BROWNFIELD WANTS YOU FOR HER GUEST ON TRADES DAY

A Visit to The Old Volunteer State

The ramrod of this great religious weekly has just recently returned from a two weeks visit to the old State of Tennessee in which we were born 54 years ago, August 23. In fact, if we had stayed another day, we would have celebrated our 54th birthday in a few miles perhaps of where we first saw the light of day. The old Volunteer state was approached from the Arkansas side over the big one way traffic bridge, which is free. Thirty-one long years had rolled by since we last were over "old man river" to Texas, and many changes have taken place since that time. Many of the older people are peacefully sleeping in the old New Hope and other cemeteries. Memphis has in the meantime grown from a city of about 50,000, to a city of 260,000 souls, and stands at the head of all the other cities in the U. S. as well as the world in the number of homicides per 100,000 people. Still we like the old state yet, and feel proud that it was the state of our nativity, but as to living there, that is another question yet.

Several here in Texas, as well as friends in the old state have asked us to write about this trip. We are glad to do so, and those who do not wish to read it, can perhaps find something else that they will like, and we beg them to bear with us until we have closed the series of articles, for it will take several. For a number of years, we have contemplated a trip to Tennessee, and one of the regrets we will carry with us the balance of our days is, that we delayed the trip some two or three years too long, and permitted our eldest brother to leave this vale of tears. But he trip was well worth the price and effort; we were superbly entertained, and feasted and fed almost beyond our capacity to endure. It was a great trip.

We had been talking a great deal this summer of making the trip when our brother who lives in Fort Worth, was to hold the meeting at New Hope church, six miles north of Middleton, but it began to look like it was all talk. We had forbidden either of our Texas brothers to write that we would come, for we had raised their hopes before that we would come, only to disappoint, and they had begun to believe that "Jack will never come to see us." But you know the scriptures teach us that all things work together for the good of them that serve the Lord, or something like that. However, we don't pretend to say that the Lord had much to do with planning and executing this trip, but our brother-in-law, Cleve Holden, of Sudan did.

It all came about like this. Cleve had a few weeks previous carried his wife to Hot Springs, Ark., to take the baths, and on Thursday afternoon, August 9th, he came through Brownfield on his way after the wife and daughter, and proposed to carry us that far, some 700 miles absolutely free of all cost so far as transportation was concerned. This was about two-thirds of the way, and the two fine banks of Brownfield furnished us a little yellow check that gave us money for the rest of the transportation and other expenses. Thursday night was spent in the little town of Coahoma, Howard county, where the eldest Holden sister, Mrs. Joe Roberts, Sr., was to join us on the trip. A nearby new Chevrolet with brand new casings was the mode of transportation to the Arkansas Spa.

At the early hour of three-fifteen, nearly four hours before our usual time to arise, we three were on our way, headed eastward down the Bankhead highway. Abilene was reached by daybreak, Mineral Wells at 9:30; Weatherford at ten. Fort Worth by eleven, and after some delay in finding detours, we got clear of Dallas at 12:15. Greenville, whose motto is, "the blackest land and

Cotton Price is Pegged At 12c Per Pound

Another government loan on cotton to help the southern farmers—12 cents a pound this time—was authorized Tuesday by President Roosevelt.

The president said he had "requested the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to make funds available to the Commodity Credit Corporation that will enable it to increase its lending from 10 to 12 cents a pound on cotton, classing low middling or better, which is and has been continuously in the possession of the producer."

This means that any cotton grower, if he does not wish to sell his cotton at this time, may borrow 12 cents a pound from federal agencies on the commodity.

Ft. Worth Couple Give Park Site to Lamesa

Donation of a 100-acre park site to Lamesa and Dawson County by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Weaver, Fort Worth, was announced yesterday. It is to be developed by the city and county with the aid of the State and Federal Park Commission.

In giving the site, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver specified that development of the site start within 90 days. It is to be known as the F. M. Weaver Park.

Located about a half mile northwest of Lamesa in what is known as the Sulfur Draw, through which flows part of the headwater of the Colorado River, the site is on the Dal Paso Caverns Highway, the route to Carlsbad Caverns.—Lamesa Reporter.

GOSPEL MEETING BEGINS AT GOMEZ

The church of Christ announces a series of services beginning at 8:00 p. m. Saturday night, September 1. Alvin A. Mitchell will do the preaching. Willie Winn will have charge of the singing.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present and enjoy a feast of songs and sermons. Don't miss the first night.

NEXT MONDAY IS TRADES DAY

whitest people." was reached at 3 and by five we were in the shade of the pines of east Texas, the slugged streams and sloughs, where the tall cypress stick up their knees above the water. Some of the beautiful little cities of Western Arkansas, like Arkadelphia were reached in the late afternoon, and the car lights were only burnd some 10 or 15 minutes in reaching Hot Springs, where we were glad to get some hot food and a good bed in the apartment where the Holdens stayed.

Just a bit about the crops, and we will end this spasm: With the exception of a section around Abilene and Cisco, Terry county was the greenest spot on the entire trip to Hot Springs. Through Dawson and part of Howard counties most of the fields were as bare as a street. A pitiful sight indeed. Even through the famous black lands of north Texas, most of the corn was a complete failure, with some small "nubbins" in the bottoms, and cotton appeared to have about a third of the regular crop and was firing up almost half way up the stalks. Conditions improved none with the approach of east Texas and west Arkansas. The big surplus corn and wheat crops of the past few years will dwindle into insignificance when the government gets through feeding millions of these poor unfortunate people until they can make another crop.

We were told that there is only a limited demand for pine or hard woods in that section, and they cannot depend too much on making a go with saws and axes. The oldest living people of that section will frankly tell you that never did such a withering drouth strike that section on such a large scale. In 1930, spots in Arkansas had a bad drouth, but nothing like even a third of the state was stricken at that time, and most of the adjoining states had feed enough to spare. But the people were "warting" much less than people do in this section when a drouth hits them.

Episode No. 1 is hereby ended.

How Texas Counties Voted in Gubernatorial Race

MONDAY IS TRADES DAY HERE AGAIN

The green spot of the south Plains is expecting a great crowd here again Monday, and the usual plans will go forward to provide prizes for many that come here on that day. The merchants will have on their real trading clothes that day, as it will not only be Tradesday, but Labor Day as well, and the merchants aim to slice a big melon that day by giving the folks of this territory some of the best bargains that has ever been given the people of the Brownfield trade territory. Look for their announcements.

Also, you know that all the schools of the county will soon be opening, and our stationers will be offering some specials on school supplies. So better anticipate the needs of the school children and lay in a supply that will last for months to come.

