BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, MARCH 5, 1926

NUMBER 28

Chamber of Commerce CURRENTS By the Secretary

The Chamber of Commerce entered the new year on March 1st with offices in the Alexander building, room 9, with the first all-time Secretary ever employed. It is the desire of the secretary to make 1926 the outstanding year in achievement of results beneficial to Brownfield and Terry county. The Board of Directors are actively participating and the citizenship in general is taking a lively interest.

Efforts will be especially directed toward persuading Brownfield people to trade in Brownfield and Terry county people to trade in Terry county.

Industries of different kinds will be invited to locate in Brownfield and statistics will be produced to show them the advisability in doing so, however, no person or firm whose business is already adequately represented will be encouraged to locate. Community interest and friendly relations between town and county will be fostered and delegations, accompanied by our band will visit every school district in the county within the next few months for the purpose of mutual entertainment and the discussing matters of vital interest to all of us and further cementing the friendship that has heretofore existed between Brownfield and its trade territory.

Publicity for the town and territory will play no small part in the year's work and arrangements are being made with newspapers in all parts of our state to carry news of general interest to those who may have their eyes on the South Plains of West Texas. The secretary is expecting to be a very busy man and would appreciate it very much if any citizen would furnish him with news that could be worked up for publicity, as it is likely that he will not hear of it otherwise.

Suggestions and criticisms are welcomed if made to him personally and an effort will be made to please.

The Board of Directors have virtually decided that Terry County will have a fair and that exhibits will be entered at State and District fairs, but in order to be in the winning class the score card must be followed and committees over the county will be advised as to variety of crops to be planted in order that necessary seed may be secured.

Monthly luncheons will be staged and efforts will be made to make them both hours of pleasure and profit. Funds will not be used to pay for luncheons, but each individual will pay for their own plates.

BROWNFIELD WINS 11-8

Coach Stewart's Brownfield Ward school boys won a hotly contested ball game from Johnson Friday. The Johnson quintet held the advantage during the earlier part of the game but the Brownfield boys came back and tied the count at six-all.

In the short period necessary to decide the issue the Brownfield boys swept down the field with a short pass offense that gave them a pair of field goals, and victory.

The line-up:

Brownfield Johnson
Huckaby..... ForwardWheatly
H. A. Castleberry ..Forward ..Gore
Chambliss..... CenterLee
Holmes.....Guard..... Moss
Sears..... Guard..... Rowden
Substitutes: For Johnson, none.
For Brownfield; Swan for Chambliss;
M. Castleberry for Holmes.

PINK BOLL WORM SCARE FAILED TO MATERIALIZE

Uneasy lay the heads of Terry county farmers, not to mention merchants and professional men all last week while the Federal and State inspectors were giving Terry county the once-over in search of pink bollworms. Reliable citizens of the city were informed last Saturday, however, that none were found.

It seems that someone saw the inspectors with the specimens they brought here and rumor soon spread that they were found in Terry county and that a bunch of South Plains counties were to be quarantined and forbidden to raise cotton.

So you can now go on with your plans but be sure those plans include all the feed you need and some to spare.

Whirl of March Winds

SECRETARY SHELTON A BUSY MAN THESE DAYS

About the busiest man in Brownfield these days is Secretary J. E. Shelton, of the Chamber of Commerce and Retail Merchants' Association. He went on duty Monday morning as a full time employee of these two organizations, taking office No. 6 in the Alexander Building, and between getting his office in shape, a telephone installed, and the run of the business, he has been almost too busy to be interviewed.

However, he graciously consented to have a few words with a reporter of the Herald one day this week in which he outlined what he intends to do to get the office in shape, to answer all outside calls for information immediately and as accurately as possible. But of course this will take time as he must bring his card index files up to date, and this must be done from jump go. But we believe Shelton is the man that will stay on the job until it is in prime shape. It is said that he had the county school business in the best shape that it has been in for years when he quit there, and no trouble to answer any question right off the reel, despite the fact that he was crowded for room and the other conveniences of the old court-house.

Besides the duties he has to perform in bringing a new office up-to-date, there are scores of other duties he will have to perform, such as answering correspondence, of writing articles for the dailies of improvements and other things of interest in Brownfield and Terry county.

To our notion Brownfield and Terry county are in for the greatest amount of publicity it has ever had at a minimum cost.

MAIDS AND MATRONS TO STAGE STYLE SHOW AT RIALTO MAR. 11

To obtain money for the purpose of buying pipe and providing a means for watering the trees to be set out on the school grounds, the Maids and Matrons Club have arranged with the managers of the Rialto theatre for a benefit Style show to be staged Thursday night, March 11th, at the Rialto theatre in conjunction with a special picture starring Reginald Denny in "What happened to Jones."

The picture billed for that night is said to be an exceptionally good production and the Style show promises to be one of the most amusing displays of fashionable women's clothing on models composed of about 20 business men of our city.

