as chairman of the Interior Committee and the Permanent Investigations subcommittee.

He'll continue his efforts for increased Jewish emigration from Russia despite the Soviet blast at his amendment in the trade act that tied concessions to Russia to the easing of restrictions against emigration.

F-15 After Webb Mark

The Air Force's new McDonnell-Douglas F-15 eagle is currently attempting to break several world time-to-climb records. Some of the records the F-15 is aiming for were once held by a Northrop T-38 Talon that has been in Webb AFB's inventory since 1962.

The former world record holding aircraft, Tail Number 61849, set world marks in four categories Feb. 19, 1962. The T-38 reached 3,000 meters in 35.6 seconds; 6,000 in 51.4; 9,000 in 64.8; and 12,000 in 95.7 seconds.

James Holloway, base quality control inspection foreman under the Chief of Maintenance who has been at Webb since 1952, remembered the aircraft's arrival here a few months after it set the world marks. Holloway said that the aircraft was one of the first T-38s Webb received.

Since its record setting performance, the aircraft has logged more than 6,435 flying hours. This T-38 averages nearly 40 flying hours per month as the 13-year-old craft continues to train Webb student pilots.

The F-15 is scheduled to make its record breaking attempts at the 3,000-6,000-9,000-12,000 and 15,000 meter records this month. Those marks are currently held by the McDonnell-Douglas F-4 Phantom. It will also try to capture the world marks held by the Soviet Mig-25 Foxbat in the 20,000-25,000 and 30,000-meter climb.

The F-15 will be flying out of Grand Forks AFB, N.D.

French Singer Seeks Divorce

SAN MONICA, Calif. (AP) — French singer and actress Claudine Longet has filed for divorce from singer Andy Williams.

Miss Longet's petition, filed Monday in Santa Monica Superior Court, seeks custody of the couple's three children plus child support and alimony.

The 34-year-old actress and Williams, 47, were married in 1961 and separated in 1970.

Committee, meanwhile, Jackson will be busily challenging the new U.S. Soviet arms limitation understanding on grounds it sets proposed missile limits too high.

These activities will assure continued appearances by Jackson on the nation's television screens, after his Feb. 6 announcement.

With a higher "recognition factor" already than his most active 1976 rivals, Rep. Morris K. Udall of Arizona, former Gov. Jimmy Carter of Georgia and Sen. Lloyd M. Bentsen of Texas, he won't have to spend the year trying to get known.

"We hope to use this year largely for raising money," Keefe said, noting that the Jackson Planning Committee already has raised some $1.25 million from 28 states, the broadest financial base of any presidential hopeful besides Wallace.

IT'S IMPORTANT
Beyond that, Keefe said, Jackson will compete in a number of presidential primaries — which ones depends on the schedule — and he acknowledged their importance.

"It's important that Henry Jackson show well in early primaries," Keefe said. "Based on the fact of the 1972 experience, that's something we're now forced to demonstrate."

He noted that in his home state of Washington, Jackson has always been a big vote-getter, winning 87 per cent in the primary and 82 per cent in the general election in 1970.

In 1972, however, Jackson managed only 13 per cent of the vote in a third-place finish in the Florida primary after a heavy effort. He did even more poorly in Wisconsin and Ohio and dropped out of the race, only to wind up second at the nominating convention when the anti-McGovern faction united behind him.

LABOR LEADERS
"Conditions in 1976 appear to be much different than in 1972," Keefe said, noting that Jackson was under-financed in 1972 and was competing with the better-known Sens. Edmund S. Muskie and Humphrey for the support of party regulars, old-line labor leaders and the influential Jewish contributors in New York, California and Florida who mainly backed Humphrey.

This time, Jackson likely will have considerable labor support. And he will have the backing of many of the Jewish contributors, the result of his long efforts for funds and arms for Israel and increased Jewish emigration from Communist countries.

Jackson will be opposed, however, by many party liberals, largely because of his long support of major Pentagon projects and the Vietnam war.

Jackson has been trying to change that, however. He campaigned last fall for three prominent antiwar "doves," Reps. Abner Mikva of Illinois and Andrew Jacobs Jr. of Indiana, and former Rep. Allard Lowenstein of New York.

