Howard County Drying Out Following Rains

Drizzles continued off and on much of Saturday in the Big Spring area, after the countryside had soaked up additional moisture Friday night.

In the 48-hour period ending at 8 a.m. Saturday, the U.S. Experiment Station had trapped an additional 1.34 inches of moisture for a two-day total of 2.79.

That brought the 1975 aggregate to 24.69 inches, with 3 1/2 months remaining in the year. Already, nearly four inches more of rain has fallen in Howard County than during the entire 12 months of 1974 — when the measurement totaled 20.77 inches.

Howard County has had only two wetter years in the last 30 — in 1969 when 24.74 inches fell and in 1945, when 25.31 inches were trapped. Since 1900, when official measurements were started, this year's rainfall has been exceeded in only ten years.

Officials of the Howard County Fair, remembering how bad weather plagued last year's show, are hopeful the skies will again be clear when the week-long fair gets under way Monday.

WETTEST YEARS

Eleven wettest years in Howard County history:

1922	34.25 inches
1919	34.01 inches
1905	30.73 inches
1902	27.78 inches
1923	26.26 inches
1906	25.96 inches
1935	25.95 inches
1945	25.31 inches
1926	25.25 inches
1969	24.74 inches
1975	24.69 inches

The rainfall was general all over the area, although it tailed off toward the southeast.

Heaviest hit area might have been around Fluvanna, where 5.50 inches fell during a two-day period. Snyder received a little more than three inches.

The John Couch place in the Luther community experienced a 4.1 inch rain over the two-day period. Mrs. Couch says the year's rainfall is somewhat in excess of 18 inches, conceding they might have missed "a shower or two."

Colorado City benefitted to the extent of 2.60 inches during the spell. Hermleigh had 1.30 inches, Westbrook, 2.05.

Sand Springs soaked up 4.1 inches during the two-day period ending Saturday morning, with two inches of that falling on the final day.

Both Lakes Show Gain

The two major reservoirs maintained by the Colorado River Municipal Water District are expected to pick up a total of 6,000 acre feet of water as a result of weekend rains.

Lake J. B. Thomas had increased .65 of a foot at 5 p.m., Saturday and had an elevation of 2225.60 feet. The Colorado River, which feeds into Thomas, was running about seven feet deep and Owen Ivie, CRMWD manager, said the lake was due to rise another .65 feet, adding a total of 4,000 acre feet there.

The rainfall was lighter on the Lake Spence watershed but a 3 foot rise there is expected, with a 2,000 acre foot gain. That increase would put the lake at a 1887.9 foot level, which means the lake would be at an all-time peak by an estimated .15 of a foot.

Herring Regales Crowd

STANTON — A large crowd attended the 36th annual meeting of the Cap Rock Electric Co-op Inc., with the event moved in to the high school gymnasium due to inclement weather Saturday night.

Barbecue, entertainment, door prizes, a business session and free snow cones for the kids highlighted the evening.

Lee Herring, senior vice president of the Grand Prairie State Bank, spoke to the group. He is a well-known area humorist. He has been active in Rotary Club, school board work, United Fund, bank business, hospital district board, the Texas Commission on Alcoholism and many other civic boards.

Bob Cox, presided over the business session, at which time three new directors were elected. Incumbent Neil Fryar was elected director in District 1, S. D. (Sammy) Buchanan in District 2 and incumbent Alfred J. Schwartz in District 7.

Holdover directors include Edgar Phillips, District 3; Carlos J. Dusek, District 4; A. D. Reed, District 5; Raymond Pribyla, District 6; D. W. McDonald, District 9 and Cox of District 8.

James E. Eiland, manager, gave the annual report. Robert K. Hudson, attorney, conducted the election of directors. Ray Barrett Jr., chairman, gave the report of the nominating committee. Rodger Burch, assistant to the manager, conducted the presentation of prizes. Edgar Phillips, vice president, gave the invocation. Chuck Elmore was in charge of arrangements for the event.

A total of 644 attended the dinner meeting, considered a good turnout in view of the weather. Last year's turnout totaled 2,280.

College Board Due To Meet

The board of directors of Howard College will meet at 12:25 p.m. Tuesday in the board room of the Student Union Building.

The trustees will consider the school's financial report, bids on air conditioners, a resolution for the purchase of a bus, among other items.

NATION'S CHIEF EXECUTIVE MINGLES WITH CROWDS AT MIDLAND AIR TERMINAL. President Gerald Ford greeted by Cong. George Mahon

Over 20,000 Greet Ford In Midland

By MARJ CARPENTER
President Ford stepped from an airplane at Midland Air Terminal Saturday afternoon and, obviously pleased, saw a crowd of over 20,000 West Texans waiting in the rain to greet him.

He took time to walk down the rail from in front of the airport waiting rooms all the way to an area designated for press and for visitors, greeting as many as he could with Secret Service men fluttering all around him.

From the first greeter, a young girl in a wheel chair, through troops of Scouts, ROTC drill teams, and two high school bands crowding the rail, President Ford took as much time as he could to mingle and exchange banter.

The chief executive had been invited to the opening of the Permian Basin Petroleum Museum, which was changed from an open-to-the-public event to an invitation only affair with the arrival of inclement weather.

Barbecue, entertainment, door prizes, a business session and free snow cones for the kids highlighted the evening.

He was warmly welcomed there. He told that group he appreciated their presence, but was also grateful for the large crowd at the airport. West Texans apparently determined that he was their hero.

Reviewing the . . . . .

Big Spring Week with Joe Pickle

Just as it appeared that at long last we were returning to "normal" with breezy, warm days, the 1975 "monsooney" weather pattern set in at the end of the week. Measurements approximated two inches, but there were some reports of over four, raising the possibility of more inflow for Lake J. B. Thomas. Farmers didn't particularly need the rain, but lawkeepers welcomed it. The year's total Friday morning was 23.35 inches, about five inches over the annual average.

Rumors that Vance Chisum was returning to Uvalde as police chief proved true with his announced resignation Friday as Big Spring chief. Despite health problems, Chief Chisum performed so well in his four years here that he got a series of testimonials from the city council members.

Marriage Closer Now, Says Julie

WASHINGTON (AP) — Julie Nixon Eisenhower is putting her life together again.

Thirteen months after her father, Richard M. Nixon, resigned the presidency, Mrs. Eisenhower, her father's staunchest public supporter, is having some fun.

She says her marriage is closer now and the pressure to perform publicly has lessened. She has written a cookbook and designed embroidery kits to be mass produced. She is considering a television career.

And she is beginning to feel free.

"It's been a different year because, for one thing, I'm not guarded," Mrs. Eisenhower said in an interview in her Washington apartment. "I don't think anyone can know what it's like to have 24-hour protection for six years. I don't think David and I ever had a normal situation."

"In the last year, we've kind of discovered having fun again and being free, being able to pick up and do things and go places. I think that's the major happy thing in our lives."

Gifts Henceforth Won't Be Announced Publicly

A new policy has been announced by the Dora Roberts Foundation for future gifts approved by the board, according to Mrs. Gary Turner, speaking for the board of directors.

The foundation is set up for charitable donations and has been a generous and longtime donor to many area projects and will continue to do so.

However, the board will no longer publicly announce the donations, leaving it to the discretion of groups receiving funds to announce them if they desire.

The purpose of the foundation has never been to receive public praise for its generosity but rather to assist in areas that it sees have need, Mrs. Turner indicated.

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER AGAIN. Ex-president's daughter, Julie Nixon Eisenhower

"It's nice not to be under pressure to try and answer questions on every topic of the day, especially if you don't think people care what your view is on whether we should send more aid to South Korea. I just really value being able to be my own person."

The Eisenhower's two-story apartment, which overlooks a busy intersection not far from the Kennedy Center, is furnished simply with small sofas and high arm chairs. A beaded flower arrangement, a wedding gift from sister Tricia, sits on a table. A small picture of her father, taken recently in California, sits on a shelf in the foyer.

Mrs. Eisenhower requested that no questions about Watergate or her parents be asked, explaining, "I'm really tired of talking about it."

President, too, and turned out in overwhelming numbers. It is doubtful that a larger thing in pretty weather could even have been handled.

Assisting the Secret Service were members of the Department of Public Safety and area law enforcement agencies. Highway patrolmen mounted the roof of the airport building and stood there through hours of rain.

The vanguard of the determined crowd arrived at 1 p.m. and some waited three hours in the rain. Veteran Cong. George Mahon made the introduction of the President and he spoke briefly, offering thanks to the crowd for coming.

Mahon commented on his years of association with the President and their service together on the House Appropriations Committee and added the thought that "I feel Congress and the administration are moving closer together, and this is for the good of the land."

Other special guests were Sen. John Tower, Cong. Richard White and Harold Runnels, and George Bush, Ambassador to China.

At the museum, the President was presented a bronze statue after making a speech fashioned to the oil industry.

"West Texans have demonstrated how much Americans can accomplish with the right incentives," the President told the group.

"Incentives are the fuel of our free market system — and the energy West Texas helps supply is the fuel of our economy. The Permian Basin produces 25 per cent of the Nation's domestic oil and 20 per cent of the United States natural gas production. To keep this oil and natural gas flowing from this region, the nation must make it economically feasible to search for new production and development methods.

"This is one of the major reasons I believe decontrol of domestic oil prices is so necessary. The vote in the United States Senate this week sustaining my veto of an extension of the oil price controls has paved the way for decontrol. We are finally on the road to energy independence."

Readings Set New Records

Records fell this week as the low temperature of 45 degrees Sept. 12 and Sept. 13 is an all-time low on that date since records have been kept in Big Spring since 1915.

MAY CLEAR

What might be good news for those helping with the fair and circus is a prediction of warmer weather Monday. Possibility of rain today is 40 per cent, but weather expected to clear Monday. High today mid 60s, low tonight, near 60 and high on Monday upper 70s.

Don't Miss The Fair!

The gates swing open Monday evening on the first day of the 1975 Howard County Fair, and all signs point toward another gala show — bigger and better than ever. For one thing, this is the best year so far as pertains to agricultural products, and there should be a substantially stronger showing in this area. Extra activities are broader and more exciting than ever.

The fair offers a medium of recognition and exhibition for achievements in homemaking and art; in agricultural, horticultural and livestock production; in collecting, and hobbies; in horsemanship and other skill events. It's all there in compact, convenient arrangement so that the viewers can see a maximum in a minimum of time and effort.

There will be the usual exhibits of commercial enterprises, too, and oftentimes these are quite as colorful and educational as those from the catalogue exhibits. Enterprising businesses and organizations go all-out to show what they have to offer or what services they are providing.

And don't forget the entertainment aspect, too, for the fair has an excellent midway to add color and excitement. It has all sorts of other events from a country western extravaganza to a mule race, from horse show to fun things like tobacco chewers' spitting and the washer pitching contest.

There will be the traditional agri-business barbecue where businessmen host a barbecue feed for their friends in ranching and farming.

Decorations, lights and music all add up to a stimulating experience.

But best of all, this is the county's and the area's one major event of the year where there's something for everyone and where people come together in a spirit of pride and fellowship.

You mustn't miss the current edition of the Howard County Fair — meet your friends there this week, visit unhurriedly, see what others are doing and have fun.

Take The Long Look

A public hearing was held Tuesday on three proposed routes for the eastward extension of West Eleventh Place, which now dead ends at Abrams.

At the same time, highway and city officials have outlined plans for restricting the south entrance to the Malone & Hogan Hospital to emergency vehicle usage. There's no doubt that a lane must be kept open to the hospital for emergency use, and on such a basis that will minimize the possibility of clogging or collision with other vehicles.

But in this, as in the Eleventh Street extension, we hope that the long look will prevail. Eleventh Place needs to follow the route which will provide the best and safest travel from now on — and not merely the cheapest or easiest route. And the hospital-clinic complex not only needs to have a protected emergency entrance, but it also must have a south entrance. Much of the traffic comes from the south and southeast parts of town, and to insist on hooking around to Eleventh Place is to add 2.5 extra miles on every visit to and from the hospital. Multiply this by a couple of hundred vehicles a day and over 300 days a year, and you're into a lot of miles of travel which could be saved, and should.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:
My child is in the Big Spring High School Choral Department. Trying to be a good parent, I volunteered to help in the Choir Booster organization and was asked to help in publicity. I find that people not involved in the choral program are often quite surprised to find out how many honors the BSHS Choral Dept. has received and the areas in which they have excelled. The top honor for any choir in UIL competition (University Interscholastic League) is to win Sweepstakes; and our choir has done this the last four years.

The BSHS Meistersingers have been selected to perform at TMEA functions (Texas Music Educators' Association), which is chosen by tape recordings and is an honor given to the top choir in the state. They have also submitted tapes on a national level and were selected to perform at the American Choral Directors' National Convention in Kansas. The Meistersingers are considered to be one of the best eight in the nation (also judged by tapes) and were asked to perform in Europe. As you know, the kids turned it down, because of the uncertainty of financing.

Big Spring can be very proud of the BSHS Choral Dept., their director, Jack Bowers and the many fine youngsters involved. They are hard-working as well as talented.

Thanks for this platform on which to sound off.

REMEMBERING...

By BILL D. BROOKS

STEALING WATERMELONS

I have heard many interesting stories about stealing watermelons and, though I'll not admit to being a part of any of them, I can still give an almost first-hand account. Watermelon stealing is an art — though an easily acquired one. The patch is happened upon by chance or found by listening to talk around town or school. The land is studied carefully to figure out the best way to get to it and the quickest way to leave. No matter how much the land is studied it is still possible for something to go wrong. The following stories are true but the names are omitted to save embarrassment for some of my readers.

One boy was carrying a big melon, heard a noise behind him and, thinking it was the owner of the patch, started running very fast. He came to a barbed wire fence with a thick growth of trees on the other side. He rolled the melon on the ground under the fence, scrambled through leaving most of his shirt and some of his skin hanging on the barbs. He quickly grabbed up the melon and ran to safety in the trees some distance away. Too late he discovered a million stickers were stuck to the melon and consequently his hands, arms and stomach. He spent the next several minutes picking out stickers and the next several days healing.

One farmer who had had a lot of watermelon stealers at his place took the shot out of shotgun shells and replaced it with rock salt. About the most humiliating thing that can happen to a sixteen-year-old boy is for him to have to get his mother to pick large pieces of salt out of his behind.

Another fellow took the largest and best looking melon in the patch and he and his friends ate it, not aware that the farmer had pumped a liquid laxative into it, just in case someone had in mind to steal it. They weren't interested in any more melons that season.

Some girls were playing hockey from school one day and, feeling like a little excitement, decided to steal some watermelons. They came to a patch that looked good so they helped themselves to all they could carry. They went down to the river to hide and enjoy their pillage and found that, no matter how hard they tried, they could not break open the melons. They didn't know the melons they took were really pie melons.

Most farmers didn't really mind if kids took one or two melons, in fact, they expected it. But no one liked it if you went into their patch and broke lots of watermelons and just ate the heart. Stealing watermelons is something almost everyone may have tried at least once and they may have had lots of fun, too, but I'm not sure stealing watermelons is ever worth the trouble.

STEALING WATERMELONS

My Answer

Billy Graham

Do you believe that after one has lost their husband, they feel the presence of them still? Is it wrong to cultivate that — even to speaking to the person occasionally?
T.M.D.

It certainly is not wrong to sense the continued impact of a life which death has concluded. After all, the Scripture in discussing the person of Abel, said, "Though he is dead, he still speaks" (Hebrews 11:4). In other words, our influence lives after us.

But now, it's quite another matter to sense a "presence." When the body ceases to sustain life, the spirit of the individual Christian goes back to God who gave it. The real person is here no longer. To make believe he is would be emotionally unhealthy and spiritually in error.

Do you recall Saul in the Bible story of I Samuel 28? In a strange journey by night to the witch at Endor, he showed that all hope and faith in God was gone by consulting a medium — whose aid he knew was lawless and untrustworthy. He should have left the dead alone, and adjusted to the real life situation in which he found himself.

Of course, you want to cherish the memory of your husband. But pray that the proper acceptance of his death may allow you now to function in healthy relationships with the living.

Friendly Computer

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. AP — A computer here specializes in forming friendships between youngsters in this country and abroad.

The computer is at the "Big Blue Marble" Pen Pal center. So far it has handled more than 150,000 letters from boys and girls aged 8 to 15, from this country, Canada, Latin America, Europe and the Far East, matching each writer with another of similar age and interests in another country.

The "Dear Pen Pal" segment is a regular "Big Blue Marble" feature of the award-winning international children's television series. The series, presented as a public service on 120 stations by International Telephone and Telegraph Corp., seeks to encourage international understanding and an awareness of other youngsters' needs.

Crocs They're Frogs

SILVER SPRINGS, Fla. AP — The famous jumping frogs of Calaveras County may have a new rival in the jumping crocodiles of Silver Springs.

They are Cuban Crocodiles, a rare species found only in the Zapata Swamp of Cuba, and they can jump straight up from the ground, sometimes as high as eight feet. Black with speckled yellow markings, these creatures are the only known species of crocodiles that are able to jump.

The Reptile Institute at this 4,500-acre nature preserve in central Florida has two Cuban Crocodiles, caught in Cuba 13 years ago. The crocodiles live in a swampy lagoon on Cypress Point.

Car Buyer Can Hold Down Cost

By SAM BOYLE

AP Business Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The Ford Motor Co. announced this past week that its new cars will cost about 5 per cent more than 1975 models similarly equipped.

But the nation's No. 2 auto company announced the increases in a complex package that would cost a consumer $78 more, on average, if he wanted a stripped-down model.

The over-all increase is in line with one previously announced by General Motors Corp., but contains cost increases on extras that an auto buyer might decide he could do without.

By reclassifying such things as tinted windows and white wall tires as extras, Ford's base sticker price is up $78, but the average price rises by $216, or 5 per cent, for a car equipped with the same features as a 1975 model.

Automobile sales have been in a slump since the fourth price increases in crude oil following the Arab oil embargo. More information surfaced this past week about an upcoming meeting of the oil cartel, which is to consider further oil price increases. This, of course, will lead to higher gasoline prices for consumers.

The Shah of Iran said his nation would push for unspecified, but "sizable," increases in crude prices at the Sept. 24 meeting of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC).

He did indicate, though, that Iran wanted less of an increase than the 35 per cent sought by some OPEC members.

On the domestic energy scene, President Ford vetoed a bill that would have continued price controls for six months on some U.S. crude oil. Ford said he would veto the bill.

Meanwhile, Congress was working on another bill to reimpose price controls, which expired Sept. 1, until Oct. 31. This measure is intended to give Congress and the Administration time to work out a plan of gradual decontrol to prevent sudden jumps in the price of gasoline and other fuel products.

Inflation and price increases are no strangers to the American people and this past week the Labor Department said the wage earner was losing ground in his struggle to meet rising costs.

The government said the average wages of factory workers had risen by 9 per cent between May of last year and May, 1975, but the gain was completely erased by higher costs.

The department said that between May of 1973 and this past May the average worker's purchasing power decreased by 5 per cent, with inflation factored in.

Large corporations found at week's end that they will have to pay more to borrow money. New York's First National City Bank, the country's second largest, announced an increase of its prime rate — that charged a bank's most credit-worthy customers — from 7 1/2 per cent to 8 per cent.

Citibank's move was followed quickly by other banks around the country.

WEEKS BUSINESS

- Many extras have been reclassified
- Information due on oil cartel meeting
- Iran wants less than suggested 35 per cent
- Wage earner losing ground in struggle
- Purchasing power declines by 5 per cent

EDITORIALS / OPINIONS

Flogging Books

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Sally is in California; Ben is in Rochester; Irwin is in Philadelphia; Saul is in Greensboro; Myra is in Pittsburgh; Jimmy is in Hartford and Gail is in Baton Rouge.

WHAT ARE ALL these people doing? They're flogging their books — that's what. There was a time when a person wrote a book and sold it to a publisher who printed and distributed it. The writer's work was finished the day he delivered the manuscript.

But since television, writing is just a small part of an author's business. His or her major effort must now go into the selling of the book, which means criss-crossing the United States for a month or six weeks, appearing on talk shows that start at seven in the morning and radio shows that go on at midnight.

THIS IS HOW it goes. After your book is accepted for publication, the publisher takes your editor away from you and turns you over to the "TV and radio co-ordinator" in the publicity department, usually a man or woman who has just started there the week before. The reason for this is the biggest turnover in the book industry is in the publicity department. And the reason for this is that every time a book doesn't sell, the first people to be fired are the publicists.

The coordinator, who hasn't had time to read your book, tells you that he/she has arranged for you to be on "Bob Dimplehoffers' All Night FM Radio Talk Show" in Corn Blight, Neb. The coordinator tells you Dimplehoffers is very high on your book and specifically asked for you to be on the show.

YOU ASK HOW to get to Corn Blight, W. Neb., and he/she tells you it's very easy. You fly to Chicago and change planes for Omaha. In Omaha you change planes for Lincoln. Then you take a Greyhound bus to Waring Falls and change to a Trailways Bus to Sundown Corners, where one of Bob's people will pick you up and drive you the 90 miles to Corn Blight.

If you raise any objections the coordinator says, "Well if you don't want to sell any books that's your business."

SO YOU KISS your wife and children goodby and promise them you'll be home by Christmas.

After missing the connection in Chicago, and the Greyhound Bus in Lincoln, you finally make it to Dimplehoffers' radio station in Corn Blight with a half-hour to spare.

Dimplehoffers is in the studio playing a Bobby Gentry record. He says, "Look, I only got a couple minutes, fill me in on what the book is all about."

"DIDN'T YOU READ IT?" "Are you kidding? I don't have time to read the papers. It's about Watergate, isn't it?"

"No, that was my last book. This one is about a cat who does TV commercials and gets kidnapped."

"But I thought I was going to talk to you about Watergate. My listeners don't want to hear about cats — not at three in the morning."

"BUT THE CAT book is the one I want to flog."

"All right, but make it short. I have to take telephone calls about Mrs. Ford's attitudes toward young people."

After Bobby Gentry, Dimplehoffers says, "We have a special guest who's just written a book about dogs."

"Cats."

"Right, cats. What brings you to Corn Blight, Art?"

"I WAS JUST passing through and I had never seen an FM radio station before..."

The next morning after three hours' sleep you go into the local bookstore (the only bookstore) to autograph your book.

"What book?" the lady asks.

"Didn't my publisher tell you I was coming here to plug my book?"

"Nope. We only handle best sellers."

THREE DAYS LATER you get back home and call the TV and radio coordinator. "They had no books in the stores," you scream.

He/she says calmly, "That's not my department. You have to speak to sales."

A Devotion For Today

"Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well."

