

Chamber of Commerce

Unless something slips, we are going to undertake to have a membership meeting of the chamber of commerce on Monday night June 22nd, in casting about, we do not know of any other activity that is planned for that night. We hope that every member of the chamber of commerce will agree to be on hand as at that time, we will undertake to tell some of the things that we are undertaking to put over and of some that have already been realized. We also desire suggestions as to what projects, good for the county in general, should be undertaken.

The writer has just returned from a State meeting of Chamber of Commerce executives, which was held in Lubbock last week and secured information that might be helpful, but most of the work that is being done by the various organizations, is being or has been accomplished, or attempted by us. But those meetings are just like meetings of other professions and one gets considerable good out of them. The writer would attend more of these similar affairs, but is prevented upon account of budget limitations. That is to say an acute shortage of the wherewithal.

Several weeks ago, this office discovered that arrangements to complete the hardsurfing of Highway 51 were under way and that the plans did not include the loop that passed thru the business section and as this has been promised by a former administration, we proceeded to see what could be done about it. So a meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce was called and then a special meeting of the Commissioners Court and City officials was had during which a committee was appointed to confer with the district engineer and highway officials, relative to the inclusion of the "loop" in the finishing program. The meeting with the district engineer was arranged and necessary letters written to the highway commissioners and as a consequence we have just been informed that the "loop" will be included and that a contract will be let for completion just as soon as funds are available which is expected within the next few weeks.

A number of people in town are "talking hotel" and wondering what action is being made toward its construction and this is to advise that we have been investigating the possibilities and are of the opinion that it is not going to be an easy matter to get it done. And further, if we do succeed in interesting construction people, that we are going to have to invest a little of our own money. In other words, there is not any outside capital going to build a hotel as an investment, as too many hotels went to the bad during the recent depression, and people who had money invested in them have become "tender footed" when it comes to proposals of this nature. However, we are still working on the proposition and hope to report some progress. In fact, we secured leads within the last few days that may produce results or at least a proposal.

All of us are waiting with our ears to the ground, to see what the new WPA-PWA program is going to be after Congress finishes with its work and are hoping that restrictions concerning employment will be liberalized, and wages raised to standard. But we don't know a darned thing and all that we can hear is "rumors."

The Band is going to retain its organization during the summer or at least for the next five weeks. A number of citizens who are interested in having a band in Brownfield, met in the court house last Sunday and decided to put up the necessary money in order to keep it going.

Mr. and Mrs. Penn To Teach Swimming

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Penn have announced another swimming school beginning Monday and continuing through the week. Mr. Penn will have charge of the boys' division, and Mrs. Penn will instruct girls and women. For further information,

Yes—the Boys Got Their Bonus—So What

The postal force under the direction of Postmaster Jas. H. Dallas, and assisted somewhat by service men of the American Legion, for the purpose of identifying veterans whom the postoffice department did not personally know, have been handing out several hundred bonus envelopes here this week, which as most people know included a check for any amount over a multiple of $50, as all the bonds were of that denomination.

Well, the boys, or most of them have drawn the balance of their compensation, and none of them have received a dollar more than was their due. We noted in the dailies that some men—mostly rich—have stated that they did not apply, and did not think the government owed them anything. Perhaps it don't. Maybe they owned stock on some plant that raked in the coin during the war, and they received their bonus several times over while the war was being waged in wartime prices on their products?

And, some of the boys have informed the Herald that they have been "warted" to death in the last week or two by salesmen of this and that, wanting them to buy or invest. Please let the boys alone for awhile. Let them think what they want to do with their bonds or money. You wouldn't want to be "warted?"

Some of the boys have privately told us that they aimed to cash just enough of these bonds to pay some pressing debts, and they want to be let alone about the rest.

Tickets Made Up For Terry-Yoakum Cos.

The County Democratic Executive Committees of both Terry and Yoakum counties met here and at Plains Monday, according to law, and drew for places for each and every candidate from the U. S. Senator to Justice precincts.

As we have not seen a sample from either county, we are unable to tell the readers how they stand.

