

CAPTURED — Edward T. Roche, left, of Katonah, N.Y., and Maurice Philion, of Oakland, Calif., are escorted, handcuffed and chained, from the Marion County Jail back to the Marion Federal Penitentiary after both were caught individually Monday night near Salem, Ill. Roche, 39, was serving a 39-year term for two bank robberies, and Philion, 40, was serving a 30-year term for bank robbery and assaulting a federal officer when they escaped last Friday. Two convicts who participated in that break are still at large.

AFRAID OF 'POLLUTED' WATER

Thirsty Escapees Nabbed, Two Free

SALEM, Ill. (AP) — "They were afraid of the water. They were afraid the creeks were polluted," a Marion County jail official said after two thirsty federal prison escapees were captured several miles apart in a rural area near Salem. Authorities apprehended escapees Edward Roche, 39, of Katonah, N.Y., and Maurice J. Philion, 40, of Oakland, Calif., Monday night. The pair escaped with three other inmates Friday from the Marion Federal Penitentiary by tripping prison gate locks with a homemade electronic device. One of the escapees, Arthur J. Mankins, 37, of Germantown, N.C., was picked up Sunday after a stolen getaway car crashed following a high-speed chase. The others fled into surrounding fields and wooded areas, which authorities have been combing with tracking dogs. The search resumed today for the remaining convicts, Dennis D. Hunter, 26, of Salem, Ohio, and Henry Gargano, 43, of Chicago. Gargano was serving 199 years for murdering two suburban Chicago policemen, and Hunter 25 years for kidnaping and other crimes. Both men had previous records of escapes from federal prisons. Gargano, the reputed ringleader of the escapees, previously fled the Lewisburg, Pa., prison in 1964 and attempted to escape from the Federal Building in Chicago in 1967 while awaiting sentencing. Hunter escaped in 1971 from the federal prison in Terre Haute, Ind.

Roche and Philion were found walking in opposite directions on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad tracks, about three miles apart. They were arrested within an hour of each other and both were returned to the prison, about 75 miles away, late Monday night. Roche, who made the electronic device used in the escape, was taken into custody two miles from where the fugitives' auto crashed on Sunday. Both men told authorities they were looking for water, but Roche said they were afraid to drink from creeks. "I told him it was better than water in the city," said jail administrator Tom Fischer. But he said Roche told him, "No, it was polluted." Philion said the escapees hadn't had water in three days.

NSA Intercepted 1,000 Activists Phone Calls

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Security Agency intercepted more than 1,000 telephone and telegraph communications involving antiwar activists and other dissidents and reported on them to the CIA and the FBI, according to informed sources.

The NSA intercepts began in 1969 and continued for "a two or three-year period," detailing the foreign travels and organizing efforts of various American radicals whose names had been provided to NSA by CIA, the sources said.

Summaries of the intercepted communications were transmitted via courier from NSA headquarters at Ft. Meade, Md., to CIA offices in Langley, Va., where they became part of the files of Operation CHAOS, which monitored the activities of domestic dissidents, sources said.

Similar summaries went to other government agencies, including the FBI and Defense Intelligence Agency, a separate source said.

The same source confirmed that Dr. Benjamin Spock, actress Jane Fonda, Black Panther leader Eldridge Cleaver and Chicago Seven defendants Abbie Hoffman and David Dellinger were targets of NSA intercepts. However, the source would not say whether those names had been supplied to the NSA by the CIA or some other agency.

Spock, author of a best-selling book on child care and a third-party presidential candidate in 1972, said later, "If our government would put its efforts and our tax money into creating a more just society rather than snooping on citizens who differ with them, America would be impregnable."

A source who had seen the NSA summaries provided to the CIA said they were derived from intercepts of cable and telephone traffic between the U.S. and foreign countries or between two points overseas.

None of the sources could give a reliable estimate of the number of persons whose communications were intercepted. However, comments of several sources indicated the CIA gave at least 40 names to the NSA.

In another development, a former Pentagon investigator said Monday he was told by the White House to develop evidence that syndicated columnist Jack Anderson had a homosexual relationship with a suspected news source, Navy Yeoman Charles Radford.

W. Donald Stewart, who was in charge of the investigation into news leaks, said the demand was made on Dec. 23, 1971, by David Young, then the Nixon administration official in charge of the White House "plumbers" unit.

Stewart stressed that Young did not suggest to him that he fabricate a homosexual relationship between Anderson and Radford.

"They didn't want me to go trump up anything," Stewart said. "They wanted me to go interview (Radford) and ask him, 'Do you have any homosexual relationship with Jack Anderson?'"

Stewart said he refused Young's demand, telling him it "was not germane to the investigation." According to Stewart, Young responded, "Well, the President wants this done, the President wants this done."

WITHOUT PARENTS' KNOWLEDGE

Youth Dies When Machine Removed

FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — The parents of a youth who died after his life-support system was shut off say they did not give doctors permission to unhook a respirator that kept their son alive for 18 days after his brain was destroyed through medical error.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Uribes said they did not know how their 19-year-old son, Sammy, died until they read in the newspapers that the hospital had disconnected the respirator that had kept him breathing.

In a report filed Sept. 11 by Valley Medical Center's chief resident surgeon, Dr. Michael Freeman, the hospital said Sammy's brain died during surgery when an anesthetist placed an oxygen tube in his esophagus instead of his trachea, cutting off the oxygen supply to his brain for about five minutes.

The report said doctors informed the Uribes that Sammy's brain had died and that the couple agreed the respirator should be shut off.

The hospital said the mistake made by the anesthetist, who has since been fired, was "contributory" to Sammy's death.

George Carter, attorney for the Uribes, said the couple "never consented to taking him off (the respirator). They were told that the hospital had decided after a staff meeting to turn off the respirator."

In similar cases in Ohio and New Jersey, parents initiated requests to unhook life-support systems from their comatose children, only to be refused by doctors who maintain they have no legal right to do so.

In Sammy Uribes' case, the parents say they did not ask doctors to let their son die.

Sammy was taken to the hospital on Aug. 10 for treatment of a stab wound in the abdomen. It was when surgeons were trying to repair his punctured stomach that the mistake was made by the anesthetist.

He was placed on a mechanical respirator to keep him alive until Aug. 28, when a medical center doctor shut the machine off and Sammy died, according to Freeman's report.

"This is a strange case," said attorney George Carter. "The parents came to me after they found out, not from the hospital but through the newspapers, how their son died."

"It's a unique situation when it's the hospital's negligence that causes the boy to be in the position he's in, then they make the decision to take him off the respirator."

The World At-A-Glance

PARIS (AP) — The day-old preparatory conference of industrial and developing nations has already made "great progress," the head of the American delegation reports. "I'm very optimistic that we will come out with a new understanding." Undersecretary of State Charles Robinson said after the delegates agreed Monday to launch a 27-nation conference in Paris Dec. 16 with a new economic order for the non-Communist world as its long-range goal.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Syria reportedly is trying to reduce its dependence on Russia by buying arms from France and moving toward possible purchase of U.S. weapons captured by North Vietnam. If Syria were to open up major arms sources outside of Russia, it could lead to a significant reduction in Moscow's influence in Damascus, U.S. officials say.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House has compiled a list of $28 billion in proposed budget cuts to strengthen President Ford's hand in insisting that Congress combine a $28-billion tax cut with matching cuts in federal spending, an administration official says. Paul H. O'Neill, deputy director of the Office of Management and Budget, said Monday the inch-thick compilation is being circulated privately to Cabinet officers and agency heads for their comment.

Investigators Sift Gas Blast Debris

GOLDSMITH, Tex. (AP) — State investigators today sifted through the debris left at a natural gas plant after a 12-inch pipeline ruptured and exploded. Three plant employees were killed and three others injured.

A spokesman for El Paso Natural Gas Co., which owns the plant, said the investigators from the Texas Railroad Commission would be joined by others from the U.S. Department of Transportation Pipeline Safety Division and the Occupation Health and Safety Administration (OSHA).

The explosion early Monday sent shockwaves rippling through this small town of 400 about a mile away from the plant. Flames from the resulting fire could be seen for miles in the surrounding flat, semi-arid area of West Texas.

Windows were knocked out in a 300-yard radius of the explosion, authorities said. The dead were identified as James C. Fife, 25, an oiler; Robbie J. Carpenter, 45, plant operator, and James E. Lackey, 49, the shift supervisor. All lived in Odessa, about 50 miles away.

NOT AN ALLEY One citizen, H. V. Crocker, Jr., appeared against the change, stating "You are going to make alleys out of our front yards." Charles Tompkins, councilman, who resides in the 40 per cent of the city that already has front yard pickup objected, saying, "Our street does not look like an alley."

Crocker maintained, "It won't work. Dogs will tear open the bags and we will have trash all over the streets." Nagel said that the city of Fort Worth includes a regulation whereby if all residents in a block on both sides of the alley agree, they can still have alley pickup for an additional fee. This is to be considered.

There was also one person each objecting to the first reading and appearing at the public hearings of the two separate annexations to the city.

H. G. Caldwell appeared, objecting to the annexation of the area between the 11th Pl. extension and IS 20 service road and from the present city limits to Midway Road.

Caldwell maintained that "It doesn't appear to make any difference whether we want annexed or not. He objected on the basis that it would cost him more in taxes."

Hospitalization Policy OKed By School Board

By MARJ CARPENTER School board members approved a policy statement concerning sex discrimination, awarded a bid for a sound system for the high school gymnasium, and approved a group hospitalization policy for employees when they met Monday night.

The policy simply states that "In compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, it is the policy of Big Spring Independent School District that no person shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity of the Big Spring Independent School District."

The board also set up standards for employees, including selecting the best person for each position and criteria of experience, both within and without the system. The policy still does not have to conform under athletics for an additional two years and even at that time will be able to differentiate between contact sports and the sexes.

