TERRY COUNTY'S HISTORY RELATED IN BIG EDITION

A fifty-two page newspaper is regarded in the newspaper field as worthy of note when coming from the plant of the average daily, but when such edition is turned out by a weekly it is time to do some crowing from the house tops.

The fete was done right here in West Texas by 'Andy Jak' Stricklin and his force of the Terry County Herald. Done up in daily style, carrying six sections, the "Historical-Prosperity" edition was mailed out of Brownfield last Friday, carrying the apologies of the publisher for being a "little late."

The "special" carries column after column of interesting historical matter concerning Terry County, Brownfield and the citizens who laid the foundation and are building up that part of the plains. Brownfield's ever increasing list of business firms is well represented, indicating that the publisher received some pay for many long hours of hard work that went into the paper, which will doubtless be filed away for future reference in many Terry county homes.—Post Dispatch.

SPECIAL EDITION FOR TERRY COUNTY HERALD

The Terry County Herald, Brownfield, published by the one and only Jack Stricklin and his son, Jack Jr., last week issued a gigantic Historical-Prosperity Edition that is a credit to any city several times the size of that town.

The big special edition contains 52 seven-column pages, and without doubt is one of the biggest, if not the biggest weekly newspaper ever printed in this immediate section of the state.

Brownfield merchants were very liberal in advertising patronage of the paper, and there were many pictures of early day and present day scenes and scores and scores of interesting news stories.

History of the development of the South Plains, Terry County, and Brownfield are featured. There are many stories written by oldtimers telling of the ranching days, the days of old Gomez, the development of farming, etc.

We hope to give our readers some of the interesting "high points" of the paper at a later date, but we would suggest that you write old Jack Stricklin to send you a copy.—Tahoka News.

TERRY COUNTY HERALD PUBLISHES GIANT HISTORICAL-PROSPERITY EDITION

BROWNFIELD, Dec. 20.—Largest newspaper ever to be published in Terry county and probably the largest of any weekly on the South Plains, the historical-prosperity edition of the Terry County Herald of December 17 has 52 pages.

The 52 pages are replete with illustrations of modern buildings and of scenes of 20 and 30 years ago and more. Also many of the old time residents have written, or told to others, their recollections of the early days in Terry county.

Nearly every business concern in town carried an advertisement in the special issue. A large number of extra copies were mailed out to former residents.—Lubbock Avalanche.

WEST TEXAS NEWSPAPERS PUBLISH SPECIAL EDITIONS

Miss Eliza and Haynie Gilliland published a forty page paper of the 50th Birthday of the Bair Star last week and Jack Stricklin at Brownfield blossomed forth with a fifty-two page Historical and Prosperity edition of the Terry County Herald. Both were mighty fine editions and editors and printers deserve much praise for Still got some pen and pencil sets for this week, folks. Come and get 'em.

Mrs. T. L. Treadaway Sr., who has been quite ill at the Treadaway-Daniel Hospital was able to be moved home and is doing nicely.

These big undertakings so well performed.

Our only complaint is, they dug up so much interesting reading matter right when we were trying to do our Christmas shopping we had to merely sketch through the papers at this time, but mean to read them more leisurely after the holidays.—Big Spring News.

Last week the Terry County Herald came out with another special edition containing 52 pages of Brownfield history. To the best of their knowledge, it is the largest weekly ever published on the South Plains. As far as the Beacon is concerned, the Herald can have the torch to carry on until some other weekly shoots past the record. In comparison to the work and study necessary to put out such an edition, it seems such a little to say merely, CONGRATULATIONS! The Herald staff has done a swell job and should be listed among the spear heads of the newspaper fraternity.—Lockney Beacon.

SOME SPECIAL

The Brownfield Herald, Jack Stricklin at the helm, put out one of the largest and best, if not the largest and best, special editions that has been issued in this part of the state by a weekly paper last week. There were 52 pages of news, historical data, stories of success, articles of optimism and pictures that made it a fine issue, and the liberal advertising indicated that Brownfield merchants are live wires and are really building a town.

Brownfield is a good town and the Herald is a good newspaper, infact you cannot have one without the other.—Rotan Advance.

We are in receipt of a large 52 page Historical-Prosperity edition of the Terry County Herald, which is edited and published by that plain old West Texan, A. J. Stricklin. The 52 pages are replete with information told by eyewitnesses, about Terry county, its schools, institutions, and early settlers. Having sojourned in old Terry several years, we got an extra thrill from this splendid historical production. The people of Terry county should extend substantial support to such an institution. We are filing our copy away for future reference. Congratulate, Jack.—Anton News.

Political Calendar For 1938 Prepared By Demo Official

AUSTIN, Dec. 22.—The political-minded Texan might clip and paste at some handy spot this 1938 calendar compiled today by Vann M. Kennedy, secretary of the state democratic executive committee:

January 31—Last day for paying poll tax.

June 6—Last day for filing of democratic party candidates for state and district offices.

June 13—State executive committee meets to make up ballot for first primary and choose site for state democratic convention in September.

June 18—Last day for filing of candidates for county and precinct offices.

June 20—County executive committee meets to determine by lot the order of names listed on the ballot, to estimate expenses of the primary and assess costs against candidates.

July 23—Democratic primary election also precinct conventions meet and elect delegates to county conventions.

July 30—Democratic county executive committees meet to canvass results of first primary; county conventions meet to select delegates to district and state conventions.

Aug. 6—State executive committee meets at Austin to canvass results of first primary in all state and district races, list names to go on run-off ballot, and certify candidates nominated in first primary.

August 27—Democratic run-off election.

September 12—State executive committee convenes in city selected for state convention, canvasses returns of run-off, prescribes order of business for convention and prepares list of convention delegates.

September 6 or 13—State democratic convention for adoption of platform, declaration of nominations for state officers election of state party chairman and new state executive committee of 31 men and 31 women.

November 8—General election.

A conflict in election laws makes it uncertain whether the state convention will be on September 6 or 13. If on the earlier date, it will be before the state executive committee can officially certify the victors in the run-off primary.

Most of Cotton Out In Four Counties

The writer and wife made a trip down in Howard county Sunday, returning Monday, and found the cotton patches in the four counties of Terry, Lynn, Dawson and Howard all getting black, but there is considerable scattering cotton yet. In a few instances we saw where some were breaking out land, getting ready for another crop.

We talked with several people while away, and while most of them thought the country would come out of cheap prices ok, some were a bit pessimistic about the matter, and thought perhaps the people, especially the renter class would have a hard time coming out without some aid.

Others pointed to the fact that most people had plenty feed a few cows, hogs and a lot of chickens, and they could see no reason why, with a little economy, they could not come out very well, considering everything.

The folks down around Coahoma, were well, or getting well. One of the nephews has been in bed nine months with a broken limb he received in an oil field accident. But they think his limb is now knitting together.

Tankersley Takes Over Venetian Auditorium

The lease of Mon Telford expires on the Venetian Auditorium the 31st of this month, and the owner, who has been running his gin near Rule during the season, takes charge again January 1, and puts on his first dance New Year's night.

Mr. Tankersley states that he will soon have some good fight cards lined up that the community will appreciate. Watch for his announcements in these columns.

Bank Deposit Insurance Close 4th Year

Completing its fourth year of insuring bank deposits, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has announced its fourth annual report to Congress would emphasize the need for minimum standard operating requirements for all insured banks.

