alcholics as anything more than misdemeanants. Much of jail populations consist of drunks, caught in a tragic squirrel cage of alternate freedom in alcoholic dazes and the painful return to reality in a drunk tank.

It is not enough just to decriminalize alcholism, of course. The law must take its course when alcholism results in crime, such as driving while intoxicated, shootings and stabbings. But the common drunk needs to be treated at a clinic and given food and shelter. A follow-up program is also needed. All of this will cost money, but can be justified on medical and

THE MOST significant the way in which Vice President Nelson Rockefeller got himself ahead of the parade in a speech at a Republican rally in New Jersey. He pulled out all the stops, going so far as to say that if the Democrats refuse the President's request they will bear the blame for the loss of South Vietnam with the execution by the Communists of perhaps a million victims.

This was reminiscent of the politics of nearly 30 years ago when the "loss" of China was pinned on the Democrats

IT WENT SO far that Ron Nessen at the White House felt compelled to pull back a bit. He indicated there was no present intention to blame the Democrats for what might happen in Saigon,

It will be Democrats for the most part who carry the Vietnam torch if there is to be a serious effort to support the troubled regime of Nguyen Van Thieu with more American dollars.

Foremost among them is Democrat Sen. John Stennis of Mississippi, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, who in the past has exerted great power over the whole military-intelligence establishment EVIDENCE THAT that power has been greatly eroded came when Sen. Stennis was able to recruit only six other senators to oppose in the Democratic caucus the creation of a select committee to investigate the intelligence apparatus both foreign and domestic.

Despite denials from on high, the suspicion persists that if the worst many. The emotional cost would be comes to the worst in Saigon the far greater. Yet all the signs point to temptation to use American force the intention of the Administration will be irresistible. That would be in defiance of an amendment adopted by the Congress prohibiting any future military assistance whether direct or indirect, on the land, in the air or in the offshore waters.

> THE AREA of doubt feeding the suspicion is in the war powers act. While that act calls on the President to come to Congress to get approval for any military action, it provides what is, in effect, a two-months' grace period.

> During that time the Commanderin-Chief could ostensibly take emergency moves in order, for killed by imprecise high-altitude bombing, according to a dispatch to the New York Times, when the South Vietnamese air force was reluctantly called in to what it considered a hopeless fight. Other dispatches tell of newspapers suppressed and editors put in jail for reporting the indictment of the regime's corruption by a religious group.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. - How can welfare payments, rising inexorably in a failing economy, be financed by a state adminstration pledged not to increase taxes? The answer from the governor of California: "The welfare recipients will have to reduce their standard of living.

AN ANSWER that harsh would have been somewhat surprising even from Ronald Reagan, nemesis of the undeserving poor, who has just finished eight years as governor. It is astounding, then, that it comes from Reagan's supposedly liberal Democratic successor, Gov. Edmund G. Brown, Jr. Nor is a hard-nosed anti-welfare position the only unpleasant surprise Brown is providing for California's reflexively liberal Democrats.

NEWLY INAUGURATED Jerry Brown, 36, who rejects "the liberalism of the 1960s" as inappropriate today, is indeed traveling a different road. While staffing his administration with left-of-center whiz kids instead of experienced politicians, Brown is cracking down on corporate business with moves to remove special tax privileges. What's surprising, however, is a line on economy in government so hard that even Reagan would applaud. Brown's pledge: absolutely no tax increases even though that dictates cutbacks in spending programs.

Brown's self-styled Spirit worries this stat'e doctrinaire liberals, irritates Democratic politicians and promises a confrontation over spending with the overwhelmingly liberal state legislature. But Brown clearly sees it as a formula for Democrats, in California and elsewhere, to win back the allegiance of voters disillusioned with both parties and sick to death of government and

THAT, IN TURN, has led to inevitable speculation of Brown as a 1976 presidential darkhorse remarkable in view of his flat campaign for governor, which ended

That partly results from his conscious rejection of the imperial governorship. While Reagan travelled the state as Ceasar Augustus, Brown has rejected the traditional black limousine in favor of a light-blue Plymouth Satellite. Refusing to live in the splendid new governor's mansion planned by Reagan, bachelor Brown will instead move into a dismal stateowned furnished apartment across the street from the capitaol.

All this might have been expected, considering the anti-politics tone of Brown's campaign. But he has gone beyond grandstand plays at economizing into the hard-nosed business of cutting back the swollen machinery of government. When Reagan's aides encountered the new governor, they were stunned to find a fiscal conservative.

with his dropping so quickly he would have lost had the election been a week later. But even Brown's legion of enemies concedes he has vastly increased his popularity in the three months since election day.

