The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Watergate-spawned law to prevent future campaign finance scandals is being stalled by the inaction of President Ford and Congress. Nearly four months have passed since the law was signed Oct. 15. Yet there is no commission to enforce it, no staff has been hired and no regulations have been written. Congress has not yet appropriated so much as a dime to pay for enforcement, and Ford is seeking a fraction of the WASHINGTON (AP) - Proposals to require the Federal Reserve Board to increase the money supply and to empower the Fed and the president to allocate credit will win the approval of the House Banking Committee this week, Chairman Henry S. Reuss predicts. The proposals, which are vigor-ously opposed by the Ford administration, are up for subcommittee action today, and then consideration by the full committee Thursday before going to the House floor next week, the Wisconsin Democrat said.

WASHINGTON (AP) - Many governors gathering here to discuss the nation's economic crisis say their states can't afford President Ford's budget cuts and generally disapprove of his energy program. In a survey of governors arriving for the midwinter meeting of the National Governors Conference, a big majority said their states could not pay for programs where federal support was being trimmed or held constant in the face of rising

DETROIT (AP) — Chrysler Corp., hit by a fourth-quarter 1974 deficit of $73.5 millon to cap its worst year ever, has arranged a cushion of new credit of more than $1 billion. For the year, Chrysler posted a loss of $52 millon, compared with a $29.6 million loss in the recession year of 1958. Sales of $11 billion last year were off 7.2 per cent from $11.8 billion in 1973. In 1973, Chrysler had profits of $255 million, including $74.4 million in the fourth quarter. To meet growing debts, Chrysler officials said Monday they have lined up credit agreements with about 200 banks for $1.075 billion.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) - AFL-CIO President George Meany says a 10 per cent unemployment rate by midsummer is inevitable, regardless of what action Congress and the administration take in the coming months. "No matter what they do, they will not turn it around," said Meany, who added that his forecast is an optimistic one. He told a news conference Monday as the AFL-CIO Executive Council opened a week-long meeting that the jobless rate might go even higher, but he declined to pro-

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) - The cold economic climate isn't stopping Northerners and foreigners from flocking to balmy Florida in droves this winter, tourist officials say. "We feared the economic situation and the unemployment might bring a slump," said Dean Gaiser of the Florida Department of Tourism. "But southeast Florida, the central part of the state, Daytona Beach and Tampa-St. Pete all are holding up up well."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — With food prices still booming, home gardeners are ordering seeds for spring planting in record amounts while the icy grip of winter is still on much of the land. Officials of the nation's largest seed and nursery companies say last year's boom in home gardening is bigger than ever in 1975 and that they can hardly keep up with

AUSTIN (AP) — The House passed 123-9 and returned to the Senate today a bill increasing

Approval of the amendment would enable the state to pay $21.8 million from general tax revenues into the retirement fund to make the increases actuarially sound for the lifetime of the presently retired employes. Temporary increases through April will cost $240,000 a month woman employe walked out of a bank with $60,000 Monday whispering that the building was loaded with nitroclyerine set to explode and under surveillance by a

The sniper turned out to be a dummy perched against two artists' easels in the second floor window of a building overlooking the Banco de Comercio branch, police said.
BLACK WIG MUSTACHE

It wore a green striped shirt, had a plastic head, a black wig and a painted mustache. In its hand was a telescopic sight made out of a cardboard wrapping paper roll painted silver.

No nitroglycerine was found Five hours after the robbery, teller Maria Elena Lima Lopez, 28, returned to the bank. She was taken. to the police department for questioning.

A spokesman for the attorney general's office said Miss Lima told authorities a caller warned her nitroglycerine by telephone. She said he informed her that the bank would explode unless she followed instructions and robbed it.

Miss Lima walked into the bank with a large manila envelope, went to the vault where another teller was handing out the day's banking money and asked her to fill a smaller flannel sack with 1,000 peso ($80) and 500 peso ($40) notes, the spokesman said.

DON'T ASK QUESTIONS

While at the vault, Miss Lima advised the other teller about the threat, told her not to ask any questions and walked out carrying the money - right past the bank guard, the spokesman said.

The spokesman said Miss Lima told authorities she followed instructions written on two pages which she inadvertently dropped in the bank. They directed her to follow a red-inked line on a map of the surrounding streets and told her she would be approached by a man identifying himself as Eduardo who would ask for the money.

Nixon Exceeded Authority In Impounding $9 Billion

Former President Richard authorized M. Nixon exceeded his authority in withholding $9 billion authorized by Congress for pollution control, the Supreme Court declared unanimously today.

It was the first time the Supreme Court has ruled on a presidential impoundment of funds, although numerous impoundments were struck down by lower federal courts during the Nixon administration.