Minimum standard requirements contemplated by the Corporation would be intended as a bulwark for state banking systems rather than as an instrument for control of state banks by a government institution, Chairman Leo T. Crowley declared.

Since January 1, 1934, when the Corporation began functioning, 166 insolvent insured banks have been placed in receivership or merged with the aid of loans by the Corporation, Chairman Crowley pointed out. The 259,000 depositors in these banks whose deposits totaled $68,012,000 were protected to the extent of $64,467,000 or more than 90 per cent of their claims, by insurance, offset, pledges of security, preference, or through loans and purchases of assets by the Corporation. All but 595 or less than one-half of one per cent of the depositors were fully protected against loss, the chairman said.

Minimum standard requirements for all insured banks would give depositors greater protection, Chairman Crowley stated.

He said: "No one can challenge the statement that Federal deposit insurance has saved many depositors from ruin. Our record is such that today 13,876 banks out of 15,454 are insured."

"Nor can anyone properly question the assertion that since the inception of deposit insurance communities have recovered more promptly from the shock caused by a bank's closing than they did in the years before it was known."

He recalled that 16,800 banks closed between 1921 and 1933, their collapse wiping out $3,000,000 in deposits which were never recovered.

Ready to Announce The Candidates

For about the 34th time in its history, the Herald will be ready next week to announce all those who are aspiring for political office, and this will include county and precinct candidates as well as candidates for the city offices.

The fees will be as usual; County $10.00; Precinct $5.00, and City $5.00. Remember he that steps out early and gets his name before the public has the better chance in the long run.

We realize there are three papers to announce in this year instead of one as heretofore, but the number of voting places have been cut down which we believe will really more than equal the difference.

Brownfield Cash Gro. Improving Building

The Brownfield Cash Grocery is making a radical change in their front entrance this week, removing the door from the center of the building to the extreme east side of the front. This improvement will have been completed before the rush of the week end.

This will not only be more convenient for the store as well as the public, but will give them much more uninterrupted display space in their show windows, and apparently will give more light.

This store is constantly improving their stock as well as enlarging it and are to be congratulated by the public.

Mrs. John Randal spent Christmas in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Dube Pyeatt were Sweetwater visitors Saturday and Sunday, the guests of Mrs. Pyeatt's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. B. Lewis.

Prizes Awarded In Christmas Decorations

Christmas Decorations in the residence portion of the city were judged on Tuesday night of this week, by a special committee and the following were announced as winners.

In District two, Frank Ballard was awarded First prize and Ernie Greenfield, Second. In District Three, Twilla Graham was awarded First and Mrs. Lois Wingerd, Second.

There was not any award made in District One, as the only entry in it, decided not to await the visit of the committee. A few others in district One and Two had removed their decorations. We are very sorry that this was done and do not know whether it would have changed the results or not, as did not see any of the decorations.

The writer desires to thank all citizens who contributed in any way to the Santa Claus Celebration and to the decoration of homes and business houses during the period and to say to the committees who were appointed out of the different service clubs and the chamber of commerce, that you did a grand job and your work is greatly appreciated.

In speaking of the Santa Claus celebration, the Herald article of last week stated that 4,000 boxes of candy were distributed. This is in error as there was nearly 5,000 placed in the hands of the children and nearly as many were admitted to the Rialto Theatre free of charge, thru the courtesy of Earl E. ones, who made no charge for the pictures—and I am told that it was just the kind that the kids like most. You can always depend upon Earl to do his part in any affair that is calculated to be of public benefit.

The writer, accompanied by Tom May, paid a visit to the Commissioners Court at Plains on the 10th inst. for the purpose of asking for permission to join them in requesting the Highway Commission to arrange for immediate construction of Highway 84 from Plains to the Terry County line and on the following Sunday a delegation composed of P. G. Stanford, R. A. Simms, B. G. Hackney and the writer departed for Austin for the purpose of presenting our case. We believe that as a result of this trip that work will be commenced on this section of the highway at no distant date as the commission appeared to agree with us that as about $40,000 had been expended in 1935 for grading and drainage, that it would be to the advantage of all concerned if it could be completed at an early date.

This office is swamped with calls for residences and apartments, coming in most instances, from oil companies or geophysical service companies who desire to have their headquarters in Brownfield, but at this time we do not have a single residence or apartment to offer them and as a consequence, they are having to go to other towns and we are losing their business. Property owners are requested to list their residences and apartments with us. This is a free service that is offered by the chamber of commerce.

Christian Meeting To Start Next Sunday

Rev. David Beebe, located minister for the Christian church was in Wednesday and informed us that he spent the holiday very pleasantly in Littlefield, but that he was now a full fledged citizen of Brownfield, the local congregation taking care of his abode very nicely.

He informed us that their meeting starts off Sunday with Rev. A. L. Hsley, well known evangelist and singer of Colorado, Texas, doing the preaching and singing. The services for Sunday are announced for 11 A. M., and 7:30 P. M. At that time it will be announced whether there will be night services during the week days.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend each service.

Mesdames Arthur Sawyer, E. A. Graham and Joe J. McGowan were hostesses Wednesday night to the College students who are home for the holidays, with a dance at the Venetian Auditorium.

Mrs. Martha Stephens and daughter Miss Lucy of Plainview are guests in the Stricklin home.

SING SONG TO BE HELD AT GOMEZ

The Terry County Sing Song meets at Gomez January 2, 1938 at 2 p. m. Purpose of this afternoon singing is to revive the singing interest of this county. Everyone is cordially invited, whether you sing or not.

Money Price left Wednesday for Brownwood and other points in Brown county to try to find a market for some horses and mares he has.

A light rain fell here Monday night. Perhaps a quarter inch.

A Whaling Big Family Christmas Tree

We have attended many community and church Christmas trees; we have seen any number of family trees, and for the later kind, the one put on by the Sawyer family out at the Venetian Auditorium last Thursday night took the cake in size and beauty. There were more presents under that tree, and perhaps cost more money than we have seen on a lot of community trees, or even church trees.

We have no idea what the cost of the presents amounted to. We did not ask anyone, and perhaps no one made an estimate, as all the presents were wrapped, but just offhand, we would say that their value would run from $1,000 to $2,000. But the Sawyer families are large and they are all pretty well fitted up in the world's goods if you don't already know it. After an all fresco luncheon, there was a general good time for awhile, and then came a program and the presents were handed out. The writer and family did not want to intrude too much on a family affair, and left before the program.

Those present were: Grandpa and Grandma M. E. Sawyer (excuse us Monroe) Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Graham and family; Arthur Sawyer and family; Oscar Sawyer and family; Clyde Lewis and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lewis; Cye Tankersley and family; Jot Akers and family, and Uyles Sawyer and family of Cross Roads, N. M.; Mrs. Will Cotten and family, Segraves; Mrs. Raymond Parrier and family of San Antonio, and Mrs. W. T. Stitt of Brownsville, were unable to attend.

Other relatives in attendance were Jake and Sam Skeen of Lamesa, brothers of Mrs. Sawyer. Sixty-five were present, which included 73 grandchildren, and 6 great-grandchildren.