Tilted Uterus Common

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What would cause a retroverted uterus in a woman of 57? I am past menopause. I have much pain in the lower back and lower abdomen. My doctor gave me some exercises to do, and he told me to sleep on my tummy. Will this help the uterus? — Mrs. B.H.

The uterus normally tilts forward. A backward tilt is called a retroversion. It is held in normal position by a complex system of ligaments, and it would be difficult to say in any case just what causes these shiftings.

It is doubtful that your pains are due to the retroversion after 57 years, and it is also doubtful that exercise and position of sleep will alter the position of your uterus.

Many women have retroversion, and are unaware of it until they are told about it. Then, rather strangely, the symptoms appear. It's just human nature.

However, this is not to discount your back pains. They could be related to other factors such as back muscle problems, etc. In this event, an adjustment in sleeping position might help you. This is most likely your doctor's reason for suggesting it.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What is the difference between cholesterol and triglycerides?

My doctor told me that my cholesterol is normal, but that my triglycerides level is too high. I am on a low-fat diet and also take medication to lower my triglycerides. I am 67 years old. — Mrs. G.M.

While both cholesterol and triglycerides are involved in lipid (fat) levels in the blood, they may arrive there from different routes.

Cholesterol, translated from the Greek, means "solid bile." Gallstones, for example, contain more than 95 per cent cholesterol. Triglycerides are also lipids, but they are produced in the body from carbohydrate foods (starches and sugars) as well as from fatty foods.

About a third of our body's cholesterol comes from certain foods that contain what are known as "saturated fats." These are animal fats that remain solid at room temperature (butter for example) as opposed to "unsaturated fats," vegetable oils, for example. The rest is manufactured within the body.

Both of these lipids are thought to be involved somehow in the formation of arterial hardening and plaque formation, although it is not clear just to which degree each is a culprit. In cholesterol, the body seems at fault, perhaps manufacturing more of this than it normally should independent of the amount of fat intake.

Blowup Never Occurred

BOSTON (AP) — They expected trouble. Last year just part of the city was affected. This year kids from all over Boston would be on those buses. They expected trouble all right. But the blowup never came. Sure, there was violence, but it was scattered, isolated vandalism during the night and limited to certain neighborhoods. The city was quiet on the whole. How did Boston avoid violence after last year's flareups over a less extensive busing plan? The answer seems to lie mainly in the massive marshalling of city, state and federal power which preceded the rolling of the buses.

Now there are indications in this still-tense city that what was billed as the most critical school desegregation showdown in years may be resolved with a minimum of violence and disruption. Boston city officials and police still are nervously watching the new school year unfold because they vividly remember last year's violent opening which saw angry neighborhoods slope the first children ever to be bused for integration here, injuring some. And the potential for serious incidents remains as mobs roam some areas at night, tangling with police.

But the likelihood that such incidents would seriously interfere with the smooth running of school busing in Boston is seen as unlikely for these reasons: —Contrary to last fall's indication, Bostonians were warned sternly in advance by their mayor, the governor and the federal government that lawbreakers would be arrested and quickly punished.

To put teeth into the official stand, police guards were quadrupled to a total of 2,100 around critical schools and bus routes. In addition, federal marshals and National Guardsmen were brought to Boston. A U.S. Army paratroop division was made available.

—The steam seems to have gone out of key areas and organizations that opposed busing on the streets last year, leaving only one neighborhood, Charlestown, to vocally and violently resist, with no backup from anywhere else in the city.

—Some white parents who held their children out of school last year because they feared for their lives, are sending them back this year. Parent participation during the summer in biracial councils and a citywide coordinating council has smoothed school integration in several new areas.

The relatively quiet first week of school does not mean that Boston has accepted school busing.

Lorene Rogers Is New Prexy Of UT-Austin

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Dr. Lorene Rogers, a biochemist who took up science after a lab explosion made her a widow, is the new president of the University of Texas at Austin.

She is the first woman to head a major state university. The red-haired 61-year-old administrator had been acting president since Chancellor Charles LeMaistre fired Dr. Stephen Spurr without explanation on Sept. 24, 1975.

She was not the choice of the faculty-student advisory committee on selection of a new president, but was recommended by the formal selection committee headed by LeMaistre.

UT Regents appointed her in a 5-3 vote, with Tom Law of Fort Worth, Lady Bird Johnson and Dr. James Bauerle of San Antonio opposing.

"I voted against her because of concern about the apparent lack of support from students, faculty and the university community generally," Law said. "It has nothing to do with her personally. I have tremendous confidence in her personally."

Mrs. Johnson said, "I just think it said it all in the vote."

Among others who reportedly were considered for the job were Dr. Cecil Mackey, president of the University of South Florida, and Dr. J. Russell Nelson, executive vice-president of the University of Colorado system.

Dr. Rogers is four years from retirement. She said it was too early to think about asking the regents to exercise their prerogative to extend her appointment a year at a time after age 65.

Asked to comment on the alleged lack of faculty-student support, she said, "The readings I get are that I have a great amount of support on campus, both from students and faculty."

She became a target of faculty criticism shortly after her appointment as acting president because she refused to join in the clamor against Spurr's dismissal.

This year, several senior faculty members who had been vocal about the Spurr dismissal and other matters complained that she had cut their salary raises below what their departments recommended. She denied the reductions were punishment and said she was just trying to "even up" salary levels for other who had not received merit raises in the past.

Dr. Rogers received a bachelor's degree in English from North Texas State University in 1934. She enrolled as a graduate student in chemistry at UT-Austin in 1942, after her chemist husband, Burl Gordon Rogers, died in a lab explosion. She received her Ph.D. in biochemistry in 1947.

After teaching or doing research at UT-Austin since 1950, she became associate dean of the graduate school in 1964 and vice-president in 1971.

Test Sensors At Ft. Hood

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army electronics experts at Ft. Hood, Tex., may have an indirect hand in monitoring the new Middle East peace agreement in the Sinai.

Some of the sophisticated electronic gadgetry which will probably be used to detect troop movements is being tested at the Central Texas Army base.

Army officials say the purpose of the sensors is to provide a brief early warning of any potential aggressive troop movement by Israeli or Egyptian troops, thus preventing a surprise attack.

Chief among the monitoring devices are radar instruments capable of reaching out about three miles. Also included are acoustic sensors, which can pick up noise of moving troops, tanks or trucks, and seismic sensors, which detect sound waves under the desert floor.

U.S. officials say neither Army nor Defense Department personnel will be among the 200 Americans helping to monitor the desert.

White To Appeal Court Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas Secretary of State Mark White says he will appeal a federal court ruling that blocked the state's first attempts to delay regulation under the federal Voting Rights Act.

White said, "The effect of this ruling is that if we do not appeal, then we will have federal attorneys general telling the people of our state where they can have polling places, and how they can change precinct lines, and effectively take over every political decision made in the state of Texas."

U.S. District Court Judge Gerhard Gesell ruled Friday that the state was not entitled to a hearing before the director of the Census Bureau on two population determinations that would be the first step in bringing Texas under the extended Voting Rights Act. Texas officials had argued that the Census figures were not correct.

The first challenged Census determination was made Tuesday, but the Justice Department said the second would not be made until next Thursday. That would give the state a chance to block the determination appeal.

The Texas suit challenged a census finding on the number of Spanish-speaking Americans in Texas counties, and a determination that fewer than 50 per cent of the state's voting age population registered and voted in the November 1972 general election. Census Bureau figures showed only 46.2 per cent participated in that election.

Briscoe and White had contended that the census had included in its voting age population aliens, temporary residents, convicted felons who were not entitled to vote and mental incompetents. It said that aliens were included in the Spanish-speaking population.

White said in an affidavit the numbers were based on 1970 census figures and projections that included a million aliens and others who are unqualified to vote. He said, "The law very clearly states that 'citizens of voting age' does not include illegal aliens."

Gesell said that the Voting Rights Act does not require public hearings or detailed evaluation of the voting age population. Justice Department lawyer Brian Landsberg said Congress specifically voted down provisions that would have required such hearings and evaluations.

Gesell noted in his ruling that the statute is designed to avoid judicial delays in the early stages of its implementation.

During the two-hour hearing Friday, White said that the Justice Department has suggested that the state's new bilingual aid law was not enough for compliance with the Voting Rights Act. He said that it cost an extra $10 million dollars to supply every Texas household with copies of the proposed constitution in both English and Spanish.

Gesell said in his ruling, "The public interest is better served by protecting voting rights rather than by protecting against any possible expenditure by the state."

The judge noted that Texas and federal officials are trying to work out agreeable implementation of the Voting Rights Act before Texas balloting on a new state constitution in November.

White said he felt that Texas voting law "adequately, and frankly, better, protects the voting rights of our citizens than any federal concept that I've seen."

But he said, "...We will abide by any court order issued by the federal courts."

The Voting Rights Act was extended by Congress this year to states with large language minorities and low voting participation. Its provisions include federal supervision of elections as well as municipal annexations and the drawing of voting district boundaries.

The Southwest Regional Advisory Committee to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights had recommended that the act be extended to Texas because of complaints of discrimination against Mexican-American voters.

Prosecutor Says Store A Front For Carrillo

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — A general store which the federal government says was a sham to cover income for suspended District Court Judge O.P. Carrillo obtained loans from the First State Bank of San Diego, Tex., a bank officer said Saturday.

Bank President Karl Williams, testifying for the second day in the trial of Carrillo, said the loans were made to the Zertuche General Store. The loans were approved by a loan committee.

"Would the bank ever make a loan to a ghost or a nonexistent applicant?" asked defense attorney Arthur Mitchell.

"Not to my knowledge," replied Williams.

Carrillo and his brother, Duval County Commissioner Ramiro Carrillo, are accused of filing false income tax returns. The government alleges the pair set up the store as nothing more but a pad of invoices and a bank account to cover illegal sales made from their farms and ranches. The sales were made to Duval County and other county agencies.

Carrillo also faces an impeachment trial before the Texas Senate.

Assistant U.S. Atty. George Kelt asked Williams if the bank committee would approve the loans if they knew O.P. Carrillo and Ramiro Carrillo "were behind Zertuche General Store". Williams never got to answer because District Court Judge Owen Cox ruled the question out of order.

An accountant who prepared tax returns of the store testified earlier that the store had gross receipts of more $72,000 in 1968 and more than $92,000 in 1969.

The only link between the store and Judge Carrillo has been a signature on the back of two checks from Duval County to the store in 1970.

Williams identified a signature on a third check for $1,006 Saturday from the county to the store as being that of Carrillo's.

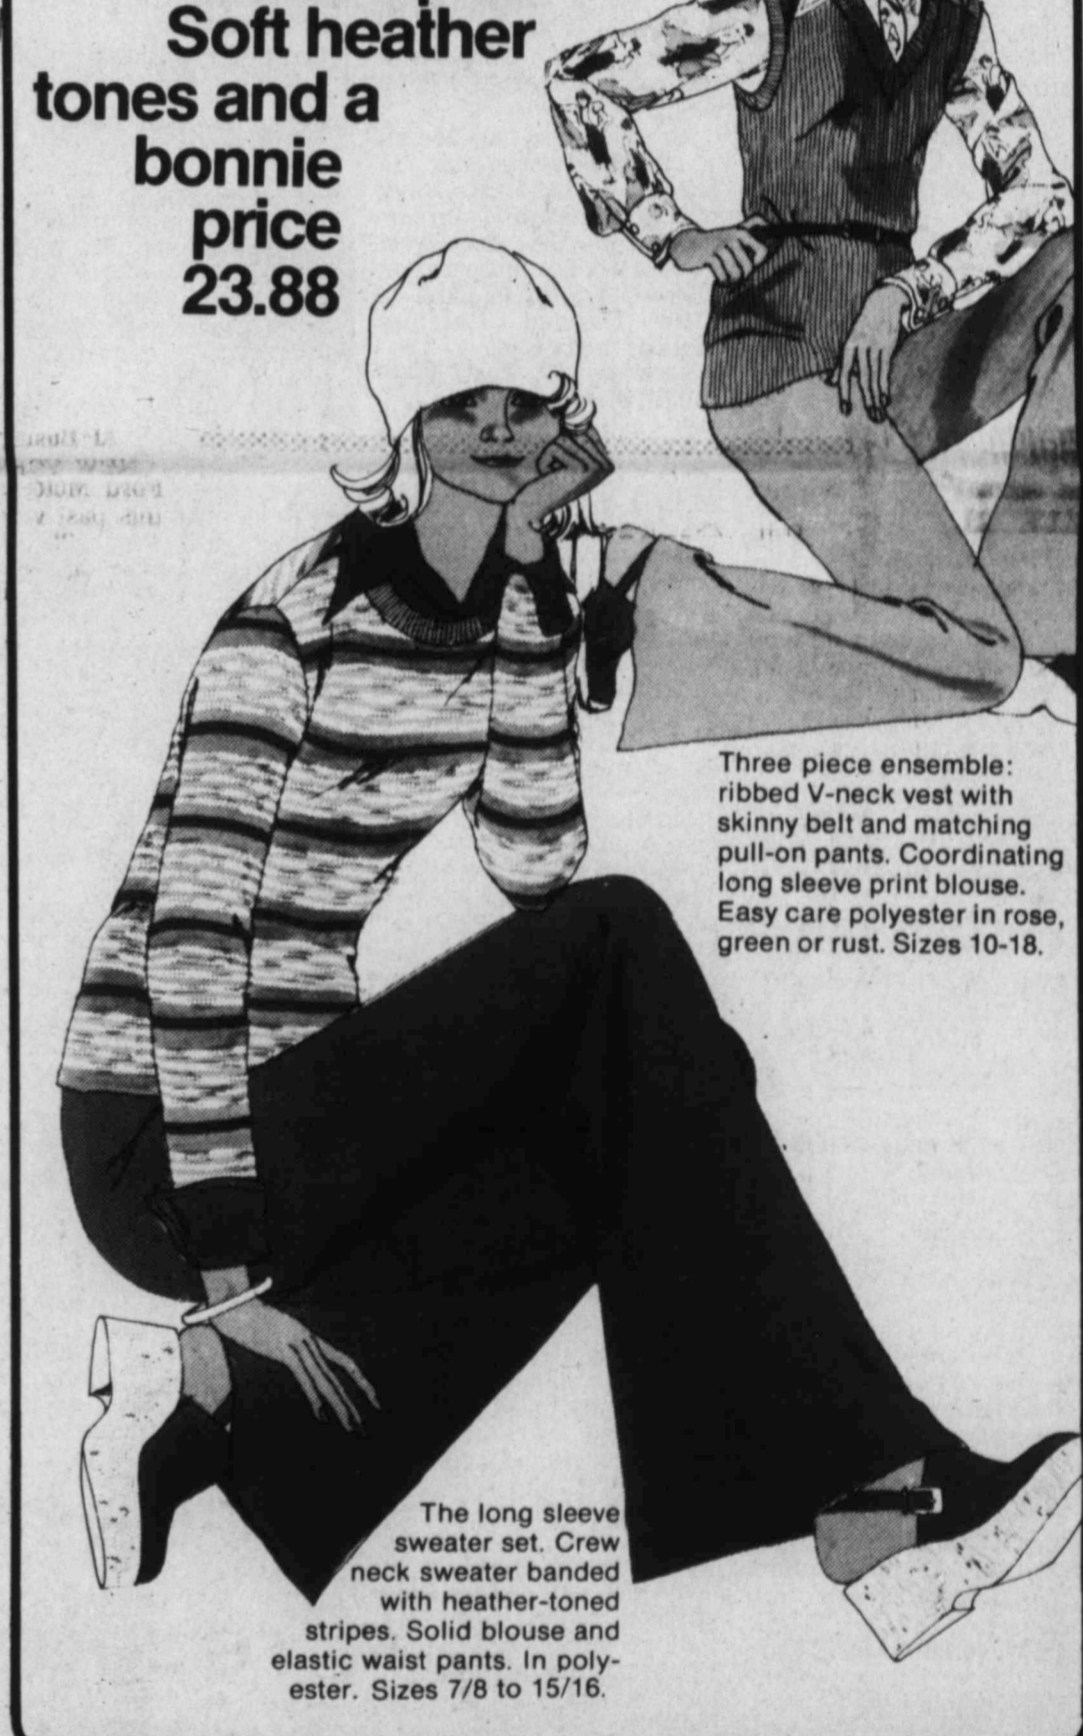

Williams stuck by his assertion that the signatures were those of Judge Carrillo although Mitchell said they were illegible.

Williams said he could recognize Carrillo's name after "years of familiarity" with the signature.

"For five years I have been paying and honoring checks with this signature, he said."

Rocky Urging Tougher Intelligence Stance

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller said Saturday that attempts against the life of President Ford show a need for tougher domestic intelligence operations by the government.

Rockefeller told an airport news conference in Oklahoma City that the FBI and other agencies which are authorized to gather intelligence in this country need more help.

"What has happened does indicate the importance of having intelligence," Rockefeller said. "And I think it's an element that should be considered at this point when the Congress of the United States is reviewing CIA and the entire intelligence structure."

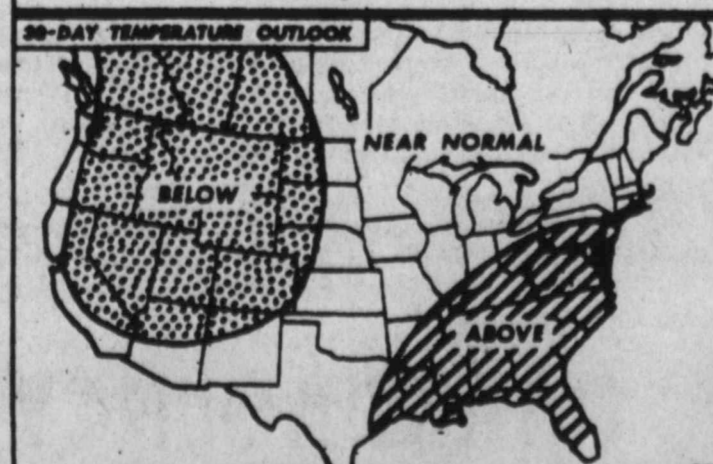

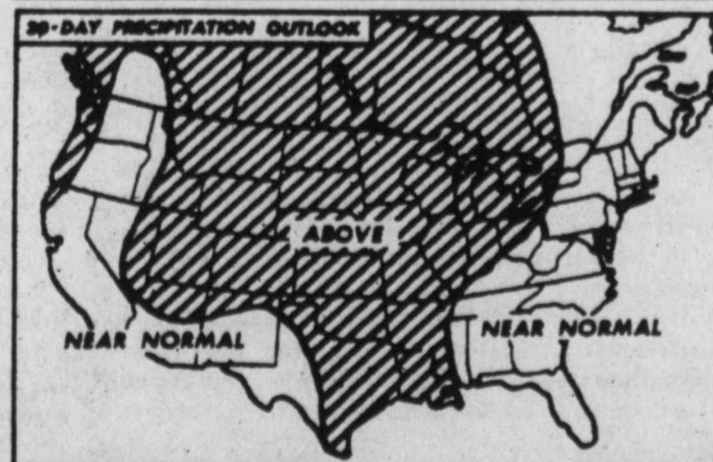

Rockefeller, who headed the government panel which studied charges of illegal domestic snooping by CIA, said no massive violations were found and the charges are deceiving the public.

"I think that we do see from what happened in the case of the President that it is essential that the FBI and the local law enforcement agencies preserve records of those who have been outspoken or active in efforts to undermine the freedom of this country or destroy democratic society by force or to kill leaders of this society," he said.

Rockefeller said, however, he felt public officials and political candidates should be prepared to take the risks which go with the job and that the Secret Service is doing all that can be done reasonably to protect them.

"This is part of the hazards of life," he said. Rockefeller also supported Ford's demand that the House intelligence committee return classified materials because some items were released.

"The trouble is that a lot of people are handling very sensitive material who are not trained in this, who have no experience in it,"

Weary Foes Near Campaign's End

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Democrat John A. Durkin and Republican Louis C. Wyman, two weary political prizefighters, are punching doggedly through the last round of their long Senate election contest — but it may be the managers who hold the key to Tuesday's decision.

JOHN A. DURKIN Democrat

LOUIS C. WYMAN Republican

There was no burst of last-minute campaigning. Nearly exhausted by the longest Senate contest in history, both candidates were saving what energy they had left for a joint television appearance in Boston Sunday. Furthermore, there apparently are few minds to be changed in the last three days of a battle that has been running for more than a year.

Oil Talk Makes Hit Saturday

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP) — President Ford, in a setting evocative of West Texas' oil-rich traditions, carried a message of oil price decontrol to a captive audience Saturday. The message could mean dollars to many of those assembled.

On a rainy last stop in his one-day sprint across the state from Dallas to Midland, Ford appeared at the dedication of the Permian Basin Petroleum Museum, Library and Hall of Fame—a newly constructed shrine to the region's prime enterprise.

About 380 invited guests in a ceremony otherwise closed to the public heard Ford reiterate his support for federal decontrol of oil and gas prices.

"America's energy future cannot be entrusted...to the policies or passions of others in far-off lands," he said. Afterwards, Stanley Moore, board chairman of an international petroleum production company, grinned and said that Ford "is a very welcome man in West Texas. I'm thoroughly in accord with what he wants to do, particularly with the pricing situation."

As Moore and the audience left the building, they strolled past models of oil field pumps and an original oil derrick moved to the museum site.

Ford did not permit a steady drizzle to mar the first appearance in Midland by any president.

At the Midland-Odessa airport where he shook hands with a huge throng, he was told by U.S. Rep. George Mahon, D-Tex., "This is the biggest rain since Noah and the flood and we're glad to have you, Mr. President, and the rain."

Local Authority Nil In Embattled Tripoli

TRIPOLI, Lebanon (AP) — Abdul Razak raced through the streets of Tripoli in a commandeered city ambulance, his Soviet-made AK47 assault rifle between the knees, the siren wailing and the red light flashing.

Razak, 30 years old with a wife and two daughters, used to be a house painter. But for the last nine years he has been, in his words, "a revolutionary," code-named "She-Bear."

She-Bear's revolution has turned Tripoli and the surrounding hills into guerrilla battlegrounds for the last 11 days, erasing local authority and forcing the government to send in army troops to man a buffer zone.

It has killed about 130 persons by conservative estimates and wounded twice that many. Tripoli's water system has been so disrupted that tanker trucks are used to supply some neighborhoods. Dozens of downtown shops have been bombed out. Residential quarters are shuttered tight for fear of shrapnel from mortar blasts.

The nature of the "revolution" has made Lebanon's rulers shudder because the fighting has pitted Moslem militiamen like Razak against Christians from the hill town of Zagharta five miles inland from this coastal city 50 miles north of Beirut.

Zagharta is the traditional fief of President Suleiman Franjeh, a Maronite Christian. Tripoli is the home territory of Premier Rashid Karami, a Sunni Moslem. The two are longtime rivals, separated by religion and politics.

