MITCHELL, HALDEMAN, EHRLICHMAN, MARDIAN PRISON BOUND

Watergate Four Sentenced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three men closest to Richard M. Nixon when he was president were sentenced today to at least 2½ years in prison for covering up the Watergate scandal. John N. Mitchell, H.R. Haldeman and John D. Ehrlichman were sentenced to 2½ to 8 years by U.S. District Judge John J. Sirica, who ignored a plea by Ehrlichman's lawyer that he be allowed to work with New Mexico Indians instead of going to prison. WILL APPEAL A fourth defendant, Robert C. Mardian, was sentenced to 10 months to three years. All four men have said they would appeal. They were allowed to remain free on bond. They must serve the minimum time of their sentences without opportunity for probation. But they can apply for reduction of sentence, which other Watergate figures have done successfully. The sentences were pronounced two years, eight months and four days after the June 17, 1972 break-in at Democratic party headquarters in the Watergate office-apartment complex. The four men were implicated in White House efforts to hide involvement in the scandal. Mitchell, Haldeman and Ehrlichman were convicted of conspiring to obstruct justice, obstructing justice and multiple counts of lying under oath. Mardian was convicted only of a single conspiracy count. They are the last of the major Watergate figures to be tried. Nixon was cited as a conspirator in the case, but his pardon by President Ford makes him immune from any prosecution.

Sirica imposed no fines. But to Mitchell, Haldeman and Ehrlichman, he made identical statements: "It is the intention of this court that the defendant serve not less than 30 months and no more than eight years." As they stood before the judge, the defendants clasped their hands in front of them at times. They were silent. Occasionally, Mitchell stared at the ceiling. When he returned to his seat after hearing his sentence, Mitchell looked pale.

The wife of only one defendant, Mrs. Dorothy Mardian, was in the packed courtroom. Ehrlichman's second oldest of five children, daughter Jan, sat in the front row. Mitchell, the former attorney general, quipped to newsmen: "It could have been a hell of a lot worse. He could have sentenced me to spend the rest of my life with Martha Mitchell." The Mitchells are separated.

Only the lawyers for Haldeman and Ehrlichman made any lengthy speeches. An attorney making his first appearance in Ehrlichman's behalf read from a letter written to Sirica by the former White House domestic counselor. "I profoundly regret my part," one passage said. TRUST "My peers find me unworthy of their trust and belief... I have been found to be a perjurer and no reversal on appeal can expunge the stigma of those verdicts."

Ehrlichman had been convicted in a previous Watergate-related case and his 20-months-to-five-year sentence was made concurrent with today's. Mitchell, too, had stood trial earlier, but he was acquitted. "Whatever Bob Haldeman did, he did not for himself but for the President of the United States," said John J. Wilson, Haldeman's lawyer. DRAMATIC APPEAL "He was caught up in a political maelstrom that engulfed a lot of other good people. Whatever Bob Haldeman did so did Richard Nixon... but Richard Nixon has been freed of judicial punishment while Bob Haldeman suffered punishment and conviction," Wilson said. But it fell to Ehrlichman's lawyer, Ira M. Lowe, to make the most dramatic appeal. Lowe, who had not represented Ehrlichman before, began by saying his client "requests no less than a strict sentence from your honor..." Lowe said the court had the power to impose a sentence that did not call for imprisonment. He said Ehrlichman had spent much of the time since the New Year's Day conviction looking for areas where he might put his legal experience to the best use. He said that Ehrlichman, a land-use lawyer, had investigated the plight of eight Indian pueblos in a very remote area of northern New Mexico and said the people are in dire need of help that Ehrlichman is uniquely qualified to provide.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Faced with loss of highly trained crewmen to civilian life, the Navy has started giving the men on its missile-firing submarines a respite ashore during their 60-day submerged patrols. Pentagon sources said that the brief vacations will not leave targets in the Soviet Union uncovered because only one or two submarines will come off patrol at any time. Other subs will remain in firing position.

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) — About 60 Americans still in northern Ethiopia believe their lives will be in danger from the Eritrean guerrillas if Washington fills the Ethiopian government's request for a big ammunition airlift. The U.S. State Department confirmed this week that a request is being studied from Ethiopia's ruling junta for more than $20 million worth of ammunition for the junta's war against the Arab-financed Eritrean Liberation Front. Both American diplomats and civilians say they should be evacuated from Eritrea if the ammunition is sent.

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — Irish Foreign Minister Garret Fitzgerald says contributions by Irish-Americans to the Irish Republican Army have dropped since his warnings that every dollar contributed for relief in Northern Ireland was helping to kill or to maim Irishmen. He told The Associated Press in an exclusive interview that the "murderous campaign" of the Roman Catholic IRA to unite Protestant-dominated Northern Ireland with the mostly Catholic Irish Republic has postponed reunification indefinitely.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ford administration has cut family welfare grants to the states by $97.2 million for the first quarter of this year in a continuing campaign against ineligible and overpaid recipients, it was learned. Another massive reduction totaling millions of dollars is due in April, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare said.

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. has reported profits of $361 million for last year despite a major slump in fourth quarter sales. The profits represented a 60 per cent drop from the firm's record $907 million in 1973. The No. 2 auto maker showed a $46 million before-tax loss in the last quarter on sales of $6.2 billion. But because of an involved annual tax formula, the after-tax quarterly earnings were $22 million, compared to $57 million profits a year earlier on fourth quarter sales of $5.6 billion.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two newspapers today reported the secret indictment of a former Wall Street financier in the drug overdose death of Scottish rock 'n' roll drummer Robbie McIntosh. Singer Cher Bono possibly saved the life of another musician, the papers said. The New York Daily News and the Los Angeles Times said the indictment against Kenneth Moss was returned Feb. 4 after Cher and others testified before the Los Angeles County grand jury about events surrounding the drummer's death at a party.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The AFL-CIO says only "massive emergency measures" can prevent a depression and restore public confidence in the government. "The worst downward spiral since the 1930s is now feeding on itself," AFL-CIO leaders said in a policy statement adopted Thursday by its ruling 35-member executive council.

'I Am For Bentsen'

AUSTIN (AP) — House Speaker Bill Clayton today declared his support for a winner-take-all presidential primary bill which he said was written to help Sen. Lloyd Bentsen win the Democratic nomination. The bill is on the House calendar for debate Tuesday morning. "I think it is a clearcut issue that it is a Bentsen bill, and I think most Texans are for Bentsen. I am for Bentsen. If it comes to a tie vote (on the bill) I'll vote for it," Clayton told a news conference.

MALE GO-GO TIPS

TOWSON, Md. (AP) — The Baltimore County Liquor Board has struck a blow for women's liberation, ordering a male go-go dancer to cover his chest. The chairman of the liquor board, Joseph L. Hess, in addition to ordering the male dancer to wear "a bra or something," told the owners of the Merritt House, a Dundalk, Md., night club that it must not turn away male customers and must prevent female patrons from stuffing tips in the dancer's briefs.

Robert Cane, part owner of the bar, who hired the dancer, said he will consult with his lawyer on the ruling. "These women had a lot of fun," he said. "They weren't inhibited by their boy friends or husbands. I even had some of my clothes ripped off." Hess said he received dozens of complaints claiming the bar was guilty of sex discrimination. He said the state liquor board rules require employees of all licensed establishments to wear clothing that "conceals the entire nipple area and lower breast."

Hess said that although the rule was written to apply to women, he'd be guilty of sex discrimination himself if it were not applied uniformly to both sexes. "He's going to have to wear a bra or something," Hess said. The rules also prevent night club employees from accepting any gift of money other than a "bona fide tip." Hess said that money stuffed in the dancer's bikini briefs does not fall into that category.

Updegrave To Speak

More than 200 dentists primarily from the area from San Angelo to Amarillo and Abilene to El Paso, will attend the 8th annual clinic at the Big Spring State Hospital Saturday to hear one of the nation's outstanding authorities on dental radiology.

Dr. Wm. J. Updegrave, Philadelphia, Pa., will be presented jointly by the Permian Basin Dental Society and the Big Spring State Hospital. Dr. Preston Harrison, hospital superintendent and Dr. Wofford B. Hardy, head of the hospital's dental services, will be hosts. The clinic starts at 9 a.m. and the afternoon session will be at 1 p.m. After the 4 p.m. conclusion, there will be a business meeting of the Permian Basin Dental Society, headed by Dr. Jim R. Gerson, Odessa.

Prepare To Lose An Hour Sunday

Get ready to lose an hour Sunday morning. Practically all the clocks in the nation will convert to daylight savings time at 2 a.m. Sunday. At that time, the timepieces will be moved forward an hour to 3 a.m. Daylight savings time will remain in effect for eight months. You have a choice. You can get by on an hour's less sleep Saturday night, or you can go to bed an hour earlier. Unless Congress intervenes, the regular alternating pattern of six months of standard time and six months of daylight time will be resumed the last Sunday in October.

RAIN?

Cold, light rain a 20 per cent possibility tonight and 50 per cent probability Saturday. High today, near 70. Low tonight, low 30s. High Saturday, upper 40s. Southwesterly to westerly wind 8-18 miles per hour becoming northeasterly tonight.

Press People Massing Here For Convention

West Texas Press Association officials rolled into town today and opened their 26th annual meeting with an officers and directors luncheon today at the Ramada Inn.

Bob Hamilton of Iowa Park is president of the organization with Virgil Moore, Breckenridge, first vice president; Roy McQueen, Seminole, second vice president and convention chairman; Bob Craig, Hamlin, secretary and Frank Pruitt of Abilene, chairman of the board. Directors include Clifton Burfield, Baird; Bill Comedy, Haskell; Larry Crabtree, Granbury; John Getz, Farwell; Terry Neill, Stanton and Wade Warren, Littlefield. This afternoon, the group was to take part in a golf tournament at the Big Spring Country Club with Tom Blakemore as chairman. The president's reception is tonight in the Whipkey Room of the Webb AFB Officers Club starting at 6:30 p.m. and sponsored by Exxon. Registration continues Saturday morning and a Continental Breakfast will be hosted at the Ramada by Atlantic Richfield Company. At 9 a.m. the business session opens for the mid-winter meet with Mayor Wade Choate to give the welcome and Hamilton the response.

James N. Allison Jr., publisher of the Midland Reporter-Telegram will give the keynote address at 9:45 a.m. A workshop panel follows with Joe Pickle, Big Spring, discussing news writing and editing; James Roberts, Andrews columns and editorials; Bob Hamilton, Iowa Park, photo and composition and Dick Borghi, director of systems and engineering for Harte Hanks Newspapers will discuss production. Jim Haypenny of the Odessa American will discuss circulation. Following a coffee break, Don Richards, Plainview will talk about layouts; Leland Barnes, Midland, classified ads and Dick Clester, director of marketing for Harte Hanks Newspapers will talk about advertising. Ira Lee Brannan, Andrews will discuss accounting. A Ladies Fashion Show will be held at 10 a.m. at the Webb AFB Officers Club with Swartz of Big Spring providing fashions.

A noon luncheon at the Ramada will be sponsored by the Tourism Development Council of the Big Spring chamber. Additional workshops follow at 2 p.m. and from 4-6 p.m. they will tour the Big Spring Herald's newly-remodeled offset plant. At 6:30 p.m., they gather at the Big Spring Country Club and at 7:30 p.m., there will be a dinner sponsored by Cosden Oil and Chemical Company and Pioneer Natural Gas. Entertainment will be by Jimmy Henley, banjo picker known throughout the state. A dance follows with the Executives of Midland furnishing music. It is sponsored by Community Advertising. The convention committee headed by McQueen includes W. S. (Dub) Pearson and Joe Pickle, Big Spring, Walter Buckel, Lamesa and Terry Neill, Stanton.

REUNITED — Randy Hillman carries his stepdaughter, Heidi Biggs, after the two were reunited in Honolulu Thursday. Mrs. Lucille Biggs, the girl's mother, looks on at left. Heidi, 14, of Belleville, Ill., is dying of a rare form of cancer and it was her dream to vacation in Hawaii. A Honolulu newspaper contributed the money so Hillman could join Heidi and her mother on the dream trip.

THERE'S A SAUCER IN YOUR FUTURE — Paul Moller, 38, Davis, Calif., inventor of an eight-engine flying saucer sits in a prototype of the "Discojet" which he hopes will revolutionize modern transportation. The $500,000 prototype is equipped with a control stick for ascending and descending and a throttle. It also is gyroscopically stabilized to control pitch and roll. The craft, built of fiberglass and aluminum, will retail for $10,000 says Moller.

Danger Of Big Deficit

The Wall Street Journal took note recently of an address by Rep. George Mahon, chairman of the House appropriations committee, in which he foresaw the "likelihood" that the federal deficit will be $150 to $170 billion for this year and next.

