TELEPHONE CO. STARTS REBUILDING WORK JUNE 1

Will Be Made Full Cabled Metallic Circuit; All Poles Possible to Be Moved From Streets. Will Build to Care for Future. More Lines to Hobbs and Lubbock.

Mr. F. A. Robinette, District Manager, for the State Telephone Company announces that his company will begin work on rebuilding the local telephone exchange in Brownfield, June 1st.

Mr. Robinette states, as evidence of their faith in the development and future growth of the City of Brownfield, and to keep abreast with the present development and growth, estimates covering this work was drawn up, approved and orders placed for the necessary materials last December, with a promise from the suppliers that delivery of the materials could possibly be made by June 1st.

One car load of cable was received and unloaded in Brownfield, May 12, and two more car loads of materials are rolling, and expected daily. Construction crews will move to Brownfield this week and begin active work upon their arrival. All new construction, as far as possible, will be placed in the alleys, and the present poles and wires removed from the streets which will materially improve the appearance of the town.

The rehabilitation of the exchange will be rushed to completion as rapidly as possible, and when completed, Brownfield will be furnished a full metallic service which will eliminate many defects and handicaps with which we have been confronted heretofore in our efforts to furnish our patrons with a satisfactory telephone service. Also adequate facilities will be provided to care for a normal growth of the town of from three to five years.

Mr. Robinette further stated, that apparently Brownfield was to become an important toll switching center between Lubbock and the New Mexico oil fields, and that several car loads of copper wire, poles and other toll line materials was on the way for stringing two additional circuits from Brownfield to Lovington, and one additional circuit to Lubbock. This being necessary to care for the rapidly increasing toll traffic, between Lubbock, Brownfield, Lovington and Hobbs.

Mr. Robinette was accompanied here by Mr. H. D. Phillips, commercial manager, who expressed himself as pleased with the appearance of the town, and that everything possible would be done to give the people the best of service. He regretted somewhat that too much publicity had been given the plant here in its present state without first notifying them and giving them chance to post the Chamber of Commerce and the Herald that rebuilding would be under way as soon as material could be put on the ground. But so afraid were they that they would this time, like other times be disappointed in the delivery time promised by the manufacturers of materials that they had decided to say nothing of the contemplated improvement until they were actually ready to put crews to work. Both are chamber of commerce members themselves and appreciate the work being done by this organization in the different towns of this section to build up this country.

Mr. Robinette stated that one crew would be located in this city and another rebuilding the line between here and Lovington, thus one crew will be here all the time, and another a great portion of the time while rebuilding is going on.

The city of Brownfield appreciates this improvement on the part of the State Telephone, as well as the Chamber of Commerce, and we are sure there will be no further friction, but all will work in harmony for the up-building of this city and section.

Sheriff and Marshall Run in Young Speeders

Those wild and rattling youngsters who have made the east side of the city hedious of late with great speed, the best their model A's would do, and a pulled down spark to imitate the crack of a shot gun, have now about decided to settle down and be good mamma and daddy boys and girls, for there were at least two of the latter in the two cars. Some of the citizens in the eastern part of the city thought at first the speedsters had guns and took to their homes. They reported to officers.

Sheriff Mon Telford and City Marshall Gene Brown responded and they report they had to make 60 miles an hour to overtake these youngsters, who had no regard of their own lives or the lives of little folks who are liable to cross the streets any minute.

Upon being caught, they began to beg, all who were not to much scared to do so, and under solemn promise that they would be good little boys and girls from this on, they were dismissed for the time being. But the officers made it very plain to them that if they were ever caught again, they would be called to the court house, all the lights turned on, and their parents as well as the people whom they have been disturbing would be called in. On top of that, it was also made plain that their parents would have to dig up next time or they would go to the locker.

The Herald has an idea that the manufacturers of small cars have added about twice as much speed to them as is really necessary, and we firmly believe that if accidents are lessened, state laws will have to be passed forbidding any manufacturer to sell in that state cars with more than 35 miles per hour speed. Racing cars and ambulances, fire trucks, etc., could be given greater speed with safety.

Mastery of Disguise Proven by Baxter

The metamorphosis of Warner Baxter is so complete, so startling and so deceiving in "Such Men Are Dangerous," Fox Movietone all talking pulsating drama, adapted from Elinor Glyn's widely read magazine story, that this well known screen star fears his friends will scarcely believe he portrayed the character of Ludwig Kranz throughout the production.

Catherine Dale Owen and Warner Baxter in Fox Movietone "Such Men Are Dangerous"

Baxter bases his conclusion on the fact that his associates and friends of long standing failed to recognize him and refused to believe that the repugnant and ugly man who appeared on the set when production started was really he. Even after they were convinced they treated him with indifference. The transformation was so pronounced that Baxter still gave them the feeling that they didn't know him.

Baxter enacts the leading male role in "Such Men Are Dangerous," and Catherine Dale Owen, acclaimed the most beautiful blonde of the screen portrays the leading feminine role. The production is due at the Rialto Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Sallie T. Stricklin returned this week from Lubbock, where she spent several days with her friend, Caroline Spencer.

Memorial Day

Designation Does Not Mean to Vote Bonds

J. E. Shelton, C. of C. Secretary

During the last several weeks or maybe the past three months, delegations from Brownfield have attended the various highway meetings that have been held in the territory that is covered by highways that have been routed or expect to route through this country. Now a citizen can be for additional highways through a town and county because it means more tourist travel and at the same time be opposed to a road bond issue. But there seems to be an idea in the minds of some people that because a man attends these meetings and is interested in creating additional highway entries and is favorable to both state and federal designations, that he is for road bonds. Now when I undertake to secure a delegation to attend one of these sessions I do not ask him what his attitude is on the question of "bonds" and only want to think that he is of the opinion that tourist travel is advantageous to a town or county. Several citizens attended a highway meeting at Matarador and I think that two of the boys were opposed to a road bond issue at this time. Two of us attended a meeting at Lubbock a few weeks ago and I think that we were both favorable to it altho I did not ask the man who accompanied me. At the Roswell meeting I am of the opinion that two were opposed to an issue at this time and at the Post meeting last week three out of the five could be considered as adverse to a bond. One of them would not vote for any kind of a bond under any circumstances, but he is a mighty good citizen and is interested in additional state designations and is very much interested in Federal designations for the two highways that enter our town and is assisting in undertaking to secure one of them.

What Designation Does Mean A state designation means that the highway department takes over a highway and maintains it without cost to the county, other than the gasoline and registration fees which we have to pay anyway and if a road bond issue is ever voted, the State pays one half of the cost! Federal designations added to State designations, mean that the county will only pay one-third and the State and Government one-third each! It however has been demonstrated or proven by actual observation that tourists are seeking to travel the highways that have a federal designation because they think that they are better maintained than a road with only state designation. The highway between Big Spring and Lubbock, has a federal designation and has had for several years and it is not hardsurfaced and no arrangement has been made for it. The highway between Sweetwater and Lubbock is a federal highway but there is no hardsurfacing on it north of the Scurry county line and no arrangement has been made for it except in Lubbock county. So it would seem that a person could be in favor of a federal designation without voting bonds or without promising anything in the way of a bond vote. We

John Burnett Brings in Some Nice "Ingers"

A yarn is told on Arkansas, of course, that during the civil war some Federal troops came into a small village in that state and approaching a store that was run by a native woman whose man was probably in the Southern army, called for some spuds. Whereupon, as the story goes the lady informed him that she had nothing like that in stock, whereupon, the soldier pointed out the article to her in a nearby basket.

"Oh!" said the lady, you wanted Irish potatoes? Well, I'll declare how funny you yankees do talk. A man from the north was in the other day and called for onions, but we didn't have any we thought; likely as not he wanted "ingers." Anyway, John Burnett brought in a lot of onions the past week and presented them to the Herald, saying that he saw where we wrote an article some time back about one Territe that had planted several thousand onion plants, and he wanted us to know that he was some onion raiser himself. We'll say so; and we will also state that we enjoyed them very much but have been going about half asleep ever since.

John also claims that he is going to have some mighty fine Irish cobbler for us in the near future. Hurry 'em along John, for we sure do like fresh Irish spuds.

