

Fall-Winter Schedule At Two Carlsbad Parks

CARLSBAD, N.M. — Two Carlsbad area parks have begun fall and winter visitor hours, which will be in effect until next Memorial Day. At Carlsbad Caverns National Park, the visitor center opens at 8 a.m. and trips into the main cavern are offered continuously from 8 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. daily. Although Big Room trips which enter the cavern by elevator are being offered until 3:15 p.m. daily, visitors desiring to make the complete three-mile walk-in trip must be at the cavern's natural entrance no later than 2 p.m. in order to have time to complete the trip. The Living Desert State Park at Carlsbad also is observing the fall-winter schedule with current hours of 9 a.m. to 4:10 p.m. The park is open seven days a week. The park offers visitors an opportunity to see one of the most complete cacti and desert plant exhibits in the world and to view a large collection of native reptiles and animals. Carlsbad Caverns National Park is also offering primitive lantern tours of New Cave in the Slaughter Canyon area this winter. They will be held at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays only until spring. For New Cave trip reservations, visitors should telephone (505) 785-2233.

Guard Convicted Of Killing Youth

DALLAS (AP) — Punishment arguments were scheduled today in the trial of a Dallas security guard convicted of involuntary manslaughter for the fatal shooting of a 16-year old shoplifting suspect last summer. Gene Guinn, 43, faces two to 10 years imprisonment and a fine of up to $5,000 for the conviction as possible penalties. The jury in state district court here Wednesday deliberated 2½ hours before returning the guilty verdict against Guinn. Guinn was accused of shooting Robert Raines Lee at a drug store June 3 after the youth allegedly tried to steal three records. Guinn was employed as a security guard at the store. Witnesses said Guinn chased Lee out of the store, raised his pistol and fired one shot, hitting Lee in the head. Guinn testified he thought the youth had a pistol when he saw the boy reach into his pocket. He said even then he intended to shoot over the youth's head. FOR BEST RESULTS USE HERALD CLASSIFIED ADS

'Superstar' Dolly Parton Enjoys 'Doing Her Thing'

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Dolly Parton sits behind the booth-type breakfast table on her bus and runs her fingers through the long hair of her younger brother, Randy.

A little later, she and another brother tap their fingertips against each other's while a sister, a cousin and other members of her band sip on cans of cola between shows.

"It makes being on the road a whole lot easier for me than many entertainers," she says. "We all love each other. I can be alone when I want to but I'm never faced with being lonely."

After appearing with Porter Waggoner for several years, Miss Parton, at 29, is on the verge of becoming a superstar on her own in country music. She stands a good chance of winning the Country Music Association's female entertainer of the year award next week and is up for election to the group's board of directors.

The closeness with her band and backup vocalists — all but three of them are "family" — and the unadorned bus they tour on belie her image as a sexy but innocent Cinderella.

"I know my hair is out of the '60s, my clothes are '50s and the shoes I wear are from the '40s," she says. "But I like looking like I came out of a fairy tale."

"The people who criticize the way I look are the same ones running around telling everybody, 'Do your own thing.' Well, I am. They're not going to change me."

Small children look at her as if she were a fairy godmother and high school girls rush up for autographs, putting to rest the notion that teenagers have been consumed completely by rock and roll.

State troopers and deputy sheriffs assume a protective role, surrounding her except for when she's on the bus or on stage, all the while smiling confidently like favored courtiers.

Asked if she ever thought of performing in the plain slacks and black on red printed blouse she relaxes in between shows, Miss Parton replies, no.

"Anybody can look like a common Joe. Only stars can wear rhinestones," she says mockingly, laughing at herself and her stereotyped image.

Her desire for success came while growing up in poverty in East Tennessee. She says her song, "Coat of Many Colors" about a mother making a coat for her daughter out of rags is an experience out of own childhood.

"I don't guess I really have any heroes," she says. "I never had posters of Elvis Presley up on the wall like everybody else. I was too busy working toward my own goals."

As a songwriter, Miss Parton probably is more responsible than anyone else for breaking the stereotype of women as mothers, loving wives or honkytonk cheaters in the lyrics of country songs.

She has written more than 2,000 songs, many of them reflecting her own independence. Married to an asphalt contractor nine years, she says her husband "is a friend and I love him."

"Performing on the road satisfies the gypsy in me. He pretty much likes to stay at home," she says. "Occasionally he'll come along when he feels he needs to get away, but I don't think he's ever been on this bus."

"He has his interests and I have mine, and he's never tried to stand in the way of what I want to do. Sure, we've had disagreements, but they've never been over my career."

motherhood desires for now. "Someday I may want to have children of my own, but it'll only be when I feel that I am ready to give up part of my career. Besides, you can look at songwriting as a mother-type thing."

"You first conceive it and then it develops. You labor with it to get it out, but afterwards it's sort of on its own and you no longer have that much control over what becomes of it."

Many of her songs have been picked up by other artists. Merle Haggard had a hit with her "Kentucky Gambler" and Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass have just completed recording an instrumental version of "The Seeker."

She says that because she's a country person, she'll always consider herself a country performer.

"When I wrote 'Down From Dover' several years ago, the record company didn't want me to record it. It was too far ahead of its time. Now that kind of song is accepted," she says.

But, before performing the same song in front of a rural audience, she couches it in terms of "a girl getting in trouble, something that happens in the best of families sometimes."

"I do have this image that I have to protect among some older country fans," she says. "But that doesn't mean that I don't like a good time."

"Not that I do actually do anything bad. Usually its playful type things like throwing bread across the table at somebody in a restaurant or a water fight, stuff like that."

"But my thoughts are my own. I wouldn't dare put them down on paper or in a diary. They might hurt some people and offend others."

"Personally, I can't be shocked by anything that another person does," she says. "Nobody can reach so deep into my soul that they can hurt me beyond recovery; my soul is between just me and God."

