FORD SAYS HE WOULD CONSIDER MOVE IF ECONOMY FAILS TO REBOUND

Demos To Push For Tax Cuts Extension

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic congressional leaders plan to push for an extension of the anti-recession tax cuts enacted this year, a move that President Ford says he would consider if the economy fails to rebound.

The Democratic leaders hope to combine the extension with a sweeping overhaul of the nation's tax laws, key party strategists say.

They outlined this plan after President Ford told a nationally televised and broadcast news conference Wednesday evening he would consider asking Congress to extend this year's reductions through the 1976 election year if the economy fails to rebound quickly enough.

Just before the President's news conference, Treasury Secretary William E. Simon had told reporters a tax cut extension would not be required in view of the strong economic recovery in the last half of the year that is now in prospect.

The Democratic reaction, in effect, was that Ford was endorsing a plan already on the congressional drawing boards.

"There never was any doubt about it," said a House source, noting the federal budget adopted by Congress last month assumed extension of many provisions in the $22.9-billion tax cut bill enacted in March, though not the $8.1 billion rebate of 1974 taxes.

A Senate source, meanwhile, disclosed that this year's reduction was limited to a single year in part to insure that an extension would have to be enacted later in the year at a time when broader tax revision measures are ready for consideration.

These revisions could include an array of complicated and controversial items including tax treatment of capital gains and losses and the many provisions that are aimed at giving special benefits to specific groups or individuals.

The presidential news conference, held in 92-degree heat on the South Lawn of the White House, produced a series of questions that sought — but failed — to pin the President down on whether the United States would use nuclear weapons, either to strike first at a potential aggressor or to defend South Korea in the event of an attack from the North.

"I don't think it is appropriate for me to discuss in a press conference what our utilization will be of our tactical or strategic weapons," Ford said. "This is a matter that has to be determined if and when there are any requirements for our national interests."

In response to the specific question about Korea, Ford refused to confirm or deny that nuclear weapons would be used, declaring "we have the forces and they will be used in our national interest, as they should be."

FUEL TANKS BURN — Firefighters attempt to contain flames from burning fuel tanks which shot hundreds of feet into the air in Richmond, Va., Wednesday night. The flames threaten nearby fuel storage tanks and the city's industrial section.

Abel Trevino Handed 25-Year Prison Term

He would have to kill him or be killed, Abel Trevino said Gemesindo Dias Jr. told him.

The statement signed by Trevino was entered as evidence as Trevino pleaded guilty to murder in 118th District Court Wednesday afternoon.

District Judge Ralph W. Caton sentenced Trevino to 25 years in prison for murder on the recommendation of District Attorney Robert H. (Bob) Moore III.

Trevino, 24, formerly of 1110 Main St., related this story in the statement:

BLUE MOON
It was about 11:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 19.

The roofer and a friend under 18 years old he knew only as Ricky were standing outside the Blue Moon Lounge.

"Theodore Diaz came outside the bar and started staring at me. Some friends told me that Theodore wanted to fight me."

"I called him over and asked him what the trouble was. Did he want to fight with me? Theodore told me that he did not want to fight me, but wanted to 'get it on' with Ricky."

"Ricky overheard what Theodore told me. Ricky and Theodore wanted to fight so I said come on let's go in the alley just north of the Blue Moon Lounge. They fought with fists, then shook hands."

"I was mad because Ricky was younger and smaller and I told Theodore that I was going to bust his mouth. I punched Theodore . . . in the eye, and Theodore took off running. I ran . . . but was unable to catch him . . ."

'GET IT ON'
"I decided to go back to the Blue Moon because I knew Theodore and his brother, Gemesindo Dias Jr., were still there. I planned to finish my fight with Theodore."

"As I was walking back, I met Ricky about one-half way and we talked. He said, 'Hey, man, I didn't know you were going to do this for me.' He was kinda glad about me helping him out."

"Ricky and I started walking back to the lounge when Morris Hernandez came out and said something I didn't like . . ."

"I asked Morris if he wanted to 'get it on,' too. Morris didn't say anything and then Ricky ran up and punched him in the mouth. Morris fell to the ground and then I kicked him in the ribs."

"Ricky said, 'Hey, man, that's enough,' so I started to walk away but Morris murmured something and I turned around and came back and started kicking him again."

"By this time Ricky had already walked off. I started to walk off again and then Morris murmured something else, and at that time I pulled out my knife out of my left pocket."

FIRST VICTIM
"I came back and knelt over Morris and started to stab him. I stabbed him several times in the chest and in the back."

"It seemed like I stabbed him one hundred times."

"I finally gave up on him and left him."

"I just walked off towards the Blue Moon as I wondered what had happened to Ricky . . ."

"The first person I walked up to was Gemesindo Diaz Jr. Gemesindo asked me why I had hit his brother Theodore. He then told me I was going to have to kill him or he was going to have to kill me."

"I punched him in the face and kicked him and he fell to the ground. I kicked him around awhile and he was trying to crawl away and I was kicking him."

"Somehow he was laying on his side, and I put my foot on his throat and as he tried to take my foot from his throat, he apparently dropped his knife."

WRIGGLED
"This was the first time that I saw that he had a knife and I picked it up and started stabbing him in the face, chest and I guess I cut his throat. He started wriggling around and yelling."

"I got scared and started running towards David's house. I went inside and he was still asleep and I woke him up. I told him that I had gotten into a fight with Gemesindo Diaz Jr., and Morris Hernandez and I had cut them up."

"David was still drunk and really didn't believe that I had gotten into a fight with these guys . . ."

Trevino was arrested in Midland County, April 21.

JOBLESS-IN-THE-SUN I'D RATHER BE OUT OF WORK HERE THAN IN NEW JERSEY

MIAMI (AP) — "I'd rather be out of work here than in New Jersey," says one of an estimated 200 jobless persons who arrive in Miami each week seeking work or at least a better life on their unemployment checks.

"The weather is nice and I have some family here," said Horacio Sierra, 24, who until last month worked at an elevator plant in Union City, N.J.

Sierra is one of nearly 6,000 persons drawing out-of-state compensation at a downtown Miami unemployment office. The benefits are paid by the home state, but the jobless must report to the office here twice a month and prove that they are seeking work.

Ronald Agress, a 41-year-old plumber from New York City, said he went nine months without a job, then sold his house and settled in Florida.

"I feel the cost of living is better here than in New York," said Agress. "I'd rather work, but some people want to pay you less than what you get in unemployment."

Officials said the large numbers of out-of-staters is contributing to the 11.7 per cent unemployment figure in Dade County and the rate of 18.1 per cent in nearby Broward County (Fort Lauderdale).

"They come here primarily from the Northeast," said Bob Lutterbie, manager of the local benefits office. "New York, New Jersey, and some from Illinois and California."

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal index designed to anticipate economic trends advanced for the third straight month in May, the government reported today. This was seen as a solid signal of recovery and a hint that the resurgence could be strong.

CHICAGO (AP) — With considerable fanfare for a group whose members used to prefer obscurity, the Communist Party U.S.A. opens its 21st national convention here today. General Secretary Gus Hall says the nation's economic ills will dominate the four-day convention at the Ambassador West, one of Chicago's deluxe hotels. Communists say the convention will be their most visible one ever. They trace this to the recent overturning by the U.S. Supreme Court of the McCarran Act, which they viewed as the last legal bar to party membership. But the key convention business will be conducted behind closed doors.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Indira Gandhi proclaimed a state of emergency in India today, and her government arrested more than 100 political opponents in an attempt to ward off a nationwide civil disobedience campaign against her refusal to resign. The government also imposed censorship on outgoing news dispatches as well as on all publications within the country.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Joseph J. Sisco, U.S. undersecretary of state for political affairs, and Ivor Richard, Britain's ambassador to the United Nations, both warned on Wednesday against an Arab proposal to expel Israel from the United Nations or bar it from the 1975 General Assembly. Sisco said the U.S. government would "do whatever is required" to block such a move. Richard warned that the United States might withdraw its financial support of the world organization. He said this "would be the end of the United Nations."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI sent two employees to Disney World in Florida for advice on setting up displays and public tours in the agency's new J. Edgar Hoover Building. A special agent and an employee described as a "visual information specialist" spent two days at the Orlando fantasy playground, an FBI spokesman acknowledged.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford is asking Congress to permit private industry to produce and sell billions of dollars worth of enriched uranium needed for nuclear power plants around the world. Ford called members of the Senate-House Committee on Atomic Energy to the Cabinet Room for a meeting today to outline his far-reaching proposals.

