'VICIOUS PERSONAL ATTACK' Texans Hail Decision As Triumph For Justice

By the Associated Press
Texas Republicans and Democrats say a Washington jury's verdict of not guilty in former Texas Gov. John Connally's trial on bribery charges proved that the American judicial system works.

"Many people perhaps expected that he would not be given a fair trial, especially by a jury made up of minority people," said El Paso County Clerk Alicia Chacon, a newly appointed liberal member of the National Democratic Executive Committee. "I think it has proven beyond a doubt that the system of justice can function."

WASN'T EASY

George Christian, a former aide and former press secretary for the late Lyndon B. Johnson, said, "I think the facts in the case were so clear that the jury certainly saw it right and settled it. That's the way the system's supposed to work and it worked."

Christian, who testified for the defense, said the trial "was a terrific ordeal for him (Connally) and his entire family, and it wasn't easy." Woodrow Bean, a member of the State Board of Education and a classmate of Connally in law school, said from the very beginning "I thought this was just a vicious personal attack. I'm so happy the jury saw the facts as they were and acquitted Gov. Connally."

IN THE KITCHEN

Bean, who lost a runoff election in a rough El Paso mayor's race, said, "You just never know how viciously you're going to be attacked. But like Harry Truman said, if you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen. I'm sure that Gov. Connally and I will stay in the kitchen."

Gov. Dolph Briscoe was among a parade of Connally's Texan friends who wished him well and said they hoped Connally would return to politics.

"I was happy to learn of the jury's verdict," Briscoe said. "This has been a terrible ordeal for Secretary Connally and his family.

FOUND NOT GUILTY — Former Treasury Secretary John B. Connally and his wife Nellie are surrounded by microphones outside U.S. District Court in Washington Thursday after he was acquitted of bribery charges. The jury found Connally innocent of accepting $10,000 for influencing a milk price decision.

Kissinger Predicts Killings

WASHINGTON (AP) — Predicting "great human suffering," Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said today he believes there will be widespread killings in Cambodia.

"They will try to eliminate all political opponents," Kissinger said referring to the new Khmer Rouge government. "That was certainly the experience in South Vietnam."

Beyond that, Kissinger told the House International Relations Committee, there will be suffering because of the concentration of refugees in Phnom Penh, resulting in such problems as food shortages.

President Ford has said the fall of the Cambodian government to Communist-led rebels is viewed by the United States "with sadness and compassion."

In a two-sentence statement issued Thursday more than 12 hours after the Khmer Rouge insurgents took control of the capital of Phnom Penh, the President also said:

"I wish to express my admiration for the Cambodian government leaders and people, who showed great courage until the end and to their armed forces, who fought valiantly with their remaining supplies."

At about the same time, Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger was delivering a wide-ranging speech on foreign affairs to the American Society of Newspaper Editors without making a direct mention of the fall of the U.S.-backed Cambodian leadership.

Instead, he struck hard at the Soviet Union and China, accusing them of helping "to make a mockery" of the 1973 Vietnam peace accords by continuing to supply aid to the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong.

Last Enclave Due To Fall

SAIGON (AP) — Communist-led forces closed in today on the Saigon government's last enclave on the central coast, jabbed at the edges of Saigon and shelled the big Bien Hoa air base 15 miles northeast of the capital.

On the political front, President Nguyen Van Thieu reshuffled his staff and named former Premier Tran Thien Kiem as presidential adviser, Radio Saigon said. The broadcast said Thieu named Lt. Gen Dang Van Quang to a new position as special national security assistant. Both men are close associates of Thieu and the new appointments are not expected to change significantly Thieu's hard anti-Communist line.

U.S. intelligence sources in Washington say there are indications that elements of three more North Vietnamese divisions have moved into or close to the Saigon military region. This brings to 10 the number of Hanoi divisions threatening the Saigon region, which is defended by only four South Vietnamese divisions, the sources say.

Some U.S. military analysts think the North Vietnamese may choose to try and seal off Saigon and force its collapse rather than attack it directly. They say in that way the North Vietnamese might win an undamaged city. However, there were still no indications that a North Vietnamese drive on Saigon had begun.

RUSSIAN STAR'S NEW LOVE — Victoria Fyodorova, Russian film star visiting her father's home in Orange Park, Fla., cuddles a 10-week-old puppy given her by a friend of her father, retired Adm. ### IN DEPOSITS OVER 1974

Gain Of 6.2 Per Cent Posted By Banks Here

The four Howard County banks today reported a 6.2 per cent gain in deposits over a year ago.

This was in response to a call of condition as of April 16 by the U.S. Comptroller of Currency and State Banking Commissioner. The deposit total of $93,013,515 was only $152,000 under the all-time peak Dec. 31, 1974 when deposits aggregated $93,165,740.

Loans and discounts of $41,346,705 were up 19.09 per cent from last year. Cash of $12,288,541 was down 14.59 per cent from the comparable date a year ago.

Total resources again topped the $100 million mark in aggregating $103,520,110, up $6,323,000 or 6.51 per cent.

The call figures were surprisingly good, in view of an almost total crop failure in 1974, which had swollen bank figures to unprecedented levels on strength of the all-time cotton crop in 1973 — both in volume and price. Comparatives with 1974, however, are not entirely comparable for last-minute income tax payments likely will not be reflected in this year's April 16 date, whereas the April 24 date last year did.

One of the contributing factors to the gains was the higher prices and production of oil.

	April 16, 1975	April 24, 1974	Gain (Decline)
Loans and Discounts	$41,346,705.27	$34,714,810.14	$6,631,895.13
Deposits	93,013,515.44	88,178,892.38	4,834,623.06
Cash	12,288,541.73	14,398,648.04	(2,110,106.31)
Total Resources	103,520,110.92	97,196,318.30	6,323,792.62

In addition to cash figures, the banks reported $47,723,236 in bonds and federal funds, a gain of nearly $1,600,000 over a year ago. The breakdown showed $5,244,830.35 in United States Bonds, $27,453,406.23 in other bonds, and $15,025,000 in federal funds sold.

By banks, the reports showed:
FIRST NATIONAL — Loans and discounts $23,276,872.63; deposits $46,205,420.78; cash $6,123,648.96; total resources $51,334,312.91. In addition the bank had $1,619,976.10 in U.S. bonds, $14,028,117.12 in other bonds, and $4,850,000 in federal funds sold.

STATE NATIONAL — Loans and discounts $10,740,231.05; deposits $26,368,926.43; cash $2,621,819.94; total resources $29,193,639.10. In addition the banks had $2,384,626.50 in U.S. bonds, $8,722,918.77 in other bonds and $4,550,000 in federal funds sold.

SECURITY STATE — Loans and discounts $4,582,202.32; deposits $16,079,124.29; cash $3,049,680.47; total resources $18,014,607.57. In addition the bank had $798,227.75 U.S. bonds, $3,842,774.71 in other bonds, and $5,250,000 in federal funds sold.

COAHOMA STATE — Loans and discounts $2,747,399.27; deposits $4,360,043.94; cash $493,392.36; total resources $4,977,551.35. In addition the bank had $442,000 in U.S. bonds, $859,595.63 in other bonds, and $375,000 in federal funds sold.

Heat Second To Midland

The mercury in Big Spring almost reached the highest in Texas Thursday, but not quite. The thermometer measured a high of 95 degrees here, but Midland's 97 degrees was the highest in the state.

The 95 degree figure here missed the all-time record high, a 101 degree reading which occurred in 1925.

ONE INJURED — Neil Ray McCrary was cut on the feet and legs when a window blew in at 12:55 p.m. today in the snack bar area at the west end of the Cosden Office building. Winds were reported to be up to 35 miles per hour when a cold front hit shortly before noon. Mrs. McCrary was hospitalized at Medical Arts.

Connally Bribery Acquittal Keeps Political Hopes Alive

WASHINGTON (AP) — John B. Connally says he hopes to resume his political life in some form following his acquittal on bribery charges.

"I hope as long as I live I never lose the desire to participate in political affairs," said the former treasury secretary and one-time presidential prospect.

"Now in what role, in what capacity, in what way it will be done, I don't know. I'm not about to describe it today, or even in the next few days or next week," he said.

MILK SUPPORTS

Connally spoke to newsmen outside federal court Thursday evening just minutes after a jury found him innocent of charges that he took two $5,000 payoffs for helping dairymen by urging higher milk price supports in 1971.

The prosecution's case against him had been based primarily on the testimony of Jake Jacobsen, a former lawyer for the dairymen, who said he paid Connally the money. Jacobsen had admitted to the jury that he perjured himself in testifying about the case in other forums.

DAUGHTER WEEPS

Connally was reading a Bible when the jury filed into the courtroom after deliberating for six hours.

He sat pokerfaced as the jury foreman announced the verdict of "not guilty." Then Connally beamed, embraced his wife Nell and shook hands with his lawyer Edward Bennett Williams. Connally's daughter Sharon wept with happiness.

He said he had no immediate plans except to return to Texas. "We haven't thought beyond this moment" he said.

Outside, he spoke to newsmen for the first time since the trial began April 1.

Did he feel vindicated? "I don't suppose I think of it so much as a vindication," he said. "I'm happy. Neil's happy. The children are. All of the family is. I suppose we never felt there could be any outcome but this... I thought they made us worry about it for some time here today, but I'm happy about it."

Connally, a Democrat before he switched to the Republican party in 1973, had been considered a possible presidential contender. Before his indictment last year he was in constant demand for appearances at GOP fund-raising events around the country.

Had the indictment and trial derailed his presidential hopes? "Well, I don't know and I haven't given any thought to it, very frankly," he said. "I won't think about it for some time. I don't have a great deal more to say to you. At some later time I will have some more to say to you."

Still pending against Connally were two charges of making false statements to a grand jury and a charge of conspiracy to cover up the alleged bribes.

A spokesman for the Watergate Special Prosecution Force would give no immediate comment Thursday on whether these charges would now be pressed or dropped. The charges were part of the original indictment against Connally, but were severed for a separate trial by Chief U.S. District Court Judge George L. Hart.

State Offices Close Monday

Most state offices will close Monday for San Jacinto Day.

This would include the Department of Public Safety office, state highway department, state welfare department, all Texas Education agency offices as well as the state hospital for control office, state stamp office and the Texas Parks and Wildlife.

"The man said he needed medical help," Paula Talbot of the food stamp certification office said.

At the Halfway House, 901 W. 3rd St., a woman "said they didn't take transits," Carmen Salazar of food stamps said.

Griffith told food stamp workers he had sought help from the county welfare association.

Mrs. Ruby Phillips, county welfare supervisor, said she did not talk to him but the secretary, who was not available for comment immediately, might have.

