

More Than 170 Are Evacuated

VIETIANE, Laos (AP) — More than 170 Americans were evacuated from Vietiane on Saturday as U.S. embassy employees burned documents and angry Laotian employees demonstrated outside the embassy gate demanding payment of back wages.

About 350 Americans have been flown from Laos to Bangkok in the past two days while students, influenced by growing anti-Americanism apparently fueled by the Communist-led Pathet Lao, called for the ouster of the U.S. Agency for International Development.

The students held the AID compound for the fourth day to back their demands that the Americans leave, while Laotian AID employees demanded payment of their wages. The embassy declined to pay until the students leave the compound.

NO PLANS

Lake Runoff Is Minimal

Most of the Americans flown out of the country were women and children. While U.S. Charge d'Affaires Christian A. Chapman said some non-essential documents were being "trimmed" and Marines could be seen burning papers, a spokesman said there were no plans to evacuate the embassy. About 650 Americans remain in the country.

In other Indochina developments: —In Saigon youth parades are condemning the "decadent culture" left behind by the Americans as a new society is shaped by Communist leaders, AP Correspondent George Esper reported from the South Vietnamese capital. Regimentation and austerity are being introduced, he said, and the enemy are no longer the Americans themselves but the way of life they instilled.

—South Korea was in a state of tension, worried that North Korea may attack in the wake of Communist gains in Indochina and fearful that the United States "will bug out" in any new showdown with the Communists.

—In Washington President Ford signed a bill providing $405 million in aid to Vietnamese and Cambodian refugees.

Reviewing the Big Spring Week

with Joe Pickle

The heaviest one-day rain in 20 years hit the Big Spring vicinity Thursday night, and while the 3.5-4.5 inches measured in the city didn't cover all the county, there is not a spot in the area that does not have ample moisture. An unconfirmed tornado report, abetted by the wail of alert warnings, kept the population on edge for a couple of hours. Meanwhile, hail ranging from tiny soft pellets to missiles, got further attention and wrought modest damage. Lowland flooding was inevitable. Detention dams, which overflowed in a few instances, kept the situation from being disastrous. Except from the sudden runoff from Big Spring, area lakes stood to catch very little inflow.

Possibly a third of more of the county's cropland, which had just about been planted, will have to be replanted, but as one native observed: "By this time we ought to be used to this." The good thing is that there is plenty of moisture on which to plant. Surviving cotton should jump like magic in the next week or two. Pastures were never in better condition for this season of the year. Moisture reserves are excellent.

Years of discussion will come to a head here June 19 when Howard County voters will have a chance to decide on whether to authorize $1,500,000 to finance a Howard College (and community) coliseum. The feeling seems to be, do it or forget it.

GI Benefit Checks Will Be Delayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — At least 300,000 veterans due to receive GI Bill benefit checks early next month probably will receive them late because Congress went on recess without appropriating the money, officials say.

The $425 million needed to cover the June checks for educational and training benefits is contained in a $15-billion supplemental appropriations that is stalled because of House and Senate disagreement over a proposed $700-million program to upgrade railroad tracks and facilities.

Congress left on its Memorial Day recess Thursday and will not reconvene until June 2, the day that Veterans Administration officials had planned to send the first vouchers for June benefits to the Treasury, which sends out the checks.

About $200 million remains in the GI Bill account, enough to last until the end of May.

Capt. Miller, Children Make Plans For Reunion

TERRA LINDA, Calif. (AP) — For the first time in 22 years, Capt. Charles T. Miller of the Mayaguez spoke to his son and daughter and made plans for a reunion.

"Hello, Dad," Jim Miller said to his father during a trans-Pacific telephone call Friday from Hong Kong.

"Hello, honey," the captain replied in confusion.

"Dad, this is your son Jim," the younger Miller explained. "I'm 35 years old now."

"Hello, son," the captain said in a faint voice.

Miller, now 62, had not talked with his children since he took them shopping for Christmas presents 22 years ago. Miller and his wife were divorced about 28 years ago.

The children found their long-lost father after reading and viewing news reports about the Mayaguez capture by Cambodians on May 12 and its subsequent release.

Jim, who has two children, and his sister, Cheryl Miller Pedersen, who is now 28 and has four children, sent Capt. Miller a letter earlier this week inviting him to visit their adjacent homes, 20 miles north of San Francisco.

New Legislation Fails To Halt Medical Strike

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Edmund Brown Jr. has signed into law a bill designed to provide California doctors malpractice insurance at a low initial cost.

But a spokesman for the California Medical Association said the governor's action Friday would not halt the statewide doctors' malpractice rate strike that began in northern California on May 1.

"You have to understand the bill provides no immediate solution to present crisis," said David Willett, a CMA attorney. Willett said it would not send doctors back to work.

The new law is designed to provide anesthesiologists and other doctors with malpractice insurance for between $1,000 and $2,000 for the rest of the year—rather than about $9,000, Brown's office said.

State Sen. Peter Behr authored the law that allows doctors a low insurance rate for the time being with a balloon payment later.

303 To Get Diplomas

Baccalaureate services will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight in Memorial Stadium for 303 graduating seniors of Big Spring High School.

The Rev. J.B. Sharp, pastor of First United Methodist Church, will give the address. The professional and recessional, vocal solo, prayers and scripture will be conducted by members of the class.

Graduation exercises will be held Thursday night at the same location.

Rainfall For Year 9.59 in.

Flash flood warnings, along with brilliant lightning displays, sent some people scurrying for shelter for the second time in two days early Saturday morning.

The thunderstorms lacked the quantity of moisture and also the hail of the previous night's storm which dumped 3.54 inches of rain and golf ball-sized hail.

At the Agricultural Experiment Station, .34 was measured from the Saturday morning storm, bringing the two-day total for Big Spring to 3.88. The total for May was increased to 7.87 and the total for the year was boosted to 9.59.

In other areas in Big Spring, unofficial measurements ranged from an inch at the Country Club, .75 inch in southeast Big Spring, .50 inch in Western Hills, .48 at the TESCO switch station and .40 at the CR-MWD pump station on the north edge of town.

Garden City received the most moisture early Saturday, catching 1.45 in the gauges to make their two-day total 2.25.

Forsan measured 1.25 and Elbow got 1.20, while Lomax, Vincent and Ackerly each measured .50 inch.

The four-inch mark for two days was surpassed by Elbow and by the Big Spring Country Club. The 1.25 that fell at the Boyce Hale home south of Big Spring brought that total to 3.95 for two days.

Sand Springs gauges only measured .25 inch, bringing the two-day total there up to 3.95.

Snyder got .90 inch from the storm and Colorado City measured .50.

The rains, for the most part, either stood or ran off as the soil was already soaked from rains the day before.

Crop Outlook Good But Experts Wary

WASHINGTON (AP) — The world may be on the verge of rebuilding some of its severely depleted food supplies but experts see it as a fragile and temporary victory at best.

Prospects for big harvests look good for this year and next throughout the world, barring unfavorable weather.

However, experts speaking at a four-day Washington Journalism Center conference this past week agreed that hunger is a nightmare that will not go away with one or two good harvests. Neither will unbridled population growth, the handmaid of hunger in much of the world.

At the heart of the problem are the poor nations—the "developing countries" such as India, Bangladesh and scores of others in Africa and Latin America—where poverty is rooted in the countryside, where 85 per cent of the world's 800 million poverty stricken people are said to exist.

Montague Yudelman, director of agriculture and development for the World Bank, said there are hopeful signs that agriculture in such countries is finally beginning to get the attention it deserves. He said about 25 per cent of the bank's $5 billion loan volume now is for agriculture.

Robert Dunn, associate professor of economics at George Washington University, blamed official policies in some of the developing countries. In an eagerness to keep food prices low for city people, many have held down prices at the farm, thus effectively taxing farmers and stunting the growth of food production, Dunn said.

2 Odessa Men Die In Wreck

ODESSA (Special to the Herald) — Two Odessa men were killed and a third injured when their truck was struck by a Missouri Pacific locomotive driven by W.T. Brabberly, Big Spring, at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Elias Natividad, 20, and Roderick Hollis, May 21, were pronounced dead at the scene by Midland Peace Justice John Biggs. James W. Gilliam, driver of the truck, was in guarded condition at Medical Center hospital in Odessa.

The men were traveling east of U.S. Hwy 80 in a 1970 Ford tractor-trailer owned by Ruthco Inc., when they turned south on County Road 1290. Their vehicle was struck by the locomotive on the right hand door. The mishap occurred near the Odessa Country Club.

Investigating officers said that the truck was knocked 174 feet from the point of impact and that the locomotive continued 3 of a mile before it could stop.

Services for the men are pending with Hubbard-Kelley Funeral Home.

The train was idled an hour 20 minutes by the collision but continued on its way to Big Spring.

Conductor Kenneth L. Hart and brakeman H.D. Carroll and T.P. Ray were other members of the train crew.

Members of the train crew said that Gilliam apparently turned onto the track without looking back.

ORGANS LINKED TO BABOON — Recent picture of Scott Molloy, 13-month-old British boy who was kept alive for 16 hours by linking his heart and kidneys to those of a living baboon, in the first operation of its kind, at Hatfield Hospital, northwest of London. The operation was initially a success but the boy died Thursday when the baboon's body failed under the strain of keeping two systems going, a hospital spokesman stated.

Fiber Glass Systems Plans Large Expansion

A major expansion which will more than double the operating space of Fiber Glass Systems, Inc. has been announced by V. F. Michael, president.

Bids are out for a new building which will have one and a quarter more space than the existing structures and which could have the effect of doubling production of the plants line of fiber glass pipe and fittings.

Michael told stockholders Thursday evening of the plans at their annual meeting at the plant on the Lamesa Highway. He also presented the annual financial statement, which far outstripped anything to date.

Returned to the board by stockholders, most of them Big Spring individuals, were Michael, Margaret B. Michael, Bill Edwards Jr., Bill Jackson, Lowell N. Jones, Jack N. Little, Bob Michael, Marvin Miller, John Taylor and O. S. Womack.

BIDS ASKED

The president, who designed, built and has operated the facility since it was started in 1968, said that bids will be received in about two weeks. They are asked in two stages — one for a new production area and offices, and one for basically the production area. Growth of the business, Michael said, is such that additional office space is needed urgently.

The proposed new structure will be located on the south side of the present plant, and the office section would be in the offset between the original building and the south annex. The new space also will contain a substantial area given over to bulk storage of materials such as fiber glass and resin.

The financial statement showed that assets jumped by nearly half a million dollars last year, or from $728,266 to $1,156,884. Instead of an operating deficit of $72,583, the previous year, there was a retained earning item of $87,666. At the same time, the company paid its first dividend of $1 per share or $65,570. Stockholder equity increased by 87.4 per cent, or from $325,019 to $609,271.

SALES JUMP

Net sales were up by 53.48 per cent or to $1,993,979.

Income per share rose to $3.18 per share, or a gain of 75 per cent for the year.

Demand for the product, principally in down-hole casing and tubing, still outstrips the capacity of the plant, said Michael.

Currently, Fiber Glass Systems is producing at a pace 75 per cent over the past year, and the payroll has passed the level of a million dollars a year. The company will mechanize operations to a considerably greater extent, including 8-mandrel machines instead of the present five. The manufacturing machines and equipment will not be fabricated on site but will not interfere with stepped up production.

ODDS HIGH

Clear to partly cloudy with a 20 per cent chance of rain today, tonight and Monday. Little change in temperatures. The high today and Monday, mid 80s, the low tonight, near 60.

Trio In Family Die In Crash

STOCKDALE, TEX. (AP) — Three members of a Fort Worth family were killed and three other persons were injured early Saturday in a two-car head-on collision near this South Texas town.

State police identified the dead as Luis L. Flores, 22; his wife, Janie, 19; and their son, Luis Jr., 11 months old.

Authorities said the Flores' car collided with a car occupied by a McAllen family around 12:15 a.m. near here, some 40 miles southeast of San Antonio.

The injured were treated and released from a nearby Floresville hospital.

Russel Eppler Is Injured

Russel Paul Eppler, 18, was rushed to a local hospital following a one motorcycle accident on the North Service Road in Sand Springs Saturday at about 7:50 p.m.

He suffered head injuries when the unregistered Honda mini-bike he was riding east on the service road apparently hit a muddy spot and turned over.

Eppler reportedly was not wearing a helmet at the time of the accident. His condition was undetermined at press time.

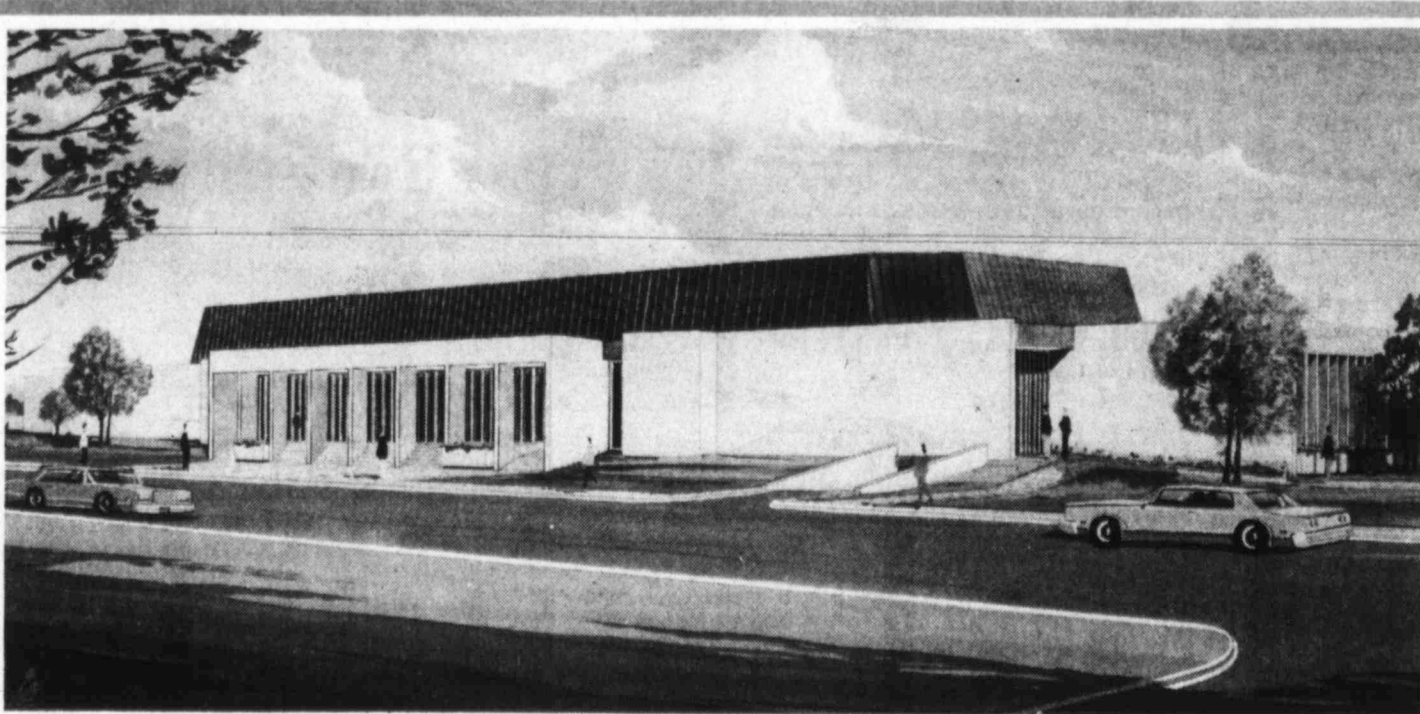

Aid Bill Signed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford signed a $405 million bill Saturday to provide the funds to find homes, jobs and a fresh start for more than 100,000 refugees from the war in Indochina.

Now that the measure has become law, contracts can be signed with nine private, voluntary agencies to assist in resettlement of the refugees. More than $70 million is earmarked for this purpose.

Another $65 million of the money will go to the Defense Department to cover its cost in airlifting the refugees while $155 million is for food, medical care and other items and $15 million will assist 20,000 refugees headed for third countries.

The first 500 refugees will arrive at the new Indiantown Gap, Pa., camp Wednesday, a State Department spokeswoman said, as the movement from Pacific centers to the U.S. resumes.

ARCHITECTS' DRAWING OF PROPOSED ALL-PURPOSE COLLEGE COLISEUM
COLLEGE BUILDING WOULD ACCOMODATE 4,500
Information Campaign Is Mounted

Statistics and descriptive matter on the proposed Howard College coliseum were announced Saturday by college officials and the architects.

