CEREMONIES FOR HIROHITO — President Ford and Japanese Emperor Hirohito participate in ceremonies in honor of Hirohito Thursday on the White House grounds. Hirohito is the first Japanese emperor to visit the United States.

Emperor, Ford Pledge Concord

WASHINGTON (AP) — Japan's Emperor Hirohito formally opened a two-week state visit today by praising the complete reversal in Japanese-American relations following the "tragic interlude" of World War II.

The emperor was greeted by President and Mrs. Ford at a colorful ceremonial welcome on the south lawn of the White House under a clear, threatening overcast sky.

Full military honors were rendered during the ceremony, which signaled a new level of harmony between the two Pacific allies.

"Our peoples withstood the challenges of one tragic interlude, when the Pacific Ocean, symbol of tranquility, was instead a rough and stormy sea, and have built today unchanging ties of friendship and good will," the emperor declared.

In a strong and steady voice, the 74-year-old monarch said, "I feel immeasurably gratified by this happy development, and look forward with great anticipation to the future of our relationship."

In his welcoming remarks, Ford made no reference to World War II. He said, "At a time when the benefits of cooperation are mutually acclaimed, Your Majesty's visit symbolizes and strengthens the ties between our two peoples."

Ford said the restoration of peace and friendship between the two countries fulfills a goal they had made for themselves a century ago.

The red-carpeted speaker's stand was ringed by about 2,000 onlookers restrained by a rope barrier.

The ceremony opened as the President and Mrs. Ford emerged from the White House to greet the emperor's limousine, which was accompanied by three security agents running alongside. The two chiefs of state shook hands and seemed pleased to see each other.

Mrs. Ford presented a bouquet of roses to the emperor's wife, Empress Nagako.

The imperial couple arrived here after a two-day private rest stop in Williamsburg, Va. They will visit five other major American cities and several minor ones in a two-week tour that concludes in Hawaii.

The world's longest reigning monarch, the emperor has long wished to visit the United States. But recurring bilateral political problems have thwarted that ambition until now. He is the first emperor in an imperial line dating back 14 centuries to set foot on the American mainland.

The emperor and the President were warmly applauded as they stepped onto the platform, stationed on the White House lawn about 60 feet from the presidential residence. The two leaders were dressed in blue suits.

After the playing of the two countries' national anthems, the emperor and the President reviewed Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine and Coast Guard units. A Marine drum and bugle corps played military music.

Candidate Protection Boo Premier Politically Helpful For Sparing Terrorists

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic presidential campaigners are gaining valuable political fringe benefits along with their new Secret Service protection "although the agency says its men won't participate in the politics of the candidates."

Campaign aides say the Secret Service can't avoid helping a candidate when it sets out to guard him.

Agents are deploying to guard four candidates now or in the near future, with more to be covered later.

In the process, the government will help finance the candidates' campaign travels and take over much of the advance work that is essential to a presidential candidate.

The Secret Service has issued an eight-page, red, white and blue booklet describing what it will and won't do as it seeks "to insure a safe environment for your candidate."

Stringent campaign spending limits have curtailed the use of chartered airplanes by the candidates this year, but with the Secret Service aboard, that may change.

For example, Rep. Morris K. Udall may switch from small planes to a faster, more comfortable, 20-seat turboprop when he uses chartered flights. Secret Service agents are expected to occupy up to 12 seats.

Carrillos Guilty Of Tax Counts

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — A federal court jury today found suspended District Court Judge O.P. Carrillo and Duval County Commissioner Ramiro Carrillo guilty of conspiring to file false income tax returns and of filing false tax returns.

The sequestered jury of seven women and five men announced they had reached a verdict shortly before 11 a.m. At 11:15 a.m., U.S. District Judge Owen D. Cox read guilty verdicts for each of the Carrillo brothers on the conspiracy charge and read five guilty verdicts against Commissioner Carrillo for filing false tax returns and read three guilty verdicts against the suspended judge for filing false returns.

Judge Carrillo, who faces an immediate impeachment trial in the Texas Senate, could receive a maximum of 14 years in prison and a maximum fine of $25,000. Commissioner Carrillo faces up to 20 years in prison and a fine of up to $35,000.

Judge Cox allowed them to remain free under bond and set Nov. 17 as sentencing date.

The federal courtroom was hushed as the verdicts were read.

Judge Carrillo managed his ever present smile as he walked through the courthouse lobby on his way out.

The jurors, who were sequestered 23 days, began deliberations Wednesday morning.

Still smiling, Judge Carrillo went immediately to the federal probation office to complete forms required for a presentencing investigation.

Defense lawyer Arthur Mitchell of Austin, who will also defend Carrillo in next week's impeachment proceedings, said he will appeal the verdict.

Asked if the outcome of this trial will influence the impeachment proceedings, Mitchell said, "Hopefully, it won't, but it may."

The jurors, who have now been sequestered for 23 days, started deliberations at 10:50 a.m. after listening for 53 minutes as Judge Cox read a 42-page charge.

During the trial, they listened to 15 days of testimony from 34 witnesses and examined hundreds of financial documents.

A large crowd of friends, relatives and political supporters gathered around the Carrillos and their lawyers Wednesday to await the verdict.

SECRET SERVICE PROBE Senator Says No Error Involved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the Senate panel investigating the Secret Service says the agency's decision that Sara Jane Moore was not a threat to President Ford resulted from an error of human judgment.

But the Secret Service agents responsible for the decision, Gary Yauger and Martin Haskell, say they would make the same decision again.

Sen. Joseph M. Montoya, D-N.M., told the agency they did "a good, thorough job," in their handling of Ford's visit to San Francisco last week. But, closing two days of hearings on the agency's performance, he said Wednesday, "What did happen proved to be erroneous human judgment."

The two agents and the San Francisco police officer who coordinated security when Ford visited the city Sept. 22 insisted the agents made the right decision in not placing Mrs. Moore in custody or under surveillance after interviewing her the night of Sept. 21.

On the next afternoon, she fired a pistol shot as Ford walked out of the St. Francis Hotel. She was charged with attempting to assassinate the President.

Yauger revealed as the hearing ended that by coincidence he was within 15 feet of Mrs. Moore when she fired the shot, but he said he did not see her until the gun went off.

If Yauger and Haskell had decided that Mrs. Moore should be placed under surveillance or that they had grounds to arrest her, she presumably would not have been in the crowd outside the hotel.

But Yauger told the Senate subcommittee on Treasury, Postal Service and general government appropriations, "I was convinced she was not of protective interest to the President."

Lt. James A. Ryan of the San Francisco Police Department agreed, telling the panel, "I would have probably, no, erase that, absolutely made the same judgment."

Mrs. Moore had worked as an informant for the FBI, the local police and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms.

Patty Accused In Bank Murder

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Patricia Hearst has been identified as the woman who rented a garage for a getaway car used by bank robbers who killed a woman customer during a holdup, the San Francisco Chronicle reported today.

The newspaper report came after federal prosecutors revealed that the newspaper heiress and two Symbionese Liberation Army comrades may be charged with new, more serious charges related to events after Miss Hearst joined her kidnappers.

Asked Wednesday if there was a possibility that Miss Hearst would be charged with murder, the U.S. attorney from Sacramento, Dwayne Keyes replied, "It's under investigation. If they find sufficient evidence, yes. If they don't, no."

At least three murders — and possibly a fourth — are known to be under investigation in the Hearst-SLA case. They include the shotgun slaying of a woman customer during the April 21 robbery of a Crocker National Bank branch in Carmichael, a Sacramento suburb.

The Chronicle said it had learned from federal investigators that Miss Hearst's only known role in the Carmichael robbery was renting the garage.

The Chronicle also said it had learned that a "bait bill" from the Carmichael bank was found in a refrigerator where Miss Hearst and another fugitive, Wendy Yoshimura, were arrested Sept. 18. The serial number of the bill had been recorded by the bank before the robbery.

The Carmichael bank robbers — three men and a woman, witnesses reported — wore ski masks, and one wore a green scarf.

An inventory of items seized by the FBI from the apartments where Miss Hearst and William and Emily Harris lived showed that a ski mask was found in the Harris hideout and a green scarf in the apartment occupied by Miss Hearst and Miss Yoshimura.

"There is a very definite possibility of federal and state charges," U.S. Atty. James L. Browning Jr. told newsmen after a meeting Wednesday of prosecutors involved in the case.

Browning declined to specify what the charges might be, but he confirmed that prosecutors were still investigating possible SLA links to the slaying last spring of prison reformer Popeye Jackson.

Authorities in Los Angeles said a gun seized after the Sept. 18 arrests of Miss Hearst and the Harrises was test-fired last Friday to determine whether it was used in the execution-style killing of a Los Angeles policeman last year.

HOT, DRY WEATHER KEY TO BUMPER COTTON CROP

Howard County cotton farmers will make a crop this year but "maybe not the bumper crop that we looked for," Bruce Griffith, county extension agent, said.

"The drier and warmer it'll get, the better it'll be," Griffith said. Early frost might severely damage cotton, but cotton is so lush it will not die until a hard freeze has hit.

Also, late cotton needs more time to mature, Griffith said. Wet weather, flea hoppers and boll worms helped delay early cotton maturation.

Quality will be lower than normal, Griffith said, noting among other things verticillium wilt in spots. A "fair" quantity will be produced, and the market appears to be good.

With the high price of oil, from which synthetics are created, cotton will be in a better competitive position, Griffith observed.

The little grain sorghum planted will be cut when fields dry some, Griffith said. Sunflowers, still an experimental crop in the area, "show some promise, which depends on the market."

For cattlemen, wet weather has kept broom weed from maturing. The weed has "shaded out" grass, Griffith said.

Few acres were devoted to hay and Griffith forecast a shortage of feed should the area see a hard winter.

Screwworm infestation was light. Only two cases have been reported in the county.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's latest figures on prices and unemployment are unlikely to reveal any major changes in the continuing problems of joblessness and inflation. The Labor Department will release its wholesale price index for September today. Its September report on unemployment is due Friday. Even if there is a chance for the better in one or both of the indexes, the general conditions of serious inflation and unemployment do not appear likely to fade away quickly.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — President Idi Amin, Uganda's burly, flamboyant military dictator, made his debut in the United Nations with a call for the extinction of Israel and advice to American blacks to close ranks against "perpetual subjugation." The African leader told the U.N. General Assembly Wednesday that "black Americans themselves are to blame in a way" for the lack of Negroes in high policy-making posts and state governorships and that they should end the "reported divisions in their own communities." Wearing the uniform of a field marshal with medals solidly ranked from shoulder to waist, Amin was applauded frequently by delegates and a capacity crowd of spectators.

LONDON (AP) — Three gunmen trapped in the basement storeroom of a London restaurant for four days and the six Italians they are holding hostage are getting friendly, Scotland Yard said today.

"There appears to be very much less tension between them now," London's police commissioner, Sir Robert Mark, told newsmen outside the Spaghetti House. "Events are following the classic tradition of a criminal kidnapping."

Clear Ground For Nuclear Power Plant

HOUSTON (AP) — Site preparation work is under way near Bay City for a nuclear power plant.

The work began after a safety review board gave conditional approval for construction of the plant by Houston Lighting & Power Co., Central Power & Light Co. of Corpus Christi, and the cities of Austin and San Antonio.

The Advisory Committee on Reactor Safeguards advised the Nuclear Regulatory Commission the plant can be built with "reasonable assurance" it will create no undue risk to public health and safety.

A public hearing on health and safety aspects of the project will be held later this year.

The advisory committee's report called for further evaluation of the plant's emergency core cooling system. The report said the project will be the first to use a new Westinghouse nuclear reactor producing about 1,250 megawatts of electrical power.

The committee said Westinghouse must satisfy the commission on the safety of all features, including the core cooling system.

Tourists Buy More Useful Souvenirs

STANTON, Mo. (AP) — Tourists today are more interested than ever before in buying souvenirs which have a utilitarian value as well as a sentimental value, according to Lester B. Dill, owner of Meramec Caverns here, who is marking his 50th year in the cave business.

They are buying more ash trays, food trays and bookends," points out Dill, "because they are things they can always use in their homes. It saves them from buying them, thus they are killing two birds with one souvenir."