DETAILS LATER A complete list of questions and answers concerning the new policy will become available to the public at a later date, according to Dr. Emmett McKenzie, superintendent.

The board named Harold Bentley, assistant superintendent, as coordinator of the policy.

The board awarded the bid for a sound system in the gym to Balco Sound Inc., Dallas, at a low bid of $2496.75.

The board also approved group hospitalization offered by American Security Life Insurance Company which had been recommended by the insurance committee made up of school employees, teachers and administrators.

The board also approved paying half the cost of two concrete slabs at Washington Elementary with the P.T.A. to pay the other half of the cost. One slab will be used for basketball and the other for other types of physical education programs. The board set a maximum price on the project. Marvin Wise, president of Washington Elementary P.T.A., was spokesman for the group.

The board tabled any action on a senior citizens request for school food service, pending receiving more information on what designates a senior citizen and how many are interested in the service.

The board approved employment of Miss Sherrie Alexander, third grade at Washington; Mrs. Rue Ann Cox, fourth grade and Mrs. Barbara Draper, first grade at Marcy.

BUDGET CHANGES They also approved two routine budget amendments for adults basic education, Title I 1974-75 and for the senior high homemaking department. In the latter, they underbudgeted because they have more students taking the course than first anticipated.

The board agreed not to meet again until November, heard reports on the legality of student fees, on required bus driver training and a report on the appraisal contract. Roy Watkins told the board he had been asked to serve on the legislative committee of the Permian Basin School Boards Association.

All board members were present including Jerry Jenkins, Jim Bill Little, Delnor Poss, Al Valdes, Thomas Fetters, Don Reynolds, and Watkins. Administrators attending included Don Crockett, Don Green, Lynn Hise, Dr. McKenzie and Bentley.

HIGHER INSURANCE RATES APPROVED

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The State Insurance Board today ordered a 17 per cent average statewide increase in automobile insurance rates, effective Jan. 1.

It is the largest auto rate increase ordered by the board in more than 15 years.

The insurance industry, citing what it viewed as devastating losses that would continue for at least another year, had requested an almost 25 per cent rate increase.

The increases mean that rates will jump by $8 to $43 statewide for the average motorist carrying a typical policy, and by more for those who have additional coverage or are in such high-rated groups as unmarried males under 21.

The average increase in typical policies is $35 for persons living in Howard, Ector, Midland and Scurry counties and $18 for persons living in Tom Green county. Persons living in other western counties can expect an average increase of $21.

RAIN?

A 20-per-cent chance of rain this afternoon fading in fair skies Wednesday. High today in the 80s. Low tonight, low 50s. High Wednesday, mid 70s. Southerly to southwesterly wind this afternoon 10-20 miles per hour and gusty. Northerly and 5-15 m.p.h. tonight.

System Taking Unfair Abuse

Patricia Swinton, who stood before the bar of justice, accused of having a role in the bombing of government property and skyscrapers in Manhattan, recently was acquitted in New York.

Glowing in the wake of the verdict, she stated she'd return to a commune in Vermont where she lives. Her revolutionary views have not changed, she said.

And among those views is a low opinion of the U. S. system of justice. "I have no respect for the judicial system," she told reporters, "but I have for the 12 people on the jury who were not taken in by a lousy case."

Something of the same sort of comment has come recently from Joan Little, acquitted after a sensational trial of charges she murdered a jailer during an escape attempt. Miss Little, too, says she still believes justice is questionable. Angela Davis, also acquitted, also claims the judicial system is unfair. The list of similar cases could go on and on.

Now wait a minute. The judicial system we have in this country is flawed, certainly; after all, it was designed by and is administered by fallible human beings. Law enforcement is not always just; sometimes prosecutors, at federal and lower levels, pursue politics as well as justice. But it is a little much for persons who have benefited from the protections afforded by our system — including the right to trial by jury — to continue blanket indictments of the system which freed them.

A system is not eaten through with corruption, nor does it bend over backward to serve "the establishment" and punish the radical, when it can convict and punish a Haldeman and an Ehrlichman and free a Davis and a Swinton.

Imperfect? Certainly. Totally unfair and beneath respect? Certainly not.

Generous Support Deserved

Last year Congress established as national policy the premise that the poor are entitled to adequate legal representation. The National Legal Services Corporation was set up to implement this policy. The corporation faces an enormous task, as Cornell law school's Dean Roger C. Cramton said the other day in his capacity as board chairman.

Cramton offered some disturbing figures. He said, for example, that "less than 2,200 lawyers — only about one-half of one per cent of the American Bar — are working full time to meet the legal needs of about one-sixth of the population." He said that about 43 per cent of the nation's poor do not have ready access to legal services offices. "The most generous estimates," he told his audience, "indicate that less than 15 per cent of the legal needs of the poor are being met today."

Cramton commits his agency to providing "the leadership necessary to insure that the poor receive the same quality and range of service that is provided to the rich." It is an ideal worthy of America in the bicentennial year. The National Legal Services Corporation deserves generous public support.

Straight Report

Around The Rim

Troy Bryant

TEXAS — OKLAHOMA madness on the weekend of the Longhorn and Sooner "shootout" is always second hand when it gets back to me. I guess that's because I've never been to one of those games.

Walt Finley, who makes it a point to be present, rooting for the Sooners, came back from the game spinning tales of Cadillac convertibles, eating in warehouses, and seventy-year-old couples getting soused at the Cotton Bowl.

But, I did get some things straight about that weekend. For one thing, according to Walt, there was a clip on that punt return, calling back an OU touchdown.

He also said that all those fumbles were from some of the hardest hitting he's seen in a long time and he termed the game as one of the most exciting he has seen, though not the best mechanically.

His favorite quote (and mine, too) was the one the Dallas Times-Herald printed in the Sunday edition.

OU quarterback Steve Davis, on hearing that an OU fan had attempted to paint Bevo red and was arrested, said, "I'm sorry to hear that guy got arrested. Now he'll probably have to spend the night in Dallas."

THAT ATTEMPTED painting (actually a few drops splattered on the old cow's horns) really made those UT fans mad when they have no right to be.

I certainly don't sanction any kind of harm done to any mascot, but there was certainly less danger in splashing water-based paint on Bevo than there was when UT fans painted Texas Tech's mascot, Happy Five, a black quarterhorse, with orange, oil-base paint a couple of weeks ago.

It took two weeks for the horse to recuperate after that trick.

I only wish that OU man had succeeded in drenching that old steer with the "Big Red" paint.

ALTHOUGH I'M A Texan, I never had much trouble with Okies, although I grew up only eight miles from the Oklahoma border.

In fact, a lot of people from across the line would come over to Texas to shop in our stores during the day and a lot of Texans would go across the Red River at night to do some shopping in the Oklahoma beer joints.

As teens, we always had much better relations with the Okies than we did with some of our neighboring towns in Texas.

Ford's Fumble

Robert Novak

WASHINGTON — During a break at a meeting of corporate magnates and Congressmen in Hot Springs, Va., last week, an Exxon executive sidled over to a Republican Congressman and quietly denounced President Ford's $100 billion scheme to make the U.S. energy-independent.

"SEND THAT plan to Congress and you have put the camel's nose of government ownership under the tent of the free enterprise system," the oilman said angrily.

Considering the firestorm of abuse — political and economic — that has fallen on the Energy Independence Authority (EIA), drafted in considerable secrecy by Vice President Nelson Rockefeller's brain trust, the Exxon official's view was scarcely unique. No presidential program in recent memory has been shot at right from the launch pad with such withering fire from so many big guns as the Ford-Rockefeller energy scheme.

Pro-Ford Republicans see EIA as a thinly-veiled political stunt to come up with something "big," no matter how glaringly out of phase with Mr. Ford's repeated pledge to make government smaller, more controllable. Conservative anti-Ford Republicans see it as a lurch toward commercial welfare statism. The President's entire economic high command sees it as a camouflaged road to vast new "off-budget" spending not reflected in regular budget accounting (widely used by Rockefeller as governor of New York). Big business sees it as a threat to free enterprise, liberal Democrats as a sop to big business.

Indeed, in a rare departure from his normal hands-off policy of presenting economic options without offering his own opinions, White House economic aide William Seidman sent the President a toughly-worded memo just before EIA won Mr. Ford's backing. The memo's clear implication: accept this, Mr. President, and you are biting off more than the federal government can chew. Why, then, did cautious, consensus-minded Jerry Ford embrace the $100 billion plan?

ANSWER NO. 1: Stuck in a veto rut he dare not leave, the President wants one glorious made-by-Ford initiative for 1976 campaigning so he cannot be stigmatized as Mr. Veto. Insiders believe this view influenced White House chief of staff Don Rumsfeld, who was equivocal, and Commerce Secretary Rogers Morton, who supported the plan as chairman of the Energy Resources Council.

Answer No. 2: Rockefeller has been drafting plans for his $100 billion baby for months, tapping his far-flung brain trust. Rockefeller's commitment "up to his eyeballs," in the phrase of one unhappy energy official, had potent effect on the President, who had promised broad authority over domestic programming to his Vice President.

Answer No. 3: Energy independence, Mr. Ford feels, is as important to the U.S. as national defense. After years of talk, he made it happen, as John F. Kennedy put a man on the moon and Franklin D. Roosevelt built the atom bomb. What infuriates the President's political allies in Congress was the absence of any consultation during the long evolution of the Rockefeller plan, despite its glaring departures from the President's perceived economic and political ideology.

In the House Republican cloakroom this week, one conservative Republican tongue-lashed a member of the party's leadership for not having informed the House Republican Conference about EIA. But the leaders themselves knew nothing of the plan until the President announced it in California Sept. 22.

Apart from all else that besets the new-born EIA, this failure to consult Congress — not in keeping with Mr. Ford's usual political tact — is another heavy load on its back.