And don't forget to bring in the trading stuff. Remember the traders will be here from the forks of the creek to the foot hills of the mountains, from the caprock to the blue weeds of the north and east. They may have just what you want. You may have just what they want. This will be trades day, and they will be here looking out for you.

Come, bring the wife and kids. The weather has cooled off and they will enjoy the day's outing as much as you.

TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT NO. ONE

May I use this means to express to you my sincere thanks for your support in the recent primary election. However, I do not believe I got as good a vote in Brownfield as I should have. But you were privileged to vote as you pleased and I hold no ill feeling toward you. As to the Brock faction, will say that I am not implicated in the least and never have been. I think the vote I got at my home box at Union clearly demonstrates that fact. It is true, most everyone that enters politics has more or less opposition, but why connect me up with Brock's opposition when I have been a friend to all alike and I think I have the friendship of all in my corner of the county and can take over the reins as commissioner with one purpose in mind and that is to try to make my precinct and Terry county the best commissioner they have ever had.

Again thanking you for your past favors and assuring you that when I go into office, I will appreciate the co-operation of all, I am
Yours very truly,
L. C. GREEN.

L. F. Hudgens and granddaughter, Miss Charlene Graves, have returned from Stephenville, where they visited relatives and friends.

GRAND—GLORIOUS RAINS HAVE COME

It had rained almost every day for a week the last week we were in Tennessee, and we left Memphis enjoying a hard rain that had been going on for an hour or two, but it played out over about Little Rock, Ark., and east, north and part of west Texas was as dry as when we left here August 9th. It was raining nicely in Sweetwater when we hit that city about 4 o'clock Friday morning, and light rains had fallen on to Post, which was reached after sunup.

Taking the Post-Brownfield bus, with our good friend, J. Cal Bond, we found that the rain was heavier as we moved westward after climbing the cap. In fact we were very much tickled that we had the presence of mind to put on the old mud chains before leaving Post, as the roads were as slippery as owl grease, and the bar pits, especially between Tahoka and Brownfield contained some four to six feet of water—not a pleasant thing to have slipped into.

We found on arriving home that some two inches of rain had fallen in Brownfield and immediate vicinity, followed by another inch during Friday night, giving us a fine season. Heavy rains fell in the northeast part of the county again Tuesday of this week, and as the weather had been mostly cloudy, it has helped young feed, cotton and grass wonderfully. That old frown the farmers and business men wore when we left has been replaced by a smile from ear to ear.

However, not all the county got a big rain. Some sections report only a half to an inch, but the moisture and cloudy weather has helped them wonderfully. Some believe that the county will make enough feed to run it, and that Terry will gain more cotton than it did last year.

There has been a rush from the dryer sections to get business houses here, and merchants expect a good business here this fall and winter, with every business house and the residences and hotels crowded to capacity.

TO THE CITIZENS OF PRECINCT NO. ONE

I sincerely wish to thank my friends, neighbors and supporters for the support given me for Commissioner of Precinct No. 1 in the second primary on August 25th. While I was not elected to this office I hold no ill will toward anyone, and my opponent who was elected shall have my full co-operation. I respectfully ask all the citizens of this Precinct to give him the same co-operation and support that should have been given me had I been elected.
R. G. NUTT.

G. H. McGinty of Plains was here Monday.

Election Was a Quiet Affair Here Saturday

The vote was some lighter here Saturday than it was on July 28th. One reason perhaps, was that the roads were quite muddy, and perhaps deterred some of the ladies from the rural communities from coming in and participating in the election.

There was little electioneering that day, and people went quietly to the polls and registered their choice. As a consequence, there will be several new faces in the makeup of the next group of county officials. Aside from the new ones nominated at the July primary, there will be a new county clerk, a new Justice of the Peace, and three new commissioners.

We learn that a few got "teased up" too much late Saturday night and some five or six paid a neat little fine as a consequence, and went home the wiser and with considerably less money. The following is how Terry voted:

For Governor:
Allred	996
Hunter	1110
Lieutenant Gov.:
Woodul	978
Moore	883
Attorney General:
Woodward	1147
McCraw	732
R. R. Commissioner:

Justice of Peace:
F. M. Burnett	825
J. E. Shelton	784
No runoff in Commissioner Precinct No. 3, as Mr. Cook had only had th office one term and no one chose to oppose him this year.

THANKS VOTERS

I wish to take this means of thanking the people of Precinct No. 4 for their vote and influence in electing me to the office of commissioner. I hold no ill will against those who opposed me, and will endeavor to do my best for all the people in Precinct No. 4 and Terry County.

Yours very truly,
J. L. LYON.

Local Schools Begin New Term Sept. 10

The 1934-1935 term of school in Brownfield will begin on Monday, September 10th, at 9 o'clock, with an assembly in the High School auditorium. A program for this occasion will appear in the paper next week and everybody is invited to attend.

Immediately after the assembly the pupils will go to their respective buildings to be enrolled. The grades taught in each building will be the same as last year and the grade and teacher's name will be found over the door of each room. In the grades, where there are two teachers for each grade, the pupil may elect the teacher's room into which he goes, as far as practical. However, it may become necessary to make adjustments, in which case we shall make a homogeneous grouping.

On Monday morning the books will be issued and assignments made, after which the pupils will be dismissed, at noon, until the following morning.

High School Registration To Be Different

The registration in High School will be handled in a different manner this year. Mr. Wester, the High School principal, will be in his office and I shall be in mine on September 6th and 7th for the purpose of registering High School pupils. The Freshmen are asked to come to the High School on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock and the Sophomores on Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock. On Friday morning at 9 o'clock the Juniors may register and on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock the Seniors. New students may register on Saturday afternoon.

We are looking forward to a splendid school year and are asking the full cooperation of the patrons of the Brownfield Schools.

Respectfully,
Paul F. Lawlis, Supt.

Sylvia Sidney Has New Role in Sly Comedy

A different, but extremely fascinating Sylvia Sidney, free for the time of the necessity of appearing morbid, unhappy or frustrated, may be seen in Paramount's delicious comedy satire "Thirty-Day Princess" which opens at the Rialto Theatre, Sunday.

As the little actress who was hired to impersonate a princess, and wound up wishing that she were a real princess, so that she could hold the love of the handsome newspaper publisher Miss Sidney is easy to look at, beautifully garbed, and refreshingly witty.

Topping the supporting cast is Cary Grant, who could overcome any woman's resistance, as the handsome impetuous publisher; Lucien Littlefield, Vince Barnett.

The story is an expert adaptation of Clarence Budington Kelland's popular magazine story, credit being due Preston Sturges and Frank Partos for the clever adaptation, and Sam Hellman and Edwin Justin Mayer for the bright and racy dialogue.

