Terry Really Did Have Local Option Election

There has been so much talk of late whether or not Terry county had a local option election, that we got busy again over the past week end with the files of the Herald and got results. In the meantime, county clerk, Rex Headstream was looking up the records at the court house, and found the election order, duly signed of which he made a copy for the Herald. Our investigation further in the files of the Herald revealed the official results of the election, printed in its columns.

The trouble last week was that we were looking back about 1905. It was our understanding that the saloon did not run more than a year after being established here, and knowing that the county was formed in 1904, we began looking a year later. But the election was not held until the 14th day of March 1906, having run some 18 months here, and was voted out just a matter of three or four months before William Jennings Bryan was nominated for the presidency the first time. Some of the old timers that were here at the time professed to believe that the saloon was closed by mutual consent. But no such luck. It was closed by a vote of the people, but some are badly mistaken in their recollection of the results, most of them thinking the vote was close. But those old pioneers were after that saloon's goat.

Several issues before the notable Wednesday, March 14, 1906, there appeared in the Herald an official notice of the election. There was at that time four voting precincts, and were to be officered by the following to hold the election: Pre. No. 1, Gomez school house; J. M. Lane and Ben Broughton. Pre. No. 2; North-east corner of courthouse, W. T. Clifford and W. L. Morrow, officers. Pre. No. 3, southeast corner of court house, A. M. Brownfield and W. R. Harris, judges. Pre. No. 4, southwest corner of courthouse, W. L. Lovelady and Jack Bryan.

In the issue of March 29, 1906, appears the official count by the Commissioners Court, signed by W. N. Copeland, County Judge and attested by W. T. Dixon, county clerk. This was dated on the 27th day of March, 1906.

The total vote cast in the county was 82, of which 63 was for prohibition and 14 against. Thus it appears that there was a total of five votes that had either not complied with the law, or their ballots were mutilated. Anyway, the drys had a crushing victory.

Group Favors Legal Boxing in Old Texas

Austin, May 25.—The senate state affairs committee tonight voted a favorable report on the house bill to legalize boxing, which has been outlawed in Texas for 38 years. The vote was 8 to 2.

Senators voting aye were, W. K. Hopkins, Gonzales, Walter Woodul, Houston, W. B. Collie of Eastland, T. J. Holbrook of Galveston, John W. Hornsby of Austin, Archie Pharr of Benavides, Nat Patton of Crockett and Gus Russek of Schulenburg. Geo. C. Purl of Dallas and Walter Woodward of Coleman voted against the bill.

The committee amended the house bill to make the tax on receipts of boxing and wrestling matches 3 percent instead of 5 percent. This amendment was advocated by Rep. Geo. Butler of Bryan, author of the bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brownfield and Mr. and Mrs. Tom May attended the commencement exercise of the military school at Roswell Tuesday where Ray and Murphy have been in school this year. The boys returned home with them for vacation.

Over 3,500 in This Area Get Fed. Loans

More than 3,500 farmers in 18 South Plains counties on top of the Caprock, made applications for loans from the federal government through the crop production loan office at Dallas, P. F. "Pete" Murray, field inspector here states.

Taking of loans closed the first day of May, Mr. Murray said. Many farmers are receiving their second checks and planting is now well under way in all sections, financed by the checks.

Applications Totaled 70,511 Our Dallas office received 70,511 applications over its territory," Mr. Murray pointed out. "Of this number, 4,049 loan applications were disallowed and 65,199 approved. There were 20,320 applicants who had previously made loans from the federal government.

"Checks written numbered 96,164, amounting to $4,327,778.69, an average of $76.67 per applicant. Loans granted to date amount to $4,985,390.

241 Counties Included Twelve Texas counties had more than 1,000 applications each. None were in the Panhandle-Plains area. Panola led with 1,753 applications, followed by Bowie with 1,735 and Rusk third with 1,681. Applications were from 241 counties.

South Plains counties and their applications were: Bailey, 318; Borden, 378; Briscoe, 106; Cochran, 176; Crosby, 148; Dawson, 204; Dickens, 246; Floyd, 117; Gaines, 82; Garza, 128; Hale, 288; Hockley, 229; Lamb, 277; Lubbock, 236; Lynn, 408; Motley, 25; Swisher, 147; Terry, 235; Yoakum, 54; total 3,540.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Firestone Color Fountain at World's Fair

When the World's Fair opens in Chicago Saturday, May 27, visitors will see and hear one of the Fair's greatest marvels—the Firestone Singing Color Fountain, in the gardens surrounding the Firestone factory and exhibition.

This gorgeous spectacle is the only one of its kind in the world. It represents in marvelous beauty a perfect harmony of music, ever-changing color combinations and variations in the rise and fall of the beautiful mystic fountain. And this scientific engineering achievement is the result of years of work by one of the world's greatest electrical engineers and scientists.

This magnificent Singing Color Fountain is situated in front of the ultra modern and attractive Firestone factory and exhibition building in the center of the spacious garden, surrounded by trees, shrubs and beautiful flowers. The great pool is 100 feet long and 15 feet wide, out of which rises the many dome shaped fountains.

Oscar Herring Not Convicted of Forgery

Seminole, May 27.—Oscar M. Herring, former Seagraves attorney, was acquitted by a jury in district court here by instruction of Judge Gordon B. McGuire, on a charge of forgery. Judge McGuire held that the state's case was insufficient, because of lack of evidence.

A charge of making false acknowledgment was dismissed at the same time. A charge of embezzlement was continued for the term.

Herring had been in jail here for several weeks, following his being taken into custody on the charges. Herring in April was given a 90 day parole by Gov. Mariah A. Ferguson, on his sentence of 14 years for robbery of the Seagraves bank.

Following his release on parole, Herring made a trip to Seagraves, and then returned to his home in Palo Pinto county, where, it is said, he was planning to open a law office. Herring was tried at Brownfield on a charge of venue and on his plea of guilty was given 14 years.

After his Seagraves visit, petitions asking that no pardon be given Herring, were widely circulated and signed by over 200 people. Petitions also were circulated in Brownfield.

A Good Cop to Have

Lynn Deputy Free on A Bond of $9,500.00

Lamesa, May 25.—John Johnson, O'Donnell deputy sheriff who is under charge of murdering Berry O. (Bunk) Best and with assault to murder Grady Best, quickly made bonds totaling $9,500, here this afternoon following an examining trial.

Nearly 75 O'Donnell and Lynn Co. residents signed the bonds set by the Justice of the Peace A. B. Cooper. Berry Best 30, died in a Lamesa sanitarium early Wed. afternoon. He was shot through the heart on highway No. 9, about nine miles north-east of here. Grady Best, 32, shot through the chest was expected to recover. The Bests are brothers.

