FIRST STEP TOWARD TOTAL WITHDRAWAL FROM LAST AMERICAN FOOTHOLD IN ASIA

U.S. Troop Strength In Thailand Will Be Slashed

By The Associated Press
The United States will remove more than one-quarter of its troops stationed in Thailand in the next two months, taking its first major step toward total withdrawal from its last military foothold in Southeast Asia, it was announced today.

The announcement, made jointly by the Thai and U.S. governments, said the authorized troop strength of 27,000 would be cut 28 percent to 19,500. The announcement did not say how many of the 350 U.S. military planes remaining from the armada that bombed Cambodia and North and South Vietnam will be allowed to remain.

However, Thai Foreign Minister Chatchai Choonhavan said for the time being his country will hold on to 130 South Vietnamese Air Force planes that were flown there by refugees. They are claimed by both the new Saigon regime and the United States, which gave them to the former Saigon govern-

He said there has been no contact so far between U.S. officials and the Thai government about the planes and the next step is to hold talks. Chatchai also said his government is ready to open diplomatic relations with North Vietnam.

Saigon radio, monitored in Bangkok, today carried the first word of release of persons imprisoned by the old South Vietnamese regime. It broadcast an invitation by the new regime for newly freed political prisoners and their families to meet at a pagoda and help plan a welcome home ceremony for people returning from Con Son prison island.

Communist broadcasts in the past have claimed the Nguyen Van Thieu government held tens of thousands of political prisoners, but the Thieu government claimed it held only criminals and Communists.

The East German Communist party newspaper Neues Deutschland reported from Saigon that thousands of officers and men of the former South Vietnamese navy turned over their ships and equipment Thursday and Friday.

Neues Deutschland also said the Saigon airfield at Tan Son Nhut was reopened Friday. It said the harbor at Da Nang was reopened April 24 and that foreign freighters could dock there after completing necessary forms provided by Revolutionary Government missions abroad.

The joint U.S.-Thai announcement on troop removal spoke of total withdrawal by year's end. But the Thai foreign minister said realistically he hoped this could be accomplished before next March.

TAX DISCUSSION DRAWS CROWD — A "full house" of more than 20 taxpayers representing agriculture, oil and business interests gathered at the Commissioners Court room to hear discussion of a proposed tax cut this morning. Jack Watkins, president of the Big Spring Property Owners Association, argued that county commissioners should eliminate 9 cents of debt service of the $1.04 tax rate.

Social Security Deficits Mount

WASHINGTON (AP) — Both short-range and long-range Social Security deficits are expected to be higher than previously projected, according to a report sent to Congress on Monday.

Trustees of the four Social Security trust funds said that the big Old Age, Survivors and Disability Insurance program will for the first time this year pay out more than it will collect in payroll taxes. The deficit for the year is expected to total about $3 billion.

Under current financing, trustees said, the reserves will be exhausted by 1981.

Projecting 75 years into the future, the trustees said the average annual deficit is expected to be about 5.3 percent. The trustees' report last year projected an average annual deficit of 3 percent over the next 75 years.

The short-term financing problems, the report said, are created by higher than anticipated inflation, boosting Social Security benefits, and higher unemployment which results in less payroll tax income.

The long-range deficit, the report said, results from an anticipated lower birth rate. The trustees said that the future work force is expected to result in a ratio of about 100 workers for every 50 Social Security beneficiaries by the year 2030. The current ratio is 100 workers for every 30 beneficiaries.

Social Security Commissioner James B. Cardwell said the new projections are "cause for concern but not alarm."

He said the trust funds, while never tapped before, were intended to serve in an economic emergency such as the nation is facing now.

The reserves should be drawn down over the next several years without any increases beyond those already established by law in the Social Security tax rate and the taxable wage base upon which the taxes are levied, Cardwell said.

The trustees are Secretary of Labor John T. Dunlop, Secretary of the Treasury William E. Simon and Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Caspar W. Weinberger.

The report said that the four trust funds, two of them providing Medicare hospital and supplemental medical insurance and the others providing cash payments for retirees, workers' survivors and disabled wage-earners, had reserves totaling $55.3 billion on June 30, 1974.

Big Spring Gets Most Of Shower

A Sunday afternoon thunderstorm dumped up to two inches of rain and light hail in a one hour period in parts of the county, but other parts were left dust-storm dry.

The thunderstorm, which included marble-sized hail, poured rain in a path, along Interstate 20, leaving Vealmoor and Ackery on the north and Forsan on the south without measurable precipitation.

Rain measured 1.60 inches at the Experiment Station, 1.75 inches in the south part of Big Spring, 1.7 at CMWD headquarters, 1.38 inches at Sand Springs, 2.00 inches at Cosden and 2.00 inches at Coahoma. It fell 1.3 at Westbrook and Colorado City 30.

Ten miles out on the Snyder highway, only a half an inch was recorded and seven miles South of Ackery, only dust came of the cloud. Luther had none. Dunn, above Colorado City had .05, and Silver, Cebur, Lake Spence .40. None of the streams ran significantly.

The heavy rain in Big Spring left 14 streets and intersections flooded, but the water subsided in about two hours.

Elsewhere, Colorado City measured .37 inch, Abilene measured .20, Midland, Snyder, and San Angelo all reported light rains.

The storm also spawned an apparent tornado which touched down near Bronte, damaging a ranch house and ripping up 16 telephone poles, interrupting phone service to Bronte and Robert Lee, where Lake EV Spence measured .70 of an inch at the dam.

Balance Exceeds Needs, Asks Tax Rate Be Cut

Howard County has $24,532 more balance than remains to be paid toward Farm Road 700 bonds, Jack Watkins, president of the Big Spring Property Owners Association, told County Commissioners Court this morning.

So he asked that the 9 cent tax the voters approved for these bonds be eliminated from the over-all $1.04 rate.

Commissioners court did not commit itself to reduce or eliminate the bond tax being assessed property.

Members of the court instead argued no action should be taken until the tax roll is prepared and the board of equalization has met in July.

At this time, the court usually sets the tax rate, which now includes 9 cents for Farm Road 700.

More than 20 citizens and representatives of business and industry gathered to hear Watkins make the presentation and get a response from the court.

County Auditor Virginia Black contended $104,250 of the amounts Watkins added in finding the $24,000 surplus was "not money set aside to pay off these obligations."

OTHER USES
This $104,000, which was among the sums obtained through issuing the Farm Road 700 bonds, was not needed, as anticipated, for purchase of the Farm Road 700 land, Watkins said.

"These funds can be used for gravel roads or any kind of county road," Commissioner Jack Buchanan said, referring to minutes of the court relating to the Farm Road 700 bonds. "This $104,000 can be used for other things than retiring these bonds."

Commissioner Simon (Cy) Terrazas had mentioned the possibility the federal government might discontinue providing revenue sharing funds.

Voters were told the bonds were only for Farm Road 700 and diverting the funds for other roads would be "hoodwinking the public," Watkins said.

"It was voted for a definite purpose," Bob Wash of Forsan Oil Well Service Inc. commented.

Using a black board to show his math work, Watkins explained the $1.04 tax rate now being levied contains 9 cents, which the voters approved for the Farm Road 700 bond payments. These 9-cent funds cannot be used to cover the cost of operations, Watkins said.

Eliminating the 9 cents and making the tax rate 95 cents per $100 of assessed property value would not reduce the funds available for day-to-day county government operations, Watkins said.

EXPLANATION
The tax rate of $1.04 is charged for each $100 of assessed property value. Assessed valuation is one-fourth of what tax appraisers set as the property's true market value.

The 9 cents is being placed into interest and sinking funds for two Farm Road 700 bonds, one dated 1967 and one dated 1968, Watkins said.

