GUARDSMEN ASSIST POLICE IN BATTLING BLAZES

Accusing Striking Firemen Of Arson

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — City officials say they believe striking firefighters are responsible for some of the 217 blazes which have erupted since firefighters walked off their jobs Friday in a pay dispute.

Fire Director Frank Spink said there are "strong indications that arson was involved in six fires" over the weekend, and police reported one firebombing Sunday night.

Spink said the city had asked surrounding communities which have mutual aid agreements with Kansas City for firefighting assistance, but "got no's, no's, no's. There were burning, and nobody would do anything."

He said union agreements in the other cities take precedent over the mutual aid pact.

Police Chief Joseph McNamara said many fires were deliberately set, "not random acts, but well-planned arsons, committed by people knowledgeable about fires."

Charles Shafer, an attorney for the Kansas City firefighters' union, denied that any union members were involved in starting fires. And Joe McMahon, an international union vice president, said Mayor Charles B. Wheeler Jr. had "made a clown out of himself ... by accusing the firefighters of arson and sabotage. This is a cheap shot being aimed at the firefighters."

Nearly 800 National Guardsmen assisted hundreds of police officers, public works employees and volunteers in battling some 50 fires Sunday — more than 10 times the number usually reported.

Wheeler dismissed 59 striking firefighters who refused to report for duty Sunday night, calling the dismissals a "test situation." He said he expected to take no further action before a Jackson County Circuit Court hearing Thursday on the city's request for an injunction against the strike.

Fast Look At World

Buenos Aires, Argentina (AP) — In a daring coordinated raid, leftist guerrillas attacked a provincial army garrison Sunday in an abortive attempt to steal guns, then fled in a plane hijacked by accomplices, leaving at least 26 dead by official count. The action began when more than 50 Montonero guerrillas raided an infantry garrison in Formosa, a small provincial capital on the Paraguayan border 575 miles north of here, security sources and the official Telam news agency said.

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Premier Carlos Arias Navarro called a special cabinet session today following the spectacular bombing deaths of three more civil guardsmen, but a high official predicted, the government would not "overreact" by declaring a state of emergency. In an ambush similar to the one that killed Premier Luis Carrero Blanco nearly two years ago, a remote control bomb blew up the guards' jeep Sunday.

WASHINGTON (AP) — CIA attempts to kill Cuba's Fidel Castro occurred under three presidents but there is no hard evidence that any president authorized such schemes, according to the chairman of the Senate intelligence committee. Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, said Sunday on ABC's "Issues and Answers" that "plans and attempts" against Castro's life "span the years from the Eisenhower administration through the Kennedy administration, and into the Johnson administration."

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP) — The son of Dutch businessman Tiede Herrema says his family will "do anything" for his safe return, but Irish authorities let a deadline pass without meeting the kidnapers' demands and say they will not issue a reward for information.

Anti-Recession Tax Cuts Mulled By Ford

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford was reported by his chief spokesman to be moving toward a final decision today on whether to urge an extension of anti-recession tax cuts into 1976.

Press Secretary Ron Nessen told reporters that Ford would make his views known perhaps later in the day but certainly by the time the House Ways and Means Committee meets Tuesday to mark up tax legislation.

Asked if the President might announce his decision in a broadcast address later today, Nessen said he did not know what form the announcement would take.

WILL NOT SEEK RE-ELECTION — Sen. John O. Pastore D-R.I., announced today that he would not seek re-election for a sixth term. He has served 25 years in the Senate.

Ford began a series of meetings with his key economic advisers this morning and Nessen said they would continue through most of the day.

There have been reports Ford also is considering asking for a permanent anti-recession tax cut. Other options include asking for a one-year extension or no extension at all.

Ford also is preparing final decisions on two energy proposals. One is a $100 billion quasi-public "energy independence agency," proposed by Vice President Nelson A. Rockefeller that would back private efforts to find new sources of oil and gas and to produce synthetic fuels.

The other proposal calls for a $6 billion loan program to promote synthetic fuels in the United States by getting private industry to build plants to convert coal and shale into synthetic fuels.

Ford also is scheduled to meet this afternoon with India's foreign minister Y. B. Chavan.

Over the weekend, President Ford bade farewell to visiting Japanese Emperor Hirohito on Saturday and then traveled to Elkins, W. Va., and Newark, N.J. He was grand marshal in a forest festival parade in Elkins where he decided to meet the crowds and stand up and wave from his car instead of staying behind a protective bullet-proof bubble on a special presidential limousine.

The decision, in effect, upheld a West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals decision affirming a jury's verdict that headlines on a series of stories in the Charleston Daily Mail had libeled the 1968 Democratic candidate.

The court gave no reason for refusing to hear the case. Justices William O. Douglas and William J. Brennan voted to review the decision.

Sproule charged that the newspaper headlines had "damaged beyond repair" his political career. He was awarded a total judgment of $750,000 by the trial jury.

LOOK AT DEFENSE — Dist. Judge O. P. Carrillo sits with his team of defense lawyers as an impeachment trial, to remove Judge Carrillo from office began in the Texas Senate today. Left to right are John Cutright, Judge O.P. Carrillo, Jan Fox, Arthur Mitchell and Richard "Racehorse" Haynes. Mitchell's initial effort to have the hearing postponed was turned down.

