

NOTHING TO WRITE ABOUT THIS WEEK—RAMBLING

A Bit of Excuses—An Argument on Advertising Worth—An Easy Bunch of Merchants to Meet—Another Slam At the Weather—Behold! A Column of Dope.

Sometimes it so happens that a newspaper man is strictly up against it for a little news to fill the paper. He worries and stretches, and yawns, grunts and complains, but there is nothing to write about—it just ain't happened. But the poor editor must fill space with his own dope, or dope that some other hard working editor doped up the week before, and probably does not apply much to your locality. If he tells when to plant beans or potatoes, some farmer replies that you know nothing of the matter. If you write of dress making or bread making, some lady may ask you how many modest shops or bakeries you ever ran. So, about the only thing you can do is sit and tell what happens from your view point in the window, and that ain't much.

One may get off on ads, but the poor merchants have been tormented with the approach of an advertising solicitor from the Herald every week since eternity started, it seems to him, and the sight of him gives the merchants the jimmies, perhaps. But speaking of advertising, it seems there is a diversity of opinion as to its value. All perhaps admit advertising pays these days, but what kind is the best? We learned this week that some of the good ladies selling advertising matter for the PTA told people that for some young lady to cross the stage at the school auditorium with a strip of paper with the name of the store on their bosoms was better advertising than the Herald.

Well, now let's see! Perhaps no more than 300 people saw that show, and of this number, perhaps no more than two-thirds of them were old enough to know what it was all about. On the other hand, the Herald is read by approximately 4000 grown people every week in Terry and adjoining counties. The people who went to the show at the school house went mostly to help the school and for amusement. But the people who set down in their homes to read the Herald each week-end do so for self information and to study the hundreds of bargains found therein.

We are sure this lady meant no harm toward the Herald. We are sure her only thought was to sell advertising for the school. One school out in the country is printing cards in competition with the Herald. Their plant is tax free—ours is heavily taxed to help keep up the school and other matters. But we have not opened our mouth about the matter, till now. On the other hand, we are, every week, when demand comes, not only pushing with our time and space for the local, but every other school in Terry county. We are going to keep on doing so too, no matter what happens. If our schools stop, what is to become of us. But let's all play fair even in love or war.

Passing on to something more pleasant, the Herald wishes to thank the city fathers and other officers, including the old gentleman with his mule team and wagon for the nice way they keep our streets. They are getting favorable comments from all sources. Almost every week we have a traveling paper salesman call on us from the larger cities, and most everyone of them comment nearly every time they come to Brownfield about how clean we keep our streets for a small town. Did you ever stop to consider what this means? Fine buildings with latest architecture, if sit down in filth and mire are un-pleasantly clean. Next to godliness, it is said. But many of our homes and business houses could improve on their waste burning methods. Entirely too much paper is blowing over the town to catch on bushes. This doesn't look good.

Did you ever go into a town and have to meet the business men of that place and all of them seemed to be confirmed grouches? Here is another thing in which Brownfield excels. The business men of this city are as easy to approach as farm people. In fact, most of them come off the farm. Of course they are busy some times, and we know that they are bothered with this and that call; with beggars and bums. But most of them will at least patiently and respectfully listen to any call or proposition. We do not mean by this that they are easily hoodwinked. They are not. All propositions have to have the stamp of genuineness on them before they are accepted generally speaking. But there is not a half dozen business men in the city that goes by other than their first name. Try to compare this with many places you know where everyone, from the young business or professional man just sprouting a little bunch of hair under the end of his nose to the old doctor with a brush of sideburns has to be Mistered or his handle used.

For instance, let's just take one street, a short one and see how many on it are called by their first name; from the Herald office to the State Bank. Herald office: Jack, Jack Jr. and Perk. You will notice a lot of them are even called by a nick name. Hunter Drug Store: Boone, Mr. Auburg and a young pharmacist who is too new to be called by first name. Hudgens & Knight: Bruce, Claude, Kyle, J. W. and Mr. Hudgens. Collins Dry Goods: Wade, Ned, Vonnie Lee. State Bank: Leo, Ben, James Harley, Lela. Only one in this establishment gets a handle, Col. Bill Dallas, the president. We could go on around the square just about the same way. Out of the 20 names above, only four are ever called anything but first name.

Well, we guess the weather just as well come in for a cleaning now. We had promised a time or two to stay off the Weatherman, but who could after all that bird has perpetrated on the suffering public. The later half of February was ideal, the first of March opened balmy and pretty. Grass was green, leaves were out and the little birds were bursting their throats with a merry tune. The oldest of the old could not remember such an early spring. Some one's double-half uncle could remember an old pioneer back in the hills of Kentucky who owned an old black coon dog, who in turn could remember that Daniel Boone said they had an even warmer winter a few years after he crossed the Appalachians. But old Man Winter with frost and icicles hanging all over him blasted all these hopes of early spring and a light gas bill. He rolled up his sleeves and breeches, pushed back his old flopped hat and hit us like a ton of brick. First he'd frail us from the north, then he turned his big guns on us from the northwest, southeast, everywhere, and cold from any direction. While one side baked next to the fire, the other side numbed with cold. Talk turned from, early warm weather to late cold weather. Again we begin to depend on the word of the oldest. There was talk of one year when there was no summer. Anyway, it holds the record in West Texas for 46 years according to government records at Abilene. But it has warmed up again and all gold talk has subsided.

Well, we have put almost a column and a half off on our readers with this diversified article. We know it is not fit to read; we're not even going to ask you to read it. We just wanted to fill some space—and did.

Old Winter Re-Enters With Big Snows Here

When winter re-entered Texas on its farewell tour here Friday, March 4th, no one thought for a moment that it would be anything but a one-night stand, but so pleased was it of our audiences that it stayed over a week, finishing up the engagements Friday and Saturday nights with good sized snows.

So far this week the weather has been reasonable and the air more balmy each day, and the poor and oppressed are hoping after all that the gas bills will not be as high as we looked for them to be awhile. There is no doubt in the minds of any but we have had the coldest weather of the winter during the March backfire.

Garnet Abbott Sells Pioneer Bus Line

We were informed this week that Garnet Abbott of Lubbock had sold the Pioneer Bus Line to Mr. Grover McMahon of Lubbock and Mr. C. O. Fox, of Jayton, who is moving with his family to this city to make this his home. The line from Lubbock to Hobbs which passed through here and paid big money while the boom was on at Hobbs, has been discontinued for several months.

We understand that Mr. McMahon will operate the line from here to Lubbock, and make that city his home, while the other end from here to Roswell, N. M. will be operated by Mr. Fox, and that he will make this his home.

PAVING ON HIWAY 137 TO BE LET ABOUT APRIL 5

Paving in Ector and Andrews Counties About Complete. The South Half of Gaines County Paving Progressing, and North Half May Be Let Soon. Our Gap.

While here this week gathering data for the Avalanche-Journal publications, for articles to appear in these publications, Sam Lewis, field representative called on the Herald for a short chat. Sam is always a pleasant fellow to have around, and is a walking encyclopedia of the happening over the South Plains. In fact he knows every county and city officer on the South Plains, not to mention the bankers and chamber of commerce secretaries from whence he gleams much of his information. Sam says, however, that he only has a slight speaking acquaintances with the jailors.

While here he informed us that Guy Johnson, resident district engineer for the State Highway department in this section, informed him this week that the paving on the Lubbock-Brownfield highway from that city to the Hockley county line would very likely be let by the Commission at Austin on April 5th. This is better known as highway No. 137. Our understanding is that it will likely be paved with caliche and asphalt which has become so popular in this section in the past year or two, as well in the states west of us. With the completion of this paving, there will be a clear paved highway from Lubbock to the Bankhead at Odessa with the exception of Terry county, and a narrow strip in Hockley county, and we believe from what we have heard from reliable sources that should Terry county pave its part, the State and Federal departments would take care of the Hockley county part whether they issued bonds or not.

We understand that Ector and Andrews have finished their paving, and that the south half of Gaines county is about finished and the north end through Seagraves to the Terry county line is to be let in the near future.

First Ford Eight Rolls from the Plant

Detroit, Mich., March 10.—The first Ford V-8 rolled off the assembly line at the River Rouge plant today, it was reported authentically, as Henry Ford started mass production of his latest venture in the field of transportation.

Ford, it was reported, personally stamped the number "1" on the engine of the new series. The simple christening ceremony was attended by Edsel Ford, Charles E. Sorenson and a group of workmen. With 70,000 men employed, the 69-year-old manufacturer is prepared to produce between 4,000 and 5,000 cars daily. Ford anticipates heavy production and 100,000 men work by June 1. He plans to manufacture 1,500,000 cars during 1932.

"A Howling Success"

That a rare treat is in store for every one who sees the rich comedy, "A Howling Success" put on by 20 prominent business men of Terry county, was fully evidenced last night. Rehearsals of this play are in full swing, and every thing gives promise of a wonderful evening's entertainment. Just to hear Giggly Jennie (Arnet Bynum) recite a speech, and to see Knock Kneed Sallie dance, is worth the price of the play. If you want to get a good laugh—hundreds of laughs, don't fail to see this "HOWLING SUCCESS," at 8:00 o'clock, March 25, at High School Auditorium.

Alpine—Contract may be let soon for construction of U. S. Highway No. 90 from this place west to Presidio County line.

Urges West Texas Support For Tech

Lamesa March 9.—A. B. Sanders, superintendent of the Brownfield public schools, spoke to the regular session of the Lions Club here today, discussing Texas Technological College, and its place as a state institution of higher learning.

Touching upon the recent charge of atheism in the school, Sanders said: "I do not know if this is true, but certainly with only three or four professors charged, out of 140 or more, this is about as good a record as any institution could offer. It is difficult to get that many teachers and professors together without having a few black sheep in the bunch. Sanders stated that this institution, a West Texas institution, deserves West Texas patronage.