To Face Murder Charges

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Robert Kleasen was remanded to the jurisdiction of state district court today to face murder charges in the deaths of two Mormon missionaries.

U.S. District Court Judge Jack Roberts said a federal firearms charge would remain against Kleasen. "He is remanded to the state court for a reasonable period of time, but not for an indefinite time," Roberts said.

Kleasen, 42, was arrested last Nov. 5 on a charge he lied about not being under a felony indictment when he bought a .22-caliber rifle.

On Nov. 13, he was charged with capital murder in the deaths of Gary Darley, 20, of Simi Valley, Calif., and Mark Fischer, 19, of Milwaukee, Wis.

PLENTY OF PARKING SPACE What Happens To Ex-Gas Stations?

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — What happens to gasoline stations forced to close because of the energy crisis? They become drive-in banks, jewelry stores, printing plants, florist shops. Even a doughnut bakery.

They have plenty of parking, ideal locations, are attractive to business and generally need little conversion.

Regis McCann took over an old station in suburban Abington Township and turned it into a carpeted display area for plants, lowers, vases, pots and other gardening accessories.

"I have sizable space for a lot less money than I'd pay in a shopping center. And also it's a lot more practical," he says.

He covered the concrete floors of the two service bays with wooden slats to simplify watering the plants. In the summer he opens the glass-paneled overhead doors to give the place an open market look.

Robert C. Groves converted his station into a construction office, and still uses one pump to gas up his trucks.

"People just don't read our sign out front," says Groves' secretary, Terry Ruschmeyer. "When one of our trucks is getting filled up, other cars pull in right behind it and the drivers are really annoyed."

"Some ask to use the rest-rooms, or else they want to know where we keep our pay phone. One out of five people who pass by stares in, and that makes me feel like a monkey in a cage. But it's really a nice, bright, sunny place to work."

Charles Kahn Jr., a Philadelphia realtor, moved a doughnut maker into two shuttered stations.

"Their kind of operation lends nicely to the old service station facility," Kahn says. "The bays can be used for the bakery and the front salesroom for the doughnut counter."

DEAN WILL REAP $175,000 Wages Of Watergate

WASHINGTON (AP) — John W. Dean III, out of his prison denims for less than a month, begins a Watergate lecture tour Sunday which will earn him at least $175,000 over the next nine weeks.

Unlike a similar campus tour planned by former White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler, Dean's plans so far have stirred little complaint from those who believe no one should profit from Watergate.

Dean will speak in more than 50 college lecture halls through the first week of April at an average fee of $3,500 for each two-hour appearance. The first one at the University of Virginia will pay him $4,000, according to school officials.

Robert Walker, president of the Boston lecture bureau handling Dean's appearances, said the demand for Dean's speeches is the highest that Walker has encountered in 15 years in the business. "ALL BY HIMSELF" "Dean is in a class all by himself," Walker said Wednesday.

When he was released Jan. 8 by U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica, Dean had served four months of a one-to-four year prison term for his self-acknowledged role in the Watergate cover-up.

Despite his repeated telling of the Watergate story before various forums, Dean apparently remains the most fascinating of Richard M. Nixon's former White House aides.

John Herring, the University of Virginia official who administers the lecture and concert program at the Charlottesville, Va., campus, said students had tried to book Dean for a speech before he entered prison.

CENSORSHIP Of the 4,500 persons likely to hear the former White House counsel's first speech, Herring said, "Personally I would like to see them turn their backs and walk out on him."

However, Herring said he opposes any move to block Dean's appearance for whatever reason, saying: "That's still censorship."

Except for a minor and confused dispute over whether television cameras and tape recorders would be allowed at the Virginia speech, the only dissenting voice heard about the Dean appearance has come from the student newspaper. An editorial said $4,000 was too much to pay for the views of a convicted felon and disgraced lawyer.

IT'S UNFAIR

At Michigan State in East Lansing, however, a speech planned Feb. 25 by Ziegler has stirred calls for demonstrations and a boycott.

Ziegler is to be paid $2,500 for his lecture on "Uses and Abuses of Power," and the student government has withdrawn an earlier commitment to pay half the cost.

