THOMPSON OUT FOR COMMISSIONER PRE. NO. 4

I take this means of asking the voters of Precinct No. 4, Terry County for the office of their commissioner. I will appreciate your vote and influence.

LAWRENCE ANNOUNCES FOR COMMISSIONER, PRE. 4

To The Citizens of Precinct No. 4: I take this method of announcing to the voters of Precinct No. 4 my candidacy for office of Commissioner. I realize fully the importance of this office and although I have never offered for public office before I feel that I am fully qualified to fill the office.

I realize now, more than ever before, we need men in our Commissioners Court who will stand four-square for the citizens and tax payers and how they spend the people's money that our tax problems may be held down as low as it is humanly possible.

Thanking you for your cooperation and support and for any good word you may say for me.

Yours respectfully,
A. A. LAWRENCE.

MOORHEAD ANNOUNCES FOR COMMISSIONER

I take this means of announcing my candidacy for commissioner of Precinct No. 2. I have lived in Terry county 13 years except a short period which I lived in New Mexico. Will say that I have served several years on the school Board and reasonably acquainted with the Tax problems, and have had the last two years experience with the road machinery in road building. If elected to this office I will at all times give the citizens of Precinct No. 2 the best that is in my power to give.

R. M. MOORHEAD.

Girls' Basket Ball Tournery Next Week

The Brownfield High School will be hosts to girls' basket ball teams from neighboring schools on Friday and Saturday, January 26 and 27, 1934. This will be the third annual girls' basket ball tournament held in our school. Mr. M. L. Penn, the coach of the local team has invited twenty teams to participate and is expecting fourteen or fifteen of those invited to attend.

We have promised to furnish lodging Friday night and breakfast Saturday morning to teams coming from a distance of twenty-five miles or more. We shall appreciate the cooperation of the people of Brownfield in helping us entertain these visitors and are asking that anyone who can furnish accommodations let us know by telephone, or otherwise. Let's show these girls the same fine hospitality that we have for the last two years.

Paul F. Lawlis,
Supt. of Schools.

NEW PHYSICIAN MOVING TO BROWNFIELD

Dr. J. R. Turner and family of Homer, La., are moving to Brownfield, in fact he has already arrived, and is opening in the offices of the late Dr. G. W. Graves.

Dr. Turner received his medical education and served his internship in Atlanta, Ga., and has been practicing medicine for the past 22 years. He is a veteran of the World War, and was for two years in the government health service.

We welcome this new professional man and his family to our little city.

Editor Otis Carter of the Sea-graves News went to Lubbock Tuesday to hear Dr. Truett preach. Several from here have been going to hear him.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaren of Plains, attended the show here Sunday afternoon.

John Fitzgerald and family are entitled to a pass to the

McDuffie to Direct President's Ball Here

W. R. McDuffie has kindly consented to act as Director of the President's Ball to be held on President Roosevelt's birthday which is Tuesday, Jan. 30th. The proceeds derived from this ball will go to endow the Warm Spring, Ga., hospital for children that have been crippled with infantile paralysis and such diseases.

These benefits will be held all over the nation the same night, and it is expected that perhaps a half million dollars will be raised that way. The ball here will be held in the Dock Powell building on the southwest corner of the square. Mr. Malcolm Thomason, CWA foreman, has consented to have it cleaned up by his workers.

By the next issue of the paper, we will be able to tell you who Mr. McDuffie has appointed on committees, and perhaps give you the name of the orchestra that will furnish the music.

Much Terry Co. Corn Going to Littlefield

The El Paso packing house feeding operation at Littlefield has buyers here to purchase corn, which is being trucked to that city, as many as 12 trucks from here and that town being used at times. It is said that next to the Hearst feeding project in this city, the El Paso Packing Co. is next in size in west Texas, with about 5,000 head.

We understand that corn is not available in sufficient quantities in that section to feed this immense herd, but plenty bundle stuff and maie and higeria is at hand. The buyers for Hearst here say they have all the grain they want, but are still buying some bundles.

Around $10 per ton is paid for corn here, and the truckmen get around $2.50 for carrying it to Littlefield. Therefore it is a help to our farmers and truckmen that there is a market for a great deal of corn—several thousand tons, perhaps—that close to us.

TAHOKA MINISTER TO PREACH HERE SUNDAY

Elder W. T. Garnett, a young minister of the church of Christ, will fill the pulpit here Sunday at both the morning and evening hours at the local church of Christ.

All have a cordial invitation to hear him at both these hours.

Water Traps Stunting Plane As It Skims Over Lake

The chill waters of White Rock lake in Dallas swallowed this plane when one wing snagged the surface, dragging the plane in after it. Pilot W. A. Flower, Student Jack Binion and O. V. Boynter, a mechanic, occupants of the plane, were all killed from injuries caused by the impact and not from drowning. The plane's nose buried itself in the mud bottom of the lake, leaving the tail sticking out of the water. The above photo was taken after the plane had been pulled from the lake.

Southwestern Life Running Advertisem'ts

A few weeks ago, C. L. (Abe) Lincoln of this city attended a meeting of the agents of his company in Dallas, and came back all pepped up and stated to the Herald man that his company had been sold on an advertising campaign, and that we could soon expect the first of the series. Well, this week, the Herald is doing just what he said, and the readers attention is called to the nice display of the Southwestern Life Insurance Co., of Dallas, Texas, a home state company without a peer, and ably represented here by Mr. Lincoln.

When he came home and made the statement to us, we were just a bit skeptical of the campaign extending to the smaller town newspapers, for just a few weeks before that time, another Texas insurance company had announced a big advertising campaign, and put on one. But it was devoted to the DAILY PAPERS, a page at a whack, and the country weeklies didn't even get a smell. We wish to state that, the editor of this paper had three policies in this BIG DAILY PAPER insurance company, and the two kids have one each. But if any of the family wish any more policies they will not be taken out in that company, but rather in some company that regards the smaller towns and smaller papers as amounting to something.

If in need of a real good old line policy, one that will stand up and extend help to you when you most need it, see Mr. Lincoln today, and he will find a policy with the Southwest ern that will meet your every requirement.

District Court Opens Its Midwinter Session

District Judge Gordon B. McGuire came over from Lamesa Monday morning and set the grand jury to work under the direction of District Attorney Nelson of Tahoka. They will probably be in session the most of this week, ferreting out crime in this county. There will be no petty juries called until next week.

