

TIRED OF PAYING RENT

They Buy Town For $18,000

GERLACH, Nev. (AP) — The citizens of Gerlach were tired and disgusted after paying land rent for the past half-century so they bought this tiny town for $18,000.

"Yeah, we just couldn't see paying all that rent and not actually owning anything," said Joe Ugalde, president of the Gerlach Leaseholders Association, which spearheaded the purchase from the Western Pacific Railroad. "We had only one choice — buy the town."

The final papers were signed last week.

For the $18,000, the leaseholders association got 219 acres of land where the town sits, and a water system that supplies this parched area of the state.

"It wasn't a bad price when you consider what the price of land is going for today," he said. "But really there's not much here. Come to think of it, that's a high price for just old flat alkaline dirt land."

Gerlach has a population of about 75 and is located about 100 miles north of Reno. It was founded, or created, by the railroad in 1909 as a watering stop for steam locomotives.

While many of the railroad's passengers headed west into California from points east, a few got off at Gerlach and made it their home.

The town thrived while the locomotives kept chugging through, but the chugging faded into history in the 1950s and so did many of the town's residents.

Ugalde says there are two gas stations left, along with four bars, two restaurants, and his propane gas business located in his house.

Most people in the area are engaged in ranching or farming.

To buy food, residents have to go to Empire some six miles to the south. Population of that town: 200.

Actually, the leaseholders association is the legal owner of the town at this time. The association now plans to sell each of the residents the parcel of land they occupy at a price of about 3 1/2 cents per square foot.

"From the profit the association makes on the land sale, we plan to improve the water system," Ugalde said.

"We're still going to run the town like we always did, with general association meetings, like town meetings back east," he said.

Arab-Israeli Clashes Raging On Land, Sea

By the Associated Press

Arab-Israeli clashes were reported on land and sea Saturday and a bomb exploded in a Tel Aviv synagogue. Total casualties were put at two dead and four wounded.

The violence came as President Ford and Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger conferred in Vail, Colo., amid reports that Kissinger will soon be off on a Mideast mission to wrap up an interim accord between Egypt and Israel.

The Palestinian news agency Wafa reported from Lebanon that guerrillas surprised an Israeli naval vessel trying to land commandos before dawn at the Buss refugee camp near southern Lebanese coastal city of Tyre.

Wafa said phosphorus bombs fired by the Israeli vessel to cover the commandos' retreat hit a patrol jeep, killing two guerrillas and wounding another.

Wafa also reported Israeli bombardment of the Hasbaya and the Martyr

Salah guerrilla base in the southeast Lebanon. It said the guerrillas returned the fire. No casualties were reported.

The Israeli military command had no immediate comment on the Wafa reports. Earlier the command said Arab gunners in Lebanon fired across the border at an Israeli army patrol near the border settlement of Zarit, about 12 miles east of the Mediterranean, but there were no injuries.

The bomb explosion in the Tel Aviv synagogue slightly injured three persons. A police spokesman said the incident was being investigated for the possibility of Arab terrorism.

In related developments: —Radio Uganda said Palestinian suicide fighter pilots are being trained in Uganda and are under the direct command of President Idi Amin. The broadcast monitored in Nairobi, Kenya said the trainees were sent by Palestine Liberation Organization leader Yasir Arafat.

—The Arab League's special envoy to the United States, Clovis Maksoud, cautioned "against the euphoria that resumption of shuttle diplomacy can generate." Maksoud said at a Washington news conference that no adequate agreement can be achieved on the Sinai peninsula without a similar development at the Golan Heights.

Bullets Whiz In Portugal

ALCOBACA, Portugal (AP) — Gunfire erupted Saturday night between Communists and anti-Communists at a gymnasium where Communist party leader Alvaro Cunhal and some 1,500 leftists were gathered for a rally. At least two persons were reported killed and hospitals reported seven injured.

An anti-Communist crowd of farm workers and townspeople fired pistol shots at the building and Communists fired back with shotguns. The shooting broke out after the crowd began hurling rocks at the building.

No troops were seen in the immediate vicinity.

Cunhal had traveled to Alcobaca, 65 miles northwest of Lisbon, to address the rally in the wake of bloody anti-Communist rioting across Portugal.

While one group of anti-Communists besieged the gym other demonstrators took up positions on street corners leading to the building.

A leftist trapped inside the gymnasium shouted through a loudspeaker: "We will shoot again if you don't disperse in two minutes."

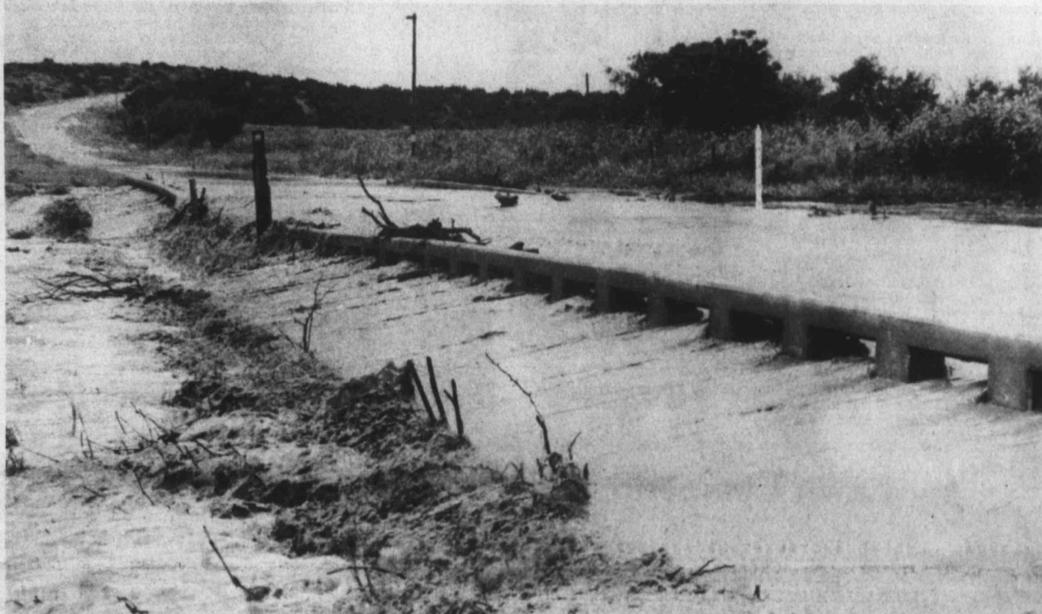

Almost immediately new shots rang out.

Earlier, a mob armed with shotguns and carrying sticks stormed and set fire to Communist party headquarters in the small town of Caramulo, less than 60 miles north of Alcobaca. No injuries were reported.

The Communist rally in Alcobaca, where party offices were wrecked by rioters two weeks ago, had been planned as the first in a series by Cunhal to counter what he called "a wave of Fascist violence."

In Lisbon, the military junta of President Francisco da Costa Gomes, Premier Vasco Goncalves and security chief Oteio Saraiva de Carvalho announced it was taking action to mend splits in the armed forces.

WATER UNDER THE BRIDGE — There was also water over the bridge at Beals Creek en route to Moss Creek Park again Saturday morning. County equipment operators pulled stacked brush out from under the bridge, to allow the water level to drop some, but over a foot of water spilled across the bridge at a rapid rate of speed, halting most traffic Saturday.

Kissinger To Nail Down Middle East Agreement?

VAIL, Colo. (AP) — President Ford and Secretary of State Henry Kissinger met here Saturday as reports persisted that an Israeli-Egyptian interim agreement was near and that Kissinger was ready to return to Middle East on-the-spot diplomacy.

They conferred for an hour in the den of Ford's vacation home and set up another meeting for Sunday.

The weekend sessions came as the Israeli cabinet was to review the latest diplomatic developments at a Sunday meeting.

Kissinger came here after intensive meetings in Washington with Israeli Ambassador Simcha Dinitz. He reported "some progress" from those talks, but he declined to characterize the progress as a breakthrough, saying only: "I am hopeful. But we haven't really settled it finally."

As he and Ford began their

Saturday meeting, the President was asked if he would have some Middle East announcement over the weekend.

"When we do, we'll let you know," the President told reporters.

Press Secretary Ron Nessen said no announcement on the Middle East was expected over the weekend.

The President was ending the first week of a two-week stay at this Rocky Mountain resort.

Besides meeting with Kissinger, Ford conferred with three speechwriters to get ready for a two-day trip Monday and Tuesday that will take him to an oil shale mining operation at Rifle, Colo., to the Iowa State Fair and public appearances in Des Moines, Minneapolis, and Peoria and Pekin, Ill.

The only major announcement of the week came Friday when he told a Vail energy symposium that he would veto a six-month extension of oil price controls and lift the $2-a-barrel oil import tariff if Congress sustains the veto.

COOLER
Temperatures predicted to drop to mid 60s Sunday night. High today and Monday near 90. Slight chance of rain tonight at 20 per cent. Winds variable at 5-10 miles per hour. Continued to be partly cloudy through Monday.

Red, Muddy Water Rolls Over Moss Creek Bridge

Flooding problems erupted in the Moss Creek area Saturday, as they dwindled in the Middle Knott area where two farmers were evicted on Friday.

Rains Friday night dumped from 1.5 to 2 inches of rain in the Sand Springs and Coahoma area while measuring another .5 to .75 in Big Spring during the night and Saturday morning.

Two feet of water flowed over Moss Creek bridge around noon Saturday, with several motorists stranded in the park area. Work by county equipment workmen in dragging brush from beneath the bridge dropped the water level some and around 2 p.m., only a foot of water was racing across the bridge and vehicles were crossing with extreme care as the red, muddy water raced over the facility.

Almost a foot of water was present at the intersection near Midway and at one low spot on the 11th Place extension. Water was reported to be about 18 inches three miles west of Lee's Corner on the Garden City highway.

Saturday morning saw from 75 fall at Forsan to 2 inches to the southwest of Forsan near Lee's Corner.

Bill Cregar reported .8 measurement at Elbow Saturday morning. The McDowell Ranch recorded 3 1/2 inches on Friday and a five-inch two-day total at 1:45 p.m. Saturday.

Wilkinson Ranch eight miles west of Big Spring reported an additional two inches Friday night and Saturday morning for a 4 1/2-inch two-day total.

Knott and Ackerly, who had received more than they could handle on Thursday night did not have an additional Friday night rain.

The Walkers at Fairview reported .3 additional Saturday for a 3.3 two-day total.

Big Spring Week with Joe Pickle

Our September monsoon has come in August. Do you realize that this is the third consecutive year that we have had abnormally heavy showers during August, a normally dry month? There was considerable flooding, and some washing, yet lakes did not gain large volumes of water. This may be partly due to the spotted nature of the downpours; probably more because vegetation is so dense it allows for little runoff. Pastures in general were benefitted; most stock tanks are filled; and cotton, which could do better with dry, hot weather, wasn't hurt. Around Knott, where a playa lake filled to overflowing, folks were alerted to watch for an old man looking for pairs.

Seldom have we had a week which produced so much violence and tragedy. First Jimmy Parks, veteran Texas Highway Patrolman who always was helpful to us, was killed instantly early Sunday when hit by a car going the wrong way down an eastbound lane where he was conducting a traffic check (Eusebio Morales, Coahoma, was charged with involuntary manslaughter). Shortly afterwards, Mrs. Toby B. Patterson, 67, of Odessa, was killed when her car crossed a median and struck another just east of town on IS-20. Marcos Mendez, 35, Coahoma oilfield worker, was crushed to death in an oilfield mishap. Within a stone's throw of the Patterson mishap, a car containing five Phoenix, Ariz. people bounced over a bridge railing to the channel below but miraculously none was hurt seriously.

SNATCH TROTTER
Horsenaping Proves Profitable In Italy

MONTECATINI, Italy (AP) — Italy's kidnap industry, already rich from abductions of people, apparently branched out into horses Saturday with the disappearance of an American-bred trotter that has won more than $300,000.

Wayne Eden, a 5-year-old boy, was snatched from his stall at the race track of this Tuscan spa just hours after winning a $15,000 purse. A helicopter and police dogs fanned out across Tuscan province in search of him.

Industrialist Piero Giudici, owner of Wayne Eden, said his main worry was that the horse might be confined for some days or given different food from what he normally eats.

"In that case, he could develop a violent colic and die," said Giudici.

Sources said the presumed kidnapers had not yet made contact about possible ransom. Giudici said he felt the horse was taken by "those who are in this business. Otherwise, who would steal a horse — and a horse of this type."

SCHOOL DAZE

All of the school age youths complaining about school starting Monday have plenty of company.

Because classes begin tomorrow in Big Spring, Coahoma, Forsan, Ackerly, Grady, Gail, Stanton, Colorado City and Westbrook.

Loraine students should be complaining even louder. They broke open the books last Thursday. Only reprieves are for students in Garden City and O'Donnell, who don't have to report until Wednesday. Klondike Thursday and Lamesa on Friday.

College pupils get to run and play a bit longer. Howard College registration begins Sept. 3.

The good ol' days of starting school after Labor Day are long gone. Schools now open in mid-August in order to schedule a longer vacation around Christmas and to include a spring break.

TRUCK AHÖY! — A big grain truck defies the rising water in the playa lake at Middle Knott, which rose over the road and into several homes. Although more rain had come to the area Saturday morning, mercifully for Knott, it missed that area.

President Applies Pressure

President Ford, with a seriousness and earnestness that could not be misunderstood, has warned both Egypt and Israel that they must be more flexible in order to reach an agreement. If they cannot agree, the risk of another Middle East conflict that may involve Russia and the United States will have been brought closer, he said.

"If there isn't movement right now, the possibility for war between Israel and the Arabs is increased significantly," the President said in an interview prepared by the Public Broadcasting Service. His questioners were Paul Duke and Martin Agronsky.

"We've had four wars in the Middle East," he said. "A fifth one not only means that Israel will be fighting the Arabs, but the potential of confrontation between the United States and the Soviet Union is a possibility."

Referring to the Russian attitude toward the Middle East situation, he said, "I think the Soviet Union has acted in a very responsible way. I think they understand the potential consequences of no progress for continued peace and understanding in the Middle East."

These are solemn truths, stripped of the niceties of the language of diplomacy. They convey to Jews and Arabs the plainest kind of warning of impending catastrophe. It is useless to argue at this point whether Israel is more flexible in its negotiating position toward Egypt, or vice-versa. The point is that neither has been flexible enough. There can be no peace in the Middle East as long as Israel occupies Arab territory captured during the 1967 war. The alternative to an agreement is renewed warfare in which Israel will be completely isolated from the rest of the world, with the United States as its only friend of any consequence. This, in turn, can lead to a confrontation between Russia and the United States. The Arabs know this. The Jews know this. At the very least a first-stage agreement must be reached, NOW.

Ah, So That's Why?

We have wondered how the mosquito homes in on its human prey. Not from a scientific curiosity, but from a desire to avoid the contact.

Now researchers have come up with a theory that mosquitoes follow the path of carbon monoxide such as that exhaled by a human being. They follow it to its source then attack.

The challenge to scientists is to block the moisture sensor of the cruising mosquito so that he will cruise right on by. We think this battle is about as hopeless as that against the cockroach. But it's something to dream of as one mutters and slaps these days. Maybe we can sic the mosquitoes on car exhaust fumes.

My Answer

Billy Graham

I am "half a man," 58 years old. Over five years ago on a December night, while waiting for a left turn, I was hit from the rear by a drunk driver. My car was wrecked, and I broke my hip. I had to stay in bed one and a half years. Now I limp around on crutches. I don't understand why this happened to me when I've always helped in the Lord's work, given generously, etc. Any comments?

H.C.S. Some of the greatest saints have been those with the greatest problems. In no way can you make a high level of devotion to God issue necessarily in a low level of trouble.

It's regrettable that you've had these injuries and the subsequent handicap. But you might say that incident is just another confirmation of Job 5:7, "Mankind heads for sin and misery as predictably as flames shoot upwards." One thing it does emphasize, however, is that we need ever stricter controls over driving while intoxicated.