Ex-Campaign Manager For Humphrey Sentenced

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack L. Chestnut, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey's former campaign manager, was sentenced today to four months in prison and fined $5,000 for arranging unlawful dairymen's donations to Humphrey's 1970 Senate campaign.

Chestnut, 42, was convicted May 8 of setting up a $12,000 contribution by Associated Milk Producers Inc. to the Humphrey campaign. Prosecutors charged Chestnut had AMPPI pay campaign bills of an advertising agency.

Humphrey testified at the trial that he solicited aid from AMPPI but assumed it would come through a legitimate "political arm."

Federal Judge Edward Weinfeld said that it was "a particularly difficult case" for sentencing, but that a public deterrent was needed after an era—"hopefully now in the past"—in which public officials "put themselves beyond the law."

He also observed that the election law in the case was intended to protect the integrity of politics and prevent such deals as direct capital contributions obligating politicians for later demands of "special consideration."

Weinfeld said that the milk organization had made illegal contributions to both major political parties.

Chestnut remained free pending appeal. At the sentencing in U.S. District Court he again insisted he was innocent of "willful

Tax Meetings Ending Today

The boards are meeting on the second floor of the courthouse. This is the last day they will meet.

No representatives of Flato Realty, which has pending state and federal suits against local governments, have returned.

Commissioners Court met with Flato Realty representatives Monday about the possibility of compromise.

Couple Look For House Here; Find It Missing

An Idaho couple drove back to Big Spring for the first time since 1970 and drove by a house they owned at 210 NE 12th to survey their property.

The house and fence were gone. The couple went to the city building inspection division to ask about their house.

Dewey Byers, head of that office, offered "No comment" on the missing house, when questioned by the newspaper today. Stanley Bogard, assistant chief of police, when asked if a house had been reported stolen, said, "You've got to be kidding. A whole house?"

Harry Nagel, city manager, offered some light on the subject. He said that the couple had come into the building permit office and made inquiries about their missing home.

"Our records show that the house was not among the homes demolished by the code enforcement people during the past five years. We have no record of a house at that address, but we are still searching through the files in case there is any trace," Nagel stated.

Mrs. Zerah Bednar said there is no house on her tax rolls at that address, but the address would be across IS 20 and might be listed in the appraiser's office. The appraiser is attending board of equalization meetings and could not be reached.

Grounding F4 Fleet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has grounded its entire fleet of 600 F4 Phantom jet fighters temporarily for safety inspections after a crash caused by a control failure, it was announced today.

A Navy spokesman said the Phantoms will be returned to flying from aircraft carriers and ground bases as each is inspected and cleared.

The spokesman said 205 Phantoms have been inspected since the grounding was ordered five days ago and 54 of those planes were found to be defective.

The action, described as a precautionary measure, resulted from the investigation of an F4 crash April 9 into the Atlantic Ocean off Cape Hatteras, N.C. The Navy said the crew bailed out safely.

According to the Navy, the investigation revealed a malfunction of the control system in the tail flap section.

Teams of specialists have been sent to carriers and bases in the United States and abroad to conduct the inspections, the Navy said.

A spokesman stressed that the planes which have been grounded could readily fly if an emergency developed.

The Air Force said that, after being notified of the Navy's F4 problem, it conducted a random check among its 1,000 F4 Phantoms and found no similar problem.

Therefore, an Air Force spokesman said, no Air Force F4s have been grounded or restricted from flying.

Earlier this month, the Air Force temporarily grounded about 100 A7D bombers to have work done on their turbine engines because of the crash of an A7.

2 More Policemen Sought By Group

By TROY BRYANT
The addition of two policemen, the elimination of left turns from Main Street onto Third and Fourth Streets, and Bicentennial flags were topics of discussion at a special Crime Prevention meeting of concerned business members of the Chamber of Commerce this morning.

The group heard Police Chief Vance Chisum report that he has requested that provisions for hiring two more policemen be written in the new city budget to provide more coverage at night.

He reported that five or six policemen are patrolling at night now, and are covering a 14 square mile area.

He added that burglaries have not increased 300 per cent as was reported in an earlier meeting, but that the rate had increased 17 per cent over last year.

Chisum reported that the department will soon take delivery on six new patrol cars and will keep two old cars to help increase the coverage.

The group passed a resolution supporting the addition of two new policemen to the department.

They also heard recommendations from City Manager Harry Nagel concerning traffic jams on Main Street. He suggested three alternatives, making Main Street and Scurry Street one-way streets, changing the parking to parallel parking, or eliminating left turns from Main to Third and Fourth Streets.

Nagel recommended the elimination of the left turns, and the group passed a resolution backing the proposal.

Aid Money Challenged

DALLAS (AP) — An application by the Dallas school system for $2.3 million in federal desegregation aid money is being challenged by Dallas Legal Services, which contends racial discrimination continues in the schools.

The funds in question are used primarily for remedial reading programs in secondary schools.

Acting for unnamed individuals, Legal Services lawyers sent a letter Wednesday to Thomas Kendrick, a senior program officer with the U.S. Office of Education here.

More Cuts In Bus Service

DALLAS (AP) — Further cuts in Surtran bus service from Fort Worth to the Dallas-Fort Worth Airport loomed today.

Ben Tonick, Surtran assistant executive manager, said Wednesday that Fort Worth terminals are to blame for three-fourths of recent losses suffered by Surtran and that city will have to reduce service or make up the deficit.

Fraternal Groups Being Taxed For First Time

Fraternal organizations were among the groups expected to appeal Wednesday or today to the boards of equalization concerning taxes.

For the first time this year, the county, city and school are levying taxes on the fraternal groups, as are other governmental subdivisions in Texas.

A court decision two years ago revolving around an Amarillo case deemed that fraternal organizations are subject to tax.

The city and school district had over 700 individuals and businesses whose evaluation had been raised this year.

On the first morning that the board of equalization met for the city and school in the county courtroom, there were only about five who had appeared. This group included three businessmen and two home owners.

Use Of Yanks Leftists Is Bar To Reconition

OMAR BURLESON, M.C.
17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D.C. — On May 22, this column was devoted to the subject of moves under way to re-establish relations with communist Cuba. If Cuba proves herself to be worthy of neighborliness, there are a number of things which should be a prerequisite for our re-establishing our relations with her. One would be stopping the effort of gain military and other information from the United States for the purpose of passing it on to the Soviet Union.

During the last five years, young American leftists have been going to Cuba to work in the sugar harvest. According to a Congressional Internal Security Subcommittee, this operation is "one of the most extensive and dangerous infiltration operations ever undertaken by a foreign power against the United States". While in Cuba, these young leftists are quizzed on every aspect of life in this country. When they are ready to return home they are instructed as to the kind and nature of information desired. In the time between their experience in the sugar fields of Cuba and the time of their research programs dealing with nuclear weapons; information about missiles, including the guided system of our polaris submarines; and, any other data calculated to be of interest to the Russians.

This group was organized in 1969 at a time when Moscow had informed their Cuban satellite that it was not earning its keep. The expense to the Soviet Union was running at about $1 million a day at that time. The Kremlin, to emphasize its policy, shut off its supply of oil to Cuba saying that if Castro would agree to gather intelligence they needed, all deliveries would be resumed. This was agreed to according to our intelligence.

At first, Cuba's spy system, known as the General Directorate of Intelligence, sent agents to this country but, at that time, they concerned themselves mainly with anti-Castro exiles. They did not get what well the Russians wanted and that is when they began using the visiting young American revolutionaries.

This is just one other activity which should be demanded stopped before diplomatic relations are resumed with Cuba. Provisions should clearly be made for inspection and verification of what is being hidden on that Caribbean Island.

