BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY APRIL 15, 1927

NUMBER 34

By the Secretary

Another week and no interest being manifested in our county fair, but maybe after we receive a good rain and the sun of prosperity is shining brighter, that some of us will see the necessity of pulling off a good exhibition and the ball will start rolling.

Government farm bulletins seem to be holding the interest of our people as several have been in the past week and secured a supply. Our stock is complete wherein it applies to fruit, poultry, hogs and dairy cattle. Get yours while they last.

This week the commissioners court of Yoakum County will pass upon our petition to open a highway from Plains to the Lea County New Mexico line. Let us hope that their action be favorable. We butted into about three different petitions at Lovington calling for a road across Lea County to connect with the Yoakum County road and as a matter of fact those people need as many as two roads across their precinct but the court will only grant one and naturally it is hard to put it across to where it will absolutely please all of the people.

The highway officials for this district have been appointed and a new county foreman has taken charge, but aside from calling for an eighty foot right of way on all designated highways and a statement that they would repair the route between Brownfield and Gomez. No definite information has been made public as to what might be expected on any other mileage. It is stated that $25,000.00, has been allotted to the county for maintenance and it is hoped that we can find a use for all of it. Last year $14,000.00 was set aside for us and we really received about $2,500.00 and this mostly used in payment of salaries.

The first quarterly report of business done by the three produce houses of Brownfield and shipments over the Sante Fe by our western territory are very interesting and if the present rate is kept up during the remainder of the year we are going to almost double the business of 1926.

I have seen three auto sedans rolling over the city streets within the past two weeks that were paid for with cream and poultry and in addition the grocery bill was taken care of and still some of us say that there is not any money to be made in this business. I was talking with Jim Lindley today and he stated that his wife had sixty five hens and that for the last several weeks had brought a revenue of more than $2.00 each day and that she was more than several weeks behind with her orders. They sell eggs for setting but not at a high price as if purchased out of the county. This is just an example of what others could do. Once in a while some fellow will say that diversification will not pay because if all of us practice it that prices will take a tumble, but that is just the point, not all of us will do so and the fellow that does is getting ready to ride on "easy" street if he is not already there.

Remember, you folks who are expecting to visit the old home or take any kind of vacation, that we have a supply of auto banners in the office for free distribution and we desire every car to be decorated with them and in addition we want to supply you with literature, some of which we have, and additional to be printed shortly.

THE FLAPPER

By A. C. Martin.

Tripping here and tripping there
Or the lawns, the thoroughfare,
Oh what tidings she doth bring;
Sweet precursor of the spring.

With painted lips and powdered nose,
Cheeks the tint of the blushing rose,
With eyes that flash like ocean pearls
Peering out midst dainty curls.

We fancy we are in fairy land,
On some far off golden strand,
Where elpens dance in gorgeous shee

As twinkling feet trip o'er the green,
But then to us she's fairer than
All the fairies of fairy land,
In her syncopated dress;
Sweeter than the erstwhile blest.

Cleanliness, in an industrial city,
is a luxury.

How the children do discipline their parents these days!

Congressman Jones in Brownfield Monday

The town of Brownfield was pleased to have as its guest Monday afternoon, Hon. Marvin Jones, of Amarillo, congressman from this the 18th Texas District in the National legislative body. Only one time before was Mr. Jones in our city, and that was only for a few minutes and the writer failed to meet him on that occasion.

The Congressman kindly dropped in on Brownfield rather unexpectedly, but every minute of the time he was here was put to good use, and he met many old friends and formed new acquaintances that will no doubt be cultivated as the years go by, for we never knew of that young fellow ever losing a friendship once formed.

Mr. Jones addressed the school children at the auditorium in the grade school, and informed us that while he did not know whether it was interesting or not to the children, he himself got a great kick out of it, as he always loved to talk to school children and that they seemed to appreciate his talk very much.

He informed us that he did not have any committee work in Washington until late in the summer, and that he was going to spend a great deal of his time until then in visiting the people of his district, form their acquaintance and see if he could find out their needs and what they want. His address will be Amarillo until late summer. He informed us that Mrs. Jones was visiting her people at Canadian most of the time while he is making the rounds of the district.

Marvin Jones seems to fit in with the people of this district mightily well as he can neither be termed a radical or conservative yet always ready to listen to the advice or petition of either side, and is constantly on duty during sessions to look after the affairs of his district and Texas. He is a young man of pleasing personality and both moral and religious, and has a grasp of the needs of the district that probably no other man in it has. While not a politician in any sense of the word, as his campaigns have always been open and above board few men of his age have carried their districts in elections with the majorities he has always had. In fact, it was considered almost a miracle when he defeated badly the old congressman several years ago who had held the post for years, and when Mr. Jones was practically unknown.

He promised to visit Brownfield again later in the summer.

Local Farmer Ships 73 Bales of Cotton

Probably the largest shipment of cotton by any one Terry county farmer occurred last week when I. M. Smith, who lives three miles northwest of Brownfield, consigned to a cotton firm at Houston 73 bales of his own cotton. Of course cotton buyers have shipped more cotton than this many times, but we seriously doubt if any farmer has shipped that much individual cotton in one consignment.

Mr. Smith informed us that he had got tired of worrying with it himself, and decided to ship to the big Houston warehouse and let the cotton commission firm do the worrying for awhile.

I. M. Smith is one of our successful farmers, but his farm produces much besides cotton, and he is able to ship out his cotton and await a price that suits him, for he has something to live on while waiting for the returns on his cotton. One has but to pass by the Smith farm and view his nice country home with its well kept grounds and orchards, set off to the rear by a large red barn to understand why he can hold out 73 bales of cotton this late in the season and then ship to Houston for returns that suit him.

The only failing, if you may call it one, that Smith has, is the fact that if it turns off dry in summer, he is burning up, or if its too wet, the insects are destroying him, but we notice that he is always on hand in the fall with a good crop. But he can't help his nature any more than a leopard can change its spots. So there you are.

It is a consolation to realize that others have troubles just as perplexing and maddening as our own.

Lady Trades Cream Check for Dry Goods

The writer was in a local dry goods store recently when a lady living out a few miles in the country tendered a cream check she had just received in payment. We did not learn the exact amount of the check, but we do know that she had purchased quite a bundle of dry goods, and that the merchant gave back in change more than $10.00 in cash, because we saw a $10 bill and some silver tendered her. She probably finished at a grocery store all the needs of the family and then got home with some change.