NO HEROES — Country music singer Dolly Parton says she has no heroes because she's been too busy working toward her own goals. She has a good chance of winning the Country Music Association's female entertainer of the year award.

Utility Sues Over Uranium

DALLAS (AP) — Texas Utilities Co. said Wednesday it has taken Westinghouse Electric Corp. to court after Westinghouse said it would not honor a contract to supply the giant utility with uranium.

T.L. Austin, board chairman of Texas Utilities, said "we contracted for this fuel well in advance and at a favorable price. Since Westinghouse has now informed us that they will not fulfill this contract, we find it necessary to file this suit to protect the interests of the people we serve."

Texas Utilities Services Inc. (TUSI), a subsidiary of Texas Utilities, actually brought the suit. Texas Utilities is the parent company of Texas Power & Light, Dallas Power & Light and Texas Electric Service Co.

TUSI signed a contract May 11, 1973 with Westinghouse to purchase uranium at prices substantially below today's market. The fuel is to furnish the first two year's requirements for each of two 1,150,000-kilowatt generating units now under construction at Comanche Peak Steam Electric Station near Glen Rose.

Austin said Westinghouse notified the company Sept. 8 that it would not supply all of the uranium at the contracted price because of substantial increases in the market price of the ore brought on by the world energy crisis.

SASSAFRAS TEA, NICKEL COKE C&P Going Out Of Business Cops In After 57 Years Of Service Drug Case

Cunningham and Philips Drug Store, an institution in Big Spring, is going out of business after 57 years of serving the community: Joe B. Hedleston, the present owner, has leased the building to Arcand Electronics.

The roots of C&P Drugs go back to the turn of the century. It was established originally as McCamant Bros. B. Reagan, who came to Big Spring as superintendent of schools in 1898, acquired the store and operated it until he sold to Cunningham and Philips in 1919.

C. W. Cunningham was a native of Houston County and trained as a school teacher. In 1900 he became a licensed pharmacist and came here from Lufkin in 1908. After a year, he opened his own store in Garden City and operated there until he formed the partnership in 1919 with Philips. He served as county judge in Glasscock County and as mayor and school board president here.

Shine Philips grew up in Big Spring and, by his own assessment, was one of the most mischievous lads in town. He worked as a boy selling newspapers and bottling castor oil and other remedies at the Reagan drug store. He got his first permit in 1910 and, after studying at the university 1911-13, he got his license.

He worked briefly at Ranger during the boom, then returned here to enter business. He was instrumental in bringing about the construction of the city's municipal auditorium and city hall. Together, they cost only about $200,000. Regarded as an unofficial first citizen of Big Spring, he also publicized his beloved home town with a book entitled "Big Spring — Biography of a Prairie Town."

Hedleston is a native of Rockwall County, but was reared in Coleman County where he got into pharmaceutical work after completing high school. He received his license as a pharmacist in 1928 and for a number of years worked with the Bowen Drug Stores in Coleman.

He bought into the C&P establishment in 1946. He operated the Petroleum Building store until 1958 when all C&P operations were consolidated at the store at 905 Johnson where he has remained until now. In 1962 Hedleston assumed sole ownership of the business.

"The store has meant a lot to me, but I am looking forward to having the time to do what I want to," said Hedleston. "My wife and I plan to do some traveling," he added.

Hedleston said that although 1928 may seem like a long time ago to many, it seems like only yesterday to him. "Some things have changed though. I don't think there were any men's colognes back then," he said. There were other differences, too, according to Hedleston. Sodas were 15 cents, sandwiches a quarter and Coca-Colas, a nickel. Penicillin and the sulphadiazole drugs were just coming into use and the store sold a lot more castor oil and epsom salts back then, according to Hedleston. Sassafras tea was a popular spring tonic in those days.

The store's closing also marks the end of the last drug store-soda fountain in Big Spring.

A great deal of the city's history is encased in the walls of Cunningham & Philips and many will be sad to see it go.

Charged Cops In Drug Case

HARLINGEN, Tex. (AP) — A former Santa Rosa and Rio Hondo policeman was among four men held today in the Cameron County jail after being charged with delivering marijuana to undercover narcotics officers.

Justice of the Peace Tommy Thompson of Harlingen said Armando Reyna Perez, 26, of Santa Rosa; Antonio Perez, 29, of Santa Rosa and Manuel Rodriguez Zamora of Harlingen were charged with two counts of marijuana delivery. Thompson said Armando Perez formerly was with the Santa Rosa police and recently was terminated as a Rio Hondo policeman.

The two counts involved the sale of five pounds of marijuana to undercover officers Sept. 30 and the sale of nearly 300 pounds of marijuana on Tuesday, Thompson said. The charges were filed Tuesday night.

In addition, David Canales Perez, 26, of Santa Rosa was charged with the same offense as the other three in connection with the incident Tuesday, the justice of the peace said.

Thompson said David Perez was held in lieu of $50,000 bond and the other three were jailed under $65,000 bonds.

Officers said the arrests followed an investigation by the Cameron County crime task force.

Nominating Petitions For ASC Leaders Asked

Only a few days remain to nominate farmers as candidates in the upcoming ASC community committee elections, reminds Tim Hall, manager of the Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service office here.

The present chairman of the county ASC committee is James C. Barr with Donnie Reid as vice chairman and Neil Fryar as committee member.

All slates will be reviewed prior to the mail election. December 10 is the date set for the final election. However, petitions must be dated and mailed or hand-delivered to the county ASC office no later than Oct. 28.

Bicentennial Exhibit Opens

The bicentennial exhibit, "Texas and the American Revolution" is now assembled and will be open to the public starting today at the Heritage Museum.

Mrs. Geri Atwell, curator, said, "This exhibit is very colorful, informative and interesting and we hope it will be well attended this month."

First duty of the newly-elected community committee members will be to serve as delegates to elect new members to the county ASC committee.

Hall reminds producers that this is an important occasion for the responsible farmer-chosen team of ASC community committeemen.

