NUMBER 17

ANNOUNCEMENTS

TO THE VOTERS OF CITY OF BROWNFIELD

Having been solicited by a number of my friends and acquaintances to make the race for Mayor of your city I desire to take this means of announcing my candidacy.

Believing that my experience as councilman since Brownfield was incorporated, and my knowledge of the city's affairs, will greatly assist me in serving you in this capacity. I feel that I am qualified to render you good work.

I will greatly appreciate your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

TOM MAY.

MARION CRAIG ASKS FOR OFFICE OF MAYOR

Marion Craig was in the Herald office Tuesday and asked that we announce him as a candidate for the office of Mayor of the city of Brownfield subject to the special election for that purpose to be held Friday, December 23rd.

We wish to state that Marion needs no introduction to most of the voters here, as he has been a citizen of the town for a number of years, and during that time has made many close friends. As to his business ability, that speaks for itself, as he came here as an employe and has established a good business of his own with his partner, Mr. Lloyd McClish.

Mr. Craig has been a member of the city council for the past four years, and believes that he is in every way qualified to fill the office. He has never before asked for any office.

W. A. BELL ASKS VOTERS FOR MAYOR OFFICE

W. A. Bell, one of the old timers of this city, is asking the voters of Brownfield for the office of Mayor, subject to the special election Friday, December 23, 1932. Mr. Bell states that he will not promise to make no mistakes, but that he will do the very best that he knows how to manage the affairs of the city as he would his own, that his administration might stand with credit both to the city and himself.

Mr. Bell has been cashier of both banks in this city since he came here, as well as some experience as manager of mercantile establishments and gins, and we believe that he is in every way qualified to fill the office of mayor of our city. While he states that he needs the small compensation the office pays, he considers more the honor of the office if elected.

Upon this statement, he asks the consideration of the voters of Brownfield.

AMERICAN WOMEN DRINK TEN TIMES AS MUCH AS EUROPEANS

Kansas City, Mo. Nov.—American women drink ten times as much as European women, said Vicki Baum, famous author, here Tuesday on a lecture tour.

"They seem to do it here just for the sake of fashion," observed the author of "Grand Hotel."

"They drink just as they would wear green velvet bows on their shoulders—because it is the style."

"Now, I'm no prude, but I do not think that young girls and older women in the United States realize how unbecomingly they become when they have had too much to drink."

B. B. Brown called recently to renew for his Herald and the Dallas Farm News, and also had the paper sent to his half brother, E. V. Bigham, who lives at Winkler, Texas.

"Hat Check Girl" To Open Here Soon

The night life of Broadway, the loves and sorrows of the girls who work on the Great White Way, the glitter and noise of the smart night clubs and the dreary emptiness of Times Square at dawn, give form to the colorful background of "Hat Check Girl," Sally Eilers' newest Fox Films vehicle, which opens next Sunday on the screen of the Rialto Theatre.

With Ben Lyon in the masculine lead as a Park Avenue playboy and an exceptional supporting cast headed by Ginger Rogers, Monroe Owsley, and Arthur Pierson, the production is rated as one of the most entertaining pictures of the season and is expected to attract much attention at its showing here.

Sally Eilers and Ben Lyon, represent two different strata of society in the new Fox production, "Hat Check Girl," until a tragedy brings them together.

Sidney Lanfield, who made Miss Eilers' recent "Dance Team," directed the new offering, an adaptation of Rian James' novel of the same name. Noel Madison, Purnell Pratt, Dewey Robinson and Harold Goodwin are also in the cast.

W. J. Sullivan was in this week and traded us two gallons of syrup on subscription.

Another Train Of Hearst Cattle Arrived Sunday

Another trainload of cattle from the William R. Hearst ranch in Old Mexico, arrived early Sunday morning. In fact, they had unloaded the train and the young steers were eating long before many of us were up. This makes the second consignment and the total now on feed here is around 2900 head. Others will be brought in as fast as those on feed now becomes gentled and used to their surroundings. Little trouble has been had with those received. In a few hours after they arrive, feeders with their wagons, on horse back or in wagons move among them like they were milk pen calves.

Indeed, they are a very high grade bunch of steers of the Hereford breed, and have no doubt been well handled by experienced men on the ranch. In just a few hours after being received, they are consuming rations like veteran feeders. They are mostly fed roughness on the start. Geo. Small, a veteran cattleman of this section, was over from Tahoka this week, and said that he was agreeably surprised at the high grade of cattle they are. He said that he really expected a badly mixed bunch of cattle, coming as they do from Old Mexico.

The big hammer mill is now in operation, and is sure turning out feed in a hurry for those hungry steers. K. W. Howell is acting as buyer for Mr. Goodman, and for the time being at least, Chris Quante, local public weigher is weighing the feed for them. However, a pair of scales is being erected in the pens, but they may be for the purpose of weighing the steers to watch their gains.

