BROWNFIELD, TERRY COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1935

NUMBER 9

ANNOUNCING "WEEKLY PAYROLL" SUBSCRIPTION CAMPAIGN

Checks For Work to Be Paid Each Saturday in The Terry County Herald Mammoth Subscription Drive, Lasting Seven Weeks.

Winner of First Award Will Be Presented With a New 1936 Plymouth Two-Door Sedan Worth $698, Purchased From Teague Motor Co. Second Prize Winner Will Receive an RCA-Victor Radio Worth $120, Purchased from Hudgens & Knight. Everybody Wins. Nobody Loses!

GET BUSY—STAY BUSY AND WIN SOMETHING BIG FOR YOURSELF.

This is an important message to every resident of Terry and adjacent counties, whether they are subscribers to the Terry County Herald or not. It is of prime importance to those who desire to increase their income and holds particular interest for any one who is ambitious to earn a fine new automobile within the next seven weeks. In fact this message contains matters of interest to every citizen of this county and the entire trade territory of Brownfield.

will be presented on the evening of Saturday November 30, with a brand new 1936 Plymouth two-door Sedan, worth $698, purchased for this campaign from the Teague Motor Company. But the winner of first award is not the only one who will profit by this generous enterprise. The second prize winner will be presented with a new model RCA Victor Radio, purchased for this campaign from Hudgens & Knight Hardware Company, Brownfield. This handsome 9-tube console type brings all the latest radio features and sells for $120. The winner will be a proud individual.

But even that is not all of the liberal offer. Those who fall below second place will be paid an additional cash bonus at the close of the campaign, the amount depending upon the total earnings. And in addition, special cash prizes will be paid for extra effort during the first week and during booster week. Any worker who collects as much as $50 during their first week will receive $5.00 as a special merit award. For collecting $100 during their first week the worker will receive $10 extra. And for collecting $250 during their first week they will receive $25.00 extra.

Many Workers Wanted

The paper wants a large number of workers to engage in the campaign. All over Terry county and adjacent territory, we want to see active Payrollers earning their weekly checks and striving to win the automobile. Each community should receive the benefit of the increased circulation of money which the drive is designed to augment. But no worker is confined to their own neighborhood in seeking subscriptions. You can take them anywhere, among your neighbors, in your county, in Texas—in the United States. The Herald wants subscriptions—lots of them, so get out and collect as many as possible. The one who collects the largest number will be driving that new 1936 automobile.

Invitation Is Personal

The campaign manager wants every reader of the Herald to consider this article a personal letter of invitation. Read it carefully, read every word printed concerning this wonderful opportunity which the liberality of the Herald is bringing to you. And then get busy. The paper has done its part. The balance is up to you. No investment of any sort is expected and no special experience or talent to enter—just a desire to earn that weekly pay check with possibilities of earning a new automobile, doing something worth while, interesting, exciting, with the way paved by free publicity through the columns of The Terry County Herald.

Elsewhere in this issue you will find the simple rules governing the campaign, basis of earnings and awards and the schedule of credits, the latter being announced in advance and remain fixed throughout the campaign. All successful effort is rewarded by both cash and credits. But, remember, credits can only be had as a result of effort, so that all are on the same impartial basis.

Don't Delay—Start Now

The main thing is to start immediately. Don't wait until the other fellow has gotten the "jump" on you. Obey that impulse NOW! Sign the "Entry Coupon" at once—today, and get busy. If not convenient to come to the office today—write. Talk things over with the campaign manager and ask his advice on all points pertaining to the work. He is here to direct and to assist you. The office of the campaign manager is at the Herald office and he will be there during business hours, and at other times by appointment. Make him your confidant as you would your lawyer or your banker. Plan your

$90 Per Mo. Allowed Terry Co. Students

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 7.—Lyndon B. Johnson, State Director of the National Youth Administration of Texas, Sunday evening issued a warning to county superintendents of schools to allocate high school aid-jobs to high school principals at once in order to prevent the possibility of their allotments being lost to them and transferred to other counties.

The National Youth Administration has made preparations to give this assistance to 8,547 high school students in Texas. County superintendents of school and principals of individual schools, working in cooperation with caseworkers of the Texas Relief Commission, make the final selection and assignments. However, if a county does not avail itself of the opportunity and place the full number of students in part-time jobs the allotment will be transferred to another county where the demand exceeds the supply.

"It is unfortunate that there are more applications than jobs available under the federal allotment of funds for Texas," Johnson said. "But we are eager to see that the allotment is used one hundred percent. Inasmuch as it is incumbent upon the school officials to initiate the movement and to see that it is put through, the need for immediate action is urgent. School has started already in many places and will start in others in the very near future. In order that there may be no waste whenever a county fails to avail of its funds, they will be transferred and given to other counties."

"It is doubtful that a county which fails to act this week and distribute its quota of funds to high school principals will have the opportunity to do so next week."

The NYA student aid program will provide jobs for 15 high school students in Terry County, at the rate of $6 per month, or a total of $90.00.

There Are No Old Age Pension Agents

"It appears from newspaper reports that unscrupulous persons in several sections of the State have been posing as Old Age Pension agents and have been attempting to collect fees for 'assisting' in securing pensions for old people.

"The people of this state are warned against paying money to anyone who offers to help them secure an Old Age Pension or to put their name on the 'rolls' or do anything else in this connection for pay.

"Numerous requests are received daily by the Office of the State Auditor. These letters come from all parts of the State from persons interested in Old Age Pensions. These people ask for application blanks and for the names of the proper persons in their districts to whom applications should be made for pensions.

"It is suggested that the people watch the newspapers for facts on pension procedure and wait until the proper agency has been designated to which applications may be made. They should remember that at this time no one is authorized to receive applications for Old Age Pensions.

"The Legislature is now working on the problem of enacting legislation to carry out the provisions of the Old Age Pension amendment but at this time no legislation has been enacted and there is therefore, at present no agency to whom applications may be made."

