

PAVING IS BEING RUSHED FORWARD WITH SPEED

Four Blocks Will Be Open For Traffic By Saturday, and Several Others By the Following Week. Open Weather Has Aided Rapid Construction Lately

The beautiful spring like weather has aided the paving progress for the past two weeks wonderfully, and the Panhandle Construction Co. have certainly taken advantage of it by using every man they possibly could to push the work while the sun shines. At the time we are writing this, the Higginbotham block northwest of the square has been released for traffic, and the Cicero Smith-Herald block was to be released Tuesday night for traffic. Brick work is progressing on the south side of the square, and it is now thought that both it and the west side of the square will be ready for traffic by Saturday night, at least.

In the meantime, concrete is being poured on the east side of the square, and it was thought the graders would be ready for the concrete on north fifth street as soon as the east side of the square is finished. Curbing has all been set, and as soon as the blocks mentioned are finished, it is thought that Main street will then be ready to pave for eight blocks. The more the people see the results of the paving and how much it is adding to the betterment of the city, the more they become convinced that paving is the very thing we need. In fact, we have talked to some of the past few days who were opposed to paving that now seem resigned to it if not really glad that it is going on. They can now see that it is going to enhance the value of their property and make it more salable. We all know that building operations in all cities follow the pavement.

We understand that the construction company have decided to go on with paving on east Main and fight it out with those who refuse to sign up, in the courts, and take judgement. We are certainly glad that no unpaved portions are left on that beautiful and costly thoroughfare without paving and unsightly mud holes. All will be proud of their paving after it is put down, and we believe will be willing to pay for it without process of law, because they are all high minded people, and they possibly have their reasons for not signing up for pavement. We cannot always see the other fellow's viewpoint in the matter.

We have been informed that double parking will not be tolerated when the paving is completed, but there will be several blocks where hardly any parking has been done heretofore that will be paved, and be used for parking after the paving is done. We have also been informed that the city will have some $30,000 left that has not been appropriated after the present 15 blocks are paved, and property owners on some of the other blocks are getting together to make an effort to get their streets paved. Now is the time to do it while the company is here with their machinery. Get busy.

Times Have Changed

Has Shelled About 150,000 Bushels Corn

In conversation Saturday with Mr. C. W. Tankersley, who lives in the draw in the southern part of the city limits, he informed us that he had shelled in the neighborhood of 150,000 bushels of corn since he started in January, and we presume he has already passed that figure by this time. Mr. Tankersley has one of the best shelling equipments in this section of the state, and does shelling here for some of the biggest milling plants in north Texas.

During the conversation, Mr. Tankersley informed us that he had sold six cars of baled shucks, four of which had already been billed and loaded. These baled shucks are bringing some $69 f. o. b. Brownfield, and are going to the eastern part of the state. One car, however was billed to Alexandria, La. He intimated that he might ship several more cars before the season is over.

Now, the people of Terry county never feed shucks, and we doubt seriously that the dumb brutes of Terry county would eat them if they were thrown out to them unless they were spiced up with a little salt, cotton seed meal and other relishes, but from all accounts, they are readily consumed by the hungry cattle and other livestock down where the long pines grow. Well, we imagine that they have a better taste than pine needles to the old Pides and Bossies and Brindles down there. Cattle on the Plains soon develop a kind of aristocratic taste, and its good bundle sorghum, sudan, kaffir or alfalfa for them or nothing, which shows that it is worth something for even the cattle to live on the Plains.

Many cars of corn have gone out of here in the ear, and there is still more to go. More corn has been shelled and shipped than it was thought the country would produce at the beginning of the season. Lots of corn has also been shipped direct from Meadow and Wellman. So you see old Terry always delivers a lot more to her people than they believe possible. Fifteen thousand bales of cotton was thought a big crop early in the season, but we understand the final wind up will be near 24,000 bales.

Come to Terry and bring all the family to make your home.

County Court Having Session This Week

County Court has had one of the busiest sessions in some time, according to Judge Winston, as several cases have been tried at this term of court. Until a few years ago, county court was almost a joke in this county, as there were seldom any cases except probate cases, but as time progresses the county court has become almost as important as district court was a few years ago.

Many of the misdemeanors are now tried in county court, as well as semi-criminal cases. Several cases this week attracted quite a lot of attention, and kept the jury deliberating for several hours.

Foundation was laid this week for a beautiful new brick veneer home for Frank Ballard.

'America's Boy Friend' Thrill-Throb King Here

"If it's a Paramount picture, it's the best show in town"—especially if it's a Charles (Buddy) Rogers picture. And "Half Way to Heaven," which opens a two day run at the Rio theatre, Sunday, that kind of a picture. Rogers in a new, a different role, thrills you with daring stunts on the aerial-trapeze, shows you what love is all about, makes you forget all your troubles and smile, and, altogether, uses his engaging boyishness, splendid physique, and clean-cut personality to provide you with an evening of gorgeous diversion.

Charles (Buddy) Rogers, Jean Arthur in "Half Way to Heaven" A Paramount Picture

"Half Way to Heaven" brings Buddy into the limelight as a daring performer in a carnival troupe, in love with lovely Jean Arthur. Paul Lukas is the third member of the triangle. Through a series of exciting events, the romance of Miss Arthur and Buddy blossoms and fades and blossoms again in spite of the sinister menace of Lukas. Finally Buddy foils Lukas' attempt on his life and, in a smashing climax, defeats Lukas and sends him from the show.

The supporting group is well cast and capable. The picture is all-talking and there are many interesting sights and sounds.

Odd Fellows Reviving Supper Tues. Night

The Odd Fellows lodge here has at last taken a real start toward growth and prosperity. In fact, it shows more life and energy than has been displayed in fifteen years or more. The attendance and interest is the best, and new blood is being taken in at each meeting. At the meeting Tuesday night, there were four additions by transfer; two from Seagraves, and two from the Union community, besides several for the degrees.

A contest will end next Tuesday night in which two sides have been working for attendance, and so far the contest is a tie, and the big thing is to see who will pay for the big turkey supper next Tuesday night when the contest ends. Maybe still a tie. If you are an Odd Fellow, be on hand and see the thrilling contest brought to a close.

Hog Sale Here Wednesday Quite a Success

Twelve bred sows and gilts sold in the Annual Sale held here last Wednesday by the Panhandle Swine Breeders Ass'n at an average price of $59.58. The top price of $109.00 was paid by B. W. Baker, county agent of Alexander, La., for a beautiful Poland gilt that was consigned by Lillard Stock Farms at Arlington. This gilt a daughter of For Ever An Ace, was hard to fault and is closely related to a number of sows owned by the Terry County Club boys.

The second highest price $97.50 was paid by J. C. Bohannon for a Sr. yearling Duroc sow consigned by Lillard Stock Farms. This sow was shown throughout the U. S. last year and was a winner at a number of the leading State Fairs including first prize at the Eastern States Exposition.

Other buyers of Terry County were: J. L. Lyons and John Jenkins who bought two Duroc gilts consigned by Mr. C. G. Jackson of Hart, Texas. These men also purchased a splendid Duroc boar from Jeff Greer of Wellington.

John Burnett bid in a nice gilt that was raised by B. W. Wilkes of Plainview, and John also bought a good Poland boar from Lillard Stock Farms.

W. S. Copeland started into the red hog business when he bought a dandy gilt from B. W. Wilkes. Mr. Stearns of Meadow was another man to get a Duroc gilt in the sale.

W. H. Black and J. C. Bohannon bought Duroc herd boars.

Other buyers in the sale were Bruce Hancock, T. B. Wood, Clyde Cawthon, and Edward Walker of Brownfield; R. W. Pittman of Seminole; Terro Blanco Hog Farm of Canyon, and Geo. P. Lillard of Arlington.

The Swine breeders who consigned stuff to the sale were pleased with the average prices. They consigned some of their best animals to the sale and everyone report that they have but little at home for sale. There is a heavy demand for bred sows and gilts at this time and indications are that market hogs will be a fair price this year.

