By the Secretary

The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce met in called session at the commissioners court room and after reading and approving the report of the auditing committee proceeded with the election of a secretary for the coming year, the present secretary was reelected and so notified.

A membership committee headed by W. H. Collins and H. R. Winston was appointed with power to draft any other members to assist them in their work, and the secretary was instructed to prepare a list of the present membership and an additional list of prospective members. The committee is expected to complete their drive during the present week and drafts will be drawn as usual where agreeable to members.

The secretary desires to take this method to say that he will undertake to be always on the job in fostering anything that is for the good of Brownfield and Terry county. While a considerable amount of publicity was secured for our town and county during the past year, it is the purpose to undertake to double it if possible during the present year. Highways and extension of mail routes are going to be worked upon intensively during the next few months or until we have everything connected up that it is possible to secure.

The secretary is always open for constructive criticism and for suggestions. If anything is being left undone that any member thinks should be looked after, it would be much appreciated if you will call his attention to it. Being without an assistant it is very probable that happenings of general news interest may escape his attention and a phone call to the office would be welcomed.

A citizen of Yoakum county was in the office this week and in talking about popcorn, made the remark that it was the equal if not superior to any breakfast food when used with cream and sugar as is usually done. This is a new use for popcorn that had probably not occurred to most of us. Why not try it?

It is reported that contract for two deep oil tests has been signed for Yoakum county. Contracts for two additional tests for Terry may be signed during the present week. This office has letters from two of the largest independents in the state who would like to have one or more blocks for drilling. One of them states that it would be willing to drill as much as 3,500 feet. Efforts will be made to secure acreage for them. All indications are that we will have not less than six tests going down by early summer.

We have just received a new supply of bulletins from the United States Department of Agriculture. Those who failed to secure subjects desired will please call before they are given out.

Ross Rentfro's Cows Refuse Branch Water

Ross Rentfro, erstwhile Terry county cattleman, writes in from Amarillo to the effect that his cows he shipped up there from Terry county refuse to drink branch water. Indeed he says they will stand knee deep in the "crick" and bawl for the sight of a windmill. He is fixing to build a few towers along the banks to pacify the cows, but we'll bet he has to put on a wheel and pump the water back into the creek to fool those old cows.

All of which reminds us of what Will Rodgers recently told the Montgomery, Ala., legislature. He said the yankees were trying to put over a light wine and beer program on the south, but we would not give up our good old corn licker for any such stuff without a fearful struggle. Neither are Ross' cows going to believe they are getting well water from a mere tower. It must be pumped up out of the creek, and must be seen flowing out of a pipe. A cow isn't any donkey even though they do go on four legs.

Extra Copies of The Herald in Demand

Many farmers are calling on us for extra copies of the Herald to send relatives and friends back east here of late, and many more tell us that they regularly mail out their own copy when they finish reading it, thus the county is getting a good lot of advertising through the Terry county farmers, and is costing nobody much money. Every once in awhile we get an order for a subscription from some one we never heard of before, but who has probably come in possession of a copy in the above manner, and the first thing you know, he is a regular settler, and the reading man makes the best settler.

Two prominent farmers of the Wellman section were in Saturday after sample copies to mail out. Messrs. Baker and J. R. Garrison and the later's daughter, also. Indeed Mr. Garrison had his brother in Parker county put down for a paper each week for the coming year. These two farmers were well pleased with the big corn crop write-up in a recent issue, and had us include that copy to their friends. Mr. Baker also mailed copies to the fellow he traded some black-jack hillside in Parker county for a fine farm in the Wellman community. He said if the fellow was not tangled up in black-jack brush, he would appreciate the write-up about the huge piles of corn. The parting rejoinder of these good farmers when they left the office was to just keep pouring it on, as we have a good country and ought to let the world know it.

A sandstorm was blowing at that time, but did not seem to bother these men, for we expect them this time of year. It is our one and only drawback, but the Herald has never tried to suppress the fact that we have them. We would hate to be faced at the judgment bar with such an indictment that we failed to declare the whole truth about this section. We have always maintained that the truth about Terry is good enough, and we had much rather people would come here expecting sandstorms than not expect them, for he will come much nearer being satisfied.

In the meantime, it would not hurt more of our business men to clear up somewhat, and if they cannot boost, let them at least keep silence for awhile on the subject. We are in just as good if not better shape than any other section of the cotton belt, according to people who have traveled and known what they are talking about. We are proud to know, however, that only a very infestimal portion of our business men that are inclined to knock. However, we heard a stranger say this week that nine on the streets here were knockers to one booster, and for his life he couldn't see why, and if they had been around like he had they would keep their snappers closed for good.

Lay down your little old hammer for awhile.

Band Concert Here Sunday Afternoon

The local citizenship will be favored with a real musical treat Sunday afternoon when the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce Band and the Tahoka Band combined will render a concert at the bandstand on the courthouse square at 4 o'clock. You are invited.

