

BIG EATER — Cheree Taylor, 7, of Titusville, Fla., won the egg eating contest at a Jaycee picnic July Fourth by eating 11 eggs. The 50-pounder then took second in the pie-eating contest and for good measure ate six cotton candies, six ice creams, fried chicken, potato salad, baked beans and kidney bean salad.

WHO WILL PAY TRAVEL BILLS? Ford's Managers Hope To Spend $10 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The manager of President Ford's 1976 election campaign said today an effort will be made to draw a line between the President's political and governmental functions but conceded, "being the best President is the best politics."

However, he said he stands behind Ford's position, which is that the President would recommend campaign to the GOP convention, but that Ford expects the delegates to decide who they want for their vice presidential candidate.

Although he pledged to be open about most details of the Ford campaign, Callaway said that wouldn't necessarily include full details about the $10 million the campaign intends to spend between now and the 1976 Republican convention. "I'm not going to let Ronald Reagan know what our plans are," Callaway said, referring to the former California governor who is considering a challenge to Ford for the GOP nomination.

SUNBURNED BUT ALIVE — Raymond Richard Pence of Bossier City, La., was sunburned but otherwise in good shape after spending 40 hours adrift in the Gulf of Mexico after his fishing boat with four on board went down Sunday. Two crewmen of the Port Arthur, Tex., vessel were rescued and two are still missing. Pence, who can't swim, was kept afloat by a life jacket.

$45 Million Bell Boost Snagged

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Supreme Court today upheld a state district court judge's temporary injunction that suspended a $45 million increase in Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.'s intrastate long distance rates.

The court also agreed with Hill that the Texas Constitution gives the attorney general the authority to file suit to block what may be unreasonably high charges for intrastate telephone service.

The court noted that Bell is a monopoly for all practical purposes and as such has a legal duty to sell its service at reasonable rates.

The decision was a victory for Atty. Gen. John Hill who contended that Texas' courts have the power to block utility rate increases that are found to be unreasonably high.

Kissinger Distressed By 'Trash Collector'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger is distressed that a reporter is rooting through his garbage in search of a story.

Jay Gourley, 27, a reporter for the National Enquirer, a weekly published in Lantana, Fla., collected five bags of trash from in front of Kissinger's Georgetown home early Tuesday and hauled it away to sift through the debris.

A Secret Service agent guarding the house shouted, "Hey, what are you doing?" Gourley said he kept talking to the agent while he stashed the bags in the trunk of his car.

He was quickly surrounded by Secret Service agents and metropolitan police who deliberated for 2½ hours whether he could keep the trash.

Cop Quits In Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — Asst. Dallas Police Chief Don Steele abruptly resigned Tuesday for reasons "I'd rather let the chief talk about."

Police Chief Don Byrd had no immediate comment. Steele, a 21-year police veteran, met with Byrd Tuesday afternoon, then returned to Byrd's office minutes later.

He said the payments were made, Ashland was active in several African countries. This gave rise to speculation that the CIA funds may have been used to reimburse Ashland for salaries the company paid to CIA agents posing as Ashland employees abroad.

CHECKING KISSINGER TRASH — Jay Gourley holds a piece of paper from one of five bags of garbage he picked up from the front of Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's house in Washington early Tuesday. Gourley is pictured going through the trash in his Washington apartment Tuesday night.

The World At-A-Glance

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Labor government scored its first victory in its battle against Europe's highest rate of inflation when the coal miners agreed to shelve a demand for a 60 per cent wage increase.

NEW YORK (AP) — Rising prices for raw sugar may mean consumers will pay more for the sweetener they stir in their iced tea and sprinkle on their fruit this summer.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two congressional overseers of the CIA were told in 1973 about the agency's own findings of improper activities within the intelligence organization, according to newly released CIA documents.

MAYORS VOTE Defense Budget Gigs Eliminated

BOSTON (AP) — A conference of the nation's big-city mayors voted narrowly today to eliminate their long-standing criticism of the defense budget from their lobbying policy.

By a vote of 91 to 86, the U.S. Conference of Mayors struck from its resolution on national priorities criticism of President Ford's proposed $107.7 billion defense budget.

CIA Pays Oil Firm Nearly $99,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arabian King Khaled "to buy influence" with the royal family.

Asland Oil Inc. denies that the nearly $99,000 it got secretly from the Central Intelligence Agency was for domestic political donations.

He said an Ashland spokesman denied that it was an improper deal and that it considered the arrangement a legal business agreement.

Hit Loner With Arson, Eight Counts Of Murder

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — An unemployed loner who had been through Portland's alcohol detoxification program 22 times has been charged with arson and eight counts of murder in connection with a fire in an 80-cents-a-night hotel.

Pomona. Hotel manager Bud Harvey described him as an outcast with few friends.

How About Shared Time?

The Howard County Commissioners court has been the object of one sales pitch by a computer manufacturing representative, and now one representing another company has asked for equal time.

In the meantime, estimates have been received on cost of remodeling a space in the collector's office, ranging from about $3,000 up to $7,500, depending on what atmospheric standards the equipment may require. This, of course, is in addition to the estimated $40,000 for the main equipment.

You can't fault enterprising companies from pressing upon prospective customers the advantages of their equipment, and just why everyone ought to have a computer.

Now Howard County may need one by itself, and it may not. In the interim the county is making use of the college computer which has vastly more capabilities than its predecessor.

What we would like to know is whether this arrangement wouldn't be just as effective, outside of some minor inconvenience, as a new individual computer for the county. It's the work in individual offices in preparing the program information that is difficult and time-consuming. Given a computer with the capabilities, most of them can process what is fed in short order. This is why most computers sit idle most of the time. Shared time can therefore be profitable for all concerned.

Cost More To Be Poor

Along with everything else, it costs more to be poor these days.

According to new government figures, the poverty level for a family of four living in a city is an income of less than $5,050 a year. Previously, you could be poor in the city on less than $4,550 a year.

If you live in a rural area, your family of four can be poor on just $4,300 or less. But that's a boost from $3,870, the old rural poor criteria.

Actually, this isn't just number-juggling. Raising the poverty level increases the number of persons eligible for assistance. The hike takes note of increased costs for everything one must buy.

The poverty level increase of $500 for an urban family amounts to about 11 per cent. That's less than the annual rate of inflation. However you figure it, inflation is a cruel burden on the poor, and its burden is growing.

What's In Name?

Around The Rim

Joe Pickle

I see by the paper (this one, naturally) that the Horizons committee of the Bicentennial Commission is suggesting that the name of Cosden Lake be changed to identify it with local history, or make it sound more "Big Springy."

ONE SUGGESTION, cited as an example, is that it be called Comanche Lake, after the Indians who made the historic spring the pivot point on their southern trails. I have a better idea than that — name it Pickle's Pond. Even I have done more for the town than the Comanches.

