HOW TERRY VOTED IN THE GENERAL ELECTION

Every box in the county gave a clear and usual Democratic majority, and all gave Mrs. Ferguson a majority except the Union, which gave Dr. Butte a vote of 35 to Ferguson's 24.

After and following the vote on the Presidential Electors, the first named of State and District officers will be the Democrat, and the second the Republican. There was between 1,069 and 1,070 votes cast lacking about 600 of being the number cast in the primary election.

The Melancholy Days

TAHOKA NEWS EDITOR SOME SPELL-BINDER

For the reason that our light and power plant was out a day and a half last week caused us to have to leave out some mighty good dope, and the most mighty of this probably was the speech of Editor E. I. Hill, of Tahoka here last Sunday night week on the 75 Million Campaign.

We wish to say that we knew that Hill had been a district attorney, and district attorneys are all supposed to be good spellers, and Hill is no exception to the general rule. Why he would make an old miser enthusiastic about the campaign and get a good slug of his dough. He had more on his finger ends about the poor heathen Jap and Chin than those poor deluded mortals know about themselves and their country. In fact Hill made a great speech as did also the other two preachers—but Hill knows little about his adjoining county to the west. He entered Terry on the east and had a big ranch on his left, and several big ones on his right, all the way to Brownfield, and he imagined he'd seen all of Terry. A man who had not made any further investigation of Lynn county than a drive from here to Tahoka, would also imagine that nine-tenths or more of Lynn county was a big ranch. Hill just barely got to where the development has started in Terry. He should have drove out just a few miles west and inspected one big ranch alone of 40 sections that is all in cultivation in 1924. All ranch last year, not to mention lots of smaller ranches and the Spearman developments. But hear Hill's conclusions:

"The editor was a Brownfield visitor Sunday and noted the wonderful building activities that are so evident in our sister city to the west. Numbers of brick business houses have been built recently and new residences have sprung up all over town from mere two room shack to splendid homes. Yet there is nothing like as much development in the country surrounding Brownfield as in the Tahoka country. As the lands west of our city go in cultivation the town is bound to grow. The puzzle to us is, why is Tahoka not growing more rapidly than she is? Can our readers answer the question?"

MARRIED

Mr. Clyde Bond, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bond, and Miss Hazel Huckabee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Huckabee, were married Tuesday morning of this week. Both are popular young people and of excellent families, and we hasten to congratulate them and wish them a happy married life. They drove by Leland Tuesday morning on their way to the Lubbock celebration, and the Baptist minister of that place performed the marriage, after which they drove on to Lubbock, spending the night there.

Mrs. S. R. Bohannon is now making her home with her son in Amarillo.

HERALD ACHIEVES MUCH IN FIFTEEN YEARS

The Terry County Herald, of which A. J. "Jack" Stricklin is editor, has achieved a great deal in the past fifteen years. The Publisher's Auxiliary of Chicago recently published pictures of Stricklin's in 1909 and as it appears today, and has the following to say:

"Starting a newspaper in a town some one hundred miles from the nearest railroad, in a county which offered a probable circulation of one thousand, with a George Washington hand press and a 'shirt-tail full' of type, is one of our definitions of real optimism. But that is what A. J. Stricklin of the Terry County Herald, Brownfield, Texas, did back in the summer of 1909. That his faith in Terry County and Brownfield was justified is easily seen from the above pictures of 'then' and 'now.'"

"The Terry County Herald was started off as a four page five-column paper, but now Mr. Stricklin says: 'is never issued under eight pages of six columns, and the county has increased until it has a population of some 10,000. The new plant is equipped with a new modern cylinder and jobbers all motorized, a typesetting machine and other equipment to match.'"

The above was copied from the Lynn County News of last week, as the Auxiliary with the above writup failed to reach us, probably for the first time since we have been here—and we modestly acknowledge that we were looking for that one copy, as the Oklahoma City branch of the W. N. U. had asked for photographs and some data for that very purpose. This shows that it pays to take your neighboring county paper.

7,200 BALEŚ WEIGHED IN TERRY COUNTY TO WED.

Up to Wednesday noon 7,200 bales of cotton had been weighed in the Brownfield and Meadow yards, and the way cotton was rolling into this city, gin men were confident it would be one of the biggest days of the present season.

We had been under the impression that the cotton season was about over until we drove to Seagraves last Saturday afternoon, when we found that a very small percent of the cotton patches showed evidence of being black. Most of them were "white unto the harvest," and not a few give no evidence that a sack had ever been drug through them. Folk there is lots of cotton to be picked in old Terry yet, at least on the Seagraves road.

Brownfield yard	5,275
Meadow yard	1,925

Workmen are digging and putting in the foundation for the new two-story brick for Earl Alexander on the north side of the square.

GOVERNMENT TO DIS-TRIBUTE WILD DEER

The West Texas Chamber of Commerce says:

"We have been advised by the United States Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, that the Federal Government has an excess supply of deer at the Kaibab National Forest in the Grand Canyon Game Preserve, and that the Federal Government will make gifts of these deer to municipalities which will take care of them. These animals are part of a large herd of mule deer estimated at 30,000 head, found on the Kaibab National Forest in northern Arizona.

If your city should want any of these deer they should make application to Will C. Bond, assistant forester, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, Washington, D. C. There will be a charge of $35 per deer made for packing, crating and transportation charges to the nearest railroad station, which happens to be in the city of Utah.

PARENT-TEACHERS HAVE INTERESTING MEETING TUES.