There are several civil cases to be tried without a jury this week such as divorce and land cases, and this will very likely all be wound up before juries are called next week to decide on the criminal cases. It is our understanding that there were more divorce cases than usual this term, with suits to clear land titles, criminal, etc., about the same as usual.

JUDGE G. H. NELSON TO SPEAK HERE SUNDAY

The pastor of the Baptist church is leaving Wednesday for the Valley for a two weeks visit. Judge G. H. Nelson our District Attorney will speak at the Baptist church Sunday, January 21st at the eleven o'clock hour. You will miss a rare treat if you fail to hear him.

The evening service will be arranged by W. W. Price and others.

Sunday, Jan. 28, Rev. Leverette of Ropesville will preach. He is a fine preacher and will please you when you hear him.

Good luck to you all till I see you again.

J. M. Hale, pastor.

Mrs. Warner Hayhurst of Plains, was a visitor in the Stricklin home Saturday night and Sunday.

The Poultry Show Enjoyed by Visitors

Large crowds attended the poultry show here last Friday and Saturday, and especially so Saturday, and while probably there has been shows here before in which there were as many birds on display, there never has been seen any finer lot than this time. In fact, there were so many real good birds, that it took the judge, Mr. J. R. Newman of Lubbock some time in lots of instances to place the birds one, two and three.

The show was in charge of Sec'y J. E. Shelton of the Chamber of Commerce, assisted by John Chisholm of the Chisholm Hatchery & Hardware, and Ira Jones. Show quarters for the two days was in the Dee Brownfield building on the south side of the square. There was an especially good showing of Rhode Island Reds, and white Leghorns and Minorcas, with other breeds fairly represented. This is the first year that John Chisholm has allowed any of his breeds to compete at the show, and he won several prizes. Pappy John Powell, local Red breeder was missed at the show, but his wife has been in poor health lately is believed to be the reason of his absence. Following is a list of cash prize winners, the cash being donated by Brownfield business men, of $1.00 as first prize, and 50c second prizes. Ribbons were given in all other prizes:

Rhode Island Reds: C. L. E. Meils, Meadow, first pullet, fifth cockerel, third young pen, second old pen; John Chisholm, Brownfield, second, third, fourth, fifth, young pullet; first and second, cockerel; Tom Hoek, Brownfield, second young pen, first old pen, champion hen; J. W. Moore, Brownfield, fifth young pen; Henry Chisholm, Brownfield, first young pen, fourth young pen; first cock, fourth cockerel, champion cock; Mrs. J. B. Eckert, third cockerel.

Barred Rocks: Deon Luker, first cockerel, first old pen.

Buff Orpingtons: M. H. Bennett, Brownfield, first young pen, champion pullet, champion cockerel.

White Minorcas: S. W. White, Meadow, first second, third pullet; first, second, third, hen; first young pen.

White Leghorns: John Chisholm, first cockerel; first pullet; first second young pen; J. W. Moore, first, second hen; third, fourth young pen.

Amateur Talent Interview at Lubbock

A representative of the West Coast National Presentation Studios will hold interviews and try-outs at Lubbock on Wednesday and Thursday, January 24th and 25th. These interviews will be held at Lubbock Hotel, Room 203 Mezzanine floor, from 10 A. M. to 9 P. M. each day.

For the first time in the history of motion picture, radio and theatre, the demand for talent is much greater than the supply, due to doubled production, establishing of new chains and also the fact that the old repertoire company and vaudeville have practically gone out of existence. Necessity forces the Motion picture and Theatre agencies to comb all ranks of amateur talent for available material.

Amateurs selected at Lubbock by the West Coast National representative will be called to Los Angeles and Hollywood, California at a later date for presentation. Printed announcement and instructions covering interviews appear in this issue.

Campaign to Be Made Against Open Toilets

We understand that a campaign is being planned here in the city to have outdoor privies where no sewerage connections can be made, constructed on the state approved plans for sanitary outdoor privies, which will meet with best sanitary regulations of the State Health Department. We have been informed that federal money will be used in digging the pits and making the toilets, the owners to furnish the materials.

Many diseases are spread by open privies, it is said, such as typhoid fever, dysentery, diarrhea, enteritis and others. In fact, medical authorities say our first cases of fever here last summer started in families that used outdoor toilets. It is believed that the campaign will be enlarged to cover the entire county, as this is a rare opportunity to get one of these sanitary toilets at such a low cost.

In conversation with Roy Winger, local contractor, he stated that in case where the old material could be used that the cost would be very low for the balance of the material for the reconstructed toilet. It is his purpose to build one at one of the lumber yards in the next few days for display purposes.

Brownfield Banks In Fine Condition

This week we are printing the statements of the two banks here, the Brownfield State, and the First National, both of which are under the federal depositors guarantee system, and after you have perused these statements you can easily understand why our banks made the grade in the front rank, and are so worthy of your respect and your confidence.

There are banks in some of the counties that made full crops that have more money on deposit than ours, but we venture that none will show better condition, such as lower loans, more cash and resources. Indeed, if necessary, either bank here could on short notice convert their resources into cash and pay every depositor full face value for every penny they have in the bank. The following are some of the combined totals in their statements:

Combined loans	$162,713.79
Cash and Exchange	534,015.17
Combined resources	769,291.56
Combined deposits	662,906.20

Deadline on Auto License is Feb. 1st

State highway patrolmen here, as elsewhere, have been instructed to arrest motorists whose automobiles do not bear 1934 license plates after midnight, Feb. 1.

L. G. Phares, chief of the state highway patrol, of Austin issued the order.

Last year the legislature extended the deadline to April. As a legislative session is not scheduled within the month, however, no such action is anticipated this time, a highway patrolman said.

John Fitzgerald was over from the ranch Tuesday after supplies. He reports that he is bringing his cattle through the winter nicely, by feeding some.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee O. Allen of Ralls were visitors here the past week end.

Business Changes Here Since Jan. 1st

There has been several business changes here since January 1st, one of the largest deals of which was in the firm of Hudgens & Knight. A deal was made one day last week in which Bruce Knight and Claude Hudgens became the owners of the hardware and furniture business of the company, and Messrs. L. F. Hudgens, Clarence Hudgens and Kyle Graves became the owners of the grocery department, which is one of the local Red and White stores.

