LOCAL OFFICERS SAY THE CRIMINAL IS NOT WANTED

AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT MAKING TREE EXPERIMENTS

Test on the Lee Lyon Farm to See Just What Forest Trees Are Best Adapted to the South Plains Section. Chinese Elm a Leader. Must Care For Them.

The editor and wife had the pleasure of visiting one of the fine model farms of Terry county Sunday afternoon, and we want to say that we enjoyed every minute that we were there. This was not only on account of the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Lyon are good entertainers, but because there is something to interest one every minute of a few hours stay on this farm, because of its productivity, its arrangements and conveniences.

In the first place, the home (house) is a modern up to date building, with all the conveniences we have here in town, such as running hot and cold water, sinks, commodes, bath, sewerage and instead of electric lights, they have carbide, which is said to be less irritating to the eye than any light except the sun. The home is well furnished and everything about it conveniently arranged. It is truly a home.

Out in the yard is a huge concrete cellar that houses their supplies of canned and dried fruits and vegetables, as well as bulbs and pot plants they wish to preserve through the winter. Their front yard is a riot of colors today. Next comes the orchard and hen houses, and Lee and wife have a big flock of both chickens and giant brock turkeys. He has a well arranged orchard and showed us the first ever bearing pear that we remember seeing. At this time, it has full grown fruit not quite ripe on down to blooms, and he says it has ripening pears for several months.

He has large well arranged barns and harness houses, and a large herd of duroc hogs, about eight large ones which will be killed and preserved for the farm and some to sell as cured meats next summer. He also has several milk cows that are now giving milk. Several small houses are on the farm home and the other one about a mile south for the convenience of the farm help and cotton pickers.

The thing which Lee takes especial pride in is a forest that is being supplied to him by the United States Horticultural department for experimental purposes to see what is the best forest tree for this section. He has already been supplied with enough Chinese elm to plant three sides of a square to the north, west and east side of his premises inclosing all houses and barns, which looks to be about five acres. These trees are thrifty and growing nicely, and needed no irrigation at all this year. In the spring, the government nursery in Oklahoma will send him a row of evergreens to plant in front of the other trees. Lee already has quite a nice lot of trees and shrubs about his place, and remarked that he told the government horticulturist to let people who did not have any trees have them. The man remarked that they did not want to let such people have them as they would not care for them if they were given to them.

Lee has quite a number of fine mares and two year old mules, most of which he keeps on a leased section. But he has a few that he keeps at home for work animals. He now owns the Bert Shepherd jack, one of the best ever brought to this county. While Lee is tractor farming now, he says with the cheapening of both feed and workstock, he is sure to go back to horses and mules in a year or two, and is breeding up to that end. His coming two mules, will soon be ready to put in the harness.

Lee has a wonderful lot of corn and feed, as well as quite a patch of seeded ribbon cane that will be made into sorghum. They have an old time east Texas sorghum maker in the community. In fact he lives on Lee's place, and the mill has been started about a week. He has enough cane belonging to neighbors on the ground now to run two weeks, according to Lee. Mr. Lyon also has one of the biggest popcorn patches we have ever seen.

On leaving we were supplied with a pumpkin, a supply of popcorn, a bag of peanuts and some chewing cane for the kids. Lee says for us to pop a lot of the corn the night that Al Smith takes Hoover for a cleaning, and he will come in and help us listen at it over the radio while we eat pop corn.

Several Car Wrecks Occurred Sun. Night

As Marlin Hayhurst and Jack Stricklin Jr. were coming in from Plains toward eleven Sunday night, they came upon a T-Model Ford quite badly wrecked, and at least one of the girls quite badly hurt. As they only had a coupe, Marlin brought the injured girl on in to the Treadaway Hospital, while Jack Jr. and the young man, who was a brother to one of the girls, and the other two girls who were in the wrecked car remained to be picked up later. They, however, caught a truck and had gotten nearly to Gomez when Mr. Hayhurst met them.

It seems that the boy and three girls, none of which ever gave their names, left Lubbock Saturday night after the girls got off from stores where they worked, and drove through to visit relatives at a small town in eastern New Mexico. They slept none that night or Sunday and started home in that condition. The boy who was driving said he evidently dropped into a sleep, and woke just in time to see the car going into the bar pit. A quick turn naturally rolled the car over.

Dr. Treadaway said the girl was hurt pretty bad but not seriously, and they left for home in Lubbock early Monday morning.

We also learn that Lollan Flippin turned his car over at a sharp turn on the Seagraves road Sunday night, and while painfully hurt, was not serious. Riley Spivey and one of the Brown boys also had a wreck between Brownfield and Lubbock that skinned them up considerably. It was very still Sunday night, and a thick cloud of dust hung over the highways, making driving difficult to one wide awake.

Cubs Win Hard Game From Post Antelopes

Brownfield Cubs met the Post Antelopes on the local gridiron, Oct. 14th, to tune of 21 to 19. The Cubs done most of their scoring in the first half, and played a defensive game the last half. In the first quarter Neill ran 38 yards on a reverse play for the first touchdown. The try for point was good. Score, Brownfield 7, Post 0.

Brownfield kicked to Post who opened up a powerful passing attack. Tankersley of Brownfield intercepted one of the passes and returned the ball to Posts 5 yards line. Husabee took the ball over for the second touchdown of the game. The try for point was good.

Post came back fighting and completed a pass on the fourth down for their first touchdown. The try for point was good.

After an exchange of kicks, Neill circled end for a 50 yard run and a touchdown. The try for point was good.

Post received the kick and ran the distance of the field for a touchdown. The try for point was no good. Score 21-13.

In the fourth quarter Post opened a passing attack that netted a third touchdown. The try for point was no good. The score 21-19.

The game ended with the ball in about mid-field.

Brown Says Late Maize Badly Damaged

In driving along the fields we had noted that the maize heads were all more or less darkened on account of excessive rains in September, and we had noted that young maize was especially dark, but we had no idea that so much of it had ruined by the rains washing the pollen on the blooms. But such is the case. Sunday afternoon, we had occasion out on the Lyon farm to examine some, and while his is not as bad as some, it is very much damaged, and gillions of lice are harbored near the core of the maize.