He began with the President's own deficit estimates of $86.6 billion for the current fiscal year, and for next year. This does not include some $11.4 billion of internal borrowing from Social Security, Highway Trust, etc. which constitute debts that eventually have to be repaid. Another $23.7 billion is represented in financing off-budget items such as Export-Import Bank, Postal Service, etc. To this, projected Rep. Mahon, can be added another $22.9 billion if spending is upped at the rate many members of Congress are advocating. And finally, the tax refunds will account for another $23.3 billion over the period. (Did we say finally? There always is the possibility that the U.S. government may have to step in and make good on numerous loan guarantees.)

So what about this herculean deficit, even if it should fall under Rep. Mahon's estimates? It is not just something we would owe on account. No indeed. It is an amount the government will have to go on the open market to borrow in order to meet its obligations.

So what will have to borrow even $150 billion (to take Rep. Mahon's bottom figure) do to the money market. If there's anything left of the law of supply and demand, it will make money in shorter supply, and therefore force up interest rates. (Some argue the government habitually understates its interest payments now by $2 billion a year; how much more will this be distorted?)

Eugene F. Rinta, executive director of the Council of State Chamber of Commerce, predicts that even under most optimistic conditions another $60 billion in deficits will occur in 1976, 1977 and 1978 before hopefully the budget will be back in balance in 1979.

"The serious implications of financing of these deficits for renewed double-digit inflation should give pause to the Congress in any mores it might make to override the budget restraints proposed and urged by the President. Without such restraint, the economic consequences could be disastrous." There is a popular notion that restraints mean cutting selective programs, for instance, defense, while increasing others. Rinta says that domestic programs of direct benefits to individuals (health, income security etc.) have jumped 75 per cent in the 1968-72 period, defense spending as a percentage of the total, has declined 41 per cent (or from 43.1 per cent down to 25.4 per cent of the budget). Obviously, spending must be attacked on every front — from special domestic programs to piddling away countless millions in defense research that is sending good money after bad as if they were quarters being fed into a slot machine in an effort to recoup losses. In short, Congress must — even if it cuts our own favorite programs — exercise extreme spending discipline.

Welcome To The WTPA

Big Spring today welcomes members of the West Texas Press Association to the city for what promises to be a productive weekend in their calling.

Most of these are the owners and publishers of weekly or semi-weekly newspapers ranging from small to medium sized towns. In an exceptional sense, they chronicle the news of their areas, they seek to prick community conscience, and then are apt to be called on to lead the charge. They are examples in support of the dictum that good towns often start with good newspapers. Their presence here for the mid-winter meeting is fresh evidence that they are unwilling to settle for status quo — they want to be even better. And they probably will be.

Bribery, Kickbacks

Around The Rim

John Edwards

"Every contract signed by a certain city during a period of years was inflated by 10 per cent to allow for kickbacks to municipal officials," the U.S. Chamber of Commerce published "White Collar Crime" handbook states.

Of course, there has been no evidence I'm aware of that local officials are profiting from bribery or kickbacks, but the problem is one other communities should watch for.

"IN ONE CITY, 83 per cent of observed police misconduct involved the business community," a section on bribery and kickbacks explains.

"This took the form of free tickets, drinks, and meals; small discounts; and small gifts. Though not always solicited by officers, these favors were generally regarded as a quid pro quo."

"For example, in return for a free meal, a policeman might give the merchant special attention while taking money to a bank. In other cases, the merchant grants the favor, because he considers the officer's presence a crime prevention measure."

"Regarding bribes by companies to state officials, a crime commission commented: 'Lawyers, lobbyists, public relations men or other representatives are provided with funds for which they are not expected to give true accounts... This attempted insulation from moral responsibility is cloaked in such cliches as "being realistic" and "meeting competition."'

THE HANDBOOK quotes a company executive talking about free rides on corporate jets for public officials: "Almost everybody does it. You've got a plane going to California or someplace and you have a few seats... available so you call a few people... and see if anybody wants a ride."

"Sometimes they call you. The problem is what to do when a guy asks for a ride who hasn't voted on your side," the handbook reads.

It observes: "Other reported forms of kickbacks and bribes include payment of call girl and gambling charge accounts, release of confidential information, underwriting of stock market speculation, loans which remain unrepaid, rental payments for alleged use of equipment or facilities, lavish entertainment, contributions to favorite charities, subsequent full-time employment of government officials who had been involved in regulatory work affecting the company."

This is where the ax falls because of limited space. Next time, two weeks from today, my column will carry lists of telltale payoff signs. If you don't want to wait, and I don't blame you, get a free copy of the handbook from District Attorney Robert H. (Bob) Moore III.

Other categories of "white collar crime," in which blue collar workers may participate, are examined in the 92-page booklet. These categories include bankruptcy fraud, computer-related crime, consumer fraud, illegal competition, credit card and check fraud, embezzlement and pilferage, insurance fraud, receiving stolen property and securities theft and fraud.

My Answer

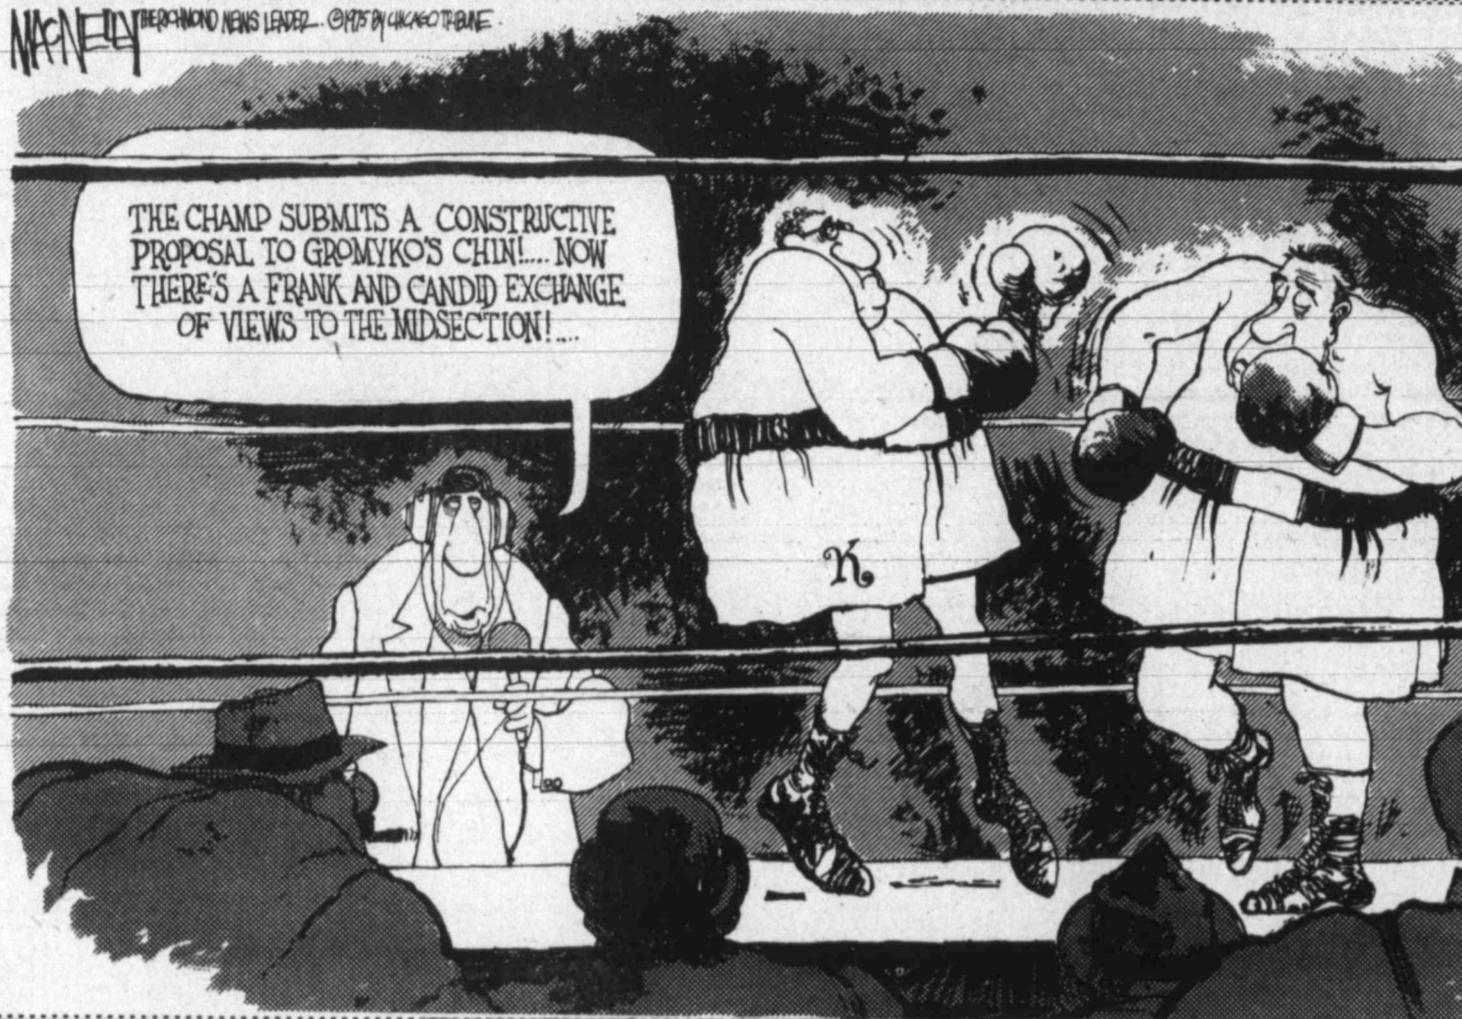

Billy Graham

A recent issue of a national news magazine told of the love affair Americans have with their pets. Now can you tell me why dogs were not more appreciated in Bible writings? H.D.

You must remember that the culture and economy of Bible times were remarkably different from ours. In Jesus' day, the dog was a roaming street animal. They traveled in packs, and were generally a snapping, snarling group. Feeding on filth, these diseased creatures often attacked the passersby.

Therefore, with possibly one exception, (Job 30:1), the dog is never portrayed with very admirable characteristics. They were seen as scavengers. (Exodus 22:31); they were considered stupid (Isaiah 56:10) and their ferocity caused parents to fear for the safety of the whole family.

In the Old Testament, you are dealing with the "childhood" of the world — where revelation limited itself to the comprehension of its subjects. Israel's faith, however, by emphasizing holy living, created an atmosphere favorable to the growth of high ethical ideas — including kindness to animals.

Among the blessings of Christ's coming kingdom will be the cessation of war, and the bliss of an animal world finally at peace, and with each other.

Housing Collapse

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans like to boast that theirs is the best-housed nation in the world, seemingly oblivious to the slums, the vast number of homes in disrepair, the poorly planned or fragmented services.

And they either forget or fail to appreciate how housing in the United States is almost always the industry to feel the economic pinch the first and worst, and sometimes is the last to recover.

Legislators have talked about it, industry and social service representatives have complained about it, and families seeking homes have been forced to tolerate it, but nothing substantial is done about it.

Housing now is the near the depths of its collapse, having been undermined by high interest rates that siphoned off money to Uncle Sam and industry, both of which could pay the higher rates. Homebuyers couldn't afford such rates, and neither could most homebuilders, the nature of the industry being that a goodly percentage of the work be done by relatively small, poorly financed businessmen.

Now, with interest rates falling and people returning their funds to the savings and loan associations, the biggest mortgage lenders, the outlook is beginning to show signs of improving.

For the first time in four months, housing starts rose in January. Nevertheless, the annual rate for that month was only 987,000 units, less than one-half the rate most officials feel is needed.

Ironically, one of the things that may hold back the recovery is a big inventory of unsold apartments and single-family houses. About 410,000 units remain unsold, largely because customers could not obtain mortgages.

It is probably for this reason that the bright news, the first in months, was partially eclipsed by a shadow of old problems. Housing permits issued, an indication of future activity, actually fell again.

The low rate of permits — an annual rate of 661,000 units in January, the lowest since housing statistics of this sort were begun in 1946 — meant even more bad news to the National Association of Home Builders.

The recovery, so long looked for when interest rates began to fall, will be delayed, the association said. Instead of a spring upturn it now doesn't look for one until midyear.

And then what? If the past is a criterion, then housing again will go into a tailspin later in the 1970s, and everyone will talk about how it can't be permitted to happen again.

WASHINGTON — One of the biggest set-piece battles of the endless Vietnam war and certainly the most important since the bloody "ceasefire" began two years ago is looming 45 miles northwest of Saigon as Congress prepares to reject an emergency request for U.S. military aid.

THE BAGGLE, likely within a month, will be waged for control of Tay Ninh province and its capital city with a combined 60,000 combat troops available to both sides. Despite debilitating shortages of fuel and ammunition caused by reduced U.S. aid, the South Vietnamese army (ARVN) will spare neither men nor materiel to prevent the irreparable disaster of losing this important provincial capital.

But without additional arms, even ARVN survival at Tay Ninh probably insures a grim aftermath. Expenditure of war materiel not replenished will cause further deterioration of the military situation as North Vietnam presses for a Communist-controlled government in Saigon.

