CANDIDATES BROADCAST

FOR COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

To the Voters of Terry County:

Will you kindly acknowledge my announcement as candidate for the office of County Superintendent of Schools of Terry County? To the "old timers" I should consider an introduction superfluous, but to those of you who have known me only a short time and to those who do not know me at all I would like to say that I have seen thirty-five years of Terry County life. Although I have been away for short periods of time, this has always been home to me. I have been interested in school work as is shown by my choice of a profession; therefore I am asking you to allow me to help in a bigger way with the schools of our county.

I have taught seventeen years, twelve of which have been in this county. I feel that I am in a position to know from first hand contact the needs and problems of our schools. My college work has been principally in the field of education, and some of my latest work has dealt with the modern trends in education. Before the time for this office to be established, I shall have a bachelor of science degree in education.

Each of you is asked to consider this as a sincere request that you give my candidacy honest consideration and your privileged investigation. After this, if you should desire me for this office, I faithfully promise the best service possible for me to give.

Very truly yours,
LEE FULTON

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

To the voters of Justice of the Peace, Precinct No. 1, I wish to announce as a candidate for that office. I will appreciate your vote and support.

ASKS FOR OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER

J. L. Porter being solicited by his friends and neighbors to make the race for County Commissioner, Precinct No. 2, he asks us to make the following statement for him: He has lived in this county and the precinct for 10 years, and has never asked for any office before. He believes that he understands the needs of the precinct and the county.

He stands for good schools and good roads as well as other pro-

BASKETBALL

Playing far below their usual form the local high school boys lost to Littlefield in a very unexciting game last Friday night to the score of 33 to 12. On the same night, following the boys game, the girls, totally out-classed in height and experience by their Littlefield opponents were overwhelmed and emerged from the game with the little end of a 56 to 15 score.

The boys showed marked improvement in winning a 34-26 game from Seagraves Monday night. The girls this time facing opposition of their own class, also fared better in and held the female aggregation of the Seagraves visitors to a 22-22 tie.

On Tuesday night of this week the girls won from Union 17-15 and the boys lost to Ralls 35-18.

Candidate May Enjoy Local Hatchery

One of our local officials, who is a candidate for re-election, and who always manages to see the ridiculous, the funny and sunny side of life pulled this one recently, which we are going to pass on to our readers.

During the first week of January, when candidates were popping up from behind mesquite bushes, ash hoppers, corn cribs and what have you, that official made this crack: "I'm going to enjoy John Chisholm from operating his hatchery as I believe he has quit hatching chickens and is now turning out candidates."

Mrs. Jewel Rentfro and son Dale spent the week end in the Lee Lyon home, in the Hunter community.

Mrs. M. V. Brownfield are entitled to a pass to the Increased Receipts at Local P. O. Last Year

Receipts for the calendar year ending December 31st, 1937 were the greatest in the history of the local office. They totaled $18,495.42. Receipts showing the increase over the corresponding quarters of 1937 were as follows:

March Quarter, 1937	$3,982.43
March Quarter, 1936	$3,910.71
Increase	$71.72
June Quarter, 1937	$4,028.67
June Quarter, 1936	$3,652.13
Increase	$376.54
September Quarter, 1937	$4,080.18
September Quarter, 1936	$3,325.37
Increase	$754.81
December Quarter, 1937	$6,404.14
December Quarter, 1936	$5,213.01
Increase	$1,191.13

This making a total gain over last year of $2,394.20 or an increase of 13.1 per cent. The December Quarter showed the largest gain in percentage being a gain of 26.7 per cent over the December Quarter of 1936. This again puts Brownfield right up at the top in postal receipts with many of our neighboring towns. With many of the nearby counties making two or three times more cotton than Terry it shows that Brownfield is one of the best if not the best business points for its size on the South Plains. Terry county will be top county in corn production and among the top in feed and grain production, thereby showing a diversified farm program which many of our neighbor counties cannot boast of. The many geophysical companies working out of here kept the receipts good during the spring and summer months. There are more geophysical companies and drilling crews operating out of here than anywhere would realize. They contribute so much to the good business in Brownfield and the Brownfield people appreciate it.