Carrillo Impeachment Trial Begins In Senate

AUSTIN (AP) — The Senate refused by two votes today to postpone until Dec. 1 Texas' first impeachment trial in 44 years.

Sitting as a court in judgment of South Texas District Court Judge O.P. Carrillo, the Senate turned back two other postponement motions by wider votes before deciding, 14-12, against the Dec. 1 date.

One of Carrillo's lawyers, Arthur Mitchell of Austin, asked for the postponement on the ground more time is needed for him to file a motion for new trial in Corpus Christi federal court, where a jury convicted Carrillo last Thursday on income tax evasion.

The Senate rejected postponement motions for Oct. 9, 25-0, and Oct. 14, 17-8. Sen. A.R. Schwartz, D-Galveston, made the Dec. 1 motion, arguing that the Judicial Qualifications Commission will have time to act by then and the state may be saved the expense of keeping the Senate in session. The commission was created in the express purpose of handling cases like this, he said.

Schwartz also said the federal court proceeding is continuing because the date for sentencing is set for Nov. 17.

He also argued that voters will vote Nov. 4 on a new constitution that provides for impeachment trials only for officials elected statewide, not district court judges. Sen. Don Adams, D-

Jasper, chided Schwartz for "asking an open court (the Senate) to yield to a secret court (the Judicial Qualifications Commission)."

Schwartz asked Adams to "stop demagoguing" and quit "playing country" on a serious matter.

Adams said he was only doing what the Senate had grown used to hearing from Schwartz "every day during the legislative session."

Carrillo has been suspended from his state district court bench in South Texas since the House voted for 10 of 11 impeachment articles on Aug. 1-5.

His lawyer has said the federal conviction will be appealed. But the State Bar grievance committee in Corpus Christi could seek suspension of Carrillo's law license—which a district judge must have—pending that appeal.

Therefore, even if the Senate exonerates Carrillo, he still could not get back on the bench if his law license is suspended.

A group from the Knott area talked with County Commissioners Court today about drainage problems.

The people of Knott want the lake covering the state highway drained, County Engineer Neel Barnaby said. They are "terribly disappointed to find some of their neighbors somewhat disgruntled about this situation" of pumping water down Buzzard Draw.

Most have been cooperative, Barnaby said. Pumped water will not flood the fields any more than a quarter-inch rain, Barnaby said. But he said pumping operations had been postponed until Tuesday when two more pumps and additional pipe will be used to by-pass some cotton fields.

If standing water near his place had not receded sufficiently when the Knott drainage operations had been completed, Marlin Murphy said he would appreciate the county draining his area, too.

Raising the road level at one county road intersection was proposed. County Commissioner Simon (Cy) Terrazas mentioned the plan of the late Jay Johnson to build a tank northwest of the site.

Marion Newton Jr. mentioned a "doodle bug" hole which drained water underground before it silted up.

"How come we couldn't get any ditches mowed this year," Newton asked.

"What's more important? Mowing your Bermuda grass or fixing a road where a man can get out," Barnaby asked. He referred to heavy rainfall this year, now 10 inches above normal.

Commissioner Ikie Rupard suggested the court return the road department to its construction schedule, which was set aside in May because of flooding.

"I'm sitting here in limbo waiting for y'all to get some equipment back there," Rupard said. "I've got some drainage problems, too."

Among those present from Knott were Frank Goodman, W. Y. Gray and Lester Owens.

In other business, the court: Named an assistant adult probation officer to help John Dibrell with outside work and collection of probation fees. Guy Talbot, special investigator for the district attorney, will be paid $100 monthly for this extra work. In August, probation fees collected by Dibrell totaled $845, County Judge Bill Tune said.

Approved Debbie Christopher as a full-time deputy district clerk with the annual salary of $5,253. Mrs. Christopher has been working part-time, District Clerk Peggy Crittenden said.

Mrs. Nancy English, secretary to the district judge, has been helping with work but has taken a leave of absence to have a baby. The office workload has increased since last year, Mrs. Crittenden said.

Man Dies Of Gunshot

Edmond Miers, 53, 1215 W. 6th St., died about 9:40 a.m. today from a .22-caliber bullet wound above the right temple, Guy Talbot, special investigator for the district attorney, said.

Miers' wife, Juanita, and son James heard a shot and found him with a gun borrowed earlier this morning to kill a dog, Talbot said.

"He was in good spirits," Talbot related being told, "and showed no signs of despondency."

The shooting happened at the family residence. Police were notified about 9 a.m. and found the victim on his back in a bedroom doorway with the rifle across his feet, Talbot said.

Miers was dead on arrival at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Justice of the Peace Gus Ochotorena Jr. is expected to make a ruling after further investigation.

Teen Chained To Tree Here

A police investigation was under way this morning in possible assault charges in connection with a 19-year-old youth being chained to a tree and a coat put over his head Sunday afternoon.

A neighbor called and reported to police that the youth was chained to a tree at 201 NE 6th. Members of the family claimed the youth was breaking up the home, according to the police report.

Officers released the youth and the investigation continued today.

Drainage Problems Are Discussed With Court

Be Ready To Vote Nov. 4

In less than a month now (Nov. 4, to be exact), Texans will be balloting on whether to adopt a new state constitution.

