THE DEVELOPMENT OF OUR RAILWAY NET IN TEXAS

The following is a series of articles on the development of railways in Texas, by Walter Splawn, Railroad Commissioner of Texas.

II. Article

We may ask how it was that Texas was able to construct about a mile of railroad for every thousand people by 1860. There were several sources of aid to these early railroads.

First, the people of the State rendered some assistance by individual gifts. Committees were usually appointed by meeting of citizens along the route of the proposed railroad, who canvassed everyone for cash contributions. Up to 1860, the Harrisburg line had expended $1,209,000, of which amount $24,000.00 was given outright by the citizens of five counties served.

Another source of assistance was the sale of stock to people along the route. Of the $1,209,000 expended by the Harrisburg line before 1860, $302,000.00 had been procured in this manner. Frequently, planters would furnish the labor of their slaves and teams and take stocks in the company in payment.

In the third place, city and county bonds were issued for the benefit of the railroads. A statute in 1850 authorized such use of municipal credit. Under this law, San Antonio issued $50,000.00 of bonds, and Bexar county, in which San Antonio is located, another $50,000.00. This was used in building 28 miles of road from Port Lavaca to Victoria.

A fourth source of aid, in those early roads was the State. State aid took two forms. First, loans from the permanent school fund. In 1850 Texas relinquished her claims to the territory east of the Rio Grande River in what is now New Mexico to the Federal Government in consideration of $10,000,000.00 in United States Bonds. Of this amount, $2,000,000.00 was set aside as a permanent school fund. The State authorities decided that the bonds of the local railroads would be safe securities in which to invest the school fund. Besides the railroad companies were finding it impossible to obtain money to pay for ties, rails and equipment. Under the law passed in 1856 the railroads mentioned above borrowed $1,816,800.00 from the permanent school fund.

J. J. NETTLES FOR COM. MISSIONER PRECINCT NO. 2

We are authorized to announce J. J. Nettles, of Meadow as candidate for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2 Terry county, subject to the action of the Democratic primary July 26th. Mr. Nettles has long been a citizen of Lynn and Terry counties, and was county commissioner of Lynn county two terms just prior to moving over to Meadow, and remarked that he helped build the new Lynn county court house, and that he might get to help build one in Terry. We ask that you give his candidacy due consideration.

W. F. STEWART FOR COM. MISSIONER PRECINCT NO. 2

We are authorized to announce W. F. Stewart for Commissioner of Precinct No. 2 of Terry County, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries on July 26, 1924.

Mr. Stewart has long been a resident of Terry county and the West; is considered a splendid citizen and is a successful farmer.

Before making up your ballot, we ask that you give the candidacy of Mr. Stewart due consideration.

TERRY COUNTY FAIR IS OLDEST ON SOUTH PLAINS

It were not so ridiculous and oftentimes damaging, some of the reports sent to the dailies in the eastern part of the State would be amusing to say the least.

One of these reports went to the Dallas News recently under an Amarillo head line. This writer wrote as if he had made a thorough observation of County Fairs on the Plains, and had a row of statistical figures at his elbow that would stagger any mathematician without the aid of a good adding machine. But the real truth of the matter was, he was just guessing and proved a bum guesser.

He mentioned a county fair in a certain county, and said it was the oldest on the plains. Our recollection now is that this county fair was about twelve years old. He mentioned several other counties with fairs ranging in age from five to ten years, leaving out Terry County's fifteen year old fair entirely.

We are going to have our correspondent of the Dallas News give the gentleman from Amarillo a rejoinder and if possible use the cut we are using on the first page of this issue and we hope he will see it.

Now for a little information for the Amarilloans benefit. The Terry Co. Fair was organized and set in order, and pulled her first exhibition in the fall of 1909 in the little frontier village of Gomez, and has exhibited every year since that date, not even accepting the droughty year of 1917. Of course the prize list was naturally small until the railroad came in 1917 and with it an era of development. Last year more than $500 was expended in prizes, the the Challis booth shown in this issue won $75 as first prize. Of course this is not much money, it is true, but there were two other cash prize booths, one $50 and one $25, so you may see that the prizes offered in this county are well in keeping with those offered in any other county with the same population and development as Terry.

"Be sure you are right, then go ahead," uttered by that Texas patriot David Crockett, is still as true and right today as when he said it, and correspondents of newspapers should not indulge too much in figures and "facts" unless they are sure of what they are talking about.

The Challis community lays about half way between Brownfield and Meadow, and has a bunch of hustling farmers who know how to get their stuff together for display as well as knowing how to produce it. They're real proud of their community and the community that beats them this fall are in for a real battle.