While the university now will pick up the full tab, the elected student council said in a resolution Tuesday, "It's unfair that Ziegler should continue getting rich as a result of his participation in an attack on the American people on behalf of special interests."

Michigan State became the first stop on Ziegler's tour when students at Boston University voted Monday to cancel his Feb. 26 speech on their campus.

Drilling Ahead

Drilling in the United States is running 18.15 per cent above that of a year ago, the Jan. 27 report of Hughes Tool Co. to the International Association of Drilling Contractors shows.

There were 1,681 rigs running on that date, up 246 from a year ago. Of course, 610 were in Texas, a gain of 174, or 39.90 per cent over the comparable date in 1974.

Four Councils Set To Meet

Four Big Spring Chamber of Commerce councils and committees will hold their first meetings after reorganization in the next few days, according to Chamber Manger Terry Hanson.

The first meeting is slated for Friday at noon when the Family Counseling Committee of the Public Affairs Council will gather at the La Posada Restaurant. Julian Patterson is chairman of that committee.

Next Tuesday, Feb. 4, the Community Development Council, headed by Daryle Hohertz, Chamber vice president, will meet at noon in the Patio Room of the Holiday Inn.

Next Wednesday, the Economic Development Council, headed by Clyde McMahon Sr., Chamber vice president, will meet at noon at the Ramada Inn.

And Thursday, Feb. 6, the Public Affairs Council, headed by Dr. Clarence Peters, Chamber vice president, will meet at noon at Cokers Restaurant.

Council members are urged to attend these meetings.

Few Changes Are Made On Newest Tax Forms

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following is the first in a series of five articles entitled "Coping With Your Income Tax." They were written to help taxpayers prepare their 1974 tax returns.

By EDMOND Le BRETON
WASHINGTON (AP) — If you prepared your income tax return successfully last year, you're off to a flying start on the chore for this year.

The forms have not been changed much and there are practically no new provisions of law or regulation that affect the ordinary taxpayer. This has not been true in the past few years.

So you can use your copy of last year's return as a guide, noting a few differences.

The one that will probably concern most taxpayers has to do with interest and dividend income.

If either interest or dividend income exceeded $400, you may not use the simple 1040A short form. You must use the longer Form 1040. Moreover, if your income in either category exceeded $400, you may not just list the total, but must itemize, using Schedule B. The Internal Revenue Service eliminated Schedule B last year, but now is bringing it back. It contends that deleting the schedule that provides for itemizing didn't really help taxpayers, because they had to list the items of interest and dividends on work papers to arrive at the total — so Schedule B is simply a worksheet. Accountants also, it appears, liked the schedule.

Another change of wide application reflects IRS' continuing effort to satisfy critics of its handling of the presidential campaign checkoff provision. This is the provision for designating $1 of income tax — $1 each for a couple filing jointly — to go into a fund for public financing of presidential campaigns. The checkoff is optional and using it does not add $1 to the amount owed by a taxpayer — it simply earmarks $1 of the tax he would be paying anyway.

When the checkoff was introduced in 1972, only 3.1 per cent of taxpayers participated, earmarking some $4 million. The checkoff form that year was on a separate piece of paper — an arrangement for which IRS was severely criticized. The law was changed to require that the checkoff box must be put on the return form itself, where taxpayers would be likely to notice it.

This was done in 1973 and provision was made also for taxpayers who had not checked the box in 1972 to do so retroactively for the previous year.

Participation jumped to 13.6 per cent, yielding $17 million, and in addition 7 per cent of taxpayers took advantage of the retroactive provision, earmarking another $8.8 million.

This year the box appears prominently on both short and long forms and taxpayers are asked to check "yes" or "no" rather than just using or ignoring the space. There is no designation of party. The money goes into a fund which the candidates participate, if they choose, under a formula based largely on voting participation.

For a relatively small segment of taxpayers, the new pension law made a significant change.

It benefits self-employed persons who have an individual retirement plan — generally known as a "Keogh Plan."

In the past, 10 per cent of self-employment income could be put aside in a Keogh plan and deducted from current income for tax purposes. When the money was drawn out on retirement, it would be taxable. The limit on the amount invested and deducted each year was $2,500.

