

BANKS MUST INSTALL SERVICE CODE

The N. R. A. Code of Fair Competition for banks approved by the President goes into effect October 16, 1933.

This Code, as approved, calls for the installation of the following schedule of charges which will be standard among all banks operating under the N. R. A.

Your local banks in complying with this Code will put this schedule into effect, Monday, Oct. 16, 1933.

SERVICE CHARGES FOR TEXAS BANKS

Checking Account Charges

1—Active Commercial Accounts

(a) Account with average daily balance below and including $50, with 5 checks or less, a minimum monthly service charge of 50 cents; each check in addition to the 5 free checks 3 cents.

Balances of $50 and under, with only one check per month, not considered active, and are exempted from 50 cents service charge.

Note—Non-taxable counter receipts are counted as checks.

Examples of Computation

Average Daily Balance	No. of Checks	Monthly Charge
$30	5	50 cents
35	6	53 cents
49	8	59 cents

50 or under 1 no charge

(b) Accounts with average daily balance above $50, 1 check free for each $10 balance; each check in addition to the free checks, 3 cents, with minimum charge of 50 cents for additional checks.

Note—Non-taxable counter receipts are counted as checks.

Examples of Computation

Average Daily Bal.	No. of Checks	Free	3c per Chg.	Monthly
$60	4	6	1	50c
75	8	7	1	50c
100	17	10	7	60c
100	30	10	20	60c
700	100	70	30	90c
1000	125	100	25	75c

Exceptions—Accounts of churches, lodges, municipalities and charitable organizations.

2—Chain Stores, Foreign Corporations, etc.

Accounts with large deposits or much activity should be carefully analyzed, particularly the accounts of chain stores, foreign corporations, etc., and after careful analysis a fair monthly charge should be fixed.

It is suggested that the following rates and factors be used in making this analysis:

(a) Rates

Paid checks	3c
Transit items	2c
Clearing house and other local items	1c

(b) Factors in Account Analysis

Total or Daily Balances	$
Less Float	$
Less Legal Reserve	$
Net Loanable Balances	$
(1) Interest on Net Loanable Balances	—@—%

(From this interest on loanable funds deduct items as follows:)

Checks paid at 3c	$
Transit items at 2c	$
Local items at 1c	$
Credits at	$
Collections at	$
Ex. absorbed at	$
Interest at	$
Checks printed at	$
Other charges at	$
(2) Total Cost	$
Profit or loss	$

The difference between (1) Total Interest on Loanable Funds and (2) Total Cost of Handling the Account, represents the profit or loss on the account.

3—Saving Accounts, Time and Interest Bearing Deposits

A monthly minimum charge of 50 cents against accounts having more than 5 withdrawals per calendar month, with daily average balance for the month is less than $100.

A minimum charge of 50 cents on savings accounts closed within three months, where the average monthly balance has been less than $50.

No interest allowed on savings balances (See Bankers Code back page)

Cotton Growers to Be Paid $3-$11 Rentals

Washington, Oct. 7.—Cotton growers will be paid rentals of from $3 to $11 an acre to let their lands lie idle next year in the government's newest program for trimming surplus farm production.

The scale of payments will be based on the potential yields of the land under the control program made public today by the farm adjustment administration which aims to bring plantings down to 25,000,000 acres in 1934 as compared to about 41,000,000 this year.

It was estimated that the cost would be about $100,000,000. This will be met by continuing the processing tax of 4.2 cents a pound for another year.

Farm administrators said they intend to launch within two weeks their campaign to obtain agreements for reducing the plantings. The first step will be organization of county associations of growers.

Speed is necessary to make the control campaign parallel the government's program of making loans of ten cents a pound on cotton held by farmers. The latter will be put into operation soon under the plans approved by President Roosevelt, with loans being extended by a commodity credit corporation to farmers who agree to join in next year's reduction program.

Annual P. S. P. Fair Declared a Success

Proclaimed a success by exhibitors, visitors and its sponsors, a 20th annual Panhandle-South Plains fair came to a noisy close last night after its most brilliant display of pyrotechnics.

The rollicking tune of a merry-go-round, creaking of a ferris wheel, rattle and roar of other riding devices, undertone of voices of a pleasure seeking throng, hoarse calls of barkers—these were the sounds of the exposition's discordant swan song.

To Pay Every Award The fair will pay every award in full. Although they had not received complete reports of the income and the disbursements, directors meeting yesterday voted to pay the premium list as announced. Fair weather and huge crowds had made it possible.

In attendance, the exposition was one of the largest ever conducted here.

The turnstiles recorded entrance of 124,524, a six-day average of more than 20,750 persons. Yesterday's attendance of 30,243 visitors was second only to the peak day, Wednesday, when the school children swelled the total to more than 43,000—an all-time record.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Cotton Production Estimate 12,885,000

Washington, Oct. 9.—Cotton production this year was forecast today by the department of agriculture at 12,885,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight, compared with 12,414,000 bales indicated a month ago, and 13,002,000 produced last year.

The condition of the crop on October 1, was 66.7 per cent of a normal compared with 67.5 a month ago, 54.2 on Oct. 1, a year ago, and 57.1, the ten year average on Oct. 1.

The indicated yield per acre was announced as 205.3 pounds, compared with 197.8 indicated a month ago, 173.3 pounds produced last year, and 167.4 pounds the ten year average.

LEARN A LESSON FROM LADIES' AUXILIARY

The Chronicle, of Clarendon, Virginia, recently published an article urging local citizens to take an interest in the local fire department and ascertain its needs from the standpoint of being properly equipped with standard apparatus capable of protecting life and property at all times.

It pointed out that a town might save a few thousand dollars a year by maintaining an inferior department, but only at the risk of loss of life and thousands of dollars in property damage.

Answering this article, the president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Clarendon Voluntary Fire Department, wrote the editor stating that all of the lady members of the Auxiliary had visited the Clarendon fire department, looked over its personnel and apparatus, found it well equipped and an efficient fire-fighting machine.