The ASC community committee election will be conducted by mail from Nov. 21 to Dec. 1. By turning in a total of six or more petitions, farmers in each community have the opportunity to prepare the slate of nominees themselves. Hall expressed a hope that farmers will submit enough valid petitions to fill the slate.

The curator also thanked the more than 1,000 visitors who attended the art exhibit held at the museum last week.

New members and renewal memberships of the organization include Mr. and Mrs. W. Roy Echols, Mr. and Mrs. Roger D. Brown, G. Ben Bancroft, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Wallace C. Hunter, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Kionka and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Craddock.

This week a number of students have already toured the newest exhibit, including 60 from the high school, 45 from Howard College and 98 from Runnels Junior High.

Company Cheated Foreign Grain Buyers For 12 Years

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A government lawyer says it is impossible to estimate how much foreign grain buyers were cheated during 12 years of shortweighting ships loaded at Louisiana and Texas grain elevators.

Officials said foreign buyers were cheated out of thousands of tons of grain by the shortweighting of ships loaded at Bunge grain elevators at Destrehan, La., and at Galveston.

The Bunge Corp. of New York, one of the world's biggest grain exporters, pleaded no contest Wednesday to a federal charge of conspiring to steal grain from its customers. It was fined $10,000 by U.S. Dist. Court Judge Jack M. Gordon — the maximum fine allowed.

Chicken Sexer Keeping Busy

Petaluma, Cal. (AP) — Heimer Carlson of Petaluma is a chicken sexer, one of the half-dozen men and women in Sonoma County who, within seconds, separate the valuable brooders from the less desirable roosters.

After 41 years and more than 40 million chicks, Carlson can discern sex at a rate of 900 per hour with an accuracy nearing 100 percent.

"All I can say is that it was a hell of a lot of grain," said Asst. U.S. Atty. Cornelius R. Heusel. "If we had even a ball park figure we would have put it in the indictment. God only knows how much it was worth."

The corporation, with an estimated $2 billion a year in sales, also pleaded no contest at the same hour in U.S. district court at Houston and was fined $10,000. The Texas charge was issuing false weight certificates at the Bunge grain elevator in Galveston.

Chicken sexing evolved in this country during the Depression when it was an economic necessity to know the cockerels from the pullets. Just out of high school in 1934, Carlson was one of the first students of this Japanese imported art, training at the H and N Hatchery in Petaluma, where he now works on a contract basis.

Those were the days when Petaluma was the chicken capital of the world.

Those days are gone, yet the chicken sexer is still an important part of the poultry world because to date no one has come up with a machine as accurate and gentle.

Gifts For Bell Being Accepted

Donations are being accepted for the Guy Bell fund by the Rev. Steve Birdwell of St. Mary's Episcopal Church and the Rev. Bill Fleming of First United Methodist Church.

Guy, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bell of Big Spring, was injured in a diving accident in a lake near Austin in August.

Guy had just completed work on his bachelor's degree and was to begin graduate work. He is paralyzed and has been hospitalized ever since the accident. He broke his neck during the dive.

Those were the days when Petaluma was the chicken capital of the world.

Those days are gone, yet the chicken sexer is still an important part of the poultry world because to date no one has come up with a machine as accurate and gentle.

United Dairy Industry Offers Favorite Cheese Recipes

Top Of The Stove Meal Ideal For Fall

Looking for main dish to appeal to hearty appetites? Here's something different in macaroni casseroles (and that's a favorite with almost every family!) This one goes together on top of the range, and eliminates the extra step of cooking the macaroni separately. But it does have extra flavor, thanks to a double helping of cheeses — Cheddar, of course, and zippy Parmesan, too.

Most of the foods that go into this dish are things you probably keep on hand — like ground beef, onion, celery and canned tomatoes. Parmesan and Cheddar make good flavor companions for them — as they do for so many other foods.

Serve Macaroni Skillet Supper with green vegetables for color contrast — a crisp salad and asparagus with dill-butter sauce. To drink, tall glasses of cold milk. And for dessert, ginger wafers — especially good with chilled melon.

It's a menu that's bound to be an easy compliment-catcher!

MACARONI SKILLET SUPPER

- 2 tsp. butter
- 1 lb. lean ground beef
- 3/4 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 can (1 lb. 12 oz.) tomatoes
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. pepper
- 1 cup uncooked elbow macaroni
- 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 3/4 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
- Chopped parsley

In a large skillet with cover melt butter; add beef, onion, celery and green pepper and saute until meat is browned. Add tomatoes, salt and pepper; bring to boil. Add macaroni; cover and cook over low heat, stirring occasionally, for 10 minutes or until macaroni is tender. Stir in Parmesan cheese. Sprinkle with Cheddar cheese; cover and allow to stand for 5 minutes. Sprinkle with parsley and serve. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

DILL BUTTER SAUCE FOR ASPARAGUS

- 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter
  - 1 tsp. lemon juice
  - 1 tsp. dill weed
  - 1/2 tsp. salt
  - Dash of pepper
- In a small saucepan melt butter; add lemon juice, dill weed, salt and pepper. Allow to stand. Pour over hot cooked asparagus. Yield: 1/4 cup sauce.

HOT HERB BREAD STICKS

Better double this recipe for it's the kind of hot bread you just keep on eating.

- 6 tsp. butter
- 1/4 cup chopped parsley
- 1 long thin loaf French bread
- 2 tsp. grated Parmesan cheese

Cream butter in small bowl; stir in parsley. Cut bread crosswise into thirds, then split each third in half to make 6 pieces; score cut sides about 1 inch apart almost through to crusts.

Spread tops and into cuts generously with butter-parmesan mixture; sprinkle with cheese; place on cookie sheet.

Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) about 5 minutes, or until golden crisp.

Makes 6 servings.