Judge Reed Gets Off A Good One

One of the most laughable true stories that we have heard recently was related by District Judge Louis B. Reed Tuesday afternoon, when he paid a short call at the Herald office. He related that he asked Sheriff Ellison of Plains, Monday, if there was much crime in the county. No, said the sheriff, one fellow reported a hog had disappeared.

The grand jury was duly empaneled, and after a short deliberation they decided that there were no criminal cases in Yoakum county and adjourned. The sheriff then came to the Judge and said: "Say, one of the grandjurymen had put that hog up for it's owner."

However, the Judge stated there were considerable civil cases over land, people clearing up titles to lease to oil companies, and one thing and another.

BAND MOTHERS THANK BUSINESS MEN

Again it gives us great pleasure to thank the business and professional men of Brownfield for the nice way they responded to the page ad this week in the Herald in order to help us. You'll note that there is a lot of mighty fine advice to Brownfield as citizens and as a community written into this ad. Let's all heed this advice, and let's try to have a real uniformed high school band before long. Again we thank you!

Faithfully,
The Band Mothers

The Official Paper of Terry County and the City of Brownfield.

Our fine lot of exchanges came to us last week all dressed out in a fine new Christmas garb. And inside them for the past few weeks was plenty nice advertising from their merchants. Yes, business has been good this fall with the newspaper fraternity, and they should be able to pay their Christmas bills January 1, without too much ado.

Others who have written in to compliment the Herald for the historical edition, were, Carpenter Paper Co., by their president, and W. H. Graham, editor and publisher of the State Line Tribune, Farwell. Graham says a fellow would have to have a lot of nerve to tackle any kind of an edition during the holidays, and to take on one like the Herald almost took his breath.

Hon. Newton D. Baker of Cleveland passed Christmas day. Mr. Baker was most noted as Secretary of War under Woodrow Wilson's administration, and put the largest army in the field ever raised in America. Of late he has been most noted as lawyer for a group of utility companies, and of course a critic of the new deal. Yet, Newton D. Baker will go down in history as a great and free thinking American.

We don't know when we ever said or even intimated that the soil adjoining Terry county in Yoakum, Gaines, Dawson, Lynn, Hockley and Cochran was not just as good and fertile as in Terry. What we did say was that they, with the exception of Yoakum, were getting a lot of Terry county cotton, and we still stay with what we said. But Bro. Hale was over recently talking about printing candidate cards, and got this section all mixed up with Oklahoma. So we don't take any exceptions to what an absentminded man might get off. Rave on Brother, rave on.

While we have never been a "peace at any price" man, we don't think we have sufficient provocation in the orient as yet to entertain the thoughts of a war. And we heartily endorse the many editorials being written on the subject by our fellow editors, especially one in last week's Clarendon News. So far as we are concerned we've lost nothing in either Japan or China, and we think our Secretary of State, Hon. Cordell Hull has done a mighty good job taking care of our interests, and has a satisfactory statement and apology from Japan about the Panay incident. A jingo press could easily start something in America that would cost thousands of lives and billions of dollars. So, let's take what the generals and admirals say with a grain of salt, and keep cool.

The Rest of The Record

James V. Allred, Governor of Texas

AUSTIN.—It should be good news to Tom, Dick and Harry that unemployment insurance starts in Texas next Saturday, January 1st. It means to these workers that in the event they lose their jobs in 1938, they will have a windfall to help out until they can secure employment.

Who doesn't remember those men walking the streets searching for employment, knowing that their cash reserve, if any, was rapidly dwindling? These men had no hope of help then from the government, only a blind faith that somehow we would "muddle through." To prevent the recurrence of those cruel days, something has been done about it!

1938 marks a new era as the state and federal government jointly enter upon the humanitarian program of the president by assisting out-of-work employees in finding new employment and in providing him with funds during unemployment. Already in the field are sixty employees of the Texas Unemployment Commission stationed at twelve district offices and to serve the 12,600 employees and 875,000 employees who are enrolled under the Texas Unemployment Compensation act.

In almost every town in Texas, the Texas State Employment Service has an office where the unemployed may register for work. Every effort will be made by the service office to place the applicants. During the past few months scores of thousands have secured jobs in private employment arranged through the Employment Service.

Under the Compensation Act, if Tom, Dick and Harry lose their jobs, these men must go to the Employment service office in their town and register for work. During a two weeks period in which time the applicants must report once a week to the office, every effort will be made to find them jobs. If the search is fruitless, these men will be entitled to receive cash benefits payable weekly. The maximum payment is $15 per week, and the minimum $2, but they will be eligible for benefit payments not more than sixteen weeks in one year, provided that their earnings have been sufficient to allow it.

If the applicants are receiving Workmen's Compensation or Old Age Assistance, unless the assistance is a less amount than the individual would be entitled to under the law, they will not be eligible for benefits.

An employee to be eligible under the law must have been employed by an employer of 8 or more persons and his wages must have been reported to the Unemployment Compensation Commission by that employer under the employee's name and social security account number. Every employer is being furnished with detailed instructions concerning the proper form of reports and the method for filing of claims for benefits. Employees should acquaint themselves with this information either through their employer or by writing directly to the Unemployment Compensation Commission at Austin.

Shortly after the enactment of the Federal Social Security Act, I commissioned two attorneys to study unemployment systems in other states and countries in order to determine the system most suitable to Texas. Such a system has been worked out with proper regard for two important features: first, that the system would not cause a tendency to lower wages; secondly, that no great hardship would be created for business and industrial employers.

Already a reserve fund amounting to approximately eighteen million dollars has been built up resulting from taxes collected during 1937. Such taxes were levied by the Federal government and would have been collected whether the state joined in the program or not. In submitting the subject at the called session in September, 1936, where it was passed and signed by me, Texas was insured of participating in this humanitarian program.

Thus, Texas hands a new era where a helping hand is being extended by the state to the unemployed. The New Year should bring a feeling of security to Tom, Dick, and Harry!

TAKING INVENTORY OF YOURSELF

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 28.—Stock taking or inventory time will be here in just a few days and Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, urges everyone to visit their family physician and have a thorough physical examination.

Each year merchants take an inventory of their assets to determine the condition of their business. Personal health is a big business for everybody, and they should take stock of their physical condition at least once a year.

Perhaps it is lack of persistent warning, but it seems to be downright carelessness that permits one of the greatest lifesavers yet developed by science to be scorned by the majority. For, in spite of repeated statements concerning the advantages of early discovery and treatment of conditions which are only possible by way of a physical examination at a time when one feels and looks well, the antiquated idea of illness overtakes one still rulus.

Cancer, tuberculosis, nephritis, diabetes and heart ailment are below the belt hitters. Being master criminals they attack silently, and frequently have their victims in their power before they are aware of their presence.

It is urgently recommended that those who wish to live throughout the year and other years to come, as healthily and happily as possible, should have a complete physical examination. The correction of any defects in their stages will save much time, suffering and money.

Gomez Voice, Jan. 1, '04

On last Friday morning the young people of this and adjoining counties gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks, three miles south of town to enjoy an all day and all night Christmas dance. They began dancing in the morning and continued the sport until it was announced that supper was ready to be served, after which they retired to the dancing room and danced until 11 o'clock next day.

The dance passed off nicely, and everybody seemed to have had a good time.

Lee Tow, son of the Gomez hotel man, wheeled into town last week on his bicycle, having come from Oklahoma like a bird flying. He has spent the fall picking cotton in Greer county. Terry county will give him employment next fall, for she will have the fleecy staple smiling on every old patch.