Rev. Hale Answers The President's Letter

On Sept. 24th, President Franklin D. Roosevelt addressed thousands of letters to ministers, rabbis and priests over the United States, one of which was addressed to Rev. J. M. Hale, Baptist minister of this city. In this letter, the President stated that he was trying to get a check up on what was being done, what had been done, and the reaction as seen by ministers, not only among their own flocks, but other people with whom preachers are in contact.

The president seemed particularly anxious about the new Social Security Legislation, as well as the Works Program. He asked the co-operation of the ministers, as he said the job was too big for any one man or group of men. Rev. Hale thanked the president heartily in his reply for the letter addressed to him, and thanked him for his work since president to see that no one went in want of food, or suffered the pangs of cold.

Rev. Hale explained that this section had suffered perhaps less than most sections of Texas, as it made a fair crop every year, and that cotton parity and hog-corn checks inaugurated by the present administration, had kept the people fairly well supplied with cash.

It was the belief of the minister that if possible old age pension should be lowered to 60, as there were many men of that age now unfit for hard work, and had been on relief rolls. He also suggested the building of highways as much as possible without the use of machinery. He heartily favored present plans to take as many off the dole and give them actual work, as the dole system tended to lower the pride and character of American people.

He also advised that he believed too much of the funds were being used for office forces, and too little was actually reaching those we intend to help. He recommended a system of insurance taking some from the wages of workers each month to lay up in a trust fund which later in life would act as an old age pension to that person. This, says Rev. Hale, will not only help them in old age, but will create a spirit of thrift.

Dallas News Celebrates Golden Anniversary

The Oct. 1, 1935 edition of the Dallas News came to us with 152 pages, in celebration of its Golden Jubilee. In 1885, the publishers of the Galveston News, then one of the best known papers of the state, came to Dallas, and purchased the Dallas Herald, which was intended primarily as a branch of the parent paper. But such was not long to remain that way. Dallas soon lunged from a mere frontier city to the metropolis of north Texas, and soon the territory within a radius of 100 miles became a thriving section of more than a million people.

Manufacturing and distributing companies from the east and north made the city their Texas distributing point. It soon became a leading implement, dry goods and banking center, and with it the News moved forward, and soon overshadowed the parent paper at Galveston, and that publication was sold to private individuals. The Dallas Evening Journal was then established, and long prior to that event, the Semi-Weekly Farm News became the greatest medium of its kind with the teeming farm population of Texas. Then came the Dallas News Almanac, a compendium of information about Texas that should be in every home.

The Herald cannot say that the Dallas Morning News is the most popular paper in west Texas. Several have a much larger circulation in this section, but taking Texas as a whole, it is considered one of the most reliable and influential. As a finished product in composition, material used, and general appearance, it stands as a peer of the papers of Texas, and is said to compare favorably with the greatest papers of this or any other nation.

The Golden Jubilee edition was not issued as a mere show of just how many pages they might print. Every section, and every page was chock full of things Texans should know that is making Texas great. Then too, it was a sort of forerunner of the Centennial, the central exhibit of which will open at Dallas next June.

The Golden Jubilee edition should have been placed in the hands of every family in Texas. The rotogravure section alone, depicted the splendid buildings, parks, etc., of the Centennial grounds as well as of Dallas proper, and was worth many times what was asked for the paper. The Herald appreciates the fact that the publishers of the News remembered us with a copy.

Clothing Market at Lubbock Oct. 19-22

LUBBOCK, Texas, Oct. 5.—The 11th semi annual West Texas-New Mexico Wholesale Clothing Market will be held in Lubbock, Oct. 19 to 22, inclusive, Lubbock Chamber of Commerce officials have announced.

From 75 to 100 lines of ready-to-wear, millinery, shoes, hosiery, general merchandise, men's wear, and specialty items are expected from Dallas, Kansas City, St. Louis, San Antonio, Los Angeles and other markets, and from 200 to 250 retail merchants from a radius of two hundred miles of Lubbock are expected.

Monday, Oct. 21, is to be the big day at market.

Monday evening, at the Lubbock High School Auditorium, a style show will be staged under the direction of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, with the cooperation of visiting wholesale merchants. Styles for fall in sport and street wear, afternoon and evening dresses, coats, wash frocks, pajamas, millinery, hosiery and other merchandise will be paraded before visiting merchants, modeled by members of the young sets of Lubbock.

Following the style show, a dance will be held honoring visiting retail merchants.

Large Crowds Hear Dedication Services

An immense crowd that packed every available seat and every auxiliary seat that could be put in their auditorium, the largest church auditorium in the city, were on hand last Sunday night at the Methodist church to hear Bishop H. A. Boaz in his dedicatory sermon at the Methodist church. Cars were parked for two blocks on Main, and on north and south Second.

Those who heard the Bishop's masterful address, as well as the best of the extensive and well prepared program, were well pleased and felt that they were mighty well paid for the time they spent at the service. Bishop Boaz is not only one of the greatest preachers of Southern Methodism, but is a great educator, and so recognized throughout the nation.

Again, the Herald joins the rest of the citizens of the community and other churches in particular in congratulating the Methodist people on having liquidated every debt against their property in Brownfield.

Smallest Tradesday Crowd Seen Monday

A very nice crowd of people were here Monday, but it was not nearly up to normal. In fact we had one of the slimmest crowds to grace Tradesday that has been here in many moons. There were scarcely more on hand than there was the first Tradesday when we had just begun to advertise the affair.

There are many factors to be considered in making a guess of the reason, the two main ones being that many had started picking cotton, and many row binders were running in the trade territory. The clouds also, gave some promise of showers, and farmers wanted to make hay while the sun shined.

Despite the small crowd, some of the merchants reported a very good trade throughout the day, especially in the dry goods, grocery and hardware departments. It was noticed however, that most of the things bought from the hardware and dry goods people were things to work with or in, such as overalls, knee pads and cotton sack clothing.

Several merchants told us Saturday that they could begin to feel the fall pickup in their business.