Rabbit Drive at Meadow Gets Over 1000

A number of our local "gunmen" including several candidates who were out after both rabbits and votes, too, perhaps, left here Tuesday for the big drive in the vicinity of Meadow. Saw Homer Winston and Abe Lincoln after the drive was over, and they reported that some over 1000 jacks and cotton tails bit the dust as a result.

They also reported that they had enjoyed the day but were rather tired. We understand that it is planned to have several of these drives over the county before planting time and get rid of as many as possible.

Local Minister Thanks Friends For Favors

I have always said I had rather have one we rose while living than a bank of them on my grave, and my wish has been granted the last few weeks. First, Ed Shelton gave me a bunch at the Chamber of Commerce banquet and in his editorials; then the good people of this county together with the county court, honored me with their confidence by helping me take care of the poor. The P. T. A. also made my heart rejoice by electing me President for another year; and last but not least, was the splendid vote I received for the most "Useful Citizen." I want to assure every one who voted for me that I appreciate more than I can express my thanks for same. I am determined to do more in the future than I have in the past.

While speaking of flowers I move that we all pass out more in the future than we have in the past.

What we all need perhaps as much as anything is more praise and less criticism, more kindness, less hatred, more love and sympathy; more of that something, called by some, "the milk of human kindness." I still say "it's a good old world." There is more in people to admire and praise than there is to condemn, so throw away your hammer and buy a horn. May God's richest blessings rest upon us all, is my prayer.

R. P. Drennon.

Ed Black Asks For Commissioner Job

We are requested to announce this week the candidacy of E. B. (Ed) Black for the office of County Commissioner of Precinct No. 4, subject to the Democratic primary in July. Ed states that he has been a resident of Terry county for 25 years, having been brought to Terry county when 4 years of age. He states that he has the sympathy of the people of this section at heart, and that from his own experience he knows that taxes should be reformed downward, and if elected he will so vote. He has had some four years experience with tractor and grader, knows how to care for them, and how to build roads. He stands for good roads built as economically as possible. He says he wants the office, and if elected, he will try to make his constituents a servant they will be proud of. He will make an effort to have a talk with each voter before the election.

FIRE DESTROYS HOUSE AND CONTENTS IN SEMINOLE

An oil cook stove is believed to have been the cause of a fire which destroyed the home of T. F. Lindley, together with practically all the furnishings, Friday morning about seven o'clock. When discovered the fire had gained such headway that all efforts to put it out were futile. The loss is heavy, as the house and contents were only partially covered by insurance.—Seminole Sentinel.

FEDERAL FARM LOAN BOARD FORMED HERE

W. H. Black, Chairman; Leo Holmes, Banker; C. L. Hugens, Merchant; Judge Jay Barret, to Act in Place of the County Agent. Apply Thru Chamber of C.

In order that farmers who wish to borrow cheap Federal money may be accommodated, the following names have been sent to Austin as members of the loan board of the county. Each board is to be made up of a farmer, a banker, a business man and the county agent. As this county has no agent, County Judge Jay Barret will likely take his place on the board.

W. H. Black, as Chairman, will represent the farmers, Claude Hudgens of Hudgens & Knight, the business men, and Leo Holmes, cashier of the Brownfield State bank, the banker. We understand the list was suitable to the authorities at Austin, and that it has been forwarded on to the A. & M. College to get the final ok.

We were informed this week that all applications must come through the local Chamber of Commerce. The local board is then handed the application and they are then sent to Lubbock and Dallas for final approval. In counties that got busy soon after the law was passed creating the fund, are already getting checks to farmers.

It is believed here that renters will be unable to borrow unless the landlords wave mortgage on the rents.

Patton Puts in a New Beauty Shoppe

As was announced in these columns last week, Roy Jenkins has purchased the R. C. Patton Barber shop, and has taken charge of same. We also at the same time announced that we had not learned what Mr. Patton's plans were for the future. This week we learned that he had purchased one of the newest and best permanent waving machines on the market while down at Merkel last week, and had moved it here and installed it in the Bill Lee residence one block west of the Commerce Hotel building.

With this machine, it is possible to give all the very latest waves, including the famous spiral, croquignole and the oil of Tulip Wood waves. Mrs. Bill Lee and Mrs. Wendell Stephens, experienced operators will have charge of the machines. Note their ad with introductory prices in this issue.

Four Good Barbers In the Bynum Shop

Lloyd (Biggins) Bennett has joined forces with the Bynum Barber Shop, giving them a line-up of four of the best barbers in the city. They are Virgil (Shag) Bynum, owner and manager, Lloyd (Biggins) Bennett, (Shorty) Nelson and (Narrow) Walters. Now just because they all have peculiar names, don't think for a moment they are rusty with the razor. Each have had years of experience, and are entirely efficient and reliable.

Shag says there is no longer any long waits at his shop. A big reduction was made in prices a few months ago to comply with present conditions, and that they are ready to serve their customers with the latest methods and in a sanitary way.

Miss Butler Putting On New Oil Wave

For the unusual price of $3.95, Miss Ella Mae Butler, prominent beauty shoppe specialist of this city, has been putting on a genuine Steam Oil permanent that usually sells for $10.00. Miss Butler says that she had had an unusually big run for this wave at the Ramona Shoppe where she works for the past week despite the fact that it was unseasonably cold most of the time.

She has been assisted by La-Vana, well known all over the South Plains for her work on the hair in getting started with this new waving method, which included both the Spiral and Croquignole. Miss Butler has recently purchased from the La-Vana company several fine aids to hair beauty, which will be kept in stock.

Record Set in City Poll Tax Receipts, Tahoka

Mrs. J. B. Walker, city secretary, states that 468 poll taxes have been paid this year by people residing within the city limits of Tahoka. There are about a hundred voters and unders, she thinks, so that the voting strength of the city will be more than 550.

It is expected that a large vote will be polled in the city election to be held the first Tuesday in April.—Tahoka News.

Stock Hauling Law Is Now in Effect

Austin, March 6.—L. G. Phares, chief of the Texas Highway Patrol, announced Saturday that a campaign would be launched at once, with the assistance of the State Live Stock Sanitary Commission, to enforce the law requiring permits for transportation on the highways of live stock and poultry.

The legislature enacted a statute requiring those hauling live stock to obtain owner's permit certificates in an effort to prevent the removal of cattle a quarantined district into areas not infested by ticks or cattle disease.

Phares said that State highway patrolmen or other officers can, without a search warrant, require the driver of any vehicle moving live stock or poultry to produce a permit for the transportation signed by the owners.

Failure to possess such a permit subjects the driver of the vehicle to a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200 for each head of live stock or poultry involved in the movement.

The law has a dual purpose, in that it will prohibit the transportation of stolen animals, or butchered portions thereof over the highways, a practice that is very prevalent in many parts of the State. The law was originally sponsored by the Texas Cattle Raisers Association and the West Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association and these two organizations will take an active part in its enforcement.

Millions of Dollars For Texas Farmers

From $7,000,000 to $15,000,000 will be loaned Texas farmers through the regional agricultural loan office of the $2,000,000,000 Reconstruction Finance Corporation during the next sixty days, it is predicted by Owen W. Sherrill, regional manager for Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, with headquarters in Dallas.

These millions, it is explained by Mr. Sherrill, will be gradually spent within local trade territory for crop production purposes and will be widely circulated, proving a genuine stimulant to all lines of business.

All applications for loans must be made through the County loan committees in which the land is located, or through their sub-committees. County committees have the privilege of designating sub-committees in trade throughout counties to serve farmers in distant points.

Merchant Changes the Name of His Store

Mr. W. E. Legg, who has been running his store under his own name since its establishment several years ago, as the W. E. Legg Dry Goods, has changed the name recently to the Economy Store. There will be no change in the policies of this popular store on account of name change, but it was made in order to tell the people every time they thought of this store name that it was a place of Economy.

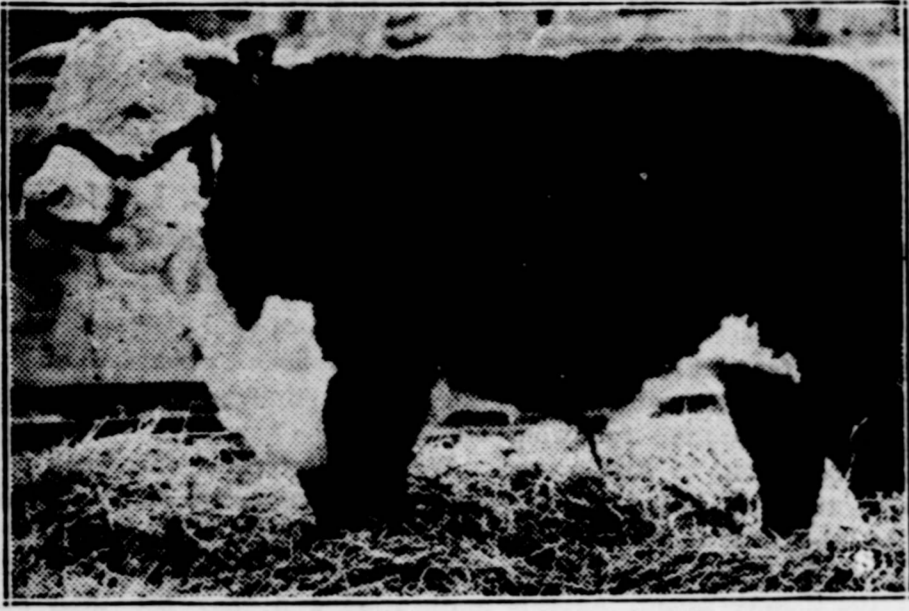

The store has caused a new sign to be hung on the outside with the new name thereon, but otherwise it is the same old place with the same old management, and a house with every item therein a bargain.