Still Some Stock Dying - Vet. Gives Remedy

There are still some livestock dying with the disease that appears to be a form of blind staggers. This disease which has killed a lot of horses and cattle this spring is thought to be a form of Hemorrhagic Septicemia. Dr. F. M. Gallivan, laboratory director of the Globe Laboratories of Ft. Worth in writing for the magazine, West Texas Today, says that in one form of Hemorrhagic the affected animals appear to be intoxicated or mad. Animals thus affected do not live long and show a bloody discharge from the nostrils at time of death.

There are other forms and symptoms of this disease. Treatment and prevention is by vaccinating using bacterin where an animal is affected and aggression for prevention.

are working for two federal designations through this county because we think that they would be advantageous to us from a standpoint of increased travel which would be more money left in the country by transient people.

LATER: A wire was received after this article was written to the effect that the Government had granted Federal designation to the Carlsbad Cavern Highway. As you know this highway comes through Brownfield and Terry county from Lubbock to Bronco, Texas, where it connects with a Federal designated highway to Roswell, N. M.

4-H Boys Still Selling Pigs to Other Counties

Frank Wendt, County Agent of Midland County, came up last week and selected a young Poland boar from Curtis Bass. It will be remembered that the Midland C. of C. purchased several gilts from the Terry county club boys last fall. These gilts were sold to the Midland Club boys and Mr. Wendt reported that all the boys were highly pleased with them.

It was about two years ago when the Terry county club boys received their car of registered pigs from the Lillard Stock Farms of Arlington, Texas. At the time of delivery it looked to some that it would be a long time before that group of pigs had any influence upon the number and quality of hogs in this country. However, when you look around you will find those same pigs now playing the important parts of foundation breeding stock, with many of the sows producing two prize litters a year. You can scarcely find a pure bred hog in the county but what is a descendant of these club pigs of two years ago.

Not only has this importation of pigs given us our breeding stock but you find their offspring in the feeding lot and among the market hogs. A lot of the barrows were placed in the pork box last winter and some of the farmers who had the idea that a choice killing hog was one which was short, dumpy, and all lard, were pleased with the larger and deeper hams, the longer middlings well streaked with lean which these better hogs produced.

Local Ball Team Wins Past 2 Sunday Games

On Sunday 18th, the local team played a fast team from Lubbock, which was won by the local boys, but we failed to learn the score. Last Sunday another game was won by the locals from Amherst, which took eleven innings to decide. The final score was 7 to 6 in favor of Brownfield.

The ladies of the Methodist church will play the ladies literary society of Johnson community this afternoon, which promises to be a rich one. Go see it.

The local team, we understand will now take the road for a few games, as all games this year have been played at home, of which only one was lost, this being the one with Southland.

WHAT KIND OF SOX DO YOU WEAR PEDDLER ASKS

He Breezes in and He Breezes Out When Informed That Our Home Bought Sox Suit Us. Looks at Herald to See If Local Merchants Advertise. They Did. Exit.

Sox peddlers are not only sometimes gally, but at times they get rather personal in their search for business. One dropped into this office one day recently and failing to see a sign over the gate leading from the front to the back office which plainly says, "Employees Only," he swung said gate aside, marched right up to where this proprietor, editor, publisher, compositor, makeup man, pressman and general devil at all trades was acting the part of makeup man at the time being, and hailed us with the rather familiar greeting of "What kind of sox do you wear?"

Well, we had been going at a hard grind all morning, and it was press day in the Herald office. Our breakfast had been rather light as usual, and there was a gnawing hunger in the pit of our growing bay window that constantly reminded us that we were fagging. Drops of honest perspiration was beaded on our usually calm brow, but a key had just recently slipped out of a quoin, and our knuckle struck the side bar, peeling off some cuticle, and our usual calm demeanor was a bit ruffled. Indeed, we were everything but a fit subject for a jelly bean agent to pop such a question as the above. Our short rejoinder was simply "damgoodens." He countered with, "I presume they are pure thread silk." "No, but they are pure thread cotton, and the best that Brownfield merchants sell." Thus the dialog ended, and he found his way out presently and perhaps to more congenial company, and someone perhaps who did not feel embarrassed for a total stranger to quiz him about his wearing apparel.

Right here we wish to say for perhaps the hundredth time, what money we have to spend is with home lumbermen, home grocerymen, home hardware men, home dry goods men, home barbers and bakers and bankers and filling stations, and we expect them to do the same by us when in need of our wares. These men pay the taxes that sends my children to school and erect nice buildings to house the schools. They pay to have my streets paved and to build sidewalks to keep me out of the mud. They pay the salary of our ministers and the upkeep of our churches. They pay the funeral expenses of the poor of the community if need be, and visit me when I am sick or dependent. They are my neighbors and friends, and if I get down and out they come to my rescue.

What has a sox pedler in trade but his satchel? He is here today and gone tomorrow, and he doesn't give a tinkers dam whether my children go to school or go to hell. If you have an idea that we like peddlers after reading the above, especially the "smart" ones, you have a poor insight of reading between the lines—you sure have.

Lubbock—the Capitol Of the South Plains

For a long time Lubbock has been claiming to be the hub of the South Plains, the universe or some other foreign port, and their claim went unchallenged, for no one cared whether they were the hub, the spokes, the tire, or whether it was a balloon, puncture proof, three or four ply, or had recently had a blowout. In fact, we regarded that as an advertising motto that they had adopted and were quite willing that they stay with it if they wanted, as long as they did not interfere with our motto: "The bread basket of Texas." But when Lubbock began to claim recently that it was the capitol of the South Plains the Herald, for one, is ready to protest.

We want it here and now distinctly understood that Terry county people recognize no other county site or county capitol than Brownfield; no other state capitol than Austin; and no other national capitol than Washington D. C., and we imagine that the same may be said about the dozens of other fine counties in this oasis usually termed the South Plains of Texas. Lubbock is a fine city, and this whole section is glad that a city of its proportions and importance is among us. That its wholesale houses are at our doors. That its educational facilities are so close to our people. That it can supply us with newspapers that carry the world's interesting news in two hours after they are off the press. Yes, we appreciate all this, but Lubbock must not get too big for its britches. Let it come itself down and just be one of the boys with the rest of the growing youngsters of this section.

Lubbock, just like any other city, might be wiped from the face of the earth in two minutes, and while it would be missed and regretted as in the case of Tyre and Sidon, business would go on just the same, and we little burgers would soon adjust ourselves to our loss and make business connections at Plainview, Amarillo, Sweetwater, Dallas or Fort Worth. Perish the South Plains area and Lubbock would swirl up like a snowball in hades. Let the metropolis of this section keep in mind that this section has made it and this includes the rest of Lubbock county outside that city's incorporate limits.

Not satisfied with her share of the representation in the legislature, she now wants all of it, both senator and representative on account of Tech. We wonder if there is a man in this district that is capable of representing the district, not for that college, soul and all. But there is something else in the district besides this college to represent. We have millions of dollars worth of property and thousands of farmers who are heavily taxed and struggling to make both ends meet at present low

Many Wear Poppies Here Last Saturday

That little red flower that is said to cover the fields of northern France at this time of year, was worn by both men and women here Saturday. And the wearers were not confined to the people who live here in town, but hundreds of them were worn by the people who come here to trade each Saturday. These of course were not real flowers, for they were made of red tissue supported by fine wire over which was wrapped a green tissue to represent the stem of the poppy flower. But they were pretty.

But the main thing in the wearing of these tiny little flowers showed that the wearer remembered the boys who if necessary paid the supreme sacrifice among the hills of Flanders. That they contributed their dime or more that those who came back, mangled, blind or deaf could help in the support of their little family or other loved ones. For these tiny flowers are manufactured by disabled ex-service men as explained in these columns for the past two weeks. We hope you read them.

These flowers were sold through the American Legion Auxiliary here, and active in their sale were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fyeatt, Mrs. Mon Telford, Mrs. Jim Miller, Miss Olga Fitzgerald and possibly others who were not there when the writer passed in front of the Cobb Dept. Store. But every penny—nothing for work or expense—will go to crippled and disabled veterans.