In conversation this week with Mr. Quante, he informed us that he was weighing around 100 loads of feed per day, not all of which was for the Hearst-Goodman interests, however. But they are sure getting a pile of feed over there; acres and acres of stacks, besides headed feed and corn. We understand that one farmer will deliver more than 100 tons of feed to them.

And yet, one can drive out over the country and not miss the feed that has been taken off the farms. There is thousands of tons of feed on Terry county farms two and three years old that is still good, and while the last year's shucks on the corn has turned black, it is said the corn is still sound. Very little of this year's corn has been harvested.

Mrs. Sam B. Johnson called this week to renew. She never lets her paper get behind, and her label will now read 12March1934. Thanks.

Dick Brownfield Wrecks Plane Last Sunday

A. M. Brownfield had the misfortune of wrecking his airplane here last Friday morning, while trying to make a takeoff on his way to Olney to see the football game between Brownfield and that city. He was to have been accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Roy Wingerd. Dick was slightly bruised about the body and had his lip cut some, in the fall, while Mrs. Wingerd luckily escaped unhurt. The plane was a total loss.

Last Friday morning was mighty damp, and Dick says the air was as heavy as he ever saw it in this country. The plane was hard to warm up but he thought he had it sufficiently warmed up for the takeoff, but with a heavy air and around 300 pounds of weight, it was too much for the small plane.

He had reached an altitude of perhaps 40 feet when he saw that he could not get enough pep in it to get over some phone wires, when it was brought to the ground as easily as possible, with the above results. We have not learned whether or not Dick will buy another plane or not.

New Y. Times Ask For Feeding Information

Brownfield and Terry county seemed to be in the limelight to a right smart degree Wednesday, and the Herald to some lesser degree when two telegrams were received at the same time from daily papers, one a metropolitan journal. The Wichita Falls Record wanted a report on the Fighting Cubs, which was addressed to the Sport Editor. It was answered by some of the school faculty in a 250 word message.

The one from the New York Times wanted a 300 word telegram reporting on the feeding operations here, by the Hearst interests, what markets it would effect, and what was expected of the cattle after being fed. This was turned over to our good friend, Ed Shelton, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, who got a very good story, written into three hundred words and was sent to them Thursday morning, as our Western Union closed before an answer could be made Wednesday afternoon.

We presume this message was used by that great journal in their Friday issue, and we hope to get a marked copy in a few days from our good friend, Wilbur F. Fauley, who is one of the editors, and who owns a fine section of land in north Terry county.

Cubs Take Their First Threshing This Year

The play by play game between the Brownfield Cubs and the Olney Cubs is given this week in the Cub Reporter, so we will not touch on that part of the game. But in an interview with Coach Hayhurst of the local team upon his return Saturday, not an alibi did he offer. He is too much of a sportsman for that. He says that they just had a better team than we, larger and more experienced and more of them, as they have a much larger school than we. Indeed, they do not lack so much having as many in high school as we have altogether.

Of course we went down with a badly crippled team, and two of the main first line men layed up with sickness, but the Cubs give them all they had, but lost. But they have won much glory for themselves in winning the district championship without the loss of a game or of a tie game, and they have not only the school, but the citizenship behind them. The 1932 Cubs will go down in history as the best the town has so far presented.

The Fighting Cubs has made the old town football conscious, and there is some talk of lighting the grounds by next fall so that a great many teams can be brought here in contests before the conference games starts. While the object of it is not a commercial one, in a way, that must be considered, as it would bring many dollars to our town, not to say anything about a sport center reputation for this section.

Of course it would take money to properly light the grounds, alright, but it takes money to do most anything, but some believe that the games would take care of the expense and more. It will take at least eight poles sixty feet in the air, but Mr. Hayhurst tells us that his father owns a pine forest in eastern Oklahoma, and he believes that he could mooch his dad out of that many, and all they would cost would be transportation.

This is something to be considered anyway. Of course the grounds do not belong to the school, but they could possibly be leased for a number of years or until times are better when they could be purchased outright.

Cunningham Says The Farmer Won 50 Cents

Will Cunningham of the Lou community dropped in Saturday to get his Herald up in advance before we cut him off right behind the ears, and of course was ready for a short conversation. Somehow or other, the talk drifted off into that popular line, "the depression." We don't know why this is such a popular subject, as that is about all we have heard for the past several years. Election come and go. Murders are almost forgotten in a few months. A man can steal another man's wife and the gossip is over before the honeymoon—but the depression talk seems to go on forever.

But, Will and the writer were not talking the depression in the usual doleful way. In fact we were telling yarns that we had heard about the depression, which reminded Will of one that was gotten off on a medicine man who was barking his wares on our streets on Saturday not so long ago. Finally, this man of herbs, generally the most optimistic of the race, offered a bright silver half dollar to the man who could tell one good thing that Herbert Hoover had done for the common people. "This offer came after a spell about the bad of the Republican misadministration. The Barker held the shining coin poised between the thumb and forefinger; his eyes surveyed the crowd. Would there be a taker? He was about to deposit it safely in his jeans.

