SHALL TEXAS LAG BEHIND ANY EDUCATIONALLY?

"Will Texas provide adequate support for the public schools," Dr. H. T. Musselman, whom Gov. Neff sent to study California's support of schools compared with Texas' support of her schools, answered. "Yes, when the Lord gives Texas an educational statesman. In California they think of educational needs in right relations. In Texas most of the thinking on school support is sidetracked thinking—how in the name of Heaven can I get the money for my work?"

In California they think every child and youth should have an American chance, and have it first. So there is nine months of schooling for every child, and high schools within range of all the boys and girls. In Texas we have hardly a six months school term for all, and there are some six hundred thousand boys and girls without an opportunity to get a high school education.

"In California they think the child should have as good teachers as the few who go to college. Ninety per cent of the teachers in her public schools have had training to teach. In Texas nearly forty per cent of those teaching rural schools have had no training at all and hold second grade certificates.

"In California they believe that the country children should have good books to read and use in school. So there is the county library from which to obtain books for all. In Texas there are thousands of rural schools without anything like a real collection of books for the use of the children.

"How did California come to provide such an adequate school system? For a number of years the state has been blessed with educational statesmanship. This support was not provided because California loved her children better than Texas. Nor was it because the Californian loved a square deal for all the children of all the people more than the Texan. There is just as much love for children and just as much regard for a square deal in Texas as there is in California.

"All Texas needs to get her to provide an adequate support for the public schools is enlightenment as to her real school needs. This means wide educational leadership. I repeat: all Texas needs is an educational statesman, a Jim Hogg if you please, laboring with her and bent on the justice for Texas children. And a bit of praying for such a leader is eminently in order."

FIRE A COTTON YARD LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

Fire of unknown origin started in a bale of cotton with some of the hoops off at the cottonyard on last Friday night while after dark, and quickly spread to five other bales that could not be saved. A few other bales took fire, but were put out. As luck would have it the wind was blowing a gale from the southeast, and the fire originated on the north-west corner of the yard, thus making it impossible for the fire to spread over the yard, and there were no residences close enough to be in very much danger from rolling cotton that was aflame.

The cotton belonged to T. J. Brown a local buyer, but we understand was well covered by insurance.

THE GIRL OF THE PAST

All men revere the simple and the genuine girl of the past, with her pretty bashful modesty, to the girl of today.

The foregoing paragraph was a quotation from a writer—no not of 1921, nor of the year before, but one who wrote one hundred years ago. So you see, there was the same girl going up a century ago that we hear and read now in our newspapers and magazines.

Glancing through some periodicals of 1871 we found the writers working on and talking about the same problem—the girl of today, one of them commenting thus:

"The girl of today is headstrong and forward, and devotes her time to frivolity, and her whole idea of life is fun, and her aim is unbounded luxury, while dress is the chief object of such thoughts as her intellect possesses."

And forty or fifty years hence our granddaughters will be reading similar articles, please for the girls of 1921 to try to be more modest, industrious, sweet tempered girls of grand-ma's days. The truth of the matter probably is that we, like the people of the Orient, worship our ancestors, even though it be unconsciously—which isn't such a fault at that.

We kick because Anne wears her dresses so short, and Bernice uses rouge on her face; we are troubled when Lillian goes out to play golf and the prize for the high jump goes to Grace. And a long time ago when our grandmas was young—when they carried their boxes of stuff, all the older ones cringed then, just as now; so you see, friends, it's really old stuff.

ELECTION RETURNS BY RADIOGRAMS

A large crowd gathered at the First National Bank Tuesday night to get the election returns, and unlike the general election of two years ago the returns seemed to suit the crowd very well, as the news seemed to possess a decided Democratic whang as compared to 1920.

Among the states that changed the governor from Republican to Democratic, at least as far as the returns at that time indicated, were, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Kansas, Michigan, and New York City went overwhelmingly Democratic.

Chicago for the first time in a long period during a general election, gave a Democratic majority.

Predictions were made that the Republican majority in congress would be greatly reduced if not wiped out, and the Republicans would have only a small majority in the senate of the United States.

Texas, as usual showed good Democratic strength, and last accounts, Mayfield was leading Paddy for the U. S. Senate by about 70,000, and Neff had even a bigger lead over the Republican nominee, Atwell for governor.