Owing to the fact that many of the officers and members of the P. T. A. were at the Lubbock celebration on Tuesday night, the crowd was light at the meeting, and some of the numbers on the program and committee reports had to be deferred, but withal, an interesting meeting was had. One of the agreements was that the meeting would be at 7:30 p.m. during the winter months instead of 8:00 p.m. as heretofore, and that the regular meeting nights would be the 1st and 3rd Tuesday nights in each month until spring.

A. J. Stricklin made a short talk on the subject: "Do children have too much outside attraction. Rev. C. E. Ball made a fine address on the good influence to be had from parents visiting the school room, both from an encouraging effect on the pupil, and also as a disciplinary effect.

We might also mention that as both the president and vice-president were absent, a motion was made and carried to elect a second vice-president, which honor went to Rev. C. E. Ball.

Little Miss Ruth Adams rendered a nice selection on the piano, which was well received by the audience.

The first Tuesday night in December is the next meeting night, and remember to be there. Also keep in mind that you are welcome to these meetings whether you are a member or not.—Reporter.

There are at present about 1,200,000 cows kept by people in cities of the United States, while the country cows number more than 25 million.

It has recently been estimated that while the farmers of the United States receive only about seven and a half billion for their year's crop, the consumer pays about 22 billions for the same crop.

CARS COLLIDE IN FOG SUNDAY NIGHT

There were two near serious accidents in Terry county Sunday night on account of the dense fog that hung over the county like a pall. We are glad to hear however, that nothing happened more serious than four badly wrecked cars.

The fact that the dense fog was on probably checked the speed of the motorists and therefore the wrecks were not so serious as if they had been running in clear weather.

The first collision we heard of was that of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Randall, who were returning from Lubbock on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. P. Spencer, who were run into by one of the Lewis boys. Both cars were badly wrecked, E. R. Lewis losing one wheel in the compact.

The other collision occurred just beyond the Church of Christ at Gomez at a sharp turn in the road. We understand one car was driven by negro cotton pickers and the other by white people. Both of these cars were badly wrecked by no one hurt.

People should be very careful in driving by poor lights or in fogs, and keep to their side of the road. A sound of the horn at sharp turns or at intervals along the highway would also probably save collisions.

LOCAL DRY GOODS FIRM GOING AFTER MAIL ORDERS

The job department of the Herald has recently put out thousand of large price lists, well illustrated and printed on book paper for the dry goods firm of A. B. Cook & Son of this city, which are being mailed to thousand of people in the large trade territory of this city. In addition, a self addressed envelope, with the firm name on them are included with these monthly lists, which Cook & Son are sending out, together with order blanks.

This large firm believe that they can successfully link matters in the small towns in our territory with the big city mail order firms, and are going after their share of this business. Their policy is to stop these dollars, or as many of them as possible in Brownfield.

AN ICE PLANT ASSURED FOR BROWNFIELD

We are now at liberty to give some of the details about the ice plant we spoke of recently in these columns, when we announced that parties had purchased trackage lots for the purpose of erecting an ice plant here, but was not permitted to give names at that time.

The promoters of this plant are Messrs. R. W. Porter and C. H. Barry, of Crowell, who own the light and ice plants in that town, and they propose to put in a ten ton plant with sufficient roomage for a twenty ton plant as the town and territory make growth.

To assure themselves that the citizens were behind the movement, a few thousand dollars of the stock was offered local citizens, which was taken without trouble, and this procedure went far enough that the two gentlemen knew they were assured of complete support, and left for their homes, assuring the citizens that the order for machinery would be placed immediately and that the factory would be in full operation by spring.

SUDAN WOMAN WOUNDED - SHOT IN HER HOME

Sudan, Texas, Nov. 8.—C. A. Rice and wife of this community, were arrested and are being held in the custody of Lamb county officers, following the shooting of May Cummings, wife of a farmer, Saturday.

The shooting occurred at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon when Rice is said to have fired 12 shots into the Cummings home. When questioned by officers he declared he did not know that the bullets were reaching the Cummings home, and that he was shooting at cattle that had broken into his field.

The woman's condition is, not believed to be serious, however Rice and his wife will be held until her true condition is determined. It is reported here that Rice and the Cummings families have not been on friendly terms for several months.

About 15 million is the average number of bananas consumed daily in the United States.

U. D. Sawyer has moved his family from the ranch near Seagraves to the new ranch near Millensand, N. M.

GOVERNOR NEFF FAILED TO SHOW UP MONDAY

Several letters were received here Saturday afternoon by different parties from Governor Pat M. Neff's secretary and the State Park Board traveling with him, that the Governor would be here Monday afternoon for about an hour and would address the citizens on the State Park question if they desired.

Of course our citizens were overjoyed that their governor was making them a visit, not having ever done so since he has been governor, and at once secured the First Baptist church auditorium for the speaking, the band was put in tune, and it was agreed to dismiss school, and everyone had on a Sunday smile.

But fate would have it otherwise, and used the sand-hills between Midland and Seminole to get the gubernatorial party lost, so that they got to Lamesa about the time that they were due at Brownfield, and the engagement here was cut-out by phone from that place.

NATURAL COLOR PICTURE AT PASTIME NEXT WEEK

The first motion picture to be done entirely in natural colors is the Zane Grey Paramount production, "Wanderer of the Wasteland," which was produced in the original locale described in the book, the deserts of Arizona, by Irvin Willat. Jack Holt, Kathlyn Williams, Noah Beery and Billie Dove are featured in the principal roles.

According to Jesse L. Lasky, first vice-president in charge of production of Paramount, "Wanderer of Wasteland," is Zane Grey's favorite story and the most popular of all the books he has given the American public.