To Err Is Human

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Melbrow, who heads up a large government bureau in Washington, was bemoaning the bad publicity that the federal bureaucracy has been getting lately.

HE TOLD me, "Everytime you pick up the paper you see where some Senate or congressional committee is investigating hanky-panky in the government. If it isn't the FBI breaking into people's homes, it's the CIA refusing to obey a presidential order. One day someone is blowing the whistle on the Agriculture Department shipping rotten grain abroad, and the next day they talk about high officials in the Pentagon taking free hunting weekends from Northrop aviation. I tell you all this stuff is giving the government a bad name."

"I hate to see the U. S. government get a bad name," I told Melbrow. "I don't see why the public has to know every little mistake we make," Melbrow said. "You can't have a smooth-running federal system if government officials are going to be called on the carpet because of incompetence and violations of the law. Sure, there is stupidity and fraud in government, but does everybody have to know about it?"

"I SHOULD'N'T think so," I said. "I'd rather believe that government officials have the best interests of the country at heart, and if they err it's just because they're human."

"There was a time," said Melbrow, "when we could operate without people finding out what we were doing. If we made mistakes we were the only ones who knew about it."

"How did you do it?" I asked. "By classifying every document that came across our desk. The idea of classifying documents was not only to protect national security, but also to make sure nobody outside a department would find out what we were up to."

"What a foolproof system," I said. "Yes, except that in every branch of government there are now people on the lower levels who have been leaking classified documents to the press. They are trying to make their superiors look stupid," Melbrow said fiercely.

A Devotion For Today

"If you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses." (Matthew 6:15, RSV)
PRAYER: O heavenly Father, make us ever mindful of our need to forgive others as You forgive us. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

My Answer

Billy Graham

A friend of mine says he is a Christian but does not attend church services. Can one be a Christian without going to church?

D.S.
My answer will have to be in two parts. First, neither your friend nor anyone else is a Christian because he attends church. Church attendance does not make Christians. This is a point that confuses many people, and there are multitudes who rely upon their church affiliation to get them in the Kingdom somehow, yet they do not realize that "the organized church" has no authority to grant to people an entrance into heaven or to save them from hell. It is only the individual's faith in Jesus Christ that will make the difference. Yes, your friend might be a Christian even though he is not affiliated with any church.

But the second part of my answer to the question would be that even if your friend is a Christian, there is one area of his life in which he is not living fully the Christian life. Though a Christian may exist in isolation or in separation from the church, he cannot serve effectively, no will he bear a witness to the community. Then from perfectly selfish reasons he is depriving himself of the wonderful fellowship provided in the church of Jesus Christ. He is an unlighted Christian, and he is also very disobedient Christian. But worst of all, he is a self-righteous Christian because he thinks he is better than all of the people who attend churches and that no church is good enough for him.

NY's Fiscal Problem

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — This is how Aunt Minnie learned about the fiscal crisis in New York City. Although she had a vague idea that there was trouble, it came with a shock of surprise when she found that this touched her own security. Safely insulated, as she thought, in modest suburbia, New York had seemed as remote as the moon or as the moon had been before the moonwalk.

Ten years ago Aunt Minnie's husband had died leaving her a small nest-egg, part of which was in municipal tax-exempt bonds. With this income and her social security, she lived comfortably, if frugally. Then two years ago she began to feel the severe pinch of inflation as prices of the necessities of life began to exaltate.

THE TIME had come, she decided, to sell some of her small hoard. She was referred to a man at the bank where she had her checking account. He looked rather solemn when she told him she wanted to sell $5,000 of the bonds of City XYZ.

"You see," he said, "the municipal bond market is very uncertain today. We don't know what's going to happen in New York and therefore the market is soft."

Soft? You see, the man explained, your bonds pay only 5 1/2 per cent while new issues are being offered at 8 1/2 or 9 per cent. The upshot was that if she sold her bonds she would take a loss of somewhere between 20 and 25 per cent on their face value. Since the money was important in light of the second increase in the taxes on her small home, she had no choice.

How many Aunt Minnies there are around the country is anyone's guess. Only a muddle-headed broker, it can be argued, would have put such a small investor into tax-exempts. But at the time they had seemed as good as gold and out of the long reach of the tax collector.

The plight of New York City cannot be brushed off as the consequence of the wicked excesses of a latter day Sodom. That has been the attitude of principal spokesmen in the Ford administration. In his blithe way, Secretary of the Treasury William E. Simon proposed that the city be sold to the Shah of Iran. The Shah, it developed, was not interested.

INTEREST RATES on municipal and state bonds have been steadily climbing. This means that the cost of obtaining money for schools and other needed improvements is reaching record new highs and mayors and governors are wondering whether to risk the higher long-term interest payments or to delay and cut back.

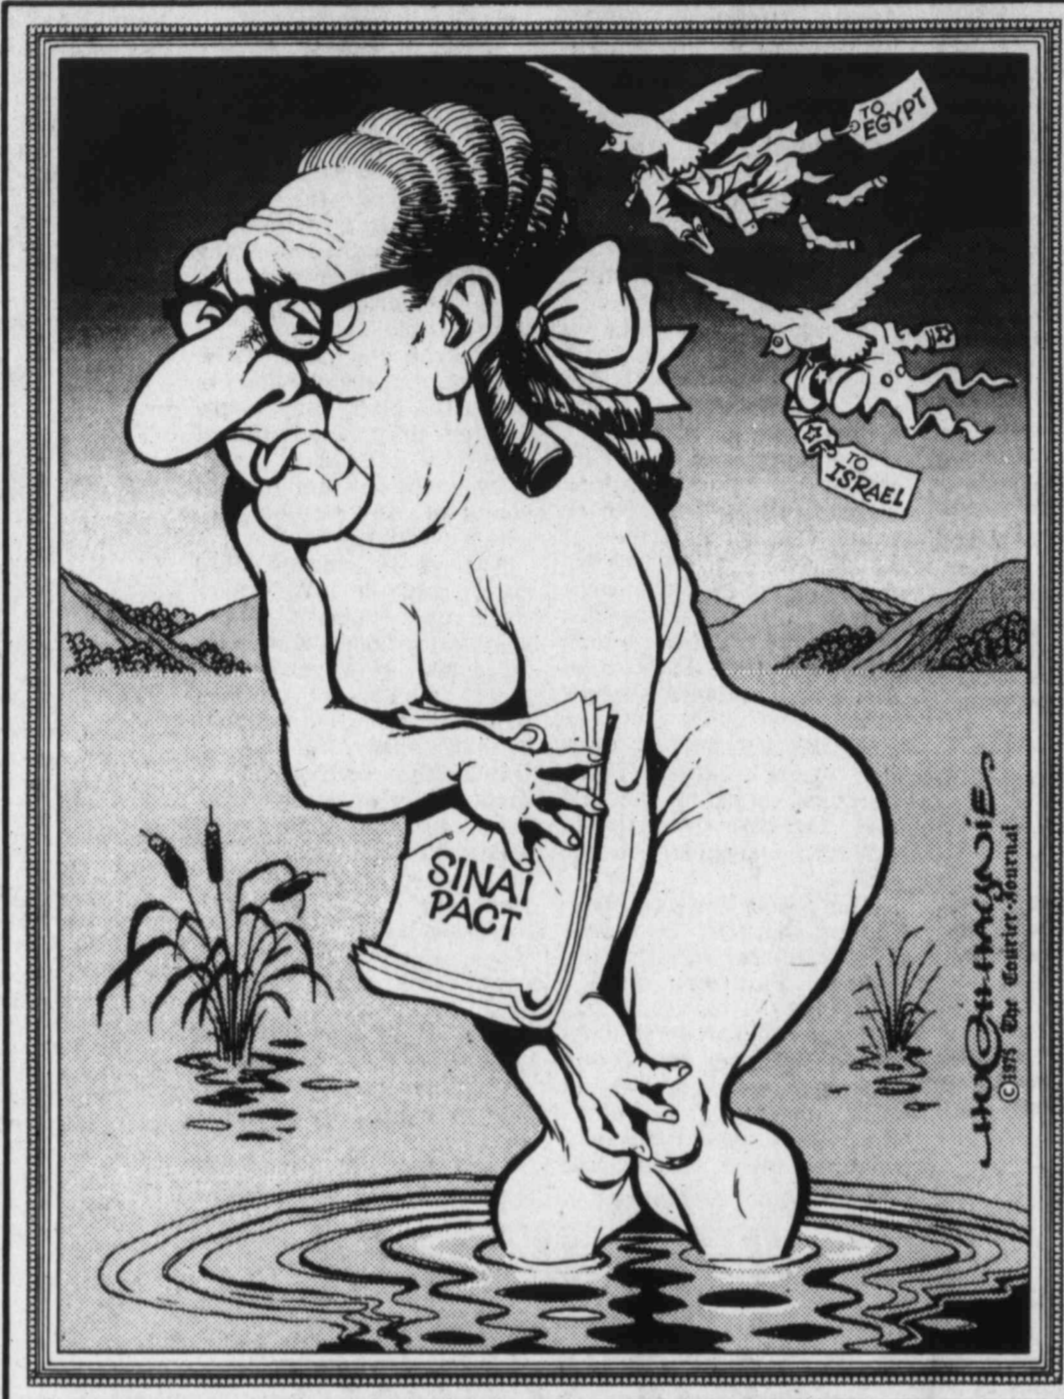

Detroit, another city suffering from a fiscal pinch, on the order if not the same magnitude as that of New York, recently put out a series of bonds paying a record 9 1/2 to 10 per cent, depending on maturity. The same prospect faces municipalities and states in the East and Northeast where the crunch on taxes and services is sharpest.