The Maids and Matrons are asking your patronage that night not exactly on a charitable basis but guaranteeing you two hours of the snappiest amusement.

Mosbach, Baden.—Grover Bergdoll, American draft evader, is held on a charge of immorality.

PUTTING OUT TREES ON THE SCHOOL GROUND

The local American Legion's promise to decorate the public school grounds of Brownfield with some nice forest trees, is fast taking shape, for a furrow has been plowed around the two blocks and a bunch of the school boys dug holes last Saturday for the trees. This week some time, Mr. Jno. King, with a crew of experienced hands, will take up the trees out of his nursery and transplant them to their permanent places around the grounds.

To our notion this is one of the greatest civic moves that has ever been inaugurated here, and we believe when others see the beauty and usefulness that the trees give the school grounds, and as a consequence more trees will adorn the private property of the city.

The city water mains lay next to the school property, and those in charge should see to it that these trees lack no water especially during the first season while they are establishing themselves, or all this good work will be wasted.

No one raised in the east are not happier by having the association of giant oaks and hickory trees as his companions and shades during the period of his school days to play and linger under, and just because we are raising our children in a natural prairie country, is no reason we should deny them the pleasure of trees, for they are easily produced here.

CREAM OF BROWNFIELD BEAUTIES ON DISPLAY

Of course all editors are ready to claim that they have the prettiest bunch of girls in the world, but Brownfield can deliver the goods. In fact it will compete with all comers, population considered. It not only has the prettiest bunch of girls, but the sweetest and best girls in the world, and all you have to do to agree with us is to take a look at the actual photographs made by Dwight, local photographer, on display in the windows of the Cook store. Seeing is believing. The Brownfield girls are modest enough to suit anyone, yet they are not wall flowers by any means. They have enough life and pep about them to keep the old town from taking the mulligrubs during dry times. They are witty and intelligent with it.

Papy John Powell also used one of their windows to display the two-headed calf belonging to the Texas Tech College. Not that we wish to compare a two headed calf with our girls, but both together—the girl's pictures and the two-headed calf attracted quite a lot of our people the last few days, but we found that those of the male persuasion, lingered much longer at the one where the pictures held out.

BROWNFIELD TO RECEIVE CAR OF CRACKERS

J. E. Michie, local groceryman, called on the Herald one day last week to have some job printing done and incidentally informed us that a solid car load of crackers were being sold to Brownfield for distribution among the merchants, from an Oklahoma City biscuit concern. The car will contain 10,000 pounds of crackers.

Mr. Michie has been in the grocery business most of his life in several states, and he informed us that more crackers were eaten here than any place he ever saw, population considered, and when we wondered how long they would last he informed us that they would still be fresh and crisp when the last ones were sold.

Well, we have to admit that we are dearly love to hear them crush beneath our powerful molars. We not only like the noise but the taste is very, very satisfactory. Cracker making has developed to where they are real epicurian delicacies. The old time bulk cracker that the groceryman fished out of a barrel under the counter with its old and musty taste, has given way to the individual hermetically sealed packages that are fresh and crisp.

T. O. HOOKER ASKS VOTES FOR ASSESSORS OFFICE

I herewith submit my announcement for the nomination of the office of Tax-Assessor, in the coming Democratic primary.

I have been in this county for several years, and my four years in the Commissioners Court, I believe, has acquainted me with the values of property; the affairs of the county and with the duties of this office, efficiently, and if elected I assure you I will try to fill the office, with all fairness both to the county and the taxpayers.

While I expect to meet most of you personally before the primary, I want to assure of my appreciation in advance of your support.

Respectfully,
T. O. Hooker.

CHANGE IN POST OFFICE AT MEADOW

A change in the Post office was effected here this week. Harvey Blackstone being appointed acting Postmaster to succeed J. L. Hickey who will check the office over the latter part of the week. The office will remain in the present location indefinitely.

Mr. Hickey contemplates moving to his farm in New Mexico in a few days he stated.

He and his family have been connected with the postoffice about two years and have made many friends during their stay here, who regret to see them leave Meadow.—Meadow Review.

FOURTH LYCEUM NUMBER ENJOYED BY MANY

The large auditorium at the grade school building was comfortably filled Monday night to enjoy the fourth number of the Lyceum course, given by Mr. John Qualen and his sister Miss Evelyn Green. There will only be one more number, so keep a watchout for announcement of it in these columns.

This young man and young lady are truly artists to the hearts desire, and not only rendered some very pleasing music, but the program was intermixed with some real comedy skits, reading, whistling, etc., by Mr. Qualen Mr. Qualen is also one of the best character delineators that ever visited this city.

However, the audience was somewhat divided as to whether this was the best number of the course, many contending the preceding number was better. However, both were good and well worth the money.