FAMILY-PLEASING RECIPE — This Macaroni Skillet Supper is doubly delicious with two kinds of cheese. It can serve well as a family meal or as a guest dinner in combination with other complimenting dishes. The recipe for this casserole and other cheese recipes are available in a special edition of "Family Circle" magazine.

CHEDDAR WHOLE WHEAT BREAD

Make this in miniature-size loaves for serving with appetizers, or large ones for gift-giving.

- 1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. baking soda
- 1 tsp. salt
- 2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese (8 oz.)
- 1 1/4 cups whole wheat flour
- 1 cup chopped nuts
- 1 tsp. grated orange peel
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 1 1/4 cups milk
- 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter, melted
- 1/4 cup light molasses

Sift together the flour, sugar, baking powder, baking soda and salt in a large bowl; add cheese, whole wheat flour, nuts and orange peel; blend all the ingredients thoroughly.

Combine egg, milk, butter and molasses; add all at once to sifted dry ingredients and stir only until blended. Spread evenly in large (9 1/4 x 5 1/4 x 2 3/4-inch) loaf pan or 6 miniature-size loaf pans.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 45 minutes for large loaf and 35 minutes for miniature loaves, or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Allow to stand for 5 minutes; remove from pan onto wire rack to cool.

Variation: 1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour may be substituted for the whole wheat flour.

GINGER WAFERS

- 3/4 cup light molasses
- 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter
- 1-3rd cup sugar
- 1 egg yolk, beaten
- 1 1/4 cups regular all-purpose flour
- 1/4 tsp. baking soda
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1 tsp. ground ginger
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- sugar

In a large saucepan heat molasses (do not boil). Add butter and stir until melted. Blend in sugar. Cool. Stir in egg yolk. Sift together flour, baking soda, salt, ginger and cinnamon; gradually stir into molasses mixture. Chill for ease in handling. Shape into balls 1-inch in diameter; place 2 inches apart on buttered baking sheet. Flatten with bottom of glass dipped in sugar to 1/8-inch thickness. Bake in a preheated 400 degree oven 5-6 minutes or until lightly browned. Remove to wire rack to cool.

BIG SPRING HERALD

SECTION B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1975 SECTION B

BASIC BEEF BROTH

Make the flavorful beef broth and keep on hand for making homemade soups.

- 2 1/2 lbs. brisket, boneless chuck, or botton round, in one piece
- 2 lbs. shin of beef with bones
- 2 three-inch marrow bones
- 1 veal knuckle (about 1 lb.)
- water
- 8 tsp. salt
- 2 carrots, pared
- 2 medium-size yellow onions, peeled
- 2 stalks celery with leaves
- 1 turnip, pared and quartered
- 1 leek, washed well
- 3 large sprigs of parsley
- 12 peppercorns
- 3 whole cloves
- 1 bay leaf

Place beef, shin of beef, marrow bones and veal knuckle in a large kettle; add water to cover, about 4 quarts. Heat to boiling; skim off foam that appears on top. Add salt, carrots, onions, celery, turnip and leek; tie parsley, peppercorns, cloves and bay leaf in a small cheesecloth bag; add to kettle. Add more water if needed.

Heat to boiling; cover; reduce heat; simmer very slowly 3 1/2 to 4 hours, or until meat is tender. Remove meat and vegetables from broth.

Strain broth through cheesecloth into a large bowl. (there should be about 14 cups).

When meat is cool enough to handle, remove and discard bones. Trim meat, cut into bite-size pieces and save for a casserole, if you wish. To store in refrigerator up to 3 to 4 days, keep in covered container. To freeze, pack in small portions, 1 or 2 cups, in plastic bags or freezer containers.

To store broth in refrigerator, up to 4 days, leave fat layer on surface until ready to use; then lift off and discard before heating. To freeze; Transfer broth to freezer containers, allowing space on top for expansion; freeze until ready to use.

Dessert Tray Pleases Everyone

TO PLEASE YOUR GUESTS — When you entertain, a cheese-fruit tray or Cheddar Apple Cheesecake offers something for everyone. On the cheese tray, from left to right, Camembert (wedges), Brick (slices), Blue cheese (large wedges), Gouda, Swiss and Cheddar cubes topped with green and red grape halves.

Dessert, anyone? That is the question certain to bring up a variety of answers. "Oh, just a little something to fill me up." Or, "Why not, especially if you have something special as you always do?"

Cheese offers the perfect answer to both questions, or anywhere in between. Serve several cheese varieties on a tray with fruit and crackers for the "little fill-up." As something very special, try shredded Cheddar cheese in a full-bodied cake, very different from the cream or cottage cheese types most people have had. Melted jelly and apple slices gloss the top of this cake.

Three to five types of cheese give nice variety to a fruit and cheese tray planned for dessert. Camembert, a soft cheese with an edible crust, and its wedge shape, varies from mild to pungent in flavor. Serve with red-waxed Gouda in a cannonball shape, mild and nutlike in flavor. Those having conservative tastes will enjoy mild-flavored Brick, Swiss or Cheddar. Blue cheese with its crumbly texture and rather sharp salty taste gives contrast to mild-mannered cheeses.

CHEDDAR APPLE CHEESECAKE

- 1-3rd cup butter
- 1-3rd cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour

- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 2 pkgs. (8 oz. each) cream cheese
- 2 cups (8 oz.) shredded sharp Cheddar cheese
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 3 tsp. all-purpose flour
- 3 tsp. milk
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 3 eggs
- 1/2 cup apple jelly
- Thin apple slices
- Grapes, halved
- Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy; blend in egg. Mix in flour and salt. Press mixture on bottom and up 1 1/4-inches on sides of a 9-inch spring form pan. Bake in a preheated 450 degree oven, 5 minutes.

Beat softened cream cheese until blended. Stir in Cheddar cheese, sugar, flour, milk, vanilla and salt. Beat on medium speed of electric mixer until well blended. Add eggs, one at a time, mixing well after each addition. Pour into crust. Bake at 450 degrees, 10 minutes. Reduce oven temperature to 250 degrees, bake 30 minutes. Loosen cake from rim of pan; cool. Remove rim of pan.