General delivery business has been almost more than could be taken care of. For the first time in the history of the office every available box was rented so people had to resort to general delivery for their mail. We are taking care of our general delivery customers the very best that we can. During all this fall rush and the Christmas rush we have been handicapped with the lack of enough help. We have made errors and many have had to wait for what was wanted. The Post Office is very grateful for all the kindness and patience shown us during this rush period. It is the desire of the Postmaster and the entire force to constantly give better service so that the postal service in Brownfield will be seconded to none anywhere.

—Jas. H. Dallas, P. M.

DANCING DRUMMER

Combining the whirlwind tapping of his feet with the expert manipulation of drum-sticks held in his hands, Fred Astaire achieves a brilliant dance routine in the sensational drum dance which marks the climax of "A Damsel in Distress," RKO Radio's romantic musical co-starring Astaire, George Burns and Gracie Allen. Gershwin composed the score and P. G. Wodehouse is the author.

We heard this week that the Gulf oil people had staked four new locations in Hockley and Yoakum counties, and are having the rigs erected to begin operations real soon and also they are planning on fourteen other locations.

Tom Ross Puts a Ranger to Flight

TERRY COUNTY VOICE—1904

Misses Sina Compton and Annie Hamilton were the guests of Mrs. J. R. Hill, Sunday evening.

Thursday night of last week the young people of Brownfield and surrounding country enjoyed a dance at the hotel.

Rev. J. N. Smith preached to the people of Needmore school house community last Sunday. Ethel Tow, Leila Blankenship and Maude Smith accompanied him to his appointment. Bro. Smith reports the time greatly enjoyed.

Rangers Fail to Get Tom Ross

June 17.—Last Saturday, five miles northwest of J-Cross ranch at Perrell Mill, Capt. Rogers, Texas ranger, and sheriff Tom of Martin county made an attempt to arrest Tom Ross, who was with the U herd. They told Ross to consider himself under arrest. Ross broke and ran off on a horseback, the officers shooting at him. After a race of a few hundred yards, Ross got away and went to the J-Cross ranch and armed himself, and on a hill he waited for the officers to return. When the officers got within about 50 yards of Ross he fired one shot. Capt. Rogers turned a hand-spring off of his horse backwards and stuck both hands and both feet up. Ross approached him in this position and disarmed him, also went through him and looked at his papers and kept the ones for his arrest. After getting through with the Captain, he proceeded to round up the sheriff who had dismounted at the first shot and took to the hills afoot, throwing his six-shooter away. Ross made him go back and bring it to him. Capt. Rogers asked him if he would give him his pistol back as it was a present to him, which Ross did and told Rogers he would lead it for him and stop off twenty feet and sell out with him to the highest bidder, which the Capt. declined to do.

After taking all the officers cart-ridges, Ross gave the officers their pistols and they all went to the wind-mill to get a drink. Ross told Rogers he would make a better "showman" than a Capt. of a Texas Ranger company, as any man that could turn a hand-spring off of a horse backwards would be a better showman than an officer. Someone remarked to Capt. Rogers that he was lucky in not getting killed, and he said yes, but it was so embarrassing.

Church of Christ Starts Building Fund

While the movement is being made in a rather quiet way, the local congregation of the Church of Christ is making a move perhaps more toward an enlarging, remodeling and stuccoing plan than a new building out and out. At least some funds are being collected for this business, which may take some time before any definite plans are made.

Some time ago, officials of the church put boxes on each side of the entrance door, so that those who wished to could put their coins in these boxes as they are leaving church. Those who worship at this place state that quite a bit of cash is found after each service.

With the rapid growth of the city and vicinity, an enlargement is seen to be an absolute necessity if the church is to seat people who wish to attend. Very often at regular services, extra chairs have to be brought into play to seat the audience.

WPA Workers Must Report by January 26

Our attention is called to the fact that a number of persons eligible to work on our road project now under way west from the city of Brownfield are not showing up on the job for work.

It is important that they report for work, if they are eligible for the same, if they expect to have a job on the WPA this year. Perhaps a number have work for the time being, which we are very glad but if you fail to show up this month on the WPA work, it will be almost impossible for you to ever be placed back for work, should you need to at a later date. So we are advising each one of you who are eligible for this work and see that you will need the work anytime this year to get started now on this project, so you will have a place later in the year if you should need it.