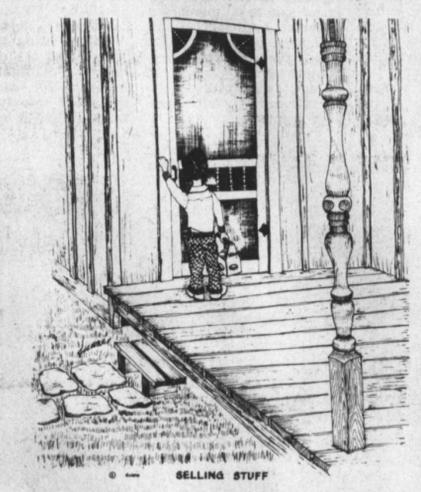

But now here's two things you should do. One is to cultivate a sense of humor. Abraham Lincoln is quoted as saying, "With the fearful strain that is on me night and day, if I did not laugh, I should die."

The other and more important is to take the option that every Christian has — seeing everything as potentially fitting into God's wise plan. Wrote Paul in Romans 8, "We

REMEMBERING...

By BILL D. BROOKS
SELLING STUFF

It seemed like such a good deal. The ad in the comic book said it was just what everyone needed. The product would "sell itself." All you had to do was sell twelve cans of Cloverine Salve and you could have one of several exciting, wonderful "gifts." I tore out the coupon and scrawled in all the information (my mother had to sign it), dropped it in the mail and, with eager anticipation, looked forward to the day when the merchandise would come. I made plans on how I would show the product to people and I made a list of sure-to-buy customers. I visualized selling everything the first day and having to re-order many times. I selected what gift I would receive first and was certain I would have them all before I was through.

SELLING STUFF

When my order came I quickly set out on my way to the homes of people on my list. City kids have a definite advantage over country kids when it comes to selling door-to-door. The main reason being that in the city doors are lots closer together. I was a country boy and the first person on my list lived more than half a mile away. That wasn't going to bother me.

I arrived at the Taggart's shortly, out of breath, knocked on the door, ready to present my wares. Mrs. Taggart opened the door, smiled, said "no, thank you," and shut the door. It all happened so fast, I just stood there. After a while I walked slowly away, not really certain it had happened at all. "Oh, well, what's one person more or less, there are lots more on my list." I made my way to the Jalma's place next and it must have been that Mrs. Jalma had taken lessons from Mrs. Taggart because she used exactly the same words. After walking for miles that day, I determined that not everyone needed all-purpose salve. In fact, not one person on my list needed it. On the way home I had to pass by old man Cantrell's. I didn't have him on my list because he was mean and gruff and didn't like kids coming around his place. I decided to stop there anyway. To my surprise, he said he had been needing some of that salve and he bought two cans of the stuff! After that my aunt bought one can, just to help out and the other nine cans — well, my dad bought them. He said he would buy them only with the strict understanding that I never clip another coupon from a comic book.

I learned some valuable lessons from the experience which, in a small way, made it a worthwhile venture. I learned you cannot predict what people will need, want or buy. I learned that few things are free, that some type of work is involved anytime there is some type of worthwhile gain. And I learned, though I already suspected it, that my dad was a swell guy.

Ninth Wonder-er

Around The Rim

A news story Friday listed the Eight Wonders of the World. Actually there are nine, and one of them is in the Herald newsroom.

The ninth is my publisher, Dub What's-His-Name, he says "I wonder what it is that you do around here."

PRESSMAN PRESTON PATTY, who digs fishin' and fiddlin', once dreamt something which was so astounding while snoozin' near Red River he decided to get up and write it down.

He did, and the next morning when he looked at the pad, he found he had written:

"If you get up Alaska way to see the pipeline, be sure to stop in at a Derrick Queen and ask the polar bartender for a Frozen Tundra. One and you're oiled, two and the northern lights go out."

Unfortunately, he adds a question: "If Mrs. Olsen lived in Switzerland and was pushing margarine would she be called 'the oleo lady'?"

Novice golfers are a dime a dozen, though some are not as bad as others. One newcomer to the game was exuberant over a recent score.

"What did you shoot?" an old-timer asked.

Smiling, the new golfer replied "Oh, I shot a 13."

The old-timer scratched his head and asked "What do you mean?"

"Well, I'm new at this game," he said, "and I always buy a bucket of balls, and before today the most I've ever made it was to the 9th hole."

What Others Say

No group is more deserving of special help than the handicapped, and no group is more repellant than the ripoff artists who use the handicapped as their bait.

So we commend Atty. Gen. William J. Scott for preparing to haul into court four groups he accuses of illegal operations in connection with pitches in behalf of the handicapped.

Scott charges that one organization, the National Foundation for the Handicapped and Disabled, spent more money on itself than it took in, and that it deceived the public into believing that the money went to help the handicapped. Three other outfits —

Blind Workers Inc.; Products of the Blind and Handicapped of Illinois; Handicapped Workers Marketing and Research Inc. — were accused of misleading customers through advertising and other means into believing their purchases were helping the blind and handicapped.

Using the gimmick of helping the handicapped has proved lucrative. The sad part is that those dollars channeled directly to the handicapped could have immensely benefited a fine cause.

Scott's action would be a warning to the kind-hearted public: Investigate before you give. — Chicago Daily News.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor: It seems to me that statements by Secretary Simon concerning the increasing budget for food stamps are pointless in the first place, and degrading to citizens of this fouled-up economy who find they must resort to public assistance.

After all, those who qualify for food stamps did not set the standards of poverty on which their eligibility is based. And I hope that none of those who need help in coping with inflated food prices will fail to take advantage of the assistance which the Congress of the United States intended them to have.

It is not unusual for those who grew up in power and privilege to point out what the less fortunate should be doing for themselves. However, I believe Mr. Simon could better serve his government if he directed his genius toward a corrector of the forces in our economy which have made such a horrendous increase in the food stamp budget such a threat to his plan of salvation.

Recovery — For Prices, Interest

WEEK'S BUSINESS

- Foods, cars, fares, raw materials all show increase
- Inventories reduced, retail sales up for bright sign
- Butz asks no more grain sales as flour up 1.4 cents
- GM raises cars modest 4.4, steel prices up by 4 pct.
- Inflation threat makes market wary, interest rates rise

NEW YORK (AP) — Prices and interest rates advanced ahead this past week, largely uncontested by the Ford administration which continued to express confidence in an economic recovery.

Of immediate concern to consumers, sticker prices on cars, air fares, and many food prices headed up. In the basic raw materials sector, steel, lead, chemicals, and plastics companies posted new price hikes.

Business cut down inventories by $640 million in June, clearing the way for more new production.

Retail sales in July surged 2.4 per cent, the largest monthly gain in a year but not enough to keep up with higher prices. Real sales volume was actually lower.

With most of Congress and the administration on vacation, the government's response was muted concern.

James L. Pate, the Commerce Department's chief economist, said the recovery seems to be faster and stronger than expected.

Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz asked U.S. grain companies to refrain for a while from any more sales to the Russians — sales which have linked to higher grain prices.

The administration's main price watchdog, the Council on Wage and Price Stability, issued a two-page statement on the new car price increase calling it "tailored to current realities." The Council had no official response to the other increases.

Wall Street's concern that inflationary figures are making the recovery appear deceptively strong was linked to stock market action, where sales withered to their slowest weekly pace of the year.

Chief among the price increases was General Motors Corp.'s 4.4 per cent or $206 boost on 1976 sticker prices, setting a pace which the industry is expected to follow.

Braniff Airways, a unit of Braniff International Corp., and Frontier Airlines Inc., a subsidiary of RKO General Inc., filed with the Civil Aeronautics Board for the same 3.5 per cent fare increase. Eastern Airlines Inc. requested earlier in the month.

While the CAB has placed a six-month freeze on requests from other airlines for 5 per cent and 6 per cent fare increases, several industry observers said the smaller boost stands a chance of surviving.

Pillsbury Co. raised wholesale flour prices 1.4 cents per pound following similar moves by General Mills and International Harvester a week earlier.

In the raw materials sector, Bethlehem Steel Corp. and National Steel Corp. juggled a broad range of steel prices up and down, resulting in an overall 4 per cent increase. A leading lead penny raised lead prices a penny to 20 cents a pound and several chemicals and plastics producers raised prices on selected products.

Despite another drop in business loans outstanding at banks, the minimum rate on commercial loans rose to 7 1/2 per cent from 7 per cent at dozens of banks across the country.

Forgets To Take Medicine

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have a problem I'm sure many others have. I am 60 years old and taking medicine for high blood pressure. Sometimes I forget to take a tablet, so I am concerned about the effect. What would occur if I were to miss one, or if I were to take two at once to make up for this?

Please don't think I'm silly. Anyone who is normally busy cannot remember if a habitual happening occurred or didn't occur, and that can be very disturbing.

It seems the only habits we slip into easily are bad ones. Your problem is not a silly one. The seriousness of missing medication depends on several factors: the type, the frequency with which it is to be taken, etc. I assume you must take your medicine twice a day. In that case missing one could be more serious than missing a dosage that has to be taken four to six times daily.

But I don't think your missing just a single tablet would be really harmful. I would not, however, advise taking two to make up for the lapse. That could produce undesirable effects, depending on what the medicine is.

Medication is best taken at mealtimes, if you eat regular meals. One trick to make sure you take your two tablets each day is to remove them from the package each morning. Put them in a dish or some other container and place it in a prominent spot. But if there are young children around, you should be careful not to put medication in their reach.

Some patients I've known have tried using alarm watches to jog their memories. I know a friend who had his "alarm" go off in a particularly poignant silence at a play he was attending.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would you please explain the cause of ringworm, and how to cure it? Will it recur? Is it dangerous? — J. M.

There are various types of ringworm, a fungus infection, depending on the part of the body affected. Ringworm of the scalp in children is highly contagious. Others are only mildly so.

Some ringworm can become chronic, and others occur spontaneously and disappear with treatment, which is either by local application of medicine or anti-fungal agents by mouth. It depends on the type and location.

A common type of ringworm infection is of the scalp. Athletes foot is another, requiring local treatment and scrupulous foot hygiene. Ringworm can occur in the groin (jock strap itch) and under pendulous breasts of women. Some types recur. It usually isn't serious but annoying and a threat to others.

To find out what causes high blood pressure and what can be done to treat it, send for a copy of "Controlling Your Blood Pressure (Hypertension)" by Dr. Thosteson. Write to him in care of the Big Spring Herald, P.O. Box 3999, Elgin, Ill. 60120, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

STARTS NEW LIFE

Ken 'Takes Coat Off His Face'

By MARJ CARPENTER
Ken Schnitker, 32, is starting a new life again. But then he's used to that.

The first time he remembers starting a new life was when he was eight years old and was lying in a street in Worthington, Minn. after being struck by a car. A policeman sadly placed his coat over the youth's face.

Even though Ken was nearly unconscious, something inside him rebelled and he sat up.

This caused a little frantic action among the law officials, who summoned an ambulance. Again inside the ambulance, the attendant deemed him dead and covered the youth. The inner will to live in Ken Schnitker came forth and he managed to tap on the glass. So he was taken to a hospital, instead of the morgue.

The next time Schnitker made a sudden change was in high school. He was bogged down in his progress and quit to join the Army. There he obtained his GED certificate and when he got out of the Army, he began to sell insurance.

He was a good insurance salesman. He has all of the traditional insurance certificates to prove it. And he was financially successful. But he hated it.

One day, he made a sudden reverse, and sat up figuratively. He went to Mankata State College and obtained a BA and MA in clinical psychology.

By then he had married his wife Carol and they drifted into Dallas hunting jobs. They learned of an opening at the Big Spring State Hospital and Schnitker has been here for around two years as a clinical psychologist. Carol has worked for "the state commission of the blind at the state hospital. And they love their work."

But Ken has sat up again and "taken the coat off his face" and found another challenge.

He has been interested in the wide gap between clinical and experimental psychology and the increasing knowledge being obtained in the field of medicine coupled with psychology.

So Ken's going back to school at the University of Texas to do advanced graduate work in experimental psychology. His wife plans to continue her work with the blind in Austin.

Ken and Carol leave this week, because Ken has tapped on the glass again and will be starting a new life.

DEATHS

MRS. ELLA NEILL

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Monday in the First Presbyterian Church for Mrs. Ella C. Neill, 87, who died Saturday morning in a local rest home.

The Rev. R. Earl Price, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Mt. Olive Memorial Park under the direction of River-Welch Funeral Home.

A circle under the Presbyterian Women's work in First Church is named in honor of Mrs. Neill. She was also active in the Elizabeth McDowell Sunday School class for many years and belonged to the auxiliary of Order of Railway Conductors.

She was born June 11, 1888 in Ferridge, Mo., and married George W. Neill Aug. 10, 1910 in Big Spring. He predeceased her in death July 22, 1965. A son, Stanley Wheeler, also predeceased her in death. She had lived in Big Spring since 1909.

Survivors include four sons, George William Neill Jr., Austin, Raymond Neill, Ralph Neill and Frank Neill, all of Big Spring; two daughters, Mrs. W. C. Carroll and Mrs. Melton Knowles, both of Big Spring, 21 grandchildren and 33 great-grandchildren.

The family requested that memorials be made to the First Presbyterian Church, the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center or the Bible Fund.

W. L. Gamble

Funeral services will be held at 4 p.m. today in Kiker-Seale Funeral Home in Colorado City for William L. Gamble, 82, who died in Big Spring Friday afternoon in a local hospital.

Burial will be in Colorado City Cemetery. Nalley-Pickle is in charge of local arrangements.

Born May 14, 1892 in Georgetown, Mr. Gamble moved to Big Spring in 1947 from Colorado City. He was a retired farmer. He was a member of Airport Baptist Church. His wife predeceased him in death in 1963.

Survivors include five sons, including Joe Gamble, Jack Gamble, Frenchie Gamble and Vernon Gamble, all of Big Spring and Carlos Gamble of Arlington; three daughters, Mrs. Biddy Carpenter, Sterling City, Mrs. Francis Walden, Arlington and Mrs. Marie Stevens, Longview.

Other survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Alta Estes, Corsicana; and Mrs. Myrtle Ricker, Missouri; 22 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild. Grandsons will serve as pallbearers.

Amtrak Confab In Big Spring

Representatives from several West Texas Chambers of Commerce will meet in Big Spring Tuesday to discuss Amtrak and the possibility of obtaining the rail passenger service through the Permian Basin area.

Chapters represented will include Big Spring, Colorado City, Midland, Stanton, Odessa, Pecos, Monahan and El Paso. The Texas transportation institute is to begin a feasibility study on rail passenger requirements on Sept. 1.

Traffic Deaths

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas traffic deaths are 17 per cent higher this year than in 1974 but still considerably below the record toll of 1973, the last full year with legal 70 mile-per-hour driving.

Howard College, which soon will start its 31st year, got word of a supplemental grant of $21,448, which will help 45 students under the work-study program.

FROM THE NOTEBOOK — Bill Henley, who grew up here, died last week in Odessa (we grew up half a block from his family, which moved to another part of town where we also moved half a block from them). A distinguished visitor during the week was Congressman Dale Milford, who flew in to see his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Milford. A Howard County Tractor Pull has been set for Sept. 1-2 on the Raceway off US 180 west with some 120 tractors expected. In case you wonder about how much influence we have, we suggested Pickle's Pond instead of Comanche for Hughes-T&P-Cosden Lake south of town, so it has been named officially Comanche Trail Lake.

REPLACING — Wayne Murphy of the 5-Watter CB Radio Club is replacing a radio marked by the club during Operation Identification. 5-Watters are trying to help combat the increasingly large number of CB radios being stolen from vehicles.

CB Radio Sets Are Really 'Hot'

Since the first of the year, close to $23,250 worth of CB radios have been stolen from vehicles in Big Spring.

The police detective bureau is reviewing each of approximately 93 thefts from cars, along with several more of tape decks and stereo units.

Officers are attempting to distinguish a pattern in the thefts. But it is difficult. The sets seem to be stolen both in daylight and dark.

The CB radio can be quickly lifted from a car. "All a thief has to do is get inside the door and quickly lie down on the seat. He can actually steal the CB radio without anyone knowing he's inside," one detective said.