The plain truth is that bankruptcy in New York — default on obligations — will put in jeopardy the whole financial structure not only here but abroad. The realization of this seems to be slowly seeping into the consciousness of some in the administration with a sense of responsibility.

Chairman Arthur F. Burns of the Federal Reserve Board told the congressional joint economic committee that if there is to be action on New York's plight it should come quickly. The delay and the indecision are bound to produce serious strains on financial markets, Burns said. That consequence is already being felt.

As Burns noted, the catch is that Congress must act to give authority to any plan for helping both the city and the state of New York, the latter approaching a fiscal impasse that could eventually prove as serious as in the metropolis.

AND IN Congress there is stout resistance to any and all proposals for help for the cities. Congressmen from the wide-open spaces take a dim view of "bailing out," as they put it, the great urban complexes that have fallen on evil days.

September morning-after

Inferior Gains

John Cunniff

NEW YORK (AP) — You might believe that the professional managers of big money pools would, on average, be able to obtain a superior return for their investment dollar, but a recent compilation doesn't show it.

Instead, it demonstrates that over an extended period, 10 years, for example, the combined average return on stock investments by banks, insurers and mutual funds was inferior to the gains in stock market averages.

The survey, by Wertheim & Co., N.Y. Stock Exchange broker and investment performance analyst, is conducted regularly among 92 institutions that manage more than $300 billion in trust assets, mainly pension funds.

In the 10 years to Aug. 31, its "equity yardstick," which combines the performance of money managers, averaged an annual gain of 2.6 per cent. The Dow Jones industrial average rose 3.3 per cent.

The best performance of the three institutional categories was the 3.7 per cent return by mutual funds. Bank money managers achieved a return of 2.4 per cent a year, and insurers, just 1.7 per cent.

Although stock or equity investments entail risk, the potential rewards over an extended period are assumed to be greater than for fixed-income securities, but this has not been so in the past decade.

The biggest return of all, an average annual growth of 5.8 per cent, was in U.S. Treasury bills, which entails almost no risk at all.

To some extent a statistical imperative forecloses the possibility of any index of hundreds of billions of dollars substantially outperforming the stock market, simply because it represents so much of the market.

Post Pregnancy Exercise

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I had a baby eight months ago, and I was wondering if you have a post-partem exercise booklet. My doctor didn't give me any specific exercise, and I haven't been able to find any.

Also, I attempted to breast-feed my baby but had to quit because I didn't have enough milk for him. Does breast-feeding cause your breasts to become saggy? I am a 36-C, and I wear well-fitting bras. Are there exercises that would help firm them? — C.W.

You probably should have begun your exercises before now. Generally, post-partem exercise can be begun after the six-weeks checkup if the doctor sees no objection.

There are many exercises that can accomplish what you apparently seek — a firming up of your tummy and chest muscles. They include arm-stretches, sit-ups, etc. You should be able to select the suitable ones for yourself. They would be those that produce muscular activity in areas you want to "tone up."

I don't like to print exercise "blueprints" for fear some will misread them and end up trying to do kneebends while standing on their hands. Public libraries have shelves of books on exercises, and you will undoubtedly be able to find one designed specifically for your needs.

Enclosed is 25 cents for your booklet, "Help for Hypoglycemia." I'm also enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope. One thing, can you explain to me the difference between glycosuria and hypoglycemia? I hear these terms, but am only confused by them. — Mrs. H.S.

Glycosuria means only that abnormal amounts of sugar have been found in the urine, whether in yours I cannot tell from your letter. Anyway, this need not be a symptom of any disease, although it can be. This urine sugar can occur normally after a meal particularly heavy in carbohydrates — either sugars or other foods, as starches, which can be converted into sugar in the body.

You probably are thinking that high urine sugar logically indicates hypoglycemia, since that condition is marked by an abnormally low blood sugar. But, in fact, glycosuria does not occur with hypoglycemia.

However glycosuria can occur with a normal or moderately low blood sugar reading. Contradictory? Not really. Often high urine sugar will be found in persons whose kidneys, because of some defect, allow it to pass into the urine too readily. This is called "renal glycosuria." It has nothing to do with hypoglycemia, which is a problem of blood chemistry.

What about diabetes? In this, there is usually both an abnormal high urine sugar and elevated blood sugar. I hope this has cleared up the matter for you. The booklet you order will help you in further understanding of the whole matter of sugar, blood and urine.

How to get rid of leg cramps and foot pains? The answer may be simple — write to Dr. Thosteson in care of the Big Spring Herald, for a copy of his booklet, "How to Stop Leg Cramps and Foot Pains." Enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

'Exposure' Key To Campaign

EXTON, Pa. (AP) — Susan Scholl is running a daringly different campaign for a court job by walking the streets in short shorts and halter. And she puts up posters that show her skimpily clad.

The 23-year-old Chester County Democrat complains the posters come down almost as fast as she gets them nailed on poles or pasted on walls.

"I'm told they're collector items," she says, "but it still makes me mad. I put a half gallon of glue on some and they still take them."

The idea of a pin-up poster came from her husband, Jacob, a builder and unsuccessful candidate for Congress a year ago.

"He felt that I'd have a chance of winning if I had enough exposure," smiles Susie, admitting she has an uphill battle in this suburban Philadelphia county, which has a 3-2 Republican edge.

It was because of the GOP dominance over half a century that prompted her to toss in the fancy sombrero she wears in her poster picture.

"I think that the party in power for a long time without competition tends to become complacent," she says. "They don't do their best."

Man Sentenced To Two Terms

Reynaldo (Poyyo) Hernandez, 18, 507 NW 7th St., was sentenced Monday afternoon in 118th District Court to two, concurrent 10-year sentences.

Hernandez pleaded guilty to theft of a grandfather clock from a van on Aug. 28. The victim was Philip D. Clark.

And District Judge Ralph W. Caton revoked probation Hernandez was serving for possession of marijuana.

Manuel Lopez, 19, 818 W. 7th St., pleaded guilty Monday afternoon to theft of a 1969 model car belonging to Gerald Ayers.

Lopez was placed on five years of probation for the July 8 offense.

Extended Coverage

By Jerry E. Mancill, CLU, CPCU

To discourage thieves from breaking into first-floor windows, plant rosebushes (or something equally thorny) in front of them.

Homeowners insurance will cover some jewelry — but usually only in case of fire or theft (rather than ordinary loss), and there is usually a limit on the amount of jewelry covered. For big items, you're better off with a personal articles floater.

Mortgagees often require that policies insuring real property be written in the exact legal name (or names) appearing on the property deed. That's why home insurance policies often are written in two names.

New method of determining the cost of a life insurance policy has been formulated. Called the "interest-adjusted" method, it takes into account what your insurance money would have earned if it had been invested differently.

Building costs continue to rise. That's why many homeowners policies now contain an automatic increase endorsement; the policy rises a certain percentage each year, to keep up with inflation.

Navy's 200th Birthday Celebrated At Newport

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — The H.M.S. Rose patrolled against smuggling so effectively during the early days of the Revolutionary War that angry Rhode Island ship owners petitioned Congress for a Navy.

And Monday, as the U.S. Navy held a ceremony at this city's waterfront to celebrate the 200th anniversary of the granting of that petition, a replica of the Rose — its sails flapping — stood off the port.

As about 1,000 persons looked on, British and American naval officers went aboard the Rose and fired a 13-gun salute in honor of the original colonies.

"It was Newport and Rhode Island men who set up the congressional committee on the Navy," said state Sen. Erich A. O'D. Taylor, D-Newport, a local historian.

"We had a running war going with the British," he said. "We believed we were a free port and that a ship could dock here without a license from the king."

But Taylor said efforts by the Rose and other British warships stifled that free trade and led to repeated acts of resistance.

In 1772, an armed British schooner, the Gaspee, was attacked and burned in Narragansett Bay after it ran aground chasing a ship several miles south of Providence.

In the summer of 1775, Rhode Islanders equipped the sloop Katy with 10 guns and commissioned her the flagship of the tiny colony's own naval force. The ship patrolled Narragansett Bay during the summer.

The Katy, later renamed the Providence, also took part in the Continental Navy's first major attack in March of 1776 — an assault on New Providence in the Bahamas to secure cannons for the fleet.

"We couldn't buy cannons," Taylor said. "We certainly couldn't buy them from the British. So we stole them."

Taylor said Newport was a natural birthplace for the Navy because of its existing fleet and dependence on ocean trade.

"The Navy was started here," he said, "because we always had boats which would travel to the West Indies and they were armed. We just had to add a few more cannons."

In December of 1776, the British occupied Newport, but abandoned the city after three years.

Lecture Is Wednesday

Patricia Parker, a regional officer for the inner peace movement, will give an introductory lecture in Big Spring Wednesday in the Pioneer Gas Company Community Room at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Parker is reported to be an expert in the field of human development, and is on a three-month tour of West Texas with the inner peace movement.

I.P.M. is a program of psychic awareness, teaching tools and techniques to use psychic abilities in a practical manner.

"We all have psychic abilities," says Mrs. Parker, "they are so much a part of our nature we take them for granted. We need only to be aware of them in order to use them wisely to learn to respect ourselves, our fellow man, and our reason for living. We are meant to be happy and productive during our lifetime, and if we aren't having fun, we're doing something wrong."

"I have been aware of psychic energy and ESP since I was a child," said Mrs. Parker, "but I always had the knowledge that I was meant to live here on earth purposefully, and I felt that people used psychic things to escape to a fantasy world. In I.P.M. I have found a way to enrich my life, to respect the fact that God lives within me, and within my fellow man. When that fact becomes evident, there is no way I can continue living my life except happily and energetically."

Maid Marian Mugged In NYC

BY JAY SHARBUT
AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Maid Marian, in civilian life an actress named Misty Rowe, left Sherwood Forest last week to come to Gotham to publicize her new ABC series called "When Things Were Rotten."