But you can examine higeras of the same age and it is well made and matured and seemingly was not darkened perceptibly. So that grain and kaffir may in coming days be the leading grain sorghums for this section, as the former seems to be just as good drouth resister as maize, and a much more sure crop of wet years.

In talking with some of our farmer friends, we also learned that the best seed for planting the next year maize crop does not come from the mother cane, but from the sprouts. Farmers who have watched it say that seed selected from the mother stalk will get so high in a few years that you cannot head it, and will have just one small head perched high on top of the main stalk.

So it looks like it would be best to go through the field before the crop is harvested and select the planting seed from the suckers to insure a growth of dwarf variety and plenty of large heads.

Sen of Local Minister Killed By Hi-jacker

Robert Tharp, 24, son of Rev. and Mrs. Ed Tharp of this city, was shot through the abdomen by a cowardly assassin and robber at Lubbock about 8:30 Saturday night. The same rough specimen of the human race had held up another store of the grocery company Robert was working for a few moments before, but had failed to get as much swag as he probably wanted, and made for the Broadway store where young Tharp worked. In the meantime, Tharp had been warned by the other store, and had hidden most of the money and had just reached the front of the store when the hi-jacker walked in. Robert was doing all his commands as best he could, but perhaps the imp had been sadly disappointed again, and as a farewell, shot young Tharp through the abdomen.

After being carried to a hospital, he kept repeating the question, "why did he shoot me, I was doing all he told me to do." It just so happened that Rev. and Mrs. Tharp were in Lubbock witnessing the Lubbock-Abilene night football game, and were called to the hospital. He died at 10:45 Monday morning. Funeral was had at the Lubbock Methodist church, and burial in the Lubbock cemetery. All the family were present including the parents and Ada Mary, his twin sister, of this city, other sisters, Mrs. Decker Megee and daughter of Crowell, Mrs. E. Gillispie, of Avoca; Mrs. Elmo McClellan of Lubbock, and his fiance, Miss Asalie Key of Lamesa.

Robert had attended McMurry College at Abilene and had become quite a football star, having helped them win their only conference game in 1927. He was also quite a basketballer, and owing to the fact that he had a slightly lame limb, was known as the "galloping ghost" to his classmates. He was not only a general favorite in school, but was a trusted employee of the M System groceries in Lubbock, and numbered his friends by the number of acquaintances. Lubbock is thoroughly aroused over this dastardly murder, and are demanding his murderer be brought to justice and given the limit of the law.

The Herald joins the many friends of the family of Rev. and Mrs. Tharp here in their sudden loss of an only son and brother. Only the Lord can sustain in such an hour.

Republican Candidate For Gov. Here Oct. 27

The fourth week of his statewide speaking tour completed, Orville Bullington, Wichita Falls, is well-pleased with the receptions given him on his trip and is confident that the rising tide of support coming to him from the Democratic ranks will give him a substantial margin of victory when ballots are cast Nov. 8 in the race for the Governorship of Texas.

With about three weeks in which to finish his campaign itinerary and

SLUFFOFF FROM RAIDED TOWNS BEST KEEP HIKING

No Harm is Meant to Those Who Come for Honest Labor, But Other Kind Better Keep Moving. Business Men Told To Keep Heavy Artillery Handy.

The County and City Officers of Brownfield and Terry County are aroused over the general lawlessness that seems to be invading the country. In the past few months Terry county has transported to the penitentiary eight prisoners, which has emptied our jail for the first time in over two years. And, it is our desire that it stay empty. But to the thug, gambler, and bootlegger, and other law violators that thinks he can get by plying his trade in Brownfield or Terry county, has another think coming. We have room in our jail for quite a number, and if you come here for refuge from our neighbor cities, it will be our pleasure to place you out side of the realms of society, where you will not need to be watched. The man that is seeking honest employment shall have our sympathy and hearty co-operation, the thug, gambler and other breakers of the law, we are after you, and to the law abiding citizens, we want your co-operation, give us your leads and by so doing, you may prevent some innocent man from being shot in the stomach. And to the business man, we here warn you to place at a handy distance in your business some heavy artillery and protect yourself and business as the law privileges you to do.

J. M. Telford, Sheriff Terry County, Texas. W. W. Price, County Attorney, Terry County; Joe J. McGowan, Mayor, City of Brownfield; C. E. Fitzgerald, City Marshal, City of Brownfield.

Meadow Business Man Takes His Own Life

The little city of Meadow especially as well as the entire county was thrown into a state of confusion and sorrow when it was learned that D. J. Harris, 45, filling station proprietor of Meadow had taken his own life, the fatal shot having been fired slightly before midnight Saturday night, in a room apart from where his family were sleeping.

Dr. J. D. Moorhead was down Sunday morning and informed us that he was about the third person to reach the wounded man, who asked the doctor to give him something to relieve pain. Dr. Moorhead asked him who shot him, and he answered that he did it. The shot was fired through the body on the left side, the bullet ranging slightly downward. A .41 calibre pistol was used. The victim died in about an hour. Dr. Moorhead stated that Harris had been suffering for about ten years with an incurable kidney disease, and it was thought that brooding over his condition had caused him to take his own life.

Mr. Harris was well thought of in the community, was a member of the American Legion, and the Primitive Baptist church was his choice. Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon by Elder H. G. Richards of the Primitive Baptist church and the body laid to rest in the Meadow cemetery. He leaves a wife and two children, as well as other relatives to mourn his passing. Several people from Brownfield attended the funeral.

less than half the State yet to be covered, Bullington will have appeared in practically every county before he closes his drive. Traveling by automobile, he already has covered more than 5,000 miles and has made more than 100 speeches.

Mr. Bullington will speak in Brownfield, at 11:15 A. M. on October 27th, which is next Thursday, and local Republicans are making preparations to have a good crowd and a warm reception for him. This will be the first time that a Republican candidate for Governor has ever visited and addressed the people of Terry county. You are urged to hear him.