"Confessional war has broken out in some areas, leaving behind it devastation and hatred," said Patriarch Antonios Khreish, Lebanon's top Maronite prelate.

But the religious war also is a social war, a struggle by the poor classes to grab a larger share of Lebanon's spiraling wealth from the rich who run the country from air-conditioned offices.

"It is not a war between Tripoli and Zagharta," said Farouk Mokaddem, leader of the well-organized and well-armed Moslem fighting force in Tripoli.

(AP WIREPHOTO) MOTHER SETON

American Becomes A Saint

VATICAN CITY (AP) — An army of workmen hung a huge tapestry of Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton from St. Peter's Basilica on Saturday and set up more than 20,000 seats for the first canonization of a native-born American.

Mother Seton will take her place Sunday among the Roman Catholic Church's company of saints 154 years after her death in the convent she founded, the Sisters of Charity, in Emmitsburg, Md.

Pope Paul VI, celebrating a canonization mass with eight cardinals, archbishops and bishops — all but one American — was returning from his summer retreat south of Rome to prepare for the ceremony in St. Peter's Square.

The 77-year-old pontiff spent much of the summer studying the life of Mother Seton, who was born into an upper crust Protestant family in New York two years before the Declaration of Independence.

"His secretary has been reading him my book in the Vatican gardens," the Rev. Joseph Dirvin, Mother Seton's biographer, said Saturday. "He asked for a second copy just recently so the Pope could follow the text to improve his English."

"He is very impressed with Mother Seton's life."

About 500 workmen moved into St. Peter's Square to prepare for the ceremony. The tapestry hung from the loggia showed Mother Seton, clothed in a black habit, standing over a globe with the United States illuminated by rays of sunlight.

The Vatican disclosed that women from four nations were chosen to illustrate four phases of the new saint's life in the canonization ceremony, third of six this Holy Year. The pope had earlier declared Sunday "Women's Day."

Cases Of DWI Have Tripled

Seven DWIs were arrested during Friday night and placed in the jail.

In recent weeks, the number of DWI arrests in the city and county has tripled.

McNeil Pleased With UW Collections First Week

Campaign Chairman Ron McNeil said that he is "real pleased" at the first week's collection in the 1975 United Way Campaign, with $13,568 in donations and pledges being accounted for.

McNeil noted that the total does not include any of the collections from the CFC campaign.

He said that advance gifts, out of town gifts, and women's gifts appeared to be the strongest divisions so far in the young campaign.

The United Way is shooting for a total of $131,975 in collections by November 7.

OFFICIAL EMBLEM — An official bicentennial emblem designed by a Big Spring citizen is up for approval of the National American Revolutionary Bicentennial Association and is shown here by Mrs. Geri Atwell, Heritage Museum curator.

Bicen Emblem Is Made Available

The Big Spring bicentennial commission has announced that an official emblem of the bicentennial here will be available in both pictures and plaques to be used for personal use or by various organizations for awards during the coming year.

The emblem has been designed by a local Big Spring citizen, has been sanctioned by the Big Spring-Howard County Bicentennial Commission and has been sent to the State of Texas and National American Revolutionary Bicentennial Association for national approval.

The emblem is designed in basic black and white with two concentric circles uniting 1776 and 1976.

It is interlocked and held up by a hand, and depicts

Captain Marcy, the Comanche War Trail map, women's suffrage and the United States flag.

Mrs. Geri Atwell, curator of Heritage Museum, will have the silver plaques on exhibit at the museum and orders may be taken there for either plaques or pictures. Orders for the pictures will also be taken at Webb Credit Union, according to Mrs. Johnnie Lou Avery and Mrs. Janell Davis, co-chairpersons of the bicentennial here.

College Head Count Mounts

A record total of 1,564 students, including 123 in Lamesa and 93 in San Angelo, had enrolled at Howard College over the weekend, with 16 more applications being processed in the office.

If all those clear, total enrollment in the two-year school will be 1,580, according to School Registrar L. L. (Red) Lewis.

Deadline for entering school for the fall term here is Tuesday.

Campus enrollees here total 1,348.

Last fall, total registration at the college was 1,313 while enrollment hit an all-time peak of 1,448 in the spring.

Another $125 Is Given Fund

Gifts by the First Church of God and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Atkins boosted the Big Spring High School Bible Fund by another $125 Friday.

The church forwarded a $100 check to the Herald, which in turn passed it on to the sponsoring organization, the Howard County Ministerial Alliance. Mr. and Mrs. Atkins gave $25 in memory of Boone Horne.

A total of $7,730.05 has now been donated to the fund, an all-time record.

WAITING FOR A PRESIDENT — Jennifer Spencer of Big Spring and Tabatha Green of Stanton share an oil drum for a perch as they awaited the arrival of President Ford at the Midland airport Saturday.

Weeks Of Preparation Preceded Ford Visit

By MARJ CARPENTER Stern-faced Secret Servicemen by the dozens walked authoritatively through the crowds, around the plane, and everywhere about President Gerald R. Ford as he arrived at Midland Air Terminal Saturday afternoon.

But the real story of the Secret Service is in the weeks of preparation they undergo for such a brief visit in a public place by the President of the United States.

"We can't tell you how many of us are here," a pleasant-faced young man from Alabama said at the hotel near the museum. "Some of us came ahead, of course, and we really can't comment any more than that."

He and a young man from Florida laid their walkie-talkies down on the table while they ate lunch. One young man at the airport, who seemed to be in charge, admitted that he was part of the advance group. He appeared to be boss of the advance unit.

They had staked out the area, and were keeping press, crowd, bands and everyone in their assigned areas. They walked around unobtrusively peering into camera cases and casting suspicious eyes at large handbags.

Two young men who worked at the airport decided to get on the roof for a better view. The Secret Service moved quickly and quietly. The young men were off the roof in no time.

A U.S. Air Force C-141 flew in and landed. One of the "guys inside the rope" admitted that the plane brought the President's Cadillac limousine and another car which follows it.

Secret Service also arrived on that plane. A Delta Airlines plane arrived. Some 75 members of the national press corps, along with more Secret Service, began to unload their cameras and paraphernalia.

Inside the roped-off area were persons with five different kinds of lapel buttons marking their status. Questions from a young man from West Virginia who wore a red and blue badge led us to find out that his badge designated the President's communication corps.

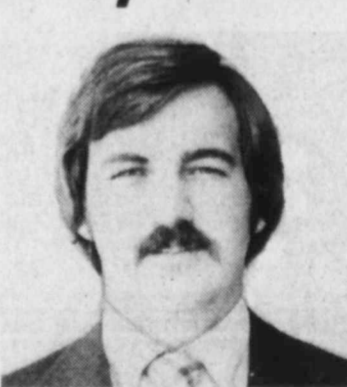

The green badge was the President's press corps. The big E's were area law enforcement personnel and a curved arrow was personnel from the airport.

The little gold insignia that resembled a musical note without a head was the mark for the Secret Service for that particular day. Their identifications change from day to day, and sometimes hour to hour, so that nobody can copy them.

Area press were designated with tags which the Secret Service insisted always be displayed where they could be clearly seen.

UNDER BANNERS One group draped a big banner up on the rail as the President neared their area. Immediately, Secret Servicemen were behind, under and over it, checking to be sure nothing was stashed behind the sign.

Should fire or a disaster destroy records in the county clerk's office, County Clerk Margaret Ray said they could not be replaced.

So County Commissioners Court will consider having microfilm copies of important documents made and stored in bank vaults.

The court will hear the presentation from Jim Kidwell at 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Other items on the agenda include: Conferring with librarian Susan Conley about a part-time employee being placed on the payroll through December.

Meeting with Tom Escheberger about purchasing a voting station at the November constitutional election.

Considering replacement of dump trucks. Authorizing a Manpower employee in the tax office at federal government expense.

Deliberating whether to entertain bids for computer air conditioning a second time. Only one bid was received the first time.

And interviewing applicants for justice of the peace precinct one, place one. Peace Justice Walter Grice resigns Oct. 1. An appointment is expected Tuesday.

EDITOR'S NOTE — The Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor is back to routine operations. There have been no suspicious deaths since Aug. 15. But someone tried to kill patients, and the killer has not been caught. The terrible drama of drug-induced respiratory failure could happen again.

By JOHN BARBOUR AP Newsfeatures Writer ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — The poisoner is still at large.

The insidious work performed by a person or persons unknown is apparently in abeyance, too dangerous now with the FBI stationed in the hospital, waiting for one misstep.

But for the better part of two terrible months, he or she or they shook the Veterans Administration Hospital here to its psychic depths, and, say doctors, took at least one life and could have taken over a dozen more.

"Someone with intent," they say, introduced paralyzing doses of a muscle relaxant into life-supporting fluids dripping into the veins of critically ill patients, sending them into respiratory failure. As many as 15 may have been the random targets of the poisoner.

What possible motive — mercy killing? excitement? madness? — is unknown. What is likely is that someone on the hospital staff or posing as such — doctor, nurse, orderly — is the killer. Someone, a doctor close to the case says, "is very clever, very sick."

Both the life-supporting solution of salt and sugar and the poisonous doses of the muscle relaxant are clear, colorless fluids.

Only the persistent questions and the professional frustration of a 38-year-old woman doctor finally exposed the cause. Only the close observation and quick work of nurse-doctor teams revived enough patients to stop what might have been a more tragic toll.

Looking back now in self-criticism, they say that what happened was perhaps not as gradual as they first viewed it. But...

In late July, Dr. Anne Hill, an Irish-born redhead, chief of anesthesiology, began to worry seriously. A number of her patients, seemingly in good condition, fell into respiratory arrest. Their breathing stopped.

Anne Hill is fastidious about her work, which is to guide patients through the stress of surgery, the challenge of death, keeping their vital signs — breathing, heart rate, blood pressure, body chemistry — on par. Her patients complain because she keeps them in the recovery room too long. She keeps track of them well after they are out of all conceivable danger.

That was what alerted her. How could it be, she asked herself, that patients who were feeling well enough to complain, who looked and acted alert, suddenly fall into respiratory failure any time from 36 hours to 14 days after surgery?

There was nothing to indicate that the rash of respiratory arrests could have been caused by error.

She can't remember when exactly the questions in her mind came out loud, when she began to pose them to her superiors in the same astonished, stuttered fashion they formed in her mind.

A VA hospital is a busy place at its slowest. Although it might carry only 300 patients, the Ann Arbor GUARDING CARE — An attendant sits at a table where she records visitors' entry and departure into a special ward for intravenous patients at the Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor Thursday. All persons entering and leaving the ward are recorded after it was discovered that patients were being administered some kind of drug that paralyzed breathing ability.

hospital gets extremely critical patients, those who cannot afford expert specialized treatment close to home, or those who need the expertise in surgery and heart care and cancer therapy available in a high grade medical complex.

Indeed, the staff of the VA hospital also works at the prestigious University of Michigan Medical Center less than a mile away, making it, doctors say, one of the finest in the country.

July, it happened, was the heaviest surgical month in Dr. Hill's two years at the VA hospital.

In the flow of patients through an ultimate-care hospital, respiratory arrest is not uncommon. Disease, chronic and acute, over-challenges the life system. Breathing stops. The patient dies.

In the first six months of this year, the VA hospital averaged six to eight respiratory arrests a month, with successful revival in only 30 per cent or so of the cases. Respiratory arrest flashes on the lights of the doctor's call board as a "Code 7?"

So, in July, with a heavy surgical load, it was easy at first to miss or dismiss the increase of Code 7s as an aberration caused by "a lot of very ill patients."

But Dr. Ronald Bishop, chief of medicine, remembers fielding complaints from the respiratory staff of overwork.

Dr. Hill was so troubled by the increase in Code 7s that she asked the acting chief of staff, Dr. Duane Freier, to set up a study. He brought up her fears at an executive meeting on Monday, Aug. 4, and Dr. Hill and a cohort began digging back into the files, reviewing the charts to see what, if anything, the stricken patients had in common.

The only thing they found was that all of the patients were on intravenous solution.

On the morning of Wednesday, Aug. 13, Dr. Bishop was in his office when a first-year resident who had been on duty all night came in to report what had transpired on his shift.

"You wouldn't believe it," he said. "We had nine Code 7s last night."

Thinking back now, he says, he didn't go over the report "as critically as I should. But the cases were mostly older patients with respiratory problems."

That same day he was preoccupied by another, unrelated development. A patient committed suicide.

Also on Wednesday, Dr. Hill reported her findings on the chart check to Dr. Freier, and suggested a panel be convened to study the mounting respiratory arrests, specifically to interview closely those persons who were first on the scene of each of the cases.

Thursday, the 14th, there were additional Code 7s, but nothing like the number the day before.

Anne Hill's suspicions grew and she blurted the terrible idea out to Dr. Freier.

"Could there be someone running around doing this? It didn't seem like I was talking, but I was saying, 'Nothing has been charted. Could it be that someone is not charting?'"

She was so astonished at the charges she was hurling into the air that "I didn't believe I was saying it."

Friday, Aug. 15, Dr. Bishop went to the intensive care unit to see if he could find room for a critically ill patient. He went over charts, trying to set priorities. Could someone be moved to make room?

It was 4:20 p.m. Suddenly one of the patients in the unit stopped breathing. Quickly nurses and doctors applied an Ambu bag, a kind of rubber device that can be squeezed, forcing air into the patient's lungs. It is only a temporary answer.

Doctors followed up that emergency procedure by slipping a tube through the patient's mouth into his windpipe, and hooking him up to a breathing machine.

The human brain cannot last much longer than four minutes without oxygen before suffering damage. The patient was being artificially respired within a minute.

While doctors and nurses stabilized him, word came that a second patient had stopped breathing across the hall in the coronary care unit. This patient was hooked up to heart monitors, and they showed that although his breathing had stopped, he had good pulse and his heart was beating normally.

Dr. Hill was meeting with her small staff in her office on the fourth floor. Her secretary had just left for the day, and she placed the time about 4:40 p.m. Her resident was on the phone in the outer office, and she called to him to find out why he wasn't in the meeting. He told her he had heard there was a code call in the intensive care unit, and he couldn't get through by phone.

"We always respond to a code," she shouted. "Run." She grabbed her resuscitation kit. They all ran down to ICU.

The patient who had been arrested was a very ill man. But he was already being given artificial respiration. Everything was under control. Then she heard the call from the coronary care unit. She dashed across the hall.

The patient was being ventilated by mask, and she tried to slip the endotracheal tube into the windpipe, but the vocal chords closed around it and she had to apply a local anesthetic to relax them.

Minutes later in the ICU, a third patient stopped breathing. He too was given artificial respiration.

Dr. Hill was now certain that the patients had been administered some kind of drug that had paralyzed their breathing ability. There are a number of such drugs available in the hospital. They are used when doctors want to place a patient on artificial respiration. The question was, which drug?

She decided to try a quick test, stimulating the nerves in the forearm with electric needles and watching the contractions in the hand of her conscious but paralyzed patient. Of the two leading candidates among the drugs, each leaves a different signature in nerve response.

The pattern matched the response from a curare-like drug called Pavulon. She called quickly for the antidote — an ampule of neostigmine with atropine to moderate the side effects.

"I hoped I was wrong," she said. But if the antidote worked it meant her worst suspicions were true — that someone was running around the hospital paralyzing patients, and that someone was probably not too distant.

Before she injected the antidote, she asked the patient: "Open your eyes. Squeeze my hand. Lift your head. Take a deep breath."

He could do none of these things. But two minutes after the injection, he opened his eyes and squeezed her hand.

"She went to the second patient and repeated the antidote. Again, he opened his eyes, and squeezed her hand so hard it hurt.

By now, she said, she was "very shocked, very worried, very upset." There was a poisoner in the hospital. "I couldn't believe it."

After the third patient was treated, she went back to her office and just sat for a moment. "I wanted to be alone."

Then she realized she had forgotten to get urine samples to test for the presence of the drug. They were drawn and placed under lock and key.

Dr. Freier called the FBI. The investigation rocked the hospital. The Veterans Administration sent in a team from headquarters and brought in outside physicians. The hospital closed its doors to all but emergency cases.

Whatever the FBI investigation found has not been disclosed.

But there are a number of possibilities. Some doctors think the culprit never intended to kill, but only wanted to watch the fight for life in the same dark way an arsonist relishes watching the fire he has started.

Among the clusters of doctors, nurses and orderlies passing through, was the poisoner among them, watching it all happen?

Not necessarily. He could have shut off the intravenous tube, injected the Pavulon and gone away. Then, having loaded the gun, it could have

WAF From Big Spring Draws Probated Term

A WAF at Webb AFB received a six-month probated sentence Friday in Abilene from U.S. Dist. Judge Leo Brewster after she pleaded guilty to charges of mail obstruction and check forgery.

Hawaiian-born Primetta A.K.M. Abihai, 20, of Big Spring pleaded guilty to one count of the three-count indictment after Asst. U.S. Atty. Conard Florence agreed to drop the other two counts.

She admitted forging a $150 U.S. Government check made payable to Carol J. Wilbanks and cashing it at the Webb AFB Federal Credit Union Aug. 31, 1974.

Her court-appointed attorney, W.L. (Dub) Burke Jr. of Abilene said she used the money to pay rent. "She was desperate for money," he said, explaining that she was an unwed mother and had a baby to care for.

Following her arrest, she took the baby to her mother in Hawaii where the child still remains, Burke said. Testifying in Miss Abihai's

Let Her Die, Father Of Injured Girl Says

MORRISTOWN, N.J. (AP) — The father of a 21-year-old woman who has been in a coma for five months has asked a judge to allow his adopted daughter to die.

In a suit filed in Superior Court in Morristown Friday, Joseph T. Quinlan of Landing asked Judge Robert Muir to direct doctors at St. Clare's Hospital in Denerville to remove his daughter from the machine that has kept her alive.

The woman, Karen Ann Quinlan, "simply went to sleep April 15 and has never woken up," according to Paul W. Armstrong, Quinlan's attorney. Armstrong said doctors have determined the woman is suffering from "irreparable" brain damage and is in a "fetal condition" with no hope of recovery.

Armstrong said he doesn't believe any court in the nation has dealt with the issues raised by Quinlan's suit.

"The law has never addressed itself to this question and said, 'When is enough, enough; when can we as a society legally and morally make this decision?'" he said.

Morris County Prosecutor Donald G. Collesler Jr. said either his office or that of the state attorney general would probably seek to intervene in the case.

"We intend to put all the issues before the court, including the very question of who has jurisdiction over such matters," Collesler said. "The other primary questions, obviously, are, 'Is this a homicide, and what constitutes death?'"

Quinlan and his wife, Julia, Roman Catholics, consulted two priests and decided to take legal action after becoming convinced they were being compassionate, Armstrong said.

He also said the Quinlans discussed the matter with their two natural children, Mary Ellen, 19, and John, 17.

No date has been set for the initial hearing.

Gate Hits New High

ARLINGTON — Six Flags Over Texas announced that it has completed its most successful summer season. The park's total attendance through Labor Day exceeded 2,023,000. Six Flags is now on a weekend-only schedule through November.

Attendance hit the 2,000,000 mark Aug. 31, two weeks ahead of the 1974 pace. Through Labor Day Six Flags showed an increase of more than 58,000 visitors over the same period last season, and more than 15,000 ahead of the pace of the all-time record year, 1973.

General Manager Dan Howells said, "To say the very least, we are most pleased with the attendance figures for spring and summer. As we enter the fall season, there is a very good chance that we will exceed our all-time record of 2,267,000, which was set in 1973."

Howells continued, "One of the most pleasing aspects of the summer season was the fact that our attendance was up from all areas of the nation, as well as the local region. Our parking lot surveys tend to support the idea that Arlington, and the Metroplex as a whole, are becoming increasingly popular vacation destinations."

"Now that the bulk of the tourist season is over and the temperatures are at more comfortable levels, Six Flags becomes the ideal spot for a 'mini vacation.' We expect Texans and others within reasonable driving distances to visit Six Flags during the fall in greater numbers than ever."

During September Six Flags Over Texas will be open Friday evenings, Saturdays and Sundays. The theme park will be open only on Saturdays and Sundays in October and November.

Judge Reminds Radical Not Behind All Beards

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Chief Judge John R. Brown of the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals says the time has finally come when the general public no longer sees a revolutionary behind every beard or bushy mane. And he thinks it's about time.

Brown, who himself sports a bushy mustache and muttonchop sideburns, expressed that feeling Friday in a concurring opinion in a decision upholding the reinstatement of a college teacher fired for having a beard.

"I write only to record with a sense of relief and common sense that the federal courts are now out of the hair business..." Brown wrote.

Brown noted that court decisions now specify a "clippers-razors off policy" for college students and faculty. He added that it is possible that suits could now arise involving hair in kindergarten through the primary grades — but said he thinks hair no longer stirs such emotions.

The public "has come to its senses and does not see in such variations the seeds of violence and revolution," he wrote.

The decision came in a legal battle that began in 1971 when San Jacinto Junior College in Pasadena, Tex., fired Lionel Hander because he wouldn't shave.

U.S. Dist. Judge Carl O. Bue Jr. of Houston ordered Hander reinstated, paid $11,321 in back pay, and awarded $5,112 in lawyers fees.

In appealing, San Jacinto had argued that teachers in public institutions have no constitutional right to wear beards, and that the Constitution bars recovery of back pay and lawyers fees.

The appeals court said some public departments may impose grooming restrictions on employees, but it said college teachers "simply do not have the exposure or communitywide impact of policemen and other employees who deal directly with the public."

How does life look to your child?

Your child may be seeing life exactly the way it is. But she could be getting a completely distorted view and never know the difference. That's because she's never looked at life any other way.

You simply can't take good vision for granted. Regular professional eye examinations are as important as routine physicals. And the time to find out if your child is seeing life as she should is before she starts back to school.

If eyewear is needed, depend on TSO to fill the doctor's prescription to the exact specifications. And you can choose from a wide variety of good-looking frames that are as durable as they are stylish. The cost is reasonable, too.

We know you want your child to see life at its best. So do we. At TSO, we care how you look at life.

A REPORT TO THE CITIZENS OF BIG SPRING

Public Services

This is the second of a three-part series designed to increase public knowledge of the operations of their city. These reports show how inflation has affected city government and why the rate increase for garbage collection is necessary.