The vote in Terry was very light. The following is the vote for United States Senate and Governor:

Mayfield	196
Paddy	58
Neff	227
Atwell	16

HURRAH FOR WEST TEXAS

West Texas has California backed off the map when it comes to the devotion of the people for their own land. California has long boasted of the ability of her people to shout the praises of California, but in this line they have nothing on West Texas. And the people of California are no keener in working for the development and progress of their state than are the people of West Texas.

West Texas is a great agricultural country. It was long the greatest livestock raising section of all the United States, and is yet, but the live stock raisers have learned to make use of forage crops and grain in connection with the range grasses, so that they can get better results today off one acre than formerly off fifty acres. They are raising graded and registered stock, too, instead of longhorns, thereby getting better prices when they send the animals to market.

West Texas captured eight blue ribbons at the State Fair in Dallas for county agricultural exhibits, taking all the blue ribbons in sight. Some of the products were off irrigated lands, but irrigation is yet in its infancy in West Texas. With soil climate and irrigation, West Texas will, in the next few years take rank as the greatest agricultural section in the United States—Fort Worth Record.

SCHOOL NOTES
The Need of Better Speech

In all industries from the simplest to the most complex, there is one tool universally used—used by the bank president and by the mechanic—that tool is language. It is not enough to be able to express what one has in mind; naked savages in the dawn of time could do that, but a man must express himself as well or better than his fellowman, if he is to make a success. If you question this, look around you and see who has forged ahead. Is it the man who can merely express what he has in mind, or is it the man who can and does express his thoughts in language that is clear, concise and forceful?

The need of speech improvement is everywhere apparent. There is nothing so noticeable as a person's ignorance of the language he attempts to speak. He cannot speak or write without showing his attainments in the use of his language. Speech improvement is foolishness to the careless and a stumbling block to the ignorant. What we need is the plain, everyday kind, grammatically respectable—but not the "high-brow" English.

For three years now, there has been a nation wide observance of "Better Speech Week." It is a drive against the enemies of American speechcraft as "ain't" the use of "umhm" or "ya" or "yeh" for American "yes" slang expressions, mispronunciations and the grammatical errors.

This is not a problem of the school alone, but as much of the community. Theodore Roosevelt said, "He alone is a well educated man who uses his language with power and beauty." Watch your speech.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 8th, Mrs. Baughman, assisted by Mrs. Downing gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Maud Telford, a bride of two weeks. Quite a few useful and practical gifts, as well as beautiful ones were received.

After the guests had arrived, Mrs. A.B. Elyman gave a toast to the bride which expressed the general good wishes of those present. Delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Telford, Elyman, T. J. Brown, Kendall, Raymer, H. H. Copeland, Treadway, McGowan, F. Smith, Wheeler, Setton.

HAPPY PATCH

The Happy Patch Club met at the home of Mrs. H. H. Copeland Monday, Nov. 6th at 2 o'clock. The president and secretary being absent the meeting went on in its usual way. Many new ideas in hand work were produced. The hostess entertained with piano selections, which were enjoyed immensely. We were served with various kinds of fruit. Those present were: Mesdames Ditto, Hoggate, Kendrick, Raymer, Gracie, Carter, Nell, Gold, Winston, Copeland and Miss Verna Lee Dixon. Mesdames Carter and Ball were visitors.

The meeting adjourned, all expressing to the hostess an enjoyable evening. As it will soon be the first anniversary of the Happy Patch Club, we want all to take new courage and be thinking of some idea to suggest for the coming year.

Will meet with Mrs. H. H. Winston next Monday, Nov. 13th.—Reporter.

CATTLE BUYER DROPS DEAD NEAR BIG SPRING

Emory Holloway Haynes, who was buying cattle in this territory, dropped dead as he stepped from an automobile at the ranch home of Hart Phillips, twelve miles south of Big Spring, about 12:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Oct. 22.

Mr. Haynes was aged forty seven years, and had been ill for some time due to asthma and heart trouble. He was well known throughout West Texas, having been engaged in buying and selling cattle for the commission firm of T. B. Saunders & Co., of Ft. Worth for twenty years. He had been working his headquarters at Midland, and at a ranch Mr. Saunders had leased in Glasscock county. He was accompanied by his wife, sister and Mr. Saunders when he was claimed by death.—Big Spring Herald.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

One of the most striking events of the week was the Halloween party Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Ralph Lemmon, the honoree being Miss Thersa Lemmon.

Crowns, ghosts and pilgrim maidens were all present.