Apparently the items are easy to "fence," that is, sell to dealers who put them back into commercial channels. Some may be marketed privately at such ridiculously low prices that the buyer must know the

Area Lakes Gulp Water

Area lakes stood to increase by some 5,500 acre feet Saturday on the basis of two days of intense, but spotted showering.

Lake J. B. Thomas had gained 1.2 of a foot to an elevation of 2,225.68 with prospects for a little more increase. The gain was calculated at 3,270 acre feet. Most of the increase came from heavy showers within the basin area, although there were some from the main stem of the Upper Colorado River. Bull Creek, a main tributary, contributed nothing.

Lake E. V. Spence reached an elevation of 8,567.12 Saturday at 4 p.m. and the outlook was good for another half foot. The elevation is a new record for the lake and the increase was pegged at 2,248 feet with another 3,500 expected, on the strength of the flow in the river and on Beals Creek.

The river was spilling two feet over the diversion works channel dam in Colorado City 20 miles upstream. Beals Creek was being fed principally by heavy rains in and around Big Spring and south of IS 20 between Coahoma and Westbrook. The creek was running 9 1/2 feet at SH 163 bridge and was holding steady. Traffic was blocked to Moss Creek Lake Saturday when Beals Creek went over the low water bridge east of Big Spring.

Shot Puts Teen In Hospital

A 15-year-old youth was in fair condition at a local hospital after apparently attempting to kill himself by shooting himself in the abdomen with a .22 rifle.

This occurred at 8:20 p.m. Friday at his home.

In other complaints, Mrs. Mary Lopez, 408 NW 7th, said her daughter was knocked to the ground and kicked by another girl Friday night.

Richard Chavarria, 32, Northcrest Apartments 16, told police a man drove up to where he was standing outside the Blue Moon Lounge, jumped out of a car and cut him with a knife and fled. Chavarria was treated at a local hospital for flesh wounds and released.

Ms. Nellie Barber, 604 Abrams, reported that she was struck with rocks thrown by two seven-year-old boys.

To Appeal Election Law Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — Challengers to the new campaign finance law say they plan a quick appeal to the Supreme Court of a lower court decision upholding the main provisions of the statute.

"We believe it is likely that the Supreme Court will strike down the law, because the constitutional case against it is overwhelming," former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., said after the ruling Friday by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

McCarthy and Sen. James L. Buckley, R-Con.-N.Y., argued in opposing the law that political contributions and expenditures are so closely interconnected with guarantees of freedom of speech that any restriction on them would be unconstitutional.

Buckley said he, too, would pursue the suit to the Supreme Court, probably next week.

McCarthy said the campaign law is "the most repressive of political freedom of any law passed by the Congress in this century, for it makes the government closely regulate and control the very process by which the government is chosen."

He and Buckley also contended that the law favored incumbents and major party candidates over political challengers.

Trio Suspected Of Trespassing

Three young men, aged 17, 19 and 20 were charged with criminal trespassing and disorderly conduct after being arrested on College Park Shopping Center parking lot at 1:04 a.m. Saturday.

Two of the trio were also charged with public intoxication. Bonds posted by each youth to get out of jail were $230 apiece.

City police reminded the public that a sign now posted in the area limits parking after 10 p.m. "This law will continue to be enforced," police added.

More Aid For Small Farmers Would Be Waste Of Money?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional investigators say the government could boost the profits of small farms by giving them more technical aid, but the Agriculture Department contends it would be a waste of money.

Congress' General Accounting Office concludes in a new report that such assistance would hike the incomes of small farmers on millions of acres of U.S. land and help meet world food and fiber needs.

But the Agriculture Department, in response, says modern forces work against small-farm efficiency and any more small-farm technology money would not be effective.

"If small farms were assisted so that total production were increased," the department argued, "price declines could further reduce incomes of small farmers."

The department said it could recommend no action on GAO's proposals.

The GAO report is to be distributed publicly Monday

HOW 'YA FEELING — Mrs. S. A. Wilson is talking it over with one of her parakeets. She's had lots of problems in recent weeks — Mostly mysteriously dying birds — which proves that the parakeet business is not just a song.

Plunk! And There Goes Another Healthy Bird

"Raising parakeets is really for the birds — at least lately," agrees Mrs. S.A. Wilson, 2500 Seminole.

Featured in an article in the Big Spring Herald in early summer, she is a bird raiser who has raised many thousands of parakeets for a company in Florida, over a period of several years.

This year has brought unusual problems. She obtained 500 birds on May 28 and another 500 on June 16 to replace some she had sold and some she had lost.

But in recent weeks, for unaccountable reasons, birds began to die. Part of the birds were from Austin and another 500 came from Dallas and both groups began to lose birds by the flocks.

Diverse sources led her to believe that it wasn't from the stock of birds that she purchased. So she sought other reasons. She has sent dead birds back to Illinois, to Dallas and to Texas A&M seeking a cause for death.

She's had them checked locally to determine if they might have a disease that would affect humans.

All reports indicate that they don't have a disease —

$49,496 Tax Check Received

The City of Big Spring received a sales tax check for $49,496.37 Friday when Comptroller Bob Bullock issued city sales tax rebates and announced a new plan to give a city its proportionate share of any partial collections from delinquents.

In the past, money from delinquents was applied first to the state's claim. It will now be rebated to cities on a four and one split, according to an announcement by Bullock.

Other payments issued Friday included Colorado City, $5,825.45; Lamesa, $18,075.52 and Stanton, $1,620.32.

YOUNG, SINGLE STUDENTS Will Provide College Training For Refugees

DURANT, Okla. (AP)—About 350 Vietnamese refugee students from Ft. Chaffee, Ark., will begin flowing through Southeastern Oklahoma State University here Friday.

It's the first step in a program originated by Southeastern to provide college training for the refugees at five schools in southeastern Oklahoma and northern Texas.

Dr. Leon Hibbs, president of Southeastern, submitted the proposal to the American Colleges and Universities Association to process the students through the schools.

"As a result, we are getting the cream from among 1,000 refugee students at Chaffee who are eligible for college," Dr. Hibbs said. "All are young, single students. They will be equally divided male and female."

JUST A JAUNT — Ann Mathews thinks nothing of riding a bicycle from two to 20 miles a day and jogging a little in between. A firm believer in exercise, she faces the acid test — she gets her drivers license.

Will Ann Ride Or Still Pedal?

Ann Mathews, 15, comes from a family that believes in physical exercise — and believes that it's fun.

Ann has been noticed around Big Spring this summer jogging and riding her bicycle. She rides her bike from two miles to 20 miles daily, depending upon the time available.

In between, she jogs down the road, swims and plays tennis. Ann firmly believes that you feel better if you get plenty of exercise.

It's almost a family tradition.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J.E. Mathews. Her mother, who could pass for one of the girls, gets up and jogs before she prepares breakfast for the family.

Dad has to get his exercise by playing golf, since he has a very busy schedule.

There are two more Mathew's girls. These include Mary Catherine, 13, and Kristy, 10. Mary Catherine is playing tennis. They all love to swim and are members of the Y swim team.

Ann, who will be a junior in high school, also has time to serve on the yearbook staff and is interested in sports and drama.

She ran girl's track when she was a freshman, specializing in the 440-yard dash.

"I'd like to go back to running track, if I can do that and play tennis too," Ann said. "I think bicycle riding is good for the leg muscles, and that helps in tennis, track, or swimming."

The big test of how much Ann really likes exercise has just arrived. She turned 16 years old yesterday and got her driver's license the same day.

"I guess the family is going to watch and see how much bike riding and jogging I do now that I can drive a car. I already know that I plan to keep up with exercise. Of course, I'll drive too."

Asks Revocation Of Probation

A 29-year-old woman who pleaded guilty on July 14 to forging and passing a check and received a probated sentence, was back in county jail this week.

Doris Jean Henry, 409 N. Bell St., took $5 worth of meat from the Safeway grocery store in College Park Shopping Center on Aug. 2, a motion for revocation alleges.

District Attorney Robert H. (Bob) Moore III is seeking to have the probation revoked and the 10-year sentence for forgery imposed.

Horsemeat Nothing New In Area, Diggers Find

LUBBOCK — Horsemeat for dinner is nothing new. People in the Lubbock area were butchering horses 9,000 to 12,000 years ago.

Discovery of a butchered horsebone at the Lubbock Lake Site's Clovis Man level created unusual excitement in the last week of the 1975 scientific dig because nothing has ever been published on such a discovery.

Dr. M. Elizabeth King, co-investigator for the project, said that one other such find in North America has been reported informally, but nothing at all has been published.

Dr. King said the bone was found with bison bones at the contact point between the Folsom and Clovis layers.

Clovis Man is believed to have inhabited the site as long as 13,000 years ago. About 9,000 to 10,000 years ago Folsom man was dominant in the Lubbock Lake Site area. The chronology of man's activity is visible at the site up through the present day.

Discoveries made at all levels of its loamy soil make it one of the richest of archaeological sites, according to field co-supervisor Eileen Johnson.

The butchered horse bone was found by Carla White of Shelburne, Vt., one of 40 students working in five areas of the site this summer. The break at one end of the bone and tool marks on it are signs which identify it as having been butchered. The Lubbock site dig closed Friday for the season.

Sentenced For Theft

David Frank Morgan, 18, 4223 Hamilton St., pleaded guilty in 118th District Court late Friday afternoon to theft of two motorcycles.

District Judge Ralph W. Caton set punishment as 10 years of probation.

Earlier, presiding in juvenile court, Judge Caton said he ordered one 16-year-old boy temporarily detained by the county.

One 15-year-old and another 16-year-old were taken into custody, but they were released to their parents, a city juvenile spokesman said.

The group was accused of burglarizing the S and H Yamaha shop in College Park Shopping Center and taking two motorcycles on Aug. 6.

RARA AVIS

After 34 Years, Rita Weeg Lays Aside Her Teaching

When school starts Monday, Mrs. Charles (Rita) Weeg will not be in her accustomed place in Big Spring High School. She has retired.

Mrs. Weeg will admit herself that a good Latin teacher is a "rara avis", which translated from Latin means a rare bird. Many of her former pupils and parents of her pupils simply give her the unofficial "par excellent" award.

A teacher of both Latin and English, Mrs. Weeg firmly believes that a knowledge of Latin grammar gives a better understanding of English.

She also has great faith in today's youth.

"I've taught since 1934, all but four years of which were in Big Spring, and I've been extremely lucky. There are still a lot of young people who choose to be good students if you give them the opportunity," Mrs. Weeg added.

She has followed the progress of her students "and I am well pleased. Some are doctors and lawyers. Some of them even turned into Latin teachers like Ellen Gossett and the former Sharon Gary. Many of them have made good businessmen, good housewives and teachers and many other occupations."

She keeps up with them through visits, Christmas messages and reading the papers.

"I never have had children, but have had lots of scholastic children," she added. On some occasions she has taught the children of some of her former pupils.

"I always enjoy that and usually there are some points of similarity," she stated.

Commenting on some pupils' claim she was exacting and liberal with the time that I did probably expect a lot of my pupils."

"But I usually had good pupils. I was very fortunate."

TIME TO READ

"Now has come the time to divorce myself from school. I have either taught or gone to school all of my life, so it will be a challenge. I have not yet made any definite plans, but I know that I will have more time to read."

Mrs. Weeg was born in Big Spring and her father, H.R. Debenport was an attorney and for years county judge. She married Charles Weeg, who is administrator at Hall-Bennett Hospital. He was born in Big Spring, and his father, Anton Weeg was a locomotive engineer.

They lived four years in Austin, but have been in Big Spring most of their lives.

"I've taught for 34 years. I think we serve our time, and then some equally good ones come along."

Mrs. Weeg has many former students who might argue that point.

red pencil, she said, "There are rules set out for the English language, and I don't think it is expecting too much to follow them."

She stressed the importance of proper English, both written and oral.

"This is the way we communicate. I always believed that there was so much to learn and so little

Bicentennial Town Crier

All too late we learn that James Archer is happy to present programs on antique cars. Even though we didn't get his name on our official Program Bureau list, don't hesitate to call him at 393-5742. His wife also generously offers to lend old clothes of different eras to anyone needing them for a special event.

Dene Sheppard was kind enough to forward a copy of the 25th anniversary, VA Hospital booklet. It provides a thorough and interesting look at the years of service given us by this excellent facility. The back cover sports the national Bicentennial emblem.

Sounds like the Downtown Lions Club got a "you-were-there" look at Civil War battles when Ernie Boyd was their guest speaker recently. The increased understanding of the past makes us wiser for the future. Thanks, Ernie.

Virginia Younger invited us to come when World War I vets and friends had a Bicentennial good time at the all-day-in-the-park party. The Old Timer's Pavilion was dotted with colonial dresses, and good food abounded. This group really knows how to celebrate.

Joe Dominy and his Midland Bicentennial Commission scored a real coup when they landed the Bob Hope Show as a fund-raising event for Saturday Aug. 23rd. Included will be Less Brown and his Band of Renown. But watch out, Les,

Bill Bradley and the Big Spring Steer Band will play there, too. Area Bicentennial personalities will be featured in the opening portion of the program. Ron McNeil has tickets available at Montgomery Ward, if you want to join in the fun.

The Big Spring-Howard County Bicentennial Commission has been offered a booth in the Ector County Coliseum in Odessa, Oct. 4. The occasion will be the second annual Fling-Ding & Fun-of-a-Gun. Local groups that might be interested in displaying items, or selling bicentennial mementoes, should contact Johnnie Lou Avery, 7-6311. No charge for use of the booth.

TIDBITS: You can't beat the timing of the Bicentennial display of decorative items at Faye's Flowers. Lots of goodies to use in months to come—Margaret Baum will display her piano artistry for the AARP on Sept. 2. It's billed as "200 Years of American Music in 20 Minutes." A letter from Barbara Walters of NBC's Today Show thanks us for contributing an idea for a Bicentennial show. Only problem is—we're not sure what was suggested, or by whom! Will the real contributor please stand up?—Darlene Pirkle called to say she was putting the check for the Moss School Bicentennial flag in the mail. Which reminds us, those schools planning to fly Bicentennial flags this year should get in orders now. Delivery takes around eight weeks. Call Janell Davis at 7-5745.

Public schools seem to lack proper counseling services for minorities, according to the report, both because of the lack of an adequate number of counselors and because present counseling does not focus enough attention on vocational or non-academic curricula. There are no minority counselors (employed, except at college level) according to the report.

It says that the parents could be counseled on how to keep their children in school, furthering their education and enhancing their chances of economic upgrading.

RACIAL AND OTHER MINORITIES HAVE THEIR PROBLEMS

Goals sub-committee finds several areas of inequity

GOALS FOR BIG SPRING

Problems For Minorities Pegged By Panel Study

This is another in the series of articles on findings of subcommittees on special areas of concern for Goals for Big Spring—Ed

Economically disadvantaged persons and members of racial minorities have their problems in Big Spring, the sub-committee on community relations of the Goals for Big Spring program decided in its planning convention essay.

The sub-committee suggested that local, state, and federal government service agencies in Big Spring are severely hampered by their inaccessibility to the persons they are designed to serve because of a general lack of awareness by the poor and minority citizens.

The statement was made in an essay compiled by the sub-committee for the Goals for Big Spring planning conventions slated for Aug. 25, 26, and 28.

The essay also pointed out that citizens who misunderstand the duties of government agencies feel that local government is not responsive to them.

Big Spring offers its residents a full-time, professional, consolidated referral or counseling service (the Family Counseling Service) to all citizens, but the community has no program for legal aid to economically disadvantaged citizens in non-criminal cases, the group found.

Public schools seem to lack proper counseling services for minorities, according to the report, both because of the lack of an adequate number of counselors and because present counseling does not focus enough attention on vocational or non-academic curricula. There are no minority counselors (employed, except at college level) according to the report.

Lions Planning For Barbecue

Members of the Evening Lions Club are whooping it up for their traditional first-game barbecue Sept. 5.

For nearly a score of years the club has celebrated the beginning of football season by staging a barbecue dinner on the evening of the first home game.