Lubbock has called a cotton convention for Jan. 23rd. They want to secure a gin and make arrangements for good seed.

We learn that two of our enterprising ladies, Mrs. Gainer and Mrs. Ambler, will soon serve the public in the capacity of millinery and dress-making. You may look for their ad soon.

EYES EXAMINED GLASSES FITTED E. C. DAVIS, M. D. Physician and Surgeon BROWNFIELD, TEXAS

Dear Folks:
Well, Christmas has got round again and I guess you'd like to hear what it's like in Hollywood. First place they mostly call it "the holidays" as everybody kind of takes it easy until after New Years. That is it's the holidays for everybody except the hired help, just like back in Goshen. Instead of packing off to visit their folks the cooks and maids just work harder than ever fixing things up for the actors and all their parties.

It's been kind of warm for this time of year and there's no snow even on the mountains. Why even the sycamores and walnuts haven't dropped all their leaves yet. They just turned yellow and hang on. Makes me kind of hanker to be back home for Christmas. It's about the one time of year I get kind of homesick out here. Doesn't seem like Christmas without a foot of snow on the ground and some sharp moonlight night for bobsledding. That's one thing they can't do much of here. Even when there's snow in the mountains the sun's likely to be shining bright and warm so there's no zip to make your ears tingle.

Well all week now Hollywood Boulevard has been swarming with shoppers thick as cows crowding through the lane. Greta Meyer, that stout Swede who just about fills a door, near knocked me over when we met around a corner. Trouble was she was piled up to her second chin with packages and could hardly see round them.

Then cowboy Bill Boyd and his actress wife Grace Bradley came out of Marsh's department store and Bill's arms were all piled up with packages. Maybe by another Christmas he won't be carrying them. You know they only been married a few months, and the way actors swap partners you can't predict any of them to stay tied more than a year.

Yesterday morning I drove down Vine street and saw Adolph Menjou in his sporty red car with canvas top. He was poking along like he was looking for a parking place when I passed him. I put mine in a filling station to get it greased while I did a couple errands, and when I got back up the block here comes Menjou driving round the second time. I saw he looked kind of boiled because of all the traffic and crowds so I yelled: "Hi there, Menjou. Merry Christmas." And he waved and yelled "Merry Hell—I can't get within a mile of a store!"

So it seems like some of the big stars have just as much trouble as the rest of us. But not Carole Lombard. Saw her chauffeur drive her up to a fancy shop and she rushed in like she knew just what she wanted. So I went to see and sure enough she went to the hosiery counter, named her brand and after she's looked for the shades she wanted ordered ten dozen pairs for a lot of people, but I suspect a grand actress like her would be giving half a dozen pair to any one girl friend. Course she told the sales girl to send them out, and then she rushed past me to her car which was still waiting in the loading zone.

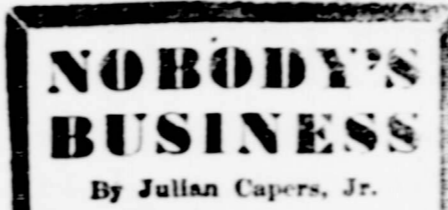

Another way some of the actors get around this Christmas job is to have a couple of studio secretaries go out with a list and pick out the things for them. Of course an actor wouldn't buy his family presents that way, but I met two girls with their arms full of things they had bought for James Cagney to give to directors, cameramen and other studio folks he wanted to remember.

On the way home I dropped into Gene Autry's office and found him sweating over a list of folks he just wanted to send cards. He had his secretary writing down names while he and his publicity man tried to think of them all. A lot of them were of movie columnists, magazine writers and picture previewers whom Gene thought he ought to remember. Before I left they had two columns of names written down and were still worrying about who they had left out.

Saturday I went out to Ray Corrigan's ranch to get some wood. You know he's that tall cowboy actor in the "Three Mesquites" pictures. Well I got up in the oak flats and went at a tree they had tipped out by the roots last summer. And you know it was so warm I had to pull off my shirt and undershirt too. Not much like Christmas vacation in Vermont, when we cut firewood with the wind whining through the bare old beech and maples and we kept moving to keep warm. Well I got home a trailer load all cut fireplace length with a one-man saw so now I have plenty of oak for over the holidays. Don't need much fire here days but a good big one crackling away in the evening is mighty cheering.

Well folks, Merry Christmas to you all once again and every year.

AUSTIN—Few Texans who have not seen the project with their own eyes have any conception of the possible social and economic consequence of a great piece of public work that is nearing completion in the heart of the State.

Reference is made to the extensive system of flood control and hydroelectric generation that is being developed along the Colorado River, near Austin. As a guest of the directors of the Colorado River Authority—the State agency which is directing the work that was financed through cooperation of the Federal Government—this writer, together with half a hundred other Texas newsmen, was recently privileged to inspect the project.

Four Units Involved

For many years, the Colorado River one of the most beautiful and attractive in Texas at low-water, and one of the widest and most destructive during flood times, has taken annual toll of the farm-lands and cities and towns lying in its basin. The average annual flood damage has been compiled at $4,000,000. To control this situation, the Colorado River Authority has planned a series of four dams—Buchanan, 45 miles above Austin, with a two-mile concrete dam, impounding a lake holding a million acre feet of water, and with a perimeter of 250 miles; Inks Dam, immediately below Buchanan dam, creating a lake about 20 miles around; Marshall Ford Dam, about 15 miles above Austin, impounding a lake 190 miles around; and Austin Dam, adjacent to the city, which was built many years ago, destroyed by flood, and is now to be rebuilt and operated under lease to the CRA, impounding a lake 100 miles around. Hydroelectric equipment will generate power at each of the four dams, and the project is so financed that the directors believe power can be furnished Texas consumers at rates approximately equal to those established by the TVA, in Southern states.

Two Dams Completed

The first two dams mentioned above have already been completed, and machinery for generating electricity is now being installed. The others will follow immediately. In addition to ending forever the flood menace on the Colorado, the turgid stream, brought under control, will furnish water to irrigate about 50,000 acres of rice fields in Colorado, Wharton and Matagorda. Normal flow of the stream is to be maintained at all times, and additional water required to irrigate the rice crops will be sold by the CRA at a low rate.

Financing involved a total of $25,000,000, of which $10,500,000 is a loan secured by bonds of the CRA to be repaid over a 30-year period from earnings of the project. The remainder was a grant from emergency relief funds. The authority directors have used no State funds, neither asked nor received any tax remission, have no power to tax, and may not mortgage or sell its properties.

Recreational Use

More than 65,000 persons have visited the project during the year of construction, and, located centrally as it is, the series of lakes will provide one of the finest recreational areas in the nation, for hunting, fishing, boating, camping and similar sports, on completion. Doubtless it will prove one of the finest and most popular recreational centers of the Southwest.

Power Sale

Plans for disposition of the power produced by the system are as yet incomplete, except for the fact that the City of Austin will take power for serving the capital city, now served by a municipally operated steam plant. Private power companies already have a rather extensive network of distribution lines accessible to the lake area, and they could easily be connected, if plans are perfected for selling the power at low rates in this manner. If a cooperative distribution plan with the private companies cannot be worked out, the Authority may establish its own distribution system to strategically located large centers of population within economical distributing distance, which is said to be a circle with a diameter of 600 miles from the generating plants. The Authority has been hampered somewhat by litigation, still pending, instituted by a group of private power producing and distributing concerns. The time and extent of the power benefits to Texans may hinge on the outcome of this litigation, or a compromise settlement of the case.