"We do not help transits," Mrs. Phillips said. "We have to help people who reside here." But she said the office did make referrals to agencies like the Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army told food stamp employees to send him back if he was really sick.

Coahoma Joins RP Commission

COAHOMA — The City Council Tuesday night voted to accept membership in the Permian Basin. Regional Planning Commission at a special called meeting.

The Commission extended an invitation to the city to join, and the council voted unanimously to accept.

PBRPC consists of local government agencies in 17 counties in the Permian Basin area.

LICENSED ELECTRICIAN Refused Medical Help, Man Dies

A 61-year-old Virginia electrician seeking medical help in Big Spring died at 2:50 p.m. Thursday.

"He claimed to be sick, but the doctor said he wasn't," Capt. L. Z. Sullivan of the Salvation Army said of Emmett Eugene Griffith, 61, Luray, Va.

"We thought he had a mental problem," Sullivan said. So they sent him to the Big Spring State Hospital.

Griffith was not admitted to the state hospital. Police Patrolman Mikel Pearson said he picked up Griffith at a hospital and allowed the man to stay as a "sleeper" at the city jail Wednesday night.

"He was weak, but he was feeling pretty good," Pearson said. "He was a licensed electrician in several states, real intelligent guy."

"He didn't have any place to go or stay," Pearson said. Earlier Wednesday afternoon, Griffith visited the food stamp office here. But the Post Office, which issues food stamps to those certified by the State Department of Public Welfare Office, was closed. And Griffith wanted help immediately.

"The man said he needed medical help," Paula Talbot of the food stamp certification office said.

At the Halfway House, 901 W. 3rd St., a woman "said they didn't take transits," Carmen Salazar of food stamps said.

Griffith told food stamp workers he had sought help from the county welfare association.

Mrs. Ruby Phillips, county welfare supervisor, said she did not talk to him but the secretary, who was not available for comment immediately, might have.

"We do not help transits," Mrs. Phillips said. "We have to help people who reside here." But she said the office did make referrals to agencies like the Salvation Army.

The Salvation Army told food stamp employees to send him back if he was really sick.

"He said he didn't feel good enough to walk that far," Mrs. Talbot said. They called Alert Ambulance. An ambulance arrived but the man was refused ambulance transportation.

Police were called. The policeman was "super kind to him," Mrs. Talbot said.

After spending a night in jail as a "sleeper," Griffith asked for a ride to IS-20 so he could hitchhike to Fort Worth, police said.

Police Chief Vance Chisum said a passing motorist later saw him lying by the highway and stopped.

The motorist returned Griffith to the police station at Griffith's request, police said. Griffith wanted to be taken back to the Salvation Army, because he was sick.

The Salvation Army was not contacted this time. Instead, police put him in a patrol car and took him to another hospital.

County Judge Bill Tule declared Griffith dead on arrival at the hospital.

An incomplete lab report showed Griffith was suffering from pneumonia of the left lung, the police chief said.

Services are pending at the Bradley Funeral Home in Luray, Va. Local arrangements were handled by Nalley-Pickie Funeral Home.

Mr. Griffith was born Aug. 11, 1913, in Page County, Va. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Ophelia Weakley, Va., two brothers, Robert Griffith, Luray, Va., and Harold Griffith, Elv, Nev.

Birthday Dinner To Fete Mrs. Hardesty

Her children will honor Mrs. J. E. (Cora Jane) Hardesty here Saturday evening on the occasion of her 90th birthday, and chances are that she will strike up a tune before the party's over.

Music, flowers and church always have played a great part in her career. Failing eye sight cut her off from her gardening and reduced her church activity, but she still gets in her music at Big Spring Nursing Inn, where she has been a resident for the past two years.

Local Couple Are Parents

Mr and Mrs. Danny Hull, 704 E. Third, are parents of a daughter, Christina Lee, born April 11 at Medical Arts Hospital. The infant weighed 6 pounds, 13 ounces. The mother is the former Mary Gonzales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roberto Gonzales, Cactus Drive. The infant's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hull, 2311 Allendale, and the great-grandmother is Mrs. Earl Phillips, Big Spring.

will be joined by their wives and husband. Mrs. Hardesty's sister, Mrs. Clarence Ranson, Cleburne, and sister-in-law, Mrs. George Hardesty, Lubbock, will be among guests as will Mr. and Mrs. John Ralston, Garland, Mrs. Howard Milburn, Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas, Houston, nephews and nieces; and her granddaughter, Susan Hardesty, Los Angeles, and Mrs. Danny Plowman; and a great-granddaughter, Kelli Plowman, Big Spring.

When she was a girl, Mrs. Hardesty began playing the piano and violin, and before she was married to Joe E. Hardesty in Cleburne in 1907, she was teaching violin. She studied at Landon Conservatory in Dallas, and when she and Mr. Hardesty moved to Jackson, Miss. she studied at Belhaven Conservatory of Music and continued teaching.

They returned to Texas in 1927, and she began a long tenure teaching violin and piano in Lamesa High School. The family moved to Big Spring in 1942, but Mrs. Hardesty continued her teaching privately until several years ago when her sight began to fail.

She is a 33-year member of the Big Spring Music Study Club, which she still attends and which dedicated its yearbook to her in 1962. She held many of its offices. Until she disposed of her home and moved to the nursing inn (where she was chosen as Senior Citizen Queen), she was an enthusiastic member of Big Spring Garden Club.

Mrs. Hardesty has been a Baptist as long as a musician, and has served even more faithfully at it. In Lamesa and in the First Baptist Church here, when it was at Sixth and Main, she played violin accompaniment for services each Sunday. For 25 years she was a teacher in junior departments, and then switched to an adult Sunday School class until she retired to being simply a member. Serving her Lord comes first, and each Sunday she still goes with her daughter to morning worship.

Time may have slowed but not stopped her. In March she went with her son, Frank, and daughter, Mrs. Elliott, to a Hardesty family reunion which drew 58 persons who presented her with a bouquet of roses as a measure of appreciation by the Hardesty clan.

Naturally, she obliged by playing selections on the piano for the group, topping it with "It's No Secret What God Can Do," which, by the way, happens to be her theme song with which she habitually opens her Sunday services at the Nursing Inn.

MRS. J. E. HARDESTY

Profanity Shows Lack Of Regard For Others

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I see eye to eye on almost everything, but we have one major difference of opinion. I can't stand people who use dirty four-letter words, and my husband says that that's the way some people talk, and that I should accept them for what they are and try to get over my hang-up.

Sorry, but I can't. I wasn't brought up that way. It's not that I'm a prude, Abby. I've heard all the words and I know what they mean, but I don't see why people who talk dirty can't go out of their way to avoid offending those of us who have this so-called "hang-up" about four-letter words.

What is your feeling about this?

HUNG-UP
DEAR HUNG-UP: I'm hung up, too, because I wasn't brought up that way, either. But some of the most humane, constructive and interesting people I know occasionally resort to four-letter words. And some of the most intolerant, hypocritical, narrow-minded bigots wouldn't think of using such language.

The sensitive, considerate person who normally uses four-letter words will watch his language out of respect for those in his company whom he knows are offended by it. But one can't always judge a person's worth and character by his language any more than one can judge a book by its cover.

DEAR ABBY: Everywhere I go, I see more and more "how to" books! The latest is on how to make love. I have nothing against that. I'm sure a lot of people need help in that area, but I would like to make one comment.

We read so much about the importance of "foreplay." (Most men are in too big a hurry to get right down to the sex act, not realizing it takes a woman longer to get warmed up.) Very little, however, is said about "afterplay" — which, I think, is equally important.

If a man would just take his lady love in his arms and hold her, and maybe give her a little kiss on the nose afterwards, it would mean so much.

So many men just roll over and give the little lady their backs for the rest of the night. Abby, will you please pass this along to your male readers, if you think it has merit? Thanks.

LOVES TO BE LOVED
DEAR LOVES: Consider it passed. I wonder how many women have suffered in silence from such a seemingly minor oversight?

CONFIDENTIAL TO "THE GRADUATE": Do not send out an "announcement" each time you earn a degree. Your family and close friends will know, and the others might get the idea that you are bragging about your degrees.

EVERYONE HAS A PROBLEM. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L. A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20 cents) envelope.

'WE ARE GOING TO STOP THOSE $10,000 CONTRIBUTIONS' Legislation Seeking To Halt Land Subsidence

AUSTIN (AP) — A bill setting up a special government body to halt land subsidence in Harris and Galveston counties was passed by the House today, 105-0.

House members, many of them not voting to attend this morning's work session, also approved a bill setting up a $500,000-a-year pilot program for gifted children. The vote was 69-42.

"One of the learning problems of young people ... is finding the gifted child and giving him something that will challenge him," said Rep. Dave Allred, D-Wichita Falls.

Opponents claimed the pilot program would grow into a full-fledged state-financed program costing $17 million to $85 million a year.

"State funds are very, very tight. We are trying to offer a Minimum Foundation Program and don't even have the money to do that," said Rep. Wayne Peveto, D-

Orange. "... This is ridiculous. A program dreamed up by a bunch of bureaucrats. We need to spend this money on kids who are really in need."

The land subsidence bill addresses a problem that has grown in recent years.

"Many areas have sunk as much as seven or eight feet in the Pasadena area," Rep. Bill Caraway, D-Houston, the sponsor, said in Thursday's preliminary debate.

National network television news shows recently ran film showing once-posh neighborhoods abandoned and partially submerged.

Caraway's bill attacks the heart of the problem—excessive pumping of underground water that supports the overlying land—by creating a special district with power to regulate such withdrawals. The district, in fact, would be required by state law to formulate a plan reducing ground water withdrawals "to amounts which will restore and maintain sufficient artesian pressure to control and prevent subsidence."

Caraway, a freshman member, had to endure a number of bad jokes before the House tentatively approved his bill on voice vote Thursday.

One member suggested the San Jacinto Monument might look better surrounded by water.

Another asked whether the problem might be sea encroachment instead of land subsidence.

The House briefly discussed, but then put off until next Friday, a bill making numerous revisions in the campaign finance reform law that was passed in 1973.

Rep. Bill Hollowell, D-Grand Saline, made the motion to delay the bill, saying it was long, complex, needed more study and, besides, the representatives were tired. His motion carried, 79-51.

Before the postponement, the bill's sponsor, Rep. Ben Bynum, D-Amarillo, said one major improvement was to prohibit cash contributions of more than $100.

A $15,000 cash donation from rancher Clinton Mangas was a side issue in the campaign finance violation suit filed last year by Frances Farenthold against Gov. Dolph Briscoe

Bandit Pleads Guilty

LUBBOCK — Luther Frazier entered a plea of guilty here Thursday to a one-count federal indictment charging him with the Jan. 21 robbery of the First National Bank in O'Donnell.

