

Negro Held For Death Of Lynn Co. Officer

TAHOCA, March 8.—Elmo Banks, 43, negro jail breaker, sought since the fatal shooting of Deputy Sheriff F. E. Redwine Friday night, was captured 14 miles southeast of here today.

Officers, fearing violence, rushed the negro to an unannounced jail somewhere in West Texas.

Banks, who had been sought over a wide area by posses aggregating 500 heavily armed men, surrendered without resistance. No shots were fired in the capture, which was made by a posse headed by Deputy Sheriff John Johnson of O'Donnell.

The negro had wandered foodless over the Plains country until 1 a. m. Sunday. Then he held up B. Cook at his store near here and demanded tobacco and bacon. Cook, covered by the negro's pistol, filled the order and after the fugitive left telephoned officers.

The posse found Banks lying in a ditch near Wells' store. He was taken into custody and rushed by automobile out of the county.

A loaded .45 caliber automatic with an extra clip of cartridges was taken from Banks, Johnson said. Redwine was slain with a .45, the officer said.

Redwine was shot with his own gun when Banks broke jail here Friday night. Nine wounds took effect and a blood transfusion failed to save the officer's life. Redwine died Saturday.

The officer was found lying near the base of a stairway leading from a courtroom to the jail. Witnesses reported that they saw the negro, who had been charged with incest, fleeing eastward from the courthouse, in which the jail is located.

Two other prisoners, both whites, had been removed from the jail run-around and locked in their cells shortly before the shooting began.

"Negro shot me—I didn't think he would do it," Redwine gasped as he was being taken to a Lubbock hospital for treatment. "He jerked my gun from my scabbard and went on down by me."

Banks had been jailed several times, chiefly on liquor charges.

BOY SCOUTS

The third meeting of the training course for Boy Scouts Leadership was held Monday night. The opening ceremony which consisted of a number of songs was performed by the Jackass patrol. Next an explanation of the troop leaders council was given by Dr. Parish. A knot tying contest was then conducted by S. P. L.—M. L. H. Baze. Next the patrol leaders called their patrols to their respective corners for their meeting. After returning to the troop meeting an explanation of tenderfoot requirements and second class requirements were given by Lee Brownfield and Howard Scott, respectively. Next a number of games were enjoyed the most hilarious being a game of "Swat'em." No injuries were suffered and the meeting terminated with the Scout Masters' benediction and the singing of taps.

Next meeting night a demonstration of the tenderfoot investigation service will be held. This is a very colorful ceremony, and anyone who wishes to witness it is welcome.—Reporter.

Soil Conservation Subsidy Bill Signed

COLLEGE STATION—The Federal Government will make grants of money to farmers, conditioned upon the actual evidence of good land use, President Roosevelt announced last week upon signing the new $500,000,000 "Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act." The new law authorizes up to $500,000,000 for use in any one year to pay farmers for soil conservation. Grants will be made to farmers for this work.

President Roosevelt, after signing the bill on February 29, issued the statement that the new soil conservation and domestic allotment act represents an attempt to develop, out of the AAA efforts, a long-time program for American agriculture.

Three chief aims of the legislation were listed by the President as tied up with the national welfare Conservation of the soil itself was named as the first of the three to be attained by wise and proper land use.

"The second purpose is the re-establishment and maintenance of farm income at fair levels so that the great gains made by agriculture in the last three years can be preserved and national recovery can continue. The third major objective is the protection of consumers by assuring adequate supplies of food and fiber now and in the future."

The President also strongly pointed out that there would be no contracts with farmers. Such contracts constituted one of the Supreme Court's objections to the AAA. While saying that such absence of production control might make impracticable the attainment of parity prices, Mr. Roosevelt said he is "confident that the farmers co-operating with the Government will work hard within the existing legal limitations to achieve the new law's goal, which is parity not of farm prices but of farm income."

The money to carry on the plans will be allotted to each State after the State agency has been set up. The Act further reads that the Secretary of Agriculture shall apportion, on or before Nov. 1 of each year, such funds as shall be necessary to carry out the State plans.

Farmers in preparing for the new program are planting soil improving and soil erosion prevention crops. Because planting time is so near, it is impossible for farmers to lay definite lines as to the acreage of such crops. However, Texas farmers, to profit by the new law, are planting sufficient crops of such nature as to meet the demands of the new law which was enacted for the purpose of building up the Nation's land.

Following the signing of the bill by the President, plans to speed the new program were immediately taken up in discussions by officials in the Department of Agriculture.

Calls for four regional meetings of farmers and farm representatives were issued. The first two in Chicago and Memphis to study details and make suggestions for the new set-up; the other meetings were scheduled in New York and Salt Lake City, March 9, 10 and 11.

Administration officials also announced that the program will be put into operation first in the Southern States, where planting of cotton starts soon. Texas falls into this category.

Training Courses Now in Progress

Training courses in Boy Scout work over the area of the South Plains Council are proving popular as well as producing many fine leaders. Some of the towns have completed their courses while others will complete their courses within a short time. All men who attend a sufficient number of sessions to meet the requirements will be awarded certificates through the Educational Service Department of the Boy Scouts of America.

The following courses are now being conducted and the number of men who have attended them are as follows:

Town	No. Attend.	Sessions Held
Spur	31	6
Ralls	22	5
Lorenzo	16	2
Slaton	25	5
Littlefield	19	3
Brownfield	32	3
	145	23

Additional courses are to start in the following towns soon: Lamesa, Tahoka, Sudan and Crosbyton. Every Class A town will have at least one training course this year.

Spring Revival to Start Here Sunday

The spring revival at the church of Christ will start Sunday morning at the 11:00 o'clock hour. There will be two services daily at 10:00 A. M. and

GLENN L. WALLACE

8:00 P. M., except Sundays. Evangelist Glenn L. Wallace, of Wichita, Kans., will do the preaching. He is well known in this section, having held a number of meetings at Seagraves, and at least one at Wellman and Gomez.

Dick Chisholm will likely be at the bat most of the time as song leader for the revival. The meeting is to run about ten days or two weeks. The public is cordially invited to hear this brilliant young minister in all sermons possible.

100 Year Old Papers Owned By Local People

The writer was invited into the Help Your Self Grocery this week to see some old land grant papers that have been handed down for generations in the family of the maternal parents of Jeff and Luke Medford and their sister, Mrs. Lawrence Davis. While the old grants were rather yellow with age, both the printing part, and the written in wording with ink, were quite legible. In fact, the penmanship of both the President and the registrar of the general land office in Washington, was superior to much of that of this day.

However, the seal of the United States was badly faded, but the indenture of the seal was plain enough. The instrument was upon good grade of parchment paper, and was standing up well considering the age, 98 years. Three of the grants were to Michael Elsberry in or near Little Rock Arkansas, and were signed in 1838 by Martin Van Buren, then President of the United States. One was a land grant in Conway county Arkansas to Samuel McMorrin in 1843, and signed by John Tyler, who followed Van Buren as president. There is no telling how valuable these old papers are at this time.

Another interesting instrument, was an old map of the lands that had been purchased from the government by these ancestors, the land laying along the banks of the Arkansas river. Anyway, there is no use in Jeff and his brother and sister trying to deny they have Irish blood in their veins. Note the names of those receiving these land grants.

Tahoka Physician To Face Charges

TAHOKA, March 6.—Four complaints charging violation of the medical practice act were filed in county court today against Dr. Charles P. Tate, aout 50, of Tahoka.

In addition, a suit was filed in 106th district court asking that Tate be restrained from medical practice.

Hearing on the petition, prepared by District Attorney Truett Smith, will be conducted at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Joe Osoba, investigator for the state medical board, signed the criminal complaints.