Johnson will continue as a deputy sheriff at O'Donnell, Sheriff B. L. Parker of Lynn county said tonight. Three witnesses were heard in the examining trial. They were Hazel Hancock, nephew of the slain man, Lee Davis and Dalton Barnhart, all eye witnesses to the shooting. Tom Garrard a Lubbock attorney represented the defendant.

Barnhart, a Lynn county farmer, who was with Johnson, said the Bests stopped him and Johnson on the highway, and that the brothers cursed them. Barnhart testified that the Bests tried to pull him out of the car, threatened to whip him, and that the deputy sheriff asked them to stop. The witness said that a calf stolen from his farm, Tuesday, was missed yesterday. He went to O'Donnell for Johnson, and they started to Lamesa for Sheriff Gus White to aid in the investigation.

Hancock and Davis denied "practically all the cursing," the district attorney said.

Depositors to Receive A Small Dividend

It is reported that the State Banking Department, in whose custody the affairs of the defunct First State Bank of Seminole have been since closing, will at an early date pay the depositors another 7 per cent dividend.

Past dividends of 7 and 13 per cent have been paid since its closing, and this announced dividend of 7 per cent will make a total of 27 per cent received.

It is stated that the Banking Department has recently made a compromise with the Surety Company on bonds of certain employees of the bank in which the amount of around $7,000.00 was secured, making this last payment to depositors possible. —Seminole Sentinel.

We want to thank Mrs. Frank Weir for her subscription this week.

Bill to Raise School Age from 6 to 7 Killed

Austin, May 25.—The Texas house today killed a senate bill to raise the minimum school age from six to seven years. It voted 79 to 53 to strike out the enacting clause.

Representative A. M. Aiken of Paris offered the amendment that killed the bill. Aiken said it was the worse blow aimed at rural education in history. He said it would eliminate hundreds of rural schools from receiving state aid by reducing their enrollment to a point where they would no longer be eligible.

"There are more crimes committed in the name of school children than for any other reason," Representative Z. E. Coombes of Dallas, said. "These school teachers are brutal when they have a majority, but come crying around in the name of the school children when they haven't got it. It is not the children this 'educational gang' is pleading for, but for jobs for the teachers."

The bill had passed the senate by a large majority. An amendment to reduce the maximum age from 18 to 17, and leave the minimum at six, was pending when the enacting clause was eliminated.

Inspector Found Our Stores Pretty Clean

City Marshall Clifford Fitzgerald informed us last week that a Pure Food and Drug Inspector was here, but too late to get anything about the matter in the last issue. Mr. Fitzgerald says that the inspector made a close inspection of all places that dispense either foods or drinks, while he was here.

"Generally speaking," Mr. Fitzgerald stated to us, "the inspector found that the Brownfield stores were well up to the average in cleanliness, and he was complimentary of them as a whole, but one or two places had to be cautioned, and some improvement was promised the inspector to be put in effect immediately. Cliff says says that the man did not appear to be hard boiled, but firm in his demand that food and drinks be sold in as near perfectly sanitary condition as possible.

This is but right. It not only safeguards the health of the people of this section, but the people have a right to know that the foods and the drinks they consume, are handled in the right way, and the Herald is glad that Brownfield dealers as a whole, are doing their best to comply with the letter of the law.

J. C. Grimes, our old true and tried friend out Tokio way, called in last week to get in the good graces of the Herald again.

Local Negro Given 5 Years for Murder

Five years in the state penitentiary was the punishment of a 72nd district court jury last night fixed for Joe Stapleton, a negro, convicted of murder without malice. The jury, in the court of Judge Homer L. Pharr, returned the verdict about 7:10 o'clock.

The negro was convicted of shooting his foster father-in-law, Will Morrison, to death February 28, 1932. Jurors deliberated about 45 minutes, Burton S. Burks, assistant district attorney, said.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Buy Your Theatre Ticket From Fire Boys

The fire boys are sponsoring the show at the Rialto Theatre Friday and Saturday, June 2nd and 3rd. See any of the fire boys for tickets, as they get a percentage on every ticket they sell. In this way they hope to get some funds to help send delegates to the convention at Corpus Christi.

This is going to be a real good show and as full of hearty laughs as a nut is meat. Come, get a thrill and at the same time help a good cause. We have been waiting some time for Mr. Jones of the Rialto to get just the picture we wanted to sponsor.

He announces that he has it—LEE TRACY—"PRIVATE JONES" Help your fire boys by buying your tickets from them.

CARD OF THANKS

To the good people of Brownfield who so tenderly served us in our bereavement, we wish to express our appreciation as best we can, for every act of kindness and word of sympathy. You who know our loved one all her life, have by your many acts of kindness placed us under lasting obligations to you.

To remember and hold sacred, will be a duty and pleasure which we shall carry with us through life. Your sympathy expressed in words and flowers and deeds, are a balm to our hearts now saddened and lives now brought under shadows, by the untimely going of our loved one. May God in his goodness and protecting care throw around you His arm of love, shall ever be our prayer.

Hearst Steers Top Market at Los Angeles

Seventeen cars of cattle from Brownfield were shipped for Pacific coast points yesterday. The shipment from the Babicora Development pens at Brownfield included 14 cars of steers for Los Angeles and three cars for San Francisco. Cattle were owned by W. R. Hearst, publisher.

The above item appeared in the Sunday Avalanche-Journal and makes the second shipment from the pens here. The foreman and his crew were weighing steers Monday, presumably picking the next train load that will go out of here. If they are shipped out as they were shipped in, a train load will go out about each ten day period, and by the first of July, the pens here will in all probability be empty.

We have been informed that the first train load that went out of here about two weeks ago to Fort Worth, Kansas City and Los Angeles, topped the market that day in Los Angeles, but we have not heard how those that went to the other markets fared. Those sold in Los Angeles brought $6.40 per cwt, their closest competitors of that day bringing $6.25. The Hearst steers averaged 850 pounds each.

We have been informed that it is almost an assured fact that the feeding operations here by the Hearst interests are no longer in the experimental stage, and that operations will be resumed next winter, which would indicate that the experiment here has proved to be satisfactory, at least, to the Babicora Development Co. No intimation has been made at this time that the pens here will be enlarged.

However, we understand that negotiations are in progress with Seagraves to locate pens there, but on a smaller scale than here. This is just another good indication that Mr. Hearst's cattle managers believe firmly that they can feed successfully and profitably in this section.