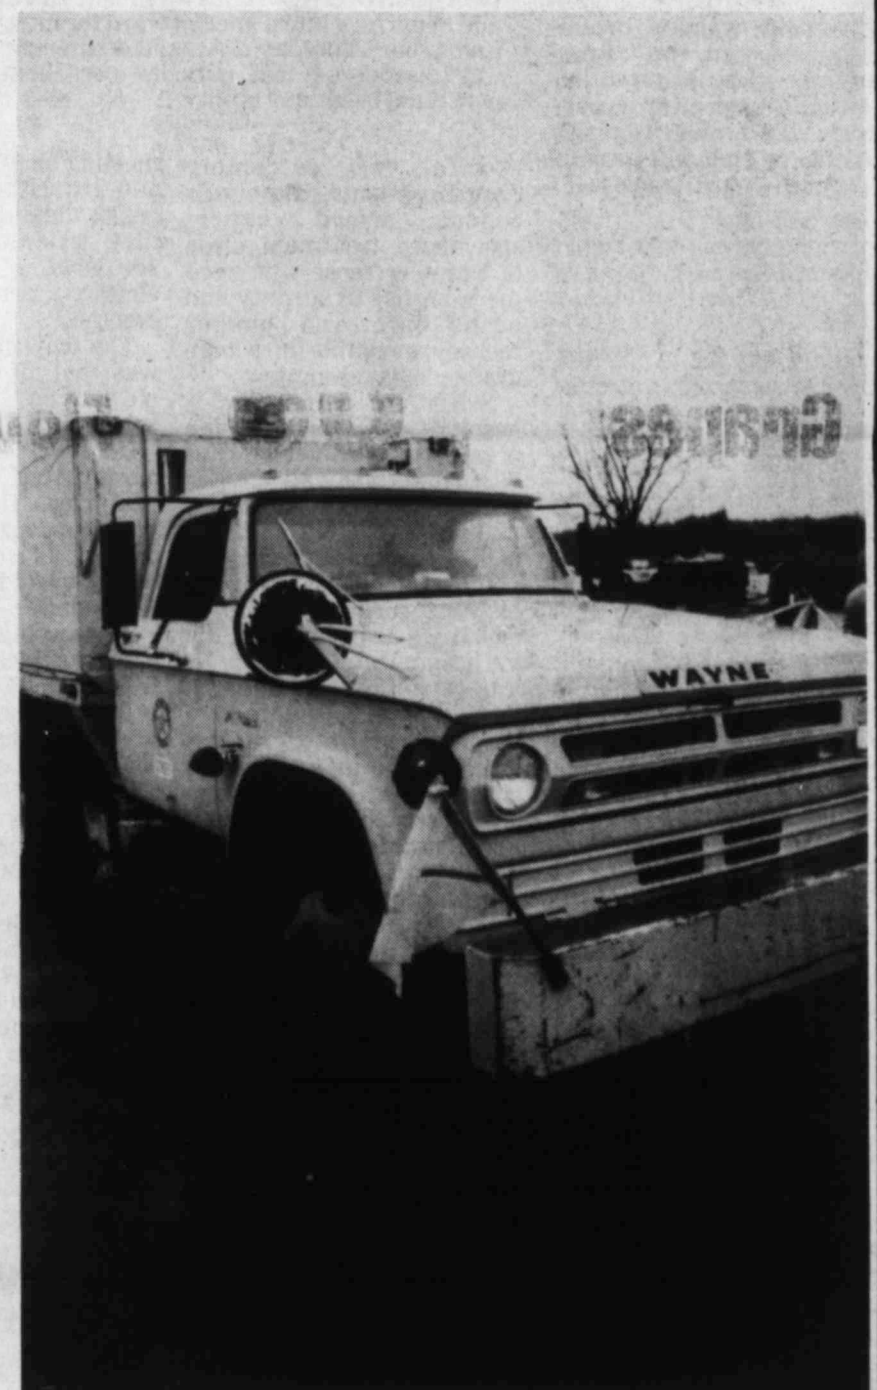

The Sanitation Department budget for fiscal year 1975-76 is $322,099 compared to the actual expenditures of 1972-73 of $206,321. Included in the proposed budget is a truck cab and chassis at a cost of $14,973. In 1972-73, the same cab and chassis cost $9172. The packing unit on the truck has also risen in cost. Pak-Mor side loading containers cost $188 each in 1973. Present cost for Pak-Mor containers is $226. Gasoline has risen in cost from 16 cents per gallon in 1973 to 47 cents in 1975.

The city recently paid over $18,000 for a Sanitary Land fill site. A new bulldozer is planned for 1976 at a cost in excess of $60,000.

The Detoxification Unit has been added since 1973 as another community service provided by the City.

Federal Regulations on Equal Employment and Affirmative Action have forced the City to add a Personnel Department with a proposed budget of $21,922 for this fiscal year.

The Street Department budget for 1975-76 is $275,330, an increase over the 1973 expenditures of $215,635. A new sweeper will be purchased at an expected cost of over $28,000. The last sweeper the city purchased was in 1973 at a cost of $14,999. Asphalt has risen from $5.20 in 1973 to $10.94 per ton at the present. Cost of mosquito spray has increased from $9.70 per gallon to $16.54. A 55 gallon drum costs $893.16.

The city is about to complete a massive paving program at a total cost of over $700,000.

In the proposed budget, the Parks and Recreation Department is planning a baseball complex with cost to the city of $79,000 and four new tennis courts are being completed. The city maintains 13 local parks, the swimming pool, cemetery, tennis center, golf course, and Moss Lake. The current budget proposal is $407,367 compared to only $181,251 actually spent in 1972-73.

Manslaughter Charge Facing Cult Member

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A member of a religious cult that doesn't believe in medical care is being held for investigation of manslaughter after allegedly preventing the hospitalization of a 5-month-old baby injured in a traffic accident, police said.

The baby died at the scene of the accident Friday.

At least 17 other members of the cult were seriously injured in the accident, but refused hospitalization, Police Capt. Bud Dennis said.

Dennis said the 27-year-old man charged with manslaughter allegedly took the baby away from ambulance attendants who were placing her in the ambulance.

Dennis said he couldn't identify the man until he was formally charged.

Dennis said the cult members, all wearing long robes, were interviewed one by one but would provide little information. They said they lived in a commune near Hindsville, about 15 miles northwest of here.

"They wouldn't say what cult they were from, just that they were Christians," Dennis said.

The baby was identified as Tabitha Blackmer, daughter of 18-year-old Jane and 20-year-old Craig Blackmer.

Dennis said the Blackmers were among an estimated 32 persons who were on a 15-year-old flatbed, 1 1/2-ton truck that swerved to miss a stalled motorcycle and flipped over in a ditch.

Dennis said none of the injured would accept medical treatment. He said the injuries included one broken arm, one person who was paralyzed and one person whose ear was cut off. He said there may have been more injuries, but some members of the cult "ran off into the woods to avoid being treated."

"They were scattered all over," Dennis said. "God only knows how they weren't all killed. The truck was demolished. Maybe more did die and they carried them off in the mountains to bury them."

He added, "It was pitiable. They were laying all over the accident site. They would just sing for a while, then moan for a while."

National Hispanic Heritage Week Sept. 14-20

Hispanic Heritage Week Opens Today

Webb Air Force Base will observe National Hispanic Heritage Week with a number of programs next week. A luncheon on Tuesday at the NCO Open Mess and several activities at the John H. Lees Recreation Center on Friday and Saturday, exhibit of arts and crafts at the Library, and Spanish ethnic food at the Steven L. Bennett Dining Hall Thursday evening are the attractions.

The observance, authorized by an act of Congress in 1968, calls upon the President to set aside a week each year to dramatize the hopes and aspirations of people of Spanish-speaking origin.

Sept. 14-20 is the week "to honor a people who have, by their actions and deeds, enriched the quality of American life."

The Tuesday luncheon is open to all interested military and civilian personnel. It will feature Mexican food at a cost of $1.75 each. Reservations may be made by calling the following Spanish-Speaking Program committee members through the Webb number 267-2511: Pete Gomez, Ext. 2187; Chris Martinez, Ext. 2444; Phyllis Morehon, Ext. 2861; Virginia Garcia, Ext. 2268; Fidel Perez, Ext. 2721; or David Acosta, Ext. 2786. A guest speaker will be announced.

Observances in the recreation center will be at 4 p.m. when Tony Ortiz, counselor at Howard College, will speak. Also on the program will be a Mexican ball dance by Mike and Janet Smolko, children of Doris and Mike Smolko.

Later on the center will have its traditional Latino Nite featuring Los Mysterios from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. with no cover charge.

On Saturday, Sept. 20, a special exhibit of Hispanic arts and crafts will be displayed at the recreation center starting at 6:30 p.m. then at 7:30 Bernardo Huante will be guest speaker on the topic of Hispanic culture and heritage and Hispanic Americans' contributions to the military.

Topping off the festivities will be a Spanish food tasting buffet at 8:30 with live entertainment featuring a mariachi band.

Auto Accident Injures Youth

Morris Douglas Broadus, 18, is in serious condition in Webb Hospital following injuries received in a one-vehicle wreck at 11:48 p.m. Friday.

Broadus, 162A Fairchild, lost control of his car at East 4th near the old CRMWD building, left the right side of the roadway, rolled over end to end four times, hit a brick wall and a sign and came to rest 240 feet from the street.

More or Lesh

By CLARK LESH

It made one leap with joy, especially More or Lesh, whose Big Spring shoot holes in the 14 to 18 point underdog role awarded against Hobbs Friday night.

Hobbs' press box facilities should rate an A-plus in anyone's book, being a plush doubledecker. Heaters are installed for each individual's convenience.

Thanks to Bob Zellars and Steer assistant coach Larry Horton who assisted in helping More or Lesh prepare the game statistics.

Comments made from Hobbs' radio broadcaster heard by More or Lesh's wife: "Big Spring is a tough team to reckon with. They can do no wrong. Midland and Odessa had better watch out."

The first of 12 weekly TV shows featuring highlights of SWC football action will be aired at 6:30 p.m., Tuesday on KWAB-TV, Channel 4.

Mediasports, an Austin-based company specializing in sports-related endeavors, is producing the 30-minute show.

Hunters and anglers who enjoy your sport — stand up and say so. That's the advice of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, which for the fourth year has joined in the promotion of National Hunting and Fishing Day, Sept. 27.

Governor Dolph Briscoe has already proclaimed the date as an official state celebration in Texas. Similar proclamations for use by towns, cities, counties and other subdivisions are available from Information and Education, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, Reagan Bldg., Austin, 78701.

Ballots for the All-Time Texas Professional Football Team may be obtained at any 7-Eleven Store in Texas. Voting deadline is Oct. 19. Outstanding candidates include Doak Walker, John David Crow, Bob Goode, Dick Todd, Donny Anderson, Abner Haynes and Clem Daniels.

The arm-wrestling championships will be held during halftime of the CBS-TV National Football Game today.

A total of 27 matches will be presented during halftime of 22 NFL games, with the championship match held in conjunction with the NFC championship game next Jan. 4.

There will be four elimination rounds with opponents selected by a blind draw. The champion will receive $10,000 and the second place finisher, $6,000.

Jim Gideon, the young man who led the University of Texas to the College World Series championship, will make his major debut with the Texas Rangers this afternoon at Arlington Stadium.

WHAT'S IT WORTH DEPARTMENT — Maxine Raglord, club secretary, reports Snyder's Booster Club has 137 members.

Wonder with the win over Hobbs if the Big Spring Quarterback Club Tuesday night's attendance will increase sizably. Crowds have numbered only around 50 for both club meetings.

The Steers are home this week against Snyder.

Milwaukee Plays Role Of Spoiler

George Scott triggered a six-run fourth inning with his 29th homer and the Milwaukee Brewers whipped the Boston Red Sox 9-6 Saturday in the first half of a day-night doubleheader.

Scott, who helped Boston to the American League pennant in 1967, also delivered a runcorsing double in a two-run Milwaukee sixth in the nationally televised game at Fenway Park.

The pesky Brewers, playing the role of spoiler against the American League East leaders, clobbered starter Rick Wise and reliever Dick Drago in defeating the Red Sox for the eighth time in 15 meetings this season.

Given the big fourth inning, right-hander Pete Broberg improved his record to 13-14 while becoming the first pitcher to beat Boston four times this year. Broberg gave up 13 hits, including two in the ninth when he needed relief help from Tom Murphy.

In other AL games, the Oakland A's moved closer to the AL West title with an 8-5 victory over the Minnesota Twins and Fritz Peterson pitched a five-hitter for his

C-State Crushed

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Quarterback Marty Akins and fullback Earl Campbell of 12th-ranked Texas gouged Colorado State for three touchdowns and 174 rushing in the first half Saturday night, spearheading a 46-0 intersectional football victory.

Subs were inserted in the Texas lineup in the second quarter as the Longhorns captured their 35th consecutive triumph at Memorial Stadium before 46,400 fans, one of the smallest opening game crowds here in recent years.

A revamped Texas secondary shut off Colorado State, the nation's leading passing team last year, with only 48 yards passing in the first half.

Swashbuckling Rice Stuns Houston, 24-7

HOUSTON (AP) — Rice University's swashbuckling Owls turned a series of big plays, including touchdowns on Gary Cox' 70-yard punt return and Larry Brune's 86-yard interception return, into a 24-7 upset of a shocked University of Houston Saturday night.

Rice Coach Al Conover selected his starting quarterback on the sidelines before game time by having Tommy Kramer and Claude Reed play one hand of high-card draw. And the Owls continued the freewheeling, gambling style of play on the field.

Cox, relegated to specialty tasks after losing his starting quarterback job, took Houston's first punt of the game, eluded one tackler at his own 30-yard line and raced 70 yards to start the underdog Owls to a 24-0 half time lead. Moments later, Houston fullback John Housman fumbled and Rice's Ron Vaughn recovered at the Cougar 20. Four plays later

James Sykes scored on a 9-yard run. Early in the second quarter, Houston quarterback Bubba McGallion's pass was deflected by Rice's Rodney Norton and intercepted by Brune, who raced untouched 86 yards for a touchdown.

Rice got a 19-yard field goal by freshman Alvero Arenas on the final play of the first half that was set up by another Houston fumble.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — The magic feet and strong arm of senior Don Gaffney got the University of Florida football squad off to a freewheeling start Saturday night with a 40-14 victory over Southern Methodist.

Gaffney ran six yards for a touchdown and passed to wide receiver Wes Chandler for two more. Chandler's first TD reception for 31 yards was a weird play in which Florida's Alvis Darbey and SMU's Harold Perry both batted the ball. Chandler's second TD reception, a post pattern, covered 42 yards.

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — Cornerback John Thomas Smith foiled a Drake University scoring drive in the fourth quarter and led North Texas State to a 7-3 win over the Bulldogs.

Smith Foils Drake Drive

The win was the second in as many outings for the Mean Green and Drake lost its second consecutive battle. Last year, the Bulldogs and the Mean Green battled to a 24-24 tie. Saturday's win gave the visitors a 9-4 lead in the series that began in 1958. Cornerback Smith foiled Drake's big chance on a fourth down and two yard situation as Jeff Baurer fired the ball to Walt Barten and Smith intervened.

Texas Tech Ushers In Steve Sloan Era

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Twin rockets Rufus Myers and Larry Isaac plundered Florida State for nearly 200 yards rushing Saturday night as Texas Tech ushered in the Steve Sloan era with a 31-20 non-conference football victory over Florida State.

Myers struck for two swift touchdowns, Isaac got the third and Billy Taylor broke the intersectional contest open with a 16 yard scoring burst in the final period.

A shivering crowd of 35,268, braving a gentle but chilly breeze and the threat of rain, watched the debut of Sloan, at 31 the youngest coach in the Southwest Conference.

Myers capped two first period drives with short touchdown plunges as the favored Raiders notched their first victory in three meetings with the Seminoles.

A 17-yard pass from quarterback Clyde Walked to flanker Larry Key closed the cap to 13-7 at halftime but Isaac provided temporary relief with a one yard TD in the third period. Walker rifled a 29 yarder to split end Mike Shumann to set up a one yard TD by halfback Leon Bright in the fourth period.

Taylor's 16 yarder capped an 83 yard drive and Tech alternate quarterback Rodney Allison put it out of reach on a 21-yard run after the Raiders recovered a bobbled kickoff.

Seminole quarterback Steve Matheson hurled a 24-yard scoring pass to Mike Barnes as the final moment ticked away.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Quarterback Mike Kirkland and running backs Ike Forte and Jerry Eckwood rushed for more than 100 yards each in Arkansas' new-look offense as the Razorbacks crushed Air Force 35-0 in an intersectional college football game Saturday night.

Forte gained 161 yards on 26 carries and scored on runs of one, 10 and six. Kirkland had 12 carries for 119 yards and one touchdown, and Eckwood added 143 yards on 11 attempts.

Eckwood, the highly touted sophomore who sat out most of last season with a back injury, went 69 yards on the Razorbacks first play of the second half for the touchdown that put the Falcons behind 21-0.

Weiskopf Seeks 3rd Season Win

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — On-rushing Tom Weiskopf birdied three of his last four holes for a 68 and swept into the lead after Saturday's third round of the $200,000 World Open Golf Tournament.

Weiskopf, seeking a third victory of the season, put together a three-round total of 206, seven under par on the 7,007 yards of sand hills and pine woods that make up the historic No. 2 course at the Pinehurst Country Club.

Weiskopf, who has compared his play this season with his banner year of 1973, started the third round two strokes back but quick-stepped into the lead with his three-under-par effort that matched the best round of the cool, cloudy day.

"I really played well, very well," said Weiskopf, who added that he may be playing as well as he did two seasons ago when he won seven titles in four countries.

Pat Fitzsimons, the gritty little guy who led at the end of the second round, had to work hard for a round of par 71 and was one shot back at 207.

Quiet Ed Sneed managed a 70 that put him alone in third and only two strokes back at 208.

Veteran Billy Casper shot a 68 that lifted him into a tie for fourth at 210 with Larry Nelson and Howard Twitty. Nelson had a 69, Twitty 73.

Jack Nicklaus remained in contention with a 70-211, five strokes back. He was tied with John Mahaffey and Rod Funseth. Mahaffey also shot 70, Funseth 74.

Johnny Miller blew to a 76 and lost any hope of making a successful defense of the title he won in a dramatic playoff last year. He was far back in the field at 220. Lee Trevino shot 74 for 216.

Arnold Palmer failed to qualify for the final two rounds.

Weiskopf, who beat Nicklaus in a playoff for the Canadian national title just a couple of months ago, had only one bogey in his superlative effort over the course that ranks among the world's best. That came on the 13th where he hit his drive unplayable in the deep grass.

Steers Unleash Fierce Offensive Attack

By CLARK LESHNER
HOBBS, N.M. — Big Spring unleashed a fierce offensive attack here Friday to past favorite Hobbs, 27-8.

The Steers, living up to their expectations of being considered a "sleeper" in District 5-4A, electrified the wet and chilly crowd of some 3,800 by putting up 21 points in the first half.

Hobbs, who had been considered a powerhouse after disposing of Lovington last week, 56-7, was an overwhelming choice to win. Last season, Hobbs set a New Mexico record for AAAA schools. The Eagles appeared in the state playoffs for the sixth consecutive year. Five of those years, they finished as either state titlist or runner-up.

In winning, the Steers plucked the rubber game of three played thus far with Burris at the helm. His first year Big Spring lost, but rebounded by winning last season. This year's score was the most lopsided decision recorded between the two teams.

Steer Head Coach Bob Burris must have figured this was the time to let the fans get a sneak preview of his team's potential as Big Spring could do no wrong and Hobbs do no right. "The team was mentally ready for this game," he added.

Probably playing his best game in a Steer uniform ever, fullback Jesse Doss led the ground charge, carrying the ball 14 times for 105 yards. He was responsible for two of four Steer touchdowns.

Mark Moore, Steer quarterback, who drew praise from sideline admirers for his leadership ability, ripped off 45 yards on his own power.

It took Big Spring only 12 plays from the opening kickoff to drive 65 yards to Hobbs' end zone. Doss worked his way in for six points from the seven-yard line at 5:32 of the first period. The extra point try failed.

Greg Spears had Steer rooters jumping with joy at 2:31 of the second period. With teammate Tony Mann throwing a key block, Greg returned a Hobbs punt for a 70-yard TD. Doss ran over the two extra points.

Tommy Churchill, who helped the Steer winning cause against Andrews with a TD interception, stopped a late Hobbs second quarter aerial threat, picking one off at 1:50. Churchill's alertness seemingly spurred the Steers on as they scored with only nine seconds left before halftime. Moore fired a perfect strike to Ken McMurtrey for 18 yards. This drive covered 39 yards in five plays to complete. Spears put his toe to the ball for the extra point.

Cowboys Ride On

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma State, led by the running of Terry Miller and Robert Turner, rode to an impressive 34-0 season-opening football victory over Wichita State here Saturday afternoon.

The Cowboys have abandoned their exclusive use of the wishbone this year, inserting the slot-I to get a better passing attack. However, they relied almost totally on the running phase of the formation, sending Miller wide on pitches and Turner up the middle.

But when the Cowboys did go to the air, the results also were impressive. Quarterback Charlie Weatherbie, playing almost all the game, hit Sam Lisle for an 80-yard touchdown on the first Cowboy pass of the game. It was the third longest scoring toss in Cowboy history.

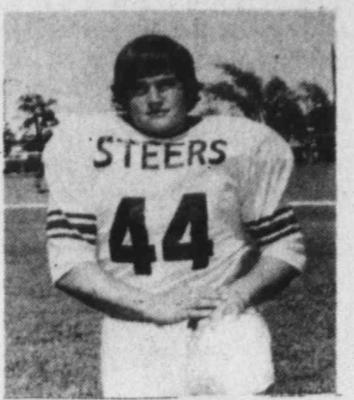

Meanwhile, the Shockers, coming off a 13-7 upset over West Texas State, were virtually helpless against the powerful Cowboy defense. The Cowboys' massive pair of tackles, Phillip Dokes and James White, shut off the inside and the Shockers just didn't have the speed to go outside. They were held to minus one yard rushing.

Michigan Triumphs

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Freshman quarterback Rick Leach directed a ball-control offense powered by running backs Gordon Bell and Rob Lytle, and second-ranked Michigan beat Wisconsin 23-6 in a Big Ten college football season opening showdown Saturday.

Bell rushed 28 times for 210 yards and caught an insurance touchdown pass of seven yards from Leach with 1:08 to play, while Lytle scored on a 15-yard run on the first play of the second quarter as the Wolverines took the lead for good at 7-3.

TD for good measure in the fourth on Doss' five-yard plunge. Time left: 7:45. Score: Big Spring 27, Hobbs 8. Doss' TD was aided by his earlier 35-yard run and by newly promoted Mike Abreo's 13-yard sprint.

Burris then began to sprinkle the lineup with reserve power, as all 40 Steers making the trip saw service.

Hobbs took advantage of the change, reeling off its one and only TD on a 69-yard pass from quarterback Greg Pierce to halfback Ed Adcock. Wallace Houston ran over the two extra points. Only 1:20 was left before both teams departed for home.