The injunction petition, said District Attorney Smith, alleged that Tate obtained a certificate to practice medicine, issued in March 1908, to Dr. Thomas B. Haynes of Jefferson county. It was alleged that Tate erased Haynes' name and substituted his own. The certificate was filed in the clerk's office here about 14 years ago, Smith said.

The state also will ask that the filing of certificate here be stricken from the record and that no additional copies of the filing be issued.

Supt. Baze Elected For Another Term

The Board of Trustees of the Brownfield schools met one night last week, and re-elected Supt. M. L. H. Baze for another term. Mr. Baze has been here one term, and has had to almost revolutionize the whole curriculum to comply with new state educational laws. This has necessarily taken lots of time and patience.

However, Mr. Baze informed us recently that he believed it was a good move, and that the teachers had shown a willingness and cooperation in installing the new system which made it much easier to put over than if the teachers had been hostile to the new methods.

Everything has finally been mapped out and put to work, and Mr. Baze believes that all local teachers, of which there are 24, have made good with their work, and when you have that many, usually there are a half dozen or more that will fall down.

There will not likely be any radical changes in the line-up of the faculty for 1936-37, judging from the above expressions of the superintendent, which is well, as too many changes are not good for the school system.

We have heard very little complaint this year, and what little there was, came when the new system was first installed, nothing since then.

Red Tudor and "Dad" Feeding Out Yearlings

With hundreds of tons of corn, hiegeria, and bundle stuff that Dad Tudor produced on the farm this year, not to mention feed took in on accounts at the Ford Sales department of the firm here in town, Red Tudor, manager, informed us this week that they were feeding out some 125 head of yearlings and coming two year olds out at the farm.

This feed is being crushed and fed daily, and all they will eat, and Red informed us that they were now getting in prime shape, and were gaining on an average of 2 pounds per day.

Feeding the immense amounts of grain raised here is becoming a practice rather than a fad, and those engaged at it are finding that it pays them to sell their feed in the hides of cattle, hogs and sheep rather than throw it on an already cheap market.

"Hello! City bridge department?" "Yes. What can we do for you?" "How many points do you get for a little slam?"—Kansas City Star.

Tulsa Radio Station Greetings Herald Editor

Well, at last we have succeeded in putting something across that will make old Sharley Shurnal Guy jealous; he'll turn green with envy when he reads this, and we are going to send him a marked copy to be sure that he does read it. You know Tulsa, Okla. is Sharley's old home town. But has the big 25,000 watt radio station KVOO there, ever recognized him?

Well, it dedicated a selection to us last Thursday night, March 5th, a nice dreamy Hawaiian waltz, played by Bob Willis' Texas Playboy band. The announcer stated that he was "dedicating the next number to A. J. Stricklin of Brownfield, Texas, uncle of Alton Stricklin, the pianist. Mr. Stricklin is a pioneer of the Brownfield section, going to that country when it was nothing but a howling wilderness."

Boy, that made us feel like putting our thumbs under our "galluses" and strut around some. The trouble was that it was after midnight and we were in our pajamas, with no "galluses" attached. Yes, we expected dedication, was the reason we were up. You guessed it.

Quint-County Medoes Met Here This Week

Representative physicians and surgeons, from the district comprising Dawson, Gaines, Yoakum, Terry and Lynn counties, which we believe is called the County Medical Association, met here Tuesday night, and went into a business session following the Chamber of Commerce banquet at the Tudor Sales Co. show rooms.

We called it the Quint County Medical Association, because it is composed of the five counties mentioned above. Lamesa was the only place represented, the four doctors from there being Drs. Dunn, Lovelace, Smith and Frazier. This was a regular session of the society.

Be a Good Neighbor, Says City Marshal

Some complaints have been made to me, by some good citizens, about the chickens of others trespassing and damaging their yards and gardens. The city has an ordinance against poultry running at large, but we desire to first appeal to all, to be the good neighbor and prevent these little grievances from arising.

Also, see that your cow, if staked out, is securely fastened, and not too close to a street or highway. Our citizens are trying to have nice shrubs and flowers about their places this year—Texas Centennial Year—and let's all co-operate to make it a big go so far as Brownfield is concerned. GENE BROWN, City Marshal.

To Attend Wedding Anniversary in Kans.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde C. Coleman and little daughter are leaving today for a few days' visit at Fredonia, Kansas, where Clyde was reared. This will be Mrs. Coleman's first visit, but Clyde was up there a few years ago. Mrs. Coleman's people originated in Alabama.

Monday will be the 65th wedding anniversary of one of Clyde's uncles and wife, at which time and place many of the kin will assemble to help celebrate, and of course this will be a good time for the Coleman's to go and see lots of relatives at one place. Mr. Coleman, who is secretary of the Brownfield school board, will be back on duty by next Wed.

Half Car Load of Frigidaires Received

The Hudgens & Knight hardware and furniture company unloaded a half car load of Frigidaires here the past week, the other half stopping at Lubbock for a dealer there. This is no doubt the largest shipment artificial cooling boxes ever unloaded in this city.

As the season of heavy sales in electric cooling machines is on hand, the above company are pushing the sales of these machines in every way possible, and they expect the biggest season run in their history, and they will have to go some to hit the 1935 record in sales Frigidaires here.

Local C. of C. Stages Its Annual Banquet

Right at 200 plates were served at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet held in the show rooms of the Tudor Sales Co., Tuesday night. It seemed that they were nearly all there, men, women and children, all trying to do their bit for the organization that is putting Brownfield on the map. There were a number of visitors from other towns, Lubbock having some eight or ten present.

The welcoming address, delivered by the president, Judge Raymond Simms, was short, but had the ring of sincerity, and everyone felt at home. Tom May acted as master of ceremonies. The report of J. E. Shelton, veteran secretary, was short but to the point. In a brief way, he told the accomplishments of 1935, and other things of importance still in the initiatory stages, such as the park and some of the road building. The meal was served by the PTA.

The entertainment features were real good, and in most instances brought down the house and called for encores. A trio composed of Profs. Emmitt Smith, Mack Penn and Miss Virginia May, accompanied by Miss Rasco on the piano was good. The local orchestra made good music throughout the repeat. Little Misses Imogene Coleman and Minnie Lee Walton, made a hit as Broadway Rhythm. Two quartettes under direction of Mrs. W. H. Dallas was fine, the first composed of two sets of girl twins from the Union community was excellent, as was four small boys, Harold and Randall Fry, R. H. Clay and Edwin Owens. Little Miss Ida Mae May did well with her acrobatic stunts.

Another feature of the entertainment was a comedy lecture by Jack Holt, local dance teacher. The "lecture" was followed by a shuffling dance accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Voncile Holgate-Williams. Homer Winston pulled a few "wise-cracks" on some of the local gentry. Among the Lubbock men who spoke briefly were Rep. J. Doyle Settle, J. Sam Lewis, staff correspondent of the Avalanche-Journal; Calvin Hazlewood, J. S. Ryan, of the West Texas Gas Co.; Jim Neill, local boy attending Tech; Garnet Rees and C. I. Wall.

Concluding the program, the new and old directors and officers of the Chamber of Commerce were asked to stand and were introduced.

Henderson Buys the Brownfield Dairy

Announcement was made this week that Claude Henderson had purchased the Brownfield Dairy, which included the herd, and took a lease on the residence and barns of the property. The herd and fixtures, delivery car etc., were purchased from Bill Gore, who will for the present continue with the dairy as an employee.

The residence of J. C. Hunter has been rented, and will soon be occupied by the Henderson family. Mr. Henderson informed us that he now had around 20 cows that were fresh, and about four more soon to be fresh, and as business demanded, would add to the herd.

He further stated that it was his ambition to deliver nothing but class A milk, rich and fresh.

New Studio Opened On West Main Street

Mr. Burtus Curtner, of Lamesa, has opened a photograph gallery in the building first door west of the Flippin Food store on west Main. He has had a number of years experience in photographic work, and will no doubt please you.