Snyder—H. B. Bowers acquired interest of S. S. Oxford in Lloyd Dry Goods Store.

Grocery bills of 4-H pantry demonstrators in Kaufman county have been running from 95 cents to $2.25 per month the last winter. All year 'round gardens that supplied from 5 to 10 varieties of fresh vegetables helped.

Four-H club girls in Victoria county raised from 12 to 15 different varieties in their gardens the past winter. Sales of fresh vegetables more than paid the seed and other costs, leaving the vegetables used at home clear gain.

Sold! At $1.53 Per Pound on the Hoof

What a succulent morsel a steak from this big fellow must be! He is the grand champion steer of the 1932 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show at Fort Worth, and brought the record price of $1.53 per pound when sold. The animal is Superior Mischief, owned by C. M. Largent and Sons of Merkel, Texas. The price netted about $1,332 and is the highest paid at any show in the United States in the last two years.

Many Losing Money Buried or Hidden

The National Campaign to end hoarding has gathered considerable momentum with the launching of a week of concentrated educational efforts to be made through the press, placards, advertising, and through attention given the subject in churches, theatres, and public gatherings.

That the movement is accomplishing its desired purpose is evidenced through the many examples and cases which have been drawn to the attention of the headquarters of various associations participating in the campaign.

Some unusual cases of hoarding are reported by the International Association of Lions Clubs who are exerting an intensive anti-hoarding campaign among its 2800 clubs.

One case was reported of a man who had inquired at a hardware store for a "sounding" device which would detect buried metal. In explanation of questions asked him the man stated that he had buried all of his savings in a piece of lead pipe and was now unable to locate the pipe.

Another case was that of a boy who was unable to remain quiet in school and could not refrain from squirming in his seat. Becoming the object of suspicion the boy was examined and it was found that $5,000 in bills was sewn to the boys underwear.

Accounts from other sources tell of money dated prior to the Civil War now coming into circulation. One dollar in hoarding since the Civil War, if it had been properly invested, would now be worth approximately $29.00.

The International Association of Lions in their efforts to support the Combat Hoarding movement have made the following recommendations to their clubs as a means of combatting hoarding and have received responses from over five hundred clubs notifying the central office of the appointment of a committee of three to carry out the suggested recommendations, namely: 1. Pay debts. 2. Buy normally. 3. Place savings in savings account of some bank in which you have confidence. 4. Invest in good securities, stocks, bonds, or real estate. 5. Purchase A. B. C. or American Express checks. 6. Start a good legitimate business or buy into one already established. 7. If necessary deposit money in Postal Saving accounts.

The objects of the Lions campaign are, "first to get money, now hidden, into circulation, and second, to conduct a campaign of popular education as to the function of money of banks, of credit, and to show the disastrous consequences when credit is restricted by money withdrawn from the arteries of business."

Melvin Jones, founder and Secretary General of Lions International is a member of the Advisory Committee of Col. Frank Knox, chairman of the National Committee Against Hoarding. It is his conviction that "if all of the citizen institutions and business enterprises in the U. S. made a maximum effort to turn their currency and gold into bank deposits, cash in the hands of banks would increase by at least two billion dollars and a potential credit expansion would increase twenty billion dollars, a sufficient amount to get in motion a greater business boom than we have as yet experienced."

At Least These Announcements are Brief

Greensboro, Ga.—Here in Greene county interest is centered in the race for coroner. There are three candidates for the office and they have set a newspaper advertising record that is unique.

Editor Jim Williams of the Greensboro Herald-Journal in inserting the announcements takes occasion to make the following comments:

"Felix S. Patrick of the Shiloh community has announced his candidacy for coroner of Greene county.

"Coroner J. M. Saggus announced for re-election last week in the shortest political card in the history of Greene county politics. But Felix Patrick's announcement is one word shorter.

"R. R. Palmer enters the race at the eleventh hour in the shortest announcement of all.

"For Coroner:"
"To Greene county voters:
"I want the job again."
J. M. SAGGUS.

"Greene county voters:
"I want it also."
FELIX S. PATRICK.

Voters:
"Me, too."

World's Clearing House for Dealings in Ivory

A sight that can be matched nowhere on earth is frequently seen in one of the big warehouses of the London docks. On what is known as the ivory floor of this warehouse sometimes no fewer than 40,000 tusks of elephants and other animals, among them 140 tusks of prehistoric mammoths, some estimated to be nearly 50,000 years old.

Every three months, when auctions are held, more ivory than is collected at any other place in the world is brought to this warehouse and buyers from the United States and Europe come to bid for it.

The largest of the mammoth's tusks measures 14 feet from tip to tip, is curved like the horns of some enormous paleozoic ram and is worth $250 a hundredweight. These ice-preserved tusks are found in the semi-arctic regions of Siberia and more than ten tons a year arrive in this world's clearing house for ivory. In Siberia men dig for these tusks as they dig for gold in other parts of the world.

Some of these great pieces of ivory are beautiful and wonderfully preserved, while others look like pieces of fossilized wood. The ivory, except for the exterior discoloration, is as sound as if it had been taken off an animal a few weeks ago.

Wolves in Russia Take Heavy Toll of Animals

Though tales of timber wolves chasing and attacking human beings are branded as fabrications, the European and Arctic cousins of the American species frequently are guilty.

Donald B. McMillan, the explorer, says that the white wolves of the Arctic have been known to track down and kill Eskimos. He cited an instance recently when a man was borne down and devoured by wolves on his way home from a sealing expedition.

In Russia, where wolves travel in large and ferocious packs in the winter, there are many instances where peasants have been devoured. Some times a whole family, journeying across the plains in a sleigh, is killed and eaten by the beasts after the horses have been pulled down. Tales of desperate fights are common.

In Russia 32,000 horses, 50,000 cattle and 25,000 other animals were devoured by wolves in 1924. The Russian wolf is very much like the American timber wolf, except for color and markings, and sometimes weighs 100 pounds.

The greatest human toll by a wolf was taken near Gevandun, France, in 1765. If the story is correct, 80 people were devoured that year by an animal of great size and daring which invaded streets at night in the hunt for victims.

Blind Poet Remembered

Two hundred years ago the following interesting item appeared in London Notes and Queries: "Several Gentlemen of Distinction who were intimately acquainted with the late celebrated Mr. Milton the Poet, are about raising a Contribution for erecting a fitting Monument in Westminster-Abbey, in Token of Memory to so great a Man; it's said it is to be performed by Mr. H. Knicker, who has made the choicest Monuments in that Cathedral, and truly deserves the Rank of Chief of the Modern Artificers in the like Performances."

Trapped Muskrats

The story about the muskrat gnawing off its leg to escape from a trap is only partially true, trappers say. The fur bearer does not chew through the leg bone with its chisel-like teeth as is universally believed, but merely severs the flesh after the bone is broken by its floundering and struggles. Scores of three-legged and even two-legged muskrats are trapped every year. The stumps have healed perfectly, due to the cleansing action of the water. The front legs are the members most often missing.

Twain's Respect for Jews

In "My Father, Mark Twain," Clara Clemens says: "Arguments as to the virtues or non-virtues of the Jews were often the topic of discussion in our drawing room, and father always grew eloquent in defense of Christ's race. Indeed, so often were his remarks on this subject quoted that it was rumored at one time father himself was a Jew. About this time he wrote his article 'Concerning the Jews,' in which he states he considers them 'the most marvelous race the world ever produced.'"

Chinese as Laundrymen

In the days of the California gold rush everybody was so busy digging for gold that the homelier household chores were neglected. With gold beckoning, no one was willing to work at plain jobs. There was no land communication with the East, but ships were constantly plying to China. The forty-niners acquired the habit of sending their washing to China, getting it back in two or three months. This showed the Chinese that there was a business opportunity in this country.

Relics of Roman Days

When the demolition of old London bridge was finally completed and the piles were pulled up, many thousands of Roman coins and medallions, with examples of Roman pottery and tiles, were discovered. An arch of the bridge was unearthed during the erection of Adeltale house, in 1921.

Bulldogging Time Lowered at Ft. Worth

The afternoon crowd Tuesday at the Rodeo and Horse Show in Fort Worth saw the present show record in bulldogging broken three times in the space of a few minutes when steer wrestlers declared war on the wild Longhorns.

Joe Lewis of Rock Springs, Wyo., set the new low time for the show when he flopped a big steer in 10 2-5 seconds, but he may draw a penalty for not holding the steer long enough after the judge flagged him. Lewis let the steer go as soon as the flag dropped and should have held him down until the judge gave his "o. k." If he is penalized about 30 seconds will be added to his time.

Gene Ross of Sayre, Okla., downed his steer in 11 3-5 seconds to better the previous low time by two and one-fifth seconds. Dick Truitt, Stonewall, Okla., also bettered the previous time when he toppled a Longhorn in 12 4-55 seconds.—Lovington, (N. M.) Tribune.

W. S. Posey, President of the First National Bank, of Lubbock, was a business visitor here Monday. He was accompanied by Roy Riddell, cashier of the same bank.

THIS WOMAN LOST 64 POUNDS OF FAT

Mrs. H. Price of Woodside, L. I. writes: "A year ago I weighed 190 lbs. I started to take Kruschen and now I weigh 126 and never felt better in my life and what's more, I look more like 20 yrs. old than the mother of 2 children, one 19 and the other 18. Every one of my friends say it's marvelous the way I reduced."

To lose fat SAFELY and HARMLESSLY, take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—don't miss a morning—a bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—but don't take chances—be sure it's Kruschen—your health comes first—get it at Alexander Drug Co. Inc., or any drugstore in America. If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back.