Lack Of Competition Mellows TV In Mexico

By JAY SHARBUTT
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Televisa, Mexico's four-network commercial TV company, is a unique operation by U.S. standards. For one thing, only one cop and robbers show is allowed each night on any network.

For another, none of the Mexico City-based company's channels are programmed to compete against each other, says Miguel Aleman Jr., Televisa's executive vice-president.

Instead, he says, they try to complement each other with "horizontal" programming, letting viewers see on one channel what they might have missed on another channel the same night.

For example, a Mexican cultural program might be on one channel in the same hour a variety show is on another. But the cultural show would appear later that night on the second channel.

It's a far cry from the years before 1973, when Televisa was created through a merger of two companies — Telesistema Mexico, operating channels two, four and five, and Independent Mexican Television, operating channel eight.

"When we had the competition, the tone of the programs was going down, becoming vulgar and cheap," says Aleman, in town last week for an industry salute to Televisa executives.

"We were killing each other, fighting for ratings and not giving a damn about the public," added Fernando Azcarraga, Televisa's operations director, the man in charge of all its programming.

They said the two companies grew so concerned about the video blight they formed Televisa, which Aleman calls a "permitted

(by the government) monopoly" to do something about the situation.

In this arrangement, Televisa operates, but doesn't own, the four networks — two of which are national networks and two are regional networks serving Mexico City and the Valley of Mexico, respectively.

Their only competition comes from two government-run channels.

Televisa pays no government license fees. Instead, it gives 12½ per cent of its daily air time to the government, Aleman says. It buys or produces programs for each Televisa channel.

Aleman, who estimates there are TV sets in at least 4.5 million homes in Mexico (compared with 69.6 million TV-equipped homes in the United States), says Televisa's creation has greatly helped the tone of Mexican TV by ending its dog-eat-dog competition for viewers.

He says that by this he means the fact that it allowed "horizontal" programming let the company put far more cultural and educational programming on commercial TV than was possible in past years.

Suit Filed To Open Justice Dept. File

WASHINGTON (AP) — National Public Radio has asked a federal court to order the Justice Department to turn over its documents relating to the death of Karen Silkwood, an Oklahoma plutonium worker.

Miss Silkwood was killed in an auto accident while on her way to meet with a New York Times reporter and an official of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union.

Miss Silkwood, an employee of the Kerr-McGee Nuclear Corp. facility at Crescent, Okla., had promised to deliver documents at that meeting substantiating her charges about health and safety violations at the facility.

The plant produces experimental plutonium under a government contract. The fuel is to be used in the liquid metal fast breeder reactor program.

Miss Silkwood, an East Texas native, had alleged that Kerr-McGee was producing faulty plutonium fuel and that supervisory personnel were falsifying quality control records.

National Public Radio says a fellow worker of Miss

Silkwood had sworn in an affidavit that Miss Silkwood was carrying a folder before she died which she said contained the necessary evidence. No folder was recovered from the wreck.

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol classified the incident as an accident but an independent investigator hired by the union concluded there was evidence that Miss Silkwood's car had been forced off the road.

National Public Radio general counsel Ernest T. Sanchez said Monday "dozens of rumors, many of them no doubt incorrect, surround every aspect of the Silkwood death and the Justice Department insistence on secrecy has only made the situation worse."

"If the Justice Department has determined that the death of Karen Silkwood involved no violation of federal law, the public is entitled to know exactly how that determination was made," he said.

The suit was brought under the Freedom of Information Act.

National Public Radio describes itself as a interconnected system of more than 180 noncommercial public radio stations.

Ammonia Leak Evacuates Area

KLEMMIE, Iowa (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. John Hrubes were back home Tuesday night after being evacuated Monday because of ammonia fumes that covered a five-mile area here.

The Hrubes and several other families were asked to leave their homes after a rotary tiling machine severed an underground pipeline owned by Mapco, Inc., Tulsa, Okla.

Maintenance crews from nearby Sanborn and Lincoln, Neb., installed a shutoff valve south of the leak early Tuesday after fire fighters worked overnight spraying water on the break.

The ruptured six-inch pipeline from Borger, Tex., is used to transport anhydrous ammonia fertilizer to a terminal two miles east of Garner.

CEREMONIES FOR HIROHITO — President Ford and Japanese Emperor Hirohito participate in ceremonies in honor of Hirohito Thursday on the White House grounds. Hirohito is the first Japanese emperor to visit the United States.

Emperor, Ford Pledge Concord

WASHINGTON (AP) — Japan's Emperor Hirohito formally opened a two-week state visit today by praising "the complete reversal in Japanese-American relations following the 'tragic interlude' of World War II.

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Irate policemen at the funeral of three colleagues slain by terrorists booed Spanish Premier Carlos Arias Navarro today and demanded his resignation.

"We demand justice and not clemency," they shouted, apparently referring to the action of Gen. Francisco Franco last week in sparing the lives of six convicted terrorists, including two women.

"This is the price we are paying for allowing foreign tourists into the country," others cried. A number of foreign tourists were manhandled in Madrid Wednesday during a mass rally honoring the 39th anniversary of Franco's rise to power.

Extreme right-wing youths beat up one photographer, a Spaniard working for a foreign agency, and told him the foreign press was responsible for Spain's present wave of terrorism.

Carrillos Guilty Of Tax Counts

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — A federal court jury today found suspended District Court Judge O.P. Carrillo and Duval County Commissioner Ramiro Carrillo guilty of conspiring to file false income tax returns and of filing false tax returns.

The sequestered jury of seven women and five men announced they had reached a verdict shortly before 11 a.m. At 11:15 a.m., U.S. District Court Judge Owen D. Cox read guilty verdicts for each of the Carrillo brothers on the conspiracy charge and read five guilty verdicts against Commissioner Carrillo for filing false tax returns and read three guilty verdicts against the suspended judge for filing false returns.

Judge Carrillo, who faces an immediate impeachment trial in the Texas Senate, could receive a maximum of 14 years in prison and a maximum fine of $25,000. Commissioner Carrillo faces up to 20 years in prison and a fine of up to $35,000.

Judge Cox allowed them to remain free under bond and set Nov. 17 as sentencing date.

The federal courtroom was hushed as the verdicts were read.

Judge Carrillo managed his ever present smile as he walked through the courthouse lobby on his way out.

The jurors, who were sequestered 23 days, began deliberations Wednesday morning. Still smiling, Judge Carrillo went immediately to the federal probation office to complete forms required for a presentencing investigation.

Defense lawyer Arthur Mitchell of Austin, who will also defend Carrillo in next week's impeachment proceedings, said he will appeal the verdict.

Asked if the outcome of this trial will influence the impeachment proceedings, Mitchell said, "Hopefully, it won't, but it may."

The jurors, who have now been sequestered for 23 days, started deliberations at 10:50 a.m. after listening for 53 minutes as Judge Cox read a 42-page charge.

During the trial, they listened to 15 days of testimony from 34 witnesses and examined hundreds of financial documents.

A large crowd of friends, relatives and political supporters gathered around the Carrillos and their lawyers Wednesday to await the verdict.

SECRET SERVICE PROBE Senator Says No Error Involved

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of the Senate panel investigating the Secret Service says the agency's decision that Sara Jane Moore was not a threat to President Ford resulted from an error of human judgment.

But the Secret Service agents responsible for the decision, Gary Yaeger and Martin Haskell, say they would make the same decision again.

Sen. Joseph M. Montoya, D-N.M., told the agents they did "a good, thorough job," in their handling of Ford's visit to San Francisco last week. But, closing two days of hearings on the agency's performance, he said Wednesday, "What did happen proved to be erroneous human judgment."

The two agents and the San Francisco police officer who coordinated security when Ford visited the city Sept. 22 insisted the agents made the right decision in not placing Mrs. Moore in custody or under surveillance after interviewing her the night of Sept. 21.

On the next afternoon, she fired a pistol shot as Ford walked out of the St. Francis Hotel. She was charged with attempting to assassinate the President.

Yaeger revealed as the hearing ended that by coincidence he was within 15 feet of Mrs. Moore when she fired the shot, but he said he did not see her until the gun went off.

If Yaeger and Haskell had decided that Mrs. Moore should be placed under surveillance or that they had grounds to arrest her, she presumably would not have been in the crowd outside the hotel.

But Yaeger told the Senate subcommittee on Treasury, Postal Service and general government appropriations, "I was convinced she was not of protective interest to the President."

Lt. James A. Ryan of the San Francisco Police Department agreed, telling the panel, "I would have probably, no, erase that, absolutely made the same judgment."

Mrs. Moore had worked as an informant for the FBI, the local police and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms.

BIG SPRING, TEXAS (79730) THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1975

Patty Accused In Bank Murder

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Patricia Hearst has been identified as the woman who rented a garage for a getaway car used by bank robbers who killed a woman customer during a holdup, the San Francisco Chronicle reported today.

The newspaper report came after federal prosecutors revealed that the newspaper heiress and two Symbionese Liberation Army comrades may be charged with new, more serious charges related to events after Miss Hearst joined her kidnapers.

Asked Wednesday if there was a possibility that Miss Hearst would be charged with murder, the U.S. attorney from Sacramento, Dwayne Keyes replied, "It's under investigation. If they find sufficient evidence, yes. If they don't, no."

At least three murders — and possibly a fourth — are known to be under investigation in the Hearst-SLA case. They include the shotgun slaying of a woman customer during the April 21 robbery of a Crocker National Bank branch in Carmichael, a Sacramento suburb.

The Chronicle said it had learned from federal investigators that Miss Hearst's only known role in the Carmichael robbery was renting the garage.

The Chronicle also said it had learned that a "bait bill" from the Carmichael bank was found in a refrigerator where Miss Hearst and another fugitive, Wendy Yoshimura, were arrested Sept. 18. The serial number of the bill had been recorded by the bank before the robbery.

The Carmichael bank robbers — three men and a woman, witnesses reported — wore ski masks, and one wore a green scarf.

An inventory of items seized by the FBI from the apartments where Miss Hearst and William and Emily Harris lived showed that a ski mask was found in the Harris hideout and a green scarf in the apartment occupied by Miss Hearst and Miss Yoshimura.

"There is a very definite possibility of federal and state charges," U.S. Atty. James L. Browning Jr. told newsmen after a meeting Wednesday of prosecutors involved in the case.

Browning declined to specify what the charges might be, but he confirmed that prosecutors were still investigating possible SLA links to the slaying last spring of prison reformer Popeye Jackson.

Authorities in Los Angeles said a gun seized after the Sept. 18 arrests of Miss Hearst and the Harrises was test-fired last Friday to determine whether it was used in the execution-style killing of a Los Angeles policeman last year.

HOT, DRY WEATHER KEY TO BUMPER COTTON CROP

Howard County cotton farmers will make a crop this year but "maybe not the bumper crop that we looked for," Bruce Griffith, county extension agent, said.

"The drier and warmer it'll get, the better it'll be," Griffith said. Early frost might severely damage cotton, but cotton is so lush it will not die until a hard freeze has hit.

Also, late cotton needs more time to mature, Griffith said. Wet weather, flea hoppers and boll worms helped delay early cotton maturation.

Quality will be lower than normal, Griffith said, noting among other things verticillium wilt in spots. A "fair" quantity will be produced, and the market appears to be good.

With the high price of oil, from which synthetics are created, cotton will be in a better competitive position, Griffith observed.

The little grain sorghum planted will be cut when fields dry some, Griffith said. Sunflowers, still an experimental crop in the area, "show some promise, which depends on the market."

For cattlemen, wet weather has kept broom weed from maturing. The weed has "shaded out" grass, Griffith said.

Few acres were devoted to hay and Griffith forecast a shortage of feed should the area see a hard winter.

Screwworm infestation was light. Only two cases have been reported in the county.

LEFT HANGING — Truck dangles over the Illinois River after crashing through warning gate on lift-bridge near Oglesby, Ill. The counterweight on the bridge pinned the truck and prevented it from going into the river. The driver, Bradley Nicholson, 20, of Tonica, Ill., jumped from the truck moments before the crash.