Last week trustees set June 19 as a date for voters of the countywide college district to decide on whether to issue $1,500,000 in general obligation bonds to finance the project. Dr. Charles Hays, college president, said that an intense campaign to provide information on the facility will be launched immediately.

The building will be at the corner of Birdwell and Kentucky Way, the northwest corner of the campus property. It will front north for something like 360 feet along Kentucky Way and will be in proximity to the Memorial Stadium parking area.

Over all, the building will contain some 78,000 square feet.

The 240-164-ft. main all-purpose area will center around a 15-ft. excavation, with the borrowed earth to form a 6-ft. bench. The seats on the oval slopes around the arena or floor will accommodate 3,300 spectators for activities that require use of all the floor. Where only a podium or stage is required on the floor, another 1,200 seats can be put up, making a 4,500-seat capacity.

In addition to this, on the east there will be a seminar or meeting space capable of handling 600 chairs. This space can be reduced in 12-foot increments for smaller groups.

To the west of the main area will be a two-story wing with handball courts, physical education, varsity coaching offices and a health club on the top level. On the ground floor level will be varsity dressing rooms, plus three physical education dressing rooms, restrooms, offices, etc.

The main portion of the building, which has mobile rather than stationary stages, has a clear span with a 40-ft. clearance from the floor to the top of the ceiling. The over-all height of the building from floor to peak of roof will be 50 feet.

Construction will be masonry with brick facing (to a height of 21 feet) to match present campus building. This will be topped by a 10-ft. metal fascia. There will be a patio off the east wing for outdoor receptions, etc. A wide driveway capable of handling trucks will descend from street to floor levels to facilitate moving of equipment, supplies, etc. for any type of exhibit, game, show or banquet.

The Basic Question

Trustees of Howard College (which is the institutional personality of the Howard County Junior College District that embraces the entire county) have fixed June 19 as the date for a decision on whether to undertake a coliseum.

The issue at hand will be whether or not to authorize $1,500,000 in general obligation bonds to finance the project in whole or in major part; also to provide an additional 10 cents to the tax rate limit.

In both instances, it is best to assume that the entire $1,500,000 will be required, and that the 10-cent increase in limit, if authorized, will be imposed. It might be possible not to assess the full rate, if there were a steady, sharp appreciation in values, but the fact of the matter is that it will take about 10 cents more to safely finance the issue without reducing the amount available for local maintenance (operations).

So, there's no hocus pocus involved here in presenting an illusion that the project won't raise taxes, hence not cost taxpayers any more. Everybody should know that we don't get something for nothing. Thus, the question at stake, reduced to simplest terms, is this: "Is the project needed, will it be worth it, and can we afford it?"

We believe that the answer is "yes" on all three scores. In the first instance, our community has suffered loss of many functions and many regional or state gatherings because of inadequate seating capacity. Our vicinity has been denied numerous attractions which could not be popularly priced; many tournaments and exhibits because we lacked flexible and ample facilities.

A coliseum-type building would answer these problems, and by removing these inhibitions to community undertakings would make the project worth it, not alone to the college, but also to the entire community. Assuming a 10-cent additional rate would be required, we feel that it would be worth the price. The price on an average home would be relatively nominal. Over a year's time, the plus business that the coliseum would generate should considerably exceed the annual payment.

Over 40 years ago, our community came to a similar question (under far more dire economic circumstances) and ventured out on the city hall and auditorium. These proved to be among the greatest bargains we ever enjoyed.

Feel Better, Look Better

Recent showers, coupled with good deep soil reserves, have given our community a green covering. Suddenly, lawns are coming back, and flowers, shrubs and trees have been given new life.

So have weeds. Now that yards are being trimmed and made attractive, it is time to tackle the weed and trash problem. Getting rid of these not only makes for a more attractive appearance, but also for a healthier situation. Mosquitoes and other pests thrive in weed and brush patches, especially if they contain old cans, bottles or tires that can hold moisture.

When you get your trash all collected, call the city to haul it away. You'll feel better and the community will look better.

My Answer

Billy Graham

What is the answer to loneliness? Is there anything in the Bible to help me? H.S.

I suppose there are many authorities in the field of psychology and sociology who could be quoted regarding this problem of loneliness. But let me give you one statement of Christ that embraces the germ of truth from which all help is derived.

It's the statement of Christ recorded in John 16:32, "Behold the hour cometh... that ye shall leave me alone, and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me." No human loneliness could ever approximate what Jesus knew. He was socially alone, mentally alone and spiritually alone. But through this excruciating experience, He had the reassuring presence of the Father. With this sort of fellowship, Jesus showed that neither earth nor hell could break it. What He had, we may have.

The problem of loneliness is compounded today by economic recession, urban isolation and the disruptive mobility of the American family. I know of no answer, however, except the presence of the Father through Jesus Christ. With that, you'll be led into new friendships, more productive living and an inner resourcefulness that life's bleakness can't crack.

REMEMBERING...

BY BILL D. BROOKS

THE COUNTRY CHURCH

In driving through the rural sections of America it is not uncommon to come upon a small village or town somewhat off the main road. In any given section of the country the towns will all have pretty much the same appearance, especially the church building. The architecture is not usually elaborate but it is easily recognized as a church.

The country church is more than just a religious meeting place. It is actually the center of community life. Labeled by some as the backbone of rural American culture, it is the town meeting hall, election polling place, and community center. Denominational barriers are often broken and all faiths participate in the services and use of the building.

The one we attended was such a place. It stood proudly on the hill overlooking the town. The old building was not designed by an architect but rather dreamed up by the craftsmen of the community a generation earlier. They built it, all contributing time, skills and money as they were able. The church had no full-time pastor but rather shared one with two other nearby congregations. Consequently, we only had "preachin'" every third either side of the pulpit two small rooms which were used for choir and classes. Other classrooms for Sunday School were formed by drawing ducking curtains across the auditorium. This arrangement did not afford much privacy; at times you could hear as many as six lessons being taught at the same time.

I'm sure my teachers didn't think I was learning much in their class but I absorbed more than was apparent. I owe my early religious training to those dedicated men and women who endured my pranks, interruptions and jokes. I remember them with pride and will always be thankful they took the time to teach.

Help Wanted

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — One of the toughest jobs in the country today is to be a personnel officer for a company doing business with the government.

EVERETT DOLLOP, a friend who hires people for Ozone Aviation, was telling me his troubles the other night. "I'm going crazy," he said. "The law says that when a federal contract is awarded to a company the employer is required to draw up an 'affirmative action plan' for hiring, which means he has to show he will hire minorities and women appropriate to the general skills."

"What's wrong with that?" I asked. "NOTHING EXCEPT that the law also states that firms with government contracts have to submit reports to the government on how many veterans they've hired."

"So?"

"So," said Dollop, "we eliminate male whites over 25 years of age to start with."

"Why over 25 years of age?"

"BECAUSE THERE is a federally supported program to promote the hiring of youths and we're pledged to support it."

"So when it comes to a job," I said, "you have your choice of women, minorities, veterans and youths."

"And handicapped people. The law requires employers with government contracts to make a good faith effort to hire appropriate numbers of handicapped people. At the same time, we can get a tax break if we hire people from the welfare rolls. So it's to our advantage to hire the last group."

"That makes sense."

"AT THE SAME time," Dollop said, "the company is a member of National Alliance of Businessmen which supports the hiring of ex-offenders who have been released from jail."

"You have quite a varied group to pick from," I said.

"We also are involved with a program that encourages the hiring of the disadvantaged who are not on welfare rolls, for one reason or another. And last week my boss agreed to give jobs to members of the Spanish-speaking community."

"There hardly seems to be anybody left."

"DID I MENTION that I've also been ordered to find work for senior citizens?"

"No, you forgot," I said.

"So you see the problem. I have no difficulty with a white male non-veteran walks in my office. I just throw him out."

"WHY DON'T you advertise for a black woman who served in the armed forces, speaks Spanish, has some form of infirmity, would like to get off welfare and did some time in jail."

Music: Cash Registers Ring

WEEK'S BUSINESS

NEW YORK (AP) — Department store executives said this week that their cash registers have begun ringing again after an uncomfortably quiet first quarter, but car sales remained slow.

"Consumer demand for goods has begun to firm up in recent weeks from the depressed levels of the first quarter," said Sears, Roebuck & Co. Chairman Arthur M. Wood.

Sears reported that slow sales in the three months ending April 30 pulled profits down 60 per cent from last year. J.C. Penney Co.'s first quarter profits were off 87 per cent. Marcor Inc., Montgomery Ward parent, was down 11 per cent and S.S. Kresge Co. was up 2 per cent. Most store executives said May sales were significantly improved.

Car sales have shown no sign of recovery. General Motors Corp. and Chrysler Corp. said mid-May sales were off 30 per cent from year-ago levels and Ford Motor Co.'s sales were down 20 per cent.

Hoping to bite into the sizeable percentage of import sales, GM announced it will build the first American minicar next year. The car will be very economical on gas but so far has no price tag and no name, GM said.

The Justice Department's long-pending antitrust suit against International Business Machines Corp. came to trial this week. Attorneys presented opening arguments on whether the giant computer maker has used its marketing muscle to compete unfairly with smaller firms. The antitrust suit is the largest on record and is likely to set many patterns for an even bigger antitrust suit filed this year against American Telephone & Telegraph Co.

The IBM suit has taken on an unusually personal atmosphere since attorneys from both sides charged each other with "professional misconduct" before the case came to court this week.

New York City cancelled the $280 million note offering it had scheduled for this week when it became apparent that there were no bidders.

Ear Ailments Baffling

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: For three months I have been having a number of attacks of severe dizzy spells with considerable vomiting each time. I also notice a peculiar deafness in my left ear.

It has been diagnosed as an inner ear problem. I have been given medication, but have heard that a salt-restricted diet would help me. Will I be troubled with this all of my life? — Mr. B. C.

It is often difficult to be specific about problems involving the inner ear. Finding the exact cause can be a long, painstaking procedure. I can only suggest a few possibilities.

The inner ear contains a very sensitive set of nerves and three tiny tubes — semicircular canals. These canals are usually involved in balance disturbance.

From the symptoms you list, Meniere's disease comes to mind as one possibility. An inflammatory condition called labyrinthitis is another. A hemorrhaging into this balance system following a head injury, or even during a violent sneezing spell, can produce similar symptoms. This would subside in time.

The canals I mentioned contain a fluid called endolymph. This fluid shifts back and forth, much like tea in a tilting teacup. The shifting corresponds to the particular attitude of the body at any given moment, thus maintaining balance. It is a remarkably efficient mechanism, but as with any delicate structure the slightest disturbance can throw it out of kilter.

In Meniere's disease, there is a build-up of this fluid caused often by a disturbance in blood circulation or by an abnormal liquid retention in the body. The suggestion of a salt-restricted diet thus makes some sense, if that is your problem. Salt, as you may know, dows promote liquid retention generally.

In about 90 per cent of the cases, Meniere's disease affects one ear only. It is most common in males between the ages of 40 and 60.

Often, hearing in the affected ear is diminished or lost, and the symptoms can last as long as two or three years. Special care must be taken to avoid falls. The victim will tend to fall in the direction of the affected ear.

The treatment, meanwhile, should be to eliminate the primary cause — antibiotics to combat an infection, diuretics to eliminate excess fluid, and medication to promote blood circulation, if that is a factor.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have high blood pressure, and am on medication for it. My latest reading was 110-60. I have been told I shouldn't eat pork, which I like very much. I would like your opinion also on liver. Would beef liver make blood and cause my blood pressure to rise? — W. T.

The blood pressure figures you mention seem within safe range for a middle-aged man such as you. This is probably due to the medication you are receiving.

I believe the pork is being maligned. It may contain hidden fat, but otherwise it is very nutritious and high in vitamin B. I see no relationship between pork and your blood pressure.

Perhaps you were slightly anemic and, being a pork-lover, were neglecting other red meats. You were advised to eat liver because this does aid in blood formation. However, liver is high in cholesterol, so if your blood pressure gets elevated, you might want to avoid it.

Cambodian Affair

William F. Buckley, Jr.

The morning the marines were dispatched to Cambodia to free the pirated vessel and rescue its American crew, it happened that I was testifying, at the invitation of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, on the impact of detente on United States policy in the United Nations. Suddenly the charming chairman of this body, Mr. Sparkman of Alabama, zipped off the subject and asked: "What would you do, if you were in command, about the imprisoned ship in Cambodia?"

To which I replied, with characteristic self-effacement, that if I were in command, there wouldn't be an imprisoned American ship in Cambodia. Having said this, I thought, really, that my reply sounded like unadulterated rodomontade and attempted elaboration.

LISTEN NOW to some hard facts about the Mayaguez affair.

The general feeling of exultation, outside the columns of those writers whose day is ruined by any successful American show of force, is endemic. It was a most cheerful antidote, after months of bad news. Mr. Peter Drucker wrote in a recent book that the only thing a government can do successfully is inflate the currency and make war. We had begun to doubt that it could even do the latter. But President Ford gambled — and he won.

But he was very, very lucky. The marines might easily have landed on that little island only to find the American crew departed, destination unknown. If the FBI cannot find Patricia Hearst in our own country, it is unlikely that we could have found the thirty-nine crewmen in Cambodia, a hostile totalitarian country whose leaders have been acting not only as Communists, but like the tribe that lost its head.

WHAT, THEN, would we have done? What can one do to Cambodia? You could, without too much trouble, close down the port of Sihanoukville: we did that once. But this would have been at once a major international provocation with a long fuse, and a minor inconvenience for a country that could easily have been provisioned by its friendly neighbor, North Vietnam, together with its satellite, South Vietnam.

Would we then have started mass bombing? Of what? There are a few airfields we could have dumped on, but there isn't, in Cambodia, that concentration of military fortifications that is specially vulnerable to our B-52s; besides which, action on such a scale would have required consultation with Congress, and before long, ambiguity would have set in — such ambiguity as surrounded the Pueblo incident and paralyzed Lyndon Johnson. And that was back before we repealed the Imperial Presidency.

THE ONLY WAY, then, to keep our ships from being pirated is to create an atmosphere in which it simply does not occur to any major power, let alone mini power, that these are games which nations can safely play. Mr. Henry Kissinger once told a friend, a couple of years after Mr. Nixon took office, that when the North Koreans shot down our spy plane over the neutral waters of the Sea of Japan, the Cabinet was summoned for a discussion of what to do. Mr. Nixon had been in office only a few weeks, and decided to temporize with North Korea rather than face the country with a split Cabinet. On reflection, Mr. Kissinger said, it was clear that the North Koreans were testing the waters. It is not fantasy to say that what happened off Cambodia — and everything in between — might have been affected by our failure to react sharply — conclusively — against North Korea in January of 1969.

SALUTE TO A COMRADE — Frank Mullican, of Big Spring, a veteran of World War I, silently salutes a fallen comrade. The 80-year-old veteran of Argonne remembers well the men who fought and died beside him in the trenches of France. The former private first class served with B-company, 5th Army while in Europe. Millions of people around the nation will be joining Mr. Mullican on Memorial Day as they honor those men who helped keep America free.

Next Orthopedic Clinic Is Scheduled June 14

The Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, in cooperation with the Howard County Easter Seal Society, will conduct its next orthopedic clinic Saturday, June 14, between 9:00 a.m. and 12:00 a.m. Parents of children may pre-register by calling the center, 267-6387. The clinic will be under the supervision of the center's medical advisory committee. Medical director of the clinic will be Dr. Bill Alexander, orthopedic surgeon from Midland. Dr. Ray Owen will be the pediatrician for the next clinic. All new patients to the clinic must be present between 9:00 and 10:00 a.m., otherwise the pediatrician will not be able to see them. All children up to 21 years of age are eligible to attend. This will include children from the surrounding area as well as from Big Spring and Howard County. Officials hope that children from Lamesa, Colorado City, Snyder, Loraine, Stanton, Sterling City, Garden City and other cities, as well, will benefit from this clinic. No charge will be made for services rendered. Parents of children who wish to have their children seen in this clinic should contact their family physician in order to have them referred. If they do not have a physician they should contact the center for an appointment.

