

Boverie Is Chairman

Clem B. Boverie has been named chairman of the executive committee of Furr's Cafeterias, Inc. Retna R. Martin was named to the board of directors.

The two men fill positions previously held by Roy Furr who died June 13. Boverie has served as member of the board since its creation in 1968. He also serves as senior vice president of Furr's Inc., and as president of Farm Pac Kitchens.

He has been associated with the company since 1929. Martin also serves as chairman of the board of the Dunlap Co., a chain of 20 department stores in states from Texas to Florida, including one in Big Spring.

Other new officers include Cliff Andrews, president and general manager; Harold Andrews, vice president of cafeteria operations; C. Wayne Smith, vice president and controller; and Harvey Andrews, vice president of quality control. Furr's operates 62 cafeterias in seven states. Four more are scheduled to open this year.

$45,000 CONTRACT Go-Gos Going Too Far At Base

FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP) — Authorities at this sprawling Army post are taking a close look at go-go dancers who perform at service clubs to make sure they don't go-go too far.

There have been some reports that go-go dancers—some of whom are WACs—have been going too far in their state of undress.

While the commanders thought they were paying $45,000 a year for go-go entertainers, apparently the GIs are passing the hat to develop local strippers.

One dancer, an Army private, said she did not intend to strip when she began dancing three months ago to supplement her Army salary.

She remembers her first strip as a response to a beer mug filled with about $20. "When the officers said, 'There's your tip, now do your thing, I felt obligated,'" she said.

She said she prefers to dance for enlisted men instead of officers because "the officers get drunk, thinking they are top kicks and start yelling 'take it off.'"

Lt. Gen. Robert M. Shoemaker, fort commander, initiated last week a "moral cleanup of Ft. Hood's social environment," which included discontinuing beer drinking during duty hours.

RPC Meets On July 9

Four state representatives will be special guests at the semi-annual General Membership Meeting of the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission to be held Wednesday July 9 at 12 noon at the Ranchland Hills Country Club in Midland.

State Representatives Richard Slack, John Hoestenbach, Michael Ezeff and E. L. Short will be the guests. They are from Pecos, Odessa, Snyder and Tahoka and are the four representatives within the PBRPC area.

Gaines County Judge Marcus Crow will give a brief review of accomplishments during the past year and Midland County Judge Barbara G. Culver will provide a national perspective of what regional councils accomplish. She was recently elected first vice president of the National Association of Regional Councils.

The board of directors will meet following the luncheon meeting. The criminal justice advisory committee of the commission met recently and set priorities for the criminal justice grants next year.

A request from the Big Spring police on closed circuit television is 12th down on the list and a request for them on a legal aid project is 15th on the list. Among others of interest in this area is a Martin County jail closed circuit television project which is 7th on the list and a Dawson County jail renovation project request which is 14th.

New Students Can Register

New high school students in town should register during the summer months if possible, according to school administrators.

At this time, the high school is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. and new students who will be in grades 9-12 next year may discuss their schedule and courses with either Mrs. Janice Rosson or Mrs. Jean Harrington.

Bike Race Set For July 4

Among the events to be held at the city park on July 4 will be a bicycle race at 3 p.m. sponsored by the Elks Lodge.

It will be held at the softball field inside the park. Competition will be held for ages 7-9 with three laps around the course. Cyclists ages 10-14 will go six laps. Ages 15-18 will make 10 laps. Ages 19 and over will have 12 laps.

The race is open to boys and girls in each division with plaques for 1st and second places. Each participant is required to pay a 50 cent entry fee.

Several other booths have also been planned. Sig Rogers is sponsoring a "Christ Is the Answer Gospel Band Wagon." Any singing group that would like to perform on this wagon call Rogers at 263-7412.

Hospital Loses Accreditation

SWEETWATER — Simmons Memorial Hospital here has lost its accreditation, the result of a regular study of the facility by the Joint Commission for Accreditation in Chicago.

The Nolan County commissioners will meet Thursday to discuss the impact of the accreditation and what can be done to return to the good graces of the national hospital accreditation foundation.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Coleman, Ackerly, who marked their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception Sunday, repeated their wedding vows in a ceremony performed by Dr. Howard H. Hollowell of Abilene. Dr. Hollowell, a former pastor at Ackerly, based the ritual on a poem he composed for the occasion.

Approximately 450 persons attended the reception, including guests from Lubbock, Abilene, Brownwood, Fort Worth and numerous other Texas cities, as well as Lovington, N.M. and San Diego, Calif. The guests included nine former pastors of the Methodist Church at Ackerly and several ministers of other denominations. Also, there were guests from the McMurray College faculty.

Next weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman plan to attend homecoming activities at the small community of Plainview in Haskell County and, from Aug. 1-10 they will participate with other members of the Texas Big Country Club at the Airstream Rally in Bristol Head, Colo.

The reception was hosted by the Coleman's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Coleman; Michael Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie King and Kimberly King.

Bridal Tea Is Held Saturday

A bridal tea honoring Miss Mary Anne Ondrusek of Portland, Texas, future bride of David Pickle, was held Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Larson Lloyd, 2308 Roberts Drive.

Cohostesses for the introductory affair were Mrs. Ross Boykin, Mrs. Matt Harrington, Mrs. Wacil McNair of Snyder and Mrs. Chester Matheny.

The honoree, who received guests with her future mother-in-law, Mrs. Joe Pickle, was attired in a full-length, halter dress in apricot. Mrs. Pickle wore a long, three-piece ensemble in green and white floral print.