Revival Starts Off With Good Crowds

The week exchange between the churches of Christ here and at Lamesa, really began Sunday morning with a crowded house and another good one Sunday night, despite the fact that many of the members as well as occasional visitors to this church went to hear the dedication services at the Methodist church.

Clarence C. Morgan, of Lamesa arrived Monday, and opened Monday night with one of the most powerful sermons we have ever heard on the Fatherhood of God and the Divinity of Christ. There was a heavy response and one of the largest Monday night crowds ever seen here for a fall revival.

So great was the response that it was decided to have day services, also, which were started Tuesday A. M.

Rather Slow Week For Crop Gathering

For some ten days, ending last Saturday, we had some real fall weather in this section. The days were sunny, and a nice little breeze kept drying out the bolls and immature feed, and the cotton bolls were beginning to pop open nicely.

But Sunday saw a change in conditions. Clouds that appeared threatening began to show, and as this is written late Tuesday afternoon, almost the same condition obtain. While scarcely any rain fell, except a sprinkle Monday, heavy dews and fogs kept the fields and plants damp.

As this is being written a rather dark cloud glows in the northeast, with just a tinge of a rainbow in the center, which is conclusive evidence that a shower is falling out there—by the way it is falling here right now.

ACC Has Students From 17 States, Can.

With a few students yet to matriculate, Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, entered the fifth week of its thirtieth session Monday, October 7, with more students and a wider territory represented in its student body than ever before in the history of the school. Six hundred one students had enrolled in the college department with seven hundred forty-seven registered in all departments including elementary grades, junior high school, and high school.

Different students in college call seventeen states, the District of Columbia, and Canada home. An analysis of the enrollment shows that sixty-one elementary students, eighty-five junior high school and high school students have enrolled, and that two hundred sixty-nine of the six hundred one college students are freshmen.

Among those enrolled in the college are Naomi Drury and Howard Davis, Brownfield.

Cubs in Tilt With Hobbs, N.M., Today

After a week of rest during which time they have been polishing up on a few plays the Brownfield Cubs journey over to Hobbs, N. M. this week for a non-conference scrimmage with the Hobbs Eagles. The Hobbs delegation is a rather strong one, boasting of one of the best passers and pass receivers in this part of the country. In their game last week with Levelland passes were completed with regularity.

The Cubs are ready for this game though and are glad of this opportunity to play under lights before meeting the strong Slaton Tigers next week. Since this is going to be a night game it is felt that a strong delegation of fans will follow the Cubs to Hobbs.

It is entirely possible that some new material will be uncovered in this game. There is also the hope that the Cubs will continue their victorious march.

A Correction

We wish to make a correction in the name under the Willys Motor Car ad last week in which we stated that the owner was Ed. Lieska, when it should have been "Ed Lieske." The fault was ours.

Whether we used an "a" or an "e" in concluding the name would not probably be noticed by a stranger, but it stands out like a "lumpjaw" on a cow to the owner of the name.

Old Timer Gets Road Supervisor Job Here

Mr. H. E. McBride who has been here several years as road supervisor of the State Highways of this county, has, we understand been transferred to Levelland, but as he has his home here, has not up to this time made the move. Mr. McBride is very popular with the people here, who wish him well in his new location.

Taking his place, is a local man, Lester McPherson, who with his father, the late Uncle Bart McPherson, were among the pioneers to settle here from Comanche county. His many old friends are congratulating him.

"Less" has had many years experience both in building and maintaining roads in Texas. He helped to build some of the best roads in the State in the San Angelo section a few years ago, and has helped in the maintenance of state dirt roads in several sections.

Mrs. Cotton of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Cye Tankersley of Rule, Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Sawyer of Crossroads, N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Stitts of Brownsville are all here attending the bedside of their brother, Oscar Sawyer, who has been quite ill at the West Texas hospital at Lubbock. Oscar's many friends will be glad to hear he is much better.

buildings, or the amount of gasoline that is kept about the premises. If you do not have time to do this, or not familiar with such, why not tell your plumber or electrician to examine the wiring, etc., and your yard man can get rid of that old trash pile. Some of the most destructive fires in the history of our nation have been started by insignificant beginnings, like the cow that kicked over the lantern to start the Chicago fire in the 70's. One of the most destructive fires in Terry county since we have been here some 27 years, and burned many sections of good grass land, started when a man tried to burn off his fence rows by dragging a faggot behind a bronc. The wire that was tied to the faggot and to the saddle horn got under the bronc's tail, causing a runaway, and a destructive fire was begun. Dozens of men fought that fire for hours.

These Fire Prevention Weeks, with their publicity from the newspapers, with ceremonies in schools together with drills of school children and fire departments, not to mention oratory, once each year, are calculated to inculcate into the minds of the rising generation, the danger and destructiveness of fire. We hope the readers of the Herald will profit by these programs, and take every precaution to see that all gas connections are good, as well as other things mentioned above, as we get ready to go into winter.

SHERIFF'S SALE
The State of Texas, County of Terry.

By virtue of a certain order of sale issued out of the Honorable District Court of Tarrant County, on the 16th day of September, 1935, by Geo. W. Skipwith, clerk of said Court against L. M. Waters for the sum of Eight Thousand Five Hundred Twenty-three and twelve one hundredths ($8,523.12) Dollars and costs of suit, in cause No. 11672A in said Court, styled Federal Life Insurance Co. versus L. M. Waters et al and placed in my hands for service, I, J. S. Smith as Sheriff of Terry County, Texas, did, on the 8th day of October 1935, levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Terry County, described as follows, to-wit:

All of the south one-half of section No. 29 in Block D-11, Certificate No. 31, Stone, Kyle & Kyle survey, in Terry County, and levied upon as the property of said L. M. ROBERT WELCH, Mayor.

Oil on Their Land Saves Bennett Ranch

ABILENE, Oct. 5.—The wolf at the ranch-house door could not withstand the last-minute rally of a West Texas wildcat—when the wildcat happened to be a prospective oil well.