I think it's safe to say that most residents of this state haven't devoted the attention to the new document they should have. Some people have been too busy. Many are indifferent. They should keep this in mind, however. If they do adopt it, it's something all of us are going to have to live with from now on.

The opportunity to update the constitution doesn't come along every few years. In fact, it's been 99 years since the constitution now being used was approved. No fewer than 220 times has the bulky constitution been amended since 1876, when it was originally approved. Copies of the new constitution have been mailed to every voting citizen within the state. In case you've been regarding it as junk mail, it is tabloid-sized and plainly marked. It looks formidable and it is, but we all have a stake in it and should try to absorb its language. Let Ellery Queen or Barnaby Jones solve their own crimes for a while — this is far more important.

Whether one realizes it or not, this is a most important matter that deserves the attention and intelligent vote of every Texas citizen.

What does the constitution matter to you? We will attempt to explain that in necessary and understandable detail between now and the election, but for starters let us point out that the constitution is the charter under which the governor, others in the executive branch, the legislature and the courts govern us.

Perhaps the old constitution is adequate and should not be changed. Perhaps it is not and the new constitution would bring benefits. That is for you, the voter, to decide.

The present constitution, for instance, has the legislature meeting in regular session once every two years. The new constitution would provide for sessions every year.

Too, the new constitution would significantly change the structure of the Texas judiciary.

It would change the manner in which salaries of legislators are set, a suggestion voters have frowned on in the past.

Space here does not permit citing all the changes, but these illustrate the importance of the election.

Read and analyze as best you can the proposed constitution mailed to you from Austin. Keep it handy to refer to as you read articles and editorials on it between now and Nov. 4.

It All Adds Up

As if budgets weren't strained already, families must steel themselves for another hike in the cost of living. The State Insurance Board has proposed that typical motorists' rates will be raised anywhere from $8 to $43 annually.

Howard County drivers will be among the hardest hit, paying an average of $35 more.

Inflation accounted for much of the boost. Hail that fell in the spring didn't help, either.

The cost of automobile repair has gone up, along with everything else. In fact, it has risen faster than most other items. Parts are up more than 30 per cent for most cars the past year. Labor costs have increased, too.

All that adds up to higher settlements for accidents. And when you add the past year's driving experience to the equation, it gets worse. For Texas drivers have been involved in more wrecks the past year than for a comparable period in 1973-74.

The costly wrecks, in terms of volume of dollars, are the high speed highway crashes. It is the intersection fender-benders that push the insurance loss totals upward the most. And, at today's prices, a fender-bender can mean hundreds of dollars, at least.

Scandalized

William F. Buckley, Jr.

New York's Congressional delegation is scandalized by one of their number, Senator James L. Buckley, who has outraged precedent by behaving honorably, which is, roughly speaking, the opposite of behaving politically. The Congressional delegation wants Washington, D. C., which is short-hand for Duluth, Abilene, Ft. Lauderdale, Bridgeport, Atlanta and Boise, to guarantee the maturing bonds of the City of New York. Guaranteeing the bonds means making up the deficit, because the revenues being generated by the City of New York are insufficient to pay the obligations undertaken by the City of New York. Senator Buckley, in a word, is being vilified for declining to encourage other Americans to subsidize New York City's extravagance and mismanagement. A few observations.

1. THERE IS in my opinion no reason at all to believe that the people of New York City are as outraged as their politicians. The people of New York City are overtaxed as it is, and there are no complaints heard more frequently among them than against the extravagances of their own officials. These have been countenanced in part because of the usual inertia of the voters, in part because somehow the money has materialized for all those extra services and all that welfare and all that tuition-free guaranteed admission to city colleges. If the bonds go into default, it will mean very simply that economies will have to be effected. The people of New York are bound to benefit in due course from any move that relieves them of the insidious burden of profligate spending.

2. A senator demeans the office if he considers it his primary function to wage a form of guerrilla warfare against other states in the union, the purpose of which is to take as much of the money that belongs to people who live out of state as he can, in order to spend it at home. A senator especially demeans the office if he considers it his duty to invade states poorer than his own, for the benefit of his own state.

3. A United States senator, as distinguished from a lobbyist for New York City, has some responsibility to meditate the consequences of his vote. Any guarantee by Washington, D. C. of the obligations of New York City instantly encourages other cities — and quite rightly so — to demand similar guarantees. And we revert to the old phenomenon of what I have called a sky black with criss-crossing dollars. The people who win those wars are the people with political muscle. That they should also think of themselves — as most New York congressmen have got into the habit of doing — as the world's most conspicuous humanitarians, is accepted by people with stronger stomachs than my own, and lesser minds.

4. Representative Edward Koch, who prides himself on his own independence, now says of his colleagues in Congress, "We should be acting as a delegation and speaking with one voice." I find no sanction in American history, in the Constitution, in the Bill of Rights, or in the work of Edmund Burke, Thomas Jefferson, John Stuart Mill, or Oliver Wendell Holmes to endorse the generality of Mr. Koch. Translated, his statement says: "When we guys in New York get together to steal from other Americans, we ought to do it unanimously, since that way as individuals we are less exposed." Mr. Koch makes a demagogic but dangerous crack about Senator Buckley's previous residence in the neighboring state of Connecticut. Demagogic, because he never made such a reference to the previous residences of Senator Robert Kennedy. Dangerous because Connecticut pays out $1.54 for every $1.00 it receives from the federal government in welfare, whereas New York, which is wealthier than Connecticut, pays out only 98 cents for every dollar it receives.