National Bank Installing Marble Fixtures

The First National Bank has purchased the grey marble fixtures from a Waco concern, which will be installed in the bank in the next sixty days. These are the very latest and most approved bank fixtures, according to cashier, W. R. McDuffie, and will greatly enhance the appearance of the bank when installed.

The shape of the new fixtures will be somewhat like the present arrangement, except that there will be an enclosed obscure glass office in front, and also an open office as present. There will be four windows to wait on customers, and the customers office will be in the rear as at present. There will be a marble table and settee in the lobby for the accommodation of their customers.

Clyde Gross is away this week attending the Frigidaire convention at Dallas.

EVERYTHING SHAPING UP FOR BIG RODEO HERE

Some Forty or Fifty Wild Snarling, Snapping Coyotes Will Be Ready For the Events. Wolf Hounds To Be Here From All Parts of the Country.

Everything is taking shape for one of the greatest Wolf Chase Rodeos that has ever been staged in this section of the country. Manager Roy Moreman, as well as others are devoting a great deal of their time just at present to making it a great rodeo. He has had some experience in such things before, and is consulting many others who have had experience, and putting all the good features together to make the event one to be remembered for years.

Each day numbers of other live wolves are being caught and penned for the event, and we now understand that around 40 coyotes are in the pens that are not crippled in any way, and are being well fed up for the event. By the time the rodeo is pulled there will be as many or more wolves in readiness that will possibly be used. Mr. Moreman informed us this week that he was getting letters from almost every section of west Texas as well as adjoining states asking about the big event, and some had indicated that they will be on hand from great distances with their hounds. He is busily engaged sending out large circulars and placards to friends all over this section of the state. The daily newspapers are helping out in giving some publicity through their local correspondents, and with all means of publicity involved, we hope for a big crowd here for the event March 1st.

The rodeo will take place on the Ray Brownfield half section about one and one-half miles north of the city, and the races will open about 10 o'clock A. M. on Saturday, March 1st and last all day. There will be a small charge to enter the grounds merely to cover the expenses of the rodeo, which will be worth many times the charge of admission. We understand that many of our merchants will have specials on for the day, and the local theatre is making an effort to have one of the best pictures they can get for the occasion.

Two hounds will run each wolf, and will be confined in chutes with draw bars or gate, and the wolf will be given 75 yards the start when the hounds are turned loose. There will be just one judge with a stop watch, and when the owner of the dogs raises his hand or hat, he pronounces the wolf dead, and time stops. If the wolf comes "too" in ten minutes after being carried to pens, the race is forfeited. There will be other races wherein it will be just a matter of when the wolf is caught, as some dogs are fast, but not good killers.

Watch these columns for final announcements next week.

Hot Race Promised In the City Election

What promises to be the hottest race in the history of Brownfield city elections will be pulled off here on Tuesday, April 1st, and that being All Fools day, we are hereby now warning the contestants for the office of City Marshall to watch their steps or they will get fooled. We do not mean that there is likely to be any hard feelings or fussing, for all the several candidates for the office of City Marshall are good friends, but there is going to be a real contest. Every inch of the ground will be contested from start to finish.

But, we suppose we are going to have to put in a want ad for Mayor as we did for the County Judge office. You note we are still getting results from our county judge ad. Jay Barret walked in last week and acknowledged that he was putting his hat in the ring in answer to our want ad. Now, why not a mayor? There is a little fee that goes with that office in Brownfield now—why not get this plum? Don't all come at once. Just the same, we had three announcements last week for city marshall in the space of ten minutes. The Herald does not have the heart to ask the alderman to get in, for they work free and take their cussing on credit. If there was a bit of pie for them, we would not hesitate to ask them to get in the race. We need the five spot, boys!

Lillard Says Club Boar Champion Possibility

"One of the best Poland boars that I have ever seen in Texas" was the comment of Mr. Geo. P. Lillard, when he looked over the hog owned by Robert Luker of Union. Both he and his son, Joe, were loud in praising the qualities of this wonderful sire. Joe declared that this male was almost beyond criticism and would be worthy of a State championship.

This club pig of less than two years ago that weighed 730 lbs. at the fair last fall, could easily weigh a thousand pounds by the next show time. He together with other fine blooded hogs are making a name for Terry County in the hog world.

ZONE B. Y. P. U. MEETING AT GOMEZ, SUN. AFTERNOON

The meeting of all of the B. Y. P. U. of this section will be held at Gomez, Sunday afternoon at two-thirty, February 23. The people of the Gomez Union will have charge of the program. The church having the largest percentage of their membership in attendance will be awarded a banner. Be sure to attend. We want to have representatives from all of the Baptist churches.

Banks to Observe Washington's Birthday

Nothing we can say in tribute to his memory could more fully express our sentiments, than those words which were penned by an English tourist on the back of an old photograph of George Washington:

"Magnanimous in youth; glorious in life; great in death. His greatest ambition was the happiness of mankind; his greatest victory the conquest of himself; bequeathing to posterity the inheritance of his fame and building a monument in the hearts of his countrymen."

Saturday, February 22nd, will be observed as a legal holiday by the banks and in order that the patrons may not be inconvenienced they are respectfully requested to arrange their business accordingly.

Herald Family Eat Turkey With Winstons

Whenever the Herald family fails or refuses to go anywhere and help clean up a good, well cooked turkey and all the trimmings, it will be when they are a long sight sicker than they are now, and we have no ailments other than pure laziness. Well, that was what we got for the noon day spread at the home of Judge and Mrs. H. R. Winston. Tuesday of this week, along with Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, who fare at the Winston home regularly.

After lunch, the Judge carried the editor to the Burks-Winston camp grounds to show us four new camp houses that have recently been erected at a cost of more than $2,000.00. They have every modern convenience, such as shower baths, hot and cold running water, electricity and gas for fuel. They are frame buildings stuccoed on the outside, and finished inside with plaster board, well lighted and ventilated, and one lady camper said they were not only very convenient, but comfortable.

THE TERRY COUNTY HERALD

Terracing Attracted Much Attention Sat.

A terracing demonstration was held on Mrs. M. Brownfield's place last Saturday. Two terraces eight-teen inches high were built across the patch on a water level. With the rows running parallel to the terraces they should hold water from one end to the other and at no time except in a very big rain should there be any water drain from this terraced patch.

It is claimed that terracing and contouring will help in keeping sand from killing your stuff in the spring. It will certainly keep the land from washing away. But these are not the main reasons for terracing. The principal reason is to hold the water where it falls, so it may be stored uniformly over the farm for plant use.

Mr. M. R. Bentley, Agricultural Engineer of A. & M. College, and A. K. Short, head of the reclamation department of the Federal Land Bank at Houston supervised the construction of the terraces.

A Corsicana and a Texas terracer were used in making the grades. The West Texas Tractor and Machinery Co. of Plainview and the Texas Terracer Co. of Breckenridge, furnishing and demonstrating their respective machines. These terracers were pulled by a Farmall tractor demonstrated by Holgate-Ende-Jensen Hdw. Co. There are many ways of putting up terraces, but the kind put up by these people last Saturday are the kind that don't break and can be found holding the water and soil twenty-five years from now.

Non-Residents Like Information Given

Some of our non-residents readers have been writing in the past week telling us how much they appreciate the information we have been giving them of late concerning oil developments here as well as our private opinion on the railroad outlook. Among them was Pete Pope of Alvarado, who owns land in this county, who not only expressed appreciation for this, but highly complimented the Herald for the high type of weekly newspaper he thought we were giving the people.

Another we call to mind now was from Mr. F. H. McCormick of Columbus, Ohio, who said it was just the information he had been wanting for some time, and hoped that we might give such information occasionally as it happened. That is what a paper is for, but it should be real information, and not mere rumors. The Herald has always tried to give the truth as we see it, and all wind-jamming has been omitted as far as possible. Our motto is still, "the truth about Terry is good enough."

The Herald family were pleased to have a short call from Editor and Mrs. Baldwin, of Levelland Sunday afternoon. Call again and remain longer.

