LESSLC MADDUX KILLED BY GUN SHOT

It is with a heart full of sympathy that we are again forced to chronicle a sad death in our county, this time it was twelve year old Lessly Maddux, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Maddux, of Gomez.

It seems that about six o'clock on last Thursday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Maddux and the oldest son were returning from Brownfield, and were in perhaps a hundred yards of the house when the gun was discharged but they thought Lessly was shooting a hawk. The girls were at the same time returning from the melon patch that seemed to be on the other side of the house, and nothing much was thought of the report, but on reaching the house, they found their son and brother with the whole top of his head blown off from the effects of a ten gauge gun loaded with No. 6 shot.

A little neighbor boy was there, and it is believed that Lessly was showing him the action of the gun when it was accidentally discharged with the above results.

Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. W. Baughman of this city, and his little body was laid to rest in the Odd Fellows Cemetery at this place.

While the death was so sudden as to nearly cause the collapse of the family, there's one comforting thought and that is that their little son will never have to suffer the cares and strifes of this world. They have the heart felt sympathy of the entire community.

BROWNFIELD HIGH SCHOOL BADLY CROWDED

Little did we think when we were building our magnificent high school building that its capacity to fill our needs in the school matter would be reached the first year it was finished and that our board of trustees would be casting about for more facilities, room and teachers, but such is the case.

Before school was ever opened, it was seen that no transfers could be accepted, and no unders permitted as the building would be crowded, and now almost every day, new families are coming, or preparing to come latter, and the school term has just started.

However, there is a patriotic bunch in Brownfield, and they are going to have a good school, cost what it may, and the people are going to stand behind any move the trustees may inaugurate.

With the precautions taken at the beginning, right at present the teachers are not overly crowded, but it is only a question of a few weeks until they will be. But let it be said to the credit of the teachers that they are doing good work.

Card of Thanks

Through the columns of the Herald we wish to thank our many friends for the many things they did for us and the sweet words of condolence they offered us in the sudden death of our little son, Lessly.

Our poor weak mortal flesh can never repay you, but the Great Father of all can, and you have our sincere thanks.

BROWNFIELD JOINS WEST TEXAS C. of C.

Following and address at the Court House, by Mr. J. E. Farrow, last Tuesday, representing the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the Brownfield unit of the organization was formed here with a large and representative membership of the progressive firms and citizens of the town.

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce is the largest and most powerful organization of its kind in the United States, having more than six thousand business firms and leading citizens of West Texas in its membership and these all organized as local units in more than two hundred towns, each town with one vote and one director in the general body and all pledged to the upbuilding and advancement of this portion of the State, and to the mutual aid of all to each unit in case of need. The organization maintains as Washington office whose service is instantly available for any aid to the unit, such as rural route extensions, improvement of the mail schedules, etc. A traffic bureau whose aid has been of inestimable value in getting cars to move West Texas crops, to provide coal, in holding needed hearings for railway troubles for West Texas sections, before the railroad Commissions and in tracing delayed cars for the members.

This organization is spending thousands of dollars to advertise the counties of West Texas and to bring new families to these fertile and largely unbroken plains. It now has exhibits from the farms at fifteen of the State Fairs outside of Texas, which will be shown to more than a million people during the fall months, and is backing a comprehensive exhibit at the Texas State Fair and the Waco Cotton Palace. It maintains a publicity bureau devoted to giving widespread advertisement to the resources, progress and opportunities of the membership towns and sections. It aids them in securing needed industries, and in securing a labor supply.

It stands for more immigration to these sections, for more homes, roads and schools, more railways and improved service, for more prosperity on the farms, realizing that here is the basis of prosperity in Texas; it stands for a square deal from the state government of Texas in the equitable distribution of the tax money taken from West Texas, for the equitable location in our midst for the education of our children of such institutions as our tax money has largely provided for other sections.

It stands for Brownfield and Terry County with the strength and co-operation of every membership unit in a fine brotherhood of mutual aid. It has no place in its membership for an enemy of progress, a foe of civilization nor for any whose heart and hope does not hold to the faith of a still better day and a still better chance for every woman and child in every wayside town and rural settlement in all the glorious western half of Texas.