Discovery of oil in the C. J. Davidson and Honolulu Oil Company wildcat east on the L. P. Bennett's Yoakum County ranch enabled Mr. and Mrs. Bennett to pay off a depression-incurred cattle debt and clear all obligations held against their 11,040-acre ranch.

Retention of the huge ranch, their home for 19 years, was made possible by a transaction with the Argo Royalty Company of Fort Worth and Denver. The $22,000 sale of mineral rights, completed immediately after the test showed oil on Sept 27, permitted the Bennetts to meet an agreed court judgment in favor of the Agricultural Livestock Finance Corporation of Fort Worth.

The wildcat test, in section 678, block D. John H. Gibson survey, was shut down last week after operators drilled to 5,088 feet in lime, and oil rose 800 feet in the hole in 20 hours. Gas showing was estimated at 1,500,000 cubic feet. It is now awaiting six-inch casing which will probably be set and cemented around 4,700 feet.

Texas and Pacific Coal and Oil Company leased 8,800 acres of the ranch in 1927 for 10 years and a part of the block was assigned Red Davidson and the Honolulu in the center of the ranch in consideration for drilling the wildcat.

Humble Oil and Refining Company holds the remaining 2,240 acres owned by the Bennetts on a block directly west. The T. & P. lease includes all of sections 614, 628, 630, 631, 632, 680, 679, 678, 677, 676, 694, 695, 697, north half of 696, and northwest quarter of 693.

Another to profit from the oil strike is Abilene Christian College, which has received land grants from the couple. Bennett Gyants was built largely from returns on these grants. Of the Bennetts' eight children, four have been A. C. C. students. They are: Hugh of Fort Thomas, Ariz., Ralph of Abilene, Mrs. Allie Ruth Chenault, who teaches at Sligo, three miles from the ranch, and Mrs. Kathryn Kirby of Marfa. The two youngest, Margaret and Gene, are now attending the academy. Their other children are Fay Wallace of Lubbock and Frank of Tyler. Hugh and Ralph are widely known as expert rodeo performers, and are now in New York attending the rodeo at the Madison Square Garden.

Bennett moved to Texas from Arkansas in 1889 and settled in Knox County. There he met Ruth Smith, whom he married in 1890. Mrs. Bennett inherited the ranch from her father, Dr. J. R. Smith of Munday. In 1927, Mrs. Bennett moved to Abilene in order that she might be near her children in school. Bennett donated A. C. C. two sections of debt-free land outright, and made a trade for tuition for another half section. The college's holdings are four miles northwest of the ranch, and the two sections have been leased since the trade for $1,000 per section. The half-section is still unleased.

At the beginning of the depression, the ranch lost heavily in cattle investments, and several times Bennett was forced to borrow from the Agricultural Livestock Finance Corporation of Fort Worth.

A deed of trust was later made over to the corporation on 8,320 acres of the ranch. Unable to pay, the ranchman was brought into court litigation and eventually gave over to them an agreement of judgment for their claims. To satisfy mortgages, the Finance Corporation and the First National Bank of Lubbock advertised the sale of 8,320 acres and the date had been set for Oct. 1.

Through the efforts of Red Davidson and Bennett's attorney, Joe E. Childers of Abilene, a 30-day extension was obtained on the foreclosure. Last Tuesday the deal with the Argo company was completed. The wildcat saved the day.

Had the discovery of oil on his ranch not interfered in time, the Bennetts would have had to forfeit their extensive estate. As it is, a new pool may be opened, 28 miles from Hobbs, N. M., and north of the spreading exploration in Andrews and Gaines Counties.

The wolf at the door has slithered away and left a prospective oil boom on the doorsteps of Plains, the Yoakum County seat, and Seagraves, nearest railway connection to the discovery well.—Star-Telegram.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. No salaried employee of this newspaper is eligible to enter this competition.

2. Any reputable man or woman residing in this city or surrounding territory is eligible to enter this drive and compete for awards and weekly pay checks.

3. The winners of the awards will be decided by their earned credits, said credits being represented by ballots issued on cash collections and coupons clipped from this newspaper.

4. Participants in this drive are not confined to their own town or community in which to secure subscriptions, but may take orders anywhere in this section; or, for that matter, anywhere else.

5. Credits are free. It costs the subscriber nothing extra to cast credits for a favorite participant. Credits must be asked for at the time of paying subscriptions, otherwise subscribers waive this privilege.

6. Credits are not transferable. Participants cannot withdraw in favor of another participant. Should a participant withdraw from the race, his or her credits will be cancelled. Neither will it be permissible for participants to give or transfer subscriptions to another participant. Credits on such transferred subscriptions will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management.

7. Any collusion on the part of participants to nullify competition, or any other combination formed to the detriment of "Weekly Payroll" participants or this newspaper will not be tolerated. Any participant taking part in such combination stands liable to forfeit all right to a prize or commission.

8. All credits issued on ballots may be held in reserve and cast at the discretion of participants or this newspaper. The free credit coupons appearing from time to time in the paper must be cast before the expiration date.

9. In event of a tie for any one of the awards, a prize identical in value will be given each tying participant.

10. Participants in this drive are authorized agents of this newspaper, but it is understood and agreed that they will be responsible for all money collected and will remit such amounts in full on regular report days to the "Weekly Payroll" Department.

11. No statement or promise made by any representative or participant varying from the rules and statement appearing in the columns of this newspaper will be recognized by the publisher.

12. In case of typographical or other errors it is understood that neither the publisher nor "Weekly Payroll" manager shall be held responsible except to make the necessary correction upon discovery of same.

13. ACTIVE participants will be paid a twenty per cent cash commission ($1.00 out of every $5.00 collected) on all subscription money turned in to their account each week. It is distinctly understood, however, that in the event any participant becomes IN-ACTIVE, failing to make a regular cash report, he or she will, at the discretion of the management, become disqualified and thereby forfeit all right to an award or an extra commission.

14. It is understood and agreed that the winners of major awards will consider their weekly pay checks in the light of an "advance," which is refundable upon presentation of prize.