The plea came in formal arraignment proceedings before U.S. Dist. Judge Halbert O. Woodward. Woodward continued sentencing pending a presentence report by probation officers.

Frazier, 59, of Lubbock faces a maximum sentence of 20 years in prison and fine of $5,000.

The charges were filed against Frazier after a cashier at the bank identified Frazier's picture from a group of photos supplied by Lubbock authorities.

Frazier was arrested four days after the robbery after registering under his real name at a Dallas motel.

He still faces a state court indictment on a charge involving the theft of the 1971 blue Chrysler allegedly used as the getaway car in the robbery.

The car was reported taken for a test drive about 11:50 a.m. Jan. 21 from a Lubbock auto firm.

Frazier also is wanted on a warrant alleging parole violation. He was reportedly paroled about one year ago from the Texas Department of Corrections where he was serving a life sentence as a habitual criminal.

Goliad Choir In Good Voice

Kiwanians had a musically delightful time Thursday when the Goliad Junior High choir, under the direction of Joyce Hull, presented the program.

There were numbers for the mixed choir, a number for the boys and one for the girls, and a specialty, "Mrs. Murphy's Chowder," with solos by Mark Knight and Bill Swindell. The finale, "Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy" got a big hand. Christie Haynes had laughs for a take-off on a television commercial skit.

While it is customary to respond in a major to partner's minor suit opening, North's spade holding was so shabby that he rightly rejected bidding that suit in favor of raising partner. However, when partner introduced spades at the three-level, North boldly proceeded to game in that strain. Since his club king was, in all likelihood, worthless in view of East's overcall, North is to be congrat-

Clubs and organizations which have scheduled events that would be of interest to tourists and to people in the community should call the Chamber of Commerce and let them know.

The Chamber is compiling a calendar of events to be printed and distributed each month, beginning with the month of May, according to Chamber manager Terry Hanson.

The project is coordinated through the Tourism Committee of the Community Development Council.

According to Hanson, the calendar will feature a map of Big Spring and area with points of interest pinpointed on the map. Photos of some special events will be printed each month along with the calendar of events.

Conservation Tour Is By Howard District

Soil Stewardship Week, a national observance which emphasizes man's responsibility to protect and conserve soil, water, and other natural resources, received an early kick-off this week in Howard County.

The Ministerial Alliance was hosted to a conservation tour by the Howard Soil and Water Conservation District.

Ministers met for breakfast sponsored by the local conservation district before loading on a bus furnished by the Assembly of God Church.

The first stop on the tour was made at the Crawford farm east of Big Spring that has recently been purchased and renovated by Cosden Oil and Chemical. Jack Elrod of the Soil Conservation Service (SCS) discussed conservation treatment applied on the farm to include brush control, range seeding, field terraces and diversion terraces.

The tour's second stop was the Big Spring State Hospital farm where Chesley Wilson of the SCS gave a brief history of the grass seedings and other work accomplished on the farm under the Great Plains

Downtown Lions Plan Lightbulb Campaign

Downtown Lions members will begin their Spring mission of knocking on doors to sell cartons of lightbulbs.

It's a symbol of light for hundreds of individuals, mostly school children, who get to see or see better because of this annual project. Teams begin their canvass about 5:30 p.m. Monday offering a package of bulbs for $2.25.

Since the first of this year the club has financed some $3,000 in sight assistance, mostly in glasses. Since the beginning of the club's fiscal year last July 1, the figure is more like $4,000 plus.

Included in this is some participation in other activities, an eye operation in one instance. There have been other projects such as supplying magnifying glasses for poor-sighted

Bank To Display Ancient Coins During Coming Week

A coin collection, boasting pieces dating back to the time of Christ, will be displayed in the lobby of the First National Bank here, for a week starting Monday, coinciding with National Coin Week.

Most of the 206 coins on display are, in reality, communion tokens — coins given by Christians for admission to a ritual known as the Lord's Table.

The coins were collected from all over the globe by Oliver Keith Rumbel of Mission, Tex., and sent here to a dedicated numismatist, W. E. Wozencraft, who, in turn, turned them over to The First Presbyterian Church for display.

One of the coins dates back to Antioch, birthplace of St. Luke in 4-3 B.C.

The collection has been credited by Smithsonian Institute. Three cases are needed to display all the coins.

Two Youths 5-Year-Old Is Arrested Struck By Car

STANTON — Steven Anthony Morris, 18, and William Arthur Reed Jr., 19, both of Big Spring, were arrested last week in Stanton and charged with attempted burglary before Justice of the Peace Martin Gibson.

Gibson set their bonds at $5,000 each on the burglary offense and Martin County Judge Carrol Yater set bonds on them at $500 each in county court on a marijuana charge.

An attempt had been made to break in the Walgreen Drug on a Tuesday night last week, police said, and no entry was gained. On Wednesday, Police Chief C.L. Rogers and Patrolman Joe Arguello were watching the drug store when an auto pulled up behind the building about 10 p.m.

Rogers and Arguello watched two men get out of the vehicle and attempt to break into the drug store. The men returned to their auto after having trouble gaining entrance and then spotted the policemen.

They then dropped into the floorboard of their auto. Following their arrest, the officers said they discovered an assortment of burglary tools and a lid of marijuana.

Probated Term May Be Revoked

Senior Citizens Play Prominent Role Here

Senior citizens is not longer a phrase — it is a substantial reality in Big Spring, according to Marion Ireland, board member for Kentwood Center, 2805 Lynn.

There are in the city 4,000 senior citizens (60 years and above), he said in a talk to Downtown Lions Wednesday. Many are active and creative, some are disabled, some cannot take care of themselves, and a sizeable number of elderly people are lonely, he told the Lions. All of them have need for activities and human contact.

"Kentwood Center," he said, "came into being because one church (First United Methodist) had faith." That congregation turned over the building housing the former Kentwood church to a board which operates the center.

Makeup of the board is a representative of various participating agencies such as American Association of Retired Persons, World War II Veterans, retired federal workers and teachers, etc. There is no fee attached to taking part in the center's many activities.

Outside agencies are invited to help with the project, and occasionally they do by furnishing programs, refreshments, and even contribute to finances.

Ireland got interested after he recovered from a stroke that had left him paralyzed, noting that "I figured I owed something." Efforts to interest the county and city bore little fruit, but the church came along. He said there are various funds under the Older Persons (Federal) Act, but little effort has been made to obtain these. There is another group, the Senior Citizens, which meets regularly on the Howard College Campus, he added, and both centers have programs ranging from information to entertainment.

Rape Suspect Is Charged

ODESSA — A 19-year-old Odessa man remained in Ector County Jail Thursday in lieu of $50,000 bond charged with aggravated rape of a minor child.

According to Ector County sheriff's deputies, the charge stems from the alleged April 7 rape of a 12-year-old girl.

The girl reportedly accepted a ride with a man she later described as about 30 and between 5'9" and 6' tall. She said the man drove north of the city and assaulted her.

Sheriff's deputies Sonny Holderman and Don Register arrested Ricky Dale Ramsey at his residence Thursday afternoon.

Ramsey was charged before Justice of the Peace Jan Brooks who also set bond.

GOOD FOOD, COLOR TV Want To Live It Up? Try Jail

DALLAS (AP) — The average, law-abiding citizen would have to pay at least $125 a week to maintain the life style of an inmate in the Dallas County jail, a newspaper reports.

The Dallas Times Herald said it examined the cost to a citizen in the outside world of the services provided inmates.

The bill totaled $500 monthly but did not include the cost of clothing, church and charitable contributions, household furnishings, kitchen utensils and transportation which a citizen with his freedom might also have to bear.

If the average citizen ate the same meals served to the prisoners, he would spend about $140 a month. "Ask any crook who's been there and he will tell you the county jail serves food as good as any cafeteria in town and in most cases better," the newspaper said.

While in jail, the prisoner has the chance to become a fulltime college student. Students attending a Dallas County Community College District pay an average of $32 monthly for books, fees and tuition.

The inmate's home is his cell. That costs about $25,000 to build. In the outside world, a $25,000 dwelling could mean about $260 monthly in payments, insurance and taxes.

Utilities bills could add another $80 monthly. The free medical and dental services available to an inmate would cost an average family about $150 per year.

Because U.S. District Court Judge Sarah T. Hughes has ordered that prisoners be provided exercise, the county has arranged an exercise program over closed circuit television into the cells.

Favor Retirement Aid

Texas voters in 1965, again in 1968, again in 1969, again in 1972 and in 1973 rejected proposals to increase the pay of members of the Texas Legislature. In 1970 they turned down the idea that a commission be created to set legislative compensation.

They decide the issue once again next Tuesday. It is our feeling that it's time to make an adjustment in the amount of compensation we pay members of the Legislature, therefore we endorse a "yes" vote on Constitutional Amendment No. 2 on Tuesday.

Briefly stated, the amendment would increase the pay of Legislators from $4,800 a year to $7,200 per year would raise their per diem expense allowance from the present $12 a day to $30 a day, and to enable them to receive the same travel allowance as any other state employees (currently it is 10 cents against 16 cents for other state employees).

The $4,800 compensation voted in 1960 certainly is not a realistic figure today. We venture that in terms of purchasing power it probably would not buy much more than a half of two-thirds as much as when first provided. So Legislators have, in effect, taken a salary cut in recent years. But our reasons for supporting realistic pay for those we name to represent us in the Legislature are based on more than keeping pace with inflation. Although the theory is that being a legislator is not a full-time job, in practice it is very near that. And if you count in the hours most conscientious solons put in at night sessions and running errands or attending functions of constituents, the job fits the full-time category. Aside from that, good men and women willing to serve are entitled to do this without financial penalty. We are entitled to have people in the Legislature who can serve without being independently wealthy or having to compromise their position through moonlighting or taking questionable retainers to make a living. The easy course is to say that "nobody made them run for the job," or "they're getting all their worth," and vote down the proposal once again. We think the wiser course is to enable these people to receive an honorable level of subsistence.

A Reasonable Conclusion

The Permian Basin Planned Parenthood, Inc. observes open house on the occasion of the first anniversary of its Big Spring Clinic at the Permian Building Sunday afternoon.

One measure of its effectiveness is that in the space of that time some 300 patients have been registered. The ethical, careful and sensible approach which the clinic has exhibited in its operation has overcome much of the initial suspicion and objection by some to such a service. The emphasis is upon planning, not merely a negative facet of avoiding offspring. Some may disagree, but by and large the health and happiness of individuals and families, as well as the well being of members, extends beyond what might have been to what well be because of this service.