Sub-Sea Wonders Thrill Cast of 'Below the Sea'

With more than 40 percent of Columbia's "Below the Sea," photographed nearly 100 feet underneath the surface of the sea, Director Albert Rogell had to assemble the strangest cast ever to be used in the filming of a motion picture. It is showing Sunday at the Rialto Theatre.

Playing one of the most important roles of the photoplay, is a giant squid, or octopus, captured after many weeks searching off the northern coast of Mexico. The octopus was used in the climax of the story, showing the infuriated monster of the deep actually attacking a diving bell in which are members of a scientific party studying certain phases of oceanography.

In addition to the octopus, Rogell had to work with thousands of tropical fish, loaned to the studio for the purpose by the famous Long Beach aquarium.

A great diving bell, specially designed to stand water pressure at 60 fathoms made possible the filming of the underwater sequences of the production. Built on the principle of a submarine—a shell within a shell—the bell was submerged by virtue of its own water weight, made possible through the use of fins instead of the customary lead. Carrying three persons, the bell is equipped with 3 heavy glass ports, through which the maximum of wide angle action may be photographed without difficulty. It was also equipped with the newly perfected Westinghouse water rays, controlled from the inside, which penetrate the murky blackness for great distances.

Camera work on "Below the Sea" was in charge of Homer Scott, whose under water photographic experience dates back to the days of the famous Annette Kellerman. More recently, he photographed marine scenes for "Bird of Paradise" and "Tiger Shark" Ralph Ballamy and Fay Wray are featured in "Below the Sea." Others in the cast are Fredrik Vogeding and Fisher Howard. Undersea scenes are photographed in technicolor.

Mr. A. D. Repp, new manager of the Texas Compress and Warehouse Co., here, called last Friday to get acquainted with the Herald crew. He seemed to be a very congenial fellow, and we are sure the Brownfield and Terry county folks are going to like him.

Santa Fe Reports on Texas Crop Conditions

Agricultural conditions over the greater portion of Texas were improved by beneficial rains during mid-May. Prior to this time lack of moisture, except in eastern sections, where the supply was over abundant, has retarded reasonable activity and plant growth to the extent that crops generally were two to four weeks late.

Cotton over most of the state is from poor to fair. South and coastal areas are beginning to suffer severely because of dry weather. Premature blooming is occurring in south Texas. In eastern and north-eastern sections excessive moisture has caused plants to become spindly, and much replanting is necessary. Plantings are complete in central sections and practically so in the northern and northwestern areas. Because of the generally dry weather little activity on the part of the boll weevil so far has been noticeable, although with the advent of showers this pest could become seriously injurious.

Movement of potatoes from the Eagle Lake—Glen Flora section has become brisk, but because of dry weather the volume has not reached proportions expected. Immediate rains would result in considerable increased production.

Condition of tomatoes in east Texas continues good, although worms are making their appearance. Movement has started and will reach peak proportions by mid-June.

Rains were extremely beneficial to onions in north Texas, and as a result production is expected to be considerably greater than early estimates indicated. Movement will start early in June, and will show little, if any, decrease, as compared with last year, despite a 30 per cent reduction in acreage.

Wheat in the northwest has improved in some localities with recent rains, but the estimated production is about half what it was last year.

Lack of moisture in the range area has severely injured ranges and immediate rains are needed. There were practically no losses of cattle during the winter and at present they are in good condition, excepting that dry weather is commencing to show some ill effects on freshened range cows. A record wool clip is now moving to strong and strengthening markets.

Clothing and Textile, Miss Christova Sawyer; Education, Terry Redford; Foreign Languages, Miss Mamie Nell Blackstock.

SEND CHANGES OF ADDRESS PROMPTLY

Herald subscribers are asked to notify us promptly of any change in their address. Under the new postal laws, newspapers and periodicals must pay for postage due for notices of changes of address furnished by the postoffice. In addition there is also the problem of delay in delivery or failure to get the paper. The best plan is to send change of address in advance of the time change is to be made.

Here comes the bride—and a June bride at that.

Good news to Texans. The state tax rate will be only 67 cents this year, a reduction of about 20 percent.

Dallas county holds her good neighboring counties of Tarrant, Navarro and Limestone responsible for her liquor supply, and intimates that Dallas would be quite dry if these counties were suddenly annihilated.

Speaking of advertising, which all real firms should do, Henry Ford is doing some advertising just now that rather catches our idea of being a mighty good plan.

The Herald is sorry to learn that Mrs. Haynes, wife of Editor R. B. Haynes of Miami, had to finally submit to an operation on her knee at Pampa, recently.

wreck about a year ago, and every time she would step in a sidling place it would so pain her that she would get a hard fall.

Last week and for the next three weeks, the constitutional amendments will be voted on in the August election will be running in the Herald.

The Herald cannot endorse the policy of some people at San Antonio and other towns, who in their hurry to sell beer, are to our notion overruling the Dean law at least.

We live to learn. Last week we were not certain that Terry county had ever held a local option election on liquor, and found she did.

The local chamber of commerce has been invited to select and send a young lady from this city to the Cowboy Reunion at Stamford, July 3-4-5.

Red Goose-The Ojibwa

An Indian Story for Boys and Girls
By Carlyle Emery

Episode No. 30
Red Eagle and his good Ojibwa Braves have started North on a hunting expedition, leaving the squaws in the Village. Red Goose had been left behind, too, and is learning to be an expert shot with the new rifle that was given him in Saint Louis, which he gave to Little Beaver. Now go on with the story.

The day after the Ojibwa Braves headed North for big game, Red Goose and Little Beaver again made believe they were warrior and squaw, and that they too were going hunting.

They decided to leave Spot-on-Tail in the Village and to walk three miles up the river and back before sun-down.

The snow had not begun to fall, but the air was crisp and cold, and they started off on a brisk walk. Red Goose carried the gun that was too heavy for Little Beaver to carry for very long without getting tired. She had some rice and berries and hoped Red Goose would shoot another rabbit so she could show him again how she could prepare good things to eat.

They pretended that the squirrels were wild cats and had more fun than you can imagine with their different games of make-believe.

Along about mid-day, they found another good place to make their camp, and Red Goose said:

"Little Beaver is squaw and must stay here while her warrior goes to river and watch for enemy."

"But this is Ojibwa country—no enemy is here," laughed Little Beaver.

"Good warrior always watches for enemy. Red Goose will come back soon."

So Little Beaver watches Red Goose disappear in the direction of the river, and then began to pound some rice to make some of the cakes she knew her playmate liked so well.