This year, the barbecue will be in the high school cafeteria, and there also will be plates "to go." The rate ($2.00) is the same as last year, and Al's Barbecue will prepare the meat. Profits go to the club's charity and other humanitarian projects. Tickets can be obtained from Lions or at the door.

You can't listen to a blackboard.

You have to see it. And see it clearly. Your eyes also must be able to adjust from the large, distant words on the blackboard to the small, printed words in the textbook.

Unless your child's eyes can do all of this accurately, he'll have trouble doing schoolwork. And he'll miss a lot in life.

The best time to correct a small vision problem is before it becomes a big one. That's why TSO recommends regular professional eye examinations. If eyewear is needed, you can depend on TSO to fill the doctor's prescription to the exact specifications. And the cost will be most reasonable.

We want you to enjoy the peace of mind that comes with knowing that your child's vision is up to the challenge of his schoolwork.

At TSO, we care how you look at life.

BRONFMAN MARRIAGE WAS PLANNED — Multi-millionaire Edgar Bronfman is shown with his fiancée, Georgiana Eileen Webb, a 25-year-old Englishwoman, last December in Finchingfield, England. Bronfman, 46, father of kidnap victim Samuel Bronfman 2nd, had obtained a marriage license Aug. 5 to marry Miss Webb. The marriage had been planned for Saturday.

FBI Puts Lid On Reports Kidnap Nearing Climax

NEW YORK (AP) — Multimillionaire Edgar Bronfman rushed into his Fifth Avenue penthouse early Saturday but hour after hour used without an anticipated break in the kidnaping of his son Samuel. The chairman of the billion-dollar Seagram Co., the world's largest distillers, maintained silence, as did his family and the FBI.

"The lid is on tighter than ever," an FBI spokesman told newsmen when asked if all or part of a reported $4.5 million ransom demand had been met and if the 21-year-old heir would soon be freed.

A family spokesman said Saturday afternoon that Bronfman "is holding up well and is still optimistic."

There were unconfirmed reports earlier in the week that Samuel Bronfman had been buried with a 10-day supply of air and water.

The elder Bronfman, 46, was to have married Georgiana Eileen Webb, 25, of England on Saturday, but the festivities were postponed. It was to be his third marriage.

Sam, a 6-foot-3 June graduate of Williams College, was last seen eight days ago when he dined with his father.

At 1:45 a.m. Saturday,

Aug. 9, Samuel telephoned his father and said he had been kidnaped by three men while on his way to his mother's home in Purchase, an affluent Westchester county suburb.

The family said Monday that it was in contact with the kidnapers and then on Thursday appealed for more evidence that "Sam is alive and well," at the same time pledging to obey any instructions relayed over a secret telephone number.

To Tour Grand Ole Opry

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Apollo-Soyuz astronauts and cosmonauts and their wives will tour a recording studio and attend the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tenn., on Sept. 12.

Sen. Bill Brock, R-Tenn., said Friday that astronauts Thomas P. Stafford, Vance D. Brand and Donald K. Slayton and cosmonauts Alexei Leonov and Valeri Kubasov will make a one-day stop in Nashville on their tour of the United States.

During the space flight last month, Houston mission control played country music star Conway Twitty's Russian language recording of "Hello Darling" to wake the American astronauts one day.

Desires Name Change

DALLAS (AP) — 11 Councilman Bill Nicol has his way, the name West Dallas will never be mentioned again in official city records and documents.

Nicol wants to rename West Dallas "Riverside" because of its proximity to the Trinity River.

But it isn't the area's location which prompts Nicol's desire for a name change.

It's the history behind West Dallas.

West Dallas spawned Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow and countless scores of other Depression-era hoods.

"I have felt the West Dallas area has had a connotation of crime and poverty in the past. Before 1950, West Dallas was known only as the area where Bonnie and Clyde stayed. It got a reputation of having poor sewage, streets and living conditions in general," he said.

Nicol said Friday that if West Dallas' name and image are changed it may attract new residents. "I want to get the idea across that there is new life in the area."

West Dallas in the 1930s and 1940s was an area mainly of blue collar workers and poor whites.

Now the area is heavily populated by Mexican-Americans. It also has some of the Oak Cliff area's nicest neighborhoods, he said.

Proposed College Budget Reflects 23 Pct. Increase

When the public hearing on the proposed Howard College budget comes up for public hearing Tuesday 12:30 p.m. in the board room of the Student Union Center, prime focus will be $416,537 of 23 per cent more than the current year.

The prime chunks of this increase are in educational services (up $131,000), debt service (up $76,000), plant operation and maintenance (up $50,000), student services due to regrouping of expense assignment (up $44,000), special items due to $65,000 for contingencies (up $59,000), and major repairs (up $41,000).

Part of the increase in educational instruction is in salaries reflecting actions of the Texas legislature, increasing the total about $107,000 for a new total of $610,000.

Debt service is going up because of the new 70-cent rate, which reflects the beginning of debt service on the recent $1,500,000 Petroleum building bond issue.

Plant operation also showed a hefty increase because of higher maintenance (by $21,000) and higher utilities (by $14,000).

Assessed valuation of the district will be $105,175,808, up $15 million from the $89,799,157 on the current roll, principally due to increased mineral (oil) values. The tax rate proposed will be 56 cents to maintenance and 14 cents to debt service as compared to the current 49 and 11. Local operational taxes are estimated at $565,425, up $125,000, and debt service taxes $141,356, up $42,000.

State funds will amount to $880,922, up $173,000 from the current year. Federal funds are $28,300, virtually the same. Tuition, fees and other local sources (including taxes) are $835,583, up $75,000.

Auxiliary enterprises income (athletic, etc) is put at $98,920, up $9,000. Student housing system income $185,338, up $14,000; debt service include $198,244 (up $48,000).

Prospectors View Film

Big Spring Prospectors Club members viewed films of Alaska when they held their meeting Thursday in the TESCO Reddy Room.

Mr. and Mrs. John Quigley presented an illustrated talk on their recent trip. Col. J.H. Samuell displayed a new geological map showing Alaska and its size in comparison with the rest of the United States.

Joe Carter showed carved Aztec Indian Artifacts from Mexico.

Virgil Clark presided at a business session and a rock hunt was scheduled in the Marfa area for Oct. 11-12 with the Midland Club to join the local club on the trip.

Bud Lewis displayed Hong Kong jewelry which was for sale. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Perkins reported on the National Gem and Mineral Show in Denver in June.

The club discussed the possibility of a display at Highland Mall and at the Howard County Fair. A committee was named to locate a building for the lapidary equipment of the club. Virgil Perkins and Bud Lewis were named to the committee.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Lorene Lane, Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Ruth Robinson.

Next meeting is Sept. 11 in the First Federal building.

First Grade Release Time Is Announced

Past practice of the Big Spring Schools has been for first grade students to attend school only one-half day the first week or two.

This is done so the student may have adequate time to adjust to school routine, and so the teacher may have time to make parent contact and possibly home visits.

Since lunch schedules vary from campus to campus, the following list is published so parents may know the dismissal time of their first grade child and the number of days the early dismissal will be in effect:

Aug. 18-22, out at 11:30 a.m. — Airport, Boydston, Cedar Crest, Kentwood, Lakeview, Marcy, Moss, Park Hill

Aug. 18-22, out at 12 Noon — College Heights.

Aug. 18-29, out at 11:30 a.m. — Bauer.

Aug. 18-29, out at 12 Noon — Washington.

SSI Overpayments Top $403 Million?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government's new welfare program for the aged, blind and disabled overpaid its clients by more than $403 million during its first 18 months of operation, the Washington Star said today.

In a copyright story, the Star said its figures of $403,798,830.74 represent only a "partial estimate" of how much the new Supplemental Security Income—SSI—program has cost taxpayers in overpayments.

Program officials said the Star's estimate was based on "a gross figure not adjusted by either underpayments or collected overpayments."

Robert P. Bynum, Social Security's associate administrator for program development, said that after collected overpayments and underpayments are computed into the figure, the overpayments total some $285.1 million.

"If you look at the figure, the $285 million, and you compare it to the almost $8 billion paid out to date in this program, it comes out to something like 3 per cent," Bynum said. "We are not satisfied with that and I am not attempting to justify an overpayment of some $285 million in that way, but I would want to point out that in dealing with individuals in matters of income, resources and living arrangements, in a continuing program, there will be some errors made."

The Star said caseworkers for the Social Security Administration, which administers the program, are sorting through cases in an effort to discover duplicate payments and payments to ineligible clients.

Sources within Social Security's Bureau of Data Processing were quoted by the Star as saying the final total of errors made since the program began Jan. 1, 1974, may approach the $1 billion mark.

The Star said that in addition to the overpayments, caseworkers have discovered instances of underpayments to eligible recipients. The underpayments, the newspaper said, total some $35 million.

The Star quoted one Social Security official as saying, "When we discover that

JOINT VENTURERS' No Ruling In Civil Case Mentioning Billie Sol

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A district court judge listened to legal arguments but issued no ruling Friday in a civil case involving former West Texas financier Billie Sol Estes.

Judge H. L. Lattimore indicated he would reach a decision on a motion for a partial summary judgment in the case early next month.

Estes, and R. K. Horton of Midland, have been named as "joint venturers" in a land development project on more than 1,000 acres of ranch property north of Fort Worth.

Estes, paroled in 1971 after serving more than six years of a 15-year prison term, was not at the hearing.

Under terms of his parole, Estes, whose home is in Abilene, cannot engage in self-employment or promotional enterprise without advance approval.

His role, if any, in the current case has not been established.

The dispute stems in part from claims by W. Keith Maxwell Sr. of Houston that Hidden Valley Country Club Estates, the development project headed by Horton, owes him more than $390,000.

In a cross-action suit directed at Hidden Valley, Horton and "joint venturer" Estes, Maxwell says he is entitled to the fee for helping arrange financing for the development.

Maxwell has obtained liens against the property, blocking its sale. His lawyer, Jerry Weinstein of Fort Worth, told the court he feels the money from any such sale would "be dissipated" without benefit to Maxwell.

Horton's lawyers argued that there is no legal justification for the liens, although they did not challenge on Friday the merits of the debt allegations.

In seeking the partial summary judgment, the lawyers asked Lattimore to dismiss the liens on the grounds there is no validity for such liens even if Maxwell's claims are true.

Lattimore told both sides to file additional briefs and said he would issue a ruling after studying the arguments.

The trial is set for Sept. 29. Midland lawyer Trey Lohman, who has represented Estes in the past, sought permission to withdraw from the case, but Lattimore did not rule at once.

Lohman told newsmen later there was no dispute with Estes and, "I have done what I was hired to do, which was simply to file an answer and take a deposition."

He said "Estes' role is an insignificant part of this lawsuit...The whole idea of bringing in Estes) was embarrassment...Alleging and proving are two different things."

Weinstein told the court at one point that a witness in the case reportedly had been warned not to testify against Estes and Horton. But he could not support the statement and the judge apparently attached little significance to the comment.

Lets Contracts On Weevil Spray

LUBBOCK — Contracts have been let and aerial insecticide applicators are expected to take the air about Aug. 25 in the 12th year of the High Plains Boll Weevil Control Program.

Mass spraying of weevil infested cotton along the eastern edge of the High Plains to protect the vast cotton field to the west has been carried out annually since 1964. The program, initiated and coordinated by Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., has been widely cited as one of the most successful of all large-scale insect control efforts.

Entomologists at Texas A&M calculate that the program has saved control costs, yield and quality losses over the 11-year span amounting to at least $400 million. Cost of the program for the 11 years has been less than $12 million, giving a benefit-cost ratio of well over 300 to 1 said PCE. Cost this year will be about $1.3 million.

Andrews Gospel Sing On Saturday

Saturday night has been set for the presentation of Andrews annual Gospel concert.

This year's event will feature Jerry Jordan and the Jordans, a group that has recently hit the national spotlight with Jerry Jordan's famous "Phone Call From God." Amogos, a Latin gospel group, also will be spotlighted.

The Dallas Cowboys (0-1) visit the Kansas City Chiefs (0-1) Monday night at 8 at Arrowhead Stadium. The Cowboys got their pre-season off to a disappointing start with a 35-7 loss to Los Angeles in the Coliseum last Saturday night while the Chiefs dropped a 10-3 decision to St. Louis.

"We have to make a lot of progress in the next five weeks," said Head Coach Tom Landry as he surveyed the situation following his one-sided loss to the Rams.

The contest will be televised on Channel 5. Dallas hosts the NFC Champion Minnesota Vikings Saturday night in the annual Salesmanship Club Charity Game at Texas Stadium. It's the homer open for the Cowboys.

Big Spring's Vick Woodruff, 6-2, 190, is listed as a member of the Cameron University, Lawton, Okla., football team.

Woodruff saw heavy action last season, alternating every play at tight end. He proved to be a fine blocker. The sophomore candidate made one catch last season and that one was for a TD.

During the spring, he was moved to defensive end and showed signs of being a good one. The experiment will continue when fall drills open. Cameron was 9-3 last campaign.

Registration fee is $7. The youngster must be accompanied at the weigh-in by a parent.

Larry Horton, Big Spring High baseball coach, tried his best to get an extra week of non-conference play next season before the district roll call, but was turned down at Thursday's district meeting.

He felt since the season doesn't start until March 1, it would only allow two weeks to prepare for conference wars. Several district coaches thought it might interfere with their spring football training.

District action will start March 16 instead of the proposed March 23 date. Horton could field his best team ever.

Ernie Banks, the Chicago Cubs' hitting instructor, watched Midland beat Lafayette, 5-1, recently and he liked what he saw. Midland hit the ball 11 times, two of them for doubles.

Another West Texas football magazine, Top-O-Texas Football, became the third poll to predict a second place finish for Stanton High this season.

District 5-A champion Seagraves was rated top again, with Stanton, a strong contender. The magazine implied it had selected Stanton as one of the best Class A teams last year, but injuries to several key starters handicapped the "Big Red."

The magazine also stated that Buffalo Elvin Brown must be considered the top running back returning in the district.

WHAT'S IT WORTH DEPARTMENT — The annual Steer Footbarbeque will take place the night of the seasonal opener with Andrews, here, Sept. 5.

The plate dinner at $2 per person will be served starting at 5 p.m., at the Big Spring High cafeteria. Al's Barbeque will cater.

'Recruit, Retain' Title Won By Tech

DALLAS (AP) — Texas Tech has won the Dallas Times Herald's annual "recruit and retain" title by a lot of players the Red Raiders kept have never lettered.

Research by writer Bob Galt shows 71.7 per cent of Tech football players recruited in 1972 still on scholarship. Tech has retained 28 out of an original 39 prospects but 13 of the players haven't lettered.

In contrast, pre-season SWC favorite Texas A&M has retained a respectable 58.3 per cent with 20 of 21 survivors standing as lettermen.

Chasing Tech to the wire in the 11th Times Herald retention survey was TCU. The Frogs have retained 71.4 per cent of their recruits. Out of 30 survivors from an original class of 42, 29 are on the current Frog roster.

Scoreboard

Table with National League and American League columns, listing teams, wins, losses, and percentages.

The eight conference schools brought in 293 freshmen. Of that number, 171 remain for an overall retention figure of 58.3. That compares to a high of 62 per cent in 1972 and a low of 31 per cent in 1967.

The year of '72 was a super one for blue chip prospects, Conference coaches, voting in a confidential poll conducted by The Times Herald, selected 14 players as "can't miss" specimens. Thirteen of those players are scheduled to start this year and the other will be working in a reserve role.

The starters are quarterback Marty Akins, linebacker Rick Fenlaw and defensive end Ricky Burselon of Texas, halfback Bubba Bean, tight end Richard Osborne and offensive tackle Dennis Smelser of Texas A&M, quarterback Mike Kirkland and running back Ike Forte of Arkansas, halfback Joe Washington and defensive back Scott Hill of Oklahoma, running back Wayne Morris of SMU, running back Ronnie Littleton of TCU, and linebacker Harold Buell of Texas Tech. The 14th man is Texas reserve quarterback Larry Miller.