Texan in Limelight At GOP Convention

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 12.—A majority of the Texas delegation had its way Friday when the convention unanimously nominated Frank Knox for the vice-presidency. Previously the whole delegation had favored Alf M. Landon for the presidency.

In addition to these satisfactions, the delegation also, had its honors. First was the active leadership of R. B. Creager, National Committeeman, who was one of the secret board of strategy that put over Landon so effectively. This was remarkable since Creager comes from a State with an almost infinitesimal Republican vote.

Next in honors was the recognition given Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls, Texas, platform committeeman, who was made a member of the subcommittee which wrote the platform and did it with the harmonious aid of the Landonites.

Texans Steal Show Bullington was exulting Friday over the planks favoring the farmer and the oil producer of this country in barring competing products from foreign markets. He insists if Landon and a Republican Congress are elected the farmer will regain their purchasing power through the platform protection to vegetable and petroleum oils. He predicted cotton seed will be restored to a high price level.

Hayhurst Takes Last Of Rabies Serum

Warner Hayhurst was over this week and took the last of the fourteen Pasteur serums for possible infection, when he handled a small dog that was bitten by a rabid dog in Oklahoma recently. He informed us that the first ones made him a little ill, but the last ones did not seem to effect him much as he was becoming immune to them.

He was at his parent's home in Oklahoma, when a dog with rabies attacked their little pet dog, which after it was killed he handled some, and as he had sores on his hands, physicians told him it would be safer to take the serum. He took about half the shots up there and finished in Brownfield.

Mr. Hayhurst is superintendent of the Plains school.

One of Escaped Prisoners Still at Large

Ernest Roberts, 30 remained at large Monday, said Sheriff J. S. Smith, after he and Cleve Bowden, 24, had sawed their way out of the Terry county jail here early Sunday. Bowden was arrested near Brownfield that day. He is a suspect in theft of cotton. Roberts was held pending grand jury action on a complaint charging burglary. He was described as having light complexion, being of a heavy build, having blue eyes and wearing khaki trousers and shirt.

It was believed the men procured a hacksaw while plumbers were making repairs within the jail, on the fourth floor of the courthouse building, Saturday.

Cave's Store is Not Leaving Brownfield

Last week the Herald had a little to say about Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cave leaving Brownfield for Lawton, Okla., where he had purchased a variety store. We were simply expressing the sorrow of the Herald as well as the rest of their many friends that they were leaving our city, personally.

But as for the Cave Variety Store here, it is a permanent fixture. It is a good business proposition, and Mr. Cave's present head clerk, Mr. Clint Herring will be the manager of the local store when Mr. and Mrs. Cave move to Lawton.

Yes sir, the Cave store is a permanent fixture in Brownfield.

Another Fine Rain Visits This Section

Somewhere after the midnight hour Friday morning, slow rain set in here, which continued until after sunup awhile, that according to the government gauge here was three-fourths of an inch. There was another refreshing shower Monday night, but not worth gauging.

This fine rain, coming on top of a 2.50 inch rain two weeks ago, put old Terry and this entire section in fine condition. Cotton corn and row crops are up to the prettiest stands one most ever saw, and now if we don't have a sandstorm or hail, we are set for one year with a good average crop.

Late sandstorm flurries and hails are the ban of June here, however, and if you have not hit the wood with your knuckles, better go to your insurance man and take out a slice of hail insurance, anyway.

Collins Puts On Big Mid-Summer Sale

With the largest stock of summer dry goods they have ever had in their house, Collins Dry Goods Co., starts this week to putting on one of the largest sales ever attempted in this area. Regardless of their seasonableness or cost, these lovely summer goods must take their turn at the bat and go to their customers at these greatly reduced prices.

Great preparations are being made for this sale. Thousands of circulars are being printed in advance of the start of it, and are being sent to every town, village and hamlet, as well as on every rural and star route in this section.

There will be no closing of the store to inconvenience their customers, but the sale will start today when the store opens as usual for business.

Many Crippled Child'n Receiving State Aid

AUSTIN, June 15.—As one item of its social security program, the State of Texas has aided more than 1100 crippled children during the period from last September to June 1, Governor James V. Alfred announced today.