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's latest figures on prices and unemployment are unlikely to reveal any major changes in the continuing problems of joblessness and inflation. The Labor Department will release its wholesale price index for September today. Its September report on unemployment is due Friday. Even if there is a chance for the better in one or both of the indexes, the general conditions of serious inflation and unemployment do not appear likely to fade away quickly.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — President Idi Amin, Uganda's burly, flamboyant military dictator, made his debut in the United Nations with a call for the extinction of Israel and advice to American blacks to close ranks against "perpetual subjugation." The African leader told the U.N. General Assembly Wednesday that "black Americans themselves are to blame in a way" for the lack of Negroes in high policy-making posts and state governorships and that they should end the "reported divisions in their own communities." Wearing the uniform of a field marshal with medals solidly ranked from shoulder to waist, Amin was applauded frequently by delegates and a capacity crowd of spectators.

LONDON (AP) — Three gunmen trapped in the basement storeroom of a London restaurant for four days and the six Italians they are holding hostage are getting friendly, Scotland Yard said today. "There appears to be very much less tension between them now," London's police commissioner, Sir Robert Mark, told newsmen outside the Spaghetti House. "Events are following the classic tradition of a criminal kidnapping."

ECONOMIC PICTURE BRIGHT IN BIG SPRING

Economic indicators for the City of Big Spring show that business is looking good.

Along with a rise in industrial activity, bank deposits totaled $85,090,647 for August, and $86,662,690 for July, up from $80,829,256 last year's total for August. Savings & Loan Assets totaled $56,745,558 and $56,203,660 for August and July of this year, respectively, while last year's August figure was $52,241,569.

The number of electric meters in the city for August '75, July '75 and August '74 were 9,951, 9,934, and 9,878; gas meters, 9,019 and 9,038, with figures unavailable for August '74; water meters, 9,057, 9,055 and 8,978; telephones, 23,464, 23,347 and 22,847; school enrollment was 6,395 for August '75 with figures unavailable for July '75 and 6,532 for August '74.

A Curse That Won't Go Away

The incidence of vandalism may never become an epidemic but it is like a thorn in the side of society. It festers and it becomes painful, even to those not directly effected.

Everyone knows it can happen to him, more likely than not when his attentions are directed elsewhere. When one householder or one merchant may be hit by vandals, the whole community suffers.

Most vandalism is so senseless — it can be a slashed tire, a broken window in a school building, an egg thrown against the side of the house. And for what purpose? What satisfaction does a destructive person reap? Often he vents his anger on someone he never saw and, if caught, can never quite explain his act.

Such acts do not always originate with the outcasts of society. Some of the best homes are presented among individuals brought to justice. More often than not, when asked to answer for their sins, they will reply, "for kicks."

I suppose one gets a real charge out of revisiting a monument he has desecrated, pausing to swell with pride and telling himself, "I did that. Now the world knows true genius."

How do you cope with vandals? It's not easy, perhaps because society is too easy on them. Better lighting helps, though the miscreants have been known to shatter lights. More frequent patrolling by police patrols is suggested, but vandals have a way of looking innocent and disinterested until the threat of arrest passes on.

It's always advisable to park cars for the night off the street, preferably in a garage. Don't let your guard down at home, either. Some of the worst atrocities are committed against houses and landscapes.

Would a reward system help in such instances? Americans who tattle on their neighbors or individuals they don't even know are sometimes branded, perhaps, when they should be applauded. Any method used to help wipe out an abomination and a scourge should be welcomed as a proper antidote. There is no honor among individuals who are doing dishonorable things. Promise of a reward might be just the thing needed to trigger some action among those tempted to tell, anyway.

Bigger Than Yule Rush

Watch out, Postal Service. What's coming up in October may be bigger than the Christmas rush.

Beginning today, the Postal Service will distribute to the public something called consumer service cards. All post offices and all letter carriers will have them. Once they're in the hands of the public, the fun begins.

The cards, you see, are to be used for customer complaints, suggestions and queries. Self-duplicating, the original cards will be sent to the Office of Consumer Affairs in Washington by mail; the carbon will go to the local postmaster. He will fill out the back of his copy, telling the Washington office what action he's taken in that particular complaint or question or what have you. Then he forwards it on to Washington, too.

Given the repute with which the Postal Service is held these days, that should keep the mailbags heavy between Everywhere, U. S. A. and the consumer affairs people in Washington. The volume could cause a breakdown, and generate complaints on its own hook.

But at least the public will have an easy way to get their complaints down on paper and off to Washington. Whether it generates anything more than a blizzard of paper, it still should have therapeutic value — if postmasters' constitutions can take the brickbats coming their way.

Please Don't Laugh

Around The Rim

Marj Carpenter

Did you ever laugh when you knew you shouldn't be laughing, but just couldn't help it? Like one time when in a church choir, we all sat fascinated watching a big black beetle walk around the preacher's foot. But when it went up his pants leg and the preacher began to do this little one-step kick behind the pulpit, we all were turning purple trying to keep from exploding with laughter.

WELL I got into one of those situations at Garden City last Friday night. They had one of the nicest Homecoming ceremonies I've seen and a great deal of work went into it. Nobody forgot to order roses, all of the mothers wore mums, the Dads wore shirts with matching numbers to their sons, and Coming Home Queens and football sweethearts were crowned.

Pam Schwartz did a better job than most adults acting as narrator for the event and got all of the names and all of the escorts names correct.

Everything was going along real good. The Loraine band was a little bit unhappy because it hadn't gotten to march yet and the time was running out. But the musicians had gotten to march before the game and were a real flashy little band for a small school.

Then came the crowning blow. People can get everything lined up in detail to the last digit, but one never knows what equipment will do.

The Garden City pep squad marched on to the field and got in position for a dance routine. Every girl had her hand on her hip and one foot out front and they were ready to go into a dance to the tune of Sweet Georgia Brown.

Pam slapped the tape in the machine and held the microphone to the tape player. The wrong tune came out. Horrified, she snatched it out and turned it over. On the other side there was nothing.

Last year Garden City had the state champion girl's track team. Most schools never win state in anything, but last year GC did. And one of those girls came out of that pep squad and ran up the high steps to the news press box before you could say, "the wrong song is playing," but she said it, "You're playing the wrong song."

That's when Julie Simmons, (society editor who went along with me to Garden City taking pictures) and I both got the giggles. We were trying hard not to laugh.

However, we figured that if there was one thing that poor Pam already knew, it was that the wrong song was playing. Back went one of the cutest sprinters I've ever seen running down the steps and back into place and again they waited for some action.

OVER AND OVER went the tape. The Loraine band went back to the bleachers and sat down. The boys started back on the field and somebody grabbed the microphone and said, "Due to technical difficulties, this routine will be seen at a later date."

Somebody had forgotten to rewind the tape. I have a feeling that it's a good dance routine and something for people to look forward to at a later date.

And to anybody who might have seen us laughing, I want you to know that we thoroughly enjoyed the whole evening. I hate equipment anyway. Washing machines always run over and commodes run on and on and televisions get out of focus and radios get full of static whenever I try to use any of them.

So hail to the humans that put together that nice ceremony and a big raspberry to all tape equipment and people who forget to rewind.

Tardy Honor

William F. Buckley, Jr.

The Boston Globe is positively shimmering with pleasure over the award given by President Ford to Professor Linus Pauling. The writers call their editorial "Tardy Honor", and they speak in it of the belated recognition by the President of Dr. Pauling's "contribution to society" which goes "further than his accomplishments in either chemistry or politics."

Why was the honor belated? BECAUSE DR. PAULING "was considered a dangerous radical — a Communist sympathizer, even — by such authorities as Sen. Joseph McCarthy, Herbert A. Philbrick, Louis Budenz and William Buckley."

My dear friends on the Boston Globe have never before referred to me so matter-of-factly as an "authority," and I really do appreciate it. But candor requires that I share the honor, however belatedly, with others.

In 1961, the Senate's Internal Security Subcommittee issued an extensive report on the activities of Linus Pauling. The report concluded: "Dr. Pauling has figured as the No. 1 scientific name in virtually every major activity of the Communist peace offensive in this country. He has participated in many international organizations and international conferences sponsored by the Communist peace offensive. In his statements and his attitudes, Dr. Pauling has displayed a consistent pro-Soviet bias." That report was accepted unanimously by: Senators James Eastland, Estes Kefauver, Olin Johnson, John McClellan, Sam Ervin, John Carroll, Thomas Dodd, Philip Hart, Edward Long, William Blakely, Alexander Wiley, Everett Dirksen, Roman Hruska, Kenneth Keating, Norris Cotton.

The editors of the Herald Tribune also should share in the honor. In an editorial in the 60's they said "The Linus Paulings of the world have...made themselves not only nuisances, but dangerous nuisances." Life Magazine's editors also deserve credit. When the Nobel Committee gave Pauling its peace prize, the editors denounced the choice as "A Weird Insult from Norway."

In New York alone, the Wall Street Journal, The World Telegram and Sun, the Daily Mirror, and the Daily News remarked similarly on the activities of Linus Pauling. And it wasn't just Americans who were authorities on Linus Pauling's activities. The Australian Consolidated Press during that period said about him that though no one doubted his scientific ability, in fact "he is the very model of the fellow traveler of the type who willingly adds respectability to Communist frauds." He signs Communist petitions, he speaks from Communist platforms, he has his speeches published by Communist presses. He has, however, never been heard to say one word of criticism...of Soviet terrorism or of the lack of freedom for Soviet scientists."

The Court of Appeals in New York upheld a jury verdict for the New York Daily News, sued by Linus Pauling for calling him a Communist sympathizer. Judge Friendly, in his opinion, said in effect that surveying the evidence a jury could reasonably conclude that Dr. Pauling was that: a Communist sympathizer.

WE AUTHORITIES on the subject were influenced by Pauling's organizational affiliations, of course, but also by other things. By his telegram to President Kennedy denouncing Kennedy's Cuba missile crisis ultimatum as "horrifying," "recklessly militaristic," "warlike." We noticed it when he said about President Truman, for deciding to proceed with nuclear testing as necessary, that Truman was "irrational, ignorant or unscrupulous, or any combination of each." And we noticed the telegram he sent to President Kennedy on March 3, 1962, denouncing him for resuming nuclear testing after the Soviets resumed theirs: "Are you to go down in history as one of the most immoral men of all times and one of the greatest enemies of the human race?" And Pauling's support of M. S. Aronov's publication which compared President Kennedy adversely to Hitler, and described Kennedy as a "bully who knows himself to be a bully."

"...A ten-foot pole...?"

Bigger Is Better?

John Cuniff

NEW YORK (AP) — For many years there has been debate about the efficiencies of bigness as they apply to business. Now there's a similar argument about cities.

Those who maintain bigness is good argue that as volume increases the per-unit cost decreases.

Advocates of smallness claim bigness is accompanied by a lessened sense of personal responsibility, a greater demand for ancillary services, and administrative problems almost impossible to overcome.

The argument cannot be reduced to those extremes, but in the case of the cities, and at least superficially, smallness seems to win.

expenditures were $1,223.68 in 1973, and most likely have risen substantially since then. But even that wasn't the highest figure; Washington came in with that, a total of $1,588.86.

"It appears there is no such thing as the 'large economy size' city," Brown says. Public welfare is the biggest expenditure of cities having a population in excess of 1 million. In 1973 they averaged $135.08 per capita. The figure for all cities was $25.86.

The nation's largest cities spent $127.52 per capita on education. For cities in the 500,000-999,999 category, the expenditure was half that. And for all municipalities it averaged only $45.83.

"Surprisingly, the figures show that smaller cities are the most economical with taxpayers' funds," says Bob Brown, executive director of the nonpartisan Tax Foundation.

Brown points to figures gathered from government and private sources that indicate cities under 50,000 population spent an average of $158.32 a year per person for municipal services in fiscal 1973.

The compilation showed spending rose in increments almost equal to increases in the size of cities. For cities in the 300,000-499,999 category, expenditures were $327.84. For cities of 1 million-plus, $681.14.

And then there is New York City. Its per capita

My Answer

Billy Graham

A friend of mine who claims to be a Christian constantly reminds me that she has money.

Her wealth appears more important than her faith. Am I right in judging her this way, and should I mention it? Puzzled the next time she does this tell her you want to read Jeremiah 9:23 for her benefit. It quotes God as saying: "Let not the wise man bask in his wisdom, nor the mighty man in his might, nor the rich man in his riches. Let them boast in this alone: that they truly know Me."

