ALEXANDRIA, Egypt (AP) — Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger made "some progress" today in five hours of talks with the Israelis on a new Sinai pact, then flew from Jerusalem to Alexandria for talks with President Anwar Sadat.

CLEVELAND (AP) — The jury in the civil damages trial stemming from the 1970 Kent State University shootings began deliberating under guard today after U.S. District Judge Don J. Young delivered a 76-page definition of issues and explanation of the law.

A copy of the judge's instructions, which took 2 hours and 20 minutes to present, was sent into the jury room. Young told the six-man, six-woman panel that it could read the material, write in it or "throw it out the window."

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — The Venezuelan government takes over the country's giant, mostly American oil industry by Jan. 1, but few immediate changes are expected in the operating structure or supply of oil to traditional customers. The lower house of the Venezuelan Congress gave final approval Thursday night to the nationalization bill, worked out in a year of negotiations. The United States imports 1.3 million barrels of oil a day from Venezuela, its second largest foreign supplier. Officials expect no disruption in the flow.

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Portuguese officials are trying to arrange for the evacuation of more than 1,000 Portuguese and other foreigners from Portuguese Timor, where rival nationalist organizations are fighting a civil war for control. The Portuguese government of the New Jersey-size island colony 525 miles northwest of Australia messaged that civil war was raging between the Timorese Democratic Union (UDT) and the Revolutionary Front for Independent East Timor (Fretilin).

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union are proposing a ban on an undeveloped method of warfare that has caused some public anxiety but appears to offer no threat to the world for years to come. It is called "environmental modification techniques," which means manipulation of the structure of the earth, plant life, air and outer space to cause earthquakes, floods and changes in the weather, climate, ocean currents and other ecological factors. On Thursday, the American and Soviet co-chairmen of the disarmament conference, Joseph Martin Jr. and Alexei Roshchin, presented a joint draft convention to ban environmental warfare.

Frisco Firemen, Police Working

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police and firemen were back on the job today after Mayor Joseph L. Alioto invoked emergency powers and granted their salary demands, stunning the city's board of supervisors.

Strikers began reporting for work Thursday night only hours after the supervisors rejected a strike settlement. Alioto ignored the supervisors, suspended the city charter and ordered a 13 per cent wage increase, twice what the supervisors wanted to grant.

"All the pickets are removed," the mayor said. "Everyone is back to work even earlier than we anticipated."

The mayor's action ended a four-day-old police walkout. Firemen joined the strike Wednesday.

The settlement, hammered out during early morning negotiations between Alioto and strike leaders, was approved overwhelmingly by members of the Police Officers Association and Fire Fighters Local 798.

The supervisors, who administer San Francisco's combined city-county government, turned the agreement down in a 9 to 0 vote. They complained that Alioto was usurping the board's power and pushing through an agreement the city could not afford. The supervisors normally set salaries for all city employees.

"It's a sad day for San Francisco when its mayor becomes the first dictator in the United States," said Supervisor John Barbagelata.

The mayor's emergency proclamation said settlement of the strike was "of paramount importance to the preservation of the lives, property and welfare of the citizens of San Francisco."

The agreement will provide police and firemen with a symbolic 6.5 per cent pay hike for the single day of July 1, 1975. Wages will then remain at present levels until Oct. 15, when a 13.05 per cent salary increase will be granted for the rest of the fiscal year.

Alioto said the settlement would cost the city $9.6 million — $2.6 million more than the original offer. But he said wages saved during the strike and other money-saving steps would reduce the difference to zero.

Currently, pay for police and fire fighters ranges from $16,044 for rookies to $25,944 for captains.

Most of the city's 1,935 policemen and 1,700 firemen took part in the strike.

COWDEN, ERWIN, MORRIS State Public Utility Commissioners Named

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Dolph Briscoe announced the appointment today of the first state public utility commissioners in Texas history.

They are George Cowden of Dallas and Pearsall, Alan Erwin of Baytown and William Garrett Morris of Fort Worth.

Cowden, 44, will serve a two-year term, Erwin, 30, a four-year term and Morris, 60, six years. The three commissioners will elect a chairman.

Cowden, a former House member from Waco, is general counsel and senior vice president of the Great American Reserve Insurance Co. He was first assistant attorney general under Crawford Martin and also was chairman of the State Insurance Board.

Erwin currently is serving as director of the office of state-federal relations in Washington, a job to which Briscoe had appointed him. He is a former assistant to the editor and publisher of the Beaumont Enterprise-Journal and a former administrative assistant to Rep. Bob Casey, D-Tex.

Morris, a lawyer, is a member of the State Welfare Board and is a past member of the State Highway Commission and the Department of Public Safety Commission.

"These appointments," Briscoe said in a statement, "are the result of one of the most intensive efforts of my 2½ year administration to find exactly the right people for the right job. The standards that I set were high."

The commissioners go to work Sept. 1 at an annual salary of $40,500 each but state regulation does not actually begin until September 1976.

The commission was created by the 1975 legislature.

The commissioners must hire a director, accountant, engineer, research specialist, general counsel and other employees to deal with the complexities of regulating public utility rates and services.

For the first two years, the agency will regulate all intrastate telephone rates and service and electric, water and sewer utilities in unincorporated areas.

The law specifies that cities must continue to regulate natural gas utilities, except in unincorporated areas where the Texas Railroad Commission retains jurisdiction. The railroad commission also would maintain jurisdiction over natural and synthetic natural gas pipelines.

Blast Damages Argentine Navy Missile Frigate

LA PLATA, Argentina (AP) — Leftist terrorists set off an explosive charge early today inside an Argentine navy missile frigate being built in La Plata, causing damage but no casualties, the navy said.

The navy at first reported erroneously that the charge blew up the ship and sank it, but later said "the ship showed some damage which did not endanger the vessel."

Other sources, however, said the damage was considerable. The attack came on the third anniversary of the deaths of 16 guerrillas at a navy base in the Patagonian town of Trelew and security forces were placed on full alert expecting violence.

The frigate, the Santissima Trinidad, was rocked by the explosion at 3 a.m. at the Cio Santiago shipyard, 25 miles south of Buenos Aires. The navy said an underwater demolition charge went off in the engine room.

Sources quoted by La Plata newspapers said the leftist Montonero guerrillas claimed responsibility for the explosion.

Shootout Victims

DALLAS (AP) — A Dallas police rookie was killed and another officer seriously wounded in a shootout and chase that also left another man dead Thursday.

The dead officer was Patrolman A.D. Hallum, 29, who was shot in the head. His partner, Barry L. Wisenhunt, 25, was hospitalized in serious condition with a gunshot wound in the stomach.

Police identified the dead assailant as Clois Ray Carter, 30.

Police said the shootings followed an alleged extortion attempt against Dallas furniture wholesaler Harlan Wright, who told officers that Carter, a former employe, robbed him of $150 and forced him to drive to a bank and cash a check for another $6,000.

Wright said he escaped Carter at the bank and called police while Carter sped away in Wright's car.

Police said the officers were shot when they approached a car stopped at a gas station to question a man about the alleged extortion and robbery.

Wisenhunt called for assistance and two police officers drinking coffee across the street ran to the wounded officers' patrol car and chased the man.

Police said Carter was shot to death in the middle of the highway a few miles away. Witnesses said the car was riddled with bullets and all the windows and tires were shot out.

Study Enlarging New Coliseum

Trustees of Howard College are exploring the possibility of enlarging the floor space and increasing the permanent seating capacity of the new PE-Coliseum building.

Private resources may make it possible to increase the size, but trustees won't know until the architects complete preliminary plans and tentative cost estimates on these.

At any rate, the board, in a called work session Thursday evening, instructed Gary and Hohertz, architects, to draft preliminary plans on the basis of 90x210 feet as well as the previously-talked 85x148. The new dimensions will account for 18,900 square feet against the previous 12,580, or 6,320 increase. This is approximately 50 per cent more space.

If possible, this will result in boosting the permanent seating figure from 3,000 to a new total of 4,000. Architects plan on having preliminary plans out within a couple of weeks. Considerable planning has been done before and since the voters approved a $1,500,000 bond issue to finance the project.

A memorial to one of the originators of the class project, the late Dr. P. D. (Dick) O'Brien, and a contribution from one of the churches, boosted the total.

However, more help is needed urgently, and if you can have a part, please mail or bring your investment to the Herald for acknowledgment. Latest donors include:

West Virginia Miners Strike

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Southern West Virginia coal miners ignored federal court orders and the pleas of union officials today and remained on strike.