"In this picture we have used the famous Technicolor process—the same process which proved such a sensational success in the Biblical prodlogue of Cecil B. DeMille's superproduction "The Ten Commandments." To get the best results we went to considerable expense and trouble so that the coloring of the picture might be as near perfection as it is possible to attain. A special camera staff organized by the Technicolor Company was sent from Boston. This staff took with it into the desert all of the intricate paraphernalia necessary for the photographing of color picture, the entire production company spending several weeks in camp, as practically all of the picture was photographed in the desert.

"Not only because of the color photography but because of the dramatic story, which Zane Grey has written, we expect "Wanderer of the Wasteland," to prove one of the outstanding pictures of the year."

"Wanderer of the Wasteland," to be shown here next Friday and Saturday, Nov. 21-22, at the Pastime Theatre, is a story of the great American Sahara, when men braved unbelievable hardships in their hunt for gold—a hunt, which brought thousands into the desert—a hunt from which mere handfuls returned successful; many never did return at all. The mere fact that Zane Grey's novel sold over a million copies, is evidence sufficient of the popularity of the story. But when you see the picture, done entirely in natural colors at that, you will say you never saw anything like it before in your life and be telling the truth.

Playing in support of the featured players is an unusually strong cast, which includes, among others, James Mason, Richard R. Neill, James Gordon, William Carroll and Willard Cooley.

LOCAL STORE CLOSED ON ARMISTICE DAY

Practically every store in Brownfield was closed Tuesday in honor of the 6th anniversary of the day when American doughboys in sufficient numbers reached France to make the Germans glad to give up their guns. There was no program during the day fitting to that occasion, but the Parent-Teacher association held an interesting meeting at the school auditorium.

There would most likely have been a program of some kind in honor of the ex-service boys, but most of them were at Lubbock attending the Corn-corn laying and the Armistice program and cats tendered them in that

Pa says the papers are silly;
 There's nothing to 'em nohow
 Ceptin' divorces an' murders
 Er somethin' that kicks up a row.
 He says th' chaps on th' papers
 Surely must be awful dumb,
 But you should hear pa holler
 When the newspapers don't come.

Pa says the papers are twaddle
 That no euy wants to peruse
 That they're jam full of nonsense
 And everything 'cepting news;
 Pa says th' papers just rile 'em

A. & M. CAN'T LAY COTTON SHEDDING TO FLEA

College Station, Texas, Oct. 31.—A careful observation and experimentation by Dr. F. L. Thomas, entomologist at the Experiment Station of the A. & M. College have failed so far to fix responsibility on the cotton flea, or hopper as the entomologists are pleased to call the insect, for the damage of fruit and shedding and excessive plant growth in cotton that is being attributed to the insect by farmers in all sections, but particularly in the Gulf Coast regions this year.

Cotton plants confined in cages with a large number of the insects showed no more evidence of shedding than plants confined in other cages from which the insects were carefully excluded. This in the absence of any evidence of actual damage done by the insects raises a considerable doubt in the mind of the entomologists as to the correctness of popular opinion which seems to have fastened the blame on the hopper for excessive shedding wherever the presence of the insect happens to be noted.

Investigations conducted under the field conditions have also failed to fasten the blame definitely on the cotton flea or hopper, neither have they absolved him from the damage. By carefully tagging cotton stalks, and recording each square plants put on and also every minute square that is shed. In this way it was found that many infested fields have a condition existing in which well fruited stalks occur on the one hand and on the other stalks may be seen that have not set a boll. Other fields were examined where the shedding was heavy although the insects were scarce. Then again in fields where the hoppers were equally abundant the cotton was not apparently suffering a loss in yield.

Prize money for the great poultry show at Allentown, Pa., this fall amounts to $13,200.50, said to be more money than ever before offered by a similar exhibition.

One of Mr. Denton's boys, who live a few miles north of town got his hand blown off with dynamite recently, but is getting along as nicely as could be expected. The Dentons had just move to the place, and the boy, aged about 12 year found the dynamite and some caps, and not knowing what they were, began pranking with them with above results.

A factory machine is attached to a solid floor, which nearly prevents vibration. Yet it is constantly being adjusted and lubricated. Hence it wears for many years.

An automobile is constantly bumped over rough roads. Yet in spite of this terrible strain, the average car gets much less attention than the factory machine. Hence it depreciates much faster.

WHEN THE PREACHER GOT HIS WIRES CROSSED

Recently the writer heard two sermons by the same city preacher. In the first sermon he asserted that the destruction of Galveston was a judgement of God because Sunday bathing was permitted there. He failed to explain why the mass of Sunday bathers, who came to Galveston from other towns and cities were safely on the mainland during the storm, and were not included in that alleged judgement. In the second sermon a week later the reverend gentleman met himself coming back, when he declared that the difference between nature and God was that God had power and mercy, while nature had power and no mercy. He illustrated nature's merciless power in the destruction of Galveston, where churches, orphanages, and good men and women and innocent children were destroyed without mercy. This mind you, after he had previously said that the merciful-powerful God had deliberately destroyed Galveston.

We shall not discuss the theological side of this matter; but will merely say that the preachers could put in their time to a far better purpose pointing to the terrible consequences of greed, graft, corruption and mammon-worship in high places and of usury, tenantry, land monopoly, child-slavery, and of cornering, profiteering and gambling in the necessities and comforts of life. But too many influential usurers, profiteers, grafters, speculators and scalpers would have their tender feelings hurt if Christ's example was followed and sermons were directed at them. It is safe to talk about Sunday movies and bathers and joy-riders and other things that have no come-back.—Farm Labor News.