A WHOLESOME STORY

Here's a wholesome and unusual news story from Brookings, S. D. Nine young women are graduating not in expensive party gowns, but in dresses that cost less than $6 each. The girls are seniors in the South Dakota state college of agriculture, and they made the dresses themselves. They consider it a distinction to graduate in these dresses. There is a lesson, a mighty lesson in this story.

priced products and poor markets. These must be considered first, and our representative should not be sent to Austin with any narrow gauged platform. We will recognize Lubbock as the hub; as the metropolis of the South Plains, the wholesale and railroad center, but we will not grant her as our capitol—yet.

Senior Class Play at Gomez High School

"The Cousin From Coon Ridge," a comedy in three acts, will be presented by the Gomez High School students at the Gomez School Auditorium next Saturday afternoon, 8:30 o'clock, May 31. The cast of characters are:

Theodore Hampton, a badly worried college student—Aubrey Fore. Eileen Burgess, the cousin from Coon Ridge and the cause of his worries—Fay Waddell.

Anita Thorne, a popular college girl—Georgia Green.

Besse Deane, another college girl—Ruby Key.

Mrs. Winifred Watson, chaperon at Alpha Phi Sorority House at Thurston College—Dollie McLeary.

"Spike" Sloan, an always hungry college boy—Denver Kelley.

Grover Green, a typical college student—Bonner Armstrong.

Betty McCarroll, a movie actress with a taste for adventure—Winnie Mae Nolan.

Gene Campbell, the most popular man in college—James Brown. A Tramp—Oscar Decker.

Mrs. Watson, the chaperon at the Alpha Phi House, is dearly loved by all the girls and their friends. She mothers them all, especially Gene Campbell who has an almost unexplainable attraction for her. He is just the sort of son she imagines her own baby boy would have been had she not been obliged to give him up. The aunt who adopted her child made her promise never to see him again.

Theodore Hampton confides to Mrs. Watson and two of the girls that his mother has invited his cousin from Coon Ridge to attend the Prom with him. He remembers her as being fat, snub-nosed and dumb. Matters are very complicated for he had previously invited a very attractive college girl. The girls agree to help him by seeing that his cousin is properly clothed and coached for the dance. The boys have agreed to dance with her. Gene agrees to meet her at the junction, take a look and wire Ted the worst.

But Fate takes a hand and Eileen, the cousin, and another girl, Betty McCarroll, find themselves alone at the junction waiting for the train. Eileen tells Betty of her unpleasant recollections of her cousin Ted, and her reluctance to attend the Prom with him. Betty proposes that they trade names and places for the occasion. Gene arrives and finds himself confronted by two very attractive girls. Ted has also come to the junction for he believes that he would rather know the worst before she reaches the campus. The girls introduce themselves by their assumed names. Ted is overjoyed in finding his cousin such an attractive girl, while Gene and the real Eileen seem to be more than ordinarily attracted to each other. Gene, who has never been in love before, decides on the spot that this is the only girl in the world for him.

When they get back to school Gene finds a letter for him from his aunt who is about to die. She tells Gene that Mrs. Watson is his mother. Mrs. Watson knows the greatest happiness of her life when Gene tells her, and Gene is doubly happy, for he realizes that this day has brought him both mother and sweetheart. Ted is glad to find that the girl whom he believed to be his cousin is now eligible for a sweetheart.

Gomez High School invites you to come.

improbable. Nobody drives too fast these days. All try to get what speed there is out of whatever old kind of bus they happen to own. Others seem to think the car was crowded and interfered with the driver, but eight average individuals when there are two kinds are hardly sufficient to cover the space in a five passenger car and permit its occupants to be chummy. I have seen that many in a roadster.

No, they, nor we, or us, will profit by the occurrence. We will continue to drive fast and stuff the old bus with everyone we can stack in. On with the dance let joy be unconfined.

The Special Judges who heard our old friend Jim Ferguson's plea for a place on the Primary Ticket, did what they expected to do, mop him off the political map. Treason has been forgiven—Jim was never accused of that, but voting and working for the success of the republican ticket, dallying with any and all isms for conscience sake makes a loyal democrat, so the courts decide. Love is presented to the democrats of Texas as a lamb without spot or blemish. A Pascal Lamb. Just watch us sacrifice him. Tom may have the voice of Jacob but his hands are the hairy jaws of Esau.

Mrs. Ferguson is to take the place of Jim on the ticket. I might have voted for her just for spite but her platform is entirely too dry. She is drier than the Anti Saloon League or Morris Sheppard. She wants all who run for office in Texas, sworn to not take a little for their stomach's sake, not to look on the wine when it is red, under very severe penalties for violation of their oaths.

I feel about additional laws to enforce the Volstead Act much like Sarah Bernhardt did concerning additions to the Ten Commandments. She avered there were already ten too many.

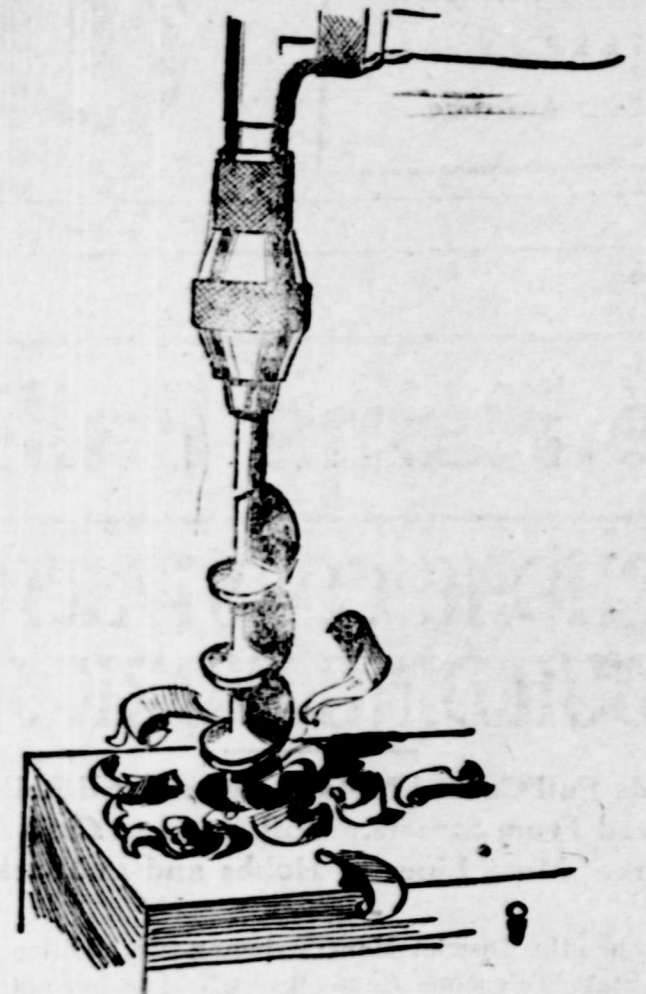

It is interesting to note that my Methodist Brethren in Conference at Dallas winked at and white washed our Dear Bishop Cannon. It is hoped that plenty of soap along with parasiticides and vermaguges were vigorously applied and used before the ceremony of auricular confession. "If thou have tears prepare to shed them now" cried Antony over Caesar. The good Bishop had them and to spare. Listen. There is little difference in the make up of the man who bucks the Exchange and the individual who engages in crap shooting at the head of a ravine or plays stud poker in an out house or box car. Its the stakes in either.

There was a large respectable body in that assembly that stood for the right. The great body however rather toasted the Bishop.

So Damon Love and Pytheus Cannon are each Deacons in the church and state. If these two constitute our jewels then "Let the dog return to his vomit and the sow to her wallowing in the mire."

MEADOW BRIEFS

By Aesculapius

Meadow continues on the map of Terry County but the recent returns of the Census takers gives it a considerably reduced population. We might do like some others to save our faces, round in a few farms or dispute the figures.

The city Dads have taken a fall out with the stray dogs and wandering cows that get out at night—accidentally of course—and graze on the gardens and shrubbery and mutilate shade trees.

The dogs are to be taxed and if found without collars they will go to the pound along with the ambulant cows and calves. The population will of course out howl the dogs as there is nothing so ingratiating as a worthless cur. If he gets caught or killed it was the children's playmate, when as a matter of fact he was rarely seen at home.