The aid, which included hospitalization, the supplying of braces and other medical and surgical attention was made possible largely through state coordination with the national social security program and the matching of state funds with federal funds.

So efficiently has the Crippled Children's division of the Texas Department of Vocational Education been administered that no crippled child entitled to aid now need wait longer than 48 hours before receiving attention Governor Alfred said.

No Show at Ritz on Tuesday-Wednesday

Earl E. Jones, owner and manager of the Ritz-Rialto Theatres, announced this week that on account of hot weather and vacation time, the Ritz Theatre would not be operated on Tuesday and Wednesday each week and that matinee except on Saturday and Sunday would be dispensed through the vacation months.

The program at the Rialto will be as usual, Mr. Jones stated, and also that the Thursday night program would go on.

An anticipated attendance of between 10 and 15 thousand people will include some of the outstanding leaders and singers in Texas and adjoining states.

V. O. Stamps, president of the Stamps-Baxter Music Company of Dallas in charge of the Centennial singing in Dallas, will conduct the program here.

A $10.00 cash prize is in store for the best amateur quartet, Saturday afternoon.

S. B. Summers, president, and Earl Raper, vice president, together with the City of Lubbock extend their cordial invitation to all singers and music company representatives to be here for the program which starts promptly at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Auditorium.

Texas Oil Production Monument to Pioneers

If all the oil produced in Texas to date was placed in barrels of 42 gallons each, and stacked in a single perpendicular column, it would make a monument 2,800,000 miles high! Such is the imaginary monument that stands in Texas today as a tribute to the hardships and courage of the "wildcatter" who made it possible for Texas to lead the world in oil production.

Analysis of the world's oil production statistics, by the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association of Texas, shows that Texas has, with one exception, produced more oil than any other state of foreign origin. Since 1889, Texas has produced 4,200,000,000 barrels of crude oil, which is 15 per cent of all the oil produced in the history of the world! Only California has produced more, and there oil was found 13 years before the first well was drilled in Texas. The accompanying chart shows how Texas' cumulative oil production ranks with other major sources of the world's oil supply.

DALLAS, Texas, June 16.—An autographed photo of handsome Fred MacMurray, star of King Vidor's Paramount production, "The Texas Rangers," will be given to each Brownfield Boy Scout who submits an essay on this glamorous band of law enforcement officers, William A. Webb, general manager of the Texas Centennial Exposition, announced today.

The winner of the contest, open to all Texas Boy Scouts, will be awarded an all-expense visit to the $25,000,000 World's Fair, now open here. This prize, as well as $25 in cash to be spent as the winner sees fit, has been posted by Mr. Vidor, one of the most famous of motion picture directors and a native of Texas.

A supplemental prize of an autographed de luxe volume of "The Texas Rangers," written by Prof. William Prescott Webb of the University of Texas, will be presented by the publishing firm of Houghton Mifflin, New York.

Details of the contest, which closes July 4, have been supplied Brownfield Scoutmasters by James P. Fitch, regional director of the Boy Scouts. Scouts who desire to enter the contest may obtain assistance in writing their essays from Scoutmasters, teachers and parents. The essays should be mailed to Ranger Contest Editor, Texas Centennial Exposition, Dallas, Texas.

Many Attending the Methodist Revival

Many are availing themselves of the opportunity to attend the Methodist Revival which is being conducted at the church house of that denomination in this city. Our understanding is that the revival is to continue the rest of this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Flowers are giving their hearers soul stirring sermons at each service, it is stated, and they are having good crowds at night especially.

Two Modern Service Stations Are Started

At the juncture of highway 51 and Main Street, excavation is now underway by the Gulf Refining Co., preparatory to the erection of what the local Gulf manager, Bob Bowers says that when finished will have no superior for beauty and utility this side of Dallas. The old buildings have been moved back on other lots to make room for this new building.

The building will not be like their other down town station in many ways. The buildings for the greasing and washing will be removed from the drive-in portion where customers are served with gas, oil, water or air. It is to be a beautiful brick with a gleaming white tile trimmings. Roy Wingerd is contractor, and the building is to be ready for occupancy about August 1.