INDEED, HANOI'S opportunistic military strategy is linked ominously with the seemingly irresistible passion in Congress to be done with Vietnam once and for all. Although the ARVN has fought bravely and well since the Americans left, the loss of $300 million cut by Congress last year has brought a deepening military crises.

Uninformed critics criticize the ARVN for indiscriminate firing of ordinance, American-style, but the opposite is true. Local commanders have been firing below the rationed rate set by Saigon, hoarding shells for future contingencies. The effect is profound: ARVN units are tied to their caches of hoarded munitions. This limitation on ARVN mobility has meant steady abandonment of outposts, particularly in the Mekong delta, thereby loosening Saigon's grip on the countryside.

SUCH DETERIORATION coincides with Hanoi's blatant violation of the Paris accords — virtually unmentioned on Capitol Hill — infiltrating 175,000 North Vietnamese regular combat troops (plus 400 tanks and 250 heavy artillery pieces) into the south the last two years. This results in a Communist main force of 180,000 (northern units with Vietcong fillers) which have captured 11 district capitals and one provincial capital during the "ceasefire."

Communist forces captured the top of Black Virgin Mountain, a volcanic hill on the plain in front of Tay Ninh city, by pushing off lightly armed regional forces unwisely assigned to defend it.

THE IMPACT IS both psychological and practical. Psychologically, this marks the first time during the long war that the government troops have not held the peak of Black Virgin Mountain. Practically, the Communists can use it to pour down heavy artillery, mortars and rockets in the assault on Tay Ninh city. With two North Vietnamese divisions in the area (the 9th and the newly formed 3rd), that assault may be imminent.

What will follow Tay Ninh worries officials here. The future of Vietnam lies more in Washington than in Saigon.

Scope Of Hunger

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — In preparing various drafts of President Ford's response to the overwhelming vote in Congress rejecting his proposed increase in the cost of food stamps, his aides invoked the word sacrifice. In this grave national crisis, we must all be ready for some sacrifice.

FOR THOSE AT the bottom of the heap, sacrifice means trying to make a little money last a little longer. It means going hungry at the end of the month when food stamps have run out and the Social Security payment is exhausted.

Just how many people in America are hungry? In a column on the rise in the cost of food stamps, I put the figure at 30 million to 40 million. This was challenged by Edward J. Hekman, administrator of the food and nutrition service in the Department of Agriculture. That figure was too high.

NUTRITION SPECIALISTS I have talked with put it conservatively at 10 million to 20 million. That is in itself a shocking figure for a nation that until the onset of the recession was regarded as having the highest standard of living in the world.

Estimates are hard to come by. How much of the hunger is actual malnutrition, it is difficult if not impossible to know. But Hekman's claim that with the school lunch program, food stamps and other forms of food assistance there is virtually no hunger in America cannot be substantiated.

THE MOST DAMNING contradiction is that there are an estimated 34 million to 39 million families and single persons eligible for food stamps. The number now getting them is 17 million, representing a jump of nearly 2 million in the latter weeks of 1974, much of it resulting from the addition of Puerto Rico. Thus only half of those eligible by reason of income, many close to the poverty level, are benefiting from the food-stamp plan. And this is true in spite of stern prodding from the Congress to send out eligible individuals and break some of the constricting red tape that makes qualification difficult.

ANOTHER FORD proposal would cut a small slice off the budgetary deficit at the expense of those at the bottom of the heap, the great majority the elderly. In accord with a cost-of-living increase, Social Security payments will go up in midyear by 8.7 per cent. The President is asking Congress to make this 5 per cent instead of the 8.7 required by law.

The lowest Social Security payment is $93 a month, the highest $316, the average $186. If the increase required by law goes into effect, it would mean an additional $84 a year for the pensioner on the average allowance.

That seems little enough, but as reports from around the country show it could mean difference between hunger in the last week or 10 days of the month and just enough to get by. Twenty million Americans over 65 are on Social Security. Approximately 20 per cent have no other income. It must go for rent, food, clothing, transportation with little or nothing left over.

A measure of Social Security's scope is seen in the savings that would accrue if Congress should hold the increase to 5 per cent. The figure is $2.6 billion, the difference between the $6 billion for the 8.7 hike and $3.4 billion at the Ford rate.

There is little inclination in Congress to comply with the President's request. Those 20 million old folks have a vote, and as statistics show, they are more likely to go to the polls than the young.

An Extensive Sweater

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Can you give me any information concerning profuse perspiration? I perspire heavily while working, exercising, etc. The condition is worse around my face, especially my forehead. —C.F.C.

The skin is an organ of the body whose main function is to protect the complex biological system inside. Part of its protective function is to keep the body's temperature within the relatively narrow margin of heat beyond which death occurs.

Inside, a "chemical furnace" is continually oxidizing materials such as fats and carbohydrates, usually at a temperature of about 98.6 degrees at the skin surface. When activity increases, so does the temperature, and the skin functions as a dissipator of the excess heat through perspiration.

The process is involuntary, with sweat glands imbedded in the outer layer of skin responding to neurological messages.

In some people, these glands seem to be more sensitive than others, with resulting overproduction and embarrassments. These people often are nervous types, even shy, those who blush easily. Not much can be done to help them. The problem often disappears with maturity and a gain in self-confidence.

Severe localized sweating, particularly in the armpit areas can sometimes be treated surgically, either by a sympathectomy (cutting of nerve trunks to the glands) or excision of the glands by removal of patches of skin where they are located.

Neurosurgeons and plastic surgeons perform such operations.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am only 14-years-old and I have something wrong with my legs. I have to wear pants most of the time because of the awful colors. They turn purple and red. They generally are very cold below the knees. My legs usually hurt most when it's cold. Could you tell me what's the matter with me? —Cindy.

The mottling (coloring) occurs when the legs are exposed to cold, and this is usually due to spasm of small capillaries (blood vessels) near the surface of the skin. This happens often in young persons and is not serious.

Want a fancy name you can use on your friends when they ask you about it? It's called cutis marmorata.

Play it cool and keep your legs warm.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have been advised to try ice packs on the anus daily to reduce swelling from hemorrhoids. What is your advice? I am constipated and have to take a physic every other day. —A.R.

Cold will reduce any swelling to some extent, but it would be an unnecessary discomfort for you. The reduction and relief would be only temporary. Why not do it in comfort, by sitting in a tub of hot water (a sitz bath)? This is just as effective.

It might be time to begin thinking about having the hemorrhoids removed surgically to get rid of the problem entirely. Lay off the physic. Get more bluk in your diet.

What Others Say

It should come as no surprise that congressional Democrats are trying to put the gasoline rationing monkey on President Ford's back. The really bad news is that they might succeed this time around, despite Ford's pledge to veto any rationing bill.

Mandatory rationing legislation failed in the Senate last year by only eight votes, and the push will be stronger in the new Congress. Many of the staunch opponents retired or were defeated last November. So the rationing bill must be accorded a reasonable chance of passage.

These heroes of the people aren't foolhardy enough to specify what kind of a system they want or how it would work. In a fulsome display of political buck-passing, they are willing to let the President decide such nitty-gritty questions as who would get how much gas and why.

Treasury Secretary William Simon says it will cost $2 billion a year to administer any mandatory coupon rationing system. This is a reasonable projection based on our World War II experience.

Then it required about $200 million a year, 5,500 local boards, 33,000 paid clerks and 76,000 volunteers. But there were only 33 million vehicles then compared with 120 million today, and our population has almost doubled. Add the inflation factor and Simon's estimate makes sense.

Mandatory rationing would be an administrative nightmare, inherently unfair to millions of motorists, and a black market breeder.

Once imposed, a rationing program would likely stay with us for several years. During that time it would be a huge drag on progress toward the only workable solution — increasing our supply by finding more oil and developing alternate energy sources.

The American people have too much at stake to permit Congress to cop out on energy problems by saddling the country with the "solution" of rationing. — DAILY OKLAHOMAN

A Devotion For Today

"I will put my law within them, and I will write it upon their hearts." (Jeremiah 31:33 RSV)

PRAYER: Keep us literally mindful of Thee, dear God. So may we be more appreciative of the gift of life and all other blessings we receive from Thee. Amen.

LATEST IN RUNABOUTS — If you're gas-conscious, this may be just the vehicle for you — a motorhome with three wheels and all the attachments. It's owned by Edgar O'Bannon of Lamesa, who with his family has traveled cross-country pulling a small trailer with one of his motorhomes. This one apparently has everything but a built-in bar and a TV screen.

Ford Looking For Votes To Sustain Promised Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House is banking on a switch by a small group of senators to sustain President Ford's promised veto of legislation suspending higher oil tariffs.

Canvass Upcoming

Volunteers will be covering the city Sunday to enlist financial support for the American Heart Association fight against the nation's No. 1 killer — heart and circulatory diseases.

Dr. Larry Key, campaign chairman, said that the Reddy Room at Texas Electric Service Company will be open from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. to receive packets turned in by workers or by their area or district chairmen.

Any individual who is not given an opportunity to help in this fight should call 267-2674. The CBs will be touring the city in their radio units and will pick up the donations promptly.

BOSTON (AP) — Dr. Kenneth C. Edelin, convicted of manslaughter in an abortion-related case, will continue as a department head at Boston City Hospital while his lawyer seeks to set aside his guilty verdict.

Indians Seeking Scarce Peyote

MIRANCO CITY, Tex. (AP) — About 1,000 Indians — Sioux, Crow, Cheyenne, Apache, Comanche, Shoshone, Arrapaho, and those from other tribes — were to meet today with government authorities to find solutions for the shortage of peyote, a stimulant drug taken from cactus native to this area.

Three Cases Of Child Abuse Noted By Vowell

Public Welfare has been operating a toll-free, around-the-clock "hotline" to be used by parents who are seeking help and for those wishing to report a case of child abuse or neglect.

Abused or potentially abused children and their parents give out signals that they may cross the line into abuse or neglect. It is one of the objectives of the campaign to educate teachers, doctors, clergymen, and others dealing in children, to recognize these situations and report them before they result in severe injury or death for the child.

Abuse signalled an example of the "signals" that the potential abusers may show is the case of a Fort Worth woman who tried to give away her baby. Her efforts were unsuccessful, so two days later she dropped the baby from a second story window.

Seal Drive Under Way

The Easter Seal campaign is under way in Big Spring and the surrounding area and will last beyond Easter Sunday, March 30, according to Mrs. Mamie Roberts, publicity chairman for the event.

The neighbor to neighbor campaign, headed this year by Mrs. W. A. Riley, will embrace surrounding communities as well as Big Spring.

Jack Davis is director of the Howard County Easter Seal Society Inc. with the Rev. J. B. Sharp, president; Charley Merritt, vice president; Mrs. Betty Dean, secretary; George Zachariah, treasurer; and Lynn Hise general chairman of the Easter Seal Drive.

Canisters will be placed over the business community during the month of March with Mrs. M. L. Johnson as chairman of this phase of the drive.

Mrs. Betty Lou Green is in charge of mail-outs which shortly will be placed in the mails.

Bob Burris will be chairman of March 22 Lilly Day with football boys to sell lilies on the streets and at various locations for the charity drive.

Balloon Day, scheduled April 12, is headed by Mrs. Betty Dean with Kurt Strong as co-chairman.

Balloons will be sold on street corners by boy scouts, the Key Club and the Rainbow girls, with George Bair furnishing the helium gas for the balloons.

Rig Count Up
As of Feb. 17, there were 1,617 rotary rigs turning in the United States, according to the report of Hughes Tools Co. to the International Association of Drilling Contractors. This is a gain of 256, or 18.80 per cent. In Texas, the total was 606, up 159, or 35.57 per cent.

Diplomats Agree Turks Holding Most Of Cards

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Many diplomats predict that the United Nations Security Council will call for the early withdrawal of the Turkish occupation army and its support for the independence and territorial integrity of the island republic.

The diplomats conceded, however, that the Turks hold most of the cards necessary to make the proclamation of a separate Turkish Cypriot state in northern Cyprus stick.

PROTECTED
They pointed out that the new state in the northern 40 per cent of Cyprus is protected by the military superiority of the 40,000-man Turkish occupation army. The 200,000 Greek Cypriots who lived in the occupied zone have fled south, and there is no longer a potential fifth column there. And the United States is no longer able to bring decisive influence to bear on the Turkish government in Ankara.

Glafoos Clerides, the No. 2 man in the Greek Cypriot government in Nicosia, opened the debate Thursday with an appeal for the council to get Turkey to "fix a time" for withdrawal of its forces.

Clerides said the proclamation of the Turkish Cypriot state will lead to the destruction of independent Cyprus. He and Greece's U.N. ambassador, Denis Craryanis, charged that the Turks have violated all U.N. resolutions and forced their will at gunpoint.

Redistricting Decision Date

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — U.S. District Court Judge William Wayne Justice says he expects to rule in about two weeks on single-member district plans proposed for the election of city councilmen in Nacogdoches and Lufkin.

Westerholm said two of the districts would be predominantly black. Other districts would have a majority of white voters.