Both Mr. Knight and Mr. C. L. Hudgens have had many years experience in the hardware and furniture business, and the Herald feels sure that the firm is still in good hands. Mr. L. F. Hudgens, senior member of what will now be known as the Hudgens Grocery Co., has had perhaps a quarter century experience in the mercantile business at this place and Stephenville. His son, Clarence Hudgens has had much experience at Stephenville and San Angelo in the grocery business, and his son-in-law, Kyle Graves has had experience both here and at Stephenville.

Another change that took place around the first part of the year, was Mr. Daugherty bought the interest of his partner in the firm of Jeanes & Daugherty, Mr. Jeanes moving to Brownwood, and Mr. Daugherty taking full charge of the store, which will hereafter be known as the Daugherty Grocery. This firm has built up a flourishing business since the entered business here a little more than a year ago, and we are sure the new firm will continue to serve many customers with a huge stock of fresh groceries.

Old Circulation Figures Are Coming Back

Yes, the old dollars are still plunking into the old missionary pan, but as most of them are dollar bills, guess you don't hear them. The Herald has always had a good run of renewals at this time of year, as we seldom lose a reader once they start, except those who move out of the county, or get badly broke.

This year, however, is election year, and most of the people who come in tell us that they want to take the paper in order to keep up with the political situation. However, most of these new readers are new people here, or at best have not been here more than a year or two. Anyway we sure welcome these new readers. Here is the list of new ones since last report:

City and routes: H. M. Perkins, W. L. Pitts, Heflin Bros., G. W. Ward, John Milner, J. C. Bass, J. T. E. Roper, L. M. Rogers, V. V. Brown; Geo. W. Lane, Port Arthur, Texas; Guy LeCroy, Seagraves; Z. J. Paul, Abilene; Mrs. John Raymer, Lubbock; J. B. Mackey, Howard Hogue and Thomas Mason, all of Meadow.

The agreement is that the producer does not shift any acreage selling feed off of acreage not under contract and feeding from retired acreage. He further agrees not to store feed above the normal practice.

My interpretation of the contract is that a producer may plant this retired acreage in sudan for grazing providing he does not sell any livestock or livestock products grazed on this land, and furthermore he does not sell any more feed than is a normal farm practice for him.

A good many farmers carry their work stock to pasture after the crop is laid by. I believe this retired acreage can be planted in either sudan for grazing or feed for these stock.

I believe if the following is recommended the situation will clear up "Retired Acreage cannot be planted in anything for sale directly or indirectly."

CORN RETIRED ACREAGE
As the corn contract reads the retired corn acreage cannot be put in anything that is harvested.

Trip to Okla. City Canceled by Death

Death, that great leveler of human endeavor stepped in early Sunday morning to stop a trip to Oklahoma City, that was to be undertaken by several here to see the new 1934 Chevrolet that was to go on display Monday in that city. Ralph Carter and wife, together with the Chevrolet salesman, Jack Bailey, and their invited guests for the trip, Ike Bailey and the editor of this paper were to make the trip to the Oklahoma capitol Sunday in order to be there for the show and other entertaining features connected with it Monday. Warner Hayhurst of Plains, who was on his way to Rochester, Minn., to consult Mayo Bros., was also to be included in the party.

This party from here was to join an auto caravan at Amarillo from this section, to drive into Oklahoma City. All parties had arisen around five-thirty Sunday morning to get ready for the trip, but just before the time to leave a death message came to Mrs. Carter informing her of the death of her father. Of course Mr. and Mrs. Carter left immediately for Quitaque, the home of her father, and Mr. Hayhurst caught a bus at seven o'clock for Lubbock, on his way to Ninnekah, Okla., where his father will join him on the trip to Minnesota.

Explanation Given On Retired Cotton Acreage

By R. C. Reed, County Agent

There seems to be some confusion as to what Retired Cotton Acreage may be used for. This should be clearly understood before signing a contract.

1. This land may be planted in something to prevent "soil erosion" or to improve the fertility of the soil as: Cow peas, Sudan, etc. Such crops CANNOT BE HARVESTED NOR GRAZED.

2. The retired acreage MAY be planted to food crops for human consumption. Under no circumstances can the crop be sold or exchanged.

3. For "feed crops" as grains, forage, hay, etc. for the production of livestock to be used on the farm.

4. The retired acreage may be permitted to lie idle, unplanted or uncultivated.

5. Paragraph 5 on the contract under performance by the producer has caused some confusion as to what the retired acreage may be used for. It reads "Use the rented acres only for: Soil-improving crops; erosion preventing crops; food crops for consumption by the producer on this farm; feed crops for the production of livestock or livestock products for consumption or use by the producer on this farm; or fallowing; or such other uses as may be permitted by the Secretary or his authorized agent." You will note it says feed crops for the production of livestock or livestock products for use by the producer: I take this to mean that feed from retired acreage may be fed to animals providing the animals are consumed by the producer.

The agreement is that the producer does not shift any acreage selling feed off of acreage not under contract and feeding from retired acreage. He further agrees not to store feed above the normal practice.

My interpretation of the contract is that a producer may plant this retired acreage in sudan for grazing providing he does not sell any livestock or livestock products grazed on this land, and furthermore he does not sell any more feed than is a normal farm practice for him.

A good many farmers carry their work stock to pasture after the crop is laid by. I believe this retired acreage can be planted in either sudan for grazing or feed for these stock.

Some one has suggested that everyone try to do without red ink this year. Pretty good plan. In fact, red ink in connection with anyone's business is bad. We always did hate to see it on our bank statement. Makes one almost see red.

The U. S. Senate is debating whether or not to make Washingtonians sit, or let them stand to drink, when liquor is legalized there. They have to sit in New York, you know. One of our friends that takes a nip occasionally, said to us recently that he did not like the idea of sitting to drink. "How will you know," he said, "when you get so drunk you can't get up?"

Ye gods and little fishes, or are tunas big fishes? To think that the Japs can slip over here and grab a lot of our tin cans that have the NRA on them, slip back across the Pacific and fill them with fish and bring them back and nearly land them, as they did at a California port last week! How do we know but they would put in a few water moccasins, horse meat or sumpun?