Seriously, the suggestion is interesting, for there are numerous names identified with early development of the spot, like C. L. Alderman, who had the first waterworks, also Cebe Hilburn and J. J. Meeks, Joe Cascaden, Mrs. M. E. Barrett, or L. F. McKay, who supervised installation of the first pump station at the lake.

ANYHOW COSDEN Lake, not that there's anything wrong with that particular name, is a handle thrice removed. Actually, the lake was known popularly (if not originally) as Hughes' Lake. Just when the dam was constructed is not readily documented, but it must have been between 1900 and 1910, and the reason was simple. The spring was in the process of petering out and could no longer supply the demands of the T&P railroad. Even wells drilled south of the spring did not overcome the shortage.

So the railroad contracted to have a dam put up across Big Spring Creek at the narrowest point of the valley. Several old timers say that the contractor was a Mr. Hughes, hence the name given the lake.

HE DID it all the hard way, with mule and horse teams, slips and fresnoes. And he did it well, too, as witness that the earthen structure has been in place about 70 years without having washed out, and having seen water billow around the spillway by many times. The one deficiency of the dam is that no one in those days thought about drilling core holes. If they had, they would have discovered that the creek bed was a vein of gravel and then might have attempted to excavate and put in a clay core to shut off the underflow. As it is, the lake can catch full of water, and more of it seeps under the dam than evaporates. Over the years, sediment has slowed this action, but the underground loss still goes on, hence the "springs" downstream in wet seasons.

BUT BACK to the lake. When full, the original pump station at the spring was activated because water backed up into the basin. When the level had been pulled to this point, a second station, near where Dora Roberts Community Center (Cosden Club) is now located, was fired up and could keep delivering water to the T&P shops until there was almost none left in the basin.

The railroad maintained a section house at the spring up until the 1940's. At first, steam was used to power the pumps, but later there came the internal combustion engines, which dined a pom-pom-pom day and night. When a good percentage of the old timers passed on, the lake was called T&P Lake.

COSDEN acquired the lake and environs from the T&P, when, after the war years, it began to divest itself a real property, and turned it to the employees trust. In turn, the Cosden Country Club was erected on the shores, of what gradually became Cosden Lake. The club in turn was sold to the city. So outside of T&P, there's no special claim on the lake. Neither the lake nor Broken Dam (downstream just west of where Goliad crosses Big Spring Creek) were there when the Comanches prowled around these parts.

My Answer

Billy Graham

What do you think about confessing your sins to one another? There's much emphasis today, as you know, on sharing problems and needs.

B. L.

Perhaps you've read James 5:16, "Confess your faults one to another and pray one for another, that he may be healed." So the Scripture is on record favoring the honest admission of shortcomings where appropriate in addition to our prior confession to God.

When we have a fellow human being in whom we can confide, there is a catharsis effect — sometimes missing otherwise. Furthermore, the Biblical view of the priesthood of all believers (1 Peter 2:5) suggests that each Christian has a right to share with another in the forgiveness and love of God.

In Weatherhead's book, Prescription for Anxiety, he discusses this matter, and has four good suggestions for "confessors." First, he says: Don't interrupt unless you don't understand. Secondly, don't be shocked. Thirdly, don't rebuke. To do so may only widen the gulf between you and the one seeking help. Lastly, don't betray a confidence.

I have found a new openness today among Christians which could only strengthen the church of Christ. However, it might be wiser to confide in one friend, rather than in a group, lest one of them betrays your confidence in "confessing your sins."

Shriver Is Busy

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — Although still denying he has decided to run for the Democratic presidential nomination, Sargent Shriver has actually signed up his first major campaign operative: Manhattan lawyer and former Deputy Secretary of Defense Cyrus Vance.

SHRIVER'S GREATEST worry is that his candidacy, now tentatively set for announcement by Labor Day, won't be taken seriously by party leaders. To minimize that wholly realistic fear, he will not announce until he has stockpiled a complete campaign organization from fund-raising to media.

Vance, a one-time protege of former President Lyndon Johnson, has privately agreed to become a top-level legal and financial campaign aide whose first assignment will be to make the Kennedys' brother-in-law and 1972 Democratic vice presidential nominee legally eligible for matching federal campaign funds at the earliest possible date.

THE ELIGIBILITY formula in the new campaign-finance law is $5,000 in each of 20 states, in individual contributions of no more than $250 each. Four Democratic contenders have now passed that test.

Shriver last week also asked Minneapolis economist Walter Heller, President Kennedy's top economic adviser, to take command of his economic planning for the coming presidential campaign, with special attention on new ways to raise investment capital for American business. Heller, a full-time economics professor at the University of Minnesota, may say "no" on grounds he does not have that much time to give to politics.

IN CASTING about for an economic adviser, Shriver has stressed this paramount objective:

to avoid getting caught in the mish-mash of confusing, populist economic programs which cost Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota much of his credibility as Democratic presidential nominee in 1972.

In addition to Vance and Heller, Shriver has had long political and economic talks the past six weeks with many other possible recruits, including Richard Nixon's 1972 economic spokesman and adviser Pierre Rinfret, an unconventional and highly-regarded private economic consultant in New York.

THE REALITY of a Shriver presidential campaign took root after he and his wife, Eunice Kennedy Shriver, got a green light from the head of the Kennedy family, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy. The green light meant that Kennedy, despite contrary views widely held throughout the party, has no intention of breaking his "no-draft" pledge, no matter what happens at the Democratic national convention next summer.

INTIMATES OF both Kennedy and Shriver say the Senator will be strictly neutral about Shriver's campaign.

Shriver's real concern is to avoid being dismissed by party leaders as a lightweight whose first venture into elective politics came when McGovern picked him to fill the vice presidential vacancy in 1972 after half a dozen earlier choices turned McGovern down.

A footnote: some party leaders tell us that Shriver's chief asset in a burgeoning Democratic field without any stars is the fact that he has never held public office and is not perceived by voters as a "politician" — an opprobrious word in post-Watergate America.

No Villain? Yep, You!

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP) — When things go wrong in our economic life we tend to look for scapegoats, and so we blame the Arabs, big business, big labor, the government, speculators, politicians, and on through an endless list.

Quite easily we satisfy ourselves about their culpability and don't bother to search for deeper explanations, of which there are often quite a few. Remember the ubiquitous middleman and high food prices in 1974.

The middleman, presumably everyone who stood between the farmer and the consumer, was stealing money right out of our pockets, or at least we liked to say that. His greed became legend. He was ruining the country.

Well, now the middleman has been cleared, if it makes any difference at this late date. He was not to blame, said the Council on Wage and Price Stability, for the 12.2 per cent increase in food prices last year.