After his address here, he will visit several other places on the South Plains, and swing into North Texas, where he will finish his campaign.

L. L. Blackstock believes that prosperity has turned the corner and has dug up his pot of money. He handed us a real old silver dollar on the Herald last Saturday. Talk about a dollar looking as big as a wagon wheel, that one looked as big as a merry-go-round.

Meeting of Turkey Ass'n Saturday P. M.

J. A. Johnson and C. J. McLeroy, president and secretary respectively of the Terry County Turkey Growers Association, was in the Herald office last Saturday afternoon and asked us to announce that there will be a meeting of the association at the courthouse Saturday afternoon at the courthouse, at which time there will be an election of officers for the coming year, as well as other business that may come before the body.

At that time, an endeavor will also be made to see just how many birds can be pooled for the Thanksgiving market, and it is understood that the more there is, the better bid and more buyers will come to bid on them. It is not believed just now that any extra good price can be obtained under any circumstances, and they do not believe unless pooled, that a price worthy of raising can be obtained.

Mr. Johnson stated that he believed that the merchants and other business men here wanted to see the farmers get just as good price for their turkeys as possible, as practically every cent would be spent here. Mr. McLeroy stated that he believed Terry county would have more No. 1 turkeys this year than ever before. He said that when the association started organization and the advocacy of better turkeys just a few years ago, that their first pool brought some of the scrubbiest turkeys in he ever saw. Some he said would not class No. 2. There was lots of good ones last year he said, and they would be better this year.

The Herald is not receiving one penny for any publicity has given the matter. But like the other business men we figure that every time the stock or poultry products of the county are improved, our own business will be improved just that much. And the feed cost is no more for No. 1 turkeys than for No. 2's.

A. C. Holcombe was in this week and reported that his wife had been home from the Carlsbad Sanatorium for about three weeks, and seemed to be doing nicely.

Chamber of Commerce

—By J. E. Shelton, Secretary

It is reported that a considerable amount of bundle stuff sprouted in the fields during the September rainy spell and the opinion was expressed that it would be ruined as a feed, but an article by the county agent of Lubbock county, advised that it can be safely fed to stock, but is injurious to poultry.

In order that the borrowers and others who are interested in the plan of payment of Government Seed and Feed Loan. The writer is, at the request of the District Loan Office undertaking to explain the recent order of the Secretary of Agriculture, as it concerns the price that is to be allowed for cotton in repayment.

Examples of the proposal are given herewith: In the event that a farmer borrowed in an amount from $25.00 to $40.00 he will deliver one bale of cotton, weighing as much as 500 pounds to the Texas Co-Operative Cotton Association which is represented in Terry county by K. B. McWilliams.

If he borrowed from $40.00 to $80.00, he will deliver two bales of cotton and from $80.00 to $120.00, he will deliver three bales of cotton. He will be allowed 9 cents per pound for the cotton and the remainder of the crop will be released from the Government mortgage as soon as the department can get around to it. But the 9 cent pound allowance does not mean that the borrower receives that price for his cotton, but that, the borrower will receive credit on his note for whatever the cotton brings when sold, which is understood to be not later than March 1933.

In the event that the cotton does not sell for 9 cents, the borrower will be credited with the purchase price, less insurance and storage and will probably be required to mortgage his 1933 crop for the unpaid balance, although it is not stated as to how collection of unpaid balances if any, will be handled.

The idea of the Department of Agriculture in granting the plan, was, to enable the borrower to pay other pressing obligations, if any, or to market his crop in an orderly manner, which would naturally be expected to improve the price.

The experiment Station at Spur, Texas, publishes a record showing dates of the first killing frosts, that have occurred during the last 21 years. The earliest date is given as October 19 and the latest as November 27, with an average date as November 2. Eleven of the frosts received, occurred in November and 10 in October.

The few applications that were furnished to this office covering on Feeder Loans and Ranch Loans, were exhausted of last week and since that time the writer has had the farmers write the loan office direct for applications as he has arrived at the conclusion that loans will be handled out of the Regional Office and that there will not be any County Advisory Committee. We will assist however in preparing applications whenever it is desired of us.

A number of our people made application through this office for a supply of fish for their tanks and several of them have been wondering as to the time that delivery would be made and this is to advise that we have just received a letter from the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, that delivery will be made from the Wichita Falls Hatchery and that all applicants will be notified of delivery date in time for them to arrange to care for them.

The Motor Bus service of Brownfield, will compare favorably with that of any other town that we know of, but Grover McMakin, of the Lubbock-Brownfield Stages, arrived at the conclusion that an extra schedule would be of benefit to the people in general and he has made an application to the Railroad Commission to permit him to put on an extra bus leaving Brownfield between 6 and 7 A. M. and returning between 9 and 10 P. M. The writer did know the actual hours but has forgotten just what they are. Any way it gives a morning schedule out of Brownfield and that is something that many people have desired to see.

Mrs. Ruth Brown of Long Beach, California, was here a few days this week visiting with friends and relatives. She returned Tuesday afternoon to the home of her mother, at Floydada, where she will await the arrival of her brother and his wife who are also visiting her relatives in Kansas, before returning to California. Mrs. Brown lived here several years, and is working in a beauty parlor in Long Beach.

L. F. Hudgens was a visitor to the Littlefield section Sunday.

Get Your Medallion From R. M. Kendrick

R. M. Kendrick is selling the Roosevelt-Garner medallions at the bank. Each dollar received on them is turned into headquarters to be used to defray expenses of the National Democratic campaign. Such men as Mellon will see to it that the GOP is well supplied, but the Democrats must depend on their expenses from the common run of people, the "forgotten" man that Roosevelt made famous on his western tour.

Mr. Kendrick will assure you that many of these men that Mr. Hoover had "forgotten" but that existed will be qualified voters on the 8th of November and will snow under the man that had "forgotten" them. Mr. Kendrick also stated that the wearer of each of these medallions was assured of a postoffice from New York on down. This last statement, we think, however, was made with his fingers crossed. But he did not cross them on defeating the Republicans.