J. E. MICHIE GRABS FIRST PRIZE IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

The local sporting golfers brushed off the old bag, polished up their clubs and hied off to the golf links Tuesday and spent the holiday seeing what they could make in the first seasonal round in.

Fourteen enthusiasts entered the contest and J. E. Michie carried off the first prize of $5.00 in cash and a golf ball; W. B. Tudor, making a close second received a prize of $3.50. Bob McDonald also received $3.50 as prize for low score.

Perryton—$75,000 high school building bond issue to be voted on February 19.

COUNTY COURT IN SESSION THIS WEEK

County Court was in session the first part of the week with rather a heavy docket for that court. The time was when county court was rather a negligible affair in Terry county with only a half dozen cases perhaps in a year or even less, but of late years each quarterly session has quite a few cases on the docket. Some of these reach the county court by the justice court route, while others of a misdemeanor nature are transferred back from district court.

A jury was used in a case or two this week, mostly in cases in dispute over contracts, notes, etc., and others were court cases decided by Judge Winston.

We hope that millennium age of the world will some day arrive when men will settle their difficulties peacefully among themselves, or at least by arbitration with their neighbors as arbitrators. Few people realize the cost of petty trials in the courts of our land and after they are over there is not one chance in a hundred that both sides are satisfied. We have known men who have so many cases in court that their taxes in a life time would not pay the expense they are to their communities in the form of taxes for trials.

And we need not fear that the lawyers are going to suffer any inconveniences when the time comes that there are no law suits, for these men will find means of support in passing on deeds and other forms of legal documents. Of course there will always have to be trial courts for criminals.

A VERSATILE ENTERTAINER

With the Anne Varner Baker Company, appearing on our Lyceum course, is featured the versatile entertainer for whom the company is named. Miss Baker is fully equipped to give a full program in any one of several lines of entertainment. Colored crayon sketches, clay modeling, shadowgraphs, parody on Punch and Judy, ventriloquism, costumed impersonations and songs, the dancing doll, the animated doll all combine to make her part of the evening's entertainment the most interesting imaginable. Miss Baker is assisted by Miss Esther Baldwin, pianist and pianologist. Her charming personality lends itself to the success of the very attractive duo numbers on the program of the Baker Company.

The above number of the Brownfield Lyceum Course, which is sponsored by the PTA, will be seen at the Grade School Auditorium, Thursday night, March 3rd. Be sure to see it.

Hockley County to Vote Courthouse Bonds

The citizens of Levelland, the county site of Hockley county, are circulating a petition to call a bond election for the erection of a courthouse at Levelland. The petition calls for an election to vote $150,000 bonds for a new courthouse and county jail. The town of Levelland has been making great progress in the past few years and the calling of this election is only further evidence of the faith people have in the future development and growth of Levelland and Hockley County.

Hebronville—A new building to house the local telephone exchange will be erected immediately.

Better Keep Your Dogs Tied at Home

Almost every morning recently from one to four dogs can be found laying around on the streets that have chased their last rabbit, having met with a good dose of strychnine in a nice piece of fresh meat. So far as the town is concerned these dogs are a real nuisance, and congregated as they usually are around the courtyard square, they are dangerous, especially to children, for the writer has seen them growl at people. Therefore to remove a nuisance if not a positive danger someone has been obliged to take some means or another to rid the town of them.

These may be valuable dogs on the farm, at least some of them, and the majority of them are dogs that have followed their masters to town when he came in with a load of cotton or corn, and getting lost from him before he leaves, they become loafers here, and positively worthless. Therefore if you have a good dog you want to keep on the farm, be sure to leave him at home when you come to town, even if you have to tie him up.

When many dogs congregate together, especially with the presence among them of one or more females, they are likely to bite people. This has been known to occur, and to rid the town of them, they must be either shot or poisoned.

Ford Gasoline Trial To Be Held Monday

Have you one of the new and improved Ford cars with the new carburetor? If so, no matter whether you have an open or closed car you are entitled to enter the trial here at ten o'clock next Monday morning to see how many miles you can get out of a gallon of gasoline to be furnished by the Tudor Sales Co. This is going to be worth your time and heaps of fun besides. There will be two prizes of $12.50 each for those who go furthest in closed or open models.

On Wednesday of next week, the time to be announced later, starting from the Lamesa Ford agency, will be a district race on a gallon of gas which will have prizes totaling $300. We noted in the Dallas trial recently one fellow got about 57 miles from Dallas or beyond Greenville, but of course they had piked roads. There are five agencies in this district contest, viz: Seminole and Seagraves at half each, or counting one, Brownfield, Tahoka, O'Donnell and Lamesa. Mr. Tudor demonstrated to the writer a new invention that has recently been attached to Ford cars, and which is guaranteed by the Ford Motor Co., which is in reality a second gear that can be used instead of low on hills, as it is much more powerful than high, yet one gets along much faster in low. At the same time it may be used in connection with the low gear, and there is hardly a sand bank that cannot be easily negotiated with this attachment, as it greatly aids even the low gear.