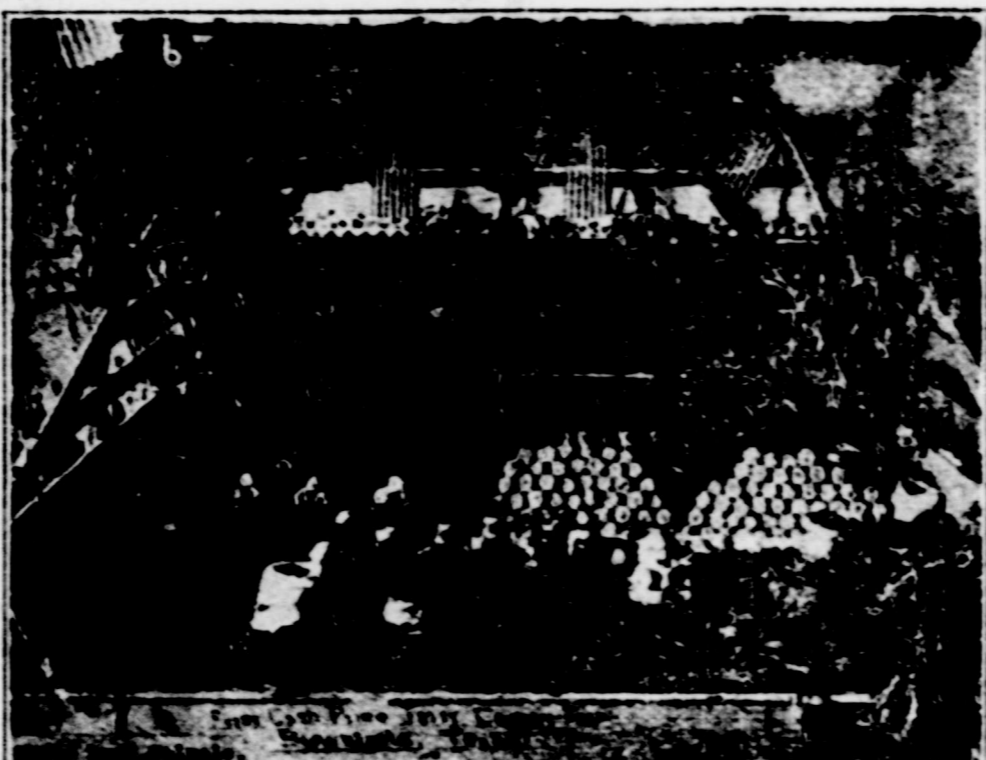

Come to Terry.

THERE IS TROUBLE IN THE KLAN KAMP

According to the Billie Mayfield Weekly, a Klan paper published at Houston, there is trouble in the Klan camps.

The following appeared in the Mayfield Weekly in its issue of Feb. 9th: "There are two klansmen in the race for governor, both good men and true knights, but they did not please Zeke Marvin, for they committed the unpardonable sin of starting to run before he fired the signal. For this les majeste they were excommunicated; cut off without consideration. * * * "An order was issued that "no klansman should discuss politics." This was done to keep klansmen from forming an opinion of their own. The idea of a klansman having an opinion of his own was contrary to Zeke's theory of practical politics and against the plan he had formulated. So the edict went the rounds that we couldn't do any political thinking. The grand Titan in this district told us to hold our minds blank until orders came that we might start things. * * * "I for one, object to a northern republican coming down here and grabbing control of the democratic organization. But I am a good Klansman, and if a majority of the boys are in favor of being peons to a small group of marauding politicians, then I will be one too and shut my mouth."

It is supposed that the two Klansmen who were "excommunicated" by the Grand Dragon, Zeke Marvin, of Dallas, were Senator Collins, Beaumont and Adjutant General Thomas D. Barton, of Amarillo. Judge Felix Robertson of Dallas, is the man who is supposed to have received the Grand Dragon's blessing.—Lynn Co. News.

BROWNFIELD MERCHANTS PURCHASE BIG STOCKS

Mr. J. W. Shepherd has recently returned from market where he layed in a huge stock for the Jones Dry Goods Company.

Just a few days later, W. H. Collins of the Collins Dry Goods Company got in from market.

Last week Hugh M. Pyeatt and Miss Eldora Lewis got in from Dallas, where they made purchases for Lewis Brothers & Co.

All three of these leading stores report going the limit toward supplying Brownfield and trade territory in the very latest in the dry goods line, and while the Adams Dry Goods Co. has had no buyer in the market, they have made good use of drummers samples.

Our merchants have jointly agreed, seemingly to stop so much shopping by our people in neighboring towns, and they are succeeding wonderfully.

We heard a leading lady of our town recently remark that she had not been in a certain town in a long time before, saying that she could now get anything she wanted in the dry goods line in Brownfield and at even better prices.

Buy it from the home merchants.

MUSIC RECITAL

The Music class of Mrs. W. H. Dallas gave a most enjoyable recital at the high school auditorium, Thursday evening, Feb. 21. Miss Lillie Jones as Goddess of Liberty was the main figure in the living picture, presented by a group of little ladies and boys from 2 to 7 years old. Miss Jones was a typical statue, holding our American flag in one hand and a golden scepter in the other. The little company sang America while waving tiny flags. In the front row was Sallie Truman Stricklin, Virginia May, Kathryn Copeland, Laverne Cook, Bud Andersen, Marguerite Smith, Irene Adams, Kathleen Alexander, Rear row: Mary Handley Andersen, Jannette Brown, Pat Shelton, Ruth Adams, Kyle Adams, Margaret Alexander, Kathryn Holgate, Clyde Dallas, Richard Kendrick Busser, Brown and Elizabeth Lemmons.

Piano and voice pupils have a part on the program were, Pat Shelton, Voncile Holgate, Elizabeth Downing, Mary Kathryn Anthony, Ada Mae Snodgrass, Margaret Bell, Lucile and Mamie Sue Flache, Rebecca May, Larue Sawyer, Deotia Pounds, Irene Ditto, Mary Walker, Lena Maude King, Mrs. John King, Veda Headstream, Fay Brown, Blanche Brothers, Eve and Odell Ball, Geneva Brothers, Frances Brownfield, Robbie Marion Hardin, Dora and Lillian Neill, Ouida Seifon, Dolores Lynn, James Harley Dallas, Ulyess Graham, Joe Shelton, Miss Hamilton, Beulah Lois Adams. The next recital will be a two-piano program of quartets, sextets, and duets. The pupils who did not appear in this recital will have a part at the close of school, at which time the medals for improvement and progress will be awarded and presented.

Little Miss Pauline Hunter gave a violin solo, also Master Jack Stricklin, Jr., pupils of Miss King. Each number was greatly enjoyed, and we say that the Brownfield school board are to be commended in allowing credits to be given music students, as all the best high schools in the State are doing. These recitals are proofs that the students are making good in

ALTON WEBB WILL ORGANIZE BOYS BAND

After consulting with several men of the town, I have decided to organize a boys band in Brownfield. This organization is to be made up of boys aged 13 to 18 years. No one under the sixth grade in school will be eligible for membership. Instructions will begin with the rudiments of music, production of tone on the instruments, etc.