Melt jelly, dip apple and grapes in jelly; set aside. Spread remaining jelly over top of cake. Garnish with apple slices and grapes.

No Arthritis Cure In Special Diets

COLLEGE STATION — Trying "arthritis cure diets" won't help the arthritis sufferer feel any better, Mrs. Mary K. Sweeten, a foods and nutrition specialist, says.

No special diet or specific food will cure arthritis — because no food causes it, she said.

Mrs. Sweeten is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A & M University System.

"Arthritis is a chronic inflammatory process of unknown origin which causes discomfort and pain of the joints."

"And extensive research has failed to show that the absence or presence of any food or vitamin will either cause or cure any form of arthritis," she explained.

Trying to alleviate the pain, many arthritics fall victim to food faddists or self-appointed "arthritis experts" who advocate bizarre diet plans for quick, miraculous cures, she said.

"And even though medical authorities say these diets are ineffective, one survey revealed that almost 2.5 million people have tried some special diet or miracle food to relieve their pain."

"Estimates show that Americans spend over $250 million each year on quick remedies for arthritis."

Mentioning specific so-called "arthritis cures," Mrs. Sweeten said that one claim has been "you can eat your way into arthritis and then eat your way out again."

Other claims advocated using cod liver oil with orange juice and honey with vinegar.

"Careful examination of people claiming arthritis cures by fad diet reveals that they were only self-diagnosed arthritics who never had the disease to cure," the specialist said.

An arthritis sufferer can save himself much disappointment and frustration if he will accept the basic nutritional fact that no special diet or vitamin will cure arthritis.

"It is true that patients with arthritis, particularly the rheumatoid type, often do have decreased plasma levels of vitamins — as do patients with many other chronic diseases. And vitamin supplements will correct this deficiency, but this has no effect on the disease itself."

"Many experiments relating vitamin levels with arthritis — especially Vitamins A, C, B-complex, D and E — have been performed. All show that no anti-rheumatic vitamin is necessary for the arthritic patient, because a nutritionally-balanced diet provides all the essential nutrients and energy any person needs," she said.

Forum Elects Mrs. Newman To BSSH Volunteers

Mrs. Terry Newman was elected as representative to the Big Spring State Hospital Volunteer Council from the Piano Teachers Forum.

The piano master's class will be held Nov. 15. Teachers were urged to have their advanced students participate.

Members approved plans for a piano recital to be held Oct. 26 with Mrs. Ann Cheatham as recital chairman.

The program was presented by Mrs. Mary Skalicky and Harlan Thornton. They discussed the stylistic trends of Beethoven and Mozart and played a recording of Beethoven's last sonata, Opus III.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Cheatham.

The next meeting will be at 8 p.m. Nov. 3 in the home of Mrs. Steven Gasper, 2506 Cheyenne Drive.

Dear Abby

Hooker Family Unhappy About Prostitute Puns

DEAR ABBY: I am a direct descendant of General Joseph Hooker, who served valiantly in the Civil War. I do not know how my family name became a synonym for prostitute, whore or harlot, but I find it very offensive.

There are numerous other Hookers who are respectable, law-abiding citizens, and I am sure I speak for them when I say we Hookers are slandered by this commonly accepted, immoral connotation.

I have two daughters and a son, and the girls especially have been embarrassed numerous times by people who have made jokes about their being a couple of "hookers."

My son is seriously considering changing his name because his fiancée doesn't want to be a "Hooker," and she says if she has daughters, she doesn't want them to be "Hookers," either.

Am I overly sensitive? Or have I a point?
A PROUD HOOKER

DEAR PROUD: You have a point. Little can be done about thoughtless people who use your family name as a synonym for a woman of the streets, but I'll print your letter as a reminder. Also, if your son wants to change his name, it's his privilege.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a guy who is so cheap that he won't marry the mother of his kids because she is on welfare and it pays for all her doctor and hospital bills?

We are a young married couple who worry about the high cost of living but struggle along, trying to pay for doctor and hospital bills, the house we are buying and our taxes.

Our neighbors have been living together for three years. He makes more money than I do, but he told me that he would be a fool to marry his "old lady" because she'd lose all those benefits from welfare.

It burns me up to see them enjoying all the extra money they have from such a fraud while they laugh at us honest people.

BURNED FATHER
DEAR BURNED: I agree, it's a rotten, unjust situation. But what is the alternative? Forcing people to marry? The attendant evils to that would be even worse.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a slightly flabby male in my mid-30s who occasionally wears a corset under a turtleneck or other outfit where "midriff bulge" gives me a particularly unsightly appearance. It's not too uncomfortable, and it greatly improves the way I look.

When someone once asked me how I "lost" so much weight, I made the mistake of telling him the truth about the corset. Now I'm the butt of jokes from some of the guys at work.

What's wrong with a man wearing a corset or some kind of girdle? Men aren't ashamed to wear padded shoulders, elevated shoes and hair pieces. They have as much right as women to do whatever is necessary to improve their appearance.

Yet when a man buys any kind of a support to firm up his stomach, he lies about it and says it's doctor's orders for a bad back.

What do you think about this, Abby? Women want equality. Well, so do men!

PALO ALTO
DEAR PAL: For my part, a man can wear anything he wants to wear for any reason. And if he's concerned about what others think, he's making a problem where none exists.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212, for Abby's booklet "How to Write Letters for All Occasions." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20¢) envelope.

Garden Club Has Meeting

The Big Spring Garden Club held its October meeting Wednesday morning in the home of Mrs. Morris Robertson, 2806 Clanton. Refreshments were served from a table centered with an arrangement of yellow mums around a handcrafted figurine.

Mrs. Paul Guy presented a flower workshop. She stressed the fall season is the best time to prepare garden soil for spring planting. Winter snow and frost help to soften the earth if it is plowed in the fall.