Read the conditions of the contest Monday and Wednesday in the Tudor Sales ad elsewhere in this paper.

Western Union Rebuilding Lines Here

A crew of eight workmen under the management of C. C. Credie, of Dallas, are making Brownfield headquarters for the next few weeks in rebuilding the Western Union line from here to Lubbock.

They are making general repairs on the line, setting new and larger posts where needed, new cross arms, insulators etc., and when they are through with the work, the line will be up in fine shape and capable of much better service.

NOTICE
On or after March 1st a 10 per cent penalty will be added on delinquent city taxes.

Wellman Lacks One Game of Winning

The hardest nut to crack in the district meet at Lubbock last week was the little village of Wellman, situated on the Santa Fe railroad 12 miles southwest of Brownfield. It has a store and postoffice and filling station, a gym, and a mighty good school, which is a four teacher, independent district. They easily won over every team in this section of the district before going to the district meet.

They met the Lubbock team Friday and put them down by a narrow score; Saturday morning they met and vanquished Plainview, but the Ralls bunch Saturday afternoon was a little too much for them, and bent them by the narrow score of 25 to 20, if we got it right.

This goes to show that you don't have to live in a city to have a good basketball team or any other kind of ball team. Had they won from Ralls they would have been in the State meet at Austin.

Carter Attends Chevrolet Salesmen Meeting

The Chevrolet Motor Company, world's largest producer of gear-shift cars, is preparing for the greatest year in its history, according to R. A. Carter who has returned from Dallas where he attended a convention of more than 1000 Chevrolet dealers. The meeting was the eighth of a series of 21 meetings that are to be held this winter from coast to coast.

Enthusiasm over the Chevrolet outlook for the year and the wide-spread popularity of cars was evident everywhere. Dealers from all quarters joined in the opinion that the current year will surpass 1926 when Chevrolet established a record in this territory.

R. H. Grant, Vice-President and General Manager, of the Chevrolet Motor Company, presided at the business session in the Pantages Theater in the afternoon and served as toastmaster at the banquet in the Adolphus Hotel in the evening of February 14th.

Under Mr. Grant's direction, Chevrolet's tremendous sales plans for 1927 were outlined to the dealers and illustrated in the form of playlets. Assisting Mr. Grant in the conduct of the meeting were: H. J. Klingler, Assistant General Sales Manager, D. E. Ralston, Regional Sales Manager, Felix Doran, Jr., Dallas Zone Sales Manager, C. E. O'Meara, Houston Zone Sales Manager, and W. F. Doyle, Oklahoma City Zone Sales Manager; and the following officials from the main office in Detroit: R. K. White, D. G. Frazier, Sidney Corbett, W. G. Lewellen, C. R. Sudmann, Wm. A. Bless, E. A. Nimnicht, and Wm. Holler.

Mr. Carter declared that the Chevrolet Motor Company is providing its dealer organization with the highest type of merchandising aid and cooperation. Following the meeting the dealers were guests of the company at a banquet in the Adolphus Hotel.

ROLLICKING RICHARD TO ARRIVE AT RIALTO SOON

Advance reports tell us that Richard Dix's latest Paramount picture, "Let's Get Married," which arrives at the Rialto Theatre, Monday and Tuesday is good. They say it is a gay comedy that starts at sixty miles an hour and gets faster every foot.

We are asked to imagine rollicking Richard as a wild young man whose lovely fiancée threatens him with the gate if he gets into any more scrapes. Innocently, he is caught in a raid on a cabaret and sent to jail for thirty days. He tries by means of letters, to convince her that he is selling hymn books to South Sea cannibals, and his tale almost works until—but then, you'd better see "Let's Get Married."

Note: Copies of marriageable age are requested to especially notice the added feature to this night's entertainment in the Rialto ad of this week's issue.

Pampa—New Schneider Hotel here will be ready for occupancy May 1.

Meadow Farmers Making Good With Produce

The Review is glad to note the increased interest in the produce raising and marketing. Many of our farmers are giving more attention to this production and are beginning to realize from it and to recognize what it is worth not only to them but to the entire community. For the past twenty-three days, including yesterday, the bank here has cashed produce checks to the amount of $1,607.90. This does not include the purchases made by merchants. Of course some of the produce bought by the merchants may be included in the checks given by the produce house, but a very small per cent.