Grand Jury Is To Reconvene

The February grand jury is being reconvened June 2 to consider three murder cases, an alleged attempted rape and other incidents. Ralph McLaughlin is grand jury foreman. Other grand jurors include Barbara J. Stanley, Curtis Smith, Horace E. Tubb, Robert L. Adkins, Tito A. Arencibia, Edward A. Pierson, Harold W. Rains Jr., Vernelle Jenkins, Glenn L. Parson, Lee Priest and Walter L. Wheat.

Cosden Offices Being Improved

The Cosden downtown office building is being refurbished, with all of the glass windows at the ground level enclosed and to be covered with a rock siding. The old sidewalk, originally placed around the building when it was constructed as the Petroleum building in 1929 is being dug out with new sidewalk and planter areas to be included. Sid Smith, director of office personnel, said that seven oak trees will be placed at vantage points around the building. Cosden took over the office building in 1956, air conditioning the building at that time and remodeling it inside.

Tillage Talk Given Here

Bill Fryrear, superintendent of the Big Spring Experiment Farm, spoke to the Kiwanians at their regular weekly luncheon the past week, choosing as his subject "Tillage Research". Fryrear said the mission of his agency is to find crops able to withstand the winds common to the area. Fryrear said three-fourths of the rainfall which falls here is lost to evaporation. Fryrear also stated that a ton of soil per acre is lost each year through erosion.

T-R May Seek To Offer Service To Abilene

R. E. McClure of Big Spring, general manager of Trans Regional Airlines, has announced that within the next few weeks he intends to contact Abilene officials to see if his fledgling company can provide commuter service to that city.

McClure doubles as chief pilot for the newest of six commuter services operating within the state.

Earlier, Trans Regional had applied to the Texas Aeronautics Commission and the Civil Aeronautics Board to include Abilene on the list of cities it serves but later withdrew the application after reaching a compromise agreement with Texas International Airlines.

Texas International officials told Abilene civic leaders as recently as Thursday that the airlines could not provide Abilene with the westbound service which a recent survey showed the city could use.

An attorney for the Texas

Aeronautics Commission, John Soule, said that "many, many communities are experiencing curtailments" by the major airlines because of financial problems involved in operation of the larger airplanes.

Currently, flights of Trans Regional Airlines originate in Big Spring and serve both the Midland Air Terminal and the Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Air Terminal.

McClure said he foresees the time when his company might also provide service to Austin and Houston, if the need can be demonstrated.

Other airlines offering commuter service in Texas include Southwest Airlines, based in Dallas and serving Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston, Harlingen and San Antonio; Rio Airways, based in Killeen and serving Killeen, Waco, Temple, Wichita Falls and Texarkana; Metroflight Airline, based in Houston and serving Victoria, Lake

Jackson, Clear Lake City, Galveston and Port Arthur.

Also Amistead Airlines, based in San Antonio and serving Del Rio; and David Airlines, based in College Station and serving Houston and Dallas-Fort Worth.

Gets BA Degree

SAN ANTONIO — Miss Donna Kay Stanley, 613 Tulane, Big Spring, received the bachelor of arts degree in social sciences, Summa Cum Laude, May 11 from Incarnate Word College. She was one of five students in the class to graduate with the highest honors.

Miss Stanley was elected a member, and served as president, of the Alpha Chi National Honor Society for the top 10 per cent of college upperclassmen. She was also a member and secretary of Psi Chi Social Science Club, and was the junior representative on the Student-Faculty Board.

MOMS MABLEY DEAD — Momm Mabley, the rubber-faced comedienne with the toothless grin and baggy clothing, died Friday night after a long illness. A spokesman at New York's White Plains Hospital said Miss Mabley, 77, had been a patient there for several weeks.

Viet Prostitutes Said Working Texas Brothels

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Vietnamese prostitutes recruited by a former Saigon brothel operator are working military bases here, the San Antonio News says.

The madam, described only as an attractive 39-year-old Vietnamese who fled when Saigon fell to the communists, was brought to San Antonio by a "high ranking U.S. Army officer," the newspaper said Friday.

San Antonio is the site of four Air Force bases and Fort Sam Houston, headquarters of the 5th Army. The Defense Language Institute which trains many foreign students also is located here.

Most customers of the brothel in a residence near Kelly Air Force Base have been foreign military personnel and U.S. soldiers who served in Vietnam, the newspaper said.

The News said it learned of the brothel from a military officer of a Middle East nation who is undergoing training here.

He said his men were "going wild" over several Vietnamese girls working the military bases.

San Antonio's military officials apparently cannot place the brothel off-limits until a complaint is filed.

"Nobody has complained yet about this reported Vietnamese brothel," one military spokesman said.

Immigration and Naturalization Service regional director Joe Staley said Vietnamese prostitutes caught plying their trade would either be deported or put in custody.

"We give the refugees a lot of privileges, but one thing we have not waived: those who practice prostitution are not eligible for the program," he said.

The newspaper quoted also a 20-year-old Vietnamese girl who said she had refused an offer to work for the madam.

"I never want to wear my Vietnamese clothes again," she said. "One day I was dressed in my native clothes and I was downtown and all those soldiers followed me. I hate it. I just hate it."

BS Residents Earn Degrees

Three students from Big Spring received degrees at Texas A&M University's spring commencement exercises.

Also receiving their undergraduate degrees were Robert Norton Dennis, educational curriculum and instruction, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dennis, 500 Douglas, and Louis Ray Dunnam, animal science, the son of R. G. Dunnam, 1108 Ridgeroad Dr.

Two From Here Gain Degrees

Oilmen Risk $214 Million

DALLAS — Texas oil men last year risked $214 million on finding oil and gas in places where it had never been found before in a search that added 341 discovery wells out of 1,980 attempts. This is the report of Sherman Hunt, Dallas, president of Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Assn.

Known as "wildcats" — wells drilled in areas or formations which have never before produced oil or gas — nearly 83 per cent were chalked off as dry holes. Averaging more than $100,000 apiece, these wells are the wildest and riskiest category of the over-all exploratory effort, said Hunt. Texas operators drilled 348 more wells in this classification in 1974 than in the year before.

"The 1974 increase in new-field wildcat drilling stemmed from incentives operators received through percentage depletion and free market prices for crude oil and for natural gas sold within Texas," Hunt said. "Outlook for increased wildcat drilling this year has been clouded by Congressional action which eliminated depletion for large companies

Name Omitted Whole Town Pulls For Ailing Girl

Among those qualifying for membership in Phi Kappa chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, international history honor society at University of Permian Basin is Ann Workman, Stanton. To qualify a student must complete at least 12 hours in history with a 3.0 plus average and be in the top quarter of the class.

MOUNT STERLING, Ky. (AP) — They will dance in the streets here tonight for 3-year-old Rhea Dawn Maschino.

Practically everyone in this eastern Kentucky town of 5,000 residents has become involved in the little girl's life after learning she needed open-heart surgery.

Waitresses pitched in their tips, school children collected money and Ray Maschino, Rhea Dawn's father, got his job back after a layoff at a local plant.

Tonight's music and dancing, auctions and raffling, to be broadcast live by the local radio station, will be a sort of combination celebration and fund-raising event to cap the town's ties with the little girl.

Rhea Dawn was born with congenital heart disease and has two malformed cardiac valves. Ray Maschino learned she needed open-heart surgery just after he was laid off from his job as a lathe operator at the A.O. Smith Co., which makes electric motors.

Then Margaret Maschino, Rhea's mother, quit her job as a waitress at a local restaurant to be with her daughter full time. That is when the community learned of the Maschino's plight.

The other waitresses at the restaurant where Mrs. Maschino had worked started saving their tips and set up a collection jar, trying to raise money to help defray the cost of the child's operation. Word spread quickly and soon nearly everyone, including the A.O. Smith Co., knew of Rhea Dawn's impending operation.

The company told Maschino he could have his job back immediately, and he went back to work.

A radio disc jockey saw the collection jar in the restaurant and started talking about Rhea Dawn's operation on the air.

Students in Mt. Sterling schools started collecting money, within the schools and through a variety of community projects.

Within two weeks, students, civic groups and nearly everyone in Mount Sterling had chipped in and there was $3,500 in a bank account opened in Rhea Dawn's name.

Ambucs Get 6-A Awards

Three District 6-A awards were presented to three members of the Big Spring American Business Club at that organization's annual installation banquet staged Thursday evening at the Big Spring Country Club.

Morris Robertson was gifted with the Mr. Ambuc plaque after having been judged to be the No. One Ambuc in the district. Marvin Callahan won the Projects award of the year while Whitney Reynolds was presented with the Secretary-Treasurer award of the year.

Bill Sneed was duly installed as new president of the club, succeeding Wayne Rock. Rock, in turn, took the oath as the Regional ABC Governor. John Ferguson, Lubbock, past National president of the ABC, swore in both Sneed and Rock. Virgil Bennett, Lubbock, Regional director, also participated at the ritual.

Don Brooks accepted the oath of office as first vice president of the club. Ralph Emerson becomes the second vice president, Tommy Johnson the third vice president while Floyd Earle, Tommy Vernon, Herb Johnson, Ike McKinney and Jimmy Worden accepted appointments as sergeant-at-arms.

Bennie Compton To Graduate

Bennie Compton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Escol Compton of Big Spring and a graduate of Big Spring High School, will graduate today from the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Austin and will be ordained as pastor of the Iowa Park Presbyterian Church June 8.

His parents have gone to attend the ceremonies.

Some serious talk about West Texas gas

By K. B. "Tex" Watson, Pioneer president

Living in the middle of an area known for its abundant gas deposits, it's hard to imagine West Texans threatened by a shortage of natural gas. However, there is the possibility that governmental regulations could create a shortage here. If we are not vigilant, we could see much of our gas supply allocated to other areas. Or we could see price controls make it impractical for producers to drill additional wells in this area. What can the average citizen do to prevent that from happening? I would suggest that he be aware of the problem and support Pioneer's efforts to maintain our gas reserves.

LAST DAY — Sam Mesker, head of the Railway Express Agency here for 31 years, poses on the final day of operation with the well-known express truck and the office, off to the left. The building will either be turned over to the railroad or torn down, according to Mesker.

Railway Express Agency Closes Local Offices

By MARJ CARPENTER
The Railway Express Agency is "no more" in Big Spring.

Everything from coffins to boa constrictors, and blood plasma to fruit trees has been shipped in and out of Big Spring, via Railway Express ever since the railroad arrived. But it is no more. The Railway Express Agency, which replaced American Express, which replaced the Wells-Fargo wagons, has bit the dust.

The REA has declared a limited bankruptcy under a reconstruction clause whereby they are not attempting to beat the debtors. But in the reconstruction process, all of the smaller stations are being closed down and only the big cities will still have a REA.

Sam and Lucille Mesker really hate to see it go. For the past 31 years, he has been the Big Spring agent. "I haven't had a vacation for ten years, but I have one now," he stated. And he added, "I have applied for some type of transfer for the other year and a half I lack toward retirement."

STRIP THE SIGNS
Mesker's orders were to strip all signs and stickers from the building. He has sold some of the signs to collectors and kept one big one for his back yard. The truck belonged to him and is symbolic of the Railway Express.

For years, the familiar dark green trucks, carrying some type of advertisement on the side delivered a little bit of everything all over the country — and cheaper than any other service.

Just to recap a little bit: until this year the senior caps and gowns arrived by Railway Express. Among the live things brought in by the REA — other than the boa constrictors which came and went by REA after a local store decided not to handle them any more — include rattlesnakes, alligators, turtles, minks, horned frogs, terrapins, gila monsters, coons, bobcats, jack rabbits, and cotton tails.

A lot of horned frogs have been sent north and east. Requirements for handling a rattlesnake included putting the snake inside a grass sack and then inside a screen wire box. "As far as I know, it was safe," Mesker recalled.

CORPSE BUGGY
"We shipped a lot of bodies. I sold the old corpse buggy as a collector's item last week," the agent said and added, "We also shipped a lot of perishables — fruit,

RECENT TRUCKS — The REA has introduced a new wagon which will only be seen in big cities, since many of the REA offices are being closed throughout the country. Basic pattern of the truck has been the same for over 40 years.

fruit trees, Mama's chocolate cake and cookies." "We sent college kids home-cooked food and got back dirty laundry," he laughed. "Now there is not going to be an agency that will take light packages. The big transports require a certain weight minimum and the buses have a maximum. I really hate to see the service go."

The longtime agent admitted that they only delivered a third compared to the boom years, but "we still delivered a lot of packages. When I started, you could send packages from 1-25 pounds for less than a dollar and now it may be $25."

Another recollection was that beginning with the Pony Express and Wells Fargo, the express always used whatever transportation was available. At first it was a lone horse, then wagons, then Model-Ts, then express trucks connecting with the railroads and airways.

FORMER PRIORITY
"The express service used to have priority on the railroads, just like passenger service. Both took a major setback in the 60s."

Mesker came to Big Spring originally to help construct the Bombardier school. He married Lucille Tucker, who was the granddaughter of one of the early Big Spring citizens, Ed Tucker. The family home was where the Golden West Motel now stands and among the children were Andy Tucker and Emma Slauter.

Mesker went in the armed service and when he got out, he was working in Louisiana. He decided that he wanted to go back to Texas and got as far as Orange where he saw a Railway Express employment advertisement and

Wreath-Laying Ritual Slated At 10 Monday

THE WEEK

Prospects are high that Fiber Glass Systems, Inc. will contract within about a fortnight for a new building which will more than double the space now available. New mechanized plans for operations could mean the output for this increasingly vigorous company could be multiplied by three times.

This must have been the year of the Spring City at the state Jaycee convention. In division IV, the Big Spring chapter was No. 1, President Eddie Cole, Vice President Neal Roberts, Secretary-Treasurer and bulletin editor Perry Culwell, and Project Chairman Robby Robertson were all named as most outstanding. The Rattlesnake Roundup was picked as the best ways and means activity. Ben Faulkner, having graduated from Jaycees to the Jaycee Senate (friends of the Jaycees), was picked as an outstanding director of this group. Eddie Cole, with over 30 new members, and Robby Robertson were picked as outstanding recruiters.

The Chamber of Commerce and official bodies are pressing for a feasibility study for extension of Amtrak to include service through here. There is a study for extension from Fort Worth to Sweetwater, thence to Lubbock and Albuquerque, Midland, Odessa and Pecos are joining Big Spring to press for a let to El Paso.

Another West Texan has been named to the Texas Water Rights Commission. He is Joe Carroll, Snyder attorney, who is thoroughly conversant with water needs in this area. His experience as a former assistant attorney general won't hurt him either.

Howard College is making some capital improvements out of budgeted funds and modest surplus. The Practical Arts building is gaining a substantial addition which will enhance the shops education program. The cafeteria kitchen will get over $20,000 in new equipment. Incidentally, the college will operate the cafeteria next year.

Spare about half an hour Monday morning to attend the Memorial Day rites at the Memorial Plaza on the east side of the courthouse. It isn't just a holiday, but rather a day for remembering the supreme sacrifice of men and women for their country.

Marvin McKinley (Rip) Morrison, who was said to be the mastermind behind the robbery of State National Bank here Dec. 12, 1967, succeeded in federal district last week in getting his sentence reduced from 25 to 20 years. This will make him eligible for parole. Joe F. McDonald is serving time as the alleged actual bandit who took the late R.W. Currie, president, hostage, along with $12,000.

The long arm of tragedy reached all the way around the world to touch Lt. Col. Paul Shafer, who was gunned down by terrorists in Terehan, Iran. Col. Shafer was the brother of T.Sgt. William L. Shafer at Webb AFB.

Traditionalists are pulling for Jerry Merrick to come back home to Ackerly. Otherwise, Julie Merrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Merrick, who graduated Thursday evening at Sands High School, will be the last of the Merricks who have been in school here for 33 years. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Merrick, who live at Plainview, have a child ready to enter first grade this autumn.

Floyd A. Dixon of Houston and formerly of Big Spring underwent open heart surgery Thursday at the VA Hospital in Houston.

Floyd is the son of Mrs. Dillie Dixon of Big Spring. Hospital attendants say Dixon is doing as well as could be expected.

Burglars Make Sizeable Haul
Ray Marquez returned home at about 1 a.m. Saturday after being gone about four hours and found that burglars had entered his home at 1600 Oriole through the bathroom window and made off with $1,515 in loot.

He reported to Big Spring police that a color television set worth $550, a gold and diamond ring with seven diamonds, one of them one-half carat, valued at $600, a polaroid camera worth $120, and a probable radio worth $45 were missing when he came home.