The following is a list of members of the Brownfield unit. The membership fees being ten dollars per annum:

E. G. Alexander, Druggist; Shelton-Cook Land Co.; Cicero Smith Lumber Co.; Lewis Brothers & Co., general merchandise; J. L. Randal, druggist; Brownfield State Bank; W. A. Wooley Land Co.; T. J. Price & Son, real estate; Neill Realty Company; First National Bank; Holgate-Ender- sen Hardware Co.; Brownfield Land Co.; Barrier Brothers Dry Goods Co.; Higginbotham Bartlett & Co.; lumber; Williams & Bowers, grain and coal; A. G. McAdams Lumber Co.; Jno. B. King Land Co.; A. M. Brownfield, stock farmer; C. R. Rambo, abstractor; Brownfield Sanitarium and the Terry County Herald.

BROWNFIELD PEOPLE TO VOTE OCT. 1ST ON INCOR- PORATION OF TOWN

Elsewhere in this paper you will find a notice of election granted by the County Judge, giving the people of the town the right to say whether or not they want the town of Brownfield incorporated.

If you are a qualified voter you have the exclusive right to say where the present conditions suit you or not, and you should not fail to exercise that privilege.

Brownfield is situated to be one of the leading towns of the South Plains some of these days, and you must decide for yourself whether or not you think it could reach the height of greatness quicker as an incorporated, or independent town, or as at present in the village class. As for ourself, we believe that there is not chance for rapid progress in the present state of things, but we have just one vote just like you have, and aim to use it as we see best for the town and community, and not for any selfish intention, and we hope all view the matter in the same light.

WHY THE PRICE WAS RAISED

A friend in jocular mood, asked us our reason for raising the subscription price of the Clipper from $1.50 to $2.00. Here is a few of them.

Four years ago when we raised the price from $1.00 to $1.50 we could buy news print at 4 cents per pound. The other day, in spite of the fact that we have enough on hand to run us six months, we bought a future order at 13 cents per pound. We must pay spot cash, store the stock until we need it in order to protect ourselves against another raise in the market that is sure to come before our old stock is exhausted. If we waited until we need more news print the chances are that we would pay 15 cents or possibly more. If you don't believe the country editor is getting his these days and will sell you the Clipper and let you get a little H. C. L. experience of your own

Four years ago we "hired" printers for $18 and $20 a week. Today they are "employed" at $42 a week.

Four years ago the wife bought her shoes from $4.00 to $5.00 a pair, but today she pays from $12.50 to $15.00—when she buys 'em.

Four years ago we bought our stogies for a nickel. Today the cost a dime and the smudge is just as offensive to the sensitive nostril as ever.

Four years ago Lizzie was fed perfectly good gas at 15 cents per. Today the price has gone up and the quality has gone down until we pay 30 cents a gallon (when we can get it) and the aroma is a cross between a disgusted polecat and an over dose of asafetida.

Four years ago we could buy a loaf of bread for a nickel. Today we buy a smaller loaf for 11 cents.

Four years ago Uncle Sam let us keep whatever we had after the bills were paid. Today he helps himself to part of the balance to help pay for putting the kaiser in cold storage.

Four years ago we could buy a respectable meal for 35 cents. Today all you get for that sum is a "cheap skate" glare from the waiter. If you want a full meal you leave your jewelry with the cashier as security. Maybe you can redeem it after you get your check and maybe not. The chances are not.

Four years ago we could get our locks trimmed for a quarter. Today they are twice as thin, but the price is twice as much.

Four years ago we paid our state, county, school and other taxes as a matter of course. Today it is a matter of curse; an operation in which the patient is relieved of everything but his citizenship.

Four years ago we saw the movies for a dime. Today they are a quarter on bargain day.

Four years ago a dollar quite frequently got warm in our pocket. Today it travel on a no-stop schedule. It does not linger long enough with us to take water. We are not even a flag station on a dollar route.

Four years ago we bought eggs for two-bits a dozen. Last winter we had to send the Clipper eight months to buy the result of one days toil of twelve hens.