Postoffice to Be Closed All Day Sat. 22nd

Postmaster J. H. Carpenter informed us this week that owing to Saturday being Washington's birthday anniversary that the postoffice here would be closed all day, and there will be no call mail handed out. Mails both incoming and outgoing will be made up behind closed doors, and of course these with boxes will be served as usual through their boxes.

We note that Editor Greer of the Rochester Register had a grandson born on the 21st, and now he thinks this boy will be another Lincoln. Anyway, congratulations.

HE WON

A teacher was examining his class and he said:

"I will give a quarter to any boy that can tell what nothing is."

A small boy at the back of the class put up his hand.

"Well, Willie, and what would you say it is?"

"Please, teacher, it is a bunglehole without a barrel around it."

Willie got the quarter.

cotton staple. All growers will keep the seed from this cotton pure and will pool their crops from this variety.

According to records obtained from the state experiment station here, the Misdell cotton is said to mature about 10 days earlier than Half and Half and has a staple of one and one-sixteenths inch.

WHY THE SOUTH IS ASKED TO REDUCE COTTON ACREAGE

The Federal Farm Board urges that every effort be made to reduce the cotton acreage in the South by not less than 6,000,000 acres in 1930.

The following essential facts as to the cotton situation were prepared from data assembled by Dr. O. C. Stine, principal agricultural economist of the United States Department of Agriculture, and were presented for wide dissemination at the Jackson (Miss.) conference on acreage:

If the same acreage be planted to cotton in 1930 as was planted in 1929 (47,569,000 acres) and the yield by the average of the last five years (162.7 pounds per acre), the yield on the acres harvested (45,981,000, in 1929) would be 15,000,000 bales or more.

If the yield on the 1929 acreage would equal that of 1926 (182.6 pounds per acre) the crop would reach 17,500,000 bales.

A carry-over of 3,000,000 bales in this country would make a total of 18,000,000 bales of cotton for sale during 1930. If the 3,000,000 bales are added to a possible 17,000,000-bale crop the total would be 20,500,000 bales. World consumption of American cotton was about 15,000,000 bales last season.

Either of these figures would result in a disaster to the South and would affect all lines of industry.

Loss of $600,000,000

In 1926 the record cotton crop of 18,000,000 bales sold for less than $1,600,000,000, where as 10,000,000 bales in 1923 sold for $1,600,000,000. That means that farmers picked and ginned 8,000,000 bales in 1926, gave them to the world free of charge, and, in effect, paid $600,000,000 for the privilege.

The Federal Farm Board has made it clear that it can not avert a cotton crisis unless farmers reduce the acreage substantially.

Texas in 1929 planted 18,912,000 acres in cotton, compared with 18,948,000 acres in 1926 and 19,139,000 acres in 1925. Much of this land is marginal and submarginal and should not be planted to cotton at all.

On the 18,948,000 acres planted in 1926 Texas raised a crop of 5,600,000 bales, and it is estimated that nearly 400,000 bales were unpicked because of low prices. The total estimated production for Texas that year was around 6,000,000 bales. This figure gives an idea of what might happen on a large acreage if conditions prove favorable to the crop.

4-H Clubs May Put on Campaign For Herald

The Herald has been thinking for some time about putting on a big subscription campaign, but if one is put on through professional campaigners, there is always some room for misunderstanding if not down right hard feelings, and besides they are always so expensive and troublesome that they are not worth the price. Too, high powered salesmen or salesladies sometimes make enemies for the paper.

But, County Agent Roy Davis and the writer have talked some on a campaign to be put on by the boys and girls belonging to the 4-H clubs in Terry county when he begins re-organization in the spring in which the clubs are to be allowed commissions on all new and renewal orders for the Herald, and we are to also work out some extra prizes to the clubs that get the most new subscribers to the Herald.

These clubs are always in need of some funds in the treasury, and this will be a good way for them to recruit the treasury, and at the same time put the county paper in practically every home in Terry county. In fact that is our aim. This will not only be beneficial to the clubs and the Herald, but will make it easier for the county agent to reach all farm homes with his messages as well as local merchants.

A bill has been introduced in the Texas legislature to tax chain stores. A tax ranging from three dollars for two stores to $500 for twenty-four stores in the state, would be imposed if the bill became a law.

In the "Have You Heard" column of the Rotan Advance, they report we are paving five blocks in Brownfield, and may pave three more. We wish to correct and say we are paving fifteen and may pave a few more.

And so as generally predicted and universally believed, Jas. E. (Forum) Ferguson has doffed his hat into the middle of the gubernatorial ring, and is now in after that office. But this is nothing new—just a fulfillment of a general prediction. No one is astounded over the matter.

There is a county seat down under the cap where the old toppers got so hard up lately that they stole 50 gallons of evidence at the courthouse. Your money may be safe in the bank and your jewels may be secure in the vault, but you have no safe place for your liver these days.

Russia, the land of gloom for centuries, is now steeped in atheism to the extent that their intolerance leads them to shoot any preacher who dares preach the doctrine of the holy Nazarene. Judging other nations, including Jewery itself, by the past, they are in for an early fall and a passing into insignificance.

It may have been the warm bright days the past few weeks which reminded us of spring, or they may just naturally have been inspired as a poet, but we note that one of the nice lady candidates down in old Kent county pitched her hat in for reelection to the tune of verse. That's probably original anyway, and any change is good.

If the state assumes the right to regulate all party platforms, conditions and pledges, then why not the state pay for holding the elections, or at least part of the expense. As long as parties comply with Texas election laws otherwise, we can't see why they cannot prescribe who shall or who shall not be a qualified voter of that particular party.

The Herald is of the opinion that Messrs. Love and Moody are on the right track with the threat to organize a third party, for democracy is a universal party and much to broad gauged for the narrow contracted and fanatical. A democrat can be a Protestant, Catholic, Mohammedan, or Buddhist; he can be a wet or a dry; he can be a Jew or Gentile; he can be of any European extraction or pure American, and the guy that cannot tolerate this condition better invent a party that will suit his sort.

The drop in the price of coffee may not be such a great thing for us as some of our exchanges seem to think, after all, for the people from whom we buy our coffee buy our products, such as cotton, and especially manufactured cotton goods, and if they merely make expenses, or produce their coffee below cost, they, like our cotton farmers have little buying power. As long as the producers and common laborers of the world draw good wages, we will get good prices for our products. An impoverished foreign market means low prices for our exports.

Many writers now are of the opinion that the jury system of our state and nation is doomed. They have seen criminal after criminal escape just deserts because there were one or two men on the jury that had more bubbling over sentiment than common sense, and they were turned loose to ravish society again. As it is, the criminal gets all the breaks of the law. The poor dead victim or their family gets none. It looks as if the duty of passing on the guilt or innocence is to be transferred to the stern old judge who will look at the crime and the law and less at the snubbing, sobbing stuff of the criminal lawyer.

Some of our farmer friends have sought to kinder pour it on us of late, and love to ask us how our crop is coming along, because we dared suggest some things to them of late. They sometimes suggest to us how to run a paper, and some of their advice is good and taken; all of us advise the merchant, and our pastors advise all of us how to live. We are our brother's keeper, and if the farmers of the south are fools enough to raise a big cotton crop this year contrary to the advice of the Federal Farm Board, the bankers and merchants of the nation, he'll wish a million times that he had taken some one's advice.

James L. Dow has changed the policy of his Plains Progress at Lubbock, and has pointed both barrels at the chain stores and pulling the triggers. Country weeklies have been fighting the mail order houses as long as we can remember, but it is only recently that they have been drawn into the latest pro and anti fight.

Where will it all end. It seems that we are at constant warfare in this nations of ours, either from within or without.

Last week our friend Hill of the Taboka News came back for some more, but as our editorial as well as his own have become rather lengthy and not calculated to get us anywhere, we will just confine ourselves to one question which he says we failed to answer, to-wit: "Should we carry our conscience to the ballot box as well as church." Yes, and we should also carry our pledges right along in the other pocket. You might give your note for a mule that was said to be sound in every way. Later it develops that the mule is spavined, blind and heavy. Your conscience might dictate that you was not under obligations to pay the note, but your pledge says you must, and you do, although you know you are being skinned in the deal. Our conscience is not always a safe guide. Paul says he thought he was varily doing the will of God in persecuting Christians, but later found his conscience was misleading him. But we make our pledges with our eyes wide open most of the time.