Monday and Tuesday seemed like old times with the wind blowing out of the west and sand sliding along on the streets. Another week or two of such weather will open the cotton fast.

Dr. Hefner, of Spur, one of the best known chiropractors in west Texas, died at Fort Worth recently, following an operation for removal of his leg which had become diseased from insect bite.

Texan Sees Crushing Defeat of Republicans

Austin, Texas, October.—Collapse of the Hoover candidacy was seen by Roy Miller, Director of the Democratic Campaign in Texas, in the totals shown in the third straw vote summary published in the Literary Digest.

"Two hundred and forty-four electoral votes for the Democratic ticket to a puny fifty-five for the Republican is more than was expected at this stage of the campaign by the most sanguine Democrat," Mr. Miller said Friday.

"The crushing blow to the Hoover hopes dealt by former Governor Alfred E. Smith when he joined forces at Albany with Governor Roosevelt will be of tremendous help to the Democrats in the East, which was the only portion of the country in which the result seemed to be in doubt.

"The Democratic ticket will surely be elected, thus fulfilling the fond hopes of millions of John Garner's fellow citizens.

"We feel that the sale of Roosevelt-Garner Medallions in Texas will be aided greatly by the feeling of certainty that our nominees will be overwhelmingly elected," Mr. Miller said.

Beth, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chock Hamilton, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Treadaway hospital, Monday morning. She is reported doing nicely.

Official paper of Terry County.

It is reported that Co. Dick McCarty of the Albany News is in El Paso to have his eyes treated. While we have never been there, we are told that they have a lot of eye openers across the "crick" from that city.

One sure sign that fall is here is the fact that weeds and forest leaves are turning into a riot of colors, ranging from a bright yellow on down through all golden shades to a deep wine. As usual, the Chinese elm has proven its worth as the tree most acceptable to this section. It is about the first to leaf in the spring and stays green longest in the fall. They seem to be little effected by cooler weather, so far.

Our little sixth grade friends have wrote in to ask us to give them a short history of what happened in our childhood, and especially about ourself. Why bring this up? We have always tried to lead our young friends to think we were a very sweet baby, a model child, an excellent youth and an exemplary young man. However, some of these days, when we have some time, we shall touch upon many of the brighter things of our young life, leaving the darker to oblivion, just to be accommodating to our fine young friends in the sixth grade.

With several arrests last week, it is believed that the counterfeiter gang on the plains has been broken up. And while we are on the crime wave, Lubbock is making it hot for all classes of criminals, and especially the hi-jacker, the meanest of the lot. Naturally, all who sympathize with such will be scattered to the four winds, but Brownfield and other towns will get their share. Our officers have already thought about that matter too, and are prepared to make it so hot for them when they come here that they will shake the dust from their heels. Read the statement of our officers in this issue.

There is going to be a whale of a ballot this time, it is said, and almost as large as a bed blanket. Indeed, it will be larger than a sheet of a daily newspaper. It will, we understand contain nine columns, the Democrats, Republican, Socialist, Prohibition, Communist, Liberal, Independent, Lincoln parties as well as a blank space left for the voter who cannot find a suitable combination in the other eight columns. Indeed if the finicky voter can't vote as he dumb-pleases on that ballot, he'd better quit. On top of all that, the Texas voter will have the rare pleasure (?) of passing on nine constitutional amendments.

The Brownfield Herald runs a twenty-three years ago column, the current one crediting The Dallas News with saying that although West Texas does a good deal of talking it usually delivers the goods. The observation still holds. Further along, the Herald remarks that two Texas journalists, J. H. Lowry and State Press, had just returned from China, where they had gone in the interest of larger feet for Chinese women. A mistake there. State Press has never been interested in Chinese feet, great or small. Nor has he ever been to China with J. M. Lowry. It isn't very likely that Mr. Lowry would be interested in feet, but he used to manifest more or less admiration for ankles.—State Press.

Experts from the Animal Husbandry department of the A. & M. have been studying the effects of the so-called loco weed on cattle, horses, goats and sheep for the past two years at the substation at Alpine, Texas, and have progressed fairly, but announced no cure so far except segregation and feeding other things. A bulletin was sent to this office recently, which was a rather interesting study, as the effect of the weed on stock has been the ban of West Texas stockmen for years. There are two of the weeds, however, both classed under a Latin name, but similar in effect. The green weed seems to effect stock quicker than the dry weed, and it was found that a smaller amount of the weed compared to the weight of the animal was easier to effect the horse, the cow came next, the sheep next and the goat was found to be the hardest to loco.

While we seldom ever agree with the West Texas Chamber of Commerce on anything, we are with them against the proposed constitutional amendment to appropriate a lot of money for a centennial celebration in 1936, and in voting against it we do so with no quams of conscience that we are not a patriotic citizen. While not a native born, we have spent more of our life in Texas than elsewhere by some 12 years, and all this has been in our mature years when we really learn to love a state and what it stands for. But just at this time when many of our people are losing their homes on account of taxes, is no time to add to that burden. A great show can be had in combination with the Dallas Fair or other exhibitions when the time comes without a huge state appropriation, all of which will be expended in some one city or location. Yes, we are running an ad weekly favorable to the amendment, but we do not always agree with everything that appears in our columns.

It always make the Herald feel good to have its home friends say nice things about it, but this week, it feels especially complimented when a good judge of what a newspaper ought to be, like Editor Wade of the Jayton Chronicle comes out with a front page article and classes the Herald as one of the four best country weeklies in West Texas. Of course we were all up in the air about the matter and bragging about it to a banker friend this week, when he made us feel even loftier when he told us that he heard one of our "high powered" editorials quoted over the Amarillo radio broadcasting station this week. We reared back on our "pasters" and started to ram our thumbs under our gallsuses, but

Dem Nominee Aids National Cause

Mrs. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson, Democratic nominee for governor of Texas, buys a Democratic emblem from Frank Schofield, financial director of the Texas Democratic campaign. The emblems are being sold to fill the national campaign chest. The picture was taken at Austin when Mrs. Ferguson arrived there after the Lubbock convention had proclaimed her the nominee.