Six of the players lettered as freshmen in 1972, the first year under an NCAA rule that allowed a player four years of varsity competition. Going for their fourth letters are Bean, Osborne, Kirkland, Morris, Littleton and Washington.

With the missing numbers in parentheses, here's a look at what happened in the fresh recruits no longer participating and on scholarships:

TEXAS TECH (11) — Five either quit school or flunked out. Two transferred. Four gave up scholarships but still in school on own. Others either flunked or quit.

TEXAS (14) — Three transferred, two still in school on own and nine either quit or flunked.

TEXAS A&M (15) — Two transferred, one lost scholarship for disciplinary reasons and 12 either quit or flunked.

BAYLOR (13) — Two transferred and 11 either quit or flunked.

SMU (15) — Eight transferred and seven either quit or flunked.

ARKANSAS (21) — Four gave up scholarships but still in school on own while 11 transferred and five either quit or flunked.

RICE (22) — Five transferred and others either quit or flunked.

Texas was 8-4, including a Gator Bowl loss to Auburn. Two major position changes in spring training were the movement of defensive halfback Alfred Jackson to wide receiver and Lionel Johnson, a second-team all-SWC defensive end, to linebacker.

Texas' 34-game Memorial Stadium winning streak will be tested twice the first month—by Colorado State Sept. 13 and Texas Tech, in the SWC opener, Sept. 27.

In his early years with the Dodgers, his speed was overshadowed by the bases-stealing magic of teammate Maury Wills. And except for his first year,

Rangers Rebound With 5-1 Victory

BALTIMORE (AP) — Jim Fregosi and Tom Grieve hit home runs to back Gaylor Perry's seven-hitter and lead the Texas Rangers to a 5-1 victory over the Baltimore Orioles Saturday night.

The loss, combined with Boston's victory over Chicago, dropped the Orioles seven games behind the first-place Red Sox in the American League East.

Fregosi gave the Rangers a 3-0 lead in the fourth inning with his fourth homer of the season. The blast followed singles by Mike Hargrove and Grieve.

Grieve connected in the sixth for his 10th homer following another single by Hargrove.

SIX IN CONTENTION Veteran Out For First Victory In Nine Years

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Veteran Don Bies, gunning for his first victory in nine years on the tour, pulled into the lead, but six players moved into contention Saturday after the third round of the Greater Hartford Open Golf Tournament.

Bies, 37, winner of $305,377 but never a title, entered the day's play in a tie with Hubert Green but moved in front alone with a four-under-par 67 in cool, cloudy, sometimes drizzly weather.

That gave the soft-spoken, low-key Bies a 54-hole total of 198, 15 under par on the friendly, 6,598-yard Wethersfield Country Club course and a one-stroke lead going into Sunday's final round of the chase for a $40,000 first prize.

Green, whose wife Judi expects their first child at any time, rolled in birdie putts of 40 and 18 feet on the last two holes to stay within a single stroke at 199. He had a 68.

"Finishing with two birdies has to charge him up," Bies said. "He'll be tough." Five others were within four strokes of the leader, even though Bies' three-round total has been bettered only once this season.

J.C. Sneed and Larry Nelson matched 67s and were at 201. Andy North, Vic Regalado and Al Geiberger were grouped at 202, North had a 67. Regalado 65 and Geiberger recorded the best round of the day, a seven-under-par 64. He once chipped in for an eagle and had 10 "3's" on his card.

David Glenz and Terry Dill were just one more shot back at 203. Glenz had a 66, Dill 67.

U.S. Open champion Lou Graham was in contention at one time but bogeyed two of his last three holes for a 71-205.

Johnny Miller, with a support bandage bracing the left wrist he said is painful him, had a 68 and was six shots behind at 204.

OPTIMISTIC OUTLOOK

Burris Enters Third Season As BHS Head Football Coach

By CLARK LESHER
Bob Burris will be entering his third season as head football coach of the Big Spring High Steers.

BOB BURRIS

This fall with Doss, Reynolds and Hughes listed as juniors. Mullins was held out of spring training because of a knee operation last fall. His knee has received a clean bill of health.

General comment on your two seasons at Big Spring? Burris: "We have made progress, though it is hard to see from the won-lost record, 1-9, 1973 and 3-7, 1974.

"This year's team has a good attitude and positive thinking and features more speed from last year. Only four men ran the 40 under five flat in 1974, now we have 22.

"I feel we are headed in the right direction." Highlights? Burris: "Season of 1973. No comment."

"Season of 1974: We played a lot better after going to the two-plateau system. We were then able to get maximum effort from the players.

"Young players saw action from the two-plateau, collecting experience quick."

Biggest disappointment? Burris: "Losing in Snyder in 1974. Losing to Abilene High in 1974."

Best team faced? Burris: "Tie between Midland Lee and San Angelo."

What game surprised you the most by winning? Burris: "Abilene Cooper in 1974. This was the game we started using the two-plateau."

Rival player you remember the most by losing?

Burris: "Wilton Cobb of Snyder. His defense ability plus being a big threat on offense."

Best players coached? Burris: "Tom Sorley, John Thomas Smith, Danny Ferrell and James Coffey."

Most respected rival coach? Burris: "Tommy Watkins of Andrews. First game of 1975. P.S. Watkins won the state title five times while at Iowa Park of AA. He also captured the district flag eight times."

Outlook for coming season? Burris: "Offensive and defensive interior-line is young. Only one senior on both sides."

"I feel we will not finish last in the district in 1975 and anticipate of breaking better than .500."

Astros Halted

HOUSTON (AP) — Jose Cardenal drove in two runs Saturday with a single and a homer, and Rick Reuschel scattered eight Houston hits to lead the Chicago Cubs to a 3-2 victory over the Astros.

Rob Sperring opened the first inning with a single off Dave Roberts, 7-14, and was bunted to second by Rick Munday before Cardenal sent him home with a single to center.

The Cubs made it 2-0 in the second on singles by Andy Thornton and Manny Trillo and Steve Swisher's sacrifice fly, then Cardenal drove in what proved to be the winning run with his eighth homer of the year in the third inning.

Reuschel, 9-13, gave up a pair of unearned runs in the seventh. Roger Metzger singled and Wilbur Howard was safe on Thornton's two-out error at first. Both runners scored on Greg Gross' double to right center field.

A's Beat Brewers

OAKLAND (AP) — Bill North's ninth-inning sacrifice fly gave the Oakland A's a 2-1 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers Saturday.

Sal Bando drew a walk from Jim Slaton, 11-13, to start the inning, then pinch runner Tommy Harper stole second and moved to third when Phil Garner looped a one-out single to shallow center field.

Bert Campaneris was intentionally walked to load the bases before North lofted his game-winning fly ball to Bill Sharp in left field.

Rollie Fingers, 8-5, who came on in the eighth inning, got the victory. The Brewers scored in the second inning off Ken Holtzman on Charlie Moore's first home run of his major league career.

Oakland tied it in the fourth on Billy Williams' single. It followed Reggie Jackson's pop fly to short center field which fell for a double when three Brewers converged on it, then lost it in the sun.

Twins Romp Over Tribe

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — Dan Ford's two-run double and Phil Roof's two-run homer paced a 20-hit Minnesota assault that carried rookie Jim Hughes and the Twins to a 9-1 romp over the Cleveland Indians Saturday.

The Twins, who have won seven of their last eight games, scored twice in the first inning against Eric Raich, 6-8, then chased him with a four-run second, two of the runs on Ford's double. Roof touched reliever Jackie Brown for his fourth homer of the year in the fifth inning.

DOCK ELLIS REFUSED TO WORK IN BULLPEN

Ellis was fined and suspended at that time and was told by Brown that he would not pitch again until he was willing to do what Murtaugh said.

Brown said Murtaugh subsequently received a call Saturday from Ellis, in which the pitcher said he was willing to go along with the general manager's guidelines, meaning the suspension would have been lifted.

FROSH TO PROVIDE PUNCH Mustangs Could Soar Or Dive This Season

DALLAS (AP) — Southern Methodist football fortunes this fall could soar or dive depending on a talented group of freshmen who are barely old enough to vote.

The Mustangs of Coach Dave Smith return enough starters from their 6-4-1 squad in 1974 to field an experienced and potent offense.

Smith says the Mustangs truly have an outstanding offensive line with the likes of tackles Henry Sheppard and Jim Duggan and guards Guy Thomas and Horace Deery.

There is quality in the ground-oriented Wishbone-T backfield with oft-injured halfback Wayne Morris, fullback David Bostick and wing-footed quarterback Ricky Wesson, who has a strong passing arm but has lacked accuracy in the past.

Wesson is just three yards away from becoming the leading rushing quarterback in the school's history and he is just a junior.

Arthur Whittington, who returned a kickoff 100 yards last year against Arkansas as a freshman out of Cuero, will be the other starting halfback.

Morris says, "I think our offense can rank with any in the nation. We can move the ball and the other teams can't score if they don't have it."

The 6-foot-1, 195-pound senior needs only 491 yards to become the most prolific ground-gainer in SMU history, surpassing Alvin Maxson's total of 2,734 yards.

Smith says of Morris: "He is a slashing-type runner who will find every crack and crevice in the opposition defense."

Also looming in Mustang offensive plans are swift wide receivers Kenny Harrison and Freeman Johns, who are capable of breaking up any game on sudden touchdown bombs off Wesson's arm.

Now, to the youngsters coming out of high school, green but good. Milton Jones of Midland Lee is a tough fullback type as is Walt Foster of Pasadena and Anthony Myers is a halfback sensation from Corpus Christi Moody Anthony Myers is a halfback sensation from Corpus Christi Moody.

Boston Powers By White Sox

CHICAGO (AP) — Roger Moret and Jim Willoughby handcuffed the Chicago White Sox on two hits Saturday and Carlton Fisk and Dwight Evans supplied the power that led the Boston Red Sox to a 5-0 victory.

Fisk tripled with two outs in the first inning of the nationally televised game after Wilbur Wood, 12-16, had given Juan Beniquez a leadoff walk. Evans belted his 10th home run in the seventh inning.

The Red Sox put the game away with three runs in the second. Fisk singled, stole center field and came home on Fred Lynn's single. Evans then tripled to score Lynn, and Cecil Cooper chased Wood with a single for the final run.

Moret, 9-2, pitched the first seven innings and gave up both Chicago hits before a sore back forced him out. He has beaten the White Sox three times this season and hasn't given them a run in 22 innings.

He gave up a leadoff single to Bill Stein in the third inning, then Stein was erased when Brian Downing grounded into a double play. The White Sox didn't get another hit until Bucky Dent singled in the seventh. But Dent also was wiped out on a double-play bouncer, this one by Ken Henderson.

Mets Shock Giants, 4-2

NEW YORK (AP) — Joe Torre belted a two-run homer in the second inning, and shoddy San Francisco fielding gave New York two more runs in the sixth as the Mets beat the Giants 4-2 Saturday.

Torre's fifth homer of the season, a shot over the left field fence off Pete Falcone, 88, followed a walk to Dave Kingman and wiped out the Giants' 1-0 lead.

San Francisco got its first run off Swan, 1-0, in the second inning. Gary Matthews walked, took second on a balk, moved to third on Gary Thomasson's single and scored when center fielder Gene Clines misplayed the hit. Von Joshua singled for the Giants' other run in the ninth.

'SNAKEBIT' PITCHER Gullett Returns To Red Rotation

CINCINNATI (AP) — Don Gullett admits to being unlucky but pooh-poohs allegations he may be a "snakebit" pitcher.

Gullett returns to the mound for the Cincinnati Reds Monday night against the St. Louis Cardinals in a nationally televised game exactly nine weeks after suffering a broken left hand.

The thumb fracture, a result of a line drive by Atlanta's Larryell Blanks, was the latest in a series of mishaps for the 24-year-old pitcher who Manager Sparky Anderson calls "the best lefthander in baseball."

"I guess I've had some bad luck," said the five-year veteran from nearby Lynn, Ky. "First it was hepatitis, then my back." And hurt elbows and sprained ankles.

Each setback has taken Gullett out of the Reds' lineup. He has yet to be the 20-game winner that Anderson annually predicts, although he was 17-11 last season and 18-8 in 1973.

Gullett said he is not accident prone. He works at keeping himself in shape and ready for contingencies.

After he was injured June 18, he spent hours viewing the video tape of the accident figuring out ways to avoid a repeat.

"They call third base the hot corner," he said, "but on the mound you're 29 feet closer to the plate than the third baseman and you're off balance all the time."

Gullett was 9-3 when hurt and had seven complete games. The Reds have only 20 complete games going into the weekend series with Pittsburgh.

Gullett said he believes he is now fully recovered from the hairline fracture. "No, it doesn't hurt anymore. It's not very sore," he said.

Off-Campus Visits Limited To Three

CHICAGO (AP) — Just how successful was the National Collegiate Athletic Association's cost-cutting convention?

Well, if you ask Walter Byers, the body's executive director, it accomplished huge savings, perhaps as much as $15 million for schools in Divisions I and II.

If you ask Dr. Stephen Horn, president of Long Beach State, it was not nearly as successful as it could have and should have been.

Byers used the $15 million figure—he called it a "guesstimate"—based only on the reductions in the values of grants and slashes in staff size. "When you add the savings from the recruiting measures and squad sizes we've adopted, that figure increases," he said.

But Dr. Horn was somewhat disappointed over the convention's refusal to cut quite so far as he would have liked. His proposal that Division I football grants be progressively slashed from the current 105 to 65 by Sept. 1, 1978, was soundly defeated. Delegates preferred a much more modest cut to 95 with initial grants maintained at 30.

"Most of the cuts were inconsequential," Dr. Horn said. "One president said to me, 'I've sat here five hours and saved $134.'"

But $15 million certainly is more than inconsequential and the measures adopted in many areas will have wide-ranging repercussions throughout collegiate athletics as they begin to be implemented by the NCAA's 809 member institutions and their conferences with the start of the 1975-76 school year.

Among the more important ones was elimination of the $15 expense money paid monthly to athletes on scholarships and the decision to limit prospects to six expense-paid visits to institutions. Previously, there was no limit on the number of trips prospective student athletes could accept.

In the area of recruiting, the delegates voted to limit themselves to three off-campus contacts per student-athlete and set a rigid calendar of dates for recruiting. That was a pet project of Darrell Royal, athletic director and football coach at the University of Texas, who called recruiting, "the absolute most important legislation we are considering."

The convention voted a maximum limit of 80 scholarship grants in all sports except football and basketball. That represented about a 40 per cent cut in awards and imposed for the first time an over-all limit in that area. That means that athletes seeking scholarships in sports other than football and basketball will find leaner pickings than ever before.

But the big sports didn't escape the knife. Squad limitation quotas were passed, holding traveling teams to 48 players in football and 10 in basketball. That could dictate strategy changes, particularly in basketball where injuries or players fouling out could place a severe crimp on a visiting team's chance for victory.

In many of the minor sports, slashes were so severe that administrators questioned whether viable programs could be continued. But amendments seeking increases in the proposed figures were repeatedly defeated. The delegates were apparently intent in standing by the imposed slashes. And they did just that.

Series of Events Ellis Receives Buc Suspension

CINCINNATI (AP) — Pittsburgh Pirates pitcher Dock Ellis was suspended indefinitely without pay Saturday for what General Manager Joe Brown called "insubordination."

The suspension was the result of a series of events which included Ellis' refusal to warm up during the Pirates' game against the Cincinnati Reds Friday night, according to Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh. The Reds won that game 8-3.

After Ellis finished, Murtaugh told him to leave the clubhouse. "We haven't even told him he's suspended," Brown said. "He showed no consideration for us and we're not going to show any consideration for him."

Ellis was fined and suspended at that time and was told by Brown that he would not pitch again until he was willing to do what Murtaugh said.

Bulldogs Lock Depth For '75

By CLARK LESHER
Charles Lynch, taking over for Norman Roberts as Coahoma high school football coach, will be out to keep the Bulldog winning tradition alive.

Last year, the Bulldogs were 7-2-1. Coahoma's last district flag was snagged in 1972. Lynch moved up the coaching ladder, serving last season as a Bulldog assistant.