Sometimes the farmer can be the most unreasonable person on earth. A feed buyer told us one this week that illustrated the point. He said that a farmer approached him and asked how much corn was worth. Upon being told, he began cursing the buyers, government and everybody else about robbing the poor farmer, although he is getting nearly three times as much for his corn this year than he was last year. But there happened to be two or three other farmers standing by who are in the drought belt and who will have to buy corn this year. They made no feed nor cotton; did not even have an acre to plow up. The buyer asked the howling fellow did he suppose his brother farmer would enjoy paying much higher for every grain of feed he had to buy to make this year's crop. It is reported that the other fellow had to see some one up the street at once. "Owing to whose ox is gored."

Several Texas towns are now enjoying lower fire insurance rates due to a successful war against "burners for profit," according to advices from the State fire insurance commissioner. It is now no longer necessary to have eye witnesses to the act of burning for profit, but it is now possible to treat an arsonite as the more familiar acts of criminality are dealt with. Fire insurance in McLean is almost prohibitive on account of so many fires, and it is to the interest of every citizen that any suspicious fire should be immediately investigated.—McLean News.

Brownfield has to this time been unusually lucky about having fires that amounted to much, or one that could not be quickly brought under control (Tap! Tap! Tap! sign of hitting wood) and our fire insurance rates have been consistently held down (Tap! Tap! Tap! noise of hitting wood again). In fact, most years we get a kind of rebate, as it were from the State Insurance Department for our good fire record. We don't remember but one raise in the past several years, and that was not our fault, but the fault of the state as a whole. But let us tell you something, a bootlegger in Terry county might get by with a suspended sentence, a cow thief might get the benefit of the Court's sympathy for the first offense, but a "firebug" who either burned his own or someone else's property for the insurance, would be given a long, long trip to Hunstville. The arsonite is thoroughly disliked in our community.

J. L. Simmons and family, who have been helping to gather crops in the Pride section during the fall and winter, have moved back to the Johnson community.

The Big Advantage is under the hood— A V-8 Engine

IF YOU want 8-cylinder performance, but not at the usual 8-cylinder cost—step into the new Ford V-8 for 1934!

Here is a car that will do better than 80 miles an hour. At 50 to 60 miles per hour it is actually running at ease. This reserve power means acceleration unequalled by practically any other make of American automobile, regardless of price.

The Ford V-8 for 1934 offers you many other advantages. 20 miles per gallon at 45 miles per hour, in exhaustive test runs. More actual body room than in many more expensive cars. Riding comfort—with free action for all four wheels plus the proved safety of a front axle.

Before you buy any car at any price, drive the new Ford V-8 for 1934.

Light Burns Late in Jim Alired's Office

Austin, Jan. 16.—A light burns late at night in the office of Attorney General James V. Alired. The occasion is one of answering correspondence. In addition to his manifold official duties, which he attends to with careful attention, the youthful Attorney General is answering correspondence which greeted his opening announcement as a candidate for Governor. Although he has not issued a platform, Mr. Alired's mail is mounting daily. From all over the State come stacks of letters congratulating him upon his announcement and promising support in the coming campaign.

Never in the history of Texas politics has a single candidate's announcement met with such popular favor. Of the candidates who have announced for Governor, the mail of Attorney General Alired probably exceeds the rest of them put together, seasoned Austin correspondents declare. The outstanding feature of the 1934 gubernatorial campaign, thus far has been the voluminous personal correspondence of Attorney General Jimmie Alired.

DRY RALLY WILL BE AT FORT WORTH

Fort Worth, Jan. 15.—A statewide rally of dry forces to prepare for united resistance to any efforts to repeal Texas' constitutional prohibition amendment of the Deane law will be held at the First Christian church here at 10 o'clock on the morning of January 23.

The meeting was announced by Chester E. Collins, Fort Worth, recently delegated by a group of ministers and laymen in Dallas to make arrangements for such a rally.

SHEPPARD TO GIVE HIS ANNUAL SPEECH

Washington, Jan. 15.—The battle of the Eighteenth amendment is not yet over for its author, Senator Morris Sheppard, soft-spoken Texan.

Tomorrow, the amendment's anniversary, he expects to make a speech in the senate urging its re-enactment, continuing a record of a speech each year on that date.

"I will show how empty the promises of the wet propagandists are," Sheppard said today.

Postmaster H. M. Larkin of Tahoka came over the week with J. C. Bond, and spent the few hours the bus remains here hunting up and calling on old friends. Of course, the editor being an old friend, Mr. Larkin spent a short time at the Herald office chatting about old times, when we used to go to Tahoka and get ads from him and other merchants. He is the first Democrat postmaster Tahoka has had in many years.

Tech Bull Heads List of Tested Sires

Lubbock, Texas, Jan. 15.—Lilac's St. Mawes, sire of the Texas Technological College Jersey herd sire, Lilac's St. Mawes Cedric, heads the list of tested sires in the United States, according to the American Jersey Cattle Club in the 1932 publication of "Tested Sires of the Jersey Breed."

Lilac's St. Mawes has 10 tested daughters with an average annual yield of 14,706 pounds of milk testing 6.36 per cent butter fat, and making an average of 834.86 pounds butter fat.

The first three dams of the Tech three-year-old Lilac's St. Mawes Cedric have produced an average yield of 852 pounds butter fat.

In the pedigree of this young bull appears The Maori, a half brother of Tristram's Oxford St. Mawes which is the only living Medal of Merit bull and second ranking tested sire. There also appears St. Mawes Lad, which occupies fourth place among the leading tested sires.

RUGGED INDIVIDUALIST VS. RADICAL

Some time back the United States Daily, an alleged brain baby of the United States Chamber of Commerce, ceased publication. The United States Chamber of Commerce has more or less dabbled in national politics. That body opposed the ex-soldier's adjusted compensation payment teeth and toe nail. That Chamber has all along sought to handicap the Rooseveltian ideas of pulling us out of the depression. It is strictly a big man's organization being led largely through small Chambers of Commerce in the little towns who unwittingly believe they are getting somewhere.

David Lawrence was editor of the big United States daily for some time. He is today lined up with the Saturday Evening Post in an apparent effort to handicap the present administration by attempting to show that Franklin D. Roosevelt is an irresponsible radical.

Roosevelt is a radical but not irresponsible. England declared Washington to be a radical back in 1777 and thereafter. Webster defines a radical as being "one of the ultra-liberal party in politics." Roosevelt is that. There is no denying the fact.