CRA Makes No Profit

The CRA is a state-chartered non-profit organization, created by Act of the Texas Legislature. Chairman of its board is Roy Fry and directors are Fritz Engelhard, vice chairman; A. J. Reinhard, C. R. Pennington, J. F. Hutchins, Carl White, T. H. Davis, W. B. Arnold and S. Raymond Brooks. Secretary. Brooks is an Austin newspaper reporter, widely popular and recognized as an authority on the reporting of State capital news throughout Texas. Officers of the authority are C. McDonough, general manager; A. J. Wirtz, former State Senator, general counsel; L. C. Clark, treasurer; and C. B. Sheffield, auditor.

OCCUPATIONS OF A LADY

Silk-making in West Texas may seem a bit queer, but according to a report on the early industries of the state, the cultivation of silk worms had a bright future. The description says that "The mulberry tree is of common growth and thrives vigorously in West Texas, the climate of which is well adapted to the rearing of silk worms." According to this writer one of the best aspects of the situation was that the silk industry "would afford an easy and advantageous occupation to females and children."

Freddie—I wasn't fightin' at all and nobody struck me. It was an accident.

Mother—An accident? Freddie—Yes, mam. I was sittin' on top of that new boy down the street and I forgot to hold his feet.

THE PUBLIC SPIRITED MERCHANTS WHOSE NAMES APPEAR AT THE SIDE OF THIS PAGE
URGE YOU TO READ THIS RESOLUTION—AND KEEP IT!

I, John Citizen, Resolve TO ALWAYS BE A CAREFUL DRIVER

... to help in the town-wide campaign for the reduction of fatal accidents in Brownfield and in Terry county ... to be especially careful when driving around or near a schoolhouse or bus ... to drive at a safe speed.

TO ALWAYS BE A CAREFUL PEDESTRIAN

... as my part in helping reduce the accident toll ... I resolve to refrain from jaywalking ... to remember that I can stop more easily and more quickly than a car ... to look both ways before crossing ... never to take chances.

TO TAKE INTEREST IN CIVIC AFFAIRS

... to follow closely the actions and doings of the town council ... to support civic institutions and activities ... to make myself heard on subjects of community importance ... to see that every town official performs his duty.

TO PATRONIZE BROWNFIELD STORES

... to support worthy local stores and institutions ... to keep Brownfield's purchasing power in Brownfield which benefits not only the merchants but everyone concerned ... Brownfield stores have quality merchandise.

TO BOOST BROWNFIELD TO MY FRIENDS

... in order to spread the fame of our beautiful town ... to bring additional business and prosperity to Brownfield ... to help make Brownfield known and respected over a wider area ... to spread its fame when out of town.

TO ALWAYS KEEP BROWNFIELD AHEAD

... to help make it a better place in which to live ... to help make it a model town, perfectly administered and governed ... to cooperate in civic enterprises that will bring fame, repute and fortune to everyone in the town

TO SUPPORT PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS

... in order that Brownfield may better function as an ideal model town ... to enable myself and other citizens in Brownfield to get the most out of our surroundings ... in order to make Brownfield better for children

THIS PAGE IS SPONSORED BY—

... The Band Mothers in the interest of buying suits for our Band Boys. Your cooperation is appreciated. Trade with the merchants whose names appear herewith. "Put the Brownfield Band on the Map!"

THE goal we have set is not difficult to reach. A more beautiful city ... a better environment for our children ... all of this can be easily attained. But only if you and every other Brownfield resident pull together! The feeling of accomplishment resulting is worth every bit of effort expended.

THE BUSINESS MEN who have made this page possible have taken the first step. They have formed a resolution that will be of the greatest benefit to Brownfield. The next step ... the most important one ... is up to you! Be guided by it; work in harmony with those whose interests are the same as yours. Take an active part in this 1938 resolution. IT CAN BE DONE!

World's Busiest Street?

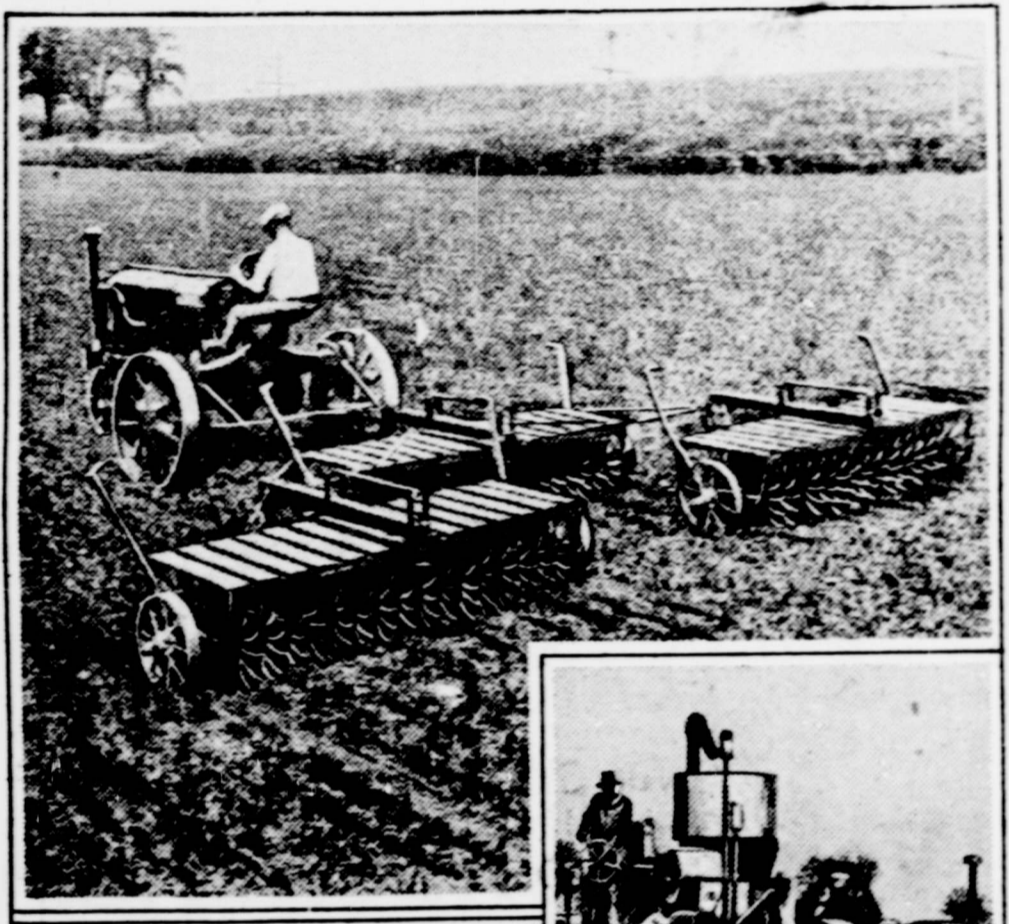

JUST LOOK at that traffic roaring by! Yes, sir, that's New York's famous Fifth Avenue, looking toward 42nd Street. And the lady in the stylish white shirtwaist and the snappy little straw skimmer had better be careful when she gets to the corner because you know how those horseless carriage drivers swing around the turns. With the national automobile show approaching, Consumers Information dug out this picture, taken in 1907, to show what a difference 30 years can make. The picture below shows Fifth Avenue as it is today. Advertising which created the demand, and research which perfected the product, are credited with changing the picture from that of 1907, when only a few thousand cars were on the country's roads, to that of today, with almost 30,000,000. The few small manufacturers of 30 years ago advertised to sell their primitive cars, which cost around $3,000 for a "medium-priced" model. They created a bigger demand than they could fill, and so bigger factories, increased employment, and constantly better automobiles resulted. And today we can buy an infinitely superior car for about one-fifth of the price, while half a million men are directly employed in the industry, compared to a few thousand at the time this picture was taken.