Four years ago our plant had a valuation of $5,000. Today the replacement value would be double the amount if we had the money.

Four years ago "drives" were practically unknown. During the last few years we have known nothing else.

Four years ago one could accumulate the morning after affects for a few dollars. Today you have to let your store bills go for six months, learn a secret code and carry a magnifying glass to acquire a suspicious smell on your breath. The water wagon is our favorite vehicle as it costs less to travel that way than any other.

Four years ago we had not been introduced to Europe. From the expense account the last few years we have married her while delirious.

There are other reasons too numerous to mention, as we say on sale bills, and we told our friend so. He said he would wait until the price went up, as he didn't have the heart to pay less than $2.50.—Lacrosse (Wash.) Clipper.

He is trying so hard to please, and the two specials he has put on the past ten days have sorely tried his patience.

Williams, if living, and if dead, the unknown heirs of J. M. Williams, deceased, and their heirs and legal representatives; said petition alleging a cause of action brought by the plaintiff J. L. Cox against all of the defendants above named, if living, and if dead, all of their unknown heirs and legal representatives, in the form of trespass to try title for the recovery of the title and possession of the following described land in Terry county, Texas, to-wit:

Being all of Survey No. Fifty-One (51) Block D11, Certificate No. 314, containing 640 acres of land in Terry County, Texas, Made for the Dennison & Southern R. R. Co., which certificate was issued by the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the State of Texas on July 9th, 1878, and was patented by the State of Texas by Patent No. 50, Vol. 49 to Benjamin H. Wisdom assignee the D. & S. Ry. Co. on February 17th, 1880, and described as follows to-wit:

Beginning at a stake, the southeast corner of Survey No. 48, Block D11, for the northeast corner of this survey, thence west 1900 yds. to a stake for the northwest corner of this survey, thence south 1900 yds. to a stake for the southwest corner of this survey, thence east 1900 yds. for a stake for the southeast corner of this survey, thence north 1900 yds. to the place of beginning, and which patent is of record in the deed records of Terry County, Texas, in Vol. I, at page 536, and which original instrument and the record thereof are referred to and made a part thereof.

Said petition also sets up and alleges as a claim of title of the plaintiff as against the defendants and each of them and expressly pleads the 5 and ten year statutes of limitation of the State of Texas, as against any claim of title of the defendants, or either of them, and in bar of any title held or asserted, or claimed by the defendants, or either of them, alleging that the plaintiff and those whose estate he holds have been in the continuous, actual, open and adverse possession of the above described land, claiming the same under a claim of right, by deeds duly recorded in the deed records of Terry County, Texas, cultivating, using and enjoying the same, and paying all the taxes due thereon; and having the same under fence on the boundaries of the tract of land above described for more than five years and for more than ten years continuously next preceding the filing of this suit; and alleging that the defendants first named, if any claim they have to said land, assert title by reason of the fact that said land was patented to Benjamin H. Wisdom, and that he has never conveyed the same, and that his heirs, their heirs and legal representatives claim the same b inheritance from their deceased ancestor and claim the same has never been conveyed; and that the other defendants sued by name and their unknown heirs, their heirs and legal representatives, claim to have obtained title to said land by mesne conveyance purporting to convey said title to them and that they have never parted with said title; The Plaintiff specially pleads the 5 and ten year statutes of limitation and prays for judgement against the defendants and each of them for the recovery of the title and possession of the above described premises and cost of suit and general relief.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Brownfield, Texas, this the 17th day of August, A. D. 1920.

THE SAME OLD STORY

The resolution passed by the Brazos county Democratic committee, instructing its delegates to the State convention to oppose the adoption of a plank recommending the establishment of an Agricultural and Mechanical College for West Texas, is typical of the attitude of East and South Texas as regards the needs of West Texas and the Panhandle. It is a fair example of the petty tyranny that has characterized the legislature—dominated as it is by the East and South Texas politicians—ever since the Panhandle came into being.

Any measure that savors of an acknowledgement of growth and development in this section of the Panhandle of Texas, or that the people have any rights which the other sections are bound to respect, is marked at once for defeat by the powers that be.