Rejected Ideas

Around The Rim

John Edwards

If you think this space is wasted, consider the column topics which were rejected.

What to do in Big Spring? (Well?)

CHEAP THRILLS. (If I knew any, I wouldn't be broke and still spending money.)

Symptoms of interesting and — or popular diseases.

What church people really seem to be doing to get to heaven. (Not being a churchie, I don't know what your establishment types are doing.)

Snobbishness among blue collar workers. (Unable to investigate this alleged attitude, because they won't talk to me.)

And how to get a divorce without an attorney. (Only attorneys know, and they're not talking either.)

Somehow, it doesn't sound right coming from the Texas Highway Department. A large sign by an interstate highway in Fort Worth said: "Our Condition Delicate — Please Drive Carefully."

MORE VEHICLES were registered and more motorists bought plates early this year, Mrs. Zarah L. Bednar, county tax collector, said.

There were 26,535 vehicles registered in Howard County on April 1, 1975. On the same day last year, registrations totaled 25,212.

Thanks to cooperative motorists, no one had to wait very long for license plates at the courthouse on the last two days before the deadline, Mrs. Bednar said.

As the Permian Basin Planned Parenthood Inc., plans open house here for Sunday, I discovered this observation in an Associated Press story about computer marriages in Russia:

Meliksetyan, a senior scientific fellow attached to the Sex Education Laboratory of the Academy of Pedagogical Sciences, does not foresee the establishment of a state bureau for matchmaking in the near future.

Widening The Gap

Rowland Evans

WASHINGTON — Vice President Nelson Rockefeller's choice as his new policy advisor of an outspoken liberal Republican from California who makes Ronald Reagan see red reflects both polarization and increasing confusion in the upper reaches of the Republican party.

JOHN G. VENEMAN, widely esteemed as Under Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) throughout Richard M. Nixon's first term, will be announced soon as the new "counselor" to the Vice President. That's a slap in the face to the Governor, a gleeful Reagan insider informed us. His hope: the unpleasant news, reaching Reagan in London this week, will be another nudge toward challenging Mr. Ford for the presidential nomination.

At a minimum, picking Veneman confirmed that Rockefeller has abandoned conciliation of the Republican right and is returning to his home in the party's liberal wing. That is polarization.

MOREOVER, that "slap in the face" comes while Reagan seems moving, though with infinite caution, toward a presidential challenge. While the White House had yet to take the first preparatory step toward the 1976 campaign, Reagan's political operatives assembled in Washington last week for hours of political talk.

Actually, Veneman's selection is described by Rockefeller insiders as devoid of political significance. The Vice President needed somebody who knows his way around both Capitol Hill and the bureaucracy and understands the issues. Who could fill that bill better than Jack Veneman?

BUT VENEMAN is a politician to his fingertips who, of course, will be advising Rockefeller on politics as well as health care legislation. Accordingly, his political background takes on significance.

As a young state Assemblyman, Veneman vigorously supported Gov. Rockefeller against Sen. Barry Goldwater in the bloody California presidential primary of 1964. After serving as Gov. Reagan's liberal Republican hairshirt in the legislature, Veneman came to HEW in Washington — much to Reagan's public displeasure.

RETURNING TO California in 1973, Veneman was the only prominent Republican to oppose Reagan's unsuccessful referendum to limit state spending and publicly nailed the Governor for exaggerating how much he had saved on welfare. Reagan, in turn, did not disguise hostility to Veneman's unsuccessful 1974 bid for lieutenant governor. By then, the Reagan-Veneman enmity had transcended ideology and reached a highly personal level. Both Veneman and Rockefeller's anti-filibuster moves on Rule 22 illustrate the end of Rockefeller's most recent courtship of the right (climaxed by his 1973 pilgrimage to South Carolina to discuss foreign policy with Sen. Strom Thurmond.)

NOR DOES ROCKEFELLER'S new course seem coordinated with the President, who would have ruled differently on Rule 22 and prefers not to offend Ronald Reagan. The latter desire explains Mr. and Mrs. Ford inviting the Reagans to dinner-four at a rented Palm Springs mansion April 2. The dinner accomplished little. Nor did it affect the secret gathering in Washington a day earlier of Reagan political operatives.

My Answer

Billy Graham

I am 14 years old and in the 9th grade. Last year in science class, a kid said that if evolution wasn't true, how come there was so much evidence for it? I happen to believe the Bible creation account, but I couldn't answer him, and I don't dare ask my parents. Don't write me — I'll read your answer in the paper.

The Bible book of Genesis presents an abbreviated account of the beginning of our earth. Indeed, it does so in such majestic simplicity that it has survived the greatest attacks.

You can tell your fellow student that evolution is an unverified hypothesis. Really, the question of how life began is a philosophical one. As far as science is concerned, you can hold to a natural or supernatural origin of life on an equally valid scientific basis. You'd be interested to know that a scientist writing recently in the "Quarterly Review of Biology" even thought the odds were in favor of the supernatural view.

But here's a good statement that appeared in "Inter-Varsity Press" last year: "If we take seriously what the Bible means by creation, we see that it is not just a single datable event... it is rather a continuing relationship of dependence between us and God, such that the whole of our drama, its past, its present and its future owes its form and its ongoing existence moment by moment to His creative power."

A Devotion For Today . .

"We do not lose heart. Though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed every day."
(2 Corinthians 4:16 RSV)
PRAYER: Thank You, Lord, for Your presence — in defeat as in victory; in danger as well as in safety. Amen.

School Busing

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — Farewell to busing! The roughing-up that Massachusetts' favorite son, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, got in Boston the other day was a symptom of the revolt against the forced exchange of pupils from one school to another, although "many court" cases are pending.

ONCE NO. 1 IN THE CREDO of every card-carrying liberal, the benefits of court-ordered integration during the past decade are seen to be highly doubtful. As the experience in South Boston has shown, racial antagonism is accentuated by the attempt to bring black pupils into virtually all white schools. To challenge the goal was to be just another George Wallace standing in the schoolhouse door with a baseball bat. The tragic fallacy was in assuming that the profound inequities grown up in a society based on dualism of privilege and opportunity between black and white could be remedied by mixing the races in the public schools. This was an idealism.

BUT THE INEQUITY in education — the overcrowded, run-down schools and overworked teachers in the ghetto — was only one of the injustices in the dual society and not the principal one. Housing, open spaces, clean air, health, diet, these are the components of inequality that supersede an impoverished education.

It has become increasingly apparent that behavior patterns, habits of study and thought, are fixed long before the earliest grades. The hope was that a transformation could be worked by bringing together the deprived young with those who had greater advantages.

THAT A CHANGE could be worked on preschool children was the concept behind a program initiated by Mrs. Lyndon Johnson. This was Head Start which is observing its 10th anniversary. Beginning at the age of two or three, children from families at the poverty level were to get special training, an adequate diet and health supervision at day-care centers. Today, there are 379,000 children in the program on a budget of $414 million. Of this number, 70,000 are on an eight-week summer course. In response to a command from Congress, 10 per cent are handicapped or severely handicapped. The age range is from three to seven.

THE TOTAL IS between 10 and 12 percent of children eligible at the poverty level for the special care. A drop in the bucket of need, the program has been criticized on the ground that the children, when they go back to regular schools and when they return to the poverty of their background, soon lose the advantages of the two or three years spent in the day-care centers. While this is not a civil rights program, approximately 60 percent of the children are black. They are, for the most part, from city centers where schools are under the greatest handicaps. Blacks in recent years have made rapid progress. This is true above all at the top level with a notable assist from federal requirements for minority hiring. Blacks hold a wide range of positions inconceivable a decade ago.

Progress for the few is hardly convincing for the many at the bottom of the heap. In the ghetto, unemployment among young blacks in the center cities ranges from 20 to 25 percent. Summer jobs can only postpone what must in some distant future be a day of reckoning.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

President Ford remarked the other day that he would not buy a book written by anyone convicted in the Watergate scandal. It's hard not to share his affront that some of the convicted criminals may make large sums from books, in effect exploiting not only a national tragedy but their own misdeeds.

As we reflect on the matter, though, it gets less and less clear. A few years ago, after all, Nazi armaments minister Albert Speer made large sums from a book describing his experiences in the Third Reich. While he profited from his crimes, most people had little trouble agreeing that the more important thing was that he might contribute information and insights that would help history understand a cosmic tragedy.

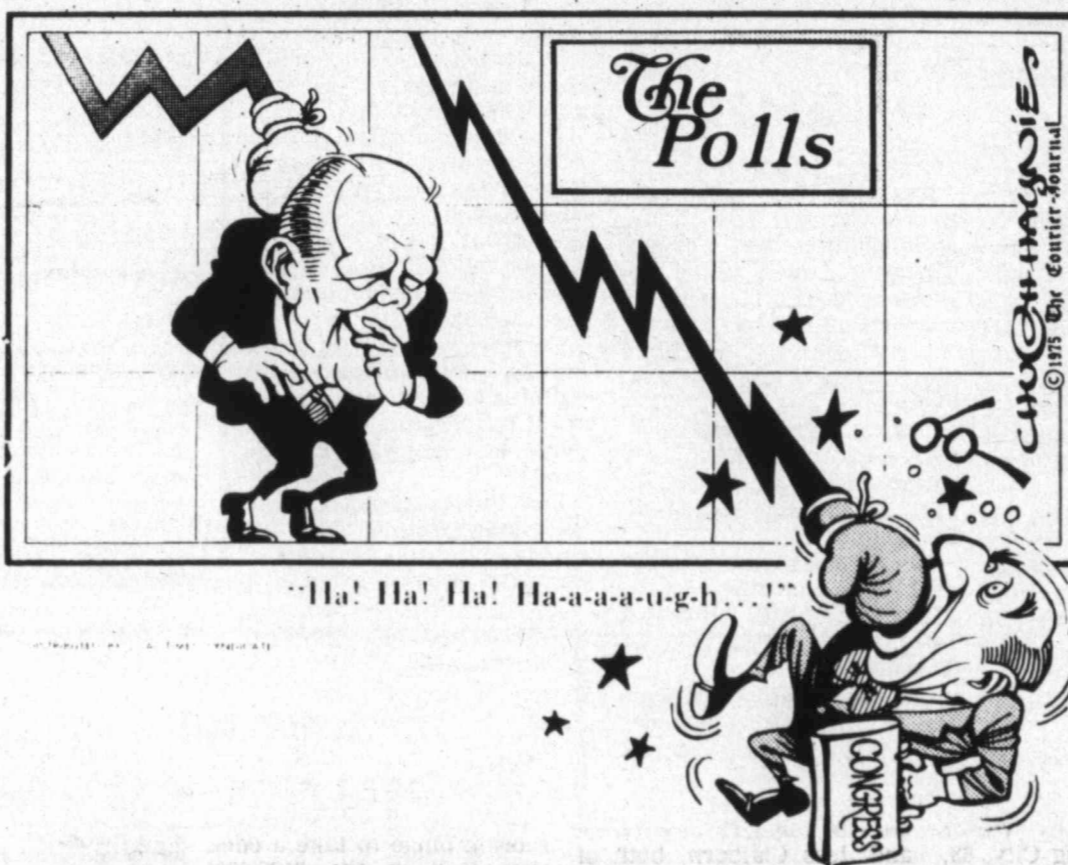

We're less worried about the convicted making some money than about the not-convicted being tarred with guilt by association. It seems to be happening already.