Marion Gering, one of Hollywood's more important directorial lights has sufficient reason to be proud of this racy, flippant celluloid comedy.

Remodeling Building For Stephens D. G.

Work is going forward this week remodeling the Alexander building on the north side of the square for the Stephens Dry Goods Co. store, which will be opened about September 1st or shortly after. Shaving and fixtures are also being added as fast as they can be prepared.

A new plate glass front, going further into the building and giving much more window display is being put in. This also adds greatly to the outward appearance of the building.

Geo. E. Tiernan has moved his Recreation Club that formerly occupied this building, to the Hankins building just east of the theatre. In turn, the second hand store and Singer Sewing Machine agency have been moved to the south side of the square in the building recently occupied by the Chisholm feed store.

P. G. Stanford, of Plains, was a business visitor here today.

WELCOME ROTARY VISITORS OF RALLS

It is not often that two towns of the South Plains have an opportunity to get together in such a friendly manner and exchange greetings and ideas. Brownfield Rotary Club and the citizens of our town are happy indeed to welcome members of the Rotary Club of Ralls into our community today. It is a great pleasure indeed to have the good fellowship that exists between the various towns of the area.

The people of Brownfield have a very friendly feeling toward the people of Ralls in that some of our good citizens are formerly from that place. Too, there are a few distinguished citizens of Ralls who have holdings in Terry County. Thus, our bonds are mutual, and we are glad indeed for this chance of getting closer together.

It is our greatest desire that the Ralls Rotarians will feel that as hosts we want you to have everything that is within our power to give you. Brownfield and Terry County are noted for their hospitality. This is an occasion when it can be extended. If you fellows don't see what you want, ask for it and we shall try to get it for you.

Meadow School Open On September 10th

The 1934-35 session of Meadow Public Schools will open its doors Monday, September 10th, and not on September 3rd as originally planned. School was put off one week due to the fact that another bus had to be added and also in order to give the Vocational Agricultural teacher time to make a survey of the community and work out his long time program.

In line with the recent Curriculum Revision Program that has been launched in Texas our curriculum is being revised and enriched by adding some new subjects. In the social science department Ancient history and Modern history are being combined into World history which will be taught in the ninth grade. The eighth grade will be given Junior Business Training instead of Ancient History. In the Math department Solid geometry is being dropped along with the last half of second year Algebra. This makes room for the student to take Bookkeeping which is being added. Public Speaking and Commercial Law are also being offered to Junior and Senior students. Perhaps the most interesting and valuable subject added will be Vocational Agriculture for the boys. This will be offered to all high school boys and all Seventh grade boys over 14 years of age who plan to be future farmers and wish to take the course.

With the 56 transfers and the Vocational teacher, which brings our total teachers up to 12, with buses and a new revised, enlarged, and enriched curriculum we are expecting one of the best school years yet experienced.

Homer Franklin, Supt.

Grand Jury is In Session This Week

The writer should have stayed away another week and escaped the grand jury, but like the usual blankety-blank that we are, we rushed right back home in time to be investigated. But the boys must have decided that our conduct was a little above par, as we were not called in question that we know of. In fact, we never have dreaded the approach of this august body like some people seem to.

District Judge Gordon B. McGuire came over from Lamesa Monday and formerly opened the summer term of court here. In order to save expenses to the county, nothing but the grand jury is used the first week, as it provides some work for the petit juries that assemble here the second, third and fourth weeks of court. W. P. Elmore is foreman of the eleven other men that were still at work ferreting out crime and disorders as this is written Wednesday.

Next Monday, the first week of petit juries will appear and civil and criminal cases will be tried. The docket is not unusually full, we understand.

I will think—talk—write... Texas Centennial in 1936! This is to be my celebration. In its achievement I may give free play to my patriotic love for Texas' heroic past; my confidence in its glories that are to be...

You can't keep an old editor-printer out of the game. When Otis sold the Seagraves paper, "he was out for keeps." But we find he is back at it already, having purchased the County Wide News at Littlefield, and he is giving the Lamb county folks a good paper.

It would seem that practically every jail in west Texas is as easy to escape from as an old barn. Last week, an escape was made from the Dickens county jail with a key made from an old spoon. West Texas, like the rest of the country, is having to capture and imprison bad characters these days, and their jails should be re-modeled to meet such conditions. Some very needed work is now being done on our own jail.

Ninety percent of the exchanges that come to our desk are forever condemning the Fergusons. The Herald has never been very hot for the Fergusons, but the truth of the matter is that they have given the state fully as good administrations as we have had in the past two decades. They have consistently lowered taxes when they go in, and usually leave the treasury in better shape than their predecessors. Aside from their wholesale pardoning of criminals, the Herald can't see so much of bad in either Pa or Ma Ferguson.

A pretty good way to judge a public man is the way the home folks think about him. Tom Hunter and Jimmie Allred both live and vote in Wichita Falls. Tom got almost two votes to Jimmie's one there in the recent election. In 1930, we talked with some newspaper folks at Corpus Christi, who live in Wichita county, and they didn't seem to be much in love with Jimmie. The Herald hopes, however, that Mr. Allred will make Texas a good governor, but we are predicting another Dan Moody round. We hope though we are wrong.

You will always find the good old reliable Dallas News lined up on the same side the Texas Power and Light and Lone Star Gas Co., and other big utilities are on, and none of them were for Hunter for Governor. The big dailies and other mud slingers certainly succeeded in misleading people that Hunter was a BIG oil man, when any hick that ever reads knows that the independent oil men of Texas sent Hunter to Washington little more than two years ago to appear before the I. C. C. as their lawyer to try to get some relief from the major oil companies that were squeezing the life blood out of the independent operators.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 19TH CONGRESSIONAL DIST.

This is to thank my good friends and neighbors of Lubbock and all counties of this District for their unswerving loyalty and support in my race for Congress.

To the victor belong the spoils, but I assure you the vanquished is equally happy in the knowledge that he fought a good fight and kept the faith and that he has so conducted his campaign as to have nothing to look back upon with regret.

The people have made their choice. The Democratic Voice has spoken. Now let all of us cast aside our campaign prejudices and feelings and unite behind the young man who assumes the mantle of responsibility, to the end that he may achieve for the common good.

I salute the first Congressman from the 19th District. I extend sincere congratulations and all good wishes, together with my warm personal friendship.

To those who have worked and traveled and labored so faithfully and untiringly in my behalf, I express my dying thanks and appreciation. You have been my friends; I assure you I am yours, now and forever.

To those who opposed me, I have only the highest admiration for your sportsmanship and your fairness. With few exceptions you have been a gallant and friendly bunch, and I have enjoyed the contest of "thrust and parry" with you immensely. There are no scars to heal and no regrets to offer.