Back under the Hoover administration the so-called leaders were known as "rugged individualists." It must have been a failure if we may judge from the condemnation heaped upon them. We need more radicals of the Roosevelt type. Leaders who can feel for common humanity. Men who are really patriotic to the point that they prefer to save the nation and bring back happiness to her citizens.—Clarendon Leader

Miss Lillian Moss is spending the week with Miss Jessie Oliver at Loop. Little William Gordenhire has had diphtheria. We understand he is much better.

The Wellman Basketball team played Union on Brownfield's court Monday night. The Wellman girls won but the boys lost.

There will be preaching Saturday and Sunday nights at the Wellman church of Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Green were here on a visit to Mr. Green's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Schroeder from Sagerton visited his brother, Bill, last week end. Mrs. Schroeder's sister, Mrs. Castle and Mrs. Glen Dickerson from Welch were also visitors in the Schroeder home.

Young Democrats to Meet in Lubbock

Lubbock, Jan. 15.—Eyes of Texas political observers will be trained on Lubbock, Feb. 3, when Young Democrats of 125 west Texas counties gather here for their first annual convention.

State Democratic Chairman Maury Hughes of Dallas will make the principal address. Candidates for all state offices are invited and many will be called upon during the convention, which is expected to draw 300 enthusiastic young party leaders.

State officials of the Young Democratic Clubs are urging young Democrats in all counties to organize and send a sizeable delegation to Lubbock and where it is impossible to organize in advance, a large delegation of individuals interested in the movement is urged.

Permanent organization of the Young Democratic Clubs of West Texas, similar to the South Texas organizations, will be formed here and an East Texas organization will be held for that section later. After formation of the three regional organizations a state convention will be held at some central point.

J. Doyle Settle, president of the Lubbock Young Democrats Club, has appointed a large number of committees to work with the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce in handling local arrangements for the convention.

Dances, banquets and other entertaining features are being worked out which will make the convention a gala affair outside of the business and organization sessions.

JUST AN OLD SPANISH CUSTOM DEFEATS TEXAS NEWSPAPER MAN

Fort Worth, Tex.—Harold Hough, circulation manager of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, recently received an unusual assignment from Amor G. Carter, publisher and vice-president of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock show.

Hough was requested to go to Mexico and obtain some real Spanish bulls and toradors to stage a bloodless bullfight at the stock show next spring in Fort Worth. In company with Bob Calen, his cowboy friend, known for his appearances at Madison Square Garden, Hough went into the interior of Mexico and corralled a bunch of Spanish bulls and bull fighters.

But he discovered he was not allowed to bring the bulls across the border. An old Spanish custom or legal question is involved.

Hough and Calen, however, got back. An old American custom of theirs.

Ed Dumas of Plains, was among the crowd here Saturday.

To the Editors of Texas Newspapers

This is an open letter from the Fire Marshal's Division of the Texas Fire Insurance Department to the people of Texas and pertains to a matter that should be of interest to every individual.

"Incendiarism," better known as "arson"—had almost become a business in Texas up until about the first of the year, 1932 at which time a concerted drive was begun by the various city officials, fire marshals, county and district attorneys and our department to stamp it out. Incendiarism has been curbed to a large degree throughout the State, yet in many localities it is still prevalent. In such localities this condition is largely the result of the general indifference attitude on the part of the people toward this crime.

The material reduction in losses has been remarkable in those sections of the State where the prosecuting authorities have decided that they will not tolerate arson and have prosecuted vigorously those accused of the crime.

During the State's fiscal year, September 1, 1932 to August 31, 1933, the Fire Marshal's Division conducted and assisted in the investigation of 250 suspicious fires which resulted in 64 cases being presented to grand juries, 40 indictments, 18 convictions, 21 cases pending trial and 17 cases pending action of grand juries. These are independent of many indictments and convictions being had during this period of time in cases worked up by the local authorities.

We want to quote from an Editorial taken from the Fort Worth Star Telegram of date December 25, 1933, in part as follows: "—Texas has a workable statute against arson. More convictions have been made during the two years of its existence than are shown in the court records of a decade of the previous joker-ladder legislation on the subject. It now is possible to treat an arsonist as the more familiar acts of criminality are dealt with. Even the presence of motive in the form of palatial over-insurance can be introduced as evidence. Formerly, witnesses to the act were necessary. The difference is striking. Fort Worth was a heavy loser under the old system. The new statutes have been met with a special assistant district attorney in Tarrant County who specializes in arson cases. The long list of convictions already has placed Fort Worth purchasers of insurance in line for a reduction in rates. The insurance New Year's resolution should be one of cooperation against the "burners for profit."

K. B. McWilliams was a business visitor at Post, Monday.

Our good friend Ann C. Bell of Marshall, who always has to have her Terry County Herald along with the Marshall papers, sent in her renewal to her son, Mayor W. A. of this city. And that reminded him to renew his own paper. Thanks for the favor, good friend.

Beginning next week, January 8, we will make a change in the weighing fee.

Minimum weight up to 4,000 lbs. net will be 10c
Above 4,000 lbs. will be 5c per ton.

This change is due to the fact that we have installed a new set of Electric Automatic Scales which cost a little more than $2,000.00 and that the larger trucks which are being used today, hauling heavy loads more than double the wear and upkeep on scales.

Thursday and Friday of last week the high school students were busy with their "mid-term examinations."

The exams were not as hard as we expected them to be, but more of us are determined to be exempted this next semester, and we believe we can be. We are better acquainted with our teachers and we like them. They have learned our faults and they are going to do their part in helping us make our grades. But, can the pupils of B. H. S. be exempted or even pass with so many tardies? We want to start this semester off with a "bang" and show the teachers what we can do! Both the faculty and student body will appreciate this, and don't you think we owe it to them? Let us be regular and prompt in attendance.

LIBRARY BOOSTER CONTEST

The tag selling contest for the high school library closed Saturday, January 13, with the Senior Class leading by several rounds. The Freshmen were second. A total of $51.16 was made in this contest.

The Seniors are on their way to the top. The last money was handed in with the Seniors in the lead. Who was it that said the Seniors were dry and very hard to get along with? This is a mistake and a terrible mistake, for we're the high school "Its" from now on.

When this contest started the Seniors were determined to win. We are sorry that we cannot report the Seniors to be the one to sell the first ticket, but Joe Bob Burnett bought the first ticket and this was a green one, which was the Freshman ticket. The Seniors were the first however to get the dollar donation, and this was from Mr. Rex Headstream. Charlie Thalmann also paid one dollar for his tickets.