BA Degree Won By BS Student

Texas Desperadoes Sought By Lawmen

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Lawmen looked for a pair of Texas desperadoes Saturday, both of whom escaped from prisons in Oklahoma and Kansas in the last three weeks. "I figure they're armed."

THEFTS

Russell DeVore reported that burglars took $300 in cash, checks and credit cards from the Texaco Station at 2501 S. Gregg.

Betty Johnson reported that two men walked out of the 7-11 store on Marcy Drive with a six-pack of beer valued at $2.05.

Mary Jo Harland, Mary Jo's Dress Shop, said that two women entered her shop and took $35 in cash from a purse under a counter while saying that they were looking for something they lost under the counter.

Two Webb AFB military personnel, 1st Lt. Jeffrey C. Conklin and Sgt. Paul A. Dooley of the 3389th Flying Training Squadron, left last week for Eglin AFB, Fla., to take part in "Project New Arrivals."

Eglin AFB is one of the three reception centers in the United States where Vietnamese refugees are staying until they can be sent along to their new communities.

Lebanon Capital Divided

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Armed gangs subdivided this Arab capital with roadblocks Saturday but Lebanon's new military government still hoped to end street fighting without imposing martial law.

Asked if army troops would intervene in the conflict between Palestinian guerrillas and right-wing Phalangists, a government spokesman replied: "Not yet ... It is only a dispute between brethren and we will try to restore order with dialogue."

Previous attempts to negotiate a cease-fire have failed. The military government faces mounting opposition from the Moslem half of the population and armed militiamen of other political factions have added to the chaos.

Beirut residents encountered roadblocks manned by Nasserites, Baathists, Socialists, National Liberals and several other private armies in addition to the 12,000 Palestinian guerrillas and 6,000 Phalangists who have turned this city into a battlefield.

Sporadic shooting continued in Beirut suburbs despite a cease-fire order from Palestinian guerrilla leader Yasir Arafat. He sent a message to senior aides in the Palestine Liberation Organization, saying:

"The PLO Command considers the formation of the new government an internal affair. It concerns the Lebanese only and we have nothing to do with it. We will deal with the new reality according to the policies and attitudes toward us."

Ingram Freed On Bond Here

Jay Doug Ingram, 24, Vincent, charged with murder in connection with the April 10 shotgun slaying of Michael Green in Big Spring, was released on $15,000 bond about 8:15 p.m. Saturday after he won his second bond reduction Friday at a hearing in Municipal Court.

Judge John R. Coffey held a hearing in Municipal Court Friday on a motion by the defendant and found that the $100,000 bond set following an April 14 examining trial was excessive. He set the new bond at $15,000.

Coffee originally denied bond to Ingram when he was arrested at the scene of the murder on April 10, but he was required to set bond following the examining trial because the case does not involve the death penalty. He ordered Ingram bound over for the grand jury following that trial.

Green died from a shotgun wound in his chest following an alleged argument and fist fight with Ingram at Green's 26th birthday party at 1217 Mobile.

Brother 'Fortunate,' Local Woman Reasons

By TROY BRYANT
"We're so glad he's safe," Mrs. Linda Wittman, Big Spring, said after she learned that her brother, Marine Corp. Ronald L. Hughes, was injured during operations to rescue the "Mayaguez" from Cambodian Communists.

Mrs. Wittman, who lives at Webb Air Force Base where her husband, Lt. Gerard Wittman, is stationed, said that at first she was sad because he was injured, but later realized how fortunate he is to be alive.

Hughes was aboard the first helicopter sent Wednesday, May 14, to invade the small island of Koh Tang when the aircraft exploded and crashed. Reports indicate that most of the 15 Marines who died and three who are missing were aboard that particular helicopter.

Hughes and one other Marine survived the explosion, although they suffered painful burns, and swam in the ocean for about three hours before they were spotted and taken to the aircraft carrier Coral Sea. They were evacuated by air to a hospital at Subic Bay, Philippines.

"The first that we knew he was involved in the rescue operation was when he called my mother in Louisville, Ky. from the hospital in the Philippines," she said. They received official word from the Defense Department on Monday.

"He talked with my mother on Mother's Day last week before the ship was captured. Then, we had no idea that anything like this was about to happen," she said.

"Then, Monday night, we watched the news and saw my brother get the Purple Heart," she added. "We are really thankful that he made it."

They certainly know how to find the guns," said Tarrant County Sheriff Lon Evans.

A manhunt was on for Donald Gene Richardson, 28, of Sweetwater, and Havey Dale Webb, 28, of Fort Worth.

Richardson used a butcher knife to break out of the Oklahoma State Prison facility at Stringtown, Okla. April 30. He was serving a 15-year term for shooting an Oklahoma City policeman in 1969. Officers at that time were trying to arrest Richardson, Webb and two women in connection with a Houston murder and bank robbery.

Webb, serving 10 years for bank robbery, escaped the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan. early last week by hiding in an empty box which was transported outside the prison. Webb was to be transferred in six weeks to a federal prison in Texarkana to begin a 100-year prison term for rape and robbery. He became the first prisoner to escape Leavenworth since 1967.

Webb and Richardson cut a path across Texas in the late 1960s. Richardson's arrest record includes murder, assault to kill, bank robbery, larceny, burglary, theft, and receiving stolen property, and now prison escape, peace officers said.

Webb's record includes murder, rape, robbery, kidnapping, assault, desertion, theft, and prison escape, officers said.

Webb was sought nationwide in 1968 when he and another man and a woman kidnaped a Fort Worth couple and took them on a 300-mile trip into West Texas during which the 17-year-old girl victim was raped by Webb.

The trio was arrested in Arizona where Webb told arresting officers his name was Clyde Barrow and his female accomplice, Virginia Collins, identified herself as Bonnie Parker. Barrow and Parker were notorious Depression era bank robbers.

Survivors include four sisters, Mrs. Denver Dunn and Mrs. Alma McLaurin, both of Big Spring, Mrs. Mamie Howell, Baton Rouge, La., and Mrs. Jenie Canon, Dublin; a half-sister, Mrs. Myrtle Johnson, Wilcox, Ark.; a half-brother, I.S. Pittman, Tulsa, Okla.; a niece, Mrs. Pat Porter, Vealmoor; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. V.E. Pittman Sr., Tulsa, Okla., plus several other nieces and nephews.

'AAAAH-HAAH' TO PUNCTUATE CAIN'S DANCE HALL WHEN BOB WILLS HONORED

'Take Me Back To Tulsa ... For The Last Time'

By WALT FINLEY
Bob Wills, 70, the man who developed Western swing and sold 20 million copies of those developments, has had a big influence on my life.
His brother, Luke, was my "fun-loving" neighbor in Tulsa for nearly a year.

BOB WILLS AND HIS FIDDLE — Bob Wills as he posed for the cover of the "Country Music Reporter," held the fiddle that started him on his illustrious career. The fiddle now belongs to Hoyle and Jody Nix, Big Spring. Hoyle worked with Wills for about 25 years. The two local musicians played with Wills and the Texas Playboys for Wills' last recording, "For The Last Time."

MUSIC FOR THE PEOPLE
"We haven't set the exact date or time but it will be within a week or two," said Ed Thornton, co-leassee of the Cain's Ballroom. "There are a lot of fellows who were in Bob's band still living in or near Tulsa. We hope to get all the guys who played with Bob to attend."
I'm going to try real hard to be there.

Wills was musician and composer to the common man of America — guys like me.
The man Time Magazine dubbed a "backwoods Guy Lombardo" had a career spanning 50 years in music and film.
$350,000 ANNUAL INCOME
He was in 26 films, produced records that sold 20 million copies, wrote and recorded 470 tunes and at one time was reportedly the highest paid band-leader in the U.S. with an annual income in the 1940s estimated at $350,000.

It was a stunning life for the son and grandson of champion Texas fiddle players, a boy who once rode 50 miles on horseback to hear blues singer Bessie Smith.
Born James Robert Wills on March 6, 1905 near Turkey, Tex., Wills was one of 10 children who grew up on a 500-acre cotton farm owned by their father, John.
Young Wills learned to play guitar, mandolin and fiddle from his father and grandfather, and played with John Wills at "kitchen dances."

Wills at various times was a barber, a lay preacher, a blackface medicine show entertainer and zinc smelter worker.
In 1931 he joined W. Lee "Pappy" O'Daniel, then a Fort Worth flour mill executive, and the two formed the Lightcrust Doughboys. O'Daniel later used the band to campaign for governor and U. S. senator.
"NOTHING FORCED OR FANCY"
Wills left in 1932, taking the original band to Waco, where the musicians became the "Texas Playboys."

A major impetus to his career came in 1934, when he got a one-time tryout spot on Tulsa radio station KVOO, the first in a series of noon broadcasts that lasted 25 years.
Wills' band broadcast from Cain's Ballroom, where a plaque on the wall, "Nothing forced or fancy," succinctly expressed the music style.
That was the start of his fame across the Southwest and ultimately the country.
MEMORIES, MEMORIES
Oh, how I remember Cain's Ballroom — built as a garage and used briefly as a school. It's starting its sixth decade as an entertainment emporium.

Perhaps best known as the home of Western swing, the sandstone and brick structure at 423 N. Main St., Tulsa, for many years was headquarters for its chief benefactor, Wills.
Built in 1924, the structure quickly ran through its roles as garage and school and became a taxi dance hall called the Louvre where males paid 10 cents a dance to jostle females around the floor between gang fights.
The toughness of the clientele made it a difficult business and the operators moved on in the late 1920s. Around 1930 Madison W. Cain — better known as Prof. Madison W. Cain or just Daddy Cain — took over management.

Cain, a short, bald, bull-like man who was light on his feet for a heavy man, had studied dancing with Arthur Murray and Vernon Castle and launched a very successful dance-teaching career at Drumright, Okla., during the oil boom of the 20's.
NO BOOZE ALLOWED
"Daddy Cain wouldn't allow liquor inside and a person who went outside to drink had to pay to get back in," said Howard Turner, a long-time dancing instructor and operator of the hall when it was known as Cain's Dancing Academy.
Under Cain the place got a better reputation although it never escaped the onus of an occasional gang fight.

According to Turner, Cain had his own orchestra and the place was a success — but nothing like it was after he agreed to bring in Wills and his Texas Playboys for a few dances.
Fiddler Bob filled the place until it was about to rupture at the seams. Wills played his first engagement in Cain's Academy New Year's night 1935.
Soon a copyrighted sign was above the huge structure. It said "Cain's" quite simply in large letters. Towering above that, however, was a neon sign of a man and woman dancing close together.
Daddy Cain, who suffered a stroke in 1936 and died in 1940, left an estate that had grown to $857,466 when his widow left it to beneficiaries upon her death 20 years later.

Although Cain stepped out of active management about the time of his stroke, Cain's Academy was on its way to greater heights through the actions of Wills and a young promoter-manager, O. W. Mayo, who handled business affairs for Wills and who bought the academy in 1944.
CAREERS, CAPERS
The old dance hall, with its 75 by 90-foot bird's eye maple dance floor all warped and worn from the caresses and capers of millions of feet, hit a 20-year peak between 1933 and 1953. And although the Crosstown Expressway "presses" against the building's north side it still offers entertainment that packs 'em in.
At its zenith, Cain's would have approximately 6,000 people for various events. The big draws were the Thursday and Saturday night dances. They attracted approximately 4,000 dancers.
An average of more than 300 persons showed up 6 days a week for Bob Wills' daily radio broadcast over KVOO and another 1,000 took dancing lessons on the floor that was splashed with sparkles from a mirrored ball.

People in those days came from Arkansas, Kansas, Iowa, Texas and other points to dance to the music they had heard over the "clear channel" station. Wills played requests. Tulsa calls were ignored and the long distance line was kept busy.
WORLD'S LARGEST CLASS
In 1933 — before Wills got there — Turner was teaching what he contended was the "world's largest ballroom class."
"We had 555 people enrolled and an average of 275 attended," he said, explaining that students paid 10 cents an hour for instruction or practice sessions.
Those were the good old days. The best dancer won a trip to the World's Fair in Chicago.
"A hundred-dollar night meant a lot of dancing," Turner said.

Daddy Cain, who had not been too keen on Wills at first, became an enthusiastic supporter when the former Lightcrust Doughboy and his brother Johnnie Lee, now an owner of a Western store in Tulsa, and Luke, now a Las Vegas resident, lured dancers.
Admission rose from 35 cents a person in 1935 to 40 cents a short time later. Soon the rafters rang and the place was crowded to overflowing. The price of admission went up, 40 cents, 60 cents, 80 cents until in 1938 a ticket cost $1 on Thursday night and $1.25 on Saturday night.

Two bouncers — usually off-duty policemen or professional wrestlers or boxers — were on hand. Tulsa gendarmes could be called in case of emergency.
WORKED HARD, PLAYED HARD
Ambulance drivers recall an era of split lips and concussion patients. Management worked to headoff gang fights.
Although encounters were usually bare-knucks and a few guys got scalp massages with someone else's foot, it usually wasn't any more serious than that.
Cain's was a source of relaxation for people who worked hard and played hard.
All too soon the heyday was over. Wills left for road engagements. Television evidently made inroads in the old gang.

Wills eventually moved to California, although he always considered Tulsa his home and once boasted "10,000 people in Oklahoma" wanted him to run for governor or senator.
Wills declined, saying, "I don't know anything about these politics, I'm a fiddler."
When World War II started, the bandleader joined the Army and after his discharge led his group on bond drive tours. On one tour crooner Bing Crosby sang "San Antonio Rose" with the band when a bidder offered to buy $50,000 worth of bonds to hear it.
HIRED 600 MUSICIANS
Hollywood also beckoned, and Wills made 26 films, the first of which, "Take Me Back to Oklahoma," featured a Wills composition, "Take Me Back to Tulsa."

His band, which included his brother, Johnnie Lee Wills, Tommy Duncan, steel guitarist Leon McAuliffe and Eldon Shamblin, was largest in 1944, when it included 22 men.
During his career, Wills hired more than 600 musicians.
Wills was nationally famous and fans, whether Western swing buffs or not, recognized the omnipresent smile, cigar and fiddle, the Stetson hat, and the cries of "Aaah-haah" and "Take it away, Leon," an urging to McAuliffe that became his own motto as a bandleader.
In the 1950s, Wills returned to his native Texas, but moved to Oklahoma City for a short period before making his home at Fort Worth.
His health started to fail about 1964, when he suffered liver ailments, diabetes and a heart attack. But he kept working.

BIG BAND BROKE UP
The big band he fronted eventually broke up, and Wills led a smaller group until suffering a crippling stroke in May 1969.
In 1970 a benefit program staged at the Tulsa Fairgrounds raised $24,000 for Wills' medical expenses, and one week was set aside as Bob Wills Week. I attended. So did Big Spring bandleader Hoyle Nix, close friend of Wills, broadcaster

"Daddy" Don Brooks and guitarist-vocalist Don Tolle and several other Big Springers.
That same year the Oklahoma House passes a resolution expressing "commendation, admiration and appreciation" to Wills.
In 1968, Wills was inducted into the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville and was made a lifetime member of the National Cowboy Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City.
In 1973, as a special guest at the annual banquet in Nashville of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, Wills was given a plaque for his "unequaled leadership" in music. Leading music figures gave Wills a standing ovation when the announcement was read.

245,000 COPIES SOLD
The plaque said ASCAP "honors our member Bob Wills for his long, productive and creative association with country music and his unequalled leadership as a musician and as a man."
Some of Wills' perennial compositions included "San Antonio Rose," "Faded Love," "Maiden's Prayer," "Spanish Two-Step" and "Stay All Night (Stay a Little Longer)."
Wills work recently enjoyed renewed popularity. Country artist Merle Haggard recorded an album of Wills standards that sold over 245,000 copies, and two years ago Wills himself and Haggard joined with some of the old Texas Playboys for a recording session that produced a two-disc album, "For the Last Time."

Even though partially paralyzed, Wills helped supervise a five-hour session before suffering another stroke. The album subsequently received an award from the Cowboy Hall of Fame.
Music critics have noted how Wills' band effectively fused jazz, country and western and blues into a melodious, swinging package, but Wills always brushed aside theorization about his music.
Asked about rock and roll several years ago, Wills chuckled, "Why man, that's the same kind of music, we've been playing since 1928."

