"LISTEN FOLKS"

By Jim Ferguson.

(Editor's note: This article is published as a news item and represents the personal views of Mr. Ferguson only.)

HOGS AND HOMINY

My grandson now on a tour with his parents around the world writes me from China that he saw two able bodied Chinamen with a wooden yoke around their necks hitched to a wooden plow which was guided by another Chinaman. He says this wooden plow was of the same type that has been used for over two thousand years. These three men make their living on an acre of ground, and while they are not fully fed, yet they are vigorous and do not starve unless it comes drought or flood.

While we can not understand how the Chinaman can survive his condition, yet the fact that he does survive, should cause us to learn how to overcome both the high cost of living as well as the cost of high living. I believe it was that great divine Spurgeon that said that we will always get over the ditch if we jump well and never go hungry if we keep a garden and a pig.

The cow, the sow and the hen idea seems to be neglected though and our failure to heed its possibilities may cause us some degree of disappointment in solving the problem of the high cost of living. Now that the rains have come in most parts of Texas, it is very essential that we give the soil its full chance to produce at least a full stomach existence.

Of course, I am speaking mainly of our farming population. The difficulty of feeding the thousands that just will continue to flock to the cities and towns is another cross word puzzle that will have to be solved in some serious way by itself, if the farmers can devise some plan to feed themselves and have some surplus to sell the city folk, then we have laid the foundation to a civilization. But the farmer must keep the balance of trade in his favor or our economic condition will grow worse.

The trouble now is that the farmer is not living at home. Some of them only keep a sow, some only a cow, others only a hen but few keep all three. And yet they are in the reach of nearly every family. How independent people would be if they would let us forget for the moment big farming and mass production by machinery and extensive equipment and see what everybody can do to make a full stomach living.

The first installment on the cheapest automobile will not average over $100. With this sum a well bred brood sow (gilt) can be bought for $15. Two one-gallon and a half cows can be bought for $20, and 12 good hens and a rooster can be bought for $5,—total $100. Now the farmer is in business with a sow, cow and a hen. Suppose it is a tenant who could only rent 20 acres of land. Let us see what can be produced.

With 12 acres in cotton, three bales can be made, now worth $160—tenant's part $120, and the seed less ginning $20 more, or fed to cows. The cows will produce 1 1/4 lbs. of butter a day, 1/2 pound for home consumption and one pound for sale or trade to the merchant, 300 pounds a year at 20 cents a pound, or $60. Buttermilk or skim to be fed to chickens and pigs.

The brood sow will produce an average of 8 healthy pigs a year which can be made to weigh 300 pounds each, or 2,000 pounds of cured meat. One thousand pounds is more than the average family of five can eat a year, and the other thousand and pounds can be sold to the merchant or personal customer for $200. It will take 12 bushels of corn to produce the 300 pound hog—or 100 bushels. Twenty-five bushels to the acre will yield 200 bushels on 8 acres from which there is left 100 bushels to feed the 2 horse or mule teams.

So the farmer will have a money crop sufficient to buy clothes, sugar and coffee, flour and tobacco and the payment on that durned automobile,

Cattle Stealing Is Rather Hazardous

Because these thieves now have not only the local officers but the Cattle Sanitary Board to contend with!

The Sanitary Board employ only men capable of running down each and every cow theft that is reported to them, i. e. it has not been long ago, in fact it was only on May 17th, Fred Robinson, living west of Lovington phoned Dow Woods, one of the Sanitary Inspectors, that two cows had been stolen that night, having been taken right out of his pens close to his house.

Inspector Woods got busy and in a very short time he had Arvol Gleen of Smyer, Texas, landed in the Lubbock County jail and Gaston Bonds and Henry Lee in jail at Lovington.

June 9th, in District Court of Lea county, Gaston Bonds was brought to trial, found guilty and sentenced to two years in the Pen and fined $500.00.

The history of the case should be a good lesson to any sensible man that to steal cattle is a very unprofitable business venture for under our present system it can not be gotten away with, and in the old days usually wound up at the end of a rope dangling from the tree just outside of town without questioning or a chance to explain anything.—Lovington Leader.

Delinquent Taxes Can Be Paid in Installments

A bill permitting taxpayers to pay delinquent taxes in installments was passed by the Texas legislation in its regular session. The act is effective July 1.

A twenty-month time limit is set by the bill in which delinquent taxes may be paid in ten equal installments. Installments of ten dollars or less cannot be met in partial payments, and tax collectors are prohibited from accepting payments of less than one dollar.

If after paying one or more installments, the delinquent taxpayer pays no further installments for a period of four months, all the remaining installments will become due and payable and suit can be filed against him in county or district court.

This bill was passed to provide a method of paying the millions of dollars back taxes in Texas and to create more funds for government operation.

Meadow May Get Large Chemical Plant

A New Jersey Chemical Company has leased 249 acres of land from C. O. V. Woods near Meadow; and are to build a potash and Chemical plant within a short time.

Mr. Woods has leased his land for $10 per acre and specifications call for not less than a quarter million dollar plant starting not later than September 1.

The plant will employ approximately 100 men.

Test show a 60 foot layer of Sica Sand from which antipholgistine and other products are made. The land contains about 10 different minerals.

A Chemist is on the way from New Jersey now to make further tests.—Meadow Star.