Miners in parts of Kentucky, Ohio and Virginia joined the widest walkout in apparent sympathy.

At the heart of the 13-day old strike is concern by miners over judicial processes and what they contend is the slow implementation of new grievance procedures. Miners say coal companies refuse to arbitrate disagreements promptly but rush into federal court when workers strike.

A spokesman for the 17,000-member United Mine Workers District 17, which is centered here and covers much of the southern part of the state, said there was no back-to-work movement despite a temporary restraining order issued Thursday by a federal judge.

A UMW District 29 spokesman said there was no indication that miners in that area, centered in Beckley southeast of Charleston, planned to obey the court order to halt picketing and return to work.

The West Virginia Coal Association estimated today that some 35,000 miners, more than half the total number of miners in the state, have joined the walkout.

Miners in the Appalachian area traditionally will not cross any picket line, but there were no reports of picketing today, the last regular work day of the week.

MAY LEAD TO MORE CHARGES Rangers Seize Records In School Office Attic

SAN DIEGO, Tex. (AP) — Texas Attorney General's Office investigators today began the difficult task of sorting out what was called "a wealth of interesting information" that may result in more indictments in the continued probe of Duval County's political subdivisions.

The "information" was in nearly 200 pounds of records of the Benavides School District found Thursday by two Texas Rangers in the attic of the school district office.

Rangers Capt. John Wood and Rudy Rodriguez found the material, in bound brown manila folders, in a well between the ceiling and the roof of the building.

An anonymous letter received by Wood put the Rangers on the track.

The records were turned over to Assistant Atty. Gen. John Blanton, director of the special investigating task force established last April in Duval County to probe the scandal-ridden political stronghold of the late Duke of Duval, George B. Parr.

Wood said the information contained in the recovered material will be compared with testimony offered in recent cases in Duval County and added that the comparison could lead to "several perjury cases."

Among the documents found were canceled salary checks written to ousted county judge Archer Parr for $1,000 and to Mrs. Grace Bridges for $200. Mrs. Bridges is currently serving on a Duval County grand jury.

Blanton said "from a brief spot check of several of the folders, I am sure we have a wealth of interesting information here." He added that it will take at least three months to sift through the information even with additional help provided by the attorney general.

Earlier this year school officials had testified that all school records prior to 1970 had been destroyed, but sources said the material recovered included documents dating back to 1968.

Wood said the documents were found after he received an anonymous letter that said in part: "Look in the ceiling of the school district office and you'll find what you want."

Several indictments have been handed out since April when the task force was sent to Duval County.

Charges of official misconduct and misuse of federal state, county and federal funds have been brought up in recent weeks as grand juries in Duval, Jim Wells and Travis counties received evidence submitted by the investigators.

About Congressional Pay

The behavior of Congress when it comes to its own pay raises rarely has been very circumspect. It is easy to discern the root of the problem—a lack of political fortitude among members.

In 1969 Congress exhibited one historic approach to the problem when it raised the pay of members by a staggering 41 per cent—from $30,000 to $42,500. The general rationale is to secure the raise in a non-election year and to take a big plunge so the music has to be faced only once.

In 1972, Congress complained that its members had only eight pay raises in some 170 years. Members exhibited another traditional ingenuity. The authorized formation of a 12-member non-congressional salary commission which would make recommendations to the President. The President could authorize the salary raise without an act of Congress. Ergo, Congress did not have to face voters wrath since it did not act.

Attached as a rider to an obscure bill was a clause which would give members a cost-of-living increase. But, if there is any "bullet-biting" to be done, a good place to start is with Congress.

Another is with the Federal Election Commission regulation to treat secret congressional slush funds just like campaign funds. That would mean they would have to be reported and would be subjected to limitations on contributions and expenditures.

Congress can reject the regulation by a majority vote in both houses. Otherwise it will become effective automatically in 30 days.

The finds are raised quietly by contributions from businessmen, unions, corporations and others interested in furthering a congressman's or senator's political career.

There have certainly been legitimate funds of this type but the temptations to corruption are so apparent in the practice that it should be closely regulated if not discontinued.

Mysteries Don't Hurt

Van Horn's going to be a name to remember—if for no other reason than it comes up with a mystery every six months or so.

A few months back, a group of speleologists said they discovered some treasures in one of the many sinkholes that surround the area. The legal problems worked out finally, a university team went down into the sinkhole, but found nothing of real value. Still, Van Horn received nationwide publicity on the mystery.

Now, 10 skeletons have been found in a sinkhole—or cave—north of Van Horn on land owned by Elcor

Chemical Corp. of Midland. Reports from the scene indicate the heads may have been separated from the skeletons and some of the lower jaws had been removed. No trace of clothing, shoes or artifacts were found.

Archeologist Dr. Allen Skinner of Southern Methodist University plans to investigate the find, along with Sheriff Richard Upchurch of Culberson County.

The publicity doesn't hurt West Texas either.

Heigh Ho! The Fair

Around The Rim

John Edwards

A mule race, equine pulling contest, roping and donkey baseball games have been added to the Howard County Fair schedule. The tobacco spitting contest has been expanded for 1975.

The Third Annual Howard County Fair will be held at the fair grounds Sept. 15-20, and directors met Wednesday to put on finishing touches.

Teams of two ponies, horses and mules will be pulling dead weight in a contest in the rodeo arena at 8 p.m. Sept. 16. Set at the same time and place is the mule race... not exactly the American quarter horse futurity, but different and exciting.

Winners in the pulling contest will be determined on the basis of strength for the team's size, the percentage of its weight a team can drag. Three tries will be permitted.

Women (no discrimination here) and men 18 years of age and older are eligible to participate in tobacco spitting for distance. (Sprays and splatters don't count.)

Cash prizes and tobacco will be awarded to the best and worst contestants. (Those who get it on their shoes.)

Washer pitching will be conducted at the same place and time tentatively set only at 7 p.m. Sept. 27 in the county stock exhibition arena.

Members of 4-H Clubs will be playing in the donkey baseball game in the rodeo arena at 8 p.m. Sept. 18.

Weather caused cancellation of barrel races at last year's fair. This year, barrel races and roping contests are to be conducted at 8 p.m. Saturday in the rodeo arena.

The fair also will feature food and textiles, arts and flowers, a barrow show, the Shrine circus, field crops and agri-products, rabbits, steers, a pet show and horse show. Plenty for everybody, so heigh ho! Let's go to the fair.

My Answer

Billy Graham

We had a happy marriage until I discovered that my husband was unfaithful. We discussed divorce, but he said he was sorry and asked that we try again. As we have two children, I forgave him, but I can't seem to forget. I need your help. K. N.

The act of infidelity is so destructive that Christ made it the sole reason for divorce (Matthew 5:32). Even if a society condones extra-marital activity, it does not lessen its damaging effect on the whole family unit. God made us, and He knows the limits beyond which we cannot function as a whole and happy person.

But now your husband has evidently recognized all this, and I judge has given no subsequent cause for concern. If a couple can restructure their relationship, after some disruption, all involved will be better off. Getting a divorce or a separation may seem momentarily attractive, but it is at best a poor solution.

Have you maintained good and open communication? This is needed to allay future suspicion and more importantly, to eliminate any reason for disenchantment.

The wonder of God's forgiveness is that He couples it with forgetting as well (Hebrews 9:12). He can help you to do the same. The question is—are you flexible enough to adjust now, and do you have sufficient trust to maintain compatibility? I agree that the relationship is not the same as it was prior to his involvement. But it can be better if both of you want it to be, and will work at it.

Dousing Detente

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON + Dousing detente with cold water is increasingly the vogue as the high-minded resolve of Helsinki is measured against evidence of Moscow-inspired intervention in the same dreary pattern of past years.

THE GLARING example is Portugal, where Communist influence and Communist cash precipitated what may become a civil war with fearful consequences for a helpless people.

But many of the critics, it seems to me, are attaching to President Ford's role at Helsinki a commitment that he never made. The speech he delivered there deserves to be re-read and perhaps read still another time. In the opinion of this observer it ranks with the notable state documents of recent history.

THE PRESIDENT spoke with quiet realism. Helsinki was no more than a pledge to try to better relations between East and West. It was a challenge and not a conclusion.

If - and he used "if" a half dozen times - Helsinki was to mean anything, the whole process of negotiation would have to be quickened and the noble protestations of human rights and freedom of thought given real meaning.