Red Goose went through the underbrush as swiftly as a cat and as quietly as a mouse and soon came to the river just at the bend where it changed direction and headed south. A large rock jutted out over the edge of the river, and here Red Goose sat down and made believe he was watching for the enemy.

The river rippled by, catching the rays of the sun now and then, which made it look for all the world like a great sheet of flowing silver.

Red Goose sat high above it, motionless as a statue, his rifle across his knees, his ears straining for any strange or unusual sound.

HOT STUFFED EGGS

This is one of Mrs. Roosevelt's recipes, and since eggs are so low almost everyone can enjoy this White House dish. The ingredients needed are the eggs—five or six for a family of six, one-half teaspoon of minced onion, one teaspoon of vinegar or tomato juice, one-fourth teaspoon of salt and a pinch of pepper.

Hard-boil the eggs, peel them and cut them in half lengthwise. Remove the yolks and mash them thoroughly. Mix the mashed yolks with the other ingredients and stuff this mixture in the egg white. Put the stuffed eggs in a dish with the stuffed side up, cover with tomato sauce, reheat in a slow oven and serve hot.—Pathfinder.

THIRTEEN SPADES

They say that a perfect hand in bridge comes only once in a lifetime and then the player drawing such a hand either dies from heart failure or goes all to pieces and just can't play the hand. But not so Mrs. Mary L. Albritton, a Washington bridge fan. She has been playing the game for 15 years. When she picked up her hand with 13 spades in it she didn't even let on that she had such a humdinger. She coolly bid seven spades and when she and her partner were doubled, she promptly redoubled and proceeded to play. If you play bridge you can count up her score.—Pathfinder.

Homer Winston came in this week and had the paper started to his father-in-law, J. C. Whisenant, at Dutil, N. M., again. Said they wrote that New Mexico papers were all they ever saw, and they wanted to hear from grand old Texas occasionally.

He was as thrilled as though he expected to see a canoe full of hostile Sioux coming around the bend any minute; and then just as he was about to start back, his keen ears did hear something, first very faint, and then louder and louder.

Now Red Gooses was really alarmed. His game of make-believe was gone for his Indian instinct told him that danger was approaching.

Still sitting motionless, he shaded his eyes with his hand and looked long and searchingly up the river.

Chamber of Commerce Former Banker Indicted on False Entries

—By J. E. Shelton, Secretary

Two or three weeks ago, the editor of the Herald, made mention of the fact that we had several conventions of different kinds that were due to be held during the next few months and among them are mentioned the Primitive Baptist Association. And this is to inform all concerned that the chamber of commerce, joined several other organizations in a request that the affair be held in Brownfield and since it was decided that they were coming here, the writer has informed a number of the officials of the association that he had control of a block of several acres of land that they were welcome to use for their camp ground and further that they could have whatever water that they needed from the hydrants in his yard. The offer has not been accepted but is still open.

County Judges and Commissioners from several counties over this district met last Thursday in the district court room for the purpose of organizing and putting forth efforts toward securing our portion of the Federal Highway money and undertaking to secure the hardsurfacing of all roads over the south plains territory that had not yet received attention. The correcting of county lines was also taken up and all of the officials present were of the opinion that the lines needed to be established. To further each of these activities, committees were appointed to secure full interest of all counties effected and on the first proposition to arrange for a mass attack upon the highway commission in an attempt to gain our ends. On the second proposition, a committee is to confer with several surveyors of this section and undertake to ascertain the cost of the county line survey.

A meeting has been called for Levelland to be held on June 15 for the purpose of hearing the reports of the committees and taking such action as may be deemed to our advantage. The officials of this county are of the opinion that a county line survey will establish the fact that Terry county is losing the taxes on not less than 25 sections and losing about $800.00 in taxes each year. This is now going to about three adjoining counties.

Up to the time that the Lynn and Garza lines were established by the Supreme Court, efforts of the county to secure an agreement to a survey were not very successful, but at the meeting last week, the effected counties appeared to favor the proposal that an early survey be made.

The Government Farm Mortgage and Home Mortgage legislation has passed Congress and been signed by the President and the machinery of the Federal Land Banks is being used to handle the renewals. W. H. FORMER SHERIFF GIVEN A SIX YEAR TERM IN PEN

Quanah, May 25.—Que R. Miller, former sheriff and tax-collector of Foard county, was convicted today of misappropriating public funds, and given a six year penitentiary sentence. Defense counsel expected to file an appeal.

The case, involving an alleged misappropriation of approximately $16,000 was brought here on change of venue from Crowell, the county seat of Foard county.

Former Banker Indicted on False Entries

J. E. Aldridge, former vice-president and cashier of the Blackwater State Bank, in Muleshoe, is charged with false entry and removing bank records in three indictments transferred to the 99th district court from the 64th district court.

One case alleges Aldridge was responsible for a false entry of $1,680; another false entry of $1,250, Sept. 30, 1930. The other indictments charge Aldridge with removing a ledger sheet from its place in the individual accounts of customers and from the bank July 2, 1930.—Lubbock Avalanche.

CLAIMS BEER NOT FATTENING

When the Women's Christian Temperance Union issued a warning to women that beer is fattening, the magazine, Brewery Age, immediately took up the challenge and has now made public the findings of its technical editor, Dr. Morris A. Pozen. Dr. Pozen claims that beer contains no special ingredients that make it fattening. He says beer has definite food value but that this food value is even lower than that found in the average carbonated beverage, in milk, grape juice, cocoa and coffee with sugar and cream.—Pathfinder.

Texas' Young Farmers and Home Makers

For excelling in practical demonstrations of better farming and home making these four farm boys and girls will represent Texas 4-H clubs at the National 4-H Club Camp in Washington, D. C., June 15 to 21. Extension Service officials at Texas A. and M. College have announced. The boys will be sent to Washington by the Texas Bankers' Association, the girls by funds earned by the 4-H Club Refreshment Stand at the A. and M. Short Course. They are, from left to right, Laura Barton, Lubbock; Mamie Fisher, Sinton; Morris Williamson, Bryan; Herbert Rittiman, Converse.

We met our good friend, R. Stice on the streets Friday, and he remarked that he thought when he moved out of the Johnson community, they would get rain like other sections of the county. So he may not have been the hoodoo after all.

Our old friend M. C. Amons was in Saturday and reports that he has been "kinder" under the weather for the past few months. Maybe summer weather will bring him out.

Miss Nell Mae McLeroy called in this week and announced that her school was out, and that she was going to attend summer school at Canyon Normal again this summer, and wanted the Herald to visit her each week while away.

Lee Smith loaded out a truck of seventeen very fine mules again last Friday and sent them to his firm at Fort Worth. Lee keeps a truck load headed that way at regular intervals.