Now, then, we suppose if she had been the wife of Mr. Tumbleweed of Polecat Lake, this transaction would have almost been a disgrace. He probably doesn't believe in disgracing himself by bringing such matters to town, but would have Mrs. Tumbleweed have the purchases charged, if possible, until fall "when we gather the cotton crop" and if necessary mortgage the teams and wagons and everything else up to his eyes in order to have a fall charge account. In fact, Farmer Tumbleweed probably doesn't have a cow or any chickens or even an old sow, for such things around the place of a full pledged cotton farmer are in the way and "too much trouble."

However, this good lady referred to above did not seem to mind what Bro. Tumbleweed might think of producing the living on the farm. She no doubt does not even anticipate trying to go hog wild over diversification as Mr. Tumbleweed seems to understand it, but is willing to help out in the family larder by bringing eggs, cream, poultry and other produce to town, and in the fall and winter months, doubtless their cotton crop is not so large but the children may be spared a few months to attend the neighboring school after the small crop is gathered. They probably gather the cotton crop by themselves and having kept up the family expense with produce the cotton crop is mostly velvet, and they do not have to ask the bank for an extension.

But it takes all kinds of people to make up this old world, and Farmer Tumbleweed has his, yet we hope he "takes a tumble" some of these days, to the fact that modified diversification is o. k.

Organizing a Local Home Mutual Ass'n

Orel Adams and perhaps others have been working at odd times for the past few weeks toward the organization of a Home Mutual Insurance Company for Brownfield and Terry county, and he informed us this week that he was now making rapid headway to that end. He has many over one hundred at present, and is getting new ones every day. According to the State laws, 200 must be had before a permanent organization can be formed, and then after the formation of the organization, it is believed the rest will be easy. Perhaps a full thousand cannot be found just now, but as the county grows that will take care of itself.

That a mutual organization for Terry county would be a good thing is not countered by anyone. There are a number here who belong to one or more of the several in Lubbock, and they can most all testify to the fact that those organizations not only have been prompt in the payment of death claims, but that they know of many instances where these dollars they have paid in for death calls have meant burial expenses and bread and butter to widows and a bunch of orphans.

Those who are in healthy condition at present, but perhaps can't make the grade in an old line company, would do well to see Mr. Adams and be one among those of the charter members. One good thing about the mutual is that generally the husband and wife both become members, and this too, is a good thing for the reason that for children to be left motherless is a bad or worse than being fatherless.

Never undertake any job with the intention of giving it less than your best effort.

Knowledge if cumulative always pays dividends and often declares an extra ten per cent.

Blanton May Make Race for Senate Seat

The Herald has a communication from Hon. Thomas L. Blanton in which he intimates that he will make the race for United States Senate in Texas next year for the place now occupied by Earl B. Mayfield. Mr. Blanton will know definitely as soon as he hears from his friends over Texas, and they are many when one takes a count of the people from the forks of the creek sections, and this is not saying that Blanton is not popular in the towns and cities.

It has been rumored on more than one occasion that Mr. Blanton did not get along well with other congressmen even from Texas, but in conversation with Marvin Jones recently, who represents this the 18th district, he informed us that he always got on well with Mr. Blanton, and that the latter had rendered him much valuable aid when he (Jones) was new in the halls of congress, and especially as to this portion of the 18th that was cut off from the old 16th which had been Mr. Blanton's district. Of course in saying this, Mr. Jones did not in any way commit himself about how he stands in the 1928 senatorial race. In fact that was not mentioned, except that Mr. Jones said he heard something about the race before he left Washington, but it had not been verified at that time.

To our notion anybody that wants to do the right thing and cut out as much graft as possible need have no trouble in getting on with Tom Blanton. He is said to be the hardest worker and the most fearless man in congress. Almost single handed he has ousted from office a proven graffer who was at the head of the World War Veterans' Bureau, whose duty was to have looked after the interest especially of veterans who were insane, but who really was using the office to his own gain. And he was also largely instrumental in forcing the people of the district of Columbia to pay taxes to keep up their city the same as other cities throughout the nation, instead of drawing on the national treasury. For these and many other reasons, the Washington Press and Press Association representatives who owned homes in Washington, have kept what he was doing away from Texas people by suppressing the facts, and Blanton has had to keep them informed by his own resources. But the press of the nation is waking up to Blanton's value, and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch recently said editorially that its prediction of several years ago that Blanton was a useful member of congress had been vindicated by his successful fight to get rid of Fredrick A. Fleming as commissioner of the District of Columbia.

But what might have more strength with people than any other endorsement is the fact that the Democratic Convention in his home county have unanimously endorsed him for U. S. Senate, citing as reasons those in this article, and the fact that our Junior senator had been rather costly having cost the nation more than $100,000 for finally seating him, and recently he has asked and been granted $35,000 for his own expenses. Therefore, Mr. Mayfield is not going to sit very well with Texans generally for reelection. He also recently voted for his own increase in salary.

Prominent Farmer Gets Home Burned

Fire Monday afternoon destroyed the five room country home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Bell of the Needmore community. We understand that most of the household furnishings and clothing were also destroyed. We did not learn whether any insurance was carried or not. The fire is said to have originated from a defective flue.

The alarm was sounded in Brownfield about 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, and it was found that the ceiling around the flue of Jim Huckabee's residence was afire, but the family had succeeded in extinguishing the flames before the fire truck arrived. It seems that the stove pipe had slipped away from the casing flue, permitting the flames to reach the ceiling.

District Manager of Telephone Co. Here

Mr. E. I. Curb, District Manager of the State Telephone Co., with temporary headquarters at Tahoka, was a business visitor in Brownfield last Friday, and during the time paid the Herald a call which was we hope mutually enjoyed.

Mr. Curb did not take unkindly to our comment last week about the printing of their directory, but on the other hand explained very satisfactorily the reason it was not printed locally. Owing to the fact that they had only been organized a short time as the State Telephone Co., of Texas, and have something like 50 exchanges, many of them like Brownfield that have not had a directory in several years, it was expedient that they lose as little time as possible in figuring, and as a consequence, the directory for all exchanges belonging to the State Telephone Co. were sent to Dallas and printed by a concern that makes a specialty of this kind of work, fully meeting the requirements of the company on printing and materials.