He makes exposures and finishes your picture in four minutes. He will also do enlarging from small photos at a price that will suit you. Be sure to call on him.

Fire Damages Grocery Store Thursday A. M.

Fire was discovered at an early hour yesterday in the Flippin Food Store, and an alarm turned in immediately. The fire was confined to the interior, which women say became very hot, and caused considerable damage to the stock.

The flames were confined to their building, however, and the firm will have considerable fire and water damage. We don't learn whether the firm carried insurance or not.

Two Men Escape Jail Here Monday Morning

Two men, one of whom was said to be under charge for swindling by worthless check and the other for forgery, broke jail Monday morning, according to Deputy Sheriff A. A. Green, and had not been recaptured late that night.

Green said the men burrowed through the ceiling, where a similar break was engineered last year, went down a scuttle hole into the run-around and thence made their escape through a wooden door which had been left open by a plumber.

Neither of the men had been indicted, said the deputy.

One of the men was short and stockily built and approximately 25 years old, and the other was tall and described as having red complexion and sandy hair.

Chisholm Implement Co. Adds Filling Station

A beautiful brick and tile building 18x24 is being erected at the rear of the Chisholm Bros. grocery, with concrete drive-ins, and three pumps, which we understand will be operated by the implement section of the Chisholm stores. These pumps are the latest make, being automatic as to refilling, and figuring on the amount of gas served in dollars and cents.

They will handle two grades of Cosden gas, and all kinds of oils, greases and other accessories. One of the pumps will serve distillates to tractors. Tire and tube repairing will also be a part of the new business. Autocrat oils will be pushed, but other favorite brands will be served.

The New Barber Shop Is a Real Beauty

Those who have examined the Hotel Barber Shop, the newest of the seven now operating in this city, pronounce it one of the prettiest and best arranged of any small shop they ever saw in any place. The fixtures are all new and modern. There are two chairs.

Jack Holt, who has been a barber in this city for some ten or twelve years, has charge of the shop, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Harrell being the owners. It is located first door north of the Sixth street entrance to the Hotel Brownfield. Mr. Holt has the reputation of being a specialist in ladies barber work.

Bennett Well to Be Plugged Above Water

SEAGRAVES, March 6.—Honolulu Oil company has decided to plug back the No. 1 Bennett, Yoakum county wildcat 18 miles northwest of here, it was reported Friday. Acid treatment is to be given.

Following a conference of Honolulu officials with C. J. (Red) Davidson, independent driller and head of the Cascade Oil Co., who owns a large amount of the mineral rights on the Bennett ranch, the decision is said to have been reached. William Adkins, driller, who brought in the test last fall, and who also drilled into salt water, was with Mr. Davidson.

Leaves For Training At Watch Factory

Lynn Nelson of this city, local young man, and a brother of Homer Nelson of the Corner Drug store, left Tuesday for Elgin, Ill., where he will take a course in the Elgin Watch factory.

Lynn will be gone for several months, during which time he will take the factory course in watch repairing, and upon returning, will look out a location for his work.

Letters From The Herald Readers

Lubbock, Texas
March 4, 1936

Dear Mr. Jack,
Pardon my unmentioned skill on the typewriter, as the darn thing always shows up my bad spelling, seems like I can cover it up better when I use the pencil, however, seeing as how I understand my voice is as loud as the Editor's (Mr. Guy says so) I thought I'd send in a little congratulatory note to you after reading the last issue of the Herald.

The thing that interested me was the absolute and positive scoop of the upper right hand corner of the issue. At first I didn't know whether the large black lines were for the Lost Business that might go to Plains on account of their oil well, from Brownfield? You take as much oil as you had running into that tank is bound to stir up a lot of activity in anybody's country.

Well, after a few days went by and subsequent reports came along as they did—dudgum the luck—I couldn't help but feel the truth of the situation, that is, that you knew all along that some dire disaster was in the offing. (One of J. Sam Lewis' fifty cent words.) In other words those heavy black lines were actually indicative of a regular piece of advance Walter Winchell Reporting. Yes Sir, it looks like that the rest of these papers of the South Plains will really have to set'em up to you on that one.

TRULY, POPE POOL

Charley Guy didn't mean what he said about the readers' voice being as loud as his. Did you ever notice that he replies to his disputing readers with black faced type, while that of the reader is in light faced type? No, we are not a mind reader, my dear Holiness, the Pope. We are even hot and bothered today (Tuesday) about where Andy got the $503 to pay off the debt on the Harlem grocery of Amos & Apdy Co.—AJS.

Chicago, February 8, 1936
Dear Mr. Stricklin:

It's a pretty long stretch from Chicago to Brownfield—but I believe I can make it. I want to reach you a little handshake, over the miles, for the pleasure I get out of the $1.50 I spent for a subscription to the Herald.

Outside of Troy Noel, the genial and gentlemanly proprietor of the City Tailor Shop, I don't know a great many people in Brownfield, personally. Yet, it is nice to know the Campbell's are opening up the Farmers Cafe, that the paper hangers are busy over at Christ Church, that Zach, with the assistance of Ralph, is doing a nice business over at the Recreation Club, and that the Chisholm boys are remodeling their store.

You folks have something we city folks haven't got. In a city, a man can be sick, die, and be buried, and even though he is your next door neighbor, you might never know it.

I used to like to visit the newspaper office in my home town. I guess I was always in the way, except on one occasion. That time I did do some good. You see, I called on my friend, the editor, and invited him to go squirrel hunting. We marched down Main Street with our guns over our shoulders—and the next day twenty-two subscribers came in and paid up.

You have been in Brownfield a long time, and perhaps some day the town will stage a Home Coming. If they do, I certainly would like to slip off the old ball and chain and run down. It would be good to run in the contest with the Volunteer Fire Department again, and play the alto horn with the Brownfield Silver Cornet Band. Say, old timer, I can triple tongue "Turkey in the Straw" in a way that would make all of these modern radio crooners turn green with envy and die of jealousy—which after all might be a good thing.

Cordially yours,
Rose & Company,
By: T. C. ORR.

We are truly glad that Brownfield has not reached the size when men quit being concerned about the welfare of his neighbor, and yet above that size where the busybody knows or thinks he knows too much about his neighbor's private affairs. We have a few readers that are getting behind too, so come down and visit us—and don't forget your gun.—AJS.

Stealing is bad, in fact it is generally recognized as a crime. The article stolen, however, is usually taken into account when a thief is taken into custody. If one is hungry and steals bread there might be an excuse, if one steals a million dollars he might be considered a millionaire, but our notion is that anybody who steals an alarm clock is a sap. But two Oklahoma men this week pled guilty to stealing alarm clocks. One of the main things we don't want around is one of those rattling varmints that wakes a fellow up just about the time sleeping is at its best. And for any bird who steals one, we can only say there is no excuse; away with him!—Ralls Banner.

Some people sit around and jump at conclusions.

Union News

The brick layers began laying brick Tuesday in erecting the new school building. We are glad to see this work get under way.

Health is good in the community at this writing. The teachers say our attendance for this six weeks will be the best for the school term thus far. Three new students have entered high school during the past 2 weeks. They are: Martha Marie Harred from Prairie Grove, Arkansas; Edna Myrl Christopher, from Wellman; and Jack Fielder, from South Bend.

Eight new students have entered the grammar school during the past two weeks. The basketball boys and girls of U. H. S. were honored Saturday night Feb. 29 with a social at the Couchman home. Many games were enjoyed, as well as delicious refreshments of sandwiches, olives, hot chocolate and candies. A very enjoyable event for all.

The ticket sale for the County Meet picture that was shown at the Rialto last week end was fine—sixty tickets were sold here. Toyebelle Barton led the sale with a total of sixteen.