Editor Takes Summer Vacation in the Fall

Well, the Herald editor couldn't get hold of enough money in the summer to take his vacation, so decided on one in the early fall, and it was planned to pester our wife's kin folks at Coahoma, Howard county. The editor and family left here Saturday about 9:30, a leisurely drive was made to the Howard county capital, arriving in Big Spring slightly after noon, stopping just long enough to slack our thirst, and thence to Coahoma, twelve miles east.

There is a wonderful feed and cotton crop from here to Lamesa, or to be exact, a few miles this side for cotton. Rains came too late for cotton from there nearly to Big Spring, but they have a bumper feed crop, hundreds of thousands of acres of it, now in the head, and if frost or freeze stays off until Nov. 1st, they will never get done harvesting it. Its value of course remains to be seen. There is a fine cotton and feed crop north of Coahoma, which is their regular territory, but their gins were nothing like as busy as Brownfield gins.

A bunch of us went back to Big Spring in the afternoon, as we had never met that News bunch. We found Hayden & Hayden to be real men and typical newspaper men of the weekly class, and that being our class we had a real fine half hour visit with them. They are getting out one of the best weeklies in west Texas, and their merchants are real advertisers. We met several old acquaintances, included in which was Rance King, manager of Montgomery Ward store, Jap Corning and Mrs. John Scudday, and had short chats with them. Rance was as busy as two birds with one stone, and had time to chat with an old friend, and show us through their store.

Now, just a few words about this great "beer guzzling" you've heard so much about. We visited many cafes and other places where the 3.2 was sold Saturday afternoon, and the most of the drinking was done by cotton kickers and visitors to the city. Most of the Big Spring people were drinking coke, coffee and milk. That's the truth—the whole truth. They may be having it sent by case to their homes and drinking, but not much at the dispensaries. We never saw a man or woman the least intoxicated. In fact, we did not see but three women drinking at public places.

Yes, we had a great time—lots of fun—lots of eats.

Grading and Drainage On 137 to Be Let Mon.

Next Monday the grading and drainage contract on No. 137 from Brownfield to the Gaines county line near Seagraves, will be let by the State Highway Commission at Austin, and it is hoped that everything will be in shape soon thereafter for the work to be started. Our understanding is that the contractors must sign an agreement to use local labor that has been listed here by the RFC for the job.

It is hoped that before long the Commission will let the contract for the caliche base and hot top for the road from here to the Hockley county line near Ropes, and that by next summer we will have a real all-weather road finished through here. As Yoakum county has no State road except 84, which passes through here, many people believe that road will be finished and hot topped from here to the Yoakum county line west, in order to give that county an outlet to a paved road here, and also to connect them with a paved road in New Mexico at Broncho.

If all this work materializes in the next year, it is sure going to be a big help as it will keep an almost constant flow of State and Federal money into the city and county.

SMALL HOPE FOR WILL'S HOPE

While flying over Hoover Dam on a recent air trip from Chicago to the Coast, Will Rogers dropped off his daily message to the newspapers. One of his remarks was: "Hope they don't irrigate more land so they can raise more things they can't sell, and will have to plow up more rows, kill more pigs to keep 'em from becomin' hogs."

Our politicians still talk glibly of pouring new millions into irrigation schemes to make more farms out of waste land and deserts, thus boosting over-production of agricultural crops, which another group of politicians will expect the taxpayers to pay for, to bring about farm relief.

Spare the rod and spoil the child;

Wheatley Shows Stuff Of the Old Pioneer

One of the most optimistic men we have met of late is right in the heart of the driest section of Terry county. He was in early Monday morning to trade us 100 pounds of corn chops on his subscription to the Herald. This man is J. O. Wheatley. He says that just because it was dry, did not deter him from keeping on trying. He would plant on a shower only to see his stuff come up, wilt and die. But he would try again. As a consequence, he said that he would get enough heads to run his farm and worlds of bundles.

The subject of whether or not many would leave the county came up and he was of the opinion that there would not be any more than normal. "Many are like me," he said, "unable to leave, and if they do, how much better off will they be? They can come nearer getting help right here than elsewhere, and where they go may be drouthy next year, and a bumper crop on the farm they left."

Screen, Radio Stars Joined in Comedy Hit

Peggy Hopkins Joyce, W.C. Fields, Rudy Vallee, Stewart Erwin, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Sari Maritza, Col Stoopnagle and Budd, Cab Calloway and his orchestra, and Baby Rose Marie head the all-star cast of stage, screen and radio favorites in "International House," Paramount's musical comedy hit, at the Rialto Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Others in the cast are Bela Lugosi, Lona Andre, Sterling Holloway, Franklin Pangborn, Edmund Breese and Lumsden Hare. The girls in Cellophane, as comely a group of chorines as ever pranced before cameras, furnish the dance numbers. "International House" is one of the most lavishly-produced films ever to leave Hollywood, and its cast includes probably more and bigger "names" than ever before were assembled for one picture. Its music is lively and fresh, and at least two of its numbers, "Thank Heaven for You," sung by Rudy Vallee, and "Hy Blue Bird's Singing the Blues," sung by Baby Rose Marie, are already popular favorites. Cab Calloway and his band sing and play, respectively, "Reefer Man," one of his hit tunes.

The plot deals with a group of big business representatives from all over the world who are assembled in a Chinese hotel to outbid each other on a marvelous new invention. The complications that result are highly humorous.

Readers—Call For Magazine Supplement

For the past several months we have been delivering to readers a monthly magazine supplement with the Herald. This supplement is printed in Fort Worth for us, but the postoffice department has decided that it is no part of the Herald, and asks us an exorbitant postage rate on it.

All those who wish this month's issue, that was to go with this week's paper, can have same by calling at the Herald office for it. This will be the last issue we will receive, as we are notifying the publishers in Fort Worth to send no more. The P. O. Department is constantly calling on papers for free publicity, stating there is no funds to pay for same, but they sure like to wring every penny they can from the publisher.