Each member will be required to own the instrument he uses, which must be of some standard make and in good condition. However, used instruments that have been rebuilt may be had at bargain prices. Each member must pay dues of fifty cents each month in advance to pay for the music used. Two night rehearsals each week are necessary.

There will be a meeting at the Methodist church, Monday, March 3, for the purpose of organizing. Everybody invited and parents of those boys who wish to join this band are urged to attend.

I assure the business men of the town that they will not be called on for a donation or a subscription from this band at any time.

Military band training will develop one's physique, teach the importance of team work and develop keenness of thought and action. Boys must have something to do in their leisure hours. Encourage them to blow a horn rather than smoke cigarettes, cuss and shoot craps.—Alton Webb.

BANK HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM FIRE

There was a fire in the basement of the Citizens National Bank Wednesday morning. The screams of the fire siren had scarcely died away when the chemical and fire truck were seen dashing to the building.

The volunteer fire department was soon busy and the flames were soon extinguished. Crosbyton can boast of having one of the fastest fire fighting teams anywhere in this part of the country.—Crosbyton Review.

WAYLAND ELECTS NEW PRESIDENT AND DEAN

Plainview, Texas, Feb. 23.—The Board of Trustees of Wayland College at Plainview met on Feb. 21st, and elected George W. McDonald, president and Warren P. Clements, dean for the ensuing year 1924-25.

The trustees also authorized the institution of a Summer School to begin about the first of June and continue for ten weeks, in which courses will be offered leading to high school graduation, college degrees and also teachers certificates.

The school is very prosperous at present, and prospects for the future are very flattering.

WHY EVE!

Asked Eve for a kiss,
She puckered her lips with a coo;
Gave a look so ecstatic
And answered so emphatic,
"I don't care Adam if I do."

WHY COMPENSATION IS A JUST DEBT.

The base pay of the enlisted man in the military service of the World War was $30 per month. From this, in the majority of cases, was deducted $15 for allotment to dependants, and $6.50 for insurance, leaving a balance of $8.50 of actual monthly remuneration for the most hazardous work on earth. Out of this small sum, more than 8 0per cent of the men in uniform bought Liberty Bonds in the instalment plan. At the same time, unskilled workers were drawing from $5 to $10 per day; skilled workers from $7 to $25 per day. The soldier had to pay for his own workmen's compensation insurance—a payment which is made obligatory on the employer and not the employee in practically every state in America.

The Soldier Came Home and Found

Congress paying manufacturers 3 billion dollars for profits they might have made on war contracts terminated by the Armistice.

Congress paying a bonus of $240 per year to each of the 150,000 civil employes of the government because of the increased cost of living during the war. These bonuses are still being paid.

Congress paying the railroads a compensation of $1,696,000 for loss of profits in war.

Congress giving the soldier himself just sixty dollars.

From this the veteran was expected to:

1.—Buy himself a new outfit of civilian clothes.

2.—Pay off the load of war debts accumulated by his family.

3.—Pay his rent and food bills as he was hunting a job.

How Congress was to pay Veterans

Congress, after consulting with the American Legion, decided upon an adjusted compensation bill providing for service credit of $1 a day for home service and $125 per day for overseas service. From this credit is deducted the $50 "bonus" paid each man on discharge. The minimum credit is $500 for home service and $25 for home and foreign service.

1. The Adjusted Service Pay. Men who served 110 or less and therefore would receive $50 or less to be paid in cash. They were the only veterans to be paid in cash. The total cost of compensation for this group will be $16,000,000. The provision was inserted purely as a measure of administrative economy.

2. The Adjusted Service Certificate. The majority of veterans will accept this insurance certificate. It offers the veteran a paid up endowment policy maturing in 20 years. The face value of the policy is equal to the service credit plus 25 per cent, plus interest at 4 1/2 per cent compounded annually. This makes the value in 20 years or in the event of death 3015 times the service credit. The policy cannot be transferred to any other person. During the first three years the policy may be used as collateral for a bank loan in case of necessity. The decision whether or not to make the loan rests solely with the banker. After three years the government will loan a percentage of the certificate's value.

3. Vocational Training Act. This feature offers Government aid in education that was interrupted by the war. The veteran will get $175 for every day of service credit.

4. Farm and Home Aid. This offers aid in building, buying, improving or paying debts on a home or farm. The veteran will receive the amount of his credit service plus 25 per cent.

The Pledge to Pay It

To overcome the tremendous economic handicap imposed on him, the veteran put his faith in the American people and was promised much. The promise was backed up by both political parties and both candidates for president in 1920, by a majority of both houses of Congress, by the people of 22 states who voted locally for State Compensation, by as high majorities as 8 to 1, and by resolutions of 28 State Legislatures and appeals to the president by 33 governors.

The late President Harding vetoed the Adjusted Compensation Bill on representation that the Treasury faced a deficit of $60,000,000.

Now the Money is Here

1. There is a surplus of $313,000,000 in the Treasury.

2. The estimated surplus for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1924, is

A COUPLE OF NEAR SERIOUS ACCIDENTS THE PAST WEEK

Ben Hurst, local manager of the Cicero Smith Lumber Co., received several severe bruises and a sprained wrist last Friday while trying to stop a span of run-away mules in the yard of that company.

Ben had just dumped several iron bind that come around tin roofing in the wagon to which the mules were hitched, when they became frightened and bolted for the gate. Ben jumped into the hind end of the wagon in an endeavor to get the lines, but one of them was under what building material that was in the wagon, and he only succeeded in circling them into the entrance gate, where the team jerked loose from the wagon. The force of the impact against the gate post threw Ben some ten feet, and within two feet of a concrete curbing. Had he hit this curbing, there might have been another story to tell of this run-away.

While working with a concrete mixer one day last week, Tom Covey reached in the machine, and the cogs happened to catch his coat sleeve, dragging his hand into the machine, which badly lacerated the member.

Tom is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances, and it is thought he will still have very good use of his hand after it heals.