But, a farmer way over in the crowd needed that coin. Say, Mister? I think I can win that coin. Let's have it, said the salve man. What did Hoover do for the common herd? Well, said the farmer, "one good thing Hoover did was to make jack rabbits taste good in the summer." He got the half dollar without further quibble.

Biggest Tradesday Crowd Here Monday

The biggest crowd ever seen here since the Tradesday started several months ago was here Monday and it was really a tradesday crowd—lots of men and few women. The merchants did a thriving business all day and far into the night but the main crowd did not remain as long at night as Saturday crowds usually do. Six people went away especially satisfied especially the one who was given the $20 bill and the others in a lesser way with the ten spot and the four fives.

From what we could understand, there was also some trading of mules and horses among farmers, more than for many years. Some were trading mules for horses and mares, others were trying to get matched teams. Indeed as many people as come to town these days with wagons instead of trucks or cars, and the fact that others are quitting tractor farming in favor of horses and cheap feed, old dobbin and old becke are once again coming into their own.

There will at least be another first Monday Tradesday in January under auspices of the Lions Club, we understand, and it will be decided at that time whether Tradesday will be continued or not. As for the Herald, it cannot see how the business men here can afford to let the day be dropped, when it has cost so much to build it up to where it now is, and the further fact that several towns around us have started a similar day. It stands to reason that people who have been coming here for Tradesday will go to those towns.

Yes, we know it costs money, but people won't come to it without some inducements.

Hal McSpadden Badly Hurt In A Wreck

Hal McSpadden, local gin man, was badly hurt last Saturday morning while returning from Lubbock, where he went on business. It seems that he was returning and had reached a point between Lubbock and Wolfarth when he met a cotton truck traveling toward Lubbock. Just about the time Hal got even or nearly so with the truck, a car containing Jeff Beagle and wife, came out from behind the truck, and hit Hal's car turning it over three times. The Beagle's live at Tatum, N. M. and the car we understand was driven by Mrs. Beagle. Both cars seemed to have been badly smashed, and the McSpadden car a wreck.

Hal is now in the Lubbock Sanitarium in plaster cast from his waist to his knees, with his pelvis bone and a hip broken. Mrs. Beagle was also badly hurt and is conscious only at times. She is also in the Lubbock Sanitarium. This is certainly a regrettable affair, and it should be a lesson to all drivers to be sure they have a clear road in ahead of them before trying to pass a wagon or truck when the vision ahead is not clear. It is said that it will be several weeks before Hal will be able to walk and the lady may lose her life yet.

Prominent Land Owner Visits Gaines Co.

T. S. Riley and son, of Wheeler, W. Va., who are among the largest land owners in Gaines County, were visitors here the latter part of this week. Attorney J. M. Cardwell, of Midland, who has charge of the Riley interests in this section was with these gentlemen. They were looking over their land holdings.—Seminole Sentinel.

Mr. W. E. Pitman, agent for the Boles Orphan Home near Greenville, is here this week trying to get a car of corn which will be used in fattening the orphanage herd of hogs. If interested, see Mr. Pitman and tell him how much corn you will give. Rail transportation will be free.

Roy Ragsdill from the Forrester community, handed in their renewal last week.

The meeting was closed with a prayer by Mr. Thomason.

Mr. C. W. May from the Wilson section, was over this week looking after his fine farms on the old Windham ranch.

Noted Musicians who were heard were: Mr. Van Katwyk, pianist of S. M. U. Dallas.

Mr. Hopkins, barytone, Baylor U., Waco.

The sprays were allowed to run early Wednesday morning on the courthouse park, and the cedars and other evergreens looked very pretty with their coats of shimmering ice, in the sunlight.

Mrs. J. H. Webber of the Lahey community, handed in another 50c on their paper Saturday. That's fine. If you can't spare the dollar, we'll be glad to take lesser amounts on your Herald.

Do We Owe Our Children An Education? General School Exhibit Thursday, Dec. 15th

Can a student sue his father for an education? An interesting case was recently brought into the courts in Boulder, Colorado, when William Volkmar Scharr Smith brought suit against his lawyer father for $1,900 to pay his college expenses. He said that his father owed him this in exchange for "love, affection, and other valuable considerations."

This brings before us the question of what our children have a right to expect of us in the way of an education. They may never go to court and sue us for the cost of an education, but if they grow up and are handicapped and hindered in the business and social world because of lack of education they may have a feeling of resentment against us for not giving them, better opportunities, even though they do not go to court against us.

We can put off many things without serious injury to ourselves or anyone else, but the matter of educating our children is something that we cannot postpone successfully. Because our children pass this way but once we cannot declare a moratorium upon the debt of child education without harmful results to our nation.