"DO SOMETHING EXCITING"
Anecdotes about Wills leadership abound. One newly hired steel guitarist was told by Wills to "do something exciting" during his solo, Luke Wills confided in me.
The tyro musician found to his horror there was a short circuit in his instrument and finally in desperation kicked it off the stage after his cue to solo.
"Afterward Bob whispered to the guy, 'I knew you'd do something exciting,'" said Luke.
Wills' lingering fealty to Tulsa was once expressed in a film conversation he had. Asked if he'd ever been to Oklahoma, Wills quipped, "I had a meal in Tulsa one night."
Asked how long he'd been away from the city and the state, Wills smiled, and said:
"I never left."

Shark Show Sinks 'Jaws' Into $2 Million Extra

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — It is news when a 26-year-old film director goes $2 million over budget and two and a half months over schedule and manages to avoid getting fired.

But then, Steven Spielberg has managed to perform the impossible for most of his brief adult life — like successfully directing Joan Crawford in her first television movie. His most recent accomplishment will be hard to beat.

Producers Richard Zanuck and David Brown picked Spielberg to film "Jaws," the immensely successful novel about a man — and woman — eating shark.

It was a big assignment for a director whose first feature film, "Sugarland Express," drew some raves "one of the most phenomenal directorial debut films in the history of movies" — Pauline Kael, some boos and disappointing business.

Spielberg and his Universal Pictures crew began filming "Jaws" at Martha's Vineyard on May 2, 1974, expecting to finish on July 15. The battered bunch began straggling home Sept. 29.

"And that was working six days a week," adds Spielberg. What went wrong?

"The principal problem was the ocean," the director explains. "Even on a beautiful day, the tides and the chop would make shooting impossible, moving the anchors and turning the boats completely around. Then the sun would be wrong, so we had to send for lights — which took five and a half hours to set up."

"Most of our filming came between four and six in the afternoon. Rarely would we get a shot in the morning, and we were out on the ocean at 6 or 6:30 a.m."

"It got so that the happiest occasion was when the phone rang in the middle of the night with the message: 'You can sleep late; one of the barges sank.'"

Actors, technicians, divers and pilots were in constant danger. The director, too, Spielberg recalls being in the water one day as two boats came together, threatening to use him as a human bumper.

Not a very good swimmer, he managed to dive under the keel of one boat and rise on the other side — "luckily it's almost impossible to drown in a wet suit; it floats you to the surface."

Despite the dangers, no serious injuries resulted. Oddly, Universal did not panic when "Jaws" plunged past its $5 million budget, with no end in sight.

"They could have done two things: continue making the movie where we were, or pull the plug and shoot the rest in a studio tank," said Spielberg.

"But the studio liked the dailies, and the management realized that our problems were not due to human error. As far as I know, I was never in danger of being fired."

CHILDREN'S CORNER
For Cash, Try Plant-Sitting

By SUSAN CONLEY
Children's Librarian

Summer jobs are hard to find, especially for girls and boys under 16. Here are a few suggestions on how to earn money.

Dog-walking or dog-sitting is something any youngster can do. When your neighbor is on vacation, offer to babysit his dog. This will involve feeding, walking, and perhaps grooming it.

Many people haven't the time to give their dog the exercise it needs. They would be glad to have a child take their dog for a run twice a day. "Dog Care" by V. R. Hoegen will be helpful.

Plant-sitting is another idea. People who are away for several weeks will need someone to water their plants. This job can be done in your own home. Make sure the plant receives the proper amount of sun and water.

Books on plants are available at the library. "The Plant Sitter" by Gene Zion tells of one little boy who takes care of so many neighbors' plants that his house becomes a jungle. Lawn care may prove profitable. Weeding, trimming and mowing lawns can be done by children under 16.

Boys and girls both may enjoy baby-sitting. Many parents work all day and need a responsible person to stay with their children. "Franklin Watts Concise Guide to Baby-Sitting" by R. Saunders will prepare a beginning babysitter with everything she needs to know.

For other suggestions on summer jobs, the children's department has "101 Summer Jobs" by Roberta Ashley.

Recently added to the children's collection at the Howard County Library are magazines. Titles include "Ranger Rick's Nature Magazine," "Highlights for Children," "Child Life," "Jack & Jill" and "Ebony Jr."

Many children who read these regularly in their school libraries will be able to continue with the fun, games and stories during the summer.

'Feeling Good' Looking Dead

NEW YORK (AP) — Public TV's costly "Feeling Good" health series begins 13 weeks of reruns on July 2. Whether it'll return next season is as uncertain as a schoolboy's first date.

At the Children's Television Workshop, which makes the show, "feelings are mixed" about whether the series will return, a spokesman says. A CTW source says its second season chances "are not good."

The spokesman, Stu Awbry, said no decision has been made on the fate of "Feeling Good," which is distributed nationally on Wednesday nights by the Public Broadcasting Service.

He said CTW brass haven't met yet with the show's underwriters to "gauge whatever sentiment there might be for another season. So currently there are no plans for another season, pending a meeting with them."

The meeting will be in a matter of weeks, he said, but no date has been set.

He said a major factor in CTW's uncertainty on a second "Feeling Good" season is the cost of keeping the series' production personnel on the payroll while awaiting a decision on renewing the show.

"Even taking the time to go back in and plan another season would require carrying a lot of people, which financially we're not able to do," he said.

Awbry said another factor is a pending assessment of the impact the revised version of the show has had on the viewing public.

"Feeling Good" began in a blaze of publicity last November as an hour-long series.

$5 MILLION ON A SHARK-STORY? — Steven Spielberg (above), 26-year-old film director with limited movie experience, went $2 million over his budget on the film "Jaws" without being fired. After looking at the film — a story about a man-eating shark — studio producers think they have a box office smashhit.

New Car May Be Real Gas Saver

By the Associated Press

It looks like gasoline prices may take another jump, but General Motors, at least, has announced it will be introducing a smaller car that could get as much as 40 miles per gallon.

The jump in gas prices, up to 1 1/4 cents a gallon, would come if President Ford hikes the oil import tariff by another $1 a barrel. He indicated Friday he will do so, noting the move would spur action in Congress on an energy bill.

General Motors said it would introduce its minicar in the coming model year to compete with small foreign autos that have gained an increasing share of the U.S. car market. At the same time, American auto companies reported their sales slump continuing in mid-May.

There were also these economic developments:

—A presidential emergency board recommended railway clerks accept an industry wage pattern, meaning that under the National Railway Labor Act, they cannot carry out a strike until June 23.

The clerks, members of the Brotherhood of Railway and Airline Clerks, now earn an average $5.66 an hour. The pattern settlement provides a 41 per cent wage and benefit hike over three years.

—On Wall Street, the Dow Jones industrial average closed up 12.99 at 831.90. The market rise was tied partly to First National City Bank's cut of one-quarter per cent in its prime rate to 7 per cent. Citibank is often a pacesetter in the prime rate, the interest charged the biggest business borrowers.

Ford had said in January he would impose a $3 a barrel hike in the tariff on imported oil to force up prices and cut consumption. He ordered the first $1 hike but then twice delayed the second $1 as a compromise while Congress worked on an energy program.

But Friday he said he will decide within 48 hours whether to add the second $1 to the tariff. He said such a move might spur Congress, which won't return to the energy bill until its recess ends June 2.

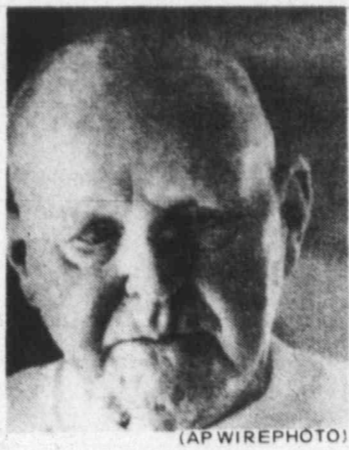

His comment came a day after a White House spokesman said Ford's "inclination now is that, since he introduced his energy legislation on Jan. 21 and it is now May 22 and Congress has taken no action, he is determined that we need to begin a program to end our reliance on foreign sources of oil." It's estimated the $1 hike could add 1 to 1 1/4-cents per gallon to gasoline prices.

GM, in announcing the first U.S.-built minicar, did not say how much the auto would cost, nor what it will be called. It's been reported the car may get about 40 miles per gallon on the highway, but GM gave no data.

American car makers reported, meanwhile, that their sales in mid-May were down about 28 per cent from a year ago. GM and Chrysler sales were off more than 30 per cent; the drop was 20 per cent at Ford and 14 per cent at American Motors.

Overlap, he daily selling rate was the lowest since 1961.

The car makers also said they'll operate all plants next week, but since production is still not up to full capacity, more than 160,000 of the industry's 712,000 production workers will remain laid off.

DAVE BECK PARDONED — President Ford has granted a "full and unconditional" pardon to former Teamsters Union president Dave Beck, above, the Justice Department announced Friday. Beck, now 81, served more than two years of a five-year prison term after being convicted in 1959 of helping to prepare false union income tax returns. Major effect of the pardon on Beck, who has been off parole for many years, would be to restore his full civil rights.

Church Sets Anniversary

Harold Martin, choir director of the Loraine United Methodist Church, has announced the guest singers for the church's 75th anniversary celebration, June 22 in Loraine.

The special singers will be Mrs. James Crutchfield, Abilene; Byron Mahon, San Angelo; and Arnold Marshall, Big Spring. The three will sing during the afternoon session which will begin at 2 o'clock in the church sanctuary.

A former mayor of Big Spring, for several terms, Arnold Marshall is no novice of singing religious music. He began his singing while just a youth in the Loraine Methodist Church and has continued through the years. He is the son of Mitchell County pioneers, the late Mr. and Mrs. John Marshall. Marshall and his family reside in Big Spring.

Mrs. Crutchfield is a graduate of McMurray where she majored in music. She and her husband, Dr. Jim Crutchfield, live in Abilene, where she is active in music organizations and serves on the board of the Sears Home as secretary-treasurer.

The third guest performer is also the son of pioneer West Texas family, the late Mr. and Mrs. John B. Mahon. Byron Mahon, graduated from McMurray and lives in San Angelo where he owns Mahon's Men's Shop.

Also planned for the afternoon will be a gospel singing and a display of memorabilia collected for the 75 years of the Church's history. Morning workshop will be at 10:30 a.m., and all former members, pastors and friends are invited.

Legislature At Work On Big Spending Bill

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Ten Texas legislators began negotiations Saturday on a multi-billion dollar state spending bill with hopes of completing their compromise measure by Tuesday.

"We've got to get through by then in order to give them time to print the bill and both houses act on it," said Sen. Bill Moore, D-Bryan, one of the conferees.

The Senate-House conference committee also felt the pressure to produce a quick general appropriations compromise in order that compromise talks on a public school financing bill can begin.

The 64th Legislature's regular session ends at midnight, Monday, June 2, and Gov. Dolph Briscoe says he sees no need of a special session.

Briscoe has also said he wants no new taxes, or public school financing or anything else.

"The more we spend in this bill the less we will have for teachers' pay raises," remarked Sen. Tom Creighton, D-Mineral Wells, as the conference committee began work Saturday.

While the appropriation conferees labored in a small room upstairs the Texas House had a long Saturday session considering mostly so-called local and uncontested bills.

The Senate was in recess until Monday.

With little discussion and no controversy the appropriations conference committee approved a basic appropriation of about $31 million from all funds the next two years for the State Department of Public Welfare plus $13.6 million for Aid to Families of Dependent Children (AFDC) and $1.5 million food stamp funds.

In discussing money for state hospitals, the group agreed to knock off a Senate bill recommendation for a new $2.4 million ward building at Abilene State school in exchange for a $1.7 million ward at the El Paso State Center in Human Development which was in the House bill and $679,700 for a new workshop at the Amarillo State Center.

Several touchy issues were postponed for later discussion.

Sen. A. R. Schwartz, D-Galveston, suggested it might be a good idea to withdraw state support of the Vernon Drug Center, which was allocated $4 million in the House bill and $6.7 million in the Senate.

"They've got 300-400 hard drug addicts up there," Schwartz said, "when we get that many in one ward in Houston and they have that many every Saturday night on the streets in Dallas or San Antonio."

Rep. Jim Nugent, D-Kerrville, defended the House version, saying "They say it is exceeding helpful to get these people out of their home atmosphere and away from temptations."

Another issue postponed was Nugent's suggestion. The House bill proposed about $523 million from all funds the next two years for payments to nursing homes that care for state patients, compared to the $598 million in the Senate bill.

Nugent made his motion to postpone after a staff member explained that rates paid nursing homes in 1977 under the Senate bill would be 23 per cent higher than rates being paid in 1975. "I think we need to get some explanation of all this," Nugent said.

In another give and take decision, the committee took the Senate's $91 million for insurance premiums to cover Medicare and the house's $77.8 million for non-Medicare insurance payments.

The Senate proposal for $1.46 million to provide additional personnel for the maximum security unit at Rusk State Hospital was adopted.

One of the first agreements was to take a House figure of $3.3 million out of general revenue to improve special education services in the 12 schools for mentally retarded.

They also accepted a House version of $64.6 million, from general revenue and revenue sharing, for contract treatment services in community centers to help those under care of the Mental Health and Mental Retardation system.

Friday night the House gave tentative approval to two bills regulating strip mining. One was a House bill covering all mineral except coal, lignite and uranium and putting surface operations under regulation of a new agency, the Texas Soil and Water Conservation Board.

Ex-Convict Kills Self After Shooting Spree

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — A 28-year-old ex-convict shot and killed two women and wounded at least eight other persons early today before killing himself, police said.

Authorities identified the slayer as Russell Lee Smith, who had served time for first-degree manslaughter. The dead women were identified as Joni Gatewood, 16 of Dayton, and Paulette Couch, 25, of Miamisburg.

Police, who could offer no motive for the city-wide shootings, gave this account of the incident:

Miss Gatewood apparently was the first person shot. Her body was then dumped on the emergency ramp at St. Elizabeth's Medical Center. Police said as Smith took her to the hospital he forced another car off the road and shot the driver, who was not identified immediately. The driver's condition was not immediately known.

Miss Couch's body was found in the middle of a Dayton street and police said they were unsure where she had been killed.

The wounded included four members of the Charles Baltzer family of suburban Trotwood who were shot as they sat in their car in a movie theater parking lot. A six-year-old girl was listed in serious condition. The other three family members were in fair condition.

Smith shot himself in the head as police approached. He was accompanied by two unidentified women, who may have been hostages but were not injured. Police said they found stolen merchandise in his car.

Alcoholism Study Due

The Big Spring State Hospital Alcoholism Program will conduct the second in a series of seminars on Friday, June 6, in the auditorium at Howard College of Big Spring.

These seminars are made possible through a contract with the Texas Commission on Alcoholism and will be held in conjunction with the Big Spring Veteran's Administration and Howard College. They are conducted monthly on the second Friday except for the month of June, which is on the first Friday.

Advisory committee composed of twelve interested persons from throughout the area has been appointed by Dr. Preston E. Harrison, superintendent of Big Spring State Hospital, to determine the needs and content of the seminars.

The June seminar will be directed toward two topics. A comprehensive discussion of the "Vernon Center Program," Dr. Thomas L. Porter, Ph.D., department of counseling, University of Georgia, will focus on the "Utilization of Group Skills."

Registration will begin at 8 a.m., with the general session program commencing at 9 a.m., and adjournment at 4 p.m. Robert von Rosenberg is the project director and Clyde Alsop training officer.

Burnett Earns Austin Degree

Steve Burnett, son of Dr. and Mrs. Josh Burnett of Big Spring, graduated from Austin College in Sherman with a major in Political Science and Economics. His grade average was 3.6.

Teresa Stewart On Dean's List

Teresa Rae Stewart was named to the Dean's Honor List at West Texas State University with a 3.8 grade average, for the spring semester.

She is a senior biology major and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Stewart, Big Spring.

Dates For Tech Signup Fixed

Registration for the first summer term at Texas Tech University will begin at 1:30 p.m. Monday, June 2, and continue through 6 p.m. Tuesday, June 3, in the Lubbock Coliseum. Late registration will continue through Monday, June 9.

Students may pick up first summer registration materials from the second floor conference room in West Hall on campus, said D. N. Peterson, registrar. Registration materials will be there through registration for the first summer term.

Fall 1975 registration materials will be mailed beginning July 30 and should be completed by Aug. 13, Peterson said.

Rangers Stopped

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Bonds cracked a three-run homer and stole two bases, leading the New York Yankees to a 9-5 victory over the Texas Rangers Saturday night.