With justice, it seems to me, he cited the progress beginning in 1971 to remove Berlin as a flashpoint.

THIS WAS an example of detente between the two Germans, East and West, while it leaves a lot to be desired with the odious wall still in place and 70 persons killed trying to escape across that wall, it marked an end to a perennial crisis that three times brought the world close to war.

Although it may not be directly attributable to Helsinki, it was there that West German Chancellor Helmut Schmidt met with Polish Communist Party Leader Edward Gierek to initial an agreement allowing up to 125,000 ethnic Germans to emigrate from Poland. This ended a long and bitter dispute. At the same time Germany agreed to give the Poles $500 million to satisfy still-outstanding pension claims.

SINCE 1945, Poland has been the stick used by foreign policy critics on the right to beat the President and the State Department. I have a vivid memory of the confirmation hearings in 1953 for Charles E. Bohlen whom President Eisenhower had named ambassador to the Soviet Union. Wasn't it true, Republican senators demanded, that Franklin Roosevelt had sold out Poland to Stalin at Yalta? Yalta to one side, Bohlen replied, the Soviet Union had several hundred thousand troops in occupied Poland when the war ended. War anyone proposing at that time to send in an American army to free the Poles?

OBVIOUSLY THE answer was "no," and Stalinist occupation was ruthlessly enforced. In the intervening years some relaxation has occurred, the Roman Catholic church having played a vital part in resisting the demands of the dictatorship.

As for Portugal, the past cannot be ignored. For 40 years the West complacently accepted the rule of Salazar who allowed no nonsense about democracy and freedom.

John Cuniff

Decisions Unmade

NEW YORK (AP) — Between now and Labor Day there comes an even deeper pause in man's occupations that is attributed to the dog days, to vacations, to uncertainty, to fatigue, to sheer indifference or satiety.

Immediately after Labor Day, which this year is the very first day of September, the calendar of activities will be full again. You can see it developing now. Dates are set. The invitations are in the mail.

Advertising campaigns will be inaugurated. New cars will appear. Television shows will debut. New freshmen will, too.

Annual conventions will be held. Seminars, symposiums, conferences will take place one after another, some on conflicting dates.

The speeches have already been written although the speakers might not have read them yet.

It is the time when economists begin gathering data for their annual look ahead, when corporate presidents renew efforts to cut costs, when jobhoppers make their moves.

Congress comes back. This will not catch you by surprise because there will automatically arise over the land an air of criticism or controversy or speculation.

All this activity will commence simultaneously, as if the matters to be dealt with can be sorted out swiftly and attacked at once, as if the problems that defied solution a few weeks ago now will dissolve before the replenished powers of rested minds.

The origin of this annual burst of activity probably has something to do with the weather or with patterns established in childhood, when the return to school meant a new beginning, a new challenge and possibly new accomplishments.

But unlike schooldays, which generally extend over a nine-month year, the vents we must deal with after Labor Day are 12-month matters that really shouldn't have been postponed.

When President Ford returns, for example, he must decide what he's going to do about prices. If he cannot control inflation he might very well see his entire election effort undermined.

The fact is that jawboning has not yet conquered the demon inflation. And talk alone isn't going to prevent prices already in the pipeline from reaching the retail level in months to come.

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Can Dissolve Disc

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have recently heard of a procedure in which chymopain is injected with a needle to dissolve the material of a spinal disc that has ruptured into the spinal canal.

Is this treatment still experimental? How successful is it? I have a herniated disc. I am 73.

C. C. G.

The procedure is called "chemonucleolysis," and it was originated several years ago by an Illinois surgeon. My surgical consultant informs me that it is still classified as experimental and restricted to certain designated centers.

The chymopain injected locally is an enzyme substance extracted from the papaya plant. It has the ability to dissolve the extruded material from a herniated disc without affecting the surrounding tissue. The advantage of this procedure is that it eliminates the need for laminectomy, which is surgical excision of the material, often a delicate matter. Frequently it is this extruded material which presses upon the spinal nerves, causing the pain associated with herniated disc.

Conservative measures are usually tried to avoid either procedure.

A report as recent as February of this year indicates good to excellent results in 70 to 80 per cent of patients on which chemonucleolysis has been tried. The main complication, but a rather infrequent one, is an allergic reaction to the enzyme.

Other advantages over the laminectomy include briefer hospital stays, a faster rate of recovery and an earlier return to work for the patient.

Your physician can advise you about its feasibility in your case, and whether there are any medical centers in your area where this experimental work is going on.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Several months ago I was told by my doctor that I have glaucoma. Since that time my right eye has gradually become worse. I have been going back to the doctor for regular check-ups and use drops in my eyes which he prescribed.

I am now becoming disturbed and quite discouraged. What can I expect?

Mrs. B. V. H.

Sounds like a case of poor communication. From your description it appears your doctor is attempting to control your glaucoma by the accepted conservative method. Glaucoma, as you should know by now, is a build-up of fluid (hence pressure) within the eye. The goal of treatment is to reduce this fluid and the pressure.

For this, eyedrops are often used that constrict the iris, and this can help open tiny "canals" intended for the drainage of fluid from the eye.

If your vision is becoming worse, or if you are experiencing pain, you should report this promptly on your next visit.

There are other drugs that can be used. Diuretics, for example, can reduce body fluids, and this can have an indirect effect on the glaucoma. If such methods produce no improvement, more radical measures may be suggested. This can include surgery to relieve the fluid pressure by opening new pathways for the drainage structures I mentioned above.

I hope I've told you enough about your condition generally so that the next time you see your doctor you will be able to ask him where you stand, and what the future might hold. You shouldn't be shy about asking.

Unless properly treated, both glaucoma and cataracts can lead to blindness. If you are afflicted with either of these ailments, or know someone who is, write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald, P.O. Box 3999, Elgin, Ill. 60129 for his booklet, "Cataracts and Glaucoma." Enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

Portugal Dangers

LISBON — Escalation of political violence in the Portuguese revolution now looks probable as a result of a top-level decision, secret until now, to arrest and imprison anti-Communists alleged to be plotting the mounting assaults on Communist party headquarters throughout the country.

THE DECISION, outlined to us in an exclusive interview Saturday with President Francisco da Costa Gomes, was reached this week by the ruling three-man Directory: President Costa Gomes himself, prime minister and pro-Communist champion Vasco Gonçalves and internal security chief Otelo Saraiva de Carvalho, a non-Communist radical leftist. It is a clear victory for the Communist party, desperately trying to recover from damaging public setbacks.

"WE CAN stop this violence," the President, a pleasant, mild-mannered but slightly harried general told us in his office at Belem Palace. "It is not a spontaneous act of the people. It is done by small groups directed from the outside. They are the responsible ones. We shall imprison these elements. This is the measure we will now take and we will educate our people about these groups."

PRESIDENT COSTA GOMES fully agreed that this decision is a "most important" one, but the fact that these "elements" are allegedly controlled by anti-revolutionary forces, he said, makes them "not only enemies of the country but also dangerous."

Such mailed-fist security measures are contrary to repeated and credible claims by Mario Soares's large Socialist party that the 30 or 40 widely scattered attacks on Communist party offices in the north are spontaneous.

THE DIRECTORY'S decision was obviously approved by the advisory

Armed Forces Council (now shorn of its most powerful anti-Communist members). If carried out, it will probably lead to increasingly violent confrontations with the Socialists and the moderate Popular Democrats.

Although strongly anti-Communist, Otelo Carvalho is violently opposed to any semblance of Western-style political parties and organized parliamentary government, which is Soares's objective. Thus, with a common enemy—a pluralistic, socialist form of government—the Communists and the security chief seem to have made a devil's pact.

THE IMPENDING round-up and jailing of these "small groups" of anti-Communists is the latest proof of the Communist party's humiliating decline in revolutionary Portugal. Party leader Alvaro Cunhal apparently hopes that rising anti-Communist passions will get out of hand as a result of the Draconian security measures now planned, leading to bloody confrontations, more chaos and possibly a new lease for the Communists.

But the result could be quite different: heightened civil conflict splitting both the army and security forces wide open in a military apparatus whose true loyalties are unknown throughout its ranks.

THE PRESIDENT'S power within the Directory is unclear. He told us Portugal, as a Latin country, would never easily accept Soviet-style Communism.

He was quick to defend prime minister and pro-Communist Gonçalves. "People think he is a Communist," he told us, "but I am sure he is not."

The ouster of Concalves as prime minister is the key demand of the Socialists and Popular Democrats for rejoining the government, but the President indicated that was unlikely to happen very soon. "Perhaps," he said, "in the next month."