Dayton Couchman, Mrs. Hawkins, and Miss Cameron entertained twenty of the basketball players with a theatre party, Monday night, Mar. 9. We are now making final preparations for the first six weeks examinations. Each is striving for a high class average, as well as a high individual rating. We are trying to do better this term than in any preceding.

Is Union going to be the Champion School of the county this year? That remains to be seen, but if all the contestants in other events, show as much enthusiasm as the High Junior girls are displaying, we will at least win some of the events.

The girls played Forrester Juniors on our home court last Monday. Score 13 to 1 in Union favor. The girls played a good game, in fact they played as though they intended to win, and that is the way they are planning to play at the County Meet. The Scudday Junior boys were defeated in a playground ball game by the grammar school Junior boys. But the Scudday Juniors carried away the honors in tennis.

Friday, March 6 the Volley Ball girls of Lou with Mr. and Mrs. Bowerman came over. A very close game was played, Lou winning the first, Union the second and third with a final score of 7-15 in favor of Union. We are always glad for schools to visit us and invite these back.

Miss Edna Brock gave little Charlotte Bennett a glad surprise last Thursday afternoon when she rode the bus out and spent the evening with her.

We understand the picture show at Needmore Friday night was a big success.

Mr. Charlie Roland and Miss Lometa Grigg were married at the home of Brother Joe Chisholm, Sunday. Brother Moore filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church Sunday.

MRS. BOZEMAN

Mrs. Frank Bozeman passed away at a Lubbock hospital about nine o'clock Monday. Her body was laid to rest in the Brownfield cemetery Tuesday afternoon following funeral services at the church of Christ, conducted by Jas. A. Fry.

Deceased, Nora C. Black, was born in Stephens county, but came with her parents to Terry county at the age of 7, and became a christian at the age of 11. She married Frank Bozeman, Nov. 10, 1929, to which union three daughters were born, aged 5 and 4 years and 7 months. She died of complications following pneumonia.

Besides her immediate family, she leaves a mother of this county, and two brothers, Joe of Kilgore, and Eddie of Dallas to mourn her passing.

A. C. Harvey handed in the $2.00 to keep the Herald going to his daughter at Maderia, Calif.

Pete Pope of Alvarado, sent in his $2.00 this week to keep the Herald headed his way.

Another thing that our fore-fathers did not have to worry about was what was holding up their relief checks.—Graham Crackers in The State Line Tribune.

During the Hoover administration, the nation saw 10,000 bank failures. Now, no one fears any bank in the United States. Why should we wish to return to fear and distrust?

Those new drivers licenses don't license you to hog the road, drive on the wrong side, drive with one light, neither do they license making a race track out of the highways. They also can serve the useful purpose of identifying dead drivers after you've tried to break the speedometer—and failed.—Amherst Argus.

Years of daily association with such printers' terms as "hell-box, guts, printer's devil and bastard type" has inured us to any pain when hearing our pride and joy referred to as "that damn paper."—Gaines County News.

Jawn Price of the County-Wide News, Littlefield, a new comer to this section, placed us over at Levelland last week, as editor of the Hockley County Herald. Just so Bro. Baldwin don't object, Jawn. You know, Bro. Baldwin gets out a very fine paper.

The G. O. P. are busy talking up a collation cabinet as a sap for Democratic "sore head" votes, as well as the Filthy Lucre Leaguers. And they also suggest a ticket headed by Herbert Hoover and Al Smith. Now wouldn't such a ticket cut the mustard?

Worthy of careful consideration is the fact that for many years it has been the custom of the Republican party to warn the country of disaster if the Democratic party should ever get a chance to put its platform into effect. But Republicans are now proclaiming disaster on the ground that the Democratic party has failed to put its platform into effect.—The Briscoe County News.

Quoting from an address of President J. A. Hill, of the West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon: "The constitution should be amended any time and in all ways, whenever and wherever it ceases to be a fit instrument of freedom and happiness of the people." What a contrast to the opinion of Dr. Hill's brother, Editor E. I. Hill, of the Tahoka News. Bro. E. I. would lead one to believe that the constitution of the U. S. is too sacred to ever tamper with in the least, by either repeal or amendment.

It looks like the Literary Digest poll ending Jan. 24th is in for one failure at least. That poll showed California nearly 60 percent against the New Deal. But since that time 1,151,697 Californians have registered as Democratic voters to 835,738 who registered as Republicans. All heavy voting areas such as San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Sacramento showed big majority registrations as Democrats. You know they register in California instead of obtaining a poll tax receipt to vote as in Texas.

Senator Tom Connally has been criticized by many who were ignorant of his attitude on pensions and the bonus. Connally was a veteran in the Spanish-American and the World War. He refused to accept the pension which has been granted to all who fought in the former. He refused to accept congressional pay during the World War which was voted to those who served in the army while members of congress, and he refused to accept the adjusted compensation. He is sincere in his attitude and his opinion on the matter should be respected.—The Canyon News.

"The Roosevelt Administration has endeavored to erect safeguards to prevent recurrence of the essentially unsound prosperity of the 1920's. And it is significant—highly significant—that these safeguards, designed to protect the bankers, the industrialists, the leaders of business, large and small, are being bitterly denounced by the recognized leaders of the interests they have so successfully served—and saved."—Johnstown (Pa.) Democrat.

"It is all right to criticize the Administration," remarks the orthodox Republican Hartford Courant, "but when Col. Knox or any other speaker says, as did the Colonel did in Cleveland, that 'The choice of the American people is whether they will become vassals to a dictator in the guise of a Democratic President or remain free citizens of a free Republic' the exaggeration is so great as to carry no conviction whatever. Let us by all means face the realities of the campaign and raise up fewer hobgoblins to fight so furiously."

"Folks who worry about 'where the money is to come from' frequently break into print before they know all they should about the complicated subject of government financing. The simple bookkeeping fact is that by far the greatest part of so-called 'spending' in recent years has been, not spending at all, but lending. The plain truth is that despite all the alarms raised largely for political purposes, the United States is still the most solvent institution on earth and a further improvement of about 25 percent in the volume of average business activity will solve all problems, including reemployment."—East St. Louis, Ills., Journal (Ind.)

HONESTY

Honesty is the most important thing a person can achieve. Have you ever stopped to think what honesty really means? If you have, you know that the subject is too deep to be explained. Everyone knows what it means but one can not explain it to his satisfaction.

Honesty aids in happiness, and an honest person has more to enjoy and less to fear in life. The most important thing about being honest is the effect it has on the individual. Honesty to self will lead to honesty to others. Self-honesty is more important than public honesty, because the latter will naturally follow the former.

An honest person, in school, is worth many dishonest ones. In this school and in every school there are some students who indulge in cheating, and will do almost anything to get a grade, or "pass." (We believe our school is better than the average.) Finally, these people, when they are older, will be set off from others because of their dishonesty. It grows just as anything else does, and if one is dishonest in small matters, he will grow to be dishonest in larger things that will hurt both the individual and his associates.

As an individual, or as a group of students, I think it would mean more than anything else one could do, if everyone in the school would start earnestly trying to be honest. Let's all turn over a new leaf by trying to be honest in all our work.

SENIOR LIVES

Mattie Jo Gracey was born at Brownfield on August 2, 1919. She started to school at the age of six—in the Brownfield schools, and has been going here since—Poor kid! Mattie Jo has many friends, and has made a good record for her excellent basketball playing. Her hobby is collecting pictures and she doesn't mean maybe, for when she starts out to do anything she does it. Come up and see her museum some time, boys. When I ask her what her favorite sport was, she said she liked 'em all, and that's right, eh, gang? She is partial to basketball and tennis. Her ambition is to be a missionary. We hear Mae West is playing in a new picture as a missionary who goes to Alaska and—ask Joedy. (Joedy is the REAL Mattie Jo.) She plans to go to Tech next year, and remain as long as her money holds out. Lot's of luck, ole kid!