TO LECTURE ON CHILDREN'S LITERATURE

Dr. David H. Munson, of the Canyon Normal College, Canyon, Texas, will lecture at the school auditorium, Thursday, March 6th, at 3:30 P. M. His subject will be "Children's Literature." He is being brought to Brownfield under the auspices of the Maids and Matrons Club.

Everybody cordially invited to attend this lecture.

Miss Nancy Dumas, instructor in the Meadow school, spent the week end with home folks here.

3. Great Britain is paying her debt to America at the rate of $160,000,000 per year.

Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, has stated that taxes cannot be reduced if the adjusted compensation bill is passed. Many newspapers have echoed this false sentiment. The result is that the public mind has been misled. These are the fundamental mathematics of the situation. Mr. Mellon has shown how economics of $323,000,000 in the cost of government may be affected. The cost of compensation in the first three years will not average more than $81,000,000 a year. These figures are supplied by the finance committee of the Senate by actuaries of the Treasury Department. Adjusted compensation is a just debt and has no bearing on other obligations of the government. But by Mr. Mellon's own figures it is clearly shown that when adjusted compensation is paid it will still be possible to reduce government expenses $242,000,000 a year. The statement that taxes cannot be reduced if veteran's compensation is adjusted, is therefore false.

What Compensation Will Do.

It will allay the dissatisfaction existing among veterans and dispel the sense of injustice they now feel. It will cement their faith in their country and cement the faith of our future soldiers and sailors. It will insure that the money be spent in productive channels, quickening trade and industry.

The Principles of Washington

The father of this Nation established the principles of adjusted compensation. George Washington's words to the Continental Congress are as apt today as when they were written. He said: "A soldier reasoned with upon the goodness of the cause he is engaged in, and the inestimable rights he is contending for, hears you with patience and acknowledges the truth of your observations, but adds that it is of no more importance to him than to others. The officer makes you the same reply, with the further remark that his pay will not support him and he cannot ruin himself and family to serve his country, where every member of the community is equally interested and benefited by his labors."

JOHN R. QUINN,
National Commander, Amer. Legion

CONCENTRARIION

True is the old axiom, that reads, "IN UNITY THERE IS STRENGTH". An early Indian Chieftain demonstrated this by breaking sticks separately; yet collectively they could not be broken. In the war of 1864, the separation of States was settled. In the late World War, CONCENTRATION on the Western Front was all important.

CONCENTRATION of your banking business with a strong, safe, friendly bank is equally advantageous to your personal or business affairs. It concentrates your funds for any immediate use and builds your important credit reserve.

Concentrate where you are Safe.

ANOTHER ANTI MAIL-ORDER EDITORIAL

A farmer boy from this section, not yet out of his teens, not a high school graduate, went to Chicago about ten days ago to get a job. He began work for a large corporation at a salary of about $28 per week. He is not a salesman. He had no previous connection with the company, no "pull," and did not know where he was going to work until he started hunting a job.

Not so bad—not so good, either, when you take out the cost of board, room, clothes, washing and entertainment in Chicago. But he is with a big firm and has every chance of advancement. This boy is strong, clean, intelligent and eager to work hard. He had no trouble landing his job, though he had no technical experience. Another good man gone to swell the already overcrowded population of a metropolis. Another good citizen gone from the farm.

Business is good in the cities, and right now it seems there is plenty of opportunity for clean-bodied and industrious youngsters. But here's the rub: The big cities draw their best material from the farms. They can't really produce the best of industrious manhood, physically or otherwise, as a general thing. That's why our best class of farm youngsters can pick off try. These nonessential employees, non-producers, are taking care of the business that comes to the cities from the farms.

That is another reason for spending your money and doing business at home—as far as possible. Suppose we let the big cities support themselves for awhile. Let them depend on their millions of people. We need certain industrial products of the city, of course, but we could produce them closer to the farms if we had to. And we do not need a lot of the so-called service and business advantages that are played in page ads in the city papers and catalogs de luxe.

As we have said before, there is nothing unjust about the competition between cities and rural communities. This competition is natural, legal and fair. If rural communities fail to hold their own population and business, it is their own fault. And it might be wise to realize this fact, a wise thing for the home town as well as the cities. If the cities continue to pull their business and their workers and their food from the farm, they will soon bleed to death their only support. Poverty and starvation can be infinitely more exquisite in a great city than on the farm.

Don't blame the man who buys mail order goods. He believes he is getting bargains. Aren't the goods guaranteed to be satisfactory or the money refunded? Isn't the price rather low? Isn't he often well satisfied with his purchase? If he can't do better at home, he doesn't know it, and doesn't believe it.

And why doesn't he know it. Because the local dealer does not use the advantages at his disposal to tell him. If local business is hit by mail order buying; if you have given credit while Sears-Roebuck gets cash, the only remedy is advertising. City bargains can be duplicated or even bettered at home. Many dealers know this; many of their customers don't believe it. As long as it is profitable in many ways to convince them, why not do it.

Not a dollar of money unnecessarily spent away from home will help pay your taxes, build up your town, make your community better, or increase the value of your land. Every dollar you spend at home helps to do these things.

Live towns, full of live advertisers, are holding their business. Good business means growth and prosperity in the small towns, just as it does in cities.

If you keep your town booming, outside competition will fail. If the young men and women on the farms, or in the home towns, it will be because of the opportunities they have. They will not have these opportunities in the dead burghs.

If you want your customers to read the home town paper instead of a mail order catalog, put some of your own bargains in it—Inter-County Press, St. Charles, Minn.

the jobs. And that is not the only way the big cities bleed farm communities.

When you get right down to brass tax, the farm communities are supporting the big cities. They are feeding these millions of people and a whole lot of them are not producers. Lots of them are nonessential employees who would be better off in every way if they were in the country.

A. H. Herring had business in the city one day recently. But you never see Herring in town unless he does have business.

TEXAS CO-EDS ARE EXCELLENT HIKERS

Austin, Feb. 25.—Besides being good swimmers, dancers, riders and baseball players, co-eds at the University of Texas are also excellent hikers. They do not stop at taking ten mile hikes, but go in for real hikes of 20 to 50 miles.