He's An Industrial Worker!

YOU would naturally think of the man operating the tractor as a farmer. And he is a farmer, but he's also an increasingly important figure in the industrial world, not only as a consumer but as a producer. He's engaged in hoeing up a field of soy beans which later, after passing through various factory processes, you'll be using in the form of paint and varnish, soap, linoleum and scores of other products. Consumers Information points out that 91 million pounds of soy bean oil, a comparatively new crop for American farmers, was produced in one recent year. Of this amount, 2 1/2 million pounds went into the soap kettles, 5 million into linoleum and 13 million into paint and varnish.

This brand new market for American farmers, who are now growing a large number of industrial as well as food products, has been developed, like many others, through the vast research programs undertaken by American industry, whose laboratories have added untold millions to the national wealth and also thousands of jobs for American workers.

World Speed Records Set By Jenkins on Salt Beds

BONNEVILLE SALT BEDS, Utah—Blazing over the white salt desert here in his mighty Morrison Meteor at an average speed of 157.27 miles per hour for 24 consecutive hours, Ab Jenkins, famous merchant of speed, established a total of eighty-seven International and American speed records.

The oval picture is a daylight view of the car on Bonneville Salt Beds. Jenkins is shown in the driver's seat at the upper right, and below is a night view of the car speeding over the measured course.

RAW VALUES

Production of raw materials per capita in Texas is more than 50 percent greater than in the United States as a whole. In dollars and cents the state produced $1,245,442,000 worth, which is about 300 percent more than at the beginning of the century. This amount is divided into $581,000,000 for minerals, $384,052,000 for crops, $235,390,000 for livestock products, $35,000,000 for forest products and $10,000,000 for miscellaneous.

Negro Education

Educational facilities for Texas negroes are improving rapidly, according to a bulletin recently issued by the State Department of Education. The bulletin shows a total of 244,180 negro students enrolled, an increase of 1,679 over the previous year. An addition of 56 principals brings the number to 290, while the classroom teachers increased by 79.

A vast "scintillating screen" of metal bangles will add a symphony of sound and shimmering light to the Golden Gate International Exposition in 1939.

ANGELIC TERRITORY

A romantic story is behind the well-known Texas name, "Angelina." When the Spanish missionaries first came into Texas and established missions, a young Indian girl was attracted to one of their settlements and begged to be taught their language and religion. She learned so quickly and had such a charming personality that she was called "Little Angel." Her native village became "Angelina's Village" and the river and territory were also named after her. This girl later played an exciting part in the history of the state, acting as mediator and interpreter on several occasions.

CONGRATULATIONS STRICKLIN

The Terry County Herald came out last week with 52 pages filled full of informational matter concerning this portion of the plains. The editor and his helpers did a huge job—one worthy of any shop. It is pleasing to note how the people responded to the requests both for historic matter and for advertising in the paper.

The Review will keep his copy as a reference library of this country. We congratulate Mr. Stricklin on his success with this mighty production. —Yoakum County Review.

Meeker—Your honor, she's been throwing things at me ever since we were married 20 years ago. Judge Sockman—Then why haven't you complained before? Meeker—This is the first time she's hit me, your honor.

Sally—When I marry I want a man who is game from head to foot. Pro Footballer—Well, give me a chance; I've got a game leg already.

MIGHTY GOOD CITIZEN GOES

The Herald was very sorry to learn upon return Monday from a short vacation that our good friend, Andrew Green had passed over the river and had been buried during our absence. Mr. Green had been afflicted for some time with asthma, and when pneumonia set up last week, the pain of trying to breathe was too much for even a strong man, and he passed away Christmas night at the local hospital.

Mr. Green was a mighty good man, had lots of friends, and made the county an A-1 citizen the 8 or 10 years he was a citizen. He served under Jess Smith as deputy sheriff, and made a good one. Besides his wife he leaves five children, one of which is married. Also three brothers, one, Arthur, lives here.

Following funeral services at the church of Christ, conducted by Elder J. H. Killion, the body was laid to rest in the Brownfield cemetery, the funeral being in charge of the Brownfield Funeral Home.

FIGHTING TUBERCULOSIS

Denton, Dec.—Doing its share to decrease the mortality rate of tuberculosis in the United States, Texas is operating State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, located 16 miles north of San Angelo in Tom Green County. Stationed in $2,000,000 state-owned campus, the sanatorium has 16 patients' dormitories with a capacity of 865 beds. There are two dozen or more maintenance and supply buildings.

TEXAS GOES GRECIAN

San Jacinto is such a familiar place name to most Texans that the origin is almost never considered. The Spanish word "Jacinto" is an Anglicized version is "Hyacinth", which dates back to the ancient Greek myth of Apollo and the youth who was turned into a flower by a stream. The flower-banked San Jacinto river probably reminded the early explorers of this fanciful story.

MUSHROOMS AND TOWNS

The booming growth of an oil town has become history several times in Texas during the various oil rushes, but the city of Seagraves furnishes a particularly good illustration of the phenomenon. In two months it has jumped from a village of 300 inhabitants to a population of more than 2,000. Over 145 carloads of lumber and building material were unloaded there last month.

STATE TRAFFIC TOLL FOR 1937 SET AT 2.050

AUSTIN, Dec. 27.—State safety officials today estimated the state's traffic toll for 1937 will reach 2,050 deaths. The estimate was based on November's increase of about 65 above the October death total and on December's unofficial records today.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McDermott, visited Mrs. McDermott's sister, Mrs. E. E. Brock, in Lubbock, Sunday.

Miss Ruby Nell Smith, home for the holidays, had her tonsils removed Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Holden of Lamesa, were guests in the Wayland Edwards home during Christmas. Mr. Holder is a brother of Mrs. Edwards, also a brother to D. R. Holder of the Sanitary barber shop.

Bill Edwards of the Brownfield Cash Grocery is ill of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Smith received word Friday that their son, Adolphus Smith, had just married and was leaving for a wedding trip down in Old Mexico. Adolphus was raised here, received his degree from the Texas Tech, and has many friends here who wish he and bride many years of happiness. They will reside in Glendale, Ariz., where he is employed by Anderson-Clayton Cotton Co.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Bingham and son, Tom, of Quemado, Texas, are up this week visiting their children and brothers and sisters, Messrs. and Mesdames Johnny, Rubin and LeRoy Bingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Oden Miller and families. Tom says the valley is about to settle down with families that are satisfied.