MEADOW BRIEFS

By Asclepias

After many weeks absence from the pages of the Herald I am again ready to go.

During these weeks of absence many notable things have happened not the least of these is our state election. Dr. Butte the greatest prestidigitator of the Republican party of Texas, like many another man has met his Waterloo at the hands of a woman—a grandmother at that. He was the motliest, most discordant bunch of political misfits that ever went to battle with the Democracy of Texas. His old bulk will be found along the shores of the Salton Sea with the derelicts of other days, such as Hamman, Jones, Nugent, Martin, Clark, who have passed on. To their credit be it said they led better men. Let the good work go on. As a Ignippe Coolidge will perhaps give him a Federal Judgeship or appoint him consul to Hyderabad.

Armistice Day was not celebrated to any great extent in Meadow. Two flags were in evidence. One on the school building and the other in front of Edwards Goods Co. Not even the one hundred per centers showed anything but their faces. Perhaps it was wash day. There would perhaps been some exercises at the school house but the trustees believing it to be the birthday of the Akhund of Swat failed to have the teachers prepare a program. The children would have gladly taken part in making the Eagle scream and the teachers might have learned a few things they did not know before. Perhaps by another year this bunch of Saurians will wake up and we will have another election ordered.

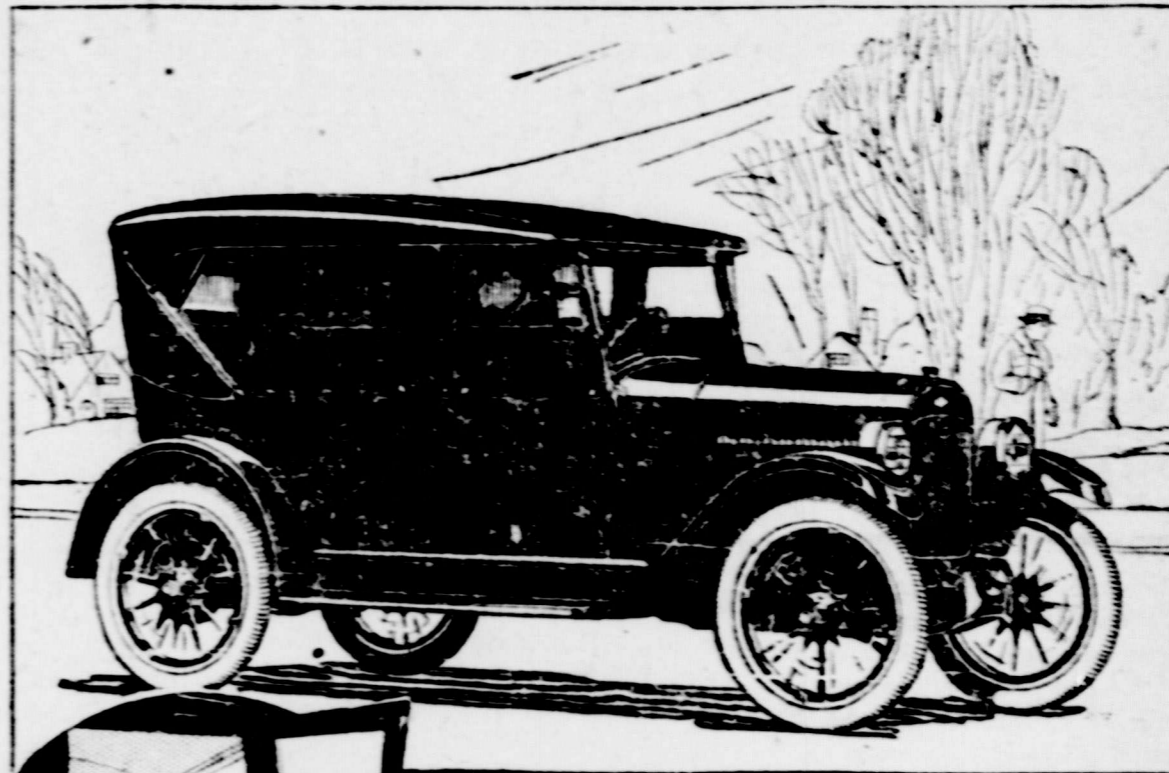

Two new boys arrived here the last few days. One at C. K. Thornton's on election day, and they christened him James Miriam. How does that strike you. The other one showed up Armistice Day and escaped with William Arthur. He should have been called Pershing.

Quite a number of our people hied away to Lubbock to take in the Corner Stone laying and see Governor Neff. It was a glorious day and the beginning of a mighty enterprise.

Rich Bennett was here Tuesday somewhat disgusted. Don't know whether he had done something or was just going to do something. Can't tell anything about him, but he will bear watching.

Some twenty bales of cotton was burned at the yard the past week. A few of the farmers failed to have insurance and suffered a considerable loss. Most of it was however, protected by insurance. I don't know who set it.

WASHINGTON WON AND NOBODY WAS DRUNK

Just in case you have not heard it before, we rise to inform you that Washington won the world's championship in baseball.

When McNeely's hit bounded over Lindstrom's head and Muddy Ruel came pounding across the plate with the winning run some people thought the whole affair was over. But you should have seen Pennsylvania Avenue that night, filled from curb to curb with hooting automobiles and from curb to building with a happy jam of horn-blowing, confetti-throwing people.

Nothing like it since Armistice Day. Now, if the Washington baseball team had staged its miracle back in the days of the corner saloon, every one of those saloons would have been crowded and at five-minute intervals a dangerous drunk would have come reeling out of the swinging doors. But if there was a drunken man on Pennsylvania Avenue during the wild evening in October, no one could find him; not a sign of liquor anywhere; no disorder; no violence; no horse-play by hoodlums.