The closest penetration the lackluster Eagles could record before scoring, was to the Steers 24-yard line at 1:35 of the third.

Hobbs had the distinction of not receiving its first penalty until 1:45 of the fourth. Time seemed to drag on and on before the completion

Oilers Dash By Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—Houston quarterback Dan Pastorini hit Ken Burroughs with a 36-yard touchdown pass and Robert Holmes dashed 28 yards as the Houston Oilers defeated the Chicago Bears 24-13 Saturday night in a final preseason National Football League exhibition game for both teams.

Both of the decisive scores came in the fourth quarter. Burroughs' pass was set up by Pastorini, who hit Elmo Wright on an 18-yard pass.

On the next Oilers possession, Houston drove 64 yards in nine plays before Holmes scored.

Y Handball Champions

Two champions were named in the Y City Handball Tournament Saturday. Play started Thursday.

George Fierro won "A" division by defeating A. J. Pirkle, 21-9, 16-21 and 21-7.

In the "B" division, Bill Arenobia placed first as he beat Alan Cheprej, 21-4, 20-21 and 21-10.

of the game. The contest was finally brought to a close as Churchill intercepted a Hobbs pass.

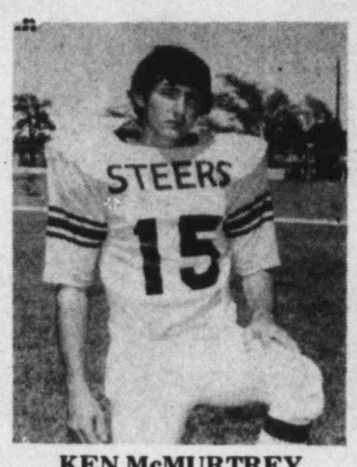

Hobbs had several golden opportunities to penetrate deep into the Steers' territory besides the fourth period plunge, but the fire was quickly put out.

Burris pointed out attendance by Big Spring High's gold-diggers and band certainly helped create Steer enthusiasm. "We were fortunate to come out of the game in good health," he added.

Big Spring, 2-0, returns home for a game with Snyder, Sept. 19.

Cowboys Whip Steelers, 17-16

DALLAS (AP)—Second team quarterback Clint Longley overcame a ball hawking Pittsburgh secondary to lead Dallas on two second-half scoring drives as the Cowboys topped the Steelers 17-16 Saturday night in a National Football League preseason game.

Longley replaced the ineffective Roger Staubach in the second half and completed nine of 12 passes for 112 yards, including a six-yard touchdown pass to Robert Newhouse that clinched the victory.

Longley's touchdown pass climaxed an 81-yard drive highlighted by 21 and 15-yard passes to Golden Richards. It gave Dallas a 17-9 lead with 7:10 left in the game.

Joe Gilliam then led the Steelers on a 64-yard drive with Rocky Bleier getting the final six-yards for a touchdown that closed the gap 17-16. Gilliam got one more chance with less than two minutes in the game, but the Cowboys held on downs.

Longley also tossed two interceptions during the second half, giving the Steelers six for the night

Cub Official Talks At ABC

The ABC Club, at its weekly meeting Friday at the Settles Hotel, had the pleasure of having as its guest, Stoney Feeney, Midland Cub baseball general manager.

Feeney said the Cubs were named champions of the Texas League, but with some reservations said the title had to be split with Lafayette. "Each team had a trophy with CHAMPIONS on it," he added.

The best-of-five title series was stopped by TL President Bobby Bragan because of adverse weather conditions. Both teams had won two games each. Midland at one time in the season was 13½ games out of first place.

Feeney said Midland is owned outright by the Chicago Cubs. All top-classified minor leagues have major league arrangements with the exception of the Portland club.

"Baseball teaches competition and how to get along with your fellow man. If kids enjoy it, they will play longer," said Feeney.

Feeney said attendance at Midland games this season was somewhat down, but overall the club is in better financial shape than in 1974. Feeney feels the five-year lease with the City of Midland due to end shortly, will be renewed. "There hasn't been any talk about not renewing it," he added.

Midland was fortunate in promoting two players to Chicago recently, Joe Wallace in September, and Donny Moore, after the playoff.

The average salary for a Midland Cub player, asked by ABC members, according to Feeney, ranges from $800 per month up depending on length of service.

Midland carried a 21-man roster for the 1975 season, managed by Doc Edwards, who saw service with four major league clubs.

Don Brooks, ABC program chairman for September, while keeping in the theme of baseball, wanted to give mention to the semi-pro Big Spring Cardinals. "They had the best won-lost record of any club in this caliber in this area this year," he added.

WOLVES ROMP

Field Goal Only Score In Game

By BARRY CANNING
The Wolves managed to better the Sweetwater Mustangs by a score of 3-0 Friday night on a rain-slicked, sloppy night in Colorado City. Due to the messy conditions of the field, neither team was able to mount a really potent offense.

Colorado City managed to produce a few serious threats, but either fumbles or penalties negated them. Sweetwater also had fumble problems, but none of them really costly when it came to putting points on the scoreboard.

The wet conditions of the field also contributed to the ineffective passing game by either team. The Wolves' quarterback Ray Torrez was successful on only three completions out of 10 attempts, while his Mustang counterpart was four for 15.

Colorado City clearly dominated the game from both offensive and defensive standpoints. The Wolves bruised to total yardage of 157 yards to Sweetwater's 134. Most of Sweetwater's total yardage was picked up in the first half.

Colorado City's lone field goal was set up early in the fourth quarter when the Wolves were faced with a fourth and 12 situation at the Sweetwater 13. Steve Belvin, a 262-pounder, stepped in for his attempt to split the uprights. The kick was plenty long and high enough, but there was some question whether it was accurate enough, as the Mustangs signaled it no good. The Wolves showed no sign of the quality of the kick until the officials ruled that it was successful.

Following the field goal, both teams failed to produce a successful drive until Sweetwater's final possession of the night. The Mustangs took the ball from their own 38 to the Wolves' 23.

The Mustangs had a first and ten with a minute and 39 seconds remaining in the game. At this point, Colorado City showed the Mustangs a tough defense that quickly gave Sweetwater a fourth and 15 at the Wolves' 28-yard line with only 40 seconds remaining. Mustang quarterback Joe Smith was stopped on the play for only a 3-yard gain and the ball went over on downs. Colorado City then ran one play to run out the clock.

Colorado City showed good running strength behind backs Bill Everett, Manuel Arellano and Jackie Ellis. The three combined for a total of 118 yards.

The Wolves led in many offensive departments, including fumbles. Colorado City had 12 first downs as opposed to Mustangs 7 while the Wolves lost 3 fumbles to Sweetwater's 2.

Middies Explode

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP)—Sophomore tailback Gerry Goodwin scored four touchdowns, equalling a modern day Academy record, as Navy exploded for 21 third quarter points en route to a 42-14 victory over the University of Virginia in the 1975 football opener for both teams.

Goodwin tallied on runs of 19, 1, 2 and 5 yards to match the four touchdown effort of Middle great Joe Belino against Virginia in 1960.

The Flint, Mich., native triggered the third period outburst, smashing over right guard from the 1 to cap a 76-yard drive and send Navy ahead for good 21-14. His 2-yard burst through the middle ended a 78-yard cruise that made it 28-14.

Goodwin's other six pointers came in the first and fourth periods as he amassed 166 yards on 24 carries as Navy riddled the Cavalier defense for 472 yards, all but 70 of them on the ground.

Overshadowed by Goodwin's stellar showing were good performances by junior fullback Bob Jackson and senior tailback Ed Gilmore. Jackson, who had 62 yards on 16 carries, accounted for the final touchdown in the third quarter uprising, and Gilmore contributed 93 yards to the Middle running game as he carried 12 times.

Luck Lucks Out For Cornhuskers

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Quarterback Terry Luck tossed a 5-yard scoring pass to Bobby Thomas in the second period and Mike Coyle kicked a 37-yard field goal in the third period to lead sixth-ranked Nebraska to a 10-7 intersectional college football victory over the stubborn Tigers of Louisiana State Saturday in the opening game for both teams.

Both teams had trouble sustaining drives as the defensive units managed key plays and the offensive squads seemed sluggish.

The lone Tiger score came when quarterback Pat Lyons scampered in from the Husker 10 with 49 seconds left in the third period.

The only first half score came when Luck found Thomas from five yards out with 1:24 left in the half.

The tally capped a 34-yard drive set up by Dave Butterfield's punt return from the Husker 33 to the LSU 34. Nebraska scored eight plays later.

Butterfield's return was set up by the only Husker break the Nebraska offense capitalized on in the first half.

LSU punter Steve Jackson, who had troubles throughout the first half, hit a line drive that was fielded by Thomas on the Husker 26. But off-setting illegal procedure penalties forced a second punt and Butterfield had his opportunity.

Buffaloes Roll Over Wink

By TROY BRYANT
STANTON — The Stanton Buffaloes got outstanding performances from their defense, offensive line and backfield Friday night as they rolled over the Wink Wildcats 41-0 as a light drizzle fell. The audience was sparse.
The Buffs bounced back from a loss to AA Tahoka last week to even their record to 1-1.
Senior quarterback Gary Hanson led the Buff offense to a total of 376 yards and six touchdowns in the barrage of Wink, 12-0 victors over Class AA Van Horn last week.
Hanson passed for 46 yards and rushed for 93 more to lead his team in total offense while sophomore halfback Marvin Jones rushed for 111 yards in only eight carries. Utility fullback Elvin Brown rushed for 94 yards in 14 carries.
Stanton wasted no time in getting on the scoreboard in the first quarter, as it took over on its own 20-yard line after Wink had taken the ball on its own 40 and steadily ground out 40 yards in an impressive show of offense.

Elvin Brown carried for the first five plays, gaining 13 yards before Hanson swept around the right end for a 68-yard touchdown with 4:55 left in the first period. Bobby Richardson's kick was no good, and Stanton led 6-0.
Stanton guard Jim Nelson jumped on a Wink fumble at Wink's 27-yard line on the Wildcats' next series and Marvin Jones dashed for 22 yards to set up a two-yard plunge by Elvin Brown for Stanton's second score with 2:37 left in the first quarter. This time, Richardson's kick was good, and Stanton led 13-0.
Stanton's defense again stalled the Wink offense as the Buffs took over on downs on their own 44-yard line. Wink took over again at its own 49 after Wink's Russ Slaughter blocked a Stanton punt.

The Wildcats couldn't capitalize on the break, and punted back to Stanton with the Buffs taking over on their own 42. Hanson went to work again, hitting senior end Ronnie Mims for a 46-yard scoring pass on a third and 15 situation with 4:14 left in the first half. Richardson's conversion kick gave Stanton a 20-0 lead.
The Buff defense dug in again, keeping Wink in a hole and forcing them to punt from its own 20-yard line.
Stanton took the 25-yard punt on Wink's 45-yard line, with Marvin Jones providing most of the ball-carrying muscle, capping the drive with a seven-yard run. Elvin Allred ran across the goal line for the conversion, and Stanton led 28-0 at halftime.
Neither band took the field at halftime, due to the wetness of the field.
In the third quarter, Stanton concentrated on keeping Wink from making the big play, but added to their margin after taking over the ball again on downs at its own 33. Marvin Jones cut loose on a run of 51 yards down to Wink's nine-yard line, setting up a nine-yard scoring run by Hanson with 3:54 left in the third quarter. Richardson's kick gave Stanton a 35-0 lead.

Stanton and Wink traded punts for the remainder of the third period.
Wink threatened to score for the only time when they used a wishbone offense and fine running by Maricio Luna, Randy Baker and Greg Treadwell to move down to Stanton's ten-yard line.
They failed to gain necessary yardage on fourth and short at the ten, and Stanton took over on downs.
The Buffs worked their way out of the hole and punted to Wink at their own 21-yard line as time was running out.
Wink was forced into a fourth and four situation at its own 27 and again failed to make the necessary yardage and turned the ball back to Stanton with 1:37 left in the game at the Wink 29-yard line.

It took only one play for Elvin Brown to score for the Buffaloes from 29 yards out, and Stanton led by 41-0 when Richardson's kick was no good.
The Stanton defense stalled the Wink attack as time ran out to preserve the 41-0 margin.

Lamesa Downed

DENVER CITY — Five fumbles contributed to Lamesa's downfall here Friday night, losing to Denver City, 15-6.

Denver City exploded in the first and second quarters to lead at halftime, 15-0.

The Golden Tornadoes closed the gap as Dennis Page plunged over Denver City's end zone in the third. The PAT attempt failed.

Lamesa led in statistics, 12 first downs, 132 rushing yards, 47 yards passing and 6 of 17 passes completed.

The host team picked up nine first downs, rushed for 127 yards and gained no yardage in passing on four attempts.

This was Denver City's first win after losing to Seminole, 20-0, last week. Lamesa got off to a good start last week, tying rugged Carlsbad, 13-13. The Golden Tornadoes meet Pecos, there, Sept. 19.

Army Stuns Holy Cross

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Second-string quarterback Leamon Hall highlighted a near-perfect afternoon by completing all five passes during two second-period touchdown drives, including a 12-yard scoring toss to Jeff Janek, as Army opened its football season by walling off Holy Cross 44-7 Saturday.

Hall, a 6-foot-5 sophomore from Apopka, Fla., completed his first eight passes and finished with 10 of 12 for 107 yards, including a two-yard, fourth-down touchdown flip to Greg King with 10 minutes left as Army rolled up its highest score in 65 games since a 58-25 rout of Boston College in 1968.

It was the worst opening-game loss in Holy Cross' history, surpassing a 32-0 drubbing by Villanova in 1964.

Sterling City Tops Bearkats

By JOE AWTRY and FRANK GONZALES
STERLING CITY — The Sterling City Eagles rode a 34-point performance from halfback Jeff Copeland in the first half to fly by the Garden City Bearkats, 43-6, in their season opener on a cold, wet night here Friday.

Copeland started his scoring spree on a 25-yard scamper around his left end with 9:11 left in the first quarter. He also ran over the two-point conversion.

With 1:10 left in the first quarter, Copeland hit paydirt from 12 yards out and early in the second quarter the big halfback returned a Bearkat punt 42 yards and his third TD.

Midway in the second quarter, Copeland powered his way into the end zone from 12 yards out and Ross Hord split the uprights for the PAT to put the Eagles in a commanding 29-0 lead.

Copeland added another 12-yard scoring play with 2:19 left in the first half and Hord's PAT kick was true. The Eagles held a 36-0 lead at halftime.

Garden City finally penetrated the Eagles' goal line with 7:25 left in the game. Alex Medrano went in from the two-yard line to complete a 42-yard drive.

The contest was marred by 12 fumbles as the pigskin became very slippery from the light drizzle, which fell throughout the second half of play.

Benny Raddle chalked up the only Eagle TD in the second half when he took a punt on his 37-yard line, picked up his blockers and streaked down the left sideline for a 63-yard scoring play. Hord toed the PAT for the final 43-6 score.

Copeland gained 131 yards on 14 carries on the first half,

Stanford Drubbed

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP) — Freshman Tom Donovan ran 61 yards for a touchdown, and Rich Mauti twice scored on one-yard plunges as 10th-ranked Penn State drubbed Stanford 34-14 Saturday before 61,325 persons, the largest crowd ever to see a college football game here.

The 2-0 Nittany Lions took a 7-0 lead in the first period on a 78-yard drive climaxed by Duane Taylor's six-yard scoring run. Chris Bahr, who later booted field goals of 39 and 33 yards, kicked the first of his four conversions.

Bufs Experience 10-6 Opening Loss

By MARJ CARPENTER
A yo-yo football game that featured 36 fumbles with 15 turnovers on a slick, cold Friday night in Forsan saw the Buffaloes go down in defeat to Klondike by a 10-6 score.

Forsan, in their opening game of the season, was using the services of an inexperienced freshman quarterback after Ralph Miranda was injured in practice.

The freshman, Rusty Henderson, surprised the homefolk by marshaling the game like an old hand and made the only score for Forsan four minutes before the half on a keeper play from the 15-yard line. The try for two extra points failed.

The Cougars scored first on a safety early in the second period after marching down to the goal line and being held in a strong goal line stand by the Buffs. The ball went over on downs and the Cougars held the Buffs with their backs to the wall.

In the attempt to punt out, Billy Osburn was forced to step out the back of the end zone and the Cougars collected a safety.

The only other score in the game came in the third period, when Ricky Singleton, senior halfback for Klondike, went 16 yards around the right end for a score. Jimmy Bradford, strong Cougar halfback, went around the same right end for two. Singleton and Bradford were the big ground gainers for Klondike all evening.

The slick football caused some strange plays in the game with Klondike twice gaining ground on attempted punts when the punter dropped the ball and picked it up and ran. The two teams shared in the punt recoveries with Forsan recovering eight and Klondike seven. Among the Forsan players who hopped on fumbles were Darrin Crooks, Doug Pierce, Mike Storen, Billy Banks and Brad Stevens with everybody getting a turn.

John Medlin was big ground gainer for Coach George White's Buffaloes with good gains also made by Gary Tidwell and Pierce. Klondike is now 2-0 for the season and looks like a strong contender in eight-man ball, having won an 11-man contest. Forsan is 0-1.

In spite of the inclement weather, the game had a big crowd, but about half of it was sitting in cars around the football field.

Spartans Blanked

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Fullback Pete Johnson bulled for two touchdowns and Cornelius Greene fired a 64-yard scoring pass Saturday as third-ranked Ohio State began defense of its Big Ten co-championship with a 21-0 whitewash of Michigan State.

The opening game for both teams had been ballyhooed as a grudge match to demonstrate early advantage in the Big Ten. But the 11th-ranked Spartans, touted as a conference contender, never mounted a serious threat as their offense stuttered with early season mistakes.

For nearly a half, the two teams engaged in a defensive struggle, but with just over a minute to play before intermission, Johnson chugged six yards for his first score.

Ohio State all but put the game away eight minutes into the second half when Greene rolled out to throw from his own 36-yard line. The long toss was almost picked off by MSU's Joe Hunt at the Spartan 25, but he knocked it into the air for Lenny Willis to snatch off and go the final yards untouched.

McMurry Bopped

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — Quarterback Bill Vining passed for two touchdowns and ran for a third to lead Ouchita to a 34-18 college football victory over McMurry.

Vining opened the scoring on a 9-yard run with 9:22 left in the first period. He then connected on a 31-yard scoring pass to sophomore tailback Rickie Remley with 2:42 left in the first period.

Ouchita jumped to a 20-0 lead on freshman William Miller's 10-yard scoring run. McMurry got on the scoreboard with 4:50 left in the third period when second-string quarterback Frank Andrews threw a 5-yard scoring pass to end George Campbell.

The score moved to 20-12 when Andrews hit Gorge Ganisou with a 16-yard scoring pass.

Ouchita then scored on a 10-yard run by Gary Reese with 9:34 left in the game.

Vining then tossed a 22-yard scoring pass to Tommy Thrash with 3:50 left.

Fair An All-Year Job For Members Of Board

The board of directors of the Howard County Fair Association works long hours all during the year in preparation for the annual event here.

In fact, as soon as one fair is over, work actually begins toward the next one.

Both the president-elect and the past president remain on the executive board to assist the current president in planning the annual production.

J. Arnold Marshall, long known in Big Spring for his civic work, is this year's president of the Fair. He is a past mayor of Big Spring and has been active in many phases of youth work in the community.

He expressed sincere thanks to all exhibitors, "because they are the ones who really make a fair a success."

President-elect is Neil Fryar, a Lomax farmer, who is well known in agriculture circles throughout the county. He believes in the fair and all activity that promotes agriculture as an industry and a way of life.

James C. Barr, also a well known Howard County farmer, is immediate past president and also serves on the executive board.

Vice president is Ron McNeil, Montgomery Ward manager who is active in local civic affairs and secretary of the show is Joe Pickle, editor of the Big Spring Herald, active in almost every civic event held in Big Spring.

Treasurer is M. A. Snell, vice president of First National Bank.

Directors include Delbert Donelson, vice president at State National; Skipper Driver of Driver Insurance, active on both the fair and rodeo boards, Hamlin Elrod, Forsan rancher; Mrs. Dorothy Garrett, Big Spring business woman and donor through the Dora Roberts Foundation to many civic projects; Mrs. Joe Mac Gaskins, active in 4-H activities at a statewide level.

Other members of the board include Jerry Hall, a Knott farmer, Tom Locke, Texas Electric manager; Johnnie Walker, area farmer well known in the county; Mrs. W. R. Posey, wife of an area farmer; Bill Read, president of Coahoma Bank; Mrs. Dale Smith, wife of a local businessman; Jimmy Taylor, president of First National Bank, Lloyd Underwood, farmer from the Luther area, and Jerry Roman, area stockman and rancher.

PUBLIC USE — "Officer Friendly," Sergeant Salvatore F. Losicco, uses an engraver to mark the bicycles of Scott Christian, center, and Michael Vasquez. The engraver is available for use by everyone on Webb. All anyone has to do is go to Building 281 and check it out.

'Officer Friendly' Is Groups' Liaison Man

Security Police and safety officials at Webb AFB have borrowed a recipe for crime prevention and safety from Sheppard Air Base, Tex. and are brewing their own program with Sgt. Salvatore F. Losicco as the main ingredient.

The new program called "Officer Friendly" features Sergeant Losicco in the title role. As Officer Friendly, the base security policeman is the liaison between Webb youth and the security police here.

Why have an Officer Friendly? The main reason is to provide a means of communication between the two groups. Not only in matters that directly affect the security police but in safety areas as well. For example, on Sept. 20 at 9:30 a.m. there will be a bicycle "road-e-o" in the Youth Center parking lot.

The "Road-e-o" will feature patrolmen from Big Spring as well as safety and security police representatives from Webb. There will be a rally-type competition for five to eight-year-olds and another division for nine-year-olds and above. The police officers will explain law enforcement to the youngsters and explain how they can help. In addition they will check all the bikes for safety and show the kids how to maintain and identify them.

Of course Officer Friendly will be there to chat with the kids and answer their questions. "What I really want to do," said Losicco, "is to establish a rapport with the kids so that they will want to come to me." I think my love for kids," continued Sergeant Losicco, "is the main reason I was chosen as Officer Friendly." He added that a lot of the kids on the base already know him and that should help in getting the program started.

Officer Friendly is scheduled to talk to students at Marcy Elementary School. He is expected to visit the different area schools throughout the year, and will be active in youth functions.

Fair Catalogue Most Unique

The Howard County Fair catalogue has been distributed this past week among exhibitors at the fair and will see even more distribution as the fair progresses.

Bruce Griffith, Howard County agent, who gives hours of time each year toward preparation of exhibits and other plans for the fair, was also in charge of the catalogue.

It features the board of directors, schedule of events, and the directors and rules for all of the exhibit divisions.