Now we have the case of Ron Zeigler; groups at Boston University and Michigan State University have worked themselves up into a moral huff and withdrawn invitations for paid lectures by the former Presidential Press Secretary. He has not been convicted or even indicted for anything connected with Watergate, and is thus entitled to a presumption of legal innocence.

As you watch the fad spread to other campuses, and no doubt to other Watergate figures as well, our advice is to seek out the nearest dictionary and look up the word "Pecksniffian." If you happen to have a Random House, it will read, "hypocritically affecting benevolence or high moral principles" after Seth Pecksniff, character in "Martin Chuzzlewit," a novel (1843) by Dickens. — THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

Who Wants Them?

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — The price of membership on the stock exchanges is rising again. A seat on the New York Stock Exchange sold this week at $95,000, up $15,000 from the previous sale and $30,000 from the 1974 low.

Current prices hardly tell the story, however, because in 1968 and 1969, when a lot of investors, and their advisers too, believe the millennium had arrived, those same seats sold for $15,000.

Bad times arrived and prices plunged. Now prices are edging up again. Are the old days returning?

You won't find many students of the market who really believe so. Some improvement is inevitable, of course, because the great recession of the 1970s brought prices down. But the rebound seems to have lead weights attached. Among those weights are these: —The investment community is in the midst of a vast upheaval. Its very structure is being changed by order of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Rate competition begins May 1.

While some of the giant houses are showing financial strength, others may fall by the wayside. Hundreds already have during the past five years. The sales power of the industry isn't nearly as big and aggressive.

—The business climate has changed. We are progressing further into the uncharted world of environment, ecology, social good, and there is little doubt such factors have introduced uncertainties into the manufacturing world.

—Memories of market debacles in the past five years seem destined to linger long. Individual investors suffered too greatly in the whip-sawing of prices, and then the collapse of prices. At the height of the stock boom of the 1960s any kind of nonsense could be peddled to investors, millions of whom were in the market for the first time. For many of them it was the last time too.

—The nation itself isn't as certain about its goals and its ability to reach them. Vietnam has left its mark. So have repeated credit shortages. So have unexpected and sometimes unexplained shortages.

The old belief that nothing was impossible of accomplishment is gone. There are impossible tasks and businessmen and investors know it. Inflation might be one of the impossible tasks, and the market doesn't seem to like inflation.

No, the old days aren't returning. But, come to think of it, who wants them?

Urine Test With Protein

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I had a free urine test at the kidney mobile unit recently. They found protein in my urine. Is this serious and what does it mean?

Mrs. I. M. Probably not very much, except that now you are armed with just enough information to make you nervous, and probably unnecessarily so.

You can't tell much from just the finding of protein (albumin) in a single specimen, especially since the sample may have been contaminated by vaginal secretions which can produce the same positive protein readings. More about this below.

Infection in the urinary tract (including the kidney and bladder) which is not uncommon in women would cause a positive albumin finding, but there would be other symptoms. A microscopic examination of your urine might reveal the presence of pus cells or blood cells. Also, a blood nitrogen test and careful examination of your blood pressure would be important for a reliable diagnosis of kidney disease.

As to the albumin, a very common cause of this is a condition known as orthostatic proteinuria, a fancy-sounding phrase with a simple background. In this, the first urine specimen of the day is free of albumin but specimens obtained after being up for a while contain it.

So it is essential, first of all, for you to offer as "clean" a sample as possible when having a urine test to avoid any of the natural contaminations I mentioned earlier. By clean, I mean that you should wash the exterior of the genital area before voiding.

Unless such precautions are taken, the finding of albumin can mean very little. When you go in for your next check up, be sure you bring in a clean sample.

Better, bring in two samples, one obtained immediately upon arising and a second after you have been up a while. Label each accordingly.

If the mobile unit test was complete (and most are these days) you could have a copy of your findings sent to your doctor.

I wouldn't become overly excited about a little albumin in your urine. It can occur, incidentally, in both men and women, and doesn't have to mean a disease is present. It is often caused by minor peculiarities in the kidney's filtering system.

Are you having a gall bladder problem? To find out how the gall bladder works and what kinds of trouble to look for, read Dr. Thosteson's booklet, "You and Your Gall Bladder." Send 25 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Dr. Thosteson, P. O. Box 3999, Elgin Ill. 60120.

BS Out To Break Magic Spell

PERMIAN AT STEER PARK

Big Spring will be out to pull all second round stops to break the magic spell Mojo has cast over the Steers for years here Saturday at 2 p.m.

The Steers stand in the same situation as they were after two games of first half play, 2-0 and winners of three straight. For the year, Big Spring is 9-10.

A win over Permian would intensify Steer chances of climbing to the top in the second session.

For all games played either in the first or second half, Permian has lost only once in 11 games. Mojo owns a 12-6 seasonal record.

Playing two games in three days, the Panthers won over Abilene, 9-3, Tuesday and Midland, 13-10, Thursday.

Big Spring will be at somewhat of an advantage point over Permian, being rested since the Midland clash Tuesday. Permian has only a day to catch its breath.

Big Spring tightly fastened the muzzle on the Bulldogs, 6-5, Tuesday. The Steers banged away for 14 hits and six doubles.

Relief pitching by Charles McKinney and batting by Ray Don Box spearheaded the Steer victory. Box drove in Kent Newsom for the winning run in the last official times at bat.

McKinney, making his 5-4A hill debut, took over for Steer starter Mike Harris in the first. He pitched 4 2-3 frames of impressive ball. He allowed only one hit, whiffed five and issued only two base on balls.

One run crossed home plate while McKinney was on the mound, but was unearned. The Steers had runners on base each inning. Barry Canning continues to be the Steer leading batsman, hitting at .381. Ray Don Box is second with a .354 average.

The Senior center fielder leads in four club departments, runs, hits, triples and stolen bases.

Canning and Pat Carroll both unloaded for a pair of doubles in the Midland contest.

Carroll, 5-3, will draw the starting hill assignment from Larry Horton, Big Spring head coach. Horton is assisted by Rex Scofield and Mike Scarbrough.

With the rapid improvement shown, Big Spring will face the likes of Alex Kager. He is undefeated in 5-4A, 5-0, and 8-2 for the season.

Scoring only three hits, Permian had to work hard to nudge Big Spring, 3-2, in Odessa, March 25. Wes Maynard allowed the Steers eight hits.

Steer Sidelines: Kyle Pfeiffer and Lawrence Byrd experienced slightly pulled leg muscles in the Midland game but are expected to be at full strength Saturday.

Big Spring's JV travels to Odessa today and a match with Permian's JV. The Steer JV will compete in the Midland Tournament, April 24. First round opponent is Midland High.

Some of the most prominent names in West Texas amateur golf will be in the field when the third annual Big Spring Invitational Golf Tournament, a two-day event, gets under way at the Big Spring Country Club Saturday.

Play will be over 36 holes. There were 56 entries this morning, according to club pro C. G. Griffin. Although the pairings and starting times have been drawn, a few more players will be accepted if they enter by this evening.

A 60-player field would mean that upwards to ten places would qualify for awards.

A $200 gift certificate, redeemable at the golf shop, will go to the champion.

Among outstanding talent on hand include Mark Hargrove and Ross Worthan both of Snyder; Jay White and Jess Claiborn, both of Lamesa; the veteran Bobby Wright of Abilene, who won many tournaments while residing in Big Spring about a decade ago; Ron Leverich, Midland; and Mike Hall, Jimmy Stewart, Jerry Barron and Pat Weaver, all of Big Spring.

Joe Waggoner, then a Howard College student, won the 1974 tournament in a playoff with Duncan Boyer of Abilene. Waggoner called this morning to say he'd be back. Boyer has other plans.

Pairings, listed with starting times (entry is from Big Spring, unless otherwise noted).

9 a.m. - Dr. Clarence Peters, Jerry Barron, Jay White, Lamesa, and Jess Claiborn, Lamesa.

"I've always played better in the last rounds," the former University of Florida star said Thursday. "All of my good checks have come when I've been shooting good in the third and fourth rounds."

The 34-30 over the par 35-36-71 Pensacola Country Club course gave North, whose best finish was a second at Houston last year, a one-shot edge over a quartet of players - Bruce Crampton, 1971 Masters champion Charles Coody, obscure Mike Wynn and Bert Greene, who has been

Jenkins Finally Wins First Game

CHICAGO (AP) - "It feels good to finally win that first one," said Ferguson Jenkins, the Texas Rangers' 25-game winner last season, after he tamed the Chicago White Sox 7-3.

Jenkins left the game suddenly in the eighth inning Thursday because of a strain under his right throwing arm after yielding one run on seven hits, striking out three and walking none.

"Fergie didn't throw well in his first two losses," said Ranger manager Billy Martin. "But he certainly threw well against the White Sox."

Jenkins said the strain developed when he tried to put too much on a breaking pitch midway in the game.

"I could see he was beginning to favor it for a couple of innings, so I decided to get him out of there before he really hurt himself," said Martin.

"I was in favor of leaving too," said Jenkins who was relieved by Steve Foucault with a 2-2 count on Bill Melton after giving a two-out single to Jorge Orta.

Foucault struck out Melton but then gave up a two-run homer to designated hitter Deron Johnson in the Sox ninth, which proved far too little to avert a Ranger sweep of the threegame series.

Neither Jenkins nor Martin regarded the towering righthander's ailment as serious.

ATLANTA (AP) - Mike Lum's single in the 10th inning drove in a run to give the Atlanta Braves a 2-1 victory over Houston Thursday night, but Lum said he can't get excited over it.

"Getting the winning hit didn't mean a thing to me," the Braves' first baseman said.

"I wasn't excited or anything. I was too upset over that press release on the bulletin board. And I still am," Lum said.

