The contrast reflected by the present condidtion is worthy of comment, perhaps of encomium. The weekly press is not excited over the various candidates and contentions of this voting year. More space is given to world comment, agricultural experiment and development, highway problems, local improvement, social life. Politics and matters of State and local administration are not ignored, of course. But the attention given them is characterized more by sincerity and discernment than by passion or hyperbole.

In short, the Texas weekly press of 1930 is broader minded, more tolerant, but not less vigilant, than that of three decades agone. Probably the fact that the publishers have larger investments, more durable equities, at stake contributes greatly to the difference. - Semi-Weekly Farm News.

San Antonio, June 25 .- "I'll take two" and "I" par" were the words floating from the pulpit of an old church on West Travis near North Santa Rosa Avende, when North Officer Bert Long stepped through the front door.

Six boys playing cards on the pulpit scooped up the "stakes" and fled through a side window as the officer entered the front door. They fled into the arms of Patrolman L. R. Parks, who was stationed outside in anticipation of such a move.

Five of the boys were lodged in jail after they were taken to the police station. "Gaming with cards" was the charge with which they were charged with.

LAWYERS AND BONDSMEN ON THE SPOT

One of the significant features of e recent effort on the part of Chicago to rid itself of gang rule arrests made after the murder of a Chicago newspaper man. It was mentioned merely as an incident in fact that the police motors had hardly backed up to the curb with their loads of gangsters before lawyers and professional bondsmen were on hand to secure the release

While these men may possibly be guiltless of overt acts contrary to the law, their presence in behalf of the murderers and hold-up men even before the police had time to properly register them, is proof tient to connect them with the crime The lawyers know they are employed by men who make crime business. Murderers, thieves, kidnappers and racketeers all employ attorneys individually, or through some crime association. These lawyers are sworn officers of the Court, under oath to uphold the Constitution and the laws of the land, but they are just as much the enemies of society as the men whom they protect. If Chicago would find some way of disbarring this class of lawyer or put them in the penitentiary. it would be easier to take care of The police in every city know the habitual criminals who operate in their territory. They have their photographs and their finger prints. They know their hangouts, and it seems to the layman that with this with Milan leading and Rome next If the police in every city would among the Italian cities with 68 and make continual war on known crim-42. DAVISON SAYS BOND ISSUE WOULD CRIPPLE SCHOOLS

Upon the invitation of a committee of outstanding citizens of Dawson, signed by their Chairman, Mr. S. Berry, Lynch Davidson addressed the voters here today. In reviewing the political situation Davidson said,

"There has been a complete change in the line-up during the past week or ten days." His speaking dates have carried him from the extreme of Eastern Texas as far West as Brady and Comanche. He expressed the belief that the Love and Mayfield supporters ar leaving them in a large numbers and going to Small and Young. He further said, "It apperas Sterling is making some inroads on the Ferguson support and attracting some of the Mayfield and Love support. The Ferguson support seems to stand more solidly than Love's or Mayfield's. Small and Young are both gaining ground more rapidly than any of the other candidates in the race. When Sterling first announced there was a leaning toward him on the "Business man" theory, but as his campaign progressed and his chemerical scheme of Stateswide Bond Issue got to be understood the voters came to a sharp halt.

The people are now beginning to thoroughly understand that to substitute a State Highway Bond Issue for County Bond issues would place debts upon counties who have no debts and multiply five times the debts of the counties who have already created debts. The people well understand that to amend the constitution and change the gasoline tax, now an occupation tax, twentyfive per cent of which goes to the school fund, into a constitutional tax none of which goes to the school · fund but pledged to pay bonds, would automatically take eight to ten million dollars annually away from the school children, and that such a chemerical scheme is an all sufficient reason why they should vote against Sterling for governor. Loss to the school fund of the gasoline tax would necessitate amending the constituation again to raise the ad valorum taxes on property twenty to twenty-five cents to recoup the school fund. We are already spending thirty-seven cents of every tax dollar on roads and only twentyseven cents on schools. Mr. Sterling proposes to add more to the road tax and take it away from the schools. I am opposed to more taxes and burdening the people with more taxes. Mr. Sterling's candidacy is inseparable from the State Highway Bond Issue, the whole purpose of which is more and greater taxes and provides no relief from existing taxes. I predict that if the State Highway Bond Issue is written into our constitution, within three years time there will be no way on earth Texas can avoid the imposition of an Income Tax. Mr. Sterling in a public address charged that I had been fighting the State-wide Bond Issue for two years, and true indeed is that statement. I expect to continue to oppose it with all the power at my command. Mr. Sterling cries, "Elect me first and then submit this question to the people." Why should we go to the expense of electing Sterling or Love, have our legislature haggle over the thing for months as it already has, then call another election of the people to decide whether or not they want the Bond Issue. You can pass on it now. It is a part and parcel of Mr. Sterling's and Tom Love's candidacy. If you are against the Bond issue vote against both Sterling and Love. If you are for the Bond Issue, vote for Sterling or Love.