Forsyth, she should have brought along the sheriff of Nottingham, no matter how mean he is to Robin Hood & Co. in the new show.

She said a tall, heavy-set lady mugger had shoved her up against a wall and stolen her wallet while she, Miss Rowe, was in the ladies' room of a downtown New York department store putting on fresh makeup.

For Miss Rowe, a blonde, gentle spirit born in San Gabriel, Calif., the incident made her first stay in Fun City memorable in a way she'd just as soon forget.

To top things off, she added somewhat disbelievingly, when she told a sales clerk of the theft moments after the mugger fled, the clerk commenced talking to her as if she had no smarts.

"I told her my wallet had been robbed and she said, 'Where was it?'" Miss Rowe recalled. "I said it was in my purse. She says, 'Where was the purse?' I said, 'On the floor, next to my packages.'

MISTY ROWE
... Mugged

"She says, 'On the floor?' and she starts yelling and screaming at me. She says, 'You ought to know better than to leave your purse on the floor in New York.'"

The young actress shrugged, then laughed infectiously. "What could I say? I just told her this was my first time in New York. I didn't know."

She appeared to have recovered nicely, perhaps because she was headed that evening to Nashville, Tenn., a somewhat less abrasive city to tape new segments for "Hee Haw," in which she has appeared for four years.

Another aid to recovery is the fact she has the starring role in a soon-to-be-released movie called "Goodbye, Norma Jean," a film based on the life of the late Marilyn Monroe.

Miss Rowe, who went into acting studies and acting right after graduation from high school in Glendora, Calif., near San Gabriel, appeared in a number of TV series, including regular spots on "Happy Days."

But she said she landed her Maid Marian role because of what she considers a "horrible picture of me" in a national magazine article about her "Norma Jean" movie.

She said Norman Steinberg, producer of "When Things Were Rotten," saw the picture while browsing through the magazine one day and thought she might be ideal as Maid Marian.

Halloween Items Galore Offered At Gibson's

Halloween is a holiday that the government has not tampered with and it still comes on October 31. Gibson's is ready now for Halloween and if you have small fry, you will want to come by and see their selections. They have Jack-o-lanterns, trick or treat bags, costumes, noisemakers, masks and all of the items that make it a colorful and happy Halloween.

Come by early before other customers have beaten you to the choice items. If you are planning a Halloween party for your school class, your own children, your scout groups or any other group, come by and select the items you will need. Halloween has never been a favorite holiday of adults, but it has always been special to children. Really, to kids, it is often second only to Christmas in excitement and fun.

Help them have a Halloween that they will remember. Go to Gibson's and check the Halloween counter.

And remember, "If you didn't get it at Gibson's, you paid too much."

Named For Secretary

SEATTLE (AP) — A 5.2-acre subdivision on Finn Hill in suburban Juanita has been named after Carla Hills, secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

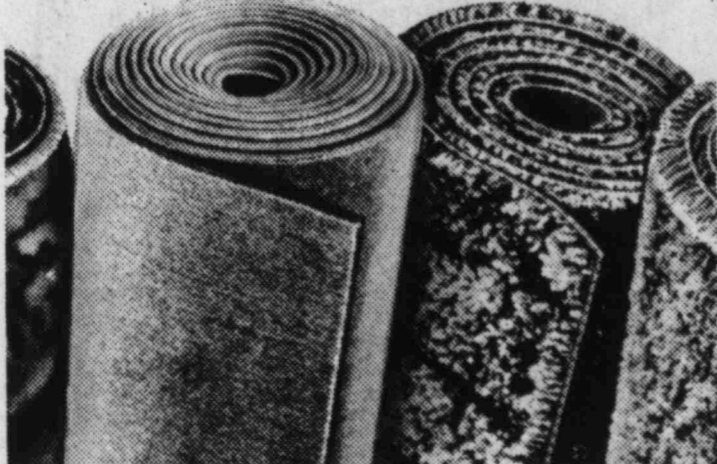

The land is being developed by the Stafford Hansell Co. of Kirkland. Last month Pete Hansell was elected a director of the National Association of Home Builders, an organization that has been critical of the secretary's policies in the housing industry.

But Hansell's partner, Brian Stafford, denies any such connection.

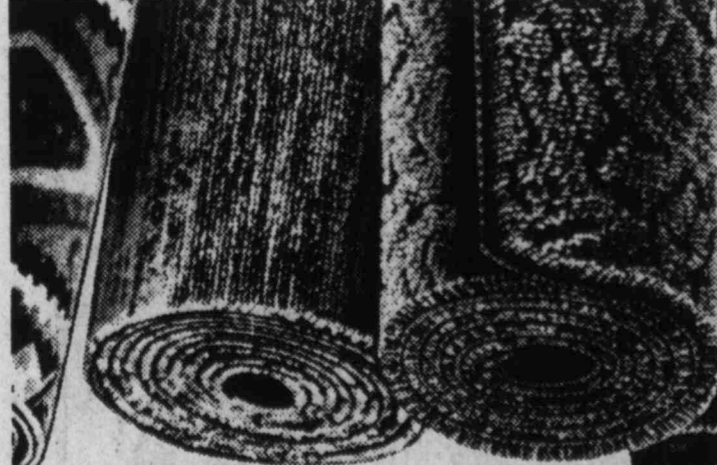

"Names are harder to come by in this business than you might think," Stafford said. "People in this industry take themselves and each other too seriously. There has to be a place for a little humor."

LEE'S RENTAL
DONNA BATTS demonstrates an exerciser for rent

For Any Needs, Call Lee's Rental

If you need an item and don't want to buy it, you can probably rent it at Lee's Rental. Go out on east FM 700 and you'll discover Lee's Rental shortly before you get to Birdwell Lane. Their phone number is 163-6925. If you are hunting an item, call them. More than likely they will have it. They have tillers and yard tools to help in the yard. They have U-Haul equipment for moving. They have typewriters and television and tools. You can go through the alphabet. A is for any item and a good place to start. B is for bicycles, especially the kind you can ride to lose weight. C is for cutglass punch sets for parties. D is for dining needs such as dishes rented for a party. E is for edger to edge your lawn. F is for floor polisher. G is for gardener needs. H is for hangers when moving clothing. I is for invalid needs that you might want to rent. J is for a jack to help when you repair your car. K is for kitchenware if you need it for a party or a campout. L is for ladder which many people need but do not own. Do I need to continue? There's not a letter in the alphabet that they don't have an item for unless it's X or Z and they may have that. If you are in need of anything that you don't want to purchase, check with Lee's.

Series Starter Kept The Faith

CINCINNATI (AP) — When Gary Nolan's world was crumbling in on all sides, he kept the faith. He caps his gallant comeback tonight with a World Series start — a goal he never gave up on. "Heck, nobody else believed in me, so I just decided to go out and have fun," said the 26-year-old Cincinnati Reds right-hander, who faces Boston in Game 3 of the World Series. Nolan defied the odds, surviving two arm operations, and shook off two years of inactivity to end up in a three-way tie as the Reds' winningest pitcher with 15 victories. "I'd be lying if I didn't say I was worried. I was wondering if it would be in the cards," said Nolan, who was all but written off by the Reds when he developed arm trouble in 1972. "I couldn't go around with a grudge. I never got to the point where I was beating up the kids. But it was pretty

Pokes Win Over 'Skins

The College Heights Cowboys, their appetites whetted for touchdowns, bombed the Boydston-Cedar Crest Redskins, 50-6, in Pee Wee League football games at Blankenship Field Monday evening. The Redskins' only score came in the third period when Raymond Dominguez raced 60 yards across the double stripes. Kip McLaughlin led the Cowboys' defensive surge with five tackles. He also carried the ball 14 times for 112 yards and three TDs. In addition, he added three extra points. Matt Burris had 11 tackles for the winners. He was a whiz on offense, too, with two pass receptions, 60 for the ball yards, and carried the ball six times for 96 yards. He returned a kickoff 65 yards for a score and ran the ball across for an extra point. Terry Spears excelled on offense and defense, too, for the Cowpokes. He gained 22 yards in four running attempts and had 11 tackles. Rod Harris, Jim Macknair, Mike Pekowski, Jack Spargo, Joe Moran, George Bancroft, Kelly Rogers and Bill Baum were other standouts for the red-hot Cowboys. The Cowboys play the Oilers at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night, Oct. 21, in Blankenship Field.

Bufs Win Over HC

West Texas State topped Howard College in a women's volleyball matchup here Monday evening, 15-9, 10-15, 15-7. The reversal left the Big Spring collegians with a 5-6 record. The locals need a sweep of their doubleheader with Abilene Christian College and McMurry tonight to move past the .500 mark again. The Hawks go to Abilene for the games. Helen Ray led the scoring for HC in the opening game last night with five points. Bridget Andrews counted five points in the second game while Regina Lewis registered four points in the deciding game. The Hawks' contest with ACC gets under way at 6:30 p.m., while the Hawks oppose McMurry an hour later.

'Notre Dame Special' Does In Cardinals

WASHINGTON (AP) — It was like winning one for old Notre Dame. Joe Theismann and John Pergine came in for a lot of ribbing from their Washington teammates Monday night after they connected on a fake field goal to spark the Redskins to a 27-17 National Football League victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in a nationally televised game. Washington reserve linebacker Rusty Tillman told newsmen as they crowded around Pergine, who caught the 30-yard touchdown pass from Theismann, that he was the primary receiver on the play. "It was a Notre Dame special," said Tillman. "I was a receiver on the play and he didn't even see me." Theismann, who was a freshman when Pergine, now a reserve linebacker, was playing for the Fighting Irish, said, "We have a very strong Catholic relationship, even though we're not even Catholic."

would not come back and get 'em," he said. "They were obviously up for the game." Washington's Mark Moseley and St. Louis' Jim Bakken traded 47-yard field goals before Thomas, from the University of Nevada-Los Vegas, went over from the two for his first touchdown to give the Redskins a 10-3 lead. Metcalf's kickoff returned tied the score. After the Pergine score, Jim Hart put the Cardinals back into a tie with a 48-yard touchdown strike to Mel Gray to tie the knot at 17-17. In the fourth quarter, however, Thomas dove one yard for his second touch-down of the night and Moseley booted a 34-yard field goal to put the icing on the victory. And, when the Cardinals appeared to be closing in, linebacker Chris Hanburger picked off a Hart pass to kill a possible score in the fourth quarter. "The interception by Hanburger was a fine defensive play," said Coryell. "We just went to the well once too often on that one and Hanburger is an intelligent, good defensive player and he read it well."