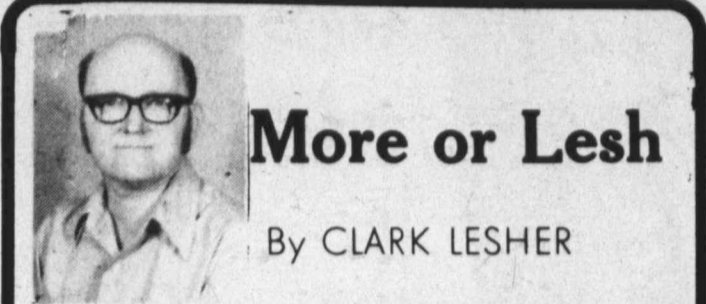

The release said the Braves had obtained Earl Williams from Baltimore to play Lum's position and that Lum said he wasn't upset by the trade and he believes Williams can help the Braves.

By CLARK LESHER

More honors are being bestowed on Western State College, 1975 National Basketball Champions.

Seven members of the quad will be among members representing the United States at the Governor's Cup Games in Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Mike Mitchell, Westerner head coach, will direct the squad.

"We'll leave for Brazil May 1 and return May 16," said Mitchell. He was named Juco Coach of the Year.

WTC members include: Bob Miller, Ken Fowler, Brian Minor, Eugene Harris, Norman Barnes, Greg Hill and Tyrone CLOPTON.

Teams entered are from South America, Cuba, Puerto Rico and Canada. "There will probably be some other countries represented too," said Mitchell.

The Super-Save Sackers of the Big Spring Men's Slow-Pitch Softball League sponsored by Bill Henkel Food Stores will host Clay Chemical of Midland Sunday.

A triple-header is outlined with the first game set for 3 p.m.

The lighted ball diamond is located on Farm Road 700 and 11th Street.

Midland Lee has clasped onto the All-Sports Trophy awarded by the Odessa American. Only baseball remains but the Rebels have a lead that is relatively safe.

Sport tabulation includes football, basketball, track, tennis, swimming, cross country, golf, and volleyball.

Scores include: Midland Lee, 53; Permian, defending champs, 44; Midland High 41; Abilene Cooper 38 1/2; San Angelo, Abilene High, 36 1/2 each; Big Spring 19 1/2; and Odessa High, eight.

Odessa High didn't pick up any points in cross country and volleyball. Permian and San Angelo lost points by not entering in volleyball. Big Spring received no points in swimming.

Gil Bartosh, University of Texas-El Paso head football coach, will put the lid on spring drills Saturday. A full scale scrimmage is on tap at the Sun Bowl.

"It's been a good spring for us," said Bartosh. "We've made some position switches and I think they've been the right move. Plus we've been able to continue our basic teaching methods and just improve our technique."

Jerry Knoepfel, Miner letterman and former Big Spring gridder, has been present for all drills. He will be a junior next fall.

Deputy Slain

HEMPSTEAD, Tex. (AP) — Chief Deputy Sheriff Albert E. Cooke, 39, of Waller County was shot and killed early today as he sought to arrest a burglary suspect, fellow officers reported.

They subsequently arrested and charged a youth accused of fleeing in Cooke's car and then commandeering another auto.

Dist. Atty. Oliver Kitzman lodged a capital murder complaint against Rube Allen Sparks, 17, and he was ordered held without bond.

Deputy Sheriff L.W. Dwiggins related these details:

Cooke surprised a suspected burglar shortly before 12:30 a.m. and presumably was taking him into custody when the intended prisoner pulled a gun.

Allegations Of Illegal Gifts To Briscoe Denied

DALLAS (AP) — Texas Instruments has denied any allegations that it made illegal political contributions to Gov. Dolph Briscoe's campaign, although it added that some of its officers participated as private individuals in a fund-raising effort.

At the same time in Austin Atty. Gen. John Hill said Thursday he was aware of the allegations of illegal contributions, that there was not enough evidence to justify his taking any action.

The allegations are discussed in the upcoming edition of Texas Monthly magazine.

The magazine says Bill

Brice, attorney for a fund-raising dinner for Briscoe acknowledged that representatives of unsuccessful gubernatorial candidate Frances Farenthold "gathered testimony indicating that systematic reimbursements took place through expense accounts."

The magazine also quotes Robert W. Ferraro, a former regional manager for calculator sales at TI's Waltham, Mass., office as saying, "we were told to give ... Quite frankly, there was a little bit of pressure put on ... I understand that the guys who did not make their quotas ended up in the doghouse."

Jersey, Oklahoma and Southern California.

The magazine says it asked TI vice president J. Fred Bucy about any organized corporate contributions. Bucy said: "I can tell you flat out that it's not so, and anyone who says so is a liar."

Corporate contributions to political campaigns are illegal in Texas. Non-reimbursed voluntary personal contributions by executives are legal.

Hill said he has the evidence developed by Farenthold's attorneys, but he added: "I didn't feel, viewing the entire matter, including the settlement between Farenthold and Briscoe, that we had sufficient information to justify us taking action under the so-called state remedy. If someone comes over and says, 'hey, let's look at this, we have some additional information,' we'll always look at it."

APPEAL PROMISED Convicted Of Castrating Son With Radiation

HOUSTON (AP) — Lawyers for a man convicted of castrating his 14-year old son with radiation say they will appeal.

A district court jury convicted Kerry Andrus Crocker, 44, Thursday and then assessed him the maximum punishment of 10 years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

Crocker was accused of injuring his son, Kirk. Prosecutors said Kirk underwent 11 operations for burns on various parts of his body. Medical experts testified that the boy would never be able to father children.

The boy testified that he thought he saw his father place pellets in his sleeping areas when he visited the parent in 1972. Prosecutors contended the pellets contained radioactive cesium.

Crocker, a petroleum consultant, testified during the punishment phase of the trial and again denied the accusations.

"I did not do this to my son," he said. "I love my son. I hope some day, some way this will become known."

Defense lawyer Jimmy James said the jury "reached a verdict that was based on emotion rather than on evidence."

"There was not a shred of evidence to support that verdict," James said.

Prosecutor Mike Hinton said the punishment was too light. He said legislators would have made a stiffer penalty had they foreseen such a "bizarre, hateful, evil and heinous" case of castration.

The state contended that Crocker, twice divorced from Kirk's mother, Barbara Smith, 43, resented the youth's siding with his mother. She has custody of both Kirk and his younger brother, Patrick, 11.

Crocker said earlier in the trial that he was licensed to possess cesium but never exposed Kirk to it or kept it in his apartment or car when Kirk visited.

Defense lawyers contended Kirk's anxiety over his parental troubles led him to imagine the alleged incidents.

Wade Choate Is Named To Insurance Post

Wade Choate, general manager of Webb AFB Federal Credit Union, and President of the Texas Association of Federal Credit Unions, is the new chairman of the board of the Members Insurance Companies serving credit union members in Texas and six other states.

During the recent 41st annual meeting of Texas credit unions in Fort Worth, Choate was named chairman of the 32-member board of four insurance companies serving credit union members, and a 9-member executive committee.

The insurance companies, which serve Texas credit union members from their Dallas location, are Members Mutual Insurance Company, Members Insurance Company, Members Life Insurance Company, and Members Service Company.

Members Mutual Insurance Company, oldest of the four companies, was established in 1952 by credit union leaders who felt that only a company owned by credit union members could fulfill their needs. The original company was incorporated as a non-assessable mutual company under the laws of Texas.

Members Mutual Insurance Company expanded and liberalized its coverage, giving rise to the three other member owned insurance companies.

Members Insurance Company, which provides a 20 per cent deviation from other insurances, was organized in 1970.

Organized in 1974, Members Service Company is a special risk company which writes upward-deviation insurance for autos.

Members Life Insurance Company, a two-year-old company, was added to the Members Insurance family for additional coverage to credit union members.

Choate, in discussing the four insurance companies owned by credit union members said "the board hopes to expand insurance services to credit union members in the area of property and casualty insurance, in addition to the coverage offered by Members Life."

Wade Choate was also elected to another one-year term on the 32-member Board of the Texas Credit Union League. He represents the Midwest District of the state.

CURIOSLY DULL Show Guilty As Charged?

By JAY SHARBUTT
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The legal profession is getting a once-over-briskly look Saturday night in an ABC News "Closeup" special provocatively entitled "Lawyers: Guilty as Charged?"

Its bill of particulars includes issues of "excessive fees, neglect of clients, opposition to new ways the law might better serve the public and inadequate policing of their (lawyers') own profession."

But don't expect any damning or even damning indictments from this one-hour legal proceeding. They aren't there. And the show is curiously dull in its study of a fascinating profession.

Time that might have been spent on detailed questioning or hearing from some of the accused is frittered away on such obvious things as the difficulty of choosing a lawyer, the lack of plain English in law and the fact it's often hard to collect a financial award made in a small claims court.

And its scrutiny is far from complete when it gets down to the real goodies, such as "fee schedules," the minimum rate some bar associations say can be charged for certain legal services.

It does study the case of a northern Virginia couple who've charged in a court suit that a local bar association's fee schedule system is anticompetitive and violates federal antitrust laws.

But it doesn't ask how widespread this system is in the United States, nor does it ask various bar association heads whether and why they approve or disapprove of the system.

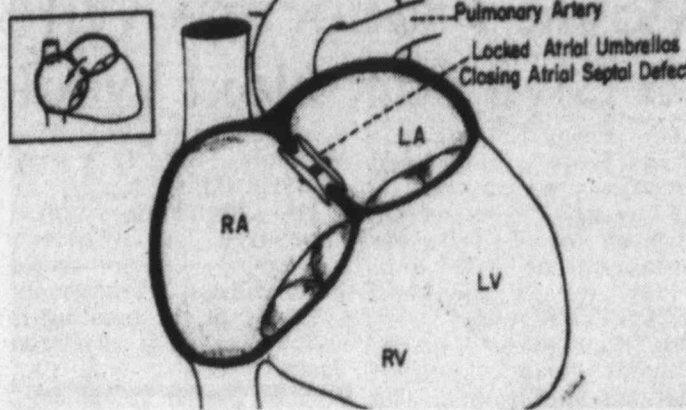

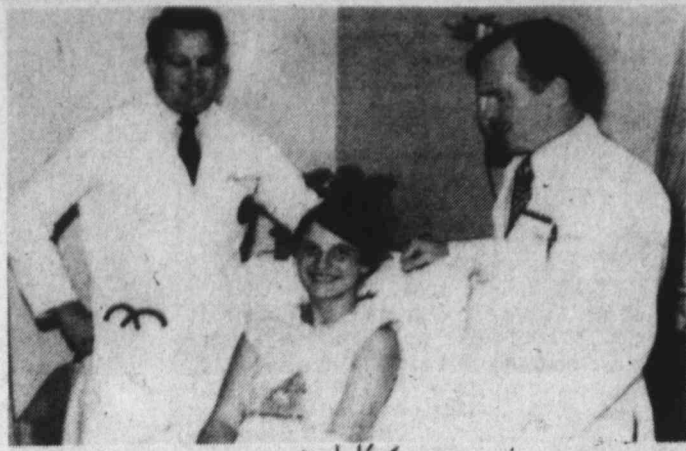

The show inspects such new developments as a low-cost "legal service" for Californians planning divorce and a "legal clinic" whose largely workingclass clientele finds clearly posted fees that are far lower than those of traditional tortuoses.