Mrs. J. B. Vinson, who is visiting her daughter in Dallas through the winter for her health, writes in that she gets mighty lonesome without this old sheet. Well, here she comes old neighbor on her weekly visits, and we hope you get a kick out of 'er even though you have rheumatism.

Wore Prince Alberts. In the "nifty nineties," most United States senators wore Prince Alberts. The frock coat was a symbol of statesmanship and a beard was the mark of a man of maturity and substance.

Bert French of Sunray, Texas, was down this week, but we just merely got a glance at him.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones spent Christmas in Rising Star, Texas, the guests of Paul's mother.

Careful estimates indicate that 4,600,000 tourists will come to California in 1939 for the Golden Gate International Exposition.

The Golden Gate International Exposition, now building for 1939, will use about 30,000,000 board feet of lumber.

Picture Parade

MEDICINE, like industry, has benefited by the advances of the machine age. Here the camera portrays a few of the ways machines aid in the battle for health.

Above: An electrocardiograph testing the current generated by a patient's heart, in Philadelphia. Results of the test are measured on the indicator shown.

Radium poisoning has been cured by the machine above, which also detects amount in body.

Such painful afflictions as arthritis and rheumatism are treated by the articulator, machine pictured here. Miss Virginia Jones of Philadelphia is receiving the benefit of ultra short waves and exercise.

The patient shown has some foreign object in her lung. In the hands of an expert surgeon, the bronchoscope, which contains electric light, probe and hook, will get it out.

While an "iron lung" or respirator make it possible for him to breathe, this New York paralysis victim is entertained by sympathetic musicians. The "iron lung" has saved scores of lives.

This ultra-violet lamp cleans up erysipelas in three or four days.

The college students all home for the holidays is like an oasis on the desert. Their bright smiles and words of cheer to the home people is always appreciated. And so far as we know, all were home except Ray Brownfield Jr., West Point, N. Y., and Miss Virginia May, who attends Southern Seminary, Beuna Vista, Va., and they are so far away from home they will not come until vacation.

Mr. Joe Noser, accompanied by Ralph Bynum and family, visited in south Texas during the holidays. Mr. Noser visited his parents at Edinburg, and the Bynums visited his brother, Virgil and family at Kerrville.

COTTON: FINAL REPORT

Until last week, the year 1926 stood on the records of the Department of Agriculture as the high mark of United States cotton production—17,978,000 bales. But last week the Crop Reporting Board transferred the honors to 1937. In its final forecast of the year, the Board announced that good November picking weather had resulted in a total production of 18,746,000 bales.

This figure was up a half-million bales over the November forecast and was 50 per cent better than the 1936 crop of 12,390,000 bales. More surprising than the size of the crop, which had been generally expected to reach record proportions, was the reaction of traders on the New York Cotton Exchange. Prices, instead of falling off, went up. The reason for obscure; cotton men were inclined to believe either that the record crop estimate had ceased to be a market factor or that the south, helped by the Federal government's cotton loan program, was withholding its produce.

Continuation of this situation—advancing exchange prices despite a crop far larger than would be consumed in the domestic and foreign market—was looked for by no one, Secretary Wallace, informed of the crop report, began figuring on a 9,000,000 bale carryover into the 1939 season, even with an average cut to 27,000,000 acres (this year's harvested acreage was almost 34,000,000 acres).

Illustrating the likelihood that America would find itself once again faced with King Cotton's recurrent paradox—poverty in the midst of plenty—was a suggestion offered to the Works Progress Administration by Senator Theodore G. Bilbo of Mississippi. His plan, a product of the school which advocates longer shirt tails and cotton hose for women, was to provide new mattresses for all poverty-stricken families. To spread employment and increase cotton consumption, Bilbo would have each mattress stuffed with 60 pounds of cotton and have each family turn over its old mattresses for destruction. The WPA had no comment.—Pathfinder.

State Highway Men To Get Compensation

AUSTIN, December 28.—Formal notice was given today by the State Highway Commission of Texas to the Industrial Accident Board that Workmen's Compensation Insurance, affecting approximately seven thousand five hundred (7,500) employees of the Highway Department, would be put into effect at 12:01 a. m., January 1, 1938.

According to Mr. E. M. Melcher, Director of the Insurance Department, the Highway Employees Compensation Act adopts the General Workmen's Compensation Laws of the state in so far as the amount of compensation and medical services is concerned. In selecting Mr. Melcher for the position, the Highway Commissioners named a man to head the department who had spent his entire career in the insurance business, and who has been specializing in workmen's compensation insurance since the original law was passed in 1913.

The meeting today was held in accordance with the statutes which require that formal notice of the effective date of the insurance be served on the Industrial Accident Board by the Highway Department. Mr. Melcher has been busily occupied since the early part of October in organizing the department and by strenuous effort has made it possible to place the insurance into effect January 1.

In commenting upon inaugurating workmen's compensation insurance for employees of the department, Chairman Robert Lee Bobbitt stated:

"Heretofore, no employees of the state have had any protection whatever, and interested citizens and members of the Highway Department for many years have been trying to get such a law passed. In years gone by, many faithful employees engaged in hazardous occupation received injuries, and in many instances loss of life, without any compensation whatsoever. The Department could not even provide medical assistance.

"It is not believed that anyone could advance a logical reason why employees of the state's largest department, particularly those engaged in hazardous occupations, should not be protected as are those in private industry."

This insurance was an enactment by the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, of the law known as House Bill No. 20 drawn by Representative Lon E. Alsop.

It was passed by no dissenting votes in the House and one dissenting vote in the Senate.

The law provides that the Highway Department shall be self-insuring, that is, the cost of the insurance shall be paid out of highway funds, and the Highway Department cannot buy insurance from an insurance company.

CATTLE AND HOG PRICES SEEN AS DECLINING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The Bureau of Agricultural Economics said Saturday prices of cattle and hogs were expected to decline below present levels during the first half of 1938.

Factors indicating lower prices were listed as a greater than average seasonal increase in hogs moving to market, an increasing weakness in consumer demand for meats and lard due to recent declines in industrial activity and employment, and expectations of larger livestock supplies next year.

acme of perfection in agricultural circles. Now, we read in the papers that West Texas farmers have paid off their federal loans best of all Texas borrowers this year, and the blackland farmers have been the poorest pay. Considering that East Texas cotton was mostly harvested when the price was around twelve cents, and West Texas cotton was harvested at a bare eight cent price, we may conclude that we have done better by ourselves and the government that helps us than other farmers in Texas who should have had better opportunities. It must be we have better farms out here or better farmers—or both.—Ralls Banner.

Liquors and Good Driving Don't Mix

DETROIT, Dec. 13.—Twelve husky Detroit truck drivers, the majority of them operators of General Motors Trucks, joined with scientists here recently to demonstrate that even the best of drivers can't properly judge traffic conditions when under the influence of alcohol.

The tests, made upon the American Automobile Association's equipment before and after the drivers had emptied a few cases of beer and enjoyed several rounds of highballs, satisfied scientists and local traffic that even the most experienced drivers suffer a loss in efficiency when under the influence.

Nine of the trained drivers, all chosen for outstanding safety records in the operations of commercial vehicles, drank freely throughout the progress of the tests. The other three, cold sober, were the only ones showing a satisfactory record at the conclusion of the experiment.