5. From all of which we must conclude that Senator Buckley is living up to the promises he made to the people who elected him: to guard the federal system, to preserve the independence of the states, to speak the truth as he sees it.

Will Interest Rates Drop?

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — There's no need to search for the mechanisms that will be determining interest rates over the next few months. Just keep your eye on Uncle Sam's Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board.

That's what the stock market is doing, and probably no institution in America is more sensitive to the direction of money costs. If interest rates drop, the yield on stocks looks relatively better.

The big, 18.66-point surge in the Dow Jones industrial average last Friday was attributed largely to expectations that the Fed would begin easing up on the money supply and permit interest rates to fall.

But, as is often the case, the market sometimes becomes overly optimistic. There is no assurance the Fed will let more money flow into the economy. More important perhaps, there are few indications that Uncle Sam won't be competing harder than ever for funds.

This isn't good news for those who seek lower rates. Treasury borrowing puts great upward pressure on the entire market. And the outlook now is for increased Treasury borrowing over the next few months.

Treasury officials have raised their estimates of cash requirements in the second half of the year from $41 billion to about $44 billion to $47 billion, with $10 billion of it expected to be raised this month. Lionel D. Edie & Co., the economic consulting arm of Merrill Lynch, the brokerage house, notes also that federal agencies, which have been essentially out of the market much of the year, will be net borrowers in the fourth quarter.

Adding to the pressure in the money markets, and consequently to interest rates, will be a seasonal rise in demands for credit by businesses and consumers.

"With this confluence of demands, increases in rates could be substantial," says Carol Stone, senior economist for Edie, although some of the potential increase could be muted by an easier Federal Reserve money policy.

The gains made by the Communist Party in Italy should give some sleepless nights to officials of the government headed by Christian Democrat Aldo Moro. The Communists, polling almost as many votes as the Christian Democrats, now stand in a better position than ever to jockey for participation in a new coalition government.

This development has a far different background from the communist bid for power in Portugal, but it could be as portentous for Western Europe in the long run. The Italian Communists do not present themselves as fire-breathing revolutionaries, but have gained the support they enjoy by providing efficient local government when they get the chance — such as in Bologna — and waiting for other parties to display their weaknesses.

Those weaknesses are legendary. Inefficiency and lack of direction have been the plague of the series of 37 governments which have ruled Italy, or tried to, in the postwar era.

The country's oversized bureaucracy has become progressively less capable of providing basic administrative services as it has grown.

It has been said the Italians did not mind living under the fascist dictator Benito Mussolini in the 1930s because he made the trains run on time. The danger in the 1970s is that Italians would be willing to overlook the ideological commitments of their Communist Party, and its ties to Moscow, just for the sake of getting their mail delivered or their sewers unclogged — or getting their trains back on schedule. — Waco Tribune Herald

Human Rights Commission condemning the conditions on the barriers. The report, citing lack of water facilities, overflowing latrines or none at all, open garbage and inadequate access to medical care, called for the enforcement of state and Federal health and sanitation regulations.

While the state agencies rightly and cautiously moved only to correct the health and sanitation violations, the Federal government, with a blindness engendered by their "absentee landlord" status, began to enforce the Child Labor Law. In so doing, they unknowingly trampled on an almost sacred local tradition.

Ever since blueberries have been harvested on a large scale, local families have worked together in the fields for those few summer weeks, trying to supplement an already meager income.

But the Federal Child Labor Law didn't take these distinctions into account. As a result, families lost hundreds of dollars of income because mothers, instead of picking, were home babysitting....

The state-of-Mainers do have a legitimate gripe. Better toilets, water facilities, garbage collection and first aid supplies were needed and no one, including the growers, denied it. Two Kinds Of Arthritis

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have just completed a six-week bout with iritis. I found out it is attributed to rheumatoid arthritis. Is it possible that I have arthritis elsewhere? I understand it can be arrested but not cured. — Mrs. P. W.

You do not have arthritis of the eye, of course, but the constitutional changes occurring with rheumatoid arthritis can be reflected in the eyes.

There is, in fact, a condition that is called "rheumatic iritis," which can accompany general arthritis elsewhere in the body.

Iritis (inflammation of the colored, circular structure around the pupil) is usually chronic, and it can recur over a number of years, so you should not be surprised if the condition reappears. I believe you are referring to arthritis when you ask whether "it" can be arrested but not cured. If so, you are correct. Arthritis can be controlled, but to date we have no method of actually curing it. Generally, then, treatment for your iritis condition would be in controlling the underlying condition — the arthritis, if that is present.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: A lot of people say you shouldn't swim after eating, including my mother. Now people tell me you can swim after you eat. Please tell me which is right. My mother says you can drown if you swim after eating. — S.P.

The most common causes of drownings are exhaustion and cramps. Here it is essentially cramps we are talking about. Cramps are caused by a lack of blood supply to the muscles involved. In digestion, especially after a heavy meal, blood is noticeably diverted from arm and leg muscles to the intestines, where it is needed because of increased activity.

Vigorous physical activity following a heavy meal may cause cramps in blood-deprived areas. It's best to wait a half hour or an hour after eating to go swimming. Persons with circulation problems should be especially careful. Of course, this applies to any exercise. Swimming is emphasized because of the added hazard posed by the water.