Ex-Sheriff Produces Some Good Wheat

Ex-Sheriff Jess Smith, brought in a sample of his wheat made on his farm northeast of the city some six miles, that was pronounced mighty good grade, but there has been so much rain of late, the sample appeared to be quite damp. Mr. Smith made about 400 bushels, and reported that some of it was blown out and some hauled out.

W. H. Collins, local merchant reports a good crop of wheat on his farm on the line of Terry and Hockley counties. He reports that he will have in the neighborhood of a carload of wheat himself.

B'field Pretty Sure Of Cotton Oil Mill

Messrs. Peyton R. Wise and H. L. Shaffer, both of Lubbock, were in our city this week in the interest of establishing a cotton oil mill to be known as the Brownfield Cotton Oil Company, with a capacity of 45 tons per day, with buildings so arranged that the capacity might at any time deemed wise, be doubled.

The proposition is to incorporate at $200,000.00, and to sell as many shares as possible to local people, then offer the balance of the stock to outsiders. A committee of local business men has been appointed to serve on the organization committee. Option has been taken on a block of trackage property just west of the compress.

Stock is to be sold in blocks of not less than $20, for which the buyer gets one share of accumulative participating Class A preferred stock, and 2 shares of common, Class B stock, the former at $10, and the later at $5 per share.

Local men with whom the writer has talked, feel sure that the proposition can be put over here, and Messrs. Wise and Shaffer informed us that the plant would be ready for operation by September 1.

They also stated that such a plant could operate at a profit on 3500 tons of cotton seed during a season, season, the average during the past 12 years having been more than 8,000 tons. The by-products of the mill would include linters, oil, meal and hulls.

The plant will employ a number of people at good wages during the season, and will mean much in a financial way to the territory, as this is becoming recognized far and near as a feeding center, as corn as well as the popular row grain sorghums are raised in abundance here.

Two New Oil Tests For Terry County Soon

It is our understanding from information given out by parties who keep in touch with matters in the oil game that two new tests are to start in Terry county in the very near future one northwest of Brownfield on the Pool ranch, and the other southeast on the Brownfield ranch. Both are scheduled to go to depths of around 5,500 feet.

It seems that those who are trying to deepen and test the other well southeast of town that went into sulphur water, are still having trouble with it. They are finding it a real job to bridge off the water and make a test. There is not any doubt in the minds of the drillers and owners, it seems, that there is oil in that hole, probably in paying quantities.

Lubbock Man Buys Terry County Grocery

Mr. J. A. Tosh, of Lubbock, has purchased the Terry County Grocery from the owner, Mr. W. W. Terry, who has been ill for some time. Mr. Terry's son, Grady, is invoicing the stock to Mr Tosh this week.

Mr. Tosh for the past several years has been traveling for a tobacco concern, and has decided to buy a business of his own, and as he expressed it, "settle down and suffer with us."

County Agent Reports Heavy Cotton Loss

According to county agent R. N. McLain, there was a heavy loss in the cotton fields of Terry county in the last few days from the effects of the hard wind Friday, and hail Monday night. In sections where there was no rain Monday night, the wind also played havoc with young crops.

H. D. Leach reports that his section got a heavy hail Monday night, which extended on to the draw south of Gomez. He, however intends to let his cotton stand, as he figures a poor stand now is better than cotton planted now.

Mrs. Adair of the Wellman section got no rain, she reports, but heavy winds Monday night that got perhaps 50 acres of their cotton. The worst part of the hail seemed to have been a streak running from Meadow to and west of Gomez, especially in the Happy community.

According to the government gauge 40-100 inch fell here, accompanied by considerable hail. Northwest of town a few miles, they seemed to have been flooded out as well as hailed out.

Bridges and Wife Return From Alaska

Back in March, we informed the readers that W. R. Bridges and wife were off for Alaska to visit their daughter, Mrs. Carrol Phillips and family. And that they were leaving their home here unrented, and completely furnished—if they liked—or return home.

Well, they are back home. Wiley came in one day last week to have his paper changed back here, and wouldn't even let us snicker about it. Told us to shut up. Well, he didn't tell us much as he seemed in a powerful hurry, but he did mention the swarms of mosquitoes and flies, and he added that they didn't fail to bite when they lit on you.

Anyway, we are glad that these old pioneers have returned to make Terry their home again. Wiley has tried Arkansas and east Texas on different times, and has always returned to good old Terry.

Herald Needs Some More Correspondents

The Herald is real proud of its rural correspondents. They are making interesting news reports from their communities. But there are still a number of communities in which we have no reports. If you can do this work, or know one who will do it—and stick to it—come in yourself or bring them in.

The Herald has printed up some envelopes and letters that are nice for this business, and to be furnished correspondents for their use. You will like them. In addition, you get your stamps and the Herald free for your trouble.

We know that it is worth more than this, but at this time, we are unable to do better by correspondents. But in this voluntary work, you will be aiding your community as well as the Herald.

A pleasing disposition is more convincing than argument.

You can always do without what you can't get.

Several Thousand Expected For Singing

Approximately 8000 are expected to attend the fifth annual session of the Panhandle-Plains Singing Convention, to be held here this week end, Saturday and Sunday, June 19-20, states L. E. Raper of Plainview, Texas present president of the association of singers.

The convention is to begin at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and continue through Sunday. A concert is scheduled for Saturday night. The Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, the Commissioners Court, and all civic clubs of Terry county are sponsoring the convention. Last year, the convention was held at Lubbock, with some 8000 to 10,000 in attendance.