Discovery Is Noted

Marathon No. 1-20 McEntire has indicated as a discovery six miles northwest of Sterling City. It made 32 barrels of oil and two of water from perforations 6,543-764. Location is in section 20-14-SPRR, which puts it 1 1/4 miles southeast of the McEntire (Fusselman) field which produces at 8,590 and about eight miles southeast of the Credo multipay and the same distance north of the Conger Canyon gas and Cisco oil pool.

Stolz, Wagner and Brown No. 1-27-B Glass, five miles west of the Conger field and 18 southwest of Sterling City, was spotted for 1,320 from the south and 1100 from the west lines of section 22-31-5s, T&P. This is 2 1/2 miles east-southeast of the Big Salute (Canyon gas) field. The operator's No. 1-24 Flint in section 24-31-5s, T&P, perforated at 7,892-8016 in the Canyon and 7,667-7,735 in the Cisco, facturing both zones. I.W. Lovelady No. 1A Mahaffey is a re-entry of the Pickens Co. test to clean out to 8,195 and try for completion as a stepout to the Deck (Cisco) field. Location is 660 from the south and 1,320 from the west line section 22-31-5s, T&P. The discovery well, Deck No. 1 Bailey rated 71 barrels of 40-gravity oil and gas-oil ration of 4,000-1.

Monsanto No. 1 Lee, another Sterling Wildcat, was logging at 8,661.

In Glasscock County, Diamond Shamrock No. 1-45 Gordon Stone pumped six barrels of 37-gravity oil and 47 of water from perforation 7,778-8,109 after acidizing with 10,000 gallons and fracturing with 100,000 gallons.

Hospital Host To Students

Malone-Hogan Hospital's Respiratory Therapy Department played host and instructor to 20 Howard College students Monday evening at the hospital as part of the hospital's community service.

Demonstrating the relationship of their study of Anatomy and Physiology to blood gas analysis and pulmonary function abnormalities, students were allowed to participate in actual pulmonary function testing. In addition, they observed the process of blood gas analysis, using various specimen provided by the department for the demonstration.

Kenneth Randall, certified respiratory therapy technician and technical director for the department was on hand to supervise the participation-clinic workshop. Randall trained at Parkland, Baylor, Methodist and Children's hospitals in Dallas before coming here in 1973.

James L. Owens of Howard College accompanied the group. Bruce Henshaw, evening supervisor for the hospital department assisted the study.

Reducing Marijuana Penalties

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Ignoring warnings of political disaster, Democrats in the lower house of the California Legislature have passed a bill reducing penalties for marijuana possession.

The Assembly voted 42 to 34 Tuesday to approve lowering the punishment for possession of up to one ounce of marijuana — described as enough for 20 cigarettes — to a fine of no more than $100.

The bill now returns to the Senate, which passed it once before, for concurrence in amendments. Sen. George Moscone, a San Francisco Democrat, predicted the Senate would pass his bill with several votes to spare.

Gov. Edmund Brown Jr., a Democrat, has endorsed the concept of reduced marijuana penalties.

"It's quite possible that in 1976, your platform will be 'Grass, Gays and Godlessness,'" Republican Assemblyman John Briggs of Fullerton, warned Democrats, referring to an earlier bill legalizing certain sexual activities.

The bill would repeal current authority to prosecute marijuana possession either as a felony or misdemeanor. Felony penalties against sale of marijuana would be unchanged.

First offenders currently face a maximum of 10 years in prison, although imprisonment for simple possession has become rare.

Oil Gear Is Hit By Fire

Oil field equipment at a Skelly Oil Co. well in the East Vealmoor Field seven miles west of Vincent was damaged by fire Tuesday afternoon, a Skelly spokesman said.

The equipment belongs to P&S Consolidated of Snyder. A dollar estimate of damages was not immediately available. Webb Air Force Base was sending fire fighting equipment when the sheriff's office learned Air Force assistance was not needed, Sheriff A.N. Standard said.

Three Local Craftsmen In Fair At Kerrville

Big Spring will be represented in the Texas State Arts & Crafts Show at Kerrville July 4-5-6 by three craftsmen.

Denver L. Pettitt, adjudged the master violin-maker in Texas, will return to the Kerrville event, this time to have his works displayed in the Pioneer Village of the fair. His invitation carries with it all expenses paid trip. His works will not be in competition this year.

Bill Brooks, a wood-carver, will be going to the fair for the first time.

The third Big Spring resident who has been invited to display his handiwork at Kerrville is Ed Shrum, employed as a carpenter at Howard College.

Shrum is Pettitt's pupil and, like Pettitt, will display some of the musical instruments he has made. He specializes in mandolins.

Pettitt says Shrum has the delicate touch needed to become a great violin-maker. He's the third student taken by Pettitt. The others are Henry Thames and Vandoye Murphee.

Shrum, a native of Illinois, has been studying the art of building musical instruments for about two years.

The three Big Springers are due in Kerrville July 3 when they will start setting up their booths. Brooks and Shrum will be in competition with about 200 other experts in handiwork who will be displaying everything from pottery making to weaving, metal working and blacksmithing.

The fair itself is located along picturesque Quinlan Creek on the Schreiner Institute campus and offers the public the chance to buy one-of-a-kind items and to watch many of them being hand-crafted on the spot.

With its many colorful tents, the fair takes on the relaxed and scenic atmosphere of the old-time county fair with its many-colored tents.

Concurrent with the fair, and opening the night before, is the Kerrville C&W Jamboree at Quiet Valley Ranch, with three evening concerts by 18 Nashville country and western stars, including Bobby Bare, Mo Bandy, Johnny Bush, Barbara Fairchild, Mickey Gilley, Johnny Gimble, Tommy Overstreet, Darrell McCall, Red Sovine, Hank Stegall, Nat Stuckey, Hank Thompson and others.

An old time fiddlers' contest is scheduled at 1 p.m., July 6. Free concerts will be offered at 1 p.m., and again at 3 p.m., Saturday, July 5. The scene will be the stage on the fairgrounds.

Hours of the fair will be from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m., daily Friday and Saturday and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Sunday. Admission prices are $2 for adults and 50 cents for children under 12.

C5 Crash Cover Up?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has denied charges by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., that it has covered up a safety hazard on the huge C5 transport plane.

Proxmire said Tuesday the Air Force knew as long ago as 1971 that each of its C5 transport planes contained the safety hazard blamed for the crash that killed 155 persons, most of them children, during the Vietnam orphan lift near Saigon on April 4.

The Air Force said the Saigon crash was completely unrelated to an earlier pressure door problem. "The Air Force has not covered up any safety hazard on the C5," it said in a statement.

Recall Vote To Be Friday

SLATON — Voters in Ward 2 advance on the polls here Friday to determine if city commissioner Otis Neill should be recalled off office.

Twenty-five absentee votes, considered an unusually high number, had been cast in the election Wednesday. The election will be conducted at Lubbock Country Club House. The polls open at 7 a.m., and close at 7 p.m.

Neill, who has been on the commission nine years, was one of those instrumental in firing police chief Fred Clark recently, an incident which resulted in the resignation of four of six patrolmen on the city police force.

Little Effect In Operation

AUSTIN — Many High Plains farmers have watched aircraft seed clouds and wondered about what effect this has had on rainfall or hail.

The Texas Water Development Board, in its (Report 193) "An Evaluation of Weather Modification Activities in the Texas High Plains," says it has found remarkably little effect on either rain or hail. At least the results do not compare with other states which have different cloud types. South Florida and Arizona, for instance, noted a three to five-fold increase in rain; some Western States recorded a 25 per cent gain in snowfall.

The board's new publication, however, emphasized that the findings thus far "does not prove any lack of effect" but that the experience and size of sample are as yet too limited for established conclusions. The study may be had without charge by writing to the Texas Water Development Board, Box 13087, Austin, 78711.

Kneeland Gets Long Pen Term

FORT STOCKTON — The Tommy Ray Kneeland trial ended Wednesday at the Pecos County Courthouse when Kneeland was sentenced to 550 years in prison.