Dick Tidrow, who relieved starter Rudy May in the second inning with one run in and pitched out of a bases-loaded jam, picked up his first victory of the season. He allowed one more run until tiring in the eighth.

Bonds drew a leadoff walk off loser Clyde Wright, 0-3, in the first inning, stole second and scored on a triple by Elliott Maddox. Roy White followed with a run-scoring single and Thurman Munson hit into a double play but Alex Johnson reached on an error by first baseman Jim Fregosi and rode home on a double by Graig Nettles.

The Rangers pulled within 3-2 before the Yankees wrapped it up against Jackie Brown in the fourth on a single by Chris Chambliss, a throwing error by Brown on Sandy Alomar's sacrifice bunt and Bonds' seventh home run of the season. He blasted a 3-0 pitch far over the left field wall.

Astros Lose To Montreal

HOUSTON (AP) — Gary Carter's sacrifice fly with the bases loaded in the ninth inning lifted the Montreal Expos to a 2-1 decision over the Houston Astros Saturday night.

Pepe Mangual, who hit into a force play after Rich Coggins led off with a single, moved to second on a walk to Mike Jorgensen and took third on Larry Bittner's base hit before scoring the winning run on Carter's fly ball to center field.

The Expos took a 1-0 lead in the first inning when Mangual hit his second home run in two games. He hopped on a onestrike pitch by Doug Koniczny and drove it over the left field wall.

It extended Mangual's hitting streak to 17 games, tying a Montreal club record. The previous mark was held by Bob Bailey.

The Astros tied the game in the bottom of the inning. With one out, Roger Metzger singled up the middle and advanced to second on Cesar Cedeno's groundout.

MEMPHIS (AP) — Gene Littler calmly tapped in a short birdie putt on the final hole and tied John Mahaffey for the lead in Saturday's third round of the $175,000 Danny Thomas-Memphis Golf Classic.

Littler's 3-under-par 69 was within one stroke of the best round of the warm, windy day and gave the 44-year-old veteran a three-day total of 204, 12 under par on the 7,193-yards of rolling hills that make up the Colonial Country Club course.

Word was received that a former Big Spring resident, Mrs. Lynn Thomas, physical education teacher at Central Oregon Community College, Bend, Ore., had three girls entered in the NAIA track meet this week at Oregon State, Corvallis.

Mrs. Thomas, former Lynelle Sullivan, graduated from Big Spring High in the late 40s. She attended college at Abilene Christian College and North Texas State.

Competition for Mrs. Thomas' entries included the 400 intermediate hurdles and the 880-yard dash.

The Lamesa athletic program finally added girls track to its schedule next school term.

Girls basketball was vetoed because it would overlap with the current volleyball setup.

Stanton's Tommy Deavenport competing on the Southwest State tennis team downed Trey King of St. Edwards University, 6-4, 7-6 recently.

The STS netters won overall against this team 6-0 at the Lakeway World of Tennis to cop the District IV title.

The San Marcos school will compete in the national tournament in Kansas City, Mo., June 2-6.

Texas Christian University and the Texas Rangers have announced an agreement to play an exhibition baseball game prior to the 1976 season.

Ranger owner Brad Corbett predicted a "rivalry which may develop into something as big as when the New York Yankees used to clash with the Blue Knights on the Hudson.

Date for the game, to be played at Arlington Stadium, has not finalized. Admission will be free to the public.

The largest crowd to attend opening day races recently at LaMesa Park, Raton, N.M., wasgered $228,674 up approximately 30 per cent from last year.

NCAA PLAYOFFS 'Horns Advance To Third Round

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Longhorns exploded for six runs in the fourth inning Saturday to defeat South Alabama 7-4 and advance to the third round of the NCAA South Central Regional baseball playoffs.

Pan American and South Alabama met in the second game of the doubleheader. It was the second game between the two teams. South Alabama defeated Pan American 8-7 in opening day Thursday.

The Longhorns overcame an early 2-1 deficit by sending 10 men to the plate in the fourth inning with Keith Moreland's two-run double and Rick Bradley's three-run homer highlighting the outburst.

Texas pitcher Richard Wortham picked up his 14th victory of the season without a loss. He scattered five hits. Wortham, however, needed help from Terry Ray who retired the last six batters after Wortham yielded a lead-off single in the eighth.

South Alabama jumped to a 2-0 lead in the first inning on a walk to Mike Warren, Jerry Stamps' double and Pat Putnam's single.

The losing was pitcher was Bill Sturgeon, 10-3.

Phillies Losing Skein Endures

CINCINNATI (AP) — Joe Morgan singled home Cesar Geronimo for an unearned run with two out in the 11th inning, giving the Cincinnati Reds a 3-2 victory over Philadelphia that stretched the Phillies losing streak to five games.

Merv Rettenmund opened the 11th inning with a single off Tug McGraw, 2-2, and Geronimo reached safely when no one covered first base on his sacrifice bunt.

Doug Flynn bunted into a force at third and Pete Rose grounded into a force at second before Morgan delivered his game-winning single to right.

COMMANDS POLE POSITION

Foyt Difficult To Beat If Car Holds Together

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Anthony Joseph Foyt is a crusty, irascible 40-year-old who thinks this last Sunday in May belongs to him by divine right.

So do many of the couple hundred thousand auto racing fans who will jam the Indianapolis Motor Speedway to watch him try and accomplish what no one else in the long and spectacular history of the Indy 500 has achieved—a fourth victory.

The scores of thousands of brightly decked race fans and party seekers jammed Indianapolis Saturday, swelling it to perhaps 30 per cent above its normal size. A festive mood prevailed amidst a giant parade, a queen's ball, a party wherever more than one person could congregate.

But a cloud—a threat of rain—hung ominously. A 50 per cent chance of rain was forecast for the 11 a.m., CDT, race start. Two years ago, in a tragedy-scared month in which two drivers and one crewman were killed in wrecks, the race was delayed two consecutive days and then was shortened when it was finally run.

The 33 drivers gathered at the track Saturday morning for final instructions and wishes from officials for a good and safe race.

Among them there were 32 who believe, or least hope, that Foyt, the greatest name in this sport in the past 15 years, does not snuggle down difficult to defeat him. There are many others, however, with great anticipation.

They are veterans like Al and Bobby Unser, Mario Andretti, Lloyd Ruby, Billy Vukovich, Gordon Johncock and Johnny Rutherford, and rookies like Sheldon Kinser, Larry McCoy, Bill Putterbaugh and Eldon Rasmussen.

But of A.J., well, he's run this race 17 times before, more than any of those 32 others. And in those 17 races he's finished first three times, more than any of those 32 others. Louis Meyer, Mauri Rose and the late Wilbur Shaw were the only other drivers to chalk up a triple—and Meyer and Rose don't drive race cars any more.

If that wasn't enough of an edge, Foyt also has a head start. He's starting on the inside of the front row, the pole position, for the fourth time in his career as he guns for the magic fourth and his first victory here since 1967.

A.J. blew everybody out two weeks ago on the first day of qualifying when he rammed his Coyote-Foyt four times around the 2½-mile asphalt track at an average speed of 193.976 miles an hour. His closest challenger was Johncock, more than two miles an hour slower.

If starting first means nothing, finishing first means everything. Foyt snapped after his qualification run.

STEER SPRING FINALE Gold Downs Black, 20-0

By CLARK LESHNER
Ideal weather conditions prevailed Friday night as some 1,000 viewers watched the Gold down the Black, 20-0, in the final Big Spring High football scrimmage at Memorial Stadium.

Thus brought to a close three weeks of UIL-sanctioned spring practice for the Steers.

The Gold directed by the capable hands of varsity quarterback Mark Moore, hit the scoreboard in each quarter but the fourth.

Moore, who completed eight of 19 aerial attempts for 139 yards, initiated his team's scoring drive, bolting over from the four in the first quarter. Moore passed to Mark Stark for the two extra points.

In the second quarter, James Thompson ran through the middle of the Black line from the four for six points. Extra point try failed.

Jesse Doss, rated as the outstanding back in the game by Head Coach Bob Burris, plunged over from the one in the third. The TD had previously been set up on Doss's 14-yard run. Extra point try failed.

Doss's run of 60 yards in the second quarter was the longest of the game. This drive helped pave the way for Thompson's TD. Doss rushed for 79 yards.

Moore hit his favorite target last season, Ken McMurtrey for 45 yards. The Gold was penalized 40 yards.

"This was the longest scrimmage of the spring," said Burris. "Conditioning showed, the longer it went, the worse we played."

Burris complimented both Moore and Mike Valenzuela on a job well done. Valenzuela was responsible for Black formations except for a brief visit with the Gold.

Valenzuela hit four pass receivers right on target but all were dropped. Toward end of the fourth quarter, the Black was applying good pressure.

"The varsity front line defense is way ahead of last year," Burris said. "We're still making basic mistakes we need to correct, but overall we had a good spring," he added.

The middle defensive linebacks, composed of Ricky Watkins, Stark and Ed Pekowski, gave next fall's Steers a solid nucleus to build around.

A loud noise was heard when Mike Eagan and Buck Buchanan popped pads. The Blacks lost the ball twice on fumbles.

Ricky Watkins of the Gold showed his ball-hawking ability as he intercepted a Black pass. Watkins' teammate Johnny Birdwell plucked the ball from the opposition.

The Black's Harold Sherman showed he has the potential of moving into a starting halfback role as he made numerous short runs.

Outstanding defensive play was shown by: Gold — Tony Mann, Stark, Ernie Nichols and Rusty Phillips; Black — Steve Pearson, Mike Rich, Johnny Finley and Craig Bailey.

Phil (Doc) Irwin, said in his four years as Steer athletic trainer, "This was the best spring practice regarding injuries." Only one major injury cropped up in the Steer camp. Jerry Marquez tore ligaments in his leg, requiring an operation.

Regular bumps and bruises were felt by the Steers but no one really complained, added Irwin.

Big Spring rates a good chance of finishing the 1975 season on a winning note based on more depth and speed from last season.

In the junior varsity clash, the Gold won over the Black, 20-12.

Steer Sidenotes: Although Memorial Stadium has a draining system, pumps had to be used to free the field of excess water. A crew was on duty from 6 a.m. to mid-afternoon.

At game time, footing was surprisingly good. No mud was seen on any Steer shoe.

STEER GOLD — Ken McMurtrey (15) and Jesse Doss (44) had a hand in the Gold's 20-0 win over the Black Friday night at Memorial Stadium. Doss scored one touchdown and rushed for 79 yards. McMurtrey hauled in 45 yards of aerial fire power thrown by Mark Moore.

Coach Furthers His Education

Leroy McClendon, Howard College assistant basketball coach, was recently awarded his Associate of Applied Arts degree from the school.

LEROY MCCLENDON

McClendon plans to remain as a coach at HC, but will further his education at University of Texas-Permian Basin, Odessa.

Before joining forces with HC, McClendon played and coached service basketball for 20 years. Air Force assignments were at McGuire, Saigon, Burma and Webb.

McClendon has been in the Hawk fold for two years and is responsible for all of the school's major recruiting.

Last season's leading scorer and rebounder for HC, Marvin Johnson, was signed by McClendon. As a result, Harold Wilder, Hawk head coach, said when McClendon locates a prospect, "he knows what he's talking about."

Lack Of Action Confuses Price

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — J. Neils Thompson, the faculty athletic director, have backed me all the way.

"I'll say this that when the rules infraction committee was sent down by the conference they gave me a very fair hearing," Price added. "I just would like to know what's going on. Has anybody ever heard of this 10-day review period before?"

Jackson made his statement after he and a basketball player were suspended when a television set turned up missing in a dorm. Both players were later reinstated and Jackson was on the Texas track team Saturday.

Price had been quoted earlier as saying he had been told the SWC would take action at the spring meeting.

The SWC said there would be a "10 day period of review" before any penalties or non penalties would be announced in the case.

It all started last November when sprinter Billy Jackson was quoted in the student newspaper as saying "He (Price) gave me money whenever I wanted it."

Price denied it.

Texas was defending its SWC track and field title Saturday when word reached Price that no decision had been made.

"This whole thing has been killing our recruiting," Price said. "Every home I go in I hear somebody say we are going to be put on probation. This has really hurt us."

Also, there's the rumor going around "I'm about to be fired. Well, (Athletic Director) Darrell Royal and

Lee Pitches Five-Hitter

BOSTON (AP) — Rico Petrocelli and Rick Burleson hit three-run homers and Bill Lee pitched a five-hitter for his second consecutive shutout, leading the Boston Red Sox to a 6-0 victory over the California Angels Saturday.

Lee, a veteran left-hander, boosted his record to 6-4 while becoming the seventh consecutive Boston starter to go the distance on the current home stand.

Southpaw Andy Hassler, 3-5, was the victim of the homers. He put himself in a hole with his wildness before being replaced in the fifth inning.

Hassler started the second inning by walking Dwight Evans and Tony Conigliaro, and Petrocelli belted his fourth homer of the season.

Petrocelli opened the fourth by beating out a slow topper to third. With two out, Juan Beniquez walked and Burleson followed with his second homer, a line drive into the left-field screen.

The victory was the sixth in the last seven games for the Red Sox, who started play one-half game behind Milwaukee in the American League's East Division.

A's Squeeze Out Victory

CLEVELAND (AP) — Billy Williams' three-run homer in the fourth inning and four runs on only two hits in the sixth rallied the Oakland A's from a five-run deficit to a 10-5 victory over the Cleveland Indians Saturday.

The Indians held a 5-0 lead after three innings but the A's narrowed that when Sal Bando was hit by a pitch and Joe Rudi singled prior to Williams' sixth home run of the season off starter Eric Raich, who was making his major league debut.

In the fifth, the A's narrowed it to 5-4 when Bert Campaneris scored on Bando's single.

Reliever Don Hood gave up a single to Rudi to open the sixth and walked Williams. John "Blue Moon" Odom made his first appearance for the Indians against his former team and Gene Tenace promptly singled Rudi home with the tying run.

White Sox Nip Tigers

CHICAGO (AP) — Deron Johnson's three-run homer in the third inning featured a 15-hit attack but the Chicago White Sox had to survive a seven-run seventh to defeat the Detroit Tigers 10-8 Saturday.

The White Sox, led by the hitting of Pete Varney, Bill Melton and Jorge Orta, mounted a 9-1 lead before the Tigers struck back.

Stan Bahnsen, sailing along with a four-hitter, gave up four more hits in the seventh, including a three-run homer to Gene Micalof, before departing with two out.

Cecil Upshaw was unable to get the third out and was rapped for four hits as the Tigers added four more runs before Bill Gogolewski struck out Gene Lamont to end the inning.

Chicago picked up an insurance run in the eighth on a walk, pinch-runner Nyls Nyman's stolen base and Tony Muser's single.

Troubled Texas Retains Crown

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — The troubled Texas Longhorns successfully defended their Southwest Conference track and field title Saturday, tallying 60 points in the field events to give some solace to Coach Cleburne Price, who is under fire from the league office.

Overtown Spencer's 220-yard dash victory in 20.8 seconds clinched the title for the Longhorns, their fourth consecutive SWC title and the 35th for Texas in 60 years of league competition.

The Longhorns went into the day with a shadow cast over Price who is under investigation by the SWC on a claim by sprinter Billy Jackson—that he was paid

Giants Win 6th In Row

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Bobby Murcer knocked in six runs with a three-run homer in the fourth inning and a bases-loaded triple in the seventh, powering the San Francisco Giants to their sixth straight victory, a 10-3 thumping of the faltering Chicago Cubs Saturday.

Jim Barr, 6-3, survived a shaky start to post the victory and contributed to the five-run fourth by jarring catcher George Mitterwald with a head-first slide, creating one of two Chicago errors in the inning that made four of the runs unearned.

Don Kessinger's leadoff triple and Jose Cardenal's single gave the Cubs a 1-0 lead in the first inning but the Giants tied it in their half on walks to Bruce Miller and Murcer, a forceout and Willie Montanez's single.

Andy Thornton had a run-scoring double as the Cubs scored twice in the top of the fourth before the Giants chased loser Bill Bonham, 4-4, in the bottom of the inning, sending nine batters to the plate.

Dave Rader's one-out single started the rally and Barr walked. Von Joshua was safe and Rader scored on second baseman Manny Trillo's throwing error trying for a forceout.

price said, "I would have hoped this thing up before the day started. It made it hard to think about winning a track championship with something like that still hanging over you."

Texas captured six first-place events with John Craig winning the mile and Dana LeDuc grabbing first place in the shot put.