The other new plant is being built for the Sinclair Refining Co., by their agent, E. C. Roberts of Seagraves, and will be when finished one of their prettiest stations in this section. It will follow closely the plans of most Sinclair stations in the United States, and will have thousands of square feet of concrete driveways, parkways, greasing and cleaning racks.

Sand is now being put on the ground, but as Mr. Roberts had selected no contractor the last time we talked with him, excavations for the foundations had not started.

High School Band to Practice Thru Summer

At an enthusiastic meeting held late Sunday afternoon, it was decided by the parents, pupils and several friends of the High School band to keep the practice going through the summer months. Much financial aid was promised from some who did not even have children in the band, some of them being neighboring farmers.

Bandmaster Herman Trigg, while attending the band school at Tech College during the summer, agreed to come down two nights each week, Monday and Friday, and instruct the students. The grade school auditorium was secured for practice purposes.

It is hoped that a little later on, some more Sunday afternoon concerts can be given at the court house square.

Most of Hearst Cattle Have Been Shipped

Most of the W. R. Hearst cattle, known locally as the Babicora Development Co., feeding operation here have been shipped out. There still remains between one and two thousand head, and they are rounding out in shipping shape beautifully.

The hands are now busy cleaning up the pens, burning all the old slacks piles, etc., which are breeding places for flies. In the next few weeks all cattle will be gone, and no more will perhaps be seen until fall, and not they, perhaps, unless another good feed and corn crop is made.

A Vernon Man to Head C. of C. Leaders

L. A. Wilson of Vernon, who several years ago was secretary of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce, Saturday was elevated to the presidency of the Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers association at their final convention session at the Hilton hotel.

Other Officers elected were William O. Harwell of Kerrville, vice-president, and Otis L. Fowler of Denton, secretary-treasurer.

Davis Named Director A. B. Davis, manager of the Lubbock chamber, J. E. Bell of Corpus Christi, R. William Archer of San Antonio, C. K. DeBunk of Jacksonville, Frank Thompson of Sherman, and retiring President, George S. Buchanan of Marlin were named to the board of directors.

The nominations were unopposed and were presented shortly before noon adjournment by a nominating committee headed by Herman Brown.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Prof. and Mrs. M. L. H. Baze and son left last week for the hill country of southwest Texas, where they will spend their vacation. Their general headquarters will be at London, Texas, the ancestral home of Prof. Baze's father.

Court House Park Begins to Show Care

Each day and each week, one can see the progress that is being made at the courthouse park, as the green bermuda grass begins to show up at the surface green, and the trees, now thinned to where they have a chance, simply spread themselves. Men are kept busy with rakes, hoes and water tending the young grass, shrubs and trees.

This county park, will as the years go by become more attractive to the eye. It is a property of the entire county, and it will be their pride and beauty spot, for all will know that they have an interest in its maintenance and its beauty. Furthermore, it will probably have an incentive on the people of the county, both rural and urban to maintain pretty yards of their own, for after all the courthouse park is just one big front yard, belonging to all the people.

As work progresses through the long growing months of the summer, together with refreshing showers, we shall see our own park rescued from a thick motley group of half dead trees and a rank growth of wild goose grass to a thing of beauty and joy forever.

And the people of Brownfield and Terry county have the present set of hustling Commissioners and a progressive County Judge to thank for the progressive move that is taking place over there.

Just a tip to readers: Tell these men what you think of the good work they are doing. All of us like a little compliment now and then.

Grand Old Couple Observe Golden Wedding

Picture the following scene, if you can, down the dusty road to Grandview, Texas Johnson Co., came four buggies. In the first buggy is a blushing young bride while by her side sits a young man with beaming face. They are Miss Ira Jane Harrow and Mr. Willis J. Murry accompanied by three other couples as witnesses. Including the brides sister, Miss Emma Harrow and Mr. Loss Bratton; Miss Lily Ross and Mr. Frank Ramsey; Miss Lema Davis and Mr. Charles Bratton.