QUARTERBACK CORNER Excuses Will Not Change The Score

By Paschal Odum QB tri-captain Our Steers have had their problems during their first two conference football games. We can look at all levels of the football game, professional, university, college, and high school and see teams that have their problems, what counts most is they come back the next week and show their character. There could be many reasons or excuses for the scores of the past two games, injuries, bad officiating, bad ball bounces, mental attitude, poor preparation, but none of these will change the score or who won. There is no need to try to "Monday morning quarterback" to blame anyone. The thing the Steers and coaches need most is support. When someone is winning, support comes out from under every rock but they don't really need it then because winning breeds a good positive attitude. It is hard to muster a positive attitude when you have lost three games. That in my opinion is the sole purpose for Quarterback Club. Let us give every Steer and coach a pat on the back and a good word for next Friday night. We all know this is Homecoming week and there will be a crowd of exes at the game. Let's all go to the game, fill up the stands with Gold and Black to show we still support them and know they can win if they play the game like we know they can. Someone has to come out on the bottom end of the score at every game that is played but there do not have to be quitters at any game. The Steers have not quit and they are not going to quit. See you at the game Friday night backing our Steers. As fans, let us not quit either.

Moccasins Deadlocked In Tennis Standings

The Racquets and Water Moccasins were winners in dual matches of the Big Spring Tennis Association last Sunday at the Figure 7 Center. Third and final round of play will be held Sunday. The Racquets defeated the Netters, 4-0 and the Water Moccasins beat the Lobsters, 3-2. Current standings show the Water Moccasins and Racquets tied at 6-6, Lobsters with four wins and Netters, two. Upcoming matches will pit the Water Moccasins against Racquets and Netters vs. Lobsters. DALLAS (AP) — David Bostick will be the starting fullback for Southern Methodist against Rice Saturday night but if he runs with his head high he'll get the hook. The 6-foot-2, 220-pound junior from Hurst Bell had been SMU's starting fullback for two years before he lost his job this season to David Bonilla of Corpus Christi. Bostick averaged 4.7 yards per carry and never lost a yard in 1974 on 184 carries for 862 yards. However, Bostick drew the ire of offensive coach Pug Gabrel for "running like a turkey. Bostick just wasn't doing his job which is running low and tough." Bostick also developed fumble tendencies. "Fumbles sometimes happen through hard-hitting but they were no accident the way David was carrying the ball," said Gabrel. "David had to learn that he just couldn't run straight up like Earl Campbell of Texas or Horace Ivory of Oklahoma." Bostick ran hard in the final period of Friday night's 28-13 Southwest Conference victory over Texas Christian. "Bostick looked like Bostick on that drive," said Gabrel. "He had been running like a turkey with that head high in the first period but I think he really looked good in the last half."

WANTS TITLE BACK — Boxer George Foreman is shown in New York Monday, where he announced he has signed to fight Ron Lyle in November or December of this year at an undetermined site. A year ago, Foreman was a heavyweight champion of the world and he says his goal is to regain that title in 1976. Foreman dropped the title to Muhammad Ali when he was knocked out in the eighth round of a bout in Zaire last Oct. 30.

A&M 5th In AP's Grid Poll

By The Associated Press The Buckeyes of Ohio State, who routed Big Ten rival Iowa 49-0 over the weekend, have held onto the top spot in The Associated Press college football ratings for the second week. The top four spots in The AP's ratings, announced Monday, remained the same, with deposited leader Oklahoma second, followed by Southern California and Nebraska. But there was a new school in the fifth spot, Texas A&M, on the strength of a 38-9 drubbing of Texas Tech, climbed from sixth to fifth, replacing the Texas Longhorns, who dropped to eighth after a 24-17 loss to Oklahoma. The Buckeyes received 42 first-place votes and 1,066 of a possible 1,100 points from a nationwide panel of 55 sports writers and broadcasters. Oklahoma received 12 first-place votes and 982 points. Last week, with 62 board members casting ballots, Ohio State received 47 first-place votes to 14 for Oklahoma and outpointed the Sooners 1,178-1,072. Southern Cal was the only other team receiving a first-place ballot after a 28-10 Pacific-8 Conference victory over Washington State. The Trojans received 844 points, Nebraska blanked Kansas 16-0 and got 649 points. In other changes in the poll, Alabama moved up from seventh to sixth by trouncing Washington 52-0, and Michigan rose from eighth to seventh with a 16-6 triumph over Michigan State. After eighth-place Texas, Penn State and Missouri rounded out the Top Ten. Penn State thrashed previously unbeaten West Virginia 39-0 over the weekend, dropping the Mountaineers, who had been No. 10, completely out of the ratings. Missouri, No. 12 a week ago, made it back into the Top Ten by routing previously undefeated Oklahoma State 41-14. The Second Ten were Colorado, Arizona State, Arizona, Florida, Notre Dame, Tennessee, Michigan State, UCLA, Maryland and Arkansas. Last week, it was Arizona State, Missouri, Colorado, Oklahoma State, Michigan State and Notre Dame tied for 15th, Arizona, Florida, Tennessee and Miami of Ohio. The Top Twenty teams in the Associated Press college football poll, with first place votes in parentheses, season records and total points, are based on 20-18-14-12-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1.

Improved Trend Noted In Petrofina Earnings

DALLAS — American Petrofina, Inc., today announced that earnings in the third quarter of 1975 continued the improved trend evident in the previous three months, although net income remains significantly below the record third quarter of 1974. Net income in the third quarter of 1975 was $16,726,000, or $1.57 per share and for the nine months ended Sept. 30, 1975, was $30,945,000, or $2.90 per share.

For the record third quarter of 1974, net income amounted to $31,944,000, or $3.00 per share. For last year's first nine months, net income was $64,265,000, or $6.03 per share. In the third quarter of 1975, gross revenues totaled $268,195,000 and in the nine months' period $727,970,000. This compared to $260,367,000 in the same quarter of 1974, and $731,778,000 in the nine months.

In addition, the Company announced that it did not intend to acquire the 20 percent of the shares of the corporation holding the interest of the Petrofina Group in the Ekofisk field and other areas in the Norwegian Sector of the North Sea, which was the subject of a Letter of Intent signed in 1971. R. I. Galland, president, stated that, taking into account the changes in circumstances of the Company and the international oil industry since 1971, the transaction was not considered to be of advantage to the Company. Galland said that the improvement of earnings during the third quarter over the earlier periods of 1975 reflected greater profits in refining and marketing of refined products, a continued high level of revenues from the production of crude oil and natural gas and an upturn in the sales and profitability of the Cosden petrochemicals and plastics division. He said that recent increases in the prices of polystyrene had improved the outlook for the balance of the year. Earlier this month, the Company announced a semiannual dividend of $1 per share payable on

D. Shockey Is Honored

Dan Shockey, formerly associated with Howard College and now director of special services at Panola Junior College in Carthage, recently was named Kiwanian of the Year in Carthage. Shockey, married to the former Jean Peters of Big Spring, was recognized during the Kiwanis Club's annual installation banquet held in the Student Union Building at Panola J.C. Dan received the honor on the basis of balloting by the entire Kiwanis Club membership.

The award is presented to the Kiwanian who has most aptly displayed the high standards for which that civic organization stands, for participation in club activities and for contributions to the community. "Dan Shockey is the most devoted, able and efficient Kiwanian I have known," Earl Cariker, the 1974 winner of the award, said while presenting the award to Shockey.

Shockey is a graduate of Sul Ross, where he received both his bachelor's and master's degrees. He taught speech and drama in the Big Spring public schools before joining the faculty at Howard College, where he taught until 1973. Shockey was also named secretary-treasurer of the Carthage Kiwanis Club.

Five Finalists Are Chosen

Five finalists for Homecoming Queen were announced today at the high school, with one of the five senior girls to be crowned prior to the football game Friday night. They include Laura Bickford, Chris Davis, Angela Hodnett, Janet Ivory, and Paige Little. The student body votes on their final selection of queen.

UW Helps Probed Term Is Given Man

COLORADO CITY — Manuel Del Real, 53, a Colorado City farmer and stockman, pleaded "nolo contendere" Monday to a charge of cattle theft in 32nd District Court and was placed on three years probation by district Judge Weldon Kirk. Del Real agreed to make restitution of $2,475.71 to rancher Waddell Strain and $1,472.32 to Harold Hester, both of Colorado City.

Del Real was being tried only on the theft of cattle from Strain. Del Real had been tried in February on the same charge, but the jury had deadlocked in the earlier trial.

The Webb Air Force Base Youth Activities Program is another organization that depends a great deal on financial support from the United Way. The Youth Center offers a full time program of wholesome recreation programs for military dependents who are under the age of 19. The program includes a full line of social activities, sports, and handicrafts.