For the past two or three years there has been a quite general attempt on the part of prominent men, organizations and newspapers to convince the Panhandle and West Texas that there was really no sentiment against us, and that they were individually and collectively, just pining for a chance to give us a square deal. While there doubtless are numbers of men who would be glad to see us get equal recognition with other parts of the State, the Brazos county committee's action shows quite plainly that that sentiment is by no means universal.

A recent survey made by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce shows that eighty-seven per cent of the students at Bryan came from within one hundred and fifty miles of that city and less than ten percent from the rest of the State. What proportion came from West Texas and the Panhandle is not shown, but it is safe to say that our representation was very small simply because it is an accepted fact that the A. & M. College at Bryan is of no service for students from this section. And yet the men of Brozos county with a population of some 25,000 souls, presume to dictate what the million of West Texans may and may not have!

Not only that, but the declaration comes with poor grace from a section of the country that is drawing a large part of the financial support for its institutions from West Texas and the Panhandle. It has been pointed out many times, that, because of our sparse population, assessed valuations in the West, are much higher than in the thickly populated parts of the State, and by reason of the fact that the same figures are used in apportioning the State taxes, it comes about that a property holder in West Texas pays much more taxes into the State Treasury on the same amount of property than does the East and South Texas owner.

We need the higher valuations in order to support our local and county governments, but we should have a lower rendition for State Taxes, in order that we should not pay more than our share.

The legislature has, very considerably, kept us all but destitute of eleemosynary and higher educational institutions which draw their support from the State and only an infinitesimal amount of the taxes paid in come back to this section through that source. Our public schools receive but the same amount as is prorated to the schools of the whole State and there being so few schools, comparatively, that item absorbs but a small per cent of our taxes. Some West Texas and Panhandle counties are paying into the State Treasury at this time, three and four times as much as they are getting back in school money.

There was no plank favoring the establishment of a West Texas A. & M. in the Democratic platform but forewarned is forearmed and West Texas and the Panhandle is not to be deceived by specious promises and conciatory talk. It is evident that now, as always, we shall have to fight for our rights and now that we have such organizations as the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to look after our interests down at Austin, it is safe to say that the rest of the State is going to find out that the day of reckoning is at hand.—Southwestern Plainsman.

CALL AND SEE

FRANK & VAN

Some of the East Texas politicians showed off their ignorance of West Texas and her needs down at Fort Worth during the State Democratic Convention. One of them in speaking against the measure for a West Texas A. & M. College, asked what they wanted to build an Agricultural College on a granite rock for? And this idiot probably never read that west Texas is furnishing two-thirds of the wheat the State is producing, not to say anything about the many other cereals, and we'll wager that old Terry shipped twice the amount of corn his county shipped last year or the year before for that matter. The trouble with those East Texas politicians is that they have granite heads and think in terms of granite. But let it be said to the credit of the Tarrant and Dallas county delegations that they supported the measure solidly. There are some real 'biguns' in these cities, despite the fact that Dallas is said to be the home of the famous "oligarchy" of Texas.

We receive propaganda sometimes that we cannot understand whether the writer meant it for humor or pathos, but mostly we laugh at it. We want to give the readers a sample that came from the Republican headquarters at Fort Worth only recently. The article was headed: "Republicans are active in Terry County." Now listen to the first big hunk he hands us: "The Republicans are going to make a strong effort to carry Terry County for Warren G. Harding for President and John G. Culbertson, of Wichita Falls for Governor. * * * It is estimated that 275 voters in Terry County who were eligible to participate in the recent Democratic primaries did not vote. * * * * We hope you get his drift. All of us have heard of the horse laugh, but this would throw a fit on an Egyptian mummy. Terry has never polled her full strength in any primary, nor no other county for that matter. People just want all come out to the polls. The Republicans have never cast over five or six votes in Terry, and they want go twenty five this year. Come to old Terry.

Atty. Percy Spencer passed through from Lubbock one day this week on his way to Plains, where he went on legal business.