I'm sure you know that the Bible doesn't condemn riches. But it does criticize a love of money, and a preoccupation with it that upsets God's priority position.

Try to wait for a chance to discuss this with your friend. All too often, we simply discontinue friendship when something unpleasant develops. Said Bacon: "Those friends are weak and worthless that will not use the privilege of friendship in admonishing their friends with freedom and confidence — as well of their errors as of their danger."

The Bible in Proverbs 27:6 says, "Wounds from a friend are better than kisses from an enemy." So go ahead and discuss it — in love.

Kids Keep Distance

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Will you settle this one? Is it dangerous for a child to sit close to a television set for long periods of time, I mean to the eyes? I hear every now and then about radiation, and it concerns me. — Mrs. T. Y.

It's difficult to be specific about this. My rule of thumb is that a five-foot distance is prudent. I say this because there are many old TV sets still around and in use. These may or may not present radiation problems. It's just wise to take the minimum precautions. That applies to adults as well as to children, incidentally, and to new sets as well as old.

I know of no definitive studies made on the subject. I spend a lot of time chasing my grandchildren back from the tube when they visit us. You would be wise to do the same.

as long as I can remember I've had trouble digesting certain foods. At times I don't have any aftereffects. But I have awakened at night with steady pain in the center of the rib area. Very often food comes up as soon as I've eaten.

My doctor tells me I have a non-functioning gall bladder. He didn't seem disturbed or give any suggestions. — Mrs. D. F.

Pain and digestive disturbance are two classic symptoms of gall bladder trouble, with pain usually concentrated in the upper right or upper mid-abdomen. Intolerance of certain foods, often fatty foods, is common, but other foods can be involved, too. The abdominal pain often occurs at night, and usually following a heavy meal. Retching is common. Hiatal hernia can cause similar symptoms.

A non-functioning gall bladder implies a diseased organ — infection or stones or both. With your long history of indigestion, it appears that your gall bladder could be the cause. You can live nicely without that organ, which stores bile not needed for immediate digestion. The liver continues to produce and release bile into the intestinal tract without the gall bladder. You should inquire about possible surgery to have your gall bladder removed. This usually ends the problem. Meanwhile, avoid fatty foods, or other foods that give you trouble. You should also read my booklet, "You and Your Gall Bladder," which discusses degrees of seriousness and the timing of surgery. For a copy, send 25 cents to me in care of the Big Spring Herald, and enclose a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing.

EDITORIALS / OPINIONS

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir: On Sept. 26 on the Herald's editorial page, I read with interest your comments about Mr. George Meany not wanting a repeat of the 1972 grain sale to Russia.

The American farmers sure wouldn't want to be ripped off like that again, either. I don't think.

To refresh your memory the USDA made a secret deal and bought the grain real cheap from the farmers; about $1.70 per bushel. Then they manipulated the selling price of grain and paid the big grain exporting companies 245 million dollars in export subsidies that was supposed to go to Agriculture.

The Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. Palmby, was made a vice-president of Continental Grain Co. about two months before this big steal took place.

I don't believe that a long term commitment from Russia to purchase our grain would mean any more to Russia than a lot of other commitments they have made that they haven't kept. Russia doesn't honor its commitments very well.

Mr. Ford hasn't honored his commitments to the American farmers either.

Let's take a look at what Mr. Meany has wrought by supporting the boycott of the grain sales and loading of grain shipments. The first thing he wanted was (1) more grain hauled in American ships. American ships charge about $7 a ton more than foreign ships do. Either the cargo carries the freight or, as in the case of American shipping, they get a subsidy, too. Farmers will be ripped off by that extra charge of $7 a ton.

Farmers buy everything they buy retail and sell everything they sell wholesale and we pay the freight both ways.

Over the years I have seen many remarks in your paper about the subsidies to farmers but a closer look at the wages of people in agriculture would reveal that all the subsidies to agriculture were ever for was to just barely keep us in business so we could produce cheap food and fiber for the people of this country.

The grain boycott of shipments was and is a clear violation of their contract by IIA and was certainly none of Mr. Meany's business.

If he is so interested in keeping down inflation, I for one would like to see him remember inflation at wage contract time.

The price of labor has never gone any way but up, whether productivity has or not. The big increase in the cost of food is the cost of services, hauling, and distribution or in a word Labor.

If we are going to try to stabilize some prices, let's look at some of the things made by the union labor such as tractors, combines, strippers, cars, pickups, and just plain old nuts and bolts.

The price of farm products go up and down and I can't think of anything else off hand that does.

I don't know what all good old George had in mind but you can bet your bottom dollar that he sure isn't trying to help agriculture, or the American consumer either.

Sincerely, Clay Reid, Box 51, Coahoma, Texas

Edwards Joins Stanton Field Office Of SCS

STANTON — Monnie W. Edwards, Soil Conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service, has joined the staff of the Stanton Field Office of the SCS according to Kenneth W. Schrank, District Conservationist. Schrank said that Edwards will be providing technical assistance to land-users in the Mustang Soil and Water Conservation District.

Edwards is a 1969 graduate of Wheeler High School and a 1974 graduate of West Texas State University with a B. S. in Agriculture, major in Business and Economics.

He joined the SCS in September 1974 and received training as a Soil Conservationist at Cleburne, before being transferred to Stanton.

Edwards is a member of the Soil Conservation Society of America. He is married to the former Marilyn McDonald of Levelland. The Edwards are members of the Baptist Church.

production of explosives at the plant 15 miles east of Montreal was stopped until a panel of experts from the federal and provincial governments and the company determined the cause of the blast.

The explosion occurred in a building used for the manufacture of cap-sensitive slurries, "one of the new generation of explosives," a company spokesman said.

"It's not as sensitive as nitroglycerine," he added.

The dead were among 13 workers inside the building at the time of the blast. The other five were injured. The other two men hospitalized in St. Hyacinthe were working in other parts of the plant.

One official of the company estimated damage to the plant at close to $1 million. Police said estimates for buildings damaged outside the plant area will not be ready for some time.

Rejects Challenge Shootout Of Navy Plane Pick

WASHINGTON (AP) — The General Accounting Office has rejected a challenge filed by LTV Aerospace Corp. of Dallas which lost in the competition to build a new Navy fighter plane.

GAO's answer to the challenge was revealed here Wednesday.

LTV had charged that the Navy selection of the F18 violated a congressional mandate that the Navy air combat fighter be derived from the design of a plane

Two Grinding Auto Wrecks

Two major accidents occurred in Big Spring Wednesday. One, a three car pileup, the other, a case of misread traffic signals triggered a wreck.

At 12:11 p.m. Mabel B. Kountz, 202 Washington Blvd., and Stephen E. Gay, 1409 E. 15th, collided at the corner of E. 15th and Goliad.

John G. Allen III, 805 Dallas, his attention diverted, collided with Mendoza's vehicle.

In another accident at 8:28 a.m., Santos A. Mendoza, 901 Gregg, and Joann M. Holten, 2505 Larry, were at the light on the corner of 10th and Goliad.

John G. Allen III, 805 Dallas, his attention diverted, collided with Mendoza's vehicle.

Santos Mendoza Jr., a passenger, was taken to Malone and Hogan Clinic. The extent of injury is undetermined.

chosen earlier by the Air Force.

The F18 is built by Northrop Corp. The plane chosen by the Air Force is built by General Dynamics and LTV acted as a contractor.

The GAO said it had conducted an investigation of the charges and found that there was no legal restriction imposed by Congress. It added that the award by the Navy to a combination of McDonnell Douglas Corp. and the Northrop Corp. "is not contrary to statute... does not require any actions contrary to law, and does not represent a violation of moral or ethical standards."

Also on Wednesday the House voted to continue funding the F18 lightweight plane and rejected an amendment that would have cut $8 million earmarked for the plane.

Supporters of the amendment said the plane is unproved and contended that deleting the funds from this year's appropriation would, at worst, slightly delay its development if it turned out to be acceptable.

Volcanoes Erupt Near Alaskan Oil Pipeline

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Two volcanoes in the isolated Aleutian Chain have begun belching smoke and flame the past 10 days and a third volcano only 50 miles east of the trans-Alaska pipeline is being closely watched by scientists in an on-going study of the mountain.

Mt. Wrangell is a 14,163-foot peak and the northernmost active volcano on the Pacific Rim. It has undergone a dramatic change during the past 10 years, say scientists who have monitored the mountain's activity closely this summer while camped out near its summit 50 miles east of Glennallen. A stretch of the trans-Alaska pipeline is located in the Glennallen area.

The scientists say the mountain's snow surface has become a jumbled mass of ice blocks which have dropped as much as 512 feet since ski planes landed on its smooth snow-covered North Crater in 1965.

Sulfurous fumes are being emitted from the huge ice blocks and a recent study by the University of Alaska indicates more than 22 million cubic meters of ice have melted out of that crater during the past nine years.

Moreover, the heat flow from the crater is at least a thousand times more intense than the worldwide average heat escapement from the earth's interior.

The heat loss appears to be causing the glaciers which fan out from the volcano to surge forward, perhaps because of all the melted water produced at the summit.

The University's Geophysical Institute and the U.S. Geological Survey presently are conducting a study of the mountain's glacial activity and are acquiring more knowledge about the volcano through the use of satellites as well as seismic tests.

Four scientists who spent

August at the summit have concluded that the only immediate threat from the active volcano is possible flooding from glaciers which would not pose any danger to inhabited areas. They say the melting water from the glaciers probably could be contained within the banks of the Copper River which winds the surrounding Wrangell Mountains.

Meanwhile, out on the Aleutian Chain, Mt. Pavlof has been reported exploding and sending great bursts of lava down its sides. The mountain, about 25 miles east of Cold Bay, has been observed by pilots. They say a fiery glow is visible from the top of the mountain which has been quiet for the past two years.

Mt. Shishaldin, 70 miles west of Cold Bay, began erupting Sept. 20.

A Reeve Aleutian Airways pilot reported Thursday that Mt. Shishaldin had smoke pouring from vents farther down its sides than ever before.

States Face Organized Crime, But Need Money

WASHINGTON (AP) — More and more states are forming strike forces to combat thriving crime syndicates, but many state officials say they're hampered by a shortage of money and talent.

About 400 federal, state and local law enforcement officials are sharing their experiences at a National Conference on Organized Crime sponsored by the Justice Department today through Saturday.

A major part of the discussion centers on strike forces, the special teams of investigators and prosecutors used to build cases against syndicate gambling, drug trafficking, loansharking and fraud schemes.

The Justice Department launched the strike-force technique eight years ago and now operates 17 throughout the United States.

A recent survey by the National Association of Attorneys General showed that an increasing number of states are establishing similar teams, usually under the direction of the state attorney general.

Twenty-three states and Puerto Rico now have special teams of investigators and prosecutors for organized crime, said the association's June report distributed to conference participants.

The states are Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Rhode Island, Texas, Utah and Wisconsin.

Five of them have been established in the past three years.

Virtually all have been launched with federal funds from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration which presently is spending more than $10 million in partial support of 19 state projects against organized crime.

The association report said many state officials worry about where they'll get money to continue the operation once federal grants end.

"Several states report negatively on the chances of state support," and "one project director reports that his state legislature is afraid of the organized crime unit and may not fund it," the report said.

In addition to budget, the state strike force officials have found that "one of the most difficult problems" is recruiting talented and trustworthy investigators and prosecutors with experience in outwitting mobsters.

Other Exhibit Closes Friday

Plans are already being made for the next exhibit, scheduled to open about Oct. 10, according to Mrs. Atwell.

Deadline Near For Election

Those who have cast at least one ballot in an election since 1972 and have not moved are automatically registered.

Carrier Wins Charlie Brown Has Top Prize Mitchell Fair Opens Today

GRAPEVINE, Tex. (AP) — A 15-year-old youth who carries newspapers for the Port Arthur News has been named the winner of the Texas Newspaper Carrier Award for 1975.

Chris Erickson, who hasn't missed a single delivery during the year he has been a carrier, was awarded a $2,500 scholarship by the Texas Daily Newspaper Association and Texas Circulation Managers Association here Wednesday.