Local Banker Chairman Of Birthday Celebration

DALLAS, Jan. 19.—Jesse H. Jones Chairman for the President's Birthday Celebrations has appointed J. O. Gillham of Terry County as his local chairman.

All major Texas counties have now been organized for the purpose of raising funds for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis through entertainments to be given Saturday, January 29.

The money raised through benefit entertainments will be devoted to scientific fighting infantile paralysis and caring for sufferers and cripples left in the wake of this dread disease.

For the first time in history the entire nation, with every state, county, and city united, is making a concerted and uniform campaign against poliomyelitis.

Entertainments to be given in each Texas county and city Saturday, January 29 may be in the form of President's Birthday Balls, bridge parties, singings, theatrical benefits or other forms of amusement, but every penny received will go to aid some sufferings child and to safeguard healthy children from infantile paralysis.

George Waverly Briggs of Dallas, vice chairman of the state campaign, predicts that Texas as usual will do more than its allotted part to aid this humanitarian cause.

"The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, in addition to carrying on organized research for preventive methods, will function just like the Red Cross in aiding communities in Texas afflicted with infantile paralysis," Mr. Briggs says. "Ride and treatment will be given sufferers. By uniting our efforts we gain additional efficiency."

Local Man Buys Out Hardware at Levelland

Claude Hudgens, who has been in the hardware and furniture business here for the past several years, has announced the purchase of the Sherrod Brothers hardware store at Levelland, formerly known as the Rhea Hardware. It is said to be one of the largest hardware stores in that city, and in a splendid building, well located.

Mr. Hudgens stated to a representative of this paper that at the present time the store is exclusively hardware, but that he might add furniture later. Until recently Mr. Hudgens has been connected as partner with Bruce Knight in the Hudgens & Knight hardware and furniture store. He sold to Mr. Knight some three weeks ago.

The family will remain here until they are able to get a house in Levelland, which they stated might be a month or two. Mr. Hudgens has served on the board of trustees of the local schools for the past several years, the last two as president of the board.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hudgens have always taken a leading part in the civic and social, as well as the church life of the town. Brownfield's loss will be Levelland's gain.

Lamesa Girl Dies From Sunday Wreck

LAMESA, Jan. 17.—Miss Verna Mae Williams, cafe worker, was fatally injured Sunday morning when the automobile in which she was riding was overturned in passing another car parked three miles north of Lamesa on the Brownfield road.

Miss Williams died en route to a Lamesa hospital. Three other persons were injured but had been released from a Lamesa hospital Sunday afternoon.

Others in Machine
The light coupe in which she was riding assertedly was driven by Drub Kelly. Others in the machine were Odessa Hill, Wallace Griffin and Jack Crump, all of Welch.

The young persons were en route to their homes when the mishap resulted. The driver swerved to miss the parked car and struck loose sand. The car rolled over four or five times, said investigators and Miss Williams was thrown through the top, clear of the wreck.

Funeral services were read at 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Higginbotham Funeral home directing burial.

Henry Alexander, formerly of this place but now of Amarillo, was in town Tuesday shaking hands with old friends. He formerly owned the Ameron Tailor shop.

Throop Shows New Model Telephone

Mr. E. C. Throop, district manager of the Southwestern Associated Telephone Co., was a pleasant caller at the Herald office the past week end, and had with him one of the latest models combined receivers and transmitters (French Style) as well, as we suppose, you would call the box.

They were of a beautifully carved wood, could be hung or placed most anywhere about a desk in convenient reach, yet not in the way. The receiver transmitter was hung into a groove in the box and not on a metal hook. He has received 100 of these, all he can get at this time. These will not be installed until the new central battery system is put in.

Mr. Throop stated that they had considerable bother from people calling in when there was a fire. He kindly asks that you please do not interfere with the operators during a fire to ask about the fire, etc., as they have their hands full getting in touch with firemen who are perhaps out of hearing of the fire alarm.

This is a mighty good suggestion. They do not mean to be discourteous in the least, but it is very important that the telephone girls be left free as much as possible for minutes, even seconds count in case of fire.

C. Sears Victim of Serious Runaway

C. Sears, prominent farmer of this community, was in a serious runaway Monday, and while he escaped with several bruises and scratches, especially about the head, it could have been fatal to him. Mr. Sears drives a big grey team of horses that are always fat and hard to hold if frightened.