It has become a well known fact that circulars and post cards, if mailed to every person in the trade territory, are not as good a form of advertising as "newspaper advertising," from the standpoint of results; and any man who is a skeptic will be convinced by a glance at the post office wastebasket soon after the circulars are mailed. There are plenty of them swept up and burned each time, and it is a safe bet that more than those are never read that are placed at the homes. Every subscriber who pays for the paper will read it—and every subscriber to this paper pays for it in advance because he wants to read it—there is no way to get around that. There is no way to beat newspaper advertising for results. This has been proven time and again by successful business men all over the country.—McLean News.

HARMONY TO PRESENT PLAY

Friday evening, March 25th, at 8 o'clock, Harmony outsiders and teachers will present the play "Jimmy Be Careful."

This play is the one play you don't want to miss. Fun and plenty of it. Everyone invited, no admission. Be there and get the thrill and fun.

Getting Plowing Done in a Big Way

F. Richards of Pipe Creek, Texas, in Bandera county, owns an animal show and a big Texas ranch. Which makes the spring plowing on the Richards ranch a sure thing, because Rubber, the elephant, has power to burn, and power is what it takes to pull a plow. Above you see Rubber turning up furrows with ease, while Odell Campbell, her negro keeper, rides, and Adolph Stricker, a cow hand, holds the plow. Below is Rubber hauling fence posts. Richards says there is nothing an elephant can't do, and that Rubber is a most efficient farm animal.

A LOCAL EDITORS DREAM

Once upon a time a local editor dreamed that he was dead and in another world. He approached the city before him and knocked for admittance, but no one answered his summons. The gate remained closed against him. Then he cried aloud for an entrance but the only response was scores of heads appearing on each side of the gate.

At sight of him the owners set up a dismal howl and one of them cried, "Why didn't you notice the big egg I gave you?" At this hurried and most unexpected interrogation, the poor local editor turned in the direction of the voice to learn its owner when another voice shrieked, "Where's the piece you were going to write about my soda fountain?" and close upon this was the awful demand, "Why did you write a piece about Old Tomlinson's hens and never speak of my new gate?"

What ever answer he was going to frame to this appeal was cut short by the astonishing query, "What did you spell my name wrong in the programme for?" The miserable man turned to flee when he was rooted to the ground by these terrible demands "Why did you put my marriage among the deaths?" He was on the point of saying the foreman did it when a shrill voice madly cried, "You spoil the sale of my horse by publishing that runaway!" and another "If I catch you alone I'll lick you for what you said about me when I was before the police court."

Another, "Why didn't you show up the school board when I told you to?" And this was by the voice of a female hysterically proclaiming "This is the brute that botched my poetry and made me ridiculous!" Whereupon hundreds of voices screamed, "Where is my article? Give me back my article!" And in the midst of the night the poor wretch awoke, perspiring at every pore and screaming for help.—From an Unknown Ex.

Mrs. Close—"John, the baby has swallowed a cent. What on earth shall we do?"

Mr. Close—"Oh, let him keep it. Next Monday is his birthday, anyway."

Granted a field is to be planted, low yields therefrom are an intolerable destroyer of profits and a disturber of the farmer's peace of mind. This is so because low yields are almost always accompanied by high cost per unit of crop produced, and vice versa.

Psychological Idea of a "Love Questionnaire"

Dr. Wayland C. Vaughan, psychology professor at Boston university, has declared that marriage is a gamble and that for the lovesick swain to minimize his chances of getting stuck, he should ask his girl the following questions:

Do you dream of the time when you'll be in a better position than the friends who look down on you?

Do you smolder and sulk a long time when you are angry?

Are you undisturbed by rainy weather?

Can you be happy without a bathtub?

Would you go Dutch treat to a theater party with a poor young man?

Do you hope your husband will always want to take you on his good time trips?

Do you prefer a dog that likes you alone, to one that likes everybody?

Is perfection your aim?

Do you wish people wouldn't give you presents?

Do you always come out at the little end of the horn?

And then Professor Vaughan sums it up by adding: "A girl and two silk stockings do not make a wife."

Method in Jimmy's Idea of Adopting Elephant

Among the thousands of kids who attended the last circus which played Los Angeles was little Jimmy. And the thing that impressed him most was a huge elephant who was mitigating the effects of the hot spell by spraying himself with water.

"Mamma," pleaded the little fellow, "let's buy the elephant and take it home with us."

"My gracious," replied the mother, "what in the world would we do with a great big animal like that? In the first place, it would eat too much and in the second place, we really have no use for an elephant."

"Oh, yes we have," cried Jimmy. "We'd have our own waterworks. If he can squirt water all over himself whenever he feels like it, he could water the lawn and things just as easy, couldn't he?"—Los Angeles Times.

Spectacles

The invention of spectacles has been claimed for Roger Bacon about 1280 by Doctor Platt, but they are generally supposed to have been invented by Alessandro de Spina, a Florentine monk, in 1285. However, Manni credits Salvino, who died in 1317, with their invention, and the claim is justified by the inscription on his tombstone which reads: "Qui glaci Salvino degli Armati, inventore degli occhiali; l'ao di persona lo peccato."—Here lies Salvino degli Armati, inventor of spectacles; God pardon his sins."

Friar Jordan de Rivault, in a sermon delivered by him in 1305, told his auditors that "it is not twenty years since the art of making spectacles was found out, and is indeed one of the best and most necessary inventions in the world." This puts the date of the invention at 1285.—Literary Digest.

Obedient

Abraham Lincoln knew a good picture when he saw it. On one occasion he was shown a picture done by an amateur, and was asked to give his opinion of it.

"I can truthfully say," replied Lincoln, "that the painter of this picture is a very good painter in that he observes the Commandments."

"What do you mean by that?" asked someone.

"I mean that he hath not made to himself the likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth," replied Lincoln.

"Dime" From the Latin

"Dime" is derived from the Latin "decem" meaning 10, or "decimus," one-tenth, explains Pathfinder Magazine. In the Fourteenth and Fifteenth centuries "dime" was applied in England to the title or tenth part of one's income paid to the church. According to the King James version of the Bible, the last part of Genesis 14:20 reads, "He gave him tithes of all." John Wyclif translated this passage, "He gave him dimes of all things." The American 10-cent piece was called a dime because it represents the tenth part of a dollar, the national monetary unit.

Indians Great Gamblers

The American Indians threw marked plum-stones and other objects in games that bore a resemblance to our dice games, writes Madelin Biltstein in the Boston Transcript. The Penobscot Indians of Maine used marked bone disks; the Sioux used plum-stones, and the Iroquois used blocks of wood. In the early Seventeenth century the North American Indians were grasped by the gambling passion and it was a common practice for them to stake everything they had on the throw of a die.

Plato's Prayer

The prayer by Plato used in the funeral services of Senator Morrow is as follows: "Beloved Pan, and all ye other gods who haunt this place, give me beauty in the inward soul, and may the outward and the inward man be at one. May I reckon the wise to be wealthy, and the man of temperance and he only can bear and carry. Anything more? The prayer, I think, is enough for me."

An estimated saving of $270,471 was made by 4280 farmers and members in 93 counties in Texas last year by controlling prairie dogs on 18,812 acres with the help of the U. S. Biological Survey and county agents, reports of the latter show. The total cost of the eradication was 19,659.

Due to the inclement weather the business meeting was not held Friday afternoon. There will be a meeting after school Monday, March 21 for the purpose of starting the "Home Economics Study Course." A program will be given and the necessary business of electing officers and delegates and of adopting the report of the year's work will be attended to.

Then remember the social or program meeting Wednesday, March 23. This will be interesting.

Church News

The Methodist Sunday school met Sunday.

Rev. Mitchell filled his regular appointment with the Church of Christ Sunday.

Rev. Drennon meets with the Study Class on Thursday evening now.

The S. S. services at the Baptist church Sunday were well attended considering the extreme weather of the past week. A Pie Supper is to be given next Saturday, March 19th, for the purpose of buying new song books. Come and bring a pie or buy a pie.

Arrangements are being made for an Easter program.

Visiting

Misses Billie Jo and Margaret Schroeder played in the Music Recital at Brownfield last Wednesday afternoon. They will play at Lubbock soon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Garrison left last week for a visit in the east with his parents, and her brothers and sisters.

Miss Nellie Roberts is visiting in

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Norton and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Schroeder Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Trigg visited with Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Sunday.

Mrs. L. P. Adair visited the school Friday. We are always glad to have the parents visit with us.

Mrs. Wilkins and children visited in Abilene this week-end.

Mr. H. E. Kerby was a business visitor in Wellman Saturday.

Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Pete Orcutt and Mrs. Singletary visited Herbert Singletary, who is in the sanitarium at Brownfield, Sunday afternoon.

The people are to meet Thursday and work for Herbert.

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Hudson entertained the young people of Wellman with a birthday party in honor of Charles Norton.

Remember P. T. A. meeting.

We are requested to announce that C. R. Nichols of Clifton, Texas, will begin a revival tonight at the Lamesa church of Christ. He is not only a great Bible student and a fluent speaker, but has recently spent several months in the Holy Land, and can give much first hand information on that country.

In conversation with Radio Stevenson this week he informed us that his wife would be home in the near future from her visit to Long Island, N. Y. and that she would likely be accompanied by her sister, Steve says, "Boy, she must be talking Texas up there."

A Littlefield dry goods store must to have decided last week that the "repression" was over, for they carried a full eight page section in the Leader celebrating their anniversary. We'll bet they made good on that ad.