The sentence followed a verdict of guilty of murder with malice returned at 8:08 p.m. Tuesday.

Charges stemmed from the disappearance of Kermit housewife Nancy Mitchell in September 1970.

The jury then recessed until June 16 while pre-trial motions were heard. Testimony opened June 16.

Formal sentencing will be in 10 days.

Police Force To Join CC

LAMESA — The 23 members of the police department here have intentions to join the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce.

The announcement came from Police Chief Lee Bartlett Jr. at the monthly meeting of the Roundup Club of the chamber Wednesday morning.

According to Bartlett, the Lamesa force is the first entire department in Texas to join a chamber of commerce.

The chief said he met with the police personnel and the entire department elected to join.

Bartlett joined the chamber when he moved to Lamesa to become police chief earlier this year.

'IT'S A LITTLE LIKE A HOTEL' The 'New' Air Force

WICHITA FALLS (AP) — An Air Force base does not a college campus make, but says one officer who should know, college students never had it so good.

"It's such a good deal I don't see how anyone can complain," said Lt. Mike Warden, a recent graduate of Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

"Actually, this is a better deal than I ever got at college."

Warden spoke as he toured Sheppard Air Force Base with a non-military visitor. He pointed out bowling alleys, olympic-size swimming pools, a golf course, tennis courts, the theaters.

The training facilities are outstanding, as are the educational programs.

And then came the real stunner for one unaccustomed to the changes in military life.

It's called Cooper Hall and it is the modern equivalent of the old, open bay barracks which housed disgruntled military troops in peace and war.

Both inside and out, it resembles a college dormitory, but the similarities favor Cooper Hall.

"These new dorms are fantastic," said Terry Duty, 18, an airman from Omar, W. Va., who is studying to be a missile systems analyst. "They have everything you need to live under one roof."

"If you wanted to, you would never have to go out except to go to school," he said.

Civilians man the central dining room, once called a mess hall. In those days the mess hall was cleaned by Kitchen Police, or KPs.

Maids, not troops, clean the room, and inspections by surly sergeants are a thing of the past.

The rooms, brightly colored and draped, have private baths instead of latrines.

The air conditioning has individual controls.

Television sets are commonplace, along with stereo units. Individual room refrigerators will soon be standard equipment. Prefabricated closets have replaced footlockers.

The 1,000 or so residents of Cooper Hall live two to a room, for the most part, although certain higher grade airmen have rooms of their own.

And, if they don't want to be disturbed—it used to be they didn't have a choice—they merely hang out a "Do Not Disturb" sign. Or they can flip the sign over: "Maid Please Make up Room Early." It's a little like a hotel.

If lonely or bored or tired of TV, the troops can ease into the game room for a variety of diversions including ping pong, pool and pinball machines.

And, if uncommonly thirsty, airmen can buy cold beer from a 24-hour drink machines.

The food is laid out in appetizing fashion and with any number of choices.

Airmen will always complain about the food, however, said Maj. Gen. Raymond B. Furlong, commander of the Sheppard Technical Training Center, "but a college would charge $10 a day for similar fare."

Payola Charges

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — After two years of investigation by grand juries across the country, three record company presidents and 16 other industry executives have been indicted on charges of payola and tax evasion.

It was the broadest allegation of wrongdoing in the recording industry since the 1950s when congressional investigations first led to federal laws against the practice of record companies paying disc jockeys to play and popularize songs to spur record sales.

The indictments were returned Tuesday by federal grand juries in Newark, New York City, Los Angeles and Philadelphia.

U.S. Atty. Jonathan L. Goldstein said the investigation was continuing and more evidence would be submitted to the grand juries.

Those indicted Tuesday include Clive Davis, a former president of CBS Records; Kenneth Gamble, president of Gamble-Huff Records Inc., a soul-music label, and Nat Tarnapol, president of Brunswick Record Corp.

The indictments charged that record company promoters slipped thousands of dollars in cash, merchandise, plane tickets and clothing to radio station employees as inducements to play the companies' records. The investigation began in the spring of 1973.

Drilling Still Ahead Of '74

Drilling in the continental United States continued well ahead of a year ago, according to the June 23 report of Hughes Tool Company to the International Association of Drilling Contractors.

There were 1,602 active rigs at that time, up 144 from a year ago, or 9.88 per cent. The Texas share of this was 601, a gain of 100, or up 16.67 per cent.

Brochure Maps Ways To Identify Property

The objective of Operation Identification is to get as many citizens as possible to mark their property to discourage burglary.

A project of the Big Spring Police Dept., Operation Identification initiates an all-out effort in crime prevention for the area. The program involves citizen participation in marking property with the individual's driver's license number.

Suggestions as to where on your property to engrave the driver's license number is included in the Operation Identification brochure, available at all engraver check-out locations and the Big Spring Police Department office.

The brochure suggests areas of marking which will guard against your property being disfigured or devalued by the marking process. Basically numbers are engraved on an area that cannot be easily dismantled and is generally on the bottom, inside or underneath the item being marked.

If a serial number is already affixed to the item, the engraved driver's license number should appear there.

If a piece of property already has someone else's number on it, do not mark out the old identification number. The new owner should engrave his identification number underneath the old one.

When property that is marked is sold or given to someone else, the original owner should encourage the person receiving the item to engrave his number directly underneath the old number.

Most items can be marked with the engraving pen; however, fragile property such as jewelry, silver or china can be protected by taking a photograph of the items and storing it with the property listing form and other important papers for personal record keeping purposes.

Once items are marked and the engraving pen returned, you will be given decals to put on the front and back doors and windows of your office or home. These

Sex Devices Business Booms Despite Warnings

By DOLORES BARCLAY

Associated Press Writer

The sex paraphernalia business has grown from secretive mail order firms listed in sordid sex magazines to an above-ground trade involving about 800 boutiques and an unknown number of distributors.

Those in the industry estimate the annual volume is over $25 million nationwide and growing. They say their business has expanded because of the sexual revolution of the '60s and early '70s.

Meanwhile some doctors, noting the widespread trend toward use of sexual paraphernalia, say some of the devices can be physically harmful; others say the devices may be psychologically beneficial.

The biggest seller is the vibrator, an elongated, hollowed-out, plastic device operated by batteries. Other products range from artificial male and female sex organs to scented and flavored lotions, oils and gels to full-size, life-like models of men and women. A variety of manacles, harnesses and whips are also sold.

Most vibrators are priced under $15. Leather goods can cost over $100. Rubber products range from $1 to $60.

Interest in these items is not restricted to any one age group, say dealers interviewed across the country. Although most store owners say the majority of their customers are men, they say women have been buying sex paraphernalia in substantial numbers.

Some gynecologists warn the devices can cause injuries.

"Artificial devices can cut the skin and cause infection. In some cases they can hurt a woman's cervix," said Dr. Donald C. Chambers, associate attending gynecologist, Provident and Sinai Hospitals, Baltimore, Md. Rectal devices used by men also can be dangerous, he said.

Many sex therapists and psychologists recommend use of the paraphernalia to their patients to help overcome certain sex problems.

"Vibrators are very helpful devices for many women," said Dr. Wardell Pomeroy of the Cornell Medical School and the American Institute of Psychotherapy. "Many times, it's the beginning of learning to have an orgasm."

Dr. William Masters, co-director of the Reproductive Biology Research Foundation in St. Louis, said he would only recommend a vibrator to a patient who has never experienced orgasm, and only then on a very limited basis. He said he would never suggest using other devices.

"Inevitably you're talking about crutches and it does no good to train people to crutches," he said.

Music And Worship By Johnny Ray Watson

JOHNNY RAY WATSON began his singing career when he was only 8 years old by singing in his home and church choir. He was born with an ear for music, and today plays and writes most of his own songs. In all of his singing, Johnny Ray still knew that there was something missing in his life. In December of 1972, this emptiness was filled, by rededicating his life to Christ. Johnny is now a true witness for Christ through his songs and testimonies.

Olds Cutlass is the best selling mid-size car in 1975.

Here are four solid reasons why Cutlass is a red hot seller.