The program committee, consisting of H. M. McEachern, Post; Homer Harrison, Lubbock, C. M. Lyles, Floydada; E. D. Caskey, Amarillo, Wilbur Wilson, Lamesa and Ellison Carson of this city, have, we understand, prepared a program for the two days that will appeal to all classes of singers and music lovers.

During the time, the Stamps Quartette of Dallas, will be here and render a concert program. This aggregation consists of Virgil O. Stamps, Jim Gaitner, Bob Bacon, Walter Reiffetal, and Marion Snidler, accompanist. Other great singing quartettes, trios, soloists, etc., of wide reputation are also due.

At the present time, according to Clyde Lewis, of this city, who is vice president of the convention, the sessions will be held at the Venetian Auditorium and enough loud speakers will be placed around and in the building, so that thousands who are unable to gain admittance can hear the programs from their cars, parked about the building. This building will seat only about 1000, it is said.

Other officers of the convention, other than Mr. Raper and Mr. Lewis, are Joe McColum, Lockney, Secretary; Rev. G. O. Dean, Plainview, Chaplain.

Ned Self Badly Hurt In Wreck Monday

While attending the fireman's convention at Port Arthur last week, a bunch of the Brownfield boys decided to go over to Beaumont one afternoon to see a Texas League baseball game. But the game was rained out, and the boys started back to Port Arthur.

The accident seemed to have been a freak. The streets were very slippery, and it seems that a woman decided to turn into a side street and another car behind failed to get the signal, if she made one, and to avoid hitting her car, turned so sharply that their car slid into Eunice Jones' car. No one was seriously hurt except Ned. Others in the car were, Eunice Jones, C. C. Primm, Frank Ballard, A. V. Black, all local firemen.

He was hurried to a hospital six blocks away, where the fracture was set and put in cast. They are to bring him home early this week if possible. Ned, who is head clerk at the Collins Dry Goods store, was a mighty good volunteer fireman, and all the boys hope he will be about again as soon as possible.

The car they were in belonged to Eunice Jones, and was quite badly damaged.

Theatre On Wheels To Be Here Today

Mr. Carter, local Chevrolet Dealer, announces that he is sponsoring a program of interesting and entertaining talking Motion Pictures to be presented from the Chevrolet Automovie, the complete theatre on wheels, in Brownfield on Friday evening the 18th at 8. P. M., southwest corner of court house square.

This unit is mounted on a 201 inch wheelbase truck chassis and contains a theatre type sound motion picture projector, amplifier, public address system and has its own complete Delco electric power plant. The unit is so constructed that the top raises and the pictures are shown on a translucent screen, which makes pictures visible to very large audiences.

This unit is in charge of a professional operator, thoroughly trained in this type of work.

Everyone is invited to attend the showing from this most unusual vehicle.

Appointed Coordinator Of "Dust Bowl" Area

AMARILLO, Texas, June 15—Roy I. Kimmel, recently appointed coordinator for the several federal agencies serving the Great Plains "dust bowl" and who will have charge of all departmental activities in the wind erosion area in the five-state region is "depending largely on farmers to recommend a definitely constructive program to solve their present problems."

"No matter what programs may be designed to correct conditions in this problem area and to establish a permanent, and, insofar as possible, a drought-proof type of agriculture," Mr. Kimmel said, "the country may be assured that we will be guided very largely by those men who live on the soil."

Mr. Kimmel said he will look to the general and special farm organizations in this area whose experience and advice will be invaluable in developing a coordinated conservation program.

Appointed by Secretary of Agriculture

ROY I. KIMMEL

culture Henry A. Wallace, and responsible directly to Under-Secretary of Agriculture M. L. Wilson, Mr. Kimmel will devote his attention to the special problems in the 103 counties of Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Kansas and New Mexico. The area over which he will work totals 90,779,555 acres, and involves farm lands aggregating 70,927,420 acres.

Already at work, Mr. Kimmel last week met with agricultural leaders in Colorado. This week he is to attend a similar meeting in Oklahoma City. In the week of June 21 he will meet with the Southern Great Plains Advisory Committee on land use practices.

Mr. Kimmel is a native of New Mexico, and has spent many years in various parts of the Plains region. He is a graduate of Colorado College, with a master's degree from Yale. For four years he was assistant director of the School of Public Affairs at Princeton. In 1935 he joined the Resettlement Administration to serve as assistant to Dr. W. W. Alexander.

Jennings Leases Laundry in Clovis, N. M.

Jimmie Jennings, who has worked for the Brownfield Steam Laundry for the past 2 years, has leased a laundry at Clovis, N. M., and he and family will move to that city in the near future to take charge.

Mr. Jennings and family moved here from Big Spring, where he had much experience in the laundry business.

61 AGRICULTURAL PRIZES OFFERED BY SANTA FE

The Santa Fe Railway has offered 61 educational prizes to members of 4-H Clubs in the territory served by its lines, as follows:

Texas, 19; Oklahoma, 16; Kansas, 12; Missouri, five; Illinois, three; New Mexico, three; Arizona, two; and Iowa, one.

Winners of these prizes will be guests of the Santa Fe on a visit to the Sixteenth National Congress of 4-H Clubs in Chicago next fall.

Contest for prizes in each state is under the direction of the state club leader, who is an official of the state agricultural college extension service.

Several thousand youthful farmers are eligible to compete in the contests, and deep interest prevails, according to J. F. Jarrell, manager of the Santa Fe's agricultural development department.