Proposed Road Through Famous Canyon

Here is the proposed road through Palo Duro Canyon in the Panhandle of Texas, a famous scenic wonder that has never been thrown open to the public. The Texas State Parks board is attempting to secure employment in this project for a number of Panhandle youths, in connection with President Roosevelt's reforestation program. Palo Duro canyon could easily draw 200,000 tourists or more per year, according to the committee in charge of the project. It is located 30 miles southeast of Amarillo.

I suppose that I may claim to be the first Ford Dealer. I not only made cars, but sold them and frequently delivered them myself. The "drive away" is not new; often I have driven cars from Detroit to towns in Ohio or Indiana or Michigan to make delivery. There were no good roads in those days, and the people where I drove had never seen a motor car before. My first really enthusiastic customers were Country Doctors. They were the first to realize the value of dependable transportation to a widely scattered practice. Even today I occasionally hear from some of those first Ford users. We had to teach local mechanics how to care for the cars. That is how Ford Service began, which is now found everywhere in the world. We believed from the beginning that a sale does not complete our transaction with our customer — it creates upon us an obligation to see that our customer's car gives him service. Ford Dealers know their duty to the public in this respect. I can say of Ford Dealers generally that they have been and are men of character and standing in their communities. Most of them have been with us many years, which indicates that we agree on basic business principles. The Company provides that the methods used to sell the Ford car are consistent with the self-respect of the Dealers who handle it. The present Ford V-8 is the peak of our 30 years experience. We have never made a better car. Its eight-cylinder engine is powerful and smooth running. The car is admittedly very good looking and has comfortable riding qualities. It is economical in operation because of advanced engine design and low car weight. It is the fastest, roomiest and most powerful car we have ever built.

Here's Texas' New Congressional Districts

This map shows the 21 congressional districts in Texas as set up by a bill signed last week by Governor Ferguson. Under the plan none of the 18 former districts retained its former boundaries, and some of the new ones drew counties from as many as five of the old districts. Three districts in which San Antonio, Dallas, and Houston are composed of single counties, and have larger populations than many of the west Texas districts.

(30) days next prior to the time of an Act making proposal hereunder may be introduced in the Legislature. No County Home Rule Charter may be adopted by any county save upon a favorable vote of the resident qualified electors of the affected county. In the elections submitting to the voters a proposal to adopt a Charter (unless otherwise provided by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of each house of the Legislature) the votes cast by the qualified electors residing within the limits of all the incorporated cities and towns of the county shall be separately kept but collectively counted and the votes of the qualified electors of the county who do not reside within the limits of any incorporated city or town likewise shall be separately kept and separately counted, and unless there be a favorable majority of the votes cast within and a favorable majority of the votes cast without such collective cities and towns, the Charter shall not be adopted. It is expressly forbidden that any such Charter may be adopted until the expiration of the General Laws of the State relating to the judicial, tax, fiscal, educational, police, highway and health systems, or any other department of the State's superior government. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the adoption of a Charter provision inimical to or inconsistent with the sovereignty and established public policies of this State, and no provision having such effect shall have validity against the State. No Charter provision may operate to impair the exemption of homesteads as established by this Constitution and the Statutes relating thereto.

(3) a. A Charter hereunder may provide: the continuance of a County Commissioners' Court, as now constituted, to serve as the governing body of a county to operate hereunder, or may provide for a governing body to be constituted, which shall be elective, and service therein shall be upon such qualifications, for such terms, under such plan of representation, and upon such conditions of tenure and compensation as may be fixed by any such Charter. The terms for service in such governing body may exceed two (2) years, but shall not exceed six (6) years. In any event, in addition to the powers and duties provided by such Charter, such governing body shall exercise all powers and discharge all duties which, in the absence of the provisions hereof, would devolve by law on County Commissioners and County Commissioners' Courts. Further, any such Charter may provide for the organization, reorganization, establishment and administration of the government of the county, including the control and regulation of the performance of and the compensation for all duties required in the conduct of the county affairs, subject to the limitations herein provided.

(4) a. A Charter hereunder may provide that Judges of County Courts (including that County Court designated in this Constitution), and Justices of the Peace be compensated upon a salary basis in lieu of fees. The jurisdiction of the County Courts, and the duties of the Justices thereof, may be confined to that general jurisdiction of a probate Court which elsewhere is defined in this Constitution. The office of Justice of the Peace may be made either elective or appointive. Other than as herein provided, no such Charter shall provide for altering the jurisdiction or procedure of any Court. The duties of the District Attorney and for representing the State in civil cases to which the State is a party and to enforcement of the State's Penal Code, and the compensation of said attorneys may be fixed on a salary basis in lieu of fees.

(5) a. Save as hereinabove and hereinafter otherwise provided, such Charters, within the limits expressed therein, may invest the governing body to be established for any county electing to operate hereunder with the power to create, consolidate or abolish any office or department, whether created by other provisions of the Constitution or by statute, define the duties thereof, fix the compensation for service therein, make the same elective or appointive, and prescribe the time, qualifications and conditions for tenure in any such office; save that no such Charter other than as hereinbefore authorized, shall provide to regulate the status, service, duties or compensation of members of the Legislature, Judges of County Courts, District Attorneys, County Attorneys, or any office whatever by the law of the State required to be filled by an election embracing more than one county. Excepting herefrom nominations, elections or appointments to offices, the terms whereof may not have expired prior to the adoption of this Amendment to the Constitution, at such time as a Charter provision adopted hereunder may be in effect (save as to those offices which meet the conditions specified), all terms of county officers and all contracts for the giving of service by deputies under such officers, may be subject to termination by the administrative body of the county, under an adopted Charter so providing, and there shall be no liability by reason thereof.

(6) a. Any county electing to operate hereunder shall have the power, by Charter provision, to levy, assess and collect taxes, and to fix the maximum rate for ad valorem taxes to be levied for specific purposes, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State, provided, however, that the limit of the aggregate taxes which may be levied, assessed and collected hereunder shall not exceed the limit or total fixed, or hereafter to be fixed, by this Constitution to control counties, and the annual assessment upon property, both real, personal and mixed, shall be a first superior and prior lien thereon.

(7) a. In addition to the powers herein provided, and in addition to powers included in County Home Rule Charters, any county may, by a majority vote of the qualified electors of said county, amend its Charter to include other powers, functions, duties and rights which now or hereafter may be provided by this Constitution and the statutes of the State for counties.