Mothers and fathers of Texas with children to educate; teacher's of schools, interested in the education of the children of Texas; ask your attorney to secure a copy of the State Highway Bond Issue Constitutional Amendment offered at the behest of Governor Moody and Ross Sterling by Senator Walter Woodul in the legislature, study it carefully and advise you whether or not the adoption of this amendment would not automatically take that part of the gasoline tax away from the schools that they now get.

RELIABILITY ECONOMY GOOD PERFORMANCE

THE NEW FORD TUDOR SEDAN

YOU are buying proved performance when you buy a Ford. You know it has been built for many thousands of miles of satisfactory, economical service.

Letters from users in every part of the world show the value of the sound design of the car, good materials and accuracy in manufacturing. You sense a feeling of sincere pride in the oft-repeated phrase.—"Let me tell you what my new Ford did."

Further tribute to the sturdiness, reliability and general all-round performance of the new Ford is shown in the repeated and growing purchases by government bureaus, by police departments, and by large industrial companies which keep careful day-by-day cost records. In most cases, the new Ford has been chosen only after exhaustive tests covering speed and power, safety, comfort, ease of control, oil and gas consumption, low yearly depreciation, and low cost of up-keep.

They have found, as you will find, that the Ford embodies every feature you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

The Campaign waxeth warm. In the Eastern part as well as the South Eastern the Gubernatorial contestants are telling the folks what they know about each other. If the things they say about each other are trueand I expect most of it is we certainly have a job lot to choose from. Senator Small seems to be about the cleanest of the lot. Lubbock man at a distance. One of them furnishes us with his Photo which looks grouchey but on the whole it isn't bad. A short biography with four other items constitute his platform. Neither of these items are stressed except Prohibition. He says the issue isn't dead and he proposes to help keep it going. He is correct it is a very live issue has been for last sixty years, and then some, and will be the next hundred. He is in favor of strengthening the act but dosen't say just how.

Doubtless he is like his prototype Tom Love, he will assist his repealing the Search and Seizure Acts making it possible for any officer who feels so dispose to enter your home at night or other unreasonable hour turn your house topsy turvy and if he found you making vinegar or any other suspicious solution about the premises you and your wife or other members of the family would be carried off to the county Bastile.

If he should meet your wife on the train or public highway and felt suspicious or simply curious he could riffle her valice, search the babys' diaper bag or take a look in at her bosom for concealed contraband.

Yes all these things have happened in this land of the Free and Home of the Brave. He dosen't say he is in favor of enforcing the laws we have already on our statutes books.

They are certainly harsh enough if enforced. He would strengthen them. He is doubtless one of those who believes that the smallest sin ble maker if elected and is a first We also elected our delegate to

The other man seems to think so as he favors strengthing the Prohibition Acts. Much that he proposes would meet the approval of voters and some of it I am unalterably opposed to.

He prudently says nothing about prohibition. Let us voters however choose that individual for the place who will go to Austin and use his best endeavors to give much needed relief from the quarrels of past administrations, give the people some constructive legislation; leaving Al Smith, the Rascobs and prohibitions alone.

Prohibition is sufficiently well taken care of by present statutes and the enforcing arm of State can take care of it. We shoudl turn out bout two thousand short term men and make room for the poor devils waiting in jails to take their turn and the countless hords marching up to take their places.

Help your neighbor to think right by example and advise. Don't hold a chub to lambaste him because he can't see that a life time privilege has suddenly been made a felony. Most men and women fail to see how laws can make a crime out of some thing that isn't a crime within its self. They are correct. Before voting read Luke 11-46 and choose between the two evils.