Mrs. George Bragg and Mrs. Homer Winston were in Lubbock Tuesday, visiting a friend who was there in the hospital.

Three Killed, Three Injured In Wreck Sun.

Among the many traffic and other accidents that took a toll of nine lives and many injured, three of the deaths occurred in Terry county, with one serious injured and two badly bruised. This on top of the bad collision at the end of the loop just south of town, on Saturday the 5th, makes one wonder just who will be mixed up in the next wreck and probable fatality.

The wreck Sunday between 4 and 5 in the afternoon, occurred about one mile this side of Wellman on 51, where the highway makes a slight curve as it goes into Sulphur draw. In the car, a Chevrolet, were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Morrison, and daughter, Mrs. Jimmie Slaton, and the later's daughter, three years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Morrison died almost instantly, and the child died after they reached town. Mrs. Slaton, with a limb fractured in two places, and other bad bruises and lacerations, is resting as well as could be expected in the local hospital.

The two men who were in the truck, a large dual wheel Ford, were considerably skinned and bruised, and are receiving treatment. The driver of the truck, D. W. Newell, of Laredo, is being held on a charge of unpremeditated murder. The other man, F. B. Lindsey, is also held under bond as a material witness. County Attorney Burton G. Hackney has a diagram of the road and the site of the wreck, which officers informed us put the blame on the truck driver.

Mrs. Morrison is a sister of Mrs. Geo. E. Tiernan, had been here visiting, and were returning to their home at Pecos, Texas. Both Mrs. Morrison, as well as Mrs. Slaton, are well known here, especially to old timers, the later visiting here often with her aunt, when she was known as Miss Jimmie Whisenant.

The bodies of the dead were prepared by the Brownfield Funeral home, and were carried to Holiday, Texas, near Wichita Falls, where burial will be made. Mrs. Slaton has been informed of the loss of her mother, stepfather and baby.

The heavy truck passed entirely over the car, and was stopped in a field. Many said the car was the worst wreck they ever saw, and it is indeed almost miraculous that any of them escaped alive.

Littlefield Fails to Win County Seat Election

OLTON, June 15.—Littlefield lacked about 5 per cent or nearly 200 votes to receive the needed two thirds to obtain the Lamb county seat, according to unofficial returns of today's election, said County Clerk Stanley A. Doss.

However, all boxes in the county had been tabulated, with exception of Sodhouse whose poll tax list amounted to only 41. In the event the entire box went for any of the three towns involved, the returns of the election would not be altered, said County Clerk Doss.

According to tabulations of the county clerk's office, Littlefield per cent amounted to slightly more than 61. A two-thirds majority was needed to effect a move of the county seat to that place. State laws require that that vote is necessary to remove the county seat to a site that is not within five miles of the center. Littlefield is not within this area.

Amherst needed only a majority of votes cast to obtain the county seat. However, it was explained that the issue was between Olton and Littlefield. Residents of the county, as a general rule, who voted for Amherst simply voted against Littlefield, it was said.

Totals for the three towns, with exception of the box, Sodhouse, were Olton 866, Littlefield 2010 and Amherst 465.

Thompson Gets Gomez School Bldg. Contract

Lee Thompson of the Tokio section received the contract to construct the new Gomez school building, to replace the one destroyed by fire early in the spring. Work will start at once in order that the job may be completed by school opening time. As we understand it, the new building will be about the same size as the old one, and of brick and tile material, made as nearly fire proof as possible. Cicero Smith Lumber Co. got the material contract.

ASHYXIATION AND DROWNING

AUSTIN, Texas, June 1.—"No elaborate equipment is needed to save a life from drowning," is the opinion of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "In fact, actual harm has been done by the misuse of so-called lung motors. Modern resuscitation apparatus has been perfected so that oxygen and carbon dioxide can be used without inflicting more damage to cases of asphyxiation and drowning. It is tragic enough to have a drowning accident, but it is far more tragic if no one present at the time knows how to save a life by artificial respiration.

"The prompt application of artificial respiration is of primary importance, and for this purpose the prone pressure method is the easiest, simplest and most effective. This should begin at once and continue rhythmically until natural breathing is established—this may take four or more hours. Procedure:

First: Kneel, and straddle the patient below the hips placing hands on small of the back with fingers over the lowest ribs, tips of fingers just out of sight.

Second: With arms stright, while counting one, two, swing forward bearing weight on body firmly but not violently.

Third: Swing backward while counting one, straightening up and thus relieving pressure—this allows air to be drawn into the lungs.

Fourth: Rest in this position for two counts.

Fifth: Repeat these movements rhythmically, forward and backward, without interruption, about twelve to fifteen a minute, until natural breathing is restored.

Sixth: Meanwhile, if assistance is at hand, a physician should be sent for, the patient's tight clothing should be loosened at neck, chest, waist and he should be kept warm.

The patient should not be moved until he is breathing normally and then should not be allowed to get up should be carried in a lying position to a place where he can be kept warm and receive medical attention.

There's just a plain mean streak in old Andy Jack Stricklin, the Lone Wolf of Terry County. Just because the Plainsman said Lubbock citizens missed a great treat—and one that would do them good when all of them didn't hear National Commander Harry Colmery, of the American Legion, here recently, Old Andy Jack saw an ulterior motive. "Yah, yah," he crowed in his Terry County Herald, of Brownfield, "our guess is that the gentleman made a fine attack on the President and that's the reason the Lubbock Shournal thought the folks missed so much!" As a matter of fact, Commander Colmery didn't mention politics, or political personages. He made no reference to the President. But in jumping at his conclusion, Old Andy Jack showed his hand. He thought Commander Colmery made an attack on the President simply because we said in this column that the commander spoke on Americanism! Wass matter, Andy Jack? Have you suddenly awakened to the fact that a lot of that stuff up in Washington is as far from the true tenets of our country as you are from your old home in Plum Tree, Tennessee?—Lubbock Evening Journal.