Last Saturday night eight of our boys and girls packed themselves into a five passenger car and hid themselves away to a dance some twenty miles distant. Some four miles east of Ropes they were unable to negotiate a right angle in the road and the cantankerous car did not make the turn, but, turned turtle and rolled into the adjoining pasture, spilling its contents of human freight. Two of the number Herbert Chesshir and Evelyn Smith were seriously injured. Miss Smith suffered a crushed spine and Herbert injury to his ribs and possible internal injuries. At this writing neither of them are thought to be doing well. Both are at the Lubbock Sanitarium. The community is considerably distressed over the unfortunate occurrence.

The thoughtless would say they were driving too fast, but this is very

JUST GAS

Mandy's "Just A Column" in the Times, which is a product of the versatile pen of Grady Kinsolving, carried the following story, and our only motive in copying it is because it struck us as being good—and not that we are trying to get at anyone following the trade in question here. Here's the story:

Scene: A filling station. Characters: Filling station proprietor and motorist.

The dialog:
 "Five gallons, please."
 "Okay, how about your oil?"
 "No, just gas, please."

"How about a bottle of Shynola—great for the paint; your bus is all covered with traffic film."

 "Nope, just the gas."
 "Your left rear tire is pretty well shot. Better let me put on a new one; we're selling Punch Proofs today for—"

"No, the gas will do."
 "How long since you had a grease job? Everything looks kinda dry—hear that body squeak?"

"Haven't time today, just the gas this time."

"How about one of our electric cigar lighters—clamp on your dash and when you want a—"

"HELL, NO! JUST THE GAS!" (Indignant motorist drives away and grinning proprietor turns to bystander)

"That there was my barber."

Some take such a melancholy view of religion that they think it is a sacred duty to look gloomy.

It is possible, of course, for such a game to be called off on account of short circuit.

No one is perfect, and that's why we all have a chance to make a showing.

here Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. George Forrester and family of Bledsoe community spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Trimmel have moved back to town again from their farm. She will have charge of a cafe here. We are surely glad to have them back with us again.

Scudday Scrapings

It is still very dry and dusty here at Scudday. Although the people are resting just fine, so when it does rain they will be ready for real work. Last Sunday was a very happy day out here. In the morning we had church services; then at 12:00 o'clock dinner was spread; then about 2:30 we heard another sermon. Everyone then went home and came back to the services that night.

Scudday played Forrester a game of baseball Friday. The scores were 8 to 10 in our favor.

We are very proud to say that Mr. and Mrs. Bowerman are not going to go to school this summer, therefore they will continue to be at Scudday.

Tames and R. G. Nutt were visitors in Leroy Norris' home Saturday.

Mr. Vernon Townson spent Saturday night in the home of Mr. N. T. Rainwater.

Miss Odessa Adams from Hunter community was visiting Miss Lillian Hill Friday.

Mr. I. A. Lowe and family were visitors in the C. L. Buckner home Sunday.

Eunice and Sarah Lou Norris were visitors in the home of Mrs. Roy Sparkman Thursday.

Miss Willie Cunningham was a dinner guest of Miss Eunice Norris Sunday night.

Grandma Eastnem, Miss Maggie Eastnem, Misses Claudene and Tine Cunningham returned Saturday from Yoakum county where they have been visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cunningham for the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Davis of Brownfield were visitors in the Elbert Norris home Monday.

Miss Shirley Nutt spent Tuesday with Miss Syble Norris.

Miss Meriel Bowden spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Syble Nutt. Syble returned home with her and spent Sunday night.

Miss Shirley Nutt was a dinner guest of Miss Claudene Cunningham Saturday night.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Provided I can get enough pupils to justify teaching, I plan to teach summer school starting Monday, June 2. I will consider only those children in the first three grades. My rates are $8.00 for eight weeks.

If you are interested please notify me at once.

Forrester Items

Sister Wade preached here Sunday morning.

The Womens Missionary Society met in the home of Mrs. G. M. Thomson last Wednesday afternoon. An interesting lesson was discussed. Present were Mr. W. J. Baldwin, Mrs. Rose Baldwin, Mrs. Polk, Mrs. Drury, Grandma Baldwin, Mrs. Fulton, Mrs. Forrester, Miss Elma Baldwin and hostess.

The birthday party at Mr. Roy Griffiths Friday night was very much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wade of Tokio were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baldwin. They visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Forrester in the afternoon.

Mr. Lee Fulton has been on the sick list the past week.

Several from this community attended the singing at Plains Sunday. They reported a good singing and lots of dinner.

Miss Irene Washman visited Miss Elma Baldwin Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Minnick called on Mr. W. J. Baldwin and family Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Zachary were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crone Tuesday.

Mrs. Ross Baldwin visited Mrs. G. M. Thomson Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Addie Mae Mathis visited Miss Naomi Drury Sunday.

Next Sunday night is our singing time at Forrester. Everybody is invited to come.

A Terry County Heifer Makes a Fine Record

Tormentor's Fernette S. finished her second month on official test with 920 lbs. milk and 52.1 lb butterfat. This is equivalent to 3.6 gallon of milks and 2 lbs. of butter a day.

She was fed and milked three times per day. Her feed consisted of three bundles of short hegari, no grain. 12 lb. ground corn, with shuck and cob; 3 lb. cotton seed meal; 3 lb. wheat bran; and 3 lb. of ground alfalfa hay. Valuing feed and cream at actual prices this cow paid a profit of $8.58 above feed cost.

The above cow is two years and two months old and is owned by Mr. T. L. Causseaux of Meadow. Not only is this cow a wonderful producer for her age but she was first prize Senior yearling heifer at the Dairy Show held at Plainview this last April.

Mr. Causseaux reports that his other registered cow, Masterman's Pearl S. is fresh and that he expects to place her on official test. This cow produced 505 lbs. of butterfat in 305 days last year and promises to exceed this as she is now milking around 60 lb. or 7 gallon per day.

Mrs. Flem McSpadden is the proud possessor of a new Ford car presented her by her brother, of Seagraves. Flem says he doesn't know whether he will be able to borrow it any or not.

Of course its no part of our business, but we have often wondered if northern people who call a Creek Indian a "Crick," would a squaw be a "Cricket?"

Our town was overrun with mail order catalogs this week, but we note that several of their extra specials on the back of their catalog in colors are undersold right here in Brownfield. And one of them is a garden hose. Buy it in Brownfield.

And so Ma came out as dry as the Sahara. In fact, the platform of the other dry boys looks like a big dew beside Ma's platform, for she demands that all officers who take the oath of office be dry themselves in the past as well as the future. But we have an idea that this eleventh hour flop over will get her nowhere, with old time drys.

Tom Blanton of Abilene was elected for the short term as Congressman from the 17th district to fill out the unexpired term of Hon. R. Q. Lee, deceased, and we will wager a two bit pair of sox he gets the long term too, because the farmers and small business men of the 17th want him to represent them. Texas, as well as the rest of the Union need a few more watch dogs of the treasury up there at Washington.

Memorial Day has arrived again, when the graves of the dead, soldier and civilian is to be decorated and our memories made afresh of the good deeds of the departed. Our main care of course is and will ever be for the living. We cannot help those who have departed. They are beyond our reach. But any nation that forget their heroic dead or the good deeds of loved ones, would soon pass into brutality and decay.

The supreme court gave Tom Love the right to run as a Democrat despite his jumping proclivities. The same court rejected Jim Ferguson. So there is no sort of a pledge to the Democratic party in Texas, but perhaps there is one in the Republican party left. To the notion of this scribe, Tom Love and Jim Ferguson are two men who believe the pledge should be upheld if they are the nominees, but can be rejected at will if the other fellow is the nominee. Both men are just alike on this question, at least.

And folks, the Herald has a brand new Stetson coming up. Our good friend, R. B. Haynes, of the Miami Chief, who some nine years ago ruled the roost of the Tahoka News, bet the Herald that Tahoka would show a bigger population than Brownfield in 1930. Brownfield had 1892 and Tahoka 1619, or 273 in favor of the former. We do not aim to insist that this wager be paid, for naturally we are not of the gambling kind, but we do need a new sky piece, and recognizing a good sport in Bob, we hope he sends it in time for the T. P. A. at Corpus Christi.