130 CALVES SOLD AT $45 A HEAD AT MIDLAND

Midland, Texas, February 26.—Geo. Ratliff, breeder of grade cattle, sold 130 head of calves at $45 a head. This is the top price for calves at Midland this year or at any time since 1917. Fred Cowden sold 150 head of coming yearlings steers at $45 a head. Cows in some instances are bringing $40 a head whereas last year they were considered high at $25 even when with calves.

A. L. BURNETT ASKS FOR OFFICE OF COUNTY JUDGE

To the Voters of Terry county:
Ladies and Gentlemen;

In making public announcement of my candidacy for the office of County Judge and Ex-Officio Superintendent of Public Instruction, I do so with a deep feeling of the responsibilities which the office carries with it.

If elected it shall be my purpose and desire to serve to the utmost of my ability and that both economically and efficiently.

I shall endeavor to see every voter personally before the July Primary, and will appreciate highly, not only your vote, but your good will and influence as well.

Very respectfully,
A. L. Burnett.

WINN ASKS VOTERS FOR ASSESSORS OFFICE

I am announcing through the columns of the Terry County Herald my candidacy for the office of Tax-Assessor of Terry County, Texas.

In doing so I am cognizant of the responsibilities and qualifications that it takes to fill this position. I have tried, in a measure, to qualify myself for the larger responsibilities that men are made of. I am a graduate of an affiliated High school coupled with two years advance study in a first class College. Have had quite a bit of experience as a bookkeeper, as well as some experience as a Tax-Assessor and general business.

What education that I have come through my own efforts, having worked my own way with nothing to start on except a will to do, and a strong constitution.

Realizing that the position to which I aspire is a trust, I shall treat it as such if I am elected, doing the very best which my training has fitted me, to make you a Tax-Assessor, that after I am out and gone my work will show system and accuracy.

Trusting that I may be favored with a deliberate consideration for this position, and should you see fit to favor me with your vote, I here promise that you shall never have cause for regret.

Respectfully,
S. H. Winn, Jr.

OBITUARY

James Brame King son of Dr. Madison and Mary F. King was born Dec. 28, 1846 at Brame, Miss. In March 1862 he joined Co. E., 41st Miss. Regt. and remain with that company until the reorganization of Gen. Bragg's army when he was discharged, being under age. In September his Grandfather gave him a horse and saddle and he joined Co. K., 1st Miss. Cavalry. He was in constant action until the end of the war, taking part in major engagements around Corinth, Vicksburg, Atlanta and Macon, serving under Generals Johnson, Armstrong and Forrest.

He married Miss A. Holley of Braime Mississippi and lived there until 1890 when he moved his family to Sherman, Texas. He made his home in Sherman until his wife's death in 1912. Since then he has lived alternately with his daughter, Miss Nancy King in California and his son, Jno. B. King in Brownfield.

He has been in ill health all winter and was not able to withstand the final attack of bronchitis and pneumonia and passed away at the home of his son, Feb. 27, 1926, at 1:30 a. m., being 79 years old at the time of his death. The remains were carried to Sherman, Texas, accompanied by his son, Jno. B. King, where funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 3:30 in the Presbyterian church in which he still held his church membership, by Dr. Wharton, his old pastor.

He was laid to rest by the side of his wife in the cemetery at Sherman. He is survived by three sons, H. M. King, of Oklahoma City; Jno. B. King, of this city and C. B. King, of Waco, Texas; and by one daughter, Miss Nancy King of Santa Barbara, California.

During his residence here Mr. King has made many friends, all of whom deeply sympathize with the family in their bereavement.

INCREASE IN PINK BOLL WORM SERIOUS PROBLEM

Measures to control the bollworm may lead to making the Pecos Valley, and Rio Grande Valley, a non-cotton zone according to R. E. McDonald, chief entomologist of the State Department of Agriculture, who recently met with the national Horticulture Board at Washington, D. C.

Following investigation of this territory during 1925 the results showed a surprising increase in the pink boll worm.

Several plans for controlling this menace were discussed and a plan to place a non-cotton-growing zone from five miles east of the Rio-Grande to the western limit of dry farming, which would include of from 300 to 500 miles in width, was under consideration. A second plan would create a non-cotton-zone reaching from the Pecos valley to the western limit of the Texas cotton belt.

The plan that was finally agreed on for the present was to make regular zones east of the Pecos River, extending into the cotton area. Greater restrictions of handling seed, and lint are to be put into effect.

The following article from the Dallas News, edited by Victor B. Schofield, Agricultural Editor, explains the results of the meeting, and the present situation.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 21.—Some new and rather astounding facts about the habits of the pink bollworm in Texas have come to light during the last few months all of which may make new control measures necessary, in the opinion of R. E. McDonald, chief entomologist of the State Department of Agriculture.

"Last year was one of considerable activity on the part of the pink bollworm," said Mr. McDonald, who recently came back from an extended trip of investigation in the lower El Paso Valley and in the "Big Bend" section of Brewster and Presidio counties of Southwest Texas. "We

PANHANDLE OIL FIELDS ARE GROWING

Unless you visit the Panhandle oil field and see it with your own eyes you can hardly appreciate the big development now going on.