Games were played, after which delicious refreshments were served to the following couples: Adie Hamilton and Good Hardin, Fay Broughton and Richard Castleberry, Margaret Bell and Jim Youner and Clemmie Rowe and Andrew Castleberry.

4 PARTY

Miss Mary Watts entertained a number of friends Friday night with a 4-party. High score went to Donny Watts and Hiram Holder. The prize was an onion and cornbread. After much fun concerning the prize, a delicious ice cream was served. All present declared it the best party of the season. Halloween parties not excepted.

NO WOMAN WOULD LAUGH

We note a Chicago man murdered his wife because she was too extravagant. We hold this is going entirely too far. Not for a minute would we endorse or countenance such a drastic method, but we see no objection in every married man reading the item aloud to his wife as a warning.—Detroit Free Press.

A GLORIOUS AGE

In 1827 the school board at Lancaster, Ohio, was asked for the use of the school house to hold a debate upon the question, "Are railroads practical or not?" They replied as follows:

"You are welcome to use the school house to debate all proper questions in, but such things as railroads and telegraphs are impossibilities and rank infidelities.

"If God had designed that His intelligent creatures should travel at the frightful speed of fifteen miles per hour, propelled by steam, he would have foretold it through His holy prophets. It is a device of Satan to lead immortal souls to hell."

Now we are being propelled at fifty, sixty, and even more than one hundred miles an hour, on the ground through the water and in air. The computations of the Lancaster Board sound crazy now, but they were, at that time, the sober opinions of the town's best people.

We are becoming used to progress now. Edison proposes communication with spirits and retains a reputation for wisdom. Marconi's promises communication with other planets, and we do not laugh; we think he may be right. Today we hardly dare use the expression, "It can't be done!"

We are just beginning—just seeing a little light. When we consider that science, in spite of all its discoveries, is only beginning to learn the great secrets of nature, we can readily see that discovery is only in its infancy. Our present growth is just a start toward the fields ahead, hidden by the future.—Ex.

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION IS WORTH A POUND OF REGRETS

Perhaps there isn't a single thing "out of whack" about the property you own, or are going to become the owner of, but there is always an uncertainty, an "in the dark" feeling about it, until you are sure that the title is secure.

Time and time again it has happened that the sun shines brightly on property and then suddenly goes into a cloud. You've basked in the sunshine so long that the cloud was not considered until it was TOO LATE!

Remember "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of regret." Clarify your title and you'll multiply your profits—you will be free from worry; so will your heirs.

An abstract that's true will work FOR YOU.

How many copies of the Slatonite, or other local newspapers have you seen in the waste can at the postoffice? On the other hand, how many circulars can you find there each day? Circulars cost money to get them printed, then comes the cost of distribution, either by mail or some other means, which adds to the expense. The same amount invested in newspaper advertising will reach ten times as many people—the real buying power of the community, too—Slaton Slatonite.

One fellow said that he did not want to vote a tax on his children. In other words brother, you don't want any school for your children either. The only way to have good schools and good roads is by taxation, by voting bonds you pay your pro rate as much during your life time and get the advantages of same. Then, when you die, somebody comes along and takes your place in the matter of paying this tax, and they get the benefit of it. For instance, we were over at our old home the other day, had been gone about twenty years, and there was not a single individual in the community that we knew. All had gone and new folks had come in, and they were helping to pay the bond issues that we folks had voted on the community twenty years ago—paying their pro rata and reaping their share of the benefits. Now in the matter of this bond issue, it will run forty years, and twenty years hence few people will be living here who live here now as we will just pass this bond issue over to 'em. And say, brother, if your children are not able to pay this tax and enjoy the benefits of it, it seems to us they will damn poor folks, but not deserving of good schools, good roads, paved streets, etc.—Albany News.

Lamesa got her first mail by auto from Big Spring a few Sundays ago and the Reporter seems right insulted that some poor fellow has to carry this mail on Sunday, and the way he talks he will have nothing whatever to do with the old Sunday mail. He cites the fact that the Lord made the Sabbath for rest, knowing the incapacity of man to govern himself. Why Bro. Smith, we have a whole jamb of folks in Brownfield that are so afraid they will violate this "rest" law that they rest seven days a week and maybe such a one has the contract down there; if so let 'em work some even on Sunday. But Editor Smith calls it Sabbath and we had before time heard he was a Methodist preacher once and not caring to have any scriptural how-how with a man who had preached, or we would ask him if we are still under the law of under Christ? And do we observe the Sabbath (seventh day of the last day of the week) (Sunday)?