Oklahoma eh! Yes, Oklahoma is the State and Hollis is the city. But back to the subject, Curtis Hulse was born August 13, 1918. When he was one year old he moved to Lahey. When he was six years of age he started to school at Lahey. He continued until he passed his junior work in 1935. In 1935 and '36 he has been a student in Brownfield High School. Curtis' hobby is horse-back riding and his sport is basketball. He has an ambition which is not an unusual one. It is to be a great farmer. He plans to go to College.

Dorothy Greenfield was born at Big Spring, Texas, August 1, 1920. After about a month, she returned with her parents to their ranch. She lived on several ranches in Gaines County during the following years. At the age of five she moved north of Plains. After a year's coaching by her mother, she started to school at Liberty, going to this school one year. The next year she went to Plains, where she remained until she was a sophomore, when she came to Brownfield. Dorothy's favorite sport is baseball and her ambition is to be a school teacher or a technician. (She hasn't decided for sure just yet.) She plans to go to college, but maybe not next year. I'm still wondering what these girls who are not going to college next year are going to do!

Clara Jeannette Hancock was born at Fort Worth, Texas, March 20, 1919. She lived there only a short time, moving to Ranger during the big oil boom, and began her schooling there. She then returned to Fort Worth. Such a life she has had! Just listen! She moved from Fort Worth to Merkel; from Merkel to Abilene; from Abilene to Midland; from Midland to Merkel; from Merkel to Brownfield; from Brownfield to Seagraves; from Seagraves to Brownfield; from Brownfield to Union; from Union to Olney; from Olney to Graham; from Graham to dear, ole Brownfield, and here she is. Now if that isn't some going I'll be two other people! Jeannette's hobby is reading and "radioing," and her ambition is to be a police reporter on a New York newspaper. (Don't we all envy her!) She plans to take a post graduate course in Abilene High next year on journalism, public speaking and typing.

CUB COMMENT

To save time and space we are running the following paragraphs under the heading of Cub Comment:

Rare Quotations:
 Deeds are males, and words are females; Enjoy that little you have, while the fool is searching for more; A drunken man who had slipped down, thought it very singular that water always freezes with the slippery side up; A person, the other day, while looking at the skeleton of a donkey, made a very natural quotation: "Ah!" said he, "we are fearfully and wonderfully made."
Parodies on Hamlet:
 A gossip's excuse: "At least, the whisper goes so." "Well, sit me down!" said the skaters, as they lost their balance. A dream itself is but a shadow—

Hints to the Wise:
 Our idea of perfect cooperation is when all the freckles on a girl's face come together and make a beautiful tan. You'll never get indignation from swallowing your pride occasionally. Opportunity often comes in overalls and most folks don't penetrate the disguise. An expert is a man from the out-side. We are all manufacturers—making good, making trouble or making excuses. Just the minute you get satisfied with what you've got, the concrete has begun to set in your head. A man without a smiling face should never go into business. There can never be genuine happiness and peace where material values of money and pleasure are the whole object of human pursuit. Those who sit around and wait for prosperity will always work for those who don't.

One thing 'nother—
 From what we can see, we are willing to say that B. H. S. is turning out some tough competition for the County Meet. And that brings up the subject: "Will they win?" If there's anything better than "school spirit" it is just "more school spirit."
 There has been some rumors of wrecks over the week-end, but some of them were nothing more than rumors. There is some evidence, but the others—we have our doubts. We have some—at least one real sport in our Press Club. She takes the blame for something she doesn't write. There is always someone to complain about our paper. But be sure you are on the right person before you start complaining.

Did You Know?
 Did you know there was to be a band concert within the next thirty days. That with the proceeds a bass horn will be bought for the school.
 That the school board met last Friday night and Mr. Baze was unanimously elected to retain his position as superintendent of our schools.
 That Mr. Baze attended an educational conference at Canyon last Friday and Saturday. It was the largest conference of that kind held in Texas. There were speakers from as far away as Berkley, Calif., and New York City.

Jokes:
 Guy: What makes you write so fast?
 Bert: Because my girl can't read fast.
 Jack: I wish you'd learn better table manners; you're a regular little pig at the table.
 Jack sat silent for several moments. So father in order to make things more impressive he added, "I say, Jack, do you know what a little pig is?"
 "Yes sir," replied Jack, "It's a hog's little boy."

Mr. Baze: Well don't you find this office force like one big family?
Doris Lee: Why no, every one has been friendly so far.
Sober Sam Says:
 The ain't no use worryin' a lot 'bout what you want other folks to do. They ain't goin' to do it nohow. If ye didn't see 'The Last Days of Pompeii,' you not only missed a mighty good show, but you failed to do your patriotic duty.
 Bein' a boy with sense enough to pound sand in a rat hole is a great privilege. However, us men here don't seem big enough at times to live up to the chances we're bein' given. I know some folks who've been given more'n a fair chance and they ain't even fit to be in our school. They's striped or somethin'. Reckon as how, at present they're a disgrace to the male race. Still, and all, they ain't no men ever goin' to amount to much without good women to make 'em. Us boys 'ud all be better if the girls demanded it.

 Report cards comin' out this week. We 'low as how, they's a lot of folks who're beginnin' their coasting too soon.
 There's been a lot of publicity given the counters this year, but have ye noticed anything about the really good or really bad pupils? Nary a word. A little publicity might be in order for those who try. Might also do some good to publish something about those who ain't doin' so hot.

Who are the most outstanding boy and girl in H. S. this year? Base your vote on scholarship, personality, cooperation, participation, citizenship and general usefulness to the school.

Chattergrams:
 Why is Maxine Hardin so happy today? Can it be that THE boy friend is here?
 What's the attraction over at Levelland? James Burnett went over there how many times last week! And we heard that Richard Ferguson and W. T. Clements went Friday night!
 Mrs. Teague has been to Fort Worth. Why do all the students say, "Never again must she leave?" Wonder if they don't approve of the test given in her absence?
 Charlie Thalman seems to be a very good nurse maid?
 W. T. Clements must be a nurse maid too. We've noticed how he begins his letters.

Someone had better create something new, because "our news" is often cut!
 Miss Maize went to Lubbock Saturday. She says she spent all of her money for a pair of glasses. But why the new dress and hat?
 Of which teacher could this be said: "Yes, they're two of his weapons—a yardstick and a fish bowl!"
 From the sound of things there ought to be some fair trumpet players in school.

If you wonder why there is so much noise in the halls this year, it may be laid to the feet of the Seniors. It is estimated that there are 19 yards of feet among the boys. (The girls wouldn't consent to have their feet measured).

Or, if you wonder why the rooms are so dark, do not think that the windows need washing. Ninety percent of the Sophomore class has dark brown or black hair. (Darlene Tankersley is an exception).

Quite often, and as an established fact, people say, "Freshmen are green." But have you noticed some of the Seniors?
 Irie Duke reports that he feels 10 years older since he has become an "uncle."
 Whose Senior ring is Virginia wearing, and where is hers?
 And whose "Good Luck" ring has Clara been wearing?

And we've noticed that Shirely wears a band pin with L. H. S. on it. Jeannette has chosen a back seat (?) in activity study hall.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Some of the boys and girls of B. H. S. attended a tennis tournament at Meadow Saturday.
 R. V. Moreman beat the "left handed Romeo" of Meadow in Senior singles. Wendell Smith and Jim Shelton beat the Meadow Senior doubles. Helen Quante and Wanda Graham defeated the Meadow Senior doubles, and Ethelda May and Sue Bynum beat the Meadow Junior doubles. W. G. Walker and Raymond Green, Senior doubles, also beat the Meadow team.
 Mattie Jo Gracey lost to Deekard of Meadow and Imogene Rushing also lost to a MHS girl. Ernest Word, Jr. singles, lost to Meadow. Ernest Word and Howery Fitzgerald were playing against the Meadow Jr. singles when the rain began, but the BHS boys were in the lead.
 'Little Red Stevens,' Senior singles was also playing when the rain began. He was in the lead 5-40.
 All players reported a grand time even after 'old man weather' cut the tournament short.