We hear a great deal about Philippine independence these days, and really in the south at least they have some friends that believe independence should be granted them as soon as they show some capability of self government. To, they are at this time flooding the country with cheap oils that come in direct competition with our own cottonseed oils as well as butter, for from their coconut oils come a cheap substitute for butter, and of course this hits northern dairymen, as well as southern people. But, Americans who have gone into their Island and put in machinery and improvements of one nature and another, should be taken care of with a treaty with these islands in case full freedom is granted them.

Calling attention to the activities of the wet and dry forces of this country as disclosed by testimony given recently before investigating committees of Congress, Wilbur Forrest writing in the New York Tribune, says that for many weeks Prohibition has been the all-absorbing topic of discussion in Washington, and he thinks that it will be the paramount issue in the next Presidential campaign. He estimates that at least half the voters in the country, both wet and dry, will ignore party lines and vote for wets or drys for Congress and for President regardless of all other issues. Every straw in the political wind indicate that Forrest is right. The wets are preparing for the fights of their lives. The drys already sniff the smoke of battle afar off. Party lines are going to be broken like cotton strings in the path of an avalanche. The bolting on the part of Southern Democrats two years ago is likely to seem tame as compared with the split that is going to be made in both parties two years hence. The wets are determined to fight the issue out before the people and there will be nothing else for the drys to do but accept the gauge of battle.—Lynn County News.

The Brady trial is over again—until the next one. The woman in the case long ago paid for her indiscretion with her life and the jury, after long hours of turbulent mental effort, came to the decision that the man who killed her should also pay—to the extent of three years in the penitentiary! But then, of course, he was "tempted by the woman"! The lawyers will probably ask for a new trial and by the time it comes off, we shall all be saying, "Brady? Who was Brady and what did he do?" Another venire facias puratures will be issued and the prospective jurors griffled for indications of intelligence and judgment. It would never do to have anything like that in a jury. The farce will be staged and the chances are the best in the world that the defendant will be acquitted. The fact of the matter is, the verdict just returned is entirely unwarranted. It is ridiculous to give a man three years in the pen, merely for killing somebody. Just look at all the people there are left that he might have killed and didn't! Why, each and every one of us knows at least half a dozen citizens that ought to be "bumped off" but nobody has yet taken the trouble to do it. Why don't we repeal the law against murder, anyhow? It isn't being "enforced" and the lawyers seem to be able to serve a sentence even if a jury "of his peers" does find him guilty. We are getting "educated up" to the point where all laws look alike to us and it is just a matter of personal inclination which we shall respect. As a matter of fact, why not do away with the whole caboodle of them and let a generation or two of lawyers starve to death. Not that we wish our fellowmen any harm but just as an economic measure in the interests of the guys that are scheduled to be killed off in the next half-century. It has come to the point where there isn't any particular distinction in being a murderer's victim any more and something ought to be done about it. Since previous victims can't do much, it's up to us potential victims. We can't consult the lawyers as to the lawful procedure because they, naturally, would object to being starved to death but in view of all that the rest of us have put up with for many years past, it does look like they ought to be good sports and die game. The rest of us do.—Southwest Plains man.

gated officer of said city council, is hereby authorized to take into his possession any stock found roaming around within the city limits of the said town of Meadow and impound said stock.

A fee of $2.00 per head is here allowed the city marshal, or such delegated officer by said city council for his fee; and it is further provided that said city marshal or other delegated officer of said council, shall take care of said stock, and the cost of said care shall be taxed against said animal or animals.

It is further provided by this ordinance that said city marshal or other delegated officer of said city council, after he has held said animal or animals for a period of five days, and no owner comes to claim and pay damages against said animal or animals, the same shall be by said officer advertised for sale by posting a notice of such sale, describing said animal or animals for a period of ten days, in satisfaction of said cost incurred against said animal or animals.

If said sale of said animal or animals should amount to more than the cost incurred, the same shall be turned to said city and held for the owner of said stock for a period of six months, and if not claimed by then the same shall revert to the city.

The fact that the city of Meadow has no stock ordinance, and that public necessity demands the immediate passage of this ordinance, the rule requiring three separate readings is hereby suspended and this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and publication.

The City Secretary is hereby authorized to give notice of the passage of this ordinance by publication thereof for two weeks.

The motion being called for, the following voted "AYE"—T. C. Lucas, J. R. Patton, D. J. Harris, B. F. Finley, H. McDonald, and none voted "NO."

Mayor Robert Welch thereupon declared said ordinance passed.

No One Knew there was a Woman in England

ABOUT fifty years ago an Englishman came to one of our large American cities. He built up a fortune in real estate. He sold large pieces of property and built hotels. He married. Both the Englishman and his wife died. All deeds and titles to the man's properties, conveyed and mortgaged, were, seemingly, in good order. His will was probated.

Everything appeared right. The purchasers of the properties slept in peace.

One morning a young Englishman appeared in a lawyer's office in the American city. He had come to "secure his grandmother's dower in the estate." No one had known of an English wife—still alive.

Innocent property owners were forced to pay thousands of dollars to an unknown woman across the sea—losses which could have been protected by title insurance.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Mrs. R. F. Lindsay, President of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, is very anxious that every mother and father of a daughter in high school, every school official and every club woman in Texas, hear the radio address on Thursday, June 5th, at 10:30, A. M., by Mrs. M. N. Chrestman, Chairman of Radio Programs in the Texas federation, whose address is 6703 Country Club Circle, Dallas. Her subject will be "Dean of Girls in High Schools." Tune in on station WFAA and hear this important subject ably discussed.

L. M. Watkins and son, of Meadow, were visitors in this city Monday of this week.

Many Brownfield and Terry county citizens attended the singing convention at Plains, Sunday.

STORY OF THREE LITTLE PIGS

Eastland.—Three little pigs went to market in Eastland county the other day but came back home again because the price was so low. Now they repose in tin cans on pantry shelves. There isn't much moral in this for pigs, but owners may derive some benefit by learning that the pigs were valued at $68.25 canned while the hog buyer rated them at only $40.

As reported by the home demonstration agent, John Boles of Carbon, disgusted with the low hog market, used a steam pressure canner to turn out 75 No. 3 cans of ham and sausage, 15 No. 2 cans of sausage, 6 No. 3 cans of mincemeat, and 5 No. 3 cans of cooked meat from bones. Besides this $7 worth of meat was eaten fresh and 15 gallons of lard obtained. The cost of cans was $4.90.

ICE CREAM EVERY OTHER TUESDAY, SAYS OLD AD

"Ice cream will be on sale every other Tuesday at Smith's general store. If the trade demands, it will be offered weekly."

The above advertisement, which was carried in a New York newspaper in the summer of 1870, reflects not only the change in appetite which has taken place in the last sixty years, but also the revolution in the dairy industry which has made this possible. The cream separator together with the Babcock test are now quite generally recognized as having been foremost factors in making possible the present day universal distribution of ice cream and creamery butter which has made dairying the most important business of agriculture, finds the research department of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers.

FARMERS VICTIMIZED

As a sample of the "nation's worst tariff" now pending in congress, the bill carries a 10 percent duty on hides and a 20 percent duty on shoes, harness and other leather goods.

Even the Wall Street Journal, bulwark of financial interests, declares that in framing the measure the farmers of the nation were victimized.—Okla. Farmer-Stockman, May 15th.

THE NIGHT LIGHT FOR BABY CHICKS

The favorable results secured by a large number of poultry raisers with the use of a dim light for baby chicks are being confirmed by experiments at the Massachusetts Agricultural College. Prof. Wm. C. Sanctuary reports, that with 327 chicks under observation, the chicks aided by lights showed a gain in growth at four weeks of age which varied from 8 to 15 per cent depending upon the breed. This gain did not come from eating during the night but it was noted that the dim light kept the chicks spread out in the most comfortable sleeping belt available and enabled them to find their way back to the hover without becoming chilled. It was also observed that on cold mornings the lighted group of chicks lost no time before starting to drink and eat while a large portion of those in the unlighted group first took time off to get warm under the hover.

Where electricity is available either from a farm lighting plant or transmission line, a ten-watt light was recommended. This assures a dependable light which will not blow out or become an extra fire hazard, observes the research department of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers.

THERE AIN'T NO SANTA

With the return of prevacation examination papers, Edgar Morrow discovered his instructor, Dr. Moore, is not acquainted with Santa Claus.