On the 1967 bonds, Howard County owes $50,000 which is due in August, 1975, Watkins said. There is $130,000 yet to be paid before the 1968 road bonds are retired.

Watkins added assets totaling $204,532. Subtracting $180,000, he showed a $24,532 surplus.

OTHER BONDS
Howard County has adequate funds for other bonds, too, Watkins said. Included in the remaining 95 cents of the tax rate were sums being assessed solely to retire airport and courthouse bonds.

Due this year is $35,000 for courthouse bonds, Watkins said. When this sum is paid, and the county has about $49,000 with which to pay the $35,000, all courthouse bonds will have been retired.

The county shows $315,000 outstanding in airport bonds and has $247,000 in cash to use for these bond payments, Watkins said.

"I feel his figures are quite accurate," Commissioner William B. Crooker Jr. said. "We have had some prudent management of the county government in the past."

While Crooker was favoring eliminating rather than just reducing the road bond tax, Crooker withheld his final decision until the tax rate is set this summer.

After the crowd left, Commissioner Ikie Rupard asked Terrazas if he felt like he went out for a long pass and had the ball intercepted by someone from the bench.

Ford To Meet With Rabin

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford will meet here June 11-12 with Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen announced today.

Today's Bright Spot

Howard County has a warm and dry climate, with the average annual rainfall of 18.33 inches, growing season of 231 days, mean temperature of 64.1 degrees and average relative humidity of 56 percent.

'SATURDAY NIGHT SPECIAL' State Proposal 'Hot As A Pistol'

AUSTIN (AP) — Senators debated a utilities proposal today that would give a three-member appointed commission the power to regulate telephone rates within the state.

Cities would retain jurisdiction over electric, water and sewer rates for at least two years but then could turn over regulation to the state.

Nab Seven After Stabbing

Six men were arrested and charged with public intoxication and one arrested for interfering with a police officer at 303 N. Lancaster following a stabbing incident at 10:37 p.m. Saturday.

Joe Trevino was lying on the ground just outside the front doorway of the Blue Moon Lounge, suffering from cuts in the neck, arms and face, police said. He was taken by ambulance to a local hospital for treatment. He was released following emergency treatment.

Cities also would continue to regulate gas utility rates within the city limits, and the Texas Railroad Commission would regulate rates and service outside the city limits.

The vote to bring up the controversial proposal was 24-5, which was four more than needed to suspend the rules to take up the bill proposed by Sen. Bill Moore, D-Bryan.

HIRSUTE HANDICAP

Big Spring Jaycees today formally kicked off their beard-growing contest which will be climaxed as the community-wide July 4 celebration.

Anyone can enter the contest by contacting Eddie Cole at West Texas Wrecking Company, Randy Hollar at the State National Bank, or the Chamber of Commerce. Fee for entry is $1.

Three $25 prizes will be given for the longest, best-suited, and ugliest.

The utility bill was revised under the supervision of Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby after Sen. Ron Clower, D-Garland, and others said they would try to block another version opposed by consumer advocates.

House members had on their agenda a measure aimed at drying up the supply of cheap "Saturday night special" pistols.

A legislative staffer said Houston Rep. Ben Reyes' pistol bill was controversial enough to slow down action on the logjam of bills that are before the legislature as it enters its last four weeks.

Reyes' bill prohibits the sale by licensed dealers of handguns that will melt at temperatures below 1,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

Georgia Trooper, Officer Shot To Death In Police Station

CORDELE, Ga. (AP) — A state trooper and a city policeman were shot to death in the Cordele police station apparently while the trooper was administering a drunken driving test to a motorist he had earlier arrested, authorities said.

Killed were trooper James Young, 34, and Cordele policeman W. R. Haralson, 50.

Authorities said the shootings occurred after Young arrested Joe Patterson of the Albany U.S. Marine Corps supply depot for suspicion of driving under the influence of alcohol.

State patrol spokesman Bill Wilson said Patterson's brother, sister-in-law and mother followed as Young took Patterson to the police station for intoxicimeter tests shortly after 11 p.m.

Wilson said someone apparently took the trooper's service revolver during a struggle and fired it, hitting Young in the head and chest and Haralson in the head.

No charges were filed but tests were being administered (there was an argument, a scuffle, a shoot-out." He added Young and Haralson were the only officers in the building at the time.

Wilson said someone apparently took the trooper's service revolver during a struggle and fired it, hitting Young in the head and chest and Haralson in the head.

No charges were filed but

Ambassador Keating Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kenneth B. Keating, U.S. ambassador to Israel and before that a U.S. senator, died today at Harkness Pavilion Hospital in New York, State Department officials said.

Keating, who would have been 75 on May 18, returned from his post in Jerusalem last month suffering from a heart ailment. He was a former ambassador to India and a former congressman from Rochester, N.Y., for nine years beginning in 1946.

PLAYING IN THE FLORIDA SAND — A small Vietnamese girl huddles close to her sisters and wipes the Florida sand from her hands as she played on the ground during processing here in the test area Sunday at the refugee reception area. A group of some 300 refugees arrived at Elgin Air Force Base, Fla., early Sunday after a 24-hour plane ride from Guam.

GIVES VIEW ON VIETNAM AND WATERGATE — Secretary of State Henry Kissinger talks with Barbara Walters, co-host of NBC's "Today" show, in Washington prior to an interview which will be telecast in four parts starting today. Kissinger said that if Watergate had not sapped presidential power and Congress had not passed the war power act, Hanoi probably would not have staged its successful military campaign in South Vietnam.

Little Time For Inquests

At long last the American commitment to South Vietnam has been liquidated. Despite the great dangers of maintaining an embassy staff and assorted other support personnel we stubbornly held on until almost the last minute, evacuating our remaining 800 to 900 Americans only after an interim government had ordered us to leave.

All credit must be given to the gallantry and smooth efficiency with which the Navy and a 5,000-man Marine contingent lifted our remaining personnel out of Saigon by helicopter. It provided a model for emergency air lifts.

The American people are entitled to a collective sigh of relief. Just over two years ago we withdrew our combat forces from South Vietnam. Americans thought then that we were freed of any save token involvement. But only with the total evacuation Tuesday was it possible to say that we are now completely free of the physical quagmire of Vietnam and Indochina.

If we are wise we will indulge in only the briefest of inquests on Vietnam. There is more than enough blame to go around, both Republican and Democratic. A search for scapegoats can bring nothing but bitterness and division, of which the American people have had much more than their share in the past 20 years. Let us then pray for the dead and the wounded and their families who suffered in a cause that ended so ingloriously. They will not have suffered completely in vain if the lesson bought so dearly is learned: We cannot export American democracy to places that do not understand it. We cannot be the world's policeman. We must reserve our greatest effort for those principles and interests that affect directly our national interest and directly affect our national security so that we do not waste our substance on marginal and peripheral causes. We must, above all, remain true to our ideals and traditions so that the beacon of American liberty can attract the attention of struggling men and women everywhere. As President Ford put it, Vietnam is in our past. Now let us get on with the business of proving that a great Democracy can set an example for all the world.

Vague Drivers — A Hazard

One of the greatest hazards on the road is the vague driver. This is the person who, gazing about and chatting with his passengers, casually glides into the next lane without flashing a turn signal; who shoots into the traffic stream at an intersection without making certain the way is clear; who tools along at well below the general speed of traffic, unaware of the frustrating effect on others in a bigger hurry; who backs out of a driveway across a couple of lanes, oblivious to the danger of collision, and slowly swings into line.

The vague driver is, in short, the person who relies on others to be careful and precise in their driving. Subconsciously, perhaps, he (or, of course, she) expects everyone else to adjust to his casual progression. The vague driver may be less of a threat than certain other species frequenting our streets and highways — the aggressive driver who can't bear to yield to anybody, the speeder, the drunk, the holier-than-thou slowpoke, the showoff who likes to give everyone else lessons in how it should be done. But vagueness at the wheel, however benign, complicates driving for all concerned. We suspect that it is the hidden cause of a lot of accidents.