Fifty years later cars filled with children, great-grandchildren, and some sixty or more friends, making their way to a white farm home nestled among the trees to celebrate again the wedding of 1886. Mr. and Mrs. Murry came to Terry county from Knox county, some seventeen years ago. Both sorrows and joys have filled their lives but left them still smiling and joyful and pressing onward. They raised ten children to be grown and establish homes of their own. Since then laying away two of their girls, while all the other children, with the exception of a girl who lives at Odessa, live in Terry county.

Their home today as always radiates hospitality with a loaded table, in the center a gold and white wedding cake; an open door and a welcoming hand and ready smile.

Life is made brighter for them, with new furniture, suit and dress, flowers, linens and many other useful gifts presented by friends and children in loving appreciation of their lives and work.

More than a hundred met to make the day a bright one for them and to wish them many more years of continued happy, helpful life.

Mr. and Mrs. Murry can agree with Edgar A. Guest, that, "It takes a heap of living in a house to make it home."

F. D. Strak and A. A. Kinney were named commissioners, respectively polling 78 and 61 votes. Defeated commissioners were Dan Cobb and Roy McGill, who received 12 and 10 votes respectively.

A total of 115 persons went to the polling place, in the court house.

We had a communication from Wellman this week, which was mailed on a Seagraves route, missent to Plains, and by the time it reached Brownfield finally, was to late for publication.

lack of proper advertising, and they let the honor go to our neighboring state, Louisiana. The Texas expert, which was said to be able to drown a horned frog 15 feet was disqualified because he had a mixture of tobacco and snuff. Well, isn't snuff tobacco? If not, why not? But we would not enter a one of them in any long distance contest, for they can't even spit off the sidewalks.

"YOU CAN'T DO EVERYTHING"

It was recently revealed that Vice-President Garner, in a letter to an anti-New Deal Democrat last July, said: "You can't do everything you want to do and I can't do half what I would like to do. You can't control everybody you would like, and I am in a similar fix." What the vice president has said is true not only in politics but in every-day life. That is because most people want to do vastly more than they can chew, and they frequently do. The result is they do nothing well. Everybody wants to do this and everybody wants to do that, without stopping to consider their qualifications for the job.

To many people today want to do the other fellow's job in life. No-body seems immune to their scheming—even a president of the United States during his legally elected term. The result is that the schemers neglect their own jobs and make it harder for the other fellow, who is really trying to do his work as it should be done. If this were the only evil man had to put up with, the bearing wouldn't be so hard. But coupled with it is the inborn desire in nearly all human beings to do somebody else; to control somebody; to lord it over somebody with a big stick—whether it is in politics, business, some organization or the home, and the burden is increased a hundred-fold. Politicians want to control everybody. Labor wants to control everybody. An so on it goes from the biggest "machine" down to the smallest individual. Everybody wants to get somebody else under their thumb. But, luckily, as the Uvalde philosopher has pointed out, the schemers can't control everybody they would like to. Man is prone to selfishness and thus to live to himself alone rather than to be under somebody's thumb—especially when that thumb belongs to a fellow who would like to put a lot of pressure on it.—The Pathfinder.

TYPHOID VACCINATION PROTECTS INDIVIDUAL

AUSTIN, June 15. — Parents of scouts, girl scouts, and other young people going to camps of any kind, are urged by Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, to have the family physician vaccinate each individual against typhoid fever. Some of the danger points for spread of typhoid it was said are creek swimming holes and flowing springs. Even though the water at these places may appear clear and sparkling, there is danger that it is contaminated.

"Typhoid fever is an unnecessary disease," Dr. Brown said. "Every case is due either to community negligence or to the carelessness or ignorance of some individual. Eternal vigilance in maintaining sanitary surroundings and a pure water supply is necessary.

"Three 'shots' of typhoid vaccine—a week apart—will put your child in the 'protected' class. As it takes several weeks for the protective treatment to establish itself in the body, have it done now.