'Jim Will Let Them Go' Is Moorhead's Reply

In the issue of the Herald, October 7th, inst., one, J. M. Hale, discourses at length in some thirteen stanzas of four line Doggerel on Farmer Jim Ferguson. It is intended for the eyes of his friends no doubt. Item one: Jim Ferguson never violated his oath of office, nor was it for this "the Senate let him go" but the fact that he had the temerity to Veto a bill dealing with the University. It has never been proven that Jim Ferguson ever swindled the state of one cent. Worse things than this have been charged against the present administration.

Why this rehash of the campaign falsehoods that have bobbed up every time the Fergusons have ran for office? Why not stay with the truth? He may have made mistakes, perhaps done wrong at times but he is still cleaner morally and as beyond his defamers intellectually as Milton or Shakespeare is ahead of the author of the Doggerel.

Jim Ferguson has never been tried nor convicted before any judicial tribunal in Texas. True he was impeached by the Senate of Texas. Sam Houston was impeached. President Johnson lacked but one vote of being impeached. Jesus Christ was impeached by a competent court of Jewish Rabbies and murdered, but we hardly agree with their verdict now.

Later this same Senate declared they had done him wrong and proceeded to restore his civil rights. Still later they re-tried him and rescinded their former action. His enemies could not use him and he was a dangerous competitor in the political field. This action was carried to the Supreme Court of the state. Two of the judges disqualified, thus giving the Governor, who was a bitter enemy the opportunity to appoint two outside lawyers to hear the case. These gentlemen decided that the legislature had no power to remove his disabilities. They may have been correct and will not be criticised.

This action of the legislature shows conclusively that there was nothing done by Ferguson back of that for which a criminal accusation could be sustained.

The people of the state have recently decided by nearly a half milas we had none, we only succeeded in tearing that hole under our arm pits a little bigger in our 49c shirt. But in closing this self airing article, we want to fan editor Wade just a bit too. His is one of our exchanges that is always read, and we always find something worth while in there. Another thing, one does not have to guess where Editor Wade stands on any question that comes up. He has an editorial policy and expresses it. Even people who may disagree with you have no patience these days with a paper which has no marrow in its spine.

lion votes that through his wife he is the best man for the place. All this Hale Doggerel and more was used in this campaign. No, I don't think this author of the Doggerel was any kin to Nathan.

"Thou shalt not bear false witness." Whatsoever you would that men should do to you do ye even so to them."

"Who steals my purse steals trash. But he that filches from me my good name, Robs me of that which not enriches him, and makes me poor indeed."

"Keep thy tongue from evil and thy lips from speaking guile."

Yes, Ferguson bolted the ticket and voted for Peady. It was a shame that he did so, but it just as commendable in him as in you. Two wrongs never made a right in any country or clime. It was no bolt for him to organize the American Party and he got snowed under in both instances just as you and your kith and kin of Hooverdom will get in the neck on November 8th.

The Democrats of Texas are determined to get rid of your kind of cattle. They are tired of having you "train with the hounds and run with the hare," continually playing pig and pup, whom no kind of obligation or pledge is binding. The chameleon should appear on your shield and crest.

I don't know how many pardons have been issued by the Fergusons and care less. However, the furloughs issued by the present Governor is said to exceed the pardons issued by the Fergusons. One is just as good or just as bad as the other. It is not of record however, that Ferguson released any murderers to campaign for his wife.

It would have been just splendid and more manly in you if you would have just given one or more names of individuals to whom Jim Ferguson peddled a pardon. You should do so at once or withdraw the criminal charge. "He who peddles slander is not one whit better than the officer who violates his oath."

Personally I shall be glad that when they are elected they will clear the state prison of the most deserving men and boys—women and girls too, thus extending justice and mercy and making room for those who are now crowding the jails beyond their capacity.

So hie yourself without delay to the Republican, where you belong and can vote Bu-ling-tun. You will feel at home with the crowd you'll be thrown with. It will be a good riddance.

Incidentally you might take up poetry for a livelihood.

God give us men, tall suncrowned, who live above the clouds, and love the truth and tell it.
J. D. Moorhead.

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

Taken from the Herald of October 22, 1909

In our issue of October 22, 1909, an article about the International Fair at San Antonio tells us of a great Pyrotechnic Spectacle each night, which, the writer said was a forerunner of what we might expect to see given by war crafts of the air in later days. We have no idea, however, that the writer of that article thought that his prophesy would be literally fulfilled within less time than ten years when he wrote it, on the war fronts in France and Belgium. There was another headed article from the Lubbock Avalanche in which the writer used the words, "Increase Cost of Living" for a headline to the article. And lots of us think that phrase came in at least ten years later than that article was written. Another told about a Panhandle farmer that raised $2500 worth of hogs from one Berkshire sow in three years. Another told how that a West Virginia editor had won $5000 in court from a man that had beat him up. Well, we'd take a considerable beating for that much money.

On the Editorial page, we copied an article from The Dallas Morning News congratulating the several counties from the Llano Estacado, (staked plains) for the nice exhibits at the Fair, and remarked that it was the first time there for many of them, including Terry county. Later on as these counties increased in population and wealth, they kept sending exhibits down there that so consistently won prizes that it would have been thought funny if they had failed to exhibit and win. There was only one correspondent present, Meadow. It paid the Herald a glowing tribute for its progressiveness, suggested a few things to be discussed at the teachers institute, and told how nicely they were getting along in their makeshift school house.

Judge L. S. Kinder, and Atty. L. C. Peiray had to spend Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Peeler on account of hail and rain storm. They were on their way to Brownfield and Plains to hold court. Rev. P. E. Riley preached his farewell sermon at Meadow the Sunday before. A short article informed us that the voters of Deaf Smith county had allowed a bond issue for $125,000 to build a new courthouse.