The main development is out in the open pastures, where the cattlemen have followed their herds for these many years without the least thought that some day the bowels of the earth over which their lowing herds roamed, would be giving up millions of barrels of liquid gold and people from the four corners of these United States would be here fighting for a place in millionaire row.

Going out north from Panhandle, you come first to the wells on the Burnett ranch, where oil derricks blackened with spouting oil, greet you in numbers amounting to some forty or fifty with new derricks indicating continuous development. Then on over into Hutchinson county you find many wells already in and dozens of new derricks, also indicating continuous development, and it is well known that real development of the field has just started.

The daily production of the field now runs above six thousand barrels and experienced oil men are predicting that the field will be producing more than one-hundred thousand barrels daily before the end of next year. The proven territory is the largest in area, perhaps, of any oil field in the world, no gushers have yet been brought in and the oil fraternity is hoping that none will be, except those who are in the game purely for speculative purposes. A steady flow of production is said to be the safest for the trade, in that the field lasts so much longer and the production can be better averaged.—Panhandle Herald.

Lynn, Mass.—Contending that six days work with lipstick, powder puff and rouge should be sufficient to beautify the female population, Mayor Bauer ordered policemen to close beauty shops on Sundays.

Minneapolis, Minn.—Much interest was caused by the appearance of red-tinted snow, which covered the ground for almost an inch. It was suggested that the color was caused by minute particles of volcanic dust but investigators have concluded that it was dust picked up by high winds and left in the air until driven down by the snow.

Baltimore, Md.—An army of 1,000 housewives is being recruited by the Housewives League for a march on Washington to protest against bread trusts, unstandardized loaves and increased prices.

The New Zealand Educational Institute, which represents the teaching profession of the Dominion, in a recent issue of its official paper "National Education," contained an editorial making a declaration in favor of prohibition, according to Vanguard.

found a serious increase in infestation in Brewster and Presidio counties although the fields had been well cleaned in the fall of 1924. Also, we found considerable increase along the upper Rio Grande in the El Paso Valley and the same throughout the Pecos Valley region. It may be that the heavier rain fall of the summer and fall had something to do with this increase, at least we were unprepared for it, when we had naturally expected a large decrease."

NEW NEWS ALMANAC GREAT VOLUME

Many new features are included in the 1926 volume of The Texas Almanac and State Industrial Guide, published by the Dallas Morning News, which has just come from the press. It is a more compact volume than the edition of 1925. The more basic information is condensed and brought up to date and there is in addition more than 250 pages of entirely new matter.

One of the features of the Texas Almanac this year is the full text of the Texas Constitution with all amended sections indicated by black-face type, and with footnotes giving dates of all amendments and explaining all charges that have been made since the adoption of the present Constitution. Due to the fact that amendments to the State Constitution are made in the body of the text instead of being amended, as in the case of the United States Constitution is generally published in such a way that amendments are not distinguishable and the new almanac also carries the full text of the United States Constitution.

Another feature of the Almanac is a section devoted to brief articles on the 576 principal cities and towns of Texas and including all places listed by the United States census or having as many as forty listed business houses in the 1925 lists of the chief commercial rating concerns. Chapters on agriculture, minerals, education, livestock, highways, banking, insurance, State finances, etc., are fully revised and brought up to date. There is a complete list of all state officials, boards and commissions, giving names of office holders, salaries, lengths of terms, manner of selection for office and date of founding of office. There are also lists of all county officials and the Mayors of more than 400 of the principal cities and towns of the State.

Other interesting features include a list of principal Texas organizations, with names and addresses of presidents and secretaries, 1926 political calendar, political radio stations, origins of names of Texas cities and towns, sport records, state game laws, Texas vital statistics, foreign trade, utilities, the results of the new agricultural census, complete calendar with supplementary matter for the year 1926, recommendations of the Educational Survey Commission, revised Postoffice guide, weather statistics and numerous other matters. A revised map of Texas in colors is folded under the back cover.

Baird—Baird's new 12,000 egg mammoth type incubator was received today and construction of a building for the machine is under way. A company with a capital stock of $2,500 has been organized and will be incorporated. The stockholders in this company are from all parts of the country, insuring full corporation of every farmer in the country.

Midland—A carload of hogs will be shipped into Midland county and sold to the farmers at absolute plus the expense of importing and feeding the swine until they are sold. Mr. E. A. Seiler, County Agent, has the details of this in hand for Midland County and the hogs are being shipped in by the Midland Chamber of Commerce and the Midland National Bank and the First National Bank. These high-grade gilts are being shipped from Sioux City, Iowa as a result of the joint hog-importing campaign of the Fort Worth Stock Yards Company and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Albany—Deep test drilled by Rosser and Pendleton on the Cook ranch, northwest of Albany, has unexpectedly turned into a shallow producer of huge proportions. Oil was struck at 1242 feet and reliable reports from the well are that it is making 1,000 barrels.