HAVE MUCH ECONOMIC VALUE

Official of Museum of Natural History Tells of Importance of Bats in Jamaica.

Returning recently from the island of Jamaica, in the West Indies, where he spent four months on a scientific expedition, H. E. Anthony, associate curator of mammals at the Museum of Natural History, brought back with him many fine specimens of bats, which are numerous on that and other islands in the West Indies, says the New York Times.

"The only mammals native to the island today," Mr. Anthony said, "are 20 species of bats and one species of rodent. These different bats range in size from small bats, with a wing spread of six inches, up to very large bats, with a wing spread of from 28 to 30 inches."

People in the United States, where bats are comparatively rare animals, have no idea of the variety and abundance of them in such a place as Jamaica, or of the important economic value of the bat. They are either insect-eating or feed on fruits. The insect-eating variety are small for the most part, and have considerable value as insect destroyers. They feed on mosquitoes and on a great variety of winged insect life, many of which are obnoxious to man or injurious to agriculture.

AUSTRALIA HAS MUCH IRON

Engineers Report Immense Quantities Available in the Southwest Part of the Country.

Mining engineers have reported to the Australian government that immense quantities of iron ore are available at Yampi sound, in southwest Australia. The estimate puts the amount of ore available—that is, in sight above sea-level—at 97,000,000 tons. The larger quantities are on Koolan Island, where the lode rises 600 feet above the water line; the lode is over 100 feet wide, and is traced for nearly four miles, but really extends right through the island. On Cockatoo Island the height is 300 feet, the lode running from end to end of the island.

The quality of the ore is exceptional. There is only 1 per cent of silica present and very little sulphur. These analyses compare favorably with the best known iron deposits in the world. Newfoundland (Bell Island) ore is 51.80 per cent metallic iron, with 9.50 per cent silica. The French ores run to 57.23 per cent, the Cumberland (England) to 48.80 per cent, the Spanish (Bilboa) to 50.84, and the Algerian to a mean of about 50.

Bolshevist Stud Farm.

In the Live Stock Journal of London a correspondent relates the observations of an English horse-trainer recently escaped from Russia: "The Bolsheviks went to all the stud farms and divided the stock among themselves. The best stallion in Russia, imported just before the war at an enormous expense, was given to a peasant, who took the horse off to his village in the interior to draw his cart for a few days and then be slaughtered for food. The bolshevists then started an improved stud farm under nationalist management. They made it up of six stallions and one mare."

Safety Fire Escape.

A woman has invented a fire escape for dazed and frightened victims. It consists of a seat and footboard fastened together by ropes like a swing. For further protection there is an extra loop of rope which slips over the head and tightens about the body.

BILIOUS CHILDREN

Black-Draught, Long in Successful Use, Praised by an Arkansas Mother, "Soon Does Its Work."

Marmaduke, Ark.—Speaking of Theford's Black-Draught, which from long use in her household has become regarded as "the family medicine," Mrs. Mary E. Hill, of Route 1, this place, says:

"When the children get bilious, I give them a couple of good doses, and when we have sour stomach, headache, or any liver or stomach trouble, we use Black-Draught. It is an easy laxative, and soon does the work. I certainly think it is one of the best remedies made."

Black-Draught acts on the jaded liver, gently, but positively, and helps it in its important function of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system.

In thousands of households Black-Draught is kept handy for immediate use in time of need. Prompt treatment often is half the battle, and will often prevent slight ills from developing into serious troubles.

Its well-established merit, during more than 70 years of successful use, should convince you of the helpful effects obtainable by taking Black-Draught for liver and stomach disorders. Get a package today, and keep it in your house. See that the package bears the words, "Theford's Black-Draught." NC-141

Oscar Sawyer left Monday for the city of Dallas, where he will enter the Metropolitan business college.

Miss Eppie Castleberry, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Castleberry, of this place, left Monday for Denton, to enter the North Texas State Normal.

Miss Lorell Brownfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brownfield, of this place, left Monday for Dallas, where she will enter the St. Mary Academy of that place.