The people were just happy, that's all, and prohibition was a part of their happiness.—Methodist Temperance Bulletin.

The Herald man thought he was going to get to see the Seagraves Signal plant while down there during the week end, and Editor Hays promised faithfully that we would, but that booster is like the Irishman's flea, never there when you try to catch him.

One outstanding result of the recent state election was that the Republicans will now be forced to have their own primary, having cast more than 100,000 popular votes in the state. This will have the effect of keeping the Democratic party clear of voters who do not intend to support the ticket in the fall. Yet, it may have the effect of keeping Democratic office holders better lined up with honesty and integrity.

The fact that thousands of erstwhile Democrats jumped their pledge this year in voting for governor, is no sign that any part of them will be read out of the party any more than those who voted for Peddy two years ago, or those who voted the American party ticket four years ago were read out of the party. To make such talk is idle boast, for most of them have been consistent Democrats all their lives. In fact the party may be so reunited in the next two years that this and the Peddy break in the party may not be noticeable, and the Republicans so weak that they will have to go back to the convention system.

Many and varied are the reasons given for the landslide defeat of the Democratic and Independent parties in the recent battle of ballots, the Republican reason being that the G. O. P. was very popular; the Democratic reason that Calvin Coolidge's popularity overshadowed the great corruption of the cabinet, and the Independent reason was that they were new and not well organized as yet. Another was that the Millions of dollars at the command of the Republican party was used well to influence public expressions, straw votes and betting odds. But so far, about the most local reason we have seen, and one expressed by a man of independent notions, was that the great majority of American people were tired of radicalism and wanted to smite it the hardest blow they could. Therefore, the Republican party being on the other extreme, conservatism and stand-patism, the voters took the other extreme to deal radicalism a death blow.

EDITOR SMITH STILL LIVES THOUGH "MA" REIGNS

The Lovington (N.M.) Leader made the bold assertion some time past that if Mrs. Ferguson was elected editor Smith of the Lamesa Reporter would have to be hurried. Smith absolutely refused to have "Ma" for his governor, and the following is his last faint protest:

Lamesa Reporter: "The election is over for two more years. At this time the indications are that Mrs. Ferguson is Governor of Texas. We have heard a lot of people say: 'Well when a candidate is elevated over their vote, they are my officer the same as the other fellows, and up to this point we have always said the same. We have taken the defeat of our candidate, some of the best friends on earth, and accepted the newly elected officer as our officer, but not so in this case. Mrs. Ferguson is governor of Texas and I shall respect her as such and stand ready to assist her to make the best Governor Texas ever saw, but we'll be darned if she is our Governor, nor never will she be. We did not want her and do not want her now. Grant you she is the Governor of Texas. But it is because we could not help it. We did our best to defeat her every chance we had, and we scratched Jim every time he ran for office in Texas. If they make good and show that they are trying to do the right thing, we will vote two years from now for them, but we have never had a reason to believe that they will try to make good. So there you are. We are through and the election is over, so let's get busy with the things that county in Dawson county."

FRIDAY FORTY-TWO CLUB

Mrs. Collier was hostess to the Club Nov. 7th. Every member was present and also a few visiting friends. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent at the tables, telling the news of the day while the games went on, after which a delicious luncheon was served to the following:

Mrs. Holgate, Hurst, Hancock, Harris, Graham, Stricklin, Tienan, McBurnett, Lewis, Kendrick, Winston, Ditto, and Miss Violet McBurnett.

The only business of importance was the resignation of a member that the club regrets very much to grant, and the selection to fill the vacancy. Also a suggestion was offered for the adoption of "capsule friends" so which there was no objection. Then came the drawing of names. Each to bring the name of the one drawn a gift as each meeting, the hostess to conceal each until time to hand them out.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Graham Nov. 28th.—Reporter.

IN THE DEFENSE OF OUR LIBERTIES

In a clear statement of the danger in tampering with the authority of the United States Supreme Court, Liberty magazine says editorially:

"What would happen if Congress or one of the legislatures of a state should pass a law declaring that the Roman Catholic Church, or the Methodist Church, or the Baptist or Presbyterian Church is the official church of the United States, and that no citizen may hold any other belief?"

"That law, as we know, would be declared unconstitutional by the Supreme court in the State in which the law was passed."

"What would happen if Congress or one of the State legislatures should pass a law providing that no citizen should criticize any public official; or that no newspaper or book should be published without the consent of a government official or committee of Congress or the Legislature; or that citizens should not be permitted to assemble, however peacefully, to petition for a redress or grievance?"

"Such a law would be declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the Nation or by the Supreme Court of the State in which it was passed."

"What would happen if Congress or a Legislature should pass a law declaring that no person charged with a crime should have a right of trial by a jury of his fellow citizens, or that he should have no right to counsel?"

"That law would be declared unconstitutional by the courts and so would a law providing that citizens' property might be taken for a public use without just compensation established in an impartial proceeding, or a law fixing an excessive sum as bail or apply a cruel or unusual punishment."

"But, there are political leaders who profess to be friends of human liberty and progress, who propose to deprive the Supreme Court of the power to declare such laws unconstitutional, provided Congress passes them again after they have been declared unconstitutional by the courts."

"It is urged that Congress will always respect these rights of the individual asserted in our constitution."