It has ever been the ambition of worthy parents to give their children the best training available to better fit them to cope with their fellowmen in the struggle for a living. When the pioneers of Texas declared their independence from Mexico one of the main grievances was that Mexico did not provide public schools for the education of their children. When they had won their freedom, one of their first laws made provision for free school education for the children of the republic. Our forefathers did not brave hardships and dangers for their own selfish pleasure and glory, but for the future welfare of their children. All through history men have sacrificed and fought to protect their women and children.

And why should our children not be placed first and kept first when they are our most priceless heritage. They are the future torch bearers of the nation? It is they who will shoulder the responsibilities of the nation in a few years. Then it behooves us as loyal American citizens to recognize the rights of the child and to rally to the support and defense of the schools and keep them at their best for the good of present and future generations.—Contributed.

TOKIO

A community box supper is to be given in the community hall next Friday, that is tonight, December 9, for the purpose of obtaining funds for the school athletic fund. Special free entertainment will be provided and every one is invited to attend.

It is estimated that between sixteen hundred and seventeen hundred bales of cotton have been harvested in this particular section for the present season. This estimate takes into account cotton turned out by the local gin and that which is estimated has been taken to the Cooperative Society Gin and others in Brownfield.

Word comes to us of the marriage of Misses Hattie B. and Lizzie D. Elmore Saturday, December 3rd to young men whose names at the time of this writing we were unable to get. We understand that the double ceremony took place at Lovington, N. M., and that the young people were accompanied by the parents of the young ladies, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Elmore. The writer extends congratulations through this medium. Postscript: We hope this marriage of Tokio school students will not be contagious as we are desirous of holding our teaching position.

The Sunday school of the local Baptist church was well attended Sunday, December 4th. We understand that Mr. Kemp who has been superintendent of the school for some time turned in his resignation, and Mr. Luther Hobbs was selected in his place. After the Sunday school, the pastor, Mr. Claude Little delivered his sermon.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Greer have returned from an extended visit with relatives in Meadow and Stephenville.

The Sunday school of the Nazarine church was well attended Sunday afternoon. A feature of this Sunday school is the adult Bible class presided over by the pastor, Mrs. B. M. Wade. This class has a large membership and one who attends this class will find it instructive, uplifting, and inspirational.

Mr. J. T. Auburg of Brownfield

The teachers and pupils of the Brownfield schools believe the patrons and tax payers of the District are entitled to see what is going on in the schools and are preparing to have a general school exhibit for the public Thursday afternoon and night, December 15th in the High School Buildings.

The home economics rooms and the science rooms will house the entire exhibit. The elementary schools will have their exhibit in the Home economics rooms and the high school exhibits will be placed in the science room. The exhibit will be ready by noon Thursday and the folks are invited to come and go through at that time. There will be a student to show you through any time during the afternoon.

At seven thirty there will be a program put on by the three schools. The general public is invited to listen to the program and then view the work of the schools. Some work of every student will be shown. The program at the above mentioned time will be arranged by Mrs. Dennis and Mrs. Rentfro of the Junior High School, Mrs. Savage and Mrs. Tankersely of the Grammar School and Mr. Penn and Miss Perkins of the High School. This promises to be a very good program.

Encourage your child by coming out to see what he has been doing in school this year. This show is to give the parents a better idea of what the pupils are doing. It will also give the parent a comparative basis on which to judge the work of his child. Be there and help the child and the school.

IN MEMORY OF OUR DEPARTED LOVED ONE LAWRENCE LEE

A precious one from us have gone, a voice we loved is still, a place is vacant in our home, that never can be filled. In our dark sad hours it is hard to understand why we had to give him up, when he was so young and life so dear and sweet to him. Only He who knows and doeth all things well can understand.

How lonely here without him, but we have that sweet assurance that beyond the grave our loved one wait to welcome us to our eternal home.

A very interesting program was staged by the Nazarine Young People's Union Sunday evening. Talks were made on favorite Bible characters. The program was under the very capable leadership of Mrs. Boucher. The program was followed by a sermon by Rev. Arthur Scudday.

Stamped Scrip Would Help Beat Depression

Irving Fisher, professor of economics at Yale University advocates the issuance of stamped scrip as the surest and quickest method practical to help us defeat the depression. The measure already adopted by the President, Congress and the Federal Reserve System are excellent as far as they go, but unfortunately, they have to start at the producer end of the long chain between producer and consumer.

The stamped scrip plan would start at the other, or consumer end. When the Federal Reserve System pumps credit into the banks it mostly stops there and is not passed on to the ultimate consumer. Stamped scrip will give the consumer the buying power needed to start up operations from the consumer end.

If the United States Government should adopt the plan, it would print say, $1 bills on each of which would be (say 52 spaces dated for each successive Wednesday for a year. A postage stamp of, say 2c, must be pasted in each space on or before the Wednesday the date of which is printed in that space. Without being stamped up-today, the $1 bill it not to be accepted at par value but only with deduction of whatever amount of stamps is missing. With the required stamps attached, it is to be accepted at par value.