Westerholm said the ideal population for each district in the four-district plan would be about 6,200 and in the six-district plan about 4,100.

Leon Hallman, a Stephen F. Austin State University professor and expert in urban planning, presented Justice with a plan that would divide Nacogdoches into five single-member districts.

The plan by Nacogdoches city officials would put 4,509 as the ideal population figure in each district. Blacks would comprise a majority of one district with whites being a majority in the rest of the districts.

SAFEGUARD
No one would be elected at large under this proposal, with the five councilmen choosing a mayor from among themselves.

Weaknesses of the plan include a splitting of the neighborhood concept and splitting the central business district into three wards, Hallman said.

recent to show up in the statistics. There is a lag between the time a buyer tells a realtor he wants to purchase a house and the date the transaction is completed and recorded.

The Commerce Department said Wednesday that the number of housing starts in January increased for the first time in four months but added that the level was well below the 1974 figure.

Realtors and bankers say, however, that people seem more willing to buy and borrow, mainly because of lower interest rates and greater availability of mortgage money.

The Department of Housing and Urban Development added $3 billion to the pool of money available for mortgages by the Federal Housing and Veterans Administrations.

MORTGAGES
The government also lowered the interest rate on FHA and VA mortgages, dropping it from 9 to 8.5 per cent, effective a month ago, and other lending institutions have followed suit.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., proposed another mortgage bonus on Thursday. He introduced legislation that would give qualified home buyers a subsidized mortgage interest rate of 6 per cent in the first three years of ownership.

The National Association of Realtors said sales of existing single-family homes in December were down 3.3 per cent from a year earlier. November sales, however, were even worse — 11.3 per cent below the 1973 level — and a spokesman said: "I will be very surprised if there is not some improvement soon."

In some areas where the practice is not prohibited by law, builders are offering bonuses to customers. Hollywood Builders of Chicago is giving Datsun cars to condominium buyers.

"In two weeks we gave away 18 Datsuns ... and we've recorded $1 million in sales," said Manny Kramer, company president. "For the same two weeks a year ago, we sold only four condominiums for a total of $200,000."

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Street bands have been temporarily outlawed in the French Quarter because of merchants' complaints that music is bad for business.

Street Bands Temporarily Outlawed in French Quarter
The issue arose recently when the French Market Jazz Band, which includes variously a trombonist, saxophonist, clarinetist, trumpeter, drummer and tap dancer, began attracting crowds scores-deep in the shop-lined Royal Street mall.

LOOT FOOD SHOPS Attacks Kill Six Children

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Communist-led attacks killed six school children and wounded 13, and left 19 government soldiers dead and 18 injured in different parts of South Vietnam today, the Saigon command reported.

In Phnom Penh, travelers said about 3,000 Cambodian students and civilians attacked and looted Chinese-owned food shops in Battambang City to protest rising prices stemming from growing insecurity in the region. Casualties and damage were not immediately known.

The Saigon command said five Viet Cong mortars hit the Nui Qui elementary school near Cai Lay district town in the Mekong Delta 45 miles southwest of Saigon. According to preliminary reports, one child was killed and 12 others were wounded, the command said.

About 350 miles farther north along the northern coast below Da Nang, Viet Cong troops mined a military truck, wounding two soldiers, the command said. But flying fragments from the mine killed five school children and wounded one, the command said.

The command said 14 militiamen were killed in an attack on a militia post near Dat Do, a district town in the Mekong Delta 45 miles southeast of Saigon, and that five soldiers were killed and 11 were wounded in an attack on an infantry position near Lai Khe, 35 miles north of Saigon.

Openings Are Available

There are still openings for sales personnel and employees in the Loss Prevention Workshop slated for next week, according to Chamber Manager Terry Hanson.

The management class is full, but persons wishing to sign up for the sales personnel portion of the workshop should call the Chamber of Commerce and make reservations.

The sales portion will include a single hour and a half session either on Tuesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. or on Thursday during the same hours.

The management session will take place on Monday.

The workshop is co-sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the Texas Retail Federation and includes the latest in learning techniques in an effort to curb losses due to theft, error, and spoilage.

Moderator at the workshop will be James W. Ford, Austin.

More People Than Ever Before Are Living Alone

WASHINGTON (AP) — The average size of the nation's households has dipped below the three-person level for the first time in history, as more people than ever before are living alone, the Census Bureau says.

The bureau said Thursday the trend could be attributed to numerous factors: smaller families, more effective means of birth control, a rise in the average age of marriage and "changing attitudes regarding the expansion of the roles of women beyond those of wife and mother."

Households — defined by Census as any group of persons occupying a single housing unit — have declined steadily in average size from more than five persons per unit in the late 1700s to 2.9 persons in the latest survey, taken last March.

Household size had stabilized at about the 3.3-person average during the baby boom after World War II but resumed its decline in the mid-1960s.

Census officials said they have no evidence that the trend will reverse itself in the near future.

MORALE IS BAD CIA Sets Up Files On Four Congressmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — CIA Director William E. Colby has launched a counteroffensive against published allegations of CIA wrongdoing while at the same time providing additional details of the agency's domestic surveillance activities.

Testifying publicly before a House Appropriations subcommittee Thursday, Colby acknowledged that the CIA kept files on four congressmen. He also expanded the number of domestic wiretaps, break-ins and surveillance operations he has previously acknowledged.