"Did you get your red tag?" There were many people wearing them during the past week, and we thank them very much for helping us win the contest.

The Seniors were the first and only class to sell the blue tickets. They sold 230 tickets. Woodrow Chamblis and Howard Boucher were the ones to buy the first blue tickets.

The Seniors won with the sum of $25.96; Freshmen second with $9.60; Sophomores third with $8.45, and Juniors fourth with $7.15.

Those in the Freshman Class who worked in selling tickets were Jeane Roan, chairman, Betty Jo Savage, Kathleen Perry, Burdett Auburg, Joe Bob Burnett, and Addie Stewart.

Those in the Sophomore Class were Sally Stricklin, chairman, Marguerite Burnett, Evelyn Judd, Evelyn White, Sharleen Graves and J. D. Stewart.

Those in the Junior Class were Queenelle Sawyer, chairman, Ima George Warren, Wilma Frank Dunn, Jocelyn Lambert, Ruby Nell Smith and Margene Griffin.

Those in the Senior Class were Mary D. Thomas, chairman, Naomi Drury, Minnie Hazel Gore, Horton Howell, Wilton Smith and Kenneth Purcell.

The money which was made in this contest will be given the school library to buy more library books. It

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club met January 15, 1934 for a brief period of discussion concerning their work and aim. Tuesday afternoon the program committee will meet to make out the year book. The rest of the period was taken up with jokes by Mary Louise Tinkler and Kathleen Perry, a short reading by Esther Ruth Smith and a song, "The Little Old Hut," by Kathleen Perry.

DEBATE

On January 15, the History Club met with a very interesting program of a debate: "Resolved, That the Radio is more useful than the Newspaper."

The affirmative side was presented by Bill McGowan, Jo Bob Burnett and Queenelle Sawyer.

The negative was discussed by Mattie Jo Gracey, J. D. Stewart and Austin Green.

Three judges were selected and the debate started. Forty-five minutes later the debate ended with the negative coming out winners.

We hope if we have any future debaters in the History Club, that they will have learned something from this debate.

BASKETBALL

Last Saturday evening, January 13, the Brownfield boys basketball squad journeyed over to Seagraves for a combat. After a long, rough ride and much detouring they reached their destination. At eight o'clock the teams warmed up and the game started.

Both teams seemed slow to "get started" during the first half. Much fumbling and bad passing took place. The half ended with scores nine and seven in favor of Brownfield.

The second half was a "hummer" from beginning to end. Seagraves sunk two field goals in rapid succession. Brownfield boys called time out and patched up the weak place. The third quarter ended with scores eighteen to thirteen in favor of Seagraves.

The last quarter opened with hard playing and little scoring. However, our boys began to show some of their stuff during the latter part of the quarter and ran the scores twenty-three to twenty in Brownfield's favor.

The last part of the game was well worth a fan's time and coin. It is likely that you may see the victors in action in their own gym Friday or Saturday night of this week. There will be a very small admission fee.

Challis Chats

There has been lots of sickness in our community the last two weeks. Most every family has had either the measles, chicken pox, colds or flu.

Bro. Tharp of Brownfield preached here Sunday afternoon and will herafter preach at 3 o'clock on each 4th Sunday afternoon. Everybody is invited to attend these services.

Mr. Moore and family moved to Ropesville last week. We were sorry to lose this fine family, but our loss is Ropesville's gain and we wish them much success in their new home.

Mr. Burson spent the week end with her daughter Mrs. Money Price and family.

Miss Golda Malcolm spent the week end with her home folks at Johnson.

Mrs. Ada Howze visited with Mrs. J. H. Howell, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell Hall visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and family, Sunday.

BRITAIN'S LIQUOR IMPORT QUOTA IS HIKED 100 %

Washington, Jan. 12.—The federal alcohol control administration announced tonight it had increased 100 per cent the liquor imports allowed from the United Kingdom. The provision was made that such imports must clear foreign ports before midnight of January 27.

The announcement by the FACA said that the order was issued to provide for "immediate distribution of as much as possible of the new British quota, which has been arranged by diplomatic negotiation."

RED GOOSE—THE OJIBWA INDIAN BOY

An Indian Story for Boys and Girls

By Carlyle Emery

As darkness falls, Fort Bly is about to be attacked by the Sioux. There are only ten men, including Red Goose, defending the Fort, and all but two of them have climbed into trees outside the stockade, hoping to surprise the Red Skins. Red Goose and Bear Cat are together in the same tree . . . Now go on with the story . . .

"Gosh, Red Goose!" said Bear Cat. "This being up in a tree for over two hours isn't just my idea of comfort. If those pesky Sioux are coming, I wish they'd show up."

"Sioux will come soon now. You see," was the quiet answer.

"Is your father, Red Eagle, where he can signal to us?"

"Yes, Red Eagle is high up in tree on other side."

Red Goose had hardly spoken when Red Eagle raised his gun high over his head three times. The light of the moon glistened on the barrel of his gun and made the signal easy to see.

"Sioux come! Get ready!" whispered Red Goose, coking his rifle and getting a good firm brace against a heavy limb.

"Look! They're coming up from the river!" Bear Cat whispered back. "They're keeping that cabin between them and the blockhouse. I'll get the leader."

But as Bear Cat leveled his rifle and took aim at the prowling Sioux leader, the Ojibwa boy laid a steady hand on his arm.

"Not shoot yet," he cautioned. "Wait until all come from woods."

"Guess you're right," grunted the companion. "Look! There they are, all of them!"

"Shoot now." As Red Goose spoke, he brought his gun to his shoulder and almost at the same moment, two shots rang out.

The surprised Sioux stopped dead in their tracks as two of their members fell to the ground. Although the white men were outnumbered almost ten to one, the Sioux were at a disadvantage, because they were in the open, while the soldiers were hidden in the tree branches.

For about five minutes there was a rapid exchange of shots, mingled with yells and cries of pain from the Red Skins. Then, with one accord, they turned and fled, leaving several members of their tribe dead or wounded.

"Look at 'em run," chuckled Bear

Cat, happily. "They think there's a whole army of us, I guess."

"Look out!" warned Red Goose. "Some are running this way. Danger not over yet!"

And sure enough, three Sioux warriors were running as fast as they could, but they were running straight toward the tree in which Red Goose and Bear Cat were hiding.

One of the warriors evidently heard Bear Cat chuckle, for he looked up as he ran, and then without the slightest warning, stopped for a second, raised his rifle, and fired into the tree.