They became frightened at something up about the railroad crossing and broke heading down Main street. They finally hit a car, and he was plunged from the wagon but held the lines and was dragged some distance. Another car was hit and the team finally stopped on the north side of the square.

The wagon had been turned over, and was a complete wreck. Mr. Sears was taken to local physicians, who examined and dressed his wounds, and he was sent home.

Large Crowd Sees "Friendly Valley" Film

Quite a nice crowd was out last Friday at the Rialto to see the John Deere Day Program, put on at the Rialto Theatre, under auspices of the Chisholm Hardware. This film was not just a parade of plows and tractors, but "Friendly Valley" is really a play put on by a large cast of Hollywood actors.

As it turned out, the great majority of those in attendance were real dirt farmers, which was the desire of the sponsors, as farmers are the people who buy implements of any kind. However, the picture appealed to the business and professional man in that it taught cooperation and loyalty to the home town.

Of course the show was free to all farmers in this section, as tickets were freely given to all who wished them.

Study Latest School Methods at Austin

Judge R. A. Simms, Supt. M. L. H. Baze of the local schools, J. R. Davis, J. O. Wheatley and O. K. Tongate, county trustees were those from this county who attended the meeting held at Austin the first week of the new year to study educational needs, and new methods.

Judge Simms stated that visual education was being stressed more and more, and he believed would finally be adopted in all schools, and the larger ones soon. Brownfield has been making a start at visual education for the past three years. Speakers from Georgia, New York and Wisconsin, leaders in visual education, were heard.

Miss Bernice Weldon attended Chiropractic lectures in Amarillo last week and heard and saw all that is new in her line of work. Miss Weldon reports a very interesting meeting and a grand time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Arnett returned last week from a wedding trip to Corsicana and Kerens, where they visited relatives.

Scout Leaders Puts On Interesting Program

Aside from the purely social side of the program, at the Second Annual meeting of the Southwestern District, South Plains Council, Boy Scouts, at the Wines Hotel Monday night, a very interesting program was prepared for the evening. This district is composed of Terry, Gaines and Yoakum counties, and a small portion of Hockley county, centering around Hopesville.

After a hearty repast of a well prepared and served plate, the leaders of the scout movement here launched immediately into the program of the evening, with Burton G. Hackney as toastmaster, and Miss Althea Lundstrum pep song leader. If there is anyone in town who can get singing out of people from youth to greyheads, it is that young lady, Rev. Haley of Colorado, Texas, who is holding a meeting here for the Christian Church, did some real sleight of hand performances, and some are still wondering where a glass went as well as other things used.

Burle Williams, new band director, demonstrated what he can do with a trumpet, and that's plenty, either classic or swing. He was accompanied on the piano by Prof. Emmett Smith. Before the main address of the Evening, Scout Executive, Earl McClure of this area council gave a short account of the work done in this section, particularly the southwestern district. He paid high praise to his coworkers of this district.

Atty. Geo. W. Dupree, of Lubbock well known in this section for several years, delivered the main address of the evening. It was one of the best as well as the most fitting we have ever heard on an occasion of this kind. Mr. Dupree stressed the fact that we had better slow up some on "wishing" and "resolving" and put some action into our program of training the youth of the land. He says that we had better cease so much effort on "reformation" and lay the pattern of good citizenship for the youth to follow. The tree is hard to bend, but the twig is easy to shape.

Burton G. Hackney followed with a few remarks on his recent visit with Sheriff Gore to the Texas prison where they carried two men. Mr. Hackney remarked that most of those marched by to the mess hall were well under 30 years of age. A few grey heads, but mostly misguided youths. Then, said he, of the nine criminal indictments in Terry county, two are above 30 and under 35. The other seven are between 20 and 30.

Nomination for officers by the nominating committee was turned in and elections by raising the hand resulted without change. Local officials will therefore be the same as last year, being M. L. H. Baze, district commissioner; Clyde C. Coleman, district chairman; Camping, Herman Heath and Mr. Brownlee; Activity, Clyde Lewis and J. C. Powell; Promotion, Burton G. Hackney and Revs. Ike Breedlove and David Beebe; Health, Dr. John R. Turner; Court of Honor, R. A. Simms; Finance, Jas. H. Dallas, M. L. H. Baze and Clyde Coleman.