Some years ago people would scorn the idea of bringing just a dozen eggs or a gallon of cream to town to sell, thinking the amount too insignificant. But we are glad to note that this idea is fast getting away from the people and they are beginning to recognize the fact that in the multiplicity of little things we accumulate the bigger things and from this source comes the great volume of business. Sixteen hundred dollars in twenty-three days is not a great amount, but in as small a community as we have and at the threshold of practically a new industry in this country, it means a great deal. That much cash has been spent in Meadow and that much sales has been left off the credit books. People are beginning to realize that the credit system has not gained them much or gotten them anywhere. These cash payments for produce are helping the people to get by without asking for credit, and in the end it means better times for both farmers and merchants, in fact for every business concern in the town. The Review takes its hat off to the farmers of this community in establishing a more reliable way to live than through the cotton route. And when we say that we do not mean to condemn cotton. We have got to have cotton, but we do not have to have it to the exclusion of things that furnish bread and meat for tables. We have contended all along that the Meadow section is composed of a thrifty, sensible citizenship and we have no reason to change that belief. Come to Meadow.—Meadow Review.

Local Pastor Resigns—Goes to Rule, Texas

People of all denominations and no denominations will regret to learn that Rev. C. E. Ball who has been pastor of the local Missionary Baptist church for the past five years, has turned in his resignation, and will after the second Sunday in March move to Rule, Texas, where he has had a unanimous call of the church there.

Rev. Ball has made a host of friends among all people in the years he has labored here, and the fact that his pastorage has covered so many eventful years will make the parting even more grievous, and we a sorrowful parting, but he will be known he shares with the people here back among us occasionally. In fact three of the children are to remain here in school, and he will be back for the graduating exercises.

During the time he has been pastor here the local congregation has probably thrived in membership, and a beginning is made on what will in future years be a building in every way a credit to the town and community. Rev. Ball also has an excellent family of whom the town and community will have a heavy loss. It is not known at this time who will fill the change here, but hope the local church will get a worthy successor of Rev. Ball.

OUCH! HOW IT WILL HURT

Speaking about worthless checks, the Dawson County sheriff possesses more than any other man this week. They were issued for taxes. But they will be a hammer. The man who gave them got nothing in return. Tax returns were canceled and when they are liquidated the ten percent will be paid. Ouch, how it will hurt!—Journal.

Snap Shots in the Dallas News says the four highest priced baseball players in the world are Ruth, Cobb, Speaker and Hornsby, and two of them are Texans. Well, we are no hogs and don't want to gobble the whole game.

After reading a bulletin recently issued by the Lubbock Sanitarium on how many meals they serve a day, what they have to eat and how well it was cooked, our mouth began to water, and we were kindly inclined to try and qualify as a patient. But when we read on down further that it took $6.00 per diem to register, which they maintain, and no doubt are right is cheaper than a modern hotel, it winked us out just the same.

There has been an unusually lot of sandstorms of late due we presume to the unsettled conditions both east and west of us, but also we might say, it is about sandstorm time in Terry. However, some of the most destructive floods in the history of the west coast have visited Southern California, and destructive winds have been demolishing communities a few hundred miles east of us in Louisiana and Mississippi. Therefore being about midway between the two extremes would somewhat account for our ruffled weather.

There is more than one privilege and pleasure in living in a small town. One of them is in going in your shirt sleeves, another is sitting on the shady side of a business house in the summer time, and the sunny side in the winter. If you want to speak to a friend three blocks away, you can yell and squall at him, and you can carry on a loud, hollering conversation. You can always find a place to park; you can turn around in the middle of the block. You have lots of friends, and when you are with one of them, you can talk about all the balance. You can keep up with everybody's business except your own. And many, many other pleasures, too numerous to mention. —Jayton Chronicle.

Lyceums and chautauquas are practically a thing of the past, having died a natural death on account of the guarantee system. A new bunch of guarantors has to be secured in a town each year; for after one bunch has been stung by having to make up a good sized deficit they are wary of such things the second time. It is a pity that if these people have such "high class" entertainment that they cannot come into town on the same basis as every other worth while business. McLean people have proven time and time again that they appreciate good entertainment, and a lyceum or chautauqua of the right kind would have no trouble making a profit here.—McLean News.

The Rotan Advance in an editorial this week said a mouthful when it said "the law offers an apology to law breakers when it has to give them another chance by advertising the fact that the law will have to get right hold of them if they don't soon pay their 1927 car license." There is nothing said and no apology to the hundreds who comply with the law, but hundreds openly flout the law day after day and then it seems as if for fear of making them sore the law advises them through the press to be sure and pay them by a certain date. We do not believe in being hard-boiled, but after waiting a reasonable time, we believe officers should run delinquent cars and trucks into the garages and lock them up until their owners are ready to comply with the law like the rest of us humans.

So long as a farm or any business institution isn't at least partly self sustaining, it is out of balance, and in the latter case headed for the bankrupt act. They may be broke every year for a quarter of a century but continue business at the same old place. But when a business house has more expenses than profits, they immediately close or are closed. The farm should provide every item of food possible for its own consumption including the family and livestock. The farm is supposed to be a place where food as well as clothing is produced at least in the raw, and a farm that depends on just one thing and expects to buy all the rest is in the same class with the merchant who sells most of his goods below cost, but expects a profit on the rest to keep him going.