The eliminations for Senior girls doubles took place last week. Helen Quante and Wanda Graham took first place with Mattie Jo Gracey and Virginia May a close second.

JUNIOR HI SCHOOL NOTES

Six-one "Good English Club" is going on a picnic Wednesday, Mar. 11. We are paying for the expenses with our club dues. Of course we intend to have a nice time.
 We are glad to announce that Dorothy Murphy of six-one is to represent Junior High in singles in tennis. Billy Hudgens will also represent JHS in singles, and Dinzel Jefferys and C. B. Rushing of seven-one got doubles.
 We are glad to have Harold Simms back in school after being absent four weeks.
 Friday night Jr. High sponsored a colored concert which was put on by the local colored people. There was not a house full, due to the rain.
 Virginia Stroup and Lois Chambliss are going to represent Jr. High in League spelling. They are both in the sixth grade.

Resettlement Office Now at Amarillo

Several land use adjustment, rural resettlement and other types of projects being developed under the Resettlement Administration's general program have been transferred to the regional office at Amarillo. Projects involved are in New Mexico, Kansas, Colorado, and Texas, and were in four Resettlement regions out of which, together with three Oklahoma panhandle counties, Region Twelve was formed, according to L. H. Hauter, regional Resettlement director.
 "Projects are to play a very important part in this region," stated Mr. Hauter, "for it will be through these projects that we will put into effect land use adjustment and development measures aimed not only to curb wind erosion and acute agricultural problems, but on which we expect to demonstrate the practicability of resettling distressed farm families now on unproductive land."
 "The question is often raised—what do we propose to do with range and grazing lands that have been plowed up and on which it seems there is little hope of utilizing in a sound agricultural economy? In this connection I think it is important that we develop new thinking, squarely face the facts and deal in common sense terms. The sooner we all realize what our lands are best suited for—the limitations of our agriculture—and then utilize those lands for that

 "Our efforts will be directed to taking grazing lands that have been unwisely plowed up and of returning them to the range or public domain. Tracts of such land will be included in some of our land use adjustment projects.
 "We must have," continued Mr. Hauter, "fertile lands on which to resettle those whose distress is largely attributable to the land on which they have been living. Several resettlement projects are under way throughout this region, and on these we propose to rehabilitate, along cooperative lines, those eligible. I expect to have more to say on this phase of our work soon.
 "Another type of project that is being established in the region is irrigation adjustment. In these undertakings we shall strive to establish the feasibility of irrigation systems best suited to local conditions."
 Projects are administered by the project planning and development division in the regional office at Amarillo. This division functions through four sections; being, land use adjustment and development, administrative and specialist service, rural rehabilitation, and management.

GASOLINE CONTAINS 1,000 DIFFERENT INGREDIENTS

A number of interesting facts about gasoline not generally known to the public have been revealed by one of the world's top producers and refiners of oil, in connection with a series of advertisements begun in the Herald this week.

"In adopting the phrase, 'Kept in Step with the Calendar', as our newspaper advertising theme for 1936," explains W. R. Huber, Gulf's advertising manager, "We believe that few people realize that gasoline is a mixture of more than 1,000 different substances, and that certain of these chemical properties must be carefully controlled according to weather conditions to give the best possible performance.

"It is impossible for anyone to manufacture a single gasoline which will start easily in Maine in February and which will not cause vaporlock in Texas in July. It is expensive to manufacture and market different gasolines for different climatic conditions, but to properly serve the motorists best interests, this cannot be avoided.

Gulf Gasoline sold in Massachusetts in summer is not the same gasoline sold there in the spring and fall. And this, in turn, is not the same gasoline sold in winter. Furthermore, our gasoline sold in Ohio in winter is not the same as the gasoline sold in Florida in winter.

"Gasolines that are ideal for quick starting in cold weather may be quite inferior in hot weather. To insure perfect performance and the highest mileage throughout the country and at all seasons, Gulf Gasoline is 'Kept in Step with the Calendar'—hence all of it goes to work—none of it goes to waste."

Discreet Advertising

Is Needed in Business

Carefully selected advertising, in these times of improved business conditions and development of promotional activities, is the important key to a wider distribution of goods, according to Kenneth Collins, advertising executive and vice-president of Gimbel Brothers, in the Rotarian Magazine.

"Our problems during the past five unhappy years," he says, "have all had to do with distribution, not with production. The essential difficulty has been that of getting our multifarious manufactured articles into the hands of a sufficient number of consumers to keep the wheels of industry humming. I know only one tool for such distribution goal, and that tool is advertising.

"But," warns Mr. Collins, "there is a grave danger that as we consider this immediate necessity for an expansion of all sorts of publicity programs, we will do so in the terms of our pre-depression thinking. If we do, without using the sobering lessons of the past few years, we may find that we will abuse the greatest driving force in our business structure and destroy its usefulness.

"In the 'flush days' too many business men regarded the preparation of advertising campaigns as a sort of necessary extravagance that had to do with costly type faces, beautiful but expensive pictures, and indirect methods of writing copy. The advertising agents themselves too often were men untrained in business who had some notion that advertising was an end in itself and that it didn't follow the simple principles of honest and sincere salesmanship.

"Advertising campaigns which ran into many millions of dollars," he continues, "went all around Robin Hood's barn in an effort to state some simple fact—that a certain product had some specific virtue and sold for a certain price. Tricks, superficialities, 'wise-cracks,' puns were too often the advertising man's stock in trade.

"I know that we have learned a great deal about the technique of forthright selling in the last five years. In a period of rapidly expanding business, one never knew whether it was his advertising or just good luck that made his business increase. But in hard times he had been forced to look for tomorrow's response. He has become critical, he has learned to get down to essentials. But I am afraid that if we don't keep recalling the uses of adversity—which in our case are the lessons of the past few years—we will forget and return to our former extravagant methods."

LOOKS FOR A JOB

Jim White, the cowboy who spent 21 years of his life and all of his money trying to attract people to the Carlsbad Cavern, is out looking for a job to make an honest living.

He had always hoped that the caverns would gain national recognition and when they did, he was completely forgotten.

Charles A. Lindergh gained forever national fame and fortune for being the first to successfully span the ocean. His deed did not absorb his efforts and live on as an embodiment of perfect achievement without due consideration of him every time the event was mentioned. But Jim White's story is different in that his ambitions were directed toward something that could live on after he had made known to the world of the caverns' miraculous beauty.

Was it misdirected ambitions or was it just fate that caused the plight of Jim White? And if so, what is fate? The only place it can be found is in the dictionary where it is described as being destiny, inevitable necessity, or predestined lot. It can't be seen, heard, nor eaten, so it must be felt.

POWER CHEAP IN TVA TOWN

TUPELO, Miss., Feb. 1.—Tupelo first city to distribute TVA power, celebrated the second anniversary of its contract for Tennessee Valley Authority power today by making 10 per cent surcharge commercial and industrial rates, in effect during the development period.

Mayor J. P. Nanney, in announcing the reduction, said the rates already were "among the lowest in the world" and declared that income from the sales of electricity by the city was "more than adequate to take care of all taxes, operating expenses, fixed charges and reserves."

He added that customers pay an average of 1.81 cents a kilowatt hour, "considerably less than one-half the national average charged by private power companies."