We Hold These Truths... A Chronicle of America

August 23, 1775:

Carrying Congress' Olive Branch Petition of July 5, Richard Penn reaches London on the 14th and submits a copy of the petition to Lord Dartmouth—Secretary of State for the Colonies—on the 21st. On the 23rd, the King issues a proclamation declaring the colonies to be in open rebellion. "There is reason to apprehend," the proclamation says, "that such rebellion hath been much promoted and encouraged by the traitorous correspondence, counsels, and comfort of diverse wicked and desperate persons within our realm." The King's proclamation having been published, Penn is permitted on September 1 to present the original draft of the Olive Branch Petition to Dartmouth. A few days later, pressing for the King's answer to the petition, Penn is informed by Dartmouth "that as it [has not been] received on the throne, no answer [will] be given."

Border Patrol Agents Gun Down 'Kidnaper'

LAREDO, Tex. (AP)—A man who reportedly abducted a young Mexican national driving a van and forced him to drive him out of the city was shot and killed by Border Patrol agents.

The shooting occurred about 6 p.m. Thursday at a checkpoint on Interstate 35 north of Laredo. A Border Patrol spokesman related these details:

The van's driver, Frankie Martinez, 15, signaled to patrolmen that he was in trouble as they approached the vehicle. A second man in the van began firing at them when the patrolmen tried to open the door. The patrolmen returned fire and killed the man, who was believed to be in his early 20s. He was otherwise unidentified.

Martinez, a native of Aguascalientes, Mexico, said he came to Laredo with his father and was driving around the block while his father was in a store. The man jumped into the van PARDONED — Richard Abshire of Houston holds papers telling him of a presidential pardon he received from President Ford. Abshire, a Jehovah Witnesses sect member, pleaded guilty in 1973 to the charge of refusing to work in a hospital in lieu of military service. He refused, he said, because it would "compromise my religious principles." He was given a five-year probated sentence. He applied to the president's clemency board and received a pardon from Ford. With Abshire is his two-week-old son, Jeremy Seth. Abshire is a tree sprayer and feeder in Houston.

Grain Loading Dispute To Be Resumed In Court

HOUSTON (AP) — A courtroom battle revolving around the massive sale of American wheat to the Soviet Union will shift to Corpus Christi because a Galveston judge excused himself from the case on Thursday.

U.S. Dist. Court Judge James Noel of Galveston withdrew from hearing a dispute between the International Longshoremen Association and an organization of shippers. The case has been transferred to the Corpus Christi, Tex. court of U.S. Dist. Court Judge Owen Cox who will hold a hearing at 2 p.m. Monday.

A temporary restraining order issued by Noel remains in effect, however, and longshoremen in Houston are expected to start loading Russian-bound grain on two Greek ships sometime today.

Loading of wheat halted here Monday after AFL-CIO president George Meany ordered a work stoppage until the U.S. government presents proof that the sale of U.S. wheat to the Soviet Union will not cause food prices to rise for American consumers.

The work stoppage left the Yugoslavian ship Bosanka only about half filled with grain. Loading of the ship was completed after Noel issued his order and the vessel has left the Port of Houston.

Noel's order came after lawyers for the West Gulf Maritime Association, an organization of shippers, filed a permanent injunction suit in federal court in Galveston. The petition asked the court to order longshoremen to live up to terms of a union contract which forbids work stoppages and sends all issues into arbitration.

Noel gave no reason for taking himself out of the case.

PRIORITY TRANSPORTATION AREA — One of the most pressing problems facing the community is beefing up its transportation facilities, and one of the top priorities is upgrading the Howard County airport, the terminal, and expanding scheduled service. These are among the ideas a sub-panel of Goals for Big Spring generated. Above is a Trans-Regional plane preparing for takeoff; below, the crackerbox terminal facility.

Concert Set For Sunday

Van Johnson will be presented in an organ concert Sunday, 4 p.m. in the First Baptist Church sanctuary. The public is invited. This will be his last performance before going to Texas Tech as a junior psychology major with a minor in music. He has been active in music circles for many years, primarily as a pianist. However, four years ago he began instruction in organ by Mary Skalicky of Howard College.

In his concert on the new Allen digital computer organ at the church, he will be assisted in the opening and closing numbers by a brass ensemble from the Big Spring High School band. Included will be Robert Merrick, Junior Chavez and Olias Chavez, trumpets; Kenney Watkins, trombone; and Pat Daniels, tuba. The opening section will be Purcell's "Trumpet Voluntary", the finale is a brass arrangement by Gene Currie of "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God."

He will also play "Fugue in G Minor" and two choral preludes from Bach; "Sonata No. 1 in G Minor" by Mendelssohn; Ellsasser's "The Lost Chord"; and selections from Karg-Elert and Boellmann.

Van is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Johnson Jr. He is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard College where his father is dean of academics.

Enrollment Off, Most Of It In Junior Highs

On the fourth day of registration, high school enrollment is up to 1,905 over 1,811 in 1974, officials reported today.

However, total Big Spring schools enrollment today is down slightly compared to last year at the same time. The four day total, according to Harold Bentley, assistant superintendent, is 6,226 compared to 6,278 last year.

Runnels this year shows 526 compared to 546 last year and Goliad dropped to 569 from 640, a loss of 71.

The elementary total is 3,150 compared to 3,219. Special education elementary students total 68.

Authorities Continue To Probe Baby Abandonment

This is the fifth week since a baby was found in the dumpster at the Barcelona Apartments, a few hours after it was born.

The little Miss Anonymous captured the attention of the entire community, and people from almost every state in the union called in offering to adopt or care for the child.

The state welfare office has placed the infant in a welfare home in another community and will place it in a permanent home through regular adoption channels. The lass will never know her background.

Police and the district attorney's office are also interested in the background of the baby.

Better Air Services Are Listed As Pressing Need

(This is one of a series of articles drawn from essays by sub-committees of the Goals for Big Spring project considering eight major areas of community life. Ideas from everyone in the community will be solicited next week — Ed.)

The sub-committee of Goals for Big Spring on the design of the city cited several problems Big Spring should overcome by establishing goals for progress in this area.

The panel said in an essay prepared for the planning conventions next week, that the Howard County Airport should be enlarged and remodeled; that the city needs the community building (approved by voters in a Howard County bond election); and that city officials should seek designation of U.S. Highway 87 as Interstate 27.

The sub-committee also said that adequate transportation is vital to an aggressive community and that Big Spring should work toward making the city more attractive to travelers, both on business and tourist routes.

Adequate air service with conveniently scheduled service was listed as a high priority by the sub-

Speaker Says Institute May Move To Tech

Stressing the possibility that the Institute of Insurance Marketing presently at Louisiana State University might be moved to Texas Tech, Robert S. Rodgers, CLU, president of the Lubbock chapter of Life Underwriters, spoke to the local unit at a luncheon Thursday.

Rodgers, who is also president of the Bar Association in Lubbock, told the group that his chapter would have a permanent delegate to the council if Tech can obtain the Institute.

He also spoke to the group on the importance of professionalism and of their group communicating with other professions in the community through education and public service projects.

John Bennett, CLU, presided at the business session and named his committee chairmen for the year including Bob Whatlington, CLU Snyder, program chairman; Walter Stroup, CLU membership; Ray Wier, CLU legislative and Bob Wilson, CLU education.

Relatives Reunited In Chance Ouray Meeting

By ELIZABETH LUNT

The odds against a meeting last week at the Box Canyon Motel would have confounded Jimmie the Greek. On Monday, July 22nd, a white-haired tourist from Kittanning, Pennsylvania registered for a room. His name was Ouray Beatty. That same day a white-haired lady from Big Texas, checked into the motel. Her name was Kathryn Ouray Thomas Archer.

Both Mr. Beatty's and Mrs. Archer's mothers had come to Ouray as brides still in their teens. Kathryn Ouray Thomas was born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Thomas in 1900, in Ouray. Beatty's mother went home to her parents in Los Angeles in 1901 to give birth to a son whom she named after the Utah chief.

When Box Canyon motel owner Margaret Kircher realized she had two guests named Ouray, she arranged for them to meet in the motel office before checking out on Tuesday morning. The two Ourays and their families were introduced. Ouray and Ouray compared memories and information about their similar beginnings.

When police got to the residence, the man was sitting inside a car in a closed garage with the motor going.

