Chamber of Commerce CURRENTS By the Secretary

The Secretary has had hog on his brain this week, and would like to see a car load of gilts distributed in the county. A car will hold from fifty to seventy. How many farmers would purchase one that has already been bred, providing arrangements could be made to finance the purchase? Hogs are hard to secure at any price, but some are available at this time. Texas is short 3,000,000 of normal needs and prices are bound to hold good for the next few years.

An East Texas county has $4,000,000 invested in automobiles and $4,000 invested in hogs. What is the ratio in Terry county?

The county has the best chance of making a bumper crop in its history; a season in the ground and land nearly all put up. Let us make some cotton and lots of feed.

The Secretary has reached the conclusion that this column is not much noticed as a guessing contest was put on three weeks ago and only a few answers were received. Letters were requested from farmers who were diversifying, and not a "darned" one received to date. Come on with your experiences. It won't take much time and may benefit the other fellow. There is no question but what diversification pays, or bankers and business men would not be strong for it. If the farmer prospers, all of us are benefited. If the farmer makes a failure, the whole bunch is "busted." The farmers of Terry county are not dependent upon Brownfield, but they are dependent upon some town. Then why not work together to make a better town and county and a more prosperous citizenship.

YOAKUM COUNTY TO VOTE ON ROAD BONDS AGAIN

Elsewhere in this issue of the Herald will be found a notice of a road bond election for $100,000 worth of bonds, to be held on the 15th day of May next. It will be remembered that they voted on a similar issue about two months ago that only lost by about eight votes.

The voters of Yoakum county are determined to have as good roads as any county, and as long as the State and Federal governments are matching them two dollars for one to be used on their roads, they are anxious to share in this distribution, and the counties that are not getting their share are both cheating themselves of good roads and their people of a share in the distribution of their own tax money. Some other counties are going to get theirs as well as ours.

This is hoping that the good people of old Yoakum will succeed in putting 'er over this time.

W. M. GREEN ASKS FOR OFFICE OF WEAVER AT WELLMAN

We have been authorized to announce W. M. Green for the office of Public Weaver of the Wellman Weaver's Precinct, subject to the action of the Democratic primary, July 24th. Mr. Green has been in this section of the country for some 19 years, and is well and favorably known by all old timers and most new comers. He believes he is well qualified to fill the office satisfactorily to both himself and to the public, and stated further that he really needs the office for financial reasons. We ask that you give his candidacy careful consideration.

ANOTHER FIRE AT MEADOW LAST WEEK

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nettles was destroyed by a fire Thursday morning, together with all the household effects, save a trunk and oil cook stove.

Mr. and Mrs. Nettles had spent Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nettles, the younger Mrs. Nettles being sick, and Thursday morning Jack Nettles went home to get some clothes for the wash and it being dark in the closet he struck a match but thought it was extinguished before throwing it down. However a spark must have fallen in some clothes and probably smothered for awhile before spreading, as he cannot account for the origin of the fire in any other way, since there had been no fire in the stove overnight.

The house was partially covered by insurance.—Meadow Review.

THE FARMER WANTED EGGS, BUTTER AND MILK—MY!

Well, the secret is out. Some time ago, some farmer whose name was withheld made arrangements with a local groceryman to carry him through the year, and the three first items he called for became a guessing contest, sponsored by the local chamber of commerce secretary. Last week Mr. Shelton told what the three items were in his columns, and all had missed their guess including several farmers.

The three items he wanted are all things that no farmer should buy or have to buy under any circumstances. They are easily and cheaply produced on every Terry county farm, and each are very essential to the comfort and health of every family.

They are eggs, butter and milk. No wonder that no one was able to guess what the three items were. No wonder that the average farmer was surprised and scratched his head when the items were announced. It was also quite amusing to listen at the comments some of the farmers made when they were informed what the credit seeking farmer wanted. One of them—one of the most successful of our farmers, who never comes to the city without some of these things to sell that the other farmer wanted, remarked that such a farmer didn't deserve a credit account.

We hope this farmer if he reads this and who may be a good man otherwise, and rearing a good moral family although misleading they as producers, will take due heed and never have to buy these articles in a store after this year.

DOES ADVERTISING PAY? —FARMER SAYS UBET

A few weeks ago two gentlemen met the Herald man on the streets to pay for an advertisement they had run in these columns—their names and business we will not disclose. They seemed to be dissatisfied with the results obtained, and wished to argue the matter of price. In fact both said they had obtained no new business from the ad, but the Herald had rather settle most any way than quarrel and argue matters.

But just as the transaction was settled satisfactory we hope to them and to us, a certain farmer came along the sidewalk and one of them remarked that they had completed a job for him and he was satisfied this farmer had not seen their ad. In fact the gentleman stopped the farmer and asked him if he did. This farmer had only been here a month or two, and was still regarded as a stranger. But he promptly answered their question. "You know it; if I had not seen your ad in the paper I might not have ever found out that you two men existed."

We hope they are better pleased now.

THE PREACHERS COMING— DON'T LOCK UP THE CHICKENS

The town is going to be full of Methodist preachers, not to mention other Methodist people, for four days beginning next Thursday, for the Lubbock District Conference, which is said to be the largest district in the state in both area and membership, all of which the local pastor told you in these columns last week.

Brownfield has a real chance to show its long boasted hospitality on this occasion, and she should not stop at denominational lines. If any other body of religious people were coming, no homes would be open to them quicker than the Methodist homes, and we believe the other church people in Brownfield are going to throw open their home to these visiting Methodist pastors and laymen. If you have not already assigned them a room or two in your home, call up Rev. G. J. Thomas and tell him voluntarily what you have. Don't fail to assign as many meals as possible, for preachers are not usually following in money, and they must not be put to any great expense in attending this conference.

The home Methodist folks are our friends and neighbors, so let's help them care for their guests.

MISS DRURY ASKS FOR THE OFFICE OF CO. TREASURER

We have been authorized to announce Miss Lucy Drury for the office of County Treasurer of Terry county, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in July. Miss Drury is a Meadow girl, but is acquainted with a good many citizens in Brownfield, as she worked here for some time with the telephone company.

Miss Drury seems to be a young lady of refinement and education, and we are sure is in every way capable of discharging the duties of county treasurer, if elected. She will try to meet all the voters before the primary July 24th.

PEOPLE MUST NOT TEAR UP ROADS WITH TRACTORS

In conversation with Uncle Jack Blankenship, road supervisor of this district for the State Highway Department, he informed us that some people of Terry county are following or crossing the highway in places without removing the lugs from their tractors and which fearfully tears up the surface of the road. This is strictly a violation of the law.

Uncle Jack says he wants to give people fair warning before making complaint, but after due notice those caught practicing this, will have to answer to the courts of law.

Mrs. Earl G. Alexander returned last week from Henderson, Texas, where she has been visiting her mother and other relatives.

EDITOR PRESENTED WITH "HE MAN'S TOBACCO"

When H. W. Wrye, who worked for the local church of Christ here for a few months during the winter left Brownfield to go to Clarksville, Tenn., which is in the very heart of the tobacco section of Tenn., and Ken., he promised to send the editor a bunch of the best eatin' and burnin' stuff that sunny Tennessee produces, and this week enough arrived to last us several months. The following letter from Bro. Wrye is explanatory.

Clarksville, Tenn., 4-8, 1926.

Dear old friend:— Guess you think it is a long time between chews; that is if you are waiting on me. Well, I had your tobacco several days ago, but have been busy doing other things, so "I just ain't sent it."

Am mailing two boxes to you and trust they will reach you in good order. One box is complimentary of Rudolph & Son, tobacco ware-house men of Clarksville, and the other is presented by Mr. Berry, of Sylvia, Tenn.

The large square box from Rudolph & Son, contains some of the long green that is three years old. I am informed that old tobacco is superior to the new, so I am sending both to be sure you are pleased. The old goods is dry and no doubt will be o.k. for smoking, this is if you are man enough to wrestle with it. Am sure the juice of it would cure bumble-bee sting—if applied to the bee.

The long box contains three bundles of last year's crop. The small bundle is choice "plug wrapper" for select chews, (that embraces you.) The next bundle in size, is recommended for full grown men as it is too strong to play with children, although very fine quality. The largest bundle is recommended as very fine smoking tobacco. Now remember that the user of either or both boxes must assume all responsibility for damages resulting from the using thereof.