'Option 4 ...'

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — The wrenching horror of the last Americans being helicoptered out of Saigon in the dead of a stormy night threatened by enemy fire resulted from American miscalculation of Communist strategy, but that miscalculation saved thousands of Vietnamese lives.

IT BOUGHT time, however dangerously, for evacuation of South Vietnamese who had worked as allies of the U.S. for 15 years or more and to whom this country owed a debt of honor.

Thus, the miscalculation of Communist strategy in the battle for Saigon at highest levels here and in Saigon turned out as something of a blessing in disguise.

AS LATE as last Monday, the American ambassador in Saigon, Graham Martin, felt the odds were above 50-50 that with final liquidation of former President Nguyen Van Thieu's regime, and his replacement by Gen. Duong Van Minh, Hanoi would stop the unequal military struggle for Saigon and negotiate what amounted to terms of South Vietnamese surrender.

Indeed, secret messages from Martin, a brave and stubborn diplomat who lost a son in the Vietnam war, made this forecast to President Ford: the lull late last week in the battle for Saigon and its suburbs signalled Hanoi's willingness to strike a deal with incoming President Minh allowing the Americans "two to three weeks" to complete the evacuation.

moment of American catastrophe. What happened next in the ghastly scenario of this country's worst foreign disaster is now history. Not only did Hanoi and its Communist allies in South Vietnam reject the negotiations route, but the Soviet Union failed in any major way to change the course of events, either because of inability to influence Hanoi or because it did not choose to intervene.

INDEED, THAT result was probably predictable. For days Hanoi had repeatedly raised the ante for negotiating a ceasefire: get rid of the "Thieu clique"; dismantle the military establishment; dismantle the administrative establishment; throw out all American "advisers": ad infinitum.

IN THE PENTAGON, military commanders showed growing strain over the delays imposed by Martin and Kissinger. Their two highest options for removing the stranded and endangered Americans were to fly them out by commercial aircraft or by special military flights. Both those options, plus Option 3 — special military aircraft plus a sealfit — went down the drain when Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airfield came under heavy rocket fire.

THAT LEFT only Option 4 — the perilous but successful helicopter escape from downtown Saigon. To the military brass, Option 4 was to be avoided at all costs as carrying unnecessary dangers.

IF THE Americans had been rushed out in mid-April as demanded by frenzied members of Congress and anxious Pentagon officials, it is certain that only a small portion of the 55,000 South Vietnamese would ever have followed. That would have deepened the tragedy, presenting a morbid image of the free world's superpower leaving to Communist revenge its own best friends and allies among the South Vietnamese.

THAT FORECAST was buttressed — but just how much is still unknown — by Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's strenuous and highly secret diplomatic approaches to the Soviet Union through Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin here. President Ford and Kissinger were seeking Soviet aid in their effort to do exactly what Martin was trying to do in Saigon: persuade Hanoi to accept negotiated settlement at the ultimate

My Answer

Billy Graham

There are so many Christians who are hypocritical. Half of them seem to be cuckoo. I think the best way to prove Christianity is by actions, not words. I've seen self-acclaimed atheists with more Christian virtues. Why is this?

M.H. Someone has said that the worst of lies is not that which is uttered, but that which is lived. Christ, of course, was very hard on people who feigned a pious life. On no class did he level such condemnation as hypocrites.

But now, you seem very harsh in your judgment. Is it because in rationalizing your own lack of faith, you seize on the faults of others as an excuse? God will not accept that.

The man, you know, who hides behind the hypocrite is smaller than the hypocrite.

What you need is the lesson of John 21:22. Christ told Peter not to stumble over the shortcomings of someone else, but to focus on following the Lord Himself. To do that affords little opportunity for criticism of your neighbor.

In the classical Greek, the word hypocrisy meant stage playing, or acting a part. Look, you're not responsible for what others do or don't do, but you are for yourself. Before the matter of personal salvation is beyond you, I'd stop acting the part of a skeptic and make sure of heaven when I die.

Welcome to 'Peace'... whatever that means.

Money Supply Goal

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — The already widespread belief that an economic upturn is likely to take place in the second half of the year was reinforced during the past week.

Perhaps the most important announcement of all came from Arthur Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, who said he would seek a 5 to 7.5 per cent growth in the money supply.

Many Americans suspect that Burns is probably still more concerned about the dangers of inflation than of recession. But Burns dispelled that notion somewhat.

The money supply goal should be sufficient, he said, "to finance a vigorous economic recovery."

It will be considerably more than the rate that prevailed over the past year. In all of 1974 the rate was only 4.7 per cent; in the first quarter of this year it was 3.5 per cent.

Many citizens — as well as economists and congressmen — have criticized the money supply rate as too low to permit vigorous recovery. In fact, they maintain the low rate has worsened the recession.

Alan Greenspan, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, remained just as hesitant and cautious as ever, but the mere fact that he again stated a belief that recovery was coming gave encouragement.

"The evidence is still tentative," he said, "but it tends to support the view that the economy will stabilize to a very large degree during the second quarter of the year."

The treasury Department added another view that was widely interpreted as being bullish. It would need $5 billion less in the credit markets, it said, because tax revenues were turning out higher than anticipated.

This news took a lot of pressure off the credit markets, which finance not only the big federal deficit but the expansion plans of private industry. That pressure was expected to drive interest rates back up.

At 848.48, the Dow Jones Industrial Average has now recovered all but about 2 of the 230 points lost during the collapse of prices in 1974.

Nothing is certain in economics or stocks, however, and a lot of people remain nervous about the immediate future.

First-Hand Diagnosis

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Doctor: Recently I had a cold with a pain on the left side. The X-ray report showed no sign of pleurisy, but the office girl told me I had an enlarged heart.

How serious is this? Do you have to limit your work? I am retired, and do yard work and gardening.

Mr. S.L.S. Most medical office girls accumulate a storehouse of knowledge about medicine, being in close association with the subject year in and year out. And they are valuable assets for any physician. But tell me, are you really going to accept this kind of an evaluation of your condition? Wouldn't it make better sense to simply go back and ask your doctor what is wrong with you?

The heart can enlarge under physical stress, in certain valve diseases, or in high blood pressure conditions. Severe vitamin B deficiency can also cause it. In the later situation it is called beri-beri heart.

In enlarging, the heart muscle is compensating for excess stress, whatever the cause, just as would any other muscle in the body.

Now, I've told you all this, but how in the world can you expect me or anyone else, for that matter, to comment on your condition when you haven't consulted your own physician?

Yes, you may have to curtail your activity further, depending on just what is causing your enlarged heart. But can you really be sure that this is your problem? You'll never know from second-hand information from your doctor's office girl.

Most office girls I've known would agree with this. Dear Dr. Thosteson: Can you tell me if there is anything that can be done for chronic catarrh? Mine is far advanced and fills my mouth with a discharge while I sleep. Could this get into the Eustachian tubes and cause an infection?

J.E.F. Catarrh (excessive mucus production from mucous membranes) is a generalized term referring to inflammation of air passages of the head and throat. In modern medicine other terms are used to identify the area of inflammation more specifically.

Any excessive mucus production is a symptom of membrane irritation. Allergy is a common causative factor — to smoke, smog, house dust, or substances such as animal or bird dander, etc. Sensitivity to pillow feathers is a common cause, especially where the condition seems to become aggravated during sleep.

A nose defect (a deviated septum, for example) can also be involved, as can nasal growths (polyps). A problem as serious as yours seems to be should be investigated to determine the exact cause.

The Sharp Tongue

Around The Rim

Tommy Hart

One thing and another: When married couples get mad at each other, they sometimes go for the jugular. A wife told her husband recently she didn't know how stupid he was. He replied, "You should have known when I asked you to marry me."