Relatives Reunited In Chance Ouray Meeting

By ELIZABETH LUNT

The odds against a meeting last week at the Box Canyon Motel would have confounded Jimmie the Greek. On Monday, July 22nd, a white-haired tourist from Kittanning, Pennsylvania registered for a room. His name was Ouray Beatty. That same day a white-haired lady from Big Texas, checked into the motel. Her name was Kathryn Ouray Thomas Archer.

Both Mr. Beatty's and Mrs. Archer's mothers had come to Ouray as brides still in their teens. Kathryn Ouray Thomas was born to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Thomas in 1900, in Ouray. Beatty's mother went home to her parents in Los Angeles in 1901 to give birth to a son whom she named after the Utah chief.

When Box Canyon motel owner Margaret Kircher realized she had two guests named Ouray, she arranged for them to meet in the motel office before checking out on Tuesday morning. The two Ourays and their families were introduced. Ouray and Ouray compared memories and information about their similar beginnings.

"My father was a prospector," Beatty

SOME VETS NOT WANTED
Army Reenlistments Hint 'Tough Times'

DALLAS (AP) — Some veterans who want to jump back in the Army find they are not wanted. Recruiting officers say the door is not always open these days for the GI who left the service and felt recession's pinch.

"They get out looking, and they find out it wasn't so bad," says Maj. Thomas Kirksey, executive officer of the U.S. Army District Recruiting Command here. "But we can't take them all back."

In four of five Army recruiting districts in Texas, reenlistments by those who have been out of the service for months or even years have increased during the first six months of this year over the same period last year.

"It doesn't mean that everyone that got out wants to come back because of the economic situation," Kirksey said. "But there are a lot of people looking back to us or to other services."

One young man who looked back is Bill Stephens. Stephens, 26, joined the Army in 1965 and "swore up and down" he would never go back in after 11 months of combat duty in Vietnam.

However, he reenlisted for 16 years five years after his discharge. He says his limited experience kept him in poor civilian factory and handyman jobs.

Recently, he was laid off from a job. The job was called a utility position by the company but Stephens called it a "flunky" job.

In San Antonio, a reporter asked several reenlistees why they returned to the service. They did not emphasize effects of the recession in their decision, but 1st Sgt. Art Blagg of their unit disagreed.

"A lot of guys we get back are deeply in trouble, deeply in debt," Blagg said. "As a matter of fact, I've sent lots of them up to our Financial Assistance Community Center on financial matters."

Blagg's 507th Military Assistance to Traffic and Safety unit was five times over its recruitment quota in July. Blagg says the unit consistently missed quotas two and three years ago.

Some older men reenlist to finish their military careers so that they can qualify for retirement benefits.

However, Blagg said, "I think most of your first-termers come back in because they're having a real tough time on the outside."

Increases in Army reenlistments have resulted in manpower ceilings, Kirksey said. A continued increase would cause the Army to exceed the total number of soldiers authorized by Congress.

School Aid Entitlement Funds Given

Congressman Omar Burleson today announced a $298,909.76 office of Education grant to the State of Texas for 1,968 children in Howard County.

These funds will provide services for children residing in low-income areas who have need for special educational assistance in order that their level of educational attainment may be raised to that appropriate for children of their age.

This includes all three schools in Howard County, including Big Spring, Coahoma and Forsan. Don Crockett, school business manager for the Big Spring Independent School District, said that Big Spring has around 1,400 students who qualify under this program and probably will be entitled to around 80 per cent of the funds.

"However," Crockett pointed out, "This sum is simply 'entitlement funds' which allows you to make an application designating students eligible under the program. Then we will see what we actually get."

The allotment of these funds for fiscal year 1976 are made available under the provisions of Part A of Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

Integration Suit Grows

DALLAS (AP) — Plaintiffs in an integration suit against the Dallas school district asked a federal court Wednesday to include seven suburban school districts as defendants.

The action by Dallas Legal Services (DLS) attorneys followed by one day a school district appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court to void lower court rulings against the district's integration plan.

The motion to include other Dallas County school districts as defendants was the first serious court action aimed at choking off so-called "white flight" to suburban areas.

Sylvia Demarest, a DLS attorney, said she could not comment on the motion filed Wednesday but when asked if it is an effort to fight the exodus of whites to suburban towns, she said, "Yes. That's the aim of it."

Named in the petition were school districts in DeSoto, Duncanville, Lancaster, Wilmer-Hutchins, Highland Park and Carrollton-Farmers Branch.

the major leagues' first 20-game winner this year, gunned down Texas in masterful fashion for 12 innings Thursday night.

But it took Baltimore two more innings to pull out a 4-2 victory.

In the rest of the American League, Oakland beat Milwaukee 5-2, Cleveland defeated Kansas City 7-3 and Chicago edged New York 2-1. In the lone National League game, Chicago shut out Los Angeles 7-0.

"Those were the two best pitchers in the league out there," Baltimore's Brooks Robinson said of Palmer and Gaylor Perry. Both Palmer and Perry allowed two runs and struck out six batters in their stints — but while Palmer allowed only five hits in 12 innings, Perry was bounced around for 13 hits in his 11 innings.

Still, a tie is a tie and nobody's a winner until somebody breaks it. Robinson did that in the 14th with a double off Steve Foucault after Tim Nordbrook had walked. Then Robinson came home with an insurance run on Ellie Hendricks' single. The victory shaved Boston's AL East lead over the Orioles to 6½ games.

"Perry wasn't sharp but he still kept us away from the plate," Robinson said. "Palmer? He's been unreal. It's a shame he didn't get No. 20."

A's 5, Brewers 2
Jim Holt drove in two runs and scored two to lead Oakland past Milwaukee, a victory that handed the Brewers their sixth straight defeat and enabled the A's to widen their AL West lead over Kansas City to 6½ games.

Indians 7, Royals 3
Frank Robinson noted that Jackie Brown had been 4-0 against Kansas City last year when he'd pitched for Texas. So he started Brown against the Royals and was rewarded with a victory and a route-going performance. Homers by Oscar Gamble and George Hendrick and Frank Duffy's two-run single made his job easy.

White Sox 2, Yankees 1
Jerry Hairston's tie-breaking single for the White Sox in the ninth inning gave Jim Kaat his 18th victory of the year and handed the Yankees their fifth straight defeat.

Deron Johnson singled with one away and moved to second on Bill Melton's two-out infield hit before scoring on Hairston's single to center. Kaat needed last-out help from Rich Gossage, who chalked up his 19th save.

Cubs 7, Dodgers 9
Rick and Paul Reuschel of the Cubs combined for the first shutout by two brothers in modern baseball history by teaming for a six-hitter against Los Angeles. Rick Monday's two-run homer and Jose Cardenal's two-run double paced Chicago's attack.

LEAVES BASEBALL — One-time Boston Red Sox power hitter Tony Conigliaro, left, as he announces Thursday at a news conference at his nightclub in Nahant, Mass., he was abandoning his third comeback try to become a television sportscaster. Conigliaro said he would begin next month to do daily broadcasting with WJAR-TV in Providence, R.I. At right is Arthur Alpert, news director of WJAR.

He missed greens, visited bunkers, romped through the wilderness, muffed short putts, explored the "boon docks" and shot a remarkable four-under-par 66 Thursday.

He tamed Colonial's terrors with birdies on four of his five closing holes and seized the first round lead Wednesday in the $250,000 Tournament Players Golf Championship.

"I was very lucky," he grinned.

The lanky sharpshooter speared an 18-foot putt at the last hole to sweep past Jack Nicklaus, Hale Irwin and Bob Dickson in the race for the $50,000 grand prize.

Nicklaus, the defending champion, finished dramatically four hours before Geiberger and held the lead alone most of the sultry, serene afternoon.

Big Jack knifed through the par 35-35-70 Colonial course like a killer shark, slashing four shots from par through 16 flawless holes.

He squandered a bit of glory in a jungle at the 17th hole, taking a double bogey six, then struck back with a near eagle at the 434-yard 18th green for a sparkling 67.

"I played a fine round of golf," said Nicklaus somewhat quizzically. "I really did."

But Rick took the feat in stride as he said, "That's the second time I've gotten into the record books this year."

Midland Whips Brewers, 12-4

By the Associated Press
Alexandria, which hasn't been winning very often, rose up to humble Texas League East Division leader Lafayette 13-5 last night.

Midland overwhelmed San Antonio 12-4, Jackson whipped Arkansas 9-4 and Shreveport swept a twin bill with El Paso 4-3 and 4-0.