The depression has failed to take the gall out of a lot of people, even if it did take their eye teeth. Last week we had a letter from a concern way out in Oregon or Washington enclosing an ad which they told us to run and charge to THEIR ACCOUNT. We never heard of them before nor since, but we remembered that there was a waste basket close at hand.

The Abilene News says the Lame Duck Amendment will be No. 20. We are glad they set us right, if they did, for we were under the impression that the 18th was the prohibition amendment, the 19th the woman suffrage amendment and the child labor amendment was the 20th and the lame duck the 21st. But maybe we're wrong.

The Scurry County Times got rather "sourcastic" with the aims and ambitions of the A. & M. college last week when it took them to task for printing a 6000 edition pamphlet telling farmers and others "how the use of phosphoric acid would reflect itself in the development of white rats." Well, we had no use for another one sent in the same mail to us that told us "How to Raise Tomatoes in the Rio Grande Valley." Frankly, folks, just such as this is why our taxes are outrageous.

Gen. Von Henderburg, 84, idol of Germany, and Kaiser Bill's right hand man during the World War, seems to have the Presidency of Germany cinched again, having 18 million of the 35 million votes cast by the German people, but lacked some 160,000 votes of having a clear majority over the other three men, most of which are radicals. It is believed that this grand old man and our late enemy will muster sufficient votes from the two weak men to put him well over the vote of Hitler, a socialist. It is feared that if Hitler is elected, war between Germany and France can hardly be avoided.

A man suggested to us a few weeks ago that Mrs. Ferguson would not get as big vote as she did two years ago. He gave as his reason that Texas was some 200,000 short on poll tax receipts, and that they belonged mostly to Mrs. Ferguson. This is no reflection on people who vote for Mrs. Ferguson, but is the truth just the same. They may be just as honest or more so than the richer, but they were too poor to pay their poll taxes. A poll tax payment should be no bar to any voter in Texas or elsewhere, and this law should be repealed. All, rich or poor should have a privilege to vote.

Radio has been discredited the past week and daily papers have proved their reliability. More than one radio report stated that the Lindbergh baby had been returned or was to be returned at a certain time proved unfounded. The daily newspapers verify every rumor if possible and publish only facts, while the radio has in this case reduced its reliability on a par with street gossip. It has served to show the exacting policy of newspaper work and the daily papers will still lead in reliable world news. The radio gives some news quicker than the papers but of what value is the radio news if it is erroneous.—Rotan Advance.

While some banks are friendly to the newspapers of their town, a few of them are not. Some spend every dollar they possibly can out of town with big printing concerns despite the fact that the local newspapers are forever boosting them through thick and thin. This conditions has been proven over and over. But the latest case that has come to our notice was out in California where a newspaper stopped a serious run on a bank. They sent their photographer over to the bank with instructions to take the picture of every man and woman that withdrew deposits and that they would appear in next day's edition. The run stopped short.

Many of us poor but honest working men can see our finish now. We had hoped that inventive genius would take a long rest and give us a chance to square up our bank accounts and catch up with our installment notes, but it won't. I still owe one note on our phonograph and several on our radio, but if given a chance I could pull out in eight or ten months. But the case is hopeless. Television is to be placed on the market soon, and when it is, no woman on Main Street will consent to talk over the phone to a person she can't see. So get the best terms from the television agent you can and then sign the installment notes cheerfully.—Jim Lowery.

The county seat fight now on up in Lamb county seems to waxing hot, and by the time the election comes off tomorrow, they may think it is July up there. It is a three cornered fight, and if we understand it aright, Littlefield or Olton, being more than five miles from the center of the county will have to obtain two-thirds majority. On the other hand, Amherst being within that radius will only have to muster a majority of all votes cast. Littlefield has offered their city hall for a yearly lease of $1,000, while the Amherst adherents offer a $50,000 hotel to the county clear of all debts and a straight out gift. We watch from the side lines as that is as close as we care to venture.

The fires in Texas cost the policy holders the huge sum of $1,351,000 in hard earned money. Entirely too much. And don't think for a moment that it was any skin off the heels of the fire insurance company. It is all charged right back to the policy holders in the shape of a boost in rates. They are allowed to do this by the Texas Fire Rating board. They would all leave Texas if they were not allowed to do so, for they will not operate at a loss. They are in the business for the money it will make them. It is hoped that the new law against arson will remove some of the needless fires. A man who will burn property in order to collect a policy should be sent up so long that everyone would forget that he ever existed. He cares nothing for his neighbors who pay for his fires, and petit jurors should put him where he will be forgotten.

Tuesday's papers brought the information that Attorney-General Jimmie Allred had scored another victory in his anti-trust suit against the oil companies. The companies are now defending on the grounds that the state anti-trust law is unconstitutional. When Allred filed this suit the East Texas Chamber of Commerce and the South Texas Chamber of Commerce and the big commercial interests generally denounced it as premature and unjustified and heaped a lot of abuse upon the head of the youthful attorney general. They charged that the attorney general had filed the suit merely for political purposes or in order to pocket some big commissions. Jimmie kept his head, however. He replied vigorously but declined to be drawn into a newspaper trial of the issues involved. He said he preferred to try the case in the court house. The success he has attained thus far would indicate that he knew what he was about. At least the courage and ability with which he has gone about this business has won the admiration and plaudits of the common people.—Tahoka News.

It can hardly be denied by the most radical drys that the wets are gaining ground not only in congress, but among the people as well. Deny

Campbell Out For State Representative

In presenting my candidacy for the important office of State Legislature of the 119th Legislative District, I do so with utmost confidence that I am fully qualified to fill said office. My early life (after my school days) was largely spent of the farm in Anderson county, near Palestine, Texas. It was there I learned some very important lessons; said lessons were how to live down among the common people; also learned that the farmer and the farming industry is now and always has been confronted with some great problems. No man is able to understand these problems only by actual experience. A part of my early life was spent in music teaching, both vocal and instrumental. It was there I learned the great lesson of studying human nature and also learning how to live and cater to the more sane and sweeter side of life. All of these experiences, connected with my fifteen years in the business world, both in the house and on the road, has given me the valuable experience thereby learning the needs of all of these important walks of life. It has been my happy privilege to have worked under me numbers of people, and any one referring to my past career will find that I made a fair success in all of these businesses. I spent three years in Midlothian, Ellis county, Texas; while there I was engaged in the mercantile business. Any one desiring to do so, can find out from any farmer or any or all of the business men of that town that my friends are legion. February 1924, I came to Lubbock; the following June I entered the mercantile business; have been thus engaged since that time. Any banker, wholesale house, or any man, woman, boy or girl can testify to my success. In all of my business career, I have tried to conduct it on the highest plane; ever mindful of my friends and also those in need, and for the past forty years I have made my church and its great program first. There is no use in me saying just what I will do if I am elected to this all important office, for no man can confidentially thus say; but I will say this, I will ever be found striving to assist in making laws that are for the interest of the masses (and not the classes) for I certainly will at all times oppose class legislation. I will also attempt to have repealed some of the silly, unsound, and expensive laws that were enacted by the last legislature. Texas is being robbed of thousands of dollars annually by such unsafe and senseless laws. My friends can verify for the fact that I have never sold out, and may my tongue cleave it as much as they will, every thing points that way. We know the vote this week in congress was decidedly heavier for the wet cause than it has ever been before. We may also try to laugh off the Literary Digest vote, but that's not easy. We know that they have been pretty nearly right in the last several presidential elections. Their last one showed Al Smith would be hopelessly defeated. He was. The Herald has heard many good men talk of late who said they were formerly strong prohibitionists who say frankly that the 18th Amendment was not what they expected. It does no good to call such men as talked to us bootleggers, scoundrels, dirty curs and the like and try to make believe a fellow is an outlaw if he don't see every law passed and in force is a sacred thing and can't be wrong. There are as many wets who believe that the bootleggers are on the dry side as there are drys who believe they are on the wet side. The better part of valor for the drys is to take the advice of men like Thomas L. Blanton to get organized again and fight, for they are going to have to fight and fight hard. The other side is well organized and working.

One Dead, Three Near Death in Refinery Explosion

Oil trickling on the boiler and catching fire is believed to have caused the blast at Pampa, Texas, Saturday which has already resulted in one death. Five other men are in serious condition from burns. The refinery was that of the Wilcox Oil and Gas Company, with a capacity of 4,000 barrels of oil daily. R. H. Bell, yard foreman, died Sunday from burns. Others injured were L. C. Lafferty, Jay Warren and W. L. Owens, all near death; and John Oakes and Slick Huskins, whose burns are not so serious. Damages from the resulting fire, pictured above, will total more than $400,000.

to the roof of my mouth and may I become speechless if I ever do. No man should be entrusted with this all important office if his former life has not been marked with success, because if a man cannot thus conduct his own business it is thus impossible to conduct the business of the state; further, no man should be sent to the state legislature who does not, has not, or will not take care of his financial obligations at home; it is thus impossible for him to call himself a square shooter where such is the case. The state legislature needs men of deep religious conviction and unqualifiedly honesty in purpose, and should the voters of this 119th district see fit to honor me with high and exalted position, I will ever be found striving to live up to the above principles. Shall Our School Close?

There is no topic of conversation more common among high school groups than that of whether or not school will be able to continue for the full nine months. Yesterday there was an unexpected summons of the whole school to the auditorium, and it was with fear and trembling that many of the students assembled, thinking that the meeting had been called to announce the discontinuance of school. As a matter of fact it was for another purpose; but this only shows the concern of the students about the matter.

Seven years ago Brownfield High school received her first affiliation. From that time up until the present the teachers have worked hard to secure the 21 credits we now have. Are we going to lose them all now just because we can't run the school two more months?