Am getting along as well as could be expected I reckon; our crowds are growing and the prospects cheering. The members seem to be satisfied with the way I am trying to preach. This is a city of 10,000 people and one of the biggest tobacco markets in the United States. It is an old aristocratic town with lots of big old fashioned homes. It is situated 60 miles northwest of Nashville on the L. & N. Ry between Louisville and Memphis.

Remember me to the congregation with fraternal love. I would like to see all of you, and would be disappointed should I fail when I hold the meeting at Lubbock beginning on the fifth Sunday in May.

The regular monthly term of the Commissioners Court was in session the first of the week. There appeared to be considerable work awaiting the county fathers.

MAYOR MCGOWAN CRANTS HERALD AN INTERVIEW

Owing to the fact that Mayor Joe J. McGowan had recently been re-elected for his third term as mayor of Brownfield, and in view of the fact that considerable improvements are to be made in the light, power and water systems municipally owned, the Herald decided to have a heart to heart talk with the Mayor in order that the people of Brownfield might be informed just what is in store for them during the coming year.

Mayor McGowan although one of the most pleasant and agreeable fellows in the world, is a man of few words concerning any business under discussion, and perhaps some of us sometimes become impatient for results, but we have also noticed that while the mayor and city council almost always seem to take due time and maybe taxes our patience, that when they do put over a deal it is generally with a saving to the city, and is made in plenty of time.

In the meantime, the city council is training a bunch of home men to see after the power plant and water system, and how well they are succeeding was illustrated recently when the little engine generator received a bolt of lightning that burned out some twenty coils. Mr. McGowan tried for several days to import an electrician to replace the coils when they came in from the factory, but failing, told E. D. Jones to go on with the job and do the best he could. In a day or two the little 75 was back on the job and giving good service. The Mayor has great confidence in Eunice, and believes that in the near future he will be able to care for all troubles.

In the meantime it has become quite a task to keep the big water tower tank full at all times, and with the approach of hot weather, the 250 gallon per minute put will prove inadequate. They are looking for another pump of same capacity every day now to be installed, making the pumping capacity from the well 500 gallons per minute.

They have also without another bond issue, traded the small engine which is only 75 horse power, for an engine of 240 horse power which will be delivered along about June. Some $4,000 was received here for the 75 and $2,000 cash which has been saved by the plant will be paid on it. A monthly payment of about $350 will take care of the deferred amount.

An addition to the present building as large or larger, will be built on it on the west side, which will house the new engine another like it together with the fire truck. A new attachment has been purchased for the 100 horse power engine that will raise it to 120 horse power, giving the city a horse power capacity of 360. This, it is believed, will take care of the city's needs for the next year or two anyway. Another big engine can in time also be installed where the little 75 now sits.

It is not believed that the city will ever have to issue any more bonds for light and power, as with the growth of the city and the business of the plant will care for all future expansions. The task of the council now is to induce customers to put in more electric cooking stoves, and they have a rate now that is very enticing when one considers the convenience and cleanliness of electric cooking.

INTERESTING ROAD MEETING HELD AT POST, TEXAS

Delegates from every town and county in Texas west of Stamford, except Clairmont and Kent county, were in attendance at the good roads meeting at Post, Tuesday night, and a more enthusiastic and determined bunch would be hard to find.

A permanent organization was perfected and will include a membership reaching from Breckenridge to Roswell and the official designation of the highway will be known as the Fort Worth-Roswell Airline.

Towns all along the route have already pledged a goodly sum of money for the publication of maps and other advertising matter. When the route is hard-surfaced all the way, and that will probably be rushed, it will not only be the shortest, but the best route from anywhere in north and east Texas, and further back, to California, and will be even more valuable than a transcontinental railway to this section.

TERRITITES TURN OUT TO BREAK LAND FOR NEIGHBORS

Last Thursday afternoon the Editor and family drove out to the Uncle Billie Howard ranch, as it was reported that neighbors were coming in that day to list the land on the farms of Frank Howard, who was recently stabbed to death by an assailant, and Will Fisher, his brother-in-law, who was at the same time badly cut, and is just now able to be about.

We fully expected to see a good turn out of people knowing as we did the esteem in which the Howards and Fishers are held in the Needmore, Challis and Harmony communities, for they are kindly in the corner of each, but we never expected to see the sight that met our eyes as we can in sight of the Frank Howard home.

The teams had been well watered and fed from the bountiful ricks of feed in the corrals, and the men had just finished a noon day meal which the Howard families are famous for providing their guests, and they had just begun to collect the teams and make ready to go to the Fisher field, having finished listing the F. Howard field during the forenoon. The whole hill overlooking the draw on which Frank's dwelling rests, was literally covered with men, teams and plows. From a distance it reminded one of an artillery regiment getting ready to go on parade. There were 35 men with the teams besides a few who, like myself was just onlookers, 154 head of mules and horses, and 35 lists, of which two were double row. The following are names of those who helped finish up the breaking on these two farms, which was done by five in the afternoon.

John Gracey, Will Hyman, J. M. Phillips, W. P. Flowers, Virgil Kinard, A. C. Beard, J. H. Howell, W. A. Smith, W. J. Murray, O. H. Murray, W. T. Howze, J. M. Griffith, Money Price, O. K. Tongate, Charley Duncan, Dale Broom, G. W. Henson, Frank Smith, Clint Wardlow, double row, Lence Price, Will Hand, Forrest Hand, Gayland Price, Garland Howard, Bain Price, Oden Miller, O. F. Krueger, Elmer Beasley, Arthur McDonald, S. H. Parish, W. F. Young, A. Clements, Mr. Edwards, E. V. Gillentine, S. T. Miller, double row.

Just a word before we close about the teams. We can truthfully say that we never saw as many real good teams in one bunch in our life. They were all big horses and mules and all in prime order and apparently in the best of physical condition, showing that there are some fine horse masters in that section of old Terry. Uncle Billie told us to say that all had good teams and we could very easily fully agree with him. But while Uncle Billie was praising their teams, we took particular pains to note that the men all wanted to discuss the very fine dinner they received at noon. This work was a real pleasure to these good neighborly men, most of which were up with their own work, but will mean hundreds of dollars to the Howard and Fisher families, and it even makes us town folks glad that we live in a county where men are real men, and who obey that old Bible injunction: "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

The Herald family was accompanied home by one of Uncle Billie Howard's daughter's, Mrs. J. N. Lewis, who remarked: The old timers of fifteen years ago would have done the same thing, but we would have had to go all over the county to find that many people, who now are almost next farm neighbors to the Howards.

A preacher friend of ours who use to pastor the Brownfield and Gomez churches in the early days, paid us a call recently, and during the conversation he remarked: Jack I am sure glad I was transferred back to the Northwest Texas Conference, for it just takes about six men down east to make one real West Texan. Then he gave us a short history of his experiences down there, and when he finished we fully agreed.

NEW ROUTE PATRONS DON'T GET BOXES UP

Proposed patrons of Route 1, must have their boxes up by Monday, May 3, according to Postmaster J. C. Bohannon in order that the route may have no boxes after being inaugurated.

The boxes should be put up on the left side of the road from the way the delivery is traveling, and should be easily erected, at an easy place for the carrier, and the boxes should be easily opened.

BAILEY BROTHERS GROCERY

OBITUARY

Thomas DeShazo, "Uncle Tom" as he was generally called, was born on December 1, 1846, in Tennessee. Died at his home, Gomez, Texas, April 7th, 1926, at 8:40 A.M. He went to Mo. in early boyhood, and from there to Honey Grove, Texas, and at the age of 16 or 17 years, he enlisted in the Confederate army and served about one year, or until the close of the war. He was married to Miss Louise Peter near Paris, Ark., Mar. 30th, 1871. To this union were born one son, Shelby, and one daughter, Bernice, both of whom have preceded their father in death.

Mr. DeShazo professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist church at Nocona, Texas, and was baptised in 1890. In 1903 he moved with his family to Gomez, Texas, where he placed his membership with the Baptist church. There he remained until the Lord saw fit to call his spirit home to Heaven.