There was a cry, and a body slid out of the tree and fell to the ground with a dull thud.

MEASLES ARE DANGEROUS

Austin, Texas.—Measles is again prevalent in Texas, according to Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. After the epidemic of this disease last year, it was thought there would not be so many cases this year, but the numbers of reports received leads Dr. Brown to warn against the needless exposure of children to measles.

Special care is required during the convalescent period. Complications at this stage, with end results of kidney trouble or impairment of sight or hearing, can easily take command. Obviously, everything should be done to avoid such a possibility.

Contrary to the foolish notion of many parents, it should be quite unnecessary for children to contract this disease. Youngsters, especially in tender years, can easily be kept from measles contacts, that is, if parents of measles victims fully realize their obligation not only to their own child, but to other children also.

It is a regrettable fact that so many adults view the isolation of the so-called minor ailments with indifference. Nothing is further from the facts. The isolation not only keeps people in, but keeps others out. Its sole purpose is to reduce the possibility of contagion to a minimum.

More cooperation on the part of citizens in this connection undoubtedly would result in less measles with their accompanying devastating efforts. The next time measles is prevalent in your locality, weigh well the attitude you assume both toward the disease and the quarantine against it. Conceivably, it may save your child's life. The State law requires all cases kept out of school 21 days.

Amendment to Dean Law Being Considered

Austin, Jan. 13.—Elbert Hooper, first assistant attorney general, revealed today that he is working on a bill that would legalize the transportation into Texas for private use of intoxicating liquors of more than 3.2 alcoholic content.

He pointed out that the dry section of the state constitution did not prohibit transportation and possession. The Dean law, enforcement act, does provide penalties for transportation and possession.

Amendment Planned
Amendment of the Dean law would be effected by the legislature. It was pointed out the legislature might meet in special session this spring.

A proposal to amend the constitution cannot be submitted except at a regular session of the legislature, the next one not to come until January, 1935. It would require several months to advertise the constitutional amendment election and provide for holding it.

The constitution prohibits sale and manufacture and the amendment to the Dean law would retain these features, but it would be lawful for one to import his own liquor. It was planned to obtain revenue under the arrangement by creating a permit fee to be assessed against importers.

On account of not making connection with the six o'clock bus from Lubbock to Brownfield Monday night, readers of the Evening Journal did not read it till Tuesday morning.

Exhibit Recalls Porcelain Find

At Meissen, Germany, a permanent porcelain exhibition has been created in the Albrechtsburg in which Johann Bottger, trying to produce gold for King August the Strong, stumbled on to the secret of making porcelain. In one small banquet room a table is set with the famous coral-red porcelain with the dragon mark, which was manufactured exclusively for the Saxon royal house until the end of 1918. The "Bottger room" has mural paintings showing the inventor at his labors, and a showcase contains the materials used in making porcelain.

"NIGHT FLIGHT"

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

On the front page of our issue of January 20, 1911, we find an article delivered by Dr. J. W. Ellis on the progress of Odd Fellowship and the Rebekah lodges of this city. Another article on the same page was an editorial about the coming Statewide Prohibition election of that year, and our expressions at that time were well in line with our belief to this date. Time has proved that we were correct. On the editorial page we were advising ambitious towns not to fall out with the census enumerators if their population did not come up to expectation, but to raise more babies.

M. V. Brownfield had recently sold $50,000 worth of cattle. V. H. Hargett left for northwest Texas on a prospecting tour. Drillers were putting down a well on the W. C. Smith property. The town seemed to have been afflicted with colds and influenza. J. L. Randal was slaying stray cats that disturbed his slumber, bad luck or no bad luck. Rev. E. N. Groves was reported to be improving. Mrs. Edwin Groves was visiting friends in Cook county. Tom May of Lubbock, employee of the Western Windmill Co., was down visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. May. The Home Mission Society was to stage a play, "Broken Links" about Washington's birthday. The local telephone company had just been received by the proprietor, C. S. Cardwell, and was being installed by Howard James. Carroll Phillips of Gomez, minister of the church of Christ, was to preach here at the Baptist church on the 5th Sunday.

Judge W. R. Spencer and Neil H. Bigger had just returned from Plains and reported they were getting up a railroad bonus over there. Percy Spencer had just returned from a very pleasant three weeks trip to visit his parents in Mississippi. Rev. M. D. Williams was displaying the stuffed hide of a large bob-cat that had been thieving on Geo. Rose's chickens, but one of the boys roped him. Mrs. W. R. Spencer had returned from Brownwood where she left her mother improved in health. It is done somebody's toes get stepped on.—Snyder Signal.

east Texas, and told us of the good yam taters and hunting among the mighty pine. The county was advertising bids for the county fund depository. Mr. Ben Hurst and Miss Vada Glover, both of Gomez, were married, Jan. 16th here at the courthouse by Judge Geo. W. Neill. Ben was then an employee of the Seitz Grain & Coal Co., of Lubbock. Judge W. Holmes of Yoakum county, was also asking for bids on caring for the funds of Yoakum county. Brownfield State Bank showed deposits of a little more than $52,000.00.

Col. Chas. Goodnight had put his first three cross-breed cattle and buffalo on the Fort Worth market and found that the more buffalo they contained, the more beef they netted out. They were crossed with polled-Angus cattle. Hon. J. J. Dillard of Lubbock, new representative of this district in the legislature, had arrived in Austin for the session. In those days a senatorial district was so large that our senator lived in Eastland, Texas. All for this week.

MOVIE STARS VS. PREACHER'S SALARIES

Texas Baptist Voice: It's no use to ask "What wrecked America." Just open your eyes and see.

In keeping with the program of the NRA, Gen. Hugh S. Johnson employed Sol A. Rosenblatt, Hollywood expert, to make investigations concerning the salaries received by movie stars. The result indicates the following: Greta Garbo received $7,000 per week for making "She tank she go home." Eddie Cantor received $260,000 for making "The Kid From Spain," which he made in seven weeks. Chevalier gets $300,000 per year; for this he has made only two pictures. Will Rogers gets $125,000 for each picture. If he makes three a year, which he does, he gets $375,000 per year. John Barrymore gets $75,000 for each picture and a few years ago he got $525,000 for three pictures. Mae West, who made the picture, "She Done Him Wrong," will get $200,000 for her next picture. John Gilbert received $500,000 for two pictures. Gloria Swanson received $500,000 per year for two pictures. Richard Barthelmess received $500,000 for two pictures. Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Charlie Chaplin, Harold Lloyd and other noted stars own and control large movie interests and draw large profits therefrom.