Judge Simms with a few chosen words presented a 100H Civic Service badge to Odell Spear, and a 50H badge to Earl Burnett. The Scout Tap Song was the closing number.

New Name Given Old Hardware Firm

The J. B. Knight Hardware is the name of the new firm, which is, as we understand it composed only of J. B. Knight, which takes the place of the old firm of Hudgens & Knight. Their stationery will have that title with a subtitle "hardware, furniture and undertaking."

Until recently this firm was known as Hudgens & Knight, when Mr. Knight purchased the interest of his partner, Claude Hudgens.

Hummel Band at Venetian Auditorium

We have been informed that the Ray Hommel band from the Pacific coast, will be at the Venetian Auditorium Saturday night. Dancers will find this to be one of the best bands to visit this section.

Hommel and his band are making a tour of this section, and were engaged for one night by the owner, Cye Tankersley.

While the Editors of Lubbock, Lynn and Dawson county scrap over their huge cotton production, and who's ahead, let's us Terry, Gaines and Yoakum editors declare a truce: remove the barriers and guards from the frontiers and resume trade relations.

Lubbock officials discover that there was less water used Christmas day than any other day during 1937, according to the Avalanche. Well, if they expect an experts opinion on that, we would suggest that even "dry" Lubbockites prefer their egg-nog straight. Then, they got their baths the night before.

The Napoleonic wars lasted 18 years and 10 months, and 684,270 were killed in battle. In only one year in the United States, 1,317,000 men, women and children lost their lives in highway accidents. We do not need to deplore the human sacrifice in war when we have such a bloody record to face each year.—McLean News.

One of the most interesting monthly magazines to reach or dest is "Parade" issued by Texas Good Roads Association, and which is also the official organ of the Texas Highway Department. Such publications are making Texans good road conscious. But this magazine does not stop with a thorough discussion of highways and bridges, but takes up our natural resources, state parks and hundreds of other informative subjects of interest to tourists, or those contemplating a trip. It is well illustrated, well edited and well printed.

A bulletin was received last week from the Federal Power Commission showing the rates paid for power and light throughout Texas. It is an interesting study, and showed that there was not a great deal of difference in rates in west Texas, whether served by a utility company or by home owned or municipal power plants. But there was a vast lot of different rates in central and east Texas, even in nearby towns ranging from as little as 80c minimum to more than $2.00. It appears to us that there ought to be a better adjustment of rates all over the state to make them more uniform. There ought not to be a great deal of difference in dispensing power to Possum Hollow or Coon Ridge by the same utility company, when the two communities are only a few miles apart.

Nothing annoys the average business or professional man more than being approached by someone soliciting ads for a church, school or lodge program. He knows to begin with that it isn't good advertising and he also knows that in 99 cases out of 100 it won't do him a penny's worth of good. But he also knows that back of the solicitation is a sort of threat that "if you don't come across our organization will forget you when it comes to buying what you have to sell." The merchant knows this type of publicity is not advertising, but a form of charity, and while there is no law or local ordinance to prevent such solicitation there should be for the protection of the business and professional men upon whom such expenditures prove a constant and a heavy drain. Simply because their hands are tied and they dare not say "No" is no reason why such a procedure should be tolerated, and the sooner the organization engaged in it realize that the better it will be for legitimate forms of advertising—and also for legitimate forms of charity.—Big Spring News.

SLAYER OF SHERIFF F. A. LOYD MUST DIE IN ELECTRIC CHAIR

The court of crimina appeals Wednesday affirmed the death penalty for Leroy Kelley, a negro, convicted for the murder of Sheriff F. A. Loyd of Lamb County.

The highest criminal tribunal said Kelley had a fair trial, and it has no alternative other than to follow the judgement of the trial court.—Littlefield Leader.

Chemical Plants Mean Much to This Section

The Tahoka News has the following to say of the Chemical plant being built on the Brownfield ranch southeast of this city:

"A glance at the big chemical plant that is being constructed six miles south of highway No. 84 just over the Terry county line west of Tahoka is sufficient to convince one that it is to be an enormous industry, as industries go for this part of the country.

Seven or eight buildings are under construction and many men are employed in the work. It is claimed that at least 100 men will be employed in operating the plant.