Erickson, a high school sophomore, won over four other finalists. Wayne Sellers, president of the Texas Daily Newspaper Association, said Erickson has only 16 non-customers on his route in Port Arthur. He delivers 105 papers each afternoon during the week and Sundays.

Sellers said Erickson's straight A average while he held his job was a factor in the award.

It was the second consecutive year for the top newspaper carrier award to be presented to a Port Arthur News carrier. Last year's winner was David Miller, who now is enrolled at the U.S. Military Academy.

Other finalists this year were Gene Glaeser, 17, Plainview Daily Herald; Ron Sauer, 16, San Antonio Express-News; Abel Tello, 14, San Antonio Light, and David Kahlig, 14, of the Temple Daily Telegram. Each of the four runners-up received $500 scholarships.

Says Chief Knew Of Violations

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Deputy Police Chief J. H. Usrey has told a citizens committee investigating alleged police misconduct that he discussed with Police Chief T. S. Walls taped interviews with policemen that revealed a possible criminal violation.

Usrey, who first disclosed the existence of the taped interviews he conducted with some of the officers investigated for alleged misconduct, said Wednesday he told Walls that "there were violations of police rules and regulations... and a possible criminal violation."

The investigation was started after it was disclosed that several officers in the auto theft division had used recovered stolen cars for their own personal use, even going on vacation.

Usrey said he told Walls the possible criminal violation was the theft of a Winnebago allegedly engineered by an auto theft division detective.

He added he did not discuss the tapes with any other city officials. Capt. J. W. Tindall told the committee that he became aware of the tapes when they were made in December

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP) — Charlie Brown's short pants, polo shirt and painfully shy demeanor belie the fact that one of America's most beloved comic strip characters is 25 years old today.

"Good grief!" might be the perennial loser's only comment. His creator, Charles M. Schulz, admits, "The poor kid has been subjected to a lot."

Good ole Charlie Brown and his pint-sized pals — including his philosophical dog, Snoopy — first appeared in a comic strip drawn Oct. 2, 1950, by Schulz. The cartoonist, now a 52-year-old multimillionaire, still huddles over his drawing board daily to chart the adventures of the "Peanuts" gang.

"I think the strip has changed considerably," Schulz said in an interview. "The big turning point was when Snoopy began to think and he started to live on top of the doghouse. The first time he got up on the doghouse, he fell off and said, 'Life is a rude awakening.' It just seemed funny to keep him on top of the doghouse."

Snoopy's wry observations and such sayings by Peanuts' characters as "Happiness is a warm puppy," "Curse you, Red Baron" and "How can we lose when we're so sincere?" have been emblazoned on shirts, greeting cards, toys and other lucrative spinoffs.

As Schulz' style loosened up, he added to the strip such characters as a talking school building, a tiny bird named Woodstock, and Spike, Snoopy's moustachioed brother who lived with the coyotes.

"I have a common sense approach that keeps the strip within the realm of plausibility. It's never overly intellectual or sophisticated," Schulz said. He said he purposely lets his characters call each other names such as "blockhead" and "fuss budget."

'Copter Has Passed First Test Flight

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Bell Helicopter says its prototype of the U.S. Army's Advance Attack Helicopter (AAH), officially designated as the YAH63, has successfully passed its initial test flight.

The tests were conducted Wednesday at the Bell test facilities here.

Piloting Bell's YAH63 in its first airborne maneuvers were Gene L. Colvin and Ronald G. Erhart.

Bell is a finalist in the competition to complete development of the advanced attack helicopter. The winner will receive a long-term contract for production of the aircraft in the 1980s.

"We are very proud of the YAH63 and particularly of the...employees who made it possible," said Bell Helicopter President James F. Atkins. "The AAH is one of the Army's highest priority programs and it will certainly receive top attention at Bell."

The next phase in the development of the AAH program will be delivery of two flying prototypes to the Army by May 31, 1976 for a competitive flyoff. The Army flight evaluations are expected to take about four months.

The YAH63 is designed to provide anti-armor capability, day or night, in all types of terrain and under extreme climates.

Chef Of Bagdad, Harem Score In Chili Cookoff

SAN ANGELO — "And the winners are... the student team from the 6941st School Squadron!"

With this announcement by Capt. Ron McCallum, pandemonium broke loose at the Second Annual West Texas (and unofficial Air Force) Chili Cookoff. The winning team was composed of Steve Williams and his wife, George Slavik, Jeff Walkowski and wife, Edwina Guisti, and Jerry Blair. They came from, in order, New York, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nevada and Louisiana. Nobody from the great Southwestern original home of chili... and chili cooks.

And, there were girls in the team... pretty ones, too!

Who did they beat? "The Chef of Bagdad" and the harem from Webb AFB. They are Jerry M. Karnes, Diana Karnes, Ralph Monson and Charlie Chapple. "B" Troop from Angelo State University's Air Force ROTC headed by Craig Williams, "The Wonder WAF and her Admirers," Cindy Bilagodeau and her crew, "El Rojo" Lt. Col. Robert C. Mays brought "Los Borrachos de Laughlin," R. J. Julius, E. E. Walker, C. D. Greene and R. C. Dutton also came from Laughlin AFB. Dyess AFB sent "The Dyess Dynamic Duo" with Ronnie "Jalapeno" Hancock and Edward "Mucho Gusto" Merrill as the cooks.

First runner-up team was that of "The Wet and Dry... Backs," featuring Paul Vasquez and Edwin Drone "The Red Hots," featuring Tim Gigrich's cooking were the second runners-up.

The other major award given, for showmanship, went to the "Deputy Dawg" entry headed by the USAFACS Deputy Director, Lt. Col. John Nikolauk and his bevy of comely "deputies." This prize was a unique toilet seat bearing the official symbol of the "USAFACS Annual West Texas Air Force Chili Cookoff" insignia, an armadillo and a rattlesnake with pilot headgear crawling out of a steaming tub which was designed by Goodfellow AFB artist, Allen Buttry.

Runners-up for showmanship were the "Wooley Gang" featuring a real chuckwagon; "Tequila Daisy" and her "Cuchara Mantescosa (Greasy Spoon)" Cafe; the Army detachment's "Road Haws"; "Jalapeno Jose's Japanese Jili" and the Webb AFB "Chefs of Bagdad," featuring a belly dancer and a group of Arabian Knights.

Where do the winners go from here? Col. Norma E. Brown, 6940th Security Wing commander, has vowed that they will go to the World Championship Chilympiad at Terlingua, Texas, in style and they have also been invited to the Odessa, Texas, Fun-of-a-Gun on October 4. No decision has yet been made on the Odessa meet. If they compete there, they can also compete, if they like, in such events as a "greased pig sacking contest," the Texas State Championship Cow-Chip Throwing Contest, or the Cheving Tobacco Spitting Contest.

Other competitors included: Robert T. "Bullet Bob" Ellis, "Thick and Thin," featuring Richard A. Bates and Vivian Payne, "Mr. Chili," Justin J. Arnold, Jim Coward, Don Scott and Barbara Rogers cooking as the "Chili Honchos from the Conchos." Also: the "A Bar G Ranch" team with Lt. Col. Dossey C. "Dirty Doss" Merritt, Terry Nyhus and Cher Arenberg plus an Army team, "The U.S. Army World Famous Chili Team," with Jerry "Boutulism" Bryan, Bud McDonald, Mike Finning, Larry Mock, Stan Herzog and Mike Hincey.

The "Mad Chili Programmer," Al Celaya was there, the "SACS-O-Beans" with Joseph "Jalipeno Joe" Zelnis and Dennis "Pepper Rass Rasmussen" added their spicy "Pancho Aleman," alias Frank J. Hess, the Navy detachment's "Tortilla Flotilla" with Lt. Lawrence C. "Capt. Jalapeno Hook" Schaffer and his crew, "The Special Services Firehouse Gang" with Wallace "Hot Peppers" Oefinger, "Red Hot" Robert Routt, Tricky Dick Johnson and "Jumpin' Judy Faber added their bell ringing on a fire engine.

Head of the "Wooley Gang" was Jim Roy Weatherby with wife Linda as chief chili cook. They were assisted by musician Herman Miller and Pat Kasberg with his daughters Lisa and Kari adding a touch of the old west. The 2081st Comm. Sq. had two entries: "A... Fortified Chili Slurpers (AFCS)" team was headed by "Ptomaine" Tim Fox with Ken Schultz, Al Diekman and the team of Roy and Shirley Eastridge contributing to the mayhem. Their team of the "Red Hots" came in third.

Judges were: Tumbleweed Smith, Sam Pendergast, Bob Ford, Mrs. Thomas "Sissy" Garrett, Dub McDaniel and Maurice Voity. They were treated to some of the best... and possibly worst... chili "East of the Pecos."

Almanac Predicts Early Winter, Dry Summer

DUBLIN, N.H. (AP) — The 184th edition of the Old Farmer's Almanac, out today, predicts an early winter and a drought next summer.

Abe Weatherwise, a pseudonym for the magazine's weather researchers, says the winter "will start out wild and then settle down to being mild through January."

Skiers in the Rockies, Appalachians and New England will be "jumping for joy." Abe says, but others may be less grateful as a blizzard sweeps across the Great Plains in late February, bringing new snow as far as New England.

In the summer, farmers in the Midwest and West will suffer "serious drought and frequent duststorms." Weatherwise predicts, "The abnormally hot summer in the wheat and corn belts should be of concern to all farmers — and consumers."

Although the almanac's forecasts have yet to be taken seriously by professional meteorologists, publisher C. Robertson Trowbridge insists the techniques — a use of various "cycles of nature" plus a close study of the moon and sun — are legitimate.

"When the order of the universe is becoming more apparent, to have something as big as the weather to happen just haphazardly is not true," he says. "The concept that men can predict the weather is true."

The astrological charts and elaborate weather tables that form the basis for the forecasts have been an almanac feature since the first edition in 1792. Trowbridge says the general predictions are virtually always correct, and the almanac claims an over-all accuracy rate of 75 to 80 percent.

Last year, the almanac predicted that winter 1974-75 would be colder than normal, and that this past summer would be especially warm.

The almanac, the country's oldest continuous publication, is assembled today in an 18th century house and two connecting barns in this small New Hampshire town not far from the Massachusetts border.

In addition to the forecasts, it is packed full of trivia, planting tables, farm animal gestation period charts, zodiac secrets, recipes and advertising.

Trowbridge, who is also a state senator, says he expects to sell about 3.5 million copies this year at 75 cents apiece, compared with 900,000 a decade ago.

He attributes the increase to improved distribution, the recent interest in space, nostalgia and the "return to nature" trend.

Cotton Harvest Festival Today

LAMESA — Lamesa cotton growers and the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. will end their month-long promotion of cotton with a harvest festival today, Friday and Saturday at the Courthouse Square here.

Lamesa cotton growers will have a booth displaying the first bale of cotton grown and ginned in Dawson County. The bale will be given away Saturday afternoon.

Tractors and harvest equipment will also be on display in addition to 1976 cars and pickup trucks. Lamesa merchants will be offering sale merchandise and there will be a hayride for the children.

A fashion show with the theme, "Sew It With Cotton," is scheduled Oct. 4 with Diane Milliken, the South Plains Maid of Cotton featured as one of the models.

Vance's fiancée, a 15-year-old girl, was returned to her parents in Fort Myers, however.

The new tradition, a torch-light parade, will be held for the second year at the courthouse square on Oct. 16. The parade is set for 4:30 p.m. Oct. 17 and the crowning of the homecoming queen will be at 7:30 p.m. in Memorial Stadium prior to the game between the Steers and the Permian Panthers.

Mrs. Susan Thomas, traffic coordinator, said she knew of no reason for the upsurge unless it is simply growth of the community and more cars on the streets.

Charged In Kidnaping, Murders

Carpenter was arraigned and jailed Tuesday under bonds totaling $300,000.

Authorities said Carpenter was sought in connection with the 1974 kidnap-slayings of Artie Fisher, 55, and Benjamin McAllister, 36, both of Little Rock.

The couple's decomposed bodies were found in West Texas, both shot in the head.

Buffs Bump Into Undefeated Wall

By TERRY NEILL

STANTON — Stanton and Wall both have highly-ranked football teams and his Friday night the Stanton Buffalos will entertain the Hawks during Homecoming activities at Buffalo Stadium. The game will begin at 8 p.m. and should be one of the top Class A games.