502 Checks Received By Terry Co. Farmers

County agent R. C. Reed informed us this week that he had received a total of 502 checks for plow up cotton, belonging to Terry county farmers, totaling todate $111,241.00 and which leaves a balance of $88,350.00. To this add 5042 bales of optioned cotton, which at the present price amounts another $100,431.00.

Mr. Reed explained that while the process seemed slow, there had to be a complete personnel set up, a building secured, and a million checks written. Next week Mr. Reed will give a complete explanation of the 1934-35 cotton plan. Watch for it.

Two Men Are Hurt When Car Turns Over

Dr. Lester Treadaway was called to the Johnson store just over the line in Yoakum county early Wednesday afternoon to render first aid to two men who were injured when a blow-out caused their car to overturn. Roy Collier of the Brownfield Undertaking Co., also went out with the ambulance to bring them to the Treadaway Hospital, where they are receiving medical and surgical attention. The doctor says he does not believe they are seriously injured, although one of them had a dislocated shoulder which had to be put in cast.

The two men, who were driving alone, were R. H. McCrumes, who is said to be secretary-treasurer of the Roswell Building and Loan Association, and C. L. Allison a Roswell contractor. Both men appear to be around 60 years of age. They were on their way to Little Rock, Ark., to attend a business meeting.

Bankers Code Has Approval of President

Elsewhere in this issue of the Herald, you will find an article that explains fully the conditions and extra charges to customers that must be made by all bankers under the NRA code, which the bankers have adopted, and which has been approved by President Roosevelt. You will also find a large display ad about the matter that is being run jointly by the local banks this week.

The Herald advises its readers who do business with the banks here to read carefully, both the article and the ad, and then if there is anything connected with the matter that you do not fully understand, ask any officer or employee of your bank and they will gladly explain it. They will also be glad to tell you how to reduce these charges to the minimum.

Slaton Lady Killed In Auto Accident

Lamesa, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Orval McMillan, 54, of Slaton was killed instantly and her 61-year-old husband was seriously injured in an automobile accident on the highway about five miles north of here tonight.

The McMillians were en route to Lamesa to visit their son, T. K. McMillin, and his family when their car, driven by Mr. McMillin turned over. Mrs. McMillin was thrown clear of the car which stopped in an upright position.

Car Uncontrollable

The car became uncontrollable, it was said, when Mr. McMillin applied the brakes and swerved the car suddenly on an incline, about a mile and a half south of Arvana.

Mrs. McMillin's body will be taken overland to Whitewright Sunday for burial there, according to Higginbotham Funeral home.

DIPHTHERIA TAKES 800 TEXAS CHILDREN ANNUALLY

Austin, Texas.—Texas lost over 800 of its children last year from one preventable cause. The disease responsible was diphtheria. Dr. N. N. Barnett, Director, Bureau Child Hygiene, in commenting on the loss, said, "diphtheria could be practically eliminated if parents would take the children to their family physician and have them immunized as soon after they reach six months of age as possible."

Parents would not allow their children to walk in front of a moving car, so why will they allow them to run the danger of contracting diphtheria. This immunization should be done as soon as possible as the winter months are the ones in which the most deaths occur and it takes some time for immunity to occur."

LOST INFANT

W. H. Morrow of Meadow informed us Monday that he and wife had lost their infant child, which was born last Thursday night about 8:00 o'clock at a maternity room in Dr. G. W. Graves' office. The little one was a premature and lived only an hour after being born. The body was taken to Childress, Texas, for burial. Mrs. Morrow is doing as well as could be expected.

Cotton Co-ops to Open Office Here Monday

Mr. H. L. Gantz of Lubbock, field man of the Texas Cotton Cooperative Association, was here Tuesday afternoon, and informed the Herald that K. B. McWilliams, now at Post, would be re-located here Monday the 16th, and would have charge of the buying here and at Levelland. We are sure that Mack's many friends here will be glad that he is returning to Brownfield.

Monday, Mr. McWilliams will be fully armed with all the conditions of advancing 10c per pound on cotton to farmers who put it on the compressed platform, and get a receipt for same and sample.

All this, however, can be more fully explained by Mack when he gets here, as loans, we understand, are to be based on agreement to reduction of acreage next year.

Beer Election Here Tuesday October 24th

The Terry County Commissioners Court Monday acted upon a petition before that body asking that an election be held here to see whether or not 3.2 per cent beer can be sold in the incorporated limits of the city of Brownfield. Our understanding is that the election will be held on Tuesday, October 24th.

The petition bore the required number of signatures, all of which are qualified voters, and most of which are among the most prominent business and professional men of the city.

Aryain Dry Goods Starts Big Fall Sale

With a page ad in this issue, and a large order of circulars from the ad, the Aryain Dry Goods store is now ready for the big sale that starts tomorrow. This will be known as their Fall Clearance Sale and covers their entire stock of staple dry goods. Many items advertised in this sale cannot be bought wholesale today for the prices they are offering for them.

Remember too, that the Aryain store makes their NRA mean just what it says by paying a home institution and home workmen to get out their advertising matter. They deserve your support. Anticipate your fall and winter needs now while the price is in reach.

Lions Club to Stage Play October 20th

The Lions Club will stage their charming three act drama on Friday night, October 20th, eight o'clock at the school auditorium. This drama is said to be written around an old Virginian, who falling into financial difficulties, decides to rent his plantation to a rich New Englander. The Yankee decides to install white servants—and the fun starts.

Among those in the cast are Leo Holmes, Paul Lawlis, O. Dennis, R. C. Reed, Wilton Lambert, Ches Gore, and Mesdames Florence Perry, Herman Heath, Clyde Cave, Eunice Jones and Miss Bess Thompson. Mrs. W. B. Toone is directing, and the admission will be 35c and 10c.

Cotton Ginnings Higher Than Were Last Year

Washington, Oct. 9.—Cotton of this year's crop ginned prior to October 1 was reported today by the census bureau to have totaled 5,851,485 bales, which included 195,128 round bales as half bales, and including 616 bales of American-Egyptian.