BY BLACKBALLING politicians from high state office, Brown wins points with an anti-politician public. Last Thursday, he cut salaries of the governor's staff by 7 per cent, an implicit call for similar abnegation from state legislators (who, like most politicians, want higher, not

FOR OPENERS, Brown set an 8.5 per cent salary increase for state government workers instead of the 12 per cent demanded by the employes unions that endorsed him for governor. What's more, he applied that standard to all government workers - including professors of that sacred cow of democratic politics, the University of California. the endometriosis becomes too extensive, the condition usually abates for varing periods of time. Thus one treatment for it is to create a "false pregnancy" with the use of ovarian hormones, either with the birth control pill or with a drug called diethylstilbesterol. If you have been under close observation for three years, as your letter indicates, you may already have had this widely-used treatment.

When asked his feelings about the honor, Russell, now general manager and coach of the Seattle SuperSonics in the National Basketball Association, said Saturday night he would refuse induction.

"For my own personal reasons, which I don't want to discuss, I don't want to be a part of it," Russell said.

The reaction of the 6-foot-9 former Boston Celtics star, who revolutionized pro basketball with his defensive wizardy, caught few observers in his old pro hometown by surprise.

Russell quit as playercoach of the Celtics in 1969 after leading the team to its 11th NBA title in his 13 years with the club. Later, when he was doing commentary on national telecasts, the Celtics decided to retire his No. 6 during one of his visits to Boston, a Sunday afternoon game.

Russell refused to take part in a public ceremony which included raising a flag with his old number to the rafters of Boston Garden. The retired numbers of such former Boston greats as Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman, Heinsohn, Frank Tommy Ramsey and many others having an impartial ardown the challenge to Jack bitrator settle contract Nicklaus disputes, more than 20 players have submitted their contracts for arbitration, according to the latest word from Marvin Miller, exective director of the Major this season. This one came by a League Baseball Players Association. Today is the day pitchers Clay Carroll and Don Gullett of the Cincinnati Reds will decide whether they will file for arbitration. Their attorney, Jerry Kapstein, planned to meet again today with the Reds' management after failing to reach agreement Sunday. However, he said, "We're confident we can work it out. Everything was very positive. Meanwhile, Miller has refused to name the players who have submitted their contracts to arbitration but he did say there are "quite a few from Oakland again.' Nine members of the A's, world champions for three straight seasons, went to arbitration last year.

Many more of owner Charles O. Finley's players reportedly are unhappy with their 1975 contracts and apparently are headed for arbitration. They include such standouts as slugger Reggie Jackson, who won a $35,000 raise in arbitration last year, Joe Rudi, Gene Tenace, Bert Campaneris, Ken Holtzman and Vida Blue. Five A's won at the arbitration table last year

A telephone call to Pioneer Natural Gas brings an air conditioning specialist to your home for a free survey and cost estimate at no obligation to you. He'll answer all your questions, and tell you what it will take to install GAS air conditioning in your home. It's the first easy step toward having your dependable GAS air conditioner installed before the first hot, windy days are here.

A GAS air conditioning system is ruggedly built to cool quietly and efficiently. There are fewer moving parts, and no compressor to break down or wear out. Heat from the steady blue flame circulates a refrigerant through the system to cool the air. It's this simple principle that gives GAS air conditioning its long life with no loss of cooling capacity and easy maintenance.

Install gas air conditioning now. You'll avoid the rush, and be enjoying the quiet, cooling comfort of GAS air conditioning while everyone else is waiting.

Ireland (AP) — The Irish Republican Army begins a new cease-fire tonight. But the killing of three Roman Catholics in less than 12 hours heightened fears that Protestant extremists would sabotage the new truce.

Two Catholics were killed and another wounded by an attack on a crowd of worshipers leaving a Catholic church Sunday night. And this morning gunmen in a passing car killed a 19-yearold Catholic roadsweeper in East Belfast NO TIME LIMIT suspend its guerrilla war at 6 p.m. (1 p.m. EST). No time limit for the cease-fire was set, but London newspapers reported an IRA spokesman in Dublin warned: "This is only a peace initiative. A permanent cease-fire is still a long way off." William Craig, leader of the extremist Protestant Vanguard Movement, said the IRA's Catholic leaders were probably trying "to gain credibility and win a breathing space." He de-manded the Catholic guerrillas "surrender of The IRA's Provisional their arms."

announcement Sunday night, two gunmen opened fire on the crowd leaving 7 p.m. mass at St. Bridget's Church in Belfast, killing two young men and wounding a third, and then escaped in a car stolen in a Protestant area of Belfast. Police blamed Protestant extremists.

DEATH TOLL Twelve persons have now died since the IRA Provos ended a Christmas truce on Jan. 16 after 25 days. The official death toll from 51/2 years of violence in Northern Ireland has risen to 1,155. The Provos gave no explanation for their new ceasefire except to say it came after discussions with British officials "on effective arrangements to ensure that there is no breakdown of a new truce.