Canyon—The annual meeting and banquet for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society recently held in this city was the most successful ever held. People were in attendance from Amarillo, Lubbock, Miami, Canadian, Pampa, Claude, Memphis, Romero, and Tulia. Judge O. H. Nelson of Romero, Hartley county, was elected president. The visitors viewed with much interest the exhibits now owned by the society, same being valued at $12,000.

BOUNTEOUS PROSPERITY DUE TO DIVERSIFICATION

Brownfield and its trade territory seem to be in fine condition, considering the tremendous damage that the unprecedented early freeze did to the crops. Brownfield is fortunate in having a country surrounding it that is particularly adapted to diversified farming. It would be hard to find a county that raises more feed and more varieties than does Terry County, it is a significant fact that today there is not hardly a farmer in Terry County but what has plenty of feed to produce the 1926 crop and could spare some to sell. It will be recalled that when Lubbock called on many of her sister cities to assist her in the celebration of the Texas Tech location that Brownfield responded by sending to Lubbock 10,000 roasting ears of corn, taking them from K. W. Howell's corn patch which was the first one the committee came to adjoining town, and Mr. Howell had plenty left. Terry county is a poultry and dairying county as well. This year's turkey crop brought much more to shippers, the turkeys being billed direct to Chicago and the cars of chickens that were loaded this week, were sent to New York City. One turkey check of this season's raising amounted to over $600, the daily cream checks that are distributed among Terry county farmers trading at Brownfield assist materially in enhancing the amount of cash in circulation. There are several farmers who live in and near Brownfield who can truthfully state that they never give a check to the groceryman, but that the produce and dairy products pay their bills and leave them a credit plus.

The land values in Terry county have not become so inflated that the price is prohibitive to home seekers and the farmers have been fortunate in securing tracts of land sufficiently large to enable them to not only farm but to have a few head of cows and stock and plenty of room to raise turkeys and poultry which are valuable assets in the farming industry. These are some of the reasons why Brownfield merchants and the farmers of the adjacent territory have no apprehension when the production of cotton is not up to anticipation or the price is cut short on the same for it is the other commodities that carry them forward. The Brownfield banks reflect a healthy condition of the town and territory, having approximately $700,000 in deposits and about $300,000 worth of loans.

Brownfield is looking forward to a prosperous year and one filled with growth. The building program that is now on runs almost $200,000, while it is remembered that a modern two-story 40-room brick hotel is to be built in the early part of 1926, some three other brick buildings are now being constructed and substantial residences are under construction in the town.

The S. H. Windham ranch south of Brownfield will be segregated into choice farms and placed on the market and with the highways in every direction from Brownfield being prepared and put in good shape it leaves a good outlook for the town.—West Texas Today.

GAINES COUNTY AGENT PARR TO TAKE UP WORK

The Signal is glad to report to its readers the arrival of Mr. Knox Parr from Hill County.

Mr. Parr is a most pleasant gentleman to for the acquaintance of, and at the rate he was 'wabbling mits' with Seagraves' citizens here Tuesday, it will be no great while until he becomes acquainted with the whole of the population in Gaines County.

The new county agent will make his home in Seminole and will have a suit of offices in the courthouse.

Mr. Parr requested the Signal to announce to the farmers that he stands ready and willing to help them at any time and asks that you call on him. He will likely spend a greater portion of his time in this end of the county since a majority of the farmers reside on the north side.

The Signal is greatly pleased that Gaines county has employed an agent and soon we may expect to see results from his work.—Seagraves Signal.

Miss Anna Lois Easley, County Health Nurse, returned last Friday from Dublin, Texas, where she was called to attend the funeral of her father. She is on the job again, and will soon have the routine of her duties well in hand.

Mrs. E. A. Morgan and family, accompanied by Miss Dollie Miller, of Plainview, are here visiting in the home of Mrs. Morgan's sister, Mrs. Stricklin. The Morgans have recently moved from Sudan to Panhandle where Mr. Morgan is managing a lumber yard.

Many Brownfield and Terry county citizens are attending district Court at Tahoka this week, being witnesses for either state or defense in the Crowley case. Some, however, went merely to hear the case tried.

UNATTRACTIVE AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS

In an Associated Press dispatch from Moscow under date of Feb. 5th, Leon Trotsky, in a speech comparing Russian and American newspapers, is quoted as saying to an audience of Russian workers:

"It is scarcely possible to find anything less attractive than the contents of the average American newspapers. But American have the faculty of giving their readers just what they desire."

Yes, and they will continue to do so, and also give the American their best editorial opinion, on matters which would not please the Bolshevik leader. Naturally American newspapers are unattractive to Mr. Trotsky, for he has no power to muzzle them and control their content as he has in Russia.