The 1974 law increased the percentage to 15 and the limit to $7,500.

Moreover, it provides special advantages for persons with a small income from self-employment — typically those whose self-employment is a secondary source of income from a part-time business, or professional, literary or consulting activity.

As much as $750 may be placed by such persons in a Keogh plan, provided they earn that much from self-employment, without regard to the 15 per cent provision.

The Keogh increases applied to 1974 income. If you were eligible and did not take advantage of the change, by establishing a plan for stepping up your contribution to an existing one, it is of course too late to affect the return you will be preparing now. But it is something to keep in mind from now on.

Moreover, beginning this year, employed persons whose employers do not provide a retirement plan may establish their own along lines somewhat similar to the Keogh plan. If you are in this situation, you should check out the possibilities. Savings institutions, brokers of the IRS can provide information.

FDA's Food, Drug Labels Explained

Leaders of the Howard County home demonstration clubs, and other interested club members, met Monday in the Texas Electric Reddy Room for a leadership training program on nutrition labeling.

The program, entitled "Read the Label, Set a Better Table", was conducted by Mrs. Miriam Curry, dietitian for Dairy Council, Inc. Midland, and introduced the new Food and Drug Administration labeling program designed to make food labeling more informative as an aid to better nutrition. The new labeling program provides information that the American consumer can use to identify and select more nutritious foods.

Food provides us with the nutrients we require each day to stay healthy. No single food can supply all nutrients needed, and nutrition labels tell us what nutrients each food contains. In addition, smart shoppers can use labels to help count calories, people on special diets recommended by physicians can use nutrition labels to help avoid restricted foods, and any one can read labels on new food on the market to see what nutrients they supply. These labels can also be used to compare cost per serving on different brands, thereby enabling the consumer to spend her nutrition dollar more wisely. The new nutrition labeling regulations become mandatory after June 30, 1975.

Lodges Host Dinner Affair For Dignitary

Big Spring Rebekah Lodge 284 and Mullin Lodge 372 hosted a dinner Tuesday evening in the IOOF Hall honoring H. K. McEntyre of Odessa, state grand master of the IOOF. Introduced by Robert Wilson, grand conductor, McEntyre addressed the group on the subject, "The Success or Failure of Odd Fellowship."

Other dignitaries attending were Jess Waller, Snyder, district deputy grand master; and Mrs. Mildred Collins, district deputy president. McEntyre and Waller were accompanied by their wives, and others present included lodge members from Odessa, Snyder and Big Spring. The hall was decorated in a Valentine theme.

Mrs. R. X. McNew, noble grand, presided for the Rebekah meeting as members welcomed Mrs. Redica C. Akerboom who has transferred her membership from Mt. Vision Rebekah Lodge 1 in Occoquan, Va.

Several members reported their attendance at the Stanton lodge meeting Monday evening.

Men Hosts For Ladies' Night

A program on indoor gardening was presented for Ladies' Night hosted by the Men's Garden Club Monday at Coker's Restaurant.

Mrs. Doris Crane and Mrs. Ruby Bruns of D & M Garden Center demonstrated the construction of terrariums and gave advice on containers and indoor gardening.

Bill Sneed, president of Southwest Region, Men's Garden Clubs of America, installed the new officers. He will serve as president; Will Johnson, vice president; and L. R. Sautners Jr., secretary-treasurer.

The men are planning a spring plant sale and have tentative plans to serve in an advisory capacity with a civic group to assist newcomers with gardening information.

The February program will be on pruning.

AAUW Hears News Director

The relationship of freedom and news reporting was defined by Harry Neuhardt, news director of KMID-TV, when he addressed the Big Spring Branch, American Association of University Women, Monday evening.

H. NEUHARDT

"As coverage of news and the ability to spread information improved, so did the people's ability to govern themselves," said Neuhardt. He explained that the Egyptians, Phoenicians, Chinese and Greeks all had the ability to write but it did the masses no good, and democratic government either did not develop or ultimately failed. When the printing press made the Bible available to people, the Protestant reformation resulted. In the same way, the American and French revolutions followed newspaper coverage of current events and democratic principles.