Instead, it said, higher world oil prices, the end of government price controls and rising wages, among other factors, contributed to the increase. There were no villains, said the council.

No villains? There has to be, you say. Well, perhaps there was one: You. Food bills are rising for many reasons, the council said, but one of them is the fact that Americans are eating at restaurants more often.

Even when Americans eat at home, the study showed, they tend to choose convenience foods, or foods that already have been partially prepared. Whereas we use our own labor when we prepare raw foods, we pay for somebody else's when the food comes processed.

The truth is, the council continued, pricing patterns between farmers and food marketers, or middlemen, haven't changed very much over the past half century. Forty per cent of the food bill goes to farmers, 60 per cent to processors, wholesalers and retailers.

With the villain theory removed, Americans are forced to look inward for their explanations. One of those explanations lies in rising expectations, which we have come to think of as our heritage.

Especially during the 1960s, Americans believed strongly that their lives would become better by the day. Higher wages, more luxuries and conveniences and comforts, and better services were expected as a right.

The dream came true for many Americans and, rather than being satisfied, they seemed to aspire for even more. Human desires, said George Katona, a pioneer consumer scholar, are never satisfied.

But progress, even of this sort, doesn't take place in a straight line. Reality intruded in the form of bills to pay and rising taxes and recession and inflation. The adjustment was difficult.

Surveys now show that Americans aren't that cocky anymore about the future.

Possible To Remove Cyst

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have a sebaceous cyst which protrudes right smack in the center of my forehead. It is about a half-inch in diameter and very noticeable.

I have had it for several years and always thought it would disappear, dissolve by itself, but I guess I was mistaken. I have now become very conscious of this ugly blemish. Can you advise a remedy or treatment to eradicate it?

K.D.

Large sebaceous cysts, if that is what you have, may occur on any part of the body except on the soles of palms. They can range in size from tiny specks (whiteheads are sebaceous cysts) to those the size you describe, or even larger. They are called sebaceous cysts because they are caused by excessive secretion of the tiny sebaceous glands in the skin.

Surgical removal would seem to be the only answer for you, and this is generally a minor procedure that can be done in the physician's office. Since yours is located in such a prominent spot, and you are sensitive about it, I suggest you visit a dermatologist who could advise you on your specific case. Incidentally, they are benign.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am a male, 47 years old. All of my life I have been healthy.

Recently, however, I was awakened with a bad heartburn and my heart started beating rapidly and pounding. This lasted for 15 or 20 minutes.

I have had a number of these incidents lately. My doctor gave me some pills for it, which have helped.

What is the cause of these spells? What is the cure? Is this a danger sign of heart trouble? Can a fast heart be fatal? Should a person have tests run in a hospital?

A.P.

I'll take each question in the order asked.

Such spells can be caused by anxiety, fatigue, or excessive use of such things as tobacco, coffee, tea, etc.

Treatment usually involves use of sedatives at bedtime or medication to combat the heartburn distress.

Usually, there is no underlying heart disease. Nonetheless, this rhythm disturbance can occur with heart trouble, and an electrocardiogram and blood pressure tests are in order as well as one for thyroid function.

Such conditions are rarely fatal. If there is an underlying heart disease, then that is a different matter, and I assume from your letter that you have been checked and found normal in that respect.

rhythm irregularities can be done in the doctor's office. Special chemical tests for thyroid function are done more efficiently in a laboratory for such purposes, or in a hospital.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Do you have any information on people getting sick from meat cooked over charcoal? I've heard something about people not letting the charcoal burn down before putting the meat on to cook.

Mrs. C.L.M.

There is no evidence that normal charcoal broiling of meat is in itself harmful.

Guadalajara Flight Plan

HOUSTON (AP) — Texas International Airlines says it has filed a request with the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board to serve Guadalajara, Mexico, from this Texas city.

The airline said Tuesday it noted in its application that only a Mexican airline flies to Guadalajara from Houston leaving passengers without an alternative and contributing negatively to the U.S. balance of payments.

The airline also announced Tuesday that it has reached a tentative contract with the International Association of Machinists which covers 334 of the airline's employees.

We Hold These Truths... A Chronicle of America

July 6, 1775:

Congress adopts the "Declaration of the Causes and Necessities of Taking Up Arms." Initially written by Thomas Jefferson (who took his seat in Congress June 20), the document is extensively rewritten by John Dickinson — an advocate of reconciliation. The document is, in effect, a declaration of war against Britain. It says: "We have counted the cost of this contest and find nothing so dreadful as voluntary slavery. Honor, justice, and humanity forbid us tamely to surrender that freedom which we received from our gallant ancestors, and which our innocent posterity have a right to receive from us. We cannot endure the infamy and guilt of resigning succeeding generations to that wretchedness which inevitably awaits them, if we basely entail hereditary bondage upon them. Our cause is just. Our union is perfect. Our internal resources are great. ... With one mind [we are] resolved to die free men rather than to live [as] slaves."

A Devotion For Today

"If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature." (2 Corinthians 5:17)

PRAYER: Help us, O Lord, so to commit ourselves to Thee that we may rejoice in a life which is life eternal. We pray the prayer Thou has taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen."

Dream Trip Turns Into Nightmare

REVERE, Mass. (AP) — Californians Howard and Lillian Niblett got back their stolen truck Tuesday, stripped of everything but two pairs of trousers.

Though they had lost almost everything, they happily gave up plans to cut short their 14-month-old dream trip to see America.

They had parked the truck and a camper trailer to get groceries in the nearby Boston suburb of Saugus. Twenty minutes later they came back to find them gone.

Today, police found their pickup truck only behind a local restaurant.

Everything inside was gone — a boat, a small motorcycle, clothes, cameras, fishing gear, photographs — except the trousers.

"We might stick around and see your beautiful country," said Niblett. "We're going to keep going," said his wife.

Police found the truck after a Boston radio station, WBZ, relayed to them reports of its sighting from callers who heard of the Niblett's plight on morning broadcasts.

Earlier, defeated and discouraged, the Nibletts had planned to fly to California tonight, but now they won't.

The Seal Beach, Calif., couple had planned the bicentennial trip for years. They sold their home in 1969 and moved into a trailer to get used to smaller living space.

The truck payments were timed to coincide with Niblett's retirement last year from Pacific Telephone Co.

They covered 22,000 miles through 22 states in the West and South.

Dial-A-Bus Ridership

DALLAS (AP) — The new Dallas Transit System mini-buses carried a mini-passenger load during their first days of dial-a-bus service, officials said.

"You can't expect ridership instantly. It takes three months before the ridership gets stable, and when such a program gets started, the ridership is usually very small," said Bill Barker, senior transportation planner at the North Central Texas Council of Governments.