Ginnings to October 1 last year totaled 4,853,000 running bales. Ginnings to October 1, in Texas, were 2,291,057 bales.

KYLE ADAMS IS JOHN TARLETON FRESHMAN

Stephenville, Texas, Oct. 4.—Kyle Adams of Brownfield is Terry County's only representative at John Tarleton Agricultural College this year. Tarleton has an enrollment of 705 students representing 122 countries of Texas and students from four other states, Alabama, Arkansas, Missouri, and Kentucky.

Preacher Tells Truth About Prohibition

Most ministers of the gospel are so blinded by their prejudices concerning prohibition that they have left off preaching temperance and have for the past several years used their pulpits to preach prohibition—drink prevention by law. This pet hobby is being reddy by state after state just as fast as the voters can get to the subject matter. It is refreshing to read that there is at least one preacher that has discovered the truth, and that most preachers have tried to drive people to swallow bone dry prohibition to the detriment of the churches. The following article was printed in a recent issue of the Gospel Advocate, and was written by W. E. Brightwell, a minister of one of the churches of Christ in Nashville, Tennessee:

"Without preamble, allow one who has been all his life time a rock ribbed prohibitionist—in the roll of a private citizen—to say that if not another word were ever spoken from the pulpit on the subject, it would take at least 50 years for the church to live down the effects of having dabbled in the fight. And where has it helped the political situation? We are almost back to where we first started—and are headed in exactly the opposite direction to that in which we were then going. The aid of the church did not prove permanent politically, and how much prestige did the church lose spiritually! It cannot expend its energies busting political heads without dropping behind in the count of winning souls.

"The world thinks less of the church for its pains in trying to reform it. This may be ingratitude on the world's part, but it is surely poor judgment on the part of the church. There was nothing of the reformer about Jesus Christ. He made no effort to change the existing laws or customs of society. He did not address himself to society, but to the individual. He did not seek to reform the individual, but to transform him. Of course, in the working out of his process of converting men, his teachings have had much bearing upon secular affairs, because society as well as the church is made up of individuals. As you convert the individual, you convert the nation, and that is the only way in which any permanent success will ever be achieved.

"When the church stoops to political reform, it is merely seeking to obtain quicker results by methods of coercion, but in doing so it rejects Christ's method for the spiritual conquest of the world. The advantage of keeping the church separate from politics is recognized. It does not help politics much less religion! An impartial abstention from all things political, consistently lived up to, will bring about a revival of respect for the church.

"Consistent with this strict policy of aloofness, however, the church can keep its eyes open to what is going on in the world, and fit the emphasis of its teachings to the need of the hour. Since public sentiment has all but erased every law on drink, the time is surely ripe for the church to return to the Lord's plan of transforming the individual by the process of teaching, and instruct both young and old upon the evils of personal intemperance. Without the aid of legislation, education must assume the responsibility of maintaining sobriety in the world. The church can wisely consider what men most need in arranging their diet of spiritual food."

TOM CHEEK URGES QUICK INFLATION

Oklahoma City, Oct. 4.—Immediate inflation "to increase purchasing power to farmers" was urged in a telegram sent to President Roosevelt today by Tom Cheek, president of the Oklahoma Farmers Union.

Cheek charged the recent pig buying program had created "a hotbed of unrest among Oklahoma farmers" and that the benefits did not reach the grass root farmer.

"The purchasing power of the farmer has decreased in the last year," Cheek said. "A bale of cotton last year would buy 60 bags of flour; today it buys 28."

"We should have inflation while the produce is in the farmer's hands in order to restore the purchasing power of agriculture," Cheek said he had not lost confidence in President Roosevelt, "but have lost confidence in some of his advisors."

The fact that advertising pays is quite evident when one reads of the

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS AND RADIO

People have long since learned that the ether waves are politically controlled. When you hear an address now on government or bureau, you may rest assured that the story has been "cocked and primed" by an expert lest something get away that will stir up friction.

A few of the large dailies yet remain outside the fold of the nationally controlled organs of news disseminators. Despite the fact that weekly papers are in the majority in point of number, very few editors have the intestinal fortitude to express a candid opinion. Still fewer have sufficient knowledge to give expression to a sensible idea. The great big majority do not own "their own soul" as the saying is, and never attempt anything that will give offense in the least no matter how right the information at hand, or how much the readers of that sheet are entitled to it.

In this as in every great crisis, the free, untrammelled press is the means by which the public gets the actual information. It is not always desired because of the nature of it, but if the condition exists, there is but one way to remedy that bad condition, and that is by and through public sentiment. The people deserve to know the truth about public affairs no matter how much or who it might hurt. Only when our political leaders learn that their actions will become public property, and only then may we expect a square deal at all times. We need more publicity of the right kind.—Clarendon Leader.

THE INDIAN BOY

Story for Boys and Girls by Carlyle Emery Epidode No. 48.

Michael, a scoundrel from the Northwest, has a partner called Weasel, and they are supposedly on their way to Fort Snowden with Alvin Carter. But Michael is after the six hundred dollars in Alvin's money belt. Two days after they leave, a stranger arrives at the Fort and says, "Michael is up to no good." What's more the stranger announces that he is Carter's brother. So Red Eagle and Red Goose jump on their ponies and start off, determined to bring Alvin Carter back safely—now go on with the story.

In the meanwhile, Michael and Weasel had pitched camp close by the river bank. Being tired out from a hard day's paddle, they had thrown their packs on the ground, cooked some bacon and eggs, and gone to sleep. Morning came, and Weasel was first to wake up. Finding Michael still asleep, he leaved over and nudging Alvin, whispered, "Carter, wake up—wake up!" "What's the matter, Weasel?" yawned Alvin, waking up slowly and stretching his arms to get the kinks out of them.