A similar plant is being constructed on the Charley Doak land eight miles west of O'Donnell."

The plant has been somewhat shrouded in mystery, and more so of late, since the entrance to their private road on highway 84 has greeted one with a sign that visitors are not expected or desired, which is quite alright, as they built the road, and have the land leased.

Workmen have also been instructed to work and not talk, another good policy, perhaps, as they are trying to get the plant in operation, we understand by March 1. But folks who have been there recently tell us that they have a huge smokestack 160 feet high, and it is taking on a factory appearance.

Perhaps when the plant is finished and in operation, the owners will be more willing to give the press some information.

Hudson Dealer Sees New Low Priced Car

Messrs. C. E. Ross, Terry Redford and C. A. Rogers have just returned here* from a meeting in Amarillo where the new Hudson 112 was unveiled for the first time in this vicinity. Mr. Geo. A. McManus, from the Hudson factory in Detroit was on hand for the ceremony and stated that the factory is already swinging into full production, and volume shipments of this new entry in the lowest price field are now being made.

The announcement of this new car along with the fact that Hudson is restoring jobs to 6,000 men and spending $11,000,000 for material, creating a nation-wide stir last week. Coming at a time when news of a lay-off and retrenchment had become common, the announcement was hailed as introducing a new optimistic note into the general business situation.

Mr. Ross who, with other dealers from this part of the country, had his first look at the new car, states that a public showing of the new Hudson 112 will be made here. He states that the car is particularly outstanding in the matter of size, roominess and advance mechanical and safety features heretofore confined to higher priced cars.

J. A. Jones and wife of Haskell are here the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Raymond Taylor and husband, proprietor of the Man's Store. Mr. Jones saw a copy of the Herald some time ago, where we mentioned that we were a member of the "Jones Generation" back in Tennessee, and he announced that he was also "one of the Jones boys." To prove it he gave us a picture copied from an old tintype of four men—real he-looking men—and two ladies, all his sons and uncles. Some of the men were as like Grandpa Calvin Jones as two peas, and to make likelihood of kinship more sure, most of these were settlers of Shelby Co. (Memphis) Tennessee, only one county removed from old Hardeman and these Joneses all came from North Carolina and all were Welchmen.

Friends of John Burnett will be glad to learn that he is improving, and his leg knitting nicely. Seems to be having a whale of a time resting in a good bed near a front window, where he can see the world go by.

Apparently the tax collection agencies of the county-state in this city is speeding up, and keeping Sam White and Miss Arnett quite busy these days.

We are glad to welcome Dr. H. A. Castleberry from Ben Wheeler, Texas, and P. W. Watts, of Abernathy, back to old Terry. They were long time citizens of Terry, and those who know them will be glad to welcome them back to Brownfield.

Broncho Corral MEADOW SCHOOL

The Benefit of the Study Hall
The study hall which was provided for pupils who failed the first of the school term has proved to be very successful. More pupils have a desire to get out of the study hall than to remain in it, therefore they have really worked hard, and are turning in some very good work now. We expect almost everyone of the pupils to pass the first semester. We hope we will not have to sponsor a study hall the next half of school for the failures.

Girls Win First Half of League
The Meadow girls finished the first half of the South Plains Basketball League with flying colors. The girls ousted Southland with a score of 29-30 Tuesday night, January 11. Southland and Meadow were the only two teams that had not been defeated. Friday night the girls played the last game of the League with Frenship. For the first time, they were defeated at a score of 32-38. This, they thought, meant another game with Southland, but luckily for Meadow, Southland tied with Shallowwater the same night at a score of 29-29. This made the Bronchettes the winners of the first half of the League.

The final record was as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Per.
Meadow	8	1	.888
Southland	7	1-2	1-2 .833
Ropesville	6	3	.667
Frenship	6	3	.667
Wilson	6	3	.667
Shallowwater	3	1-2	4-2 .438
Roosevelt	3	6	.333
Cooper	2	7	.222
New Deal	1	7	.125
New Home	1	8	.112

The next half of the League starts Friday night, January 21. The winner of that half will play Meadow to see who will be the all-round champions of the League.

The Bronchettes have been defeated only twice this year, but they have vowed not to lose again.