Wall will bring a 4-0 record into the fracas, while Stanton has a 3-1 mark, with three consecutive wins following an opening-game loss to Class AA Tahoka.

Coach Bob Richardson's Buffalos demolished Roscoe on the scoreboard last Friday night, but did not play that well according to the first-year head mentor.

"We won by a big margin, but the score did not indicate what kind of game we played. Our defense did not play as well as it has been, and the squad just did what it had to do to win the football game. They may have been looking forward to Wall even last Friday," Richardson commented.

According to Richardson the Buffalos are having no trouble getting mentally ready for the highly-regarded Hawks, a team they stopped last season, 33-0.

Last year's Wall team only had one senior, however, and was made up mostly of freshmen and sophomores. This year's Wall grid team is ranked in the state's top 20 and has already wiped out several good football teams.

Richardson reports that Wall will bring a talented club to town that is aggressive and has lots of outside speed. While passing is the name of their game on offense, Richardson believes the Hawks' real strong suit will be defense.

"To win the game we'll have to move the football on them."

"Wall will field an excellent football team, but we can stop them with a good effort I think we'll be ready to play," Richardson concluded.

One plus for Stanton this week will be the return of starting quarterback Gary Hanson, sidelined last Friday with a shoulder injury.

Halfback Keyv Allred started at the man under slot last week and proved that he can play the position with an outstanding game at Roscoe. Stanton's offense will

Two Big Spring junior high games will be played today. Undefeated Goliah who reportedly downed Sweetwater last week though no score was submitted, entertains Snyder Lamar here at 5:30 p.m., at Blankenship Field.

Also undefeated Runnels travels to Snyder-Travis for a 5:30 p.m. contest. Last week the Yearlings downed Coahoma, 12-6.

ALI REIGNS SUPREME

Muhammad Ali shares a laugh with friends Thursday in Manila. In his lap is a newspaper headlining his successful defense of the world heavyweight title against Joe Frazier. Ali says he may come home via Iran but added, "I am really tired. I would like six months rest."

Third Week Home

GARDEN CITY — With the Bearkats at home for the third week in a row, the old charm theory may work when Garden City, 0-4, hosts slippery Buena Vista at 8 p.m., Friday.

The Bearkats, under the direction of a new coach, Roy Flourney and a homecoming crowd last week, almost turned the tables on Loraine but lost out, 12-0.

Garden City penetrated inside Loraine's 20-yard line five times and were twice inside the end zone.

Buena Vista ran roughshod over two 3-B teams, Forsan 10-6, two weeks ago and Sterling City last week, 33-12.

Forsan Opens League Play

FORSAN — A homecoming crowd will be pushing for Forsan to tack up its first victory of the season here at 7:30 p.m., Saturday when the Buffaloes take to the field against Sands.

This will be a 3-B District opener for both schools.

Forsan, almost pulled the game out of the fire last week with Grandfalls, losing at the wire, 14-6. The Buff TD was completed on a 20-yard pass from Ralph Miranda to John Medlin.

Miranda, recovering from a foot injury, received a shoulder mishap shortly before game time. He more than likely will be lost to the team for the remainder of the season.

Forsan started off the year by falling to swift-moving Klondike, 10-6 and two weeks ago lost to Buena Vista, 34-12.

Saturday homecoming activities include ex-student registration at 2 p.m., class meeting of exes at 3 p.m., pep-rally at 5 p.m., followed by a chili supper at 5:30 p.m., at the high school cafeteria.

The Buff ex-student queen will be crowned before game time with the student queen to be recognized at halftime. Following the game a dance sponsored by the ex-student club will be held.

Sands had an open date last week. The Mustangs, 1-1, started off the new year by turning back Garden City, 60-6, a defeat and a tie followed with Buena Vista, 20-0 and New Home 0-0, respectively.

Coyotes Eye Whitharral

GAIL — Electrifying Borden County will use the comforts of home here at 8 p.m., Friday in hopes of preserving its undefeated record.

The Coyotes 3-0, could encounter an acid test when Whitharral, a 40-13 winner over Wellman last week.

In comparing scores, Wellman beat Grady two weeks ago, 42-26 and Borden County beat Grady last Friday, 36-12.

Richard Long was the top Coyote scorer against Grady with three touchdowns, runs of nine, six and 50 yards followed by six points by Darin Tucker's 38-yard run and a 34-yard pass from Joe Zant to Gene Colley.

Eagles Oppose Jayton

STERLING CITY — With its uneventful non-conference wars out of the way, Sterling City 1-2 serves as the 3-B inkeeper here at 7:30 p.m., Friday with Jayton.

The Eagles were unable to fly high against Buena Vista Last week, winding up on the losing end of a 33-12 score.

Sterling City touched paydirt on a TD pass from Jeff Copeland to Lee Fleming and a run by Copeland.

Jayton has been polled as a strong candidate to dethrone 3-B champion Bronte.

Cats Looking For First Win

KLONDIKE — With Klondike's undefeated string snapped at 3-0 last week by Smyer, 38-28, Grady, 0-4, would like to continue to keep the Cougars down here at 7:30 p.m., Friday.

Grady, moving the ball for only two years, felt the tight grip applied by well-established Borden County last week, 36-12.

The Wildcats scored against Borden County on repeat aerial throws from Ruben Gutierrez to Richard Para, 60 and 42 yards respectively.

Ticket Fever High

DALLAS (AP) — With the game more than a week away, the rush for tickets to the annual Texas-Oklahoma football fray is at a fever pitch.

"Need 4 tickets, Texas-O.U., I'll pay the price," reads one of nearly two dozen want ads in one Dallas paper.

"I would like to buy Texas-O.U. tickets, $40 for end zone, $40 for sidelines," says another. "Desperate. Will pay premium price," pleads a third.

Other reports had Dallas fans asking $250 for a 50-yard line seat to the game. The original price for tickets is $10 maximum.

"People are frantic," chuckled a licensed ticket scalper. "I've got one couple in Lewisville (a Dallas suburb) offering $150 apiece for end zone tickets. One guy offered all his Willie Nelson albums and a date with his wife."

Oklahoma is ranked No. 1 among the nation's college teams and Texas stands seventh this week.

Texas A&I Still First

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Undefeated William Penn grabbed the top spot today in the Division II football ratings of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, knocking once-beaten Missouri Valley out of the lead.

Texas A&I, 2-0, remained the leader in Division I.

Jackson State, 4-0, moved to second place in the Division I poll, trading places with Grambling, 2-0.

The Division II top 10 teams: 1. Texas A&I; 2. Jackson State; 3. Grambling; 4. Henderson State; 5. Livingston; 6. Kentucky State; 7. Eastern New Mexico; 8. Wisconsin-La Crosse; 9. Abilene Christian; 10. Langston.

The Division II top 10 teams: 1. William Penn; 2. Northwestern of Iowa; 3. California Lutheran; 4. Texas Lutheran; 5. Westminster of Pennsylvania; 6. Hanover; 7. Illinois Wesleyan; 8. Missouri Valley; 9. Dickinson State; 10. Hastings.

Eagles Beat 'Skins, 13-6

In a Pee-Wee football game played Tuesday night at Blankenship Field, the Eagles beat the Redskins, 13-6.

The Eagles scored their two TD's on a 45-yard pass play from Ricky Solis to Shane Mayhall and a seven-yard run by Solis.

The Redskins crossed the end zone as result of a 25-yard run.

Nicklaus Minus Regular Caddy

NAPA, Calif. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus had a youthful replacement for his regular tour caddy when he set out in quest of the title today in the first round of the $175,000 Kaiser International Open Golf Tournament.

And the replacement comes courtesy of Johnny Miller.

Angelo Argea, Nicklaus' longtime regular caddy, received a one-month suspension a couple of weeks ago when he violated tour rules prohibiting caddies from entering clubhouses.

The violation occurred at Pinehurst, N.C., during the World Open, which Nicklaus claimed as his fifth title of the year.

Bowling

INDUSTRIAL BOWLING LEAGUE Results: F.O.W.S. over Cabot 8-0, Coffman Roofing over Phillips Tire Co. 2-30.

With the gray-haired Argea has been replaced, for this tournament only, by 20-year-old Larry Cartmill, a house guest of Johnny Miller and a prospective student at Brigham Young University, Miller's alma mater.

Miller, who once challenged Nicklaus as the game's top performer, made the arrangements for Cartmill to caddy for Jack in this late-season event. Miller is the defending champion here and a resident at the host Silverado Country Club course.

The lack of his usual caddy won't make a major difference, said Nicklaus, who has won five times this year and already clinched the season's money-winning title with $291,849.

"It's not like I'd never played without him," Nicklaus said. "After all, I won 13 major professional championships with someone other than Angie carrying the bag."

Mauch Fired

MONTREAL (AP) — Last Wednesday night, as Gene Mauch strolled to a position near second base at Jarry Park, a deep-throated chorus of boos rose from the crowd.

It was Fan Appreciation Night and the Montreal fans demonstrated without question they did not appreciate the managing efforts of Mauch, who guided the Expos to an unspectacular fifth-place tie with Chicago in the National League's East Division.

"The reason I decided to come out here is that I knew a lot of you would get a kick out of it," Mauch told the crowd. "Now that you've had a kick out of it, I want to introduce to you for the last time...this season...a bunch of guys you're going to be cheering for a long, long time."

Mauch could have stopped his second sentence with "last time," because he will no longer be introducing Expos players to Montreal baseball fans.

A week after his hostile reception from Montreal's baseball fans, Mauch's career with the seven-year-old Expos is history. Mauch, 49, was fired Wednesday along with all of his coaches—pitching coach Cal McLish, third-base coach Dave Bristol, first-base coach Walt Hiriak, bullpen coach Jerry Zimmerman and part-time batting instructor Duke Snider.

"It was the worst thing they could do," said pitcher Steve Renko.

SPORTS SHORTS

PRAIRIE VIEW, Tex. (AP) — The status of the Prairie View A&M-Grambling football game, scheduled for Saturday night Oct. 4, in Dallas, is in doubt and probably will not be played, officials at Prairie View said.

The problem is that Grambling University scheduled both Prairie View and Oregon State on the same date. Although the scheduled Cotton Bowl game with Prairie View is the official Southwest Conference scheduled date for both teams, Grambling has refused to play the game.

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — The Board of Directors of the Pacific Coast League's Tacoma Twins have voted to continue operating in 1976 as a baseball farm club of the Minnesota Twins. The team's officers will be retained.

Homecoming Is Sunday

CINCINNATI (AP) — "I have no silly vendetta. I just like to play well against them. They labeled me a troublemaker," said Cincinnati Bengals linebacker Ron Pritchard.

Sunday is homecoming for the former Arizona State All-American.

The Bengals travel to Houston, Pritchard's off-season home, for a battle of unbeaten AFC Central Division clubs. The winner takes over undisputed leadership in wake of defending champion Pittsburgh's loss to Buffalo.

Pritchard, a former No. 1 draft choice of the Oilers, is in his fourth season at Cincinnati since being traded in midseason of 1972.

Larry MacPhail Services Friday

Larry MacPhail, a baseball innovator who revolutionized the game, will be buried Friday in the small Michigan town of Cass City, where he was born and raised.

MacPhail, who installed the first lights in a major league baseball park, thereby allowing night games, and who began Old Timers' Day, died Wednesday morning in a Miami, Fla., nursing home. He was 85.

"Larry MacPhail was dynamic, bombastic and smart," said Gabe Paul, president of the New York Yankees. "He made many contributions to baseball and I have a special place in my heart and my memories for him."

Johnson Excited Over East Flag

BOSTON (AP) — The scene was typical of any winning game. Manager Darrell Johnson stretched and smiled when the news came through that the Boston Red Sox had won the American League East championship.

"I'm just as excited as anybody else, but I just don't show it," Johnson said, still grinning. "It's my nature. My wife has called me 'Stoney' for years."

Johnson, just turned 48 and a former reserve catcher in a major league career which spanned just 134 games with seven clubs, is low-keyed all the way, pleasant and patient with all who approach him.