However, Mr. Curb informed us that from this on they were going to print a directory at least once a year for each exchange and that the local printers who could handle the job for their exchange or several of them or all of them would be given a chance at least. Mr. Curb by the way is hoping that the Brownfield exchange will have many more rural subscribers when the next directory is made up.

Mr. Curb seems to be a great enthusiast for rural telephones and says the Brownfield exchange has less of them than any other of their exchanges in proportion to urban subscribers and if there is any possible way to remedy this matter and put rural phones in each school community they are going to do it.

It might just be possible that a man will later be employed to work them up and possibly some one to at least write articles for the papers advocating them.

The Herald stands ready at all times to help push rural telephones realizing as does Mr. Curb that every telephone added to the local exchange makes our own phone just that much more valuable. In fact, this would be a good work for the local chamber of commerce this year, and they need not be at any expense in the matter but probably meeting with rural communities at stated times to discuss the matter with them. We hope by the time the next directory is printed that it will be an easy matter to reach each community in the county by phone.

Nolan County Clerk Visits Brownfield

Although now and for years a full pledged citizen of Nolan county, having almost been raised at Maryneal in that county yet Brownfield claims a great interest in Gus Farrar, who is holding down the job as County Clerk of Nolan county for the third term. Gus spent several years of his boyhood days here attending school and working in the Randal Drug store, living with his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Randal. In fact, Brownfield High School has the honor of graduating him, and he in turn claim the honor of being in its first graduating class. Therefore, we are always glad to have Gus visit us and feel that he is just one of the boys returned home.

Gus, wife and little daughter, Margaret, left Sweetwater after business hours Saturday and drove into Lubbock, spending Saturday night with his cousin, Mrs. Percy Spencer. Sunday morning he and family, together with Mrs. Spencer and daughter, Caroline, motored to Brownfield to visit in the J. L. Randal home, where Gus' mother, Mrs. R. L. Farrar has been visiting for the past two weeks. After a fine noon day meal such as Mrs. Randal is capable of producing, Gus and family, also his mother accompanied by the Spencer family left for Sweetwater via Lubbock, where Mrs. Spencer and daughter stopped, and Gus and family went on to their home in Sweetwater, after supper.

Genius has been defined as the ability to see one's activity in true perspective—to lift our heads above the rut of routine.

Ft. Worth Corn Buyer Gives Out Advice

W. F. Craddock, of Fort Worth, one of the officers and stock holders of the West Grain Co., who succeeded another buyer for that company here about six weeks ago, left this week for his home. This big grain company has had a buyer here ever since the market opened directly after January 1st, and perhaps have bought upwards of 75,000 bushels in the county.

In parting, Mr. Craddock said he wanted to give the corn growers of Terry county just a little sound advice, and they could take it or let it alone, and that was for them to get a real good grade of seed corn instead of planting the general mixture mostly offered for sale here. He said it would pay the business men of Brownfield to help in securing seed corn of a good white grade, and all plant the same kind of corn. Thus, with a uniform grade to put on the market, they would get from 5 to 7c per bushel better price, not to mention the fact of several bushels more per acre from a high grade corn. The two combined, he said, would run into dollars in a hurry.

There was no doubt in Mr. Craddock's mind that this is a fine corn country, and he intimated that the mills of central Texas and possibly other places will look to this section in the future for their meal corn, as well as for chops and mixed feed but he was emphatic in his opinion that to get the highest yield per acre, as well as a better price per bushel, they must produce a high grade corn of uniform size and color.

A Curious Hen Egg Brought in Recently

Last week one of John Burnett's boys, who live about 4 miles east of town, brought in an egg laid by a White Orpington pullet that measured 8 inches in circumference the long way and 7 1/2 the short way, which was one of the largest ever brought in here to our knowledge, though we have seen lots of eggs abnormally large containing two yolks.

However, this fact would have passed with only comment of the size which was extra large even for a two yolk egg, or even the soft shelled variety, but on the way home the young man happened to drop the egg, and it was found to contain a small egg, perhaps a shade smaller than the usual egg, perfectly formed inside the large one. This small egg seemed to be perfectly formed, with a hard shell and while it had not been broken open, it no doubt contains the usual white and yolk of normal eggs. So far as the Herald knows, this is the most freakish egg ever brought to this office.

Why Not Plant Seeded Ribbon Cane Seed?

Our old friend L. M. Crawford called in Monday to place an ad about his cane seed, which he obtained from a grower recently who can guarantee they are pure. They are what is known as the Seeded Ribbon Cane, and make the highest quality of syrup to be had. Mr. Crawford has a sample of the syrup as well as the seed at Mr. Estlack's produce house, and wants those interested to see them and sample the syrup. No more delicious syrup can be produced in Texas than on the sandy soils of old Terry, and in view of the fact that thousands of gallons of syrup are shipped in each year, many being greatly inferior to Terry county syrups, it behooves all who will to produce at least enough to run each farm, provided a mill can be found in a reasonable distance.

Good, wholesome, pure sorghum syrups are good for the human being, containing abundance of sugar, they are of high food value, and easily digested. Each farm should as far as possible supply their own tables with this delicious food, especially if they like homemade syrup, and want people do.

Mr. Homer Lasiter and little son, of Tahoka, returned this week from Lubbock, where the little fellow recently underwent an operation at one of the sanitariums.

LAMESA CAR WRECKED; ONE OCCUPANT KILLED

On last Saturday evening Whitfield Colbert and wife, accompanied by her father, Mr. Holden, started, after the bank closed, to visit Mr. Colbert's father at Stamford and near Hamlin in crossing a dip as they emerged from same they hit a wooden culvert when a tire blew out and the car went over killing Mr. Holden instantly and injuring both Mr. Colbert and his young wife. He was not seriously injured, but she, at last account, was still in a dangerous condition from internal injuries and broken bones in back and arm.

The body of Mr. Holden, whose home is near here on the farm, was returned Monday to Lamesa and buried here on Tuesday.

This is certainly a sad affair and this whole community was saddened on Saturday when the news reached the First National Bank, where Mr. Colbert is an employee. His father, R. V. Colbert is a resident of Stamford and has banking interests as well as other interests over the west.

We sincerely hope that the condition of Mrs. Colbert may be reported improved at a very early date.

We sympathize deeply with the bereaved ones of both families.