Each year the Varsity hikers take two 50-mile hikes and four 20-mile hikes, besides the shorter one throughout the year. On March 1st the group of 50-mile hikers will leave

Austin and will walk either to Kyle, a distance of 25-miles, and back, or they will walk to New Braunsfels and ride back. The co-eds arrayed in their regulation hiking togs, spend three days making their journey. Points toward the coveted Longhorn athletic "T" are awarded for the hikes.

S. T. Murphey and family visited Dewey Murphey and family at Johnson, Saturday night and Sunday.

Everybody is busy breaking land, getting ready for that bumper cotton crop this fall.

Coy Maroney has had an attack of tonsillitis this week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Murphey and daughters Janita and Dorothy, accompanied by Mrs. McDowell, were Brownfield shoppers Saturday.

We have quite a number of boys in our school now, some of whom, we are sorry to relate, seem to require the old fashion method of correction. Too bad! Boys, make the right use of your few years in the little old school house or you will regret it in a little while.

Jack Goodrich was a Brownfield caller, Friday.

The following is our honor roll for the 5th month of school: Seventh grade, Izella Childers, 92; Winnie Clare, 87.

Sixth grade, Vivian Clare 89; Ruby Tandy 87.

Fifth grade, Mildred Cox 97.

Fourth grade, Eileen Ellington, 95; Freda Tandy 92; Nora Lee Tandy 87.

Second grade, Pansy Romaus 95; Floyd Cox 95.

Mesdames Winnie Childers and Murphey visited the school last Thursday, which was Valentine Day. The box was made by Ruby and Nora Lee Tandy who have been staying at home the last two weeks on account of having been exposed to measles. The children put their Valentines all in the box; the names were called off and the Valentines distributed.

Roy Fitzgerald was a Brownfield caller, Saturday.

F. M. Ellington attended the regular meeting of the Masonic lodge at Brownfield, Saturday night.

Mrs. Percy Spencer and children of Lubbock, were down over Sunday, visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Randal. Mrs. Randal returned home with them for a few days visit.

Exit Humorist.

While making a tour of the southern states, we were driving along a country road, when a farmer came walking toward us. One of our crowd, a humorist, thinking he would have some fun with the man, stopped the car, and taking a small satchel and a magazine, gave a ten-minute impression of Billy Sunday. When he had finished, the man looked at him a little queerly, put his hand in his pocket and gave him a cent. On it were the words: "I am deaf."—Exchange.

MAKING A COLLEGE EDUCATION EASY

Fort Worth, Feb. 18.—That a larger number of those young men and women of Texas who are really capable of taking higher education may be sure of the opportunity, Secretary R. T. Ellis of the Texas Teacher's Association has begun a survey to see how many of this group are willing to really work for an education. He stated today if the number found is large that a group of Texas men and women will open the way for them.

The proposal is to establish factories and farms and shops near a highly developed State School and to give the students employment at a salary large enough to meet all school and living expenses. It is further proposed to make the factory and farm a profit-sharing institution, and to give the student his share of the profits, divided after the development fund is set aside.

Parent-Teacher Clubs in several schools have assured Mr. Ellis that their membership will buy the products of such institutions, and that they will in every way encourage the development of the enterprise. They point out that whatever will help the Texas youth to a full realization of his dream for higher education would meet with quick and hearty response on the part of every parent.

Ellis bases his plan on the present economic demand of the people of the State, who are seeing as never before that the college trained young person has a much greater earning power than that of the untrained. He pointed out that many of the serious financial problems of the State would be wiped out by training a greater number of economic leaders in the colleges and universities.

A survey made in a small territory indicates that the proposed plan will meet with a large response, in which case the details of the plan will be announced and immediate action taken to give the young people their chance. It is the hope of the group behind the plan to waste no time, so that no one need think he will have to wait longer for the opportunity.

Finds Race Improves Physically Every Year

Berkeley, Cal.—Our race is becoming better physically with every passing year, in the opinion of Dr. O. H. Moody, associate professor of anatomy at the University of California.

"Physical disabilities are becoming less numerous and less dangerous," said Doctor Moody. "Deformities are being studied and their causes found and uprooted by improvement in the modern scientific methods of preventive medicine."

"People are beginning to be more inclined to pay a doctor to keep them well than to wait until they are ill and pay twice as much to be made well."

In the popularity of muscular exertions on the playgrounds Doctor Moody sees evidence of a more hardy generation.

Compulsory physical education, baby clinics, child welfare work and adult "well clinics" he points to as promoting a better race, and he believes there is no evidence of race deterioration in any physical form.

"Vet" Picks Up Severed Hand to Show Train Crew

Lewistown, Pa.—After Nicola Guglielmo, thirty-one years old, had his hand cut off by a shifting engine in the freight yards here, he picked up the hand and an oil can and ran after the engine to show the crew just what they had done to him.

Guglielmo is a veteran of the World war.

Genoa.—An extensive project is being studied and plans have already been submitted in part to the Swiss government. It is stated here, aiming at the transformation of the nearby part of Vado into a sea outlet for Swiss commerce.

They Will Fight Man.

It is said that in England the weasels sometimes hunt in little packs consisting of a dozen or more; and that there are well authenticated cases of their having resented the interference of man, promptly attacking the latter, and absolutely placing him in danger of his life, says the American Forestry Magazine, Washington, D. C.

Saw Value of Good Roads.

The first man to recognize the importance of roads in relation to civic progress was Lord Francis Bacon. He wrote 200 years ago that three elements were necessary to the growth of a community—fertile soil, busy workshops and easy conveyance of men and things from one place to another.

Just two more questions. Why are all auctioneers colonels? Do they all hail from Kentucky?

The State Political Campaign is just now simmering good. It will reach a sizzling point by May or June and boil over in July. Don't get scared folks.