The above tirade is a fair sample of what is issued from the office of the Hubbock-Shournal by Hon. Sharley Armour Guy Plainsman in the guise of general information and specific helpfulness. It is a matter of opinion what really constitutes Americanism. You may think Charley that "rugged individualism" as taught by "Hoibert Hoiver," Mellon and others is true Americanism. We think such men represent much nearer a medieval European feudalism together with its peasantry or a modern Hitlerism with its silenced slaves. All your writings that we have ever seen, favors the bigwags of high finance, and so far as we can learn, you never soil your social standing with the dirty and unbathed. Your ideal of the American are those who pyramid stocks in 1929—dropped their victims. Histed em again in the spring of 1930 only to rock their skulls on the bottom again. You have never, so far as we have read your articles, become reconciled to the fact that the poor farmer and laboring man now has a look in; that he is being shown some favors by the administration. In fact, you rarely mention a farmer in your paper except when he gets killed or jailed. We know of several that take the Avalanche through us, that have made the objection, and the only one to your journal, that it had no sympathy for the farmer. Yes, Charley, we admit we are very rural, but you missed our former P. O. address as Plum Tree, a bit. We are proud that we are rural. We don't hesitate from shame to tell you that we were born in a log house of poor parents. But we as soon to have been thus born and reared as to have been brought up with a gashouse gang in a city, or the pampered pet of bluebloods on some exclusive section of a city. Our old blood is red, Mr. Guy—therefore we claim to be an American.

ROCKEFELLER GAVE $120,000 TO HARDIN-SIMMONS

ABILENE, June 1.—Rockefeller generosity has meant $120,000 to Hardin-Simmons university, Dr. J. D. Sanderfer, president, announced this week at the death of the philanthropist.

Revealing facts that few H-SU students know, Dr. Sanderfer recalls that the Rockefeller Foundation added $100,000 to the university endowment on September 18, 1922, and several years later gave $20,000 as a gift to be applied on teachers salaries.

Dr. James B. Simmons, founder, was an intimate friend of John D. Rockefeller and received 92 letters written in longhand from the financier. The letters are on display in Hardin-Simmons museum cases. Content of the letters concerns Dr. Simmons missionary work and Mr. Rockefeller's encouragement that accompanied his checks. The money given Dr. Simmons was not for Hardin-Simmons but rather for missionary work throughout the South and East, Dr. Sanderfer explains.

N. M. FLOODS NO HANDICAP TO VACATIONERS

ROSWELL, New Mexico, June 15.—Residents of Texas, at first apprehensive that recent rains and high water in eastern New Mexico had spoiled their vacation plans for the Sunshine State, are now learning that the rains will make their visit more enjoyable than ever. Millions of acres of pasture lands are now as green as lawns and wild flowers are everywhere. Highways, some of which were temporarily closed by high water, are still back to normal and in excellent condition.

At no time during the period water was running from a foot to eighteen inches deep in the streets were hotels, camp grounds, restaurants or guest homes handicapped in their service to guests and with the exception of a few instances business houses and amusement places did not stop normal operations. Some few places were handicapped for one day.

On account of the added attractiveness of eastern New Mexico this summer because of the general rains, more Texas visitors than ever before are expected during the next three months at the Carlsbad Cavern, Bottomless Lakes State Park near here, the Ruidoso, Billy the Kid land, Mescalero Apache Indian Reservation, Pine Lodge and the Sacramento area.

Ralph White, who works on the Fields ranch near Bronco, was brought to the local hospital last Friday with a broken arm, sustained when his horse fell with him. Dr. Treadaway stated that it was a compound fracture. Bill Harrell brought him to the hospital.

The new 1938 Zenith radio is now on display at the Cicero Smith office. It's a dandy.

Herman Chesshir, manager of the West Texas Gin Co., brought in an article recently showing how Texas and Oklahoma were falling behind in the production of cotton, both as to length of staple, and acreage production. We printed a similar article two weeks ago that we hope every farmer read.

Dr. W. F. Zachary of Lubbock, has been attending a clinic at Hot Springs, Ark.

Low Interest Rate Extended One Year

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Action of the House of Representatives last week in passing a bill providing for the continuation of 3½ per cent emergency interest rate on Federal Land Bank loans is of particular interest to West Texas farmers. The measure provides that the 3½ per cent rate shall be extended for one year, for a 4 per cent rate for the period July 1, 1938, to June 30, 1939 and for a 4 per cent interest rate on Land Bank Commissioner loans for a period of two years. The 3½ per cent rate has been in effect for the past two years and the act establishing the reduction expires June 30, this year, unless the measure as passed by the House is approved by the Senate and signed by the President before that date.

Congressman Mahon stated that the fact that the House passed the bill without a dissenting vote was significant evidence of the continued friendliness of Congress toward farm legislation.

No estimate has been made as to Commissioner loans, but final approval of the 3½ per cent interest provision in the bill would save Federal Land Bank borrowers an estimated $31,700,000 in interest charges during the next year. Congressman Mahon estimated that a saving of $200,000 during the next year would be realized by Federal Land Bank borrowers of the 19th Congressional District.