The young people are very popular here and Mr. Holden was a man of solid, substantial character.—Lamesa Reporter.

MEADOW BAND TO RESUME PRACTICE

The Meadow Band has been inactive for the past few months, on account of several reasons, but the members have decided to resume their practice and push the band work to some advantage and pleasure. They will meet Monday night at the Review office for their first practice and all members are urged to be present so that the practice will begin promptly not later than 8 o'clock. Other men and boys who contemplate joining the band are invited to be present and align themselves and see about an instrument. Let's everybody get behind the band and make it go. We can have a splendid band in Meadow if given proper encouragement.—Meadow Review.

Miss Ann Hamilton returned Saturday from Fort Worth, where she has been visiting friends.

FISH AND GAME COMMITTEE GIVES FISHING LAW

AUSTIN, Texas, April 13.—Replying to inquiries as to how, when and where one may fish, the Game, Fish and Oyster Department today gave out a brief outline of laws with particular reference to fresh water fishing.

Do not use nets or artificial bait in March and April, except in ponds or lakes owned privately or by clubs or cities, and which are not subject to overflow by stream or creek.

The taking of bass under 11 inches and white perch or crappie under seven inches is unlawful and the purchase or sale of same is prohibited.

Those who fish for the market require a yearly license which costs one dollar, and shall pay a tax of 20c a hundred pounds on fish sold.

The angler license law, effective June 18 in all state waters, requires that any person who uses artificial bait, in or outside his home county, shall procure an angler's license. The cost is $1.10 for residents and $5 for persons from outside the state, but such outsiders may procure a five days license for $1.10.

The closed season on rainbow trout is January, February, Mar., April and May. They may not be sold or taken under 14 inches.

In addition, there are special laws for certain counties.

At no time is it permitted to use seines, or sell bass perch, crappie or catfish in the counties of Comal, Guadalupe, Bexar, Kerr, Bandera and Medina. Only ten bass and ten crappie may be taken in any one day, and closed season on artificial bait is February, March, and April.

A special law for Burnet, Williamson, Lampasas, Grayson, Bosque, Cooke, Denton, Coryell, Hamilton, Erath, Dallas and Hood counties permits seining for sucker, buffalo, carp and shad during the months of July, August and September.

With the above exceptions, at no time is it permitted to use seines or to sell bass, white perch, crappie or catfish in the counties of Burnet, San Saba, Brown, McCulloch, Edwards, Coleman, Concho, Menard, Mason, Gillespie, Kimble, Sutton, Kinney, Uvalde, Real, Kerr, Comal, Valverde, Bandera, Reeves, Ward, Loving, Pecos, Medina, Bexar, Hunt, Runnels, Rains, Williamson, Zavalla, Dimmit, Travis, Lampasas, Milam, Llano. Taking more than 35 fish in any one day is prohibited. In using minnow seines for procuring bait, fish over three inches long must be returned to the water. Leaving fish on the bank to die when not intended for use is prohibited.

The recent legislature outlawed seines in Marion, Harrison, Smith and Rusk counties. Also special law governs fishing in the Big Wichita lakes.

SOPHS ELECT THEIR QUEEN

In the class meeting Monday, April 11, the Sophs by majority vote elected Miss Voncile Holgate for their May Queen and Miss Florence Holt as princess.

Since Voncile is a real good sport and is also popular both in school and out, we "Sophs" feel like, with the support of the town, we have wonderful prospects of presenting on May 2, Miss Voncile Holgate as May Queen.

Here during the monsoon period, usually from May to September, inclusive, the heavy rains have been recorded. At the present time, the average precipitation for the month of April is 1.47 inches.

Coloma, City of Gold,

Pathetic in Its Ruin

Coloma is an unknown name today, but three-quarters of a century ago every American able to speak had it at his tongue's end. There that New Jersey adventurer, James Wilson Marshall, discovered gold in January, 1848, and started the rush of fortune seekers from all the world to California, a writer in the New York Sun recalls. Coloma grew quickly to a town of ten thousand inhabitants and boasted of all the luxuries that a pioneer could demand. A stranger wandering among the hills of El Dorado county recently rediscovered it. He found a country store and a post office in the midst of a cluster of deserted shops and houses. The mail carrier said that in the whole community there were scarcely a hundred and fifty persons. In the graveyard on the hillside was the only reminder of Coloma's fame, a memorial to Marshall, the bronze statue surmounting it pointing to the place of California's first gold discovery.

Coloma had dreams of magnificence in the early fifties. Coloma then had a dozen hotels, a street lined with stores, a hundred saloons, as many wide-open gambling places and dance halls, an express office, three schools, four churches and a jail. The shells of the dance halls, the saloons and the gambling places remain. The churches and schools passed generations ago. The jail that had housed the bad men, the killers and crooked gamblers long ago fell into ruins.

First Settlement in Oregon Was Astoria

The first permanent settlement in Oregon was founded at Astoria by agents of the Pacific Fur company, who arrived at the mouth of the Columbia river 115 years ago. The fur company was backed by John Jacob Astor, but the men engaged by him to invade the northwestern wilderness were Canadians, a majority being of Scotch descent.

The party left Montreal in a big canoe and made their way down the St. Lawrence, thence to the Hudson and New York, from which port they sailed on the ship Tonquin, which doubled Cape Horn and proceeded to Hawaii, sailing thence for the Columbia river. Arrived at the mouth of that mighty stream, they built a fort, calling it Astoria, which gradually developed into the town and city of that name.

Tea-Totalers

The English poor owe their indigestion to their mania for tea drinking. An hour before he gets up every Englishman drinks on an empty stomach a huge cupful of tea as strong as it can be brewed. This furnishes the foundation for the tea jag that he will build up in the course of the day.

A peasant woman in an English village once asked an American visitor to have a cupful of tea. But the tea was as black as ink, and the American declined.

"How long have you had that teapot simmering on the stove?" she asked.

"Why, miss, I never take it off," the peasant woman replied. "I put in a fresh pennyworth when it gets weak and then, when the pot gets full of leaves, I put in my hand and pull out a handful for my old man to smoke."

What Interested Him

One of our customers is a merchant who thinks, eats, and sleeps in terms of business. His business interests him more than anything else in the world. One night, according to the story, his wife discovered him standing over his baby's crib. She saw in his face rapture, doubt, admiration, despair, ecstasy, incredulity.