America is the nation it is today because it has 20,000 publications for 110,000,000 people and everybody can read. Bolshevik dictators cannot exist in such a nation because there is no chance to fool millions of uninformed persons.

The quickest way to bring permanent stability in Russia, would be to ship in a lot of American printing presses and American editors and let them discuss conditions as they found them, unhampered by the crushing hand of Bolshevik officialism.

Naturally, those would be unattractive papers to Mr. Trotsky because every one that was printed would shorten the reign of terror, and hasten the day of peace, plenty and education in Russia.

Let America be thankful that it has thousands of newspapers that are extremely unattractive to Mr. Trotsky and his supporters.—The Manufacturer.

SOME STATE

A Texan with a flair for figures, says a pamphlet published by the Manufacturers' Record, recently outlined the bigness of his state in the following:

"Unless your front gate is eighteen miles from your front door, you do not belong to society as it is constituted in Texas. One Texan's gate is 150 miles from his front door, and he is thinking of moving his house back so that he will not be annoyed by passing automobiles and peddlers."

"Other Texas landlords have whole mountain ranges and rivers on their ranches. One Texan has forty miles of navigable rivers on his farm. If the proportion of cultivated land in Texas were the same as in Illinois, the value of Texas crops would equal that of forty seven other states."

"Texas has enough land to supply every man, woman and child in the world with a tract five feet by twenty and have enough left over for the armies of the world to march around the border five abreast."

"If all the Texas steers were one big steer, he would stand with his front feet in the Gulf of Mexico, one hind foot in the Hudson Bay and the other in the Arctic Ocean, and with his tail brush the mist from the Aurora Borealis. Some State!"

PIONEER TEXAS EDITOR RETIRES

Amarillo, Feb. 27.—The Panhandle's oldest editor and probably the oldest active newspaper man in Texas will retire March 1st. Joe M. Smith, Sr., owner of the Pampa News, Saturday announced the sale of that publication to David M. Warren, Dr. J. E. Nunn and J. L. Nunn of Amarillo.

Smith will be 79 years old next July. He is a native of Indiana and came to Texas shortly after the civil war and lived at Bonham for 25 years where he ran a job printing shop and drug store.

The Nunn's, who recently sold the Amarillo News bought the Panhandle Herald from Lee Satterwhite last week. They also are interested in the Lubbock Journal.

DAVIDSON STARTS RACE MARCH THIRTEENTH

Corsicana, Feb. 27.—Lynch Davidson of Houston, will officially open his campaign for governor at Palestine Saturday, March 13, it was announced here Saturday by A. A. Allison, state campaign manager.

Several places had extended invitations for the opening speech of the Davidson campaign to be made there but Palestine has been decided upon because of the fact that Davidson was particularly instrumental in bringing the Southern Pacific Railroad lines through that town and in rehabilitating the state railroad, Allison stated.

Palestine plans to have a gala day demonstration. The opening speech will be made in the afternoon. Following that an extensive campaign will be carried on throughout the entire state, under Allison's direction.

RECIPE FOR AN OMLET

"One morning last week my wife asked me to copy the radio menu from a Detroit broadcasting station," writes McKinley H. Sauer of Middleton, Ohio, according to a current radio publication. "I did my best. It seems another station was cutting in with the morning exercises. Anyway here is my menu:

"Hands on hips. Place one cup of flour on shoulders. Raise knee, depress toes and wash thoroughly in one cup of milk. In four counts raise the lower left foot and mash two hard boiled eggs through a sieve; repeat six to ten times. Inhale one-half teaspoon of salt, one level teaspoonful of baking powder and one cup of flour, then breathing naturally, exhale and sit."

"Attention! Jump to a squatting position, bend white of egg backward and forward in cadence of quick steps. Twist sideward, right or left as far as possible; bring fists together firmly and beat egg slowly and rhythmically. Arms forward overhead. Raise ed eggs from the flour and in four counts make a stiff drop dough which is flexed at the waist, thigh flexed. Lay flat on the floor and roll marbles the size of a walnut. Hop to straddle into boiling salt water, but do not boil at a gallop. After ten minutes remove and wipe with rough towels. Breathe naturally, dress in warm flannels and serve with fish soup."

W. A. Bynum, one of the managers of the Rialto Theatre, is in the grips of flu but is reported better.

Judge T. L. Price of Post candidate for District Attorney, was in our city Monday, and while here paid the Herald a short call. He is greatly encouraged over his race for District attorney.

Reports from Lubbock Monday were to the effect that Mrs. L. L. Cobb had taken a turn for the better, and was expected to recover.

A valve burst at the city water plant Wednesday, and the city was without water in its mains until the repair was made.

Mrs. H. G. Lees and children of Big Spring are here the guest of her parents, Col. and Mrs. W. H. Dallas. The Lees sold their place near Dexter, N. M., and moved back to Big Spring about the first of this year.