A sellout crowd of 3,500 persons watched the championships under near perfect 80 degree weather at Texas Tech's track stadium.

Texas Christian got the day off to a fine start by winning the sprint relay in 40 seconds flat.

It was the only time the school had ever won an outdoor relay event in SWC history.

Texas A&M's Scottie Jones won the 120-yard high hurdles for the third consecutive year, tying his conference record of 13.7.

Neall O'Shaughnessy of Arkansas turned in the second best winning time in SWC history in the 880 with a clocking of 1:48.8.

Bill Collins of TCU, who anchored the Horned Frogs to the 440-relay victory, also won the 100-yard dash in 9.4. However, Collins came in second in Spencer's surprise victory in the 220.

Texas went into Saturday's finals with a 28-24 point lead over Baylor, which was expected to give the Longhorns their toughest battle. Texas defeated Baylor by one point to win the SWC indoor championship in January in Fort Worth.

Baylor finished second Saturday behind the Longhorns as expected.

Tim Son of Baylor won the 440 in 46.3 and Jimmy Gailey of the Bears captured the 440 hurdles in 51.5.

Mark Collins honored Baylor to victory in a mile relay, but the 10 first-place points for the event were not enough to catch the Longhorns.

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The Portland Thunder of the World Football League has named Ray Braun as its first assistant coach.

Braun will be defensive line coach under head Coach Greg Barton.

He was defensive line coach for the Portland Storm, a WFL franchise operated in Portland last year by different investors.

Two Storm players, running back Puddin Jones and offensive guard Levert Carr, were taken by San Antonio during the weekend in an expansion draft at the WFL meeting in Birmingham, Ala.

MEMPHIS (AP) — Californian Bob Unger fired a five-under-par 66 Monday to pace qualifying for the Danny Thomas Memphis Golf Classic, which opens Thursday.

Tour veteran Sam Snead won't make the Memphis event, in which he had planned to play for the first time in his 18-year history. Snead is sidelined after snagging a fishing hook in his hand last week.

Defending U.S. Open champion Hale Irwin also may miss the Memphis tournament. Officials say they haven't received an official commitment from Irwin.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Larry Bowa, the shortstop who batted .433 over a seven-game Philadelphia Phillies' winning streak, was today named National League Player of the Week.

Two weeks ago, his second base partner, Dave Cash, won the award.

Bowa had 13 hits in 30 at-bats for the week ending Sunday. National League President Chub Feeney picked him over other candidates who included Greg Gross of Houston and Steve Stone of Chicago.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Hawaii's Gary Ross pitched a perfect five-inning game, allowing no one to reach base, as the Islanders blasted the Salt Lake Gulls 19-0 in a rain-shortened Pacific Coast League baseball contest. It was the first game of a scheduled doubleheader.

The Islanders sent 20 men to the plate in the first inning and collected 13 hits and 15 runs against Salt Lake pitchers Sid Monge and Steve Blateric.

All nine men in the Hawaii line-up hit safely with Jerry Turner leading with four hits in five trips and three runs batted in.

Warriors Feature Quality In Numbers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Golden State Warriors' newly won believers include the humbled Washington Bullets.

"They've been the better team these three games, I'm willing to say that," Bullets guard Kevin Porter conceded after a 109-101 defeat Friday night in San Francisco's Cow Palace.

Coach Al Attles' Warriors, decided underdogs heading into the National Basketball Association championship series, are ahead 3-0 and could end the best-of-seven series with a coup de grace, fourth victory today on the Bullets' Landover, Md., home court.

"We've got quality in numbers," said Attles, who used all of his squad, from superstar Rick Barry to 12th man Steve Bracey, in the relatively easy third game victory.

Golden State was behind by 16 points before getting hot in game No. 1 at Landover, and they trailed by 13 at one point in the second game, which they won here 92-91 Tuesday night.

The Warriors built an eight-point lead Friday night in the opening quarter, in which Barry scored half his game-total 38 points, fell behind by two points twice midway in the game but were in command with a 12-point edge early in the fourth period.

Rule Drops Rebel Team

DUNCANVILLE — As result of a UIL rule, Duncanville won the regional 4A baseball championship over Midland Lee.

The home club had previously downed Lee 7-5 Tuesday in Midland in the first of a three-game series.

Rain prevented the second and possibly the third game from being played here. No dry field could be located and according to the rule book, Lee, unfortunately, had to forfeit.

Mayberry Lands Golf Position

MIDLAND — Ron Mayberry has been named to coach the Midland College golf team.

Mayberry formerly was head basketball coach at Odessa Permian. His starting salary at MC will be $14,000 annually.

Mayberry quit at Permian only recently to become a football assistant at Borger High School. Mayberry assumes his new duties June 1.

"We made it tough for ourselves," said Barry. "We missed a lot of passes and shots in the first half. We could have been ahead by about 15 points. In the second half, we just made fewer mistakes."

Junior Golf Tour Outlined

Aspiring young golfers age 12-18 from across the West Texas region begin competing in the most unique youth golf program in the nation June 11 as the West Texas Chapter of the Professional Golfers Association (PGA) opens its "Junior Tour 1975."

Entering its seventh season, the West Texas Junior Tour has been credited with developing the same high school golfers in the region that took three 1975 state tournament titles and two individual honors in five divisions.

Hosted by West Texas golf professionals, the Junior Tour is the only one of its kind in the nation with 47 tournament "stops" on 47 West Texas golf courses scheduled this year.

Any junior golfer (boy or girl) living in the West Texas Chapter area with high school eligibility can participate in "Junior Tour 75" competition during the months of June, July and August.

Golfers compete in three age brackets, 12-13, 14-15 and 16-18, for first and second place trophies at each stop. Each one-day tournament is decided by 18 holes of stroke play in the three brackets with sudden death playoffs in case of ties for first and second. The events will start at 9 a.m. or sooner with an entry fee of $2 paid prior to the beginning of play.

Big Spring will serve as host twice on the Junior Tour. The Municipal Golf course will greet contestants July 24 followed by the Country Club, July 25. Pros are Charles Brantley and C.G. Griffin, Municipal and Country Club, respectively.

Unlike other junior golfing programs, the three-month tour concludes Aug. 13-14 at the Odessa Country Club as professional and tournament chairman Jake Bechtold hosts the two-day 36-hole event for golfers who have won any of the regular summer events.

The Junior Tour will play courses as far as Dumas on the north, San Angelo on the south, Abilene on the east and Pecos on the west.

Talons Corner T-Birds

The Talons scored an International Little League win over the T-Birds, 5-1, and the Hawks settled the Colts, 7-3, in an American encounter.

In Junior League play, Saunders Angels blanked the Orioles, 4-0, and Cain's Yankees edged the Knights, 9-8. All four games were played Friday.

The Talons' Glenn Popejoy and Todd Underwood combined their pitching talents to limit the T-Birds to a single hit. Popejoy hurled three frames of no-hit ball.

Joe Christ of the Talons blasted a two-run homer. Christ's teammate Mark Silen drove in a pair of runs.

Blake Rossan fanned 11 batters to lead the Hawks to victory.

Kyle Pfeiffer of the Angels handcuffed the Orioles on one-hit, while striking out 15.

Yanks' winning pitcher Billy Ray Johnson struck out 10 Knight batters. James Pinkard and John Hernandez of the Yanks drove in two runs each on a triple and double, respectively.

EL PASO SLUGGER No Ground Lost By Paul Dade

Paul Dade of the El Paso Diablos didn't lose any ground in batting average during the week and picked up a point in slugging to continue to dominate Texas League batting in the first five weeks of the 1975 season.

Dade leads the league, or shares, in average, slugging, runs, hits, total bases, doubles and home runs.

He is hitting .493 this week, the same as last week, and raised his slugging percentage from .985 last week to .986 this week. Dade has 34 hits, 21 runs, 68 total bases (in 69 at-bats), nine doubles and seven home runs and 33 RBIs — another league-leading figure.

Sabres Face Flyers

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Buffalo Sabres defenseman Jim Schoenfeld thinks the hockey season is too long. Teammate Don Luce agrees. So they'll be doing their best to make the season one game shorter today when they face the Philadelphia Flyers in the fifth game of the National Hockey League's championship series.

"Playing hockey until the 29th of May is crazy," said Schoenfeld. "The toughest thing is the mental side; it's tough getting up for 80 games in the regular season and then the playoffs. The physical part comes with hard work, but the mental side comes with psychological conditioning.

"I'd like to see the season end on May 15th at the latest, but it'll probably get longer before it gets shorter," said Schoenfeld.

"I think it would be better if the hockey playoffs ended right when the baseball season was beginning," offered Luce, who won the Masterton Trophy earlier in the week as the NHL player who best personified the qualities of dedication, perseverance and sportsmanship this season. "That way, we could get finished earlier in the summer and get more attention in the newspapers."

But this longest season in history can't end before Tuesday night—exactly eight weeks after the regular season ended. And when it finally ends, the league will have a champion that wasn't in the league 10 years ago.

Anything can happen to carriers including being chased by a bat and a rooster. This happened to Russell Bokelman who services route 167, but he takes it all in stride.

Russell, who is 14 and in the eighth grade, is one of the younger carriers, but you may be surprised that he lists "seven years experience" as a carrier. "I helped two older brothers with their routes," he explains.

In that time he has learned to deal with people and to manage his money. He has put some of his money in a savings association where it earns interest. He also buys his lunch at school and satisfies his recreational needs and personal whims like a stereo AM-FM eight-track player and a 10-speed bicycle.

With these interests, you would expect him to be in the Runnels Junior High band where he is a cornet player. He takes a hand in school, church, cycling and bowling activities.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bokelman, 3228 Drexel, think the Herald experience has been great for him because it "not only helps financially, but it has helped him to deal with others and made him a more responsible person."

Your HOROSCOPE
from the CARROLL RIGHTER INSTITUTE

SUNDAY, MAY 25, 1975

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Today's Full Moon gives you the chance to eliminate some confusing or deceptive conditions from your life that could cause you considerable trouble. Make progress through influential people by being conventional, conservative.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Some situation from a distance is now solved and gives you no further trouble. Ally yourself with progressive persons. Avoid the cynical, wish-washy.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Handle responsibilities today when you are free from business worries. Listen to man's good ideas. Be happy in it.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Get together with the blunt-speaking partner to iron out any wrinkles in your association. Avoid unreasonable persons.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): Showing bigwigs how much you appreciate them brings the fine backing you should have now. Steer clear of the unreliable.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): You want to delve into some hitherto unknown amusement, but investigate it first. Avoid the unworthy. Devotion to mate brings happiness.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): The situation at home is puzzling, so study it quietly and do not lose your temper. Entertain higher hopes at home, within your budget.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Get into philosophical studies early or attend lectures to raise your level of consciousness. Don't delve into anything "way-out".

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Find more proven methods for increasing income; steer clear of some interest that is full of loopholes. Avoid over-committing yourself.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): You want to delve into new interests now, but stick to the tried and true. Meet fine individuals at a social affair.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Stick to those things that have been helpful and steer clear of what you know little about. Assist those who have worked honestly and faithfully.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Make sure you screen your friends carefully now and drop those who have been a detriment to you. Make right personal decisions.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Study into daily activities wisely so you do not make the wrong choices.

Week Of Zero Maintenance Loss Flying Is Recorded

Webb AFB maintenance personnel continued to reach new heights of maintenance excellence last week as they recorded a full week of zero maintenance loss flying.

Col. Harry A. Spannaus, deputy commander for Logistics, said that this is the first time he can remember the wing going a full week without a single lost sortie because of maintenance problems.

In commending the entire maintenance organization, Col. Spannaus pointed out that much of the credit goes to a group of men who very rarely get the recognition they deserve. The colonel was referring to the men who operate the maintenance job control center.

MSgt. Ronald Dallefield, NCOIC of the maintenance job control center, explained the role the unit plays in helping achieve a zero loss record. "Basically, we monitor all maintenance on aircraft here and the flying schedule. We also," said Sergeant Dallefield, "schedule all of the maintenance for the 78th Field Maintenance Squadron."

"Our main job," summarized MSgt. Calvin Watkins, senior controller, "is to see to it that the maintenance crews are working on the right aircraft at the right time." Sergeant

Watkins went on to explain that a zero maintenance loss day is one in which no sorties were cancelled because a scheduled aircraft or its backup wasn't ready to fly.

Both men pointed out that the key to getting the job done as well as it has been is the complete cooperation they receive from the people in Operations.

Earlier this year, certain maintenance flights in the 78th Organizational Maintenance Squadron were able to achieve deviation-free flying days, something which hadn't been done here in more than two years.

Clubs Seek Equipment

The city agenda will include requests from two organizations for help with city equipment for club projects when the council meets Tuesday morning at City Hall.

The VFW is requesting use of the Aerial Truck in order to complete painting their flag pole. The Optimist Club is wanting assistance in leveling a parking lot prior to a big area-wide Motorcross Race to be held locally.

The final reading of the ordinance on changing a zone from P for parking to R for retail for the purpose of a store to sell books and monuments will be heard.

In other action, the council will review the parks and recreation board minutes, the traffic commission minutes and seek permission to advertise for bids for 25 containers for garbage.

The appointment of a person to the electrical board to replace Bill Row, who is resigning, is also to be discussed.

Two members of the CRMWD board have terms that expire and these appointments will be considered.

Farabee Pushes Marketing Bill

AUSTIN — State Sen. Ray Farabee is sponsoring legislation calling for market development in the beef industry.

The proposal, H.C.R. 111, urges passage of "The Beef Research and Consumer Information Act" which is now pending before the Congress in Washington.

Sen. Farabee explained that a task force composed of members of the beef industry had recently studied market development in the cattle industry and recommended a program involving a media campaign, consumer education, research, and the cultivation of foreign markets.

Sen. Farabee also is sponsoring a bill which will require public officials to disclose any interest they may have in property which is acquired with public funds.

Clothing Workshop

The Texas Education Agency is out to prove that you really can get something for nothing by offering area women the chance to participate in a free Clothing Workshop. Scheduled to be held in the Homemaking Department at Big Spring High School, the first session will be June 9-13, 1 to 4 p.m.; and the second session is slated June 16-20, 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

The Vocational Homemaking Education Program is designed to help individuals and families improve home environment and give greater consideration to social and cultural conditions, as well as the needs of the family. Ways the eight homemaking teachers at BSHS help adults of the community realize these needs is to organize and conduct programs of instruction. The classes are planned to develop the competencies needed by the individual enrolled.

The length and duration of the periods of instruction is determined by the Texas Education Agency, which employs the teachers and their employment is staggered so that a greater choice of courses can be offered.

This program has been operating for many years, and the programs selected are determined by the requests and interests of local citizens. Each workshop is designed to meet individual participant's needs.

Persons who want to learn about clothing construction are asked to call the high school, 267-7461, Ext. 48 before time for classes in order to find out what supplies to bring. Teachers working with adults will be Miss Sharon Story, Mrs. Caren Rawlings, Mrs. Fern Alexander, Mrs. Bilye Grisham and Mrs. Sue Willbanks. The remaining teachers are working with the high school students.

In July, the interest will be "Interior Decoration on a Budget." Learning to use what you have to make your home more attractive will be the main concern. This group will go on field trips to study furniture, arrangements and color. Persons may enroll for July 7-11, to 1 to 4 p.m.; or July 14-18, 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Earl Price, president-elect; Mrs. Charles Tompkins, treasurer; and Mrs. Ken Perry, vice president. Unable to be present was Mrs. Jack Lipscomb, secretary.

Volunteer Department Formed At Hospital

The first day on the job for members of the newly-formed Volunteer Department of Malone-Hogan Hospital Inc. will be June 2 according to plans made at the organizational meeting Friday morning in the classroom at the hospital.

With Mrs. Clyde Angel serving as temporary chairman, the group elected officers which includes Mrs. Jack Irons, president; Mrs. R. Earl Price, president-elect; Mrs. Ken Perry, vice president; Mrs. Jack Lipscomb, secretary; and Mrs. Charles Tompkins, treasurer.

The purpose of the volunteer organization, as stated by a hospital spokesman, "shall be to associate men and women of Big Spring and the vicinity who are interested in Malone-Hogan Hospital Inc. to provide needed volunteer services to the patients and public, using hospital facilities to create, cultivate and strengthen community relations which will contribute to the development of mutual understanding and goodwill between the hospital and the community."