I salute you all, and wish for our united people the hope of the future, which is the attainment of happiness and contentment as our goal of life.

Sincerely,
Clark M. Mullican.

CARD OF THANKS

I am deeply grateful for the confidence you have reposed in me by the wonderful vote you gave me in my race for Justice of the Peace. I assure you that I am profoundly grateful for this confidence. And I shall do my utmost to merit this confidence by a faithful performance of the duties of the office.

Respectfully,
F. M. (Dutch) Burnett.

THANKS VOTERS

I wish to again to take this means of thanking Terry county citizens for all past favors. My being your County Clerk has been a real pleasure, and has been worth lots more to me, than I can express. Although defeated in my effort to continue to serve you as County Clerk, I still count everyone my friend and hope to be able to continue to earn a livelihood here among you people.

Thanking you again for all past favors, I am,

Yours very truly,
Rex Headstream.

THANKS VOTERS

I take this means of thanking the voters of Terry county for the good vote given me for county clerk in the Runoff Primary, August 25th.

It will be my purpose to render fair and impartial service to all alike both to those who voted for me and those who voted against me.

Again thanking you all for the support given me and asking for your corporation in the future.

I am yours truly,
W. A. TITTLE.

I take this method of thanking the 784 voters of Justice Precinct No. 1, who cast their ballots for me in the recent primary and assure them that I stand ready at all times to serve them in any manner possible. And I also desire to congratulate my opponent upon his ability to convince 825 people that he would make a better official than myself and also render them superior service along other lines.

Very sincerely,

MAHON'S STATEMENT

From his home in Colorado City, George Mahon gave the following statement to The Herald:

"I feel under everlasting obligation to the people of the 19th Congressional district for the vote given me Saturday. I find myself incapable of fully expressing my appreciation.

"In the great task that is before us, I solicit the support and good will of all our people throughout the district.

"Signed: George Mahon."

MEADOW REVIVAL DRAWING GOOD AUANCES

The Meadow church of Christ opened its annual gospel meeting last Sunday morning August 26th, with evangelist O. M. Reynolds of Abilene, as preacher, and S. W. White, of the local church, as song director. In the face of the clouds and other hindrances, audiences are growing and interest is increasing. Services are held daily at 11:00 A. M. and 8:15 P. M. The series is announced to continue through Sunday, September 9th. The public has a cordial invitation from the church and evangelist to attend all services.

Moderation in all things is the best beauty preparation.

The revival at the church of Christ closed Saturday night. In connection with the revival Bro. Reynolds gave a lesson each day in vocal music which was very interesting as well as useful. Several responded during the meeting and a number of good Bible lessons discussed each evening.

We are very grateful for the good rains we have been getting. Lots of late feed will be made in this community.

Bob Burnett and A. C. Pace left Sunday for a few days visit in Henrietta, Texas.

Mrs. P. R. Cates visited in the home of Mrs. W. L. Pace Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. B. F. Little had the misfortune of getting her hand severely bitten by a horse that she was feeding over a fence. The wound is very painful but we hope not serious.

Mr. L. P. Adair and family were Brownfield visitors Sunday.

Quite a number of folks from here attended church at Loop Sunday. We understand that Eld. J. T. Bentley is holding a revival there.

Wesley Bishop and family visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M.

Green Sunday.

The work on the new gin is progressing nicely and from all appearances will be finished soon.

Last Wednesday afternoon Miss Willie Mae Smith gave a bridal shower for Mrs. Harold Howe, who until recently Miss Viola Baker. Piano music and songs were enjoyed by all, after which games were played. The bride was then asked to untie some packages, which contained gifts for her. She received many nice and useful things. After all had admired the gifts, refreshments of punch and cake were served to Messdames Bass, Orcutt, Hudson, Smith, Matthews, Garrison, Emerson, Robertson Roberts, Lawrence, Adair, Coffee, Dawson, Bishop, Spears, Little, A. M. Crews, A. R. Crews, M. D. Smith, Fleming, and Misses Inez Welcher, Geneva Matthews, Estelene Lawrence, Volris Spears, Almada Grigg and Josie Oliver

Marlin Hayhurst, former coach here and now holding that place in the McCamey school, spent Sunday night and part of Monday here on his way to McCamey from Oklahoma, where he spent the summer with his parents. He reports his sister is recovering from a bad case of typhoid, but will not be able to assume her place in the Andrews school for a month yet.

Union News

Bro. Moore filled his regular appointment here Sunday.

This community received about 2 1/2 inches of rain the past week. It was welcomed by everyone. Perhaps it will help us make a good feed crop; our cotton is already doomed.

Mrs. C. B. Hartcock of Dallas is here visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Christy.

Everyone be sure to come to the sox supper tonight at the school house. All you girls bring a well filled sox, and you boys bring a pocket of money.

Miss Kathlene Russum of this community and Herbert Housman of Three Lakes were married in Brownfield Saturday. They will make their home at Three Lakes.

Miss Edna Brock is at home from school at Tech until her school opens at Needmore.

Miss Jeanette Hancock who underwent an operation for appendicitis is doing nicely at this writing.

Mrs. Monte Simpson who has been visiting her parents at Post, came home Sunday.

—Sally Ann.

Tom Thompson and son, Thomas, were in from the farm Monday. They report that late feed and cotton will be greatly helped by the rains. Tom was raised on an adjoining farm to us in Tennessee, and wanted to hear about our trip back there.

CORRESPONDENCE STUDY FOR UNEMPLOYED BOY FINISHING HIGH SCHOOL

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Supervised correspondence study in the high schools offers a possible solution of the problem of how boys finishing the high school course can be provided for until employment opportunities increase, in the opinion of one of the score of educators attending the three-day conference on supervised correspondence study now being held at Teachers College, Columbia University. Dr. Frank W. Cyr, Professor of Education, Teachers College is acting as chairman of the conference.

"We are up against the problem in this country of keeping the boy occupied in school until he can find a job even though he has completed the regular course," said L. P. Arduser, Director of the High School Service Department of the International Correspondence Schools. "We can't keep the boy out of work and out of school at the same time. Supervised correspondence study in the high schools, because of its low comparative costs, makes it possible for high school to widen its curriculum and provide for a larger student body without making unbearable the burden of taxation.

Professor F. W. Dunn, Professor of Rural Education, Teachers College stated that there are many rural high schools whose student body is not large enough to justify the wide variety of courses required to fit the curriculum to the individual and that supervised correspondence study provides a practical means of achieving this aim of present day education. S. C. Mitchell, Superintendent of Schools, Benton Harbor, Michigan, pointed out that no high school, no matter how large can undertake to offer as a part of its regular course a course which only one or two students may need but that the system of supervised correspondence study makes available all of the hundred of courses offered by correspondence schools and university extension courses. He stated that the Benton Harbor High School has an enrollment of 700 students and that last year 132 were enrolled for correspondence study.