15. To insure absolute fairness in the awarding of prizes, the race will be brought to a close with a sealed ballot box. During the entire last "period" of the drive a ballot box—locked and sealed—will repose in the vaults of a local bank, where participants and their friends may deposit their final collections and reserve credits. In this way, no one—not even the Campaign Manager—can possibly know the actual strength of the various participants, which precludes any possibility of favoritism and insures fairness to the minutest degree.

16. Twenty-five thousand credits will be given each worker for every 5-year subscription or its equivalent turned in during their first week of the campaign, and during the third week of the drive, half as many extra credits will be given on same basis.

17. To each "Weekly Payroll" participant who earns as much as $50.00 during their first week of the campaign, this newspaper will give an extra bonus of $25 cash.

18. Five thousand extra credits will be given to each participant who makes a cash report each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights.

19. This newspaper guarantees fair and impartial treatment to all participants, but should any question arise, the decision of the management will be absolute and final.

20. In becoming a member of this "Weekly Payroll" Campaign participants agree to abide by the above conditions.

Weekly Payroll

PLAN IN BRIEF

The object of this big "Weekly Payroll" Drive is two-fold. Primarily, to increase the already large subscription list of this newspaper; to collect arrearages and advance subscription payments from present or old subscribers, and at the same time to afford the live-wire, energetic men and women, boys and girls, of this territory an opportunity to profit in a BIG way through their spare time during the next few weeks. So, it is a plan that works both ways, and to the ultimate good of all concerned.

In order to gain this end quickly and advantageously, the most attractive awards ever offered by any newspaper in this section have been made ready for distribution among those who participate most actively. Ambition and energy are the only requisites for success.

Let it be understood at the very outset that this is not a "beauty" nor "popularity" contest, but a strictly legitimate competitive proposition for enterprising men and women, and one into which no element of chance enters. Each active participant will receive a pay check every Saturday night. One feature of this drive is the fact that "Everybody Wins." There will be no losers.

HOW TO ENTER—WHAT TO DO

The first thing to do is to clip the Entry Coupon appearing below; fill in your name and address and mail or deliver to this newspaper at once. This coupon entitles you, or the person whom you might wish to enter, to 5,000 free credits. These credits are given as a starter to speed you on your way to win. Only one such Entry Coupon will be accepted for each participant.

The next step is to call or write the "Weekly Payroll" Department for a free working outfit. Thus equipped, you have but to see your friends and acquaintances and have them subscribe to this newspaper through you. That's all there is to it! However, you will never get anywhere unless you make the start—the earlier the better. Once started, let no one discourage you. Anything worth having is worth striving for. Six and a half short weeks and you may be riding in your own BIG automobile or otherwise several hundred dollars richer in purse.

HOW CREDITS ARE SECURED

It takes credits to win, and they are secured in the following ways: First by clipping the Free Credit Coupons appearing in each issue of this newspaper. There is no limit to the number of these coupons you may secure. Get your friends to save them for you. They all count. Begin gathering them NOW while they are good for 100 credits each. After next week these coupons will be reduced to 50 credits each. The following week to 10 credits, and after that they will be discontinued entirely. The only restriction placed on these coupons is that they must be cast before the expiration date.

The other, and much faster way to accumulate credits in this "Weekly Payroll" Drive is by securing new and renewal subscriptions to this newspaper. On each order secured credits are issued, the number varying according to the amount paid and during which "period" same are received at the "Weekly Payroll" Department of this newspaper. (See schedule of credits below.)

EARLY START MEANS EASY FINISH

The advantages of an early start are manifest. This "Weekly Payroll" drive is of such short duration that immediate action is necessary for success. Orders taken during the early part of the campaign carry the MAXIMUM number of credits. Then, too, the first in the field will undoubtedly get the "cream" of credits and subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left.

Don't lose valuable time "waiting to see what the other fellow is going to do," but pitch right in and show the "other fellow" how to do it!

The Story of Joe, John and Herbert

This is the story of the adventures of three upstanding American citizens under the New Deal — Joe Green, John Cornstassel and Herbert Hoover. Consider Joe Green—that isn't his name, but he's a real person in Chicago. Joe is a skilled mechanic. He is employed by the International Harvester Co. He helps make machinery that John Cornstassel uses in his business. But back in 1932, when low prices put John out of the machinery market, Joe was automatically laid off and ceased to be an economic unit.

He managed to squeak through, however, because the company loaned him money against the day of returning prosperity and he was handy at odd jobs. Today Joe is back in the picture working five and a half days a week at good pay.

Which brings us to John Cornstassel. You remember him. He's the fellow who, as the story goes, was paid for loafing and plowing under things. But it now appears that his plow struck something yellow and exceedingly beautiful. Anyway, the newspapers have discovered that that's gold in them thar fields. Publishers are inviting national advertisers to come out and get some of the money through the use of space in the papers that farmers read.

Farmers Have Cash for Needed Supplies

"Farm Comeback Over Whole Nation Now Opening Up Vast, Rich Markets," is the pleasant headline that graces the front page of Editor & Publisher, national newspaper guide, in a supplement devoted to John, his tall corn, fat hogs, loving kind—and pocketbook. "The present fact is that the farm population, comprising one-third of the whole, is now prepared to spend money for urgently needed supplies. 'This is good news for sellers and advertisers of commodities,'" observes the editor.

Although Mr. Hearst is personally shrieking to high heaven against the New Deal, a writer on his Omaha paper, the Bee-News, happily informs us that, aided by $40,000,000 corn-hog AAA reduction fees, "a golden stream of buying power" is blessing John in Nebraska. "New automobiles and trucks flash along the highways," he reports. "Farm machinery sales have advanced and all products have wider and surer markets."

And while the Chicago Tribune's editorial columns burn with indignation against "Corn" Wallace and all his works, Frank Ridgway, farm editor of that journal, contributes an article headed with the information that dollars are rolling along rural Illinois roads.

