Sandra Good Names 75 Marked For Death

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) - Sandra Good, a disciple of mass murderer-Charles Manson, said today that an "International people's Court Retribution" has marked for assassination scores of business executives whose firms damage the environment.

Miss Good, 30, is the roommate of Lynette "Squeaky" Fromme, another Manson follower, who was indicted by a federal grand jury here Wednesday for the at-tempted assassination of President Ford.

In an interview in her apartment, Miss Good gave The Associated Press a list of about 75 names of persons she said were marked for death. She identified them as executives primarily in the power, lumber, oil, food and chemical industries. Miss Good gave the AP a statement saying, "the International Peoples' Court of Retribution is a wave of assassins. It is made up of several thousand people throughout the world who have been silently watching

At first glance the spectacle of 100 American civilian technicians carrying sidearms stationed as observers in the Sinai Desert to report the movements of Arabs and Jewish troops is not particularly alarming. Only in retrospect, recalling the technicians we once stationed in Vietnam, does the picture become frightening.

It is reasonable to suppose that the Israelis thought up this formula. They would reason that 100 American 'hostages' wouldn't harm them. They probably could trust American observers more than those from any other country to report truthfully. speedy appeals? This would intensify the traffic jams in our courts instead of alleviating them," he said.
Convictions would be appealed initially to the new courts of appeals, standing between the trial courts and the supreme court. Only those cases accepted by the supreme court would be heard at that level.

Shepperd said he opposed provisions calling the legislature into session every year and setting up a commission to recommend salary limits for lawmakers. who would have the power to set their own pay within those limits.

"This would make us lose the input of business and professional people who now serve in the legislature because it would move us toward fulltime lawmakers instead of the part-time citizen-legislators who have enabled Texas to establish one of the best state governments in the country," he said.

Advocates provisions say they will make legislative service open to persons of all income levels and will enable the state to go on a more efficient yearly budget in-stead of budgeting for two years at a time, based on long-range-and often inaccurate-revenue

Bleeding Man Won't File

A Big Spring man who was bleeding from the side of the head when police officers arrived at the scene of a reported disturbance, refused to identify his attacker and also declined to file charges. The man did say, however, that he had been hit in the side of the head with a broomstick. He was taken to a local clinic by a private conveyance for treatment.

The crowds grew heavier as the Ford entourage moved to the center of Keene, a city of 21,000. On the broad sidewalk circling the grassy town square, people were packed row upon row.

Ford walked along a rope barrier to shake hands, then addressed what he called 'this wonderful turnout" from a loudspeaker set up beside his limousine.

He said the Senate, which deadlocked in efforts to decide whether Wyman or Durkin had won last November's disputed Senate election, had been forced by public pressure to let New Hampshire voters stage a rerun "rather than have the politicians make that

Reagan, campaigning in Manchester, told more than 2,000 people at a rally that the Republican party should not compromise conservative principles for the sake of broadening its appeal

"A party kills itself and removes any reason for its existence when it adopts the principles of its opposition," California the former governor said.

In other circumstances, it could have been a Reagan campaign speech, but the Californian came to New Hampshire saying that he hasn't decided whether to challenge Ford for the Wyman and his managers hope the Reagan and Ford appearances will spark interest and spur the GOP voter turnout next week when New Hampshire settles an election that has been in dispute since last November.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although Americans earned more in dollars in 1974 than they did in 1973, their actual buying power decreased by nearly 5 per cent, the Census

The bureau reported Tuesday that 1974 median household income was $11,101. In other words, half the nation's households earned more than that and half earned less.

This was up from $10,512 in 1973. But the Census Bureau said that after inflation was figured in, the 1974 figure represented a 4.8 per cent decline in buying power. It was the first drop since 1971, when the indicator fell nine-tenths of 1 per cent after adjustment for inflation.

In July, the bureau reported that median family income after such adjustment tumbled by 4 per cent, despite a $785 increase in dollar value to $12,836. That was the worst drop since the agency began keeping records of family income in 1947.

The family statistics traditionally have been a key indicator of Americans' standard of living, but they cover only two or more related persons living in the same quarters.

Household statistics also include persons living alone and unrelated persons sharing living quarters.

Jobless Benefits Dip In Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — The Texas Employment Commission says Houston's economy was in better shape in August than in July with fewer persons collecting jobless benefits.

The commission said Tuesday the number of initial claims, persons filing for unemployment com-pensation for the first time, dropped from 5,749 in July to 4,932 in August, a decline of 14.2 per cent.

Total claims for jobless benefits in August were 41,360, down 9.2 per cent from July's 45,527 claims.

Swap Land Near Fort Bliss For Part Of Matagorda Isle?

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A special committee directed to create a state park of "matchless beauty" on Matagorda Island has voted unanimously that it would be in Texas' best interests if the state owned the federal government's share of the Texas Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong raised the possibility Wednesday of swapping land near Fort Bliss in El Paso County for part of the island, south of Port Lavaca. The Air Force has announced that it is pulling off the island, which it condemned in 1940 for a base and bombing range. The Interior Department, however, has said it wants the federal land to expand the Texas coastal refuge for 49 rare whooping cranes.

The 30-mile long island "probably has as good sports fishing as there is in the United States, and it also has as good hunting as there is in the United States," Armstrong told the 14-member legislator-citizen committee.

It is within easy weekend traveling distance of millions of residents of Houston, San Antonio and Corpus Christi. Former Sen. Don Kennard, a faculty member at the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs, added that the island has the "broadest beach in the U.S., and it is one of the last on the Texas coast that is not eroding—it's growing."