A test was given the Friday before vacation. There was but a single question and Edgar thinking the test unimportant, wrote as his answer to the question: "God knows, I don't. Merry Christmas."

The paper was returned. Dr. Moore had graded it and inserted the following: "God get 100 per cent. You get zero. Happy New Year."

SUPPER FOR SENIORS

The Senior Class was entertained with a pie supper social last Thursday evening from 6:30 to 8:30 in the hospitable home of Mrs. S. H. Holgate with Mesdames L. E. McClish, Jay Barret, Walter Gracey, Brit Clare and E. D. Ballard as joint hostesses with Mrs. Holgate.

The seniors were asked to sing for their supper and there was much fun over the selection of songs and the singing, after which they marched single file through the dining room and were served, as they passed, a delicious plate supper consisting of tuna fish sandwiches, pickles, pie and iced tea. They ten took themselves to the spacious front porch to eat, drink and be merry in the pleasant twilight.

The following teachers and seniors were present: Misses Mary Perkins, Faye Martin, Ina Robinson and Mr. Hayhurst, Vera Miller, Kathryn Gracey, Mary Corning, Florence Holt, Edna Brock, Eunice Elmore, Cordia Mae Shepherd, Doris Bandy, Frances Carpenter, Mae Holgate, Vivian Eubank, Velma McClish, Phyllis Holgate, Wynona Burnett, Vivian Clare, Rebecca May, Robert Bailey, David Perry, Alton Owens, Maurice Thompson, Cecil Burnett, Roy Ballard, Frank Barrett and Barney Holgate.

After a pleasant social hour the guests assured the hostesses they had had a grand and glorious time and departed to attend Mrs. Toone's recital.

Files of the local newspaper are almost as important for record purposes as are transcriptions of deeds, mortgages and other public documents. They should be kept in fire-proof vaults. If the publisher is not in position to provide this protection, the authorities of the town should do so. In case the newspaper files are destroyed, it will take a lot of scratching around to fill in the gap in local history which their loss will entail.—Publishers' Auxiliary.

Farm Bureau Ass'n Revamped Into T.C.C.A.

Dallas, May 21—With the old Farm Bureau Cotton Association revamped into the new Texas Cotton Cooperative Association, and a new membership contract which puts cooperation on a voluntary rather than compulsory basis, it was announced today that a state-wide campaign for enrolling farmers in the cooperative program will begin the first of June.

Carl Williams, cotton member of the Farm Board, will come from Washington to assist in opening the campaign, with addresses at Abilene, Paris, Waco and Corpus Christi. The Farm Board cotton member was delayed in his original schedule, and the new dates will put him at Abilene, to address the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in its annual meeting at 10 o'clock Friday, May 30; at Paris before a farmers' and business men's mass meeting Saturday, May 31; and for similar meetings at Waco at 10 o'clock Monday, June 2, and at Corpus Christi at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday, June 3rd.

Acting on the unanimous request of Governor Moody's organization committee, of A. & M. Extension service and of delegations of business men and farmers from a score of Texas cotton centers, directors of the cooperative association last week changed their contract to the "part crop" plan. In the past, members of the Texas organization have been required to contract for delivering every bale of cotton grown, for sale through the association. The new contract allows them to hold back every other bale for sale on the open market, delivering one bale out of each two to the association until ten bales have been delivered. After delivery of ten bales, no more cotton need be delivered to the association, but may be sold by the owner on the open market if he so desires.

The liberalized contract is only one of the new features in the T. C. C. A. program, as worked out under supervision of Farm Board representatives. The state is being divided into at least seven districts, which will be given as great a degree of local control as possible this season, and will become independent as soon as practical, each to be eventually a self-governing member of the American Cotton Cooperative Association, with the A. C. C. A. making all cotton sales. Branch offices will be established in each district, seventy-five towns and cities having already applied for such offices, indicating their willingness to underwrite the expense of maintaining them and of obtaining a membership quota. Receiving agencies will be placed at smaller points, the whole program being based on "decentralized membership relations" which will allow members to handle their sales and information problems directly with association agents, rather than at long distance through one state office, as heretofore.

News from all parts of the state evidences approval of the sweeping changes in the association program, it was announced at headquarters, and the cooperative leaders think that instead of enrolling around five percent of Texas farmers, as in the past, the association will grow to several times that number before the opening of the cotton season. The membership campaign will start in the Corpus Christi district, preliminary work being already under way there, and as rapidly as possible, the campaigns will be extended to Waco, Abilene, Lubbock and other districts.

EDITORS ARE HUMAN

When a questionable situation arises in a town, it is quite the fashion to remark that the newspaper ought to say something about it.

The average citizen feels quite certain he could run a newspaper better than the editor does, and if he were publisher of that sheet he would show them, you can bet. As a matter of fact, if he has horse sense he would do just as the editor does—put the soft pedal on family rows, church squabbles, scandals not involving major principles and such matters of untimely minor importance as will adjust themselves with the passing of time.

The newspaper critic ought not to expect the newspaper man to advocate or attack any proposition which he, himself, lacks courage to support or assail over his own signature. The editor is willing, even eager, to push any project in the public interest, but is not willing to pull chestnuts out of the fire for individuals or minorities.—Pyote Signal.

Marx and Confucius The World Will Last The Air Should Be Free Better Days Coming

The "Red" movement in China, attributed to Russia, worries the Nanking government and threatens permanent disturbance and war.

Premature transplanting of new ideas into minds unprepared is dangerous.

The Chinese, not ready for the theories of Karl Marx or Lenin, take them too seriously.

Much better if they would stick to Confucius for a few more centuries.

Here is comfort. Worry no more about the world coming to an end. A Canadian scientist says the sun is about ten billion years old and will last at least ten billion years longer. Ten thousand million years is a long time.

While the sun lasts the earth will last. The human race may be partially or completely wiped out at intervals, compelled to begin all over again, working its way up from microscopic creatures floating in salt water.

France permitted the Graf Zeppelin to sail over all her West Indian colonies except one place on the island of Martinique.

Britain gave permission to fly over British Caribbean territory.

That nonsense about giving other nations permission to use the air should end. Anybody can use the ocean of water and do what he pleases on it, eight miles out. The other ocean, of air, soon to be more important, should be similarly regulated, anybody allowed to use it, anywhere, one mile or two miles up. International law should settle that.

Secretary Lamont predicts "normal business in three months." April contracts for new construction amounted to $182,000,000, biggest month since August, but lower than last April. Many will be glad to hear that, even those that specialize in pessimism.

Mussolini believes in emphatic words and energetic deeds to back them. Recently he told a crowd of 100,000 in Florence that Italy was prepared for everybody, France included. Now he is adding twenty-two submarines to the Italian navy.

With those twenty-two submarines Mussolini could do a great deal to the peace of mind of France, Great Britain and other ship-owning nations.

Peace is beautiful, but Mussolini means to be ready for the other thing.

London, which often knows more about our affairs than we know, says money will be even cheaper that it was. The bank rate may be reduced to 2 1/2 per cent.

Paris reports money "unlendable." If only that had been the case last October, when the sky was the limit and everything going up! Then people wanted money and had to pay 15 and 20 per cent to borrow it. Now they don't want it and can get it for almost nothing.

Union square in New York is to have a high flagpole costing $80,000, erected by the "Charles F. Murphy memorial committee." Mr. Murphy was a Tammany leader of considerable power, possessing the faculty of saying little and keeping his word.

The flagpole which was to be erected in Murphy's honor, will dominate monuments to Washington, Lafayette and Lincoln, all in Union square.

On a second thought, the memorial committee decided that Mr. Murphy, although a powerful Tammany leader, was no greater than the three others in Union square, so the flagpole is to commemorate American independence.

Mr. Murphy, who had a sense of humor, would approve of that change.

Talkies have worried musicians, making theater orchestras unnecessary. In Schenectady, with television radio, General Electric company has shown that one orchestra leader could conduct a thousand orchestras at the same time.

Musicians played in a theater, led by "television" pictures of an orchestra conductor miles away.

Bombay reports 200 more injured in another of many Hindu salt raids.

Mrs. Naidu, poetess, replacing Gandhi, now in jail, as leader of the Hindus, has been arrested, with Gandhi's son.