The IRA said it ended the Christmas truce because the British did not respond sufficiently to its demands for the release of 500 interned IRA suspects and a pledge to withdraw the 14,500 British troops in Northern Ireland.

British sources insisted the government made no secret deals to win the resumption government said in a

The British have pledged that an end to violence would lead to eventual aban-donment of the system of jailing suspected guerrillas without trial, the release of many men now behind bars and a major reduction in the number of British troops in the province. UM Women's Caucas Set

The National United Methodist Women's Caucus will convene in Dallas at Munger Place United Methodist Church Feb. 15 for a three-day meeting. The theme of the caucus meeting this year is "Women in Church and Society." Last year, over 150 members met In addition to the crafts to be displayed at the April 26 in Austin to consider the role bazaar in the Highland of women in the life of the Center Mall, there will be an . church.

> "Since the General Conference of the United Methodist Church has passed a positive resolution on ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment to the United States Constitution, I am sure the caucus will look at ways of aiding in ratifying the ERA at this caucus meeting", says Nancy Love, National Women's Caucus legislative coordinator.

> All concerned Methodist men and women are invited to register for the National United Methodist Women's Caucus by sending $10 to Mrs. Eleanor Anderson, 3084 Ponder Drive, Dallas, Tex., 75229. For further questions about housing, meals or transportation for the caucus, contact Laura Kapka (214 321 0946), the Dallas local arrangements coordinator.

Cold Grip On Texas

By The Associated Press

After a quickie raid which sent temperatures tumbling. winter started relaxing its frigid grip on Texas again today.

Although readings near dawn still were nippy, it was 20 to 30 degrees warmer than 24 hours earlier in the Panhandle, where the mercury dived to 2 degrees above zero early Sunday.

There was a mixture of clear to partly cloudy skies across the state, and forecasts held out prospects for scattered rain near the coast. Rising winds were Rips Wing promised with a slow warmup. Coupled with low humidity, the winds posed a critical grass fire hazard in some sections, the National Weather Service warned. Temperatures in early morning sagged to 26 degrees at Texarkana, 27 at Lubbock, 29 at Wink, 30 at Dallas-Fort Worth and Midland-Odessa, 31 at Waco and 32 at Austin, Childress and Tyler. At the same hour it was 50 at Galveston and 53 at Brownsville on the coast. Sunday afternoon's top marks went no higher than 31 at Abilene and 32 at Wichita Falls while thermometers reached 67 at Brownsville and 71 at El Paso.

Missing

DUNCAN, Okla. (AP) - A light airplane carrying two Duncan couples to a New Mexico ski area was missing today. There were reports from the Cimarron, N.M., area of radioed messages of a plane in trouble The plane, a red and white Piper Cherokee PA28 numbered N40844, left Duncan at 10 a.m. Sunday. Authorities said it carried Bill Davis, an engineer with Hallliburton Services, his wife and another couple. They were en route to Angel Fire, N.M. Two CAP planes searched the southeast corner of Colorado and the northwest part of New Mexico in the Cimarron area today after two commercial planes reported picking up signals from a plane in distress. Authorities in the area reported worsening weather conditions but said the two search planes were able to remain aloft. They said the flight from Duncan to Angel Fire should have taken no longer than

Applications On Agenda

A resolution authorizing the executive director of the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission to submit an application to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare for the emergency medical services grant will be discussed by the board of directors at its monthly meeting at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday

Also to be considered is a resolution in connection with the grant application of the Permian Basin Community Centers for Mental Health and Mental Retardation entitled "Alcoholism Drying Out Facility," and one on the contract of the Big Spring State Hospital titled "Certification of Counselors

Training Program. Other projects to be reviewed include Midland Regional Air Terminal runway extension and airport environmental funds, and Midland Community Action Agency funds.

Harold Hall, one of three municipal representatives on the board from the 17 county region, is the newlyelected board secretary. Judge Bill Tune is a member of the board, representing Howard County.

Off Plane

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE. Calif. (AP) - One wing was ripped off of a Harrah's charter plane as it plowed into a snowbank on takeoff here but none of the 43 persons on board was injured. a Harrah's spokesman said.

"Everybody is in good shape," said Mark Curtis, spokesman for Harrah's Hotel Casinos.

There were 38 members of a tour group from Houston, Tex., and five crew members on the plane, which was en route to that city Sunday when the accident occurred, Curtis said.

"No one was taken to the hospital" but one woman suffered a scratched hand, Harry said Olsen spokesman for the South Lake Tahoe Airport. The the plane hit some slush on takeoff, veered aside catching a wingtip in a snowbank and plowed into the snow, Curtis said. Arrangements were made to reroute the passengers to Houston by way of Sacramento and Reno, he said. The plane was a BAC11 which was leased and flown by Harrah's casino at Lake Tahoe.