G. R. Scott, of Lubbock, circulation manager of the Morning Avalanche, was down Monday and informed us that he had made arrangements with A. Moses & Son of O'Donnell, to deliver the Avalanche in Brownfield each morning.

The editor had the opportunity last Sunday night to hear for the first time, Rev. J. G. Thomas, new pastor of the Methodist church, there being no services at our church, and was given a splendid sermon. We like to get out every once in a while and see how the other fellow puts over his sermon. Rev. Thomas, we found, is quite an orator, and in moments when he is stressing a great point, he approaches the dramatic. We are going to hear him again as often as possible.

Dave Warren, for a number of years editor of the Amarillo Daily News, has resigned, and accepted a position with the Panhandle Herald. Editor Warren was considered one of the best editorialists in West Texas.

The flu epidemic is bothering both the people and health authorities and in many Texas cities, being especially severe in Dallas and Amarillo. All cities and towns, not to mention the country districts, but are having their full share of the disease in Terry county, but physicians say the situation is not alarming, few if any taking the disease who had a real case of it in 1918-19.

The Lamesa papers are carrying a story in serial form, written by a Lamesa citizen, Edgar Brash, who was lost in the New Mexico mountains during a severe snow storm and mercury hanging below zero. The story reads more like fiction than the truth, although it is a true story.

The G. O. P. is going to hold primaries in many Texas counties this year, according to newspaper dispatches, the nearest to Terry county will probably be Deaf Smith county. If they aim to contest the offices in Terry county, we have not heard it mentioned. In fact, we do not believe any Terry county Republican is willing to waste his time and money trying to overcome a crushing Democratic majority in this county. However, one can never tell; Republicans are game we think, to even try to get a Texas office.

Texas is still a young state as compared with many of those east of the Mississippi River, yet it has been enjoying the even tenor of its way and freedom for the past ninety years and has enjoyed statehood for nearly 82 years, with exception of a few years during Civil war times. There probably is not another state, with the exception of Oklahoma and Kansas that has made such wonderful progress in the same length of time as Texas. Texas, however, as a country, has been known a long time, and has existing under many flags before becoming a part of America. Its latest birthday was Tuesday of this week.

Portions of Central America and the northern states of Mexico now seem to be vying with Paris in making it easy for wealthy Americans seeking divorce to obtain one, and ready for wife or hubby No. 2, 3, 4, or five as the case may be. A residence of one month is now required in these states to get a separation from friend, wife or husband. The Herald believes the United States Government should take some steps to check this easy annulment route by erecting something besides tariff walls. A divorce obtained in these countries or states should not be recognized in the United States and divorces obtained in them should be considered a bar to their re-entrance in the States. Such a law would make people think at least twice before undertaking a divorce by this route.

People of the western section of Texas, especially those who were reared in this section often wonder why New York and Chicago people have such a moral dread of coming among us, apparently believing the cowboy to be the worst of bandits and cutthroats. As a matter of fact, what few cowboys that are left now, are just like those who existed when nothing else but buffalo roamed the wide expanses—the biggest hearted, the most sympathetic, the most charitable people on earth. On the other hand the meanest, lowest-down people on earth live in the very cities in which these people live. Even now Chicago is calling for Federal aid in suppressing gangsters, who seem to be upheld by Chicago officials. But those of us who were reared east of the Mississippi, understand. The writer can remember hearing people of our native state discuss cowboys when we was a mere lad, and from what we could gather from such conversations, which were talked with all seriousness, a cowboy was a man, or rather a brute who killed men, women and children on sight just to see them wilter and die in their own blood. Such willful, unmitigated falsehoods should have long since run their course, but it seems that otherwise intelligent people still believe them.

Jno. S. Powell, local taxidermist, called on us Tuesday afternoon and delivered a huge eagle he had mounted for the Herald office. To say the editor and force were pleased, is but expressing it mildly. He also informed us that a two-headed calf, mounted for the Texas Tech College, would be delivered in a few days.

Every day or two we see a farmer leaving our grain stores with a small bag of feed, and in nearly every instance it proves to be "baby chick" feed or "starter." Judging by this and conversations with farmers and their wives, old Terry is going to have a bunch of juicy fryers in a few months. In fact the Herald family devoured two fine spring fryers Sunday, and they tasted just as good as they did in 1925.

Prof. A. L. Foster, principal of the Wood E. Johnson, former sheriff of Terry county, was in one day recently after some legal blanks, and informed the Herald that he was busy these days putting down wells for his new neighbors. Wood said a great deal of new farms were going in, in his community.

Major H. B. Palmer, Scout master, accompanied by J. E. Fitch, regional director of the 9th Boy Scout District, were in our city last Wednesday and addressed a body of our boys.
We understand that Rev. J. G. Thomas will likely take up the scout work here, and should be encouraged in every way possible.

Dr. T. L. Treadaway informed us recently that while returning from a call during the night, he came very near going into a ditch, as he dropped off to sleep. He had been up several nights in succession.