Gandhi promises to provoke arrests until all the jails and other buildings are full, and wonders what Britain will do then. It is a difficult question.

If you put 1,000,000 Hindus in jail, there would be 219,000,000 left to carry on Gandhi's "civil disobedience" campaign.

Doctor Goldsmith of the Radio Corporation of America thinks we need a world language "to link the peoples by radio." A world language will come through "survival of the fittest"; maybe the English language, as that language dominates in movies, talkies and radio.

Other nations need not be offended by the suggestion. English is a fair compromise, being made up of French, German, Latin, Italian, Greek, Sanskrit, Arabic and other languages. (© 1936, by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Relief From Curse Of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store. Alexander Drug Co.

Tremendous Power from the Wind

The Aermotor Co. is now making a self-oiling windmill 20 feet in diameter. If you have a well 1000 feet deep, or if you want to raise a large quantity of water from a shallower well, this is the windmill you need. This new Auto-Oiled Aermotor weighs nearly 2 1/2 tons without the tower. It is a giant for power.

Whatever your water requirements may be there is an Auto-Oiled Aermotor of the right size for the work. They are made from 6 feet to 20 feet in diameter. Use the smaller sizes for the shallow wells and the larger ones for the deep wells or large quantities of water. Our tables, sent upon request, tell you just what each size will do.

The Improved Auto-Oiled Aermotor, the genuine self-oiling windmill, is the most economical and the most reliable device for pumping water. It works every day and will last a lifetime. Every size of Auto-Oiled Aermotor has double gears running in oil. All moving parts are fully and constantly oiled. One oiling a year is all that is required.

The Auto-Oiled Aermotor is made by the company which originated the steel windmill business. For full information write AERMOTOR CO. 2300 Roosevelt Rd. CHICAGO Branch Houses: Dallas, Des Moines, Oakland, Kansas City, Minneapolis

Friday Needle Club Meets

The Friday Needle Club met at the home of Mrs. Holgate. Several hours were spent in fancy work. Delicious tuna fish sandwiches, iced tea, sweet pickle, and ice cream was served to Mesdames Kendrick, Gracey, W. W. Price, S. K. Keller, Crews and Holgate.

R. A. Chapter Social

Mrs. J. T. Auberg was hostess to The Royal Ambassador Chapter which is an auxiliary to the W. M. S., Wednesday afternoon at 4 p. m. at her home on N. 5th Street.

Various forms of entertainment was enjoyed throughout the afternoon. Ice cream and cake was served to Bill Jr. Savage, John Jr. McLeod, Charles Hill, Marner Price, Herchel Lovelace, Vance Smith, Odell McLeod, Earnest Leo Word, Terrell Fowler, Burdett and Paul Auberg, Mrs. E. L. Word and hostess.

Entertains In Honor Of Grandson.

Mrs. R. L. Holly entertained a number of children on Friday afternoon in honor of her grandson's birthday. Tiny tot's games were played and pink icecream and cake was served to Homer Niel and Maggie Fay Heigh, Bill, Erwin and L. G. Moore, Marie Heigh, Paul Auberg, Velmoyce, Alvin, George and Joe Bob Burnett and Earl Holly.

School Teachers Honored With Gay Function.

Garden flowers in gay colors lent attractiveness and fragrance to the entertaining suite on Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Flem McSpadden entertained.

Misses Martin and Patterson were honor guests and were favored with lovely handkerchiefs. Three tables were arranged for bridge and tallies and score card emphasized the summer motif.

High score was made by Miss Patterson and was presented with an insence burner. Mrs. McBurnett was given bath salts for low.

An ice course of orange sherbet and individual angel food squares was passed at tea time. Those included for this delightful affair were Misses Patterson, Martin, Bell, Hulme, O'Brien and Flache. Mesdames McBurnett, Sawyer, Bell, Nelson, Lawlis, Leo Holmes, Roy Davis and H. W. McSpadden Jr. of Pampa, Texas.

Mrs. Alexander Honored With Lovely Bridge Party.

Mrs. E. G. Alexander, of Plainview, was named honor guest at a very pretty bridge party on Wednesday, when Mrs. W. A. Bell entertained the Kill Kare Klub at her home.

The hostess used spring colors in the appointments and this was emphasized with baskets of spring flowers in pasted shades.

After the games of bridge, two dainty handkerchiefs were given to the honoree. Miss Ina Patterson making high score was presented with a dresden scarf and a bath set went to Mrs. Wingerd for second high.

A delicious salad course of fruit salad, waffers, olives, iced tea. Sherbet and cake was served to the guests which included Misses Ina Patterson, Faye Martin, Margaret Bell and Mesdames D. P. Lewis, W. H. Collins, W. B. Toone, R. L. Bowers H. W. Nelson, Fred Smith, Flem McSpadden, Roy Wingerd, C. L. Hudgens, I. M. Bailey, A. M. McBurnett and J. E. Shelton.

Mrs. Dallas Presented Pupils In Recital.

On Tuesday night Mrs. W. H. Dallas presented the pupils of high school and Troubadour Girls at the Methodist Church.

The background was made beautiful with American Beauty and running roses and honeysuckle entwined with ferns and trailing smilax.

Several fine selections were given by the Troubadour Girls and duos and quartettes with 2 pianos were the main feature for both evenings.

On Tuesday night a silver medal was presented to Frankie Rickles for the most progress, and a gold medal to Allene Ellington for the most satisfactory work during the year.

The Grammar School pupils were presented on Wednesday night and silver medals were awarded to Twilla Graham for "on time;" to Marjorie Sue Bynum for "effort;" to El Ray Lewis for "most progress;" and to Quenelle Sawyer for the "most memory work."

Bro. Turrentine presented the medals and Mrs. Dallas wishes to thank him for the kind remarks he gave of her work.

Mrs. H. O. Longbrake was hostess to the W. M. S. at her home on Monday afternoon at 3 p. m. Following the games a report of 85 visits, 25 trays, and 11 bouquets were made. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to the following: Mesdames B. L. Thompson, Cook, S. V. Wheeler, Allie McDaniel, W. R. Mangum, J. H. Carpenter, Jim Jackson, W. D. Linville G. S. Webber, W. B. Downing and the hostess.

Mrs. J. C. Bond Hostess

Circle 1 met with Mrs. J. C. Bond. Mrs. Alewine was leader for the afternoon, the subject for discussion was "Royal Service." The hostess served a plate of sandwiches, congealed fruit salad, iced tea and cake to Mesdames Alewine, Auburg, Adams, Collins, Bandy, Alexander and Pounds.

Circle "2"

This circle met with Mrs. J. C. Green. An interesting discussion on "Missions" was the program for the afternoon. Ladies present were Mesdames, Flache, Howell, Green and Savage.

Young Matrons Meet

Mrs. Chris Quante was hostess to the Young Matrons Society, Monday, May 26. A very interesting program on "Royal Service" was given. Afterwards the hostess served punch, sandwiches and cake to Mesdames, Lawrence Green, Cecil Shaw, Ralph Carter, Ike Bailey, N. G. Steward, Homer Nelson, Clyde Briley, O. W. Stice and B. D. DuBois.

Christian Ladies Meet

Mrs. Ballard was hostess to the Christian Ladies, May 26. Mrs. Sawyer was leader of the lesson. Her subject was "All things work together for good for those that love the Lord." The hostess served ice cream and cake to Mesdames S. T. Miller, Joe Price, Crews, S. H. Holgate, T. M. Flippin, and A. A. Sawyer.

Regular Meeting of Church of Christ.

Thursday the Bible Class of the church of Christ met at the church. Mrs. Walter Duke was leader of the lesson, which was a continuation of "Divided Kingdom." Members present were Mesdames L. F. Hudgens, W. W. Ditto, Roy Collier, Williamson, Murphy, Haddock, Legg, Lovelace and Bullard. Next lesson will be Kings of Israel led by Mrs. Lovelace.

Kiddies Class

Met Sunday evening with their efficient leader Mrs. Roy Collier in charge. They studied about the "Baby Jesus." There were seven present. Next lesson will be about "Jesus in the Home."

Wellman Writings

Last week marked the closing of our school for this term and there was a program for every evening, and each one was enjoyed very much. Monday evening the Senior put on their play.