Under the direction of Prof. A. R. Lauer, of the Iowa State College psychology department, the GMC truck operators took their first tests at noon. A "drivometer" indicated the drivers' powers of observation and ability to manipulate. A second device tested the reaction time on brakes, accelerator and horn in answer to given stimuli. Other equipment tested muscular control and judgement of distance; a final test showed the amount of alcohol in the subject's system.

Following the first tests, the human "guinea pigs" were allowed to drink varying amounts of alcohol. Final experiments, to demonstrate loss of efficiency due to the drinking, were made early in the evening. The results were made public at a meeting of the Street and Highway Section of the Detroit Industrial Safety Council, sponsors of the tests.

HARMONY NEWS

(DELAYED)

We all enjoyed the historical issue of our paper which came out last week. It was so interesting, contrasting the progress of our county with that of early years. How we should appreciate those who in hardships and privations, paved the way for us, who now enjoy the conveniences of their labor.

Last Friday night the school faculty consisting of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wilhite, Miss McManis, entertained the trustees with the families, including Mr. and Mrs. John Garner, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Murry, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Sexton, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. Oden Miller, Mr. Walter Jones and family were not present. Then the bus driver, Mr. Harvey Davis and wife were present. Games were played, after which everyone present received a dainty box of handkerchiefs. Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cookies, hot coffee and chocolate was served. All reported a good time.

We were glad to see Mrs. A. W. Fore up and out at church. The attendance at Sunday School was fine, some were late, remember, we have Sunday School earlier when we have church services. Bro Ernest filled his regular appointment Sunday. Glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Woods and Miss White of Whiteface visit our services.

PONTIAC CHIEFS BATTLE CRY

Chief Pontiac has gone on the war-path again—after the scalps of careless drivers. He says if he doesn't get them the ambulance will.

The Chief's latest battlecry is: It's better to be careful than crippled.

Hands on the wheel and eyes on the road. Be careful now. Tomorrow may be too late.

Ask the driver in the hospital what he thinks of safety.

Don't get too close to the car ahead.

A truck has no trains of its own—use yours.

You're still known as a safe driver or you wouldn't be behind the wheel. Life is sweet, so why take chances?

A NEW MINISTER CALLED UPON THE HERALD

Rev. Jesse Young, supply man here for the Methodist church, was a pleasant caller at the Herald office last week for the first time. He stated that he had been so busy since his arrival here getting acquainted with his work and the people of those communities, that he just hadn't had time to call on the Herald.

Among his charges are Pool, Johnson, Tokio, Forrester and Petty over in Lynn county. So you can see he is going to be a very busy man but we are glad to welcome him to Brownfield and area.

A BELATED SANTA CLAUS LETTER

Monday of this week, a belated Santa Claus letter arrived from a little fellow at Lamesa, Texas, Weldon Bryant, who wanted a BB pump gun.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

PICTURES EVERYBODY LIKES

The amateur who took this picture gave thought to it. The boys are his sons, but the appeal of the picture is universal.

THE statisticians tell us that there are now millions and millions of camera owners—more than 16 millions in the United States alone—but how many of them take pictures that really qualify as pictures, such as might be chosen to adorn the walls of a home other than their own, is a question.

Some judges of amateur snapshot contests aver that scarcely one person in a couple of thousand submits pictures of genuine pictorial quality or having the saving appeal of storytelling human interest. Others say that often most of the pictures are so good in these respects that they have difficulty in making decisions.

Perhaps the verdict depends as much upon who the judges are as upon what the pictures are. All of them concede that from the standpoint of photographic quality—the average of amateur photographs is high. In that sense there is no doubt that thousands of amateurs take good pictures but with respect to evoking general appeal, it must be admitted that not all give evidence of attention to artistic composition, thought in the choice of subject, or care for the right moment to snap the shutter. The result is pictures that are commonplace in their appeal to others. Usually such pictures are personal to the picture taker, such as a close-up of a beloved infant with no qualities to distinguish it from snapshots of a thousand other babies.

To win snapshot prizes, camera users need to take pains to make their pictures or at least camera judgment in selecting a picture that will give the best composition. Haphazard shooting rarely brings really good pictures. Unless experience has proved it, amateur picture takers should not assume that they possess a natural picture sense. They would do well to study examples of artistic photographs constantly published in magazines, newspapers and books, go to photographic exhibits, and learn what it takes to make a good picture.

Can it be that the majority of amateur picture takers are quite content with their pictures considering the fun they get in taking them and their value as records of good times or likenesses of relatives and friends? Certainly many do get vast enjoyment in carrying their snapshots around with them in wallets and handbags and exhibiting them to those in the circle of their acquaintance. They think their pictures are pretty good, and, as personal pictures, they certainly are.

Whether or not a camera user is interested in snapshot contests, he can get all the pleasure the painter gets in his work to create pictures that will be admired by everybody if he will venture beyond the field of personal interest and try to make pictures of general appeal. This means planning, care and thought. It's the difference, for example, between a picture entitled, "My wife and Junior, aged four," with the subjects standing stiffly side by side and one of the same subjects entitled, "A boy's best friend is his mother," showing her, with the boy over her knee, giving him a spanking. That's the kind of picture everybody likes.

John van Guilder.

THE AIR BATTLESHIP

Heading the list of new units of the United States air force, cited by British authorities as the greatest in the world, is the new $1,000,000 "air battleship" auxiliary to the United States Navy—or, if the seers of swarms of enemy airplanes are correct—the surface ships will be the ground contacts for the flying department of national defense. In either event, the United States has produced a $1,000,000 airplane that has been given the initial test and has emerged with all credits.

It is twice the size of the present fighting plane. It can carry a huge cargo of bombs. It has weapons which make it possible to fight off attacking planes from all directions, simultaneously. It can carry a crew of 30 to 50 persons and it has a cruising range far in excess of the 3,000 miles enjoyed by the present type of patrol planes.

It is the first to be completed of a fleet of similarly sized and equipped "air dreadnaughts." With the early completion of the lengthy list of mechanical and weather tests, the units of the group will be turned into the Navy service. Each will produce a feeling of national relief. War without declaration loses some of its dread with knowledge of an air force capable of repelling all invaders. —Star-Telegram.

OLDSMOBILE HEATER MAKES CAR COMFORTABLE

Designed for use with Oldsmobile's new 1938 center-mounted heaters, a new dual safety defroster capable of delivering approximately 43 cubic feet of warm air per minute has been introduced by Oldsmobile as an aid to winter drivers.

Oldsmobile engineers assert that the new defroster is proving almost twice as efficient as the type previously employed. This is due, they say, to the greater volume of warm air provided for defrosting and the more even distribution of its flow across the windshield.

Controlled by a separate variable speed switch located in Oldsmobile's new Safety Instrument Unit, this defroster contains a 3 1/4-inch sirocco-type fan which forces the warm air currents to the windshield through two individually mounted, flexible tubes. These tubes extend from the car heater to a pair of extremely wide, built-in vent openings concealed in the top of the instrument panel.

The motor of the defroster is separate from that which operates the heater fan. And so efficient is the unit that engineering tests have revealed the combined consumption of current by the defroster and heater motors as less than that used by the heater motor alone in models of only two years ago.

Indicating the power of the new

Oldsmobile defroster is the fact that its twin currents of warm air not only keep the windshield panels clear of ice and frost, but carry around the walls of the car to clear the side windows as well.