She also gave tips on potting African violets. She said that if a leaf stem of an African violet is placed in potting soil in a paper cup, watered and sealed in a plastic bag; rooting usually is successful in a short time.

Mrs. Sam Anderson reported that bulbs for spring planting should be ordered in the fall. She said chrysanthemums should be staked now.

An announcement was made concerning the Southern Zone meeting. It will be held Nov 15 in the Dora Roberts Community Center.

The next meeting will be at 9:30 a.m. Dec. 3 in the home of Mrs. John E. Hogan, 509 Westover Road.

Mrs. Scofield Honored At Baby Shower

Mrs. Debby Scofield was honored Tuesday evening at a baby shower held in the home of Mrs. Sharon Hamby.

Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Hamby, Mrs. Jo Ann Ritchey and Mrs. Faye Welch. They presented the honoree with a multi-purpose infant seat.

Mrs. Scofield was given a corsage made from yellow and white baby socks.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated with a stork centerpiece and a pair of paper booties filled with mints.

AARP Holds Monthly Meeting

The local chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons met Tuesday morning at Kentwood Older Adult Center with 58 members and guests in attendance.

Mrs. B. M. Keese presented a program including group singing, a solo by Marshall Brown, accompanied by Mrs. Birdie Westbrook, pianist, a poem read by L. R. Mundt concerning a monkey's view of the descent of man and an inspirational reading about an eagle by Mrs. L. R. Mundt.

The Rev. C. A. Holcomb presided at the business meeting.

After the meeting a covered dish dinner luncheon was held, followed by bridge, dominoes and other games.

Isabel Peron's Rule Predicted To End

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — The sources of power in Argentina appear to have decided that Isabel Peron should not resume her presidency as tentatively scheduled on Oct. 17.

But key military and political leaders don't seem to know how to stop her without upsetting the constitution.

Someone would have to convince the 44-year-old widow of Juan D. Peron to extend her sick leave, perhaps even resign. She still has some political support if she insists upon staying.

The newspaper La Opinion noted last week that two camps have evolved since Mrs. Peron finally took her long-delayed health leave on Sept. 13 — the "returnists" and the "anti-returnists."

It counted the powerful armed forces among the "anti-returnists," and well-informed sources say that the most significant bases of strength in military, political and labor circles are not anxious for her return.

The "returnists," mainly one major faction of the Peronist movement, insist she will be back in time to speak on Oct. 17, the date marking her late husband's rise to power in 1945.

Peronism's second vice-president, Jose Baez, although announcing Mrs. Peron will resume her duties in mid-October, has admitted it is a political decision and has added the proviso: "...if her health permits."

Interim President Italo Luder has made cabinet changes and has conducted business as though he intends to stay. Many say they are optimistic at the new dynamic air in government circles after months of indecision and upheaval.

In private conversations few Argentines say they expect Mrs. Peron to be back at her job for more than a few days if she returns at all.

The president has little left of the large popular following that was behind her when she became the Americas' first woman president July 1, 1974, when Peron died.

She was forced to back down by the labor movement, the military and by leaders of her own party on three fundamental decisions within a two-month period, seriously undermining her already tenuous command.

Interior Minister Angel Robledo, first vice-president of the Peronist movement, Cordoba last week, prompting fresh speculation that he would try to convince her to stay on leave.

Normally reliable channels give contradictory reports of what will happen. "Isabel will resign and Luder will resign, and they will appoint Buenos Aires Gov. Victorio Calabro," claims a source who says he already was offered a job in the Calabro Cabinet. "That will be before Oct. 17."

But there is a move to expel Calabro from the party for criticizing the government.

Others say Mrs. Peron will reassure her mantle only long enough to announce that she is leaving.

And some maintain she will hang on until presidential elections.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

Brought to you by Ted Hatfield

SHAGS continue to be one of the big hits in carpeting, whether in budget-priced nylon shags, rich polyesters or acrylics, or the most luxurious of wool broadlooms. There are shags in every price range, in every color or color combination... and they're moving into the finest rooms.

The length of long thick shaggy carpeting has been one reason for its great popularity. The effect is luxurious without being overly formal. There's a happy feeling to the shaggy carpeted room, and a great sense of comfort.

However, if you're one of those who hesitates over the sheep dog shaggy lengths for your floors, you can still go for shag. Choose a short shag texture that combines the attractiveness and appeal of shag with durability and easy vacuuming or cleaning.

In addition to beautiful color mixes, one of the new trends is a shaggy texture that combines thick and thin yarns, some of the strands being woven tightly while others are allowed to be "fat" or bulky.

Our shaggy carpets go to any length to please... and so do we! Come in and look over the great array of shags in our showroom. Choose from dozens of colors or color mixes in a wide price range.

New Members Join Mu Zeta Sorority

Mrs. Neta Gress, Mrs. Paulette Schafer, Mrs. Mitzi Crebs and Mrs. Georga Runyan were inducted into the Mu Zeta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in a Ritual of Jewels ceremony held Monday evening. The Mu Zeta sorority met in the home of Mrs. Jani Smith.

The group made plans to visit residents at the Mountain View Lodge and entertain the group with a sing-along. The sorority will present the residents with a large basket of fruit when they visit the lodge on Oct. 20.

Members of the sorority and their guests will attend "Ann of A Thousand Days" on Oct. 18. The group will leave at 5 p.m. for dinner in a Midland restaurant before attending the play.

Mrs. Suzanne Haney introduced the guest speaker, Robert Miller of Brown, Bancroft and Miller. He spoke to the group on the proposed Texas Constitutional changes and some aspects of the ERA amendment.

The sorority welcomed Ms. Cindi Gentry and Mrs. Debbie Gausmann as guests. The next meeting will be at 6:30 p.m. Oct. 20 in the home of Mrs. Suzanne Haney.