Tuesday evening Miss Randolph's pupils put on a play, entitled "Be Kind to Animals." The play was very good and contained a good lesson in it for the children.

Wednesday evening was the Seventh grade graduation, with Harmon Bridges, valedictorian and Vance Spears, salutatorian. Bro. Florence of Seagraves gave the invocation and Bro. Burnett of Brownfield gave a very interesting talk on "Being A Dreamer."

Thursday evening Mr. Byrd's pupils gave a very interesting play and Mrs. Kerby added a few numbers between acts. One of which was three little news boys, little Art Willard Adair being the Terry County Herald booster, and we will all agree with him our own county paper is the best of all papers.

Friday evening was the Senior graduation exercise.

We are expecting Mrs. Gould Winn and little sons, Max and Ray, home the last of the week.

Bro. Burnett preached at the church of Christ Sunday morning and evening. There was quite a crowd attended both services.

Bro. Curry will preach at the school house Sunday. Everyone is invited. Come, and bring somebody with you.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Green had as their guest last week a nephew from Arkansas who was enroute to Arizona for his wife's health.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kerby moved their household goods to Hobbs, Tex., Saturday, where they will teach next year. They went from there on to Commerce, Texas where Mr. Kerby will attend school this summer.

Miss Roberson left Saturday for McKinney.

Mr. Byrd will attend the Tech college this summer.

Miss Randolph has been sick and we hear she had to be carried to the hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Billie Joe Schroeder went to Ft. Worth Monday.

DRIVER OVERCOME BY GAS

B. E. Chaney, living east of this city, had a rather peculiar experience one day last week when he was driving his car along the highway. Due to the heavy wind and sand, all windows of the car were closed. Suddenly Mr. Chaney apparently became overcome by the fumes from the exhaust pipe and allowed his machine to run into a ditch, injuring his daughter, Miss Laura, slightly.

Motorists are advised to keep at least one window open while driving, especially when the wind is from the rear. Monoxide gas is very dangerous and has claimed many victims in cars where all windows were kept tightly closed.—Farwell State Line Tribune.

According to a local officer, Ira McKee, who is to be tried for the murder of a Sparenburg man, once made his home here.

Texas Will Gain Two Congressmen in Census

WASHINGTON, May 14.—Important changes in the membership of the house will follow the 15th decennial census which is now being taken.

A reapportionment of representation in conformity with the growth and shifting of the nation's population will be made for the first time in 20 years and will become effective with the congress elected in 1932.

Under terms of the reapportionment bill passed last year, the census bureau estimates that 17 states will lose an aggregate of 23 members of the house and 11 states will gain by the same number.

Although the constitution provides for reapportionment every 10 years, the last took place in 1911 on the basis of the 1910 census. The law passed last year provides that in the future a reapportionment be made by every fifth congress, with congress retaining, to meet emergencies, the prerogative of changing representation at any time.

The census bureau estimates that the states to gain in representation are: Arizona, Connecticut, Florida, North Carolina, Oklahoma, and Washington one each; California six; Michigan 4, Ohio 3, and New Jersey and Texas two each.

The states which probably will lose representation are: Alabama, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Nebraska, New York, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Vermont, and Virginia, one each; Missouri 3, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, and Mississippi two each.

TOO NATURAL

"I want everyone to lie on his back, put his legs in the air and move them as if he were riding a bicycle," he explained. "Now commence."

After a short effort, one of the pupils, an Irish lad, stopped.

"Why have you stopped, Murphy?" asked the instructor.

"If you please, sor," was the answer, "O'm coasting."

Are you helping your 4-H Club.

Miniature Golf Course Put in Here Wednesday

F. L. Kirkland and family moved here from Roswell some three weeks ago and began at once the installation here of what is known as a miniature golf course, and have worked hard on the proposition since. They leased a block of land two blocks north of the public square, and begin shaping it up in the form of the most approved golf links, including "roughs" and other hazzard places that are found on the grown size links. The course was formerly opened this week to the players of the city, and they had a sizable crowd Monday night despite the fact that it was commencement night.

The place has been made attractive for visitors, and well lighted for night playing, and we are sure that these people will do well with the course throughout the summer and fall months. The people here have little in the way of amusements as compared to the larger cities with their parks, zoos, etc., and anything to divert their attention from the worries and cares of the day will be better for them.

You are cordially invited by Mr. Kirkland to come and watch the games whether you play or not.

PLAYED HOBB

Widespread dieting is in part responsible for the troubles of the farmers, suggests Secretary of Agriculture Hyde. "If there were no diet experts influencing the people in what they should eat, there would be no farm product surplus," Secretary Hyde says.

The reducing fad has cut the world consumption of wheat by 20 per cent, it is said. Dame Fashion certainly has played hobb with the farmers and cotton grower and manufacturer.

Secretary Hyde declares that the remedy of the farmer's position is the control of production.

Lee Thompson is at home this week supervising the construction of the Craig & McClish building.

Littlefield College Asks For a Receiver

The fact that the Littlefield College has asked for a receiver came not as a surprise to anyone that is acquainted with affairs in the church of Christ. To people who belong to other churches and who thought that the entire church of Christ stood behind the movement, it may have been somewhat of a surprise. This is not saying that the main body of the church of Christ has not made mistakes, for they have made many. Indeed, they have had some colleges that have gone defunct, just as other religious bodies have, but this was generally caused by overcrowding a given territory with colleges.

The Herald will not undertake to say that these people who asked Littlefield to give them a bonus of 1200 acres of land to build a college on, claimed that they represented the main body of this church, but if Littlefield people had asked any member of the main body of this church in their own town, and who now have a live, working congregation there, with a regular minister, we imagine that they would have told them that this small bunch was what is usually termed anti-everything by the main body, and each has nothing to do with the other in worship any more than do other churches of different beliefs. Many towns caught on before going too far in the matter, but it seems Littlefield got caught. They are generally good people, but are usually described as being so straight they lean backward.

The old Gunter College from which they came was dedicated to the teaching of the Bible, but these people were so fearful that it was against all Bible truths to teach it in classes, that the original owner of the land the old school stood on asked them to vacate, and they came west as representatives of that school. They do not believe in Sunday School or week day schools where the Bible is taught in classes. They do not believe in games and athletics, they prescribe long skirts and long sleeves for the girl students and many other things out of harmony with modern college life. They possibly represent less than 5 percent of the members of the church of Christ in the south, and have no church buildings in this section. Then from where are they to draw their scholastics?

Contrast this condition if you will with, say A. C. C. at Abilene, who teach the Bible any place, any where, in classes, in congregation, individually and otherwise. They do not expect their students to dress different from those of Simmons and McMurray, of the Baptist and Methodist denominations in the same city, and their games on the campus or gymnasium are just as extensive as any, and their athletes are known all over the state as of the best. In fact, they have won the championship in state contests for the past two years if we mistake not, in colleges of its own class.

This is written, not as a slur toward these people. Their manner of doing things is strictly their own business, but there are lots of people right here in Terry county who think that the church of Christ as a body was behind this bankrupt college, when as a matter of fact the congregations at Brownfield, Meadow, Gomez, Wellman, Union or Johnson are not having one thing to do with it, nor never have.

CALVES BUY HIS FEED

Lamesa.—The value of livestock as a premium market for home-grown feed has been demonstrated again by J. T. Williams, Dawson county farmer, who received $29.60 per ton for maize fed to 30 head of beef calves, even though they were sold on a low market. The calves were fed about 30 tons of ground kafir heads and 6,000 pounds of cottonseed meal for 110 days, when they averaged 705 pounds and were sold at Fort Worth for $11 per hundred. Charging himself $40 apiece for the calves and deducting $121 freight and selling expense, Mr. Williams found that he had disposed of his feed for $9.60 per ton above the regular market price.

Last year, when the market was $14.50 for similar beeves, he got $38 per ton out of his feed crop at a time when feed was worth only $14 per ton on the cash market. Mr. Williams keeps 400 acres of his section farm in pasture and plants 190 acres of feed stuff and 60 acres to cotton. Having shown that such feeding is profitable on a relatively low market he plans to do more and more feeding of home-grown feed to home-grown cattle. The work has been done in cooperation with W. W. Evans, county agent, as a demonstration, and is one of hundreds of such demonstrations carried last year in Texas with the aid of county agents.