1. Gas mileage. According to results published in the EPA Buyer's Guide, Cutlass, with its available 4 bbl. 350 V-8 engine, outclassed all mid-size competitors with V-8s. Results? 15 mpg in the city test; 20 mpg in the highway test.
2. Resale Value. Cutlass has traditionally high resale value. That's nice to know when you decide to buy.
3. Style and Comfort. Outside, sleek style and sculptured lines. Inside, room and comfort to spare. With it all, a ride that makes driving a real pleasure.
4. The added plus. The way an Olds is designed, engineered and built. It's Oldsmobile quality and dependability. A real plus.

Prager and Mrs. Charles Hays.

Dear Abby

Mental Illness Can Make Marriage Shaky

DEAR ABBY: I have fallen in love with a man who has had a past history of mental illness. Years ago, his mother placed him in a state hospital. Now he lives in a half-way house. He sees a therapist weekly and is on medication.

I know he still has some problems, but they're not as severe as they were. I want to have a relationship with him because he has so many of the qualities I am looking for in a man. He said he has never had a relationship with a woman. He is 27 and unsure of himself. I am 21 and on my own.

I know I will have to make the first move because he is not aggressive. My mind is somewhat made up already, but I need assurance that I am doing the right thing. What is your opinion?

NAMELESS, PLEASE DEAR NAMELESS: You are a wise girl to stop, look and listen before you leap. Since I know nothing about the young man's emotional maturity and the seriousness of his mental condition, it's impossible for me to advise you. Please don't initiate a relationship without first talking to his therapist. He is qualified to guide you. I am not.

DEAR ABBY: Hoorah for the young man who doesn't shake hands with anyone—and don't bet too heavily on the germ theory.

A few months ago I had a right hand painfully sprained when I shook hands with a professional football player.

A few weeks ago, I shook hands with a retired plumber who apparently wanted to prove that he was the strongest man on earth. Result: one fractured bone.

A few days ago, a slightly built finished the wrecking job of my hand. This note is written in pain.

If those strong men want to prove their masculinity, let them find another victim. I'm for the Oriental custom of bowing.

Casual Cooking for Summer

Let's Have Dessert Alfresco Style

Pack a sack and take a snack!

Is there anything nicer on a warm spring or summer evening than taking a walk or a ride on a bicycle to the park or beach? By the time you get there and wander around the site for a bit, you're bound to be hungry. After all, you didn't have dessert.

In keeping with the return to simplicity, your snack pack sack can hold a thermos of chilled milk and some cookies. That's an easy dessert. Having it out-of-doors gives it the name of "alfresco," a word that comes from the Italian, meaning "in the cool" (of the evening).

Creamy Cherry Bars are an ideal cookie to have because they're nutritious, made with creamy butter, both cream and cottage cheese, plus pecans, coconut and cherries. They're rich and freeze nicely, if you want to make them in advance.

Red 'N White Pinwheels are a perfect answer to the summertime cookie problem because the recipe makes five dozen. They're a refrigerator cookie so you can mix at one time, bake at another time, or as needed.

CREAMY CHERRY BARS

- 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter
- 1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 packages (3-oz. each) cream cheese
- 1/2 cup cottage cheese
- 1 tablespoon maraschino cherry juice
- 3/4 teaspoon almond extract
- 1/3 cup chopped maraschino cherries
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans
- 1/2 cup flaked coconut

Cream butter; gradually add sugar and beat until light and fluffy. Gradually add flour. Pat dough evenly over bottom of an 8-inch square baking pan. Bake in a preheated 350 degree oven, 15-20 minutes. Meanwhile, beat cream cheese, cottage cheese, cherry juice and almond extract in a small mixing bowl until light and fluffy. Fold in cherries; spread over first layer. Combine pecans and coconut; sprinkle over cheese filling. Bake 15-20 minutes. Remove to wire rack to cool. Yield: 24.

RED 'N WHITE PINWHEELS

- 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup firmly packed light brown sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1 tablespoon milk
- 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon red food color
- 1/2 teaspoon peppermint extract
- 1/2 cup finely chopped nuts

Cream butter; gradually add sugars and beat until light and fluffy. Beat in egg, vanilla and milk. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together; gradually add to creamed mixture. Divide dough in half; add red food color and peppermint extract to one half. Leave other half plain. On waxed paper roll white dough to measure 18 x 8-inches. On waxed paper roll red dough to measure 16 x 8-inches. Invert waxed paper with red dough over white dough; peel off waxed paper. Sprinkle with nuts; press in slightly so they stick to red dough. Roll from long side as for jelly roll. Chill 1 hour. Cut rolls into 1/4-inch slices and place on buttered baking sheets. Bake in a preheated 400 degree oven, 8-10 minutes. Remove to wire rack to cool. Yield: approximately 5 dozen cookies.

Fruited Salads Can Double As Desserts

You can have your salad and dessert at the same time if you've made your salad one with fruit, cream, cheese, dairy sour cream or cottage cheese.

When the morning's cool, put together the salad if it's going to be frozen or chilled until firm. Then it's ready to come to noonday or evening meal without fuss, thus freeing your energies for preparing the main dish.

SPARKLIN' FRUIT SALAD

- 3 tablespoons (3 envelopes) unflavored gelatin
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 3/4 cups buttermilk
- 1/3 cup fresh lemon juice
- 3/4 cup sliced grapes

- 1 can (8 1/2 oz.) crushed pineapple, undrained
- 1 cup whipping cream
- Salad greens
- Orange sections
- Grapes

Combine gelatin, sugar and 1 cup buttermilk in a 1-quart saucepan. Place over low heat, stirring constantly, until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat; add remainder of buttermilk and lemon juice. Chill until partially set. Add grapes, oranges and pineapple. Whip cream until stiff; fold into fruit mixture. Turn into 7-cup mold. Chill until firm. Unmold onto greens; garnish with orange sections and grapes. Yield: 8-10 servings.

Oven Crisp Chicken, Molded Salad Provide Old-Fashioned Picnic Fare

Golden Summer days call for fun and feasting out-of-doors. Why not go to an old-time picnic favorite and give the folks a real treat? That would be chicken. It's dipped in a combination of egg and buttermilk, then in cracker meal seasoned with Parmesan cheese and ground nuts for intriguing flavor.

Rather than standing over a hot range to fry this chicken, you'll find it's easier to brush melted butter on the chicken pieces in a shallow pan and bake it. That will give it the appearance and taste of fried chicken. When coated and allowed to refrigerate for at least an hour, the coating clings more readily to the chicken.

It's easy, too, to make an old-fashioned molded salad of favorites like grated carrot and pineapple, accented with golden bits of shredded Cheddar cheese. Make this in advance and save those last minute flurries of preparation.

- 2 1/2 cups boiling water
- 1 cup dairy sour cream
- 1 can (13 1/4 oz.) pineapple tidbits, undrained
- 1 1/2 cups grated carrots
- 1 cup (4 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese

In a bowl pour boiling water over gelatin; stir until dissolved. Stir in sour cream, beat until smooth. Add pineapple, carrots and cheese; turn into 9-inch square pan. Chill until firm. Makes 16 servings.

OVEN CRISP CHICKEN

- 3/4 cup cracker meal
- 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 1/2 cup ground pecans or walnuts
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup buttermilk
- 1 broiler-fryer chicken (2 1/2 to 3 lbs.) cut up
- OR 6 cut up chicken parts
- Melted butter

Sandwiches Are Good Standby Summer Fare

Sandwiches fit the summer style of eating; they're casual, carefree and easy to fix, carry or keep.

They also fit all kinds of occasions when food's in order: that quick snack or meal on porch or patio; that meal-in-hand on a boat; or, that brown bag bash you may carry in your knapsack or transport to the beach.

Sandwiches are only as good as their fillings. Those must be full rather than skimpy. Though the choice is as wide as the world, prepare only those which you and the family like. There's just no sense in spending time and money on smoked salmon or Bel Paese cheese for a piece de resistance unless the folks go for it. It's better to stick with American or Swiss cheese, ham, peanut butter or summer sausage if that's what turns them on.