The five mini-buses, serving about five square miles in North Dallas, carried slightly more than 12 passengers Monday, the first day. Barker said response to the one-year experimental service will pick up as the cost of owning and driving private cars increases.

A transit system official said getting the word to potential passengers would help, but no money is available for mass-media advertising.

The dial-a-bus service was started because transportation costs jumped more than the national increase last year, Barker said. The increase here was 9.1 per cent, while nationally it was 8.5 per cent, U.S. Department of Labor figures say.

A $146,000 Federal Highway Administration grant funds the dial-a-bus fleet.

The 'Cat' Is Back

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The "Cat" is back and "Speedy" returned with alarming alacrity much to the chagrin, and expense, of the Philadelphia School District.

Those two are among the names that have been scrawled in spray paint on the walls of George Washington Carver Elementary School in North Philadelphia.

Last April the school district spent $4,700 to have the graffiti removed from the school. It took less than a week for it to reappear.

"There is as much graffiti there now as before, if not more," said school principal Albert Schaff. "It was a heartbreaking experience."

Miss Teresa Adams Weds Billy James

The First Baptist Church, Ackerly, was the setting Tuesday evening for the wedding of Miss Teresa Jill Adams and Billy David James who will make their home in San Diego, Calif., after a trip to the Gulf Coast.

The bride, daughter of Harvey L. Adams of Knott and Mrs. Faye Justus of Lubbock, graduated from Sands High School and attended Angelo State University. The bridegroom graduated from Reagan County High School and attended ASU before joining the U.S. Navy.

The nuptial rites were performed by the Rev. Jim Mosley of Hico as the wedding party stood before an altar accented with a sunburst arrangement of white gladioli and daisies flanked by palms and candelabra. Music was by Mrs. Janette Brown, Knott, pianist, and two vocalists, Tim Turner and Miss Janet McReavy, both of Big Lake.

The bride chose a gown of white organza; the fitted bodice featuring rows of Nottingham lace which extended to the empire waistline, and also edged the high neckline and adorned the bishop sleeves. The skirt, bordered with lace, had a detachable chapel-length train. Her long, flowing veil was attached to a lace bandeau, and she carried a bouquet of white daisies, roses and gypsophila.

ATTENDANTS

The bridal attendants were Miss Sharon Elaine Martin, Ackerly, maid of honor; and Miss Doris Kay Newcomer, Ackerly, and Miss Sheri Renee James, Big Lake, bridesmaids. They were identically attired in floor-length gowns of yellow dotted Swiss styled with empire waistline marked with a sash. The bodice was styled with sweetheart neckline and brief, puffed sleeves. Their costumes were completed with yellow garden hats, and they carried stemmed daisies tied with white ribbon.

Bobby Gay of Big Lake served as best man, and groomsmen were Ricky Noble and Ricky James, both of Big Lake. Other Big Lake men, Johnny Gay, Carl Cook and Warren Wilburn, were the ushers.

MRS. BILLY DAVID JAMES

The wedding reception was held in the fellowship hall where refreshments were served by Miss Kayla Gaskins, Miss Sheri Foster and Miss Cyndy Foster. Crystal and silver appointments were used on a table which was covered by a cloth of white lace with yellow ribbon insertion. The centerpiece was of white daisies.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Christensen, Ogden, Utah; Miss Melissa Scott, Albuquerque, N.M.; Mrs. Bertha Mitchell, Miss Sybil Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. John Middleton, all of Lamesa; Mr. and Mrs. George W. James, Plainview; Mrs. Luella Rice, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Delis, Midland; and Mrs. Ron Cox, Pampa, Fla.

The rehearsal dinner, held at the church, was hosted by the bridegroom's parents.

Jaycee-Ettes Will Host Area Meet

An ambitious schedule of upcoming events was compiled by the Jaycee-Ettes during a meeting Tuesday evening in the Officers' Club at Webb Air Force Base with Mrs. Charlotte Culwell, president, presiding.

First on the agenda was the Jaycee-Ette area council meeting which the local women will host here July 12 in Texas Electric Reddy Room from 12 noon to 5 p.m. Approximately 35 out-of-town Jaycee-Ettes are expected to attend from cities such as Midland, Odessa, Snyder, Abilene and Lamesa. The "rap session" for exchange of ideas will be chaired by Mrs. Michelle Hunter with the focus to be on community services which could be performed or supported by the organization.

A board of directors meeting will be held in the Jaycee office at 7:30 p.m., July 14, to be followed July 25-27 with the summer board meeting in Austin. The area convention is slated to be held here Sept. 19-21.

The major event for fall will be the Collier's Art Show from Dallas which the Jaycee-Ettes will sponsor here Oct. 7 at Big Spring Country Club. The showing of original art works in various mediums will be open to the public, and sale prices will begin at $15. Chairperson for this fundraising event is Mrs. Margie McKinney.

Guest speaker Tuesday evening was Perry Culwell, Jaycee president, who expressed appreciation to the group for its assistance in the past and suggested ways in which the women can be of help with future activities.

Guests introduced were Mrs. Pat Tallent, Mrs. Helen Hembree, Mrs. Mardele Wise, Mrs. Debbie Roundtree and Mrs. Kathy Smith.

The next regular meeting will be Aug. 4 at the Officers' Club, with the dinner at 7 p.m., followed by business at 8 p.m.

Game Night Set

The monthly covered dish supper and domino games will be held at the Center Point Community Center at 7:30 p.m., Friday. All residents of the community are invited to attend.

Dear Abby

Man Stumped On What To Call Father's Child

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are both 63. His father is 84, and a more handsome, robust, vigorous man you couldn't hope to meet.

Eight years ago, when my father-in-law was 76, his wife died. A year later he married a 40-year-old maiden lady. To everyone's surprise, a year later they became proud parents of a baby boy! Obviously, this child is my husband's half-brother. The problem is that it sounds so utterly ridiculous for a 63-year-old man to introduce a 6-year-old child as his brother. People either say, "You're kidding," or they look at him as though he's crazy. (Everyone assumes the boy is his grandchild.)

Is there some way to get around this since the child calls my husband by his first name?

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: Why try to get around it? If an 84-year-old man doesn't mind being called "Daddy" by a 6-year-old, your 63-year-old husband shouldn't worry about introducing the boy as his brother.

DEAR ABBY: I graduated from high school last June and sent out 48 announcements. I received 31 gifts and two cards.

Later, someone said that sending out a graduation announcement is just like asking for a present. I really felt proud to be graduating and didn't think that sending an announcement would be like asking for a present.

What do you think?

GIRL GRADUATE

DEAR GIRL GRADUATE: Sending announcements to relatives and very close friends is all right. But a good rule to follow is: When in doubt—don't.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212 for Abby's

Slide Program Depicts History

Mrs. Floyd Mays of the Howard County Historical Survey Committee installed new officers and gave a presentation on the history of Howard County at the Monday evening meeting of Organic Soil Builders in the home of John H. Payne, 2902 Clanton.