He leaves his aged wife, "Aunt Lou" as she is generally called, three own sisters, two half sisters, one half brother, one son-in-law, Robt. Holgate and his seven children, of Brownfield, Texas. His cousin, Z. T. Brooks of Sweetwater, Texas, and Mr. Frost and wife of Roscoe, Texas, were present at the time of his death; also other relatives, neighbors and friends.

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist church, Gomez, by the pastor, J. H. Agee, of Lubbock, at 11 o'clock, A.M. April 8th, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Brownfield cemetery to await the resurrection of the just. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved wife and all other loved ones.—Written by a friend and Brother in Christ.

THE GOSPEL OF SAFE FARMING

By Dadford Knapp, President of the Oklahoma Agricultural College.

1. Remember the fertility of thy soil that thy days may be long on the land which the Lord, thy God giveth thee.
2. Take heed of thy garden and thy cow, thy sow and thy hen, that thy wife and children may eat though all else should fail thee.
3. Put not thy trust in one crop only upon thy farm, but provide against the evil days by producing thy own feed.
4. Despise not the day of small things. Thy bread grain, thine own vegetables, milk, meat and eggs are thy pure rock of safety in the time of trouble. Neglect them not upon thy farm.
5. The wise man leaveth nothing to chance, but produceth for his family its food in season and for his livestock their food and forage.
6. The foolish man risketh all upon one crop and great is his sorrow and the lamentations of his family when disaster cometh to that crop.

CARD OF THANKS

Through this means we wish to thank the good people of Brownfield and Terry county for their help and words of encouragement during our recent sudden bereavement at the death of our husband, father and brother. May God bless each of you.

BAPTISTS MAKE GREAT ADVANCE

April Ingathering For Co-operative Program Is Feature of Forward Move.

PLAN FOR BIG CONVENTION

Special Emphasis Is Laid On Spiritual Preparation for Gathering of Forces at Houston May 12-16

Conditions favor a distinct advance on the part of Southern Baptists in 1926 along many lines, according to information received by the headquarters of the Co-operative Program Commission of Southern Baptists.

This body, charged by the Southern Baptist Convention and various state conventions with providing adequate support for foreign missions, home missions, ministerial relief and Baptist schools, hospitals and orphanages, is seeking to so increase and stabilize the income of the denomination as to provide adequately for all these enterprises through a regular budget. In this connection the Commission is seeking to enlist as nearly as possible every member of every church in making regular weekly and monthly offerings to this general budget which is distributed among these seven causes on percentages proportionate to their various needs.

Approximately $9,200,000 for these objects was received during 1925. It is announced, but inasmuch as only $4,698,000 of this amount was in distributable funds some of the objects suffered for lack of sufficient cash. Under the leadership of the Commission a definite effort is being made to secure as much or more money as was contributed in 1925, but in undesignated amounts so that each cause will get its proportionate share.

Receipts By States
The receipts for 1925 through the various state offices were as follows: Alabama, $352,308.67; Arkansas, $239,333.66; District of Columbia, $48,000; Florida, $223,665.88; Georgia, $480,868.51; Illinois, $81,051.17; Ken-

The remainder of the $9,200,000 received in 1925 consisted largely of special gifts to foreign missions and the building fund of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

An outstanding feature of this effort of the Commission is a special cash ingathering for the month of April, when every one of the nearly 4,000,000 white Baptists of the South will be asked to make as generous an offering as possible to the whole Co-operative Program, this money to be distributed proportionately among the seven general causes embraced therein.

Convention Prospects Good
In the event this April ingathering attains the goal set for it, it will make it possible for the various Southwide Baptist enterprises to report great relief in their financial situation to the Southern Baptist Convention at its session in Houston, Texas, May 12-16.

The committee on program for this year's convention, in the hope of giving that session the largest possible spiritual emphasis, has arranged for a special season of prayer and worship in the Convention auditorium at Houston for Tuesday evening, May 11th, preceding the opening of the Convention on Wednesday morning. At this preliminary service J. Fred Scholfield of Birmingham, Ala., will lead the song service; Dr. W. A. McComb of Gulfport, Miss., will lead the prayer meeting and Dr. H. R. Holcomb of Mansfield, La., will preach a brief sermon. Another innovation in this year's Convention program calls for the closing of each morning and evening session with a brief sermon by a representative pastor. Dr. Fred F. Brown, Knoxville, Tenn., will deliver the main Convention sermon on Wednesday morning.

A HORSE OF ANOTHER COLOR BIG POPCORN MEN SEND SEED TO MULESHOE

The president of a northwest bank at a social gathering recently said: "The city ought to run the street car system. It could save taxes now paid by the private company, use equipment of the city now maintained by the taxpayers, and thus give the public cheaper rides."

A lumberman, who was one of the heaviest taxpayers in the room finally said:

"I have always thought it would be a great thing for the city or the state to run a bank. It's got so now that private banks charge 25 cents when an account falls below $100. They make a charge to good customers for cashing certain checks and on top of it all they charge a high rate of interest to borrowers. The city, the county or the state could operate a bank in buildings already furnished by the taxpayers, eliminate the taxes now paid by banks and thus save the public large amounts of interest and special charges now assessed by banks against depositors and borrowers."

This was a horse of another color. The banker in question immediately attempted to show why the city could not operate a bank as well as the street car system but his audience had the laugh on him.

The foregoing incident was an art-

It makes no difference whether public ownership is applied to printing, street railways, electric companies, insurance, banking farming or any other industry or activity, the principal is the same—it limits the opportunity of the individual, curtails his liberties and thereby abrogates the rights guaranteed by our constitution.

PRINCIPLES OF OPERATION

We believe that a bank should not only be a depository of funds, but indeed a haven where the rich and poor alike can confide their financial troubles, fears and doubts into the attentive ear of their mutual friend and counsellor the BANKER. The Bank, the foundation of all saving, should be solid like the granite, standing the acid test of time, pursuing a conservative but friendly course.

THIS BANK like the great Oak from a little acorn, of persistent effort and sound business principles has grown. It stands today like the Oak, its many services and ample resources like the limbs, cast their shadow of protection over those who seek its shelter—a mecca which invites the confidence and patronage of the public.

HOCKLEY COUNTY HAS MANY SCHOOL BUILDINGS

Levelland, April 3.—Although Hockley is one of the youngest counties in Texas, the county now has seven modern brick school houses. There are two other buildings under construction at this time, while contract has been let for a third.

Figuring the population of the county, it will mean a modern school building to every 350 people.

The Levelland school is the largest and best in the county, though some of the rural schools are exceptionally good ones.

The largest county in Texas contained 6,137 square miles.

TWO PROMINENT OKLA. MERCHANTS HERE

Mr. W. B. Collins of Boswell, Okla., and C. S. Boswell, of Durant, Okla., prominent merchants of that section, are here this week the guests of the former's brother, W. H. Collins, of the local Collins store.

These gentlemen have made a number of trips to this section, and seem to be better pleased with each trip down here. They are especially well pleased with conditions at present, and see a great future for this section. They are especially well pleased with the Brownfield section and the city's immense trade territory.

WELLMAN NOTES

By Reporter.

The Parent-Teacher Association met for a brief business session preceding the program by the Literary Society, Friday evening the 9th. Several matters of importance were discussed and decided on, and four new members were added to the roll. It is hoped that the membership will grow until it includes every patron of the school. The association voted to ask Miss Easley, the County Nurse, to assist in putting on a health program one month from the meeting date.

The program of the Literary Society was somewhat shortened, due to the inclement weather, but by using impromptu numbers, a very interesting program was given. The Meadow boys debating team was to have debated our boys' team on the question of the Labor Amendment. Since they made and a very spirited debate given did not arrive, a substitution was on the question: "Resolved that men should not be allowed to wear mustache." The affirmative was upheld by the Misses Florence Smith and Jewell Woodard, while the negative was defended by Eugene Norton and Richard Crews. The decision was unanimously in favor of the negative.

Quite a number of our people attended the different sessions of the second quarterly Methodist Conference at the Johnson school house, beginning Friday evening, and closing Sunday evening. Saturday morning Rev. Frank Story, one of our school boys, conducted the devotional service, and as usual, this earnest young preacher brought an added note of spirituality to the service. In the afternoon, Mr. J. M. Story talked on the importance of paying the pastor's salary. Sunday morning a body of our people turned out and were well paid by the fine talk of Rev. Tannery in the morning, the beautiful spread at the lunch hour, and the splendid service in the afternoon. Those who attended Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Baker, Misses Frances Jackson, Florence and Carrie Smith, Oleta Singletary, Georgia and Lucy Story, Opal and Drucilla Cason, Carmon Mitchell and Mary Melton; Messrs. Bill Story, Oral Trotter, Rupert Caffey, Ira Cason, Richard Crews.