Local page: Dr. Ellis made a business trip to Lubbock. J. E. Green was papering the Hill Hotel. Dad Ellis and Will McPhaul were in from the ranch. The Baptist ladies were preparing for a basket supper on Hallowe'en night. W. R. Bridges was in from the west side. W. G. Hardin was putting the finishing touches on his new residence. Arthur Alexander has sold his business house and lot on the square to H. L. Ware of Gomez. J. E. Bryant and son Bill, also son-in-law, Will Anderson of Brownwood were in town Friday. J. R. Hill was figuring on an addition to the hotel. Several from here were preparing to attend a party at Mrs. Lou Key's at Gomez. W. A. Pyeatt, of Harris, was in town. Atty. Spencer & Spencer, also Esquire Bigger, were attending court at Plains. John Daniel had come in from Big Spring with a big load of freight. Milt Robinson had slipped in from a Yoakum county ranch Sunday night and was inquiring for a barber.

Dr. Melton of Hamlin, was up prospecting. W. T. McPherson had returned to Big Spring after a short visit with relatives here and Gomez. W. R. Harris had the Herald sent to his son, Will Ed at Southwestern University at Georgetown. Joe Marsh who herded sheep on the Powell ranch, was in to attend Woodman lodge. M. V. Brownfield moved 600 steers from the home ranch to south-

SCUDDAY NEWS

Our heart goes out in sympathy this morning to the Hill family who received word Thursday night that their son, Spike Hill took poison about 2:00 o'clock Thursday and died about 11 o'clock that night. He has been working on a ranch near Sudan, but was at Amarillo at the time. They brought him back and buried him Saturday afternoon in the Union cemetery.

Misses Camilla, Eunice and Gladys Tankersley left for Tahoka Sunday where they will spend a few days with their brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Allmon, Mr. and Mrs. Aycock were dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walters Sunday.

The Tankersley girls, Mr. and Mrs. Robertson and Mrs. Robertson's sister, Miss Jewel Creighton, from Bib Spring, were dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sparkman Sunday.

Mrs. Sam Walter's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Myers and daughters, Apal and Ellanor, and son, N. L., and McClay Warren, came in from Presidio, Texas, Monday. They expect to make this their home but when the sand gets to rolling, they may change their minds.

Mr. Simmons has been on the sick list the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wilson were callers in the Simmons home Sunday.

We had a real interesting Sunday school Sunday and B. Y. P. U. Sunday night. We had four new members.

Don't forget Sunday is our regular preaching day. I am sure Bro. Webb will be there with a wonderful message.

I guess we will entertain the zone meeting Sunday afternoon, as there was no zone meeting last month. They may not hear much of a program but come and get the banner, if you can.

CHALLIS CHATS

We are certainly enjoying this fine weather. Hope it continues for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Tongate visited with their daughter, Mrs. Earl Walters and family of Gaines county Sunday.

Mrs. Money Price had as her guest Sunday, her mother, Mrs. Burson, of Brownfield, and her brother, Mr. Glenn Burson and wife of Lubbock.

Mr. Quillard Hall left Monday for Abilene, Texas.

Mrs. Jimmie Langford is in on the sick list again with the flu.

Mr. Tobe Howze and his mother, went to Lubbock Sunday to meet Miss Hallie Howze who has been visiting her brother and family of Amarillo for some time.

Quite a number from here attended the negro minstrel show, at Pleasant Valley school house last Friday night.

Mrs. Moore of Levelland visited her sister, Mrs. Richard Castleberry las Monday.

Mrs. Etta Yeiser and her mother, Mrs. M. E. Kinnard, were the guest of Mrs. Bryant, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George had as their guest Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ott Winfrey of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Legg and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Money Price entertained quite a number of children Friday night with a Hallowe'en party.

WELLMAN NEWS

The Wellman Parent Teacher Association met for a regular meeting last Friday, October 14th. The house was called to order by the president, Mrs. S. Z. Paul. A call for new members was made. A very interesting program in observance of Fire Prevention week was given by pupils in the grammar grades.

Several ladies met at the home of Mrs. W. M. Schroeder, Saturday afternoon and gave Mrs. Prince a miscellaneous shower. Refreshments of hot chocolate and cake were served. Everyone had a very enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. Prince left Sunday for Wienert, Texas, where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Schroeder and children visited in Lubbock Sunday.

Mrs. Wilhite's sister from Lubbock visited her Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Woodard left Sunday morning for a visit at Troy, Gatesville and San Angelo, Texas. They were accompanied as far as Abilene by Miss Almeba Grigg.

On account of cotton opening so slow, school did not close last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop entertained with a fruit supper Saturday night and everyone report an enjoyable time.

The honor roll of the grammar school for the first month failed to be sent in last week.

Primary Class: Evelyn Baker, Jennie Bow Trigg, Sue Dell Smith, Billie Jo Pace, Ole C. Woodard, Walter Greer Hudson, Howard Wilkins.

ost Yoakum county ranch. Brownfield Mercantile were filling their new furniture dept. G. E. Lockhart was over from Gomez preparing for district court next week. J. R. Chambers and W. E. Henderson of Tahoka, were visitors. No bills of indictment or criminal cases on docket in Yoakum county. Minor has disabilities removed. The T4 outfit were preparing to drive 1100 steers to Bovina. They were classed as prime and were sold to Will Harrell of Amarillo. Ed Neill and wife of Yoakum, were visiting his brother, Judge George and family. Capt. Jack Frost of Lamesa was a visitor here. J. L. Chapman, banker of Farmersville, was here prospecting. The Brownfield Land Company had been organized with J. R. Hill as president, and J. F. Winston, late of Rosenberg, secretary.

Mrs. W. R. Spencer was visiting her mother in Brownwood. A. L. Hill had brought in a wagon load of the first baled millet ever produced in Terry county. J. G. Mallard and family were leaving for the New Mexico mountains to hunt and trap during the winter. We predicted that it would require more than a week to dispose of all District Court cases. Luther French and ye editor had visited in south Terry the Sunday before in his two cylinder Maxwell. Com. S. B. Johnson had just returned from a visit to his boyhood home in Coryell county. Rev. P. E. Riley was to preach his farewell sermon here the following Sunday before leaving for conference.