(8) a. Any county operating hereunder shall have the power to borrow money for all purposes lawful under its Charter, to include the refunding of a lawful debt, in a manner conforming to the General Laws of the State, and may issue therefor its obligations. Such obligations, other than those to refund a lawful debt, shall not be valid unless authorized by a majority of all votes cast by those resident qualified voters of the area affected by the taxes required to retire such obligations, who may vote thereon. In cases of county obligations, maturing after a period of five (5) years, the same shall be issued to mature serially, fixing the first maturity of principal at a time not to exceed two (2) years next after the date of the issuance of such obligations. Such obligations may pledge the full faith and credit of the county; but in no event shall the aggregate obligations so issued, in principal amount outstanding at one time, exceed the then existing Constitutional limits for such obligations and such indebtedness and its supporting tax shall constitute a first and superior lien upon the property taxable in such county. No obligation issued hereunder shall be valid unless prior to the time of the issuance thereof there be levied a tax sufficient to retire the same as it matures, which tax shall not exceed the then existing Constitutional limits.

(9) a. The governing body of a county operating hereunder to prescribe the schedule of fees to be charged by the officers of the county for specified services, to be in lieu of the schedule for such fees prescribed by the General Laws of the State; and, to appropriate such fees to such funds as the Charter may prescribe; provided, however, no fees for a specified service shall exceed in amount the fee fixed by General Law for that same service. Such Charters as to all judicial officers, other than District Judges, may prescribe the qualifications for service, provided the standards therefor be not lower than those fixed by the General Laws of the State.

(10) a. Subject to the express limitations upon the exercise of the powers by this subdivisions to be authorized, such Charter may provide (or omit to provide) that the governmental and or proprietary functions of any city, town, district or other defined political subdivision (which is a governmental agency and embraced within the boundaries thereof, or some or all of the functions thereof, and yielded to the control of the administrative body of the county. No such transfer or yielding of functions may be effected, unless the proposal is submitted to a vote of the people, and, unless otherwise provided by a two-thirds vote of the total membership of each House of the Legislature such a proposal shall be submitted as a separate issue, and such city, town, district, or other defined governmental entity, shall be separately voted and counted, and unless two-thirds of the qualified voters cast within the yielding defined governmental entity, and a majority of the qualified voters cast in the remainder of the county, favor the proposed merger, it shall not be affected. In case of the mergers hereby authorized, without express Charter provision therefor, in so far as may be required to make effective the object of the proposed merger, the county shall succeed to all the appropriate lawful powers, duties, rights, procedures, restrictions and limitations which prior to the merger were imposed in, or imposed upon, the yielding governmental agency. Particularly, it is provided that the power to create funded indebtedness and to levy taxes in support thereof may be exercised only by such procedures, and within such limits, as now are, or hereafter may be, provided by law to control the appropriate other governmental agencies were they to be independently administered. Such mergers may be effected under proposed contracts between the county and any such yielding governmental agency, to be approved at an election as hereinbefore provided for. In order to increase governmental efficiency and effect economy the county may contract with the principal city of the county to perform one or more of its functions, provided such contract shall not be valid for more than two (2) years.

(11) a. In case of the partial or complete merger of the government of a city operating under a Home Rule Charter, with the government of a county operating hereunder, those city Charter provisions affected thereby shall cease to control, and the county Charter provisions shall control.

(12) a. When any embraced incorporated city or town elects to merge its governmental functions with those of the county under the provisions hereof, such Charter may provide for defining or redefining the boundaries of such cities and towns, provided, however, that in defining or redefining the boundaries of such cities and towns, such boundaries may be extended only to include those areas contiguous to such cities as are urban in character; and as to such cities or towns and for the benefit thereof the county, in addition to the primary city and county tax herein authorized by any other district tax, may levy and collect taxes upon the property taxable within such city or town as defined or redefined, within the limits authorized by Sections 4 and 5 of Article XI of the Constitution, (or any Amendment thereof) for incorporated cities according to the population, provided that no tax greater than that existing at the time of such merger or for any added purpose shall be imposed upon any such city or town unless authorized by a majority of all votes cast by the resident qualified voters of any such city or town.

(13) a. Areas urban in character though not incorporated under appropriate Charter provision may be defined as such by the governing body of the county, provided, however, that no portion of the county shall be defined as an urban area unless it has sufficient population to entitle it to incorporate under the then existing laws of the State; and no such urban area, when created, shall be vested with any taxing or bonding power which it would not possess if it were operating as a separate incorporated unit under the then existing Constitutional and Statutory provisions of this State; and provided further that the governing body of the county for the government of such areas shall have and exercise all powers and authority granted by law to the governing bodies of similar areas when separately incorporated as a city or town, and such areas shall be subject to additional taxation within the same Constitutional limits as control taxation for a city or town of like population. Likewise such Charter adopted hereunder for the governing board of the county subject to existing Constitutional and statutory provisions to define, create and administer districts, and have and exercise the powers and authority granted by the Constitution and laws relative to the same.

(14) a. No provision of this Constitution inconsistent with the provisions of this Section 3, of Article IX, shall be held to control the provisions of a Charter adopted hereunder, and conforming herewith. Charters adopted hereunder shall make appropriate provision for the abandonment, revocation, and amendment thereof, subject only to the requirements that there must be a favorable majority of the votes cast upon such a proposal, by the qualified resident electors of the county; and, no Charter may forbid amendments thereof for a time greater than two (2) years. The provisions hereof shall be self-executing, subject only to the duty of the Legislature to pass all laws (consistent herewith) which may be necessary to carry out the intent and purposes hereof. Further, the Legislature shall prescribe a procedure for submitting to decision, by a majority vote of the electors voting thereon, proposed alternate and elective Charter provisions.

(15) a. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Saturday in August, 1933, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following: "For the Amendment to Article IX of the Constitution of Texas, adding Section 3, providing authority for the adoption of a Home Rule Charter by the voters in counties having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more, to effect more efficient and economical government within such counties, and to authorize mergers of separate governmental agencies within such counties as may from time to time be authorized by vote of the people therein."

Each voter shall scratch out one of the above listed clauses on such ballot, leaving unscratched that particular clause which expresses his vote on the proposed amendment to which it relates.