Reports of His Death were Exaggerated

Spring, 1860—Four brothers living in quiet harmony on the plantation they had jointly inherited.

Spring, 1861—In the streets the rolling drum and shrilling fife, and the measured tramp of a thousand feet. The two younger of the brothers marching abreast to the war, never to return.

Spring, 1865—The two elder brothers in the office of a lawyer, signing the deed that would make over their ancestral acres to a stranger. Where were the others? Under the earth—one at Chambersville, one at Cold Harbor, Or, so it was reported.

But, as a matter of fact, at least one of the younger brothers was alive. And so recently as three years ago his widow began a legal action to recover his share of the estate. Her action was successful and cost the present owners many thousand dollars, which title insurance would have saved them.

SEPARATE PARTY TO BE FORMED IF RULING UPHELD

HOUSTON, Feb. 11.—Hoover-Democrats of Texas, several hundred thousand strong, are planning to hold a state convention at Fort Worth or Waco within the next ten days, at which a candidate for governor may be endorsed and a resolution offered ordering the "bolters" not to participate in the July democratic primaries it was revealed today by Alvin S. Moody, state chairman of the Anti-Tammy democrats. The announcement came on the heels of a decision several days ago by the state democratic executive committee in Austin baring the name of Thomas B. Love of Dallas from a place on the democratic ticket as nominee for governor. Moody declared that should the Supreme Court of Texas uphold action of the state democratic committee in reference to Love, the Hoover-Democrats would be forced to "form an independent movement," which, he explained, meant the Hoover-Democrats would place in the field an independent candidate for governor.

SEEK TO REPLACE "LITTLE RED SCHOOL HOUSE" WITH EQUITABLE INSTITUTIONS

FORT WORTH, Feb. 14.—To abolish the "little red school house" with its limited funds, short terms, second grade teachers and sketchy courses in favor of amply supported, well manned, equipped institutions for all Texas school children, the Texas school children, the Texas State Teachers association today took the first step in what is planned as a thorough campaign to better rural education. President H. D. Nillers of the association announced a rural education committee to garner every fact and figure in connection with rural schools. For presentation to the Texas Education commission, which will study the material with the view of working out of it suitable rural school legislation to be introduced at the 1931 session of the legislature. Prof. G. O. Clough of Southern Methodist university was named as chairman of the committee. Other members who have accepted places on the committee are Miss Mary Shipp Sanders of the state department of education, Austin; County Supt. Burl Bryant, of Wichita Falls, and President A. W. Birdwell of the Texas State Teachers college at Nacogdoches. Miss Annie Webb Blanton was appointed, but has declined to serve because of other activities. A new committeeman will be appointed in her place.

"THE LITTLE GIRL AND THE RICH BOY"

Once upon a time there lived a poor family in a poor hut. There was a little girl named Peggy. Peggy had to go out and sell flowers to the people.

One morning about 12:00 o'clock a rich boy was passing. He asked her the price of her flowers. She said that they were five cents. He told her that he would pay her twice that much for one bunch. She went home. Her mother received her very kindly.

When she put the $2.00 in her hands her mother was overjoyed. This was more than she had held in her hand in a long time.

Meanwhile we go back to the little rich boy. He was very proud of them. He had bought some for twenty-five cents just like that from one of the stores. The boy's mother was very pleased to see the beautiful flowers he had bought. She said she had been wanting some pretty flowers for her party. She was going to give a party on her birthday. She gave him the order. He was to invite the mother of this child. She lived at the rich boy's house. She did not have to sell flowers any more.

The high Fourth grade is insisting that the pupils play out of doors at recess. They want them too especially on pretty days. Out of doors and sunshine has cured many a sickness.

"IT'S NOT THEIRS"

A small boy was playing with an American flag when his sister scolded him saying, "J. O., don't do America's flag that way."

J. O.: "It isn't America's flag, it's Mary Joe's."

SAD BUT TRUE

The children in the second grade were having a lesson on dumb creatures. The teacher asked, "Do you know what dumb creatures are?" A little boy by the name of Lucian, cried, "Yes ma'm! Yes, ma'm! It is a poor ignorant person that don't know nothing."

—GS—

THAT'S RIGHT

Mrs. Savage told Bert Elliott, a boy in the High Fifth grade to make a sentence using "nobody."
Bert replied, "Nobody likes me." Then he turned to the teacher and asked, "Is that right?" Mrs. Savage replied "Yes."

Bert wondered why there was a roar of laughter from the class.

A QUARREL

In the Second Grade one day, the teacher asked, "Do you know what a quarrel is children?"

Bobby Nell answered, "Yes ma'm, my mother and father had one this morning."

THE INFLUENCE OF PICTURES IN THE HOME

Every home should have good pictures on the walls, so that the children may grow up to love the masterpieces, the works of the best artists.

When we see beautiful paintings we do not forget them, and they have a good influence on us. Good pictures are like good books and we should see more good pictures and read more good books if we want to grow to be cultured and able to enjoy the best things in life.

A boy was once known to run away and go to sea. When asked why he replied that the first thing he had seen upon awakening and going to bed had been a ship at sea. This picture had taught him to love the sea.

HIT BY AN ENEMY BOMB

Once there was a little girl that always used bad English. Her teacher was always getting after her to get rid of her bad English.

She went on until she was grown and had to go out and work for her living. One morning she went to apply for a job as a clerk; the manager asked her for a recommendation.

"I ain't got no recommendation," she said.

"That is a good enough one," he said, "I can't let you have the job you would ruin my trade by your bad English."

The girl was sad because she had not listened to her English teacher.

The next week she got rid of her bad English and got her a job.

Harmony Happenings

We are enjoying some fine weather now. We only hope it will continue.

Mrs. H. G. Richards returned from Martin county Sunday where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Reed, who was sick.

The six-weeks-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones died last Thursday afternoon about four-thirty. It was laid to rest in the Meadow cemetery Friday afternoon at three o'clock.

C. M. Speed and Rudolph Gracey visited Ray Howard Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Head were called to Snyder, Texas last Saturday night to see Mr. Head's father, who was seriously ill with pneumonia. They found him very much better, when they arrived.

Our basketball team played Tokio in the tournament at Ropes. Although they lost, they played an excellent game. The scores were 23 and 42 in Tokio's favor, but Joe Merritt, of Harmony, was high point man making 19 scores.

High Lights in the Grammar School Life

The Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh grades were called together Friday morning and Mr. Lindsey made a talk.

Friday afternoon the Seventh grade invited the Sixth grade in to listen to a debate given by George Bruce Hancock and Mary D. Price, who were for the affirmative side against Marion Chisholm and Woodrow Chambliss, who were for the negative side. The subject was "A boy or girl should be forced by law to go to school until they are sixteen years of age." The judges were Plache, Mrs. Lawlis and Miss Grace Hulse. They decided for the affirmative side. The conduct of the two rooms was extra good.

After the debate the Seventh grade had a valentine box. Each pupil receiving many.

The art exhibit is on display this week at Tudors Ford Garage. The Grade School pupils are selling tickets. The room that sells the most will receive a ten dollar picture free for the room.

Pupils are being appointed to keep the library. Two pupils each day out of the sixth or seventh grades.

The First grade including low and high have enrolled 98 pupils. There are so many that they have to be divided. Miss O'Brien has 25 coming in the morning and 22 in the afternoon. Mrs. Carpenter has 26 coming in the morning and 25 in the afternoon.

BEING TARDY

The pupils in the Grade School have made a rule that all the children who are tardy, must remain in after school to make up for their lost time. There are not so many tardies in the school as before the rule was made.

Being tardy is injurious to your class. When you come in it interrupts with the studies of the ones who are studying. It also draws the attention of the teacher from the work of the pupils, and gets their mind off of their work.

Being tardy forms a bad habit for the future.