IN A WAY, that reminds me of the fellow who approached his boss to ask, "I got married yesterday. Could you raise my pay?" "Sorry," replied the boss, "we are not responsible for accidents that happen outside the factory."

All too often, when a secretary suddenly quits her job, she either can't handle the work or the boss.

I WAS STANDING on a street corner a few years ago when a fellow I don't ever recall having seen before stopped to say, "I know you. No, don't tell me, it'll come to me." I waited long enough to realize the wheels weren't turning in his head; then, trying to be helpful, I offered, "Tommy Hart." "No, that's not it," the passerby replied, shrugging. "Oh, well —," he sighed, and then walked on.

I'M STILL trying to figure out what the little old lady meant when she gazed upon a long-haired youth, nudged her equally ancient friend and said: "Evelyn, aren't you glad we didn't live now?"

One thing about modern youths' dances, they're the nearest thing to Indian rain dances we'll ever see.

Not too long ago, a British businessman flew to the Philippines three times, each time on the same airlines, and each time they lost his luggage. Some just try harder.

WHY IS IT that wives who complain they "have nothing to wear" yell the loudest about lack of closet space?

Cocktail parties are famous for bringing strangers together. Where else can two people shake hands enthusiastically, then each in turn ask a third party, "Who was that fellow I just talked to?"

You date back if you remember when people saved up for their old age rather than April 15.

THE MEDIUM hasn't improved much since Fred Allen said nearly a quarter of a century ago: "Television is a device that permits people who haven't anything to do to watch people who can't do anything."

Couldn't you describe a miracle drug as any medicine you get your children to take without crying and screaming?

EDITORIALS / OPINIONS

For Handguns

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — I have a lobbyist friend who works for the right of every American to own a handgun. His name is Luger and, despite what people say about handgun fanciers, he is not a nut. He does get a little excited though when anyone talks about regulating the sale of handguns. But it's all an act. Luger knows that if there were no attempts to pass handgun laws he wouldn't be paid $50,000 a year to kill the legislation.

THE OTHER day he said to me, "You always write the bad things about handguns. Why don't you write the good things as well? Why don't you give both sides of the story?"

"You're right," I said. "I think I should be more objective about gun control. What should I say?"

"You can think of something," he said.

"ALL RIGHT. Handguns are good because they're cheap. They cost less now than they did 10 years ago, and since there are more than 40 million of them you can get a used one for practically nothing. How's that?"

"You can do better," Luger said. "The nice thing about handguns, I wrote down, 'is that if their sale is forbidden in one state you can always go to another state to buy one. You can even send away for parts and assemble your own gun which any kid could do.'"

LUGER SAID, "Don't talk so much about how easy it is to get a handgun. Say something about why people should have a right to own one."

"I'm coming to that," I said. "Let's see now. If you have a fight in the family — your husband or your wife or your mother or father — a gun in the house can settle the argument once and for all."

"I WOULD prefer you didn't bring in the family when you talk about possession of handguns. What about if a stranger breaks into your house?"

"Right. It is very important to have a handgun if a stranger breaks into your house because you can shoot him if he doesn't shoot you first. The only way to be sure you can get the drop on him is to leave the gun out on the night table, loaded. The one thing wrong with this is that you might reach for it in your sleep and blow your toe off, or shoot your son who is sneaking in the house two hours after you told him to be home."

"IT DOESN'T sound right," Luger said. "Talk about target shooting and how much pleasure it gives Americans."

I thought for a few moments and then started to write. "Target practice with a good handgun is the most pleasurable sport in America. Hitting a tin can at 100 feet is a thrill that no one can ever forget."

We Hold These Truths... A Chronicle of America

May 5, 1775: Having surreptitiously departed England March 22, Benjamin Franklin returns to Philadelphia after 18 years in Europe working for conciliation in behalf of the colonies. He is soured and exasperated by the wrongs and insults to himself and to his country. He believes, as he wrote on February 5, that Parliament has shown "rashness and precipitation in matters requiring the most weighty deliberation, refusing to hear, and entering hastily into violent measures; and yet this is the government by whose supreme authority we are to have our throats cut... while their conduct hardly entitles them to common respect." He also has become convinced that independence is all but inevitable. The following day, he is named a delegate to the Second Continental Congress.

A Devotion For Today...

"See that you do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell you that in heaven their angels behold the face of my Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 18:10, RSV)

PRAYER: Our Father and our God, help us to be concerned for the feelings of others. Help us to know when to speak and when to listen, when to laugh and when to refrain, so that we may never hurt those we love. Amen.

Richard Gene Pitts, 17 and William Leslie Neal, 18, were arrested in Snyder last week for car burglaries there, but officers said they recovered three items missing from Big Spring cars.

Detective Avery Falkner said the recovered property included a CB radio, tape deck and speakers missed from vehicles parked in the 1400 block of Park Street and on Washington Blvd.

Falkner said the third item was a pistol that had been taken out from under the seat of a vehicle probably relocked.

"Apparently the owner does not know the pistol is missing. If he or she discovers the missing pistol and can describe the pistol and the vehicle, it will be returned," Falkner added.

Job Prospects For College Graduates Called Dismal

By the Associated Press

Job prospects for this spring's newest crop of college graduates are dismal. Desperate students are queuing up for cracks at whatever is available, a campus phenomenon that is making college placement officials work harder and longer.

Paul Ginsburg, dean of students at the University of Wisconsin, says it's not unusual for 70 students to be waiting in line each day to discuss job possibilities.

Charles Sunberg, placement director at UCLA, says, "I really don't know what adjective to use to describe the situation. Bad? Worse? It's the worst I've seen in many years."

Only for engineers, accountants and mathematics and science teachers is the employment outlook bright. But even in these areas, the number of job choices is considerably fewer than earlier anticipated.

The College Placement Council, which is headquartered in Bethlehem, Pa., and compiles job offers received by 156 colleges and universities around the nation, says: "Slim pickings for just about everybody but engineering candidates, and possibly accounting majors. Now, midway through the season, cutbacks appear to have hit engineering as well."

Doug Nichols, placement director at Shippensburg, Pa., State College, says, "The cliché that a college education guarantees you a job is no longer true."

Jerry Richardson, assistant director of career planning at Ohio's Bowling Green State University, blames the recession for the reduction in campus recruiting.

"A lot of companies are not quite sure what the economic picture is and are interviewing a little later than they used to," Richardson says. "A lot of them aren't going to make any offers until July."

Some college seniors, faced with the dwindling job market further glutted by experienced laid-off workers, are making commitments to seek graduate and doctorate degrees.

A placement spokesman for Georgia Southern College says "many graduates try to expand with a masters degree to give themselves more saleability."

But UCLA's Sunberg sharply disagrees.

"Going to graduate school just because you can't find a job is the wrong thing to do," he said. "That's not why a person should continue his education."

Richardson also claims continuing school just compounds the problem.

"If you can't get a job with a bachelor's degree, you can't get a job with a second degree, because many companies can't afford that second degree," Richardson says.

He says that liberal arts grads, more than anyone else, are going to have great job hunting difficulties unless they have career goals and change tactics.

Nichols tells students they've got to do a lot more than ever before — be more mobile, more flexible and able to identify the alternatives.