The Wellman Dramatic Club is to present a two and one-fourth hour western drama, "The Arizona Cowboy" at the Johnson school house, on Friday evening the 16th. A charge of 20 and 35c will be made, and proceeds will go for benefit of both schools.

P. O. FIXTURES TO BE HERE THIS WEEK

Postmaster Bohannon showed us a letter he received Monday from the people who are furnishing the new and up-to-date fixtures for the post-office, stating that the fixtures would arrive some time this week, and that they would send out a man from the house to see that they were properly installed.

When these fixtures are installed, Brownfield people will truly be proud of their post office, as it will have one of the neatest and most up-to-date in this section.

Hunters Care Little

for Gnu's Ferocity

The gnu, with the head of a horse, the long, narrow face, the body of a horse, an antelope's legs, an upstanding mane and a flowing tail that reaches to the ground, is indeed a fantastic creature, writes Lillian Gish, P. Z. S.

His terrible voice, his pose—everything about him suggests fierceness. But though savage in captivity, he is extremely nervous, with a great regard for his own safety.

A herd of these gnus on the veldt is an alarming sight. Prancing and wheeling, and tossing their heads, they approach a strange object in single file, forming themselves into a solid square as they come near.

In this position they will stand for hours, glaring at a tent set up on the plains, as though ready to tear it to pieces.

But this is a game of bluff. Let the owner of the tent show himself with a gun, and though they may gambol wildly around him, uttering loud snorts, it will be in ever-widening circles.

The first shot sends them flying, and so great is their speed that they vanish within a few seconds.

Bird's Mother Love

Example of Heroism

The boy who "stood on the burning deck, whence all but he had fled," has won the immortality of a well-known poem, but probably a certain skylark will not find her poet, although she certainly deserves one.

While beating out a field fire at Feltham, in Middlesex, firemen noticed a skylark sitting on her nest on the ground, in the direct path of the flames. The bird continued to sit on her eggs with dense smoke rolling round her, and even when the flames caught the grass of which the nest was constructed she did not stir until the firemen were close upon her.

So struck were the men with the bird's heroism and devotion that they determined to save her home at all costs. They set about isolating the nest, and were so successful that, although the fire spread all around, the nest was scarcely damaged and the eggs remained intact.—London Tit-Bits.

Grief in Animals

A man or woman who loses some dear one is overcome with deep sorrow, remembering only the admirable qualities of the lost one, but this feeling is soon softened by a multitude of external impressions and influences, so that sorrow gives way to melancholy, which in its turn diminishes.

Not so in the case of many animals. These not only retain their grief much longer, but there are cases in which it lasts as long as life itself.

The cat will swim after her kittens which some cruel man is trying to drown. The story of the dog who starves to death on the grave of his master is no fable. A stone in the Paris dogs' cemetery is thus inscribed: "He was so intelligent that he might have been taken for a human being—but that he was faithful."—Das Neue Ullstein Magazin, Berlin.

Lighting Scheme

Speaking of modern conveniences and innovations, somebody who helped design the new infants' ward at the Children's hospital, St. Antoine and Farnsworth streets, used his or her imagination. About knee-high above the floor are recesses or slits in the walls fitted with lights. When a nurse enters during the night to tuck the babies in, she doesn't have to turn on the overhead lights and run the chance of waking the tiny patients up. The low wall-lights furnish her enough illumination to go her work without disturbing the babies. Out-of-town visitors have commented more on this little arrangement than on more important features of this great institution.—Detroit Free Press.

Why It Took a Long Time

The reason Solomon's temple was 42 years in building, Charley Mann thinks, was because each of his 1,001 wives had something to say—something in the way of suggestions about alterations to the contractors.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Sealing Lead Pipe Joints

Lead filings taken from an ordinary lead pipe by a coarse rasp and sprinkled onto the threads of a pipe joint give tighter joints than the paste ordinarily used.—Science Service.

What Gum Is Made Of

Most of the best chewing gum is made from chicle, the resinous sap of a tree which grows in Central and South America. Some paraffin is also used.

Wind at Night

The light wind that has been moving all night is seen at dawn to have not worked at random. It has shepherd-like some small flocks of clouds afield and folded others. Not a line, not a curve but confesses its membership in a design declared from horizon to horizon. There's husbandry in heaven.—Alice Mernell.

Upholstery Is Old

The art of upholstery originated in the East. It is known that from the earliest times the Egyptians used upholstered couches and chairs and the Assyrians, their neighbors, who were masters in the art of weaving, introduced the rich, crepe draperies used both for covering the seats of funeral biers and for the draping of walls.

We understand that the paving proposition for the business section of Brownfield will likely be up again this fall, giving the people a chance to get out of the mud in wet weather and chug holes in dry weather.

The old saying, "when it rains, it pours," sometimes appears to be literally true. When good fortune does come, it mopes along, and when bad fortune appears, it hops, skips and jumps. To illustrate, Editor Coleman and wife of the Herietta Independent have each lost their mothers in the past two weeks.

We note the West Texas Baptist, published at Abilene will become a weekly instead of a semi-monthly after May 1st. Sam Malone is giving the Baptist denomination in Western Texas a good religious paper, and he was no snide when he had charge of the Seminole Sentinel years ago when this section was ninety miles from nowhere. Go to it Sam; we'll help you punch up the Brownfield Baptist if there are any too stung to subscribe for your paper.

Editor Hyatt, who goes by the name of Dick with home folks at Ralls, is reported to be rapidly recovering in a Lubbock sanitarium from an operation recently. There was a time in the history of country newspaperdom when editors were too poor to have appendicitis and operations, and had to be content with plain tummyache, but of late years, with the ever increasing patronage, they are now getting in the hard boiled operation class.

Yes, the weather has been a bit on the disagreeable order, we will have to admit, and the March and April conditions have seemingly been all switched around, but personally the Herald had rather see considerable rain, snow and sleet with its attendant reversion to winter temperatures than face sandstorms, anytime. But we are just as hard to satisfy with the weather conditions generally speak as we are other matters. Yet we can neither improve or make worse by either cussing or discussing.

A week or so ago an itinerant prune peddler came through this section and literally "cleaned up" in the way of loading various citizens with shoddy, cheap groceries, enough to last them for a short time. He put the deal over by making prices slightly lower—on his leading articles only—than made by local merchants. Also he kept it a deep, dark secret that the goods he was selling were of a decidedly inferior quality. So much so that a reputable retail dealer in groceries wouldn't have them in his house. But he made the rural districts, as stated and took orders galore. Some of the folks he sold to—and they paid him cash for his stuff—still owe grocery bills here in town, bills that were furnished them last year. Yet they patronize this fakir; buy his cheap junk and pay cash, coming in to the local men when they fail to secure credit from the mail order house—and that's something the mail order people don't know anything about. Pretty soon now these same folks will be needing groceries again. Probably be out of cash too. Then the local grocer carries the burden. That isn't right. And you are not giving your home man a square deal when you play that way. It's a pretty good idea to use reciprocity in every day life. You scratch the fellow's back that scratches yours—and if you've scratched with the mail order people, now let them scratch with you.—Sudan News.

LADY GOVERNOR'S OPINION OF THE MODERN GIRL

Governor Nellie Taylor Ross, of Wyoming, has displayed a lot of good sound sense since she has occupied the position of chief executive of her state, and has evinced no disposition to unduly seek the limelight. Therefore her views on the problems of the day, particularly those concerning women, are worthy of consideration. In a recent address to an organization of girl scouts, of which she is an honorary member, she said: "I am old-fashioned enough to believe that no career for women is as glorious and satisfying as that which wifehood and motherhood offers, and it is here she fulfills her highest destiny." But Mrs. Ross also defended the modern girl and declared that modern dress is not only more sensible, but promotes the health and grace. She said that the girl of today is fortunate in living in an age when "practically every restraint is removed that could repress a girl's happy spirit or handicap her progress and she should use her liberty as a means of developing into the highest type of womanhood." It appears that Governor Ross has sanely sensed the situation of the modern girl, and that her conclusions and advice are imminently sound.—Lubbock Avalanche.