The Black Legion, which has been coming in for much newspaper notoriety, is an example of an organization claiming as its purpose the upholding of the United States Constitution but which violates some of the most fundamental principles of that document. The Constitution stands in no need of this kind of "defense." Of course, members of the Black Legion really care nothing for the Constitution. It is only a catchword with them, a cloak under which they hoped to conceal their true designs. Such an organization as the Black Legion strikes at the very heart of the Constitution. That ought to be plain enough, but still there is always a chance that such infamous groups as this will work injury in the minds of the masses of the people to the case of those patriotic individuals and organizations who wish the Constitution to stand as a charter of human liberties. A good test, in our opinion, of those who speak of upholding the Constitution is to ask them how they stand on each item in the "Bill of Rights" of that document and on the thirteenth, fourteenth, and fifteenth amendments. These are integral parts of the Constitution, and they are the very parts most endangered by such groups as the Black Legion. Nothing of Americanism is included in the creed of istmembers, nothing of patriotism, nothing of decency.

Professional Directory

Al Smith and John W. Davis, two disgruntled Democrats and the main spokes in the Liberty League wheel, have been offered posts as vice-presidents of the National Allied Republican Council. Neither one of them are Democrats or Republicans. They are just anything that will help them enrich their own private coffers and give them laws protecting them in their schemes to sell the common people "down the river." Yes, the Republicans can have 'em. They are no good, everybody is wise to their schemes.—Lockney Beacon.

PANY

OUR 23 YEAR COLUMN

Quoting from our June 20th issue, 1913: Miss Esther Criswell was visiting her grandmother in Abernathy. Mrs. Dunwoody was visiting her husband on the "Running M" ranch. Dick Brownfield reported 66 baby mules. Young folks enjoyed a moonlight picnic on the courthouse lawn. They were also entertained in the J. W. Welch home. Roy and Olan Cardwell had returned from Roswell where they worked in the Alfalfa fields. Mrs. Aut Grammer and Misses Nettie Sawyer and Eldora Lewis went wolf hunting, Wednesday. Will E. and Miss Trixie Harris were here on a visit. R. R. Hughes and family and R. C. Forrester and family had returned from San Diego, Calif. Mrs. R. C. Graves and daughter were here from Roswell visiting their husband and father on the ranch. The Brownfield Hardware had a full line of cultivators.

Will Snodgrass and family were moving to the Bridges farm west of town. J. R. Hill had returned from a visit at Chattanooga, Tenn., and Birmingham, Ala. Here's a want ad that appeared in the Herald: "If Casey Jones takes the Big Beautiful Doll, Down by the Old Mill Stream, While Alexander's Ragtime Band played Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland, it is time for you to see the bargains at the Merc." Leslie Green had a runaway with a livery team while returning from Gomex. While not badly hurt himself, the team was cut badly in wire and the buggy wrecked. The Houston and Ellis families from Throckmorton county were here prospecting. Another 3-4 inch rain had visited the county. J. W. Gordon was in sporting a new Overland car. A ten pound girl had arrived at the Goldston home south of town. S. P. Robbins of Lubbock had been notified that he was appointed postmaster of that place.

Gomez Dots: Another good rain. Grandma Willey was ill. The Odd Fellows and Woodmen and families had met in point session for a picnic spread Saturday night. Mrs. L.

T. Brooks had her eye injured while sprinkling lime in her barn. Dr. Blackmore of Fort Smith Ark., was instructing in drawing. Yoakum County: A. C. Copeland had begun grading and laying the Plains-Brownfield road. Commissioners Court had cut 18 sections off the Sligo district and added them to the Glen Park district. Rev. B. F. Dixon stated that he felt sure the Baptist would soon erect a church building in Plains. Harris Items: Miss Olga Fitzgerald was instructing a class in music at Plains. Mr. Hammond and family had moved to New Mexico. Dipping cattle and what the Inspector said was the talk of the community. Tokio News: John Day had received a letter that R. K. Benton had died at the home of his father at Wall, Texas. Another big rain in that section. Miss Frances Wyatt was visiting her parents. All for this week.

PENN GOES TO TAHOKA

M. L. Penn, who for the past five years has been connected with the local schools, goes the coming year to Tahoka, where he has accepted a position as principal of the high school. This is a double promotion for him in that he is getting a better position and a raise in salary.