Mrs. Mays showed slides including a camp site of Indians by a spring, an artist's concept of Captain Marcy arriving at the area which is now Big Spring, the Long S Ranch and the Potton home.

Installed for the new club year were Payne, president; Dr. Paul Koshi, vice president; Mrs. J.D. Leonard, secretary; Mrs. R.L. Nail, treasurer; and Mrs. A.L. Huff, reporter.

The next meeting will be a picnic Aug. 4 at the home of C.R. Smith in Cuthbert, near Colorado City, with a demonstration of the drip irrigation system.

Club Will Renovate Furniture

The Coahoma Past Matron's Club, Order of Eastern Star, completed plans to renovate chairs at the Masonic Hall when the regular breakfast meeting was held at 9 a.m., Saturday in the Coahoma Methodist Church. Hostesses were Mrs. David Grant and Mrs. Gerald Culpepper.

Mrs. A. K. Turner Sr., vice president, presided for the business session, and the program was by Mrs. C. J. Engle who read a patriotic paper, "As Sure as the Sun Rises." Cards were signed for mailing to members who are ill.

Table decorations in red, white and blue carried out the program theme, with small antique items serving as accents.

The next meeting will be at 9 a.m., Aug. 2 with Mrs. Ernest Garrett and Mrs. E.T. McDaniel as hostesses.

Area Woman On Dean's List

Mrs. Nancy Whitten, 102 Bell Drive, Odessa, was recently named to the Dean's List, summa cum laude, at Odessa College where she will graduate from RN training in May, 1976. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Wise, 1701 Alabama, and wife of David Whitten, a psychology major at the University of Texas of the Permian Basin. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Whitten, 2809 Goliad.

Marriage Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Buchanan of Luther announce the marriage, July 5, of their daughter, Judy Elaine, to Randall D. Smith of Lubbock, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Smith Jr. of Lubbock. Grandparents of the bridegroom are Mrs. W.D. Anderson, Luther, and the late Mr. Anderson, and Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Smith Sr. of Lubbock, formerly of Luther.

Based on latest FPC figures, Texas Electric's residential rates are 27% below the national average.

The average family uses about 750 kilowatt hours of electricity per month. Based on the latest Federal Power Commission figures, Texas Electric's rates for this much electricity are about 27% below the national average.

But all over the country, the costs of producing electricity are rising. New supplies of Texas Electric's major generating fuel—natural gas—are harder to get and more costly. So we're turning to lignite coal and nuclear fuels. While these fuels cost less than new supplies of natural gas, plants that use them are considerably more expensive to build than gas-fired plants.

This means electricity will have to cost you more.

But we're trying to keep your rates reasonable by using fuels that will keep costs lowest in the long run.

Yanks Halt Rangers

It had all the earmarks of a great pitching duel... Jim Palmer against Nolan Ryan, both named to the American League All-Star team this week.

It was great duel, all right, but the pitchers didn't dominate it. Palmer wasn't involved in the decision although he came within one out of becoming the first 14-game winner in the majors. And Ryan suffered his fifth consecutive defeat as the Baltimore Orioles downed the California Angels 8-5 in 10 innings Tuesday night.

Elsewhere, the Boston Red Sox edged the Minnesota Twins 6-5, the New York Yankees blanked the Texas Rangers 4-0, the Kansas City Royals trounced the Milwaukee Brewers 9-1, the Oakland A's walloped the Cleveland Indians 15-5 and the Detroit Tigers downed the Chicago White Sox 3-0.

Palmer, although he allowed only six hits, was charged with all five California runs in 9 2/3 innings and blew a 5-3 lead with two out in the ninth. Ryan, who hasn't won since June 6, yielded 10 hits, six walks and eight runs — three of them unearned — in nine innings.

The Orioles won the game on Mark Belanger's two-run single in the 10th following a walk and a two-base throwing error by first baseman John Doherty.

RED SOX 6, TWINS 5
Fred Lynn's tie-breaking pinch single with the bases loaded in the ninth inning.

A'S 15, INDIANS 5
Gene Tenace drove in four runs with a homer and single, Billy Williams hit a two-run homer and Claudell Washington tripled twice, drove in two runs and earned his fourth consecutive triumph with help from Jim

TODD IN THE SEVENTH.
TIGERS 3, WHITE SOX 0
Joe Coleman and John Hiller teamed up on a five-hitter and Ron LeFlore and Leon Roberts homered as the Tigers extended their winning streak to seven games.

YANKEES 4, RANGERS 0
Catfish Hunter pitched a seven-hitter for his 12th victory and fifth shutout and Ron Blomberg hit a two-run homer in the first inning. Blomberg's homer off Steve Hargan was his fourth of the year and his first since he injured a shoulder April 26 while hitting a home run against Milwaukee.

ROYALS 9, BREWERS 1
Harmon Killebrew's two-run double highlighted a five-run first inning against Bill Travers and John Mabery added a three-run homer off Pete Broberg in the fourth. Meanwhile, Dennis Leonard scattered nine hits and blanked the Brewers until George Scott hit his 16th home run in the seventh.

Club Effort Aids Cubs In 8-6 Win

Team efforts overcame individual power Tuesday night in Texas League baseball action.

The most graphic example came when Midland beat El Paso 8-6 as the Cubs had six men with at least one run batted in while the Diablos had two home runs and four RBIs from Randy Wilson and a solo homer from Butch Alberts. Joe Wallis had two RBI singles to lead Midland.

In other TLP games, San Antonio nipped West leader Lafayette 3-1. East leader Lafayette edged Arkansas 4-3 and Alexandria and Jackson split a doubleheader, with Alexandria winning the first 6-3 and Jackson the second game 6-5.

John Young had a three-run homer for Arkansas but Lafayette scored the winning run in the ninth inning on a bases loaded walk to Scotty Wolfe. The winning pitcher for the Drillers was Terry Cornet.

Shreveport got its only run on a homer by Jimmy Sexton in the third inning while San Antonio had three men with an RBI apiece. The Brewers scored twice in the fourth inning as Rich Guerra doubled in one run and scored on a sacrifice by Mike Hannah.

Thompson Decides On Denver

NEW YORK (AP) — All-American David Thompson has decided to sign with Denver of the American Basketball Association rather than Atlanta, dealing the Hawks and the National Basketball Association a second major setback in less than a month.

Atlanta, which held the NBA rights to Thompson, also lost Marvin "The Human Eraser" Webster to the Nuggets, who signed him for an estimated $1.2 million to $1.5 million.

The deal for Thompson is expected to cost Denver as much as $3 million spread over six years and would make Thompson the highest paid rookie in the history of pro sports.