This stamp operates as a stamp tax on hoarding and it stimulates trade.

The Herald cook is certainly a good hustler and seems to know just when to visit. She called at the Ed Thompson farm last week and got there just as they got through killing a beef. We were well supplied with fresh beef. Thanks to this good family.

W. J. Baldwin of the Forrester community, was in for Tradesday and brought in some very fine kershaws and winter squash for the Herald. He says that he keeps these often until April in his cellar, before they begin to decay.

Com. L. L. Brock was in recently to put his Herald on the right side of the ledger.

May Operate Bus Though Seagraves

R. W. Griffith of Brownfield hopes to start the operation of a motor bus line between Brownfield and Hobbs, via Seagraves and Seminole soon. He, along with J. E. Shelton, secretary of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, was here Tuesday getting signatures to a petition to present to the State Railway Commission asking for the certificate of convenience and necessity authorizing the line. Practically everybody here and at Seminole had signed the petition, along with many at Brownfield and Hobbs.

The hearing will be held at Austin December 8, and if granted, Mr. Griffith will make his first trip Dec. 10, he said.

The new line will fill a long-felt need on this route, as there has been no such service in over a year. The bus would make the run daily including Sundays and would probably bring Sunday newspapers through here. At present local people get Sunday's papers on Monday. It would also provide transportation for passengers both ways seven days of each week.—Seagraves News.

Our Sheriff elect, Jess Smith called this week to renew for his Herald, and informed us that he had out 19 bales of cotton, and was practically through. At one time it looked like he would make a bale to the acre on his fine farm four miles northeast of the city.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The gentlemen below are candidates for the office of mayor of the city of Brownfield, subject to the election December 23, 1932.

For Mayor:
MARION CRAIG
TOM MAY
W. A. BELL

Well, Mr. and Mrs. Voters, you have some mighty good men to select your next mayor from. Make your own choice, but vote. Don't be a piker even at this city election.

Mrs. Pauline Campbell of O'Donnell has taken over the editorial desk of the O'Donnell Index, and starts out by producing a very creditable little journal, although this is her first experience. Our understanding is that the printing plant is still located in Lamesa, and that Joe Alexander is the publisher, only the editorial offices being located in O'Donnell. The Herald welcomes Mrs. Campbell to the editorial fraternity of the South Plains.

Before the election most everyone accused Mr. Hoover of being responsible for the depression. Now the ideas are scattering to various things, and some writers even laying it on the people themselves. Really it was the people with their fright and hording that made the depression, but it sure was used as a political bludgeon to a fare-you-well. It not only lost Hoover his office, but governors of states and other officials from school trustees up.

When one firm in a town starts out to ruin all their competitors as well as other business interests of the town, they have a huge task before them, no matter how much money or friends they have. While they may hurt these firms and cause them to lose money, they are also bound to lose something themselves in trying to ruin their competitors. This is still a big old world and people are still tolerably free from being ruined by freaks of people who get mad at them.

Editor J. C. Estlack of the Clarendon Leader is a close reader and observer. Somehow he found out that the city dads of the city of Snyder were kinder "scabbing" on the utility folks during moonshine nights, letting the lunar system do their lighting free of bills on the first of the month, using man made light only of dark nights. The Herald had missed this piece of economy on the part of Snyder officials entirely, and was glad to get it and pass it along to others. But we are sure this will not be heeded in Brownfield as our city owns its own lighting plant and it has to run all night anyway. But cities that do not have its own lighting plant are welcome to this tip.

Brownfield and vicinity seems to have a real epidemic of flu of a mild nature, but it is easily complicated with other diseases that are more severe. Therefore, it would be the better policy not to contract the disease if possible. Physicians recommend that one stay out of crowded hot rooms as much as possible, get lots of sleep in well ventilated rooms. If a fire has been in the room during the day, it is better to turn out the fire and raise the windows before retiring in order to cool down and air out the room.

Well sir, this is a strange old world, and all of us are prone to think the other fellow is getting rich while we are gradually starving to death. This week we read an article in a state paper that was written by a Terry county farmer, who told the truth about the short crop and low prices and conditions here in general. But the writer intimated that merchants here were getting rich. This is far from right. We believe we would be safe in saying that most of the grocery stores have lost money; anywhere from one to three thousand dollars this year.

Terry county commissioners published the treasurer's quarterly report, as the law directs, last week. More tax-spending boards are coming to observe the law as the taxpayers demand economy in government. The old stall of costing too much money to obey the law requiring publication does not go any more, when it is known that publishing causes carefulness in all expenditures.—McLean News.