"It's been cut off from man for many, many years," said Kennard. 'Consequently, it hasn't been ruined as so many other

"I had a feeling we'd start hitting again," said Boston Red Sox Manager Darrell Johnson. "I felt sure it was only a temporary thing. I think we'll be all right now. They hit the heck out of the ball tonight."

The Red Sox had limped home from a 4-4 road trip and were concerned about an anemic offense. But 21 hits in anemic offense. But 21 hits in a doubleheader split with the Detroit Tigers had Johnson saying the Red Sox' prognosis was good. "I'm happy with this split," said Johnson, whose team won the first game 7-5 before losing the second 5-3

Elsewhere in the AL, the New York Yankees battered the Milwaukee Brewers 8-2; the Oakland A's punished the Kansas City Royals 9-1; the Texas Rangers pounded the Minnesota Twins 9-4, and the California Angels beat the Chicago White Sox 4-2.

Orioles 1-6, Indians 9-5 Baltimore needed more than a split in its doubleheader but it couldn't be very choosy after drop-ping the first game to Cleveland, which profited from the combined nine-hit pitching of rookie Dennis Eckersley and reliever Dave

It took 13 innings but the Orioles finally got their split. Bobby Grich's 13th-inning single sent home Ken Singleton, and when Rick Manning threw past third, Don Baylor also raced home.

Vance said Wednesday that three teams, each consisting of a lawyer and a tax expert have been set up to make raids and seize property of businesses that have not remitted sales taxes to the state. They are backed up by several staff people in Austin. "It has intensified. About 15 of us are working full time to work the list down," Vance said.

If a business has gone bankrupt, the task force, headed by former Asst. Atty. Gen. Benny Sarrett, will try to recover the taxes from the receiver, he said.

"We'll work up cases in one area, then we'll hit it. We'll have simultaneous raids, like in Texarkana and Corpus Christi on the same day," Vance said.

Word gets around that the raiders are coming, he said, and delinquent taxpayers suddenly begin getting square with the comptroller. Seven out of 20 businesses slated for raids in El Paso already have made arrangements to pay, he

"Greyhound Lines, Inc., is now offering a new seven-day Ameripass for $76," says Jim Owens, agent for Greyhound in Big Spring, Texas.

'Greyhound's new seven-day unlimited travel ticket really makes it possible for all Americans to travel all of America at even lower cost than ever before," says

The new plans have all the basic features of Greyhound's other Ameripasses which include a new 15-day Ameripass which goes into effect Sept. 15, a one-month Ameripass costing $175 and a two-month

According to Owens, anyone can travel any day of the week and go anywhere over Greyhound's more than 100,000 miles of routes throughout the United States and Canada. Passengers can travel any route any day, inside and outside their state - and they can stop over where or when they want.

Owens says that Greyhound recognizes the need for a travel plan that benefits all Americans. He feels that the Ameripass will be well accepted by young persons, senior citizens, pensioners, job seekers and others who may have postponed travel because of inflationary and recession pressures. He added that the new fare should also appeal to studens and others who may want to travel over the holiday period. Greyhound's seven-day Ameripass will be in effect until Dec. 15, 1975.

Owens added that as with Greyhound's other Ameripasses, seven-day Ameripass passengers receive Greyhound's discount guide which describes discounts offered by many hotels, sightseeing companies, attractions and other travel related services. Additional information can be secured by calling

Dallas Plan To Bus 18,000 Comes Under Quick Attack

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas School District, under pressure from federal courts, has submitted a school desegregation plan that calls for the busing of 18,000 of the district's 142,034 students, but the plan is already under attack.

Minutes after school district officials submitted the busing proposal to U.S. District Court Judge William M. Taylor Jr. Wednesday, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) submitted its own desegregation plan.
The school board's plan, which is estimated to cost $5 which is estimated to cost $5 million to implement-including $3 million for the formation of magnet schools and $2 million for busingwas approved by a 5-4 vote.

Judge Taylor, who is under orders from the 5th Circuit Court of Appeals to for-mulate a new plan to replace an old busing plan rejected by the Appeals court, can modify it before submitting it to the higher court.

Basically, the school board proposed the busing of 6,000 Anglo, 10,000 black and 2,000 Mexican-American students. It also called for the closing of six schools and the pairin or clustering of schools and the creation of several magnet schools at both the elementary and secondary level. Magnet schools would offer special and advanced educational programs conceived and operated to attract students districtwide to the educational programs offered.

Most of the students bused would be in the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th grades, board president Bill Hunter said. He added the plan could be implemented within two weeks after it is approved.

The proposal would not affect 52 schools where the student population is already integrated. The schools are mostly in the southwest and east portions of the city and the Seagoville area.

Under the terms of the proposal 4th anf 5th grade classes would be offered at specified schools in mostly Anglo areas and minority students would be bused to those schools. Sixth and seven grade classes would be offered in mostly minority areas and Anglo students would be bused to those schools.

The NAACP plan was based on what its proponents called a "unitary school system."

It suggested that students in integrated areas not be bused, but that other students may be bused to

It also said that integration should first achieve a racial balance between blacks and whites and then follow through with the integration of other minority students. It also called for the development of superior educational programs in the inner city schools

City officials said privately that they doubted that the plan would be approved by the courts.

Councilwoman Lucy Patterson said: "Look how many schools will remain one race. And it is still obvious that black students are bearing the burden of busing.

Councilwoman Rose Renfroe, one of the most vocal opponents of busing, said she was pleased the school desegregation plan called for no further busing in her Southwest Oak Cliff "But I still have to oppose