Alexandria's Aces paraded 13 men to the plate in an eight-run second inning that sank the Lafayette Drillers. While the Aces were banging out 15 hits they committed two errors. Lafayette managed 13 base knocks but helped itself with five miscues.

Jerry Stone and Jim Wilhelm collected three hits each and Tucker Ashford a pair with three runs batted in for Alexandria.

Home runs were plentiful as the Midland Cubs scored enough to win with a three-run clutch by Bill Huisman in the fifth inning and Wayne Tyrone added one with a man on base in the eighth.

For the San Antonio Brewers, Frank Rametta contributed a solo homer in the second and Andy Rodriguez poled one in the fourth.

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Young and puppy dog friendly, 30-year-old Steve Sloan looks more like a budding executive than a head football coach.

If his players had any such illusions, they were quickly dispelled when the youngest head collegiate football coach in the nation took over at Texas Tech last spring.

The first thing Sloan did was to find out how far his players could run and how many weights they could lift. After telling them that sure was good, he announced, "Now, everybody is going to have to get much better than that."

This included Ecomet Burley, Texas Tech's All-SWC defensive lineman who lifts weights as a hobby. Burley can presently bench press 400 pounds.

The spring scrimmages were some of the fiercest ever held on the Tech campus. Thirteen players punched out.

"Coaching is the last great opportunity for a lot of kids to receive any discipline... I'm proud to be a coach," says Sloan.

Sloan made a winner out of Vanderbilt, long a patSY for anybody wanting a weak sister on the schedule. Sloan was a winner at Alabama where he quarterbacked the Crimson Tide to a national title in 1965 and a 39-28 Orange Bowl victory over Nebraska.

And he knows why he was hired at Texas Tech.

"The attitude at both Vanderbilt and Texas Tech is the same... They all want winners," says Sloan. "I want a winner."

Oilers Go To Denver

DENVER (AP) — The Houston Oilers, pro football's most improved team in 1974, take on their second straight playoff contender Saturday night when they meet Denver at Mile High Stadium.

Oiler rookie Coach O. A. "Bum" Phillips has guided his club to a 2-0 pre-season record with victories over New Orleans 13-7 and Washington 24-13.

The Houston defense has been exceptional thus far, but the offense, especially the running game, has been slow rounding into form. Phillips, however, says that doesn't concern him.

MRS. T. PAUL HOPPER

Shaw-Hopper Vows Solemnized

The Ackerly First Baptist Church was the setting for the Thursday evening wedding of Miss Cindy Shaw and T. Paul Hopper. The Rev. Bob Hamilton, pastor, officiated with Miss Lynn Hopper, pianist, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Jerry Hall, organist; and Mrs. Joyce Parker, vocalist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, Box 37, Knott, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hopper, Rt. 1, Knott. Both are graduates of Sands High School, and Hopper is attending Texas Tech University. The couple will reside in Lubbock.

The altar was enhanced with a column arch entwined with greenery and arrangements of white and apricot flowers. Flanking the altar were candelabra and baskets of white mums, gypsophila and salad leaf.

The bride was attired in a gown of white silk jersey trimmed in Venice lace. The bodice featured long fitted sleeves and a high collar with a deep V-neck. Her organza veil of illusion flowed from a maiden cap of silk jersey trimmed in Venice lace. She carried a cascade of white camellias with apricot rosebuds and lily of the valley.

Attending the bride were Miss Rene Roman, Knott, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Miss Pam Sikes, and Miss Kaye Hunt, both of Ackerly. The junior bridesmaid was Miss Helaine Shaw, sister of the bride. They were attired in apricot-colored floor-length dresses styled with empire bodices and three-tiered gathered skirts. The gowns were fashioned with square necklines and long, sheer puff sleeves. They wore white satin box headpieces adorned with streamers and silk flowers and carried nosegays of white camellias with apricot rosebuds.

Lance Hopper of Knott, brother of the bridegroom, served as the best man, and groomsmen were Ken Maxwell, Knott; Kenneth Schuelke, Ackerly; and junior groomsmen, Bryan Shaw, Knott, brother of the bride.

Ushers were Joe Paul Beall and Summer Shaw, Knott, brother of the bride. Margie Shaw was the flower girl and Todd Railsback, Knott, was the ring bearer. Reggie Shaw served as the altar taper lighter.

After the ceremony, the couple was honored with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church, where refreshments were served by Miss Denise Domenichelli, Miss Sheree Shaw, Miss Patty Peugh and Miss Babie Tatum.

The table was laid with an apricot satin overlay with flourishes of ruffled tooling edged in Chantilly lace. Candelabra entwined with greenery and apricot flowers centered the table.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brent, Mrs. and Mrs. David Saltar, and Miss Sheree Shaw all of Midland; Mrs. V. D. Pierce, Monahans; Mrs. Allie Tatum, Luther, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Sue Tatum, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Shaw, Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. Lance Hopper, brother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Romine, all of Stanton; Miss Denise Domenichelli, San Francisco, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Muhundro, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Nichols, Seminole; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nance, Arlington.

Tuesday evening the bridegroom's parents hosted a dinner for the wedding party at the Spanish Inn.

Donations of toy dishes, books and boy's toys are needed by the kindergarten department. The donations should be delivered to the school office.

Capt. Henn listed the projects of the Parents Club, the main projects being addition of books to the library and maintenance of the playground equipment.

Two reminders were issued to the parents. They should start saving Campbell soup and bean labels to be used in late fall to buy audio-visual equipment from Campbells. Club members should make plans to attend the Fall Festival held Oct. 6-7 on the school grounds at 1009 Hearn.

YMCA Offers Two New Programs

Two new programs will be available to residents of Big Spring at the YMCA beginning in September, according to John Schiebel, physical director.

A "Mother's Break" has been scheduled from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Fridays. This program is designed to give mothers a break from their children to relax, run errands or do chores and feel assured that the children are having a great time under proper supervision.

Mothers may bring their children, ages 3-5 to the YMCA at Eighth and Owens Streets for arts and crafts, gym activities, story telling and swimming in the new Dora Roberts training pool.

The first session will begin Sept. 5 and meet each Friday for eight weeks. Sessions will be limited. Interested mothers may call the YMCA for more information and registration.

A new series of women's fitness classes will begin the week of Sept. 1 at the YMCA. A new class will meet from 7 to 8:30 p.m. on Monday and Thursday evenings for working women who cannot attend during the day. The new evening series will begin Sept. 1 and last for eight weeks.

The morning fitness class will meet from 10 to 11:30 a.m. on Tuesday and Thursday beginning Sept. 2 and running for eight weeks.

Personal exercise programs along with cardiovascular training will be taught by qualified YMCA staff.

Registration for these programs is required. Interested women may call the YMCA at 267-8234 or register in person.

Dear Abby

Orangutan Seeks Ride To L.A.: Object — 'Matrimony'

DEAR ABBY: Because you have always been a good friend to the Como Park Zoo, I am asking a favor of you. We have a 5-month-old female orangutan named Joy who has been invited to the Los Angeles Zoo on a "breeding loan." They have a male orangutan named Guy whom they would like to mate with Joy.

Do you know anyone who has an air-conditioned automobile who would be willing to drive Joy and her foster parents (Arlene and Joe Scheunemann) to Chicago to board an airplane to transport Joy to L.A.?

Joy is small enough to be held in one's arms, she has good manners, and she would do no damage to the automobile.

JOHN FLETCHER, DIRECTOR ST. PAUL COMO PARK ZOO

DEAR JOHN: If Joy is a "liberated" orangutan, she may not like the idea of going to L.A. to accommodate the male. If Guy wants a date with a sure thing, why doesn't HE fly to St. Paul?

On the other hand, if Joy WANTS to meet Guy in L.A., I will provide the child bride with air-conditioned transportation. And I hope she returns "hair-conditioned."

DEAR ABBY: My husband does sheetrock work for a living. He makes good money, but he's always wanted to be an accountant, so he's been going to night school. He's young and smart, and will finish his accounting course next year.

The problem is that everyone we meet asks Carl what he does for a living, and when he tells them he does sheetrock work, they say, "Oh, come and take a look at this hole in my wall," or, "I've been looking for someone to do that kind of work for me."

Carl and I both work five days a week, and we like to have our weekends free to maybe go someplace together, but with all these sheetrock jobs he has to do for friends, he's tied up.

How can Carl turn these people down in a nice way? CARL'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Carl should simply tell them that he's sorry but he doesn't have the time. And he'd better start practicing that line while he's still in sheet-rock because when he becomes an accountant, he'll have even more "friends" imposing on him for favors.