In Denver, the Rocky Mountain News reported in its late editions that it had learned the former North Carolina State star signed a Denver contract Tuesday in New York.

The story by News columnist Woodrow Paige Jr. said the signing will be announced on Monday, after sale of the Nuggets franchise to a Colorado group is completed.

Confirmation of Thompson's decision came Tuesday from Atlanta Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons.

"Atlanta has been informed by Larry Fleisher, Thompson's agent, that Thompson has made a decision to play in the ABA with Denver," Fitzsimmons told The Associated Press.

Fleisher, reached in New York, said, "David called me at 11:30 this morning and told me he had decided to play for Denver."

Management of the Atlanta team, which reportedly has been struggling financially, was distraught at the loss of Thompson, a three-time All-American at North Carolina State whose super leaping ability tabbed him for almost immediate pro success.

"We're extremely disappointed, but life goes on," said Hawks President and General Manager Bud Sereteau. "We tried everything possible. We just didn't get him." Sereteau said the Atlanta offer was substantially the same as Denver's.

He said the Hawks now would concentrate their efforts on signing second-round choice Bill Willoughby, a 6-8, 210-pounder from Dwight Morrow High School in Englewood, N.J.

Meanwhile, Nuggets' Coach Larry Brown was understandably delighted.

"I do think we signed the best two players coming out of college," Brown said. "The NBA felt that way and we felt that way all along. For the league to get a kid of his ability... it's really a good thing."

PRICE IS NICE, BUT CATCH THE CARRYING CHARGES—When Mascoutah, Ill., bought the city's L&N railroad depot, above, it only cost one dollar, but transporting the building to a new site as a Bicentennial project in Scheve Park cost the city $9,200.

Court Rules In Favor Of Adult Film Owners

HOUSTON (AP) — Three federal judges have ruled that an adult movie theater proprietor has the protection of the first amendment no matter how lewd neighbors and police think the business might be.

"Until the items which he shows are each proved obscene, he can show anything he wants to show," the judges ruled. "The police cannot shut down or attempt to shut down his business."

A 61-page opinion released Tuesday included rulings on three cases in which theater operators in Dallas, San Antonio, and San Angelo challenged the manner in which local officials sought to stop the showing of sexually explicit motion pictures.

In each case, the court ruled in favor of the theater operators. The judges also sent 17 other cases back to local courts across the state for possible dismissal.

The 20 cases had been consolidated for the special court and U. S. Dist. Court Judge John V. Singleton Jr. selected the three as representative of the entire group. Sitting with Singleton were Circuit Judge Joe Ingraham and U.S. Dist. Court Judge William Taylor of Dallas. In effect, the judges ruled that the use of injunctions, search warrants, and harassment can foul up local efforts to suppress obscenity.

They declared unconstitutional a state statute on use of the injunction procedure against obscenity as a public nuisance.

They said part of a search warrant statute is unconstitutional in that the warrants can be used to shut down first amendment activities offensive to authorities before there has been a judicial determination of obscenity.

In the third case, the judges said San Antonio officials used bad faith harassment against the film "Deep Throat" and applied a state statute unconstitutionally by claiming a motion picture projector is a "criminal instrument."

The opinion included no ruling on the validity of the Texas Penal Code definition of obscenity.

The Dallas case involved a "peep show" operation at the Ellwest Stereo Theatre where police, with search warrants, twice seized film, projectors, coin boxes, stools, and parts of viewing booth walls last year. Ellwest Stereo contended such seizures were illegal without a judicial determination on the obscenity of the film.

"This was a raid accompanied by crowbars and screwdrivers," the ruling said, adding that a proprietor can show anything he desires until each item is proved to be obscene.

The judges also said the seized projectors and other equipment would not be relevant evidence for a trial involving alleged commercial exhibition of obscene materials.

"The evidentiary value of the items seized, except the motion pictures themselves, is de minimis at best, but the threat to the First Amendment rights of the theater owner is very great," the opinion said.

Article 18.02 (2) of the Texas Penal Code authorizes a search warrant for seizure of property specially designed, made, or adapted for "or commonly used in" the commission of an offense.

The judges said the language "or commonly used in" is unconstitutionally vague and overbroad and unconstitutional as applied to Ellwest Stereo or any other individual or entity engaged in first amendment activities.

In the San Angelo case, the landlord for King Arts Theater Inc. notified the tenant in 1973 that, at the suggestion of George E. McCrea, the county attorney, the lease on the theater building was being terminated.

THEFTS

Norma Clark, 1902 Johnson reported a Siberian Husky either lost or stolen; value: $150.

Richard Veitch, Thrifty Lodge reported burglary of his auto; missing .22 calibre pistol and tape recorder. Total value $145.

F. K. Weeks, Lot 56 Chapparral Trailer Park, reported theft from auto of a black carrying case and tapes; value, $198.

CB antenna stolen from Billy Fenley, 2506 Cindy; value $25.

Antidote For Hot Weather

Somebody in Big Spring wearied of driving around on a hot day in a hot car.

Hughes Motors, 1509 S. Gregg, reported that a thief took an air conditioner from under the hood of a car and the controls from the dashboard of a vehicle sometime during the night Tuesday. Value of the theft was estimated at $300.

Says Wiretap Gadgets Used Legally, If At All

HOUSTON (AP) — Police spokesmen in Dallas and Fort Worth say any police wiretapping equipment in their possession has been used legally, if at all.

The Houston Post reported in a copyrighted story in today's editions that police departments in Dallas, Fort Worth and Wichita Falls have bought wiretapping and bugging equipment over the past four years.

The Post said possession of such equipment, even by a law enforcement agency, could be a violation of federal law, according to the Justice Department.

A spokesman for the Fort Worth Police department said any such equipment had been used legally, if at all. A Dallas Police Department spokesman confirmed such purchases but said he did not know if it had been used.

The Wichita Falls police chief was not available for comment.

"We did buy some equipment in anticipation of the (proposed) electronic surveillance law being passed," said Bob Shaw, public information officer of the Dallas Police Department.

Shaw said the department bought one or two pieces of equipment for about $90 each plus several other devices which emit a signal.

Fort Worth Deputy Police Chief Herbert F. Hopkins said some equipment was purchased, but added "We haven't used it unless one party agreed to its use, say, if one of our own officers was involved. And you'd be a complete damn idiot to use it otherwise."

The Post quoted a Justice Department memo which said "it cannot be in the normal course of activities to possess equipment primarily useful for the nonconsensual interception of communications..."

A device known as a telephone drop-in transmitter—a low frequency transmitter placed in a telephone handset—is generally considered to be primarily useful for eavesdropping, the Post said.

Five such devices have been purchased by Texas law enforcement agencies within the past three years, according to a check of manufacturers by the National Wiretap Commission.