POWER

Congress has since passed legislation giving itself power to control such impoundments.

Speaking through Justice Byron R. White, the Supreme Court said the act under which the pollutioncontrol money was appropriated "was intended to provide a firm commitment of substantial sums within the relatively limited period of time in an effort to achieve an early solution of what was deemed an urgent problem." "We cannot believe that Congress at the last minute scuttled the entire effort by providing the executive with the seemingly limitless power to withhold funds allotment obligation." White said.

Leave It Like It Is

Last week Rep. Tom Massey of San Angelo introduced a bill, referred to the House committee on intergovernmental relations, which proposes that county commissioners courts be able to authorize work for private individuals.

As the law now stands, it is illegal for a commissioner to authorize work in private property, such as, for instance, laying caliche base from a county road

Under HB-470, individuals now would have only to request the work, and the commissioners court could set a dollar limit on the job and then perform the work. #### Helms And Hoover

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — When he was director of the Central Intelligence Agency, Richard Helms called officially from time to time on J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI. This was for Helms a singularly frustrating

FOR 45 MINUTES of their hourlong appointments, Hoover lectured Helms tried to present whatever the problem was he wanted to discuss.

In the murky depths of the intelligence apparatus, no relationship was stranger than that between Helms and Hoover, who presided over the FBI like a Byzantine

If the congressional committees preparing to explore the intelligence underworld are to do a serious job. they must examine this relationship. I believe it can throw considerable light on the charges of domestic spying by the CIA.

HOOVER'S CONCEPT of Communism was out of date. It took no account of radical groups such as the Weathermen and the black militants. The Hoover view of the Communist peril went back to the early '20s and '30s and the threat of subversion by contact with the agents of Moscow. It was a naive Hoover was busy consolidating his empire with secret reports on almost everyone in public life. "Hoover Kept Files On Members Of Congress." That recent headline advertised a fact at least 25 years old. Except for a few favorites always ready to do his bidding, he had carefully compiled data on virtually everyone in the capital.

HIS FILE ON LYNDON Johnson was said to have been a foot thick. It went back to the former president's earliest days in Washington as a congressional assistant and later as a member of the House. The president missed no opportunity to fawn over Hoover, praising him as the guardian of the nation's morals and the protector of our security.

Bugging the room in the Willard Hotel that Martin Luther King occupied at the time of the great peaceful "I have a dream" march, Hoover added the tapes of that bug to the voluminous King file. One of him on the nature of the Communist the few times when he dropped the threat. In the last 10 or 15 minutes mask of the despot was in a later confrontation with King whom he denounced as a hypocrite and a

There were many who saw the danger in Hoover's despotic power, but more often than not they were afraid to speak out. The reach of blackmail was considerable given the extent of the FBI's inquiry into every aspect of an individual's

THAT THIS HAD become a grave threat to democratic freedoms was undeniable. But at the same time the preoccupation with dragnet survillance and Hoover's total domination of the FBI seem to have weakened the capacity of the agency to track down lawbreakers and particularly young terrorists ready to use any means to try to break the system. That the FBI has been seriously impaired recent events

Of the nine bombings or attempted bombings of federal buildings, including the capitol and the State Department, no single suspect has been apprehended. Patricia Hearst was kidnaped and went underground a year ago and is reportedly at large with two survivors of the Sym-bionese Liberation Army. Yet the FBI has found no trace of her

Here is an immediate challenge to the new Attorney General Edward H. Levi. It may have been too much to expect Hoover's successor, Clarence Kelley, a police chief from Kansas City, to revolutionize the time-consuming and often futile procedures of the bureau in a few months and with a limited mandate.

My Answer

Billy Graham

In my son's third year of college, some friends persuaded him to take mescaline. It was the biggest mistake of his life. Since then he has taken every kind of treatment including primal therapy. He thinks he has blasphemed the Holy Spirit, and has spent the last eight months in a mental hospital. He asked me to write you for help.

I can't help your son, but I know someone who can — Jesus Christ. Only He has the power to break the vicious hold sin exerts on the human mind and body We're all alarmed by the recent report that heroin drug use is again on the increase. Many letters I received show that thousands of rognosis would be for your son, but tell him please, that there is hope. Perhaps he feels God has abandoned him because of what he's done. But if he's worried about it at all, he certainly has not committed the unpardonable sin. The Bible declares: "No man can come to me except the Father which hath sent me draw him" John 6:44. God's forgiveness knows no limit. Read Hebrews 7:25. Get some Christian friends to pray for him and to take an interest in writing and visiting him. Above all. keep your own love for him highly visible. Believe it yourself and help him to understand — in Christ there

It's been a trying season for Ron Plumlee, Steer head basketball coach. One can tell one thrives on winning. In returning the team scorebooks to Plumlee, Monday at the high school, the veteran coach was

He had reason to be. His team had just polished off Cooper, 57-56, here Friday night. It had reached the point of no return, some thought!