Texas Farm Income Shows a Big Gain

AUSTIN, Texas, June 14.—The computed farm cash income for Texas during April, excluding government benefit payments, totaled $27,648,000 during April last year, an increase of more than 58 per cent according to Dr. F. A. Buechel, assistant director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. The districts in which sheep, wool, and cattle constitute the major sources of income made relatively the most favorable showing. The lower Rio Grande Valley continued to maintain a wide margin of improvement over last year but the gain was not so great in April as it was in March.

"Barring abnormal weather conditions during the remainder of the current crop season, indications point to further improvement in Texas farm cash income during coming months," Dr. Buechel said. "Because of natural regions of the State, however, these distinctive regions will not share equally in such gains as are expected to occur. Regions in which live stock and live stock products constitute the most important sources of income are expected on the whole to continue the favorable showing

THE OLIVER ROW-CROP "70"

YOU CAN SEE WHAT YOU'RE DOING WITH THIS NEW SPEEDIER TRACTOR

Here's the sensational new Row Crop "70"—the six-cylinder, streamlined tractor everybody's talking about. Due to its famous Tip Toe wheels there's unusually great clearance under the tractor so that planting and cultivating equipment can be mounted amidships—always in full view of the operator. You can see what you're doing. The work's easier!
Here's great power, too, with light weight—only 3,000 lbs. And, under ordinary soil conditions, you can plow with two 14-inch bases at over 4 miles an hour! That's great speed that gets the work done sooner—and gives the operator more spare time for other things.
There are two "70's". Come in and see them. One for 70 octane gasoline—the other for kerosene or distillate—each setting new standards of fuel economy. There is, of course, a complete line of mounted listing, busting, planting and cultivating equipment.

"God Must Be a Swell Fellow," Says a Child

AUSTIN, Texas—"Mother, God's a swell fellow to fix a place like that for daddy." Those were the words of a grateful youngster as he drove away from the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium with his mother.

A penny postcard from the mother to the Texas Tuberculosis Association described the child's reaction to the place where his daddy had gone to get well.

To the little boy it must have seemed heavenly—the cool, clean wards; the doctors and nurses, all in white, with their kind faces and their words of hope and cheer; the peace and comfort of the whole big hospital for the treatment and cure of tuberculosis.

Yes, it is swell—swell that Texas has a place to send tuberculosis patients where they may hope for recovery, and that the case finding program of the tuberculosis associations is helping to locate the disease in the stages when it is most readily curable—swell that the death rate from tuberculosis is declining.

Most of us take these blessings for granted. "Out of the mouths of babes" come fitting words of praise.

THE SPOILT CHILD

AUSTIN, Texas, June 15.—A child's habits are responsible, in a large measure, for their mental actions in later life, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. A child of five or six years may have a bad temper. He can be taught as he grows older, to exercise self control so that it will not often be manifested. It would be better for him had he acquired a good temper instead of a bad one.

Today the medical profession understands more fully the enduring influence of habits that begin in the earliest years of life, in the nursery, or even in the cradle. In the young child, as a result of habit, certain types of behavior become established.

Perhaps the child had learned while yet an infant, that he could get what he wanted if he cried long and loud. Perhaps he had learned, when a little older, that bad behavior, as tantrums screaming rolling on the floor or sulking brought him the reward after his request had been refused or ignored.

If he had this experience once, you may be sure that he would repeat the action the next time the occasion arose. If he found that such actions did not bring the desired results he would not try it again.

Other behavior habits, good and bad, are acquired from imitating older children and adults. In this way many likes and dislikes, tastes and ambitions which in later years become crystallized into character habits have their beginning. Calmness and poise, as well as nervous and panicky behavior habits established by imitation and made permanent by repetition. The elders are responsible for more than they realize for the conduct of the child in the family. In this we see a new meaning in the old adage, "As the twig is bent the tree is inclined."

Uncle Jim Says

Terracing, contouring, strip cropping, or reverting sloping lands to pastures as long been advocated by specialists of the Texas Extension Service as a means of controlling erosion. Best results are obtained, of course, when the land is still fertile and before erosion has leveled its toll.

In many cases, however, it pays to protect land that is so badly eroded that it will not grow profitable crops. The use of legumes may "bring the land back," but aside from this, protection of fertile lowlands often repays the expense of terracing barren hillsides.

Almost every farmer in the hilly sections of Texas knows of cases of rich land which has been ruined by a deposit of poor soil which covered the fields.

BETTING

The great battle now going on in the Texas Senate over repeal of betting on horse racing is a battle between the representative of the masses and representatives of the big interests of the state.

The law legalizing gambling on the horse was never endorsed by the people. It was tacked on to an appropriation as a rider in a conference committee, and the legislature had to endorse it or kill the appropriation bill. The big boys in the Senate prevented the bill for repeal from coming before the Senate for a vote during the regular session of the 45th Legislature. Will they continue to master the situation in the present called session?

But do not be deceived, the repeal of the law will not stop the gambling on the races. Local authorities will just shut their eyes and the gambling will go on just the same. Why is there no effort made to stop gambling on the football games? Just let a crucial game come up between two big CHURCH schools, and there will be more betting on it than there is on any race horse. What do the law enforcement agencies do about it? Not a thing. What do the big churchmen do about it? Not a thing.—Anton News.