Where Washington Worshipped

Christ church in Alexandria, Va., where George Washington was a vestryman. In his boyhood he attended the rural church at Poplick.

Superb Courage of Washington

When Washington took command of the New England troops besieging Boston he assumed responsibility for more men under arms than he had ever seen before. The numbers were embarrassing not only as a problem of direction but as one of organization. He owed his appointment to two things, one the necessity of overcoming the colonial jealousies in New England and the other of bringing the South definitely in with the North. Principally for the second reason John Adams opposed the appointment of John Hancock as chief in command and procured the appointment of Colonel Washington.

Probably at no time was the professional soldier's contempt for untrained citizens in arms, for trained bands, militia, and an armed rabble greater than it was before Concord and Bunker Hill in New England, but the attack on the hill taught respect for the Colonials behind earthworks and in entrenchments. However, it went no farther than that.

In spite of the inherent defects of the troop organization and supply the New Englanders had done their work well. Their chief, Artemus Ward, and his associates, Heath, Knox, Arnold, Stark, etc., may not have been skilled soldiers, but they were determined and brave, and devotion never reached a higher level of courage than it did in such men as Warren and Prescott. The 17,000 Colonial militiamen whom Colonel Washington found about Boston had taught the British professional two costly lessons. Distinguished British generals with a competent force were besieged and uncertain both as to what to do and how to do it.

Knew British Weakness. Several things dictated Washington's subsequent military course. First was his own physical and moral courage. That was his best military equipment. It was unhesitating and unflinching. Second probably, was his experience with British regular troops. He had seen them lose their discipline under terror. It was not a proper indictment of Braddock's regulars that they could not fight the French and Indians as the Virginia riflemen could fight them. The disaster was that they would not obey orders. The third was his distrust of minute men, militia, and of undisciplined riflemen.

It is true that men of that type won the principal American successes, as at Oriskany, Bennington, Saratoga, King's Mountain, and Cowpens, but it was Washington's army which kept the pressure on the British points of concentration.

It was Washington's distinctive characteristic that he would attack. That quality was developed in him as if he had the experience, the genius, and the resources of any one of the great generals of history. He had two plans to throw the British out of Boston. Both were vetoed by his council. Both were amazingly audacious. Both may have been very foolish. One was to attack across the ice if it became solid enough to permit it. The other was to attack in rowboats. It is one thing for an untrained general and an untrained command to resist behind cover, but only a man with Washington's courage would have seriously considered assaulting a fortified city supported by a fleet and held by disciplined troops.

His Greatest Exploit. When he attacked at Trenton his army had been shattered by its experiences at Brooklyn Heights, by its narrow escape from the easy-going Howe, by its retreat across New Jersey, by losses in battle, by desertions, and by the defection of the surrounding countryside.

It is true that something had to be done to revive the expiring flame of American resolution and courage, but here was an exploit of pure determination and serene heroism which took the fragment of a beaten army across the Delaware to risk an adventure which might have meant the end.

When Howe moved out of New York on the misdirected campaign which took Philadelphia at the sacrifice of Burgoyne, Washington placed himself between the British and the capital. He was defeated at Brandywine, but in spite of that he later attacked at Germantown and nearly won. It has been said that his plan of action was too good, that it required movements his officers and men were unable to execute. This attack was regarded as another audacity proving that Washington did not know when he was licked and consequently could not be. The battle of Germantown, although lost, had its part, along with Saratoga, in convincing France that in supporting the Americans it might pick or make the winner.

Glorious Victories. When Howe withdrew from Philadelphia to return to New York, Washington undertook to harass and, if possible, intercept the movement, and at Monmouth he again attacked an enemy which was not hunting trouble at that time or place.

The taking of Stony Point by light infantry under General Wayne was an example of military maneuver obviously attractive to the character of Washington as a soldier. It was without powder, and the men who climbed the bluff in the night knew that the nearest officer would kill anyone who fired a shot. They had nothing but their bayonets. Again, at the taking of redoubts No. 9 and No. 10 at Yorktown, the French the one, the American light infantry the other, there was no powder.

At every opportunity Washington took the aggressive with courage and confidence which discarded cautious consideration of what he had to hit and of what he had to hit with. When he took command before Boston he had many military lessons of generalship to learn from experience, but he did not have to acquire courage. That was in his stout heart, and it was the quality which made the Declaration of Independence good.

SEEN AT TWILIGHT

From whatever position it is viewed, or in what light, the Washington monument is noble in its simple magnificence.

First Birthday Celebration

George Washington's birthday first was celebrated as a patriotic holiday at Newport, R. I., in 1781, 18 years before he died. Washington was present at some of the most notable of the early holiday occasions in honor of his birthday.

He attended a gigantic patriotic ball in his honor at Philadelphia on February 22, 1792. His birthday was celebrated each year from then on but the greatest of all the celebrations took place in New York in 1798.

Lenity will operate with greater force, in some instances, than rigor. It is therefore my first wish to have my whole conduct distinguished by it.—Washington.

Washington's Flag

The flag of General Washington's bodyguard, which was lost in 1871 and found about two years ago, has been restored to its original condition and is now displayed with other relics of Washington in the local Masonic temple in Alexandria, Va.

They will tackle the finals at Lubbock Friday the 21st. We are kind or praying for their success but can't feel sure that it will get them by.

February weather has been exceptional thus far and our new school building is being rapidly completed. If the weather continues fair it will be ready for occupancy by March 1st.

The machinery for the oil well near Meadow was being unloaded and trucked out to the location Friday and Saturday. If things move well the next two or three months may find us in the midst of an oil boom.

The preparation of land for the coming crop is progressing rapidly and the farmer is being admonished to reduce the cotton acreage. Will he do it? Judged by past experience, he will not. If questioned about the matter he readily admits the importance of reduction but when the time arrives he can't resist the temptation of allowing the other fellow to make the reduction. I have yet to find a single farmer in this neck of the woods who contemplates cutting down his cotton acreage. Most of them will increase it as new land is being broken. We can confidently count on a bumper crop of the staple if the season is favorable. Agriculture is a basic industry but the farmer is the most cantankerous individual in the universe to manage. Cain the first farmer knocked his brother in the head for interfering in his affairs and the whole 'kit and bilin' have been contrary ever since.

Someone has dug up the records of the Lancaster, Ohio, school board back in 1828. In these records there is an account of a proposed debate as to whether railroads were practical or not. Permission was asked to hold the debate in the school house and the minutes of the school board meeting ran as follows: "You are welcome to use the school room to debate all proper questions in, but such things as railroads and telegraphs are impossibilities and rank infidelity. There is nothing in the word of God about them. If God had designed that His intelligent creatures should travel at the frightful speed of 15 miles an hour by steam He would have foretold it through His holy prophets. It is a device of Satan to lead immortal souls down to hell."

Miss Mable Taylor was in Levelland on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Coffman and little daughter Phillis went to Idalou Sunday. We are sorry to state that little Phillis is very ill, but we hope she will recover shortly.

Bro. Burret Gollehon was in Levelland Tuesday.

Mrs. O. M. Minnix handed in two dollars on subscription Saturday as she thought they were about a year behind, when as a matter of fact they were only about two months behind on their Herald.

No Bolshevism Needed

A Real Stigma

The World Loves Titles

Ogden L. Mills' Figures

In one column you read about a "mob" of 1,200 idle men, fighting police in Cleveland, twenty in the mob injured, officers hurt.

In another column you find comfort, perhaps, in news from Washington that our national banks have resources of over twenty-nine billions of dollars. Seven thousand four hundred and eight institutions have on deposit more than twenty-two billions.

A country so rich ought not to have so many men willing to work and idle.

You are told that the mob of rioting unemployed in Cleveland had been influenced by "Bolshevik propaganda."

It is very easy to say "Bolshevism." But when a man is out of work, worried and perhaps hungry, he needs no help from Lenin to make him dangerously dissatisfied.

Men adrift on a raft in midocean that had never heard of Lenin or Bolshevism have killed and eaten each other.

Five states of the South, highest in illiteracy, are conducting educational campaigns to reduce "the stigma."