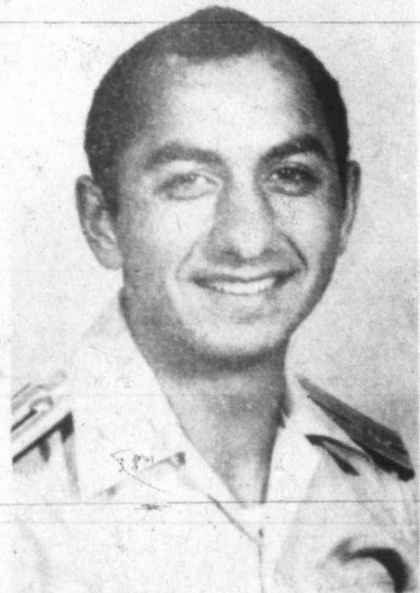

"It is especially difficult for those who are not geographically mobile," says Nancy Gilpin, of the career services office in Philadelphia's Temple University. "If you are able to go to the southern part of the United States, or to some rural areas in other parts of the country, your chances are a little better. For teachers, the East Coast and the West Coast are saturated."

FOCUS ON FAMILY LIVING Conserve Energy And Extend Appliance Life

By SHERRY MULLIN
(County HD Agent)

If you use your appliances properly, you can save money two ways. First, they'll require less energy, so your electricity and gas bills will be lower. Second, proper use will ensure an appliance lasts as long as it should—15 years for an automatic toaster, for example, 11 years for an automatic washing machine, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Follow manufacturer's instructions for defrosting manual-defrost refrigerator-freezers. These models consume less energy than those that defrost automatically, but only if they are defrosted frequently and as quickly as possible. Do not allow frost to build up to more than 1/4 inch before defrosting. And when defrosting, do not chip away accumulated frost from the unit's freezing coils. You could damage coils, necessitating their replacement at considerable cost.

Clean the lint screen in your clothes dryer after each load. This increases the dryer's efficiency, thus decreasing its operating time and lengthening the life of the unit.

Wash clothes in cold or warm water instead of hot, whenever possible and avoid overloading your washing machine. (A hot-water heater is usually the highest energy user of all appliances.) In order to operate properly and efficiently and to agitate clothes freely, the machine must not be overloaded. Otherwise, clothes come out half clean and require another run-through. Or the machine may not even complete the wash cycle.

Clean your dishwasher screen regularly, and do not overload your unit. And try to operate it only once a day—in the evening, for example—after accumulating all the day's dirty dishes. Both practices will conserve energy, hot water and cleaning compound and will cut down on the machine wear. Additional energy savings can be achieved by turning off the dishwasher after the final rinse cycle, opening the door slightly, and allowing the dishes to air dry. In the case of front-loaders with spring doors, prop the door open slightly at the top.

Read all instructions before using any portable appliance. You may learn, for example, that a heating unit is not sealed in and the appliance should not be immersed in water for cleaning.

Take steps to protect your major appliances if there is an electric power shortage in your community and the utility company reduces voltages more than ten per cent. Small appliances such as coffeepots, toasters, broilers, irons and electric ranges generally are not affected by power cutbacks. At worst they simply take longer to heat up and function.

Dear Abby She May Have Missed Out By Keeping Quiet

DEAR ABBY: My husband died suddenly. He was only 57 and in the best of health. I am 47.

A business associate and good friend of his flew in for the funeral, but I was in such a state of shock I can scarcely remember seeing him.

Later, I received a lovely letter from him expressing his sorrow. He wrote: "When things settle down, why don't you come to Florida as my houseguest for a long weekend?" He gave me some alternate dates to choose from, so I knew he was sincere.

Well, I chose a date and I went. This man is a charming, well-to-do bachelor, who is 69 but doesn't look it. He has a gorgeous home that is well-staffed, a beautiful boat and a great social life (but no woman in his life from what I could see).

The closest he came to a romantic gesture was saying, "If I were 20 years younger, I'd ask you to marry me." Abby, I'd marry him in a minute, anyway.

It's been seven months since my husband's death. Do you think this man was serious? Was that a proposal? If so, how can I get him to repeat it?

WILLING
DEAR WILLING: You missed the boat. You should have told him (very quickly) that the age difference didn't matter. And if that was indeed a proposal, you'll hear from him again.

DEAR ABBY: Please say a word about teenage boys who buy their girlfriends expensive, extravagant gifts.

Our daughter received a stereo player from her boyfriend at Christmas time, and now she feels obligated to date him exclusively even though she would like to date others. She's 17 and he's 18.

Judging Will Be Tuesday

Look Good But Budget

COLLEGE STATION — Grooming aids and cosmetics enhance appearance. But when added together, many of these small items total a sizeable sum, Mrs. Becky Culp, area clothing specialist, reminded this week.

"Consumers can benefit by considering the following money saving ideas," the specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said. —Know your skin type. What type of products do you really need? "Many specialized products are more expensive than several multi-purpose items, such as petroleum jelly and baby oil."

—Look for and compare ingredient labeling. Many manufacturers are already complying with a recent Food and Drug Administration ruling requiring listings of ingredients in order of predominance, that will be mandatory by September, 1976, the specialist said.

Mrs. Culp suggested consumers might compare product brands from store to store, or department to department to see if they vary in expense.

—Perfumed and scented products generally cost more. Perhaps a favorite fragrance could be added at home at a savings.

—Elaborate containers are expensive—will they merely be thrown away when empty?

—Avoid accumulating a large array of products that are impossible to use before they dry out. Also, bacteria may easily grow after containers are unsealed for use.

"For both health and expense, as well as storage, avoid large quantities. Select small container sizes when trying new or limited use products," the specialist suggested.

Honors Presented At Installation Luncheon

A life membership in the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers was presented to Mrs. Vonda Townsend when the PTA City Council held an installation luncheon Tuesday at La Posada.

Mrs. Townsend was installed as council president, along with Mrs. Carol Reeves, first vice president; Mrs. Jan Whitehead, second vice president; Mrs. Virginia Ryan, recording secretary; Mrs. Sherry Wegner, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Helen Jones, treasurer. The installation was conducted by Mrs. Annette Hodnett, a past council president.

This month's PTA activities will begin Monday with an informational workshop in the Texas Electric Reddy Room. On May 12 and May 19, there will be workshops on leadership and parliamentary procedure. The instructor will be Mrs. G. Kent Rider, state vice president.

Initial plans were made to host the District 17 fall workshop here, and it was agreed that the PTA will provide a display booth at this year's Howard County Fair.

Dr. Emmett McKenzie, superintendent of schools, presented honor certificates to the council and local unit officers for their service to the school system.

Mrs. Johnnie Lou Avery, co-chairman of the Howard County Bicentennial Committee, displayed a bicentennial flag. She said the committee is selling the flags for $12 each, to be used at public institutions. Mrs. Avery expressed the hope that by July 4, all such institutions in the county will display the flag.

Retirement Pay Boost For Elected Officials?

DALLAS (AP) — Elected state officials would get an increase of as much as 66 percent in retirement pay under an amendment approved by the legislature that was never debated in the Texas House or Senate.

The Dallas Morning News said in a copyrighted story Sunday that the amendment virtually guarantees a biennial increase in retirement pay for all elected state officials, including legislators. The bill including the amendment lacks only legislative formalities before going to the governor for signing or veto.

The amendment states that future retirement pay would be based on the current pay of state district judges, who get a raise almost every time the legislature meets, the News said.

Under that system, a retired legislator could eventually earn up to $18,600 a year, although no one now retired would qualify for the maximum. The current

Water Treatment Plant Amendment Sought By City

The City of Big Spring has applied to the Texas Water Quality Board for a permit amendment for a surface water treatment plant located at 16th and Virginia Ave.

The matter is due for study by a hearing commission of the Texas Water Quality Board in Lubbock, May 15. The public hearing will be held in the City Hall Council Chamber at 10 a.m.

The request asks that the treatment plant be allowed to discharge water treatment wastes not to exceed an average flow of 125,000 gallons per day. Discharge will be into a natural drain, and then into Big Spring Creek, Beals Creek and the Colorado River.

VFW To Elect Its Officers

One A Day For Juveniles

During April, 27 cases of delinquent behavior were referred to Ed Cherry, juvenile probation officer.