Fundamentally, supervised correspondence study consists of an arrangement between the local high school and a university extension division or correspondence school, whereby the high school is able to offer one or a group of its students any one of the great number of courses offered by these two types of educational institutions. Adopted by some 150 high schools, it has enabled the schools to fit the curriculum to the natural aptitudes and inclinations of the individual students, while avoiding the great increase in costs which such enrichment of the curriculum would ordinarily entail. A member of the school faculty is appointed to supervise and assist in the correspondence study. A regular period during the school day is allotted for this work.

Mrs. Evelyn Judd is in Lubbock visiting her grandfather, A. Judd and family. She has been making her home with the Stricklin family here the past year, but as her mother has recently married, she will leave about the first for Long Beach, Calif., to make her home with her mother and new dad.

Tree Belt Would Be Ready For Next Drouth

Washington, Aug. 20.—That 1300 milebelt of trees that the administration intends to plant may reach maturity just in time for the next drouth.

Experts figure that the trees, millions of them, will be grown in about 30 years. This present dry period in the northwest has taken between 25 and 30 years to build up its water shortage and since wet and dry spells have a habit of running in cycles, the next dry period may set in around 1964.

The trees, however, will begin to be of some use as wind breaks and water conservers a few years after planting, as soon as they reach a height of five or six feet, the forest service figures. It will take to plant them all. Preparatory work is under way.

The foresters feel certain the plan will work and that the trees will grow, because it's been done before. Though this will be the largest shelter belt in history, the idea is at least 60 years old. Shelter belts were planted that long ago on the steppes of southern Russia, where conditions are similar to the American prairies. They worked well.

The belts were planted as protection against the "black dust storms" similar to the dust storm of this summer in the west. They reduced wind velocity between the tree belts 35 per cent in the summer and 20 per cent in winter.

Ed Moore of Levelland, was down Tuesday. He is putting his own and the D. J. Broughton place north of Brownfield on the market. Both places are well improved, and easily worth more than they are asking for these lands.

There are some mighty fine peaches in Terry county this year. L. J. Dunn brought us some exceptionally fine ones this week that grew on the Spivey place in the northwest part of the city. They were not only large, but had a fine flavor.

J. D. McDonald reports a good rain on his place.

County Cattle Quota Limited to 450 Head

Representatives of Texas Southwest Cattle Raisers association, the Gulf Coast Cattle Raisers Association, the drought relief service, Bureau of Animal Industry, State Livestock Sanitary Commission and railroads met at Houston Wednesday to coordinate the cattle buying program in Texas and attempt to inform the public generally of the problems of the program.

C. Z. Crain, head of the surplus commodities department and R. D. McCrum, cattle movement supervisor of the Texas Relief Commission, attended the meeting from Austin.

Explaining the county quota basis, Crain said it was necessary to limit the shipments from each county to 450 head per week in order to avoid congestion at pens and processing plants. He explained that the processing plants can handle only about 70,000 head of cattle per day at capacity. At the same time, Crain said he had been assured from Washington that the buying program will be continued "until the emergency has been met."

To farmers and ranchmen whose herds have not yet been reached Crain declared that the program will continue until every cattle raiser has had a chance to sell the animals he wishes to cull from his herd.

As a result of the government's program, the cattle population of Texas, estimated at near 7,000,000, is expected to reduce by approximately 2,000,000. Already, some 600,000 head have been shipped from the state.

Under the quota arrangement, the most acute cases of distressed cattle are to be handled first, Crain said. In addition to the 450 head for shipping purposes, condemnations of cows unfit for shipment will bring the total sales per county per week up to approximately 650 head. One visit to a pasture doesn't necessarily mean that it is the last. After animals hardest hit by the drought have been eliminated, federal agents may return later to buy other undesirable animals and further reduce the surplus.

Crain again asked cattle owners to bear in mind that field representatives are working just as fast as quotas will allow them and that every effort will be made to reach all distressed herds.

JUDGE HEATH IS THANKFUL

Judge L. C. Heath, who removed from Tahoka to Brownfield a day or two following the first primary, was here Monday and made a brief but pleasant visit at the News office.

Judge Heath says that he is deeply grateful to the people of Lynn county for electing him county Democratic chairman at that election. On account of his removal, it was impossible for him to accept the position but he appreciates the confidence and trust reposed in him by the people just the same.

Judge Heath has opened a law office in Brownfield and is highly pleased with his prospects there. He was here Monday on professional business representing a client in a probate matter in the county court.

UNION Y. W. A.

Y. W. A. met Tuesday at the church house. Those present were: Ozella Bass, Christine Cooper, Daphene Folk, Margaret Christy, Beulah and Ethel Montgomery, Mrs. Thomas Montgomery, Marie and Ruth Shepherd, and Mrs. L. C. Shepherd. Beulah Montgomery was elected reporter. The Y. W. A. decided to sponsor a sox supper Friday night, Aug. 31, at the school house.

The Y. W. A. will go to Brownfield to the W. M. U. meeting Tuesday (this week).

DEATHS

J. D. Currie, 50, of the Loop community, died last Tuesday. The body was prepared by the Brownfield Undertaking Co., and after services at the local church of Christ conducted by Elder Liff Sanders of Lubbock, the body was carried overland to Morton, Texas, for burial.

HOW GAINES COUNTY VOTED LAST SATURDAY

Checks Drawn For Rehabilitation Work

Austin, August.—Checks totaling approximately $325,000, representing the Federal Government's allotment to Texas counties for rural rehabilitation projects, were being made out today for administrators in 146 Texas Counties.

The bulk of this money, according to J. E. Stanford, head of the rural rehabilitation department of the Texas Relief commission, will be used to lease and repair farm houses with sufficient tillable land to produce food and feed requirements of the families who will occupy them. A part of the fund also will go for such capital goods as milk cows, laying hens, meat hogs, brood sows, and supplementary feed for livestock. Still another part of the money will be used in the building of rural work centers where citizens of the community may find employment during their spare time.

The "big push" in the rural rehabilitation program, Stanford said, will be in September and October, at which time most of the constructional work will be done in order to have clients established in their homes before winter. The rural rehabilitation program hopes to take thousands of families from relief rolls and establish them permanently in these new rural homes.

SINGING SCHOOL

There will be an all day singing Sunday, September 2, at the Methodist Church. There will be 7 classes taught by Meek and Burleson. Everyone is invited to attend and hear some good singing.