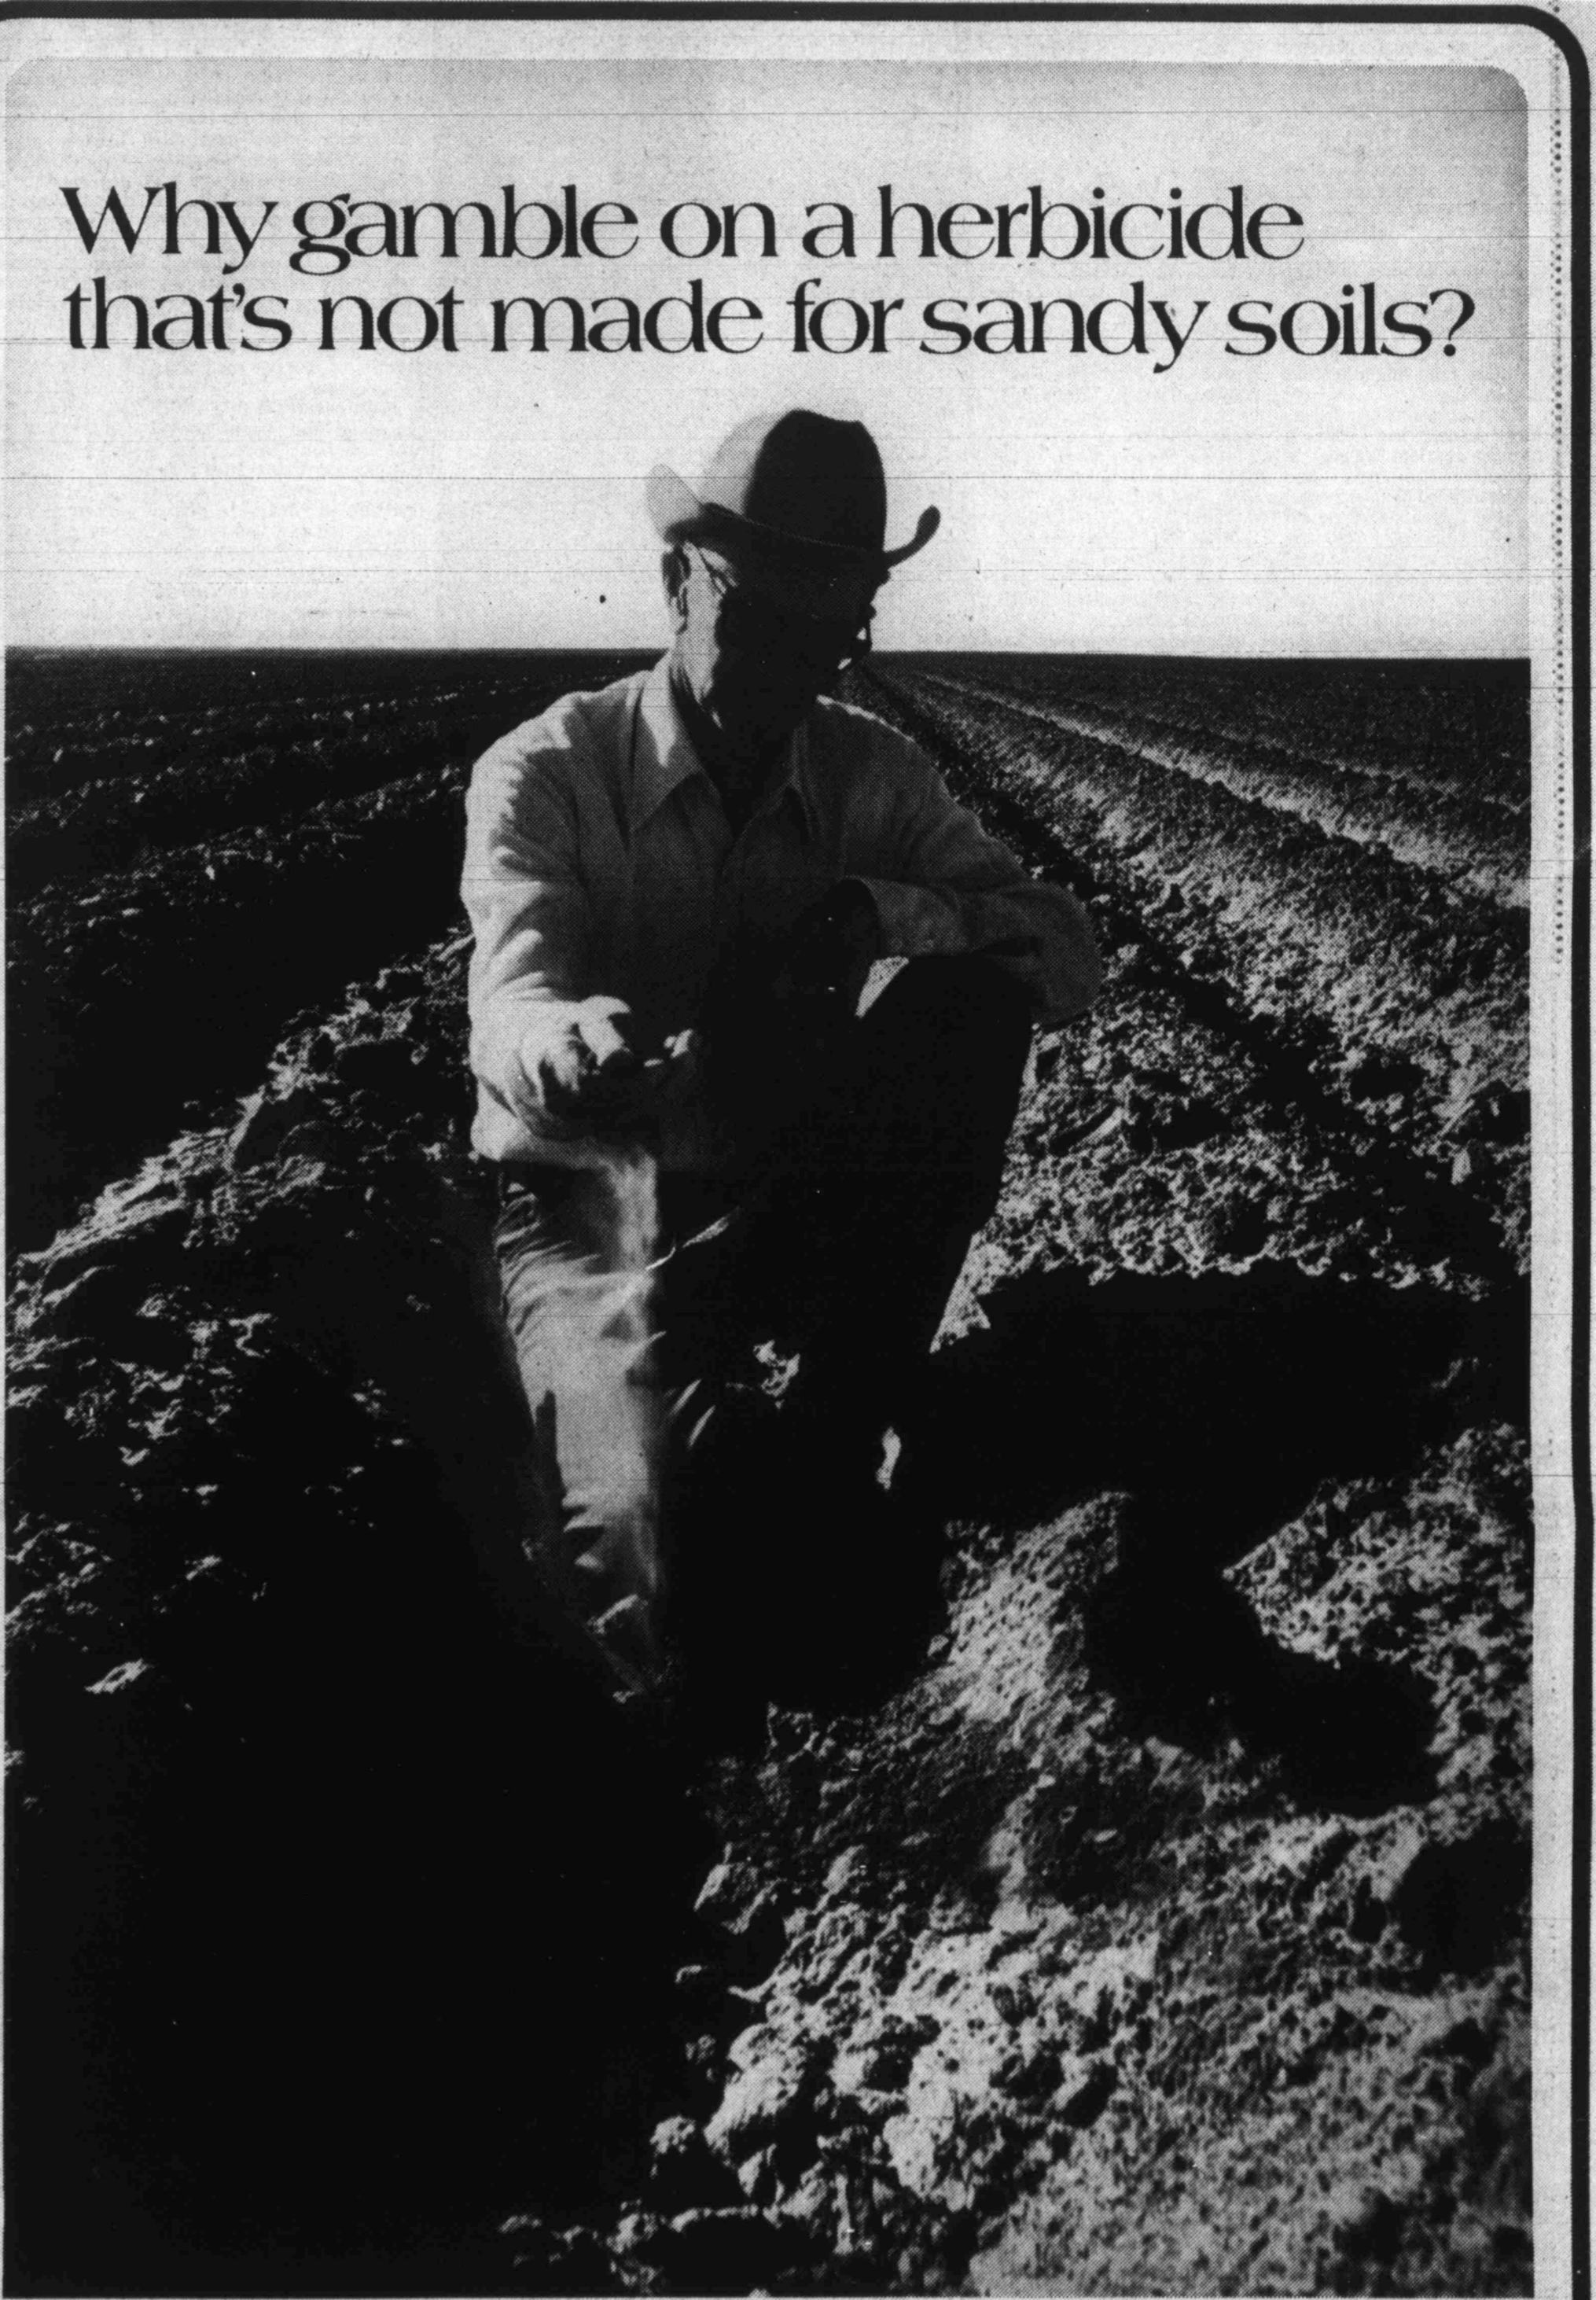

He promised to provide more information when he returns for a closed door session with the subcommittee today.

However, Colby continued to deny reports that the agency has engaged in "massive, illegal" activity and he warned that "exaggerations and misrepresentations of CIA's activities can do irreparable harm to our national intelligence apparatus."

Sensational revelations in the press have endangered relations with friendly intelligence services and could place the lives of undercover agents overseas in jeopardy, he said.

"Morale, to be perfectly honest right now, is bad," Colby said.

Why gamble on a herbicide that's not made for sandy soils?

Now you can get one that is.

SANCAP.® It's made specially for your sandy soils. It's made for cotton on your land.

You can forget about experimenting with rates to adjust for sandy soils. Just follow the recommendations, and you'll get weed control you can depend on—without injuring your cotton.

You'll get control of the most troublesome weeds in this area—carelessweed and Russian thistle.

And you can forget about moisture loss due to incorporation. Just apply Sancap at planting, or within two days after.

Then watch your cotton 'come through, clean and healthy. No more experiments. No more mistakes.

Because now you've got a herbicide for sandy soils.

DEATHS

Cora Leach

LAMESA — Services for Mrs. Cora Leach, 93, of Lamesa were held at 10 a.m. today at Branon Funeral Home Chapel with Alan Hahn, Downtown Church of Christ minister, officiating. A second service will be held at Idaho Springs, Colo., at the Church of Christ. R. Paul Smith, minister, will officiate.

Born at Gardner, Tenn., Mrs. Leach had been a Lamesa resident the past 10 months. She and her husband lived at Childress a number of years and moved to Idaho Springs, Colo., in 1934. When her husband died in 1952, Mrs. Leach moved to California, then to Abilene where she lived until 1970. In 1970, she moved to a Gunter nursing home where she lived until 10 months ago.

Survivors include a daughter, Doris Leach of Carlsbad, N.M.; three sons, Maurice Leach of Childress, Max Leach of Lamesa and David Leach of Los Angeles, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Oma McAluffe of Denver, Colo.; eight grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

H. P. Lockett

Henry Philmore Lockett, 57, of Odessa died in a local hospital Wednesday following an extended illness.

Services will be at 10 a.m., Saturday in the Odessa Redeemer Lutheran Church, with burial to follow in Sunset Memorial Gardens there.

A native of Dallas, Mr. Lockett had resided in Odessa since 1952.

Survivors include his wife, the former Marian Erickson; two sons, Dick Lockett and Bill Lockett, both of Odessa; a sister, Jessie M. Lockett Murray, Utah; a brother, Robert Lockett, Dallas; and a grandchild.

Rilla Farris

Mrs. A. M. (Rilla J.) Farris, 44, a former Big Spring resident, died at 3:45 a.m., Thursday in a San Angelo Hospital.

Services will be at 3:30 p.m., today in the Johnson Funeral Home Chapel in San Angelo, with the Rev. Harold Odum of the First Presbyterian Church in San Angelo officiating. Burial will follow in Fairmount Cemetery.

Her husband was an automobile dealer in Big Spring at one time. The family moved from here to Midland about 1972 and from there to Temple.

Mrs. Farris was born Oct. 4, 1930, in Del Rio and had lived in San Angelo off and on since 1942. She married Andis M. Farris in San Angelo March 13, 1954.

Survivors include two sons, Norman Andis Farris and Sterling Huyler Farris, both of Temple; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Darst, San Angelo; and a brother, Garet Darst, Corpus Christi.

Mrs. Wood

Mrs. Joe D. Wood, 65, died at 9 p.m., Thursday in a local hospital after a short illness.

Services will be at 10:30 a.m., Saturday in Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel, with the Rev. Bob Lee, pastor of Birdwell Lane Baptist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park.

Mrs. Wood was born Bessie Mae Hale on Dec. 7, 1909, in Big Spring. She married Joe D. Wood Oct. 29, 1926, in Big Spring. She had been a resident of Big Spring all her life. She and her husband operated cafes here for many years.

She was a member of the Baptist Church. Survivors include her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Jean Fortenberry, El Reno, Okla.; a son, Donald Wood, West Monroe, La.; three sisters, Mrs. Jettie Witt, Odessa, Mrs. Neva Knappe, Oklahoma City, Okla., and Mrs. Mary Fields, Mesquite, Tex.; five grandchildren. A daughter preceded her in death.

Bess Norman

LAMESA — Services for Mrs. George D. (Bess) Norman Sr., 78, will be at 2 p.m. today at First United Methodist Church here with the Rev. Alvis Cooley, pastor, officiating.

Burial will be in Lamesa Memorial Park under direction of Branon Funeral Home.

Mrs. Norman died at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the 7th Street Leisure Lodge of Lamesa following an extended illness.

Born in Eastland County, Mrs. Norman had been a resident of Florey in Andrews County 20 years. She moved to Florey from Dawson County, where she lived 23 years.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. James D. Connor of Concan; a son, George D. Norman Jr. of Lamesa; a sister, Mrs. Hazel Faubion of Los Angeles, Calif.; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

T. E. Ammons

Thomas E. Ammons, 63, of Post, brother of Mrs. Dorothy Condron of Big Spring, died at 3:30 a.m., Thursday in the Methodist Hospital in Lubbock following a brief illness.

Services will be at 2 p.m., Saturday at the Church of the Nazarene in Post, with burial in Post Terrace Cemetery.

Born in Zwolle, La., Mrs. Ammons moved to Post in 1924. He was a retired textile mill employe and rancher following his retirement.

Other survivors include his wife, Irene, of the home; a daughter, Mrs. Elma Doss of Marietta, Ga.; his stepmother, Mrs. Betty Pierce, Post; seven other sisters; five brothers, ten grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

JUMP IN FOOD PRICES Cost Of Living Up In America

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite the recent declines at the wholesale level, consumer prices continued to increase in January, rising six-tenths of one per cent during the month, the government reported today.

The January increase was led by a jump in food prices, especially for cereals and bakery products and fruits and vegetables. Over-all, food prices were up eight-tenths of one per cent from December.

Administration economists had been hoping the Labor Department's Consumer Price Index for January would reflect the decline in wholesale prices during the last two months, especially for food prices.

But the over-all increase in January consumer prices was only one-tenth of one per cent less than the December increase, indicating there has been only moderate relief for consumers from the nation's rampant rates of inflation.

Over-all, consumer prices in January were 11.7 per cent higher than a year earlier.

This January's increase, however, still was the lowest since last April, when the increase was five-tenths of one per cent. The Consumer Price Index in January stood at 156.1 per cent of the 1967 average of 100 per cent, meaning it cost $156.10 to buy a statistical sample of goods that cost $100 in 1967.

The figures were adjusted for seasonal variations, meaning seasonal factors were taken into account. On an unadjusted basis, the CPI rose five-tenths of one per cent in January and food prices advanced seventenths of one per cent.

The Labor Department said there were higher prices during the month for medical care, utilities, houses and some foods. Cereal and bakery products increased 2 per cent during the month and were 23.8 per cent above a year earlier.

Partially offsetting the higher prices during the month, the Labor Department said, were price declines for clothing, autos, beef, and sugar, and lower mortgage interest rates.

The decline in beef prices was their fourth straight monthly drop. Over-all, prices of meat, poultry and fish were listed as down nine-tenths of one per cent in January.

Army Captain Is Robbery Victim

STANTON — Texas law enforcement officers are still seeking two shotgun-wielding men who robbed Army Captain Ray Edward Louder of Stanton of five credit cards Saturday afternoon.

Four counties became involved because the man was from Stanton, in Martin County; was picked up in Glasscock County; robbed in Sterling County and made his way into Howard County to attempt to report it.

According to Martin County Sheriff Dan Saunders, the incident occurred when Louder, a Stanton native currently stationed with the 21st Field Artillery at Fort Hood, was attempting to drive to Stanton Saturday to visit his wife.

According to Louder's report, he had left Fort Hood about 3 p.m. He had gone through Garden City on State Highway 158 and was slowing his auto down to turn onto State Highway 137 to Stanton, when a car pulled up beside him and a man on the right side of the vehicle pointed a shotgun at him.

Louder stopped his car and the man came around and got in the vehicle and ordered Louder to turn back east.

The man directed him back through Garden City and on east to the Sterling City overpass where they turned north and went several miles before stopping on a dirt road.

The second man followed in the other car. They took Louder's billfold and credit cards, along with a watch. They ordered him to lie down on his stomach, then grabbed him and turned him over on his back.

One Audition Is Moved Back

Community auditions for the Fantasticks, announced Thursday, will undergo a slight alteration in schedule.

John Gordon, Howard College drama department head said today.

Because the El Paso Choir has been scheduled for a free public concert at the college auditorium Wednesday evening, the audition scheduled for that day will be moved back to Thursday 8 p.m. The initial audition will be Tuesday 8 p.m.

While the production will be under the sponsorship of the college drama department, participation by actors from the community is being sought. Gordon urged anyone interested to call either him or Ken Sprinkle at the college to book auditions. Participants should be prepared to sing one solo and, at the request of the director, to recite lines.

Parts will be assigned soon, and evening rehearsals set to begin March 24, and production April 25-26.