There were five cases of burglary, five of theft and 1 of vandalism.

Others included one case of illegal possession of alcoholic beverages, two of public drunkenness, seven of runaways and three of truancy.

No drug violators were reported to the juvenile probation officer, nor were there any crimes of violence the subject of referrals to Cherry during April.

Lt. Jim McCain of the police juvenile division told the juvenile board his division does not refer all accused juveniles to the probation office.

The juvenile probation board is composed of representatives of the city, county and Big Spring schools, the local agencies.

District Judge Ralph W. Caton presides in juvenile court. No cases were taken to juvenile court during April, but Cherry shows that seven youths were handled through his informal adjustment program.

How to measure

For accurate results always use a metal tape to take measurements.

First, decide just where the rod is to be placed. Remember, you should extend the rod past the window frame for more light, best ventilation and a more pleasing appearance.

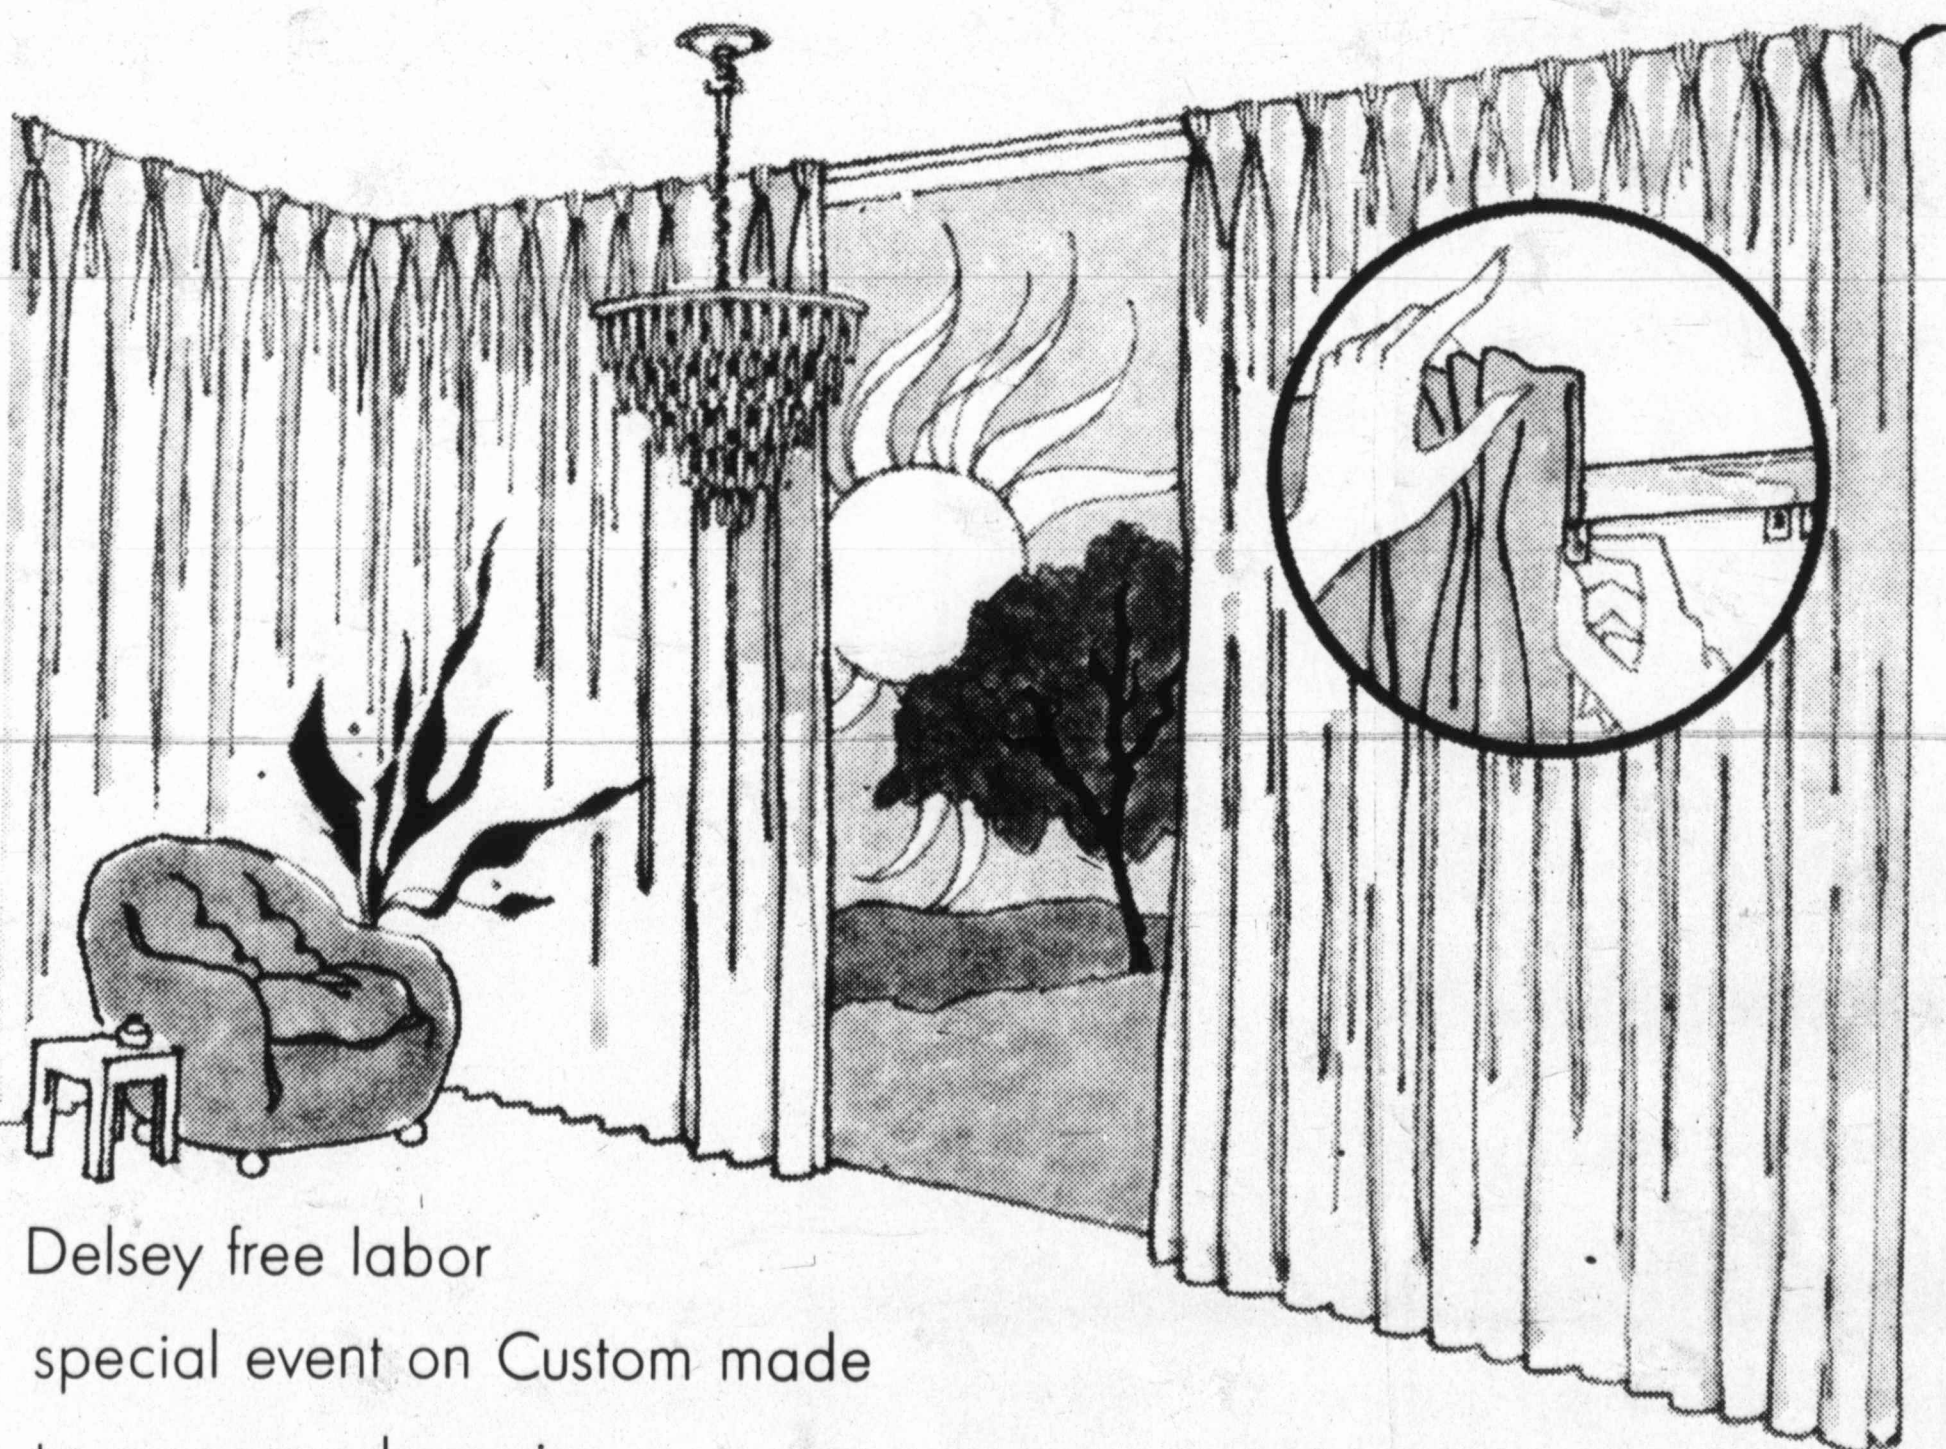

After you have decided on location of the rod, measure from one end of the rod across to the other. This is your bracket-to-bracket measurement. Now add 3 more inches for the right side return, another 3 inches for the left side return, and 6 inches more for the center overlap. This figure will be your finished measurement. Be sure your finished measurement includes all these measurements, the bracket-to-bracket measurement plus the two side returns and the center overlap.

Rods should be at least 4 inches above the window so that hooks and pleating can not be seen from the outside. A similar 4 inch allowance at the bottom will keep the bottom hem out of sight.

Apron length draperies: Measure from top of rod to desired length, add 1 inch for finished length.

Floor length draperies: Measure from top of rod to floor or carpet. This is finished length, no allowance necessary.

Ceiling to floor draperies: Measure from ceiling to floor and deduct 1 inch for finished length. Repeat measurements at two or three places across the span. Remember to measure from the ceiling and not from the rod

Bulls Best

CHICAGO (AP) — There's no place like home, and the Golden State Warriors are glad to be there this week.

The Warriors trail 2-1 in their National Basketball Association Western Conference final playoff series with the Chicago Bulls, who Sunday won their second in a row at the Chicago Stadium with a 108-101 triumph.

Now the Warriors, who started fast but were pinned on the ropes the entire second half by the sharp-shooting of Chicago's Norm Van Lier, have Tuesday and Thursday night contests on their own court to recoup in the best-of-seven series.

"We knew there was a possibility of losing both our games here," said Warrior Coach Al Attles, "and now the pressure is on us."

The Warriors won the series opener at Oakland 107-89 and very nearly took the second game here Wednesday night before the Bulls snatched it 90-89 on Tom Boerwinkle's field goal in the last two seconds.

But there was nothing flimsy about Chicago's victory in Sunday's nationally televised game in which Van Lier pumped in 35 points and the Bulls were in control after Golden State suddenly slumped to a 13-point second quarter.

It was a game in which the guard tandems of both teams took the play away from their high-scoring star forwards, Chicago's Bob Love and Golden State's Rick Barry.