To Iowa's Farmers—a Half Billion

Here's news, too, that may or may not chirk up Sen. Dickinson, Iowa's No. 1 old dealer. Anyway, it should remind him of the good old days that he's been yearning for. "Iowa," reports J. S. Russell, farm editor of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, "sees a half billion dollars in farm income during the first half of 1935."

So it goes. From all over the broad, fat land the story of John's gold strike is repeated: "Farmers of Indiana using black ink; gain $100,000,000." "Implement dealers and manufacturers report nearly 100 per cent increase in business." "Northwest farmer has chin up—Agriculture staging a tremendous comeback this year—Trade revival in full swing."

"Kentucky merchants jubilant as farmers harvest good crops." "Southwest is spirited recovery—live stock now selling at a profit—stockmen making more money than ever before during like period."

"Gross Wisconsin farm income this year will top $300,000,000 for the first time in five years." "Millions in new wealth pour into North Dakota farmers' pockets." "South Dakota crop comeback puts farmers in market for goods." "Sale of 1935 crop will start river of wealth flowing." "Michigan harvesting better than average fruit crop."

So much for John.

Now let's turn to the happiest story of all—the one about Herbert Hoover. It appears that while Mr. Hoover is publicly and politically viewing with alarm, privately he is getting in on the New Deal's prosperity ground floor. According to John E. Pickett, editor of the Pacific Rural Press, Mr. Hoover and his son, Allan, are among the largest investors in farm land. "The smart money men feel," Pickett says, "that farm land is the soundest investment of all, and they are encouraged by the fact that agriculture has made the best recovery of any major industry and has a cheerful outlook ahead."

So it seems that things are looking up for Joe and John and Herb. Joe has a job making implements for John. John is in clover. Herb is getting in on the "smart money." We're all feeling better. What could be nicer?—Editorial from the Chicago Times (Independent) September 3, 1935.

any one will vote against it. It is inconceivable that a rich, progressive community, such as Union, would turn down such a worthy project as this is.

Rev. Richberg, Baptist minister of Big Spring, preached Sunday morning at the Baptist church.

Rev. Ed Hawthorne has been called as pastor for the coming year, by the Union church. He succeeds Rev. W. K. Horn, who was pastor of this church for the past twelve months, but was recently called to full time by the Baptist church at Meadow.

Mr. O. E. Floyd has been reelected superintendent of the Sunday School for the coming year. He has served very efficiently in this capacity for the past several years. Much credit is due him for his leadership in this good Sunday School. "Honor to whom honor is due."

Yes, we have the best rural Sunday School—Come to Union.

PALESTINE, PROSPERITY AND PROPHECY

Business improved so fast in Palestine in 1933-1934 that a decline was feared during the next twelve months. But the annual report of the British Government to the League of Nations says that "actually the 'peak' conditions of 1933-34 were far exceeded in 1934-35."

A few years ago, in the early days of Jewish colonization, it took more than sixty acres of land to support a family. Today, with irrigation and intensive cultivation, only five acres are needed.

Great stretches of waste and sandy soil along the shores of the Mediterranean, north and south of Jaffa, have been transformed into beautiful orange groves. During the past year more than 7,000,000 boxes of oranges were exported from Palestine.

The Dead Sea water contain abundance of potash and bromine, two mineral salts in great demand in the modern world. The Palestine Potash, Limited, is an international company, organized to extract and market the salts. It is estimated that the potential value of the potash, bromine, and other salts of the Dead Sea water is four times the wealth of the United States.

Palestine contains no natural harbor. Haifa was chosen as the most suitable city for the construction of a harbor, and it was built at a cost of more than $5,000,000. It was opened two years ago, and already Haifa has become one of the important seaports of the Mediterranean.

Haifa is also the western terminus of the great pipe line carrying oil almost a thousand miles from Mesopotamia. Tankers in the harbor receive oil direct from this line. Over 9,000 men were employed for more than eighteen months in laying the twelve-inch steel pipes electrically welded together. 5,500 tons of oil arrive at Haifa in a single day.

One of the greatest enterprises in modern Palestine is the Rutenberg hydro-electric power plant on the Jordan river, to furnish electric light and industrial power to the land. The plant, with its three giant turbines, a few miles south of the Sea of Galilee, has a capacity of 25,500 horse power.

Is this amazing prosperity in the little land of Palestine, when the world still staggers under financial depression, simply the result of human effort and enterprise, or has it a deeper significance? Those who believe the Bible are convinced that prophecies recorded centuries ago are rapidly being fulfilled in Palestine today. For example, in the Book of Isaiah, written more than 2,500 years ago, chapter 61, verse 4, are these words: "And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations." About the same time Jeremiah (chapter 31, verses 38-40) foretold the boundaries of the future Jerusalem, and it is a fact that the city is being rebuilt along those lines today.

George T. B. Davis, a world traveler and writer of experience, traveled in Palestine this summer. He tells of these remarkable developments, and many others, in a clear, concise, and thoroughly interesting style in a series of articles to begin in October in The Sunday School Times, 325 North 13th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. The articles will be illustrated by photographs made only this summer during Mr. Davis' journey through the Holy Land.

QUARANTINE KEEPS DOWN DISEASE SPREAD

Quarantine and isolation have long been practiced to limit the spread of contagion. Theoretically, these measures should no longer be necessary for diphtheria and smallpox, two diseases which are absolutely preventable," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. Practically, however, we still have smallpox with us and cases as well as death due to diphtheria occur only too often. Control and preventive measures are now practiced against scarlet fever, measles, and whooping cough. Nevertheless, until such measures find more universal application, isolation and quarantine must continue to be emphasized. These are, in a true sense, essential aids in the control of disease.

The attitude of people toward observance of health regulations varies as greatly as does human nature itself. Most families, realizing the necessity for restrictive measures, cooperate readily. This attitude is exemplified by the mother who learned that her little girl had measles. She waited a while and then telephoned to the health office to ask that her home be placarded. Mothers in increasing numbers are asserting this sort of health consciousness.