Section 3. The Governor of this State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation ordering an election in conformity herewith to determine whether or not the proposed Constitutional Amendment set forth herein shall be adopted, and the Governor shall have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF TEXAS
H. J. R. NO. 43.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That subsection (a), of Section 20, of Article XVI, of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows: "(a): The manufacture, sale, barter or exchange in the State of Texas of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters capable of producing intoxication, or any other intoxicant whatever except vinous or malt liquors of not more than three and two-tenths per cent (3.2%) alcoholic content by weight, (except for medicinal, mechanical, scientific or sacramental purposes) are each and all hereby prohibited. The Legislature shall enact laws to enforce this Section, and may from time to time prescribe regulations and limitations relative to the manufacture, sale, barter, exchange or possession for sale of vinous or malt liquors of not more than three and two-tenths per cent (3.2%) alcoholic content by weight provided the Legislature shall enact a law or laws whereby the qualified voters of any county, justice's precinct, town or city may, by a majority vote of those voting, determine from time to time whether the sale for beverage purpose of vinous or malt liquors containing not more than three and two-tenths per cent (3.2%) alcohol by weight shall be prohibited within the prescribed limits; and provided further that in all counties in the State of Texas and in all political subdivisions thereof, wherein the sale of intoxicating liquors had been prohibited by local option elections held under the laws of the State of Texas and in force at the time of the taking effect of Section 20, Article 16, of the Constitution of Texas, it shall continue to be unlawful to manufacture, sell, barter or exchange in any such county or any such political subdivision thereof, any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters, capable of producing intoxication or any other intoxicant whatever, unless and until a majority of the qualified voters in said county or political subdivision thereof voting in an election held for such purpose shall determine it to be lawful to manufacture, sell, barter or exchange in said county or political subdivision thereof vinous or malt liquors containing not more than three and two-tenths per cent (3.2%) alcohol content by weight, and the provision of this subsection shall be self-executing."

Section 2. The foregoing Amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Saturday in August, 1933. At this election all voters favoring the proposed Amendment shall have printed on their ballot the words: "For the Amendment to the Constitution of Texas, authorizing the sale of vinous or and two-tenths per cent (3.2%) alcohol content by weight." Those voters opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballot the following words: "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of Texas, authorizing the sale of vinous or malt liquors of not more than three and two-tenths per cent (3.2%) alcohol content by weight."

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for such election and to have same published as required by the Constitution and Amendments thereto.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That Section 1-a of Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows: "Article VIII, Section 1-a: Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads as now defined by law shall be exempt from all taxation for all State purposes; provided that this exemption shall not be applicable to that portion of the State ad valorem taxes levied for State purposes remitted within those counties or other political subdivisions now receiving any remission of State taxes, until the expiration of such period of remission, unless before the expiration of such period the board of governing body of any one or more of such counties or political subdivisions shall have certified to the State Comptroller that the need for such remission of taxes has ceased to exist in such county or political subdivision; then this Section shall become applicable to each county or political subdivision when it shall become within the provisions hereof."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held throughout the State on the fourth Saturday in August, 1933, at which election all voters favoring said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "For the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas exempting Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads from State taxes."

Those voters opposing said proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "Against the Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas exempting Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00) of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads from State taxes."

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have same published as required by the Constitution and Amendments thereto.

S. J. R. NO. 36.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That Article 3 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto another section, Section 51a, which shall read as follows: "Section 51a. The Legislature shall have power to authorize by law the issuance and sale of the bonds of the State of Texas, not to exceed the sum of Twenty Million ($20,000,000.00) Dollars, bearing interest at a rate not to exceed Four and one-half (4 1/2%) per centum per annum; and payable serially or otherwise not more than ten (10) years from their date, and said bonds shall be sold for not less than par and accrued interest and no form of commission shall be allowed in any transaction involving said bonds. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds to be used in furnishing relief and work relief to needy and distressed people and in relieving the hardships resulting from unemployment, but to be fairly distributed over the State and payable in such terms and conditions as may be provided by law; and the Legislature shall make such appropriations as are necessary to pay the interest and principal of such bonds as the same becomes due. The power hereby granted to the Legislature to issue bonds hereunder is expressly limited to the amount stated and to two years from and after the adoption of this grant of power by the people. Provided that the Legislature shall provide for the payment of the interest and redemption of any bonds issued under the terms hereof from some source other than a tax on real property and the indebtedness as evidenced by such bonds shall never become a charge against or lien upon any property, real or personal, within this State."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State on the Twentieth day of August, A. D. 1933, at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For the amendment to the Constitution providing that the Legislature may authorize the issuance of bonds of the State of Texas, not to exceed Twenty Million ($20,000,000.00) Dollars, for relieving the hardships of unemployment and for the necessary appropriations to pay said bonds." Those voters opposing said amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "Against the amendment to the Constitution providing that the Legislature may authorize the issuance of bonds of the State of Texas, not to exceed Twenty Million ($20,000,000.00) Dollars, for relieving the hardships of unemployment and for the necessary appropriations to pay said bonds."

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

First Mexican Beer to United States

This picture, taken in El Paso, Texas, shows the first car of the famous Carta Blanca Mexican beer to enter the United States since the new 32 beer law was passed. This car is not for Texas, but was headed for Los Angeles when the photo was taken. A federal inspector attaches seals to the door. Press reports indicate that beer is being sold openly in El Paso, Houston, San Antonio, Galveston and other Texas cities, despite Texas' present dry status.

Smartest Scholar

This is Garfield H. Horn, 13 year-old Houston, Texas, boy, who has been judged the most intelligent high school boy in Texas to win a $4,500 scholarship to an eastern school.

Our friend Rev. Ed Tharp predicted a real old Methodist rain here Tuesday night, but it fell flat. He explained that the Presbyterians sprinkled, but the Methodist poured. Just another new comer or the "other fellow" heard from.

S. J. R. No. 3.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a section to be Section 3, which shall provide:

"Section 3. (1) Holding the belief that the highest degree of local self government which is consistent with the efficient conduct of those affairs by necessity lodged in the Nation and the State will prove most responsive to the will of the people, and result to reward their diligence and intelligence by greater economy and efficiency in their local governmental affairs, it hereby is ordained: "(2) Any county having a population of sixty-two thousand (62,000) or more according to the last Federal Census may adopt a County Home Rule Charter, to embrace those powers appropriate thereto, wherein the specific limitations hereinafter provided. It further is provided that the Legislature, by a favorable vote of two-thirds of the total membership of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, may authorize any county, having a population less than that above specified, to proceed hereunder for the adoption of a Charter; however, as a condition for such authorization, it is required that notice of the intent to seek Legislative authority hereunder must be published in one or more newspapers to give general circulation in the county effected, not less than once per week for four (4) consecutive weeks, and the first of such publications shall appear not less than thirty

FROM TEXAS HOME INSURANCE COMPANIES

Austin, May 15.—Belief that the amount of real estate mortgage loans in Texas would show a sharp decrease if the compulsory investment provisions of the Robertson insurance law is repealed has been expressed here by supporters of the law. Out of state insurance companies are required by the Robertson law to invest 75 per cent of the reserve on their Texas policies in Texas securities. To secure the minimum premium tax, out of state companies must invest in real estate mortgage loans. Supporters of the law, who are fighting a bill now pending in the legislature which would strike down the compulsory investment features of the statute, maintain that the real estate investment clause has caused a heavy investment by foreign companies in that type of security. Figures compiled by the United States department of commerce, they point out, show that Texas has a larger number of insurance companies making farm loans than any other state. These figures show 97 companies which have assets of $100,000 or more making loans in Texas. Texas, under the Robertson law, is one of the few states which have shown a rising trend in farm loans in recent years.