First Caliche Coat on 137 is Settling Fast

Local Resident Engineer, Rhone says he is mighty well pleased the way the caliche topping is settling on highway No. 137 between here and the Hockley-Lubbock county line beyond Ropes. They have been badly handicapped for lack of water, but the recent big rains are settling the caliche nicely.

He believes that a little later on, perhaps by November, another topping of caliche can be put on, and that by spring, the road will be ready for the hot top and gravel. He reports that the detours are anything but good since the rains, but traffic than death.

will soon be turned on the main road. There are two very bad places between here and Tahoka on 84, that had recently been built up and had not settled. This will likely be good though, as soon as dry enough to drag, and then settle.

Mrs. B. H. Watkins, 79, of Meadow, grandmother of Miss Etta Richard of this city, died last Friday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the Meadow Baptist church last Sunday, and the body was laid to rest in the Meadow cemetery.

New Chiropractor Locates Here

We call your attention to the opening of Dr. O. C. Boone, nephew of the Boone & Boone firm of chiropractors in Lubbock. Dr. Boone will be located at the Wines Hotel, where you may obtain examination and consultation about your case free.

Dr. Boone has just returned from Chicago, where he took a post graduate course in the National Chiropractic College. His office will be formerly opened Monday.

P.-S. P. FAIR CATALOGUES ARE OFF THE PRESS

Lubbock, August.—Catalogues for the 21st annual Panhandle South Plains Fair are off the Press and are being distributed to thousands of exhibitors, county agents, chamber of commerce officials and others interested in the exposition to be held here September 24-29.

Premiums are about the same as the last few years with a number of increases.

The John T. Wortham Shows with the new "Loop-O-Plane," a new thrill ride invented last winter, and other modern rides and shows in the group will be set up in the midway.

A bigger program of free prizes, better horse racing program, circus acts, band concerts, vaudeville acts, fireworks and other features are on the slate.

Seventy-five dollars goes to the best county exhibit, with $60, $40, and $25 for second third and fourth. Any creditable exhibit will be awarded $25.

What you own, owns you.

UNITED STATES NOT TO BUY ARGENTINE MEAT

Washington, August 16.—Secretary Wallace said Thursday there were no plans underway for buying a quantity of canned meats in Argentina as intimated in advice from that country.

The secretary indicated the United States would have ample supplies of canned meats as the result of its drought relief purchasing program making it unnecessary to buy any in addition.

Sound pictures for instructive purposes have been introduced by the United States army.

RED GOOSE—THE OJIBWA INDIAN BOY

An Indian Story for Boys and Girls
By Carlyle Emery

Red Goose, captured by the Sioux and left alone in the rain, cut his bonds by rubbing the rope that bound him, against a sharp rock. He ran to a canoe, pushed it into the water, and jumped in just as a Sioux guard raised the cry, "Hey-ah! Ojibwa boy escape!"

Now go on with the story. Red Goose was now thoroughly enjoying himself. He was out on the river in his own canoe, with a good head start, and he had confidence in his ability to beat his pursuers in the race back home.

Back on shore, there was all kinds of commotion. The Sioux were yelling and dashing madly for their own canoes. Some of them were already pushing out into the river, and so with an answering yell of his own—"Heyyyyyaaaaaa!" Red Goose reached for his paddle.

You can well imagine his feelings when he discovered both of his paddles had been left on shore. In his haste to get away, he had forgotten to look for them, and the cunning Sioux had evidently taken them out of his canoe.

The rain was still beating down and the wind was still rocking the trees back and forth. This gave Red Goose an idea, and standing up like a mast in a boat, he spread out his Indian blanket like a sail. The wind caught it and away he went, even faster than he could possibly have paddled.

"Blow wind! Blow hard! Blow Red Goose back home! Help Ojibwa beat Sioux. Blow—Heyyyyyaaaaaa!"

Three canoes filled with Sioux Warriors were paddling furiously in pursuit. But the water was treacherous, and Red Goose saw two Sioux canoes smash together against a hidden rock, spilling their contents into the river.

The third canoe kept on in pursuit, paying no attention to the cry of help that came from the Red Skins struggling in the cold water.

Slowly, slowly, but surely, the third canoe began to gain on Red Goose, and then crash! it struck a rock and overturned.

Little Beaver's prayer to Manitou must have been heard, for so far the canoe in which Red Goose was traveling had miraculously escaped trouble. Fortunately, the wind had been blowing in the right direction, but now it died down, and Red Goose stood looking back silently at his enemies floundering in the water and trying to swim against the strong current.

"Ojibwa! Ojibwa! Help me!" The words seemed to come up out of the river, and bending over the side of his canoe, Red Goose saw Raven Feather being carried down the river by the current.

Every natural instinct in the Ojibwa boy told him to let Raven Feather drown. Raven Feather was a Sioux and all Sioux Indians were sworn enemies of the Ojibwa Tribe. But still, Raven Feather was a boy, like himself, and then too, he had interfered when Charging Buffalo had threatened murder.

"Here! Take my hand! I pull you into canoe." Red Goose had made his decision.

Fisher of Detroit, President of the Guild.

Cobb Dept. Store Closes Tahoka Store

The Cobb Department Store here is closing its doors and moving back to Brownfield.

The Cobb store was opened here early last fall with Joe Cobb in charge. They apparently did a fairly good business through the fall and winter but business has been slack this spring and summer. With the poorest crop prospect here in many years the Cobbs decided that it would not be profitable to operate their store here longer.

It is understood that they will open a second store in Brownfield having one store there already—Tahoka News

Cleve Holden and family passed through here Sunday on their way to Wink, to visit relatives.

M. Y. Bennett was in from the farm Monday.

Confesses Slaying

Pictured here is Arthur C. Wilson at Aleta, Texas, where he stepped from a train in custody of Sheriff Albert A. Anderson of El Paso county, and to go by auto to El Paso to stand trial for the "desert murder" of Mrs. Irene DeBolt, found nude and strangled in the cactus near Van Horn several months ago. Wilson has allegedly confessed to the slaying after a world-wide search resulted in his capture at Trinidad. (Texas News Photos.)

Makes Own Clothes

Here is Miss Ethel Price, member of the Glory Home demonstration club, Lamar county, Texas, who shows how to save money by making her own clothes. She made the smart suit she wears in the picture at a cost of $12.08. Cost of a similar suit, ready-made, would be $29.75. (Texas News Photos.)

Killer and Victim

Chamber of Commerce

By J. E. Shelton, Secretary
The writer is expecting to place a county agricultural exhibit at the Amarillo, Lubbock and Dallas Fair's this year and in order to get as good an exhibit as possible and one that is equal to those placed in any former years, I would like to have any person who knows of any good corn, maize, popcorn, sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes, onions and turnips to please let me know about them, in order that I may not have so much trouble and have to cover so much territory in finding good stuff.