WELLMAN TEACHERS ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Baker entertained the high school pupils of the Wellman school with a party Saturday evening of the 10th from 8:30 to 12 o'clock.

The rooms were decorated with the school colors, red and gold, and each arrival was given a badge of the two colors, which truly lent a festive air to the happenings of the evening.

The guests paired off for an interesting contest, "The Autobiography," in which each contestant answered certain personal questions, using only words beginning with his initials. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Story won first place in the contest, and were awarded delicious candy. Oleta Singletary and Luck Pace were second, and Florence Smith and Eugene Norton third.

Then followed amusing, well planned games, and another contest. This time Miss Frances Jackson and Richard Crews being the recipients of the prize. Several tables were next placed for 42 and Flinch.

Punch was served to the following pupils: Misses Florence and Carrie Smith, Thelma Trigg, Irene Welcher Vada and Winnie Pace, Estelle Christopher, Oleta Singletary, Lucy Story and Jessie Crews; Messrs. Thurman and Roy Ragsdill, Oral Trotter, Cecil Smith, Luck Pace, Eugene Norton, R. E. and Almy Christopher, Claude Little, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Story; also to the following young people of the community: Miss Georgia Story; Messrs. Rupert Coffey, Ira Cason, Earnest R. U. s. h. Prindle, Richard Crews, Bill and Bruce Story, and Homer Wimberly; and to the following teachers: Misses Frances Jackson and Mary Melton, and the host and hostess.—Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Duke, of Datil N. M., are here visiting her sisters, Mesdames George Bragg and H. R. Winston and other relatives. While here Dewey subscribed for the Herald to keep him posted on the doings in old Terry, as this was formerly the home of both he and wife.

Mrs. W. C. Mathis of Lubbock, was down on business Tuesday.

SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of a certain Order of Sale issued by the Clerk of the County Court of Terry county on the 12th day of April, 1926, in a certain cause wherein Werner Piano Company is plaintiff, and L. A. Jungman is defendant, in favor of said plaintiff for the sum of ($590.00) Five Hundred and Ninety Dollars with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per centum per annum, from date of judgement recovered by the said Werner Piano Company, plaintiff, in the County Court of Terry County, on the 7th day of December, 1925, I have levied upon, and will on the first Tuesday in May, 1926, it being the 4th day of said month, at Brownfield, Texas, within legal hours proceed to sell for cash, to the highest bidder, all the right, title and interest of L. A. Jungman in and to the following described personal property, levied upon as the property of L. A. Jungman, to-wit: One Player Piano.

The above sale to be made by me to satisfy the above described judgement for Five Hundred and Ninety Dollars in favor of the Werner Piano Company, together with the cost of said suit, and the proceeds applied to the satisfaction thereof.

NOTICE OF ROAD BOND ELECTION

The State of Texas, County of Yoakum:—
 To the resident property taxpayers of Yoakum county, Texas:

Take Notice, that an election will be held on the 15th day of May, 1926, within Yoakum County, Texas, to determine if said county shall issue bond and if a tax shall be levied in payment thereof in obedience to an election order entered by the Commissioners Court on the 12th day of April, 1926, which is as follows:

On the 12th day of April, 1926, the Commissioners' Court of Yoakum County, Texas, convened in regular session, at the regular meeting place thereof, in the Courthouse at Plains, all members of the Court, to-wit:

- R. P. Moreland, County Judge.
- G. A. Stuart, Commissioner Precinct No. 1.
- A. J. Davis, Commissioner Precinct No. 2.
- J. V. Been, Commissioner Precinct No. 3.
- P. M. Williams, Commissioner Precinct No. 4.

Being present, came to be considered the petition of P. G. Stanford, and 73 other persons, praying that bonds be issue by the said Yoakum County, in the sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars, ($100,000.00) bearing interest at the rate of five and one-half per cent per annum (5 1-2), and maturing at such time as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court, serially or otherwise, not to exceed thirty years from date thereof, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and operating, McAdamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof, and whether or not a tax shall be levied upon the property of said county, subject to taxation, for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity; and

It appearing to said Court that said petition is signed by more than fifty resident property (taxpaying voters of said Yoakum County; and

It further appearing that the amount of the bonds to be issued will not exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of said Yoakum County; and

It is therefore considered and ordered by the Court that an election be held in said county on the 15th day of May, 1926, which is not less than thirty days from the date of this order to determine whether or not the bonds of said county shall be issued in the amount of $100,000.00, bearing interest at the rate of five and one-half per cent per annum and maturing at such time as may be fixed by the Commissioners' Court, serially or otherwise, not to exceed thirty years from date thereof, and whether or not a tax shall be levied upon the property of said county, subject to taxation, for the purpose of paying the interest of said bonds, and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof at maturity.

Said election shall be held under the provisions of Article 627 to 643 in clusive, Chapter 2, Title 18, Revised Statutes, 1911, as amended by Section 1, Chapter 203, Acts 1917 Regular Session.

All persons who are legally qualified voters of this State and of this County, and who are resident property taxpayers in this county, shall be entitled to vote at said election, and all voters desiring to support the proposition to issue the bonds shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "For the issuance of bonds and the levying of a tax in payment thereof."

And those opposed shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "Against the issuance of the bonds and the levying of the tax in payment thereof."

The polling places and the presiding officers of said election shall be respectively as follows:

At Plains, Precinct No. 1, in the S. E. corner of the Courthouse, with Marion McGinty as presiding officer.
 At Plains, Precinct No. 2, in the S. W. corner of the Courthouse with M. W. Luna as presiding officer.
 At Plains, Precinct No. 3, in the N. W. corner of the Courthouse, with G. M. Bartlett as presiding officer.

At Plains in Precinct No. 4, in the N. E. corner of the Courthouse with F. M. Cox as presiding officer.
 At Turner School House in Precinct No. 5, in Turner school house with Hugh Snodgrass as presiding officer.

The manner of holding the election shall be governed by the general laws of the State of Texas, regulating general elections when not in conflict with the general provisions of the Statutes herein above referred to.

Notice of said election shall be given by publication of a copy of this order in the Terry County Herald, a newspaper published in Terry County Texas, there being no newspaper published in said Yoakum County, Texas, for four consecutive weeks before the date of said election, and in addition thereto there shall be posted other copies of this order at three public places, one of which shall be the Courthouse door, for three weeks prior to said election.

The County Judge is hereby directed to cause said notices to be published and posted as hereinabove directed, and further orders are reserved until the returns of said election are made by the duly authorized election officers and received by this Court.

Given under my hand with the Seal of the Commissioners Court affixed this 13th day of April, 1926.

"A LITTLE KNOWLEDGE IS DANGEROUS THING"
 To know "just a little" or "almost everything" about the title to a piece of property is just as safe as knowing nothing at all—and no safer.
 Be certain you have complete, detailed, accurate and absolute knowledge that your title is valid before you pay away your money.
 Possible you may be able to get such knowledge from people who abstract title "on the side."
 But surely you are most likely to get it from specialists, who devote their entire time, energies, and brain power to making abstracts that are absolutely error-proof.
 That means us in this town and county.
 Come in and we will explain the service in detail.

POPULAR FOR YEARS!

A popular McCormick-Deering P & O lister is the 4-wheel, No. 423 Cotton Lister shown above. Easy riding, light in draft, and remarkable for their steady running and uniform work. Thousands in use each season.

McCormick-Deering P & O 2-wheel listers have been long and favorably known. They are built in two styles; with the old and popular reverse feed cotton hoppers, and known as No. 111, or with single seed, variable drop cotton hoppers, No. 411. The continued use of these listers is proof of their satisfactory performance.

Suspensions About Wall Stre and How They Arise

By FRANCIS H. SISSON, President

Trust Company Division, American Bankers Association

WOULD-BE economists, political orators and the general public make frequent positive assertions about the functions of Wall Street without any realization of what constitute:

Wall Street or what purpose it serves. Lack of knowledge breeds suspicion. Yet it is not difficult to understand the nature and function of Wall Street. Let us set down a few of the facts which account for the existence and nation-wide, as well as international, services of Wall Street.