The democratic impact on government was felt as the constitution was amended to provide for popular election of senators and, more recently, in a move to abolish the electoral college. Electronic news changed government again; President Franklin D. Roosevelt became a man of the people, and the power of the U.S. Congress was diminished.

"Television has become the most effective media for delivery of gross, effective information," said Neuhardt. "The combination of sound, picture and speed is dynamic and stimulating."

Although no formal ethical guidelines exist in broadcasting, Neuhardt said five rules are generally followed: the newsman has no special interest, pro or con; he has no conflict of interest; he reports nothing but the truth (isolated facts do not always represent the true story); he writes stories, not headlines; and he does not block intellect with an emotional appeal.

"On the other hand, the news consumer, you, should look for bias in coverage, use your mind rather than your emotions and read beyond the headline and the first paragraph," said Neuhardt. "You should sample coverage of several newspapers and news presentations on television and radio. Judge the actual event reported. Would it have occurred without the media's presence? The consumer should judge his problems in relation to media coverage and ask problems in relation to (or) commentary.

In conclusion, Neuhardt encouraged the individual to speak his mind but also to consider the limits of time, space, money and human nature in media operation.

Dear Abby

Nothing But Heartache From Such Arrangement

DEAR ABBY: I have been living with Don for two years. I am 22 and he is 25. I hear girls at the office talking about bringing covered dishes to family gatherings, going to his folks' or hers for dinner, or for the weekend, or the holidays, and I get more heartsick every day.

I've begun to realize what marriage is all about. It's really belonging to someone who loves you enough to want to make you a member of his family.

Don is always telling me what a wonderful arrangement we have, and how much he loves me. The past several months, I've been asking myself: "If it's so wonderful and he loves me so much, why do we lie, sneak around and let people assume we are married?"

Why doesn't he ask me to marry him, and become a member of his family? They don't even know I exist.

HEARTSICK
DEAR HEARTSICK: Because he doesn't want a legal commitment. And if he is able to get all the benefits of marriage with none of the responsibilities, who can blame him? I am assuming he didn't kidnap you. You agreed to live with him without marriage. You walked into it of your own free will, and you're free to walk out. Why don't you? I think you're ready.

DEAR ABBY: Is it unmanly for a girl to wear a hat or a knitted covering on her head when she's inside a building?

Our principal always asks the girls and boys both to remove their hats when they are in school.

He said that someone should write to DEAR ABBY and ask about it, and if you said it was all right, he would ask the boys only to remove their hats when they're inside the building.

He said he didn't believe that anyone would write to you and ask. Well, I'm writing.

OKLAHOMA STUDENT
DEAR STUDENT: Customs, rules and traditions are made up by those in authority, and they differ drastically. (In some houses of worship it's considered disrespectful to wear a hat. In others, the head must be covered. In some schools, all that's required of the students is that they come with the HEADS on... and what's ON their heads is no consequence.)

Your principal should know the rules of your school — and so should you. Obey the rules. If they're unfair or pointless — change the rules

CONFIDENTIAL TO "RED": You're right. I was unfair to redheads. I should have said, "Never tell a redhead OR A BLONDE, OR A BRUNETTE that you love her unless you intend to marry her." (And you can throw in those ladies with the new, two-tone jobs, too.)

Mrs. Mitzi Krebs and Mrs. JoAnne Little were welcomed as members of Mu Zeta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at a meeting Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Suzanne Haney, 1105 Wood, Mrs. Rose Davis, president, presided.

Mu Zeta Gains New Members

A program on dance was given by Mrs. Judy Klampfer who traced the history of dance through various civilizations and in different countries. She noted that the dance has always made up a major portion of Indian rituals, that it is the most famous art of the Hawaiian Islands and that the dances of Africa have greatly influenced modern dance.

At the conclusion of the program, a workshop was held to complete decorations for the Beta Sigma Phi Valentine Ball which will be held Feb. 7 at Big Spring Country Club. The ball is open to the public, and tickets may be obtained from any sorority member or at the door. During intermission, chapter sweethearts will be introduced by Mike McCreary, master of ceremonies.

The next regular meeting of the chapter will be held Feb. 10 in the Klampfer home, 1205 Runnels.