Alas, it doesn't go into the quality of legal service the two operations provide, or whether the quality is comparable to that of reputable law firms.

This "Closeup" is an admirable attempt at understanding complex legal issues, but I fear its case was inadequately prepared. We'll give it a five-pound codicil for effort, but no more.

CBS and NBC, which were expected to announce their 1975-76 evening schedules this week, now say they expect to do it early next week, possibly Monday or Tuesday.

Spokesmen for each network deny suggestions they're delaying things to see what the opposition puts up. ABC's fall lineup, meanwhile, isn't expected until May.

Handbook Answers Many Questions About SS

Most people have a pretty good idea of what Medicare covers. They know that it helps pay for most major health care — for example, in-patient hospital care and doctors' services during an illness. But what are the things Medicare does not cover?

That question, according to Don Minyard, Social Security branch manager here, is one that people frequently ask about Medicare.

"The completely new edition of 'Your Medicare Handbook' answers this question," Minyard said. It is completely indexed.

The new handbook was mailed by the Social Security Administration to more than 23 million aged and disabled Medicare beneficiaries, and to hospitals, doctors, and other health care professionals late last year. Anyone, who for some reason did not receive a handbook, can pick up a copy at any Social Security office. Minyard suggested the book be kept in a safe, handy place.

"A prime feature of the new handbook," Minyard said, "is a comprehensive listing of services and supplies that Medicare does not cover, as well as those it covers only under certain conditions."

"For example," he said, "Medicare does not pay for preventive medicine, such as physical checkups and routine eye and hearing examinations. Drugs and medicines which the beneficiary buys himself are not covered. Neither are eyeglasses or dentures."

Another chapter in the new handbook describes two other important rules about Medicare coverage, according to Minyard.

"Just because a beneficiary is in a hospital or other health facility does not automatically guarantee that his expenses will be covered," he said.

"Medicare cannot cover care that is not considered reasonable and necessary for the treatment of an illness or injury, even though it is furnished in a hospital or skilled nursing facility participating in Medicare. Also not covered is a hospital or skilled nursing facility stay, when primarily custodial care is provided — such as help in walking, getting in and out of bed, bathing, dressing, eating, and taking medicine."

The handbook also contains tables showing what services are covered and what services are not covered when a beneficiary is in a hospital or skilled nursing facility, or is receiving care from a home health agency or a doctor.

Some types of care and some services are covered only under certain conditions or in specific situations. For example, Medicare does not cover health care outside the U. S. except for certain situations involving Canadian or Mexican hospitals. These are also explained in the new handbook.

Third Party Not Way To Win, Apodaca Says

DALLAS (AP) — New Mexico Gov. Jerry Apodaca says Mexican-Americans must work within the two-party system if they want to exercise political clout.

"Unless you get into the main stream of politics you're simply not going to have any voice," he said at a Southern Methodist University student observance of Chicano Week.

"I do not believe in third parties," said the 40-year-old New Mexico governor. "I cannot conceive why any minority group could feel compelled to find success outside of the traditional two-party system."

Describing third parties as philosophical by nature, Apodaca said they don't win elections and they exercise little or no influence on the winners after contests at the polls are decided.

"The purpose of political parties is to win elections," he said. "It seems rather conclusive to me that if you're going to succeed politically in Texas or any other state, you're going to have to support one of two major parties."

While acknowledging that third parties have won at the polls in some instances and mentioning South Texas gains by La Raza Unida in this connection, Apodaca said such victories actually proved his contention.

If La Raza Unida candidates ran and won under the banner of a third party, they also could have won as Democrats or Republicans, he submitted.

Apodaca became the first Spanish-surnamed governor of New Mexico in more than half a century on his election in 1974. He served eight years before that in the state Senate.

Child Evangelism Unit Due At Crestview Church

Crestview Baptist Church, Gatesville Road in Big Spring is sponsoring a one day conference workshop in Child Evangelism Fellowship.

SUSAN TYLER

The meeting will be Monday, April 23 from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. with Miss Sue Tyler, Arlington, Virginia, teacher of teachers under the educational department of Child Evangelism.

The conference includes talks on "You the Teacher", "How to Be Creative" and "How to Teach the Christian Child Victory Over Sin."

Following a salad luncheon, two more talks will be on "How to Teach Conversion to the Christian Child" and "How to Teach Assurance." Visualized songs and lessons will be available for sale. All Sunday School teachers, VBS teachers, children's church workers and others interested are invited to attend, according to Mrs. Katie Rapiet.

Mrs. Tyler is a graduate of the Washington Bible College and has had further study at the University of North Dakota under Wycliffe Bible Translators and at the University of Virginia.

She has had opportunity of summer ministries under the Gospel Christian Union in Alaska and with CEF of Eastern Pennsylvania. Miss Tyler graduated from the Fall 1967 session of the CEF Leadership Training Institute and upon completion was appointed a local CEF director in the Prince William and Southern Fairfax Counties of Virginia where she served for four years.

Her field experience has been strengthened with extensive travel, including a trip to 11 countries of Europe and the Holy Land in a missionary-study tour. She began her ministry on February 1, 1972, traveling throughout the USA in training workers for the Fellowship.

Evangel Plans Revival

Evangel Temple Assembly of God Church begins a revival next Thursday, April 24-May 4, opening at 7 p.m. Thursday with the Shoemaker Evangelistic team from Chouteau, Okla.

The Rev. Jerry Shoemaker is an ordained minister with the Assemblies of God. He has pastored churches in Texas and in Oklahoma and has been traveling in evangelism for the past two and one half years.

Rev. Shoemaker's daughter, Nicola, will be singing each night during the revival. She has recorded two records with Benson Studios in Oklahoma City.

Her latest is a fresh new style entitled "Songs from the Soul of Nicola Shoemaker."

Members of Evangel Temple say, "If you enjoy old fashioned preaching from God's word, then this revival is for you."

'Beginnings' Is Coming

The West Texas premier of "Beginnings," the stirring musical drama of creation, redemption and salvation, will be presented in the First Baptist Church a week hence.

Two performances are set at 8:15 p.m. Sunday, April 27, and Monday, April 28. There is no charge, and Joe Whitten, minister of music, urged everyone in this area to attend one of the showings.

Buryl Red, noted composer producer, scored the musical, and Ragan Courtney, celebrated author-dramatist, created the drama and narrative. Three elevated stages at pew level will be utilized for the characters who will be backed by the senior high and adult choirs of some 50 voices, plus an extensive percussion section, the piano and organ, and expansive lighting effects.

Bishop To Visit

Bishop Willis Henton will visit St. Mary's Episcopal church this Sunday. He will conduct the Rite of Confirmation at 10:30 a.m. at the church.

American Bible Society Tells Of Reading Series

NEW YORK — The American Bible Society has announced a new "Special Education" series of Scripture Selections, designed for ease of understanding by people with learning difficulties and for others with limited reading skill.

The translations were prepared by Dr. Eugene A. Nida, the Bible Society's world-renowned expert on linguistics and Bible translations, in consultation with a task force on special education of the National Council of Churches.

The new Scripture Selections have had an enthusiastic reception from experts in special education. Robert Pitzer, executive director of the Southeastern Methodist Agency for the Retarded, and vice-chairman of the Association for Retarded Citizens' Committee on Community Services, commented: "I do not know when I have been as excited about new materials as I have about these. You can be assured of my support." The National Council of Churches' task force recommends the new series in its list of resources for the Christian education of persons with special learning needs. The Selections have also been popular with children generally, whether they have learning difficulties or not.

The series consists of eight Selections. They are illustrated with full-color photographs of people, rather than drawings, to assist the readers in relating the Bible passages to real life.

Babbling Blamed On Women

DALLAS (AP) — Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor of the First Baptist Church here and former president of the Southern Baptist Convention, says the woman's movement is responsible for "speaking in tongues," a religious practice he calls "senseless, idiotic, heretical, divisive and hurtful."

"You stop the women from speaking in tongues and you'll never hear about it again," Dr. Criswell, pastor of the largest Southern Baptist church, told an evangelism conference Monday.

Speaking in tongues is an exercise of nonintelligible phrases commonly associated with the Pentecostal Church but which has been appearing in other fundamentalist denominations such as some of the smaller Baptist churches, and even some Roman Catholic parishes. Speakers appear to be possessed and usually break into the babbling phrases during church services. They claim it is the voice of God speaking through their lips.

"It brings disgrace and dishonor upon the name of the Lord," Dr. Criswell said. "The outside world will look upon us as a strange people. They think they can fool me into believing that gibberish is a language. Not in the history of Christianity is there an example of a great Christian leader who ever spoke in an unknown tongue. I could not conceive of my Lord speaking in an unknown tongue."

Survival Of Century-Old Church Is Questionable

By TERRY KIRKPATRICK

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Survival of the century-old St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, described by its leaders as the largest church in the South, may lie with the whims of football fans at the Superdome.

The church sits in a noisy neighborhood of shops, car dealers and an interstate highway, just three blocks from the uncompleted dome. "It was once a tremendously flourishing parish, pretty much a mixture of Irish and Italian," said the Very Rev. Morgan J. Barr, pastor. "But we sit right on the edge of downtown and we're slowly being gobbled up by the commercial district."

Only a handful of the 2,000 seats in St. Joseph's are filled during Masses now. The corporation of the Vincenian Fathers, which operates the church, is said to be near bankruptcy. Priests haven't been paid since September.

"We have turned somewhat into a service church," Father Barr said. "A lot of the people come from the hotels and motels. And, especially with the dome coming, we would become more of a service church."

"People would come here because it would be convenient to them when they're traveling. It wouldn't be a real parish without homes and people."

If the church continues, Masses would be scheduled around activities at the Superdome, he said.

But the Vincenian Fathers will decide before the end of the month on an offer to buy the church.

Minister Disclaims Babbling

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — A Pentecostal minister here has challenged Dr. W. A. Criswell, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Dallas, to a debate over Biblical scriptures dealing with "speaking in tongues."