Naturally, she was touched at this somewhat unusual parental attitude, so with glistening eyes she arose and slipped her arms around him.

"A penny for your thoughts," she said in a voice tremulous with tenderness.

Startled into consciousness, he blurted out: "For the life of me, I can't see how anybody can make a crib like that for $3.49."—Old Colony News-Letter.

Artificial Pearls

The method used by the Buddhist priest in producing pearl images was to insert a small wooden wedge between the two shells of the mussel, when these were open, to keep them from closing. All mussels can only open their shell a little way, just enough to extend the foot by means of which they slowly plow through the mud of the river bottom, and two tubes, one bringing in water loaded with microscopic animals and plants upon which the mussel feeds, and oxygen for breathing, the other carrying away the waste water and refuse. The wedge once quickly and carefully slipped in makes it possible to work in the interior.—Nature Magazine.

China's Many Rulers

The early condition of China was tribal, which before Christ merged into a vast feudal system nominally ruled by many contemporaneous dynasties, dated from 2205 B. C. The king of Ts'in put down all other rulers and assumed the title of Hwang Ti or emperor. The principal dynasties from this period are Han, 206 B. C. to 220 A. D.; Tang, 618 to 906; Sung, 960 to 1279; Yuan the Mongol, 1280 to 1367; the Ming, 1368 to 1644; the Ch'ing or Ts'ing Mancho Tartar, 1644 to fall of the empire and date of republic.

MASONIC MAGAZINES THE OLD AND THE NEW

Washington, D. C.—This month marked the advent of The Mountaineer Mason, into the circle of Masonic magazines. It is a monthly magazine published by the Masonic Research Society of West Virginia, at Morgantown. It offers much Masonic information and many interesting articles concerning the Craft. Every reader is invited to make literary contributions to the magazine from month to month.

With the March issue, The Freemason, a Masonic magazine published in Toronto, Canada, completed its forty-sixth year of continuous publication. There has been no change in the editorial or business management of this magazine since its establishment in 1881. A record which is believed to be unprecedented in the history of Craft journalism.

A part of Texas as large as an average state lies below 200 feet above sea level and another section as large is about 3,000 feet above.

Official paper of Terry County.

We can make bootleg whiskey out of corn and get into the penitentiary, while an over production of cotton will only get us into the poor house. But we can also feed the chickens, the hogs, the cows, and the family on the corn and keep out of both the pen and the poor house, and that's the reason we are for more corn and less cotton, but every fellow to his own notion.—Jayton Chronicle.

If it were not for the little bunches of mesquite bushes scattered over the town section, all our shucks would probably be back on the farms where they would do most good. But it being otherwise and the "if" still standing up like a stonewall, it behooves us to really do something about "clean-up day" besides talk about it.

Some of the farmers are planting cotton this week, according to reports, and they say they have enough deep moisture to bring it up. With the deep season we now have, some good showers during the growing season will produce another bumper crop. Turn up your old hat in front, and take another hitch in your old belt or galluses, but don't go hog wild over the uncrowned king.

With nearly six hundred thousand dollars on deposit in the three banks of old Terry, the barns bursting with feed, some more cotton and corn for sale, most of the barnyards beautified by the presence of old Pide and her daughters; Biddy and her broods; the old Sow and her grunting herd, there is no likelihood of any alarming conditions here by a jug full.

The storm clouds are already gathering for a manful battle for the office of Junior Senator of Texas in 1928. If you have any idea that hot political battles are over just because Jim Ferguson is out of the running, be at once undeceived, for we still have lots of the politically ambitious in Texas yet, and you can bet your last measley dime that Earl Mayfield is not going to give up his office without a fight, and Tom Blanton is some fighter if we do say it. Then there are others perhaps, ready at a given time to sail their old head-pieces into the arena.

We doubt if there is a person under the canopy of heaven that can say they enjoy a sandstorm, like for instance we have here for about three months of the year, but other countries have bad features too. All their coons are not up one tree either; there are lots of them in six holes yet. A citizen was telling us this week of an incident that illustrates the point. One of our boys who was practically reared here went back east to another state about a year ago, but returned recently, and one day when the sand was drifting down the main stem at a mile per clip, one of the old timers said to him: "We are having a pretty good sandstorm today, aren't we?" Yes, said the prodigal, but there are worse things than sandstorms. I gathered my corn this year on a floating log and picked my cotton in a tub floating down a middle." Now, folks, you may think he was joking, but the fact can be substantiated. Which will you have, something like the above, or a dry field for gathering and face a few sandstorms in the spring for the privilege?

There is hardly any section of the south with more rare beauty painted into the landscape than on the South Plains of Texas in April, May and June, and if it were not for our sandstorms, no country would be more pleasant at this season of the year, for hardly a night passes the year round but that some covering is required before the break of day to make one comfortable, and a blanket at this season of the year is almost indispensable. About the first flower of the prairie noticeable, and it almost comes with the first sprigs of green grass, is the butter-cup, and right now the very earth around the vacant lots of the city are a verdant bower of snowy white and golden yellow butter-cups. About the time we have begun to tire of them and wish for a change, the earth will next be covered in a purple blossom that any king would envy for his royal robes. In fact, these flowers, whose names we know not, are already peeping up here and yon. A little later on a brilliant yellow bloom will cover the prairie as a carpet, interspersed here and there by a small white flower with a coal black center, and from then on to fall, if there are showers, the change is ever noticeable, each change of color seemingly trying to excel its predecessor. At certain seasons of the year, more than a dozen different hued wild flowers may be found in the space of only a few feet. Truly no section is more blessed than the great South Plains with radiant wild flowers.

M. B. Cavanaugh and wife, of Floy dada, were here a few minutes Wednesday and paid the Herald a short call. Mr. Cavanaugh recently sold the Whitedeer paper to the Nunn interests, and is now looking for a paper on the South Plains. He was surprised to find Brownfield such a lively little city, this being his first trip to Brownfield.

SOPH'S DAY

The Sophs had a wonderful time last week, Thursday March 31, out at Rich Lake. The sand was blowing but that did not interfere with our fun. We met at the Methodist church about 8 o'clock and left for the lake in a truck and cars.

We reached the lake about 10:30 o'clock and engaged in games until lunch hour which we enjoyed most of all.