This is a good year for Terry County to have an exhibit, as there are so many counties that will not be able to make much of a showing and I believe that having one, will pay big dividends in the future.

It has been in my mind for the last several weeks, to undertake to show at the different fairs, but I was undecided as to the feasibility of it, on account of the fact that we were one of the Primary Drouth Counties, and that advertising our resources might cause aid to be withdrawn from us. But recent rains have made such a decided change in our condition, that it is a foregone conclusion that we will lose our standing as a Primary County, and will be put on the Secondary List. However, this will not interfere with our highway construction, but will cause the Drouth Loans to be withdrawn and probably halt the Cattle Buying program. And right here, I might say that it would be a good idea for everyone who expects to sell cattle to the government, to get their stuff listed in the local office as soon as possible. Undue delay might cause them to lose a chance to dispose of their stuff.

J. E. SHELTON.
Enoch Hunter and daughter, Miss Ethel, were shopping here Monday.

Taylor and Randle Lease Another Cafe

"Smokey" Taylor and Mr. Randal have leased the McDermott Cafe on the north side of the square, which will be renamed the Silver Grill. This place will be run by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moreman, who have recently moved here from Plains. The place is being remodeled and enlarged and will be one of the nicest eating places in the city when completed.

As soon as arrangements and fixtures can be received, beer will be dispensed at this place, according to Mr. Taylor. It being the only cafe and beer dispensary on the north side, he expects a good business from the jump go.

Lawrence Stewart left Tuesday for Houston, where he will visit for a few weeks.

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

In our issue of Sept. 1, 1911, we recorded the death of Arthur Cardwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Cardwell, who was hurt the Sunday before on the "S" ranch. He was thrown and perhaps dragged to death by an outlaw horse after being separated from his cowboy companions. Dr. Ellis being away, he was carried to Lubbock, but died Monday night without regaining consciousness.

Pride Dots: No rain since July 9th. Cotton was opening, and maize heading started. Primrose: Gathering maize was the order of the day, and cotton opening fast. Hope Timmons was selling melons in Lubbock. Lee Cowan and John Baker went to Lubbock after post and wire to fence the school grounds. School was to open in Brownfield, Sept. 11th. Tom F. Hunter was the principal. Redge Burnett announced that a fellow from east Texas would come with a thresher to take care of the grain crop. The Sunday School Association was to convene in Lubbock Sept. 9th. Judge Geo. W. Neill was a Plains visitor. The winter supply of coal was being stored at the court house. Lence Price thought he had a bale of cotton open. A sister of Mrs. Victor Trammell, was visiting her from Floydada. Uncle Mose Dumas from southwest Terry was in. A fine boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Underdown and named for Gov. Colquitt.

A fine girl (Vivian) was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Winston on Aug. 30th. She is now home economics teacher in our schools. Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bynum on 27th a boy, (That's Ralph, now an employee of the Herald.) D. J. Wood and Arthur Alexander were down from Lubbock. Two prospectors were here from Austin. Percy Spencer went to Lubbock on legal business. Homer Scott was recovering from typhoid fever. Lee Walker had purchased a new Deering row binder. Tom Brooks Jr. had purchased the tailor shop. Sam Pyatt was in from the "C" ranch visiting home folks. Dr. Ellis had returned from Fort Worth. Dr. Lively and wife had returned to Marshall after a visit here with their daughter, Mrs. W. A. Bell. A new boy had arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Huckleberry in the Needmore community.

Ben Hurst had purchased a section of land from W. R. Spencer. A retired merchant from Bowie, was here prospecting. C. A. McDaniel and family had returned from the mountains of New Mexico. Roy and Walter Scudday had left for school, Walter at Snyder, and Roy in the Britain Training School at Cisco. R. Lewis, who was working the Cardwell place, called on the Herald. Miss Katie Copeland was carried to Fort Worth to have her appendage removed. Ed Copeland and family and Miss Frankie Mabrey of King, N. M. were visiting his brother, Charley and family here.

The editor and wife and C. S. Cardwell made a trip to the Uncle Billie Howard farm and saw a fine crop and lots of good fruit. We went with Rev. and Mrs. M. D. Williams in their car. O. M. Daniel sold his half section one mile west of town to M. B. Sawyer; consideration, $4,000 cash. N. N. Ross bought the Jim Whisenant place a block southeast of the square for $400. The old Pyron garage sold under the hammer for $195 to the Brownfield Merc. Co. Dr. J. W. Lively of Marshall had an article in the Herald in which he predicted that if the caprock section could get wet rain that ran off in creeks and rivers in east Texas, it would be the garden spot of the world. A son of W. A. Fulton was seriously hurt by being kicked over the eye by a burro. All for this week.

United States in No Danger of Privation

According to a report issued by the Agricultural Department last week, the Nation's food supply is, with the exception of pork, almost normal, and there is no danger of a serious food shortage. The following is an estimate of the principal products for the present year as compared with previous years:

- Wheat—Normal or above.
- Corn, Rye and Oats—Normal or above.
- Potatoes, Sweet Potatoes—About 90 per cent normal.
- Beans, Peas and Peanuts—About 95 per cent normal.
- Citrus Fruit—Above normal.
- Other Fruits and Melons—About 90 per cent normal.
- All other Vegetables—Normal.
- Sugar—Normal or above.
- Vegetable Shortening—Normal or above.
- Fluid Milk and Cream—Nearly normal.
- Butter—About 90 per cent normal.
- Cheese—About 90 to 95 per cent normal.
- Condensed and Evaporated Milk—About normal.
- Lard and Margerine—About 90 per cent normal.
- Pork—About 70 per cent normal.
- Beef and Veal above normal first quarter and below normal second half.
- Poultry—About 90 per cent normal.
- Fish—About normal.

during the Winter despite stimulation of meat packing.

"Even with all the efforts at canning and freezing meats from the drought relief purchase of cattle and sheep it is probable that the supply of beef, veal, lamb and mutton will exceed the usual demand in the next few months, and the slaughter thereafter will be short by perhaps 15 to 20 per cent," said a department statement.

In reviewing the entire agricultural situation, Secretary Wallace revealed:

There is nothing in the situation to indicate lifting of the processing tax. The chief problem is one of food for animals and not human beings.

A $5,000,000,000 drought relief estimate is "several times too high."

A livestock feed committee is being set up today to provide needs for animals in the drought area.

The $525,000,000 drought relief fund may last only until winter.

Permission to farmers to plant a full wheat crop has been suggested.