CHARLES LYNCH

Roberts will stay on as an assistant coach as well as continuing as the school's athletic director. He has held the AD post for three years, the length of his head coaching tenure.

The Bulldog football staff besides Lynch and Roberts, includes Jody Sory, Jan East and Roger Hudgins.

Coahoma started working out in shorts Monday, switching to pads Friday. Drills on a twice-a-day basis were held. Monday drills will be held once a day at 3 p.m.

Before the season gets underway, the Bulldogs have two scrimmages planned. They are: Aug. 22, Crane, there and Aug. 29, Stanton, home. Varsity will play at 8 p.m. and the JV, 6 p.m., both games.

Coahoma opens the season at home with Big Lake, Sept. 5. The Bulldogs have been fortunate to win their last two home openers.

The third game of the year will be a road contest against potent Cisco, ranked No. 5 in the pre-season poll. Cisco sported the No. 2 state role last year when the Bulldogs won, 51-8.

Ballingier has been picked to win the 1975 6-AA marbles. Hamlin, last year's champs, lost out in the bi-district to Denver City.

Though featuring its thinnest depth in years, Coahoma with its "Big Red" pride, can't be counted out of the district race.

"A lot of players will be seeing their first game under the gun," said Lynch. "But I have confidence they will mature real fast, provided a few bounces go our way."

Coahoma will go with the 1-formation as a switch was made from the wishbone late last season because of injuries. The Bulldogs will have a big backfield gap to fill in the graduation of Putt Choate. "We won't be able to count on one player to carry us. Team play will be the game order each week," said Lynch.

Lynch has three offensive and four defensive starters at back. They include: Offense — Gary Roberts, halfback, 5-9, 160; Ricky Patterson, fullback, 6-0, 190; and Mike Collier, moved from tight-end to back. All three are seniors and two-year lettermen.

Defense — Roberts, Oscar Padron, strong cornerback, 5-8, 150; Bill Jennings, 6-3, 195. All, with the exception of Roberts, are one-year lettermen. Padron and Jennings are seniors and Fryer, a junior.

Coahoma roster: Seniors — Roberts, Patterson, Collier, Padron, Jennings, Tim Higgins, Steve Kohnock, Charles Tindol and Joe Wright.

Juniors — Fryer, Edwin Dickson, Ken Fryer, George Herrera, Ken Keiso, Tom Marvin, Freddie Moran, Ray Don Myers, Billy Smith, Danny Thomas, Roger Tindol and Bill Brown.

Sophomores — Dusty Douglas, and T.V. schedule: Sept. 5, Big Lake, here; Sept. 12, Post, there; Sept. 19, Cisco, here; Sept. 26, McCamey, here; Oct. 3, Colorado City, here; Oct. 10, Anson, there; Oct. 17, Winters, here; Oct. 24, Ballinger, here; Oct. 31, Hamlin, here; Nov. 7, open; Nov. 14, Stamford, there.

Only 37 Report For Buff Drills

Only 37 candidates reported for Stanton High football opening fall practice which started this week. This is 20 some short of the number needed for the Buffs to compete on a varsity and junior varsity level.

Bob Richardson, first-year head coach, explained that several candidates, who were expected to bolster the Buff ranks, have not reported yet. Some of those have probably been hampered by summer jobs and others by family vacations.

Richardson, Buff assistant last year, replaced Bill Young, who resigned to become Stanton High principal.

Ramblers, Central Champions

The Randolph Ramblers swept three straight games last weekend to take down the Air Training Command Central Division Fast-Pitch Softball title at Webb AFB.

The Randolph nine blasted the hometown Dusters, 13-0 and downed the Lackland Warhawks twice, 2-1 and 8-3, to advance to the finals of ATC play. The Ramblers and Warhawks, a pair of seasoned squads, entered play as the pre-tournament favorites with the Reese Rattlers, Laughlin Raiders and the host Webb Dusters vying for spoiler roles in the double elimination event.

The advance billing led to form as the two powerhouses mowed down the opposition on their way to a semifinal showdown in the winner's bracket. The Ramblers, behind the four-hit pitching of Bill Lempink, sent the Warhawks spinning to the loser's bracket, 2-1, and awaited Lackland's return to the finals.

Batting Battle Tight In 'AA'

The battle for batting championship of the Texas League saw another change this week as the previous leader fell off the pace.

Al Montreaux of Midland, by simply holding on to his average, moved to the top rung on the ladder, batting .334. El Paso's Paul Dade fell off his .342 average and trails with a .333.

Dade, however, leads the AA circuit in runs batted in, totaling 81.

Gary Alexander, Lafayette, continues to lead in homers, blasting away for 20.

A race has developed in the stolen base department, with three speedsters vying for honors. Shreveport's Jim Sexton is first with 37, but Dave Macher of El Paso is only one back, and Midland's Jose Ortiz, four back.

Shreveport's Tim Jones is the league's top hurler. He has compiled the most wins, 12, and the best earned run average, a 2.65.

Rangers Split 2

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles had just pounded out 33 hits, split a doubleheader with Texas, and stayed within striking distance of first place Boston in the American League East.

But all Manager Earl Weaver of the Orioles wanted to talk about was umpire Don Luciano, who ejected him from both games of Friday's twi-night doubleheader.

SPENCE REPORT Cattfish Biting Better At Lake

Channel cattfish were biting increasingly at Lake E. V. Spence, the weekly fishing report reflects. Several hundred were caught during the week.

There were a number of striped bass, too, along with some white bass.

The Lubbock Bass Club had its partnership tournament last weekend. Jim Stephen and Jerry Grapham had the best string of 7 lb, 14 oz the first day; Grapham and Gary Okley had the biggest string of 20 1/2 lbs; Larry Dodwin's 6-lb. bass was the best single fish.

Among reports from the lake: Y.J.'s Marina — Ralph Wood and Linda Harris, Odessa, 23 channel cat to 4 1/2 lb; Dale Meredith, Denver City, 32 channel cat to 5 lb and a 3-lb striped bass; Tim and Leslie Schwager, four black bass to 2 1/2 lb; W. L. Wimberly, Joe Halford, Kevin Wimberly and party, 306 channel cat to 3 lb, 10 white bass, 12 crappie and a 5 1/2-lb striper.

Dink's Bait — Raymond Horton and party, Odessa, 10 channel cat to 4 1/2 lb; Charles and Bill Harris, Odessa, 40 channel cat to 4 1/2 lb; Chris Cartman, Sterling City, 27 white bass; Glen Couthran, Midland, 5 1/2-lb yellow cat.

Triangle Grocery — Bill Bugg and party, Odessa, 10 channel cat to 3 lb.

Wildcat Fish-A-Rama — Jay and Mark Martin, Big Spring, 49 channel cat to 6 lb; Donald Holt, Lubbock, two channel cat to 6 lb and three crappie; Capt. David Andrews, Capt. Ed Frye, Big Spring, 4-lb striper; Roy Anderson, Big Spring, 4 1/2-lb striper; Lance McMillan, David Baremore, Snyder, 31 channel cat to 1 1/2 lb; Jackie Berry, Big Spring, 16-lb yellow cat and 17 channel cat to 3 lb; R. C. Cook, Odessa, 4-lb striper.

The C of C has attracted several sports events here. The most recent attraction was the Moto-Cross Firecracker $5,000 held July 5 and 6.

HEADED FOR HALL OF FAME — Ralph Kiner calls the action during a recent Mets game in Pittsburgh.

At 52, Kiner, a former home run slugger for the Pirates, made it to the hall of fame by the slimmest margin in balloting by the Baseball Writer's Association of America.

The Tiger-Cubs Go On Road

With wishful thinking, the Big Spring Tiger-Cubs will be out to fatten their season record against host Abilene today.

Game time is 1:30 p.m.

The Tiger-Cubs stand even for the year at 5-5.

Against the Midland Apaches last week, Ismale Padres tossed a seven-hitter as Big Spring won, 12-4. His record is now 2-3.

The Tiger-Cubs' Ernie Garcia and Bill Diaz swatted the three times in five in the Midland contest with teammate Billy Wood, going two for three.

The season for the Tiger-Cubs, to end today, has been extended for a week. Manager Tota Garcia's club will enter the Duncan Invitational set for Friday through Sunday at the Johnny Stone Park.

$325,000 Settlement

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. and the now-defunct San Antonio Telephone Co. (Santel) have settled a multimillion lawsuit out of court for $325,000.

U.S. District Court Judge John H. Woods Jr. approved the settlement.

Santel claimed that the Bell System tried to force it out of business. For several years, the local phone company sold office phone equipment which tied into the Bell network.

In the original suit, Santel asked for $3 million.

Woods accepted the agreement after Bankruptcy Judge Bert Thompson verbally approved the settlement.

"The $325,000 will be applied to outstanding $3 million debts of Santel," Thompson said.

Northeastern Telephone Co. of Connecticut refused to accept the settlement. Northeastern joined Santel when the antitrust suit was filed several years ago.

Bell never admitted any unfair practices took place against Santel.

BOOM ON SHARK JAWS — Ralph Ferguson holds one of many shark jaws he is selling fast since the movie was released. Shark jaws had collected dust for years on the shelves of Ferguson's warehouse near Los Angeles Harbor. Within weeks, Ferguson's original inventory of 15,000 jaws was down to 5,000 — and the rest are going fast. "It's a joke," says Ferguson, since the movie, all of a sudden people are begging for them.

Texas International 'Service' Draws Fire

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas International could follow Southwest Airlines' example and develop several lucrative nonstop flights in Texas, a Texas Aeronautics Commission hearing examiner testified Friday.

"This assumes Texas International aggressively pursued development of these markets," Joan Holloway said in district court. But there have been instances, she said, when markets served by Texas International failed to reach their potential "because of the level of service" by that airline.

She named the El Paso-Houston, Austin-El Paso, Amarillo-Houston and the recently opened McAllen-Dallas corridors as possibilities for heavy nonstop traffic.

Texas International seeks to have the court rescind TAC's approval of Southwest's flights to Harlingen.

Texas International contends the state regulatory agency wants to build an empire by favoring intrastate airlines, such as Southwest, in disputes with interstate airlines, such as Texas International.

Over the protest of Texas International, Southwest has served Harlingen since February and has captured nearly 95 per cent of that market from Texas International because of lower fares and, Southwest says, better service.

Mrs. Holloway confirmed that an unregulated price war between Braniff and Southwest Airlines in 1972 encouraged TAC to approve expansion of intrastate systems which it could control.

Southwest's "commuter service" fares undercut Braniff's in the Houston-Dallas corridor.

Braniff retaliated, according to Texas International lawyer James Wilson, by dropping its fare below cost, to $13, forcing Southwest to raise its rate to what Braniff wanted to charge.

Wilson asked Mrs. Holloway if TAC's inability to make Braniff charge a reasonable rate during the price war contributed to TAC's attitude in support of expansion of systems over which TAC would have control.

"That's right," Mrs. Holloway said.

Wilson suggested to Mrs. Holloway that the state regulatory agency's real fight is with the federal Civil Aeronautics Board, which has let interstate carriers set their own fares for intrastate flights. He noted she has favored joint hearings by TAC and the CAB in disputes over intrastate fares.

Mrs. Holloway reaffirmed that position. With such joint hearings, she said, "We might have some resolution to the kind of problems we have here today."

She noted that Texas International's position has been that it is forced to serve many small cities while "marauders" such as Southwest are permitted to invade the more profitable markets.

TAC Chairman Rex Cagle has pointed out that Texas International received $65 million in federal subsidies over the last 10 years to provide service to those smaller cities.

Ban Son Of Yacht Broker From Driving In Florida

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — A multimillionaire involved in an auto crash which killed a Fort Lauderdale youth has been banned from driving in Florida.

In a legal maneuver described as unique, Broward Circuit Court Judge Gene Fischer ruled Thursday that the driving habits of Leo Goodwin III, 23, whose driver's license already had been suspended at the time of the fatal crash, were a public nuisance.

The ban came in an injunction against Goodwin's right to drive and Fischer said it will remain in effect until a hearing can be held on a permanent injunction.

A petition, which was not entered into evidence, was also presented to the court signed by 1,300 area residents asking that Goodwin be banned from Florida roads.

Goodwin, whose license was suspended last Nov. 26 after eight speeding tickets, was the driver of the Porsche sports car involved in a crash that killed former Fort Lauderdale High School football star Jon Skillings and injured Skillings' companion on July 20, police said.

Last week, Goodwin was charged by police as the driver of a speeding Ferrari which crashed into two parked cars, setting one afire and causing $35,000 damage.

The son of a wealthy Fort Lauderdale yacht broker and philanthropist, Goodwin was not in court but was represented by an attorney who said Goodwin declined to speak in his own behalf to avoid risking self-incrimination on the traffic charges.

Purdy said he could find no precedent for the injunction on the basis of a driver being designated a public nuisance.

Auditor Is Commended

County Auditor Virginia Black has been recognized again for her yearly financial reports.

Howard County was presented with a certificate of conformance for the annual report she prepared on 1973 finances.

Now, the Municipal Finance Officers Association National Committee on Governmental Accounting (MFOA-NCGA) has informed Mrs. Black her 1974 financial report also is up to its standards.

A letter signed by the organization's executive director notes "a comment should be incorporated in your annual report to indicate that the report for the year ended Dec. 31, 1974, was reviewed and found to continue to meet MFOA-NCGA standards for financial reporting."

"The county and its officials are commended for continuing to meet the highest standards for financial reporting, and for its efforts to continue to improve its reports to achieve even further conformance to MFOA-NCGA standards," Donald W. Beatty, MFOA executive director, said.

Copter Bird Of All Trades

WASHINGTON (AP) - The helicopter has become a valuable aircraft because of the energy crisis.

The National Geographic Society says a survey shows that the whirlybird is in demand by oil and coal companies.

It also ranges far beyond coal and petroleum fields to perform mercy missions, herd livestock, dust crops, control traffic, fight crime, fight forest fires, resseed forest, stock fish in remote lakes and streams and aid in pollution-control projects.

Helicopters fly regular pollution patrols over places like San Francisco Bay.

But helicopters are also taking the place of the cattle trucker and his horse or tractor. Not long ago, a whirlybird swooped out of the sky and spirited away a number of large hogs.

The first helicopter destined for useful work was not seen publicly until an early Sikorsky model rose from Bridgeport, Conn., in 1942 for delivery to the U.S. Army Air Corps. It mystified onlookers on its 600-mile maiden voyage. One startled air-rail spotter reported, "A windmill just flew by."

Bent Grass Greens Present Colonial Problem

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Despite record ticket sales, a fat $250,000 purse and a glittering cast, all is not rosy on the eve of the Tournament Players Golf Championship.

The problem: Colonial Country Club's bent grass greens.

It's what you might call a good news-bad news situation.

"They're better than you could hope for at this time of year but not as good as what you'd find in the springtime," said Tom Place, a PGA official.

Not long ago, host pro Roland Harper surveyed the greens and said:

"I think everybody out here is worried. The players are going to complain. We're expecting that. The only answer is that the greens are going to be the same for all of them."

August is simply not the ideal time for golf and bent grass in sultry North Central Texas. In the spring, during Colonial's normal tournament dates, the greens are superb.

"Bent grass becomes dormant," explained one tournament official, Joe Matthews. "It doesn't flourish in the heat and humidity. All we can do is keep people off the greens and pamper them as best we can."

Some three weeks ago, Colonial, aware of the potential turmoil, opted for temporary greens at 17 of the 18 holes. Ground crews have nursed the normally velvetine surfaces into the best shape possible.

"The experts agree that they're going to putt better than they look," Place said. "They are thin and pretty firm and should putt fairly true. "I'm told they're in the best shape they've ever been—for this time of year. And the fairways are the best they've ever been.

"The rough is far better

CONTROVERSY AT ALABAMA — Alabama All-American defensive end Leroy Cook (right) said that coach Paul "Bear" Bryant (left) lied to players who were disciplined for misconduct this week. Earlier in the week Cook and five other Alabama football players were placed on probation and two others were suspended from the team. Both photos are 1975 file shots.

colleagues will respond to the course, a rosined par 70 spread nestled along the Trinity River.