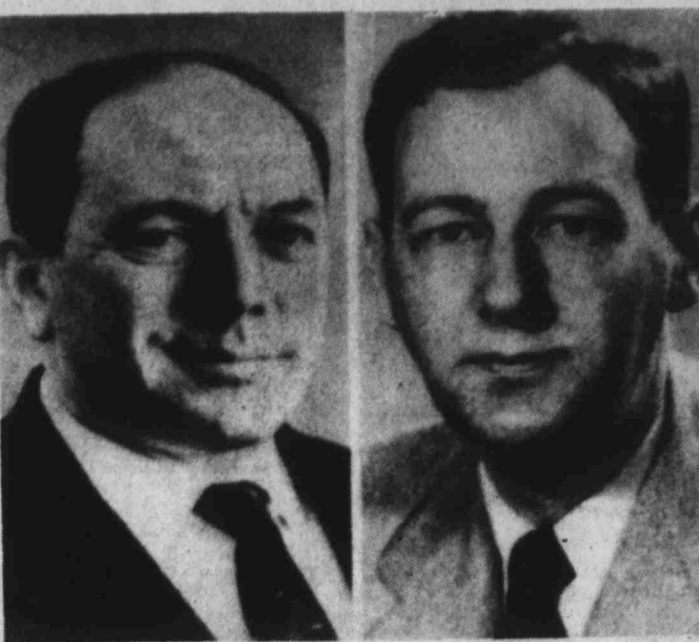

This summer the Center sponsored such activities as a roving playground program for base housing, a youth swimming team, summer arts and crafts workshop, coed soccer league, summer employment program, educational and recreational field trips, and a summer day camp program. The Webb Air Force Base Youth Activities Program also has a full line of activities lined up for fall and winter, including teen and pre-teen nights once a week, dances and dance classes, special outings and a variety of sports activities. For more information contact the youth center office at 267-2511, extension 2714, or John J. White, chief of special services division, Webb Air Force Base.

Wet-Dry Vote Is Looming

BAIRD — A petition calling for the legal sale of alcoholic beverages here has been filed with the county clerk here and is now being circulated among eligible voters. A total of at least 93 signatures will be needed on the petition and those must be collected within 30 days. If that many names on the document are authenticated, an election date will be set.

Early Voting

Absentee voting starts in the county clerk's office Wednesday for the Nov. 4 constitutional election. Oct. 31 is the last day for absentee voting in the office, County Clerk Margaret Ray said. But mailed absentee ballots will be counted if they are received by 1 p.m. election day.

JOINT NOBEL WINNERS — Leonid Kantorovich, left, of the Soviet Union, and Yale University's Tjalling C. Koopmans, were named as co-winners of the 1975 Nobel Prize in Economic Science. The men were cited for their contributions to the theory of optimum allocation of resources.

City Will Assume Role In Flag Celebration

During the Big Spring High School homecoming activities, Oct. 16-18, Big Spring will become a part of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Flag Celebration by displaying a set of American and Texas flags which have flown over Washington and Austin. This is made possible through the WTCC which initiated a Bicentennial project planned to encourage all WTCC affiliated cities to unite in creating a new chapter in West Texas history. Participation in this West Texas-wide project is voluntary but has received extremely favorable response from the affiliated cities of which Big Spring is a part.

The project involves the use of sets of American and Texas flags flown over Washington and Austin, respectively, in 1974, to travel throughout West Texas' Congressional Districts and flown in participating cities and counties. For each request, one set of Texas and American flags will be sent. Each set of flags will begin its journey throughout West Texas being displayed at local celebrations and other suitable community functions. The flags will be transported in a travel case including a display log sheet to be signed by dignitaries of the community and a diary telling how the flags were transported, the function at which they were flown, dates of the events and other points of distinguishing interest. The arrangements for travel will be coordinated by the directors and interested members of the WTCC, while the staff will maintain a control log to keep accurate travel records. Circulation of the flags will continue until March of 1976 when they will all be assembled for transporting to Washington, D. C. and accompanied by a West Texas delegation for presentation to the twelve West Texas U. S. Congressmen and two U. S. Senators.

'Blithe Spirit' Ducats Available At College

Persons who are making plans to attend the Hawk Players' production of "Blithe Spirit," scheduled to start at 8 p.m., each night Oct. 24-25 in the Howard College Auditorium, can make sure of admission by calling the college (267-6311). Adults will pay $2.50 for ducats while students will be charged $1. There will be no reserve seats but everyone purchasing a ticket will be assured of a seat. The Noel Coward farce, written during WW II, is supposed to be one of the funniest plays ever written and might have been Coward's greatest comedy hit. Kathryn Ann (Kathi) Spannaus, a freshman at Howard College, is assistant to Director John Gordon in the production. She is majoring in PE and minoring in drama. Kathi was named best actress in Midland earlier this year for her starring role in "Anne Bolyn," during the ULL competition, at which time she was attending Big Spring High School. She came here last year from Germany with her family — her father is a colonel at Webb AFB. She sang and danced in a high school production of the musical, "The Boyfriend" and was nurse Kelley in "Harvey." She has had other theatrical experience in makeup, properties, costumes and scenery. Kathi was secretary and treasurer of her high school drama club and is a member of the Thespian Society. She finds time at HC to be a cheerleader. Janis Elaine Cass plays Elvira in the play. She is married to a Webb pilot. Janis hails from Jacksonville, Fla., and brings with her the experience of roles in many theatrical productions at North Florida Junior College in Madison and Western Kentucky University at Bowling Green, where she majored in speech pathology and drama. Her college roles included

Dolly in "Hello Dolly," Gertie Cummings in "Oklahoma!," grace Kim-Cousins in "Never Too Late," Jerry Van Pelt in "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown," and a chorus member in "South Pacific." Janis had other theatrical experience in makeup and sound in a non-union rendition of "The Fantasticks" and children's productions of "Beauty and the Beast" and "Jack and the Beanstalk." Her hobbies are piano playing and singing.

The flag sets will be presented in hand-crafted, engraved display cases along with the log of constituents' signatures and diaries which accompanied the flags on their West Texas journeys. It is felt that through this project, West Texas will create a common effort to commemorate the Bicentennial in the West Texas region. This unique project will allow each community celebration to be documented in the halls of the West Texas Congressmen with news clippings, photographs, programs and other mementos. The set of flags have been received by Mrs. Johnnie Lou Avery of the Big Spring-Howard County Bicentennial Commission, the requesting organization. The diary and log are being completed prior to the display of the flags at all the Big Spring High School homecoming events October 16-18. These events include, among others, two high school assemblies, a downtown parade, the football game and half-time ceremonies, and Saturday programs in which one of the highlights will be the hall of fame induction. The Bicentennial Commission will turn over the flags to Craig Fischer, vice principal and student activities director at Big Spring High School, who will be in charge of the flags during this period, seeing that they are properly and appropriately displayed at the various functions. Immediately following Big Spring's use of the flags, they will be sent to Clyde, where a Chamber of Commerce Bicentennial event is being planned at which these flags will be flown. The diary accompanying these flags were last used at

Glasscock Has Initial Bale

ST. LAWRENCE — This year's first bale of cotton was ginned here today at the St. Lawrence gin. The bale came out of Reagan County from the H & H Ranch Company. It was ginned from 2100 pounds of seed cotton and weighed 507 pounds. It yielded 840 pounds of seed. The cotton was of the Tamcot-ST-23 variety. The gin will pay a 10 cent-a-pound premium for the bale, a yearly custom for the first bale ginned, according to manager Delmer Batla.

His Mission Was Aborted

Things are tough all over nowadays. An armed robber went into the 7-11 Store at 11th Pl. and Settles and demanded the money in the cash register at 8:45 p.m. Monday. Mrs. Irene Cason, clerk at the store, told the black male, "I don't have any money." The man, who had a silk stocking over his hair, but not his face, tucked the pistol in his belt and fled on foot, heading south.

Board Meets

The Howard County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 board of directors will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. The district's share of appraisal office costs will be considered among other items.

CC Directors Updated On Area Developments

The board of directors for the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce met at noon, Monday, to hear reports on the city's latest community and economic developments.

Area members of the Interstate 27 Improvement Association experienced some success at a meeting with representatives of the State Department of Highways and Public Safety in Austin. Although nothing could be done at this time, according to Luther DeBerry, department director, I-27 may be designated to run from Lubbock to San Angelo in the future. DeBerry claimed that the Highway Department would be completely out of money by Jan. 1, according to board member, Clyde McMahon Sr., who attended the meeting. Of area delegations at the Austin meeting, Big Spring and Lamesa were the best represented, with nine members attending from Big Spring, and 13 from Lamesa.

Big Spring Mayor Wade Choate, chairman of West members: approved an amendment to the Chamber's by-laws that clarifies the election procedure for the Board of Directors.

— deemed this year's Big Spring Agricultural Appreciation Day Barbeque a great success, and approved another barbeque for next year.

— determined that the guest speaker at this year's Chamber of Commerce Member Banquet would be chosen from a list of humorous speakers. — announced that Mayor Wade Choate would join members in an industrial scouting tour in New York City, Nov. 30. — announced that the Century Club has 15 openings, and that the club's major event this year will be the Christmas party at Howard College, to which foreign students and student pilots will be invited.

Minnesota High School Tries Four Day Week

STILLWATER, Minn. (AP) — On a Tuesday while most of her sophomore high school friends were in class, Diane Arndt was home making herself a skirt.

At the same time, her sister Joanne, a senior, was back in school after waiting on tables at a fashionable restaurant Monday to make some spending money.

The two sisters weren't skipping school. They were taking Stillwater High School's new four-day week in stride.

The school operates Monday through Friday, as usual, but each pupil goes only four days. Each day is stretched out an hour to 7½ hours.

It's the latest major experiment in Minnesota schools, brought on by an increasing enrollment coupled with limited classroom space and a lack of money for new construction.

School officials selected the four-day system as the best alternative after voters rejected three bond issues in four years.

Shrewsbury, Mass., resorted to a similar plan earlier.