SCORED ONE FOR HISTORY — Houston Astro Bob Watson (center) is congratulated by National League President Charles S. Feeney and teammate Milt May after he scored baseball's one millionth run Sunday in a game with the Giants in San Francisco. "It feels good to contribute something to baseball," he said. May's home-run in the second inning sent Watson across the plate. Watson is holding an AP photo of his record setting score.

ONE MILLIONTH RUN SCORED Astros Split Doubleheader

By the Associated Press
Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium scoreboard told the story.

THE COUNTDOWN IS ONE."

One more run scored Sunday and major league baseball would hit one million.

It was a few seconds after 3:32 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time.

CRACK!
The ball whistled off Dave Concepcion's bat.

This is it! thought the crowd of more than 51,000 which cheered not only the fifth-inning home run off Atlanta's Phil Niekro but also Concepcion's mad dash around the bases for that millionth run.

"I never in my life ran faster," said the Cincinnati Reds' storpest, "I saw everybody jumping and cheering and thought: 'I got it! I got it!'"

He didn't.

It was a few seconds after 12:32 p.m., Pacific Daylight Time, in San Francisco's Candlestick Park. Houston's Bob Watson was standing on second base.

The 440 and 880 relay foursomes posted the lowest times with the mile relay finishing third.

The results:

crowd of less than 10,000, which wasn't too thrilled by the second-inning three-run homer for the Astros but cheered nevertheless for Watson as he dashed home.

And at 30 seconds after 12:32 p.m., PDT, Watson touched home plate, the millionth time it had happened in the majors and the 999,999th since Wes Fister of Philadelphia started it all 99 years and 12 days ago.

"I ran hard," Watson acknowledged. "I had no idea how many runs were needed when I came to the ballpark, but then I saw where only 12 were needed when the game started."

"When I came to bat in the second inning, I saw a 'one' on the scoreboard, so I knew I had a chance," Watson walked and stole second.

Then Jose Cruz walked, bringing up May, who belted John Montemusco's second pitch over the right field screen.

"It broke my heart," Concepcion said. Then, turning philosopher, he added: "Maybe my grandchildren will get the 2 millionth run."

Concepcion returned to the plate in the seventh inning to hit a tie-breaking double off Niekro that gave the Reds a 3-2 victory over the Braves.

And while May's three-run homer in a five-run second inning wasn't enough to keep the Giants from winning 8-6, the Astros came back in the second game of the doubleheader for a 12-8 victory. In the other two National League games, San Diego beat Los Angeles 10-7 and Chicago defeated St. Louis 8-6.

Cards Bounce Sonics Twice

FT. STOCKTON — After losing two games last week, the Big Spring Cardinals bounced back by pounding the Ft. Stockton Sonics twice, 14-0 and 9-2, here Sunday afternoon.

The Cards increased their seasonal total to 6-3.

Big Spring's Orlando Olague allowed only one hit and whiffed eight in checking the home club in the opener. He now waves forth a 3-1 record for the year.

A 10-rule rule forced the half of the first game after five complete frames. Felix Martinez of Big Spring unloaded for a two-run double in the third.

In the nightcap, Big Spring's Frankie Rubio won his first game of the season against no losses, giving up just three scattered hits. He fanned 10 Sonics batters.

The Cards' Felix Martinez hit a solo homer to start off the first inning of the second game. Pat Martinez, Jr., poked a one-run triple to the fourth for Big Spring.

The Cards return home Sunday, hosting the same Sonics in a doubleheader. Game time is 1:30 p.m. Following the planned game with the Sonics, a dance in honor of the Cardinals is set for 8 p.m.