He shows traces of gray in his well-trimmed hair. His stature is that of an athlete, or one whose playing career has just ended. His clothes range from conservative to sporty, never overly mod.

Johnson's ways are deliberate. He doesn't rush a decision if it can be helped. Patience is one of his top attributes. He seeks advice from coaches and others, and weighs it. He has a temper, but it ignites only when he has to support his players on the field.

"You do what you have to do," Johnson says with a shrug. "No one likes to take the heat at any time, especially me. But there are occasions you can't help it. You have to try to help the team, not hurt it."

Johnson and the Red Sox turned things around this year after his rookie season as a major league manager in 1974. He wasn't mugged in a robbery attempt at a motel room and the Red Sox didn't blow any seven-game lead—both of which happened last year.

The Red Sox won the pennant under rookie manager Dick Williams in 1967. The next year Williams hired his old friend Darrell Johnson as pitching coach. Williams was fired at the tail end of the 1969 campaign, but the Red Sox kept Johnson as a minor league pitching coach and scout for the 1970 campaign.

Johnson's 1974 Red Sox led the AL East by seven games with six weeks to play. Then came a whopping collapse. Plagued by injuries, the Red Sox' offense went into a deep freeze. The team finished seven games behind Baltimore—in third place.

Critics cried for Johnson's scalp, and kept it up for months.

As late as last June, the cries persisted—then the Red Sox went on a winning streak, moved into first place June 29 and held on the rest of the way.

Johnson also shrugged off all critical comments, refusing to say that he had been vindicated this year by the Red Sox' championship.

"Maybe I'll never forget some things, but life is too short for vindictiveness," he said. "This is a tough game and there's no room for anything like that with me. We did well and that's all that counts."

Golden Tornadoes Greet Rapid-Improving Snyder

LAMESA — The Golden Tornadoes open District 3-AAA play here at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

The Tors, 0-1-3, will run into the likes of defending champions, Snyder. The Tigers boast a 2-2 record after losing to 5-4A Midland Lee and AAA Monahans.

Last time out, Snyder destroyed Andrews, 61-20 and two weeks ago, downed Big Spring, 21-17. The Tigers return nine lettermen.

Tiger holdovers include tackles Mike Freeman and Charles Hammond, guards Rusty Land and James Smulie, center Sam Kitchens, quarterback Kelly Ragland, fullback Timmy Flynn, fullback Mitchell Smith and halfback Larry Gee.

Ends Kenny Thompson, Billy Allbritton and David Rice should be ideal targets for Ragland. Last week, Ragland, who started his first game at quarterback two weeks ago, completed 80 per cent of his passes against Andrews.

Tiger veterans Larry Gee and Tim Flynn could be hot ball carriers along with junior fullback Mitchell Smith. Because of an injury, Tiger Richard Balderrama will be replaced at the defensive tackle slot by a sophomore.

Richard Archer will be back in action for the Tors along with Delbert Wilkerson. Both have missed games due to injuries.

"There will be no important lineup changes though our offense and defense is to be somewhat modified," said Tom Koger, Tor head coach.

CRIME PREVENTION Most Burglars Prefer Cash

"Burglars prefer the easy way out," remarked Sgt. Ed Kissinger of the Big Spring Police Dept. crime prevention unit during a discussion of ways to prevent crimes against commercial establishments.

"They'd rather take cash, because it's much simpler to handle than items that have to be sold. That's why money needs the most protection. In fact, choosing the right safes and cash registers is so important that every businessman should consult our professional security experts for advice," he added.

Kissinger recommended that businessmen put cash registers and safes where they are well lighted and visible from outside the building. That way they can be monitored by passers-by and by law enforcement patrols.

Weather Slows Texas Wheat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Planting of winter wheat for harvest next summer continued to make progress last week, although poor weather held back farmers in Texas, says the Agriculture Department.

As of Sept. 28, the department said Tuesday in a weekly weather review, an estimated 45 per cent of the winter wheat in Kansas, the largest producer, was planted, about the normal progress. But in Texas, only 34 per cent of the crop was seeded, far behind the normal 73 per cent completion for the same date.

Inflation Hits Monkey Business

HOUSTON (AP) — Medical researchers here say inflation has hit the monkey business, forcing the scientists to use the monkeys for more than one laboratory study.

"We're trying to recycle monkeys so we can reuse them in experiments," says Dr. John Jardine, head of the experimental animal department at M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute.

The researchers are careful that the effects of one experiment do not prejudice the results of other experiments the animals are used in, Jardine said. The institute researchers have imported rhesus monkeys from India for experiments in radiation treatment of cancer and growth of cancerous tumors. Jardine estimates M.D. Anderson uses about 100 research monkeys a year. He said the rhesus is more representative of man than any other monkey. Two years ago, Jardine said, a pregnant rhesus monkey cost $125. Now the same monkey costs $450. "We're trying to decide whether to keep on using monkeys in research," he said.

Researchers say the reasons for the monkey shortage are that India and some South American countries have stopped exporting monkeys for fear of depleting their own natural supplies.

This handicaps medical researchers who say they have always imported monkeys because it was cheaper than producing their own. But researchers may have found the solution. M.D. Anderson and the UT Health Science Center are operating a primate breeding farm near Austin, and some of the domestic monkeys are beginning to arrive in Houston Laboratories.

At the University of Texas Dental School here, researchers use monkeys to study plaque, cavities and gum diseases. They have started their own breeding colony of marmosets, a small South American monkey. The marmosets, which weigh as little as a half pound, cost $4.50 each 10 years ago, said Dr. Alfred Broome, director of the vivarium of the dental school. Now they cost $180 apiece, he said.

In the sensory science center at the UT Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences, some 25 rhesus monkeys are used each year in the study of eye development. Dr. Jack Crawford of the school said a newborn rhesus cost $150 last year. This year they cost between $400 and $700 apiece.

"It's a good idea for India and South America to take stock of their own supplies but it's handicapping us," Jardine said.

LEGS — Tonja West, 6, Grand Junction, insists she's going to return the 15-inch long frog she got from her father to the Colorado River.

TEXAS HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT Local Unit Will Not Suffer Personnel Cuts

The Big Spring division of the Texas Highway Department will not suffer personnel cuts now or in the near future, according to Darwin Webb, maintenance supervisor for the department.

Due to budget cuts ordered earlier this summer by State Highway officials in Austin, area offices, including those in Colorado City, have been forced to lay off workers. "Big Spring is still in good shape now and I don't look for any cuts in the near future," said Webb.

Local offices are not immune to the pinch, however, and are feeling it in other areas. "We can't hire new personnel and we will not replace many of those who retire," said Webb. "Our budget has not been cut yet but materials and supplies have doubled in some cases, and that is the same as a cut," he added.

Seek City Help At UT

AUSTIN (AP) — Sidewalk salesmen at the University of Texas are turning to the City Council to stave off possible violence as the sellers literally battle for choice spots to market their merchandise.

"About 13 vendors regularly hire people to guard their spots," said a jewelry vendor, Bruce Dyess. "The first day I got here, there was a guy who got a hammer and was going to break a friend of mine's head."

Estimates of income are $300 or $400 a day at the portable sidewalk shops across the street from the main campus, and Dyess said, "If they only make $700 a week they consider it a very bad week."

Known locally as "Drag vendors," a reference to the sidewalk sites near Guadalupe Street—"The Drag"—vendors sell everything from used books and records to plants and homemade jewelry and clothes.

Drag vendors can get a license for $12 a year. "It will be like a little Mafia around Christmas," Dyess said. "All the people hired to protect spots will fight it out among themselves."

He said he was "thinking of hiring a regular guy" for $5 to guard his place on the pavement.

Lo-Vaca To Pay For Damages

AUSTIN (AP) — Lo-Vaca Gathering Co. must pay an Erath County couple $7,244 for damaging their fishing lake by laying a pipeline across the lake, the Texas Supreme Court ruled in a 6-3 decision today.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spindor received $2,700 for a 13.5-acre strip of land, and the trial court awarded the additional money for damage to the 40- to 50-acre fishing and irrigation lake. The Court of Civil Appeals reversed the judgment and ordered a new trial involving only the money for damaging the lake. The Supreme Court overruled the appeals court and affirmed the trial court ruling.

Stretch Large Cuts For Economy Meals

The mainstay of most major meals, meats are the focal point of menu planning. Meat contains body-building, strength-giving protein. Meat is also the most expensive item included in the family food budget. Because of high costs of meats, Imperial Sugar placed a great deal of attention on meat economy in their new "Economy Cookbook." Included are tips on stretching the meat you buy, how to buy thrifty large cuts of meat, using leftover meats for second day meals and general economy tips such as: Save by buying meat specials for your freezer. Cuts such as chuck pot roast, a blade cut, are most economical. These cuts should be braised, cooked as Swiss steak, cut into cubes for beef stew or sliced thin for stroganoff or stir-frying. Ground meat is often a best buy for its good flavor, juiciness and lower cost per pound. It's also one of the most versatile of meats. The rib roast can be roasted as it is or can be cut into steaks. The "eye" of the roast is the most tender and is excellent for roasting or broiling. The remainder of the roast can be ground into hamburger. Country style spareribs are meaty pieces from the blade end of the pork loin and are a better buy than spareribs. The butt half of a smoked ham contains more lean edible meat than the shank half. Even paying more per pound for the butt half makes it a lower net cost per pound. Lamb is often overlooked or ignored. Tender young lamb is delicious and can be a real money saver. Ground lamb patties and loin lamb chops are often a good buy and are very good broiled. After buying meat carefully, store it properly and use it promptly. Most Americans eat more red meat than good nutrition requires, so plan serving amounts to achieve good health as well as economy. Recommended average serving is 3 ounces.

Pork Shoulder Butt

It's a real economy purchase to get a whole fresh pork shoulder butt (5 to 7 pounds) and cut it at home.

1. Pork Roast — A pork shoulder butt has only one bone. It extends only part way through the piece. Cut with a sharp knife to divide easily into two pieces. The piece with the bone is your smaller, one-meal roast.
2. Pork Steaks — The remaining piece is clear solid meat. From it you can cut boneless steaks about one-half inch thick. Braise the pork steaks just as you would pork chops. Make a panful of gravy with the drippings.
3. Chop Suey — As you get to the small end of the boneless piece, cut the remaining meat into small half-inch cubes. Use the diced pork for a meat-stretching dish of chop suey or, if you prefer, a casserole of corn and pork.

Leg Of Lamb

For three freshly cooked meals, buy a full-cut leg of lamb. Ask your meatman to cut off a few lamb steaks, and to cut through the shank, leaving about a pound of meat on the bone.

1. Lamb Steaks to Broil — Broil the lamb steaks just as you would loin chops. Serve sizzling hot with broiled pineapple slices.
2. Lamb Roast — Here's your Sunday roast — just the easy-to-serve center portion of the leg. Make a panful of gravy and serve with potatoes and peas. Remember, you'll get more juicy slices and less cooking shrinkage if you roast lamb at a low oven temperature (no higher than 325 Degrees F.).
3. Stew or Casserole — Later in the week, cut the meat from the shank into cubes for another freshly cooked meal. Use these tender, boneless cubes of lamb in an Irish stew — or a more glamorous dish such as lamb curry or shish kebab (marinated pieces of lamb grilled on skewers along with green peppers, onions and tomatoes).

Pork Loin Roast

To use this method for getting three very different meals — all fresh-cooked — select the more economical rib cut of pork loin. The larger your family, the larger the cut you will need.

1. Meaty Barbecued Backbones — Have your meatman saw through the ribs high enough to leave an inch-thick layer of meat on the backbones. Ask him to chop these "country style" backbones into serving-sized pieces. Cook as you would spareribs.

2. Pork Chops and Gravy — Later, cut enough chops for another meal from the remaining piece by slicing between the ribs. You'll find that this is now easy to do because the backbone has been removed.
3. Easy-to-Serve Pork Roast — You still have a piece left to cook as a pork roast for your third fresh-cooked meal. Be sure to cook pork thoroughly. Use an oven temperature of 325-350 Degrees F. and roast about 40 minutes to the pound.

Rib Roast

Here's a thrifty trick that lets you get not only a fine party dinner from that handsome beef rib roast but also another fresh-cooked meal of braised short ribs.