The cover this year includes a bicentennial character and is designed in red, white and blue.

Grid Referee Drops Dead

STAMFORD — Gene Stucky, principal at Tye Elementary School (near Abilene), collapsed during a football game he was refereeing and was dead on arrival at a Stamford hospital Friday night.

The game, involving Stamford and Clyde, was called with about three minutes left in the contest.

Stucky, former teacher in the Abilene school system, was a native of Midland. Survivors include his widow, Catherine, also a teacher; two daughters and an infant son.

Suit Is Refiled

A suit over the death of William Lee Pounds, 19, which was dismissed by U.S. District Court in Abilene, was refiled in 118th State District Court here Friday.

Gay Lynne Pounds, the widow of Pounds, is suing the City of Big Spring and Dr. R. B. G. Cowper.

For pain her husband suffered, her Abilene attorney is seeking $100,000. Loss of possible future earnings due to Pounds' Oct. 7, 1974, death were estimated of $300,000.

Also, the plaintiff is seeking $2,507 for funeral expenses, $1,103 for hospital and medical expenses and $35 for an ambulance bill.

Pounds was driving on the south service road of IS-20 near Farm Road 700 when his vehicle and a city pickup driven by Robert Allen Baker collided, the suit states.

Pounds died about two days later, according to the petition.

City Attorney Jim Gregg noted the federal suit was dismissed, because it was decided the plaintiff was a resident of Texas and not New Mexico.

Elton Gilliland, attorney for Dr. Cowper declined to comment until he had an opportunity to read the suit filed in state district court.

Mrs. Pounds is a student at Wayland Baptist College, Plainview.

Street Replica Is On Display

A scale model replica of Main Street in Big Spring as it appeared in 1894 will be the Big Spring VA Hospital patients' exhibit in the Howard County Fair this coming week.

The display was constructed out of scraps of wood from an old photograph of the downtown area taken in 1894. The model includes store fronts, wooden sidewalks, and hitching posts.

The replica was made voluntarily by patients in the Recreation Room at the hospital.

Presidential Libraries Tell Unique Stories

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson, so the story goes, had just toured the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library and its 40,000-book collection. He turned to an associate and wondered how many books there were available for the Johnson presidential library.

"Four thousand, Mr. President," said the aide. "Damn it," said Johnson, "Get me some books!"

True or not, the story illustrates the loving concern presidents lavish on the library-museums that perpetuate their names, house their memorabilia and provide the grist for scholars studying their presidencies.

It explains in part why Richard M. Nixon has run up nearly a half million dollars in legal debts trying to get ownership of his papers and tape recordings to be housed in a Nixon library.

Americans hungering for morsels of heritage in this bicentennial season can find the museums a rich and satisfying feast; extraordinary displays that chronicle the struggles, successes and failures of the most recent presidents — and therefore the nation they led.

SURPRISING

They lift history from the dusty recesses of memory and schoolbooks in sometimes surprising ways.

Eloquent presidents get that way because of eloquent speech writers, right? Wrong. Franklin D. Roosevelt was handed a draft for his speech denouncing the Pearl Harbor attack that began "Yesterday, Dec. 7, 1941, a date which will live in world history." Roosevelt, with his knack for the vibrant, penciled out "word history" to substitute the "infamy" by which the speech is remembered. See it at the Roosevelt Library.

Here's Ways To Reach Libraries By Vehicles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here's how to get to the five presidential libraries and museums:

Herbert Hoover Library, West Branch, Iowa: just off Interstate 80, 120 miles east of Des Moines, 50 miles west of Davenport. Nearest airport: Iowa City.

Franklin D. Roosevelt Library, Hyde Park, N.Y.: U.S. 9 or New York State Thruway. By train or bus to Poughkeepsie, N.Y., then 5 miles by taxi.

Harry S. Truman Library, Independence, Mo.: On U.S. 24, 15 miles east of Kansas City, Mo.

Dwight D. Eisenhower Library, Abilene, Kan.: 2 miles south of Abilene exit on Interstate 70. Three-hour drive from Kansas City; nearest airport, Salina, Kan.

Lyndon B. Johnson Library, Austin, Tex.: On University of Texas campus, visible from Interstate 35.

thought for a man who, as a historian put it, "collected everything — stamps, historical manuscripts, naval prints and paintings, miniature books, autographs, ship models, Christmas cards, Dutch tiles and books, books, books."

Following Roosevelt's example, Harry S. Truman also wanted his life and work commemorated in a library. He persuaded Hoover to do the same, and Eisenhower and Johnson followed suit. Truman said it for all.

"My papers will be the property of the people and be accessible to them, and this is as it should be." He worked in his library — as did the four other presidents — until a few years before his death.

Some things are standard in the museums: tracing the life of the man they represent. In the Hoover Library the emphasis is on his early career as a mining engineer (at 25 he grew a mustache to look mature enough for a job in China) and hunger fighter. One of the most memorable displays is a collection of beautifully embroidered flour sacks — a tribute from the people of Belgium whom Hoover saved from starvation.

MOST POPULAR

At the Truman Library in Independence, Mo., the most popular exhibit with youngsters is the 1934 Dodge in which Truman toiled around the Jackson County countryside seeking votes. For their parents, there is the replica of the Oval Office, Truman's recorded voice guiding the visitor through. On the desk, of course, is Truman's trademark sign: "The buck stops here."

The Eisenhower Library at Abilene, Kan., spotlights the military man, but it also displays the quilts made by Ida, his mother.

England is northwest of the European continent, right? Wrong. At least according to the map used in allied headquarters in World War II. It was deliberately oriented to put Great Britain at the bottom: a psychological boost; the only way for liberating forces to go was up. See it at the Dwight D. Eisenhower Library.

Herbert Hoover was a frosty old bird, the embodiment of the hard-work-is-everything school, right? Wrong. How could such a man write a book "Fishing for Fun and to Wash Your Soul." See it at the Hoover Library.

Lyndon Johnson was so overdone with vanity that he would not be likely to allow criticism to blemish the ideal, right? Wrong. He insisted that some of the most virulent letters he received be displayed. Read them at the Johnson Library.

Some 1½ million people found their way into presidential libraries last year, which is surprising, since it takes some effort to find them. The government, which runs the libraries, doesn't advertise. The states aren't much help.

No matter how fascinating, presidential libraries and museums are not Yellowstone, Cape Cod or Las Vegas. They are mostly impulse stops for vacationers heading someplace else, like fruit stands on the highway. West Branch, Hyde Park, Independence, Abilene and Austin may be nice places to live; Disneyland, they're not. The girl at the car rental counter at Iowa City, Iowa, airport — 20 minutes drive from the Hoover Library at West Branch — didn't know the way and had never been there although she had lived in the area all her life.

Roosevelt, who couldn't throw anything away, was the first president to order all his materials put in one place and deeded to the government.

GAVE ESTATE

He gave the family estate at Hyde Park, N.Y., for that purpose, sketched the first rough plans, and spent considerable time helping archivists and curators once it was built. Roosevelt decreed that "material of that kind ought not to be broken up," a natural

LAST YEAR Rain Gave Fair Board Problems

"We have nothing against rain, but we sure hope it doesn't rain this week," J. Arnold Marshall, president of the Howard County Fair said this week.

Last year, the attendance was cut way down from the previous year when it rained four days that the fair was open.

The Schafer's Shows, which was the carnival in Big Spring last year, will again be on hand for the fair. They will open daily at 4 p.m. on fair days.

The fair itself will be open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. with the carnival remaining open later on nights of the fair.

One 50 cent admittance gets you into the grounds of both the fair and the carnival. A person is then on his own in selecting which rides or games he wishes to purchase tickets for at the carnival.

The exhibit building will mainly be in the Dora Roberts building in the center of the fair grounds.

Livestock exhibits will be in the rear.

The building and grounds was gotten ready during the week by the vocational agriculture teachers and the county equipment.

The week's activities will include a circus one night, and special activities daily. There will also be the annual agriculture appreciation barbecue during fair week.

School Officials Are Cautiously Optimistic

By The Associated Press

The first full week of school is over in Boston and Louisville with officials cautiously optimistic that the worst of the antibusing violence may be behind them.

In Boston, the first week of citywide desegregation passed without major disruption. White attendance continued to lag, but officials said they were happy with the unexpected calm.

Most of the restrictions on demonstrations and rallies in Louisville were lifted Friday after relative calm through the first full week of desegregation in the Jefferson County system. The restrictions had been put into force following antibusing violence last weekend.

A heavy rain soaked Boston Friday night, and there was no repetition of the vandalism and stoning that occurred on four previous nights in two white areas where antibusing sentiment runs high.

School attendance dipped Friday to 68.4 per cent of the 76,127 students from 69.1 per cent Thursday, but it was up more than 9 per cent over the 59.2 per cent attendance when schools opened Monday. School officials said the Friday decline was anticipated.

In Louisville, U.S. District Court Judge James F. Gordon, who drafted the busing plan that took effect

Sept. 4, lifted an order confining large weekday demonstrations to the state fairgrounds at the southern edge of town. Mayor Harvey I. Sloane lifted his emergency ban on public demonstrations Wednesday.

Sloane ordered the ban after violent demonstrations last Friday night near three schools in the southern part of the county.

Hard-Luck Cup To Be Given

In conjunction with jackpot barrel racing, contestants will try to rope two calves and team rope two steers starting at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the rodeo arena.

The county roping team with the lowest total time on four head of livestock will receive a hand-tooled trophy saddle, Skipper Driver said.

Other awards will go the fastest calf and steer ropers and ropers fastest averages on calves and fastest averages on steer.

A special hard-luck trophy will be presented, also.

With 35 Howard County residents entered, no more contestants will be accepted. This is the first time for a county roping event at the Howard County Fair, but Driver said plans are to make the event an annual one.

Germans Say Oil Squeeze Not All Bad

FRANKFURT, West Germany (AP) — The West German hosts at the 46th Frankfurt International Auto Show express cautious optimism that their automobile industry is recuperating from the near-crippling effects of inflation aggravated by the oil squeeze.

Toni Schmuecker, new chief of giant Volkswagen, told newsmen the oil squeeze had its good side: it showed manufacturers that there was a limit to growth rates although the car remains the most popular means of transport.

Schmuecker reported 1,432,000 Volkswagens were delivered in the first eight months of 1975, 5.9 per cent more than in the same period of 1974. He said 416,000 were sold in West Germany, up 12 per cent, but sales in the United States dropped 10.3 per cent.

The Volkswagen chairman admitted his firm will end the year in the red, but he said the loss would be less than the $323 million recorded last year.

The automobile "has proved itself to be indispensable and will have a firm place in the traffic concept for the future," said Joachim Zahn, board chairman of Daimler Benz.

Ford of Cologne, Volkswagen and Daimler all announced prices will remain stable on the domestic market for the rest of this year.

The largest American product on display is a luxury compact Mercury Monarch, looking almost humble in size compared to Daimler Benz' 450 SEL pullman sedan.

The first fall meeting of the Big Spring State Hospital Auxiliary will be held at 9:30 a.m., Sept. 24 in the Staff Development Building on the hospital campus with Mrs. Calvin Daniels presiding and representatives of local clubs in attendance.

"The auxiliary is eager to get into its exciting plans for the coming season," Mrs. Margaret Baum, volunteer coordinator, told the Volunteer Council's executive committee, headed by Don DeLeuw, during a planning session Thursday. Mrs. Baum said all new representatives and current volunteers will be honored guests at a luncheon, Oct. 16, which will feature entertainment by the popular singing group, the "Nuts and Bolts."

This afternoon, Volunteer Service personnel will set up a booth which will be manned by hospital residents and staff members during the Howard County Fair. Telling the hospital's story with informative literature and a pictorial display, the booth will also feature decorative articles made by participants in occupational therapy. Bicentennial decals, selling for $1, will be available at the booth.

On Sept. 16, staff representatives will meet for a planning session which will focus on the traditional Christmas observance and activities at the hospital. Suggestions from the various units about needed items will enable volunteers to provide suitable gifts for every resident who spends Christmas morning at the hospital.

The annual Christmas party, scheduled this year for Dec. 16, is a community-wide effort which involves numerous clubs, service organizations and individuals.

As in the past, the F. W. Woolworth Co. will sponsor a shopping trip for hospital residents from 7 to 9 p.m., Nov. 20. After making their purchases, the shoppers will be served donuts and hot chocolate at the store.

Also on tap is a picnic for the Work Village, Sept. 15, sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club and, that same day, some of the residents will attend the Shrine Circus with admission provided by Cosden Oil and Chemical Co.

The Forsan High School Band will lead the Halloween Parade at the hospital, after which refreshments will be served in the picnic area. The holiday dance is slated Oct. 30 with music by an area band.

On Oct. 9 the Permian Basin Medical Auxiliary will meet at the hospital to view a documentary film on the Public Responsibility Committee, a volunteer group.

During the past week, cooking and sewing classes were conducted by women from First United Methodist Church, table games were directed by Circuit Riders from Colorado City, Leon White's band played for a dance, and Bingo games were sponsored by the Midland Auxiliary and the American Business Club. Women from the Salvation Army were hostesses for a unit party Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Baum announced that a new volunteer group, to be called the "Sew and Sew," is being formed to assist with mending for hospital residents. Also, she noted that items are already being received for the semi-annual rummage sale which will be Oct. 30 through Nov. 3.

Other committee members participating in the planning session were Curt Mullins, vice chairman; Jewell Richter of Colorado City, secretary; Agnes Currie, treasurer; Mrs. Delores Norred and Jack Y. Smith.

Working with Mrs. Daniels as officers of the auxiliary will be Mrs. C. K. Orr, first vice chairman; Mrs. Stanley Garrison, second vice chairman; and Mrs. Harry Nagel, secretary-treasurer. Phil Christensen, psychologist, serves as consultant.

Tickets Are Ready Now

Rehearsals, set building, and other hard work is continuing on BSHS Choral Department's presentation of "Bye, Bye Birdie". This famous Broadway musical about youth, ambition, and fun contains something for everybody — humor, pathos, great songs and novelty numbers.

"May we suggest that you get your tickets now to insure the night you want to attend. All choir members Meistersingers are selling tickets," according to officers of the choir.

There will be performances Friday and Saturday nights, Sept. 26 and 27. Tickets are $3 each.

"Bye, Bye Birdie" is great entertainment and you will be glad you attended. Mark your calendar now for Sept. 26 or 27 at the High School Auditorium, 8 o'clock p.m. Get up a party of your friends and make it a night to remember." Jack Power, director, added.

Dog Show Is Called Off

An American Kennel Club sanctioned match, sponsored locally by the Big Spring Kennel Club, has been canceled due to rain and high water.

The dog show and obedience trials were to be held Sunday in Birdwell Park.

Display Case Is Going Up

The Big Spring Prospectors Club will have several exhibits in the Lapidary division of the Howard County Fair next week, as the members will put together exhibits of minerals and gems both as a club and individually.

Among the exhibits are a fossil and mineral display, a display of turquoise jewelry, exotic polished stones from Hong Kong, and native minerals of Colorado.

The Club will put together a display case and private collections will also be displayed.

Plans are for two members of the club, James and Nora Nixon, to present live demonstrations in making jewelry and polishing stones each day.

The Prospectors Club, headed by president Virgil Clark, consists of 129 members and 31 junior members.

Three Squadrons Top Goal In CFC Drive

The Bicentennial Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) at Webb Air Force Base got off to a rousing start as three squadrons topped 100 per cent of their monetary goal during the first week of fund raising. The 83rd Flying Training Squadron, Communications Squadron and Air Base Group all show bursting thermometers on the campaign tote board, located between the base exchange and Webb Chapel. As of Wednesday morning, key men from the three squadrons collected $7,644.80 to help boost Webb's first week total to $16,081.35. That total is 54.9 per cent of the base goal of $29,300. "We're pleased with the first week's results," says Major Don W. Box, project officer for the base drive. "The total represents about one third participation from all the federal employees here. If we can get 100 per cent participation, we should have no trouble in exceeding our goal and making this

'Bye Bye Birdie' Got Praise On Broadway

Members of the big Spring High School Choral group are well into rehearsals for the Sept. 26-27 production of "Bye Bye Birdie" which will be presented in the High School Auditorium.

Responsiveness of opening night audiences is one of the first indications that a hit is being born on Broadway. Every show that ever scored a real success has won some measure of an ovation on its first night. But probably no show ever generated any more audience hoop-la at its

Broadway opening as "Bye Bye Birdie."

According to a reporter for Variety, the trade-paper of show-business, "The premiere of the 'Bye Bye Birdie' set some sort of record for the way its audience tried to recreate the ecstatic din of the VE Day celebration."

A critic for the New Yorker Magazine, Kenneth Tynan, mentioned the opening night demonstration in his review as a defense: "In saying that just about everything about the show seemed to me enchanting," he wrote, "I don't think I've been unduly swayed by the boisterous enthusiasm of the first-night audience." He went on to explain this extraordinary ovation. "Nobody knows better than I that ecstatic applause early in the evening is infectious and self-perpetuating. Those who start it feel in honor bound to sustain it, and the rest join in out of a mystical desire to be brushed by the wings of success. In this present case," said the hard-to-please critic, "at least half the clamor was justified, and that is saying a great deal."

Critic Robert Coleman of the N.Y. Mirror didn't go into the philosophy of the matter. He merely reported that "first-nighters found something to cheer, and they made the theatre's walls rock 'n roll like a town hall hit by a tornado."

John McClain, critic for the N.Y. Journal American, must still have been throbbing with the excitement that greeted the curtain's fall when he reached his typewriter twenty minutes later, for he began his review with "Hallelujah! We've got a bright, new funny, fast, crazy musical going for us. It opened last night to uproarious approval."

Brooks Atkinson, critic for the conservative New York Times, reported in his review "Last evening the audience was beside itself with pleasure." The audience's enthusiasm reminded Thomas Dash, critic of New York's Women's Wear, of the paid-for, claque-like demonstrations at performances of opera or ballet. "Seldom," he wrote, "except at the opera or ballet, have I heard a more roisterous reception."

Still another critic, Frank Aston in the N.Y. World Telegram and Sun, suffered a loss of property as a result of the riotous acclamation—or least his wife did. He began his review: "The opening night curtain of 'Bye Bye Birdie' has been down 22 minutes as I write this."

Crushed To Death By Road Grader

DALLAS (AP) — Jesse Buchanan, 61, was crushed to death by a road grader Thursday at the city dump in northwest Dallas, authorities said.

Police said Buchanan was working on a city paving crew repairing asphalt roadways inside the dump. Construction workers told police he lay down in the shade of the wheel when the crew took a break.

Circus Features Specialty Acts

Clowns, elephants, trapeze artists and wild animals will highlight the Suez Temple Shrine Circus Monday at the Rodeo Bowl, one of the major activities of the Howard County Fair, which begins that day.

Clyde Brothers Circus is producing the two performances, slated for 3:15 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Tickets for the performances are $2 in advance from several locations in Big Spring. Tickets at the gate will be $2.50.

Tickets may be purchased at Blum's Jewelers, Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, First National Bank, Greyhound Bus Terminal, Gibsons, Dunlaps, Pragers Mens and Boys Wear, The Record Shop, Security State Bank, and State National Bank.

Among the attractions of the circus in addition to the clowns, are:

—A wild animal act featuring seven royal bengal tigers.

—The world's smallest trampolinist on the world's largest trampoline, the three and a half foot tall Cuccolo.

—Trapeze acts featuring the Paulos Troupe, the Great Milton, Aerial Ballet, Mademoiselle Bami, Zamudio, and the Ronritas.

—A trained poodle act, a family of performing chimpanzees, and the Clyde Brothers Circus elephant act.

Border Hearings

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Senate committee hearings will be held in Laredo, Del Rio, El Paso and the Lower Rio Grande Valley on federal agents who allegedly have hindered "trade and tourism" at Texas-Mexico border crossings.

Sen. Raul Longoria, D-Edinburg, chairman of the special committee, announced Thursday the first hearing will be Sept. 19 in Laredo. Dates of the other hearings were not announced.

Longoria specified that the agents to be investigated are in the U.S. Border Patrol, Immigration and Naturalization Service and Bureau of Customs.