"It's about Michael—he's after your money belt." "My money belt?" answered Alvin, now thoroughly awake. "Yes, and he's going to kill you if he can't get it any other way." "Thanks for the warning, Weasel. I'll watch him. How soon will we reach Fort Snowden?" "Sh-h—h—we're not going to Fort Snowden. We're—"

But Weasel never finished what he was saying, for Michael had awakened and jumping quickly to his feet he approached Weasel.

"So—you're telling tales, are you?" he sneered. "Yes, I am," replied Weasel. "I don't intend to stand by and see you kill this boy."

With a single blow of his fist Michael dropped Weasel. Then, turning to Alvin, he commanded: "Back up to that tree!"

Alvin slowly backed up to a large tree and stood facing Michael, who now meant to get his business done in a hurry.

"Give me your money belt!" he demanded.

"Come and get it you coward," Alvin shouted. "Men who rob boys haven't a streak of bravery in them."

"I'll give you until I count three. If you don't drop your money belt on the ground by then, I'll shoot."

CORPORATION FARMING WILL NOT LAST SAYS SENATOR CAPPER

Will farms run by corporations on mass production principles crowd out the small farmer? Senator Arthur Capper believes they will not.

"The reasons," the Kansas senator writes in the current Rotarian Magazine, "why the corporation farm will not become well established as a practice in this country reach much deeper than temporary economic difficulties, vicious as they may be. The great strength of the individually operated farm is in its competitive adaptability. The weakness of the corporation farming enterprise lies in its inability swiftly to change or materially to modify its production program."

"Failures of corporation farms during the last two years, and they have been numerous, were caused by the failure of the one source of income in which they depended. They cannot happen on a farm where there are numerous sources of income, including livestock and poultry. Income may shrink there, but it will not entirely dry up. The corporation must have income or all activity ceases.

"Hired management, even though expert, cannot entirely offset the gains that are certain to accrue from the operation of a farm by a man who is personally interested in making a success of it, even though he may not be an expert. There enters the human equation, and it is a vital one," he continues, "The fact is that the corporation farm does no better job than the good, average farmer in crop production, and at no lower cost.

"One aspect of the question, which has nothing to do with the conflict between the individual farm and the corporation farm, or the ability of one or the other to survive," he points out, "nevertheless is of general concern.

"The United States has been built on a foundation consisting of two parts. One is the great industrial and manufacturing development. The other is an independent, vigorous, virile agriculture, made up of individual families. The farming industry is fundamentally conservative because it is individualistic. It is anti-communistic, anti-socialistic. It is essentially democratic and I hold it to be the greatest bulwark of the democratic form of government that the United States possesses."—Rotarian.

WHISKEY QUOTA RAISED BY DORAN

Washington, Oct. 7.—Dr. James M. Doran, Commissioner of Industrial alcohol, has extended by 7,000,000 gallons the distillery industry's whiskey quota for the year bringing it to a total of 18,000,000 gallons. Originally a quota of 4,000,000 gallons was allotted. Late in August this was increased by 7,000,000 gallons. The more recent extension was explained as not due to the approach of repeal but to lack of whiskey for medicinal purposes.

WARRIORS MUST SERVE ON EQUAL FOOTING WITH OTHER CITIZENS

Chicago, Oct. 2.—President Roosevelt got the cheers of the men of the World War today as he told the American Legion Convention in plain words but with a friendly smile that the veterans must serve on equal footing with other citizens in regard to government relief.

What became of the idea to reform the national bankruptcy laws?

YOUTH NOT SO FLAMING

Many evidences are at hand to show that the young people of 1933 are looking ahead with a clearer notion of "what it's all about" than did their parents. They recognize froth for what it is.

A smart magazine, popular only a few years ago with college students, has, in the vernacular, "folded up" for want of support. The football hero of yesteryear isn't lionized quite so much as he was. Why? "We see him in the classrooms," one young lady smilingly told an inquirer. Athletics are increasingly regarded as means of acquiring personal enjoyment and health and not as public spectacles alone. In short, a new youth, not quite so incandescent as his older brother or sister, is emerging from these late depression days.

The plain fact is, however, that the whole world is getting over a giddy headache, brought on by the World War. It is seeing more clearly than it did. The response to the National Recovery Act is in itself testimony of a growing understanding of the troubles of economic and social health. Newspapers are printing less news on "sex, money, and crime" to make space for news on science, business, religion, and education. Labor controversies are being settled more and more by arbitration and less and less by violence and bloodshed. In short, youth is but one of many signs of the times that a new epoch is emerging.—Rotarian.

IMMATERIAL TO HIM

It was in a town just south of the Mason and Dixon line, where political lines were closely drawn among members of the colored as well as the white race.

It happened that the two important darkies who headed their respective political organizations in the town were both deacons in the same church. It was the Sunday before election day, and the preacher made the mistake of asking Deacon Brown, head of the Darktown Republican Club, to lead the congregation in prayer. He did. And at the close of his prayer on general matters he grew specific, and ended up: "An' Oh Lawd! Bless the Republicans in dis heah town an' see dat they hang togethah!"

"Amen!" loud and clear and in tones of triumph came from Deacon Smith, Democratic leader.

"Wait a minute, Lawd," continued the Republican Deacon. "Ah don' mean fo' de Republicans to hang lak Deacon Smith means. Ah means fo' dem to hang togethah in concord an' in accord."

"Any cord, Lawd—any cord, jes' so long as they hang," cut in Deacon Smith.—The Gulf Coast Lumberman.

"Thank Goodness, Jim, COLD WEATHER NEVER DELAYS US!"

Ann: "Betty would be late on our first air trip, but as usual when it gets cold, it's to be expected." Jim: "You mean that temperature actually has an effect on her promptness?" Ann: "Yes, she is very prompt ordinarily—it's a case of car trouble in cold weather. Bill doesn't see that the difficulty is in his choice of gas and oil." Jim: "Well, Ann, you couldn't expect everybody to buy Conoco, could you?" Ann: "If everyone knew how Conoco oil and gasoline protect both you and your motor against the difficulties of cold weather driving they would!" Jim: "Guess I'd better get Bill on the phone and see what the delay is!" Ann: "Please do!"