1. Braised Short Ribs — Here's what you do. Have your meat-man saw through the bones. You can then cut between the ribs to make individual servings of short ribs. Braise them slowly with vegetables to stretch their good meat flavor further in the meal.
2. Juicy Roast Beef — Now, for your roast, you have just the tenderest "heart" of the piece you bought. To make it juicier — and to get more servings from it, too — keep oven heat at 325 Degrees F. to cut shrinkage to a minimum. One hour before done, put peeled potatoes in the pan to brown in the drippings.

Pot Roast

With a simple bit of meat cutting in the kitchen you can get three different meals from a thick round-bone pot roast.

1. Beef Stew — From the round end of the roast, cut a piece to use for meal number one. Cut this boneless meat into cubes for a beef and vegetable stew.
2. Pot Roast — Cut a piece from the center for a chunky pot roast. It will be thick, for best results in cooking — and easy carving, too.
3. Swiss Steak — You can easily split the remaining piece to make two attractive Swiss steaks.

Ham Half

When ham is on your shopping list, it's a real economy for the average size family to get a full-cut shank half — large enough to make 4 meals.

1. "Boiled" Dinner — Have your meat-man saw off a generous shank end for lots of flavor in a "boiled" dinner. Simmer it with carrots, onions, potatoes and wedges of cabbage.
2. Baked Ham — You can easily divide the center part of the ham half into two portions. Bake the piece with the bone. The slices will be small, but no less delicious.
3. Fried Ham Slices — The remaining piece is easily sliced with a sharp knife. Cut fairly thick slices from the larger end to fry or broil.

4. Ham and Scalloped Potatoes — Cut the smaller end into thinner slices. Use them in alternating layers with sliced potatoes to make a dish of scalloped ham and potatoes.
- A larger cut of meat is frequently an economy. But this larger cut does not necessarily have to be cooked all in one piece. With a little help from your meatman, larger cuts can be easily divided at home into smaller cuts, to be cooked at different times. By using meat in this way, it's possible to provide more meat meals, better distribution of meat's protein throughout the week, greater variety in meat dishes, and fresh-cooked meat at each meal.

Texas Boneless Chuck Roast

- 3 lbs. rolled boneless beef chuck roast
- All-purpose flour
- Fat for browning
- 1 cup water
- Salt and pepper

Dust meat lightly with flour. Brown slowly on all sides in hot fat in Dutch oven. Salt and pepper to suit personal preference, about 2 teaspoons salt. Add water, cover and cook in 300 Degrees F. oven about two hours or until meat is very tender. Add more water and turn meat halfway through cooking time, if desired. Remove meat and thicken liquid with a flour and water paste. If desired, potatoes, onions and carrots may be added when meat is turned. Serves 4.

ECONOMY MEATS — Because of its impact on today's economy households, meats received major emphasis in Imperial Sugar's new "Economy Cookbook." Included in the meat section are tips on stretching the meat you buy, ideas on how to buy thrifty large cuts of meat and using leftover meats for second day meals. The recipe for the "Texas Boneless Chuck Roast" pictured here, is in the accompanying story.

1915 Cookbook Updated For '76

1915 was the year Imperial Sugar's first recipe booklet was published. Called, "The Household Economist" it offered more than cooking. It offered a wealth of practical, economical and reliable household receipts. It included remedies, antidotes for poisons and recipes for making such things as toothache drops, hair tonic, nail polish and cold cream. It told what to do with lamps that smoke, how to estimate the weight of a block of ice, how to get rid of freckles and stop hair from falling out — and how to plan a yearly budget based on an annual income of $1,200.

It was this sixty year old book that inspired Imperial Sugar to publish a new "Economy Cookbook." It is from this source that some of the new "Economy Cookbook" recipes have been taken and brought up to date for use today.

The new "Economy Cookbook" has 72 pages, over 100 recipes, hardcovers and colorful pictures of foods surrounded with antiques and settings typical of the early 1900's. Much more than a cookbook, it's a guide to well-balanced eating and shopping with meat-stretching tips and ideas for other ways to save. With twelve complete sections, the book includes recipes for appetizers, salads, dressings, soups, sauces, vegetables, poultry, fish, meats, cheese, eggs and desserts. Along with a section for freezing and canning, home gardening and ideas for turning leftovers into interesting second day meals, the book includes nostalgic glimpses of 1915 and a generous sprinkling of photos from yesteryear.

The new "Economy Cookbook," along with reprinted copies of the old original 1915 "The Household Economist," are presently being offered to users of Imperial Sugar. To get copies send one dollar for each book and a pure cane block for each cut from empty Imperial packages to Imperial Sugar Company, P. O. Box 530, Sugar Land, Texas 77478.

Choice Dessert Recipes Offered

In developing their new "Economy Cookbook," Imperial's test kitchens were busy with meat, vegetables, potatoes, soups and salads — not just desserts and sweets. The cookbook, based on 1915 traditions does have six dessert recipes.

STRAWBERRY CAKE

- 1 pkg white cake mix
- 3 tbsp flour
- 3 eggs
- ¾ cup cooking oil
- ¾ cup water
- 1 (3 oz.) package

Sipple Files Suit Against News Media

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Oliver Sipple, the ex-Marine credited with possibly saving President Ford's life during an assassination attempt here has filed suit against the news media for reporting that he was homosexual.

Sipple's lawsuit, filed in San Francisco Superior Court on Tuesday, seeks $15 million in damages. He said news reports of his sexual orientation constituted an invasion of privacy.

Sipple, 32, said in the suit that "his brothers and his sisters learned for the first time of his homosexual sexual orientation, and accordingly abandoned the plaintiff."

The suit also says he was exposed to contempt and ridicule, causing him great mental anguish, embarrassment and humiliation.

The suit named seven newspapers and their parent companies as well as 50 unnamed "Doe's," identified only as publishers of a newspaper, magazine or news service.

The only writer specifically named as a defendant was San Francisco Chronicle columnist Herb Caen.

Newspapers named were the Chronicle, the Los Angeles Times, the Chicago Sun-Times, the Denver Post, the San Antonio Express, the Indianapolis Star and the Des Moines Register.

Sipple asked for $15 million in actual damages and $10 million in punitive and exemplary damages.

Says Drug Use Is On The Rise

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government reported today that drug experimentation is increasing among American youth, and that more whites and females are joining the trend.

Four surveys released by the National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) disclosed that between 1969 and 1975 male high school seniors had a threefold increase in marijuana and amphetamine use and a fourfold increase in barbiturate use.

This year, according to one of the surveys, 44.9 per cent of the senior boys said they had experimented with marijuana, compared with only 13.4 per cent five years earlier.

The agency said that among youth aged 12 to 17 years, marijuana experimentation had increased markedly from 14 per cent in 1972 to 23 per cent in 1974.

Another survey showed that 53 per cent of all 18-to-25-year-olds had experimented with marijuana and that more than 6 per cent of all 18 year olds report they use it daily.

"The steady increase in the use of licit and illicit substances is of great concern to us," said Dr. Robert L. du Pont, the Institute director.

"It is apparently inevitable that young people are going to experiment with cigarettes, alcohol and marijuana, and that this experience will lead too many young people to a regular pattern of undesirable use of these drugs," he said.

While the number of heavy drug users is "disturbing," du Pont said, the surveys indicate that the majority experimenting with illegal drugs either stop or use them only occasionally.

Wolfe Never Went Home, But Hometown Honors Him

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Nearly a half century after the novel "Look Homeward, Angel" enraged this mountain city, Asheville is honoring the author, native son Thomas Wolfe.

The city starts celebrating the 75th anniversary of Wolfe's birth today with four days of exhibits and theater presentations adapted from his novels. Wolfe scholars from several Southern universities will discuss his work.

And those few who remain from Wolfe's days as a young man in Asheville and Chapel Hill will reminisce about the man who wrote so intensely about life and died at age 37 at the height of his career.

The other characters, many of whom were displayed in a harsh, unflattering style, were drawn so closely from Wolfe's memories that many in Asheville saw themselves in the characterizations.

Saudis Will Take Basic Training In U.S.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — U.S. Air Force spokesmen say some 1,200 Saudi Arabian enlistees will be the first foreign airmen to get their basic military training in this country.

Doug Moore, a spokesman at Lackland Air Force Base, confirmed Tuesday that 100 Royal Saudi Arabian Air Force personnel would arrive in San Antonio tonight.

Several sources said that the State Department had tired to downplay the training by nixing any voluntary news releases by the Air Force.

However, he dodged whether the State Department participated in that decision. The Defense Language Institute and Air Force have trained foreign personnel, including some Arabian royalty, in the past, but such training was limited to English and limited technical work.

Moore said the Royal Saudi Arabian Air Force would pay the $30,000 per person tab for training the 1,200 airmen during the next two years.

The training will include two weeks orientation. 59 weeks of various English courses, four weeks at the Air Force Military Training Center and 52 weeks of math and sciences.

"Then they will go into technical school here in the United States in the specialty in which they're going to be working," Moore said.

The Saudis will stay at several renovated barracks at Lackland, where the Air Force conducts all its basic military training.

Moore said Lackland officials have known since last spring that the Saudis would be trained here.

Electric Car Would Adapt To Cities

By Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D.C. — By a vote of 308 to 60, the House of Representatives has voted to spend $160 million's worth of research towards the development of an electric automobile.

It brings to mind the classic cartoon of little old Victorian ladies driving in a battery-powered horseless carriage. Some of this Federal investment actually would go into the production of about 8,000 demonstration cars to be distributed widely among the public.

The energy research development administration opposes the legislation preferring to go slower and continue its own research into the improvement of batteries for electric cars. This, it seems, is the problem of an electric vehicle. The Office of Management and Budget also voiced opposition, indicating that if this issue clears the Senate, it would probably be vetoed.

On the other hand, though the focus is narrow, it seems to be the sort of thing the President has been talking about — a move by which the Federal Government may give private industry the propulsion needed to achieve energy savings. All this, of course, is worthy intent.

Through Government-industry cooperation, the

The wisdom of mass producing such a vehicle to be peculiarly a "city car," has been advocated for quite a while by some visionaries in the transportation field. They see enormous fuel savings along with relief for congested environments which many of them say have had about all they can take from the gasoline combustion engine. Some also foresee fabulous rental-service possibilities in urban centers for these mini-cars of the future and their emergence as a major in-city supplement to mass transportation.

"They're coming for Air Force basic training and English training," Moore said when asked about the program. "This is the first time that we have provided basic training for anybody but United States Air Force personnel."

The Saudi Arabian students were to come in installments of 100 each three months.

Moore said "higher command" instructed Lackland AFB information officers to answer specific questions from newsmen but squelched any voluntary release of the information.

Sources said prepared news releases had been passed along the Air Force chain of command for clearance, but that the State Department ordered any voluntary news releases stopped.

"We were told to respond to query only," Moore said.

Girl's Complaints Ignored By Mother, Teachers

DEAR ABBY: Thank God I've got you to talk to because I couldn't tell this to anyone else.

I am scared half out of my mind. I think there must be something terribly wrong with me. I am afraid I am going crazy.

I'm afraid of being around people anymore because when someone says something to me, I wonder why they said it. What I mean is, I have this feeling that people say one thing to me and really mean something else.

I have a dull headache over one eye all the time. Sometimes it throbs and throbs. My teachers think I'm faking, and my mother is sick of hearing me gripe about it, so I just keep quiet. I shake a lot and cry when I'm alone.

Now that I've told you, I feel better, but I know it's going to happen again. Please help me. I am 15.

DEAR ABBY: Show your mother this column and ask her to please take you to a doctor. If she refuses, take it to your teacher, your principal or school nurse. You need professional help. Write again soon, dear, and please include your name and address. I care.

DEAR ABBY: An item in your column brought up this question: During a marriage ceremony, when the person who officiates says, "If anyone is present who knows a reason why this couple this couple should not be wed, let him speak now or forever hold his peace," what would happen if someone were to speak up with a reason? Would the wedding take place? Or would it be stopped right then and there?

Has anyone ever attended a wedding when someone voiced an objection?

D.N.A.N.D J.C. AT BSU DEAR D. AND J.: I've seen it only in "B" movies, but if such an incident has actually occurred, I'm sure that someone out there will write in. Readers?

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20c) envelope.