But PGA Commissioner Deane Beman, who apparently minimized the problem with the greens, recently observed: "The Colonial Country Club ... always has been regarded as one of golf's classic tests, so it will be an appropriate site for the second annual Tournament Players Championship.

"We look for it to have the strongest field of the year—and possibly of all time."

Pro defensive tackle Bob Lilly announced his retirement, and aging split end Bob Hayes was traded to San Francisco.

Also, center Dave Mangear, a mainstay of the 1971 team, retired earlier in the summer.

WALT GARRISON

Another Cowboy Leaves

DALLAS (AP) — Without fanfare, veteran fullback Walt Garrison quietly announced his retirement Friday, leaving quarterback Roger Staubach as the lone survivor of the Dallas Cowboy in 1974 starting backfield.

Tailback Calvin Hill jumped the club to play for Hawaii in the World Football League.

It was yet another blow to a team which reached its peak with a victory over Miami in the 1971 Super Bowl. Only weeks ago All-

Pro defensive tackle Bob Lilly announced his retirement, and aging split end Bob Hayes was traded to San Francisco.

Also, center Dave Mangear, a mainstay of the 1971 team, retired earlier in the summer.

READY FOR AGGIE LAND — Miss Pam Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Little, No. 5 Coachman, will be leaving soon for College Station to return to Texas A&M where she will be a junior medical technology major. She is displaying a necessary item in a A&M coed's wardrobe — an Aggie jersey.

This coming year will be her last in College Station. The program she is in requires her to spend a full year studying and working at an accredited hospital. Miss Little hopes to do her study at Methodist Hospital in Houston.

She characterized A&M as being a school steeped in tradition. She said because this school year would be the Centennial year, the populace of A&M would be even more concerned with the university's history.

Coeds Off To College

College students return to college a little later in August than do the elementary and high school students. But in late August off they do go to an entirely different world than high school and home provides and the school is usually farther away than a few miles. It is hard for the parents to let them go from the protected home environment and, as fathers always tell their daughters, it is even harder to let their girls go.

COLLEGE TALK — (From left to right) Miss Kae McLaughlin, Miss Ann Worthy and Miss Betty Anne Looney are reviewing a Tech football program, visualizing the changes to be made because Steve Sloan, formerly head football coach at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn., has taken over that responsibility for Texas Tech.

Miss McLaughlin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McLaughlin of 112 Cedar. She is a senior home economics education major at Texas Tech University. She will be student-teaching the first part of the semester in Ralls, finishing her academic subjects the last part of the fall semester. Her plans are to stay in Lubbock after her December graduation to take some business courses or begin study in consumer law.

Miss Worthy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Worthy, Snyder Highway, will enter Texas Tech this fall as a freshman chemistry major. She will live in Chitwood dormitory and plans to pledge a sorority.

Miss Looney is a junior general biology major at Vanderbilt University. She is a pre-med student and wants to return to Texas for medical school.

She explained that 75 per cent of the student at Vanderbilt are pre-professional, most going on to medical or law schools all over the country.

She said that the people of West Texas and their hospitality were the things she missed most about Texas.

HOWARD COLLEGE BOUND — Miss Sue Garrett (left) and Miss Martha Trevino stop outside the Howard College Dora Roberts Student Union Building. Both girls graduated in May from Big Spring High School and will be entering Howard College this fall as freshmen.

Miss Garrett is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Garrett, 715 Edwards. She decided to stay in Big Spring for her first year of college because at the junior college students have the advantage of more personalized education and a less pressured environment for freshmen. She plans to attend Texas Tech University her sophomore year.

Miss Trevino agrees with Miss Garrett that the small college atmosphere attracted her to Howard College. She will be living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Trevino in Big Spring. After attending two years at HC, she would like to attend Bauder Fashion College in Arlington to specialize in fashion merchandising.

Couple United In Marriage

Miss Karen Kay Trupp became the bride of Bernard Charles Finnerty III in an afternoon ceremony Saturday in the First United Methodist Church.

The Rev. William R. Fleming officiated as the wedding party stood before basket arrangements of gladioli and white majestic daisies flanked by branched candelabra. Nuptial selections were performed by Charles B. Parham Jr., organist, and Mrs. Carl Bradley, vocalist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Trupp, 208 Circle Dr., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B.C. Finnerty Jr., Denver, Colo.

A graduate of Big Spring High School, the bride has a degree in elementary education from Texas Tech University and was associated with the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. She received a M.A. degree in remedial reading from the University of Colorado and is employed at the Greenlee Elementary School in Denver. Finnerty is a graduate of East High School of Denver and is employed by Quist Furniture Mfg. Co. of Denver. Upon returning from a trip to Vail, Colo., the couple will reside in Denver.

For the wedding, the bride chose to wear an empire gown of white silk organza and Venice lace. The bodice applied with lace, featured a high ruffled Victorian neckline and long full bishop sleeves ending in a ruffle. The A-line skirt, with a deep flounce embellished in Venice lace, swept into a chapel train. Her three-tiered veil of white silk illusion fell from a lace Camelot cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of white cattleya orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Robert Goodlett, Lubbock, was the matron of honor, and was attired in a floor-length halter dress of yellow dotted Swiss with a matching sheer jacket. She wore a white picture hat. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Carl Baker of Phoenix, Ariz., and Miss Sue Faulkenberry. They were attired in dresses identical to the matron of honor's and carried meadowlark bouquets of mixed white and golden daisies.

Serving as best man was George Surrnick of Phoenix, Ariz., and groomsmen were James D. Stitt and James E. Thompson, both of Denver.

Following the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church. Crystal and silver appointments were used on the table laid with a white chintilly lace cloth. An arrangement of white daisies and yellow roses with branched silver candelabrum centered the table. Serving from the refreshment table were Mrs. Felix Jarratt, Mrs. S. D. Faulkenberry, Mrs. Roy Rosene, Mrs. Barnett W. Hinds, and Mrs. Bernard F. Armour Jr. of Shreveport, La.

Attending from out-of-town were Miss Carolyn Duffy, Miss Joyce Murray, Scott Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Locke, all of Denver; and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Armour Jr., Shreveport, La.

Crinkled Gauze In Fall Fashions

One of fall fashion's biggest hits will be the crinkled gauze look, one local fashion observer reported.

Heavier fabrics such as duck have a crinkled surface to give the gauze effect, and sheer doubleknits that imitate gauze are available. Crinkled polyester chiffon will make its appearance in loungewear.

One variation on gauze fashion is striped gauzes with a 3-D look due to alternating solid and sheer areas.

Open work gauzes in stripes will be seen. Also double-woven fabric — smooth on one side and crinkled on the other — adds to this fashionable look.

Surface textures play a popular role in fall fashions. Use of ribs, slubs and nubs will continue, as will blending in fur or rabbit hair for a soft look.

One of the newer looks is shiny flecks and lines made by using very shiny yarns periodically in a dull fabric. Lightweight synthetic yarn knitted to look like terry cloth will be available too.

Both knitted and woven fabrics will be lighter in weight, continuing the soft look of summer. Prints continue important, too. Pointillistic dots are used for landscapes and florals. Calico prints and art deco geometrics are still new. An addition to these is the "marbled" print in monotonous and tricolor combinations.

Vows Exchanged In Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Jane Ann Stoker was wed to Jimmy Bruce Dean Saturday evening in a candlelight ceremony with the Rev. R. E. Honea, pastor, officiating in the Grace Baptist Church.

Gypsophila, garlands and blue carnations embellished an arch, which centered the altar. Palms holding white tapers flanked either side with basket arrangements of white mums and carnations.

Musicians were Miss Annabeth Deats, pianist; Mrs. John Gieselman and Mrs. Jesseal Martin, organists; and Miss Barbara Dirks and Lynn Kizer, vocalists.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Stoker Jr., 2905 Alabama, and Mrs. Pauline Henson, 1114 Main. Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Big Spring High School and Dean is now attending Angelo State University in San Angelo where the couple will make their home.

The bride chose to wear for the wedding a Juliet styled gown of white Quiana knit. The empire bodice featured tapered sleeves and a high neckline. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a Camelot cap covered in grapeleaf lace, seed pearls, crystal beads and diamond crystals. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations and garlands of stephanotis.

Mrs. Kenney Trousdale of Bedford served as her sister's matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of baby blue Quiana knit. The empire bodice was designed with leg-of-mutton sleeves, a scoop neckline edged in a ruffle and a waistline bordered with a braid of seed pearls. Matching trim adorned her open-styled Juliet caplet.

Bridesmaids were Miss Carrie Crump and Miss Michelle Trousdale, Bedford, who wore floor-length dresses of powder blue double knit printed with small white flowers. The dresses were styled with high necklines, puff sleeves and empire waistlines trimmed in a ruffle and a waistline bordered with a braid of seed pearls. Matching trim adorned her open-styled Juliet caplet.

The best man was Max Phillips of Floydada, and groomsmen were Carl Dean of Stanton and George Dean of San Angelo, both brothers of the bridegroom. Joe Dean, also a brother of the bridegroom, and Kenney Trousdale of Bedford, brother-in-law of the bride, served as ushers.

David Henson, brother of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer, and Billy Bradford was the altar taper lighter.

Prior to leaving on a trip to the Fort Worth area, the couple was honored with a reception in the First Federal Community Room. Silver and fuchsia appointments were used on the table laid with a blue linen cloth overlaid in white net. Centering the table was an arrangement of blue carnations, morning glories and white tapers. Refreshments were served by Miss Diane Bailey, Mrs. Russell Hull and Mrs. E. L. Belcher. Miss Judy Tereletsky presided over the register.

Bridal Shower For Miss Pam Wheeler

Miss Pam Wheeler, bride-elect of John L. Gribble, was honored with a bridal shower in the Blue Room of the Big Spring Country Club Thursday evening.

Mrs. David Woods presided at the register table, which was laid in pale yellow. A crystal bud vase with a yellow rose enhanced the table.

A pale yellow cloth covered the refreshment table, which was centered with an arrangement of yellow roses, yellow and white daisies and candelabra. Serving were Mrs. Dick Martin and Mrs. Moses Fierro.

The honoree was attired in a jumper style dress of white kettletail trimmed in a blue floral design. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Jewel Wheeler, and both were presented corsages of yellow roses. Hostesses were Mrs. R. L. Heith, Mrs. Ray Ebling, Mrs. Robert Fuller, Mrs. Jim Long, Mrs. W. C. Fryar, Mrs. Curtis Beard, Mrs. James D. Belew, Mrs. Loyd Lile, Mrs. Paul Warren, Mrs. Bill Draper, Mrs. Noel Hull, Mrs. R. L. Collins and Mrs. Fred Phillips.

The couple will be married Aug. 30 in the Slaughter Chapel of the First Baptist Church, Dallas.

Train Children To Be Tidy

For instant tidiness where small children strew toys, rubbers, mittens and games around the house, have a giant straw hamper. Everything goes into it at tidying-up time, says Dorothy Humphrey, a consumer information specialist for Johnson Wax. Small fry will know where to find their stuff. Better still, provide a straw or plastic hamper for each child. Then train the children to tidy up at the end of playtime. Their individual hampers can be brightly decorated and lettered with the name.

Stop Spoilage

To prevent spoilage of greens during storage, clean and dry them before putting in the refrigerator crisper. Wrapping paper towels in the crisper also helps absorb excess moisture.

First Baptist Scene Of Ceremony Saturday

Dr. Kenneth G. ## Washes Travel To Waco-Brady

FORSAN (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Wash went to Waco recently to see their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Wash. On their return, they attended the Crumley Wash Reunion in Brady.

Eat Raw Foods

COLLEGE STATION — Mother Nature's "convenience foods" have a peel you can eat.

Many fresh vegetables actually taste best raw — try cucumbers, sweet peppers and onions this way, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist, suggested this week.

"Tasty young carrots can be eaten peel and all — just rinse well, cut off the stem end and the tip of the root, another vegetable in the 'eat-a-peel' category is summer squash. Just wash and slice," this specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, says.

No cooking needed for cabbage and head lettuce either, when they're washed in cold water for a minute, then cut in wedges, chop or break coarsely and serve as a salad.

"Sweet corn is a quick cooker when dunked in a kettle of boiling water. And tomato halves, seasoned and buttered, will broil in two or three minutes.

"Cooking vegetables only until crisp tender retains more flavor, better texture and saves preparation time," she pointed out.

For Earaches

FOCUS ON FAMILY LIVING

Difficulties In Canning May Be Due To Several Problems

Canning difficulties tend to fall into several broad categories. They include a poor seal, spoilage, color change, foods that float, sediment in the jars, and a loss of liquid. Others, which merely make the food less attractive, are related to the ripeness of fruit and vegetables, the physical change in the food during processing, or the chemical reaction between the food and canning liquid.

JARS DO NOT SEAL BECAUSE: The jar was filled too full; consequently, the lid did not close properly.

The jar rim was chipped or the rim was not adequately wiped off after filling. Particles of food came between the sealing compound and the rim of the jar.

Jar lids were not used according to the manufacturer's directions. The lids were either too hot or too cold for a good seal.

A scratch across the sealing compound left an air space that prevented complete sealing.

Screw band was rusty or bent and did not hold the lid firmly against rim of jar.

Screw band was tightened after the jar was removed from the canner.

FOODS SPOIL BECAUSE:

Pressure in canner was not maintained at 10 pounds during processing. This happened because the pressure gauge was not accurate, the heat under the canner was too low and allowed the pressure to drop below the necessary 10 pounds, or no altitude correction was made at elevations above 2,000 feet.

Air was not sufficiently exhausted from pressure canner before the regulator was placed over the vent to build up necessary pressure.

Water in water-bath canner was not kept at a full boil throughout entire processing time, or the water level in the canner dropped below the tops of the jars.

FOODS CHANGE COLOR BECAUSE: Foods were too long in preparation.

Foods were not processed long enough to destroy the enzymes that affect color.

Foods were over-processed.

Liquid in the jar did not completely cover food. Exposed portions became discolored.

Air bubbles were not removed.

Fruits such as apples and pears were not treated with ascorbic acid color keeper.

High color in foods such as beets or cherries dissolved in the liquid or syrup.

Chemical changes took place in the coloring matter of the fruit or vegetable.

Food was stored in too warm a place or where the light was exceptionally strong.

FOODS FLOAT BECAUSE: Food was packed too loosely in jar.

Syrup was too heavy for the fruit.

Raw-pack products tend to float more than those that have some precooking.

More air remains in the tissues of uncooked foods at the time they go into the jar.

Food was processed too long.

Fruit was too ripe.

LIQUID IS LOST OR IS LOW BECAUSE: Food was packed too tightly or jars were too full. The product boiled over and started a siphoning action. Air bubbles were not removed. Water was less than one inch over the tops of the jars in a water-bath canner.

Can Partially Thawed Food Be Refrozen?

COLLEGE STATION — Whether or not to refreeze defrosted food is a problem plaguing many homemakers — especially during hot summer months, Mrs. Mary Sweeten, foods and nutrition specialist, noted this week.

"Under certain conditions, frozen foods thawed before they're needed may be safely refrozen to prevent loss," the specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said.

"Fruits, vegetables and meats may be refrozen if they have not completely thawed, or if they were thawed for a short time and remained in a household refrigerator.

"However, thawing and refreezing usually results in loss of quality and flavor."

Refrozen vegetables may toughen and refrozen fruits become soft and mushy, such fruits still may be satisfactory for cooking, although they've lost their raw fruit appeal.

"The process of thawing and refreezing in itself does not make fruit, vegetables or meats unsafe — but thawed foods spoil more rapidly than fresh foods and may become unsafe to eat.

"Foods probably not worth refreezing are those that reached temperatures of 40-45 degrees F. after passing through the slow temperature changes that occur in a home freezer when operation has stopped."

She explained that because low-acid foods, such as vegetables and meats, spoil rapidly after they have thawed and reached a temperature above 45 degrees F. it isn't advisable to refreeze them.

Black Female Judge Does Not Want To Be Symbol

DALLAS (AP) — Joan T. Winn, Dallas County's first black female county court-at-law judge, does not want to be remembered as being just that.