On the back page, nothing of interest except a little of Bill White's philosophy taken from the Emporia Kansas Gazette. He has since become famous as a writer and is now known as William Allen White. It is strange how fame will stretch a man's name. Cottonseed was bringing $30 per ton in Waxahachie. All for this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs.

In talking with Mr. Cave, manager of the local Ben Franklin Store the other day, we were surprised to learn that there are Ben Franklin stores in every state in the Union, in Hawaii, in the Catalina Islands, and Newfoundland. We were doubly surprised to know that each of these is independently owned and yet enjoy all the advantages of the largest chain store organized. Mr. Cave explained this by saying that through a central organization, all of these 2,000 merchants are kept advised constantly, weekly, and even daily, as to merchandise trends, new styles, new items, new shades, etc. They are also provided with operating equipment and managerial suggestions, thus eliminating unnecessary overhead and waste, all of which expresses itself in bigger values to the consumer.

The bank statements in this issue of the Herald are published for the benefit of the customers of the three Terry county banks. So read them carefully. We believe that you'll agree with us that our banks are in fine shape. Comparatively little money borrowed and the loans held to the minimum. While the deposits are not high, the crop movement has not started. The next statement, along about the first of the new year will tell a different story on deposits.

Eli Perkins and family went to Amherst Saturday for a week-end visit with relatives. Mrs. Perkins and little daughter remained for the week to do their fall sewing.

RED GOOSE The Ojibwa

Red Goose, son of Red Eagle, Chief of the good Ojibwa Indians, started on his first ride with his brave father for Fort Ridgley, a stronghold in Minnesota. On his way, they met several women whose husbands had been killed and whose homes had been burned to the ground by the bad Sioux. Together, they started for Fort Ridgley.

"Sergeant Henry Was Polishing His Gun"

Sergeant Henry, Tom Boling, and a brave youngster named Bear Cat were the only men left at Fort Ridgley. The others had gone down the river for supplies, and since the Sioux had ceased their hostilities for some time, there was little thought of danger.

Sergeant Henry was sitting down just inside the gate, polishing his gun, when he heard someone knocking for admittance.

"Who's there?" he growled, jumping up quickly, with his gun cocked for action.

"Red Eagle—good Indian—his son, Red Goose and plenty white squaw," grunted the good Indian Chief.

"Come in, Red Eagle," answered the Sergeant, opening the gate with a broad smile of welcome. "Red Eagle is a good friend of the Pale Face and we are always glad to see him."

As soon as the women were made comfortable, Red Eagle took the men aside and told them of the danger they were in.

"Sioux Indians kill many Pale Face on river above here," he said, "some run fast and escaped. Me bring Pale Face squaw here. Now Sioux come. Kongra Tonga lead Red Men."

"Who is Kongra Tonga?" asked Bear Cat.

"Kongra Tonga is Indian for Big Crow," answered the Sergeant.

"He's a rascal and as mean an Indian as ever beat on a tom-tom."

"Someone will have to ride for help," said the Sergeant. "There are only three of us here and if the Sioux are on the warpath again, we are going to need reinforcement in a hurry."

Then, seeing the young Indian boy for the first time, he asked, "Who is that you have with you, Chief?"

"Him Red Goose—my son. Him strong young blade. Red Goose, this is white man Chief."

"How!" said Red Goose.

"Listen!" interrupted Bear Cat. "Did you hear that?"

"Hear what?" asked Tom.

"The tom-toms of the Sioux! They will be here by dark! We must think fast. What is your plan?"

"When you deal with Indians, let them start the shooting," drawled the Sergeant. "Then shoot straighter than they do."

Miss Jones turned in the kale this week to keep the Herald headed toward the local Southwestern Associated telephone exchange. Asked if he had any complaints with the service, we registered only one. Sometimes when we want a number, Mr. Line Busy or some of his family are using it. If we could just get rid of that man and his family, we would have an almost perfect phone system.

Paul McDermott has purchased the cafe and hot puppy stand on the north side of the square, and will serve most anything you want in short orders. He has a mighty nice place.

The Club Cafe will have not only special lunches that one likes so well in cool months, but are prepared to serve short orders in the very latest styles. Open day and night.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Graves carried Mrs. Tobe Rentfro and children to Plainview Sunday where they met Tobe, who carried them on to their ranch near Amarillo.

Sphinx Club

The Sphinx club met at their regular time last Tuesday morning, October 11, 1932.

The program that was enjoyed by all was as follows:

Settlement of Brownfield—Truett Flacher; Biography of M. B. Sawyer—Queenelle Sawyer; The County Seat Moved from Gomez to Brownfield—Bill Jo Savage; Our Old Home Town—Kathleen Hardin.

This poem was written by Mrs. Hardin for the Chamber of Commerce Convention which was held last year.

Rockefeller Center—Mr. Penn. This article was given on the town that Rockefeller is building in New York. The highest store is seventy-two stores high. It covers three city blocks, cost $250,000,000 and it will take five years to complete it.

There have been two collections turned in for our museum by Geneva Perry and Jo Mae Jones. They were a piece of coal and a blue back speller, which was used by Mrs. Jones in 1882.

The Zellica Club

The President had a very interesting program planned for October 11. "Being Well Dressed," the subject of discussion "Care of Winter Clothing"—Juanita Smith; New Fabrics that are being worn—Vera Jackson; Winter Styles—Margurite Burnett;

Care of Winter Shoes and the kind being worn—Jewel Jones.

The club was then called to order for a brief discussion of a weinie. It was planned for October 14, but when we sent our three day permit to the office, our superintendent, Mr. Sanders, advised us to put it off on account of the football game that afternoon. He also said that a social given at someone's home would be more appropriate.