"Experience refutes this argument. This is why the founders of this Republic gave the protection of our civil rights to a separate and co-ordinate branch of government. The purpose of the founders was to protect the individual in the enjoyment of his rights as against any agency of government, whether executive or legislative, for they knew from experience that a parliament or legislative body could and would oppress as well as a monarch or other executive. And subsequent experience proved the founders were right."

"The American system of liberty is founded on the principle that there are certain rights of the individual of which he may not be deprived even by the will of the majority. That principle is the most precious of our possessions as a free people, and the proposal to deprive the Supreme Court of its power to defend it is a proposal to destroy it."

LEVELLAND POSTMASTER GIVEN TERM IN PEN.

Two years in Leaveworth was the sentence Judge James C. Wilson in Federal Court imposed on Barnett C. Gunn, former postmaster at Levelland, Hockley county, and at one time a minister, when Gunn entered a plea of guilty to embezzlement of federal funds. Gunn admitted embezzlement $8,554.30 in postal funds.

Senator W. H. Blalock, of Lubbock made an appeal for mercy for the defendant, and when his wife, who remained in a nearby office while Gunn went before the Court to enter his plea, was informed of the sentence, she fainted and had to be removed to a doctor's office. Gunn is the father of two small children.

Chris Quante informed the Herald that he had a dandy sale recently. He also informed us that he was preparing to move to Arizona.

On the second line of the first verse of the poetry written by Rev. Morrison of Gomez, and printed in these columns last week, appeared a mistake. The word "passions" should have been "fashions."

There is No Such thing as a "Near Good" ABSTRACT of TITLE

An abstract is either complete, accurate, and final—or you might as well have no abstract at all, and simply trust to luck in buying property.

You don't have to know the ninety-nine points that show the title clear—you need to know the ONE POINT which indicates a flaw.

An abstracter who should take your money for showing you the things that are favorable, but leave out the ONE thing that indicates danger, might have the best and most innocent intentions in the world, but the RESULT TO YOU would be the same as though he robbed you of your property.

We do not furnish any "near good" abstracts. When we do your work, you will know the truth and the whole truth about the property for which you are going to pay your money, and which must have a clear title if you expect to get your money back again when you want it.

We are specialists. We do just one thing. We do it all the time.

BIGGEST FUN MAKER IN AMERICA COMING!

George Bingham (and his little sheep bell) are coming to Brownfield. He is the author of "Dog-Hill Paragrafs" and "Punkinville Paragrafs" that you laugh over every day in the daily papers. Sixty minutes of good clean fun. Your one chance to hear George Bingham in person.

Mr. Bingham is booked through his own representative, and appears in each town under the auspices of some worthy local organization, which gets a good percentage of the door receipts. He will appear at the High School Auditorium at 8 o'clock on the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 18th, 1924.

Below we give for the readers' benefit a couple of press notices.

"Just when we think we're going to set the world on fire, seems like nobody will give us a match," and with this quip, George Bingham, who writes the witty Punkinville Paragrafs for the Star-Telegram and a lot of other papers, started his audience in an up-roar, which gained and gained in proportion until the very structure of the First Presbyterian Church shook with hilarity. He spoke under the auspices of the Mothers' Council and Parent-Teachers. The humorist drew moral lessons about bad temper, hesitation, pessimism and many other thing. Everything was funny.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram, Oct. 9, 1924.

George Bingham, known thruout the United States for his Punkinville Paragrafs, entertained a packed house last night at the Community auditorium. He proved an able entertainer and kept his audience laughing with his quaint and very original sayings, and his constant change of subject.—Lubbock Avalanche, Sept. 25, 1924.

FIRE DESTROYS ONLY GIN AT CANYON

Canyon, Oct. 31.—Fire originating in the overflow pipe, practically destroyed the Canyon gin at 11 o'clock this morning.

A brisk southwest wind made it impossible to fight the blaze. The plant was well covered by insurance, it was reported.

The gin had been operated for only three weeks, having been erected during the summer, and the cotton crop had just begun to come in.

Turkeys are arriving in Brownfield very well now, according to Harry O'Harra, manager of the Brownfield Produce Co., and he is buying every one offered. He believes also that the price is as good right now as will be given later on.

MRS. F. E. WATERS LOSES FATHER IN DEATH

The community was saddened last Friday morning when the death of Samuel Wooton was learned. Mr. Wooton was one of the early settlers of Linn county and was loved by all. He had been in poor health for some time and was unable to get about without assistance.

One of the largest crowds ever attending a funeral in this community paid their last respects to this grand old man of Linn county when he was laid to rest Monday afternoon in the Goodrich cemetery. The large floral offering bespoke the high regard of this community held for Mr. Wooton.