Deep Breathing Stops Stuttering

Approaching stuttering as a nervous habit, two Illinois psychologists have developed a deep breathing technique which so far has proven 99 per cent effective in eliminating lifetime stuttering habits.

The procedure requires that patients interrupt their speech to take an exaggerated deep breath whenever they begin to stutter. This gives them time to relax throat muscles consciously and to formulate thoughts before going on to the next set of words.

Bonus Cash Makes Rodeoing Reverse 'Worthwhile For Top Guys' Conviction

DENVER, Colo. — Pro rodeo cowboys are nearing end of the regular 1975 season, and top competitors have their eyes on the lucrative Winston Rodeo Awards.

This year Winston is awarding $135,000 to top cowboys in the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association, and the payoff comes in three parts. Last June, $47,500 of the total went to the top ten leaders in each event midway through the season; the top man in each event got $2,000. Another $47,500 will go to the top ten winners in each event for the second half of the season, based on winnings starting June 5 (Second-half Winston standings follow).

The remaining $40,000 will be divided among world champions at the end of the National Finals Rodeo, Dec. 6-14 in Oklahoma City, Okla. The all-around champion will receive $10,000, while event champions each receive a $5,000 bonus.

"It's that bonus money that makes rodeoing really worthwhile for the top guys," said Joe Alexander of Cora, Wyo., the 31-year-old cowboy on his way to a fifth bareback riding crown.

"Inflation is eating us alive on the road," he said. "And it takes so much money to win a championship because a guy has to travel a lot harder than he would sticking close to home and keeping expenses down... a $5,000 check at the end of the year can put a cowboy back in the black."

Last year Tom Ferguson pocketed more than $20,000 in bonuses, most of it from Winston, when he won his first all-around crown. The 24-year-old from Miami, Okla., is leading this week for his second all-around championship with more than $42,000 in earnings.

Ferguson and other top hands competed in two major rodeos ending over the weekend, the State Fair rodeo in Tulsa, Okla., and the Bonifay, Fla., rodeo. First place winners included, at Tulsa, Rusty Riddle, Weatherford, Texas, and Jim Dix, North Collie, West Australia, $701 each in bareback riding; Pete Marvel, Battle Mountain, Nev., $827 in saddle bronc; Matt Fowler, Kiefer, Okla., and Don Gay, Mesquite, Texas, $927 each in bull riding; Junior Garrison, Elgin, Okla., $813 in calf roping; and Frank Shepperson, Midwest, Wyo., $1,124 in steer wrestling.

Bonifay winners are Kaye Kirby, Woodstock, N.J., $800 in bareback; Bob Brown, Adrian, Tex., $682 in saddle bronc; Larry Dixon, Eight-Mile, Ala., $921 in bull riding; Larry Ferguson, Miami, Okla., $810 in calf roping; and Charles Lowry, Summerville, Ga., $730 in steer wrestling.

Season's leaders: All-Around Cowboy: Tom Ferguson, Miami, Okla., $42,103. Saddle Bronc Riding: Monty Benson, Mesquite, Tex., $25,457. Bareback Bronc Riding: Joe Alexander, Cora, Wyo., $36,400. Bull Riding: Don Gay, Mesquite, Tex., $25,125. Calf Roping: Jeff Copenhaver, Spokane, Wash., $20,643. Steer Wrestling: Frank Shepperson, Midwest, Wyo., $79,102. Team Roping: Leo Camarillo, Oakdale, Calif., $23,252. GRC Barrel Racing: Jimmie Gibbs, Valley Mills, Tex., $18,750.

War 'Heroes' Info Requested

Persons who have had a relative die in any war, who was a former student of Big Spring High School, should call the high school and check with Craig Fischer, assistant principal, to be sure the name is included on a memorial plaque.

The plaque is to be dedicated during homecoming ceremonies on Saturday, Oct. 18. It will be part of the ceremonies in the two-day event here.

Over 60 names have been submitted by the Gold Star Mothers Association.

"However, we would hate to leave anyone out. Please check and see if your loved one is included on the list," Fischer added.

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A trial judge erred when he asked a jury whether former championship football coach Travis Raven engaged in prostitution with a 16-year-old girl, says Raven's lawyer.

Les Procter, former Travis County district attorney, Wednesday argued before the Court of Criminal Appeals that District Court Judge Tom Blackwell inserted the misdemeanor count as "a lesser included offense" in Raven's felony trial.

A six-man, six-woman jury convicted Raven of the Class C misdemeanor last year, and Blackwell imposed the maximum penalty, a $200 fine.

Raven had been indicted on a second-degree felony charge of compelling prostitution, which carries a maximum sentence of 20 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

The jury found Raven innocent on the felony charge.

Procter said the insertion of the misdemeanor count in the charge is like including a simple assault in a murder with malice charge, he said.

Both Procter and the current district attorney, Bob Smith, argued the case presented a question never before considered by the court.

Procter rested his entire appeal on that one point. "I intend no rebuttal," he told the judges at the end of his opening argument, "so if there are any questions I will answer them to the best of my limited ability."

There were no questions. Raven, 52, coached Austin-Reagan to Class 4A championships in 1967, 1968 and 1970, then was named athletic director for Austin public schools. He was suspended from the post as athletic director at his own request after the charges were filed against him.

Three other persons accused with Raven pleaded guilty to misdemeanor charges and paid $200 fines. One of them, Dr. B. J. Smith, testified at Raven's trial that he paid the girl $50. "Travis suggested it," the doctor said.

The appeals court took the case under advisement.

HC Cowboys, Cowgirls Enter

LUBBOCK — Some 450 top collegiate cowboys and cowgirls will be joined by country and western singing star Johnny Rodriguez and former Dallas Cowboy running back Walt Garrison for the 29th annual Texas Tech Intercollegiate Rodeo, Oct. 15-18.

Performances are slated daily for 7:30 p.m. in the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum. Admission prices are $2, $3, $4 and $5. Tickets are available at Lubbock western wear stores and at the door on performance days.