A commission spokesman refused to disclose which agencies in Texas have purchased the devices. He said the information developed by the commission will be turned over to the Justice Department.

DEATHS

Lollie Cook

Services will be at 3:30 p.m. Thursday in the Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel for Mrs. Roy (Lollie) Cook, 82, who died Monday.

The Rev. Jim Wilkerson, Crestview Baptist Church, will officiate and burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park. Pallbearers will be Vancil Scott, Kenneth Scott, Jerry Musgrove, Jim Harper, Delmar Hartin and Bud Hill.

Oscar Dunlap

Services for Oscar Dunlap, 82, are set for 10 a.m. Thursday at the Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel with Bob Kiser, Church of Christ minister and the Rev. Wayne Oglesby, Trent, officiating.

Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park. Dunlap served in the Army in World War I and married Lillian Lucile Withrow in 1920 in Sulphur Springs. He came in 1927 to Howard County where he farmed until 1943. He worked for Phillips Tire Co. until 1957 and drove a school bus for two years until retirement.

He was a member of the Birdwell Lane Church of Christ and the American Legion. Grandsons will serve as pallbearers.

Comptroller Estimates $27 Million Surplus

AUSTIN (AP) — Comptroller Bob Bullock estimates that Texas will have a $27 million surplus in 1977, thanks to the recent governor's vetoes of money bills passed by the legislature and to better tax collecting. If the action of the free-spending 64th legislature had been allowed to stand, there would be only $27,463 left at the end of the states next business period, which begins this Sept. 1 and ends Aug. 31, 1977.

happens to equal the total of spending items vetoed by the governor and is 1,000 times more than the small change left on the table when the legislature got through passing its spending plans." Bullock said in a statement. "The legislature spent every dollar we said would be available. When they got through there was $27,463 left—or about half the cost of operating the legislature for one day."

they would have run out of money," he said. Bullock said: "In short, the legislature spent every available dollar forecast in our previous revenue estimates, including the $1.06 billion cash surplus built up over the past two years. "The balanced budget, 'in keeping with Texas' pay-as-you-go system, and the small cash balance were made possible primarily by a combination of gubernatorial vetoes, adequate staffing for the comptroller's tax collecting program and cuts in welfare budget requests." Bullock's estimated revenue for the next two years was $13.4 billion, which includes $5.9 billion from federal and special state sources. Actually he said there will be only $3. billion available for general operation of state government, an increase of $221.4 million over the May estimate.

Blood Brothers Goof Up

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) - Two men pressed their wrists, one to another, in a bloody bond of brotherhood similar to the age old ritual exercised by Indians.

Their knowledge of Indian lore, however, apparently was more keen than their expertise at surgery. Both 31-year-old men were hospitalized today, one in critical condition, the other in fair condition.

Police said the pair sat in a Sanson Park area cafe Tuesday night and decided to seal their loyalty for each other in a blood pact.

Using a broken beer bottle, they made the slashes across each other's wrist.

Unfortunately, said police, each severed an artery and there was more blood on the cafe floor than flowed into each other's veins.

Stanton Ready For Its Reunion

STANTON - Martin County's Old Settlers Reunion Saturday, kicks off with the downtown parade at 10:30 a.m.

Registration of old settlers will be held in downtown Stanton just north of the Post Office with the traditional pink lemonade barrel out front.

A "mystery rider" will again be featured in the parade and will be revealed at the barbecue at 6:30 p.m. at City Park.

The public is invited to attend all events, and former Martin County residents are urged to return for the event.

Parade Marshal Ohmer Kelly and Billie Houston urged visitors to come for the parade and stay all day.

An added attraction this year will be an Ice Cream

CHARGED - James Rand Agnew, above, 28-year-old son of former Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, has been charged with trespassing after a man complained he and his wife caught Agnew looking in their bedroom window, Baltimore police say.

4-H Rodeo Is July 24

Rodeo time returns to Howard County in a couple of weeks.

July 24-25 has been fixed as the time for the annual Howard County Junior Rodeo sponsored by the 4-H clubs of the county. The site, as usual, is Rodeo Bowl at the western edge of Big Spring.

The gala show will be preceded by the traditional 4 p.m. parade which will move north on Main from 10th.

Events for the three age groups of the rodeo, which will be held 8 p.m. daily are:

Bull riding, steer riding, bronc riding, calf roping, ribbon roping, breakaway roping, barrel racing, flag racing and pole bending. Special events will include a wild calf race for boys and girls 14 years and under, and goat sacking for boys and girls under 10 years of age.

Howard County 4-H Club July 1975 include: Rognie Wegner, Tommy Wegner, Robbie Wegner, Guy James, Marty Brooks, Kent Robinson, Tim Martin, Jackie Buchanan, Paul Dean Ray and Richard Jenkins.

On opening night, the Howard County 4-H Club Rodeo Queen will be named. Representing each of the 4-H Clubs in the county, the queen nominees are:

D'Ann Hall, Knott 4-H Club; Julie Hall, Coahoma 4-H Club; Layne Stallings, Lucky Acres 4-H Club; Dana Westbrook, Gayhill 4-H Club.

Advisory Committee for the rodeo include Jimmy Taylor, Rip Bailey, E. P. Driver, Ruth Mitchell, Hamlin Elrod, Raymond Phillips and Dick Nichols. Phillips and Nichols will be arena directors.

Entry forms are available at the Howard County Extension office. Entries will close Friday, July 18, at 5 p.m.

The public is invited to take part in the parade and the grand entry. Free tickets will be given to those who participate.

Double Shooting

HOUSTON (AP) - Police officers burst into a south-west Houston house Tuesday night to find Jack Dennison dead only hours after his wife was fatally shot in her front yard.

More than 30 police officers, including two SWAT teams, surrounded the house after a neighbor reported she saw Dennison fire a pistol three times at an unseen target.

Police said the incident started Tuesday afternoon when a neighbor overheard the Dennisons arguing. The neighbor later saw Dennison fire the shots and still later a 10-year-old girl found Mrs. Dennison's body in a flower bed.

SR Signup Underway

Registration for the second six-weeks of the Sul Ross University courses here is set for today and Thursday.

The signup is from 6-9 p.m. in Building 603, the Education Center on Webb AFB. Dr. Bob Pannel, vice president for academic affairs for Sul Ross, will be here Thursday evening to counsel with prospective students concerning any problems or questions they may have concerning a degree plan.

Classes for the second summer semester begin Monday 6 p.m. at the base and will continue to 9:30 p.m. unless otherwise noted by the instructor.

Virginia Smith, director, said she needs to know what potential students need for the Fall and Spring semesters and urged that they call her at the office on base 9 a.m. 12 noon Tuesdays and Thursdays, or at her home (7-8360).