Water temperature can also be a factor. Coldness can divert blood supply from the internal organs to the body surface, thus flirting with the chances of abdominal cramps, especially after a full meal.

My Answer

Billy Graham

Would you please explain 1 John 1:8? I find this verse very confusing.

R.O. In this chapter the Apostle John is trying to get us to see the contrast of being in Christ, and out of Christ. It is sort of a before-and-after approach. "God is light," he says,

"and if we say we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie." It would be inconsistent to say, "God is light, He is mine, and I am in darkness." Just so, he tells us that Christ "cleanses us from all sin," but that sin cannot be dealt with unless it is confessed. Hence, the words, "If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us." In other words, if we say we have no sin, we are also saying that we need no forgiveness, no Cross, no atonement. Many people in the world say this today. Not in so many words, but in attitude. They are not conscious of their need of God.

Then the ninth verse says: "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all righteousness." But this marvelous promise is only to those who are conscious of their sin, and are willing to see Christ as the great sin-Bearer. To these, and to these only are granted forgiveness and cleansing.

Retarded Sister Of Kennedy Disappears, Found Wandering

CHICAGO (AP) — The retarded sister of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy disappeared after attending a church service with sister Eunice Shriver but was found five hours later calmly wandering and "looking in the windows" along a busy downtown avenue.

Mrs. Shriver said she had taken Rosemary Kennedy to St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church for a Sunday morning Mass and was standing with her sister in the vestibule of the church afterward.

"I was looking at some books, and when I turned around, Rosie was gone," Mrs. Shriver told police. She flagged down a patrol car to report her sister missing and then joined the search with foot patrolmen and officers in 10 cruisers.

WBBM-TV newsman Peter Nolan, assigned to cover the disappearance, spotted the 56-year-old Miss Kennedy near the Chicago Art Institute on Michigan Avenue, about four blocks from the church.

It was a windy but warm day, and the area is a favorite Sunday gathering spot for Chicagoans.

"She was just walking down the street looking in windows," Nolan said. "I went over and asked her if she was looking for Eunice, and she said yes." He said she did not appear nervous or distraught.

Two nearby police officers radioed for a patrol car, and Miss Kennedy was taken to police headquarters for a reunion with her sister. A half-hour later, the two left through a rear door.

Strike Protesting Firing Of Refinery Worker Ends

PORT ARTHUR, Tex. (AP) — A weekend strike protesting the suspension of an employee at the main Texaco refinery here ended Sunday night.

Pickets posted by the Oil, Chemical & Atomic Workers Union withdrew about 10 p.m. They had been posted at 6 a.m. Friday after the company's Sept. 25 suspension of C.M. "Mike" Fontenot.

Texaco officials accused Fontenot of insubordination, claiming he refused to let plant security guards search his van. Fontenot claimed he was beaten by four of the guards.

The union demanded that the company fire the guards and reinstate Fontenot with pay lost during his five-day suspension. Union leaders said, however, that these demands "probably will not be met."

In the Cleveland case, the documents show that Cleveland FBI agents learned the wife of Rod Holt, chairman of the Ohio campaign committee for the Socialist Workers Party's 1964 presidential candidate, was hired on a probationary basis into an elementary school music teacher.

Nagnapers Hit Again In Italy

MILAN, Italy (AP) — Italian horsemen struck again over the weekend, seizing Carnaba, a 3-year-old bay owned by U.S. oil millionaire Nelson Bunker Hunt.

Police theorized the horsemen either were crooks after ransom, or badly disappointed bettors seeking revenge for recent below-standard performances by Carnaba.

The horse, rated one of the best on the Italian circuit, won an estimated $60,000 in the past year and was about to be shipped back to the United States to start breeding soon.

Police said the horsemen forced their way into Carnaba's stall at the San Siro racetrack Saturday night and led it away so silently that not even the guard dogs barked.

Carnaba's disappearance was discovered by his 55-year-old trainer, Luigi Turner, whose bedroom is on top of the stall, on Sunday morning.

It was the second horse-napping in Italy in two months. Wayne Eden, an American-bred trotter, was abducted Aug. 16 and released three weeks later. It was not known if Wayne Eden's owner, a Milan industrialist, paid any ransom.

In addition to Carnaba, one other animal, a black-bird named Guido, is still in the hands of kidnapers. Guido, a trained bird and champion songster, disappeared from his cage near Venice a month ago. His owners reported receiving a $480 ransom demand but refused to pay.

Also missing and believed in the possession of Italy's kidnap industry are 74 reels of negatives of moviemakers Federico Fellini, Pier Paolo Pasolini and Damiano Damiani. The films were stolen in mid-August but so far no ransom request has been made public.

Italian kidnapers have also seized at least 40 human beings this year, including eight children and teenagers.

Fuss Over Kids Playing In Street Sparks Deaths

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Neighbors say a feud started by children playing in the street prompted the firebombing of a rowhouse in which five persons died, including a woman and three of her children.

One man was charged with murder, attempted murder and arson in connection with the attack Sunday. Another man was charged with a firebombing two weeks ago of the family's car.

"There's been feuding on this street for a long time," a neighbor said in stark explanation.

Killed were Ramona Santiago, 37; two daughters, Nancy, 14, and Roberta, 6; a son, Isradames, 13; and Luis Carricini, 14, a family friend spending the night.