YOU HAVE ONLY A FEW MINUTES BETTY
I KNOW JIM BUT BILL JUST GOT THE CAR STARTED AFTER HALF HOUR TRYING YOU DID GET HERE, I'M SO GLAD!
CAR TROUBLE? BETTER TELL BILL TO BUY CONOCO GAS NEXT TIME

Betty: "We had the most awful time, Ann! We were ready to leave in plenty of time, but when Bill tried to get the motor started, it wouldn't budge. After running down the battery he rolled the car out of the garage and got some one to push it till it started—and just in time. The car just doesn't seem to work right." Ann: "It isn't the car, Betty, it's the oil and gas Bill buys. Why don't you tell him to get Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil and Conoco Bronze Gasoline—they are more economical and have cold weather performance that gives us instant starting and 'Hidden Quart' protection." Betty: "I'm sold!—and Bill will be too just as soon as I get to him!"

CONOCO
at the sign of the Red Triangle

Full motor protection, especially in cold motor starting, can be found only in Conoco Germ Processed (Paraffin Base) Motor Oil because of the penetrating oiliness, called "The Hidden Quart" stays up in your motor and never drains away.

Instant Starting and Lightning Pick-up can best be obtained with Conoco Bronze Gasoline, and without sacrifice of Long Mileage, Greater Power and Anti-Knock advantages. For cold weather starting it cannot be excelled.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The N. R. A. Bankers Code of Fair Competition has been approved by President Roosevelt and will go into effect on Monday, October 16, 1933.

Among other thing this Code calls for the following changes in banking practices:

BANKING HOURS:—Banks of Brownfield will observe the standard hours from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., each business day, instead of 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. as heretofore.

SERVICE CHARGES:—All banks are required to install a standard system of service charges. The schedule of charges which has been approved for all banks, and made mandatory by the N. R. A., appears elsewhere in this paper.

LEGAL HOLIDAYS:—All legal holidays which are observed as such in Texas will be observed by the local banks. The following days will be observed as legal holidays, and any holiday falling on Sunday will be observed the following Monday.

New Years Day, January 1; Robert E. Lee's Birthday, January 19; Lincoln's Birthday, February 12; Washington's Birthday, February 22; Texas Independence Day, March 2; San Jacinto Day, April 21; Decoration Day, May 30; Jefferson Davis' Birthday, June 3; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day, first Monday in September; Columbus Day, October 12; Armistice Day, November 11; Thanksgiving Day, last Thursday in November; Christmas Day, December 25th.

Any Officer or Employee of your bank will be glad to explain the above changes in practices, in detail to you with special regard to the service charges and help you arrange your business in such a manner that the charges will be kept to a minimum.

FALL OPENING SALE

We have no long speil to make about this SALE—we have no gaudy pictures to make you think you are getting a great deal for nothing. This is simply an early fall sale and ABSOLUTELY GENUINE. In this sale you will find many items that we are selling today below present wholesale cost. Yet, they are new, seasonable goods; the kind that are in demand by the stylishly dressed, as well as work day clothes that are new and popular. This sale was made possible by heavy buying of staple goods earlier in the year before the addition of the processing tax, and we are passing this on to the buyer. Anticipate your needs for months in advance, for with the general rise in raw materials and labor, you cannot possibly expect these staple goods to be lower. Here are just a few of the many bargains; there are hundreds of others just as good:

EAR COLUMN

...an column of the first taken up in telling the peo- out the great Mulkey meet- ch had just closed. He convert- ed many and most of the churches here at that time had benefited by additions. Dr. Lively's article for the week told us about Uncle Sam's great salt mines in the southwest. We called attention to the fact that we were carrying Montgomery Ward & Co. ads, and gave our reason for doing so—they had offered to pay our rate.

Editorially we commented that Rev. Abe Mulkey had advised young men to get some of Terry's good soil if they had to go in debt for it. There was a watermelon vine in Terry that year that was said to have 50 melons on it averaging in weight from 25 to 50 pounds. A Lubbock firm was advertising that they were going to get cottonseed from Memphis, Texas, that would be adapted to the Plains section.

Local News: Mrs. Lou Key was over from Gomez, shopping. Mrs. Kinard had moved to town to be near school. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Copeland of Meadow was visiting relatives here. Mrs. G. M. Cosby was down from Lubbock visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. Cosby. Mr. Herring of Spar, was here visiting his brother, John Herring, principal of our schools. J. B. Garrison of Matador, former citizen, was visiting here. A light rain had fallen over Terry. W. G. Meyers was in from the farm north of Gomez, and reported his crop a failure. T. C. Ivey and wife of Yoakum county had been attending the Mulkey meeting. Jack Bryan and wife were in from the ranch and were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel. N. N. Ross had moved his family to town for schooling. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Blankenship were down from Hockley county, taking in the Mulkey meeting.

Tom May of Lubbock was down visiting his parents. Dave Shaw of Harris, was spending some days here. Mrs. Tom Williams was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sparks in the Valley community. Mrs. Mollie Abernathy and son, Dick Jarrot, were down from the ranch in Hockley. Atty. Garland and family from Lamesa, attended the Mulkey meeting the past Sunday. Jess Hamilton had secured a lucrative position with a Plainview dry goods firm. J. F. Winston reported that he saw a bale of cotton and the seed sell for $91—at Lubbock. The Herald was modestly proud that its readers lived from the New England states to California, and from Panama to Canada. Judge Copeland and son-in-law, Manion Cosby had purchased the Red Cross Drug Store at Lubbock. The Brownfield students that went to college passed their exams. Bob Majors, Tahoka grain man, was over on business. W. J. French had carried his first six bales of cotton to Lamesa to have them ginned.

The Maids and Matrons had met in their first meeting of the year with Mrs. W. A. Bell, Mrs. W. R. Spencer presiding. Mrs. Hargett had been elected a new member. It was rumored here that the second school house in Meadow's time had been burned at Meadow. All for this week.