WILL FIGHT - Former South Vietnamese General Dang Van Quang said in Montreal he plans to fight a deportation order issued him by Canadian Immigration Minister Robert Andras. Accused of drug-trading and corruption in Vietnam, Quang has had his special one-year ministerial permit cancelled and has been asked to arrange for admission to another country.

Economic Panel Passes Proposals To C-C Board

The Economic Development Council of the Chamber of Commerce bucked along three recommended resolutions to the directors Tuesday noon in a meeting at the La Posada. It also named Al Stephens as chairman of the retail group, succeeding Ralph Wyatt, who had managed Hemphill Wells and has moved from the city with sale of that business to Durlap's.

The council recommended to the chamber board that it endorse at its Monday meeting and pass along to proper agencies these resolutions:

That left turns be prohibited from Main on to Third and Fourth Streets; that extra police and two more automobiles be assigned to the police department to aid in crime prevention; and to support the Texas First plan to add new jobs.

Ron Mercer, executive director of the Chamber and the Industrial Foundation, told the group that the local economic picture is improving. Many firms are rehiring workers laid off previously, and others are seeking new employees. Several industries have plans for expansion, he said. He also reported a new slide presentation for industrial prospects is about ready, and the Industrial Team will meet next week to continue calls on prospects.

Mayor Wade Choate brought the panel up to date on construction for the expansion or upgrading of Webb AFB. He noted that the $2 million Owens Street overpass is up for bids July 17. Similarly, the home construction industry is having its best season in years, he noted.

Settlement In VA Suit

HOUSTON (AP) — David Nelson Standefer, 57, of Houston has been awarded a $1.25 million settlement in a suit he filed against the Veterans Administration Hospital here for alleged irreparable injuries he says he received there.

Standefer, who received the ruling Tuesday before the Texas Court of Appeals, said in the suit he was taken to the VA hospital in 1969 after an automobile accident.

The suit said medical attention and negligent manipulation in the X-ray room left him paralyzed from the neck down.

Standefer, a former salesman, claimed both legs and arms were functioning when he was taken by ambulance to the VA Hospital for a possible neurosurgical problem.

Standefer said he was left in the hallway of the hospital for hours and that the X-ray technician manipulated his neck so that he was rendered paralyzed.

Standefer has been staying in a ward at the hospital but may be moved to a home for private nursing, his attorney said.

WEST TEXAS BEAUTIES — These six hopefuls for the title of Miss Texas pose, poolside in Fort Worth as the Miss Texas Pageant got under way. ## Air Base Experiences Most Successful Year

Webb AFB turned out a jet pilot at the rate of nearly one per day during 1975, which may have been the most successful year of operations in history of the installation.

The total, said Col. Robert A. Owens, 78th PT Wing commander said in a talk to the Rotary Club Tuesday, was 336 (179 American, 133 foreign, and 24 others who went through the T-38 phase).

On top of this, all three squadrons on base finished ahead of their time schedules, making Webb the first base in the ATC to do this. Also, the base excelled in other areas, among them fuel conservation where savings went 15 per cent beyond the target.

It was a significant year from the point of capital investment, too. Construction amounted to $3.4 million, with $290,000 being spent on routine repairs and miscellaneous projects. Other work funded ran the total to $4.5 for fiscal year 1975. For this year (FY '76) more than a million dollars has been approved in building, and an additional $4.5 million has been requested but not yet funded.

If this comes through it will boost capital assets of the base to $36 million, which would lead to an increase of one-third in two years.

The base has its problems, said Col. Owens, but so does the Air Force in general. One is budgetary. While the defense budget is increasing, it is doing so at a lesser rate than rising costs so that the 9 per cent attrition rate could mean no effective defense budget by the year 2000. Col. Owens quoted the budget director.

Another problem is the critical physician recruitment and retention program. In general, however, the Air Force signed up 75,000 last year, and this was on the basis of being so selective that only one of five applicants was accepted.

The Air Force, said Col. Owens, still offers excellent opportunity as well as equal opportunity for advancement.

Col. Owens, a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy who transferred to Air Force and won his wings at Bryan, was making a classification talk to the club. He described his job as looking after the welfare of personnel on base and management of the facility for the Air Force and community so that it accomplishes its mission.

Next Alcoholism Seminar Friday

The Big Spring State Hospital Alcoholism Program will conduct the third in a series of seminars Friday in the Allred Auditorium at Big Spring State Hospital.

This series of seminars are made possible through a contract with the Texas Commission on Alcoholism and will be held in conjunction with the Big Spring Veteran's Administration Hospital and Howard College. The seminars are being conducted monthly on the second Friday.

An advisory committee composed of 12 persons from throughout the area has been appointed by Dr. Preston E. Harrison, superintendent of Big Spring State Hospital, to determine the needs and content of the seminars.

The Friday seminar will be directed to two topics: "Counseling with the Mexican-American Client", and a comprehensive study of the "Paradoxical Nature of Loneliness." Miss Nellie Rodgers, R.N., director, supportive living program for the North DeKalb Community Mental Health Center, Atlanta, Ga., will focus on "The Problem of Loneliness." James A. Abernathy, supervisor of El Paso Unit, Texas Rehabilitation Commission, will talk on "counseling with the Mexican-American client."

Registration will begin at 8 a.m., in the auditorium at the hospital, with the general session commencing at 9 a.m., and adjournment at 4 p.m. There will be a registration fee of $1 and also a $1 fee for persons wishing to receive Continuing Education Units (C.E.U.'s) for their participation.

Thumb Print On Note Puts Man In Jail

DALLAS (AP) — The FBI says that a thumb print found on a bank robbery note has led to the arrest, more than a year after the crime, of a man charged with bank robbery.

Ted Gunderson, special-agent-in-charge of the FBI in Dallas, identified the arrested man Tuesday as Charlie Elvis Patterson of Dallas.

Patterson was taken before U. S. Magistrate Patrick H. Mulloy who ordered him held in lieu of $50,000 bond.

Gunderson said a man used a pistol and a note in the $8,000 robbery of a drive-in window of the First National Bank of Irving Dec. 18, 1973.

A left thumb print on the note left in the drive-in window drawer was matched with that of Patterson, 43.

Road Parley Suggested

The Economic Development Council of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce tentatively set a meeting of representatives of towns and cities situated on U.S. Highway 87 to discuss recent developments in the proposed Interstate 27 highway system.

The council heard a report from a group from San Angelo and suggested a meeting for next month.

The council also discussed the possibility of getting an Amtrak route through Big Spring and decided to seek help from the state.

Members have contacted Ernie Crawford, Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission and State Sen. Ray Farabee for help in getting a proposed route from Fort Worth to El Paso, through Big Spring.

Members also heard reports on the Bicentennial flag plans and from the crime prevention committee.