Three In Grady School Race

GRADY — Three men have filed for three places on the Grady Independent School District Board of Trustees this week.

Newell Tate, Myrl Mitchell and Jerry Welch all filed for the Grady board. Tate and Mitchell are up for reelection. The other incumbent is H.D. Howard.

In the Stanton school board race, only incumbents Billy Mims and Tommy Newman have filed for places one and two, the only two seats to be decided.

MALACE AFORETHOUGHT Lily Tomlin Special Is Hour Of Good Fun

By JAY SHARBUTT
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Families with but one TV set have a tough choice to make tonight — stay with a fine CBS drama about the FBI and the Ku Klux Klan or leave in mid-program for a nifty Lily Tomlin special on ABC.

I'd reluctantly advise the mid-show switch only because (a) the effort by Miss Tomlin & Co. is an all-too-rare example of comic craftsmanship, and (b) we need all the laughs we can get these days.

The CBS program concludes a two-part dramatization of the FBI's massive, well-publicized attempt to bring to justice the Klansmen suspected of the 1964 murder of three young civil rights workers in Mississippi.

The first part of CBS' "Attack on Terror: The FBI Versus the Ku Klux Klan," aired Thursday night and painstakingly recounted events leading up to the murders and the FBI's involvement in the case.

Tonight's episode, as thoroughly gripping as the first, covers the FBI's efforts (prodded by the late President Lyndon B. Johnson) to break the case and see it to a successful finale in federal court.

Even though the show is FBI-blessed and is produced by Quinn Martin, who gave us the old "The FBI" series, it has far more believability than the series' stiff, nobly plodding approach could ever hope to achieve.

Large credit is due an intelligent script by Calvin Clements and standout acting by Wayne "M-A-S-H" Rogers, cast as a Southern-born FBI agent, and L.Q. Jones, cast as a small-town policeman who turns FBI informant after years of secret Klan membership.

The show is so engrossing that massive family debate probably will break out across the land when it comes time to see what Lily Tomlin is up to in her first special for ABC.

Be that as it may, catch Miss T and don't be put off by the lame opening skit, in which Ernestine, her nasal-voiced phone operator character, tries to capture Bigfoot, America's Abominable Snowman.

Things pick up immediately, starting with a razor-sharp sketch about a young man who, after a first-date love-making session with Lily, returns within hours to propose marriage.

He also brings his parents to meet the fair lady, pleasing them, if not her, and prompting his mother to remark: "Most of the time we don't even get to meet the girl he makes it with."

Frank Blair, soon to retire as the "Today" show's newsreader, checks in later as a newscaster in a bizarre, funny story about what happens when Beverly Hills prohibits fat on residents and visitors.

He closes by reporting the image-conscious city may pass laws against "being too short, looking too pale and buying off the rack."

trump is an unbeatable contract. However, North-South cannot be blamed for electing to play in their 6-4 major fit. Once North jumped raised as a passed hand, South had sufficient extra values to go on to game. Let us consider the hand from East's point of view. Declarer wins the first diamond trick in dummy, add at this point East knows little about the distribution. The queen of hearts loses to the king and the jack of diamonds is returned to the ace, and East still does not know whether declarer has a diamond loser or not.

Now declarer leads a heart to dummy on which West plays the nine—the highest missing heart. Thus, declarer has become marked with five hearts. Next he ruffs a diamond in his hand, then takes three high clubs, discarding a spade from his hand. Declarer is now marked with five hearts and two cards in each minor suit, so he started with four spades.

When declarer leads a spade from dummy, East must play low. Since partner has only two spades, East must hope that he has either J-x, in which case declarer might misguess and finesse the ten, or Q-x. If East wins the first spade and then continues a spade to partner's queen, West will be endplayed and have to concede a ruff and sluff, allowing declarer to make the contract.

Isn't it simple if you watch the cards and count?

U.S. internationalist Edwin Kantar's new book, "Complete Defensive Bridge Play" (Wilshire Pub., paperback, $10) is an excellent text—clear and comprehensive. There is, however, one flaw. Since the book was reproduced from double-spaced typed copy, it is almost twice the size it needs to be (528 pages), which inflates its price.

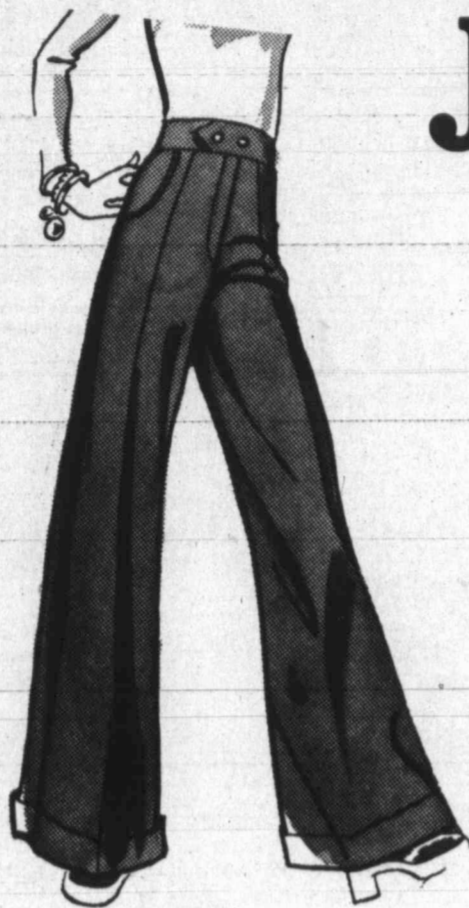

It is not always easy for the defenders to unscramble their tricks and get all they are entitled to. Ability to count out the hands is often a key factor, as Kantar illustrates with this example.

Pat Foster, Arkansas University assistant basketball coach, observed the Hawk-Westerner game Thursday night. The Hogs play Texas Tech in Lubbock Saturday night and Foster decided to stop enroute. Foster is seeking a capable joco product to step into an immediate varsity forward role next season. "I'm looking around and it makes no difference what team he's on."

Putt Choate's name must be labeled TOP SECRET. SMU's sports information director, Bob Conchen, telephoned Thursday asking about the Bulldog grider's credentials.

Head coach Dave Smith hadn't informed Condon of Choate. The signing took place Feb. 7. Condon was somewhat awed as to why Choate's name hadn't been passed on to him.

Condon had heard of Choate's letter of intent through the Dallas News, via the Herald's sports release. He thought maybe the national letter day had a bearing on keeping it hush, hush.

Brad Stephenson, Midland Lee tackle, signed a Lone Star Conference grant-in-aid form with Abilene Christian. A 6-1, 212-pounder, Stephenson started both ways for Midland Lee coached by Jim Acree.

He lettered twice and helped his advance to the state playoffs with a 8-1-1 record. "We think he's an excellent prospect," said Wally Bullington, ACC athletic director and football coach. "He's one of the better linemen from 5-4A."

Andrews is hosting its 18th Annual High School Invitational Golf Tournament, today and Saturday. The brochure prepared by the Mustang Athletic Department arrived on the sports desk, a bit late, Thursday.

Mike Holder, Oklahoma State University golf coach, will conduct a coaching clinic and be the featured guest speaker at the Civic Center tournament banquet, tonight at 7:30.

Mike will bring one of his players with him for demonstrations. Sessions will be from 2 to 4:30 p.m., today and 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon, Saturday. G. W. (Dub) Warren is tournament director.

Big Spring's coach C. E. "Tip" Jacobson has a five-man team competing in Divisions I. Play will be shot over the Andrew Country Club course.

Lamesa ended its first unbeaten basketball season, Tuesday. The Tors (30-0), trapped Snyder, 70-53 in the Curry County Coliseum.

The win sends Lamesa into the bi-district playoffs against an opponent yet to be determined. Lamesa school officials are expected to meet with either Brownwood or Weatherford school representatives Saturday or Sunday to determine the site. State AAA Tournament play is set for March 7-8 in Austin.

WHAT'S IT WORTH DEPARTMENT — University of Texas-El Paso continues to roll along in its capacity as national defense leader, allowing only 54.7 points per game.

SCRIMMAGE BS Trips Over To Ector High

ODESSA — With a successful scrimmage game under its belt, Big Spring will be out for a two-game sweep over Ector here at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Steer head coach Larry Horton assisted by Rex Scofield will travel the distance with 30 players. The game is to be a combined junior varsity-varsity contest.

Big Spring destroyed Ector, 10-0, in Steer Park, Monday. A fine crowd was on hand.

Horton, in his third year as Steer head master, has high hopes for a banner year. He is quite pleased in the performances of his pitchers.

Dick Battle gave up three hits in the four innings he worked. Pat Carroll twirled

Eight eighth grade teams and nine ninth grade teams will vie for honors in the Big Spring Girls Volleyball Tournament, Saturday.

Opening round play starts at 9 a.m. at three sites, Runnels, Goliad and Big Spring gymnasiums.

State National secured third place by thumping the Jaycees, 72-44. State's Al Kelly connected for 18 and John Tomm of the Jaycees netted 14.

Civitan earns the right to compete in the Y Regional at Lubbock, Feb. 28-March 1.

Carew, Fosse Table Losers

Rod Carew and Ray Fosse are baseball's latest recession victims.

Carew, the American League's 1974 batting champion, and Fosse, who didn't even hit his weight, were joint arbitration losers Thursday. Meanwhile, Ted Kubiak, Fosse's Oakland teammate, and St. Louis pitcher Ray Sadecki won their salary squabbles.

Taking their pitches to binding arbitration today are Oakland slugger Reggie Jackson, Atlanta's Ralph Garr, the National League bat king, and Bernie Carbo of the Boston Red Sox.

Meanwhile, decisions are expected in the cases of Los Angeles third baseman Ron Cey and Minnesota pitcher Bert Blyleven.

Minnesota's Carew reportedly made $95,000 last season, was offered $120,000 and sought $140,000.

"I'm disgusted," he said when the ruling came through. "Now I know what kind of organization the Twins are. They don't consider me a superstar. I'm just a number."

- And that number is... $120,000.

Trevino Ahead By One

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Jack Nicklaus-Johnny Miller confrontation didn't come off. At least not the first time around.

Instead, there's the boisterous Lee Trevino leading the $150,000 Glen Campbell-Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament.

"Nobody is more surprised than I am," said Trevino after a solid, five-under-par 66 Thursday that came within a stroke of the record on the famed, demanding 7,028-yard Riviera Country Club layout.

"I usually have to play a lot to play good," Trevino said. "I haven't played in three weeks. Maybe that's why I did so well today — I didn't expect it, and it just kind of sneaked up on me."

He hadn't planned on playing in this one but said he changed his mind because, "I'd been home so long my wife was starting to look good to me. No, don't print that. She might read it."

"Really, I just came here trying to get ready to play in Florida. I usually play good there. But the weather was so bad at home in El Paso I couldn't practice, and I was just getting tired of laying around. So here I am."

Trevino, who has played only two competitive rounds in the past five weeks, said he plans to skip only four more tournaments until sometime in August.

Miller, on the other hand, is looking for a rest.

"I'm tired," sighed the young man who has been the sensation of the tour this year. "I need to take some time off. And I am gonna take off right after this tournament."

"I'm not 100 per cent from the cold or flu or whatever it was I had last week. I'm just not playing very well."

Miller shot a 72, could be in danger of missing the cut for the final two rounds and is six shots back of Trevino.

Nicklaus, for a decade the game's outstanding performer but suddenly challenged by Miller, eagled his first hole then had to work hard to make it stand up for a 69.

Racing Begins This Weekend

Chip Woodall, NHRA Summer Nationals title holder in 1972, will be among the favorites to win top money in Funny Car competition at Odessa International Raceway, Saturday and Sunday.

Featured will be 300 AHRA classes, 10 eliminators, and 200 MPH funny cars.

Woodall, a 15-year drag veteran of Arlington, will field a 1975 Plymouth Satellite in his quest for victory in the season's opening event at the remodeled track, located in Penwell, 15 miles west of Odessa.

In Top Eliminator, the fastest 32 qualifiers will be guaranteed a spot in Sunday's program and cannot be bumped.

AHRA record runs will feature the Saturday action. The gates open both days at 9:00 A.M., with the eliminations beginning at 2:00 P.M.

Westerners Put Hawks Fire Out

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Unable to cash in on free throws and dominance of the backboards by Western Texas added with Bob Miller's hot shooting 32 points cost Howard College a Western Conference game here Thursday night, bowing to the Westerners, 102-97.

A standing room crowd, tops for the year, was present to catch the Hawks' final seasonal home attraction. HC stands at 9-5 in the conference and 19-9 for the season.

Western Texas, ranked No. 7 in the nation, widened its unscheduled conference total to 14-0. The Westerners stand at a noteworthy 26-1 overall record.

HC out to prove it could play with the best, did just that. The Hawks got the jump on the Westerners at the start and wheeled to a 4-2 lead.

WTC's smooth running machine, featuring five sophomores, caught fire, and a rough and tumble game was in the mill.

The Westerners broke loose from HC at the 20-18 mark and maintained the upper hand until 4:24 of the first half arrived. HC trailed at one time by 10 points, 30-20.