After lunch part of the Sophs walked around the lake while the rest were busy exploring a cave which was found by one of the boys.

The Sophs wish to thank the chaperons Mesdames Holgate and Kendrick and our sponsor Mr. E. G. Lewis for tutelage on that day.

Although every one was tired from the excursion we all enjoyed ourselves at the party which was given that night at the home of Mrs Dalton Lewis by Lee Orval who is one of our Soph boys.

Spot to Be Guarded

Authorities say the Adams apartment is the most sensitive spot on the man body. Pressure with both thumb at this point is almost insupportable while a sharp blow there will paralyze the power of speech and interfere with breathing and swallow to a degree that is torture.

Mad as a March Hare

March is supposed to be the month when hares run the field spasmodically in all directions, hence the frequency of this phrase. As "mad as a hatter" is another common expression, it is supposed to be a corruption of "mad as a hatter" when "atter" means "viper"—so "mad as a hatter" really means "venomous as a viper."—In Minneapolis Star.

MRS. KNIGHT HOSTESS TO FRIDAY "42" CLUE, APRIL 2

A most charming hostess was Mrs. J. B. Knight on Friday afternoon when she entertained the Friday Forty Two Club. Her party home was exceedingly dainty in appropriate touches of Easter ideas. Draperies were most beautiful by the addition of Easter Lilies and Iris for decoration. Each table had a gold rabbit marker and dainty score pads. Five tables were conveniently arranged for the players and the game began in real earnest about 3:30 o'clock. An Easter hunt preceded the distribution of tally cards. Guests were asked to hunt for a package bearing her name. These packages were hidden promiscuously in the two entertaining rooms. The "Sunshine" friends were all happy in the thought that they had made some one else nappy in the nice little game. Lovely gifts are given and received the first meeting in each month; this is a beautiful sentiment and in which all the members share. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Collins served Angel Food and sherbet to the guests. Easter rabbits, very small fluffy bunnies, were given as plate favors. Guests enjoying the lovely party were: Mesdames Dalton Lewis, W. C. Smith, Claude Hudgens, S. H. Holgate, J. L. Cruce, W. H. Collins, J. E. Michie, R. M. Kendrick, W. B. Downing, J. H. Griffin, Ben Hurst, H. R. Winston, Edgar Self, C. R. Rambo, Pat B. Brothers, H. W. McSpadden, H. O. Longbrake, Flem C. McSpadden, Baldwin and Dallas.

Mr. J. A. Miller, Mrs. John B. King and Mr. James D. Miller are entertaining Mrs. Chester A. Quiett of Fort Worth. Mrs. Quiett arrived Sunday noon. She will be remembered by her intimate friends as Miss Emily Miller.

PICNIC PARTY

The young girls of the B. S. G. Club enjoyed a picnic on the Base Ball field on Saturday afternoon, being chaperoned by Mrs. Simon Holgate. Their usual lunch was enjoyed. The Club met previous to the time for their outing at the home of Katherine Holgate; Katherine and Patricia Shelton being hostesses for the Club meet. Fruit, cake and punch was served the young members present. Before the picnic crowd adjourned marshmallows were toasted. Following the entertainment, the girls and boys played games at the home of Donald King, until ten thirty. Having a part in the joy of the day were Martha Graves, Patricia Shelton, Alma Brown, Jeannette Brown, Katherine Holgate, Gertie Goodpasture, Pauline Hunter, Eileen Ellington, Donald King, Murphy May, Sawyer Graham, Dell Smith, R. L. Lewis, Albert Ray Brownfield.

JUNIOR ENDEAVORS HAVE ENJOYABLE MEET

Sunday at the 3 o'clock hour the Junior Endeavors had an enjoyable program. A well made apple tree in miniature occupied the center of the Endeavor table. Leaves bearing questions were taken from the tree and answered very satisfactorily and wisely by the children. "The first beautiful garden" and the earth's primitive appearance was discussed. Decorations applicable to the lesson will be used each meeting. "The big house and the eight people saved" will be the lesson for April 17.

Mrs. Arthur Sawyer was shopping and visiting in Lubbock, Saturday.

MESDAMES McSPADEN HAVE DELIGHTFUL PARTY

Mesdames H. W. and Flem C. McSpadden were charming hostesses at a lovely social meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary Society, on Monday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Most inviting were the living rooms made ready for the reception of their guests. A brief business period preceded the interesting 42 amusement that occupied an hour or more of recreation. A beautifully hand painted and ornamented pillow was presented the newly elected president Mrs. E. G. Alexander; an artistic needle receptacle was given the newly elected Vice-President, Mrs. John King. Ladies enjoying the social afternoon were Mrs. M. B. Sawyer, Mrs. E. G. Alexander, Mrs. Tom May, Mrs. J. H. Griffin, Mrs. J. E. Shelton, Mrs. John King, Mrs. Chester A. Quiett, Mrs. F. M. Ellington, Mrs. W. H. Harris, Miss Mary Perkins, Mrs. W. H. Dallas. The hostesses served most delicious strawberry cream and angel food cake. Dainty Easter baskets filled with candies were enjoyed, these were placed on each table. Pretty Easter plate favors were given. The party was thoroughly in keeping with the genuine refinement of the home.

MRS. MILLER DELIGHTS "IDLE WIVES"

Mrs. James D. Miller was club hostess to the "Idle Wives" on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Easter motifs were used with delicately tinted score pads and tallies in pink and lavender. Guests arriving on time received credit for so doing. Bridge was very much enjoyed with the customary exclamations of delight throughout the entertaining hours. Scores compared gave highest honor to Mrs. A. W. Endersen, a handsomely designed serving tray. For second high, was Mrs. W. R. McDuffie, who received a lovely silver fruit bowl. Mrs. Chester Quiett, guest of honor was presented with a prettily embroidered boudoir pillow.

The genial hostess was assisted by Mrs. John King, in the serving. Elegantly prepared courses were served as follows: Fruit salad on lettuce leaves, very crisp, olives, triangular sandwiches, iced tea, fresh tomatoes; the second plate contained Devils Food cake, strawberry cream, and tiny baskets of various colorings filled with Easter sweets.

Playing Bridge and enjoying this hospitable lovely home, were, Mesdames Quiett, King, May, McGowan, Bell, E. G. Alexander, Bowers, A. M. and A. R. Brownfield, M. L. Copeland, McDuffie, Henry Alexander, Fred Smith, Shelton, Michie, Endersen, Wingerd and Dallas.