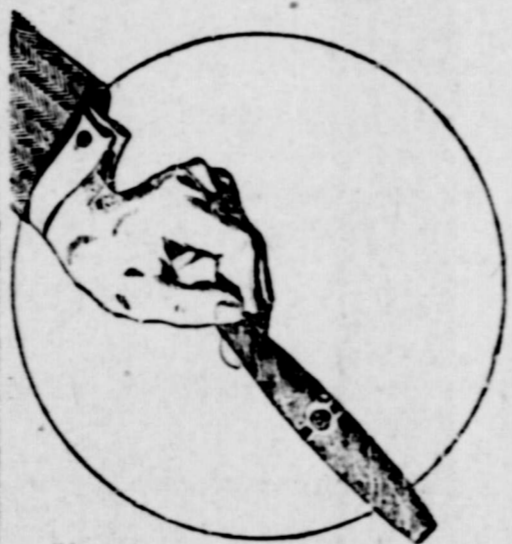

Samuel Wooton was born in Bates county, Missouri, October 14, 1839, and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sam Belong, near Parker, Oct. 18, 1924, at the age of 85 years and 14 days. When a small boy he moved to Kansas with his parents. He enlisted in the Union Army in 1861 from this state and served until the close of the war. He was united in marriage Oct. 9, 1864 with Elizabeth Rash, who preceded him in death seven years. To this union were born ten children, nine of whom are living: Ulysses, of Wakefield, Kans.; John of McPherson, Kans.; Mary Belong of Flora Shaffer, of Goodrich, Kans.; Olive, of Centerville, Kans.; Carrie Walters, of Brownfield, Texas; Herbert, of Phoenix, Ariz.; Maud Grant, of Pawhuska, Okla., and Ernest of Portland, Oregon. He is also survived by 35 grand-children and 12 great-grand-children. He was converted and united with the Baptist church in 1867 and lived a devoted christian life until death. He was also a member of the Odd Fellow lodge of Mound City, Kansas, who officiated at his funeral, which was held at Goodrich at 2 P.M. Monday, Oct. 20, conducted by Rev. Dixon of Centerville. Interment was made in the Goodrich cemetery.—From a Kansas paper.

SHERIFF'S SALE

State of Texas, County of Terry.—In the District Court of Terry County, Texas, Union Independent School District vs. J. E. Bryant, Defendant.

Whereas, by virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the District Court of Terry County, Texas, on a judgement rendered in said Court on the 30th day of July, A. D. 1924, in favor of said Union Independent School District, and against the said J. E. Bryant, No. 776 on the docket of said Court, I did on the 3rd day of November, A. D. 1924, at 10 o'clock A. M., levy upon the following described tracts and parcels of land situated in the County of Terry, State of Texas, and belonging to the said J. E. Bryant, to-wit:

200 acres of land out of Abstract 893, Block O, being a part of Survey No. 40.

And on the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1924, being the first Tuesday in said month, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M., on said day, at the court house door of said county, I will offer for sale and sell at public auction for cash, all of the right, title and interest of the said J. E. Bryant in and to said property to satisfy said judgement, interest and cost of suit.

TOKIO TALKS

By Reporter

Our school began this morning with a very good attendance. The faculty is as follows: Miss Evelyn Stallings, principal; Miss Pearl Moss, intermediate grades; Mrs. W. R. Patterson, primary grades. With this faculty and our seven trustees, we are looking forward to Tokio having one of the best schools she ever had. Now if all the parents will co-operate with them—which we know they will—our wish will come to pass.

Mr. W. H. Kelley is installing his filling station and garage. We also understand that later he will install a grist mill. Come on people and make a town of Tokio. Every little bit helps.

Mr. J. W. Gowen and family, of Garden City, formerly of this community, were here visiting Sunday. Come again.

Mrs. Whitford and children, of Wichita county, were visiting in our community the past week. Come again.

Rev. J. T. Pippin filled his regular appointment at the Johnson school house Sunday.

Up-to-date Tokio has to her credit something she has never had before, as the old saying goes. She has ginned 520 bales of cotton.

Our cotton buyer is still among us buying cotton every day, and paying market prices. See him before you decide to haul it 20 miles.

With two stores doing a thriving business; three filling stations; one garage; one blacksmith shop; one grist mill; a gin and next year a new brick school building; with the going up of four new dwellings will indeed make our fast growing town in Terry county. Watch our smoke.

NEGRO IS GIVEN FIFTY YEARS IN THE PEN

Lubbock, Nov. 7.—The first attempted assault by a negro on a white woman on the South Plains met with prompt and definite legal action. The assault was unsuccessfully attempted a week ago Friday.

The negro was lodged in jail after eluding the enraged farmers of the community Friday night, a special session of the grand jury called and organized, the case set, tried and the negro sentenced to 50 years in the penitentiary all in six days.

Willie Hall, 18, is the negro. The trial was conducted before Special Judge Parke N. Dalton, of Crosbyton, district attorney elect, sitting for Judge Clark M. Mullican. H. T. Kimbro was foreman of the grand jury.

The Herald family, accompanied by Mrs. J. F. Holden of Anaheim, Cal., went to Seagraves Saturday afternoon arriving there about dark to visit E. C. Roberts and wife, returning Sunday afternoon. We found that Seagraves had made wonderful progress in the fifteen months since we had seen the town, and with the big increase that is constantly going on in her trade territory, she is destined to grow even more rapidly in the near future.

ROAD NOTICE TO LAND OWNERS

In the matter of the petition of J. R. Hill and others for a public road in Yoakum county, Texas:

The State of Texas:—To Ella Hemphill, Homer Mayfield, I. E. Vennum, H. H. White and Mrs. Anne E. Hooker, non-resident land owners:

Take notice, that the undersigned jury, appointed by the Commissioner's Court of Yoakum County, Texas, to lay out, survey and assess damages resulting from the establishment of a public road 60 feet wide as petitioned for by J. R. Hill, Hugh Snodgrass and J. R. Trout and others, and beginning at the northwest corner of Section No. 15; thence south 2 miles to the northwest corner of Section No. 13; thence east one mile to the northeast corner of Section No. 13; thence south four miles to intersection with the highway, will on the 10th day of Dec., 1924, in discharge of our duty, meet upon the following premises, to which you have some claim or title, to-wit: Section No. 13 block D, and east half of Section 25, block K, and the west half of Section 262, Block D, and will then and there proceed to assess any damages to which you may be entitled on account of the laying out of said Public Road, and you are hereby requested to produce to us a statement in writing of the damages, if any claimed by you, and all evidence which you may desire to offer in relation to such damages, and do and perform such other acts as may be necessary and lawful in the premises.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this 10th day of November, A. D. 1924.