The Tech College coaching school has been called off this year, as repairs are being made on the Matador field, and lots of the Coaches will probably be in Germany this year anyway attending the Olympic meet.

REPORT CONTAGIOUS TO HEALTH OFFICER

In speaking about epidemics, Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, stated that if doctors, nurses, householders, and others would report the occurrence of any communicable disease immediately to the local health officer, that many epidemics could be prevented or greatly curtailed.

The control of preventable diseases depends upon the perfect reporting of all cases. It is necessary to secure information as to when and where cases occur before the proper steps for the control of these cases can be taken. Every epidemic starts with one case and the doctors engaged in protecting the public health are interested in locating this first case to prevent its spread to others.

Some of the contagious diseases are quarantinable. This is not done to punish the persons involved for having the disease, but to protect the well. The quarantine sign is not a disgrace but a badge of good citizenship, as it shows that household is trying to protect others from contracting a contagious disease.

Mrs. Clin Carter of Plainview spent last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Garner returning Sunday.

Mr. Barney Stark of Plainview was an overnight guest in the Garner home Thursday.

Miss Claudia Belle Whitefield spent Sunday with Suzanne Campbell.

The infant sucked the slug into his lung Feb. 25. It was located by use of X-ray and fluoroscope by Dr. E. C. Davis, local physician and the child rushed to Lubbock.

Andy Stricklin at Brownfield writes a page one editorial about little children "peddling needles and pins." And Andy not only thinks that it isn't necessary, but thinks right out loud that a State so big and so great as Texas that can pass laws making it compulsory for those children to attend school, ought to be equally big enough to see that they attend, and are taught the fundamentals of A, B and C, instead of learning the trade of a needle peddler so early in life.—Lamb County News.

TEXAS GINNERS TO MEET IN FORT WORTH

FORT WORTH, Texas Mar. 1.—Elaborate preparations for the convention of the Texas Cotton Ginner's Association, which will be held in Fort Worth March 31, April 1 and 2, are being made and an attendance of at least 5,000 is anticipated. While the majority of those attending conventions usually come from Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico, reports coming in to the committees in charge indicate that all the cotton growing states east of the Mississippi will be represented.

A large meeting of gin machinery manufacturers supply men and representatives of allied interests was held in Dallas February 3 to formulate plans for exhibits and entertainment. W. B. Brown, General Chairman of the Manufacturers and Supply Men's Committee, presided, and committees on exhibits and entertainment were appointed. Following their usual custom the Manufacturers and Supply men will provide elaborate entertainment for visiting ginner's and their families.

The convention will be held at the height of the Spring Racing Meet at Arlington Downs, the magnificent racing plant built by the late W. T. Waggoner at a cost of $3,000,000.

HOW MUCH IS ONE BILLION DOLLARS?

There was a time not long ago when a few hundred thousand dollars seemed, to most of us, a stupendous sum of money. In fact, very few "big business" men thought in terms of millions. But, today thousands and even millions are complete terms—we are thinking in billions.

A billion dollars staggers the imagination. Ten hundred million — do you get it? In other words, a man earning five thousand dollars annually would have to work two hundred thousand years to earn a billion dollars.

A billion dollars equally distributed, every man, woman and child in the United States would receive more than eight dollars each. It is best understood, perhaps, when we realize that it would require nearly five-hundred thousand men one year, employed at laborer's wages to earn a billion dollars.

If someone should offer to give you a billion dollars in one dollar bills, if you count it, would you accept it? Well, it would take you about sixty years, eight hours per day, three hundred & sixty-five days in the year to do the job. And perhaps before you were half through you would be broken in health, loony and have to spend the rest of your days in the "madhouse."

However, since a dollar bill is no longer "legal tender" in many states, unless accompanied by three pennies, it might be wise for us to come back to earth and begin to think in terms that we understand and begin to live within our income.—The Log.

FORMER OFFICIAL RETURNS TO LAW PRACTICE

AUSTIN, March 1.—"He's done a good job and we're glad to have him back home."

Thus did Governor James V. Allred comment upon the resignation of Gerald C. Mann as Washington Representative of the Texas Planning Board, this week. Mann, Dallas lawyer, former Assistant Attorney General and former Secretary of State returned to his private law practice in Dallas this week after a seven months' stay in Washington where he was instrumental in securing WPA approval of Statewide projects totaling $3,600,000.

Since assuming the Washington post for the Planning Board, Mann pointed out that Federal agencies had approved the following projects: $360,000 historical industrial survey; a $175,000 underground water survey; a $2,354,552 statewide taxation survey; a $57,000 Planning Board staff project; a $375,000 mineral resources survey; a $304,000 statewide educational survey and a $6,600 business research survey.

CHAPTER I.—Kerry Young, a lad of seven, is prepared to flee the burning lumber camp of his benefactor, Jack Snow, who took the youngster to live with him at the death of Kerry's mother.

CHAPTER II.—Snow, his headquarters and money gone is ruined and soon thereafter dies, leaving Kerry to the poor Commissioner. Kerry suspects Tod and swears to even the score.

CHAPTER III.—In a St. Paul office Kerry, now grown to manhood, and an expert woodsman, learns of the whereabouts of West, Kerry rescues a lovely girl from a scoundrel, who proves to be West. Tod threatens to punish the girl, but Kerry saves her.

CHAPTER IV.—Kerry makes camp. Entering the general store at West's Landing, he observes Tod engaged in a poker game, and Kerry hanging the employee, loses heavily to West. Kerry exposes Tod's cheating and disarms him on the spot.

CHAPTER V.—Nan tells Dr. Ezra Adams of Kerry's rescue of her from Tod, and a threat to her life. Ezra, who is coroner, visits Kerry, and after reviewing the murder story of Nan's father, enlists Kerry's aid by appointing him coroner's clerk.

CHAPTER VI.—Kerry decides to ask Nan for work. While shaving he discovers he is being spied upon by a "breed." Jim comes to Kerry with a warning to clear out, backing it with a threat to Kerry's daughter, Bluejay. Nan hires Kerry as a draftsman. Kerry rescues Jim's daughter from drowning.

CHAPTER VII.—A job and some enemies, and at least the beginnings of some friendships. Young pondered those possessions as he spent a drizzly afternoon making his camp permanent.

CHAPTER VIII.—Kerry's eyes rested on Nan, a hunger of long standing appeared in them. Not the lust that had been on Tod West's face yesterday afternoon up river, but a clean, upright respect.

CHAPTER IX.—"It's damp," the girl said; "let's finish our talk near the fire." So she curled in a massive armchair on one side of the hearth while Young sat opposite her and continued the talk of the job.

CHAPTER X.—"What a lovely creature!" she murmured and the retriever, opening one eye, rapped his tail as if understanding and appreciating the compliment.

CHAPTER XI.—"What a lovely creature!" she murmured and the retriever, opening one eye, rapped his tail as if understanding and appreciating the compliment.

CHAPTER XII.—"What a lovely creature!" she murmured and the retriever, opening one eye, rapped his tail as if understanding and appreciating the compliment.

CHAPTER XIII.—"What a lovely creature!" she murmured and the retriever, opening one eye, rapped his tail as if understanding and appreciating the compliment.

CHAPTER XIV.—"What a lovely creature!" she murmured and the retriever, opening one eye, rapped his tail as if understanding and appreciating the compliment.

CHAPTER XV.—"What a lovely creature!" she murmured and the retriever, opening one eye, rapped his tail as if understanding and appreciating the compliment.

CHAPTER XVI.—"What a lovely creature!" she murmured and the retriever, opening one eye, rapped his tail as if understanding and appreciating the compliment.

Won't you walk on down to my camp? We'd be snug—" "Lord, no! You see, that wouldn't do, Young. I . . . I don't want certain parties to know I hunted you up, friendly-like.