The guest list included approximately 100, and the refreshment table was covered with a white lace cloth and appointed with

First Aid Essential For Heart Attack Victims

DEAR ABBY: Yesterday, a man had a heart attack at the ball park. The only member of his family present was his small son. The police and hospital were notified immediately, but it took them 20 minutes to arrive.

Meanwhile, about 30 people stood around, but nobody seemed to know what to do. The poor man hasn't regained consciousness yet, and it's doubtful that he will.

Abby, I took first aid in school and was taught what to do for bee stings and poison ivy, but I can't remember learning how to administer first aid to a victim of a heart attack. It doesn't make much sense that it isn't taught in first aid, considering that heart disease is the nation's No. 1 killer.

You would be doing a great public service if you published instructions on what to do for a heart-attack victim until professional help arrives. I am sure many lives could be saved.

CONCERNED IN N.O.
DEAR CONCERNED: I consulted one of the world's foremost authorities, Donald B. Effler, senior cardiovascular surgeon at the Cleveland Clinic. His reply: "The victim should lie flat. Closed chest massaging should be applied immediately. (This is manually compressing the victim's chest 50 to 60 times a minute.) Mouth-to-mouth breathing should be given at the same time if possible, so the complete first-aid treatment requires two people.

"If only one is present, these two procedures should be administered alternately. Victims have been known to be revived with this emergency treatment even after the heart has stopped beating.

"Victims of suffocating and drowning should be treated in the same manner. The two life-saving essentials, oxygen and circulation, can be provided without equipment in the above manner in an emergency situation.

"Unfortunately, our society has adopted a policy of 'non-involvement.' In our major cities, people ignore the cries of victims who might be saved from homicide, rape or even violent death. In the case you mention, it is likely that one or more competent people stood by when their intervention might have saved a life.

"It's difficult for the average citizen to believe that he can get into trouble by helping his fellow man—but he can! In some states, legal action has been taken against people who have administered first aid at the scene of an accident.

"In a number of states, the so-called 'good samaritan law' has been passed to prevent taking legal action against people who try to help others.

"In my own profession, it is common practice for doctors to drive away from emergency situations on highways where they could be of very real help. This is not 'inhumanity' on the part of the doctors; it stems from the bitter experiences of many whose emergency treatment has had serious legal repercussions. We live in a strange society!

Very truly yours,
DONALD B. EFFLER,
M.D."

Everyone has a problem. What yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Cher Weds Rock Star

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Singer Cher Bono was married to rock star Gregg Allman in a civil ceremony here, three days after her divorce from her former singing and television partner, Sonny Bono.

District Court Judge James Brennan said he married the couple at Caesar's Palace Monday.

It was the second marriage for Miss Bono, who is 29. Her 27-year-old husband, who is the lead singer in the Allman Brothers Band, has been married twice before.

$70,000 FOR ROLLS ROYCE Luxury Cars 'Hot' Items

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — Luxury car sales continue to race upward, despite price increases fueled by inflation and the overall auto industry sales slump sparked by recession.

Ford Motor Co. Vice President John Naughton sums it up this way: "There is a certain group of buyers who want a luxury car... and price is not a consideration." The price is high and going up all the time. The luxury category includes cars in the $9,000-and-up price range, topped off at a $70,000 sticker for the prestigious Rolls Royce Camargue. The Cadillac El Dorado, with a sticker price of $8,711 in 1973, now costs almost $10,000. The Lincoln Continental is up from $8,483 to $9,656. Many luxury car buyers load up with options that cost additional thousands.

The luxury market has been on the upswing since 1971, when domestic luxury cars accounted for 2.9 per cent of the total market. Since then, the share has increased each year and now has 4.4 per cent of the 1975 market.

A sampling of sales figures of the luxury entries for the first five months of 1975 showed all but Chrysler's

Imperial were doing well. The firm reportedly will discontinue the model this fall.

Six entries from America's Big Three auto companies are doing battle with a fleet of luxury imports, mainly Mercedes-Benz and Jaguar.

January through May sales figures show Jaguar up 137 per cent over a year ago; Mercedes-Benz up 19 per cent; Lincoln-Continental up 10 per cent; Cadillac up 7.3 per cent, and Imperial down 5.5 per cent.

Combined U.S. luxury cars sales are up 5 per cent, while overall U.S. car sales are down 18 per cent.

Cadillac is by far the biggest seller among luxury cars, with U.S. sales during January-May of 93,308 cars. Ford's Lincoln Division sold 33,594 cars; Mercedes-Benz delivered 17,042 and Jaguar sold 2,761.

Interest in luxury cars increased recently when Cadillac brought out its long-awaited smaller model, Seville — two feet shorter and half a ton lighter than the regular Cadillac.

The Seville joins the regular Cadillac and front-wheel drive Eldorado in the domestic luxury field along with Ford Motor Co.'s Lincoln Continental and Mark IV and Chrysler's Imperial.

Demand for luxury cars is found from wealthy suburbs to the back hills of Kentucky, where the rejuvenation of coal mines has led to a new affluence and a surprisingly demand for expensive cars.

Area Residents In Workshop

Five students and one advisor from Forsan and two students and one advisor from Lpnorah were among approximately 175 yearbook staff members and advisors participating in the sixth annual Angelo State University Yearbook Workshop held on the San Angelo campus June 23-27.

Sponsored by the ASU Journalism Department and Newsfoto Yearbook Co., the five day program included sessions on all aspects of yearbook production in addition to numerous social and recreational activities.

Those attending were Dianna Davis, Ricky Davis, Sheryl Fraley, Kevin Hocker, Teresa Vonne West and Linda Harp, advisor, all from Forsan High School in Forsan, Belinda Martin, Joanna Sawyer, and Judy Wootan, advisor, from Grady High School in Lenorah.