The poultry show in Tahoka last Saturday was worth the money. In fact it was a great success for an initial performance. Everybody voted to have a mid-winter show next December. In all probability it will be a much bigger show than the one just held. And every man and woman and every boy and girl in the town should turn out and take a look at the birds and gather more information about the poultry business. The poultry business and dairying are natural adjuncts to farming, and since this is one of the best agricultural sections of Texas, all our people, the town people as well as the country people, should learn as much about the business as possible. Let's

YESTERDAY-TODAY-AND-TOMORROW

20 years of yesterdays have past since this bank was but an infant in financial affairs. It is gratifying indeed, to look upon the records of 20 years ago and see the names of those who were among its first depositors, and today to find those individuals among the community's most successful men and women.

It is with pardonable pride that we find pleasure in knowing that this bank has had a helping hand in assisting them along the way and to cheerfully acknowledge that the success of this bank has been due in a large measure to their generous patronage and confidence as well.

In the Tomorrows that are to come, it is our plan to carefully protect these long friendships and add others to them and upon this basis we invite yours.

"JAZZ AGE" BOYS NO WORSE THAN OTHERS

We have been reading some of late, and especially at Merkel where street auctioneers take advantage of sales of local merchants to buy stuff they latter auction off to people who bite at such fakirs. These goods were to be auctioned off at a nearby oil town. When any man blows into a town from who knows where, what does he care for the people. He isn't hunting you up to give you a bargain, but to skin you if possible. He buys old shelf worn stocks at a song, renovates them the best he can and sells them for almost the price of the new stuff. Next week he is gone when you find you can toss straws through the cloth. Better trade with the home merchants, for you have a comeback at them if they dole off inferior stuff on you. Then too, these street peddlers don't contribute one mite to your school, church or community. Give them the air and you will soon be rid of them.

J. H. Austin, hardware man of Hartley, Texas, accompanied by his wife, was a business visitor here the past week.

Austin, Texas, Feb. 21.—After watching the progress of the University of Texas for almost forty years, Harry B. Beck, campus foreman, is convinced that students of this, the "jazz" age, as some are wont to call it, are better than those of the '80's. "The good old days" did not necessarily produce good students, Beck said. In the early days of the institution, it was not infrequently unusual to call in the aid of the Austin police force in quelling the youthful exuberance of students, Beck said. This has not been necessary for many years. Students today on the whole are unassuming and they tend strictly to their own affairs, Beck observed. He has been connected with the University since 1888 when he entered the institution as a student. He was made steward of Brackenridge Hall, the boys dormitory, when it was opened in 1890.

In 1926 Texas crops were valued at 22.3 per cent more than the ten year average.

Texas was one of the five states that produced more farm crop values in 1926 than in 1925.

ALL ACKNOWLEDGE TIMES ARE IMPROVING

A few weeks before the holidays when cotton was at its lowest ebb and before corn began to come on the market, a depressive condition seemed to have hit our little city which put even a damper into the holiday festivities. Talk was also a big factor in the depressing effect too, as even some of the business men of the city seemed to have been hit too hard with the hammer, and they in turn borrowed a hammer and the effect was a continuous depressing and pessimistic knock. No army leaders can lose their morale without the effect showing up in the entire army. But some men are constituted like the famous old woman fable. They will talk or bust. As a consequence, the farmer who had a dollar hugged it the tighter, and many of them begin to put every cent they could rake and scrape down in their jeans for future reference, and thus, by their own talk, local merchants probably lost some collections that otherwise they might have gotten. It is a well known fact that sometimes people can talk too much.

But with January came an upward trend of cotton. Not much, it is true but some, and enough extra despite the report of a tremendous crop, to pay some over and above the expense of picking, and some who had turned the cows in on the crop took them out of the fields and began picking again, and this gradually improved conditions, allowing the farmer some little money to pay on his accounts, and a bit of cash for his necessities.

Also about the middle of January buyers began coming in from different sections of the state to buy corn, and the corn market opened up down around 35c per bushel, but with the addition of buyers from the big milling companies of the state, the best corn began to bring around 45c to 50c per bushel. Most any farmer could go out early in the morning and gather and bring to town sufficient corn to pay him $12.00 to $15.00 and with this he paid more accounts and taxes, school, county and state. This helped him some with the weekly supplies of groceries, dry goods and other necessities, too, and pretty soon, with lots of corn rolling in, a noticeable upward trend was shown in bank deposits, and business of every nature seemed to be better than before the holidays. With more open weather and better prices, in fact with slatted cotton bringing around eight and nine cents, that staple also began to arrive in quantities almost equaling early fall on the warmer days, and while neither a bale of cotton nor a load of corn will bring as much money as they should by any means, a healthier tone has been felt in business circles; those who were bound to harp have been somewhat silenced and the general outlook is a great deal rosier.

This only goes to show that pessimistic talk never helps matters, but only goes to help in establishing a more depressing effect on the county. Many runs have been made on banks in fairly good condition and ruined them just from gossip among people who didn't have anything else to do but talk. The country would be a sight better off if it could pass and enforce a law to padlock some people's lips in critical times.