"Those 'good old days' when the country could go for perhaps six months without having to worry about any 'paramount issue' and could devote its time to doing the ordinary things of life in the ordinary way, seem to have gone, and ferment is the order of the day." —Chester M. Wright.

BIG SPRING MADE PERMANENT LIQUOR HEADQUARTER

Big Spring, designated more than a year ago as temporary district headquarters for district No. 9 of the liquor control board administration staff, Friday was announced as permanent district headquarters.

The office here will require a staff of five inspectors, two to be located at Big Spring, and one each at McCamey, Seminole and Pecos. Deputy State Supervisor Leith Morris will be in charge, giving the district a six-man staff in addition to an office clerk here.

Midland and Odessa have sought location of the district headquarters, it was learned.—Big Spring Herald.

HOW DICTATORS WORK

Late news from Italy shows how the minds of dictators work. To quote an A. P. dispatch of May 8 "fascist Italy angered by printed jeers at the prowess of Italian fighters in Spain, virtually broke off press relations with Great Britain today." An official order recalled all Italian correspondents from London, and blamed all but three English newspapers from Italy.

Thus dictatorship achieves its ends by keeping its people in darkness, and shutting them away from any knowledge, any facts, any opinion which may suggest that the man or the party in power is less than perfect. Under various dictatorships the right to vote in free and honest elections has been taken from the people. The right of free speech has been taken from them. The right of free assembly has been taken from them. The right of open trial by jury has been taken from them.

We must be continually on our guard lest, in our eagerness for seeming advantage, we unknowingly sacrifice the liberties for which millions of men fought during centuries of bloody history.—Community News

OUR NEUTRALITY ACT

The other day an army plane winged southward from Washington, bearing a document that finally reached the President at sea, was quickly signed by him. This was the new neutrality act, hurried through House and Senate by congressmen with an anxious eye on the turbid European war situation.

The act is a compromise between the advocates of mandatory neutrality and discretionary neutrality—that is, a law which forces the President to forbid trade with belligerent nations, and one which permits him to use his judgement in the light of circumstances.

The new act is not perfect—but it is regarded as being about as good as could be had, and great hopes for keeping America out of war are bound up in it. It places an embargo on arms shipments to fighting nations. And, in the event of war, it gives the President discretionary power to list goods that cannot be exported to belligerents; to deny belligerents use of our ports, etc. Important provision extends this authority to civil as well as international wars.

"War in Europe" this summer, perhaps; this fall, sure," is being talked by some. But there has been much talk of that kind for several years, and no general war has broken out yet. It looks as if the powers are uncertain of their relative strengths, are doing a considerable amount of bluster bluffing.—Community Weekly.

Notice to Owners Permitting Stock to Run at Large

Within the past few weeks we have had a good many inquiries about the stock law in Terry County; whether or not we have such law etc.

Some few weeks ago the qualified voters of this county voted a stock law here with the view of taking the fences from around their farms. That law is still in effect, and in substance is as follows:

Whoever shall knowingly permit any horses, mules, jacks, jennets, and cattle to run at large in any territory in this State where the provisions of the laws of this State have been adopted prohibiting any of such animals from running at large shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars.

We realize that on some occasions stock break out of inclosures and that it is the fault of the owner, but there are people who permit their stock to run at large at the expense of their neighbors, and if this practice continues we shall be forced to take complaints for these violations.

Burton G. Hackney, County Attorney.
C. D. Gore, Sheriff.

Ned Self, accompanied by Eunice Jones, was brought to Lubbock from Beaumont, Wednesday. PRaises FIESTA

D. A. BANDEEN

West Texas provided the greatest attendance of any section at the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial last year and no doubt will flock this year to the Fort Worth Frontier Fiesta by the tens of thousands, declares D. A. Bändeen, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

"We regard the show with personal interest and pride because it is presented in Fort Worth, the gateway into the West Texas empire," he said. "The development of Fort Worth into the amusement center of the Southwest means a great volume of tourist travel through West Texas cities."

Bändeen pointed out that the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Building last year at the Fort Worth exposition was visited by 700,000 persons and an even greater number is predicted this season when the WTCC will present "West Texas, Old and New" with approximately 150 cities having displays in the building.

Confederates to Hold Three More Reunions

JACKSON, Miss., June 11.—In peace as in war, soldiers of the Confederacy will carry on to the end.

The suggestion that disability will prevent another reunion, was hooted by the meagre remnant of Confederate veterans attending the forty-seventh annual U. C. V. reunion here Thursday. They shouted their rebel yells and voted unanimously to meet again next year.

And, asserted Adj. Gen. Rene Lee of Nashville, "I can tell you folks, there will be three more reunions—the last one will be in 1940, and don't you forget it."

As long as there are enough veterans left to meet, the United Confederate Veterans will continue to hold reunions, declared frail little Gen. Homer Atkinson, Petersburg, Va., the retiring commander in chief.

General Atkinson said he had received a personal invitation from Gov. Olin D. Johnson of South Carolina to hold the 1938 reunion at Columbia.

Late in the afternoon the crowd enjoyed ice cream. Everyone enjoyed the day and said, "we'll have this over."

Biggest Wheat Year In Seven Favors Tex.