MRS. WINGERD ENTERTAINS MON. NIGHT WITH BRIDGE

One of the charming and happy social events of the past week was when Mrs. Roy Wingerd entertained the "Night Bridge Club" at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brownfield on Monday night, April eleventh. Guests playing Bridge were Mr. and Mrs. Tom May, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. King, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Holmes, Dr. and Mrs. DuBois, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brownfield, Mrs. Chester Quiett, Mr. and Mrs. R. Brownfield, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Endersen. High score was made by Mrs. Tom May, receiving a picture, "The Whistlers Mother." Next to high score was a beautiful parrot plaque. Gentlemen having high score were Mr. R. L. Bowers and Mr. W. A. Bell, second. High prize was a desk calendar. Next was leather bill fold. The charming hostess and assisting ladies served delicious refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches, potato chips, fruit cup and Angel Food cake.

P. T. A. ENTERTAINMENT FRIDAY NIGHT 7:45 O'CLOCK

Quaint and old time costumes will be worn by the entertainers Friday night at the Auditorium. Grown up taking part will be dressed as children were 50 years ago. Old fashioned instruments played in an old fashioned way will be a feature. Don't miss hearing the debaters, Judge Neill, Judge Price, Judge Graves and Judge Winston, in resolved: "That boys and girls were better 50 years ago than they are today." Hear the dutch recitations. Come enjoy a hearty laugh and help a good cause the P. T. A. in their work and efforts. Remember Friday night, April 15th.

"SOPH'S" WEINER ROAST

The Soph Class and our sponsor Mr. E. G. Lewis met on the football field about eight-thirty last Wednesday evening March 30. Snappy games began immediately and lasted until about 9:30. Then we were all ready for our cats. We roasted our weiners and our feast began. Soon we discovered that large rain drops were falling swiftly on us. Mr. Lewis made the motion that we all go down to his home and not let the rain interfere with our fun. This we did. Here we were entertained by beautiful solos rendered to us by Miss Voncile Holgate and Joe Shelton (a spy). Those not being interested in the music played "cards" and "snap." At any rate we were all highly entertained. Some few of the Sophomore boys spent the remainder of the night on the High School building accompanied by a few of their bitter enemies the "Fish" and Seniors. We understand the "Slimes" were very much disappointed when no "Soph" flag was raised.

ATTENTION PARENTS OF BROWNFIELD SCHOOL

Upon investigation we find that there are quite a number of students making failing grades in High School work who should be making passing grades. We believe this is the result of too many parties being given at a time when students should be doing their school work. If you are interested in the development of a good standard school in your community, and the best interest in your own child's education we would be glad if you would not allow parties on school nights. We suggest that every effort be made to encourage students to finish the year's work with as high standing as possible.

Too many students idle away the time during the six weeks term and come finals unprepared to stand the tests, make failing grades and feel that they are not given a fair deal when we refuse to give the tests over for them. This condition should not be tolerated at home or at school.

The High School Faculty in general assembly have voted to make this announcement in order to solicit your co-operation in obtaining the best results from our school work.

O. W. Fagala, Supt. of Schools.

THINK YOU HAVE "IT"? GO TO RIALTO; FIND OUT!

Clara Bow's initial starring production, "It," is apt to start a storm of mental measuring. After seeing the picture, men and women may well wonder whether they possess "It" that marvelous power which Elinor Glyn claims can attract people against their better judgment.

If you imagine you have "It," ask yourself the following questions: Are you at all self-conscious? Have you a magnetic appeal? Are you a masterful lover? Are you confident of yourself? Have you faith in yourself? Can anything influence you? Are you fearless? Have you individuality? Are you true to yourself? Are you capable of a deep love? Upon answering these queries and battling one hundred per cent, be assured that you have "It."

Madame Glyn has imbued the character played by Miss Bow with a superfluous amount of "It." In fact she—well, come on down to the Rialto next Monday and Tuesday and find out for yourself. Antonio Moreno plays opposite the star. Clarence Badger directed for Paramount.

Mesdames J. L. Randal, Jack Stricklin, of this city and R. L. Farrar of Sweetwater, were visitors in Leveland and Lubbock last Friday.

Mrs. Bob Snodgrass and little daughter, Patsy Nell, of Snyder, are here visiting her mother, Mrs. R. W. Glover.

NEEDMORE

Rev. Mr. Clinton, of Lubbock filled his appointment here Sunday. A large, appreciative and attentive audience greeted his coming and enjoyed his good sermon very much. He promised to be with us again next second Sunday. Next Sunday there will be an Easter program at the school house. In the forenoon the youngsters will entertain with songs and readings dedicated to, and commemorating the resurrection of our Saviour, after which, dinner will be spread in the good old fashioned way. In the afternoon Sunday School and an egg hunt. Come bring the kiddies and lets enjoy a good time. But listen, Prof. Greer and Willie McDonald have secretly formed a pact to begin fasting on Thursday. So you had better bring with you a well filled basket, otherwise, the boys, well, you'll just go away hungry, thash all. Early Monday morning, fire of undetermined origin destroyed the home of Mr. Bell, however practically all of his household plunder was saved. No insurance, his policy having expired only a few days ago, the community sympathizes with him in his loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Bledsoe, of Lubbock, were visitors at Needmore Sunday. J. H. A. C. and C. C. Martin attended the Masonic Lodge Saturday evening at Brownfield. Mr. Weber and Clifford Pray were business visitors in Lubbock Saturday.

Seagraves Light Plant Now in Operation

The light plant will soon be completed, and all business houses will be lighted by the first of April, and other lights will be in operation as soon as possible thereafter.

Mr. Meyers and Mr. Karnes, his partner, of Wheeler came in the News office Monday and gave us a special invitation to come over and look things over. We were delighted with its appearance.

The plant is equipped with first class machinery works. It has an eighty-five horse power engine but is able to carry a much larger load. It only takes about three minutes to "steam up" and the lights are ready to go. In addition to the mechanical room will be the store room, where they will keep electric washing machines, toasters, irons, hair curlers, etc.

Mr. Meyers and Mr. Karnes are to be complimented on bringing such a wonderful addition to our little city. Give them a visit.—Seagraves Signal.