The Herald offers condolence to editor and Mrs. R. B. Boyle, of the Crosbyton Review in the loss of their son and only child recently. This is indeed a blow that is hard to overcome.

Don't forget that clean-up campaign that is on in our city. The time is drawing near for the inspection and you might be called down by the inspector if everything is not up ship shape. Now is the time to get busy.

The smell of oil is getting fierce at Washington these days, so much so that the lazy old Potomac may become too contaminated for close proximity. It reminds one of the good old days of about 1907-8 when one Joseph Weldon Bailey was being examined along the same line by various and sundry committees and legislatures. Is history repeating?

The City Council of Brownfield has ordered an election for the 25th day of March, when it is proposed to vote $50,000.00 bonds for waterworks, which we understand will also include another power unite for the city lighting system. It is said that this proposed system will reduce our insurance rates one-half, or enough to cover the extra cost in Taxes, not to say anything about the conveniences derived therefrom. Personally, we are for the bonds if we can do this much toward reducing the insurance money we send away.

We learn that a skating rink is to be opened south of town near the tourist park. We cannot approve of this. If a skating rink at all it ought to be right here in town, so parents can know where their girls are and keep an eye on them.—Dawson County Journal.

Why specify the girls. Don't boys ever go wrong down your way. It has been our observation for a long, long time that boys bear the most watching. If the boys in a community keep straight, you will find that the girls keep their distance and are straight almost to a girl.

A committee of three West Texans, recently appointed by the District Court of Travis, are now in the Panhandle reclaiming 60,000 acres of perfectly good land that was accidentally given to the Capital Land Syndicate "through mistake." This syndicate built our capitol at Austin, and took its pay out in Panhandle land, and we imagine that our fathers at Austin at that time thought that while they were dealing the syndicate a dirty trick, they would do a good job and put off on the syndicate all they possibly could of this worthless(?) land. The modern fathers at Austin have recently awoke to the fact who the laugh was really on, and like the little boy who swapped knives, "they want to swap back." That Syndicate outfit had some vision, and we must hand it to 'em on that deal.

A NEW EMPIRE IN THE MAKING

Visitors to West Texas are amazed at the great development that is taking place in West Texas. In this vast empire of forty thousand square miles, the erection of new homes and the putting into cultivation of tens of thousands of farms is to be noted.

In times past we have seen one town or one little section on a boom, but here we see a section larger than some of the States of our Union being developed on a scale that is truly amazing. Not until we have the next U. S. Census will we know exactly how many folks have come, but the record will be a world beater.

It is agreed that this vast section which seems to be immune to the boll weevil, will be able to produce as many bales of cotton as the entire state has been producing.

It is a problem to supply lumber and farming machinery for the new builders now flocking to the Plains section. As Big Spring is the Southern gateway to the Plains the big activity has its beginning here and extends for 250 miles to the north of us.—Big Spring Herald.

DIFFERENT VERSIONS OF THE "FROG'S COURTING SONG"

Austin, Feb. 23.—According to Dr. L. W. Payne, professor of English at the University of Texas, the origin and history of nursery rhymes can be traced back for hundreds of years.

There are 36 or 37 slightly different versions and twelve different tunes for the "Frog's Courting," an old English nursery song, according to Dr. Payne. The song had its origin in 1549 and is familiar to all families in the South.

WANT EXCLUSIVE WOMEN'S PRISON

Feminists to Urge Congress to Erect Special Institution for Female Offenders.

Washington.—A federal prison "exclusively for the ladies"—a penitentiary with a "women only" sign hanging out—this is what prominent women and leading feminine organizations all over the country want congress to establish.

Since the eighteenth amendment was written into the statute books, feminine agitators explain, women lawbreakers have been treated exactly like men. In consequence, more of their number are being convicted of wrongdoing now than in the past, and a penal institution especially for them has become a national necessity.

Suffrage Hits Feminine Offenders. According to Mrs. Mabel W. Willebrandt, one of the chief advocates, who, in addition, is an assistant United States attorney general, suffrage has functioned in such a way as to focus judge and jury attention on feminine faults that formerly went unnoticed and ignored.

"But, despite all assertions to the contrary, there is no more crime among the women nowadays," Mrs. Willebrandt insisted. "The only difference lies in the fact that more women are being brought to justice now than in former days."

"With equal rights for women come equal wrongs. With woman's participation in the lawmaking has come an equal responsibility in lawbreaking. There is an increasing tendency on the part of the law-enforcement agencies, on the part of judge and jury, to recognize this and hold a woman who has violated the law responsible for her act."

Requires a Different Discipline. "From the standpoint of justice, there is only one standard of responsibility for crime. Maudlin sentiment and chivalry have no place in it. But, even so, all the suffrage amendments and equal rights bills in the world cannot change a woman's organism. Fundamentally, she is of a different texture than a man. A woman convict can more be disciplined by hard prison labor or road building than an old offender of the opposite sex can be tamed with tanning and embroidery."

Under present conditions, Mrs. Willebrandt explained, the government has no say-so in the management of its women prisoners. All it does, in fact, is pay their penal board bills. Due to the overcrowded conditions in the state institutions where the Department of Justice formerly lodged them, they are now being incarcerated in local jails and farmed out to reform establishments of almost any description which possess an unoccupied cell.

Bill Provides for Model Prison. Many federal women prisoners, Mrs. Willebrandt insisted, are decidedly above the normal convict level. In addition, there are innumerable varieties of offenders. The dope addict, caught peddling drugs to buy herself more narcotics, and the alcoholic vendor require a very different sort of treatment than the check "kiter" or Mann act violator.

The bill which Mrs. Willebrandt has drafted, and with which the women's organizations hope to start the legislative ball rolling, provides for the erection of a penitentiary on the cottage plan. It is to house a minimum of 700 prisoners, and embody all the modern penal methods.

A 200-acre tract of rich farm land in Greenbrier county, West Virginia, valued at $100,000, has been offered to congress by citizens of West Virginia. The only string they have attached to their bequest is that the institution, when completed, take the name selected for it by its feminine organizers. That name is the Federal Industrial Reformatory for Women.