There are 316 banks in New York with combined capital and surplus of about $1,400,000,000. Their deposits aggregate over $11,500,000,000, and during 1924 their total volume of business reached nearly $250,000,000,000.

The New York Stock Exchange in 1925 sold 463,000,000 shares of stock and in 1924 $3,828,000,000 worth of b. nds. Wall Street is the national credit and money market. It is just as essential that there be markets for money and for the facilitation of trade, industry and investment are upon a correspondingly ample scale. It is clear that these funds must be employed sanely, constructively and to the real service of the business community. Other wise they would inevitably soon be withdrawn.

Huge Investments Help Farmers
These huge investment operations in Wall Street are of significance to the farmer. Much of the $10,000,000,000 invested in farm mortgages was advanced by Eastern financial institutions. In no sense is Wall Street's interest in agriculture local or sectional. The main function of New York financial institutions is to send money where it is most needed.

Another service rendered to agriculture by Wall Street is the purchase of Farm Loan bonds, Joint Stock Land Bank bonds and the debentures of the Intermediate Credit Banks. There is a total of $1,451,800,000 of this paper outstanding, of which New York banks took about one billion.

Wall Street loans to country banks are made at low rates, usually below 4 1/2 per cent. The local banker's rates to his customers are adjusted to local conditions, which cannot justly be laid at the door of Wall Street. General financial service to other industries related to agriculture also helps the farmer substantially. Wall Street loans to the packers, railroads, millers and farm-machinery manufacturers to help them serve agriculture.

Wall Street is as necessary and serviceable in the handling of credit and capital as is the cold-storage plant in caring for seasonal perishable products. The necessity of such a credit center in a country with a $60,000,000,000 annual business is obvious.

What the People Want
Every great international bank in New York maintains close relations with thousands of other banks in the United States and in every foreign country of any importance. The movements of commerce and investment are supported upon this inter-related system of domestic and foreign banks. Thus it comes about that the products of the farm, factory and mine are financed by these banks all the way from the producer to the foreign consumer.

Wall Street in the discharge of its true functions as the nation's reservoir of capital and credit includes the whole business community in its field of operations. Its control lies with the people. Their demands govern it, and their presence or absence from the market determines its trends.

Wall Street prospers as farming and industry prosper. Its service is to the people of the whole country and, for them, to the people of other countries. It is the direct reflection of American agriculture, industry and commerce.—From the Country Gentleman.

D. K. RUSSELL OF PLAINS DIED SUNDAY MORNING

D. K. Russell, 45, of Plains, well and favorably known all over this section of the State died at his home in that city last Sunday morning at about 3 o'clock, following an attack of flu and pneumonia. Mr. Russell was born in South Carolina, but spent the major portion of his life in Paris, Texas, but came to Plains about ten years ago, when he purchased some farm property, and was looking after some ranch interests for his brother-in-law of Paris, Texas. He also had another brother-in-law, Rev. Gregg, of Seminole, who attended the funeral at Plains.

The body was carried to Lubbock Tuesday where enternment was made in the Lubbock cemetery. He leaves a wife and many other relatives and close friends in this section and in Lamar county to mourn his demise.

Joe W. Bailey, who has been with the Herald for the past two years, left Tuesday for Roswell, N. M. where he has accepted a position with the Roswell Dispatch. Joe is a good boy and a fine and trustworthy workman and the Herald is sure the Dispatch will find his services O.K.

Clifford Dixon and family were over from Tahoka last Sunday visiting the parents of Mrs. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Walters.

MOTHERS' CLUB PROGRAM

The Mothers' Club will meet with Mrs. H. R. Winston April 21, at 3:30. Subject: The educational value of myth.—Mr. Casey.

"Tom Hackathrift"—Mrs. Joe J. McGowan.

"Promethues and Pandora"—Mrs. W. A. Bynum.

"The Binding of Fenris"—Mrs. H. R. Winston.

Discussion: "The Three Giants"—Mrs. E. G. Alexander.

"The Discounted Pendulum"—Mrs. E. D. Jones.

Selected Story.—Mrs. Casey.

Com. W. E. Harred called in Tuesday and renewed for his own and his father's paper that goes to Prairie Grove, Ark. Mr. Harred said they had a real man's job on hand this week purchasing furniture, both steel and wood for the new courthouse.

P. G. Stanford of Plains, was thru Tuesday on his way to Tahoka to attend a good roads meeting there or at Post City. He announced that he was a candidate for County Judge of old Yoakum, and stopped with the Herald long enough to order some cards and other printed matter.

BOY SCOUTS OBEY LAW

Out of the 10,000 youths committed to the house of Refuge on Randall's Island during the past fifteen years not one was or had ever been a Boy Scout, according to the report of the New York State Commission of Prisons. Some little criticism is sometimes cast upon the local Scout organization, but the writer is one who heartily endorses the movement, and we feel safe in saying the two Boy Scout troops here are among and probably the most important organizations in the city of Tahoka. Boys are taught the laws of the state and nation, the regard for right, and any boy who has been properly trained in Scouting has too high a regard for the laws of the land to violate them. Boys are taken into organization when a great charge is about to come into their lives, when their life's habits are formed. As Scouts they are set on the right trail and are taught loyalty, patriotism and service.

Few organizations have a higher aim than that of the Boy Scout of America. When a boy joins the Scouts he takes this oath: "On my honor I will do my best (1) To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout law; (2) To help other people at all times; (3) To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight." His motto is "Do a good turn daily." And then he is required to live up to a law, the substance of which is this: "A Scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent."

Boy Scouts makelaw abiding citizens; few are even found guilty of crime. Tahoka citizens should know more of the Scout work and Tahoka citizens should see that their sons are given this proper training for citizenship for "the youth of today, will be the man of tomorrow."—Tahoka News.

BRICK GARAGE

YOAKUM COUNTY, TEXAS CONTAINS

The last body of EXTRA GOOD CHEAP LAND to be found on the Great South Plains farming district of Texas. Yoakum county is situated at the head of Sulphur draw, which rises just over the line in New Mexico, and runs through the center of the county, being the head of the Colorado River.

Sulphur draw gets its name from sulphur found by cowmen in first efforts to find water here. Sulphur, oil and gas, being kindred elements, and in the summer of 1924, while drilling for water on Section No. 320, north of the draw, W. H. Kelley struck a pocket of oil at 375 feet, which twice rose 17 feet in his well. He moved 250 yards and found plenty of water at 135 feet.

A rig is now drilling for oil at this point, the first well having been lost in an effort to case it off. In the fall of 1924, Mr. Kelley gathered 114 bales of cotton and an immense amount of feed, among which was 40 bushels of corn per acre off measured land, that was planted on the 4th day of July on sod land, all from less than 300 acres of said section number 320. And this can be duplicated on many other sections of Yoakum county land.

A neighbor of Mr. Kelley's in the fall of 1925 shipped several carloads of corn to Oklahoma. The National Highway via Fort Worth, Roswell and El Paso crosses the county from east to west and hard-surfacing coming from Roswell is now finished to the Texas line, and Yoakum county will immediately start where New Mexico quits, and bring this hard-surfaced artery of traffic through Yoakum county to our eastern border to meet the work coming this way from Fort Worth. Already we have the best kept dirt roads and the lowest tax rate in this part of the state.

I still have lots of good land at $12 to $15 per acre; one dollar per acre cash and a dollar per acre per year, at an interest rate of from 6 to 8 per cent, in 160 acre tracts or more.

I have any sized tracts you may want from 40 to 40,000 acres. At the present I have 40,000 acres, partly in Yoakum and partly in Terry county, most of it within three to ten miles of a railroad town. If these 2 tracts of land can be sold at once at $20 per acre, it can be cut into quarters and half sections or larger tracts and resold at from $25 to $30, and some of it for $40 per acre on long time with small payments. Would love to find a buyer for this entire 40,000 acres at once at $20, half cash and good time on balance at 7 per cent. This is all farming land, and will produce any kind of fruits, melons and vegetables and as good cotton and better corn than any other portion of the state. I have farmed here since 1910 and never made a failure, but most of the years have produced corn at 25 to 50 bushels per acre, with other grains in proportion, and cotton is now being produced here at paying production. Some few tracts for trade.