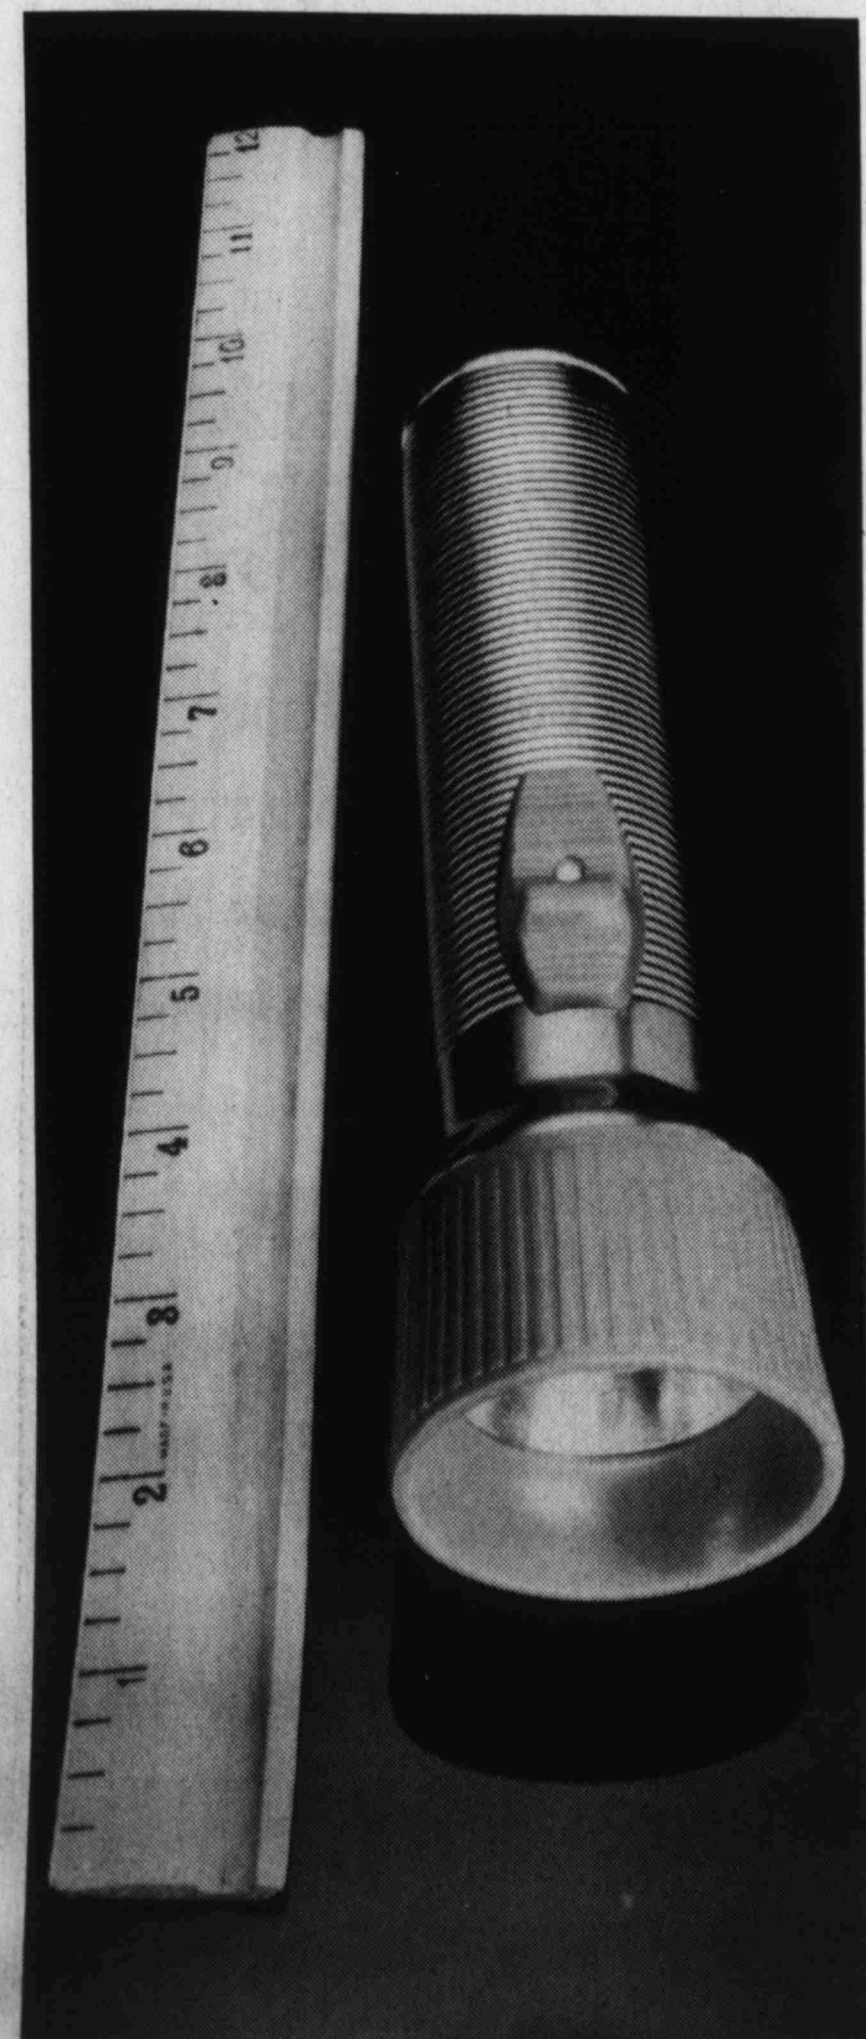

The other members of the committee are Sens. Tati Santiesteban, D-El Paso, the vice-chairman; Mike McKinnon, D-Corpus Christi; W.E. Snelson, D-Midland; and John Traeger, D-Seguin.

These simple tools can help you save energy.

If your home doesn't have good insulation, you're wasting a lot of energy.

But you can do something about it. By installing proper insulation and weatherstripping, you can lock the heat out in the summer and hold it in during the winter.

And that means you'll be using electricity for air conditioning or heating much more efficiently.

You can check your attic insulation with a ruler. If the insulation is less than six inches thick, you may need to add more.

To check the weatherstripping around exterior doors, have someone shine a flashlight around the edges of each closed door. If you can see light, you may have to add new or replace worn weatherstripping.

Saving electric energy takes very little energy on your part, but it's worth the effort.

FEATURED IN 1975 HOWARD COUNTY FAIR
Jean Shepard and her Second Fiddles

Second Fiddles Will Appear With Singer

One of country music's "top five" — all-time great — female vocalists, Jean Shepard will appear on stage at the Howard County Fair here Wednesday night. Miss Shepard heads an all-star unit from the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tenn. Show time is 8 p.m. The Rodeo Bowl will be the setting for the event. Currently on record, Jean is about the hottest hit-maker among the females, with such No. 1 hits as "Slipping Away," "At the Time" and "I'll Do Anything."

Jean is one of the real veterans of the country music field, having been a member of the Red Foley Ozark Jubilee on the ABC-TV network for three years, before joining the Grand Ole Opry 12 years ago. Miss Shepard has recorded 23 albums, and among her million sellers has been "Satisfied Mind," "The Dear John Letter" and "Forgive Me John."

She has also scored big on the hit parade charts with "Another Lonely Night," "With His Hand in Mine," "Just Plain Lonely," "I Want to Be Free," "When He Touched Me" and "Seven Lonely Days."

Jean has been a 1975 Grammy Award Nominee as the "best country female vocal" performance of the year. A fine cast of Grand Ole Opry entertainers will be on stage with Miss Shepard at the fair including Bennie Burchfield and the Second Fiddles.

Pet Show Is Friday

The Big Spring Kennel Club is completing plans to assist the Howard County Fair Association in conducting the Pet Show in the 1975 fair. Pet Show night will be Friday, Sept. 19, and will again be held in the South barn on the fair-grounds. Entries will be accepted at ring-side beginning at 6:30 p.m. and show-time is slated to begin at 7:30 p.m. as opposed to the previously announced time of 8:00 p.m.

"We are all looking forward to helping with the Pet Show again because we all had so much fun last year," stated Bruce Wright, Big Spring Kennel Club spokesman.

"We would like to urge all youngsters in the area to bring their pets to the Show," Wright said. "Just about any kind of pet is eligible and we will have classes for dogs, cats, fowl, as well as exotic animals."

Subdivisions within the categories will be for the largest, smallest, best behaved, best groomed, etc. All animals should be on lead, or in cages or otherwise easily controlled and domestic animals should have received routine inoculations against rabies (dogs) and other common pet diseases as indicated.

For additional information, one can contact Bruce Wright, 419 Main, Big Spring, 79720 or by phoning 267-8276.

Prize Will Depend On Inflation

The second annual National Championship Sand Washer Pitchin' Contest is to be held Sept. 17-18, in conjunction with the Howard County Fair. This national sports event is an old time favorite pastime of country folks, loafers, knife traders, and wild story tellers. The match will be during the Fair and during the week of Sept. 15-20, 1975.

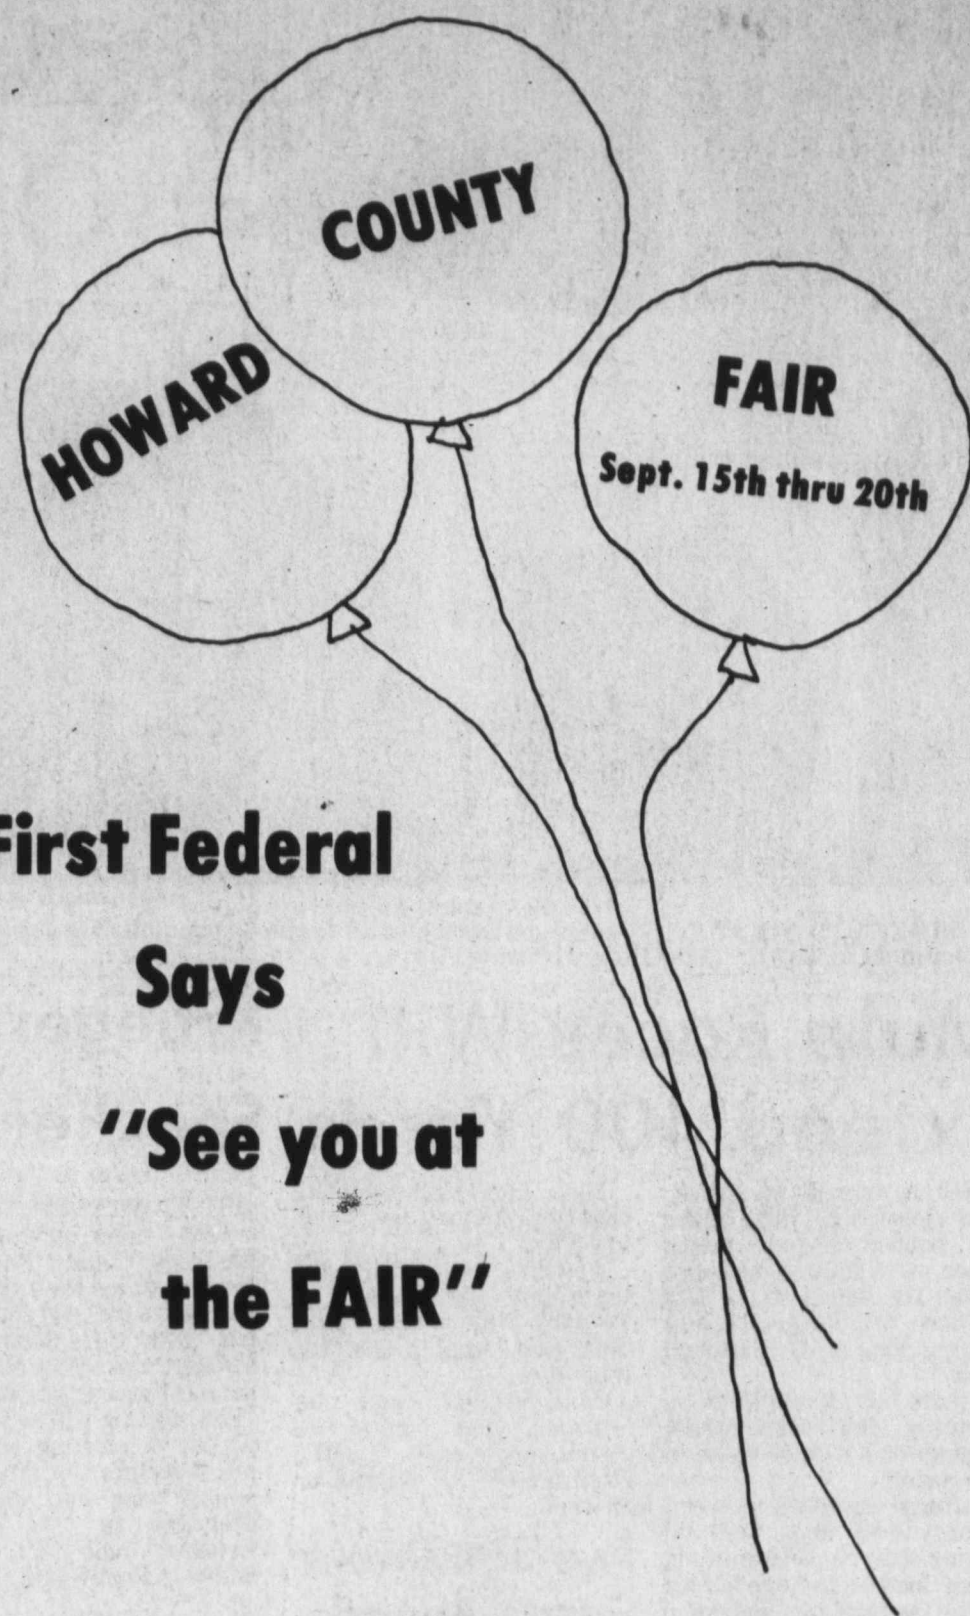

According to Esco Hamlin, proclaimed chairman of the 2nd annual National Sand Washer Pitchin' Association, the match will be held indoors in order to control ecological air pollution such as man made sand storms created by a mixture of sand disturbance and a lot of hot air.

Rules and regulations include such oddities as harassment from spectators permitted; duration of the match to be timed by clock or reasonable facsimile; insults directed from one contestant to another permitted only in a normal tone of voice, but hollering permitted for "hit holers" and washers lost by contestants during match play must be paid for due to funding and underwriting expenses borne by 1975 crop year dry land farmers.

Prizes for the champion include $50 at conclusion of the tournament or $500 one year from date, depending on rate of inflation at the discretion of officials. Entry fee for the tournament is $50 or 25 washers — depending on existing needs of the Association. Deadline for entries is Wednesday.

THE WEEK

Howard College's autumn enrollment has zipped past the 1,529 mark, setting a new record — well above the 1,317 a year ago and previous peak of 1,448 in the Spring semester. Of the total 1,329 were on campus, 133 in the Lamesa Center and 87 at San Angelo where HC offers voc-tech courses. The total may go higher before deadline Monday evening. Big Spring school enrollment picked up 6,391, but this was 54 below last year.

Approval has been given the City budget of $4,560,372, which keeps the same tax rate of $1.40 on a 60 per cent value. Part of increased revenues will come from a $1 additional monthly sewer charge and 50 cents for garbage. At the same meeting, Texas Electric Service Company made its expected plea for a rate adjustment designed to yield 9 per cent more revenue. Average home consumers, however, may average 6-7 per cent more.

Impressive growth of a home-grown industry was reviewed by V. J. Michaels, president of Fiber Glass Systems, in an address to the Rotary Club. Started in 1968 with know-how by Michaels backed by local capital, the fiber glass pipe and fittings factory now has 160 employees with a million-dollar payroll, and a $4 million sales volume which promises to multiply two and a half times when a 34,500-sq. ft. plant addition is completed.

City building permits continue to plug along at a pretty fair clip, and the best part is that most of the value is in residential construction. The total of $288,070 for August was about $100,000 over August a year ago.

Howard County Commissioners court is conducting interviews for a successor for Walter Grice, who is resigning Oct. 1st Justice of Peace, Precinct 1, Place 1, after 31 years in public service. Grice resigned earlier, but this time he's serious. Friends at the courthouse are planning a Sept. 30 reception for him.

The Patton (Hayden) House was featured by the Texas Architect magazine in the current issue, making the second time that this publication has spotlighted the early-century home, which now is being made a local historical shrine.

Big Spring entertained the Texas Association of Hospital Engineers here this weekend. Also, Grace Grimes, Longview, president of Texas State Teachers Association, conducted a teacher workshop for District 18 here. Our town's Buford Hull was re-elected head of District 4 for American Association of Sheriff Poses and Riding Clubs.

The volunteers organization for Malone & Hogan Hospital has enjoyed a remarkable growth. Starting with the hospital opening in March, it now has 84 members... Incidentally, the M & H Clinic (different organization) building is due to be opening around Oct. 1.

Bicentennial Town Crier

Margaret Lloyd, Festival chairman, announces that to avoid a duplication of effort, the Arts and Crafts show will be merged into the fair already planned by Howard County 4-H Clubs for Dec. 6th and 7th. The place is still the County Fair barns, and artisans from far and near will be featured. Maybe just in time for Christmas shopping?

Carole Hunter and L. B. Paul Sr., did a great job of documenting the first group of old homes shown in Sunday's Herald. With the added help of Marj Carpenter, this will be a most interesting series. The Horizons group, headed by Mary Joye Cowper, is to be congratulated.

Anne (Mrs. Paul) Darrow alerted us to the Philathea Class Bicentennial celebration — a tea to be held in Fellowship Hall of First United Methodist Church on Oct. 5 from 3-4:30 p.m. Special guests will be new members of the class. The social committee is composed of Mrs. J. B. Apple, chairman, Mrs. Hayes Stripling Sr., and Mrs. Merle Stewart.

It's worth a trip to the Big Spring Steer Band Hall just to get a glimpse of Bill Bradley's office. His desk is painted red and blue with

'Numbers' Game Uses $30 Cash Scriptures Sometimes To Champ

WASHINGTON (AP) — When is Luke, chapter 3, verse 15 not a scriptural reference? When it is broadcast as a tip for winning bets in an illegal "numbers" game, says the Federal Communications Commission. The FCC said tips disguised as scriptural references were sprinkled in some religious radio programs broadcast in the nation's capital.

HE'LL CUT UP BEEF George Smith with carcass

And for this and other reasons, the agency revoked the license for United Broadcasting Co., Inc., to run radio station WOOK and gave it to a new group which includes newspaper columnist Jack Anderson. "The record clearly establishes that WOOK's facilities were used by various ministers to broadcast programs offering three-digit scripture citations in return for monetary donations," said the FCC decision made Tuesday and released Friday.

Beef-Cutting Exhibition Is Scheduled Wednesday

The Texas Chapter of the Cowbells — an organization of women in Howard, Dawson, Borden, Scurry and surrounding counties, interested in the promotion of and education in the field of the beef industry, will present a beef cutting demonstration at the Howard County Fair on Wednesday afternoon. The demonstration will take place immediately following the Agri-Business luncheon at 2: p.m. in the south show barn at the Fair grounds. The public is encouraged to be in attendance and there will be no admission charged for the demonstration.

Mule Races Will Extend 400 Yards

Hee haws will be heard, and riders will slide under and bounce off their mules when races start in the rodeo arena Tuesday night. There will be good mule riders, too, A. G. Mitchell said. Heats of five will be running the 400 yards, hoping for a chance to be in the run offs. Alternating at the Howard County Fair show will be teams of all types of animals from donkeys to large horses in the team pulling contest. Starting with their total weight, the teams of two animals will try to pull sleds eight feet. The winning team will be the team able to drag the largest percentage of its weight.

Revival Is Continuing

The Church of God of Prophecy at 1411 Dixie will continue its revival Sept. 14-21 with Bishop Hector Ortiz, state overseer of the west Texas area as evangelist. Services will be held at 7:30 p.m. Dennis Reiche, minister-evangelist of the local church, invites the public to attend. The Rev. Reiche also took part in a two-day ministers' convention in Lubbock this weekend under the theme, "Word of the Other Rapture — Digno del Rapto." He spoke Saturday morning in Lubbock on Mission Thrust: Working Faith.

Krueger Is Speaker

Entry into either event will cost $10. Competition starts at 8 p.m. Deadline for entering the team pull will be 6 p.m. Tuesday while you may wait until post time to join the mule race. Cash prizes will be awarded. For more information, call Tooter Whitmire, E. G. Patton or Mitchell.

Two Screwworm Cases Found

While screwworms spread across Texas, the Screwworm Eradication Program based at Mission confirmed two cases in Howard County during August. One was on the Hamlin ranch 14 miles north of Big Spring. The other was on the R. L. Powell ranch eight miles south of Coahoma.

The 5,676 Texas screwworm cases confirmed by the lab by the end of August was second only to 54,769 in 1972 in the history of the eradication program. Other area counties reporting the insect pests during August included Ector with three cases; Glasscock, one; Midland, three; Tom Green, three; and Pecos, 25. Screwworms are larvae of the primary screwworm fly. Females of this species deposit eggs in wounds of warm blooded animals. Eggs hatch in about 12 hours, and the tiny larvae burrow into the wound, feeding on living flesh.

Probated Terms Given Youth

Timothy Cody (Gater) Bruce, 19, Garden City Route, pleaded guilty in 118th District Court Friday afternoon to two motor vehicle burglaries. He was given two, ten-year terms of probation. Bruce pleaded guilty to theft of a revolver from the car of Ralph Mahoney on Sept. 10 and theft of citizen band radio from the truck of Mark Baggett Aug. 30.

ST. LAWRENCE — The annual meeting of the Glasscock County Farmers Union is slated for 7:30 p.m. Monday at the St. Lawrence Hall, with U.S. Cong. Bob Krueger, 21st Congressional Dist., as featured speaker. The meeting will be for the purpose of electing officers and directors for the upcoming year and electing delegates to the Texas Farmers Union State Convention in Fort Worth Dec. 4-6. Policy resolutions will be considered for adoption and submitted to the state program drafting committee as recommendations for state policy. The guest speaker for the meeting will be Sen. Krueger. ## How to select the right nursing home.

We Americans are not just living longer, we're living more useful, productive lives.

But an increasing number of the chronically ill, the old, the convalescent, need some place other than the hospital and their home where they can receive personal health care, round-the-clock attention and the opportunity to continue to live their lives with meaning.

As your community extended health care facility we want to help you make the right decision. Here are some guidelines: see your family physician to determine the kind of care needed; feel free to visit our facility; ask us for our costs in writing and financial advice about Medicaid; examine all of our facilities; check our food quality; verify our safety features; and finally, observe how our residents spend their time.

There's a lot more to selecting the right nursing home. We want to help. If you have any questions, please call or visit us.

FOR YOUR PLEASURE

Enjoy The Week At Howard County Fair

The big fun this week is the annual Howard County Fair, bulging with exhibits of all kinds, livestock shows, circus, country Western special, fun contests, outdoor and indoor commercial shows, and a sparkling midway plus decorations, special music and a host of other special features.

The Big Spring High School Choral department isn't letting grass grow underfoot, for it will pull up the curtain on a two-day run of "Bye, Bye Birdie" Sept. 26-27. This story of teen-age infatuation with a rock-and-roll hero is a hilarious one, backed by several great tunes. Based on past performances, the group will come through with a professional quality show.

You have one more week to catch the Texas Ranger Exhibit at the Heritage Museum. The last day is Sept. 21, and it comes down the following day to make way for a short feature, the Country Store with its major collection of art and art objects. It opens Sept. 30 and closes out noon Oct. 3. Moving in behind it will be the Texas Institute of Cultures American Bicentennial special exhibit. Meanwhile, Gerri Atwell, curator, is putting together an exhibit for the Howard County Fair, including a few special sets of the commemorative Howard County Bicentennial coins. These are going fast, and especially the popularly priced bronze ones. Saturday, wives of the Hospital Engineers Association visited the museum.

During the past week there were numerous new and renewals, including Mrs. Lenora Flanigan's endowment membership (she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Roberts, first permanent settlers). Others are Mrs. Johnnie Lou Avery, Nell Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fields, Mrs. Roy Wilson, Mrs. J. A. Ethridge, and Mrs. Bill Read and Mrs. Norman Read.

Put down Oct. 1-2 on your television calendar for Big Spring native, Mrs. Susan Ivie Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Ivie, who will be spotlighted on the "Wheel of Fortune" show. During the past week when the first week of October shows were taped, she won nearly $11,000 in two days as a guest on the show — the first day she hit for $8,500 — a new one-day

'Recycled' Label Replaces 'Used'

COLLEGE STATION — "My husband and I are proud to announce that earlier this month we purchased a 'recycled' room air conditioner — not a 'used' one, but recycled," Mrs. Janice Carberry, family resource management specialist said.

By doing this, the specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said she felt they were helping the environment by putting to use some of America's still good unused resources and not using new supplies of limited resources.

"But if we'd bought a 'used' unit, that would have meant it was second hand and people would have known that a new model was more than our pocketbook could afford.

"Of course that's true, but it's not something we'd write home to Mother or brag to the neighbors about," she said.

The psychology of this has made some staff members of the Federal Trade Commission think that many people will prefer "recycled" over "used." They have proposed a word change on used products being sold — recycled golf balls and tires, for example.