The Gates Dry Goods Co., of Slaton,

Most orators, speaking about water-power, talk as if there is no cost to nature's gifts, but if they ever try to harness a river they will learn the difference.

LITTLEFIELD MAPS DIERSIFICATION PROGRAM

Littlefield, Feb. 25.—At a recent meeting of the officers and directors of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce, a farm diversification program was mapped out which is to be sponsored by this body. This program is to be introduced to the farmers in the Littlefield trade territory by means of a series of farmer's meetings which are to be held in various communities by the local chamber.

It is a desire of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce to bring about a crop rotation and diversification plan that will tend to make farming in the territory an all-year-around occupation instead of it realizing a profit during only one season of the year.

LOCAL BARBER LOSES BROTHER IN OKLAHOMA

Dee Elliott received a telegram last Thursday night about nine o'clock to come to Devall, Oklahoma, at once as his brother was seriously ill, and he left immediately, but his brother passed away from a stroke of paralysis at 5 o'clock Friday morning before Dee reached there. The stroke hit him about noon Thursday, first in one foot and then the other, and by the time he reached the dining room he found his arms refused to move and a physician was called over his protest, which protest was about the last words he spoke.

His brother, Wood Elliott was about 53 years of age, and leaves a wife and family.

The site of the old commercial distillery, Terre Haute, Indiana, is to become a city park, according to the American Issue. Two other breweries in the same state are now engaged in legitimate business: one at Hammond manufacturing cattle feed, and one at Lawrenceburg, being used as an industrial alcohol plant.

THE SNOW THAT FAILED TO MATERIALIZE

There was a bunch of disappointed folks here last Wednesday, who had been expecting some moisture for some time. Snow began falling in the forenoon in real business style, and the citizens began circulating how much would be on the ground by night fall or next morning. And there would have been a pile of it, for one never saw it come down faster, or bigger flakes, or flakes that were wetter, but—

It fell less than an hour when old Sol came through a rift in the clouds and they began to melt away and drift southward. By noon the sun was pouring down, and a spring like day was on us. The snow probably amounted to a small shower.

NEW COMER FINDS FRIENDS AMONG STRANGERS

When a family from the east decides to pull up stakes and hie from the great South Plains section, and especially Terry County, they need have any fear that they are leaving all the humans in the world that will stay by them in time of need or distress. Indeed they will find the best and most friendly and neighborly people on earth right here, and they won't have to wait always to have this friendship and neighborliness demonstrated.

A case in question of this kind was brought to us only this week, when L. F. Webb, of the Lahey community, who recently purchased the J. T. Watson place and moved on it, dropped in to tell us what wonderful neighbors he had. He informed us that directly after landing in Terry county six weeks ago, he took down sick, and the neighbors seemingly did not stop to tell themselves that he was a mere stranger and that they had received no formal introduction or invitation to call, but came anyway and administered unto him.

About two weeks ago his barn burned together with all the feed, etc., but the neighbors came as one man to his rescue, and now he has all the corn and other feed necessary to make a crop. He said there was no use getting a list of donors—just say the Lahey community came to his rescue.

This is the stuff a community is made of, and when Mr. Webb writes back to his old neighbors and tells them what wonderful new neighbors and friends he now has, some more of the good families will want to move to the Lahey community in old Terry.

B. C. Horton and wife were called to McLean Friday night to attend the funeral of Mrs. Horton's Brother-in-law, R. L. Grigsby. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Davidson. Mr. Grigsby was given an X-ray examination a few weeks ago and it is thought that his death was due from burns sustained in that examination from which he never recovered. He was buried Saturday and Mr. and Mrs. Horton and Mr. and Mrs. Davidson returned home Monday.—Meadow Review.

QUALITY WORK AND SERVICE IS OUR MOTTO

AUTO PAINT SHOP OPENED IN BROWNFIELD

Hundreds and thousands of dollars, perhaps, have annually gone out of Brownfield to nearby cities and towns for painting of automobiles, never to return, not to mention the inconvenience of driving a distance to carry their cars, and then return for it. Now a real paint shop is at your door and their prices are in line, and it is up to the people of Brownfield and trade territory to stay with this home painting concern.

The shop is located in the Spear garage, and then the cars are kept in dust proof oil cloth during the course of painting. Also these gentlemen are not mere polishers or varnishers, but put the paint on them in the regulation style like it is done at the factory, first removing all the old paint.

The shop is in charge of J. I. Gailey & Son, the former having had years of experience in painting, and young Gailey spent three years with the Ford assembling and paint house in Dallas. Before carrying your car off to be painted have a talk with Gailey & Son; see some of their work and keep your money circulating in Brownfield.

It is reported that Federal Judge Hickenloop, of Cincinnati, dismissed the application for citizenship of an alien who admitted he had pleaded guilty to violating the prohibition law. "An alien who expected to be admitted to the United States must show devotion for five years to the Constitution of the United States, including the Eighteenth Amendment."