Some bargains in the shallow-water belt across the line in New Mexico. Let me know your wants. Good schools and churches being built and fostered. Buy now, for when we find oil and get the railroad, or even complete the National Highway hard-surfacing, this land will come much higher. Buy NOW.

C. C. Jones, of O'Donnell, was in Seagraves Tuesday looking over the situation with a view of putting in a power plant. Mr. Jones was very favorably impressed and with this the third inquiry concerning the matter for the week, the Signal feels that it is not at all improbable that we of Seagraves will soon be enjoying the luxuries of electric lights with plenty of ice to keep us cool for the summer.—Seagraves Signal.

ANOTHER GOOD SHOWER VISITED TERRY FRIDAY

The precious rain again visited old Terry last Friday, adding much to the fair season already in the ground. The precipitation was probably between a quarter and a half inch.

The general outlook for a good crop has not been better here in years, and both the farmer and business men are anticipating a good year. In a few more months, cattle, all of which have wintered well, will start to market, thus adding more cash to the coffers of the county. A cow really brings in something again.

Saturday the weather turned considerably cooler, which probably was the cause of no more rain falling, for it remained cloudy until Monday, and resulted in a near freeze. It cleared up however, Monday afternoon, and a big frost was in evidence on Tuesday morning, but it is not believed that any damage was done the fruit or the early vegetables.

C. K. Johnson, of San Angelo, former cattlemen of this county, was up last week looking after legal business.

The Herald had a letter from R.W. Scales of Hedley recently, who reports that country in fine shape for farm operations, as it is very wet.

Tribute to Teacher

Frank, age six, was a mischievous lad in school and along with several others, just as bad, managed to give the first-grade teacher no little trouble.

His schoolhouse was situated on a busy street, so that the teacher always went with the children to the street. Frank was telling his father about some of the pranks they played and then began to explain how the teacher coached them never to cross the street without looking both ways for machines, for they might be killed. Frank exclaimed in surprise: "Yes, sir, dad, as mean as some of those kids are she doesn't want them to be killed. What do you think of that?"

The Highest Mountains

"You see thim mountains?" exclaimed the driver of a jaunting car in Ireland to an American passenger. The tourist admitted that he did see them.

"Well, thim's the highest mountains in Orland."

"You don't say so!"
"Oo do indeed! An' you see thim mountains?" the driver went on, flicking the whip toward another range. "Thim's the highest in the wurruil!" The American expressed his incredulity. "Surely not!" he protested. "Sure, it's thur!" the driver retorted, bridling, "exceptin', av course, for thim in furrin parts!"

Where God Is

Eddie, age four, is a veritable question mark.

After attending Sunday school he was at home, seated on the floor playing with his sister, Virginia.

He looked up suddenly and asked: "Mamma, where is God?"

"God is everywhere," I answered. Eddie held out his hand about twelve inches above the floor.

"Is God here, mamma?" he questioned. I replied in the affirmative.

Then again from Eddie, still holding out his hand, "Come here, Virginia, and put your hand on God."

Only One Wood for Spools

In almost the entire world, with its great variety of wood to select from, there is only one kind that is used for spools—the ordinary spools on which sewing thread is wound, writes Charles S. Lurie in St. Nicholas. By far the greatest part of the world's spools are turned from the wood of the white birch tree. It grows in many sections of the United States, but especially well in Maine. Virtually the whole world's supply comes from the great north woods. Some of the spools are made in Maine, but a very large part of the wood is shipped elsewhere for spool-making, after being seasoned where it grows.

Prolific Tomato Plant

The bureau of plant industry says that it is not beyond the bounds of possibility to produce one bushel of tomatoes from a single plant. This yield is received, however, by giving individual attention to the plant, allowing plenty of room, liberal feeding and fertilizing. A trellis must also be erected over which the plant can extend its shoots. There is little advantage in trying to get a maximum yield from a single plant, for when the attention is centralized on one plant rather than six the plant takes the space of five or six ordinary plants and the possible failure, due to insect pests or disease, is greater. As many as fifteen pounds of tomatoes can be gathered from one vine without abnormal effort on the part of the grower.

Poetry Restored

Let poetry once more be restored to her ancient truth and purity; let her be inspired from heaven, and, in return, her incense ascend thither; let her exchange her low, venal, trifling subjects for such as are fair, useful, and magnificent; and let her execute these so as at once to please, instruct, surprise and astonish; and then, of necessity, the most inveterate ignorance and prejudice shall be struck dumb, and poets yet become the delight and wonder of mankind.—James Thomson.

Odd Court Cases in 1926

A page from a Massachusetts court docket for the year 1926 reveals that Henry Walton was fined for saying that he would as leave bear a dog bark as to hear Reverend Cobbell preach; that Robert Edwards was fined for excess in apparel in wearing sleeve lace and gold buttons; that John Seudly was fined for stealing his master's ox and selling it to him and that Sarah Collins was fined for railing at her husband.—Detroit News

GOLF SEEMS ALL THE RAGE IN BROWNFIELD NOW

While Brownfield may have been just a little late in catching the golf fever in this section, nevertheless it came in its more virulent form, and the business and professional men, not to mention the "gentlemen of leisure," are taking to the old Scot game like the proverbial "bittin' sow."

Even the school kids are noticed on their way to school whamming rocks with clubs they have fashioned themselves and the business men after the grind of the day and Sunday afternoons crowd the course, trying to make the holes in anything from five to twenty. There are some of course who do better, who have played before, but we are talking about the general average.

Our understanding is that the bug has also bit some of the ladies, and there is some talk of ladies day on the links. Some of them seem to think this would be a great reducing remedy. Anyway, we are sure the "old man's" bank account will be somewhat reduced when the ladies get through purchasing their golf supplies for it is a well known fact that the ladies will not play except in the approved style and that means not alone the fanciest of clubs, but the regulation golf garb as well.

Such is life.

MEADOW BRIEFS

By Anaculapias

The regular election of city officers was pulled off promptly Tuesday the 6th, with everybody running for some thing as usual.

All the old list of officers were elected save one. We congratulate him on his mighty deliverance from the onerous duties of the office, as well as the cussings that are part of the prerequisites of public service.

We really hope that something will happen—not necessarily sensational—but something that will indicate that we have a bonafide city government, cocked and primed to do something of benefit to our city.

Some of our citizens got on the war path Friday and foolishly engaged in a fistic encounter, to their own undoing and the entertainment of the bystanders. I wouldn't give ten dollars for nobody's black-eye, and wouldn't pay that for one of my own.

A fight never really settled a difficulty, nor make us think more of the fellow who proved himself the best man physically. Let's try to talk the matter over quietly and we will be happier.

Mrs. O. S. Sullivan went to Lubbock the past week for a necessary operation. She is reported as doing well and will come home the early part of this week. O. S. is batching in her absence and boasts of his cooking. Perhaps he is some cook—anyway I will take his word for it and not sample his biscuits. Since he began practicing the culinary art a mad-dog has been reported in the city. Interested parties take notice.

Postal authorities the past week barred from the mail a publication, The American Mercury. The Editor, H. L. Mencklin was arrested in the city of Baked Beans, sometimes called Boston, on account of an article by one Herbert Ashberry, entitled, "Hat-rack."

It certainly must have been an unusual missive for people to notice it. Everybody including myself would be more than willing to risk our morals by its perusal.

Boston has turned the editor loose, but the ban on the offending epistle remains put. The village of Farmington, somewhere in Missouri got its back up because of the fact, the scene of the obnoxious story was placed in that interesting berg. They at once called for help and Uncle Samuel at once went to their relief.

The story writers have gone to the relief of Ashberry, at least with their pens. One of them cries out loudly for the stories of Abraham, Lot, David, Solomon and Jacob to be likewise deleted from the list of mailable books.

Well, well, old boy! you are just like every other dirty criminal that gets caught; you want to go back to others who may have escaped to prove that you also should be turned loose. Books that must appeal to the baser passions of men and women to secure readers, and writers that must choose such themes to gain recognition, should both be suppressed.

Some forty years ago the Texas Legislature passed an act making it a penal offense to display in a public place pictures of the nude and others of a suggestive on walls or other conspicuous places. This was aimed at the saloons. Since that time in the matter of pictures and the reading matter of magazines you may find, pictures are just to suit your bent with the juiciest descriptions in detail of all parts of the human anatomy. These pictures leave little to be guessed, and while the language may be delicate it leaves nothing to be desired. Dear Uncle, continue to squelch 'em.