So have fresh bread, rolls or buns. Stale bread adds nothing positive to a sandwich since it may have to wait before being eaten. Do butter that bread or roll, all the way to the edges, or the filling will soak through and make it soggy.

Make Ahead Main Dish Salad Makes Picnicking Easy

Do you like a spur-of-the-moment picnic? Or is yours the kind of a family that says, "Come on, let's take the food out to the porch and eat there."

Whichever way it happens, if you have a main dish salad already chilling in the refrigerator, it's easy to carry it to a picnic spot or porch. Camper's Choice, the chicken noodle salad, is cousin to the soup of the same name with just as much flavor if the noodles are cooked in chicken broth. Add to this crunchiness in the form of sliced radishes and crisp celery pieces and you have garden freshness to enhance the original flavor.

Surprise ingredient in this salad is thick, creamy, tangy sour cream which adds less calories than mayonnaise. One tablespoon of sour cream has 25 calories as compared with 65 for commercial mayonnaise; the cream will also contribute valuable nutrients such as protein, calcium and vitamin A.

Camper's Choice, an intriguing combination of chicken and noodles in a salad goes to the picnic in a bowl. To accompany that, Chili Cheese Squares come right from the pan in which they were baked. Serve with ice-cold milk from a thermos.

CAMPERS' CHOICE

- 6 cups water
- 1 tablespoon chicken seasoned stock base
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3 cups medium noodles
- 3 cups chopped cooked chicken or turkey
- 1 cup thinly sliced celery
- 1/2 cup sliced radishes
- 1/4 cup sliced green onion
- 1 cup dairy sour cream

Bring water, stock base and salt to a boil in a saucepan. Add noodles and cook according to package directions; rinse with cold water and drain. CHILI CHEESE SQUARES

- 1 cup (4 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
- 2 teaspoons instant minced onion
- 1 teaspoon chili powder
- 1 package (8 oz.) refrigerated crescent rolls
- 1 teaspoon poppy seed

Instead of the usual rolls or bread-and-butter sandwiches, treat the folks to Chili Cheese Squares with the salad. This hot, quick bread is made with refrigerated crescent rolls put together with a zippy filling of Cheddar cheese, onion and chili powder. They're sprinkled with poppy seed and take but 15 to 20 minutes baking. Serve with chilled

Toss together cheese, onion and chili powder. Unroll crescent dough; pat one-half the dough in the bottom of an 8-inch square baking pan. Sprinkle over cheese mixture. Pat remaining dough into an 8-inch square and place on top of cheese. Sprinkle with poppy seed. Bake in a preheated 375 degree oven, 15-20 minutes. Cut into squares. Yield: 16.

Picnic Tips

Keep a picnic basket ready for spur-of-the-moment picnics. This should include a plastic or paper table cloth and napkins, plates, cups, cutlery, salt, pepper, sugar, mustard and catsup. Then you'll only have to pack the food and be off when the mood strikes you.

Fill half gallon milk cartons with water and freeze. These can be taken along on the picnic to melt for drinking as well as to keep meats and salads cold since they provide a "block of ice."

Keep charcoal, starter fuel and matches in a bag with work gloves. Whoever starts the fire can keep his hands clean, as well as having everything handy in one place.

Fill a wide-mouth thermos with frankfurters, then with hot water. These will be heated by the time you reach the picnic spot.

Bake cookies in advance and pack them into coffee cans. Cover with their plastic tops. If you don't anticipate a picnic shortly, the cookies can be kept in the freezer, ready for a quick dessert.

Nothing adds more comfort to outdoor dining than a few portable tables. Wood or metal sets are available in every price range. They can be used indoors as easily as out.

Don't let bugs spoil a lovely picnic. Spray the picnic area (grass, flowers and bushes) just before the picnic. Do not spray tables or grills.

Keep crisp vegetables on hand for the nibblers or hungry ones who just can't wait for the food to cook. That means washed cherry tomatoes, celery and carrot sticks, green pepper cubes, lettuce chunks, cucumber slices placed around a bowl of cottage cheese and sour cream dip. Season to taste with salt, celery salt, pepper, lemon juice, and grated peel and dust with dill weed or parsley. Let the dressing and vegetables sit on one of those milk carton "blocks of ice," to keep cool and refreshing.

Don't trust your glass tumblers on picnics. It's safer, easier and lighter to carry plastic tumblers in the large, "tall" sizes for beverages.

Desserts are always ready if you make an assortment of sundaes in paper cups with covers and place them in the freezer. Take them out one-half hour before serving to soften or just before you leave for the picnic grounds.

Cheesy Franks In Foil

Some sandwiches are made to wait, like these Cheesy Franks in Foil. A lively mixture goes into buttered buns, then they're wrapped in foil. They're not really baked but they're heated in the oven or on the grill to make them really tempting.

- CHEESY FRANKS IN FOIL
- 2 cups (8 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
 - 1/4 cup chili sauce
 - 1/4 cup sweet pickle relish

- 1/8 teaspoon leaf oregano
- 8 frankfurters
- 8 frankfurter buns

In a bowl combine cheese, chili sauce, relish and oregano. Slit frankfurters lengthwise, but do not cut through. Place about 3 tablespoons cheese mixture in each. Place frankfurters in buns. Place each on double thick rectangle of aluminum foil. Fold foil down onto sandwich in tight double fold; twist ends.

Place on grill folded side down for 10 minutes; turn and heat 10 additional minutes. Makes 8 sandwiches.

VARIATION: In a bowl blend together 2/3 cup dairy sour cream, 1/4 cup instant minced onion, 1/4 cup sweet pickle relish, 1/4 cup prepared mustard and 1/2 cup crumbled Blue cheese. Spread mixture on both sides of cut buns. Place frankfurters in buns. Wrap and heat as above.

UNCLE SAM ARGUES Nude Bathing Would Attract Wild Crowds

BOSTON (AP) — Officially approved skinny-dipping on Cape Cod would attract crowds of nude bathers who would overrun the sand dunes that make the area unique, the federal government argues.

"The problem is not nudity. It is the attraction that a nude beach has to people," Supt. Lawrence Hadley of the Cape Cod National Seashore said Wednesday in court testimony defending a ban on naked bathing in the area.

The Civil Liberties Union of Massachusetts filed suit in U.S. District Court seeking to have the ban on skinny-dipping declared unconstitutional because it would violate the rights of nude bathers to free expression.

Judge Frank H. Freedman said he would decide the issue after lawyers present written arguments Friday.

During the past few summers, nude bathing has become popular at Brush Hollow Beach, a remote stretch of sand in Truro, on the outer reaches of Cape Cod.

On two weekends last summer, crowds at the beach reached more than 1,000 — nude sunbather watchers — despite the fact that people had to walk about a mile up the seashore or across the dunes and beach grass.

Hadley said the sunbathers parked illegally, trespassed, littered the beaches and damaged the dunes and grass. This year, the National Park Service which operates the national seashore, banned nudity.

Hadley said the beach is within one day's drive of one-third of the nation's population and that if the nudity ban is revoked, vast hordes of people would be drawn to the area.

"If that beach is officially designated as the only nude beach in the Northeast, there is nothing we could do to cope with the number of people who would be attracted to it," he said.

Civil liberties' attorney Alan Dershowitz countered that the National Park Service has not tried alternative ways of limiting the crowds, such as enforcing parking laws.

"As long as there are alternatives for solving these problems, no absolute ban on nudity can be upheld," he said.

A HUNGER FOR THE PRINTED WORD — Julie Hunter and Tommy Pike are two youngsters who have found great adventure in reading at the Howard County Library. They're in the summer program started for children. At 10:30 a.m., each Wednesday, the children enrolled in the class report to the library.

Former Mental Patient Kidnaps Nieces, Judge

MCPHERSON, Kan. (AP) — After terrorizing members of his family with a shotgun, a former mental patient kidnaped two young nieces and the probate judge who had ordered him committed, police said.

The two girls, in their early teens, were released unharmed about 8:15 p.m. Tuesday.

At 2:45 a.m. Wednesday, Probate Judge H. Dean Cotton telephoned McPherson police and said he was returning without his abductor. Police said Cotton, 46, refused to say where he was calling from and ended the conversation abruptly.