Miss Rodeo Texas, Glenda Gayle Chapman of Haskell, will appear at each performance. Also on tap each evening will be the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band and HSU's Six White Horses, precision equestrian team.

Quail Dobs of Coahoma and Bob Romer of Canyon, ranked among the best rodeo clowns and bullfighters on the Rodeo Cowboys Association circuit, will be in the arena for each performance.

Howard College will be among the schools entering teams.

Camping Chair Trophy Winner

A successful family weekend at Girl Scout Camp Booth Oaks, south of Sweetwater, ended with the presentation of a miniature camping chair trophy to the Service Unit with the most Scouts present. Snyder Service Unit with the most representatives including the Alvin Wimmers, Bill Overhulser, Larry Anderson families and Vestal Maner, Carrie and Angela Lieb.

A backpacking demonstration was given by Elizabeth Smith and Bob McKinney, both of Abilene. Plans were initiated for a backpacking course to be held next spring.

Sandy Sibilsky, camp director, announced that the fourth annual family weekend has been tentatively scheduled for Oct. 1-3, 1976.

Revenue Sharing

The county's quarterly revenue sharing check was for $55,022, County Treasurer Frances Glenn said.

Discover Method For Recycling Oil

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — The state has teamed up with three suburban Chicago communities on what officials think is a slick idea for conserving petroleum resources and helping weekend mechanics get rid of used motor oil at the same time.

The state Division of Energy is coordinating a test program of motor oil recycling facilities in Des Plaines, Glen Ellyn and Naperville.

The facilities give people who do their own automobile the motor oil other than the sewer system or on the ground. And, although officials admit that oil collected so far is only a drop in the barrel, they say recycling saves energy resources.

"Every gallon we save is that much we don't have to draw from nature," said Philip Lindahl, Des Plaines environmental officer, who runs the recycling center there.

Lindahl and other officials say the cost to communities is minimal — all that is needed is a large tank or two and a place to put them.

In the 21 weeks the Des Plaines waste oil point has been in operation on the corner of the city's glass, can and paper recycling center, an average of 52 gallons a week have been brought in.

"It's caught on real well," Lindahl said. "We're very pleased with the results."

The oil is collected periodically and taken to the Motor Oils Refining Co. in nearby Lyons where it is cleaned up and converted into usable oil again.

"Some performance results show rerefined oil even more efficient than new oil," claimed Ernest Dunwoody, section manager for the Department of Business and Economic Development's Division of Energy.

A check in the Springfield area showed that rerefined oil could be purchased in 24-quart cases for 29 cents a quart, about a third the cost of oil purchased at a gas station.

Dunwoody said research has shown that in 1971 about 22 million gallons of oil was sold to do-it-yourself oil changers, but less than 2 percent of that was recycled.

"Much home-changed used oil is put into the sewage system where it causes sewage treatment plants to malfunction," Dunwoody said.

He said the oil recycling test program, which state officials believe is the only one of its kind in the nation, has cost the state less than $2,000, including $1,000 that will be paid to a College of DuPage professor to evaluate the results next June.

"We want to find out who brings the oil in, how often, and things like that," Dunwoody said. "We'll have a pretty good idea of which communities are suitable for an oil recycling point. Then we hope to form a statewide plan."

At the Naperville recycling center, where an average of about 75 gallons of oil a week has been coming in, the director, Barbara Sielaff, said it has drawn "far more people than I ever expected."

Tax Returns Deadline

AUSTIN — Comptroller Bob Bullock has reminded the 230,000 retail businesses in Texas that Oct. 31 is the deadline for filing their quarterly sales tax returns.

"It's only a few days away and any return filed after that time means nothing but problems for us and for the taxpayer," Bullock said, noting that tardy reports can carry financial penalties.

Reports due Oct. 31 cover the July-August-September quarter. Forms for the reports were sent to all sales tax permit holders by Bullock's office in September.

"Late reports are usually nothing more than oversights but that doesn't keep them from being a problem anyhow," said Bullock.

Any retail merchant with questions should contact the nearest field office of the Comptroller's Department, Bullock said.

Homestead Exemptions

Persons who rendered for 1975 homestead exemptions allowed those over 65 years of age and older need not reapply, Mrs. Zirah L. Bednar, county tax collector, said.

Rendition forms for 1976 will be mailed with 1975 tax statements, Mrs. Bednar said.

Computerizing the tax roll has delayed mailing of 1975 county, college and state tax statements, she said.

Lubbock To Host U.S. 87 Confab

Plans have been completed for the 18th Annual Meeting of the U.S. 87 Highway Improvement Association to be held in Lubbock on Oct. 17 and 18.

A reception and dinner is planned for Friday evening starting at 6 p.m. Luther DeBerry, engineer director of the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation, will be the guest speaker at the dinner.

Reports will be made Saturday morning on improvements along U.S. 87 from Raton, N.M. to Port Lavaca. The meeting will include the election of officers for the coming year, as well as a presentation by State Sen. Kent Hance regarding recent legislation pertinent to highway users.

Wives have been invited to attend and a full agenda of activities planned.

Visits U.S.

NEW YORK (AP) — King Olav V of Norway was greeted by cheering Norwegian-Americans on a visit to a home for the elderly on Staten Island.

Many residents of the home wept when they saw the king Wednesday.

"I spent my childhood in Norway and my heart is still there," said one elderly lady. "This is the first time I've seen the king."

Quit Smoking Clinic Listed

Mrs. Andrew Reed, Public Education chairman for the Midland County Unit of the American Cancer Society, is inviting the public to an "I Quit Smoking" clinic to be held next Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Learning Resource Center at Midland College.

The clinic will be led by District Court Judge R. L. McKim of Odessa. McKim had been a smoker for 23 years when he quit.

Ten years after the Surgeon General's warning that smoking is a major public health problem, more than 50 million Americans still smoke.

The second in the series of "I Quit Smoking" clinics is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 23.