And, she doesn't aspire to become a symbol of the women's movement or crusader for more blacks on the bench.

"I want to be known as Joan T. Winn, judge, trying to do her job," she said in an interview with the Dallas Times Herald.

"If I do my job, in the long run that will accomplish more than if I try to be a frontrunner or crusader for the women's lib movement or for black people," she said. "You can't do this kind of job operating out of a female role or a minority role."

Mrs. Winn, a 33-year-old former honor student at the Southern Methodist University Law School, was appointed to the Dallas County Court-at-Law No. 2 bench by the county commissioners. She was sworn in May 1.

"I think she's doing a good job," said Harris. "She's giving those lawyers hell."

Mrs. Winn laughed and said she had not given anybody a bad time that she knows. She added, "I think Judge Harris' bark is worse than his bite. I like him."

The other judges have been helpful, she said, but she has not overburdened them with a lot of questions about procedures and the law in the myriad of cases she tries.

"It's not because I don't think I need help, but I was trained differently than that," she said.

Mrs. Winn at one time worked in the law firm of W.J. Durham, who taught her "the answers always lie in the (law) library. Rather than ask somebody, I go look it up."

Was she nervous or self-conscious when she first went on the bench? "I have not had any

Two guests of Mrs. Dorothy Ragan attended the meeting, Miss Becky Ragan, her granddaughter, and Ms. Florence Sitchler. The Altrusa Club will hold their next meeting at noon, August 28 at Coker's Restaurant.

Permian Basin Offers Much Entertainment

Regina Walker McCalley's religious play, "The Life of Christ" has enjoyed "sell-out and spill-over" houses for its last two performances at the Globe of the Great Southwest in Odessa. The play is one of the change-of-pace offerings at the annual Shakespearean festival. The play will be 2:30 p.m. today and next Sunday, the finale. Other offerings at the festival in remaining performances are "Troilus and Cressida" Aug. 23; "Much Ado About Nothing" Aug. 22; and another alternate, "Dames at Sea, Aug., 19-20 and 21.

The Permian Civic Ballet Association has set the first dance workshop for Aug. 26-27-28 with Bill Martin-Viscount as artist-in-residence for the fourth year. Dancers 13 years and up are eligible to join the Senior Dance Company and take part in the fall production scheduled in December, and those 6-12 are in the Junior Dance Company. Those interested may call Mrs. Mary Lipscomb, company manager at 694-1260 in Midland.

Among visitors at Heritage Museum last week — and there were lots of them to view the Texas Rangers showing — were Mrs. Maedell Birdwell Roley, San Antonio, filling in more details on her pioneer family (the John Birdwells), and Mrs. O. P. Constantine, daughter of Ethel Porter Brown, and her husband of Waco. They brought her mother's book, "My Favorite Memories" compiled by Mrs. (Guyon) Constantine and Jeanette Brown Early. Among larger delegations for the week were 33 teenagers from a youth group from the Church of God at Burkburnett. Museum directors presented Joe Pickle with a resolution of commendation for the historical narrative in the July 4 Herald.

Many West Texans remember Harley Sadler and his travelling tent show, but few can match their collection of Paul Thardo Kalmbacher. He was a member of Sadler's company and appeared as Paul Tharso, playing as actor, also in the band and zylphonist. He and his wife assembled 10 scrapbooks of memorabilia on Sadler and have loaned these to Tech for use in preparing for its reproduction of the Sadler company as a Bicentennial year project.

Couple Wed In Coahoma

MRS. JAMES T. WRIGHT

The First United Methodist Church of Coahoma was the setting Saturday evening for the wedding ceremony of Miss Cecelia Lynn Drake and James T. Wright. The Rev. Homer Salley officiated as nuptial selections were performed by Mrs. Jarrell Barbee, organist, and Mrs. Shelton Ashley, vocalist.

The wedding party stood before an arch adorned with gypsophila and white doves flanked by candelabra entwined with white mums.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Drake, Rt. 1, Box 557, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie D. Wright, Box 242, Coahoma.

For the wedding, the bride chose to wear a formal gown of silk chanting of princess style. The bodice was fashioned with a ruffle bordered standup collar and lace petal point sleeves. She wore a garden hat trimmed in lace and ribbon streamers and carried a cascade of white carnations, mint green silk roses, English ivy and gypsophila.

Miss Annette Paige of Sand Springs was the maid of honor. She was attired in a floor-length dress of yellow chanting styled with a sweetheart neckline, short puff sleeves and princess design skirt.

Randy Gee of Sand Springs served as the best man, and ushers were Roy Drake, brother of the bride, and Johnny Ray Wright, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride is attending Coahoma High School, and Wright is a graduate of CHS and is employed by Zales of Big Spring. Upon returning from a trip to San Angelo, the couple will reside at 200 Goliad.

After the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church, where refreshments were served by Mrs. Marshal Day, Mrs. Carroll Choate, Mrs. Sam Robertson, Miss Brenda Robertson and Mrs. Tim Drinkard. Miss Denette Wright, sister of the bridegroom, registered guests. The table was laid with a yellow cloth overlaid with white ruffle net, silver and crystal appointments were used. The table was centered with an arrangement of daisies, mint green silk roses and gypsophila.

Relatives attending from out-of-town included Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Morton, Marble Falls, grandparents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Jessie J. Searcy, Odessa; and Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Ashley, San Angelo.

The bridegroom's parents hosted a dinner Friday evening in the bride's parents home.

Avoid Crease

If table linens crease during storage, try putting them away unironed. Then iron them on the pad covering the table. Some people prefer to set the ironing board alongside the table, then just slip the cloth onto the table after ironing, Mrs. Lillian Chenoweth, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System, says.

Salvation Army Home League Donates Supplies

Members of the Ladies Home League of the Salvation Army Citadel gained admission to the Tuesday meeting by bringing various school supplies to donate to Cedarcrest Elementary School. The meeting was held in the basement of the Citadel.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Grace Young on "A Book for Lincoln." Mrs. Nella Stephens gave the prayer.

The group carried out the school theme by having a back-to-school party with refreshments served by Mrs. Stephens. Plans were discussed for future Home League projects.

The next meeting will be Tuesday at the Citadel.

Don't 'Shame'

Shaming, threatening or ignoring a child are forms of psychological punishment. Mrs. Ilene Miller, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System, notes.

Dear Abby

Waiter's Customary Tip To Be Given — Not Taken

DEAR ABBY: We are totally confused about an incident that occurred at one of our finer restaurants. Our waiter brought the check on a tray in the customary fashion. A few minutes later, the cashier came to our table saying he had to close out his cash drawer, even though we hadn't finished our lunch.

We looked at the check, and it totaled $18.02. We placed two $10 bills and two pennies on the tray, and the cashier picked up the tray and never returned with our change.

We know that 20 per cent is the customary gratuity, and we are wondering if they assumed that the extra two dollars was the tip.

Is that the customary procedure at the better restaurants? We've never run into that before.

PREPLEXED: The waiter should always return the change no matter how much (or little) it is. You were within your rights to ask for your change. A "tip" is not an obligation, and the amount should always be left to the discretion of the diner.

DEAR ABBY: A friend who recently moved to this city phoned me early one Sunday morning to say that he was in agony and asked if I knew a dentist who could see him immediately.

I reached my dentist, who agreed to see my friend at once.

Later that day, my friend phoned to thank me and tell me what a marvelous job my dentist had done in putting him out of misery. (He had had an abscessed tooth which required dental surgery.)

Six months later, my dentist called to tell me that he was sorry but that he was turning my friend's dental bill over to a collection agency because all his bills had been ignored!

I was shocked because my friend is well off financially, and I certainly never took him for a deadbeat.

I am terribly embarrassed and don't know what to do. Should I call my friend and ask him to please pay his dentist? Or should I pay him myself? The bill is $90 for three visits.

IN THE MIDDLE: DEAR IN: You are not responsible for your friend's debts, but since you were the middleman, urge your friend to pay the dentist at once. It might embarrass him into paying up.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L. A. Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212, for Abby's booklet "How to Write Letters for All Occasions." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

CLAIMS VISIONS — Mary Ann Van Hoof, who says the Blessed Virgin has been appearing to her for more than 25 years, was photographed last year as she left the shrine on her former farm near Necedah, Wis. . . On Aug. 15, 1950, a crowd estimated at between 35,000 and 100,000 gathered at the farm for one of the early alleged visions. The Roman Catholic Diocese of la Crosse says Mrs. Van Hoof's claims are false and has placed her under interdict.

Art Removes Lady Sarah From Her Lofty Perch

WASHINGTON (AP) — General Services Administrator Arthur F. Sampson returned from vacation Thursday to discover a temptress in a teapot. His action was swift and decisive: "Out!"

And with that, Lady Sarah was removed from her lofty and languid perch above a construction pit near the White House and exiled to storage at the Corcoran Gallery of Art. Lady Sarah, about four times bigger than life, was painted by a Corcoran artist, Bill Newman, for the enjoyment of the hardhats working on the new Federal Home Loan Bank Board building. She wore a scanty bikini which Newman said would wash away in the rain, leaving the complete Sarah on view.

Newman's summer art class, using $1,300 in materials paid for by the GSA, had earlier decorated the outside of the sidewalk fence around the pit with murals of zoo animals.

Cotton In West Texas Showing Insect Damage

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Open weather last week hastened the sorghum harvest in South, South Central and Southwest Texas after delays caused by light to heavy rains. Dr. John Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said.

The rains may cause some cotton yield loss and possible lowering of cotton grades in parts of the Rio Grande Valley and Coastal Bend, Hutchison said.

Cotton continued to make good progress elsewhere in Texas but bollworms caused some damage in the South Plains and Rolling Plains, he said. Panhandle cotton fields were fruiting well but the crop was somewhat behind schedule.

The sorghum harvest has started in north central and northeast areas, Hutchison said. Some damage from greenbugs and midge was reported in the Panhandle and Rolling Plains sorghum crop.

Rains also hampered hay harvesting in East Texas and slowed the rice harvest in the Upper Gulf Coastal areas, where the crop is about 75 per cent harvested, he said.

Some stocker cattle are being purchased in the Panhandle in anticipation of upcoming wheat grazing, he said.

Fall shearing of sheep and goats has started in West Texas, Hutchison said. Most livestock were in good condition, but parasites and screwworms are causing concern. The Gulf Coast ear tick population was increasing rapidly in South Texas, where spraying and other control measures are under way.

District agricultural agents gave these reports:

Panhandle: Dry, windy weather is causing moisture stress in some areas. Corn is making good progress despite cornborer problems. Greenbugs are damaging some sorghum. Third cuttings of alfalfa are under way. Potatoes and onions are being harvested.

South Plains: Aphids and bollworms are causing some damage to cotton. Sorghum and corn are making good growth in irrigated areas but dryland crops need rain. Early planted sunflowers are maturing.

Rolling Plains: Good to excellent hay yields are reported. Sorghum is being damaged by greenbugs and midge in many counties. Cotton, guar and sunflowers are making good growth. Weeds are reducing prospects for winter forage in native pastures.

North Central: Cotton is maturing rapidly. Sorghum is 10 per cent harvested with good yields reported. Peanuts are growing well. Hay baling is active. Pastures are average but need moisture.

Northeast: The sorghum harvest has started. Yields are average to above. Some corn is being cut for silage. Vegetables are 90 per cent harvested. Fall tomatoes are being planted. Pastures need rain.

Far West: Ranges are good to excellent but a general rain is needed. Cotton is showing heavy insect damage. Cantaloupe and onion harvests are at the halfway mark. Fourth and fifth cuttings of alfalfa are under way.

West Central: Cotton is setting fruit but is heavily infested with bollworms and other insects.

CHILDREN'S CORNER

All Butterflies Cat Dance: Book

By SUSAN CONLEY
Children's Librarian

Learning the ABC's is an important step in learning to read. The Howard County Library has alphabet books that will prepare a preschooler for reading.

These books also have colorful pictures that aid in sensory development. "All Butterflies" by Marcia Brown is one such book. The illustrations are done in woodcuts of different colors. All butterflies starts the paired alphabet, followed by Cat Dance. Each page has a hidden butterfly on it. Children will enjoy looking for them.

"Hosie's Alphabet" by Leonard Baskin won a

Caldecott medal for its water-color drawings. The letters are large and clearly printed. The unusual descriptive phrases such as "the quintessential quail" may send parents to the dictionary, but children will like rolling these words on their tongue.

Poems are used to introduce the alphabet in "All Around the Town" by Phyllis McGinley. The poems talk about familiar city sights such as "the bouncing bus" and "the jumping jay walker."

Other ABC books available are Brian Wildsmith's "ABC," Bruno Munari's "ABC" and "Nuts to You and Nuts to Me" by Mary Ann Hoberman.

'Third Rate Romance' Aces Top Disc Rating

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A song called "Third Rate Romance" has refocused attention on Memphis as a music center and pushed a previously unheard-of band, the Amazing Rhythm Aces, into the spotlight.

The group's vocalist, Russell Smith, says the inspiration for the song came in a restaurant while he was attending the University of Tennessee at Knoxville.

"I saw this couple staring into their coffee cups," Smith says. "The guy looked like a junior widget-works executive and the chick had balloon-shaped hair and white go-go boots."

"I could tell they were sort of lying to each other. When they left, they got into separate cars and one followed the other out of the parking lot." Smith says the rest of the song about a rendezvous at a cheap motel was improvised on what he imagined might have happened.

Earl Scruggs was quick to pick up on the song and put it on his 25th Anniversary album. Jesse Winchester also has a version out and other entertainers have, or are in the process of, recording it.

As often is the case, the one song was enough for the six-member Amazing Rhythm Aces to land a contract with ABC Records. Previously, they had been playing weekends and holding down various jobs that included some studio work, short-order cooking, roofing and helping in a mortuary.

The record caught on quick in bars and on radio stations in Nashville, a city that doesn't usually get too excited about a new group or a new song until well after it's apparent it will make somebody a lot of money.

Since then, it's been picked up by radio stations in most other areas of the country while selling 25,000 copies a week. One ABC official says he's willing to put his job on the line that the song will be the label's next million-seller.

The group was put together around studio work with Knox Phillips, the son of Sam Phillips. It was Sam Phillips who founded the old Sun Records that launched such stars as Charlie Rich, Johnny Cash and Elvis.

The Sun influence is present in most of The Amazing Rhythm Aces' songs.

'Clean Getaway' Due On TV Sets

NEW YORK (AP) — Three of CBS' four Head Start programs are making a unique arrival: They're being broadcast on nights that differ from where they'll regularly appear during the fall season.

Only "Doc," a Saturday night medicine show, is being presented on its assigned night for the new season. CBS will air the "Doc" pilot on Aug. 16, then put the series into its regular season run on Sept. 13.

"Beacon Hill," the Americanization of "Upstairs, Downstairs," is holding a special two-hour advance show on Monday, Aug. 25. It'll start its assigned one-hour run on Tuesday nights, effective Sept. 2.

"Three for the Road," a family yarn about a widower and his two teen-age sons, is scheduled to appear on Sunday nights.

On Sept. 4, it'll air "The Montescos," an Italian-American comedy formerly called "Sunday Dinner." "Fay," a show about a new divorcee, and a special two-hour version of "Medical Story," a new medical anthology series that'll run an hour in regular season play.

On Sunday, Sept. 7, NBC presents "Family Holvak," starring Glenn Ford as a country preacher. It first was called "Holvak," but "Family" apparently was added so viewers wouldn't confuse it with "Kojak."

How to select the right nursing home.

We Americans are not just living longer, we're living more useful, productive lives.

But an increasing number of the chronically ill, the old, the convalescent, need some place other than the hospital and their home where they can receive personal health care, round-the-clock attention and the opportunity to continue to live their lives with meaning.

As your community extended health care facility we want to help you make the right decision. Here are some guidelines: see your family physician to determine the kind of care needed; feel free to visit our facility; ask us for our costs in writing and financial advice about Medicaid; examine all of our facilities; check our food quality; verify our safety features; and finally, observe how our residents spend their time.

There's a lot more to selecting the right nursing home. We want to help. If you have any questions, please call or visit us.