Jeff Burroughs' fourth-inning home run accounted for the game's only run. Bill Hands, who was ready to quit baseball last year until Texas Manager Billy Martin talked him out of it, held California on five hits through 8 1/3 innings and then got clutch relief help from Jim Umberger and Steve Foucault to preserve the win in the ninth.

Orioles 11-3, Indians 1-4
Al Bumbry and Doug DeCinces collected four hits, including one homer each, as Baltimore routed Cleveland ace Gaylord Perry in the first game to snap a six-game losing streak.

Minnesota got seven scoreless innings of relief pitching from Jim Hughes to hand the Royals their 10th loss in the last 13 games. Hughes surrendered just four hits to earn his first major league victory.

Craig Kusick homered for the winners and Harmon Killebrew, whose number was retired by the Twins before the game, belted a two-run shot for Kansas City on the first pitch thrown to him.

In Milwaukee, Sixto Lezcano collected four hits and Scott had three as the Brewers ran their winning streak to five games. Milwaukee built a 9-0 lead against three Yankee pitchers after five innings and MISSED BIRD WINS TOURNAMENT — Bruce Crampton puts on the 18th green Sunday afternoon at the Houston Open under the watchful eye of his caddie, Nick dePaul. Crampton missed the bird, but collected $40,000 first place money in the $150,000 tournament. He finished the 72 holes with an 18 under par 273.

CRAMPTON WINS 'No Substitute For Victory'

HOUSTON (AP) — Bruce Crampton came to Houston hoping—not too optimistically—to make the cut for the last two rounds.

Now he goes home to Dallas seeking—very enthusiastically—two victories in a row.

"There is no substitute for victory," the veteran Crampton said Sunday after he'd scored by two strokes over challenging Dr. Gil Morgan, a far-sighted eye doctor who decided to take up golf instead of fitting classes after receiving his doctorate from the Southern College of Optometry.

"I felt very bad about the way I was playing when I came here," Crampton said. "My game wasn't good at all. My wife called me early in the week and asked about bringing the kids down for the weekend."

"I told her, 'You'd better check real careful to see that I make the cut. It could be that we'd pass on the highway, you coming down and me going home after Friday's round.'"

But it didn't happen that way.

Crampton, an Australian native now living in Dallas, made the cut comfortably on Friday, took the lead from struggling Lee Trevino the next day and scored by two strokes Sunday with a last-round 69 and a 273 total, 15-under-par on the Woodlands Country Club course, a 6,929-yard layout that was hacked out of a South Texas pine woods less than a year ago.

Morgan, now in his second year of tour activity, briefly tied Crampton three times on the front nine of the final round but couldn't stand the pace. Bruce dropped a pair of 15-foot birdie putts coming home that Morgan couldn't match.

"I knew I was close," Morgan said. "I knew I had to make some more birdies, but I just couldn't get them."

The Pink Panthers ran by the Sand Dusters, 21-7, in a Webb Women's Softball League contest Sunday. The scheduled Freedom Flyers vs Youngblood encounter was rained out.

Bonnie Moore of the Panthers clouted two homers, one in the fifth with nobody on, and the second a bases loaded grand slammer. Moore's teammate, Sandy Christopher also blasted two round trippers, sixth and seventh, respectively, with one on in each frame.

Sunday's schedule: Patriots vs Youngblood, 2 p.m.; Freedom Flyers vs Sand Dusters, 4 p.m. Games played on Field No. 1 across from WAF base exchange building.

Cardinals Win Out

In opening ceremonies of National Little League baseball Saturday, the Pollard Chevrolet Cards edged by the Big Spring Herald Rangers, 3-2.

The Cards' Ben Watson hurled the first three frames of perfect ball. He was credited with the win and also connected for a homer.

Bullets Stopped

BOSTON (AP) — The defending champion Boston Celtics, still down by one game in their National Basketball Association playoff with the Washington Bullets, are struggling to regain their shooting form.

"We're due to break out," Boston captain John Havlicek said after the Celtics hit on just 38 per cent of their field goal attempts Saturday in a 101-90 victory over the Bullets. "We couldn't shoot any worse than we have so far in this series."

Veteran forward Paul Silas, who contributed 10 points while grabbing 25 rebounds as the Celtics remained alive in the best-of-seven Eastern Conference final, tried to explain the shooting.

"When you have to make the shots, it's not the same," Silas said. "If you're up by 13, the rim looks as big as the ocean. But if you're down, it can look very small."

Despite the third game victory after two losses, Boston Coach Tommy Heinsohn was concerned with the team's over-all shooting.

"It could have been a 30-point game," Heinsohn said. "We were very effective on defense and got the second shots on the offensive boards. However, we still didn't shoot well and that bothers me."

Havlicek, Dave Cowens and Jo Jo White led Boston scorers in the third game, but none hit on 50 per cent of his shots. Havlicek connected on nine of 20 while scoring 26 points. Cowens hit on 10 of 27, finishing with 24 points. White had 21 points, but managed to hit on just nine of 25 field goal attempts.

The Celtics threw up a tight pressing defense to pull away from Washington in the third quarter. The Bullets scored just 10 points in the third period and Boston was home free with a 14-point lead heading into the final quarter.

Toto Garcia, manager of the Big Spring Tiger-Cubs announced that the scheduled game with the Odessa stars Sunday was rained-out.

HISTORICAL LANDMARK

When you twist the ignition key of an automobile that has front-wheel drive, and sprints from 0 to 50 in just 8.6 seconds—you know you're in for a ride. You're in a new '75 Volkswagen Dasher: a performance car in every sense of the word. It's gobbling up a stretch of highway one minute, and demonstrating its jack-be-nimble agility the next. The Dasher has a built-in system for controlled braking in the event of a front wheel blow-out. And when that same car gets 35 mpg on the highway and 23 mpg in the city (based on the '75 model Federal EPA fuel economy report) you know you've got a car that appreciates economics. The new '75 Volkswagen Dasher. It costs $4,295* and your family is worth every red cent of it.

Everything about Texas is BIG! And Chrysler Corporation wants to be BIG in Texas. That's why we're introducing the Texas Persuader. Here's how the Texas Persuader works. You make your best deal with your dealer and then Chrysler Corporation will give you...

- $300 CASH BACK when you lease or buy a new 1975 Plymouth Gran Fury, Dodge Monaco, Chrysler Newport, New Yorker or Imperial.
- $200 CASH BACK when you buy or lease a new 1975 Dodge Dart, Plymouth Duster or Valiant.
- $200 CASH BACK when you buy or lease a new 1975 Plymouth Fury or Dodge Coronet.

And $200 CASH BACK when you buy or lease a new 1975 Dodge Pickup Truck, Tradesman Van, CB 300 Kary Van, Sportsman or Ramcharger and Plymouth Voyager and Trail Duster.

AND FOR THE CLINCHER!

The Texas Persuader is just one good reason to buy a new Chrysler Corporation car or truck. Your Dodge and Chrysler-Plymouth dealer can show you a whole lot more. Like a great selection of cars in every size and style, all with advanced engineering features. And for the real "Clincher," an unlimited mileage warranty for the first 12 months of ownership. In a big state like Texas, that's important. All you take care of are normal maintenance items, the "Clincher" covers the rest. See your dealer right away, but be prepared to be persuaded!

For the first 12 months of use, any Chrysler Motors Corporation dealer will fix, without charge for parts or labor, any part of our 1975 passenger cars we supply (except tires)* which proves defective in normal use, regardless of mileage. Of course, the owner is responsible for normal maintenance like changing filters and wiper blades.

*Tires are covered by their own manufacturer.

SEE YOUR DODGE OR CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH DEALER, TODAY!

Offer limited to Texas residents. Only one to a customer. Retail customers only. Offer limited to vehicles in dealer or factory inventory.