Young Students Flee 2,500 Miles to Marry

Mexico City.—A 2,500-mile trip, afoot and afloat, ending in marriage, might summarize the feat of Carolyn Cushman Murphy, fifteen, and Roy Silvestre Wiegand, four years her senior. Both were students at Miami university, Ohio, but fled from that institution last June, according to the bride, because their parents objected to their marriage.

Both have gone to work, Mrs. Wiegand's first adventure in that line being in journalism and her first story a record of her trip on foot and in automobile and sidecar pullman to New Orleans and as extra hand aboard a freighter from New Orleans to Vera Cruz. Her home is in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Lack of Dowry Dooms Girls to Singleness

Berlin.—A girl baby is more of a tragedy than a boy baby in the average German family today, because of the dowry which must go with every German girl who finds a husband. No girl without a dowry can avoid being an old maid in Germany, and there is little prospect of the average German family accumulating enough surplus to endow daughters with sufficient lines and money to make them attractive to German men who have such a large assortment of women to choose from because of the great excess of the female population.

GETTING OUT A PAPER

Getting out a paper is no picnic. If we print jokes, folks think we are silly.

If we don't they say we are too serious.

If we publish original matter, they say we lack variety.

If we publish things from other papers, we are too lazy to write.

If we stay on the job, we ought to be rustling news.

If we are rustling news, we are not attending to business in our department.

If we don't print contributions, we don't show proper appreciation.

If we do print them the paper is full of junk.

Likely some fellow will say we swiped this from another paper—so we did.

COUNTY TREASURER'S QUARTERLY REPORT

In the matter of County Finances, in the hands of Mrs. Lula Smith, Treasurer of Terry County, Texas.

Commissioners' Court of Terry County, Texas, in regular session, Feb. Term, 1924.

We, the undersigned, as County Commissioners within and for said Terry County, and the Hon. D. J. Broughton, County Judge of Terry County, constituting the entire Commissioners Court of said County, and each of us, do hereby certify that on this, the 15th day of February, 1924, at a regular term of our said Court, we have compared and examined the report of Mrs. Lula Smith, Treasurer of said Terry County, Texas, for the period beginning on the 31st day of Oct., A. D. 1923, and ending on the 31st day of Jan., A. D. 1924, and after finding that her report was correct have caused an order to be entered upon the minutes of the Commissioners' Court of said County, stating the approval of said Treasurer's Report by our said court, which said order recites separately the amount received and paid out of each fund by said Treasurer since her last report to this Court, and for and during the time covered by her present report, and the balance of each fund remaining in said Treasurer's hands on the said 31st day of January, 1924, and have ordered the proper credits to be made in the accounts of said County Treasurer, in accordance with said order as required by Articles 1448-1449-1450 and 1451, Chapter 1, Title 29 of the Revised Statutes of Texas.

And we, and each of us, further certify that we have actually and fully inspected and counted all the actual cash and assets in the hands of said Treasurer belonging to Terry County at the close of the examination of said Treasurer's Report, on this the 15th day of Feb., A. Charles Steinmetz came to America a hunch-backed dwarf, pop-eyed and poorly dressed. He had difficulty in getting past Ellis Island, but he had a nature charged with eagerness to serve. Like Aggasiz, he soon became too busy to make money. He became one of the world's greatest mathematicians and investigators. Was he an American? A least as much of an American as Eugene V. Debs, Robt. M. LaFollette, Emperor Simmons or Jack Demsey?

Our conversation and our conversation are altogether out of proportion.

Mr. Isaac Lloyd was down from Plainview during the past week and visiting his son and family.

Mr. P. G. Standford, prominent citizen and ranchman of Plains, was over one day last week and informed us that the citizens of Plains were making a supreme effort to land a good modern new gin in their town. He informed us that four acres would be planted in that county where only one will be without a gin. They are after a thoroughly modern plant that will care for the bolls as well as picked cotton. The Herald wishes them utmost success in their efforts.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Lemmon came in last week from Dallas, where Mrs. Lemmon has been staying with her mother while the doctor was taking a post graduate course in New York. There was a new member of the family when they arrived home, a little daughter of about three weeks age.

 Purina Chows make layers out of hens. Purina Chows cost little or no more than ordinary feeds, and they produce more eggs than other feeds on the market. That's why we picked Purina, as the chows to sell. Pure, clean, honestly made, they are sold under the iron-bound guarantee of more eggs or money back, when fed according to the simple directions. Drop in if you want more eggs right now.

WHY GUN BARRELS ARE GENERALLY BLUE STEEL

Generally the author of a story that has a gun man in it refers to the blue barrel of the gun that the gun-man carries.

Gun barrels are made of blue steel because they resist rust better than polished steel does. Also the dull finish does not reflect the light as bright surfaces do, and the blue barrels are more popular with burglars and peace officers alike for this reason.

The bluing of barrels is done by a heating process that requires careful control of the temperature at all times. Gas is used in the heating machines, having been adopted after a long series of tests as to the best fuel for this purpose.

Mr. John Peters came in one day recently and had us send the Herald to his son, William, at Waco, remarking that it would be like a letter from home to his son.

SHERIFF'S SALE

The State of Texas, County of Terry.—T. J. Lancaster vs. W. S. Copeland, et al.

In the District Court of Terry Co., Texas, Jan. term, 1924.