Big Spring had experienced 10 straight defeats before stepping onto the court against Cooper. while talking to Plumlee in the hall, fellow teachers walked by to express congratulations on the victory.

Plumlee liked that. He keeps the same composure either way, win or lose. But within I'm sure it's a dif-ferent feeling.

"The boys informed me after the Cooper win, they were going to win the final two games of the season,"

Big Spring wraps up its seasonal home stand tonight. Maybe a packed house could be in the offering.

Plumlee loses four seniors off his somewhat depleted nine-man roster. They are: 5-8 David Beasley, 6-3 James Coffey, 6-2 Bobby Winters and 6-4 David Owens.

Owens is a transfer student. The other three moved up via the junior varsity ranks. Only one-letterman dots the Steer roster, 6-1 junior Jim Ray.

The Steer JV's have been holding their own, flashing across a 13-12 record for the season.

Casey Wilder, Bill Arencibia and Mike Harris are sophomore. JV players capable of moving up to the varsity lead next year. Junior candidates include David Spence, Richmond Zapp, Mike Warren, Emzie Woodward and Noel Hull.

Rod Carter assisted by Tommy Moss will take 16 Steer thinclads to the University Texas-El Paso Relays, Friday and Saturday. The team has been readying for the season since Jan.

Carter expects to place high in the one-mile event with duo support from senior Ricky McCormick and junior Kim Wrinkle. According to pace clock work, Ricky runs close to 4:25 and Kim, a 4:38. "We hope to pull Kim's time down to around 4:30, before heading south," said Carter

Kim, who actually thrives on the longer races, two miles or better, showed his smoke during the winter campaign. He won all but one race, taking second. Carter hopes to ring up points in the pole vault with David White and Jerry Marquez, both juniors.

If the two relay teams keep showing mark improvement as they have been doing in the last few weeks, we should gain some points there," said Carter.

Changes Sought

Some 55 Texas farmers and ranchers will be in Washington, D.C. Feb. 23-27 to lobby for changes in the current farm program as part of a National Farmers Union Fly-In. Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White will accompany members on their trip to the nation's capital. High on the list of priorities for Congressmen to consider will be increases in the target and loan prices. Farmers Union members will be urging Congress to set the target price at 100 per cent of parity and the loan rate at 90 per cent of parity as a minimum. The members will also be asking that the escalator clause be applied to 1975 price support levels so that the price supports written into the law in 1973 will be adjusted upwards to compensate for increases in farm production costs during 1974. They also want the "disaster" program beefed up.

Clubs' Role In Bicentennial

The role of clubs, organizations and other groups in the Bicentennial activities will be explained at a meeting Thursday 4 p.m. at Howard College auditorium.

Mrs. Johnnie Lou Avery and Mrs. Janell Davis, cochairmen of the commission, urged that the Bicentennial chairman of each group be present. If this is not possible, then they asked that the head of the group designate someone to attend the meeting.

There will be a brief explanation of plans for the community's part in the nation's 200th birthday, a presentation of a publicity guide, a discussion of roles of various groups in the yearlong occasion, and finally a period of discussion.

The meeting will not last over one hour, they said.

We have gotten together and decided that ten years of taking his abuse and covering up for him is enough, and we want to blow the whistle on him by reporting his absenteeism to the executive office. But who should do this? No one wants to write the letter and sign his name to it. We've been battling this for years.

Some of us would even quit but we are so close to retirement and pensions we hate to do it. Answer please? WORKING STIFF

DEAR STIFF: If you're telling it like it is (and I believe you are), no one person should write the letter. ALL of you should write it - and sign your names.

DEAR ABBY: I just returned from a meeting. It was open to the public. A Protestant minister offered a prayer, and in it he said, "I ask this in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ."

Abby, I am all for prayer, but I am not of the Christian faith, and I was not the only person there who wasn't. Don't you think it's time that some clergymen realize that Christianity is not the only faith in the world? I know I am not alone in my feelings. I happen to live in a small town where there are many non-Christian people who are devout in their own religions I don't mean any

The host group included Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hohertz, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hadley, Dr. and Mrs. H. T. Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Roever.

The Rev. Carroll Kohl, St. Paul Lutheran Church, conducted a devotional, using the hymns, "O, Blessed Home Where Man and Wife" and "Oh, Blest the House Whate'er Befall.'