Think what it will mean to the seniors who are supposed to graduate this year. They would get a diploma but it would be worthless as a means of entering college. The whole 3 7-9 years of high school work they have done would mean nothing at all as far as entering college is concerned, on account of closing the last two months of the fourth year. This would be a great loss to them. It would mean they would have to go to some affiliated high school next year to finish up. Some of the students have come in from country school to finish here so they might get their credits affiliated. They have worked hard and spent lots of money but if school closes they will have to go on to some other school which will cost more money. Not long ago Brownfield High school gained a long sought for goal in being admitted to membership in the Southern Association of schools and colleges. It has taken quite a while to get this recognition by schools and colleges in thirty-eight of the states and lots of worry and work on the part of the school officials. We will lose our membership if school closes now.

Established citizens of the town have made remarks to the effect that if school closes they will move temporarily to other towns, so that their children may complete the full nine months school work. This will take lots of trade from the local merchants.

Other citizens moved to this town on account of its excellent school system. If the school were to close they would probably move on to the next town where the schools run the full nine months.

You who are old-timers look back seven years. How did the town look? Probably many of the improvements you notice in those seven years were caused by the building up of the school system. At that time some of the people would send their children to some other school to finish up. But now pupils come from other towns and schools to graduate here. That is quite a change in the school system but if school closes it will change again.

If another calamity just half as great as this one were to strike the town we would be up in arms at the first intimation of danger. But now that this great calamity threatens us are we going to sit idly by and let the school close? Other towns and cities are holding mass meetings and organizing loyalty clubs to raise the money necessary to keep the school going the full nine months. We can do the same thing if we are willing to put forth a little effort. If you have a little extra money and want to invest it in a paying proposition, just buy a teacher's voucher. You will get the full amount of its face value in cash and besides that, you will be repaid many times indirectly. Help your school.—Student Theme

School Spirit Shown by Seniors

Sometimes we hear ourselves accused of having no school spirit. It occurs to me that maybe the accuser is just looking for some particular manifestation of school spirit, and possibly overlooks evidence of a different kind that our students do possess school spirit of a substantial quality. Anyone wishing to see an exhibit of school spirit should witness the activities of the senior class for the past few weeks. First, watch them as they go night after night and practice on a play in almost zero weather in a cold auditorium, for the purpose of making money for the improvement of the high school campus. Then watch the senior boys out there on the north side of the building during the bitter cold weather we had last week, digging in hard packed clay to remove about 350 feet of dirt in order to make a flower bed in connection with the work of landscaping the school ground. And then watch them cheerfully and with mirth rather than "gripping" go and shovel up that same dirt, carry it back, and fill up the same hole; then set to work just as cheerfully to dig another flower bed some ten or twelve feet out from the building. Keep in mind the fact that all this work was done without a single student missing a single class. Show me a piece of altruistic work on the part of any group of adults around town to equal this! Isn't this school spirit of the substantial sort, the kind that goes into the make up of useful citizens—perhaps even a better grade of school spirit than that which incites participation in some school contest, valuable as such contests may be?

Extemporaneous Speakers Working

Among the number of students who are inconspicuously doing their bit for participation in interscholastic activities are Kyle Adams and Pear Landess who are quietly preparing for entering the extemporaneous speaking contest. This contest requires more work perhaps than any other, and incidentally does the pupil more good. He is required to read from three to five articles on matters of national and international interest in all of the numbers from October to March of the Review of Reviews and The Forum, and then be able to speak on any of these topics without an outline.

The Entertainers Go to Gomez

The Entertainers sponsored by Mrs. W. H. Dallas went to Gomez Wednesday 9th to put on a program in chapel. First on program was, "Are You From Dixie" by the Entertainers; "Darkie's Jubilee" and "Lullaby," by the quartet.

"Lazy River" and "Missouri Waltz" by Elizabeth Herod on her accordion.

"Drifting and Dreaming" and "Moonlight and Roses," by the Entertainers.

Two readings, "Bill Smith" and "Photographs Studio," by Virginia Smith.

"Down the River of Golden Dreams" by the Entertainers.

"Loveless Love" and "Five-Foot Two," by Ruth Adams and Mary D. Price.

"Old Fashioned Home in New Hampshire" and "Sweet Jennie Lee" by the Entertainers.

"Beautiful" and "Cuties Due," by the Quartet.

"Lies" by Elizabeth Herod.

"Bend Down Sister," by the Quartet.

Those in club are: Martha McClish, Evelyn Pippin, Dora Dean Neill, Mary D. Price, Maurieta Bell, Marian Hill, Juanita Murphy, Pat Shelton, Elizabeth Herod, Virginia Smith and Ruth Adams.

The Sophomore class met Monday,

March 14, and elected O. D. Thomas as the most popular boy in the sophomore class.

Eunice Michie and O. D. Thomas are representatives for the sophomore class and the class hopes to carry them to the top.

Expression Pupils Give Program at Junior High

A group of Mrs. Penn's expression pupils gave the following program at the Junior High school chapel last Friday afternoon:

1. Baby's Logic—Iris Nell Sheffield.
2. "Deposed" and "Harry's Dog"—Glady's La Fay Green.
3. Books—Bobby Moore.
4. First Speech and "A Harry Call"—Eunice Jean Sheffield.
5. "A Little Girls Speech" and "A Very Bad Case"—Patsy Ruth Carter.
6. "They didn't Think"—Charlie Endersen.
7. "Human Nature"—Mary Nell Adams.
8. "Aids Troubles"—Bud Endersen.
9. "She Sparkled"—Doris Lee Gore.

Junior Class Meeting

The Juniors met March 10th to select the most popular girl and boy in their class. For the girls the nominees were Ruth Adams, Evelyn Pippin and Ruth Henson; of these three Evelyn Pippin won. The boys who were nominated was Murphy Manely May, Sawyer Graham, Ray Brownfield and Wayne Tipton; of these four Wayne Tipton won.

Declaimers Working

A great deal of enthusiasm is being manifested in the work on declamation, according to Mrs. Penn, who has charge of the expression department. The following pupils in the expression department are trying out for the various divisions. This does not include others who are not in the department, but who may be working individually, and who will compete in the final try outs.

Senior girls: Irene Adams, Marian Hill and Elwene Sleigh. Junior boys: Bud Endersen, Lucian Greenfield, Odell McLeod, John Jr. McLeod.

Junior girls: Mildred Adams, Doris Lee Gore, Thelma Fern Harris, Maxine Hardin and Shirley Bond.

Story telling group: Gene Green, Orel Greenfield, Mary Nell Adams, Dale Renfro, Bobby Moore, Katy Ruth Sheffield and Charlie Endersen.

B. H. S. Has Soloists Entering Lubbock Contest

Brownfield High School is to be well represented at the Music Festival at Lubbock March 17, 18, and 19. Besides the young ladies quartet and boys and girls glee clubs mentioned, we have a boys quartet and four soloists. The boys quartet is composed of Lee Brownfield, James Michie, Morris Hale and John L. Cruce.

The soloists are: Kathleen Hardin, soprano; Morris Hale, tenor; Lee Brownfield, baritone and James Michie, bass. All of these are under the instructions of Mrs. Jackson who has already proved to be quite capable along this line. We wish them the best of luck in this undertaking.

The Most Popular Senior Girl

At a recent senior class meeting, Pat Shelton carried every vote as the most popular girl of the class. The election proved a shock to the candidate as she had not even so much as dreamed of being the most popular girl in the class.

The class, by its unanimous election of Pat showed its appreciation of her quiet unassuming character. Pat is the type of girl whom everyone regards with affection. She is not naughty, and in fact is just the opposite. She is friendly with everyone she meets, and always has a friendly sunny smile for everyone.

The Most Popular Senior Boy

At the latest senior class meeting Otis Spears was unanimously elected the most popular boy in the senior class. As this is Otis first year in Brownfield High school, he seems very highly complimented in winning out as most popular boy in senior class. Otis has a very charming personality, and he seems to make friends very easily.

Otis was one of our best football players this year and worked hard for the school, although he had never been here before.

Anxious—"How did the ball game come out?"
 Unconscious—"18 to 5 in favor of the 18."

One Act Play

Among the students who are preparing for competition in Interscholastic League activities are a group who are to compete in the One Act Play Tournament to be held at Lubbock on April 1. The play to be presented is "Pearls" by Dan Totterob and the cast includes Mary Dee Price, Eunice Michie, Lee Brownfield and O. D. Thomas.

Although the contest does not come up in the county meet, but is taken up first in the district tournament. Still there will be an opportunity to "beat Meadow," for Meadow always sends a good play to the tournament. Our group has a good play and a well chosen cast, and is going to Lubbock with the intention of winning honors.

Spanish Club Meets

The Spanish club met on March 8, in Miss Long's Spanish room.

The program was:

Roll call—Proverb in Spanish and English.

Talks—One minute in length by each member on "Fruits and Flowers."

When the program was concluded, the program for the next meeting was read, and Miss Long read off a list of one hundred words for the club members to be able to spell and translate by the next meeting.

Interesting Chapel Program Given

The student body of Brownfield High School were inspired by a very interesting talk given by Rev. Drennon on "You Can't Get Something For Nothing." Following this Mrs. Jackson's glee clubs gave three numbers entitled "Down by the Sycamore Tree," "High School Gang" and "Solomon Levi."

Back Home

This is Bee Star, Dallas girl, who has won world wide fame on the stage and in the circus arena for her aerial acrobatics. She can turn more somersaults while hanging by one arm than any other woman on earth. Miss Starr, now billed at Public theatres, was recently back in Dallas.

A 24 percent increase last year in dairy cows kept primarily to supply some needs is reported by 3362 farm women working with 30 Texas some demonstration agents to produce an adequate farm home milk supply. These women tend an average of three cows and use two-thirds the products at home.