A fourth child, Carlos Santiago, 11, was in critical condition at Crozier-Chester Burn Center with extensive burns. His father, Radames, 36, and a family friend, Nelson Garcia, 14, escaped serious injury. A fifth child, Leona, was away babysitting at the time.

Santiago, a security guard for a local hospital, reportedly left the city for New York with relatives who came to pick him up after the fire.

Neighbors said they had frequently quarreled with the Santiago family over petty matters.

They said trouble began several months ago in the neighborhood with disputes about the Santiago children playing in the streets. The disputes, they said, escalated into conflicts involving the parents.

One neighbor said police had been called several times to intervene.

Police charged Robert Wilkinson, 26, with five counts of murder, three counts of attempted murder and one each of arson, conspiracy and endangering the lives of others. He lives on the same block of North 4th Street in the city's Hunting Park section as the Santiago family.

Several hours later, David McGinnis, 18, was arrested on charges of firebombing the family car two weeks ago. Police said he was not charged with the house firebombing.

A witness told police a bottle was thrown through a first floor window about 3:30 a.m. The two-alarm fire, which damaged two adjoining houses, was under control within 30 minutes.

"We had our eyes glued to the upstairs, hoping somebody would jump," an unidentified onlooker said. "But there was nobody left."

Meritorious Service Medal Given Fleming

SMSGT. Eddie G. Fleming was awarded the Meritorious Service Medal at his retirement ceremony recently in the Wing Conference Room at Webb AFB. He has been first sergeant for the 78th Supply Squadron since May.

"His outstanding skill, knowledge, and leadership aided immeasurably in identifying problems in the field of administrative management and in developing research projects capable of solving these problems," his citation read.

1st Lt. Haldon D. Lewin was picked Instructor Pilot of the Month in the 3389th Flying Training Squadron for September. "His understanding of foreign student problems, coupled with his ability to communicate enable him to successfully instruct even the most difficult student," said L. Col. Stanley C. Hanson, squadron commander.

In performing an additional duty, Lieutenant Lewin designed a complete flying and ground safety program for a new flight. He also assisted in setting up a standardization program for that flight.

Sgt. Wilbert Frazier and Amn. 1st Cl. Dan Rice were selected Noncommissioned Officer and Airman of the Quarter in the Civil Engineering Squadron.

Both men are in the Fire Department. Sgt. Frazier is a fire extinguisher repair specialist and Airman Rice an alarm room operator. "This is a very outstanding achievement for these two men when compared to the calibre of men they competed against for the award," said 2nd Lt. Robert W. Kruse, squadron information officer.

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Columnist-humorist Art Buchwald, who had been hospitalized after collapsing from what doctors said was an intense pain in his stomach, has been released.

A spokesman for Wellborn Baptist Hospital said Buchwald, who was released Sunday afternoon, was believed to be suffering from kidney stones.

O'BRYAN STILL PROFESSING HIS INNOCENCE 'Candy Man' Will Spend Halloween On Death Row

HOUSTON (AP) — They call him "the candy man" on Huntsville's death row. To Houston children, he's "the man who ruined Halloween."

He is Ronald C. O'Bryan, former Big Spring Optician, and his role in a year-old horror story may have changed forever the traditional childhood celebration of Halloween.

O'Bryan was convicted last summer of murdering his 8-year-old son, Timothy, with poisoned trick-or-treat candy. The youngster died on Halloween night only a short while after taking two gulps of a cyanide laced confection.

Chilling memories of that October night still linger in this city, forming the final persuasion for many parents and civic groups to stop or to alter the trick-or-treat custom.

Thousands of children, who last Halloween went door-to-door collecting candy with the mock threat of "trick or treat," this year will go to carnivals, parties or just stay home.

"There are just too many nuts out there to risk it any more," said one father.

Officials in the Houston suburb of Bellaire, Missouri City, El Lago and La Porte agree. Each community has officially discouraged trick-or-treating.

In Deer Park, where the O'Bryan family lived, school and city officials plan a citywide carnival for some 2,000 children.

Many other officials, who believe the trick-or-treat tradition is just too deeply ingrained to stop altogether, are promoting an idea that will cut the risks and keep the fun.

Instead of collecting candy on their outing, thousands of children will collect "punkin' money," the brainstrom of Mrs. Pate Nufer, a Houston living on death row at the Ellis Unit of the Texas prison system.

"He is still professing his innocence," said Teague, "but he still has faith in the system of justice."

Teague has started the long process of appeals and is prepared to test O'Bryan's death sentence in both state and federal courts.

Prison officials said O'Bryan was given the nickname "candy man" by other inmates on death row.

He lives in a small cell, by himself, with little to do to pass the long hours, his attorney said.

He has been visited by his father and his brother, both Houston residents, but not by his wife, Daylene, who testified against him at his trial.

O'Bryan's arrest, a few days after Halloween last year, left his family in serious financial straits. Of the insurance policies he took on his son, only one small payment has been made.

O'Bryan's daughter, Elizabeth Lane, is 6 years old and started school this fall. The family has taken elaborate measures to BURLESON, TOWER NAMED Who Received Campaign Gifts From Oil Company?