Ron May helped take up needed Hawk slack as he fired through a one-handed jump shot and his team was ahead, 35-34.

But the Hawks fell back on intermediate occasions. Marvin Johnson was called to the scene assisted by Don Davis, pumped new life into the Hawks.

The Hawks found room long enough to put water on the Westerner fire temporarily, ahead 50-45 at the intermission point. The score was tied five times the first half with the lead shuffling back and forth nine times.

HC sandwiched in a 48-42 lead over WTC, highest margin the Hawks could obtain.

HC kept a step ahead until 17:53 of the final half passed by. Then the Hawks slowed down and WTC took up the slack.

Play up until WTC took hold for good, 76-74, the score was tied nine times and the lead switched hands three times.

HC plugged away but just couldn't find that needed

Sooners Raid Texas School

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—The University of Oklahoma, last year's No. 1 college football team, today signed Texas' most highly recruited schoolboy player to a national letter of intent.

Coach Barry Switzer, bolstered by two assistant coaches, went to Hooks, Tex., to get the name of Billy Sims on the dotted line.

The signing of the 6-foot, 194-pound running back was by far the biggest prize for the Sooners during their raiding party south of the Red River into Texas.

Sims, a blue chipper, an allstate and a Prep All-American, had been sought by a number of schools, but had narrowed his final choices to Oklahoma and Baylor. Then at mid-morning Wednesday, the first day of national letter of intent signing, the Baylor sports information director reported that Baylor coaches had definitely decided to cast his lot with Oklahoma.

It's All Over After Tonight

SAN ANGELO — "A victory is the easiest way to digest a game," said Ron Plumlee, Big Spring head coach as his Steers end the season here tonight at 8 with San Angelo.

Recalling the 70-61 victory over Odessa High, Tuesday, Plumlee said, "We did things with Odessa if it had been done earlier, our win record

HC now faces its two remaining conference and seasonal games on the road. The Hawks first travel to South Plains, Monday and finish up at New Mexico Military, Feb. 27.

Plumlee loses four seniors after tonight's clash, David Bessley, James Coffey, Bobby Winters and David Owens.

The Steers played brilliantly to ward off a late Bronco drive. Aldridge was tops among Steer scorers with 20 points, followed by Jim Ray's 11.

Big Spring JV team moved ahead to 14-12 for the year, stopping the Odessa JV's, 62-50.

Preliminary games will pit both junior varsity and sophomore teams.

Sloan, Teaff Picked

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Steve Sloan of Texas Tech and Baylor's Grant Teaff will coach the nation's outstanding 1974 senior football players in the 15th annual Coaches All-American football game here June 21.

Sloan, who just joined Tech as head coach this fall, will direct the East Team.

Teaff, the American Football Coaches Association's national coach of the year, will guide the West squad.

Teaff took Baylor last season to its first Southwest Conference football championship in 50 years.

Outstanding seniors of the past season will meet in the game, in which the West holds an 8-6 advantage.

Brigham Young Coach LaVell Edwards and Ron Meyer of Nevada-Las Vegas will assist Teaff.

Yates Succeeds Harrison Kohl

STANDING ROOM CROWD

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Unable to cash in on free throws and dominance of the backboards by Western Texas added with Bob Miller's hot shooting 32 points cost Howard College a Western Conference game here Thursday night, bowing to the Westerners, 102-97.

A standing room crowd, tops for the year, was present to catch the Hawks' final seasonal home attraction. HC stands at 9-5 in the conference and 19-9 for the season.

Western Texas, ranked No. 7 in the nation, widened its unscheduled conference total to 14-0. The Westerners stand at a noteworthy 26-1 overall record.

HC out to prove it could play with the best, did just that. The Hawks got the jump on the Westerners at the start and wheeled to a 4-2 lead.

WTC's smooth running machine, featuring five sophomores, caught fire, and a rough and tumble game was in the mill.

The Westerners broke loose from HC at the 20-18 mark and maintained the upper hand until 4:24 of the first half arrived. HC trailed at one time by 10 points, 30-20.

Ron May helped take up needed Hawk slack as he fired through a one-handed jump shot and his team was ahead, 35-34.

But the Hawks fell back on intermediate occasions. Marvin Johnson was called to the scene assisted by Don Davis, pumped new life into the Hawks.

The Hawks found room long enough to put water on the Westerner fire temporarily, ahead 50-45 at the intermission point. The score was tied five times the first half with the lead shuffling back and forth nine times.

HC sandwiched in a 48-42 lead over WTC, highest margin the Hawks could obtain.

HC kept a step ahead until 17:53 of the final half passed by. Then the Hawks slowed down and WTC took up the slack.

Play up until WTC took hold for good, 76-74, the score was tied nine times and the lead switched hands three times.

HC plugged away but just couldn't find that needed

First Baptist Church Continues To Progress

Earlier, an article depicted the early day history of the First Baptist Church. This portion tells the history after 1928 and will also be included with local church histories in the Howard County library.

The church was growing and busy. The 75-million-dollar campaign was being waged for Baptist causes; Dr. Moore gave his "Palestine Pageant" illustrated lecture to a full house. Decision Day brought results. The town was caught up in an oil boom and opportunity lay ahead. But on October 24, 1928, the church home caught fire from defective wiring and was destroyed.

With characteristic boldness, the church on November 21, 1928, named a "committee for our future home" with W. C. Blankenship as chairman, and J. Fred Phillips, Mrs. B. Reagan, J. C. Douglass, C. S. Holmes as members. A $15,000 cash goal toward a $93,605 plant was established and plans made for a vastly larger church home which was occupied November 3, 1929. It had "an auditorium seating 1,500 (this figure was more than liberal), seven department assembly rooms, 55 classrooms, six special rooms—a total of 110 rooms and spaces." This seemed the ultimate answer.

NOTE FORGIVEN

For a time it also seemed the ultimate problem, for with the crash of 1929, the boom burst just as the church moved in, and in a few years the congregation was fighting economically for its life. It owed $76,803 and had a budget of about $16,000 per annum. Eventually a refinancing plan was worked out in 1934 (with the help of the late L. S. McDowell who forgave a $16,000 note as an investment in the religious life of Big Spring), and the church borrowed $26,000 from Fidelity Union Life Insurance Company, which, incidentally, has underwritten the present building program.

The church was not a year old when a Ladies Aid Society was organized "for the purpose of assisting to build a house of worship." Eventually this grew into the Women's Missionary Union. By 1914, the missionary outreach was reflected in organization of a North Side Sunday School with C. S. Holmes as its head. At this stage of its history, the Sunday school had reached 145 enrollment, and a Young Women's Association was firmly entrenched. The church also saw the need for a Sunday school branch in Jones Valley, the west part of town. The latter finally grew into a mission in 1930 and a few years later into West Side Baptist Church.

OTHER CHURCHES

The church was only a few years old when the women established a Mexican mission, which became the Mexican Baptist (now Iglesia Buen Pastor). A site was purchased on May 8, 1946, for a mission that became Hillcrest Baptist Church with 74 members on November 12, 1952 (although it returned to the mother church in 1955 and finally cut loose permanently in 1959). The church also purchased a site March 14, 1951, and erected a building for what became College Baptist Church in 1959. In both instances First Baptist, which had invested around $75,000 in the two ventures, deeded its interest with its blessings to the new churches.

LOVE MUSIC

Music has played a part in the church history. While there have been song leaders since the beginning, the first to wear the title "director" was Mabel Ricker (Wiseman) in 1919. Today the church has choirs from the beginner to adults. In 1942 Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Malone gave the electronic organ, later added special equipment and carillon bells to it, and this is the only bit of equipment which has been moved to the new plant. The church planned for air conditioning in 1939, fooled around and then couldn't get the job done until 1946 after World War II.

Katherine Sangster was the first educational director, being engaged March 3, 1931, but economic austerity caused the post to be suspended a couple of years later. Ira Powell became educational and financial secretary in 1935. Others who followed were Ernest Hock in 1942, J. B. Langston in 1949, Darrell Mock in 1951, Wayne Nance in 1953, and Glenn Faison in 1962. The Rev. Bill Taggart in 1939 was the first associate pastor, and the only other to hold the post was Frank Pollard. Gaylon Cothorn on September 12, 1951, became the first youth director, and others who have held this post include Frankie Beathart Rathbun, Elreeta Crain Weathers, Hubert Murphy, Darrell Murphree, Bobby Jack Priddy, Wally Shamburger, and Joe Whitten. Bill Myers, who is director of education and music at Baptist Temple, also served as interim music and youth director for the first church.

Connell Taylor served for a while as both music and education director, followed by Don Bradley, education director. Herbert Shipp is presently minister of related activities and Martin Landers is associate to the pastor.

EYE NEW PLANT

Late in 1958 a committee was named to survey the community for suitable sites for a church home. There was no commitment, but this meant the church was looking outward. On January 10, 1959, purchase of 8.2 acres on Marcy Drive out of the old County Club tract for $50,000 was authorized. In June another 5.1 acres were bought for $31,890, (Howard County this year acquired 1.35 of this for FM-700 right of way.)

The church contracted with Gary & Hohertz for architectural planning services on September 14, 1960, authorized working drawings on Phase I on September 14, 1962, authorized financing on January 13, 1965, approved final plans and specifications on February 5, 1964, and let a general construction contract to J. W. Cooper on May 24, 1964, in the amount of $770,358 and a sanctuary decoration and furnishing contract to L. L. Sams in the amount of $72,000. Substantial additions have been made to the general and in auxiliary contracts, so that the building and furnishings will cost over $900,000.

The land survey committee named by the church in January 1959 included these: Joe Pickle, chairman, Clyde Angel, Dr. Earl Burnett, John A. Coffee, J. A. Coffey, Merrill Creighton, B. T. Faulkner, Dr. J. E. Hogan, Leroy Hollingshead, Clabert LeBouef, Dr. P. W. Malone, G. G. Morehead, Mrs. W. B. Younger, with Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor, and R. B. Reeder, board of deacon chairman, as ex officio members.

Those on the building committee were R. B. Reeder, chairman, Merrill Creighton, Dr. P. W. Malone, Lonnie Coker, G. G. Morehead, Mrs. Norman Read, Joe Pickle, Dave Dorchester, and Mrs. Clyde Angel, secretary.

Ground was broken on the new church building June 14, 1964.

CHURCHGOER — Josephine Small, 73, carries an ice pick in her right hand and a cattle prod in the other as she leaves the First United Methodist Church in downtown, Miami, Fla. She says, "I've been robbed twice down here in the past year and I'm not going to let it happen again." Officials of the church say two parishioners have died as a result of muggings and about a dozen others have been robbed or assaulted since December.

Tarzan Baptists To Hear Sanford

Due to the critical illness of his mother, the Rev. Billy Kenney will not be able to preach for the Tarzan Baptist Church revival.

The Rev. Dan Sanford, pastor of South Seminole Baptist Church, has accepted the call to lead revival services which are scheduled to begin Sunday-morning, and conclude Sunday March 2.

The pastor, Rev. J. B. Shwemake, invites everyone in the area to attend the services daily at 10 a.m. except Saturday, and at 7:30 p.m. There will be prayer services at 7:00 p.m.

Frank O'Banion, music director of the First Baptist Church, Stanton, will conduct the music for the revival. Saturday evening services have been designated as Youth Night, and the singing group, "The Complete Seven," will present a program.

Mrs. Wanda Louder will be the pianist for the revival music. She is the church pianist and nursery director. Nursery facilities will be available at the night services.

Two Churches Remain Behind Times Sunday

Both Hillcrest Baptist and College Baptist Churches will be behind the time again this Sunday.

Services will be at the old time of 9:45 a.m. and 11 a.m. for Bible study at Hillcrest and Sunday School and preaching services at College this Sunday morning. They will change to Daylight Savings Time after the morning service. All who prefer to sleep another hour, or who can not decide what to do with the clock to get to the correct time, are invited to come at the old time.

Hillcrest Baptist Church is located at Lancaster and 22nd Streets. Collins Moore, Jr. is pastor.

College Baptist is located at 1105 Birdwell with Dr. Jimmy Law as pastor.

Bible Interpretation Causes Church Dissension

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

The fuse is burning shorter in a major denomination of U.S. Lutherans and one segment of the Church last week readied a place to land when, and if, the blowup comes.

At the same time, it was reported that nearly all of the church's ministerial candidates who finished training at a rebel seminary now have been ordained or scheduled for it—against orders of the Church president.

The developments came in the controversy-wracked Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, a Midwestern-based body which has congregations across the nation totaling 2.8 million members.

Crux of the issue is whether the current conservative church administration, backed by resolutions of a governing convention, has authority to impose uniform interpretations of the Bible.

Opposing efforts to do so, a group known as moderates met in Chicago last weekend and authorized incorporation of a nonprofit body to be called the Lutheran Church in Mission.

It was projected as a standby organization, ready in case a split occurs, to provide a transitional structure on a temporary basis for groups or congregations leaving the denomination.