CONFIDENTIAL TO W. IN SCHENECTADY: Most things that seem too good to be true aren't. Don't rush into anything.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Parents Club Plans For Year

The Immaculate Heart of Mary Parents Club met Tuesday evening in the school cafeteria with Capt. Neal Henn, president, presiding. Father Louis Mosler led the opening prayer.

A donation was received by the Parents Club in the name of Mrs. L. D. Gilbert to be used in the scholarship fund. The late Mrs. Gilbert had been a generous supporter of the school.

Capt. Henn read explanations of the duties and responsibilities of the eight committees. He then received volunteers for membership in each of the committees.

Donations of toy dishes, books and boy's toys are needed by the kindergarten department. The donations should be delivered to the school office.

Capt. Henn listed the projects of the Parents Club, the main projects being addition of books to the library and maintenance of the playground equipment.

Warning Issued For Canning Lid Substitutions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says home canners unable to obtain lids or lid-and-jar sets for putting up fruits and vegetables are resorting to questionable alternatives that should be avoided.

The warning came Wednesday from Nancy Harvey Steorts, USDA's consumer affairs assistant.

She said reports are circulating that home canners are using commercial sealants, rubber cement, glue, bathroom caulking and even cellophane in attempts to seal old lids if they can't find new ones in stores.

Advising against any "shortcuts or experiments in home canning," Mrs. Steorts said such practices could result in contaminated food.

She added: "Consumers, as an alternative to home canning, should consider freezing or dehydrating fresh foods."

SHERIFF PREDICTS 'BUNCH MORE' ARRESTS

Hot Oil Ring Probe Pressed

By the Associated Press
 Sheriff Don Atkins of Ballinger says "there will be a bunch more" arrests made before authorities complete their investigation of an alleged oil theft ring that might be of interstate proportions.

Three men have been arrested so far, and arrest warrants have been sent to Abilene and Houston for three more.

Atty. Gen. John Hill personally entered the investigation Thursday, saying:

"We are going to stay on it. We will be following up all these leads. Our role, as I see it, will be to coordinate the investigation."

Hill said he expected to bring in the state auditor to examine books of one or more refineries that bought oil—apparently without knowing that it was stolen—to obtain further information on the amount of oil involved.

"We certainly want to get some idea of the volume," he said.

Texas Rangers, local law officers, Hill's organized crime division and the Texas Railroad Commission already are in on the probe. Hill said he probably would call in the FBI and the Louisiana Conservation Commission because of a possible Louisiana connection.

"We do have reason to believe it is an organized ring," Hill said. He was careful, however, to avoid any implication that it might be connected with a pre-existing crime syndicate.

Roy Payne, director of the railroad commission's field operations division, said Wednesday he had information but no definite proof that the hot oil ring was based in Louisiana.

Payne said Texas City Refining Co. bought at least seven tanker trucks full of oil—1,300 barrels—from the alleged thieves but appeared to have been "an unwitting purchaser."

The refinery's vice-president for industrial and public relations, Tom Dobbie, said the company did not know the oil was stolen. "I don't know where this thing stands now. We are completely in the dark," Dobbie said.

Payne said the oil apparently was sold with phony back-up documents provided by an East Texas independent oil operator, who also arranged in advance for one or more refineries to buy the oil, telling them it came from his leases.

Oil was stolen from at least two parts of Texas—the west central area around Ballinger and the Cherokee Field of Milam County—Hill and Payne indicated.

The going price for oil ranges from $5.25 to $10 a barrel. A source close to the investigation said one small independent operator had lost nearly $12,000 worth of oil from his lease.

As Payne described the alleged ring's operation, "spotters" in the oil fields would watch for full storage tanks on the leases and notify "truckers" to come for the oil. The truckers would arrive between 2 a.m. and 4 a.m. and transport the oil to refineries across the state.

Former OU Fullback Hit With Rape Rap

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Former Oklahoma fullback Waymon Clark, a 1,000 yard rusher in 1973, has been charged with rape, aggravated rape and attempted rape.

Police said Thursday they are reviewing evidence to see if Clark, 22, might have been involved in 150 to 200 other rapes and burglaries.

Police identified Clark as a former star schoolboy player at Austin Reagan and at OU, where he transferred from Tyler Junior College.

After Clark, 6-foot and 198 pounds, rushed for 1,014 yards and scored six touchdowns as a junior at OU, he was dismissed from the squad for disciplinary reasons, missing his senior year.

He was in jail under $75,000 bond.

Gainesville Hospital Idea

GAINESVILLE, Tex. (AP) — One group opposed to the creation of a

Gainesville hospital district and the issuing of $4,955,000 in bonds has been proposing a profit-making corporation build a hospital in the city.

Still another plan has been offered by a former hospital administrator, Blair Ferguson.

Ferguson sold a portion of the hospital, which allegedly does not meet state standards today, to the hospital authority in 1962. Ferguson this week proposed to remodel some of that area of the hospital and add a wing for $600,000 to $700,000.

Solons Will Look At Firing Of Dr. Stenger

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Legislators will investigate the firing of Dr. Earl Stenger by the Bexar County Mental Health Mental Retardation Center, State Rep. Frank Madla, D-San Antonio, says.

Stenger said Wednesday that he was fired as head of the center's Southwest Mental Health Unit Aug. 7 because of his involvement last year in a federal lawsuit over conditions at Texas mental hospitals.

"My feeling is that it (the firing) is political," said Stenger.

A federal investigation by the Justice Department's Civil Rights Section was launched earlier after a lawyer for Dallas Legal Services, which brought the federal suit, claimed Stenger was fired for pre-trial testimony he gave.

World's Strong Man Due Sunday

Paul Anderson, the world's strongest man, will speak at the First United Methodist Church Sunday, Aug. 24.

The youth group will sponsor the evening and everyone is invited at 8:15 p.m. This is in order to share the event with other churches in the city.

Paul and his wife, Glenda began the Paul Anderson Youth Home in Vidalia, Georgia in 1961. The Paul Anderson Youth Home of Texas has been operating in Dallas for two years.

Those foster homes for teenagers endeavor to develop good citizens through spiritual guidance, education and physical fitness.

Anderson serves on the national board of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and other organizations that are dedicated to the uplifting of teenagers through "a personal relationship with Jesus Christ."

A book called "Paul Anderson, World's Strongest Man" is just off the press. It is for sale in a local book store and he also will have some with him, priced at $2.95. He will be available for autographs before and after the service.

PAUL ANDERSON

Time Changed At 1st Baptist

The schedule is being moved up half an hour at First Baptist Church for Sunday morning services.

And for good reason: There will be special observances of the fifth anniversary of Dr. Kenneth Patrick as pastor of the church.

Sunday school will be at 9:15 a.m., and morning worship at 10:30 a.m. An hour later, the fellowship will join for "dinner on the ground." Most members bringing food will leave it in the church kitchen as they come to Sunday school.

Local Youth Sets Concert

Don Hal Haney, sacred music artist, will be presenting a concert of old and contemporary sacred music Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m., Aug. 24, here in the Christ's Fellowship Center, located at FM 700 and E. 11th Place, in Big Spring. Haney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Haney, 1101 Lancaster.

David Wilkerson, author of the best selling book "The Cross and the Switchblade" says, "Don Haney is an excellent gospel singing artist...organist, and man of God. Don has ministered as soloist with the World Action Singers from Oral Roberts University and enjoys a good reputation throughout the country. Don loves to sing about the Savior."

For Don Hal Haney, the world is his workshop. He has traveled extensively and ministered to capacity crowds wherever he goes. Countries hosting Don's ministry in song include: Israel, Finland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Northern Ireland, England, West Germany, Holland, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Haiti, and Canada.

In 1968 while traveling with the World Action Singers of Oral Roberts University as their featured baritone soloist, Don went behind the Iron Curtain and held services in Tallinn, Estonia U.S.S.R. Don's secret meetings with members of the underground church while in Communist Russia and his actual consultations with those who have been "tortured for their Faith," has left an indelible mark of commitment and service upon everything Don does.

In 1973 Don received an appointment from David Wilkerson and joined the David Wilkerson Youth Crusades as crusade associate and organist. In Don's two years ministry with the Crusades he sang and played to over half a million people.

For many years Don Hal Haney has been a favorite minister of music and featured soloist in numerous conventions, conferences, and teaching seminars across the country. Traveling from coast to coast and to foreign lands... Don's ministry is to glorify Jesus. His singing is something the entire family will remember and enjoy.