All people of this section need to do is elevate their heads several degrees, turn up their hats in front, and go ahead. There is nothing the matter with the country. It's us.

Stop-Look-Listen!

American railroads are the safest in the world to ride on. They are safer than any other kind of transportation. But you can make them even safer by being more careful. The welfare of yourself and family may be involved.

The railroads are making a vigorous effort to reduce accidents.

Won't you help?

You can help in many ways and especially by observing these ten don'ts.

DON'T cross railroad tracks, either walking or driving, until you stop and look in both directions, whether view is obstructed or not.

Stop—look—listen!

DON'T try to cross tracks in front of an approaching train. It pays to wait.

DON'T cross a track after a train has passed, until you have made sure no train is coming from the opposite direction.

DON'T walk or stand on railroad tracks. If compelled to walk in railroad yards, avoid walking between the rails of any one track. There is usually room between the tracks.

DON'T let your children play around railroad tracks or trains. Teach them to play elsewhere.

DON'T get on or off a non-passenger freight train, or crawl under it.

DON'T attempt to get on or off a moving passenger train. Wait until it stops.

DON'T be careless when stepping on or off a standing passenger train. Watch your step.

DON'T stand on platforms of passenger cars. It is safer inside.

DON'T place hand or arm in an open window. The window may close unexpectedly.

Two-thirds of all railroad accidents are incurred by persons going on railroad tracks without stopping, looking and listening.

You share in the responsibility for these accidents.

Your co-operation means greater safety.

BETTER FARM EQUIPMENT WEEK, FEB. 28 TO MARCH 5

Everybody is interested in farmer prosperity. The more prosperous our farmers become, the more prosperous will be the farm community and the towns and cities in which they trade. Automobiles, millinery, movies, groceries, clothing, shoes, gas, hardware, lumber, cement, radios, newspapers, drugs, ice cream parlors—all feel the farmer prosperity when it develops. Therefore, every line of business is interested in National Better Farm Equipment Week, to be held February 28 to March 5 by dealers in farm implements and machinery in every nook of the United States. At that time, dealers will show all the latest models and types of farm equipment built to help solve the farmer's time and labor saving problems. These machines have been developed and improved to meet the conditions found on millions of farms, ranches and plantations. Every farmer and his family should be sure to take in these exhibits and see what is new in their interests.

Sid Lane was in Monday and handed in a dollar saying he had expected to be cut off as he was a month or two behind, but as we did not, he'd renew.

SLEDDED COWS

Frisco Journal: Plano and Garland established creameries during the last month, and neither town has voiced a regret to date. This new enterprise will place ready cash into the pockets of those farmers in these neighborhoods who have cows. The same thing could be true in Frisco; all that it will take will be the establishment of the creamery. Trucks are being sent out from Dallas and Fort Worth to the various towns where creameries are located and the cream collected.

State Press: This is a better dairying country than are most of the countries where dairying is carried on extensively. Dallas and Fort Worth ship cream in from outside States every week, and the butter makers who operate on a big scale are hard put to obtain within a profitable freighting zone enough raw material to make all the butter they can sell. It must not be forgotten, though, that dairying is hard work. It is exacting and regular. When a cow is ready to be milked she doesn't like to wait until somebody finds it convenient to fetch the pail and pitch in. The milking has to be done at regular hours by efficient operators. There are mechanical milkers, and in some dairies they are used successfully and largely. But milking, like cotton picking, is still mostly a manual employment. A machine called a sled is alleged to be destined to gather most of the cotton in the plains regions henceforth. It gathers badly, but it gathers. If some cheap and effective machine were devised for cow milking there might be a larger cow acreage in this country. Sledding the cows would be easier than hand manipulation, but there is danger in the cow sled, like the cotton sled, might gather an excess of irrelevant matter—and surely a sled full of teats, tails and cockleburbs would not be welcome at the creamery.

Jim Duckett of Dallas, cousin of J. M. Williamson, was here this week on business and paid him a visit. They had not seen each other in some twenty years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hallman, of Gatesville, were here the past week visiting Mrs. Hallman's brother, Frank Weir.

San Angelo—West Texas Utilities Company erecting 66,000 volt transmission line from San Angelo to Texon.

GRASSHOPPERS

Our observations, with a review of the weather conditions during the late fall and winter months, convince us that this state as a whole, will not suffer greatly from grass hopper damage during the season 1927, and farmers generally, may reassure themselves on this matter.

It is inevitable, however, as occurs every year, that some restricted areas will have comparatively serious infestations. Farmers in all sections will do well to keep careful watch of these insects, especially in those localities where numerous grass hoppers collected in the late summer and fall of 1926. In such localities little grass hoppers may be expected to hatch in considerable numbers from March until late May. If large numbers are found hatching, the distribution of poison bran mash used in the previous years, will destroy them. Where the insects have attained a growth that permits them to migrate and they are found moving into fields of planted crops, sowing the same material will destroy them.