Dr. Criswell earlier this week told an evangelism conference in Dallas that the practice of speaking in tongues is "senseless, idiotic, heretical, divisive and hurtful" to Christianity.

The Rev. Marvin A. Hicks issued the challenge Wednesday. Dr. Criswell, whose church is the world's largest Southern Baptist Convention congregation, said women are responsible for the practice which is common among Pentecostal groups and others in the charismatic movement.

"On behalf of the 5,000 ministers of the United Pentecostal Church I hereby challenge your statements," wrote the Rev. Mr. Hicks. "I offer the following proposition for public discussion for four nights in First Baptist Church or any suitable auditorium."

There was no immediate response from Dr. Criswell.

time out for GOD

and then...

A caterpillar crawls along a branch. So unsightly and useless is he that at best he is scorned, at worst, exterminated.

A grain of sand, one of an infinite number, lodges within an oyster's shell. It is coarse and hard, worthless and unwanted.

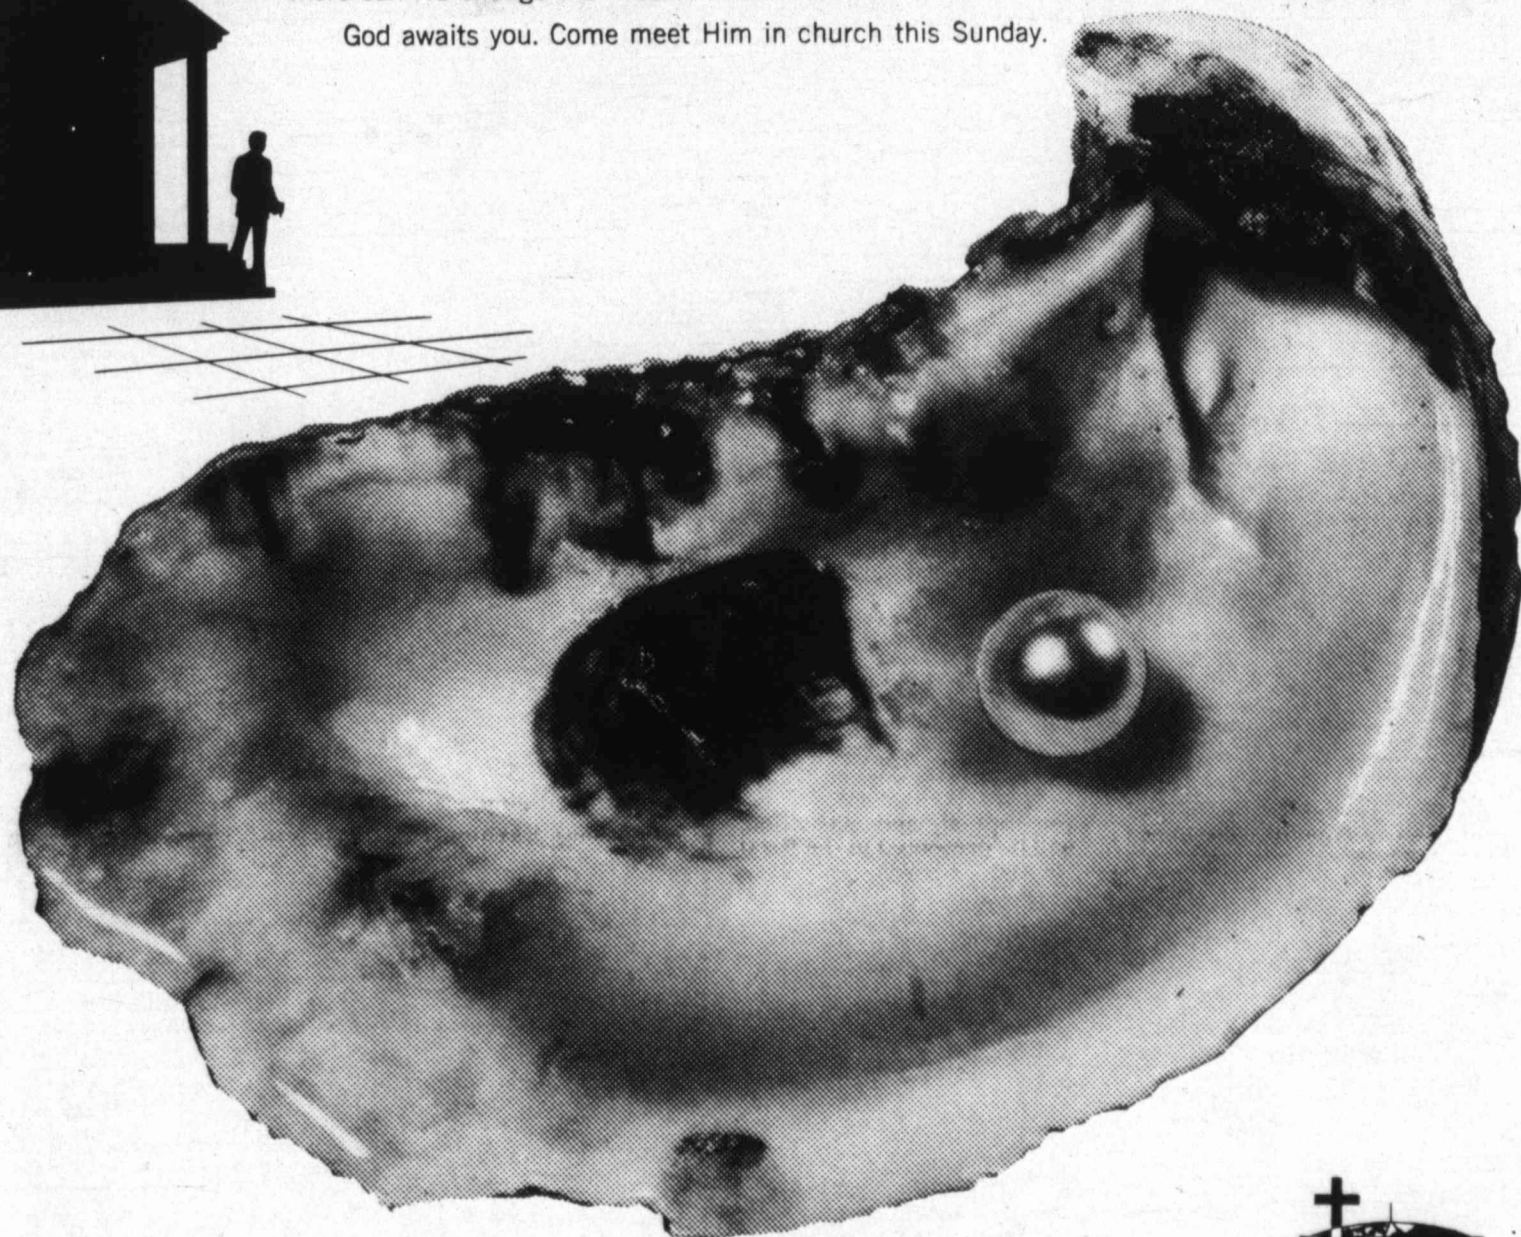

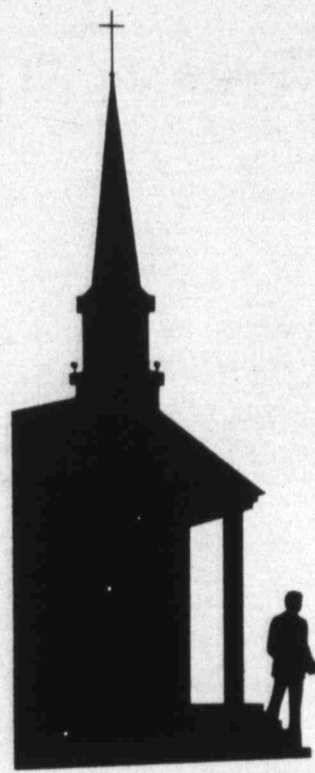

And then, there are people. They are restless, a bit lonely sometimes, and apprehensive about the future. They enter churches and speak to God.

From the cocoon, a gaily-colored butterfly emerges. People paint pictures of it; children try to claim it as their own.

From the oyster, a pale, creamy pearl is taken. It is admired, sold for a small fortune, prized.

So, God changes the lowly caterpillar and richly clothes the grain of sand. How much more can He change the lives of those who ask it of Him!

God awaits you. Come meet Him in church this Sunday.

Sunday Acts 3:12-16	Monday Acts 5:27-32	Tuesday 1 Peter 4:3-6	Wednesday Isaiah 42:10-13	Thursday John 10:7-11	Friday Revelation 7:9-12	Saturday Acts 4:13-16

Change Is Approved

AMARILLO — Stockholders of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, at the annual meeting held Tuesday at the office of the company in Amarillo, approved changing the company name to Pioneer Corporation to be effective Friday. The stockholders also re-elected the present nine directors of the company. K.B. (Tex) Watson, president, announced that the company's gas transmission and distribution operations will be continued by Pioneer Natural Gas Company as a division of Pioneer Corporation. Watson told the stockholders that Pioneer and Geo Industries, a Colorado mining company, had reached an agreement in principle for Pioneer to acquire the Colorado company by the exchanging of 75,000 shares of Pioneer stock for the assets of Geo Industries. Other subsidiaries include Plains Machinery, which is constructing a new facility in Houston; Amarillo Oil, which had a recent Fusselman strike in Ward County for 230 million cubic feet per day; Pioneer Production Corporation, which has wildcatting underway in Louisiana; and Sharp Drilling Co. with 17 active rigs.

Con Men Are Due In Area

The Better Business Bureau issued a notice that itinerant office machine auctioneers are expected in the Permian Basin again. They have just visited Houston with their office equipment auction and have been in the Permian Basin in the past. According to the Houston BBB, the auctioneer said that all items were sold as is and were used, unless otherwise noted. By early afternoon, the motel room where the auction was held was vacant and buyers who discovered they had purchased obsolete or inoperable goods had nowhere to turn. One consumer bought an IBM typewriter for $115 that the auctioneer claimed was worth $344.50. The buyer was upset when the ribbon fell out and some keys would not work. BBB inquiry indicates the machine was a 1958 model and would cost an additional $75 to repair. This auction, with its sale of used merchandise at over-represented value, is a classic example of itinerant auctions and promotions held in motels. Other "bargain sales" according to the BBB include Indian jewelry, Persian rugs and art. There have also been cases in the Lubbock area lately of a firm soliciting ads to put on an Odessa restaurant's place mats that are not authorized by the restaurant and ads sold for a business directory that is not even coming out. Buyers are urged to use caution, and if in doubt, contact the BBB for the Permian Basin at its offices at Terminal.