Pastor Tommy D. Williams gives the public a cordial invitation to attend. Admission is free.

Wild Blue Yonder

It's just an old toy—yet in his imagination this boy can climb to supersonic heights with it.

In his fancy, he is at the controls, soaring high above the earth. One step more, and he will pilot a rocket to the moon.

It may well be that these dreams, moon and all, will someday become reality for this young man. Meantime, there is countless wonder and joy in his boyish fancies.

There should be countless wonder and joy, too, in his church experience. Non-churchgoers are apt to think that religion is a dull, dour, fearsome matter. Rather, it should be one of the most glorious parts of life.

Look deeply into your own religion. Go to the church of your choice this Sunday.

PACESETTER PROGRAM
Wait In Line For Chance To Desegregate School

TINY MOTHER — Gloria Hurd, 23, of Orlando, Fla., a 29-inch-tall dwarf known as Tiny Tina in the carnival with which she normally travels, gave birth Wednesday to an 18 1/2-inch son doctors say is normal. The baby weighed 5 pounds, 9 ounces. He's named Anthony Timbachtu. The pair stayed in Cleveland, Ohio, when the carnival moved on to Detroit recently.

RICHARDSON, Tex. (AP) — White, brown, yellow, red, and black children—all volunteers—attended school together Wednesday at a previously all-black elementary school.

And more volunteers are waiting in line for an opening at Hamilton Park Elementary School.

Principal Phyllis Owen says if children are going to discriminate it's better they learn bias on their own, rather than inheriting the prejudices of their parents.

Twenty years of segregation ended at the school when the fall semester began Wednesday. Attending classes at Hamilton Park for the first time were children of various extractions—Anglo, Oriental, Mexican-American, Indians and Negroes.

"Our program is attractive enough that everyone wants to come here," Mrs. Owen said. And, she added, "At least the child who attends an integrated school will have based his biases on his own experiences, rather than those of his parents, or others about him."

Only black children had attended Hamilton Park since it opened 20 years ago in this North Dallas suburb.

Rather than face court intervention and forced busing, school officials asked for a chance to get volunteers from other races to integrate the school under what was called the Pacesetter Program.

The response was overwhelming. The school district needed 250 non-black volunteers. More than 300 applied. Hamilton Park is now only 49 per cent black. There is a waiting list of about 60 pupils who want to attend Hamilton Park whenever a vacancy arises.

"In education, we believe it is the teacher who makes the difference. In setting up this school, we have outdone ourselves in staffing," Mrs. Owen said.

The teacher pupil ratio is 19 to 1.

"We are looking at a good cross-section of middle and upper middle-class America ... all ethnic groups, backgrounds, socio-economic levels and political viewpoints," she said.

There are pupils at the school who live in 100,000 homes, others who live in apartments.

Hamilton Park offers the same reading, writing and arithmetic as other elementary schools, along with foreign language instruction, a reading center and special studies in science, math, literature and art.

economic levels and political viewpoints," she said.

Hamilton Park offers the same reading, writing and arithmetic as other elementary schools, along with foreign language instruction, a reading center and special studies in science, math, literature and art.

"We will use a multicultural approach to learning because this school is a microcosm of society," she said.

Howard In New Area

With the creation of a new Texas Agricultural Extension Service district, district boundaries are being redrawn a number of places.

Howard County, which is part of district 2 headquartered in Lubbock, will be part of district 6 based in Fort Stockton, effective Sept. 1. There are 22 counties in the new district which extends to El Paso.

For 4-H Club members, this means district level competition with youths from primarily the Trans-Pecos Region instead of the South Plains, Bruce Griffith, county extension agent, said.

Howard County will be serviced mainly by specialists out of Fort Stockton.

Ray Siegmund is the new district agent for agriculture, and Mrs. Roberta Johnson is the new district agent for home economics.

SHOT BLACK GIRL? Protesting Release On Bail Of White Man

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP) — Policemen using tear gas and nightsticks turned back an angry crowd of black demonstrators protesting the release on bail of a white man charged with shooting a black girl.

The girl, 13-year-old Sheila Farrell, was in critical condition today with a bullet wound in the back. John Bailey, 24, allegedly shot the girl for raiding a peach tree in his backyard.

State police said demonstrators broke some shop windows on streets adjacent to a downtown pedestrian shopping mall where the protest began shortly after noon Thursday. Mounted and foot patrolmen initially restrained the 200-300 protestors as they tried to rally on the mall. All stores were closed during the demonstration.

The confrontation came when 70 to 100 demonstrators tried a second time to march on the mall.

Two arrests were reported, and state police were placed on standby alert.

Bailey, who was charged with attempted first-degree murder, was first released on $25,000 bail. But black leaders said the bail was too low and began organizing demonstrations Monday in the downtown area and at the Bailey home.

Judge Carl Goldstein raised Bailey's bail to $130,000 Thursday evening, because the girl's condition had worsened.

FOOD PRICES UP — Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz, at a Washington news conference Thursday, said retail food prices this year could average around 9 per cent above last year's levels. Butz made the comment while briefing reporters on U.S. grain sales to Russia.

Consumers Can Expect Boost In Food Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — Consumers can expect a 1.5 per cent increase in food prices at supermarkets and restaurants during the next four months, Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz and his economists say.

That would put 1975 prices 9 per cent above last year's, with part of the increase due to the 10.3 million metric tons of U.S. grains sold to the Soviet Union since last October, they said Thursday.

But they said the full impact of the sales to Russia will not be felt until next summer and fall because it takes three to 12 months for higher grain prices to be reflected in retail prices of meat and cereal products.

The 1.5 per cent push on food prices that the Soviet purchases already would contribute by themselves to inflation over the next 16 months will increase with their buying of perhaps another eight million tons this season, officials said.

The Russians already have bought in the world market about 16.5 million tons and can handle a total of about 25 million this season, "although they say it could be a little higher," Assistant Secretary Richard E. Bell said.

But any further purchases before January are already accounted for in the 9 per cent estimate.

That estimate is higher than the department's initial expectations of a 6 to 8 per cent increase in 1975 over 1974, but in the middle of the range it forecasted if bad weather required lower corn and wheat production estimates and higher export expectations.

"There is absolutely no reason to panic over the food situation," Butz told reporters and, later, a conference of farm, trade and consumer-group representatives.

"We have record food supplies ahead ... and most of the increases in prices are behind us," with a 1.5 per cent jump from May to June and another 1.7 per cent rise last month, he said.

It has been 20 years since food prices declined from one year to the next. In both 1973 and 1974, partly because of the depletion of U.S. grain surpluses in 1972 by a 19-million-ton Russian grain purchase, retail food prices rose 14.5 per cent.

Agriculture Department economist J. Dawson Ahalt pointed out that the zoom from May through the first week of July in meat and fresh vegetable prices, which sharply escalated the food price index, was caused by the sharply reduced grain crops of a year ago and smaller plantings of potatoes.

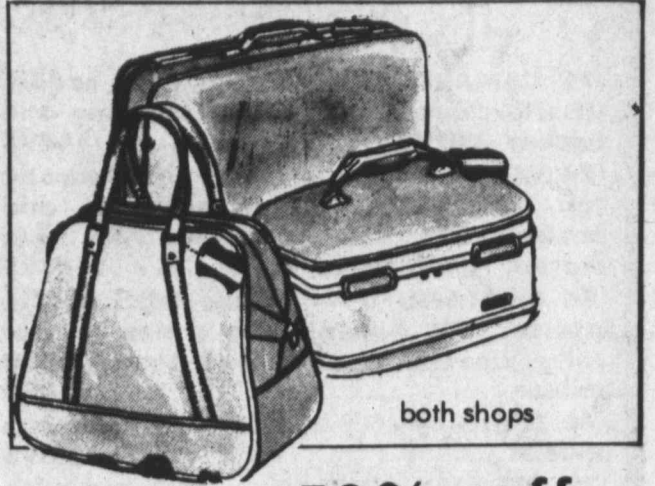

Prices of beef, pork and other meat started to slide a little before the Russian purchases last month but are not expected to drop much more.

He said that this fall and early winter will see "somewhat moderating" prices for chickens, sugar, sugar products and processed fruits and vegetables.

"Most of the upward price drift that does occur during the fall will stem from the continued sharply reduced rate of pork output coupled with tightening supplies of eggs and strength in some dairy products," Ahalt said.