Milton Goode local expert roper, left Monday for the Louisiana State Fair at Shreveport, where he will enter the contest for some of the $10,000 in prizes offered expert ropers at that place. We hope he comes home with a pocket full of their long green.

L. L. Cobb and family, of Seminole were up last week visiting with the parents of Mrs. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bynum. Mr. Cobb had some dental work done while up.

TERRY COUNTY SENDING GOOD EXHIBIT TO LUBBOCK

Old Terry will be on hand with a splendid exhibit at the Panhandle & Plains Fair at Lubbock, and whether she gets a prize or not is not so much the question; that being that we are doing our bit to let the people from the east see what the great South Plains can do in an agricultural way, and while the stuff that is being carried is a little green yet, it is not to be carried far, nor is it to be packed long, and will therefore show up well.

The exhibits are being collected at two of the local land offices, and the samples of all the grains, vegetables and fruits look good to us. There is especially fine corn, maize, kaffir and feterita, sudan, etc.

Occasions like this is where the "land agent" comes in handy, as it was through their efforts assisted by some of the more progressive farmers that this exhibit was accumulated and gotten ready. Oh! the land man has his place in the development of the country, so don't shoot him, for he is doing his best.

Mr. Sifton of Kress, the regular agent of this station, came in Sunday and assumed charge Monday. Mr. Lamm, the relief agent, left Monday morning for Lamesa, where he will take charge in order that the agent at that place may take a vacation. While the people of Brownfield want to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Sifton to Brownfield in hearty good style, they have become so attached to Mr. Lamm and wife that they hate to see them go.

Strayed: One Mouse colored mule about 10 years old. Last seen on town site with other stock. Reward of $5.00 for his return to my home in Brownfield. J. F. Curry.

M. W. Souther, left Monday for his home in Eliasville, after spending a few weeks here with relatives.

Bailey Will Publish Weekly Texas Paper for "True Democracy"
Fort Worth—A weekly newspaper edited and published by Joseph Weldon Bailey, will be established in Texas, November 1st, according to the announcement of Bob Barker, business and circulation manager of the new publication, today.
The paper will be known as the Democratic Review, according to Barker, and will be published "in the interest of the true democracy and devoted to the cause of returning the younger generation to the principals expounded by Jefferson and Jackson. The paper will be published in Fort Worth and headquarters will be established here.
Mr. Bailey is now in Washington, but will return about Oct. 1, and will reside in Dallas where he will practice law.

GAINED: FIFTY CENTS

The representative of a Ft. Worth newspaper recently came west to "cover" a panhandle exhibition. At the gate he was requested to deposit fifty cents. He explained the situation saying that he had come to give publicity to the exhibition and to assist in developing and building up the country through telling the world what the world had to offer. But the gateman was obdurate. He demanded and received the fifty cents.

Now the giving up of the fifty cents didn't hurt the reporter. But the grasping principal in evidence rubbed him on the raw. He made no comment, payed his way and gave the fair a write-up. He probably did his best, but he wasn't feeling the best sort of way toward the institution he was "writing up" and naturally that institution suffered, however good may have been the newspaperman's intentions.

"Shortness" of this sort with those who seek to upbuild the country is not a good investment—in the long run.

The world is built on good will. The reporter had evidenced good will by coming to this exhibition to help it attain the ends it was seeking to attain.

The men behind the exhibition evidenced their lack of good will by failing to extend the reporter in the question the usual courtesies.

This newspaper writer will be a writer many years in Texas, yet it will be hard for him to obliterate from his mind the unfavorable impression of the town and county caused by this little insignificant incident.—Amarillo News.

Courtesy is a big asset in this old world. The newspaper was doing the Panhandle a great publicity good by sending a feature man to cover the fair. The Fort Worth man was a guest of the fair association. The Fort Worth newspaper could have paid the expense of the entire fair and not have missed the money. The sending of the reporter to cover the fair cost the paper in actual expense not less than $100. The fifty cents did not irretate the reporter, the lack of courtesy behind the fifty cents did.