From contacts with school administrators, teachers, pupils and parents in Stillwater, these observations can be made:

—Administrators find the system is generally working well, although they admit there are some "bugs" and it means more work for them.

—Teachers are more apt to have some classes of 30-to-35-pupils than 15 to 20, and they may "spin their wheels" at some sessions because they can't inject new lessons when some youths are on their day off.

—Pupils count it a mixed blessing. There is more free time for recreation, outside work and special-interest studies. But the four-day operation means less flexibility in scheduling. Pupils are apt to go through the day with the same set of pupils, meaning their social contacts are limited. And they may find the schedule deprives them of an elective course they'd like to take.

Starting this fall, students attend classes on their four days from 7:50 a.m. to 3:50 p.m., with a half hour for lunch. It's enough to meet the state's required minimum of 1,050 hours per school year.

The high school was forced into the innovative program because, while many school districts in the nation report declining enrollments because of a lower birth rate, the enrollment at Stillwater has climbed at all levels.

That's because it's located 20 miles northeast of St. Paul, and there's plenty of room in the scenic 150-square mile district to absorb metropolitan emigration.

Rifles Stolen

E. O. McNeese, 2409 E. 25th St., told the sheriff's office Monday a .22-caliber rifle and .270-caliber rifle were stolen from a vehicle parked at his residence.

THIS LITTLE PIGGY — Brian Megert, 16 months, makes a new friend in the "contact area" of exhibitions at the 65th annual Pacific International Livestock Exposition Sunday. The exposition also features a rodeo and horse show.

Has Operation

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mickey Cohen, the 62-year-old former mobster, has been released from UCLA Medical Center after undergoing an operation in which his stomach was removed to get rid of a cancerous ulcer, a hospital spokesman said Sunday.

Cohen has lived in suburban Brentwood since his release from prison several years ago.

PICK THE SCORE OF THESE TWO GAMES TO BREAK THE TIES

Herald Football Contest Rules

ALL YOU DO to be eligible for the cash prizes, mark the winners of games shown in each ad or legible facsimile, print your name and address plainly at the bottom of page, mail or bring to The Herald by 5 p.m. each Friday. Winners will be announced on Tuesday the following week. Mark winners with an "X" opposite your choice of team. Pick actual score of games as indicated for TIE BREAKER. Everyone eligible except employees and family of The Herald. Beat The Herald Football Crystal Ball Forecasters. It's fun and profitable.

As many members of a single family may participate as wish to do so, but only one such will be eligible for an award in any one week. One Entry Per Person!

PICK YOUR WINNER

THE HERALD — BOX 1431
Address Your Envelope C-O Football Contest
Neatness Is Important — Be sure to mark your SCORES clearly so the judges won't make a mistake.

In case of tie in number of games missed, awarding of prizes will be on the grading of the actual scores, which should always be indicated in the tie-breaker adv. Your indication of these two games will break the tie. The point spread in the scores will be the basis for the breaking.

Reporter Speaks To Child Study Club

Mrs. Marj Carpenter, Big Spring Herald reporter, spoke on "The Effect of News Media on the Child," to members of the Child Study Club at the Wednesday afternoon meeting held in the home of Mrs. Stanley Haney. Mrs. Curt Strong was cohostess.

Mrs. Carpenter outlined the importance of cultivating the practice of reading the newspaper. She stated that television only skims the top off of the news.

She discussed the fact that children mimic their parents' TV and newspaper habits. She also pointed out that young children who are read to by their parents usually become good readers.

Mrs. Carpenter remarked, "If you are lucky, about junior high age, your child might have a teacher that will guide them into reading current events. However, if your child does not get that kind of teacher, you may have to do it yourself."

During the business meeting, members approved plans to help with the Christmas party for patients of the Big Spring State Hospital.

The Child Study Club members will furnish cookies for the BSSH patients on Oct. 24.

The next meeting will be at 1 p.m. Nov. 12 in the home of Mrs. Delbert Donelson, 2613 Rebecca. Mrs. David Hodnett will be cohostess.

Sorority Has Monthly Meeting

The Texas Delta Delta chapter of Phi Sigma Alpha met Thursday evening at Coker's restaurant for a bicentennial program and dinner.

Members sang patriotic songs under the direction of Mrs. Jean Cantrel, accompanied by Mrs. Fay Newman, pianist.

Mrs. Newman presided at the business meeting during which members suggested ways of building the membership of the club. Each member was encouraged to bring a guest to the November meeting.

Mrs. Betty Warden presented a program on "Expression and The Good Life," taken from the club study booklet.

Mrs. Johnnie Winham, Mrs. Jimmie Mason and Mrs. Newman reported on the state convention of Phi Sigma Alpha held in Dallas which they attended Oct. 3-5.

Mrs. Laura Erhardt will be the hostess for the next meeting, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Nov. 13 in her home at 401 Washington Boulevard.

Wash Car Well During Fall

Use a mild detergent, cool water and a sponge, working from the top down to wash your car, says Dorothy Humphrey, consumer information specialist for Johnson Wax. For new cars three months old and others with well-maintained finishes, she suggests twice-a-year waxing.

Dear Abby

Teen Troubled By Myths About Birth Control Pills

DEAR ABBY: I am 16 and my boyfriend is 18. We've been going steady for two years and hope to marry some day.

Here's the problem: I used to take birth control pills, but my boyfriend made me stop because he said he heard they could cause blood clots, make my hair fall out and cause lots of other terrible side effects.

We've continued to have sex relations, but nothing has happened. He thinks maybe I am sterile from the Pill. Is that possible?

We want children some day, and now I am worried that there is something wrong with me and that if I ever do have a child, it will be deformed.

I am terribly worried about myself, Abby. Please help me. I have no mother to ask, and I don't know any doctors.

WORRIED IN PA.

DEAR WORRIED: You need professional counseling. If your school offers that service, please take advantage of it. If not, your local Planned Parenthood office can help you. You may be worrying needlessly, but it's important that you learn the facts.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married to a wonderful woman for nearly two years. We get along very well, but I have one complaint. The only night she lets me make love to her is Thursday because she gets her hair done every Friday.

Any suggestions? HUNGRY FOR LOVE

DEAR HUNGRY: When the time for "making love" depends upon when your wife has her hair appointment, it's time to make an appointment with a marriage counselor!

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teen-agers Want to Know," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (20 cents) envelope.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Club Announces Bridge Results

The Big Spring Duplicate Bridge Club met Friday afternoon at the Country Club with 8 tables in play.

Winners of the North-South division were Mrs. John Stone and Mrs. J. D. Robertson, first; Mrs. E. A. Powell and Mrs. R. H. Weaver, second; Mrs. R. Heffley and Mrs. Elvis McCrary, third.

The East-West division winners were Mrs. J. H. Fish and Mrs. A. Swartz, first; and Mrs. E. O. Ellington and Mrs. Hayes Stripling tied with Mrs. Malcom Patterson and Mrs. Jack Irons for second place.

The next meeting will be at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday in the Country Club.

Pioneer Sewing Club Meets

The Pioneer Sewing Club met last Tuesday afternoon in the ranch home of Ms. Lois Smith. Members spent the afternoon crocheting, knitting and piecing quilts.

Ms. Myriene Rogers showed the group a quilt she had pieced and quilted on her sewing machine.

Guests attending the meeting were Ms. Rogers and Mrs. O. N. Green, both of Big Spring; and Mrs. A. O. Ruffin of Colorado City.

The next meeting will be at 2 p.m. Oct. 21 in the home of Mrs. Dan McRae, 603 Goliad, Big Spring.

Home Repair Workshops To Be Held

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service of Mitchell County is conducting "You Can Do It" workshops during October on small home repairs. All interested persons are encouraged to attend the workshops at the Wallace Educational Center in Colorado City.

Mrs. Janis Choate, county extension agent, summarizes the series as workshops on nagging, little jobs that need to be done around the house that are neglected because family members do not think they can successfully repair the damage. She said that anyone could learn to do these small repair jobs.

On Thursday a workshop, "Wise Up, Tighten Up," on caulking and weather-stripping will be held at 7:30 p.m.

On Monday, a covered dish luncheon will be held at 11:45 a.m. with a workshop beginning at 1 p.m. on "Faucet Fix-It" and "Toilet Tune Ups."

Those interested in attending the workshops may call 728-2392 for more information and transportation needs.

Rebekahs

Have Meeting

The Big Spring Rebekah Lodge No. 284 met last Tuesday evening in the IOOF Hall with Mrs. Maudie Jones presiding.

Members made plans for the Halloween party to be held Oct. 30.

During the social hour, seven members celebrated their birthdays. Those honored were Mrs. Sheri Wilson, Mrs. Shirley Gilliland, Mrs. Lila Holland, Mrs. Jewel Fields, Mrs. Pat Conley, W. A. Majors and Mrs. Corynne Cunningham.

Refreshments were furnished by Mrs. Dottie Adcock, Mrs. Timmy McCormick, Mrs. Olean Milton, Mrs. Beulah Morrison and Mrs. Lola Majors.

Show that Big Spring cares, support the United Way Campaign

We're building power plants that use lignite coal. It's our answer to the rising price of natural gas.

This power plant is being built in East Texas at Martin Lake near Henderson. It will make electricity by burning lignite coal.

We have to build lignite plants because we're running out of low-cost natural gas, our main fuel today. New supplies are hard to get and very costly.

Lignite plants cost more than twice as much to build as comparable gas-fired plants, and that means electricity will cost more. But expensive as they are, lignite plants will still make electricity more cheaply than plants using high-priced gas.

That's because our large lignite supplies, acquired many years ago, are much cheaper than new supplies of gas. And using cheap fuel is one way we're keeping your electric bill as low as possible.

The average bill for Texas Electric customers is already 27 per cent below the national average, and we're working to keep it that way.