The newspaper that would serve best, must first of all, publish the news truthfully, interestingly, and fairly, with neither fear nor favor, that the people might know and judge. To the best of its ability it must lead and inspire leadership toward improvement and progress. If this means battle it must ever be ready to do battle. But it must fight fairly, always with a willingness to act as a forum open to all opinion. As it goes into the home, it must enter as a gentleman that it might deserve the respect and confidence of all its readers. As a guest bringing interesting information and valued guidance, it should also brighten its visit by furnishing cheer and entertainment. As it seeks influence, it must also accept responsibility. It must be a newspaper for today, published with a constant thought for tomorrow. — Hay Springs (Neb.) News.

When James E. Ferguson filed suit against the Highway Commission, last Friday, alleging that the Commission had no authority for using the money now in the State Highway fund and accusing it of assuming liabilities in excess of available funds, he but anticipated the expectations of the people who were prepared for a Ferguson raid on the Highway Department so soon as the new Governor should take office. However, it appears that the Ferguson couldn't wait until they got into office. They saw the Highway department letting more and more contracts for the construction of roads and it looked as though the big plum would be sadly shrunken before the new administration could get its hands on it. A temporary injunction has been granted and the case will be tried Saturday. Attorney General James V. Alired has entered a suit for the dissolution of the injunction in the Court of Civil Appeals. The Highway Commission itself asks that the case be tried on its merits and the members are willing to testify under oath that the allegations of the plaintiff are not true and the records will verify their statements. It was foreseen that the Ferguson would exert every effort to gain control of the Highway Department and that fact was probably one of the incentives for the letting of as many contracts as possible before the first of January. Another reason for hastening construction was the urgent need of the unemployed. This plan was in line with the recommendations of the last Congress which urged the construction of public works and made a specific appropriation for highway building. Texas should have seven million dollars of that money. Matched dollar for dollar by State funds, fourteen million dollar's worth of work could have been furnished the unemployed of Texas. Under the emergency appropriation bill, the work must be completed by midnight of the last day of next June and the delay is likely to be costly. Mr. Ferguson has made it very plain that getting control of the Texas Highway Department is much more important to him than providing food for the unemployed of the State.—Southwest Plainsman.

AGED LADY PASSES

Mrs. Jennie Hulse, aged 76, passed away at the home of her son, Hugh in the Lahey community, early Saturday morning, November 26th. The body was prepared and carried overland to Vinson, Okla., to be laid beside that of her husband who passed away before the Hulse family moved to Terry county several years ago. Mrs. Hulse was a fine, genteel lady, and numbered her friends by her acquaintances, and was a devoted member of the Baptist church.

She leaves two sons and three daughters that the writer happens to know, being Lee and Hugh of the Challis community, Mrs. Newton of the Union community, and Miss Rowena, who is teaching at Skellytown, Texas, this year. Also, formerly Mrs. Lula Smith, who was our county treasurer for two or three terms, and the name of her present husband we cannot recall at this time, but who live in Oklahoma at this time.

J. O. Hobbs was in to see us Saturday and said he would get about four bales of cotton, and that on some real hard land that shed the water good. Wet weather certainly fixed thing in Terry this year. There was too much rain three other years in the 23 we have been here, in 1914; 1920 and 1926.

T. T. Thompson and son, Thomas Jr. were in for Tradesday, and informed us that they had out 23 bales of cotton. Also, they announced that they were batching as Mrs. Thompson and daughter and youngest son had left for Phoenix, Arizona, where they will spend the winter.

BROWNFIELD STATE BANK

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

Taken from the Herald of December 10, 1909.

In our issue of December 11, 1909, the first thing that attracts our eye on the first page was the Meadow items. We find that R. Hamlet, Vincent Lindsey and Claude Peeler made the honor roll, and that Kepy Lindsey, Tark Lindsey and R. Hamlet were the leaders in the order named in the counting contest. Rev. Trammell had preached his first sermon there to a fair sized audience on "Christian Duty." The sum of $27 was collected to purchase a new stove for the church. Miss Geers who had come out to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Peeler, had been offered a position in Denton, and had left for that city.

An interesting item on the front page attracted our attention. It was in the form of a resolution by the directors of the Fat Stock Show, at Fort Worth, or Feeders and Breeders Show as it was called then, to permit no competition from above the quarantine line in Texas, as they were fearful that northern cattlemen would get all prizes. Now days Texas steers take prizes against the competition of the world. A Merkel steer was declared champion at Chicago last week. The Fat Stock show these days don't bar 'em from anywhere. A front page article said that a Presbyterian minister had established the first saving bank in Scotland in 1801. Another was a translation from Tolstoy on the "Re-establishment of Hell." Another article said that there were only 1404 head of pure buffalo then in the United States. Several herds were mentioned, but the Goodnight herd was not among them.