Whereas, by virtue of a certain order of sale issued out of the Honorable District Court of Terry County Texas, on the 4th day of February, 1924, on a certain judgement rendered in said Court on the 8th day of January, 1924 in favor of T. J. Lancaster, Plaintiff, against Tom May and W. S. Copeland jointly and severally for the sum of $1912.79 with interest thereon from January 8th, 1924 at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, together with all costs of suit, and a foreclosure of a vendor's lien against the said Tom May, W. S. Copeland, W. C. Davis, T. J. Price and F. E. Walters all defendants, in said cause No. 746 in said Court, on the West half of Survey No. 96 in Block No. T, Certificate No. 48, D. & W. Ry Co. located and situated in Terry county, Texas, containing 320 acres of land, and in said cause and order of sale, there was decreed an inferior lien, to said vendor's lien, in favor of the said F. E. Walters on said land to the extent of $2,974.40, and by reason and virtue of said order of sale, I did on the 4th day of Feb. 1924 at 4:00 o'clock P.M. levy on and upon the said land and premises above described and situated in said county and state, as the property of said defendants, Tom May, W. S. Copeland W.C. Davis, T. J. Price and F. E. Walters, and on the 4th day of March, 1924, same being the first Tuesday in Mar. 1924, at the Courthouse door of Terry county, Texas, in the town of Brownfield, between the hours of 10 o'clock A.M. and 4 o'clock P.M., I will offer for sale and sell at public auction for cash all the right title and interest of that said Tom May, W.S. Copeland, T. J. Price, W. C. Davis and F. E. Walters have or either of them has, in and to said property above described. And in compliance with law I give this notice by publication in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said date of sale, in the Terry County Herald, a newspaper published in Terry county Texas.

Witness my hand this 4th day of Feb. 1924.

Tapestry Depicts U. S. Troops on Way to War

Paris.—The large tapestry entitled "Departure of American Troops From Philadelphia," which the French government is to present to the United States, is nearing completion in the government tapestry works at Beauvais.

Six selected weavers have been three years making the piece. The tapestry destined for the United States, 28 square meters in area, represents artillerymen marching in a street. In the foreground is a mounted color-bearer carrying a big American flag. In the wide border the deeds of Lafayette and Pershing are linked together with the dates 1776 and 1917.

U. S. Birth Certificates Peddled to Immigrants

New York.—American birth certificates are peddled to immigrants at European ports with the same freedom that million-mark notes are sold on the streets of New York, according to the testimony of August V. Tozzi, formerly president of the Italian immigrant society and now in the foreign exchange business at 4 State street, before the joint legislative committee investigating the exploitation of immigrants.

Mr. Tozzi said also that passports, never used from a United States port, were made out wholesale and mailed to Europe to help in evading immigration laws. These passports were the usual permits issued to aliens admitted to the United States to visit their European homes for a period of six months, he said. The immigrant would assume the name of the resident to whom the passport was made out and enter this country without difficulty, the witness said.

Other witnesses testified that railroad agencies here sold American money to the immigrants and collected a fee of from 20 to 40 per cent. These agents come to the steamship piers and sell railroad tickets to the immigrants to points in the interior where they desire to go, while at the same time changing the immigrant's money into American money, it was explained.

U. S. Lightships Aid in War on Smugglers

Cape May, N. J.—Capt. John Karr of Five Fathom Bank lightship, 20 miles off Cape May, said here that lightships would cooperate in the war against liquor smuggling. The new lightships which will be placed on the stations early next year, he said, will be equipped with powerful radio sets, and will flash the news of approaching whiskey runners to the coast guard stations along the shore.

Some of the ships will mount guns, said Captain Karr, but these will be used only against ships within the 12-mile limit.

Because the above was a pioneer citizen of Terry county; because of the commendable traits I knew in him, and because he was my friend, I feel like expressing an appreciation of his life.

He was born in the Old South, saw active service in the Confederate Army; moved to Hamilton county soon after the war, and on to Terry county in 1850, and was active in the organization of the county, and has remained a true citizen of the county until his death, Feb. 16th, near El Paso, while visiting a son.

He left surviving, W. T., a son of Ysleta, Texas, Mat, a son and Mrs. Will Mathis, daughter, of Lubbock; George and Lester, sons, and Mrs. M. H. Longbrake, daughter, of this place. His wife died before he came to Terry county. The children are all of mature age.

"Uncle Mac" was an old school Southern Democrat, and of the Primitive Baptist religious faith. He was consistent in his thoughts and opinions; was reasonable and logical in his expressions. He was of that type of citizenship, who in his old age, though not in active employment did good service in his influence upon those about him. I greatly appreciate his counsel, and join with his many friends in his demise, though with the consolation that he was permitted to live beyond the allotted time granted by the Master of whom he so often spoke.—Geo. ty-five hundred dollars (2500.00) payable five years after date thereof, and one bond of like sum payable each year thereafter until the entire series of 25 bonds are fully paid off and discharged, with the option of redemption at any time after ten years after their date, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and to levy a tax sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds, and create a sinking fund sufficient to redeem them at maturity, for THE PURPOSE of constructing WATER WORKS in the City of Brownfield, Texas, as authorized by Chapter 1, Title 18, R.S. 1911 and article 882, R.S. 1911 and amendments thereto, and the constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

That said election shall be held at the court-house in the City of Brownfield, Texas, and the following named persons are hereby appointed managers of said election, to-wit: Simon Holgate, presiding officer and judge; Earl Jones and J. E. Shelton, Clerks.

The said election shall be held under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 18, R.S. 1911, and Articles 882 R.S. 1911 and amendments thereto, and the constitution and laws of the State of Texas, and only qualified voters, who are property tax payers of said city shall vote.

All voters who favor the proposition to issue bonds shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "For the issuance of Bonds." Those who oppose shall have written or printed on their ballots the words, "Against the Issuance of Bonds."

The manner of holding said election shall be governed by the laws of the state, regulating general elections. A copy of this order signed by the Mayor of the City of Brownfield, attested by the Secretary of said city, shall serve as a proper notice of said election.

The mayor is authorized and directed to cause said notices of election to be posted up at the court house in said city; at the Brownfield State Bank in said city, and at the U. S. postoffice in said city of Brownfield for at least thirty full days before the date of said election.

The mayor is further authorized and directed to have said notice of election published in some newspaper of general circulation published in said city, and which notice shall be published once in each week for four weeks, the date of first publication being not less than thirty full days prior to the date of the election.