Preachers' Salaries

Authoritative investigations show that 1 per cent of the preachers of this country receive salaries of $4,000 or more per year, 1.4 percent receive salaries of $3,000 to $4,000 per year, 4.6 percent get $2,000 to $3,000 per year, 9.3 per cent get $1,500 to $2,000 per year, 32.6 per cent get $1,000 to $1,500 per year, 38.6 per cent get $500 to $1,000 per year, 12 1/2 per cent get less than $500 per year. Or over 51 per cent of the preachers in this country receive less than $1,000 salary per year. There are over 20,000 preachers in this country now searching for work of any kind.

Mr. J. M. Johnson and Mr. E. R. Quinsey have opened a second hand store in the Randal building on the west side of the square. They have a nice stock of both second hardware and furniture.

Chamber of Commerce

—By J. E. Shelton, Secretary

The Poultry Show was pulled off according to schedule and was about as good and as successful in point of attendance as any that has been staged in the past, but we did hub a little trouble before the show was opened as the man who was supposed to deliver the coops, failed to connect with the Superintendent of the South Plains Fair grounds, so other arrangements had to be made and a night trip to Lubbock was the result and this caused us to have to put on extra help in order to get everything ready to receive the birds. One thing about the show was, that not a single turkey was placed on exhibition, but when it is remembered that turkey prices are so low that it does not pay to raise them, you can readily see why people have lost interest in them. The poultry show at the South Plains Fair, only had six on exhibition and we are informed that the show at Slaton, was as blank as ourselves and Lubbock and Slaton are regional shows.

All of the acreage reduction committees are at work in the various portions of the county, but contracts are not being signed as rapidly as expected and unless a very considerable increase is had within the next few days the county is going to fall down pretty hard, so far as doing its part toward putting the reduction program over, is concerned.

Remember that the Secretary of Agriculture, must know by January 31st, whether sufficient contracts have been signed as will cause him to continue the reduction program, or to discontinue it. Now it is pretty generally conceded, that if the acreage planted to cotton is not reduced, that the staple will not be worth over 5 cents this fall, but if the program is carried out, that the price will not be less than 10 cents. So it is just up to the landlord and the producer, to decide between 10 and 5.

Two portions of the contract seem to be the bone of contention between landlords and tenants, one of them being the use of the rented acres and the other is what the renter and the landlord consider as being an equitable division of the acreage payments.

These two questions are hard to answer and it is suggested that each landlord and tenant undertake to comply with the provisions of the contract as he understands it, in connection with the use of the rented acres and that they adopt a policy of give and take, in connection with the payments due on the rented acres. But try to make some agreement and keep it in mind that we have only about two weeks in which to complete the program and that it would be a physical impossibility for the committees to accept and complete the applications, if everyone waits until the last week before they decide to assist in putting the program over.

As stated in our article of last week, we took up the matter of a continuation of the Crop Production Loan, with our congressmen and senators and have just had a reply from Hon. Marvin Jones, which is here-with reproduced:

"Replying to your letter of a recent date I have to say that bills have been introduced in both the House and the Senate providing for crop production loans for 1934 and the Senate bill has been reported out by the Committee.

An effort is being made to work out this program in such a way as to avoid having a conflict with the cotton reduction program. You understand, of course, that if these loans are continued, they must be restricted and made to dove-tail into the reduction program. Otherwise, they would practically nullify the accomplishments of the entire plan.

Signed,
Marvin Jones, M. C."

Keep in mind that the location of the Community Committees on the Cotton Acreage Reduction are located at the following places:

- Precinct No. 1: Chamber of Commerce office, Brownfield.
 - Precinct No. 2: Meadow.
 - Precinct No. 3: Johnson school house.
 - Precinct No. 4: Wellman.
- Brownfield School Dist. at the Co-operative Cream Station.

HE DOES NOT CHOOSE

Two things keep Will Rogers from becoming a candidate for governor of California—the fact that he is not registered as a voter in that state, and his own determination to "remain fancy free, to go where I please when I please."

"I'd rather be a poor actor than a poor governor," the comedian added. It would be a pretty safe bet that Will Rogers could be elected governor of at least two states, if he decided to stand for it—California and Oklahoma.—Abilene News.

Both the farmer and business men are tickled to see cotton prices climbing.

Kill the Ox Warble And Protect Cattle

The ox warble is present this year in greater numbers than were ever known before in this section. The backs of many cattle are literally alive with these pests. They make painful sores on the backs of cattle and interfere greatly with their health and general condition.

The fly lays its eggs on the heels of the cattle and they are licked off by the animal, passing into the mouth and oesophagus, where they hatch. The larvae then burrow through the tissues of the body until they reach the back of the animal just under the skin. They make an opening in the hide through which they breathe.

They are easily killed if the proper remedy is applied. One of the best things for killing all insects is gasoline. To kill the ox warbles, the gasoline is most easily and effectively applied by using a common oiler with a rather sharp spout. The scab can easily be removed from the breathing place of the warble, exposing the opening. Gasoline can then be easily and effectively applied. Only a small amount of the liquid is necessary to kill the grub.

In treating milk cows and gentle cattle, the gasoline can be applied by tying the animal to a post. For treating other cattle, a chute is necessary. Three men should be able to treat 50 cattle an hour.

Contrary to the general belief, there is no ill effect from the use of gasoline. It will not cause the hair to come off the animal, neither does it cause any pain.—Livingston (N. M.) Leader.

HAILS PRINTERS' CODE AND METHODS OF NRA

San Francisco, Cal.—"If the NRA has done nothing but clean out of the printing industry many unfair practices existent in the past, it will have been more than worth while," declared L. A. Ireland, secretary of the Printers' Board of Trade, Inc., of San Francisco, on his return from 3 months in Washington working on a code of fair competition for the graphic arts industry. "The system set up by the NRA is here to stay," Mr. Ireland continued. "The codes may be revised, but NRA will leave trade associations as the instrument through which business and industry will be able to work for a new deal. The printers' code sets up a series of labor boards which will iron out any and all differences that arise, without resorting to strikes. The boards will be made up of equal numbers of men truly representative of employers and employees."