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Secretary of State Mark White says his office will launch an investigation today to determine who in Texas received campaign contributions from the Phillips Petroleum Co. and if the candidates were aware of the money's source.

White said any evidence of wrongdoing would be forwarded to the attorney general for prosecution.

In a report filed last week with the federal Securities and Exchange Commission, Phillips said it had donated $585,000 to state and national candidates between 1964 and 1972. About $125,000 was spent in five Texas elections, the report said.

Such contributions violate Texas campaign finance laws and could result in fines and imprisonment for officers of the oil company and Texas politicians who knowingly accepted corporate contributions. The Dallas Times Herald said in its Sunday editions.

The newspaper quoted White as saying Saturday, "There seems to be no other choice than to prosecute." But he said no action would be taken until his office concludes its investigation.

The report named no candidates for state offices in Texas, but it did say Sen. John Tower, R-Tex. received $1,000, and U.S. Rep. Omar Burleson, Democrat from Anson, received $200 from the company in 1972.

Aides to Tower and Burleson have said their bosses did not know the contributions were from Phillips.

White said he does not believe the politicians involved were aware of the source of the oil company's contributions.

"There may be illegal contributions on the part of the contributors, but it doesn't indicate knowing malfeasance on the part of the office-holders," White said.

Under the recently revised Texas law, candidates who knowingly accept corporate donations could be sentenced up to five years in prison and $5,000 fine. Corporate officials found guilty of such practices face the same penalties and the firm itself could be fined $10,000.

Boston, Cincinnati Game Away Of Sweep

BIG SPRING HERALD

SECTION B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, MONDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1975

OUT AT HOME — Oakland catcher Ray Fosse holds on and falls back but Boston's Cecil Cooper tagged out at home during the fifth inning Sunday in the second game of the American League playoffs in Boston. The Red Sox beat the A's 6-3, and lead the series, 2-0.

Red Sox Blast World Champs

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Red Sox, playing as if they invented baseball, are just one game from the American League pennant, ready to end the hopes of the mighty Oakland A's and owner Charles O. Finley for a fourth consecutive World Series championship.

The Red Sox, who laughed at pressure in ousting the Baltimore Orioles as East Division champs during the regular season, held a 2-0 lead over the A's in their best-of-five playoff for the pennant and a World Series berth.

The Red Sox, who whipped the A's 7-1 on Luis Tiant's three-hit pitching Saturday, completed a sweep of the two games in Boston with a 6-3 comeback victory Sunday.

in a situation where they have to win three in a row as the series moves to Oakland for a third game Tuesday. "We do it or die," Oakland Manager Alvin Dark said. "That's it. No refunds after Tuesday if we don't win."

"It still takes three to win this thing," Boston Manager Darrell Johnson cautioned.

Dark and Johnson agreed that the Red Sox played virtually a perfect game in rallying to beat the A's in the second meeting.

"Those fellows have done a great job," Dark said. "They just outplayed us today. They did everything you need to do in the game of baseball to win."

"We played a game of baseball as well as it can be played," Johnson said. "We played the game to perfection. It's not possible to play any better."

END OF THE LINE — Cincinnati's Ken Griffery (30) slides into third after stealing his second base of the inning against the Pirates Sunday in the sixth inning of the second game of the National League playoff. Pirate, third baseman Richie Hebner has only one leg to stand on as he watches the late throw to second. Cincinnati runners had seven stolen bases as they ran away from the Pirates with a 6-1 victory.

Reds Pepper Pittsburgh

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds are within one game of a sweep in the National League playoffs, but Sparky Anderson said it was still nip-and-tuck in the pit of his ulcer-ridden stomach.

"They are very capable of annihilating us in three ball games," the Reds manager said after Cincinnati burned a trail around the basepaths and beat Pittsburgh 6-1 Sunday.

Nevertheless, the Reds dominated the Pirates in the first two games and the best-of-five series could end Tuesday night in Pittsburgh.

"We are capable of playing this game as well as any team can ever play," admitted the white-haired Anderson, who swills milk to appease his stomach lining.

Indeed, the Reds set a championship playoff record with seven stolen bases Sunday with a running display on synthetic turf that would have looked more at home on a cinder running track or a football field.

They've also limited the Pirates to a total of 13 hits in the first two games. Pittsburgh manager, just five hits Sunday off Fred Norman and Rawley Eastwick.

"But we are also capable of being very shabby for three games, so I'll stay very low key," said Anderson.

Pirates Manager Danny Murtaugh, whose only key is low key, was stone-faced after the lost weekend, which included an 8-3 setback Saturday.

"This is a five-game series. You don't win a five-game series in two games," Murtaugh reminded.

Tony Perez gave the Reds all the runs they needed Sunday when he stroked a first-inning pitch from Jim Rooker over the leftfield wall for a two-run homer.

Rains Reigns As City Tournament Champ

By CLARK LESHNER Bernard Rains led from start to finish to reign as the championship flight winner of the Big Spring City Golf Championship Sunday afternoon at the Comanche Trail Course.

Rains shot a three-over-par final 36-hole total of 145, brilliant fall weather, sunny and hot, no trace of a breeze, no noise of a breeze, no out-defending champion Royce Cox by two strokes.

Cox, down the flight line with a 74 opening round Saturday compared to Rains' three-under-par 68, closed the gap by firing a

OHIO STATE Good Enough For No. 1?