There is, of course, the opposite attitude that of evasion. Failure to report the presence of suspected communicable disease in the home is unfortunate. A chief purpose of isolation is to allow for the infected person to rid himself of the disease germ. In the case of scarlet fever, this period covers a number of weeks. If proper isolation is not observed and a child is allowed to return to school while still infectious, the danger to other susceptible children is obvious. To counteract such danger requires constant vigilance on the part of teacher, nurse, and physician or health officer.

UNION X-RAYS

Mrs. C. M. Pharr entertained with a quilting party Thursday afternoon. Delicious refreshments of hot chocolate and cake were served to about thirty-two ladies.

Mrs. Roy Draper and son, Billy are visiting this week with her parents in Dickens county.

Quite a number of Unionites attended the dedication services at the Methodist church at Brownfield Sunday night. We enjoyed very much the masterly sermon by Bishop Boaz.

Our school is progressing very satisfactorily with good attendance and unusual interest being manifested by both pupils and patrons.

Very encouraging progress is being made regarding the plans for an addition to our school building. We understand an election is to be held in the near future on a bond issue for this purpose. As we only have to pay about fifty per cent of the project it is not believed it likely that

ALLRED AND THE POLICE CHIEF

Governor James V. Allred paroled a Texas convict to the chief of police at Memphis, Tenn.

The governor did this because the man's family lived at Memphis.

But the chief of police didn't like the idea. "We have our own criminals to deal with and do not take kindly to having them imported from other states into Tennessee," the police chief said in a letter to Allred.

It seems the officer also didn't take kindly to the plan because he had not been asked to do it, the governor merely writing the chief and telling him the convict was paroled to him.

The chief said that if the paroled convict showed up at headquarters at Memphis he will be arrested as an undesirable person and charged with vagrancy.

Governor Allred answered warmly. He pointed out that the convict was paroled conditioned on his conducting himself in an exemplary manner and that he thought the chief of police would be interested in helping rather than kicking down a man who had been in the penitentiary.

Personally we think Allred's attitude is correct. Whose duty is it to give a man a fair deal than an officer of the law? Who is best fitted to see that a person who has committed a crime walks in the straight and narrow path if given another chance?

The law should work both ways, just like all rules do.

The law was not designed to grind a person down and keep them forever banished from society because they once committed a crime. It was designed to deal justly and impartially, to establish a person's innocence as well as his guilt.

We can not conceive of a person who, in the service of the law, is unwilling to help a man onto the right path. The good officer is as willing to establish innocence as guilt. In fact it is his duty. Moreover he should do all he can to keep a man on the upward trail when he gets started back that way.—Cleburne Weekly News.

TYLER SECTION NAMES THE CENTENNIAL ROSE

TYLER, Texas, Oct. 5.—A beautiful new rose, named in honor of the Texas Centennial year, held the center of interest last week at the annual Rose festival here. The Centennial rose was one of more than 500 varieties which furnished the thousands of blooms for the four day festival which ended Sunday, October 6.

Tyler is in the heart of the great East Texas nursery area which produces approximately one-half of the nation's supply of roses. Roses from the Tyler area's 140 nurseries have won many prizes in show competition and the more than 1,500 acres of blooming plants attract thousands of interested visitors each year. The "Rose Garden" section is expected to be a popular point of interest for many visitors to the state during the Centennial celebration period which was opened October 2nd at Gonzales and which will be continued through a number of historical celebrations at various points in the state, culminating in the state-wide exposition at Dallas next June.

G. W. Hicks has renewed for the Herald and Farm News.

Fred Dawson has quit the farm for this year, and is trying his hand trading.

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

Copying from our issue of Oct. 11, 1912. We printed a list of those who won in the Terry County Fair, and what they won on. In those days there were no cash premiums given, just unprinted blue, red and white ribbons. Some improvement on the Tahoka and Lubbock roads was discussed. A big rain had fallen, and we stated it was making fine grass. People did not hate to see fall rains then like they do now, as it was then more of a ranch than a farming country. Daniel Sparks was up from Fluvanna and reported a crop failure in that section. An effort was being made to enroll every man in the county in the County Fair Association. Miss Lottie Banowsky of Ringgold, Texas, sister of R. H. Banowsky of the Mercantile, had come in to take charge of the ladies wear dept. J. C.

Green was improving his home; the editor was having his house weather-boarded; the Gracey boys, John and Walter, recently from Dallas county, were fixing to build on their farm north of town; J. T. May was weather boarding and painting his home; Jack Bryan was adding to his garage on the ranch; many other improvements contemplated. Mr. Arno was again cooking at the hotel. Uncle Joe Fisher was helping Coble & Criswell harvest their feed crop. Presiding Elder Terry of Big Spring, was to hold quarterly conference here Friday night. Chock Hamilton had won the $20 prize in rabbit scalps. He killed 500 with about 750 cartridges. Blacksmith shops were busy keeping the binders in tune. John Ward of Lubbock, W. K. Dickinson's chauffeur, was here on business. John S. Powell had lost his fine brood mare that took the blue ribbon at the fair at Gomez the year before. A letter from California stated that J. F. Holden had the Texas fever badly. J. T. May was painting W. A. Bell's residence and garage. The first "turn" of 1912 corn had been brought to the mill here. Uncle Bill Howard had taken the mail back to Lubbock, from whence he was to take a train for Dallas to exhibit Terry county products at the State Fair. J. T. May went to Tahoka to meet a drummer to buy his fall and winter dry goods stock. Mr. Harvey Hamilton of Plains, and Miss Dot Campbell of Meadow were married here by Rev. Trammell Sunday night. Miss Zellica Knox had come in from Dublin, and took charge of her school room here. H. T. Brooks and family were at Paducah picking around 1000 pounds of cotton per day. Mr. John Hays and Miss Ruby Bynum were married on Sunday afternoon by Rev. Trammell, at the A. B. Bynum residence, northeast of town.