A local newspaper is a great cart horse for the entire community. The editor often extends publicity favors that entail an expenditure of many dollars for the one item alone, and he does it gladly; is glad, in fact, that he is in a position to serve his fellow man and to be of service to the community. He doesn't require courtesy in order to perform his duty, but courtesy will greatly aid him in looking at the event in a broader way.—Canadian Record.

Floyd Rutledge left last Friday where he will enter the University of Texas for this term. The Herald will keep him posted on the doings in old Terry, and it wishes him a prosperous school year.

Oscar Covey, one of the first carpenters who reached here after the railroad came into Brownfield, but who has been following his trade in Cisco for the past several months, returned this week to make this his home.

Walton Maddux son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Maddux, of Gomez, left Monday for Austin where he will enter the State University.

Earl Hill left Monday morning for Meadow, where he and Laurence Green have some contracts to do some painting.

B. F. Smith who has been the express, baggage and mail man on this line nearly ever since it was started, was transferred to the main line this week and his run will be from Amarillo to Sweetwater. "Fat" Clayton will hold down this run, but he says he don't know how long his delicate(?) health will permit him to lift these heavy 100 pound cream cans.

H. D. Pulliam was a passenger to Lubbock, Monday, as he said he does not want to miss any of the fair. He and son Henry, are working hard to get his other two sons to move out from Mississippi.

J. C. Dooley, of Post, Texas was in to see us one day this week and said that the report that he had sold his place in the Haris country was premature, but he showed some parties the place, alright.

We had a remittance from C. J. Clark, of Iowa Park one day recently, to keep 'er comin'. He says he was out here last year and liked old Terry so well that he made a purchase of some of our good dirt and would be here some of these days to make it his home.

Ross Renfro and Milt Good shipped one car of cattle from Seagraves and two from here to the Ft. Worth market, Monday.

Rev. H. H. Bowers, local Presbyterian pastor, left Monday for Ranger, to attend the West, Texas Presbytry.

Mr. Ramsey, who came here a few weeks ago to help in the express office, was transferred to Hale Center, last week.

Citation By Publication

The State of Texas:—To the Sheriff or any Constable of Terry County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Mary Applewhite, if living and if deceased her heirs and legal representatives and all unknown heirs of said defendant, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the 72nd Judicial district; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said 72nd Judicial district, to appear at the regular term of the District Court of Terry County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Brownfield, Texas, on the first Monday in November, A. D. 1920, the same being the first day of November, A. D. 1920, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 21st day of September, A. D. 1920, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 646, wherein T. L. Treadaway is Plaintiff, and Mary Applewhite is the Defendant, and said petition alleging:

For cause of action plaintiff alleges that he is the owner in fee and entitled to the possession of Lots Nos. 10, 11 and 12 of block No. 26, of the original town of Brownfield, Terry County, Texas, and that the Defendant, Mary Applewhite, has or claims to have some interest in the said premises, or some part thereof, adverse to plaintiff; but the nature and character of such claim is unknown to plaintiff; but plaintiff says that if any such claim defendant has, the same is inferior and subordinate to the title held by plaintiff and that plaintiff is and should be entitled to have said cloud removed from his title, should be quitted and forever set at rest as against said adverse claim.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, at the aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and Seal of said Court, at office in Brownfield, Texas, this the 21st day of Sept., A. D. 1920.

Building Merchants

Not Merely Lumber Dealers

By comparison of our business today and the lumber dealers methods of the past, we have reason to feel justly proud of our progress.

Some material firms still cling to the old style of "Board Peddling", feeling that good material at fair prices is all they should give the customer.

But the modern Building Merchant knows that building Service must need be a part of every transaction.

We have equipped our Service Department with complete "Ye Planry" Service so that we can furnish home builders with ideas, suggestions and building plans to insure to you value plus satisfaction.

SWINEVILLE SQUEELINGS

By Dunk Botts.

It is reported that Zero Peck has left his wife forever again.

Bill Hellwanger, who swore off drinking the first of the year, has had a great deal of help in the way of new liquor laws. This is the first time he has ever been able to live up to a New Year's resolution.

Dan Hocks, Hogville blacksmith, says it is easy for a preacher to keep his religion, but if one had to get into his shoes and shoe means naules in fly time he would soon be like the rest of his congregation.