PIONEERS AIDED IN MAKING THIS NATION A POWER

What is the most vital period in American history?

There may be a division of opinion between the Revolution and the Civil War, the winning of the west, and so on, but certainly the last named has had a tremendous bearing upon the development of the American nation.

The hardy pioneers who wrestled from the earth the yellow metal, the sacrifices made by the homeseekers who braved the hardships and perils of the miles of prairie, mountain and river to gain the western promised land—these facts bulk large in the development of America.

Thus the story of "The Covered Wagon," and epic of the great wagon trains, which in '48 crossed the plains to Oregon from Westport Landing, Missouri.

This story, new to motion pictures, was made by James Cruze for Paramount with a wealth of detail, great spectacular effect and unlimited effort. It will be shown at the Pastime Theatre, Nov. 26 and 27th.

Most of the picture was filmed in Utah and Nevada. A buffalo hunt was staged on Antelope Island, in the Great Salt Lake, where one of the largest herds of bison in the world is located. The Baker Ranch, in Snake Valley, Nevada, was employed for most of the background—an untrodden wilderness for the most part.

Five hundred covered "prairie schooners" were built or purchased, and thousands of Indians and other

A PLEA FOR THE FARM LABOR UNION OF AMERICA

Written for the Terry County Herald
Through the columns of your splendid paper, I wish to call the attention of the membership of the Farm Labor Union to some important matters that should command their very serious attention. In the first place I wish to say that the Union is not what it should be in this county, nor what it was more than twelve months ago. In fact unless the members awake to their duty and rally to the cause, the Union will cease to be a factor in Terry county. I dare say there is not a business man in Brownfield, or a farmer in Terry county that does not know that the Union has been worth a great deal to the farmers of this county. Before the Union was organized, we all know that the farmers never got near the worth of their cotton as they have since. They had no protection in their grades, and the average farmer knew practically nothing about grading cotton. The street buyer had them at their mercy and you all know it to be a fact. I am not blaming the street buyer for making all they could out of the business of buying cotton, but they know and we all know that they had the farmer at their mercy. The blame lies with the farmers for not attending to their own business. Now what will be the result if you allow your organization to cease to function? And that is what it is going to do if the members do not wake up and lay aside all this foolishness that has been the prime cause of this disruption that is plainly seen.

It is not necessary to discuss the cause that has brought about this disintegration in our ranks. The thing we need to do as farmers and Union members, is to line up for business, and let all other issues and factions alone. It is my personal opinion that a great mistake was made in intermingling politics in any way as an organization. In the first place it was a direct violation of our constitution, and I predict that the Farm Labor Union of America will never again enter any combination of a political nature. The organization was launched as a strictly and exclusively business body. Had it adhered to that one purpose alone, we would not have been divided as we are now. We all know that it was the Ku Klux issue that caused all our wrangling and trouble. This issue should never have been injected into the Farm Labor Union. Doubtless there are very few in the county but what know that I do not endorse the Klan, but that should not keep me from being a true Union man. I know there are as good men in the Klan as there are out of it, and if they belong to the Union and make true Union men, I can take them by the hand and co-operate with them just as loyally as if they did not belong to it. It is none of my business what a man belongs to. This is a free country and all men should act on their best judgement and honest convictions. Both Klan and Anti-Klan are, in my humble judgement, responsible for all this friction. One cannot lay all the blame on the other. The thing we should do is to lay aside all this turmoil and all "burry the hatchet" and put our shoulders to the wheel and work in harmony for the upbuilding of all classes in Terry county. We are all dependent, one on the other and without a true spirit of co-operation none of us will succeed as we should. I want to appeal to every Union man in Terry county to seriously think this matter over, go back to your local and re-instate and all work in harmony. Unless you do this you are going to see the Union die in Terry county, and then the speculators will take you to such a skinning as you never had before, and you all know it. Is it good common sense to allow this to happen? Set a determination that you are going to loyally abide by a majority, and when the majority has spoken, whether it suits you or not, stand by the same. Stand loyally by your officials. They make mistakes, but could you do better if you were in their place? You have a grader Salesman who I know is efficient and knows cotton, and he is doing all in his power to protect the membership. Yet I see so-called Union men selling their cotton on the streets, not giving your man an opportunity to help you. Remember, too, that you solemnly pledged yourself that you would not do that. To all that are doing that way I want to appeal to your conscience. How can you do it? The farmers that have not joined the Union in the county are the recipients of far better prices for their cotton than they could have gotten had there been no Union in the county. Don't you feel like it is your duty, as a citizen and as a brother farmer, to join hands with those that are responsible for your having gotten these advantages? Is it fair to stand by and see a small number work and tug and push the load to the top of the hill, and then jump on and ride down the hill? It does seem to me that every business man in Brownfield would boost the Union and try to encourage farmers to join, for when farmers prosper all classes of business will prosper. The more the farmer can realize for their products, the more they will have to pay their debts and spend the business men.

In our State Agency only last week, we sold 1300 tons of cotton seed for $37.50 per ton F.O.B. the shipping point. That was about 7.50 per ton better than the average gin price over the state. Had those farmers who owned those seed all been doing like the membership in Terry county, they would have lost $11,250 on this little deal alone. That would have gone to the speculator instead, of into the pockets of the farmers where it rightfully belongs. In conclusion I plead with you to think seriously over these matters and act as your conscience directs. If you will do this I know what the result will be.

Your for co-operation,
J. M. Green, Sec. State Ex. Committee Farm Labor Union of Ter.