Census takers list illiterates.

Iowa has only 1.1 percentage of illiterates, lowest in the nation. Nebraska came first until 1929, and is striving to regain the championship.

However, persuading or forcing hard-working people to study at night when they are tired out, and learn enough about their A B C's to remove the illiteracy stigma is not doing much.

To be able to read and write when you lack leisure to do either, and have no access to books worth while, is no help.

As well teach a man 5,000 miles from Egypt to read hieroglyphics on Egyptian monuments.

Hard, under-paid labor and lack of work are a "stigma" worse than illiteracy.

The world still loves titles. In a Los Angeles lawsuit about money collected for a newly invented religious "cult" you meet a mild-looking gentleman called "The Four Winds of the Whirlwinds." He wrote down with his typewriter 50,000 pages dictated by angels to the priestesses of the "Great Eleven Cult."

"Concords of stars led the priestesses to various locations, and there the angels did their dictating." Men and women gave tens of thousands of dollars in return for nonsense of this kind, which proves that the human race is largely foolish.

Ogden L. Mills, assistant secretary of the United States treasury, in a few words convinces you that this country has genuine prosperity if prosperity consists in getting more of life's good things than anybody else gets.

The United States has only 7 per cent of the world's population and yet, says Mr. Mills, "that 7 per cent consumes approximately 48 per cent of the world's coffee, 53 per cent of the tin, 56 per cent of the crude rubber, 21 per cent of the sugar, 72 per cent of the raw silk, 36 per cent of the coal, 42 per cent of the pig iron, 47 per cent of the copper and 69 per cent of the crude petroleum."

"Out of nearly 32,000,000 automobiles in the world on January 1, 1929, more than 24,000,000 were owned in the United States."

We certainly get our share. Perhaps the World court will tell us we get too much.

Moderns smile, reading of the great Alexander traveling over desert wastes to consult a soothsayer and never suspecting that the lady had been told in advance what the conqueror wanted her to say. But desire to consult the future, through any kind of witch, from Endor to Los Angeles, a craving for the impossible, still exists among us.

Mrs. Stewart, who lives in Los Angeles, says she gave Mrs. Blackburn $25,000 to help her carry on the work of "The Divine Order of the Royal Arms of the Great Eleven."

And Clifford Dabney gave $45,000 to the same worthy cause. Mrs. Blackburn, you must know, has in her possession the "Sixth Seal." When that is broken everything will be revealed. Who would not pay $45,000, or $45,000,000, to know everything, assuming that he would know what it was all about when he heard it.

Jeans, the astronomer, says if the universe could be explained to us accurately it would be more incomprehensible to us than it is now, as though you explained differential calculus to a hoptoad.

Mr. Dabney surely got his $45,000 worth. It is testified that, thanks to Mrs. Blackburn, he saw wonderful visions, including one of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy walking down Broadway. And he saw two disciples and some angels on the same street.

George Bernard Shaw, British author:

"Instead of being killed at twenty miles or so with a 16-inch gun our brave sailors in future will be killed at ten miles with 8-inch guns."

H. L. Mencken, American critic: "The American language has come on its way like a runaway horse and is now without bit or bridle."

HORSES, HORSES, HORSES

The origin and significance of the term "Horsepower" probably is lost to the average motorist who speaks so glibly of the power developed by his car.

The horsepower unit was formulated in 1780 by James Watt, inventor of the steam engine, shortly after the product of his genius had proved its ability to replace the horses previously used at the mills, mines, breweries and distilleries of England. Watt described one horsepower as the effort of a horse moving at two and one-half miles per hour and raising a weight of 150 pounds by means of a rope passed over a pulley, the effort being equal to raising 33,000 pounds one foot high in one minute.

Based on Watt's formula, the new Oakland Eight with its 85 horsepower engine develops enough energy to raise a weight of 2,805,000 pounds one foot in one minute. Incidentally, the new Oakland develops one horsepower for each 37 pounds of car weight.

Our idea of a slow movie is a committee of fifteen getting down to business.

WORTH TRYING

Biffkins was suffering from liver trouble and the doctor told him that if he laughed 15 minutes before each meal, his condition would improve. One day in a restaurant, while Biffkins was having his little laugh a man at the opposite table walked over to him and said in an angry manner: "What the dickens are you laughing at?"

"Why, I am laughing for my liver" said Biffkins. "Well then, I guess I had better start laughing too. I ordered mine half an hour ago."

D'Amaso Berenguer, successor to Primo Rivera:

"There is no unrest in Spain today and public order is maintained everywhere."

Wm. St. John, of Cisco, formerly of this city, was here Saturday on business. He says Brownfield is sure progressing fast now.

New yet sixteen years old! GENERAL MOTORS' lowest-priced eight

$1045 AND UP superior performance

The development of the New Oakland Eight in reality goes back sixteen years. Several of the engineers responsible for its design participated in the production of General Motors' first eight, in 1914. Their extensive knowledge of eight-cylinder engines has resulted in a car of remarkably sound basic design, as well as one which has many advanced features. (Its 85-horsepower engine develops one horsepower for every 37 pounds of car weight. This explains why few cars are as fast—why few, if any, can climb hills so quickly or accelerate so swiftly in traffic. Those who have driven it know how well it merits the description, "the car with superior performance.") (The New Oakland's power plant is also exceptionally smooth. Its inherent eight-cylinder smoothness has been increased by a complete down-draft fuel system—new type cylinder heads insuring uniform combustion—laminated steel spring and rubber engine mountings. (Considering its superior performance, exceptional smoothness and the beauty of its new Fisher bodies, the New Oakland Eight is very moderately priced. Thus many who have wanted to own a fine eight-cylinder automobile will find it a car of unusual appeal. Come in and drive it today.

Members of Contract Bridge Are Honored

Valentine Theme Is Favored In Smart Club Function Given Last Friday

Climaxing a whirl of smart valentine parties during the past week, was one given on Friday afternoon by Mrs. B. D. DuBois as a courtesy to the Contract Bridge Club. The valentine motif was stressed in all details. Red and white streamers drawn into arches with large red hearts on all sides of the room added to the gaiety of the afternoon. Two tables were arranged for bridge. Mrs. R. L. Bowers, making high, was very prettily favored with a heart shaped pillow. Table cuts, of heart shaped boxes of candy were given to Mrs. J. E. Shelton and Mrs. A. W. Endersen. At tea time lovely refreshments of pressed chicken, nut sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, hot tea, angel food cake and fruit parfait were served. The guest list included Mesdames Lee Scudder, J. E. Shelton, A. W. Endersen, C. R. Baldwin, Leo Holmes, J. E. Michie, R. L. Bowers and Lee O. Allen.

Kansas Guest Honored Here At Function In Home of Mrs. Roy Wingerd

Mrs. W. A. Wingerd of Hoxie, Kansas, was named honor guest at a lovely tea given Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Roy Wingerd. Mrs. Roy Wingerd and mother, Mrs. A. M. Brownfield met the guests at the door and introduced them to the honoree. The living room was elaborately decorated in a variety of pink flowers, arranged in baskets and bowls, while in the dining room shades of red and green were featured. The table was laid with a Cluny lace cloth and centering the table was a bowl of red carnations with lighted red tapers. The chosen colors were further emphasized in refreshments of macrons, green punch and red and white candies.

Mesdames W. B. T. Lewis and A. M. McBurnett served punch, while Mrs. W. C. Smith presided at the guest book.

Other guests of the house party were Mesdames Jay Barrett, D. P. Lewis, W. C. Smith, W. B. Toone, Ray Brownfield, H. R. Winston, A. M. McBurnett, M. V. Brownfield, S. H. Holgate, M. N. Knox, John Scuddy, R. M. Kendrick, W. G. Hardin, Walter Gracey, W. G. Harris, G. W. Chisholm, B. L. Thompson, Boone Hunter, Morgan Copeland, I. M. Bailey, C. L. Hudgens, W. H. Collins, J. B. Knight, J. C. Hunter, A. A. Sawyer, E. A. Graham, Roy B. Davis, S. L. McDonald, J. Hayden Griffin, Frank Henderson, Earl Williams, Jack Stricklin, R. L. Bowers, J. E. Michie, John B. King, A. W. Endersen, Lee O. Allen, J. E. Shelton, H. W. McSpadden, Leo Holmes, C. R. Baldwin, E. V. May, A. M. Brownfield, Ivy Savage, P. F. Lawlis, W. B. Downing, C. R. Rambo, C. F. Hamilton, and Misses Elizabeth Dumas, Grace Hulse, and Marie Bell.