Dramatic Club

The Dramatic club met October 11. After roll call and the report of the program committee the rest of the time was used in trying out for parts in the play that is to be given soon for the benefit of the library.

Venus Cason and Juanita Smith were walking along the beach. After watching the water roll awhile, Juanita remarked, "I suppose it's the fishes that makes it wabble."

Bill: Does a bee sting with his tail.
Mr. Sanders: No, it stings with it's stinger.

Woodrow: "I hear Pete was kicked off the squad."
O. D.: "How's that?"

Woodrow: "He was told to tackle the dummy and he tackled the coach."

Ruth Adams: "So you've seen daddy darling?" Did he behave like a lamb?"

Wilton Lambert: "Absolutely! Every time I spoke he said 'Bah!'"

O. D. Thomas—(in his speech on football)—What's the big idea of interrupting me in the midst of my speech?

Wayne Lipton—I hate to see you exhaust yourself.

Mr. Penn: (in Spanish class)—What barks and has feathers.
Class: Deep silence.

Mr. Penn: Why, a dog, of course.
Eunice: Aw! A dog don't have feathers.

Mr. Penn: I know it, I just said that to make it hard.

Annie Letha had been watching the fashionable wedding of Miss Taylor from outside the church. Returning home she reported.

Well, I can't make out who she married. She went in with quite an old man and when she came out she was with a different one altogether."

Marion: "You will soon forget her and be happy again."
Woodrow: "Oh, no, I shan't, I've bought too much for her on the installment system."

Seven Steps and a Thousand Miles

It's a long trip from the cream can on the farm to the butter on the consumer's table.

Always it's seven steps. Often it's more than a thousand miles. Seldom can long distances be avoided between the producer and the consumer.

These are the steps:

- 1. Financing—Producers are paid cash; company funds must be tied up until the butter is sold and collections made.
- 2. Assembly and Grading—This is done in about 100 Swift & Company plants.
- 3. Manufacture—There must be complete sanitation, manufacturing skill, modern machinery and efficient methods.
- 4. Transportation—A hundred miles or a thousand, the finished product rides the rails to good demand. The freight must be paid by Swift.
- 5. Refrigerating—Perishable foodstuffs, like butter and dressed poultry and eggs, must be kept constantly under refrigeration.
- 6. Assumption of Risk—Swift & Company does not know what it will receive next week for butter made today; that butter must be sold while still fresh at a price consumers—through their retailers—can and will pay.
- 7. Selling—Swift & Company salesmen, selling meats and produce at the same time, cut the costs of selling both.

Most of the Swift produce plants handle poultry and eggs as well as butterfat. With poultry all seven steps must be taken too. Only six are needed with eggs; the hens do all the manufacturing.

The Swift & Company national market was made by digging up demand wherever it exists in the United States, by advertising brands of high quality, Swift's Meats, Swift's Premium Milk Fed Chicken, Golden West Fowl, Swift's Brookfield Butter, Eggs, Cheese and many other products.

To operate a national market means much more than mere buying today and selling tomorrow. It means performance of intricate services in the most economical way. Swift & Company in the past year has cut every expense over which it had control. Its service charges are low and profits are small—over a period of years they have averaged less than half a cent a pound of all products sold.

SOME REAL COUNTY NEWSPAPERS, IF YOU HAPPEN TO ASK US

There are some mighty good country newspapers published in West Texas. Among them we might mention the Haskell Free Press, The Times, published at Snyder, The Herald, published at Brownfield, The Journal, published at Muleshoe, and the News-Times from Odessa. We read them every week. They are strong editorially and otherwise. We always look first to the editorial section of a county paper. If we find this important part of the paper neglected or omitted, we soon forget to look that particular publication over. The advertisements catch our eye next, for the reason that we judge the towns by the amount of advertising the merchants carry in their home town paper. We can spot a live town this way quicker than a hawk can spot a fat chicken. These old county papers tell us lots of things and therefore they are a continued source of interest to us.—Jayton Chronicle.

"Rebecca" Here Soon With Marian Nixon

Young Star Plays Opposite Ralph Bellamy In Classic Story

Marian Nixon will be seen in the title role, paired with Ralph Bellamy as the kindly, sympathetic Dr. Ladd in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," Fox picturization of the famous classic from the pens of Kate Douglas Wiggin and Charlotte Thompson opening Sunday at the Rialto Theatre.

Alfred Santell, who brought "Daddy Long Legs" so successfully to the talking screen, directed the picture which was adapted in continuity and dialogue by S. N. Behrman and Sonya Levien. The long list of important supporting players includes Mae Marsh, Louise Closser Hale, Sarah Padden, Alan Hale, Ronald Harris and many others.

Uncertainty is almost as disturbing as bad news.

WELLMAN BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. W. Loveless, Pastor
 The Wellman Baptist church met Sunday morning with an attendance of 54. The lesson taught was "Home Ideals for Today and Tomorrow." A program was presented in general assembly by the various Sunday school departments. Psalms 150 was read by Theldra Ruth Williams. Through the Window, read by Margaret Schroeder. Verse from the Bible, read by Ione Bishop and Rose Schroeder; Miss Willie Mae Smith read "Childrens Hour" by Longfellow; Mrs. Wilhite read "Home" by Edgar A. Guest, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Duckett. This program was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

Following the program Rev. Claude Little, visiting pastor from Tokio, brought a stirring message, using Matt. 16:26 for a text.

Y. W. A. has been organized since our last report. Miss Gracie Moon is leader. The girls are doing splendid work and we insist that every young lady of the community attend these meeting every Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5 o'clock.

MUSIC CLUB ORGANIZED

Miss Rasco met with her pupils Saturday, October 9th, to organize a music club. We chose "The Presto Dunning Club" for the name and "practice makes perfect" for our motto. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Faye Martin; Vice-President, Queenelle Sawyer; Secretary, Larue Barrier; and Reporter, Elray Lewis. We decided to meet once a month at an appointed time. Thirty-five pupils were present. We all enjoyed a program and some very interesting musical games. Dixie cups were served to all.