There was another incident that also occurred in the "Show-Me State." This time it is Clarence, a city of some

LITTLEFIELD STATE BANK CASHIER RESIGNS

Littlefield, April 3.—Mr. C. O. Stone, who has been cashier of the Littlefield State Bank for several years, has resigned his position and has entered business with the F. A. Buttler Lumber Co. The Littlefield State Bank is the oldest bank in Lamb county, as well as the largest, and is the depository for the school, county and city funds.

thousand voters. A fellow, Maupin by name, announced for Mayor of this interesting municipality. It was discovered that he had imbibed some of the doctrine for which Scopes was tried, and the fanatics of the town at once went after his scalp, and put a fundamentalist on his trail.

After a vigorous canvas, Maupin was elected by a large majority, the people undoubtedly believing that a man's opinion about something that none of us know anything about is a rather poor postulate on which to base one's fitness for office.

While commending the people for disregarding the apparent religious side of the candidates, I can't just accept all he says in reference to those who regard the Mosaic Cosmogony as literally true. It would be much better left unsaid.

ROAD MEETING HELD AT TAHOKA

Representatives of Chambers of Commerce and other interested citizens from Stamford, Hamlin, Rotan, Clairmont, Post, Brownfield and Plains met in Tahoka Wednesday to discuss highway matters. These gentlemen were entertained at luncheon by the Kiwanis Club, after which they met in the courthouse and discussed highway matters of common interest to all the towns represented. Belton Howell of this city presided. The gentlemen from the eastern end of the section were seeking to interest the organization recently promoted here in their highway project. Since the Tahoka-Brownfield-Plains organization had not thoroughly perfected, a meeting of representatives of these places was called for Friday night at Brownfield to perfect their plans, and to decide what action they would take with reference to the proposition of the Hamlin-Rotan-Clairmont delegation. W. O. Henderson and Chester Connally have been appointed as Tahoka members of the board of directors of the organization. A general meeting of all the above named towns also decided upon for next Tuesday night, to be held at Post. Just what the outcome of these meetings will be problematical, but the proposals of the gentlemen from the east seemed to meet with much favor here Wednesday and it is believed that favorable action will be taken. If so a splendid state highway from Fort Worth to Roswell, passing through all these cities, seems assured. It is possible also that it will be later designated as a Federal highway. Four delegates from each town is expected to attend the Post meeting.

Those in attendance upon the meeting here Wednesday were as follows: R. F. Townsend, Stamford; R. R. Patterson and O. B. Norman, Rotan; H. E. Wall, Hamlin; Judge H. W. Davis, Clairmont; Judge J. M. Boren, S. B. Bardwell, Irvan Stokes, Geo. Samson, Guy Speck, and Greenfield of Post, Morgan Copeland, Glenn Harris, Allen G. Cook, and R. M. Kendrick of Brownfield; and P. G. Stantord; of Plains.—Tahoka News.

Childress—Immense deposits of guano are believed to have been located in Bat cave near here. Geologists who have investigated the deposit declare that at least a million tons of guano exists here and that it will be commercially profitable to mine the deposits.

San Angelo—Unusually fine crops of lambs are reported by sheepmen throughout the region who declare that the births of twin lambs exceeded all previous records. A great year for the sheep and goat men is anticipated.

Comanche.—3 acres sweet potatoes being planted.

GRADUATING CLASS OF 1926 ENTERTAINED BY JUNIORS

The Senior Class of 1926 were most royally entertained by the Junior Class on Friday evening at eight o'clock, at the home of James Harley Dallas. The Juniors spared neither pains nor effort in perfecting plans for the enjoyment of Senior Class. They were assisted by the class sponsor (in this undertaking) Miss Castleberry. The color motif used in the artistic decorations were the class colors, pink and white. Beautiful shades for the lights, tallies and prizes, were also in class colors.

The classes arrived amid a storm of rain on the outside, but orchestral strains were heard of beautiful dreamy music, as they were welcomed by those in charge. Music was played on saxophone, piano, trombone and drums throughout the entire evening's jollity. About fifty guests played "Bunce" after the usual most exciting fashion. Members of the orchestra, were, Otho Flippin, Joe Shelton, Jas. Harley Dallas, Voncile Holgate and Dolores Lynn, alternating with piano accompaniments. Misses Flache, Swan, Hamilton, Lane, Chisholm, Jacobs and Head assisted Mrs. Dallas in serving refreshments of ice cream topped with pineapple tinted pink, angel food cake in marble effect, using the colors and candies. At the close of the games, prizes were awarded Mr. Heath for high score, Will Alf Bell, low, for gentlemen, and Miss Mary Walker and Laula Head were presented with dainty vases. The guests were more than delighted with the Juniors' complimentary party. The guests of Senior Class were Misses Graves, Lindley, Criswell, Walker, Thompson, Perkins, Miller, Brothers, Rentfro, McPherson, Barrett, Head, Day; Messrs. King, Jackson, Bell; Senior class sponsor, Mr. Heath; the Junior Class sponsor, Miss Castleberry. Junior class attending and assisting in the merriment were Misses Lynn, Flache, Swan, Holgate, Lane, Duke, Newton, Brown, Head, Cox, Criswell, Chisholm, Jacobs, Hamilton, Era and Odell Ball; Messrs. Earl Ball, Otho Flippin, J. W. Moore, Joe Shelton, James Harley Dallas.

Before the good nights were said, the Seniors gave an enthusiastic yell for the Juniors, which met with a hearty response from the Juniors, in which Mr. Heath led the yell for the Seniors. Other lovely parties are being planned for the 1926 graduating class.—Reporter.

CHARLES CARROLL SIGNOR OF INDEPENDENCE DECLARATION

"Charles Carrol of Carrollton"—thus did that American patriot of distinguished Irish ancestry sign the Declaration of Independence, which will be commemorated by the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition in Philadelphia, from June 1 to Dec. 1.

Carroll appended the "of Carrollton" to his signature in order that he would not be confused with his kinsman, Charles Carroll, barrister, and in order that he might assume without a question the responsibility for his act of signing the document.

On January 12, 1776, Maryland had instructed her deputies in Congress not to consent to a Declaration of Independence without the knowledge and approval of the convention. But largely through the efforts of Charles Carroll, the Maryland convention recinded this instruction on June 28th, and unanimously directed its representatives in Congress to unite in declaring "The United States free and independent states." Armed with this authority, the Maryland delegate took his seat in the Continental Congress and signed the Declaration of Independence.

Carroll entered the Middle Temple in London in 1757 to study common law, and returned in 1765 to find the public mind in a ferment over the problems of government and civil liberty. He became a writer championing the liberties of the people, acquiring himself so creditably that he received the thanks of the public in the meetings held throughout the province of Maryland.

He was a member of the first Senate of Maryland, and also the first Senate of the United States. In 1797 he served on the commission which established the boundary line between Rising Star—An oil boom of great proportions has struck this city and region. Unusually high gravity oil from shallow depths has been found here and a great period of development is underway.

El Paso—A new steel bridge over the Rio Grande is to be constructed here as soon as a result of favorable action by congress on a bill introduced by Congressman Hudspeth authorizing the bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bird, and Mr. Shrecengast, of Roswell, N. M., accompanied Mrs. R. C. Graves home from Roswell, Wednesday, where she had accompanied the remains of her husband. Mrs. Geo. O. Slaughter, of Bowie, Texas, daughter of Mrs. Graves, is also here.

The Texas Ginners Association has recently elected Henry W. Coit of Dallas county president of the association. The state convention was held in Dallas.

A private concern is construction a $25,000 ice plant at Crosbyton.

Archer City—The Archer County Chamber of Commerce held its quarterly banquet here. E. H. Whitehead, publicity manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce was principal speaker. The Archer Chamber was just recently organized but already has more than one-hundred members.

Maryland and Virginia. When he was more than 90 years old, he laid the corner stone of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, which event was attended by an imposing civil procession.

The Maryland signer, described by his biographer, John H. B. Latrobe, as a "refined and courteous gentleman," was the last survivor of the noted band of fifty-six patriots who signed the Declaration of Independence.