Woody Hayes thinks Ohio State is the best college football team in the country and his Buckeyes put on a prime-time television spectacular to try and convince the voters.

"We think we're good enough to be No. 1," Hayes said after the second-ranked Buckeyes' impressive offensive and defensive display in trouncing No. 13 UCLA 41-20 after rolling up a 38-7 lead. "I think we should be No. 1... period! We want to be No. 1 and we think we're going to be No. 1. We won by 21 points."

Ironically, that was the margin by which the Buckeyes trailed top-ranked Oklahoma in last week's Associated Press poll. They took the field against UCLA Saturday night knowing Oklahoma had barely squeezed past 19th-ranked Colorado 21-20 when the losers' Tom Mackenzie missed an extra-point try with 1:23 to play.

Elsewhere, third-ranked Southern California trailed winless Iowa 10-0 before Rob Hertz, subbing for injured quarterback Vince Evans, rallied the Trojans to a 27-16 triumph by running for two touchdowns and passing for another.

St. Paul Lutheran Workers Set Plans

The St. Paul Lutheran Parish Workers met at the home of Mrs. Richard

Knocke on Thursday night. The devotion was given by Mrs. Leroy Budke. The Bicentennial was explained by Mrs. Janell Davis. The interesting talk gave a much better insight into the work going on behind the scenes of the Bicentennial Committee.

Plans were made for furnishing a Love Basket for Thanksgiving including the aid of the Sunday School Children and members of the congregation. With Christmas just around the corner it was decided to help furnish gifts for the State Hospital. These must be at the church no later than Nov. 9. The committee was appointed to serve for the progressive Christmas party on Dec. 14th. Mrs. August Graumann, Mrs. Knocke and Mrs. Harold Bentley will make plans for this event.

Announcements included the Mission Festival to be held on Oct. 12 with a pot luck lunch following the Worship Service. Nov. 23 will be the Lutheran Hour Rally at Andrews with Dr. Oswald Hoffmann as the speaker.

Refreshments were served to ten by Mrs. Bentley and Mrs. Knocke.

Coahoma Club Studies Past

The Mary Jane Club of Coahoma met Thursday morning in the home of Mrs. Roselle Coates. The roll call was answered by members giving short sketches about an assigned historical subject that they will report on at each meeting.

After a short business meeting Mrs. Sue Ann Damron presented a program on genealogy. Mrs. Damron is a graduate of The University of Texas-Permian Basin. She is a charter member of the local Daughters of the American Revolution organization, serving the club as registrar and librarian. She is also the editor of the monthly publication of the Genealogical Society of Big Spring.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Roselle Coates and Mrs. Carolyn Brooks.

Pet Nip Could Transmit Disease

Even a playful nip from a pet dog or cat may transmit a microscopic organism which can cause a nasty infection. A 10-year study at the Oregon State Public Health Laboratories showed the offending organism lives in the mouths of up to half of all healthy dogs and nearly three in four cats.

Abby Lists Fire Causes, Prevention Tips For Home

DEAR READERS: If statistics bore you, please read this anyway. One fact might save your life:

Last year approximately 12,000 Americans perished in nearly three million fires. And in Canada, there were nearly 900 deaths caused by approximately 79,000 fires.

A large percentage of those who died were children, elderly persons and invalids who had been left alone "for just a few minutes."

The chief causes of fires, in order of the toll taken, were:

1. Smoking
2. Electrical wiring
3. Heating and cooking equipment
4. Children playing with matches
5. Open flames and sparks
6. Flammable liquids
7. Suspected arson
8. Chimneys and flues
9. Lightning
10. Spontaneous ignition

The total loss due to fire in 1973 was an estimated $3,900,000,000 in the U.S.A. and $254 million in Canada.

Now for some tips that could save your life:

—Be sure your cigarette is out. Matches, too. And never leave matches and lighters within the reach of children.

—Don't run cords under rugs or over radiators where they may get damaged. And replace a cord if it is frayed.

—Never leave small children alone in the house. Not even for a few minutes.

—Have your wiring and electrical installations done by a professional.

—Store oily rags and paints in a cool place in tightly sealed metal containers.

—Never use flammable liquids for dry-cleaning indoors.

—Never smoke in bed.

—Have a fire drill in your home to be sure everyone knows what to do in case of fire.

Remember: Fire extinguishers put out 97 per cent of all the fires on which they are sprayed, and most large fires start as small fires. So, invest in a compact, easy-to-use fire extinguisher and keep it handy in your kitchen, or be a sport and buy one for your cottage, car, boat, and the back bedroom.

More recently, some excellent fire-detection system have become available to homeowners. Ask your local fire marshal about them.

NOW, in case of fire: If you suspect fire, feel the top of the door. If it's hot, don't open it. Escape through the window. But first alert the rest of the household.

If you can't open the window, break it with a chair. Cover the rough edges with a blanket, sit on the window ledge with one leg hanging outside and one inside, and wait for help.

The phone number of your fire department should be taped on every telephone. If it isn't, don't fumble around trying to find it. Get out and call from a neighbor's house.

If you live in an apartment building, use the stairway. Don't take a chance on the elevator. If it fails, you're trapped.

Once out, stay out. No treasure — not even the family pet — is worth risking a human life.

It took less than three minutes to read this column. Was it worth it? I hope so. God bless. Have a good day!