"That's all right, Jim. You needn't even have said that much." "Oh, yes! I had to say that. But that's the smallest part of it. I . . . I got other things to say, Young."

"You see it's different, now. I . . . That is, I come to you just after supper like I . . . like I believed what the rest of 'em believe: that you framed up something on Tod."

"You see, Young," — grasping the front of Kerry's slicker and looking quickly about—"I didn't want to come to you today! I knew you caught Tod dead!"

"I told you I wasn't any good." "But you were wrong. You are some good; a lot of good, I'd say. If you weren't, you wouldn't be waiting for me here tonight to try to fix up what you've broke."

"I was broke. It was the time when deer-hunters was comin' in to make their camps just before the season opened. A lot of 'em allus stop at the Landin' to buy their grub. I hired out to four of 'em to pick out a good campin' spot and to work up firewood for 'em."

"Go on, Jim. Locked up for what?" The man was adamant, refused to talk, so gently, firmly, Kerry began arguing, urging for confidence, playing on the fundamental decency in Jim Hinkle's heart.

"I can't! I can't!" he burst out. "You don't know Tod West! Why, to get what he wants he'd do anything. An innocent man with murder as not! There! I've said it!"

"Yes, that's it!" — desperately. "That's it, and he's bearin' down on me 'ud holdin' it over me like a club!"

"All persons qualified to vote under the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas, and residing within the limits of said City of Brownfield may vote at said election."

Quoting from the issue of March 14, 1913: The Hon. H. B. Terrell had introduced a bill in the legislature of Texas, to create a State Highway Commission without salary. Cars were to be taxed $2.00 each to create funds to be spent on the roads. This is a far hark from this day of salaried Commissioners and millions of dollars spent on our highway system. From one to three inches of rain had fallen in old Terry and other south Plains counties. The reviewers had reported on the Lubbock road. Meadow did not want the road as they were afraid freighters would leave ranch gates open. The Yoakum County News was asking for a federal building at Plains. Edwin Groves lost a fine horse from blind staggers. F. J. Price had moved to the Walker lease. J. M. Johnston sold his house to Powell & Banowsky. R. G. Wood was down from Meadow. H. T. Brooks was the Woodman delegate from Brownfield to the convention at Dallas. Warner Gracey called at the Herald office to see the "devil." A fine girl was born to Mr and Mrs. R. H. Banowsky on the 9th. Twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Jake Leedy on the 9th, but one died Sunday. Dr. J. W. Ellis and family had settled at Killeen. Moore of Gomez, was running weekly grocery specials in the Herald. Yoakum county remained in the dry column by 13 majority. The school children of Texas were giving dimes to buy a silver service for the battleship Texas. Uncle George Wilkins and other old buffalo hunters were making an effort to get a reunion held somewhere in this section. Jas. W. Stell of Austin, Colorado, was the president, and wanted the reunion at Denver. Gomez Items: Fred West, aged 3, came near dying with acute indigestion. Grass was beginning to peep through the soil. Apparently there would be a fine fruit crop. Quite a lot of sickness in the community; some mumps. A kid party at the Christopher home Friday. T. S. Rep. Mahon Favors Soil Conservation

Washington.—The work of the Soil Conservation Service in the 19th Congressional District was the subject of a conference last week between Congressman George Mahon and Mr. H. H. Finnell of Amarillo, Regional Director of the Soil Conservation Service. Mr. Finnell was in Washington for meetings with other Regional Directors and Administrative officials.

Mr. Finnell outlined general phases of the work as it has been conducted so far. CCC Camps in Lamb and Dawson counties have served as illustrative projects in the program throughout the past year. He discussed the effort which is being made to coordinate the work of the Soil Conservation Service and the Resettlement Administration.

The Congressman expressed commendation for the fine work which has been done under Mr. Finnell's direction. He said: "I consider the conservation of our soil to be the most outstanding problem confronting our West Texas farmers. The potential value of the work which Mr. Finnell is doing is inestimable. One of the chief virtues of the new farm bill adopted by Congress last week is that it will concentrate interest in the great national problem of soil conservation. Every effort to preserve the natural wealth which lies in our soil will meet with my complete cooperation."

G. C. Hudson was over this week from his ranch north of Plains. He has entered the race for Sheriff, Tax Assessor and Collector of that county. He was practically reared in Terry county, and if elected we are sure he will make the Yoakum county folks a good officer.

THANKS CHEVROLET FOR JUNKING OLD WRECKS

The wholesale removal of unsafe cars from the streets and highways of the country, under the junking plan inaugurated Jan. 1 by the Chevrolet Motor Co., has elicited from W. H. Cameron, managing director of the National Safety Council, a telegram of commendation to M. E. Coyle, president and general manager of Chevrolet.

"I have just been advised that thousands of obsolete and unsafe automobiles have already been removed from highways as result of your million-dollar fund for the junking of old cars through your dealer organization," said Mr. Cameron's telegram. "The payment for each car junked in this manner is a real contribution to the cause of highway safety. Eleven per cent of the automobiles in use today are eight years old or more, and fifty seven per cent have been in use at least five years. This very definite contribution on your part should hasten the day of greater motoring comfort for all. Congratulations, and best wishes for continued success of the plan."

Advices from Chevrolet indicate that January saw the junking of thousands of dangerously old cars whose further operation constituted a hazard to their owners and the public at large. So thoroughly successful was the campaign that it is being continued through February.

BAD ROADS DRIVE NEW MEXICO BUSINESS TO TEXAS

A sign of better business in the oil fields in Southeastern New Mexico comes with the announcement that a daily freight service is being inaugurated on the Texas-New Mexico railroad between Monahans and Lovington instead of every other day service. The railroad is competing with the trucks by providing free delivery and pick-up service on freight. Too bad this business goes into Texas instead of being kept in New Mexico. The state gets only a small percentage of the business in these oil fields because of the better railroad and highways into West Texas towns.—Albuquerque Journal.

The small town merchant who succeeds is the one who has what people want and lets them know about it. People are busy today. They will not take time to shop where merchants insist on keeping their wares and prices a secret. The busy stores are those who send to their customers' living rooms the home newspaper containing the stores' advertisement of products and prices. Advertising has become the greatest service in time-saver and money-saver to the busy housewife. She knows from the advertising where she can buy what she wants at the price she wants to pay. She does her shopping on a third of her original shopping time.—Journal-Transcript, Franklin, N. H.

Depression President Hoover has now discovered what is wrong with America. He has a certain cure. He would like to be the Republican nominee this year, but he is about the only person in the Republican ranks who favors another Hoover administration. Mr. Hoover says in his latest that the present administration is ruling by fear or building fear in the hearts of the people, that the prosperity in general markets is false, and the farm prosperity now prevailing will be short-lived. But we have learned this government activity can bring some relief to a people facing almost universal bankruptcy by changing some of the rules if necessary. Mr. Hoover had three years to find what was wrong and to do something about it. His present findings are so late as to be perhaps not too well received.—Ralls Banner.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

We are very happy indeed to report that our Sunday School attendance past the 300 mark last Sunday, which was our goal for that day. Our Sunday School is improving in every respect. We believe this improvement was a result of the recent Visitation Program, and we want to urge that we all keep the visitation going. We have seen great things done as a result of the recent Visitation Program. Lets don't stop visiting our members and our prospects, just because a designated time for visiting has past.

Our plan for the month of March is to visit all members of the church. Lets visit the inactive members and try to impress upon each of them that we need them and there is a place for them in every phrase of our work. Lets also visit one another, show others that we appreciate them, what they are doing and what they stand for. We need the full support and cooperation of every member of our church, in order that we might become a great soul winning organization for our Lord and Master.

While we are visiting our church members, we want to take time also to stop and say a word to our lost friends and loved ones. Tell them of the Savior and invite them to share his blessings, which he generously bestows upon His children.