On the editorial page, we mentioned that a lot of people of Terry were putting out fruit and shade trees. There was also a bunch of Santa Claus letters, but they were for the grown young men and women instead of the kids, who seemed to have been crowded out, they included such familiar names to old timers as Percy Spencer, Orel and Mattie Harris, Dock Powell, Pearl Stewart, Will Alf Bell (Sr.), Jess Hamilton, Earl Hill, Lukie French, Mary Rather. Among those listed as guests at the Hill Hotel were W. H. Brokow, Sherman, Texas; Bert Chandler, Amarillo; C. S. Boss, Abilene; C. H. Ball, Amarillo; Ben Gordon, Plainview; Clay Fowler, Cradock; D. P. McDour, Stephenville; J. D. Long, Lubbock, and M. D. Lambert, Chicago, Ill.

Among the locals: J. E. Bryant and son Bill, were in telling how cold it was out there. J. D. Webb, who taught the school here the year before, had bought the Coahoma Enterprise, where he was then teaching. W. E. Robinson of Lubbock was telling our people what nice coffins and caskets he had in stock. The Maids and Matrons and Methodist and Baptist ladies were fixing to put on a Christmas play. A standing order was signed by citizens here to the Wells Fargo Express to deliver any packages to the Brownfield-Lubbock Transfer Co. That meant that there would be no delay in receiving our Christmas packages from Fort Worth and Dallas. Walter and Robert Forrester roped and killed a bob cat on their ranch in west Lynn county. Judge Spencer was off on a trip to Fort Worth. Merlin Adams came up from the ranch after supplies. W. J. A. Parker was suffering from a cold. Redge Burnett shipped out some cattle from Plainview. Dad Ellis came in and took a degree in Odd Fellowship. The cattlemen of Yoakum county reported lobo wolves making raids on their cattle. John Burnett was out on their Yoakum county ranch. W. H. Howard, Meadow's land man, was here. Neill H. Bigger was in from his Yoakum county bonus. Billie Nix was making his home with his sister, Mrs. Myrtle Patton, of Plains. C. E. Sams of Benjamin, was prospecting for a Yoakum county ranch. M. V. Brownfield had killed four 14 months old pigs averaging 425 pounds each. J. R. Hill had received a new register for the hotel. Mrs. Lou Key, of Gomez, was visiting her brother in Eastland county. Dr. J. W. Ellis was representing the Brownfield Masonic lodge at the grand lodge at Waco. The 9th grade boys debated the question, "Should Texas have Compulsory School Law." The affirmative won. Harry Braidfoot was in and reported that he had purchased about 3000 head of sheep. Mr. and Mrs. Simon Holgate of Gomez, were rejoicing over the arrival of a fine girl. A fruit tree man had arrived with a wagon and two trailers of fruit trees. W. A. Pyeatt had moved back to Brownfield from the farm. Ed Neill and new bride were visiting here. A Christmas tree was decided on to be at the Methodist church. Flour was selling at $4.25 per 100 pounds. R. R. Hughes killed a hog that weighed 500 pounds. It was believed by many that the Texas Central railroad would build through the south part of Terry county, as they owned considerable land there. Luther French traded his Maxwell car to J. C. Whisenant for a house and two lots. Sam Funderburk came in to renew and informed us that his wife had just undergone a serious operation. Sheriff and Mrs. Geo. E. Tiernan were rejoicing over the arrival of a bouncing boy. (They named him Pete.) Homer and Andrew Scott had returned from Wichita Falls, where they had been carpentering. Rev. Edgar Owens filled his appointment with the Baptist church. They were to soon build a church of their own. W. D. Winn and S. A. Shepherd had killed hogs, but we couldn't see that it had added much flesh to them. And even in that day, we were asking the people to mail packages early.

We had printed the Treasury Report that issue of A. B. Bynum, County Treasurer. There was $235.35 in the Jury fund; $360.61 in the Road and Bridge fund; $2713.25 in the General fund; $3560.79 in the Available school fund and $568.85 in the special school fund. A pretty good statement for a county of around 1000 people and before tax paying time, don't you think? Five funds were all we had at that time. A total of $7539.35 remained in the hands of the treasurer.

Miss Kathleen Hardin enjoyed an airplane trip to Abilene recently with her uncle A. M. Brownfield, where he visited her sister, Miss Robbie M. who is attending A. C. C.

FIELD MEN GET PREVIEW OF 1933 MODEL CHEVROLET

Milford, Mich., Dec.—Chevrolet dealers from all sections of the country are arriving here daily to get their first glimpse of the new 1933 Chevrolet models in action on the hills and straightaways of the General Motors proving ground.

Decision to multiply the opportunity for Chevrolet men to see the new cars in action was made at the convention of field executives recently concluded at Detroit after an active three-day session.

"Field men in attendance at our convention," said H. J. Klingler, vice-president and general sales manager of Chevrolet, "were so impressed with the performance of the cars at the proving ground that they urged that as many of their dealers as possible be given a chance to see the new line under test, just as the field men had. Accordingly, we are inviting groups of dealers to come to Detroit and Milford to get the thrill of seeing the cars perform and of driving them. By quick organization, we shall be able to extend this opportunity to dealer groups from every part of the country before the cars go on public view in December.