Producing 42,000,000 bushels this season Texas has the first sizeable wheat crop since 1931 when the State grew the all-time record of 66,000,000 bushels. That great crop, however, brought growers only $27,631,000 as against $42,000,000 for this season's crop. The average of the preceding six Texas wheat crops has been only $11,400,000. There is every reason on the part of businessmen, farmers and all other interests for recognizing these pertinent facts. Texas farmers are staging a steady comeback. The fine wheat crop is contributing greatly to that comeback.

An average price to Texas growers of about $1 a bushel will put $42,000,000 in circulation, the earliest crop money of the year.

SOCIETY AND ARCHITECTURE

Communal life decayed during the Nineteenth Century with the decay of institutions that produced its traditional forms. But no community can remain healthy without communal life; and it must be the task of the immediate future to build up new forms more in harmony with the age. And in building up these forms, architecture must play an essential part.—Bertrand Russell, English philosopher and author, in the Rotarian Magazine.

Beauty's Daughter
By Kathleen Norris

SYNOPSIS
Victoria Herendeen, a vivacious little girl, had been too young to feel the shock that came when her father, Keith Herendeen, lost his fortune. A gentle, unobtrusive soul, he is now employed as an obscure chemist in San Francisco, at a meager salary. His wife, Magda, cannot adjust herself to the change. She is a beautiful woman, fond of pleasure and a magnet for men's attention. Magda and Victoria have been down at a summer resort and Keith joins them for the week-end. Magda leaves for a bridge party, excusing herself for being such a "runaway." Later that night Victoria is grief-stricken when she hears her parents quarrelling. The Herendeens return to their small San Francisco apartment. Keith does not approve of her frequent life and they quarrel frequently. As the weeks go by, Keith becomes silent and gray. One day while Victoria is asking her mother why Herendeen is so worried, Magda receives a diamond from Ferd Manners, a wealthy man from Argentina whom she had met less than a week before. Manners arrives a few hours later. Magda shows him a valuable Chinese shawl that has been in the Herendeen family for many years. Vic is shocked when she learns her mother had contemplated selling it. Magda tells Manners a dealer had offered her $300 for the shawl. Magda takes Victoria to Nevada to visit a woman friend who has a daughter named Catherine. There she tells her she is going to get a divorce. Victoria soon is in boarding school with her friend Catherine. Magda marries Manners and they spend two years in Argentina. Victoria has studied in Europe, and at eighteen she visits her mother when Ferd rents a beautiful home. Magda is unhappy over Ferd's drinking and attentions to other women. Vic dislikes him, but for her mother's sake is nice to him. When her mother and stepfather return to South America, Victoria refuses to go with them because of Ferd's unwelcome attentions to her. Magda returns and tells Vic she and Ferd have separated. Meanwhile Keith has remarried. Victoria is now a student nurse. Magda has fallen in love with Lucius Farmer, a married artist.

LITTLEFIELD BUSINESSMEN BEING MILKED

Several months ago this paper came out flat-footedly deploring the fact that the business men of this city were being urged, cajoled, bagged, and even high-pressed, by far too many varieties, and far too many number, of advertising schemes, some actually being almost a duplication of another that had gone before, or was coming a week or so later.
That article didn't stop the thing, nor is this one going to do so either. There is one thing, and one thing only, that will put a stop to it, and that is the business men themselves.
There is no advertising value in the majority of these things, and it is wrong and a mistake for any business man to advertise the expenses of them up to "advertising" account on his records.
If you do fall for one of these schemes (and there are some worthy causes) give toward it, and charge it to charity and community building expense, but don't place it un-

SO THAT'S WHY THEY CUSS!
What makes people cuss? Well here's a scientific explanation as given by Dr. George W. Crane, noted psychologist:
"People who have inferiority complexes and are afraid are likely to adopt profanity. Those who use profanity are often people who are afraid of themselves. They adopt loud and violent language to kid themselves into thinking they are bold, virile men. They are trying to compensate for an inferiority complex. They are like the boy who whistles on a dark night to keep up his courage. They don't feel the equals of those with whom they associate, so they try to impress their friends with their foul language. Chronic users of oaths are usually childlike or immature, in their emotional development, even though they may be grown men. The strong man or well-adjusted child doesn't have to rely on such artificial means for impressing his associates."
der the heading of "advertising," because it has no place there.
Big business concerns maintain an account, based on percentage of the sales for advertising, and they guard it jealously. They are much more liable to show concern if the column shows a lowering in volume than should it show an increase, because, business, small or big, survives or fails on the volume and strength of its advertising.
This article is not one seeking to tell you not to continue to contribute to worth-while things which the community as a whole is willing to support, but it is time that the business men learned to be honest in labeling their donations as such, and not under the much abused heading of "advertising."—Littlefield News.
The above editorial hits Brownfield and every other town.

BAPTIST CHURCH

It is with sorrow and regret that we make this announcement, Forrest G. Rodgers, our pastor for the past twenty months, is resigning the pastorate here, and accepting the pastorate of the North Side Church in Fort Worth.

He has done a great work here, and we regret very much to see him go, but he feels the Lord leading. May the Lord bless him in this new field of labor. He will read his written resignation Sunday morning. Let every member be present and let us make this his last Sunday with us, long to be remembered in our church.

Each one of us will need to double our efforts these next few weeks to carry on without a pastor, but let us be faithful to our Master and the work given us. We need to be much in prayer that the Lord will lead in all that we do.

There will be a Baptismal service at the close of the regular service Sunday evening. We hope that all approved for baptism will be present.

May God's richest blessings be upon Bro. Rodgers and his family as they go from us into their new field of labor, is our prayer.