HOMESPUN SENSE

Pithy Quotations from Public Addresses of

MELVIN A. TRAYLOR

President, First National Bank, Chicago

"It is time some leadership and some party called our attention to the fact there is no magic cure for the ills and the evils of human folly. We trod the primrose path of extravagance, of thoughtless and of almost criminal neglect of every sound principle of human conduct, from the individual to the government, and the individual was aided, encouraged, and abetted on that path by the government and those responsible for its administration."

"One of the biggest things was a watered state of mind in which we all thought we were richer than we were, and were living beyond our means."

"In my opinion, no great division of human society has ever been lied to, and lied about, as much in the same period of time as has the American farmer."

"This then is my hope for our future—that we may be rich without forgetting to be righteous; that we may be powerful without being offensively proud; that we may be nationally minded without being narrow-minded; and, finally, that we may live in a world of fact without surrendering our faith."

"I would urge consideration of the complete abolishment of so-called floor trading, which, as I am informed, has about it most of the characteristics of plain crap shooting, and few, if any, more redeeming features than that delightful Ethiopian pastime."

"It is bad enough when the intelligent and wealthy speculate and lose, but when scrubwomen, day laborers, small home owners, wives and youths speculate and lose, simply because they can go to a broker's office and get credit for small sums, the practice ceases to be defensible on any ground."

"Out of the stress and difficulty of the situation I believe gradually we shall return to simpler thinking and simpler living. For it seems to me that we want above everything to abandon the struggle to live up with the Joneses, and to rediscover the true purpose of life, which is the joy to be found in the simple virtues of industry, thrift and sane living. I believe in our people, in our country, and in the God who directs our destinies; and I welcome the future with confidence and unshaken faith."

"We have not failed because of ignorance of economic theories, but because of our utter disregard and defiance of all economic laws. Ambition, stupidity, and greed have dictated policies, and trouble has been the result."

"All through history . . . the nations that have been agriculturists and have included in their agricultural and domestic pursuits the breeding and raising of livestock have been the nations that have endured the longest and performed the greatest work for mankind."

"Open the door of an agricultural school and you close the door of a poorhouse."

"Relief from owing too much money does not lie in borrowing more."

"Knowledge is one thing, but courage of leadership is another."

"Falseness and error make the headlines, while truth and fact are lost in the maze of half-point type."

"We cannot trade the hungry, the unfed, the feeble voice of the sick, the empty basket of the unemployed, against the maintenance of party preference or individual advantage or personal achievement."

"I believe I am a better farmer by a long shot than I am a banker."

"We must either all thrive together or all suffer disaster."

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

By Edison R. Waite, Shawnee, Oklahoma

That the world's greatest selling power is advertising. Advertising is the spirit of progress of the business world. Steadily it gives a complete victory over all obstacles, because it is dependable.

Year after year advertising constantly makes its successful appeal to the world on behalf of worthy business. No power or influence can hinder or retard the growth of a business that is being built with the aid of steady, truthful advertising.

Business men who make a practice of studying the advertising and editorial pages of the newspapers and trade journals keep up-to-date and are better fortified to engage in the battle for better business.

SPASMODIC ADVERTISING NEVER BRINGS AS GOOD RESULTS AS CONTINUOUS ADVERTISING.

best lilies they have ever grown.

Mrs. W. B. Downing has been agent for the Texas Floral Co. for the past five or six years. Before that time, there were very few flowers at any funerals and none for sick rooms. Since she began the work, she has done much to alleviate the pain and sorrow of those who had lost their loved ones. She always tries to arrange to have flowers—the symbol of love and friendship—at the time they are most appreciated. Flowers are always to the living—to give those left behind, a new hope for the future, a new faith in humanity. BENEFIT PARTY FOR MAIDS AND MATRONS

The Maids and Matrons arranged a most interesting entertainment for their Benefit Party Friday night. The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Brownfield and members of the club and their husbands attended together with other guests.

The house was beautifully decorated in cut flowers. Novel paper caps in the shape of shamrocks were handed out at the door and helped to promote a festive spirit.

The refreshments punch and cakes further represented the Irish color and emblem in token of St. Patrick's day approaching.

This party was given for the purpose of raising money to purchase new books for the library and to make some improvements in the city park. Each club member was to give a dollar earned by herself and to tell in rhyme how she had earned it. These rhymes were read and proved that Brownfield has a number of talented poets and also that dollars are hard to earn. The assembly voted on the verses and a prize, a small rolling pin was given to Mrs. W. A. Bell for the best one.

The most hilarious affair of the evening was a Kangaroo court. Judge Barret presided; Mr. Neill acted as prosecuting attorney and Mr. Martin of Meadow as defense lawyer for three manslaughter suspects. The wit was wholly extemporaneous but it surpassed any vaudeville act it has been our privilege to hear. The vast amount of evidence brought out seemed to implicate almost everyone present. When the audience was called on to vote upon the guilty party they showed they knew their detective stories by unanimously declaring for the Judge in the case, Jay Barret, at whom no finger of suspicion had been pointed during the trial. The Judge was presented with a toy pistol.

A free will offering from the guests were taken. Members and guests present were Messrs. and Mesdames Bailey, A. M. Brownfield, Tom Cobb, W. H. Dallas, Pyeatt, Telford, Wingerd, Martin, Barret, Neill, McGowan, Bell, Lewellen, Crews, W. M. Adams, Holder, Jacobson; Mesdames Dennis, Moore, Quinlan, Weir, Rentfro; Misses Rutherford, Bell, Fitzgerald; Messrs James Harley Dallas, Ben Hilyard and Jim Bell.

James Harley Dallas visited in Dallas Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Miss Lena Mae Ballard returned last week from a visit in Roby, Texas.

STUDY CLUB
Mrs. Lewellen entertained the Maids and Matrons club Tuesday. A program on Africa was led by Mrs. Crews. Interesting papers were given by Mrs. W. A. Bell, Crews, Dallas, Holder, Jacobson and Wingerd.

The hostess served fruit salad, cheese straws, coffee, ice-cream and Angel food cake. Mrs. Lewellen and Mrs. Dallas played piano solos and Miss Maxine Hardin gave a reading, subsequent to the lesson.

KILL CARE CLUB

Mesdames Bailey, Collins, Cobb, Holmes, Telford, Self, Wingerd, W. C. Smith, Hudgens, C. J. Smith, Sawyer and Lewis were guests at the meeting of the Kill Care Club last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. R. Brownfield. Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Bailey scored high in bridge. A salad course was served.

Mrs. Floyd Stark of Seminole visited her sister Mrs. Tinkler and brothers, V. A., Ralph, and W. A. Bynum Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Twinkle Burnett and little son of Tahoka visited Mrs. Burnett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Neill this week.

Miss Julia Burns of Rotan returned home last week after a visit here with her friend, Miss Bessie Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weir and little daughter left Tuesday to spend the summer in Italy, Texas.

C. D. Duke, Ray Duke, Mrs. Earl Anthony Jr., Miss Lela Duke and Mrs. Ben Hilyard returned this week from Fort Worth where they attended the stock show and visited relatives.

M. E. MISSIONARY SOCIETY

At the Monday meeting of the Methodist Senior Missionary Society, a program from the Missionary Voice on the Citizen's Responsibility for Law Enforcement was led by Mrs. Downing. Mesdames Toone, Long, Burke and Powell gave talks on different phases of the subject. At a subsequent business session, plans for meeting together soon for the purpose of quilting a quilt, were discussed. The personal service report was read, showing 61 visits, 19 trays and 3 bouquets.

The Jubilee Auxiliary had a most interesting lesson on Kingdom Extension in their meeting Thursday. Latin America was discussed by Mrs. Fred Smith; Brazil, Mexico and Cuba by Miss Mozelle Treadaway and Africa by Mrs. Coleman.

A spiritual meeting for the benefit of all the churches in this Methodist Conference was held in Lubbock Wednesday. Those attending from Brownfield were Rev. and Mrs. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Denison Cook, Mrs. C. A. Hester, Miss Ethel Hester, Mrs. Burson, Mrs. Downing and Miss Treadaway. It was an all day meeting. The principal speaker was Bishop Boaz. The noon lunch was served picnic style, each person having brought some dish.

RECEPTION

About sixty people braved the cold Wednesday evening to attend the reception given in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Sharp and sponsored by the Jubilee Auxiliary. Those attending enjoyed the following well prepared program:

Song, America; Prayer Rev. Sharp; Reading, Thelma Fern Harris; Accordion Solo, Mrs. Roy Herod; Reading, Mrs. Virginia Smith; Quartet, Mesdames Jacobson, McGowan, Telford and Miss Treadaway; Sing-Song led by Mr. Simms.

This was followed by an old-fashioned spelling contest. Mr. Henson and Mr. Hayhurst chose up. Mr. Hayhurst's side was triumphant. Next was a cracker eating contest, won by Mr. Lawlis.

A speech in appreciation to Rev. Sharp was made by Mr. Simms and response was made by Rev. Sharp. Chocolate and cake were served cafeteria style.

BAPTIST CIRCLES

Circle Two met Monday with Mrs. Wooldridge. Six members were present. A Royal Service program was presented. They will meet next Monday at the church.

YOUNG PEOPLE ENTERTAINED

Miss Lena Mae Ballard entertained three tables of bridge guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ballard Tuesday evening. Mr. Glen Webber scored high for men and Miss Lou Ellen Brown high for ladies. Refreshments of pie and tea were served.

Mrs. Jack Jackson is planning to enter a number of her vocal and piano pupils in the Festival.

Mrs. Cliff Acker and Mr. Fox of Hereford were in Brownfield Wednesday visiting their aunt and sister, Mrs. G. S. Webber. Kathryn Jane Acker, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Webber returned home with them.