Mrs. Jesse D. Cox called one day last week and subscribed for the Herald.

L. B. Brazelton called this week and put his Herald up in advance.

Chas. Leonard has our thanks for his renewal recently.

The temporary injunction granted James E. Ferguson by a district judge in Austin week before last, has been dissolved by the Court of Civil Appeals at Austin. The object was to halt any further highway contracts until Ma and Pa got in office.

A new bank will soon open at Rochester. These people have been without a bank for some time, and people who have had that experience say that it is sure an uphill trial to do business without the convenience of a bank.

HEALTH IS AT YOUR OPEN WINDOW

Oxygen is necessary to breathing. Oxygen is taken from the air by a gas flame just the same as by any other kind of flame. Fresh air supplies oxygen.

So, for your health's sake, let a little fresh air in.

If you must have a fire to dress by, have it in another room. If you live in a small apartment and sleep in your living room, turn out the fire and raise the windows when you go to bed.

Water Heaters Without Flue Pipes Are A Menace

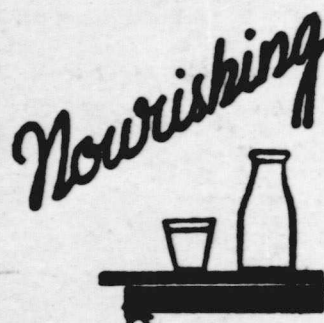

Many gas appliances, including some well-constructed room heaters, are safe to use without flue connection in WELL-VENTILATED rooms. However, it is advisable that all appliances using gas in considerable quantities should be connected with flues, for even the most efficient types may produce poisonous gas when the flame is first lighted.

If your water heater—or any other kind of a heater—is in the bath room, turn it out when you are ready for your bath. It requires approximately 10 cubic feet of air to supply sufficient oxygen to burn one cubic foot of gas—and there usually is little or no fresh air coming into the average bathroom.

Natural gas, when properly used, not only is efficient and economical, but it also is safe.

West Texas Gas Company places a higher value on the health, safety and good will of consumers than upon any revenue it might derive from gas that is not properly used.

W. S. White was down for First Monday and called on the Herald. He, like several of his Meadow neighbors, keep a thoroughbred herd of Jerseys, and says they are doing fine, although cream is not bringing much. However, he says that having all the good milk, cream and butter for every purpose is still worth a lot.

Lost Baby Found

Little 2 year-old Paul Tanner was kidnapped when thieves took his aunt's car from in front of her Dallas home. The baby was asleep on the back seat. While he was gone, his 17 year-old sister Frances, sketched this picture of him to aid detectives in finding him. There was no good picture of the boy. Olney Beats Brownfield

The boys left Thursday for Olney by special bus. They reached Seymour about 4:00 o'clock and had a light workout on the Seymour field. They reached Olney about 10 ate lunch at 11 and played at 2:30. We chose to receive the ball; Olney kicked off and Huckabee received it on our 10 yard line and ran back to about the 30 yard stake. Huck tried a pass to Neill but was slapped down by one of the Olney backs. Neill punted on the second down. After exchanges of punts, Olney came in possession of the ball on the thirty yard line. They made two first downs and Brownfield was penalized for holding. This gave Olney the ball on the 1 yard line and first down. The line held them for three straight downs and the fourth. They went around end for the touchdown. The kick for goal was good. Brownfield kicked to Olney and after an exchange of punts the quarter ended. Olney 7 Brownfield 0. In the second quarter Olney ran for two more touchdowns and kicked one goal. The half ended with the ball in mid-field. Olney 19 Brownfield 0. There were a carload of telegrams to read to the boys at the half.

Brownfield kicked to Olney at the beginning of the 3rd quarter. Olney made three more touchdowns and kicked one goal. The quarter ended with the ball on Olneys 30 yard line. The score, Olney 38 Brownfield 0. The 4th quarter Brownfield opened up their passing attack. Chambliss ran for a touchdown and the goal kick was good. As the football season is over the pep squad will disband. The pep squad has had a real successful season. They attended all games played on the local field, and also one at Post and Floydada. The pep squad had a membership of forty-two girls and twelve boys. Every one in the squad backed our successful football team one hundred percent.
We know the credit for this success of the pep squad goes to our sponsor, Mr. Penn who worked us so patiently. He was always full of pep, and so inspired us to be. We have greatly enjoyed him working with us.

Next year we want to have an even larger number in our pep squad. In fact it should be a duty of every girl and boy who does not play foot ball to be in the pep squad.

Lost 20 Lbs. Of Fat In Just 4 Weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 yrs. old and weighed 170 lbs. until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and futhermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast — it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know.

For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not satisfied with results—money back.