Parties not in possession of this formula may get same by writing to their county agent's office, or to the office of R. R. Reppert, Extension Entomologist, College Station, Texas.

SANTA FE DECLINES LOV-INGTON'S PROPOSITION

It will be recalled that some few weeks ago a committee from the Lovington Chamber of Commerce went to Lubbock for the purpose of submitting a proposition to the Santa Fe Railroad for extending their line from Seagraves to Lovington.

The representative of the railroad assured us that the matter would be taken up with the health officials of the road and that we would receive a definite answer in a short time. It was the opinion of the entire committee that if the matter could have been left to the decision of the local representative, who is thoroughly familiar with the whole situation, there would have been no doubt as to his deciding in favor of making the extension.

But the head officials, who live in Chicago, have decided otherwise and for the present at least, we must abide by their decision.—Lovington (N. M.) Leader.

Mrs. Perry Deckard, of Meadow, was operated on last week at the Lubbock Sanitarium.

MORE PIGS MEAN HIGHER CORN PRICES

The R. F. D. pig survey shows there will be more spring pigs in spite of the hog cholera outbreaks last fall. More pigs to the estimated number of between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000, depending on the kind of a spring it is and the way they are housed will require 40,000,000 to 60,000,000 more bushels of corn to put them onto the market. That increased demand for corn should be a considerable factor in advancing corn prices and increasing the buying power of the Corn Belt farmer again the coming year. Modern hog-houses and equipment are of great assistance in raising profitable litters.

We are glad to see R. M. Good-pasture back on the streets after some two or three months in the Lubbock Sanitarium where he had four blood transfusions. He is looking better all the while, and will go up for another transfusion next week.

B. F. SINGLETARY

On last Saturday night Mr. B. F. Singletary passed away at his parents home in the Wellman community.

Death resulted from an operation following a protracted illness of pneumonia pleurisy.

Mr. Singletary was 28 years old and had lived a useful and worthwhile life. He had taught in the schools of Oklahoma for several years. He was a member of the M. E. church and the Masonic Lodge.

The funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. Thoma from the M. E. church of Brownfield after which the Masons of Seagrave, Lodge took the body and with their impressive burial service placed it to rest in the Brownfield cemetery.

There are left to mourn his untimely going, his parents, one brother and four sisters.—Seagraves Signal.

C. O. Ikard, representing the International Harvester Co., was a business visitor here Monday.

One of the truly delightful and prettily appointed parties of recent occurrence was given Tuesday, February twenty-third, with Mrs. W. R. McDuffie the most charming hostess. Many beautiful afternoon parties have been given this season, and they continue to be more enjoyable and elaborate as the days go by. Mrs. McDuffie's guests appreciated and enjoyed the things done for their pleasure. The "Idle Wives" began the intensely interesting play of Bridge at 3 o'clock sharp. Four tables were conveniently placed for the players. Top score was made by Mrs. Endersen, receiving a pretty lamp. Next high score went to Mrs. Wingerd, an easel mirror. Most tempting and delicious refreshments were served of sandwiches, olives, fruited-nut salad, hot tea, cakes and ambrosia. Each plate held a tiny basket of mints, in Washington decoration. During the game most delicious divinity of generous squares were enjoyed by the players. Table favors were drawn by Mesdames R. L. Bowers, Fred Smith, A. W. CITY POPULATION ROSE FROM 3.3% TO 43.8%

Only 3.3 per cent of the U. S. population lived in cities of 8,000 or more in 1790, compared with 43.8 per cent in 1920, according to the Bureau of Census reports. In other words, nearly 97 per cent of the Bureau of Census reports. In other words, nearly 97 per cent of the population was "rural," working long hours with hand tools to produce enough food and clothing to meet the needs of themselves and the other 3.3 per cent living in the cities. The only "farm machinery" at that time was a wooden plow, the scythe, a wooden rake, a hoe, a cart and a wooden bucket to dip up and carry water for live stock and family, says the Research Department of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers.

George Bragg, manager of the Alexander Drug at Levelland, accompanied by his family, were visitors here Sunday and Sunday night.

MEADOW BRIEFS

By Anaculapias.

A peep at the county papers and a side glance in passing through the hospitals at Lubbock, would lead one to believe that all those who have not been under the surgeons' knife are there now for varied changes in their anatomy.

Well it is the fashion now to just have the thing cut off. Why fool away time "pouring drugs down our necks, of which we know little, into bodies of which we know less." While the work is going on we can snooze quietly and after we return home a fellow can't boast, in our presence, that his stomach has been removed, thoroughly scraped and polished, and then replaced. We too have had some modification of our interior to balance accounts.

The spring fights have opened in Meadow and if anyone has a grievance against a citizen here he can debate the matter in the orthodox twenty-four foot ring until satisfied.