Miss Gertrude Rasco made a trip to Lubbock Wednesday.

AUXILIARY MEETING

The Auxiliary met at the Legion Hall March 9. An interesting talk on Community Service was given by Mrs. J. D. Miller. The Charity Committee reported all cases doing fine.

Four new members were initiated as follows: Beulah Atkins, Julia Eubanks, Clara C. Harris and Viola Mae Barret. The meeting adjourned to meet April 13.

Waco Ire Roused

Tom S. Hollon, Waco city tax collector, above, refused to accept $14,000 in currency and silver, proffered in full payment of $23,000 in taxes the city of Waco levied on the Texas Cities Gas company. This precipitated a controversy from which the following resulted: City Attorney John McGlasson, below, has been instructed to file suit against the Texas Cities Gas Co. for the $23,000, plus 10 per cent penalty, plus $200,000 penalty for failure of the gas company to file annual reports of its investment in Waco. McGlasson has also filed suit against the Callahan Construction company and others for $418,000, alleging the Lake Waco pipeline is deficient; and has been instructed to file suit against the Lone Star Gas company for $700 back tax on an easement across a Waco cemetery, where, legal papers state, the company ran its lines one dark night after the city of Waco refused it permission to do so; and he has stated that he will file suit for injunction seeking to prevent the state fire insurance commission from penalizing Waco 3 per cent on insurance rates for bad fire record, asserting the commission has the right to give credits but not to assess penalties. Hollon is temporary chairman of the tax division of the Texas League of Municipalities.

PIONEER OF YOAKUM COUNTY PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Bettie Long aged pioneer hotel lady, passed away last Thursday, March 10th, after an illness lasting some time. The body was laid to rest in the Plains cemetery beside the body of her husband that preceded here in death several years. She leaves several daughters and a host of close friends to mourn her passing.

Mrs. Long was born in Weatherford, Texas, but having the pioneer spirit, she and her husband came to Yoakum county in the early days. She was truly of the west and for the west, and was possessed of that true spirit that made the stranger as well as the friend feel right at home in her home. The writer remembers being entertained in her hotel one night way back in 1909, and shall never forget that good motherly lady that was so kind to us.

One by one the old timers are passing away.

GOOD LOOKING WOMEN

The Archer County News editor gives us a new one. He says that ugly women never pay their subscription to the home town paper. Come to think about it, he is correct. Several ladies called Saturday to pay their subscription to The Claiborne News and every one of them was good looking. Since Armstrong county has the best looking ladies in the state, we are expecting our subscription list to loom up in a short time.

PAYMENT $3.50 ON SCHOOL APPORTIONMENT SCHEDULED

Austin, March 14.—Payment of $3.50 on the per capita school apportionment will be made March 15, S. M. N. Marrs, state superintendent of education, announced today. The total amount to be distributed is $5,500,000.

The payment will leave a balance of $9 due the schools for each student. Marrs said the amount to be paid.

Tuesday was slightly under the estimate made last month because of slow payment of taxes under the split tax law.

TUBERCULAR PATIENT DIED HERE SUNDAY

Williams Treadwell, aged about 40, who came here from the mines in Oklahoma with tuberculosis about last August, died at 4:23 last Sunday afternoon, and was buried Monday in the Brownfield cemetery following services conducted by Elder Robt. Drennon at the church of Christ, into which church he was baptised some ten days previous to his death.

Our understanding is that Mr. Treadwell was a soldier in the World war, but was not in long enough to get compensation, and has been looked after here by the Legion boys assisted by some of the churches. He leaves his widow and one child, Eugene, 5 years old. The widow and son will, we understand go back to Oklahoma, and make their home with her brother.

Washington, March 14.—Anti-prohibitionists today lost their motion to bring the Beck-Linthicum resolution before the House, but mustered the unexpected strength of 187 votes in the first clear-cut test on prohibition in twelve years.

The House voted, 227 to 187, against discharging the Judiciary Committee from consideration of the resolution. The resolution called for submission to the States of an amendment to the Constitution in effect returning to the States the control of the liquor traffic.

The vote took place to an accompaniment of fiery speeches and reminders that this "is the ideas of March—stand up and be counted."

Many Gave Thought to Making Artificial Ice

There is much uncertainty as to who first made ice by artificial means. Experiments for making artificial ice were started by the Italians in the Sixteenth century. The first machine used was invented by Dr. William Cullen (1710-1790), a Scotch physicist and physician, whose machine was based on the vacuum principle.

Lamesa Gets a Big Egg Crocking Plant

Establishment of an egg cracking and drying plant in the factory of the West Texas Dairy Products Co. in Lamesa this week is another long step forward in the industrial development of this city and Dawson counties were as much surprised as anyone when announcement of it was formally made.

The plant already is employing thirty girls and several men. It was established by Henningson Brothers

Dairy and Poultry Products Show at Hub

Importance of cash crops on the farm and the improvement of products marketed will be brought to the attention of several hundred farmers around Lubbock on March 18, when the first annual Swift Day is held at the Palace Theatre. Producers of butterfat, poultry, and eggs will be told how their products are marketed and how they can procure better returns for what they have to sell, by experts from the A. & M. College of Texas, county agents, and others. The program is sponsored by the local produce plant of Swift & Company.

The meeting, which will be an all day affair, will be called to order at 9:30 by R. F. Humphrey. G. V. Jack will discuss poultry ills that cause heavy losses to farm flocks. F. M. Simpson of Chicago will talk on how the butter eggs, and poultry of Texas are marketed. D. F. Eaton, county agent, will offer some helpful hints, and Prof. S. C. Evans, A. & M. College of Texas, will discuss "Relief from Low Prices." The motion pictures include "A Tale of Two Bulls," "Blood Will Tell," and "Producing Quality Chicks."

Luncheon will be served to those in attendance.

County Tennis Tournament Here March 26

The County Tennis Tournament to determine the Interscholastic League Championship will be held in Brownfield Saturday, March 26th. The Drawing will be had at the Gymnasium at 9:30 o'clock. Marlin Hayhurst, County Director of Athletics, will be in charge and will direct the tournament.

The member schools are reminded that at the meeting of the directors it was decided to play off the tennis one week before the regular track meet. This tournament is arranged to comply with that arrangement.

There are no divisions in tennis on the basis of the character of the school. There is a division for boys and girls doubles and boys singles and girls singles. Any school may have a tennis team in any one of these four divisions or any school may have all four types of teams.

It will be essential that the entries from each school be in the hands of the County Chairman by March 25th in order that the tennis entries may be handed to the director of athletics.

Crop Production Loan Plan Given in Brief

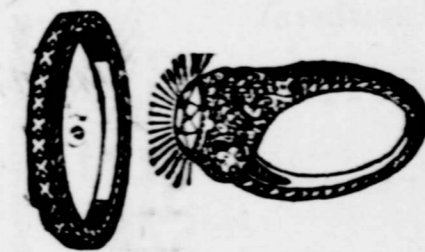

The following is a general presentation of the provisions of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act relating to the granting of crop production loans.

1. Security: Absolute first lien on entire 1932 crop.
2. Loan limit to individual farmer, $400.00.
3. Limit to all tenants in single county of one landlord $1600.
4. Loans will not be made to applicants planting cotton in excess of 65 per cent of their total cotton acreage in 1931. This does not apply to applicants planting 10 acres or less of cotton.
5. Loans will not be made to minors, to persons who did not farm in 1931, nor to persons having a means of livelihood other than farming.
6. Loans will only be made to "farmers who are unable to obtain loans for crop production in 1932" from other sources.
7. Proceeds of loan may be used only for crop production purposes and shall not be used to purchase machinery, livestock, nor to pay taxes, debts, etc.
8. Loans will not be made for a total acreage of crops in excess of the average planted in 1930 and 1931.
9. Maximum loan for field crops in counties where fertilizer is not essential, $3 per acre. CHART OF HIDE

The best sole leather is from the part of hide covering the choice cuts of beef. Only 43% of the choicest hide from a high bred, matured steer, is used for "K. L." Resoling Leather. The remaining 57% of the hide is used for insoles, counters, box toes, heels and the cheaper grades of outsoles in shoe factories. For 90 years, the K. L. stamp on sole leather has been a guarantee for QUALITY of hide and tannage.

It takes five years to grow the hide and tan the leather before it reaches you—but it is nature's own footwear, at its best. Prime and No. 2 makes the 43%. Prime is the best of all. It cost very little more to have Prime on your shoes. I keep Prime in all weights for ladies, men and children's shoes. All the top lifts that I put on ladies shoes, is Prime. It last longer and looks better. One reason for cheap cow hides is because so many people are wearing rubber sole shoes. They are no good. Hot in summer and cold in winter and no comfort at all.

Cheap shoes is like cheap talk. It won't stand up. IT'S SMART to buy good shoes and keep them repaired and don't forget when you want the best, Bring Your Shoes To Ward's Shoe Service.

(Too Late For Last Week)

The cold weather the past week is helping the farmers to dispose of their corn as most every one is burning corn instead of coal.

Mr. Jess Smith was the first to plant corn in this district.

Mrs. Kinard is visiting her daughter at Tatum N. M.

Mrs. Kate Fancher visited with Mrs. Lola McGlothlin Sunday at Brownfield.

Mrs. Dell Walters of Artisia, N. M. who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Jim Jones, returned home Sunday. She was accompanied by her nephew, Rimmer Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Evans visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alton Jones Sunday.

On next Thursday, March 17th at 8 o'clock P. M. Mrs. Roy Wingerd, President of the Parent Teachers Council will make a talk at the school house. We hope each member of the P. T. A. will be present to hear this talk and also each Parent in our district.

Mrs. Arnis Franks and children who has been visiting her parents in Louisiana returned home Sunday.