"If separate existence becomes necessary, something we all hope even now can be avoided, we intend our organization to be short-lived," says the Rev. Dr. Thomas Spitz of Manhasset, N.Y., a leader in the Chicago planning.

"Hopefully, some kind of relationship or new alignment involving other Lutherans will emerge into which we can enter," he adds, referring to possible future inclusion in other already existing major Lutheran bodies.

Meanwhile, the Rev. Charles Vogele, a graduate of a seminary-in-exile, Seminex, formed in St. Louis a year ago when most students and faculty walked out of the denomination's regular seminary in protest, was ordained and installed last Sunday at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior in Port Washington, N.Y.

Virtually all of Seminex's approximately 100 graduates now have received Church calls, most of them ordained in defiance of orders by the church's president, the Rev. Dr. J.A.O. Preus.

Seminex, set up when the Rev. Dr. John Tietjen was fired as president of the denomination's historic Concordia Seminary on charges of teaching false doctrine, recently made him its president.

It has 403 students this year, with classrooms in neighboring Roman Catholic and United Church seminaries. Concordia, once the nation's largest Lutheran seminary, has 193 students.

The Chicago meeting was called by an ad hoc committee led by Dr. Spitz, former executive of the Lutheran Council in the U.S. and now a Manhasset pastor, and the Rev. Omar Stuenkel, a Mabel Heights, Ohio, pastor.

"Not by might, nor by Power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord."

COME, LORD JESUS

time out for GOD

Which CRUMBLES First?

Here stands what remains of a Grecian temple dating to 300 B.C. Which crumbles first — the civilization or its religion? Do spiritual foundations collapse because a culture is in trouble? Or do cultures deteriorate because their spiritual foundations are collapsing?

To historians it's like the question about the chicken or the egg. My main concern is our own civilization. This involves my family and the contribution we can make. We have a Bible — we read it! We have a Faith — we try to live it!

My religion makes me conscious of the dangers of today's civilization. Yet, I am an optimist . . . especially on Sunday when my family is at church . . . and when we see your family there too!

Dear Abby

23-Year-Old Virgin In Quandry Over Normalcy

DEAR ABBY: I'm 23, male, and still a virgin. I have had absolutely no experience with sex. Not even a kiss.

I didn't even think about it until I was 20. From then on I kept figuring: "Well, it will happen some day," but now I have doubts about whether I am "normal" or not.

What is normal, Abby? I'm not bothered by the fact that my sex drive is rather retarded. I don't think about it very much, but sometimes I wonder what my first experience will be like, and it scares me. I know I will be so clumsy and embarrassed that I will not perform very well and it will be humiliating.

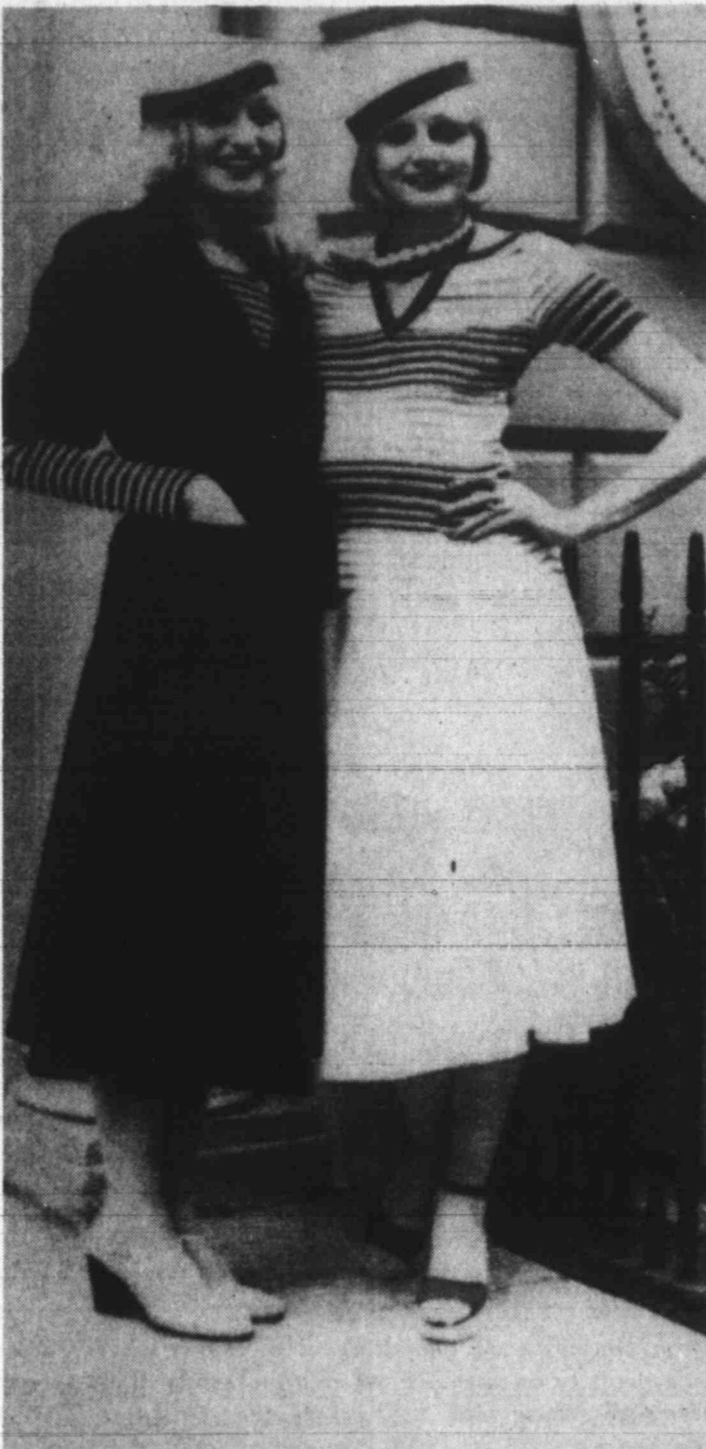

I have dated a few girls, but as soon as I know a good night kiss is expected, I cop out.

Please don't say: "Well, if the girl is understanding..." I suppose a deep relationship could handle this type of thing, but in a shallow relationship, or a one-night stand, it will be humiliating for me, I know.

What's wrong with me, Abby? Do I need a shrink? I'm on a tight budget, and couldn't afford one anyway. Thanks for your time.

NORMAL OR NOT? DEAR NORMAL: If you think you need a shrink, you need one — if only to be assured that you don't. A tight budget is no excuse. Your local Mental Health Association will provide treatment at a price you can afford.

In the meantime, quit worrying about "performance." When you find a SAILOR STYLE — Models Jay, left, and Lorraine display creations from the Christian Dior-London new separates boutique collection for spring, 1975, unveiled in London Tuesday. For these models, the colors were blue and white. The boutique will stock a range of coordinated casual wear and knitwear with prices varying from $25 to $150. Matching accessories will also be available.

Twins Born To Bill Norreds

Identical twin girls born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Norred in Chatsworth, Calif., Feb. 16, have been named Carrie Christine and Stacy Machele.

They are the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Norred and the great-granddaughters of Mrs. Obara Norred, all of Big Spring. Other paternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gus Brandon of Cross Plains.

Material grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Williams, Bremerton, Wash., and maternal great-grandmothers are Mrs. Catherine Williams, Dallas, and Mrs. C. K. Jamison, El Paso.

Norred is president of Micom Systems in Chatsworth.

Big Spring Art Show Set In April

A committee for the annual spring art show was chosen Tuesday when Big Spring Art Association met in the Robert Barnes home with Mrs. Barnes and Mrs. Dalton Conway as hostesses.

The show will be held in April, and those on the committee are Mrs. Walter Witte, Mrs. H. L. Ross, Mrs. Corma Stovall, Mrs. Noble Rogers and Ms. Barbara Leopold.

The Big Country Art Exhibit will be on display at the Anthony Hunt Library at Howard College Feb. 20-28. The exhibit consists of winners from the Abilene show, and will be exhibited next in Colorado City.

The next meeting of the association will be held in the Gary Grant home.

Metric System Demonstrated

The metric system of measuring was demonstrated by Miss Sherry Mullin, home extension agent, Tuesday for Fairview Home Demonstration Club. Members converted a Brownie recipe into metric measurement and prepared the cake.

Miss Mullin explained the system as being divided into three basic units: grams used for weight, liters for volume and meters for lengths.

Mrs. Frank Wilson and Mrs. C. A. Smauley represented the club at the Thursday meeting of the Howard County Bicentennial Commission.

The March 4 all-day meeting will begin at 9:30 a.m. at the Howard County Fair Barn, and a covered dish meal will be served at noon. The program will be on glass cutting.

Gives Pointers On Terrariums

Terrariums were discussed by Mrs. Odell Womack for the After Five Garden Club Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Dee Thomas, 1907 Mittel.

The origin, planting and care of terrariums were included in the talk, with Mrs. Womack stressing use of charcoal in the soil to keep it from souring. She said sand should be used when planting succulents to keep the soil from drying so rapidly, and that gravel should be placed under African violets to keep the leaves from touching wet soil. Mrs. Womack pointed out that plants which need the same soil and care should be planted in the same container.

In speaking of planting terrariums, Mrs. Womack said plants can be rooted in them, or they can be used to force plants to bloom. She noted that plants will reduce themselves to fit the container used.

Terrariums can now be entered in flower shows and are eligible for the highest awards.

Representatives of the club attended the Bicentennial Commission meeting Thursday.

Mrs. Womack urged the club to consider Cottonwood Park for the tree the club will plant soon.

Matrons Have Breakfast

The Past Matrons of Big Spring Chapter 67, Order of Eastern Star, met Saturday at Coker's Restaurant for a breakfast hosted by Mrs. Orbin Daily, Mrs. Charles McCarley and Mrs. George Bair. Mrs. Eugene Gross presided as members reported 100 visits to the sick the past month. The invocation was by Mrs. George Dabney. The next meeting will be March 11, with hostesses being Mrs. Ocie Mason, Mrs. Albert Davis and Mrs. Pearl Ulrey.

New Officers, Events For Single Parents

New officers for Parents Without Partners are Mrs. Christine Freeman, president; Mrs. Dorothy Cross, vice president; Mrs. Juanita Gum, secretary; and Mrs. Billie Barron, treasurer.

Recently named to the board of directors were A. E. Walker, Mrs. Maude Cole, Mrs. Leta Metcalf and Mrs. Estaleene Rice. Mrs. LaRue DeViney was made an honorary board member.

The club has planned several events for the remainder of the month, beginning with a dance at 9 p.m., Friday at the Lamplighter Club, Ramada Inn. Saturday, there will be a pot luck supper in the home of Mrs. Louise Kirkpatrick, 2201 Carl, at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, family bowling is slated at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. Gum and Mrs. Freeman will be delegates to the Pecos Regional Conference Feb. 28-March 1 in Odessa. The theme will be "America, the Beautiful." There will be a social hour, dances, luncheon, banquet and workshops. The events will take place at the Inn of the Golden West and the coliseum.

Music Study Club Hears Folk Songs

Folk songs were presented for The Music Study Club at the Wednesday meeting in the home of Mrs. James Little, 4 Glenwood Cove.

Mrs. Linda Mason and Mrs. Ocey Mason were cohostesses, and Mrs. Bob Simpson, president.

"Parade of American Folk Music" was the overall theme. Mrs. W. I. Graham, soloist, was backed by the club ensemble as she sang American Negro songs and spirituals that included

"Workin' on the Railroad Line", "Good Morning, Everybody", "Were You There?" and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot." Mrs. E. S. Dawson was accompanist.

South Louisiana Cajun music was discussed by Kenneth Sprinkle of Howard College music department who played recorded examples.

Mrs. Joseph Dawes was soloist and Mrs. Charles Beil accompanist for a group of Texas folk songs which included "The Old Maid," "The Old Woman from Ireland," "Bury Me Neath the Willow" and "The Sherman Cyclone."

The Hymn of the Month is "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing" by John Wyeth and Robert Robinson.

District Meet

The district convention of the Does of Texas West was discussed by Big Spring Drove 61 at the Elks Hall Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Roscoe Cone presided as members discussed the convention to which all members and their husbands are invited. San Angelo Drove 130 will be the host group.

Mrs. Truman Mason won the attendance prize.

The March 4 meeting will be at 8 p.m. in the lodge hall.

Activities In Forsan Area

FORSAN (SC) — Mrs. Vera Harris has returned from Robert Lee where she visited her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Craig. The group drove to Abilene to visit the Craigs' daughter, Jamie, a student at ACC, and their son, Jim.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lamb attended the funeral of Mrs. Lamb's sister, Mrs. Daisy Gilmore, in Waco recently.

Mrs. S. C. Hansel and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Barron, have returned from Indio, Calif., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Hansel's daughter, Mrs. Jimmy Goodwin, who is Mrs. Barron's sister.

Mrs. H. H. Story spent the weekend in San Angelo with her son-in-law and daughter, the Robert Stroms.