Alexander Mosley says onions are out of season as soon as it gets so people cannot keep their windows open.

A blind man with a hand organ hit town last week and he has found business so good that he has ordered a new tune and bought a larger tin cup.

Miss Lydia E. Peck, who has done nearly everything else in the category to attract attention, has now had her hair shingled and cut off the bottom of her skirt.

Gape Allsop, who ranks next to the Postmaster in the way of brains is beginning to warm up politically, and the Postmaster fears he may be after his job.

Sile Sims, who is very fond of paw-paws, has suggested that his wife try making some pawpaw preserves and jelly this fall. It is believed Mrs. Sims will tell the women of the Hogville Improvement Society of the silly idea and Sile will thereafter be regarded as just a little bigger fool than ever, by the women.

The Hogville Fiddling Band played for an ice cream supper on Petunia Ridge, Saturday night. Gape Allsop who plays one of the little fiddles, was all out of luck. Just as they were tuning up Gape broke one of the most important strings on his fiddle. As the band was being paid to work on this occasion the managers of the ice cream supper put Gape to turning an ice cream freezer.

As the days are getting shorter the Hogville Horseshoe Club has reduced the number of hours per day for pitching shoes.

It has been ordered that all the benches in the Bear Ford church be dusted off right good next Sunday as Miss Petunia Belcher is scheduled to be present in her new blue serge dress.

MEREDITH SENDS GREETINGS TO COTTON MEN

Edwin T. Meredith, Secretary of Agriculture, sent the following greetings to the members of the American Cotton Association, at their meeting at Columbia, S. C., recently:

"I send greeting to the officials and members of the American Cotton Association, farmers and business men, gathered at your meeting in Columbia today. Southern farmers deserve great credit for the faith, courage and energy with which they have maintained crop production with the short labor supply, an unusually late spring, high cost of production, and the economic pressure to reduce prices of farm products. I urge upon the farmers of the South a continuation of their program of safe and sane farming.

"This involves production of sufficient food and feed to make the farmers of the South self-sustaining, the growing of more legumes and practice of crop rotation to maintain soil fertility. Increased production of pure bred and high-grade live stock, and growing of cotton as a surplus cash crop, better farm management, and use of better farm machinery and equipment, to the end that production shall be more efficient and economic; and improved methods of storage, handling, marketing of cotton and other crops, to the end that agriculture in the South may be permanently profitable. In all this work the American Cotton Association and the farmers of the South may count upon the hearty cooperation of the United States Department of Agriculture.

BROTHERS & Brothers will appreciate your grocery orders.

SEAGRAVES SAYINGS

By Reporter.

We are having some very warm weather now.

Our school begin Sept. 7th, with about 65 or 70 pupils enrolled. We have three literary teachers and one expression teacher. Mr. Roberts is our principal; Miss Jeffie Ramsey, from Gorman the intermediate teacher, and Mrs. Roberts the primary teacher; Miss Moralia Hill the expression teacher.

Our gin is getting along toward being finished and will be ready to gin when the cotton gets ready.

Seagraves and country are still on the boom. There are prospectors coming in on all trains and buying land. There has been two new houses completed and two more are now under construction in town, and we understand there will be three or four more around town right away. Come to Seagraves.

The Ladies Home Mission Society is doing good work now. Miss Maralie Hill, the expression teacher, gave a recital last Friday night for the benefit of the Seagraves church house. There was a good crowd present and a fine program. We did not learn the amount of the proceeds.

Gaines County's first fair will be held at Seagraves Sept. 30th, 1920. There will be an exhibition, all kinds of products, fancy work, etc., baseball games, bronc riding, a big barbecue dinner and intertainment for all the day. Everybody come and enjoy the day.

Willie and Miss Annie Richardson, from McDonald, N. M., are staying with their sister, Mrs. J. C. Sartin, and attending school here.

Miss Lora Morgar, who has been visiting relatives at Snyder and other points, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lee, from O'Donald, came in about a week ago. Mr. Lee is drilling wells for the people, while Mrs. Lee is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tyler.