We can't figure out just what our friend, the editor of the Terry County

Herald, is going to do, politically, on a Senator. He doesn't like the K. K. K. and can't stay with Mayfield. The Republicans nominated the man, Paddy, and he is not a Republican so what will he do? You haven't a Senator, Bro. Stricklin. Now we have worried about this matter some for you. As for the Reporter, we have no trouble. So far as the K. K. K. is concerned, we have never had any worry. As to the Republican part of it, we are independent and claim the right since we did not go into the primary any more to vote for either of them. But you good old stand Dem ocrats will have to stay with the Klansman as the other crowd calls him. Don't you dare, after all the fun you have poked at the Reporter, think of scratching the ticket. Take him boy, K. K. K. or not, you nominated him. Stay with him if the Klan takes the country. He is a Democrat and that is enough, even if you don't like it.—Lamesa Reporter

Don't worry any longer, Bro. Smith, for we choked him down somewhat or another, pillow cases, bed sheets and all, and found it even better than taking the medicine prescribed by the opponent of Mayfield in the August primary. We admire the principles of the Reporter man in staying out of a Democratic primary if he does not intend to support the nominee of the party. If we are permitted to jump the ticket every time some man or measure does not exactly suit us, what's the use of a party organization. On the other hand a man or a newspaper claiming independence or fence-straddling tendencies appeals to us in just about the same measure as a wart on a gourd. In the economical moral and religious construction of the Republic of the United States, there is to our mind no place for the middle-of-the-roader. A thing is all right or it is all wrong as it pertains to certain portions of the country in politics. As a small town publisher on the "hills" of West Texas, the policies of the Democratic party more nearly suits our needs. If on the other hand we were a large manufacturer and professor of the New England States, there is no question in our minds but we would line up with the blue-bellied G.O.P.

WHAT IS THIS BUNK ABOUT HOG BREEDING?
"What is all this bunk we see in the newspapers about hog breeding, as the season approaches, regarding pure bred hogs being better than any other kind?" asks the farmer who has always grown scrub swine, as he reads the pure bred advertisements in the newspaper; and the average farmer does raise such questions, because only four per cent of the hogs on the American farms are pure bred. The farmer's misgivings are answered by M. A. Schuler of Gray, Okla., who explains the difference between pure bred and scrub hogs by citing two particular instances as follows: First an Arkansas razorback sow, owned by the Arkansas experiment station which weighed only 36 lbs. at two years old. She furnished average pigs by a scrub boar and raised five of them. At 228 days old the pigs averaged 77 pounds a day. Second, a pig club Poland China gilt, owned by Ted Snyder, of McClure, Ohio, which at one year old fattened nine pigs by a pure bred boar, saved all of them, and which at 142 days old, averaged 214 pounds, thus showing a gain of 147 pounds a day. At 228 days old, (same age as the scrub) the pure bred hogs would have averaged 135 pounds.

A government official says of pineapples: "If you have one foot in the grave and are a nervous wreck from atacks of indigestion, drink plenty of pineapple juice. It is the best tonic that nature has yet offered man, and is even a better weapon against old age and decrepitude than the sour milk diet that has made the Bulgarian people the longest lived people on the face of the earth."

in the first period. This was the first game of football our boys ever played, and was the first real watched game many of them ever saw. Prof. Russell, coach, informed us that he was well pleased with the way the boys performed the first game, and he expects great things of them in the future games. The Brownfield girls basketball team gave the Littlefield girls the second trimming of the season the same afternoon, this time on their own grounds.

Mrs. Bryan, of Florida is here the guest of her brother, W. C. Smith and family. Mrs. Smith is the wife of a Federal Circuit Judge of Florida.

There Is A Reason And Why?

Five Race Cars out of six, racing at the Dallas Fair used Magnolia gasoline and Motor Oil. WHY? The Airoplanes that pulled stunts to entertain the visitors used Magnolia Gasoline and Motor Oil. Eighty per cent of machinery including Automobiles, Tractors and Gas Engines of all kinds, on exhibit at Dallas, used Magnolia Gasoline and Magnolene Motor Oil. If you don't use it also you are not getting the best. Next time you fill your car get Magnolia products then you will know you are right. Phone 10 for the kind of Kerosene that will burn.