She said that by substituting the word "recycled" the stigma of buying some used products would be removed and the environmental concerns associated with recycling could be enhanced.

"They may have a point. There is a certain amount of pride in using stationery 'made completely from recycled paper.' Not too many people will boast of wearing 'hand-me-down' clothes but 'a rare bargain found at a garage sale and recycled into a fashionable tunic top' is the same song with a niftier tune," she said.

Mrs. Carberry cautioned consumers to make sure they have a real need for the recycled item and that it still works before buying.

"The Heritage of American Art," featuring paintings from the collection of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, will open Tuesday at the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts. The exhibition honors the memory of Mrs. John O'Hara, whose generosity made the exhibit possible.

Visitors in the Austin area may want to catch the photographic exhibit on Samuel Beckett, the Nobel prize winner for literature and author of the play, "Waiting for Godot." Furnished by the University, Reading, England, it is being shown at the UT Academic Center, fourth floor, though Oct. 15.

If you believe in long-range dates, mark down May 29-30-31, 1976 as dates for the annual Texas State Arts and Crafts Fair. Taos, N.M., considered as the art capital of the Southwest, will have its first all-encompassing Festival of Arts Oct. 1-5. Taos' influence dates back to 1898 with the initial visit of E. L. Blumenschein and Bert G. Phillips, whose reports attracted other artists. Oddly, a composite of their works was never shown at Taos, but will be in the "Founders Show" this year.

Paul Swan will lecture Tuesday on the Scalandre Exhibit of Colonial Textiles at the Museum on the Tech Campus 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Maria Ofelia S. De Orr, Mexican counsel, speaks at 12 noon Tuesday in the Mahon Library on "165th Anniversary of the Mexican Revolution." A week from this afternoon, Jerry Brainard, organist, will be at Lubbock's First Methodist for an organ concert.

Van Cliburn is scheduled for a concert at the State Fair Musical hall in Dallas Thursday.

Match Words With Actions

COLLEGE STATION — Words are the first form of communication, reinforced by actions.

Yet it's strange to notice how often a person says "good morning," but his face is scowling.

This is confusing because while we communicate what we say, how we say it is important also, Roberta Dix, family life education specialist, noted this week.

"When the body doesn't tell the same story as the spoken words, communication is difficult."

This specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said that this confusing behavior can affect all types of relationships. Adults view this happening with their peers, parents with their children, and teens with other teens.

But it can be changed — each person just needs to remember to show actions consistent with his words, she said.

Dear Abby

Action, Not Response Needed For Pregnant Look

DEAR ABBY: I have an unusual problem. I look pregnant, although I'm not. I've always had a large protruding stomach. Then I became pregnant and foolishly gained 57 pounds. My son is now 18-months-old, but I'm about 20 pounds overweight and look like I'm seven months pregnant no matter how I dress.

Needless to say, people are always saying to me, "Oh, you're having another one!" When I say, "No I'm not pregnant," an awkward silence follows.

Abby, if anyone can come up with a better response to the endless comments, it's you.

LOOKS P.G. IN FLORIDA DEAR LOOKS: A more satisfactory solution is what to DO, not what to SAY. I know it's easier said than done, but if you would trim off that excess weight and buy yourself a good foundation garment, you would lose that pregnant look.

DEAR ABBY: My sister's boyfriend died last year and she and I have been talking to his spirit on a Ouija board ever since. We have also talked to two other spirits on the Ouija board.

My aunt says that we shouldn't use the Ouija board because it is the work of the devil.

Can you give me any information about Ouija boards? Are they bad or not?

J.B. IN OLEAN, N.Y. DEAR J.B.: The only way one can "talk" to a spirit is through prayer. And you don't need a Ouija board for that. A Ouija board is all right to use as a "game," but don't be seriously.

DEAR ABBY: About six months ago I met a pleasant, middle-aged married woman while visiting a mutual friend in another city.

After returning home, I was surprised to receive a little gift from her. Nothing costly; just a trinket with a friendly note. "I loved meeting you. Keep in touch."

I wrote and thanked her for her thoughtfulness. A few weeks later, along came another little gift from this woman. Again I wrote to thank her.

Then she sent a store-bought card for no special occasion with the message, "It's nice to have a special friend like you."

I acknowledged the card only because I would have felt guilty if I didn't. Abby, I am a busy, professional woman, and I wish this woman would leave me alone. It irritates me to have to write these thank-you notes to someone I hardly know.

Why would a person persist in keeping up a contact without any encouragement whatsoever? And how do I get off the hook?

DEAR BAFFLED: Obviously she wants to maintain the contact. Chill the relationship by making your "thank you's" brief and formal. Unkind? Not really. She's subtly trying to obligate you.

MRS. RANDY THOMAS

Couple Weds In Friday Service

Miss Teresa Spears became the bride of Randy Thomas in a candlelight ceremony held Friday evening in the Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Larry D. Holmes officiating.

The couple stood before an arch covered in greenery accented with blue and white carnations and surrounded by baskets of blue carnations and white gladioli. The arch was flanked by spiral candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob J. Spears, Gail Route. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Thomas, 1615 Harding.

The bridegroom sang to his new bride during the lighting of the memory candle. Other nuptial selections during the ceremony were furnished by Mrs. Mark Sutphen, organist, Roy Rogan, playing the saxophone, and Mrs. Helen Martin, vocalist.

The bride chose to wear a formal-length gown of white satin styled with an empire waist and princess skirt with free-falling side panels of embroidered lace attached at the high waist by a satin band. The bodice was designed with a split neckline rising to a high collar enhanced with scalloped lace and seed pearls. The long sleeves were flared from the elbows into large bells and were embellished with rows of embroidered lace and seed pearls. The bride's layered veil of illusion bordered in lace fell from a Camelot cap of matching lace and flowed over the chapel-length train.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and love-lace lily of the valley centered with blue roses and tied with long picot streamers.

Miss Karen Spears served her sister as maid of honor with Mrs. Tommy Welch, Miss Sheila Stepp and Miss Sharon Dorough, Dallas, serving as bridesmaids.

The brides were identical formal-length dresses of blue knit designed with empire waist and princess skirts ending in wide ruffles. The dresses feature V-necklines, flared short sleeves and self-belts tied in the back. They carried bouquets of blue camellias centered with white miniature lanterns tied with matching streamers.

Gary Blount served as best man with Ronnie Mason, Larry Ringener and Uli Palacios as groomsmen. Acting as ushers were Randy Pitman and Billy Turner. Serving as escort for Miss Tiffani Ward, flower girl, was Stacy Shortes. Scott Shortes was ring bearer. Before leaving on a

FOCUS ON FAMILY LIVING Imitation Suede Is Popular For Fall

By SHERRY MULLIN

Fall fabrics are lovelier than ever and high on the fashion scene for fall are the luxurious suede — like fabrics. If you are a home creator of fashion you may like to try your hand at making your own suede — like garments.

Actually these fabrics are more like suede than suede itself. It's a unique fabric with remarkable easy-care features. It won't shrink, stretch, pull, fray, crack, or wrinkle. Wash the material at synthetic temperatures and tumble dry. Read the label for fiber content and care instructions. The 100 per cent polyester suede is the one recommended for the machine wash and dry methods.

The width of the fabric may vary according to brand. It is a napped fabric, so consider this in the amount that you purchase. In selecting a pattern, keep in mind the character of the fabric. Suede — like fabrics lend themselves to an unstructured garment that skims the figure. Loosely fitting jackets and coats, shirt jackets and shirt dresses, skirts, and pants all work quite well. Avoid close fit and darts as much as possible.

Try the following tips for your sewing:
 Cutting: Use sharp

scissors to get a smooth edge. Lay all pattern pieces in the same direction. Use pins only in the seam allowances, as pins may cause puncture holes.

Interfacing: In most cases interfacing is not necessary. Do not over-structure the garment.

Pressing: Steam and finger press. Fabric eases very little.

Sewing: Test a scrap first. Use a new needle, size No. 14 or a vinyl point needle.

Seams: Sew seams as you normally do or lap one edge over the other and top-stitch. Do a second row of stitching and then trim. This gives a sporty effect. Seams and hems can be glued down using a fabric glue.

You'll be amazed at what a lovely garment you can create very quickly and at the amount of money you can save.

Both Miss Emmerson and Highley are students at Sul Ross University in Alpine.

Texas Beta Omicron Chapter No. 798 of Beta Sigma Phi held their 504th meeting Thursday evening in Texas Electric Reddy Room.

Beta Omicron welcomed seven new members, and hosted the organization's adopted grandmother, Mrs. Willie Sutton and a guest, Mrs. Ruth Wilson. Those members receiving the pledge ritual were Mrs. Pam Leggett, Mrs. Kathie Bartholomew, Mrs. Barbara Barnhart, Mrs. Doris Arcand, Mrs. Pat Radcliffe and Mrs. Mary Adams.

Mrs. Mary Alligood, a transferee from Turkey, was accepted into the chapter in a welcoming ritual. Installation rites were also performed for Mrs. Paula Howard, incoming treasurer and Mrs. Alligood, who is taking the position of corresponding secretary. The previously elected officers were Mrs. Sharan Lindsey, who has transferred out of town and Mrs. Sally Martinez, respectively, who has changed her membership status.

Mrs. Ruth Penner and Mrs. Cynthia Hanselman were program leaders and also were the hostesses. The program, entitled "Woman, Her Heritage and Her Hope", showed how women of early days were suppressed by their life situation, their husbands and themselves; while today's women are still suppressing themselves, with the help of the media, or are not quite sure what to be freed from. Another viewpoint was added, drawn from a book by Marabel Morgan, "The Total Woman". She suggests that today's woman pay more attention to being a good wife and mother and that the freedom will come of itself. A comprehensive list of legislative orders including the Equal Employment Opportunity Act and "equal pay for equal work" laws were mentioned as a prospect for hope for the future of women's freedom.

In chapter business, Mrs. Pam Carroll, ways and means chairman reported on the success of the garage sale held Sept. 6th. Workshops were to be set up to begin handicrafts for sale at the chapter bazaar scheduled Nov. 1 in Highland Mall. Membership chairman Mrs. Jean Denton reported the commencement of pledge training classes on Thursday. All members, regardless of status, were invited to participate.

Mrs. Linda Wittman social chairman discussed plans for the family picnic, scheduled for Oct. 4.

Invitations were noted from the State Hospital asking for volunteers, from the Big Spring Jayceeettes noting the Collier art exhibit at the Big Spring Country Club, and a message from Mrs. Lou LaRoche, city council president, asking for volunteers to help with the Muscular Dystrophy campaign.

Refreshments were served as an auction was held for the annual Vacation Box gifts. Proceeds from that auction go toward the Beta Sigma Phi State Project.

The next meeting will be Sept. 29, hosted by Mrs. Cynthia Hanselman. Program leaders will be Mrs. Paula Howard and Mrs. Barbara Barnhart on "What Women Are Her To."

CAPT. LARRY DRISKILL

Pilot Still Has Time for Hobby

As a youngster in Amarillo, Tex., Larry Driskill would spend his leisure time flying control line model airplanes and allow his imagination to place him at the controls of a fast jet. He doesn't need to daydream anymore because as an Air Force pilot, Capt. Driskill sits at the controls of jet aircraft, but he still finds time for his models.

Capt. Driskill, a member of the 78th Flying Training Wing Standardization and Evaluation division at Webb Air Force Base, still spends his leisure time the same way he did as a youth. He still flies control line model aircraft, and he is still very good at it.

In recent months he captured top honors at the Texas State Control Line Model Aircraft Championships in Dallas, the second time he has snared the title in five years. Last month he competed in the National Model Aircraft Championships at Lake Charles, La., where he garnered a second, fourth and seventh place finish in the three categories he entered.

Before going to West Texas State University at Canyon, Tex., Captain Driskill was an accomplished teenaged control line flier. "I don't have any idea how many trophies I have won during and since my high school days," he mused. "but, I have more than 50 of the more important ones in my den at home."

His wife, Pat, enjoys flying the models as much as Driskill but has slowed down since the birth of their two children, Julie and Cory. Both children are under three-years-old and the noise of the models still frightens them.

"Depending on how often you fly and how many tournaments you enter," said the Air Force pilot, "model flying can run into money, but, it doesn't have to." He explained that each engine costs about $40 and by the time one has finished building the model it costs more than $50. However, that is much cheaper than radio controlled models that run into the hundreds of dollars.

He pointed out that if a flier doesn't crash too often the additional expense is limited. However, when a plane is crashed, not too much of it is usually salvageable.

Driskill described the aircraft he flies. "I have three basic types of aircraft," he said. "I fly the international size 'flying wing' model with a .15 cubic inch engine, a 'slow' combat model with a .35 cubic inch engine and another 'flying wing' type model with a .35 cubic inch engine."

The Air Force pilot noted that one of the most interesting things he has found about model flying is the strength of the miniature aircraft. The models are designed to fly at speeds in excess of 100 mph and withstand up to 25 positive and 25 negative Gs. By contrast, the Cessna T-37, one of the aircraft used for training pilots at Webb, is made to withstand 6.67 positive and 2.67 negative Gs.

Leaving next week for assignment as a U-2 pilot at Davis-Monthan AFB, Ariz., Driskill said that he wished more people at Webb would begin flying control line aircraft and possibly form a flying club. "It is a lot of fun for a relatively small cost," he said, "and a good way to spend a Sunday afternoon."

Fair's Booth Space Sells

Booth sales continued at a brisk pace the past week for the Howard County Fair, according to Tom Locke, booth chairman for the event.

Booths were mostly manned by businesses and by professional organizations. The United Way and other events of this type had purchased booth space.

Many outdoor exhibits of equipment and automobiles were also anticipated for the event.

Johnnie Walker, longtime chairman of outdoor exhibits, was hospitalized with open heart surgery Tuesday in Lubbock.

Pete Jenkins, who also is in charge of Fair Parking, helped out with preparation of the outside booths.

SORGHUM HARVESTING Sunflower Yields Good In Far West Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Sorghum harvesting was the main farm activity in West Central and North Central Texas and on the Rolling Plains last week, Dr. John Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said.

Peanuts are being harvested in eastern areas as well as in Central Texas although there the crop is suffering from lack of rainfall and diseases, he said.

Short soil moisture in some locations is causing a delay in wheat and oats planting, Hutchison said.

Late reports on damage caused by heavy rains from Hurricane Caroline recently showed some 1,200 acres of cotton and a large portion of the Buffelgrass seed crop was lost in far South Texas. Some cabbage, peas and other vegetable crops received heavy damage.

A lack of moisture in western and central areas is causing pastures and ranges to dry out quickly, Hutchison said. Grazing is becoming short in some locations and range fires are a threat.

District agricultural agents gave these reports:

Panhandle: Wheat planting ranges from 5 to 15 per cent complete. Some sorghum is being harvested for silage. Sunflower yields are lower than expected. Rain is needed.

South Plains: Wheat

planting is increasing in northern areas. Some early corn is being harvested. The cotton crop is about two weeks late. Range and cattle conditions are good.

Rolling Plains: Sorghum harvesting is complete in several counties. Yields have been good to excellent. The diapause control program to reduce the number of overwintering boll weevils has started. Some small grain planting is under way.

North Central: Cotton is opening and defoliation has started. The sorghum harvest is about complete. Rain is needed. Hay baling remains active. Aphids are causing some damage to pecans.

Northeast: Planting of small grains is active. Corn is maturing. Rain is needed for additional hay cuttings and to boost pastures and fall gardens.

Far West: Insect damage continues to increase in cotton. Sunflower yields are good. Alfalfa is producing a fifth cutting in the El Paso Valley. Calf marketings are increasing. Rain is needed.

West Central: The sorghum harvest is nearing completion. Some early cotton is opening but the crop looks bleak because of heavy insect damage. A few fields of small grains have been planted. Rain is needed and dry ranges are posing a fire hazard.

Central: Peanuts are

East: Sorghum harvesting is complete in some counties. The peanut harvest is 10 to 25 per cent complete. Yields from all crops have been generally good. Land preparation is under way for small grains.

Southeast and Upper Gulf Coast: The cotton harvest and completion of the first cutting of rice have been hampered by showers. The second rice crop is starting to head. Soybeans are making good progress. Livestock are in good shape. Southwest: Some early peanuts are being harvested. Fall vegetable crops are making good growth. Pasture and ranges need rain. Screwworms and ear ticks are a major problem in livestock. Five cases of anthrax have been confirmed.

South: Much hay and the guar crop in Willacy County were lost because of heavy rains from Hurricane Caroline. The Buffelgrass seed crop was reduced by 85 per cent. The rains also brought on a heavy mosquito infestation.

Alice Cooper, Fans Pick Up

NEW YORK (AP) — In conjunction with the New York Department of Parks' Volunteers in the Parks Program, 300 "Cooper Troopers" — neighborhood youth organization volunteers — staged a thorough cleanup of Riverside Park one day in August.

Alice Cooper himself appeared, in a chauffeur-driven sanitation truck. After heaving filled garbage bags into the truck, Cooper said, "I think it would be a good idea for rock performers all over the world to take a few hours out of their schedule to involve themselves in community service-oriented programs."

Sun visors, arm bands, plastic collection bags, rakes, shovels and brooms were provided by Atlantic Records and Cooper's Alive Enterprises.

'Dead' Man Hooks Computer, Sounds

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — Ned Lagin, an associate of the Grateful Dead, has produced an LP which he says is the first using a hookup to a computer.

"Seastones" the record released by Round Records here, Lagin says, "features music from a new electronic keyboard instrument centered around a 7-16 minicomputer with a high speed arithmetic logic unit from Interdata of Oceanport, N.J." The composition was written by Lagin, 27, a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who is resident synthesizer-key-boardist for the Dead.

Grateful Dead Productions paid for the system's development. Also appearing on the LP are Phil Lesh, Jerry Garcia, David Crosby, Grace Slick, David Freiberg, Mickey Hart and Spencer Dryden.

Trekkies Get Show

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Okay, Trekkies, the relief crew for the Enterprise is checking in, but they're on Moonbase Alpha now and you'll have to study the TV listings to learn if you'll see them in your area.

For civilians, this means a new British-made science fiction series called "Space: 1999" is afoot. Its makers hope it'll capture the rapture viewers have shown for the old "Star Trek" series.

Judging from a look at the first episode of "Space: 1999" is afoot. Its makers long series may be a winner, if only for its outstanding outer-space special effects. They are fantastic.

The show stars "Mission Impossible" veterans Martin Landau and Barbara Bain as the commander and chief medical officer, respectively, of an internationally manned space station on the moon.

Barry Morse, best known as the detective who chased the fugitive on "The Fugitive," also is a regular, playing a scientist who helps run the moon base and supply grim looks. The cause of griminess in the opening show is a mysterious sickness causing horrible deaths to anyone working near or flying over a section of Moonbase Alpha's nuclear waste system.

No, it isn't radiation sickness. We won't reveal what it is, but it is jeopardizing a planned rocket launch from the moon, or what Landau modestly calls "the spaceflight of the century."

The nuclear waste has been shipped up from planet earth — let's hear a big boo, now, for the earth — and you know that sooner or later it's going to blow and cause no end of trouble.

Woe time starts when one waste disposal area, unused since 1964 and presumed dormant, shows a dramatic rise in heat levels.

"It's incomprehensible," Landau says. "Heat without atomic energy."

Bonds Issue

RICHARDSON, Tex. (AP) — Voters will be asked to approve $18 million in school bonds Oct. 14.

Deputy School Supt. Raymon Bynum said approval of the bond proposal would not require a tax increase.

He said the bonds would be used to build two new elementary schools, a new junior high school, and add new structures to four existing elementary schools, three junior highs plus an auditorium for Berkner High School.

Flight Stops

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Aeronautics Commission gave Metroflight Inc. temporary authority today to make intermediate stops at Lake Jackson and Clear Lake City to avoid airport congestion and to save fuel.

The order which would be effective until Dec. 31, 1976, if it becomes final, would authorize an intermediate stop at Lake Jackson on some flights from Victoria to Houston Intercontinental and at Clear Lake City between Galveston and Houston Intercontinental.

However, Metroflight would be required to make at least two nonstop flights daily between Victoria and Houston Intercontinental and Galveston-Houston Intercontinental.

Fear Of No. 13 Finally Fading

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — There was a time when builders skipped from the 12th to the 14th floor, pretending that one floor just wasn't there. The conventional wisdom was that people wouldn't stay on a 13th floor.

Now many are designating their 13th floors as such, apparently believing that triskaidekaphobia, the fear of the number 13, is fading.

In the two years that the Crown Center Hotel here, which has a designated 13th floor, has been open there have been no complaints. The management recently conducted a survey of guests who stayed on the 13th floor and couldn't find one frightened by that number.

There were three questions asked of the guests: Do you consider yourself superstitious? Do you think the number 13 is unlucky? Did anything occur during your stay that you attribute to having a room on the 13th floor?

Eight guests admitted they were superstitious. Two gave "maybe" answers to the second question. Only two answered "yes" to the third question. All other responses were negative.

"This is the first trip I've been on that my luggage ended up somewhere else," explained one guest who felt the number 13 had done him in. "My bag was 23 hours late in catching up with me. For no apparent reason it ended up in Moline, Ill. How's that grab you for coincidence?"

"If you believe in Christ as your savior, you don't have to be superstitious," was the advice from a guest in Room 1321.

"Too bad you cannot ask me later," a guest with an interest in numbers wrote on his questionnaire. "We're on our way to Las Vegas."

Can't Buy Insurance

HOUSTON (AP) — State Rep. Joe Allen of Baytown says citizens in his district are finding it increasingly difficult to get automobile insurance.

Allen testified Thursday at a public hearing before the competitive rate subcommittee of the House Committee on Insurance. Allen said he gets complaints from citizens who are turned down for car insurance or have their existing policies cancelled.

"When there is already a bad problem with drivers not purchasing insurance, it is pathetic that honest hard-working citizens are unable to buy auto insurance when they want it," Allen said.

"More and more often, we have instances of the uninsured motorist causing an accident, and then the insured motorist who was involved—but not at fault—gets his insurance cancelled," Allen said.

Subcommittee chairman Rept. Ben Bynum of Amarillo said 23 per cent of Texas drivers have no liability insurance.

The subcommittee is gathering information from the public, insurance agents and companies for possible legislation next session aimed at providing better insurance service in the state.

Don't Indulge In Sexual Teasing

LONDON (AP) — American actress Shirley MacLaine, who recently visited mainland China, says the Chinese don't indulge in the sexual teasing, flirting or seduction she said that is common in the West.

"In China, if a girl is looking for a husband, the first thing she finds out is his political ideology," she said.

"We are too occupied in asking 'How many times a week do you make love?' They laugh in China at our preoccupation with sex."