Two hours later, there had been no further word from the judge.

Police identified the man being sought as Kenneth Huff, 37. Relatives told authorities that Huff had been vowing to seek vengeance on several persons whom he held responsible for problems he had suffered the past three years.

In late 1972, Huff was injured while working for a concrete business. Details of Huff's injury and subsequent psychiatric treatment were not immediately known.

Police were alerted at 10:15 p.m. after the girls returned home. They said Cotton had persuaded the abductor to release them about U.S. 56 east of town. They walked 8 miles home in about 2 hours.

Authorities ordered protective surveillance for several persons, including Huff's employer at the time of his 1972 accident, another judge at Newton, Kan., who conducted his recent divorce hearing, and a former law enforcement officer now living in Topeka.

Kidnapers Demanding $1 Million

SHERBROOKE, Que. (AP) — The family of Mrs. Conrad Blanchet was reported awaiting further word today from kidnapers holding the 63-year-old woman for $1 million ransom.

Mrs. Blanchet, the wife of a wealthy margarine manufacturer, was abducted Tuesday from her home in Rock Forest, 15 miles east of Sherbrooke.

Informed sources said the kidnapers telephoned the woman's 38-year-old son, Gaston Blanchet, three times Tuesday and Wednesday demanding $1 million in $2 notes in exchange for his mother.

The sources said during the third call, at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday, Blanchet told the kidnapers the family had been able to raise only $50,000 in bills of the required denomination.

The kidnapers gave no information on the condition of Mrs. Blanchet and members of the family expressed concern about the woman's health because she requires daily medication for a heart condition.

Oil Spill In Alaska

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — An underground leak from a fuel oil line at an Alyeska Pipeline Service Co. construction camp has grown into the largest oil spill to date on the trans-Alaska pipeline project.

The leak was discovered under the Galbraith Lake camp in February, and Alyeska said then that about 100 gallons of fuel escaped.

However, repairs did not stop the leak, and authorities estimated Wednesday that about 60,000 gallons leaked before it was noticed again on June 11.

A spokesman for the state Department of Environmental Conservation said clean-up operations have not prevented some oil from reaching streams that flow into nearby Galbraith Lake.

Eunice's Only Doctor Quits

EUNICE, N.M. — This southeastern New Mexico town is having to struggle along without a doctor or a hospital.

Dr. Kenneth L. Sims, the community's only doctor, closed his offices last week.

That move was followed by the resignation of the eight employees of the Eunice hospital, two of whom were nurses. The eight employees had sought the removal of hospital administrator George Bond.

Bond submitted his resignation, effective next Monday.

The hospital is operated by the City of Eunice and is the only one of its kind in the state.

'Snow Job' Of Killer Ignored

PISMO BEACH, Calif. (AP)—It was "snowing like hell" somewhere on May 19, and if police can find out where, they may solve a murder.

The fact is, police in this coastal town 120 miles north of Los Angeles are a little red-faced because they were told last month the murderer had confessed and was in jail somewhere else, but they forgot where.

It happened like this: Howard M. O'Daniels, 37, of Pismo Beach, disappeared May 11 after a trip to Long Beach. His car was found on U.S. Highway 101 near Pismo Beach.

On May 19, a vacationing Pismo Beach policeman entered the office to get his mail. The telephone rang, and he answered it.

It was a long distance call from a policeman. He said he had a man who said he had killed someone on Route 101 near Pismo Beach and dumped the body there earlier in May.

The Pismo Beach policeman said he hadn't heard of any killing. He told the caller it must all be a mistake.

Before hanging up, the caller said, "It's snowing like hell up here. How's the weather down there?"

The vacationing officer just let the matter drop but remembered it again when O'Daniels' decomposed body was found June 7 in some weeds just inside the city limits. He had been shot twice in the head.

Since then, police have been trying to find out where that telephone call came from.

Peaceful Valley Houses Nightmare

By MIKE COCHRAN
Associated Press Writer
BANGS, Tex. (AP)— Indeed, as its name implies, the Peaceful Valley Children's Home lies in quiet, lush, green seclusion minutes from this tiny West Central Texas town.

It is a single story building, unpretentious in all aspects, a structure of no imagination, neither good nor bad.

But it houses a nightmare—a group of mindless, severely retarded young people.

And this day it is not peaceful.

"I don't want another damned human interest story," Bill Harris is saying, angry tears clouding his eyes, his hands gesturing almost wildly.

The mood and tone and language are dark blue.

"I'll be lucky if I don't kill somebody...20 years of devotion...and for some SOB to come in here and say we're inempt...this is something somebody dreamed up."

The future of Peaceful Valley is in jeopardy, threatened, said Harris, by a phantom bureaucracy and unreachable.

"You always say it can't happen to you, but it can," observed his sister, Zella Harris, also brushing away tears with a crumpled handkerchief.

"We want to expose this thing for what it really is," Harris continues.

What the American welfare system really is, he insists, is an inept and indifferent bureaucracy, peopled by emotionally bankrupt, misinformed case workers who impose vague, largely unrealistic standards.

The big losers, he suggests, are: —The youngsters and their parents.

—The taxpayers.

—Peaceful Valley and similar private homes.

While contending Peaceful Valley has operated for two decades with compassion and affection, Harris does not claim the undertaking was necessarily noble.

The home receives up to $350 monthly per child, mostly federal funds filtered through agencies in Louisiana, which operates few state mental facilities of its own.

"We haven't done badly by it by any means," Harris said. "But if this wasn't a family operation there's no way we could have continued for 20 years."

"No way," echoed his sister.

Peaceful Valley's problems apparently stem from a visit early this year by representatives of the Department of Housing, Education and Welfare, accompanied by state welfare workers.

Not long afterwards, Peaceful Valley began receiving copies of letters informing parents the home was an unapproved facility and that the children should be removed.

Harris said he was not notified before the action, and that his attempts to get information from welfare officials were repeatedly futile.

Peaceful Valley's state license remained intact, he said, and the State Department of Public Welfare confirmed it.

After largely uninformative discussions with state officials at various levels, a reporter was directed to Suzanne Cochran of the HEW in Dallas.

Yes, indeed, she said, an HEW survey team had visited Peaceful Valley, the result of a class action lawsuit in Louisiana directed at HEW, Louisiana officials, 26 Texas homes such as Peaceful Valley and others.

The suit was joined by the U. S. Justice Department. It claims the Texas centers violated the rights of Louisiana children who were "forced to undergo excessive sedation and subjected to mechanical restraints, prolonged isolation and corporal punishment."

A copy of the survey team's report was sent to Dr. William H. Stewart in Baton Rouge. It was Stewart, who heads Louisiana's Health and Human Resources Administration, who axed Peaceful Valley, Ms. Cochran said.

ATTY. GEN. LEVI SHOCKED BY SECRET MATERIAL

Where Did Orders To Kill Castro Originate?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate intelligence committee might never be able to determine where orders to assassinate Cuban Premier Fidel Castro originated, according to Chairman Frank Church.

"It may just be we'll be unable to find evidence that establishes the chain of command," Church, a Democrat from Idaho, said Wednesday following five hours of closed-door testimony by a former CIA officer allegedly involved in plots to kill Castro.

Meanwhile, Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi declared Wednesday that he was shocked at reading still-secret material on alleged CIA assassinations and domestic-intelligence activities and that he hoped Justice Department decisions on whether to prosecute the individuals involved could be made quickly.

Levi declined to say what had shocked him, saying that was a personal question. He has been given the confidential portion of the Rockefeller Commission report dealing with assassinations and the back-up material to the report's conclusions about other CIA activities.

He also said the department, not the White House, would make the decisions about whether to prosecute. "I would feel obligated to inform the President, but I would not expect the President to tell the department what to do," he said.

In another development Wednesday, CIA Director William E. Colby declined to assure a House subcommittee that the CIA no longer has undercover agents operating inside organizations within the United States. But Colby insisted that any such activities would be strictly for the purpose of gathering foreign intelligence and would fall within the limits of the agency's statutory authority.