ATTACK ON ROOSEVELT CONDEMNED BY MORRIS

Southern Baptist who criticized President Roosevelt at their Washington convention as "making a beer billboard of the White House," drew the fire of Rev. J. F. Norris upon themselves Wednesday. To criticize the actions of the President at this critical juncture, said Rev. Mr. Norris, is unfortunate and of great comfort to the bankers of Wall Street, although a dry campaigner himself. Rev. Mr. Morris acknowledged there are even greater questions than prohibition, "with 15,000,000 idle in this country, mortgages on homes being foreclosed, and the world crumbling on the abyss of war." He hinted that personal pique and wounded pride might have been the motive behind the criticism of the President.—Anton News. Sub-irrigation garden systems have been installed on six Haskell county farms this spring by home demonstration club families. A total of 1155 feet of home made concrete tile was installed at a cost of less than one cent per foot.

REVISED MARRIAGE LAW WILL ALSO BE EVADED

The Texas Legislature has done only half a job of repealing the called "gin marriage" law. The bill which has been approved and sent to the Governor provides for elimination of the three-days notice of intent to wed requirement but retains the requirement that a prospective groom present a health certificate before a license can be issued. There may have been more than one reason why the Legislature has yielded to the agitation for repeal. A major reason for the agitation undoubtedly was the fact that thousands of Texas couples defeated the fine purposes of the law by crossing into another state, where license could be readily obtained, marrying preachers and justices were eager to oblige, and quite a bit of good Texas money was taken out of Texas. It was the purpose of the repeal bill to keep this money in Texas, retention of the health certificate requirement will operate to defeat that purpose. The Legislature might just as well have voted against any change at all. The three-days' notice requirement was not half so important—or objectionable to the matrimonially inclined—as that which related to physical fitness. Should the Governor approve the half-repeal measure, there will be just as much as trekking across the border, and just as heavy loss of license fees and knot-tying money as there has been under the restrictions of the law which the new bill would amend. We shall have evidence that this is true before many months have passed under the new dispensation.—State Line Tribune.

SHEPPARD TO HELP TEXAS DRY FORCES

San Antonio, May 24.—Senator Morris Sheppard will return to Texas immediately after the adjournment of congress to participate in the campaign being planned by dry forces and aimed to prevent the legalization of beer and the repeal of the 18th amendment. He informed Mrs. J. M. Glass, president of the San Antonio W. C. T. U. in a telegram.

Marlin Hayhurst, coach in the local schools for the past five years, has been offered a position as assistant coach at McCamey, at a good salary, and we understand has accepted, as it has been his ambition for some time to get into a Class A school. DEATH CLAIMS MRS. STELLA McCRACKEN

Early Tuesday morning the sad news came of the death of Mrs. McCracken, better known to the old settlers here as Miss Stella Treadaway. Her mother, Mrs. E. L. Treadaway, and sister, Miss Mozelle, were called to her bedside some two weeks ago, but her condition was thought to be improving. But a heart attack was the immediate cause of her death.

The body was brought across the country and following funeral services at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Methodist church conducted by her pastor, Rev. Williams, assisted by the local Methodist pastor, Rev. Ed Tharp, the body was laid to rest in the Brownfield cemetery.

She leaves her husband and two children, mother, three sisters, two brothers and a host of friends to mourn her going.

Mrs. C. J. Smith and children returned home Saturday from Amarillo where they visited relatives for some time.

J. B. Burke, one of the old time Gomez farmers, was in recently to put his paper up in advance till fall.

HONEY GROVE EDITOR-PUBLISHER PASSES AWAY

Honey Grove, May 29.—J. H. Lowry, 67, for 40 years publisher of the Honey Grove Signal and affectionately known to many Texas paper men as "Buttermilk Jim," died today. He was stricken during the winter, and a month ago his condition became alarming.

Born on a farm near Bells, Tenn., May 9, 1866, Lowry began his newspaper career in that town. He worked several other places in that state before coming to Texas in 1886.

In 1893, Lowry took charge of the Honey Grove Signal and until recently was an active publisher. It was consolidated in 1929 with the Honey Grove Citizen, and with Hugh Moyer Jr., and since that time up until last fall he was half editor-owner. At that time he sold his interest in the consolidated papers to his partner and traveled for the Baird Pub. Co., of Fort Worth, which puts out the monthly magazine section used by many weekly papers.

Lowry became a member of Texas Press Association in 1896, and was elected president of that organization in 1906. He has been actively engaged in its work, and compiled a history of the association a few years ago on its 50th anniversary.

Lowry is survived by his wife, whom he married in 1888, and a daughter, Mrs. C. M. Campbell, of Honey Grove. Lowry was a member of the Christian church.

A car of people from Ohio were stranded here for awhile one day last week. Some 10 gallons of gas and food were given them to last until perhaps the half way mark was reached on their journey.

W. C. Edwards, wife and son, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Steck, all of Lubbock, were visitors in the Stricklin home Sunday afternoon. Both Edwards and Steck are employees of the Avalanche-Journal.

Johnson Thompson and one of the Campbell boys were in the Herald office Saturday. Johnson reported a shy rain in the Harmony section.

The Biggest News Since Fresh Gas...

That Good Gulf Gasoline is now lubricated!

Gulf stations from Maine to Mexico are now offering a motor fuel that surpasses everything that has gone before. This great fuel is new in everything but name. It actually gives greater mileage and cuts repair costs—because it lubricates the upper cylinder and valves.

—makes today's greatest non-premium fuel for modern motors!

It lubricates the intake valves, prevents sticking, and forms little or no carbon!

If you want to get more and lower cost miles out of a gallon of gas, try the new Good Gulf Gasoline today. It doesn't cost a penny more.

The new lubricating Good Gulf Gasoline contains an upper cylinder lubricant made by an exclusive Gulf process. This lubricant—correctly blended with that Good Gulf Gasoline, the famous fresh gas