Wallace said the department has not completed plans for next year but indicated a drastic revision of the entire crop control plan will be made.

Well, we have an "old spinning wheel in the parlor" at our house now, which was presented to us while in Tennessee by our sister-in-law, Mrs. W. R. Stricklin, which will be ready to show those who never saw one as soon as some repairs are made. This old spinning wheel is perhaps three quarters of a century old, but has not been used in many years.

The richest man is he who wants nothing.

It is Not Too Late To Buy a Norge

The Norge is built for year-round refrigeration. You will find that the Norge is just as useful in the dead of winter as in mid-summer. Fruits and vegetables ruin as quickly by being frozen as by being exposed to too much heat. The Norge will protect your foods all the time by maintaining an even temperature.

Industrialized Barn at Fair Draws Over 800,000 Visitors

Chicago.—An industrialized barn, one of the most unusual farm exhibits ever shown, awaits visitors to Chicago during Farm Week at the World's Fair from August 11 to 18. The barn is part of the 11-acre Ford exposition.

The building was originally erected in 1893, the year Henry Ford was born, on his father's farm in Dearborn, Michigan. It was brought plank by plank to the fair and re-erected to illustrate Mr. Ford's theory that the farmer can increase his income by processing crops for industrial use.

The barn at the fair is set in the middle of a soy bean patch and is completely equipped with machinery which extracts the oil from the beans and prepares the oil and meal so that they may be sold to manufacturers.

The Ford Motor Company has 17,000 acres in soy beans, and yet has to buy large quantities from farms to meet its requirements. Each Ford car has twenty parts made of soy beans, including the steering wheel and engine parts. In addition, soy bean oil is used in manufacturing the body enamel which is used on all Ford cars. As a result of continuous experimentation, it is believed that the use of soy bean products will be greatly increased in future.

Since the World's Fair opened nine weeks ago, more than 800,000 persons have visited the Industrialized Barn, and a total of nearly 5,000,000 have gone through the entire Ford Exposition.

The Exposition is dominated by the huge Rotunda and Industrial Hall, forming a building 900 feet long. In the Rotunda is Mr. Ford's famous Drama of Transportation, a collection of sixty-seven vehicles starting with an ancient Egyptian chariot down to the modern motor-car. In the Century Room is a reproduction of the first Ford car, built in 1893, in a replica of the pioneer's little brick workshop completely equipped with his original tools and lathes.

Industrial Hall contains the machinery exhibits where visitors may see body-welding, die-casting, glass-making, the weaving of upholstery and many other processes illustrating how basic elements of the earth are combined by creative genius. Also in this hall is the air-cooled Little Theatre, with its Human Ford and the motion picture, "A Rhapsody in Steel."

On the lake shore is the 5-acre Ford Gardens, with the Roads of the World, a 2,000-foot oval consisting of reproductions of twenty-one historic roads including the Appian Way, the Street Called Straight, the Wilderness Trail and the Grand Sahara Caravan Route. At the south end of the Gardens is the band shell and amphitheatre, where the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will give free concerts every afternoon and evening during Farm Week at the Fair.

For county judge, Cotton defeated Moreland 205 to 189. For commissioner, precinct 1, Bradcox defeated D. Upton 78 to 65.

Waiting for Daddy to Come Home

"Tom and Jerry," 5 years old and 19 months old respectively, are longing for their daddy to return to their home in Palestine. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Blackshare. Their father, a World War veteran and an oil field contractor, disappeared from the Dallas Veteran's Bureau on July 3, after being examined following symptoms of amnesia. He has not been seen since by relatives or friends. Tommy had a birthday Saturday and was anxious for Daddy to be with him then. Blackshare was graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1915. He is 40 years old, weighs 165 pounds, has dark brown hair, brown eyes and several scars. His left ear is crumpled and he has scars on his arms from burns received in an oil well fire. Doctors say that if he sees pictures of his children his memory may be restored. (Texas News Photos.)

ASSOCIATIONAL W. M. U. MEETS AT BROWNFIELD

The W. M. U. of the Brownfield Association met with the local church Tuesday, August 28th. There were 81 present representing the several churches of the association.

The chief speakers for the day were Mrs. B. Reagen of Big Spring; her daughter, Miss Lucille, missionary of Lagos, Africa; Dr. W. F. Fry of Lubbock; Mrs. G. W. McDonald of Plainview and Mrs. E. C. Roark of Plainview.

Mrs. Lumsden of Wilson was re-elected president for the 6th time. The others were all re-elected with the exception of Clerk. Mrs. L. R. Pounds was elected to this position.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Our meeting has closed and we feel that we had a very good meeting considering the conditions under which the meeting was held. We had some 25 additions, about 15 of that number were for baptism, the rest by transfer of membership from other churches. Besides those coming into the church there were more than 100 which renewed their vows to God and promised in heavens sight to live for God from here on out. If they were sincere the rededications alone will mean a new day in the life of our church.

We are earnestly calling upon each and all of you to prove your love for God and his cause by being in your places next Sunday at the Sunday School hour and for the regular service of the day. Sunday School at 9:45 A. M. Brother Jack Wester, General Supt. 11:20 A. M. preaching by the pastor. The subject will be "Heaven," 7:30 all our B. T. S. will meet. Let all of us be on hand. 8:30 old fashioned songs will be sung. 8:45 P. M. preaching by the pastor, subject will be "Does God Hear a Sinner's Prayer." Bible reading on this subject.

We are anxious to have 300 in S. S. Sunday. We will be disappointed if we do not approach this number.

J. M. Hale, Pastor.

DEVOTION

Even when the fighting was the hottest the colonel of an Irish regiment noticed that one of the privates was following him everywhere, with apparently much devotion. At length he called the man to him and said:

"You've stuck to me well this day, Private Rooney!"

"Yis, tis so," replied Rooney saluting smartly. "Me ould mither sez to me, 'Patrick, me boy, stick to colonel, and ye'll be all right; thim colonels niver get hurt!'"

Native Texan Escapes Heat With Byrd in Little America

ONE of the first pictures received from Admiral Byrd's present expedition near the South Pole shows Joe Hill, Jr., (at extreme left) of Canyon, Texas, taking a "breather" after hard work in the sub-zero temperature. On August 24, Hill, the youngest person in Antarctica, celebrates his twentieth birthday, his first away from home. He is the son of President J. A. Hill, of West Texas State Teachers College, and was preparing for aeronautical engineering at the University of Texas when chosen to accompany Admiral Byrd to the South Pole region. Tractor experience in West Texas wheat fields qualified Hill as a member of the expedition's winter party, tractor division, whose activities are reported every Wednesday night at 8 o'clock Central Time over the coast-to-coast Columbia network.