Colby also said 30 of the 75 present members of Congress revealed by the Rockefeller Commission to be subjects of CIA files have had the contents of their files turned over to them at their request.

Colby said the files were kept because in some cases the members of congress had cooperated in giving the CIA information and in other cases security checks had been made on them or employment information compiled about them before they were elected.

But subcommittee chairman Bella Abzug, D-

N.Y., said she had seen several of the files and they contained mostly information about antiwar activities.

The Church committee spent all Wednesday questioning William K. Harvey about his role in alleged plots on Castro's life.

According to columnist Jack Anderson, mobster John Rosselli, who testified before the committee Tuesday, has identified Harvey as the CIA officer in charge of plans to kill Castro during the period following the aborted 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion.

Church refused to discuss Harvey's testimony except to say that "he filled out the story further." But Church added that the question of whether government officials above the CIA in the chain of command were involved in the plot "remains very confusing."

Church repeated an earlier statement that the committee has uncovered "no evidence linking these assassination plots to former presidents."

A-Test Staged

MERCURY, Nev. (AP) — A nuclear device 10 times more powerful than the bomb that leveled Hiroshima in World War II was detonated beneath the Nevada Test Site early today, a federal spokesman said.

The weapons-related test was the second in a week.

Today's explosion yielded a force of between 200 and 1,000 kilotons, said David Miller, spokesman for the Energy Research and Development Administration.

The exact yield could not be released, he said. The Hiroshima bomb had a force of 20 kilotons.

The 5:30 a.m. PDT blast was felt in Las Vegas, some 90 miles to the south. There were no immediate reports of damage there, however.

In the small community of Beatty, 35 miles from the test site, persons at the Exchange Club, a casino-restaurant, were asked to stand outside the clubhouse during the blast, Miller said.

The club is in an adobe building constructed in 1906. The test, code-named "Camembert," was conducted for the Lawrence Livermore Laboratory of Livermore, Calif.

A blast of similar magnitude was detonated here last Thursday. Today's explosion was the 10th announced test this year conducted by the government.

Last week, site manager Mahlon Gates said testing of high-yield atomic blasts was being accelerated in anticipation of a proposed international atomic testing ban tentatively set to become effective next March 31.

Dog, Mail Box
Are Missing

Thieves were not particular in Big Spring Wednesday. Things they stole included a dog and a mail box.

A Doberman Pincher, sometimes regarded as one of the most vicious dogs, was apparently stolen at the home of Linda Slater, 3002 Cherokee. Value of the dog is estimated at $150.

Philip Edwards, 4119 Muir, reported a $15 mail box missing.

It was also a good day to pilfer bicycles, with two reported missing by Mrs. Pete Jones at 1110 Aylford, one reported by Mrs. J. Keifer at 1704 Main, and one by Chester Kirkland at 1402 E. 6th.

Highland Texas Co. 2501 S. Gregg, reported a $70 tire stolen. Rufus Rawling, 2101 Scurry, reported two CB antennas taken off vehicles, and Mrs. Dulah Snow reported a .22 revolver missing from Mutt's Lounge.

BIG MOUTH — Visitors at Dallas-Ft. Worth Airport view a 25-foot-long prehistoric reptile, a 70 million-year-old Plesiosaur. Its fossil remains were found during the early excavations for the airport. It resembles a lizard with flippers of a porpoise and weighed 10,000 lbs. Restoration was done by Prof. Bob H. Slaughter, Southern Methodist University, taking nearly 2 years. Braniff Airlines paid for restoration and provided exhibit space.

Muggy
Weather

By The Associated Press
Muggy weather enveloped Texas today.

Steady south winds blew more warm tropical air into the state from the Gulf of Mexico, ballooning the relative humidity up to 80 and 90 per cent in most sections. An exception was a pocket of dry air around El Paso in far West Texas, where the humidity shrank into the teens.

Calm returned on the heels of turbulence Wednesday afternoon which sent tornadoes spinning to the ground near Beaumont and Freeport and waterspouts whirling over Lake Sabine on the southeast edge of the state. There was no report of damage or injury.

Clouds covered East Texas and inland areas of South Central Texas this morning and patches of fog hung low in the east part of the state. Skies were clear to partly cloudy elsewhere.

Renewed showers and thunderstorms were promised in all sections tonight and Friday. Temperatures in early morning ranged from 80 degrees at Palacios on the coast down to 66 at Amarillo and Dalhart in the Panhandle. Another torrid 101 was recorded at El Paso for the top mark Wednesday afternoon.

To Test Taxi Style Service

DALLAS (AP) — A one-year test of taxi style service by the Dallas Transit System is scheduled to start July 6.

Cliff Franklin, a planning executive with the system, said Wednesday a telephone call will bring a bus to the doorsteps of about 12,000 North Dallas residents during that period.

The trial program is financed by $145,000 from the U.S. Department of Transportation. It is designed to reduce traffic on the city's busy North Central Expressway by helping move persons to a transit system park-and-ride station in North Dallas.

Sentence In 'Cold-Blooded' Killing Of Mexican Upheld

AUSTIN (AP) — Kenneth Adami's life sentence in the "cold-blooded" killing of one of five Mexican aliens who sought shelter in a dirty, boarded-up structure on his Webb County (Laredo) ranch was upheld Wednesday by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals.

Two U.S. Border Patrol officers testified that Adami turned over his .257 magnum rifle to them in Freer on Nov. 23, 1972 after saying he shot five men on his ranch the day before.

En route to the ranch, Adami was overheard telling a companion, "That's kind of coldblooded, but I did it and I am ready to go."

But at the trial, Adami testified he had returned from deer hunting to his "residence" and saw through a window that the kitchen was "completely filled with rough-looking men who were complete strangers to me."

Adami said he kept almost all of his personal possessions in the house, although he usually slept in a one-room building generally used as a feed house.

As he watched the men, Adami said, one of them suddenly turned and threw a 14-inch file at him and then wheeled toward an area where Adami said he had left a loaded .22-caliber rifle. He shot the man, he said, and the others came toward him in a "wild rush."

He kept firing through the window until there was no more movement, then entered the house and discovered one man "was just faking dead" and grabbed Adami's rifle, he testified. He pulled back and shot him, then shot another who "attempted to jump on my back."

The state's evidence indicated the men had entered the house to get out of the cold, rainy weather. They were eating tortillas and drinking cans of V8 juice that they had brought with them when Adami came upon them.

The house "appeared to be abandoned, with large amounts of accumulated dirt and animal droppings on the floor and furniture" and there were boards nailed across the windows, the appeals court said, summarizing the state's case.

The border patrolmen found no weapons in the house. The man Adami was tried for killing, Jose Alfredo Avalos, was shot in the back of the head, and the top of his head was blown off. The other four men were all shot from behind.

Chiropractic
Art Discussed

Background on the chiropractic profession was given to the Downtown Lions Club at its Wednesday meeting at the Settles.

Dr. Elton H. Berman, Colorado City, was the speaker, outlining the branch of healing arts which began in 1895. Today, he said, chiropractic is licensed in all 50 states, and in Texas since 1949. The six-year training period is constantly being upgraded, he said, and looking back on the basic science requirement of 25 years ago, he said it did chiropractic a favor by strengthening the curriculum.

The profession, he said, confines its activities to the subluxations spine and irritation of nerves. Luxations, he said, are dislocations, and such matters are referred to the medical profession or bone specialists. Chiropractors, he said, do not prescribe medicines nor do they pierce the skin.

When Texas licensed chiropractors in 1948, there were 2,200 counting those who came in under the "grandfather clause," but this number dwindled to 1,200. Today the tide is turning and classes are larger than in years, according to Dr. Berkman, who is a member of the state board of examiners.

New officers of the club will take over next week, said Aubrey Bryans, president.

Police Plan
Annual Dance

The Police Association will hold its annual dance July 12 at the Dora Roberts Community Center.

Dr. J. Gale Kilgore will furnish music for the event. Tickets are on sale by association officers at $5 per couple. The number of tickets have been limited to 250 and almost all have been sold. Some association members still have a few available for the event.