While at the bank a few days since Theodore asked us to guess the amount paid out for cream in this berg the past twenty three days. Our guess was three hundred dollars. He kinder took my breath away by saying over sixteen hundred. I doubt seriously that the amount stated was taken in during the whole of last year. It surely indicates that our people are giving closer attention to this branch of the farm.

Eggs. I have never seen so many in my life. The stores are piled up with them. Pork is also some cheaper and I am eating a chop occasionally where I have been getting liver.

The Legislature has did itself honor by recognizing the Mocking Bird as a Texas product. Tom Love is also after Jim Ferguson and using up the time and per diem of that body trying to even up old scores. If possible Tom is the sorriest of the two.

The Star-Telegram doesn't use such large head lines to tell of Dan's kindness to the unfortunates, as it was accustomed to display when Sister Ferguson grew tender hearted. Even newspapers are very human.

The Masons are billed for the celebration of Washington's Birthday on the night of the twenty-second. The two preachers, Bros. Draper and Duncan and Dr. Moorhead have been selected to discuss the Father of this Country. I kinder feel sorry for his reputation when that trio gets through.

Another youngster put in appearance here Monday morning. This time it is a girl at the home of Luther Vaughn. The Stork is keeping up with the hen and the country is safe.

LUBBOCK, Texas, Feb. 21.—The accompanying photograph shows President Paul W. Horn of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas, wearing a suit of clothes, the cloth of which was manufactured in the school mill by students, from cotton raised on the South Plains of Texas.

President Horn claims that he is "the best dressed man in Texas," although the cotton used in making the material for the suit cost, at present prices, less than one dollar. Dr. Horn is wearing a pair of socks which were likewise made in the textile department of Texas Tech.

Texas Technological College represents the State's efforts to encourage the manufacture of products raised within its own borders. The institution, now in its second year, has an enrollment of fifteen hundred students. The legislature has been asked for an appropriation sufficient to construct additional buildings necessary to care for this large student body.

A SAFE FARMING PROGRAM FOR TEXAS

The above is the title of a little bulletin recently issued by the Extension Department of the A. & M. College, Chas. H. Alvord, author, which should be in the hands of every farmer in Terry county, as it gives plain and simple methods of combatting the one crop idea in language easily understood, how to raise the living at home, and other things besides cotton to which the farmer may turn for part of the money crop.

The frontispiece has an illustration entitled "Southern Farmers' Scale." In one side of the scale is "food and other farm products," and needless to say this side of the scale is hoisted high in the air. In the other side of the scale is cotton, and it almost touches the ground. Underneath are the words: "Out of Balance."

Just as long as the South makes cotton the major crop and then depends on it to buy all the necessities of life, just that long is our bright and glorious South going to be poverty ridden and our children way down the line in illiteracy.

The little book can be had free for the asking, and treats of the community program the farm income, feed crops, safer farming, health of the farm, canning, the family garden, work stock, beef cattle and sheep, the cow, the meat supply, poultry, feeding methods and a lot of other information, including even the orchard.

Let's get away from the one crop idea in Terry and make it bloom like the rose.

YELLOW HOUSE OIL WELL TO BE DRILLED 5600 FT.

Believing that some where under old mother earth there lies a great reservoir, at or near Yellowhouse test, the officials of the company have decided that the drill shall penetrate the bowels of mother earth to the depth of 5600 ft. in search of the much coveted liquid gold.

These are the reports being circulated here. The initial contract depth was reached, the showing looked favorable, hence the additional depth. Oil men who are familiar with this section, believe, that around 3800 to 4200 feet the precious fluid will be found. But who can tell. Only the drill, slowly, but surely, eating its way through the earth, can tell the story. Some where in this section of the South Plains it is an evident fact, that there lies a large reservoir of oil equally as large as any ever discovered in Texas to date, this is talked of, and agreed to by all oil men of authority, but where will it be located is another question.—Sudan News.

NOTICE

Ten per cent penalty will be added to all delinquent school taxes on and after March 1st, 1927 with 6 per cent interest after April 1st, 1927 as the law provides.

CHEVROLET LEADS IN THREE SHIFT TRUCKS

Attaining a production of 112,499 commercial vehicles during 1926, an increase of more than 132 per cent over the preceding year, the Chevrolet Motor Company is now the world's largest manufacturer of gear shift trucks, according to figures just announced by company officials.

The increase is a gain of 64,200 over the 1925 production of 48,299 trucks.

This enormous increase is attributed in no small degree to the numerous refinements and lowered prices of the new trucks. Dealers everywhere reported an enthusiastic reception by the public of these new models.

The 1925 production in its turn had more than doubled the 1924 output of 23,134 trucks.

According to present manufacturing schedules an even greater monthly production is contemplated for the truck division during the coming months to insure dealers a sufficient supply to meet the growing demand.

Production during January 1927, totalling 15,927 trucks, also broke all truck production records for a single month in the history of the company. The previous high mark was in September, 1926, when 12,845 trucks were manufactured.