Since coming here Mr. Penn has taken an active part in school and community activities. For three years he has been active in the Rotary Club, serving one year as chairman of the program committee. He also has been president of the business Men's Bible Class for some three and a half years.

Mrs. Penn has taught a large class in expression since their coming here and regrets to leave her pupils. She will not teach the coming year.

Penn says that he hates to leave a host of friends, but that he is not going to be far away and that he is not leaving Brownfield for good. They will be back for visits and chats now and then and it is our guess that they will be coming back to Terry for a good meal and some good water now and then.

The Penn's will be missed in our community, for in addition to the above activities, Mr. Penn has taken

CHEVROLET ESTABLISHES NEW SALES RECORD

Chevrolet dealers rounded out the greatest three months in the history of the Chevrolet Motor Company by delivering 129,816 new cars and trucks in May. W. H. Holler, vice president and general manager, announced today. May sales were the highest on record, exceeding those for the highest previous May, that of 1928, by 7,379 units.

The company's sales in April established a new all-time high for any month of any year, and the totals for March and for May approached that high point so closely as to concentrate within the past 90 days all three of Chevrolet's biggest months. Total sales for that period were 389,556 units, bringing the total for the year to date, from Jan. 1, to 535,634.

Many used car sales by Chevrolet dealers set an all-time high of 229,223 units, Mr. Holler announced, resulting in a substantial decline in the stocks on hand, and contributing to the outlook for heavy new unit volume in June.

SAME OLD THING

Someone was asked if there was anything new in the newspaper? He replied, "No, same old thing happening to different people." He might as well have said that the nice dinner he got today was no good, because he had the same old kind of roast two weeks ago. His wife would say he put it down as eagerly as if he never tasted meat before.

Old Solomon said 25,000 years ago, that there was nothing new under the sun. But probably he listened with all his ears to the newest scandal, or the latest kick about taxes.

It's the same with modern news. The human mind has an insatiable desire to know about life. When anyone loses this desire, he should see the doctor. The newspaper is created to satisfy this longing. It gives you the information you need to satisfy your ambitions, and admits you as a spectator to the fascinating drama of modern life.—Abilene Times.

UNIFORM TRAFFIC SIGNS

Traffic control by signs, signals, and regulations, says the Bureau of Public Roads, is one field in which country-wide uniformity would be highly desirable. Variations by local authorities offer no advantages, and are likely to cause accidents. In view of this the bureau has cooperated with the American Association of State Highway Officials and the National Conference of Street and Highway Safety in issuing a Uniform Vehicle Code recommended for adoption by the states. These recommendations have been widely adopted and the bureau believes they should be made universal.

"An advantage the Democratic National ticket will enjoy this year is one the Republican party exploited with considerable effect in the days of its long ascendancy. A Republican national administration could not have the support of Congress, for the Senate will remain Democratic through the next four years. When the people are asked to change party policies at this critical stage of recovery, with no certainty whatever except a deadlock between a Republican House and Democratic Senate, they can recall with profit the once highly respected G O P precept: 'Let well enough alone.'" — Louisville Courier-Journal. (Ind.)

The "anvil chorus" probably will be the theme song at the Texas Centennial Exposition on July 13. The day has been designated as Blacksmiths and Welders Day at the $25,000,000 World Fair, which started June 6 and closes November 29.

Ticket-takers at the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial Exposition, which opened June 6, must know facts, names, dates and places on the grounds as well as how to make change. Nearly 200 were trained for two weeks.

To properly house visitors to the $25,000,000 Texas Centennial Exposition, which opened June 6, the most complete housing organization ever attempted has been effected. Its services are free. Accommodations for more than 100,000 people daily have already been arranged.

The Herald will order no more egg stamps for farmers. We have had some trouble in delivering lately is the reason. Will give any farmer the address of the makers of rubber egg stamps, however.

John Chisholm has been in Waco this week attending the State Convention of Hatchery Men. John will have some tallus to tell us when he returns.

The Church of Christ put fly screens on their building last week that added greatly to the comfort of the communicants last Sunday.

Wheat in the Crosbyton section will make from 12 to 20 bushels to the acre, according to the Crosbyton Review.