The ladies of the Christian church met in the home of Mrs. E. D. Ballard Monday afternoon. The subject for discussion was, "The Reward of Our Faith," with scripture readings taken from 2nd Timothy. They also had the reading from the Missionary leaflet of "Our Work in Nejala." Mrs. Ballard served delicious coconut pie to Mesdames T. M. Flippin, D. R. Knox, S. H. Holgate. They adjourned to meet with Mrs. Holgate in next meeting.

P. T. A. Has Twenty-Five New Members

The P. T. A. met in regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the School House. There was a general report of the committees and twenty-five new members were reported. This is indeed encouraging to the few faithful members. The 28th day of February is visitor day, and the P. T. A. urges that each father and mother visit the school on that day, and see how the work is being carried on. The next program is an art program given by the Gramar School on the 3rd Tuesday of March.

George Washington Idea Stressed In Bridge Party; Idle Wives Entertained Tuesday

Emphasizing the George Washington motif in all details of decorations, tallies and appointments, a lovely party was given by Mrs. R. L. Bowers, Tuesday afternoon in honor of "The Idle Wives." Four tables were arranged for bridge and several games were played. Mrs. J. E. Michie, for high, was favored with a novelty statuette. Mrs. Ray Brownfield, making second high, was given a lemon dish and fork. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, congealed salad on lettuce leaves, potato chips, olives, iced tea, individual caramel pies topped with whip cream were served. George Washington hats filed with candied and salted peanuts were appropriate as plate favors. The guests for this lovely affair included Mesdames Ray Brownfield, Fred Smith, Joe McGowan, A. M. Brownfield, J. D. Miller, A. W. Endersen, Lee Scudder, J. E. Michie, A. A. Sawyer, W. C. Smith, A. J. Stricklin, Leo Holmes, R. M. Kendrick, B. D. DuBois and W. H. Collins.

Bible Class Has Regular Meeting

The ladies of the Bible Class of the Church of Christ met Monday afternoon at the church to continue their study in "Wilderness Wanderings," led by Mrs. L. F. Hudgens. Ladies present were Mesdames Bullard, Roy Collier, Stricklin, Lloyd, Mitchell, Legg, Graves, Murphy Blackwell, Jackson and Williamson.

The Juniors of the Church of Christ met last Sunday afternoon at the church. The study was "The Life of Samuel." There were eighteen present. The lesson for the next meeting will be "The First King—Saul." This same group were entertained with a party last Tuesday afternoon in the home of their leader, Mrs. Roy Collier. Games were played throughout the afternoon and delicious home made candy was served to more than 22 little guests.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thompson and Mrs. B. L. Thompson left for Fort Worth Tuesday to attend the wedding of Tommy Taylor, brother of Mrs. H. B. Thompson, which is to take place Friday night. They will return Sunday.

Bill Collins, Adolphus Smith, James H. Dallas and Madeline Elliott were all home for the week end. Miss Elliott had as her guest Miss Margaret Dale Prim, a Tech student, whose home is in Snyder, Texas.

Klonial Kard Klub Entertained.

The valentine motif was again used very prettily when Miss Violet McBurnett entertained the Klonial Kard Klub at her home last Friday night. Three tables of bridge were very much enjoyed and Miss Ina Patterson for high for club members, received a perfume atomizer and Mrs. H. N. Nelson, high for guests, was favored with a hand painted flower vase. Valentines were placed on each table and given to the guests. Sandwiches, jello salad, potato chips, ice box cake topped with cream and a cherry were served. Plate favors were hearts. Misses Ina Patterson, Faye Martin, Lucille Flache, Marie Bell, Emma Jane Alexander, Addie Hamilton, Veda Headstream, Mesdames W. C. Smith, D. P. Lewis, H. N. Nelson and P. F. Lawlis were guests for the evening.

The Needle Club met Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. M. McBurnett. Each lady busied herself with hand work of some kind. Sandwiches, jello salad, tomato with mayonnaise and punch were served to Mesdames Pounds, Dunn, Scuddy, Kendrick, Holgate, Knox, Gracey and W. G. Harris.

Baptist Circle Have General Meeting

Circles 1, 2, 3 and the Young Matrons society met at the church Monday afternoon in their regular 3rd Monday meeting. Mrs. C. K. Alewine had charge of the program which was based upon "Missions." Mrs. J. T. Auburg gave the first talk on "Faithful To His Trust," followed by "A Christian Who remembered His Jewish Neighbor," Mrs. Mary Green. Mrs. May gave a very interesting talk on "The Land of the Lost Christ." The general report was given at this meeting and was the best they had had in many months. Twenty-nine ladies were present.

The Adult Society met at the Methodist church Monday afternoon. Mrs. B. L. Thompson, vice-President read for devotional the fifth chapter of Matthew 21-30 verses, after which Mrs. G. E. Turrentine led in prayer. Mrs. Turrentine gave an interesting talk on, "The Settlement As The Way of Life." The first part of the study book "How To Study Your Bible" was finished. The monthly Missionary Bulletin was presented. Mrs. B. L. Thompson presided at a short business meeting, at which time Mrs. G. S. Webber, president, was elected to go to Amarillo on March 13-18 to the Twentieth Annual Meeting of the Missionary Council. These meetings are usually held in much larger towns than Amarillo, and these ladies feel fortunate to be able to send a representative. Dr. Sidney L. Gurlick of New York City will deliver several addresses and several other important men are expected to be present. The ladies reported 152 visits, 125 trays and 7 bouquets during the last month. Members present were Mesdames Bob Smith, John S. Powell, G. E. Turrentine, B. L. Thompson, Cleve Williams, W. D. Linville, Allie McDaniel, Denison Cook, S. V. Wheeler, W. B. Downing and Jim Jackson.

Circles 3 and 4 met with Mrs. Redford and Mrs. DuBois Monday with Mission Programs at each meeting.

The Jubilee Auxiliary met at the church on Feb. 13 in regular meeting. Mrs. C. R. Baldwin led the lesson which was taken from the year book. Mrs. Paul Lawlis discussed, "Respects for Personality." Westly House Serving Children was told by Mesdames Endersen and Cecil Smith. "The Settlement of The Way of Life" was given by Mrs. Leo Holmes. Members present were Mesdames Holmes, Baldwin, Allen, Rickles, Cecil Smith, V. A. Bynum, Thompson, Endersen and Knight. Visitors were Mesdames Lee Scudder and G. E. Turrentine.

Mrs. W. A. Bell returned from Marshall, Texas, Saturday where she attended the funeral of her father.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Smith, who have been residents of Brownfield for the past eight months moved to Lubbock Tuesday.

Mr. E. R. Woolridge left Friday for Knox county.

Virginia May, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom May, spent Tuesday in Lubbock visiting her cousin little Peggy Royalty.

Misses Ina Patterson, Faye Martin, Lillie May Bailey and Rebecca May motored to Roby, Texas Sunday to visit friends and relatives. Roby is Miss Patterson's former home.

G. A.'s Have Valentine Social

The G. A.'s met Friday, February 14 at the Baptist church. They had a report on daily Bible readings and good deeds. They then had their pictures taken after which they went to the home of Mrs. E. V. May for a valentine party, given by Jimmie Thomas and Virginia Toole. Prizes were awarded to Juanita Tankersley for best blindfold drawing and to Lucille Burnett for knowing the most Bible characters. They were then called to the dining room where the table was decorated with hearts and arrows. Red hearts were tied around the table and each corner met in the center and was held by a blooming pot plant. The following girls were present: Juanita Bonds, Juanita Bailley, Juanita Tankersley, Janet Brown, Lucille Burnett, Jimmie Thomas, Virginia Toole, Velma Tutton, Mary D. Price, Mary Jo Neill, Vera Bonds and Elvena Whisenant.