HEARD "IN CONFERENCE"

Nine men called, on important business, and wanted to see Mr. Jinks. The girl said: "Mr. Jinks is in Conference." It is interesting to note just what happened at the conference:

Half box of Odorona Cigars smoked.

Observation made that Nita Naldi was too fat to be a perfect Vamp.

Arrangements made to buy box at next big ball game.

Vice President insists that he did not lie when he went around the course in 64 flat.

Production Manager willing to bet that Coolidge will get the Presidency if he'll stop talking over the radio.

Amarillo—Plans have been announced by the Empire Gas and Fuel Company for a pipeline to carry gas from the Panhandle field to Kansas City the cost of the line to be approximately $20,000,000.

Plainview—Extension of the white way in the business section of Plainview will be made at once under a contract just entered into.

Clyde—A modern water supply and sewer system have just been completed in this city.

WHAT'S DOING IN WEST TEXAS

By W. T. C. of C.

Stanton—A meeting of all Commissioners Courts and chambers of commerce of the 17 counties containing non-taxable University lands has been called to convene here April 19, by J. V. Bush, manager of the Stanton Chamber of Commerce. A delegate from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be present to help formulate a plan of procedure. The idea of the meeting is for all counties to decide just how they want to handle the situation and let the West Texas Chamber attempt to put the proposition over.

Lampasas—Distinct pleasure at the reception they received during the Heart of Texas tour was expressed by President Arthur P. Duggan and Manager Homer D. Wade of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce here at the close of their good will trip through the Oil Belt District. The tour was started immediately following the banner convention at Baird March 23, and the itinerary included Cross Plains, Rising Star, Cisco, Gorman, Comanche, Brownwood, Mercury, Brady, and this place at which point the trip ended. Well attended, enthusiastic meetings greeted the West Texas officials at each town visited.

Lometa—The sheep raising industry is increasing materially in this section. More and better flocks than ever before are being raised. Most of the spring clip of wool has been contracted for a reasonable price and as a result many thousands of dollars have been put into circulation here.

Sweetwater—Work on the Bankhead highway is being pushed to the utmost here so that the 18 mile stretch that has already had the nine inch sledge stone base put down will be completed before the real tour season gets in full swing.

Plemons—A bond election for voting on issuing of $1,250,000 bonds for paving or hard surfacing road in Hutchinson county will be held here April 16.

L. F. Hudgens and wife made a trip to Amarillo the first of last week to carry their daughter, Mrs. Tobie Rentfro, also Mrs. Ross Rentfro from home, who had been visiting here.

J. J. Nettles, old time citizen of Meadow, had business in our city Monday, and called on the Herald to hand us a dollar to put up the time one year on the paper of our mutual friend, L. J. Brooks, of Meadow.

Oranges, hard wheat, rice, cotton and corn grow equally well in Texas.

ESCATO SUERTE

The Escato Suerte met at the grade school building last Friday night and enjoyed a brief program after which the class practiced "Kentucky Belle." Visitors were Miss Sue Crawford, Doc Powell and Eddie Ballard. The Club always is glad to have visitors and appreciates all the interest that may be taken in it.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

The members of the Grades and High School were honored by an address from a well known and much esteemed visitor on Monday, April 11, at the Grade School Auditorium, in the person of Cong. Marvin Jones of Amarillo. His talk was very much enjoyed and was very inspiring, being of an educational nature and showing the importance of general knowledge rather than fact learning.

Miss Ruth Lewis, the Junior Sponsor and Spanish teacher, has issued invitations to the members of the Junior Class and Spanish Club to an Easter party on Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Randall.

Mr. Lewis and Mr. Tannery, distinguished teachers in the Brownfield school made a pleasure trip to New-Orleans, Saturday to see the sights.

MAY FETE TO BE GIVEN

Under the direction of Miss Aline Phillips expression teacher, the grade school and high school will give a May Fete on May 2. There will be a queen from the high school elected from the four nominations from the classes in high school. The Juniors have as their candidate Miss Helen Jackson, the beautiful daughter of Principal J. B. Jackson. Vote for Queen Helen, from the House of Jackson!

Mr. E. G. Lewis due to trouble at the racket store gave the Juniors a terrible, awful, extremely difficult, and not at all mediocre exam last week. We sincerely hope he is recovering from his sarcasm. Gee! Hope he gets over his trouble by final exams.

Mr. Scott's water dog, Lucifer Greenleaf Scott, Jr., was unsuccessful in his attempt to swallow some banana oil which was left unthoughtfully within his reach by his master and in consequence he has gone west, which has caused dreadful grief among the student body. Rev. Eddie Ballard will preach the funeral, which will be under the auspices of the Junior class, and Blue Graham will be pall bearer.

Meadow Defeats Brownfield

A very interesting baseball game was played on Friday afternoon at Meadow, Texas, in which Brownfield was beaten 2 to 4 by the opposing team. The local boys have not had much time for practice and they expect to do better in the future, with the support of the home town fans.

Miss Robbie Hardin is gaining considerable experience as a school instructor. Monday she succeeded in teaching a very thick class of Freshmen for a period.

Many of the girls are thinking of their new Easter bonnets, especially the Seniors, who are by far the loveliest ladies of the school (in the estimation of the Seniors.)

Mr. Taylor was seen at church Sunday night in very good company. For further information see Mr. J. T. Taylor.

Fairy Tale

Once upon a time Blue Graham was visiting in the hall without Mr. Jackson sending him to Study Hall.

Little grains of humor,
Little bits of bluff,
Makes the simple Junior
Think he's just the stuff.

Blessings on thee, Little Dame,
Bare armed girl's with knees the same;

With thy rolled down silken hose,
And thy short, transparent clothes,
With thy red lips redder more,
Smear'd with lip stick from the store,
Out on Sunday for a ride

With thy beads close by thy side,
Wags that shock the preacher's rules,
Such knowledge never learned in school.

From my heart I give thee joy,
"Cause I wasn't born a lonesome boy.

Mr. Jackson—"Richard put your feet under your desk and study."
Richard—"There ain't room."

Bluford Hunter came in this week from Amarillo, where he has been holding down a chair in a barber shop and will visit with home folks for a few weeks.

An easy loser takes from the winner two-thirds of the joy of victory. Every married man thinks he would be rich if he had remained single.

Light eating and deep breathing lead to quick and clear thinking.