Harris News: Rev. A. D. Jameson was to start a revival meeting on the 3rd Sunday. Marland Ellington had business in Midland. Miss Maymie Powell was to teach the Alexander school. The young folks enjoyed a social Saturday night at the W. H. Harris home. A good rain Oct. 7th. Jack Mahoney was down from the Mallet ranch after the mail.

Gomez Items: Rev. Jameson was holding a meeting at J-Cross. Boone Hunter was in from the ranch after windmill supplies. Grover Lewis was acting "Central" at the phone exchange. A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Artie Shepherd on the 7th. Mrs. Oral Adams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Turner of Brownwood, were visiting her. Mrs. Oscar Adams and baby of New Mexico, were visiting relatives. Young folks had a singing at the Baptist church Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holgate visited over the week end at the Joe Lane ranch. Hardin Long and Mr. Carter, were down from Lubbock. Ben Brannon had purchased the Pruitt place. G. E. Lockhart was over from Tahoka, looking after his property. Big rain fell Monday. Miss Rena Lewis was teaching a school ten miles west of Seminole. A Mr. Robinson had purchased the A. P. Moore farm east of town; also the crop from the renter. All for this week.

PROGRESS NOTES

By J. E. Shelton, Secretary Chamber of Commerce

Down Town Telegraph Office

Mr. Wilson, Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, was here Tuesday and advised us that his company was establishing a downtown office for the better convenience of the public. Service will be available under the following arrangement. Between the hours of 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. messages will be taken from the Santa Fe Station with messenger service as heretofore. Between the hours of 5 P. M. and 10 P. M. service will be had from the Wines Hotel with Grady Terry in charge. In urgent cases Mr. Terry will receive and send messages after 10 P. M. Mr. Wilson informed the writer that the service was in the nature of an experiment and would be continued and improved in the event that additional business called for it.

About Cotton Pickers

The writer has been requested to make a few remarks concerning the present cotton picking situation as it appears that the county is being overrun with Mexican pickers who are slashing the picking price below 50c per hundred and are getting jobs that should be given to our own people who are in great need of work in order that they may provide for their families.

Now the history of a Mexican laborer, is that they come in here and get the best part of the picking and as soon as cold weather arrives, they quit the work and return to the southern part of the state leaving the tag ends for the farmer to harvest the best way that he can and this not only works a hardship on him but is hard on the man who is here with us and one of us and needs the work now. We are informed that the Mexicans are cutting the price below 50c per hundred and this is possibly the reason that they are getting the work, but it appears to the writer that it would be to our interest to favor our people who are here with us than to give it to some transient who has no other interest than to make what he can out of us and leave part of the crop ungathered. The difference in price is small and should not be considered.

Mrs. Randal, over at the Relief Office has a list of persons who desire to work in the fields and would be glad to see them placed, but she advises that she has had only two applications filed with her by farmers who were in need of pickers.

WPA Supervisor Here

Mr. A. H. Davidson, Supervisor of Projects and Planning for the Big Spring Division of the Works Progress Administration, is here today receiving applications for foremen and timekeepers on the various projects that have been approved for this county or upon which approval is expected. He advised us that they were expecting to have approval of the Park project within the next few days. "Boy Howdy!" Do you know that I have had that park project on my mind so long, that I can look over toward that 160 acres of land and see everything over there just the same as if it was actually completed, even to Homer Winston in his motor boat out on the lake trying to catch a fish. Homer says that he had rather have the lake than to own the best oil well in Texas.

Loan Office To Move

After Thursday of this week the Emergency Crop Loan office will be located in the Grand Jury room as it was before the August term of court. For the last several weeks it has been housed with the chamber of commerce. It is expected that clerical assistance will be provided for the convenience of farmers, but there is nothing definite concerning the conduct of the office at this time, except that they will have a special representative from another part of the state to oversee collections.

Babicora Not Coming

The new management of the Babicora Development Company has definitely decided that they will not feed out any cattle from their pens in Brownfield this year and probably not until after the 1936 crop is produced, as they say that they are able to market their cattle at a profitable price without taking the trouble and expense of taking them through a feeding period. The pens will not be abandoned however, and all machinery and other stuff will be left as it is for use at a more opportune time. There will, nevertheless, be a market for all classes of feed including bundle stuff and at prices that will be profitable to farmers, but not as high as last year, this according to information received from one of our principle feed buyers.

Those present were Mesdames Austin Miller, E. P. E. E. "Dilly" Dildine, who piloted the Barbee plane here until the latter's death at Corpus Christi in the summer, was killed in Wyoming recently, when his plane crashed into a mountain. He had two passengers, who were also killed, we understand. "Dilly" was considered a very careful pilot.

We learn that E. C. Roberts of Seagraves, contemplates the erection of a real nice Sinclair service station here in the near future.

YOUR CAR'S COLD TOO... SO MAKE SURE YOUR ENGINE

And please don't think you are going to read this same sort of thing about a "whole raft" of winter oils. The clean-cut difference in favor of Conoco Germ Processed Oil is this: when the thermometer goes down there is a Hidden Quart of Conoco that doesn't. It can't. It stays and stays—becomes a lasting part of every surface in your engine. The Germ Process... fully patented... makes this alloyed oil blend with metal remarkably, forming your Hidden Quart. Then no matter how long your car is parked or garaged in the coldest cold, you come out to a well-oiled start... not merely because fine paraffin-base Conoco Germ Processed Oil is free-flowing, but because the Hidden Quart is up on guard before any oil could even begin to flow. Gone are the warm-ups that chew up your engine. Nor need you fear highest speeds, or hardest winter pulls. That's when Germ Processed Oil puts its high-durability film between you and repair men. It's not only light-bodied enough for winter, but tougher, too. AND... road tests of cars with conventional babbitt bearings, and with the new copper-lead, high-lead, and cadmium-alloy bearings, prove Germ Processed Oil far better than plain mineral oils for all bearings! Whether you're driving a '35 model or a "veteran," drive it in today for your Conoco man's winter help. Continental Oil Company, Established 1875.