The Junior G. A. will meet on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Baptist church.

Mesdames H. O. Longbrake and Dee Elliott were shopping Lubbock Monday.

Mesdames Dick Brownfield, C. R. Rambo, Roy Herod and W. B. Downing were visiting friends and relatives in Lubbock Thursday.

Mrs. R. M. Kendrick and Mrs. John Scuddy have been at the bedside of Mrs. J. J. Kendrick of Seagraves, who has been ill with pneumonia. She is reported some better.

Mrs. M. V. Brownfield and daughter, Francis were Lubbock visitors Monday.

G. D. Flenniken of Plainview visited in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lee Scudder, Friday.

Mrs. G. S. Weber is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fox, of Hereford, Texas, this week.

Mrs. Roy Wingerd is visiting in Corpus Christi.

MAIDS AND MATRONS CLUB
The Maids and Matrons Club will meet with Mrs. E. V. May on Tuesday Feb. 25 with Mrs. May and Mrs. Greenfield joint hostesses instead of the way it was announced in these columns last week.

HAPPY SMITH SELLING MILK CHOCOLATE DRINK

Happy Smith, former County and District Clerk, of Lynn county was over from Tahoka last week with a lot of his milk chocolate which he is bottling at Tahoka and putting on the market. He informed us that he was having good sales of the product.

He treated the Herald force to some of the product while here and we are glad to say that it was the best milk drink we have ever sampled in bottles.

The Shooting And The Tumult Dies

By substituting the word "shooting" for "shouting" we are able to make use of one of Kipling's classic lines which, like the shot that was fired at Bunker's Hill, has been heard around the world. The line thus worded describes the close of hunting season. It's a great game, this fight that is being made on wild life, especially when a number of poor shots concentrate in a small area and open their fusillade. In the language of a certain ranchman: the battle raged all day and firing ceased at sundown.

Some uncertainty prevails as to whether or not the number of bucks taken was equal to that of the previous season. Moonlight nights early in the season enabled deer to feed at night and hide out in the day time, while later, the weather was severe enough to make timid hunters themselves hide out.

With snow on the ground in central and north Texas for nearly a week, and a temperature ten to fifteen degrees below freezing, much of the time, the winter has been severe on game and there are reports of quail losses. Food was buried in the snow and while they huddled together half starved they fell an easy prey to predatory animals. It is claimed by the Missouri Department of Game and Fish that more quail froze or starved in that state than were taken by hunters during the season of 1929, the number being estimated at 25 per cent. The department distributed nearly ten tons of grain for feeding of quail and turkeys and probably a similar amount was distributed by sportsmen organizations and farmers.

Such winters as the past are rare in Texas but a little feed, even in our normal winters would help feathered game over the hard places and put it in better shape for spring breeding.

CARLSBAD CAVERN HIGHWAY BOOSTERS TO MEET

Plans for the next quarterly meeting of the Carlsbad Cavern Highway Association, which will be held at Matador, are being worked out under the direction of J. H. Hankins, of Lubbock president of the association.

The matter of setting the date of next meeting has been placed in the hands of the Matador Chamber of Commerce. It is expected that the date will be set about the second week of March.

This is to be a very important meeting of the group, as definite plans will be formulated at this meeting regarding plans to submit claims for federal designation on the highway in June—The Hub.

Down Goes Old Man Price

BEGINNING SATURDAY, FEB. 22

Believing the people of Brownfield and vicinity are paying too much for tailoring work, the Henderson Cleaning Co. is coming down on prices. Of course everyone knows that coming down on prices must increase volume of business, therefore with the cooperation of the people of Brownfield and vicinity, we are going to try to keep the prices down,—but only with your help,—as bringing down the prices does not bring down our overhead expense. We have the most modern up to date equipment and do a real class of work that the wearer of the garment is proud to wear and tell who does their cleaning and pressing.

The following prices remain in effect as long as volume of increased business justifies

C. of C. Banquet Held Last Wednesday Nite

Morgan Copeland, president of the local chamber of commerce, delivered the principal address of the evening at the annual banquet of the organization held at the Hotel Brownfield, last Wednesday night.

His address dealt with the growth and development of this section for the past few years, the various lines of industry the livestock and agricultural progress and the accomplishments of the organization.

The treat of the evening was given by Mrs. E. V. May, who delivered a negro sermon. W. R. McDuffie addressed the assembly on the relative importance of chamber of commerce work. Judge H. R. Winston spoke on "The Chamber of Commerce as the Community's Work Shop." Will Ward, West Texas cotton man, spoke along the lines of a co-operative movement toward high grade cottonseed in order to improve cotton staples in this section. Roy B. Davis, county agent, gave an interesting resume of his work, which had been augmented by the local organization. The Bennett Night Hawks, a local string musical organization furnished the music which was interspersed with clog dancing by local negro talent.

The following directors for the ensuing year were elected: Claude Hudgens, Ben Hurst, Roy Davis, Tom Cobb, W. A. Bell, Cecil Smith, Jim Miller, Morgan Copeland, Homer Winston, W. R. McDuffie, N. J. Craig, Henry Chisholm and Homer Nelson.

Challis Chats

The attendance in school was rather low Monday, due to sickness.

Miss Francille Henson returned to school Monday. She has been absent the past few days due to a severe case of flu.

Mrs. Money Price's youngest child Bill Byron, has also been real sick but is greatly improved at the present.

Several others are reported ill and of course we blame the weather.

As soon as he is able to travel Mrs. Houze intends to take her son, Tom, to Topeka, Kansas, for his health. Tom has been ill for weeks and is greatly missed in school.

We also missed the Lagon children in school this past week. Although they lived here only a short while their friends were numerous.

Friday afternoon the children were made happy by the receiving of many valentines, tokens of their friends' love and thoughtfulness. The larger boys went to Pleasant Valley where they were defeated. Nevertheless they enjoyed the visit and hope the boys will return it soon.

The P. T. A. met last Thursday night and was entertained by a short program given by the school children. A meeting was called by the president for the purpose of deciding about the purchase of a piano for the school.

Mrs. Johnson who has been visiting with Mrs. Lence Price has returned to her home in Lubbock.

Mrs. Money Price had as her guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Burson and Bill Burson, also Mr. and Mrs. Howze and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayne Price spent the day with Mrs. Money Price, Sunday.

Miss Rodgers visited in Lubbock with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foy T. Rodgers.

Mr. Marvin Speed, was missed from the community Sunday and later it was reported that he visited south of town. We were unable to learn the home in which he visited.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans visited in the C. R. Warren home Sunday eve, after returning from a visit in Brownfield, with her mother and her daughter.

Mr. Jess Howell's brother and two children visited in his home this past week end.

Poultry Meeting at Courthouse Sat. P.M.

A very important meeting of the Terry County Poultry Association will be held in the district Court room Saturday at 2:30. Every man and woman and all poultry club members are urged to attend this meeting. Matters of great interest to poultry growers will be taken up.

Long Illness Soon Ended; New Konjola

Medicine Brings Quick And Complete Relief After Prolonged and Stubborn Illness

MRS. AMELIA SCHAFENER

"After taking other medicines and treatments for five years, Konjola soon relieved me," said Mrs. Amelia Schafener, 2721 Indiana avenue, St. Louis. "Stomach and liver weakness had brought my health to a state where I was about to give up. A gas formed after I ate the simplest of foods and I bloated until I was short of breath and sometimes nauseated. My liver was sluggish and I had frequent bilious attacks and terrible dizzy spells.

"I soon found that Konjola was the medicine for which I had long sought. My liver responded to this medicine almost from the first bottle. The sluggish feeling left me and I was free from bilious attacks and dizzy spells. Headaches are a thing of the past. My stomach is well and strong and I eat all that a good appetite desires without the least inconvenience of discomfort. My general health is better than it has been in years."

Konjola is sold in Brownfield at Alexander Drug Co. and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.