Orientation for the volunteers will take place at the hospital Thursday, and all interested persons are invited to attend. Further information may be obtained by calling 263-1211, Exts. 115 or 116.

Having the distinction of being the first volunteer accepted at the hospital is Mrs. L. B. Paul, a newcomer to Big Spring, who inquired about the possibility of such a program when the hospital was still under construction. Mrs. Paul worked as a volunteer at a hospital in Illinois before she and her husband moved here to be near their son, Mike Paul, and his family. They also have a daughter, Mrs. Betty Wheel, who lives with her family in St. Louis, Mo. Mike Paul is art director of the Creative Visuals department, Gamco Industries.

Arthritis Forum Will Be Free To Public

Two well-known physicians in the field of rheumatology and a physical therapist will speak at an Arthritis Forum at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday in Howard College Auditorium.

One of the speakers, Dr. William A. Riley, is an internist and specialist in rheumatic diseases and is a member of the staff at Malone and Hogan Clinic. Also appearing on the forum program will be Dr. Kenneth Charles Scholz, an orthopedic surgeon who is associated with Methodist Hospital, St. Mary's Hospital and University Hospital in Lubbock. In addition, he is associate clinical professor at Texas Tech School of Medicine.

Featured as the third speaker will be Kirby Horton, a native Big Springer, who is physical therapist at the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center.

This program, held under the sponsorship of the Howard County Council on Aging, is designed to educate the public to the seriousness of arthritis.

The specialists will discuss the most common types of arthritis, the drugs and other measures used in their treatment, misconceptions about the arthritic diseases and promising research findings. Something can be done about the disease if the symptoms are recognized early and proper treatment started. Delay can cause pain, disability and lifelong handicaps.

Arthritis is the nation's Number One crippling disease. Arthritis is many diseases — some mild, some devastating. It can, and does, occur at all ages, from infancy on. Almost everyone, if he lives long enough, will develop some arthritis. Studies show that 97 per cent of all individuals over age 60 have enough arthritis so that it can be seen in X-ray films.

Arthritis is a serious disease, but something can be done. Proper medical attention is essential to keep it under control. All interested persons are invited to this forum to have their questions answered. Call Miss Sherry Mullin, county extension agent, 267-8469, for more information.

Crude Oil Purchases Detailed To D&D Club

MRS. REGGIE HAMBRICK

Crude oil purchases for Cosden Oil and Chemical Company was the subject of a detailed report given by Mrs. Doris Perkins at the May meeting of Desk and Derrick Club.

Mrs. Perkins, vice president of the club, began her discussion with a chart showing the "run ticket," which is the record by which the crude oil purchases are computed, explaining that tank readings are noted at the time the seal is broken to run the oil and again when the seal is replaced. A sample of the oil is taken for the purpose of correcting the gravity, one factor in classifying the crude oil for the purpose of pricing. The tank readings show the gross barrels run. The purchase document is first worked in the office and calculations are verified. The verified tickets then go to Data Processing for key punching.

OIL PURCHASES

Cosden purchases oil from Borden, Mitchell, Howard and Glasscock counties, in addition to Gaines County and Jal, N.M. Of the barrels purchased, the sweet oil is all sold because it is not economically feasible to run it through the refinery here at Big Spring. The Crude Oil Supply Department of American Petroleum Company of Texas contracts for all of the oil that Cosden uses at this refinery.

The speaker explained that the run tickets are collated with a crude oil master, showing the name of the lease, the lease number, the producer, the name of the county and the field code and price codes. At the end of the month, all tickets are summarized, detailed out and a run statement printed.

She explained that the classification of stripper oil is determined by the fact that the property produced 10 barrels or less of oil per day during the preceding year for each producing well. The producer must certify each lease that qualified under these conditions. Stripper crude is currently bringing $11.40 for 30 per cent oil for sour oil and that the sweet stripper crude is priced at $12.00 for a barrel of 40 per cent.

The 1972 runs are the base

Forsanites Go To Kingsland

FORSAN (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson have returned from Kingsland where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hayhurst.

Guests in the home of Mrs. Vera Harris were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Craig, and their son, Jim Craig, and Miss Donna Cooley, all of Robert Lee; and Mr. and Mrs. Kent Fields and Edd Stevens, all of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Phillips were in Post recently to attend the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Josey who are the parents of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charles Ray Phillips.

production controls, for instance if 2,000 barrels were produced in May of 1972 and 3,000 in May of 1975, then there would be 1,000 barrels classified as new oil. An amount equal to new barrels is classified as "released" oil except it cannot exceed Base Production Control.

NEW CATEGORY

There may be another category next month called "decontrolled crude", depending on outcome of legislation now in Washington.

The amount of old oil or Base Production Control barrels is purchased at the price prevailing in 1973, and frozen at that level, thus there is no incentive for the producer to seek further production.

Taxes are paid to the State of Texas according to agreement between the buyer or seller, whichever one contracts to do so. The tax reports have to be amended to take care of any discrepancies.

The division orders are handled either by the producer or the buyer according to agreement as to who will circulate them. No money is released until a signed division order has been obtained from the royalty owner. All is held in suspense until such division order is received. One check is issued each month to each royalty owner by computer.

Mrs. Perkins was the delegate and Grace Kinney the alternate to the Region V seminar at Odessa in May. They gave a report on the program.

Mrs. Charlotte Shedy won the dime drawing.

Couple United In Marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Hambrick are on a trip to Colorado Springs and Denver, Colo., following their wedding Saturday evening in the Church of Christ, Ackerly.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jim Mosely, First Baptist Church of O'Donnell with a choral group from Downtown Church of Christ, Lamesa, providing nuptial selections.

The altar setting was enhanced with candelabra entwined with emerald greenery, lime green satin bows and lanterns interspersed with ivy.

The bride is the former Sharon Cowart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Cowart, Box 37, Ackerly, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hambrick, Box 95, Ackerly. The bride, a graduate of Howard College and Lubbock Christian College, is employed by the Texas Rehabilitation Commission in Canyon. Hambrick is a senior at West Texas University, Canyon, majoring in Agri-Business and Economics.

The bride was attired in traditional gown of white Alencon lace and peau de soie. The lace bodice featured a sheer English net yoke with vermilion beading of seed pearls and a high scalloped neckline. Long, fitted sleeves with button and loop closure were scalloped over the wrist. Scallops edged the high-rise waistline, and the controlled bell skirt of peau de soie was sprinkled with applied lace medallions. Back fullness formed a chapel-length train while her bouffant illusion veil fell from a cluster of lace petals edged with pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white daisies centered with an orchid.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Michael Addison, Lamesa, sister of the bride, and serving with her were Karen Cowart, Ackerly, sister of the bride; Mrs. Michael Adams, Lamesa; Miss Dorinda Graham, Lubbock; and Miss Vicki Varner, Abilene. They were attired in formal-length dresses of sheer voile in pastel colors of white, yellow and green with an underlay of cotton polyester. The dresses were fashioned with a scooped neckline and ruffle, daisy trim on the bodice and bell sleeves to the wrist. Each attendant carried long stemmed yellow roses tied with lime green satin bows.

The bridegroom's brother, Randy Hambrick, served as best man, and the groomsmen were Richie Brantley, Canyon; Glenn Morris, El Paso; Eddie Newcomer, Lubbock; Kelly Cowart, Ackerly; brother of the bride, Steve Wilkes, Lamesa, and Larry Cohorn, Nacogdoches, served as ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple was honored at a reception in the fellowship hall of the church where refreshments were

MRS. CARL NICHOLSON SMOOT

Miss Fry Married To Carl Nicholson Smoot

Miss Sherri Lynn Fry became the bride of Carl Nicholson Smoot in a candlelight ceremony performed at 7 p.m., Friday in St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. Harland B. Birdwell, rector, officiated as the wedding party stood before an altar accented with spring flowers of pale pink, spring green and white, and flanked by altar candles. Nuptial selections were played by Miss Linda Lassiter, of Midland, organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Thelma Fry, 610 Bucknell, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smoot, 204 Jefferson. Smoot and his bride are both graduates of Big Spring High School and attended Howard College. He plans to continue at Angelo State University.

The bride was attired in a formal gown of white silk organza over taffeta adorned with old-fashioned cotton lace. Lace encircled the high neckline and framed the tucked organza yoke. The long sleeves were tucked organza, cuffed with lace, and matching lace trimmed the tiered, chapel-length veil of illusion. She carried a cascade of feathered carnations, roses and white orchids with satin streamers.

The maid of honor, Miss Jill Willbanks, was attired in white lace over spring green taffeta. She wore a large white lace hat trimmed in green. Miss Coni Fry, sister of the bride was bridesmaid, and wore an identical gown, but in pastel pink. They carried cascades of feathered carnations of spring green and pink with matching pink and green streamers.

Hank Smoot, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and Phil Furqueron was groomsmen. Both men served as ushers.

Immediately after the ceremony, the couple was honored at a reception in the parish hall of the church where refreshments were served by Miss Cathy Mays, Miss Kathy Bull, Mrs. Mike Morrow and Miss Kay Willbanks.

The table was covered with a white satin cloth, and appointments were of crystal and silver. A bouquet of spring green and pastel pink served as the centerpiece.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. C. A. Nicholson, Spokane, Wash.; the bridegroom's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gingerich, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tucker, all of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Tucker, Vealmoor; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perkins, Eastland.

After a trip to Dallas the newlyweds plan to reside in San Angelo at the Chateau Beaugard Apts.

Orientation For Juniors At Hospital

An orientation at the Big Spring State Hospital for junior volunteers will be held at 9:30 a.m., June 2, in the Staff Development Building on the hospital campus. Junior volunteer prospects are asked to contact Volunteer Services at Big Spring State Hospital or call 267-8216, Ext. 308 for further information.

This training program is open to young men and women 14 years of age or older and will include brief messages from key hospital personnel, a mini-tour of the hospital and job assignments.

Assignments may be selected from a list that includes escorting wheel chair patients, answering telephones, running errands and assisting in recreation.

Mrs. Urbina said it was the very first time she ever won anything and almost cried when the Branch Manager from San Angelo, Pearl Kennedy, gave her the good news. It took the Hostess several hours to select everything she wanted.

Dear Abby

Some Cocktail Servers Have College Degrees

DEAR ABBY: Tell "Decent in D. C." I know exactly how she feels. I, too, am 23, and have been on my own since I was 18.

I was a secretary up until about a year ago. I then discovered I could make more money being a cocktail waitress.

I hadn't given much thought to people's attitudes toward cocktail waitresses, but I soon discovered that most men seemed to assume that because I was a cocktail waitress, I was automatically on the make.

My mother would like to think that my job is just temporary, something to tide me over until I find a nice, "decent" job in an office.

It's true that some cocktail waitresses aren't exactly of the best moral fiber, but that can be the case in any occupation. I know quite a few cocktail waitresses, and I can tell you that most of them are decent working girls — some of whom have husbands and children — who are simply trying to make the best living they can.

In spite of these attitudes, I don't plan to give up my job. I make good money, have pleasant working conditions and none of the pressures of the "business world." And you're right, Abby, a person lends dignity to the job, not vice versa, as my customers have found out.

HAPPY IN HOUSTON
DEAR HAPPY: I'll drink to that. (And make mine a Shirley Temple.)

DEAR ABBY: I must have the most attentive husband in the world.

He retired last year at 64, and has been with me seven days a week, 24 hours a day ever since.

He drives me to the grocery store. He drives me to the beauty parlor — and waits to drive me home.

He drives me to the doctor's and dentist's when necessary. He drives me to my bridge club and comes back to drive me home.

Yes, I know how to drive, but his excuse is, "Something may happen to the car."

He is driving me nuts!
DRIVEN IN DAYTONA BEACH

DEAR DRIVEN: Your man needs a hobby. Has he ever tried driving a golf ball?

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I disagree on the following: We have six children ranging in age from 8 to 18, and our method of punishment is to "ground" them for a certain length of time. This means that they are not permitted to participate in any outside activity, which includes scout meetings, babysitting jobs, parties — everything except going to school and church.

I feel that if they have already given their word either to participate in some group activity or to babysit, they should be allowed to do so. My husband feels that if they are grounded, they should forego ALL commitments and activities, and phone to say that they cannot participate because they are being punished.

How do you feel about this, and why?

DISAGREEING PARENTS
DEAR PARENTS: Children who are being "grounded" should not be allowed to go to parties just because they accepted the invitation.

However, I would not insist that a baby-sitting job be cancelled. For the scout meeting, I'd flip a coin because while it builds character, it's also fun.

Heat, Don't Cook Franks

Frankfurters and other smoked sausage links are already cooked. They may be heated but are better if not cooked.

To do this, drop the hot dogs or smoked sausages in boiling water. Cover and let simmer. Simmering temperature is quite a bit below boiling. It's water bubbling around the edges of the pan, just below the surface.

Usually it takes five to ten minutes to heat hot dogs or sausages. Range is given because so much depends upon the size.

Fish Cookery

Seafood "Don'ts": Do not overcook fish or shellfish. Fish is tender as it comes from the waters. It is cooked to heat or brown, to develop the flavor and to soften the small amount of connective tissue present.

Do not over-season. Seafood has a delicate flavor that should not be overwhelmed by too much seasoning. Also, do not refreeze thawed seafood or thaw frozen seafood at room temperature.

Musical Groups Will Combine

VIENNA (AP) — The Vienna State Opera, Salzburg Festival and Salzburg Easter Festival will combine their artistic planning efforts as of Sept. 1, 1976.

Also, Herbert von Karajan will return on a regular basis to the Vienna State Opera in May 1977. Karajan and the newly appointed director of the opera, Dr. Egon Seefehlner, have agreed to try to reach the widest possible audience with filmed and televised performances.

Karajan and his Vienna State Opera codirector Egon Hilbert had disagreements in 1964 which led to Karajan's vowing never to return to Vienna. However, after Hilbert's death in 1967, Karajan returned to lead five Beethoven concerts in tered with her bouquet. Relatives attending from out of town included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. C. L. Roberts, Cransfield Gap; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Roberts, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Roberts, Clifton; and Mr. and Mrs. Don Grantham, Pecos.

How to select the right nursing home.

We Americans are not just living longer, we're living more useful, productive lives. But an increasing number of the chronically ill, the old, the convalescent, need some place other than the hospital and their home where they can receive personal health care, round-the-clock attention and the opportunity to continue to live their lives with meaning.

As your community extended health care facility we want to help you make the right decision. Here are some guidelines: see your family physician to determine the kind of care needed; feel free to visit our facility; ask us for our costs in writing and financial advice about Medicaid; examine all of our facilities; check our food quality; verify our safety features; and finally, observe how our residents spend their time.

There's a lot more to selecting the right nursing home. We want to help. If you have any questions, please call or visit us.

Discussion concerned plans for next year, with amendments to chapter by-laws and traditions. The program, "Superstition," was presented by Ms. Crawford and Mrs. Wittman who explained the origin of superstition as "vestiges of a dead religion, practiced long ago." Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:
I'd bet my wig that you'll get loads of letters from senior citizens ladies like me, about that real sharp, "socks-appeal" widower.

Man, would I ever like to meet a guy like him! Not only does he have socks appeal, but I love his real down-to-earth and up-to-the-sky philosophy!

Widow
Folks, she is referring to the widower in a previous column who set up a "marriage relations" bureau for odd socks — saves them until he finds a perfect match!

Spouse the widow thinks she would make one, too?

Dear Heloise:
When you are ready to throw out your empty, solid room deodorizer container, don't. It can be made into a cute, small flower pot.

Wash the whole thing well with soap. Take the small spot out of the top section and put the top section upside down into the bottom section. Some types may need a few small dabs of florist's clay to stabilize them.

I have made some from several different brands and a number of colors. They are really very attractive.

Amelia Schipper

Dear Heloise:
Here is a way to keep creweled yarns separated while working on something. Line them up in order on a clothes hanger (pants hangers are best), and use the little wire plastic bag ties to hold them together.

Carolyn Hilton

Dear Heloise:
My husband is tall and slim.

Long underwear that fits him in the waist was too short in the leg.

I found some old white socks with worn toes, but the elastic top was still good.

I just cut off the elastic top and sewed them onto the long Johns like a stirrup in ski pants.

Now, they are long enough to stay in his boots.

D. Taylor

Dear Heloise:
Many people enjoy pancakes but because of health reasons must restrict their intake of sugar.

I have discovered that the pancake batter may be sweetened with a good artificial sweetener.

After cooking, just add butter and you have a very tasty pancake with no need for syrup.