THE DEATH GLARE OF AUTOMOBILE LIGHTS

In a Kentucky cemetery there is a grave stone erected for H. P. Nolan, Assistant State Game Warden. After reciting the facts of his career, it is stated on the marble, "The accident was caused by the glaring lights of a passing automobile."

The time is coming soon, says the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters, when glaring lights will be outlawed. Many municipalities, and some states, are prescribing rules for the regulation of the lights.

In a recent survey conducted by the Travelers Insurance Company it is set forth that from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. in 1932, there were 409,000 accidents in which 13,100 persons were killed, or 32 for every 1,000 accidents. From 6 p. m. to 6 a. m. there were 336,200 accidents, but 15,500 or 46 per 1,000. In other words, the death rate per accident was 43.7 per cent worse during darkness than daylight. The figures would still have been more unfavorable if they had started at 5 p. m. instead of 6 p. m., particularly in winter.

Automobile accidents during dusk and darkness are more likely to result in serious injuries and death because vision is reduced by inadequate illumination and because headlight glare from approaching cars momentarily blinds drivers.

Engineering societies are working on headlight codes and automobile manufacturers are working out devices to prevent direct rays of headlights from striking eyes of motorists, the object being to reduce the "glare hazard" to a minimum. If this problem can be solved, an important contribution to safety will have been made.

PESSIMISTIC OPINION

"They say that in order to be happy," said the young woman who reads a great deal, "a man ought to be a fool or a philosopher."

"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne. "If a man is a fool he can't get a woman to accept him. And if he is as wise as philosophers are credited with being he won't propose."

FELLOWSHIP STUDENT EXCHANGE WITH MEXICO

Austin, Texas.—Exchange fellowships between the University of Texas and the National University of Mexico for 1933-34 have been awarded to the following students: Miss Charmion Claire Shelby of Austin, Fritz Leo Hoffman of New Braunfels and Weldon Litsey of Ft. Worth, of the University of Texas; Marie Ballestreos Guadarrama, Ivan Lagunes Perez and Ignacio Gavaldon Salamanca of the National University of Mexico. Both Hoffman and Litsey held the Farmer Fellowship to the University of Mexico last year.

By a provision of the will of the late E. D. Farmer of Parker county, Texas, the amount which would otherwise would have been paid as inheritance taxes on the estate was left to the Board of Regents of the University for the purpose of establishing an International Scholarship Fund for the exchange of students between the National University of Mexico and the University of Texas. A bill passed by the 41st Legislature authorized the payment of this sum to the board of regents for the purpose above mentioned, this payment to operate a release of the State's lien upon the inheritance tax.

The Comptroller of Public Accounts appraised the estate and reported that the largest amount of inheritance taxes which could be assessed against the estate was $209,933.10. This amount will ultimately be paid as the principal of the scholarship fund, the income of which will be available.

Premier Road Race of 13 Years Ago Back With Greater Thrills Than Ever

Above: A typical scene in the recent Elgin National Road Race. Each car leaves the ground as it hits the point in the road known as "Aviation Hill." Below: Phil Shafer, veteran racing driver, who won the feature event in record time of 88.34 miles per hour average over the rough concrete and dusty gravel.

Revival of the historic Elgin National Road Race at Elgin, Ill., that spectacular event which recently thrilled the automotive world, has brought back after a lapse of 13 years one of America's most fascinating and valuable races, according to Firestone Tire & Rubber Company engineers. The cars struggle through roads of old rough concrete, hot tarvia and dusty gravel at speeds of 130 miles per hour or more—a terrific ordeal for men, motors, and most of all tires.

When Phil Shafer, famous veteran driver, finished the 200-mile grind with an average of 88.34 miles per hour over the 8 1/2-mile course he broke the old record by nine miles per hour.

From grandstands in the cornfields 30,000 spectators saw the thrilling contest. So gruelling was the test that only 6 of the 14 cars finished.

The 200-mile stock-car race, in the morning, was also spectacular. Fred Frame, 1932 Indianapolis race winner, captured this event, with the amazing average speed of 80.22 miles per hour with a Ford V-8.

All the Firestone Tires used in the stock car race, including those on the winning car, were standard stock tires.

FRIENDS and CUSTOMERS

As you have probably noticed, we have practically tripled the capacity of our grocery store, making it so much more convenient for our customers to shop in comfort.

In spreading out, and adding new features to our store, such as more and better display windows, room for the customers to conveniently pass each other on busy shopping days, will not cost them one penny extra. We have taken this extra expense on ourselves. Indeed, we do not feel that it will be any added expense to anyone, as our customers who like to do so, may now shop themselves unhampered, and it will also allow the clerks to wait on others with greater dispatch.

If you have not already visited us, do so at your earliest convenience. Whether you wish to buy or not at that time, we want to show you through our store. We want to show you the advantages of shopping here. We want to show you that we are prepared to save money for our customers.

Brownfield is the home town of every member of our firm and every one of its employees. Every employer and employee are working under the NRA and glad to do so. As this is home to us, it is our aim and purpose from time to time to add new features to our already up-to-date store.

BROWNFIELD IS DEFEATED BY SEMINOLE

Saturday, October 7, the second team of Brownfield High School went to Seminole and played football. The final score was Seminole 13 and Brownfield 0.

Seminole scored as soon as they got possession of the ball in the first quarter. They ran through the Cub's line for many successive gains after this, but never did get loose again. Brownfield could not make any progress with the ball and neither team scored until the fourth quarter. A Seminole player then intercepted a pass and made a 50 yard run to the 2 yard line. They then plunged the ball over for another touchdown. There was no more scoring and the game ended Seminole 13 and Brownfield nothing.

The Cub's line showed up poorly against the Indians but the backfield looked better. Brownfield plays their next game with Odessa here Friday, Oct. 13. Their first conference game is with Lamesa Oct. 27.

CUBS MEET ODESSA - Friday, October 13, the Brownfield Cubs will play Odessa here. Odessa has a strong team this year and is expecting to win. It will take much fight and pep to beat them, but the Cubs have got it. Everybody be there Friday, October 13, 4:00 p. m. Your presence and your boosting will help the Cubs to win.

LETTERMAN'S ASSOCIATION ENTERTAINED

Monday evening, October 9, the lettermen of 1932 met at the home of O. D. Thomas to celebrate their captain's birthday. Thomas furnished them a very fine evening of entertainment, and everyone expressed himself as having had a very good time.

Pete Owens was the man who took off honors as the clown of the party when he sang his favorite tune, "Show Me the Way to Go Home."

He also gave a good demonstration of mimicry, and kept everyone moaning with laughter throughout the dinner.

The only regret that the club has is that they were fed too heavily before Pete took the stage. At the close, the boys presented O. D. with a gold football.

Those present were Messrs. Woodrow Chambliss, Bill Brown, Pete Owens, O. D. Huckabee, J. D. Stewart, Truett Flache, Weldon Moore, R. L. Bandy, Guy Tankersley. Special guests were Coach Daniel, Marner Price, and Toots Thomas.

Mr. Daniel: "Really, Wilton, your handwriting is terrible. You must of 35 cents.

(2) Incoming - On cash transfers, interest on funds while in transit, with minimum charge of 50 cents.

(j) New Accounts - A minimum charge of 50 cents for opening a new account with an initial deposit of less than $50. This charge is to be waived where the account is interrelated with a profitable account, or where the account proves profitable over a reasonable period of time.

(k) Safe Deposit Vault - (1) Safe Deposit box rentals, a minimum charge of $2.00 per year. No free boxes.

(2) Storage Boxes, ordinary size, minimum charge of $1.00 per year.

(3) Storage Envelopes, minimum charge of 50 cents per year.

(4) Safe Keeping of Negotiable Securities, same as schedule 15, Trust Section, Texas Bankers Association, page 16, as follows: "A minimum charge of $1.00 per $1000 par value. Where stocks of no par value are held, they are to be considered of the value of $100.00 per share."

(1) Trust Department - Charges should be those set forth in the 1930 schedule of fees, Trust Section, Texas Bankers Association.

"PAPER BALLS" IN HIGH SCHOOL

The program for the following Monday was read.

THE PEP SQUAD OF BROWNFIELD HIGH

The girls of Brownfield High School met and organized a pep squad. They selected Miss Winston as their sponsor, Mary Dee Thomas pep leader, and Evelyn Judd and Juanita Murphy as assistant leaders.

They selected red flannel skirts with white turtle neck sweaters as their suits. They think they will have their suits for the next game.

They have built them a bench to stand on out at the football ground so every one will be able to see all of the game. They bought the material and some of the football boys built it for them.

They have been meeting about two evenings out of every week to practice and learn some new yells.

Most of the games are to be away from home this year, but they are planning to go to every one and if they don't get to go people are going to hear from them, and if they get to go they are going to do their part so come on boys and lets win that next game.

STUDY HALL CHANGES

The study hall has been made into a place to study this year instead of a place of recreation. These following rules have been made and are being enforced.

Rules for Study Hall - 1. Silence!!! 2. Pick up heels when walking 3. Not more than two on floor at once.

4. No loafing around library. 5. No speaking permits after tardy bell.

6. No locker permits at any time. 7. No sitting together to study.

These rules if broken will cost the pupil from one to five demerits. The teachers intend to see that these rules are carried out and to make the study hall a suitable place to study.

Esther Ruth: "Oh, I think you are lots better looking than your dad." Kenneth: "I ought to be. I'm a much later model."

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club met Oct. 9, 1933 and chose the motto and aim. They are as follows: Motto: A good way is a sure way. Aim: To make the Home Economics girls into perfect women of tomorrow.

HISTORY CLUB MEETS

Monday, Oct. 9, the History club met in Room 205. They had a very interesting program as indicated below:

in building a strong bod...

The boys' division of that covers training are about the same of the girls. The eighth and grade boys are in one division, the tenth and eleventh are in othe. The first division is under the supervision of Mr. Ledbetter, while the other is under Coach Daniel.

The games for the boys are callesthenics, stunts, basket ball, playground ball, tennis, football, and track. The boys enjoy playing these games for the sport and also for the development of their muscles.

The callesthenics consist of various body, leg, and arm exercises that will build strong muscles, bodies, and also clean minds. The games that are played are ones that will cause the students to use their muscles.

Each Friday the girls are given health lectures that are beneficial that they are about the care of the body and teeth. The boys are also given similar lectures by their supervisors.

Each day the students are given two periods of physical training. The first begins at 10:06 and lasts until 10:34. The second begins at 12:45 and lasts until 1:00. In this training the pupils of the school are benefited in their growth and physical development. The practice tends to correct any physical defect in the pupils. This is the reason the State Department has ruled it should be in every school in Texas.

BASKET BALL CLUB

M. L. Penn, the basket ball coach for the Brownfield High School girls, called a meeting for the girls in his room two weeks ago. About forty girls responded.

It is understood that Mr. Penn is doing his best to make a good coach and to make the team a winning one. The girls are loyal and willing to cooperate in everything he proposes. They believe that if they will cooperate with him, Brownfield will have the best team ever developed.

Coach Penn gave each girl a card which entitled her to see Dr. Graves and get a free examination. Each card had the girl's name, date and year of birth, age, height, and weight printed on it. A complete examination was made of each girl's eyes, ears, lungs, heart, and blood pressure.

If anything was found wrong with the girl the coach insisted that she must overcome this or else she would not be allowed to play. Out of forty girls examined, two had heart trouble and one had high blood pressure.

One work out of the team in the gymnasium last week gave the coach and the girls an idea of the team they are to have for the coming year; however, no team has been picked as yet; neither has a captain been elected. Only two work outs each week will be had until the season opens.

CARD OF THANKS

The Basket Ball Club and coach of Brownfield High School take this means of thanking Dr. Graves for his help in examining the team. Dr. Graves gave each girl a free examination and his permission to play basket ball if she was physically able.