The schedule for the next half is as listed:

Friday, Jan. 21, Cooper at Meadow.
Tuesday, Jan. 25, Shallowwater at Meadow.
Friday, Jan. 28, Roosevelt at Meadow.
Tuesday, Feb. 1, New Home at Meadow.
Friday, Feb. 4, New Deal at Meadow.
Tuesday, Feb. 22, Meadow at Ropes.
Friday, Feb. 25, Wilson at Meadow.
Tuesday, March 1, Southland at Meadow.
Friday, March 4, Meadow at Frenship.

The Bronchettes defeated the Abernathy Antelopes Saturday night by 14 points, the score having been 20-34. The B team also won their game at a score of 9-11.

COME WATCH THE BRONCHETTES GO!

Boys Fourth In League
The Meadow Boys Basketball team came out fourth in the first half of the South Plains League with 444 per cent. New Home came out with 1900 per cent this first half, but we are going to do every thing in our power to beat them this next half.

We are looking forward for the boys to win every game this next half, but they can not do this without your support. So be sure and come out Friday night to see the game between Meadow and Cooper.

Also, before, after, and between games Cowboy Slim from Del Rio will be here in person to entertain. You have heard him over the radio. Same admission, so be there.

F. A. BOYS SPONSOR POULTRY SHOW
The first annual poultry show of Meadow was sponsored here January 15 by the Meadow F. A. Chapter. The birds that were shown were as good as the birds in the South Plains Fair exhibit last fall at Lubbock. Not only were the birds good, but the prizes awarded were as fine as the are at any show. The merchants sponsored the premiums and were very liberal after a good fall business. The people over the community were cooperative in showing their birds which, of course, helps to make a show go over in a big way. Mr. Davis, Voc. Ag. teacher at Ropes judged the show.

Poultry teams were here from Post, Ropes, Wilson, New Home, Anton and Meadow.

The first ten high men of the show were:

1. Cline Stephenson, Meadow, with a score of 358 out of a possible 400.
2. John Perry Deckard, Meadow, with a score of 338. 3. M. Mayes, Anton 330. 4. B. Shephard, Post 328. 5. E. Schaffner, Wilson 327. Wade Turnbough, Meadow 327. 6. C. Shambeck, Wilson 325. 7. F. Daniel, Meadow 323. 8. R. Hagan, Anton 321. 9. S. Copeland, Ropes 319. 10. J. L. Jennings, New Home 316.

The following is the standing of teams:

Team	Score out of possible 1200
Tied with Meadow "B" team is Wilson with	975
Meadow "A" team	974
Anton "A" team	961
Anton "B" team	938
Ropes	932
Post	931
New Home	928

Meadow decided to let Wilson have the loving cup since it will have to be won three years before they will have permanent ownership.

The F. A. wishes to thank the merchants, and everyone who helped make the show a success. We will be looking forward to another successful poultry show since this is going to be an annual affair from now on.

Junior Boys and Girls Athletics
Both the Ward School and the High School has been trying to get teams organized in both boys and girls division in basketball. The Ward school teams have played four games already. The boys won two and lost two. The Frenship junior high school boys defeated our Ward school boys twice and our Ward school boys defeated Union boys twice. Our Ward school girls have played only two games with Union. The last both of them.

Mr. Padgett is coaching the junior boys and Mrs. Bell the junior girls. The high school juniors have not played any games yet. The junior boys have been trying to pass their work this semester so they can be eligible next semester.

The high school and the ward school both plan on entering two teams in the Terry County Tournament which will be held in February.

actress when she sat down. Well of course the cow didn't have any such idea but the props had that all figured out before so he had a small box of apples all cut in pieces so the cow could smell them easy. So he held it up to the cow's nose and then moved it back by the actress and set it down and jumped out of the camera focus. And sure enough the cow turned round to see where those apples were at. So then the director yelled "action" and the camera was started taking the moving picture.

Well it looked to me like it was going to be all right until the cameraman yelled "cut" and stops his camera and looks over at the director. "Won't do," he says, "when she turns round like that it makes her look cross-eyed!"

Well the director fairly exploded. "Who ever heard of a cross-eyed cow? You ribbing me?" And the cameraman said he wasn't and to come take a look. And sure enough the director see that with the cow turning round that way it did make one eye kind of looked crossed over her muzzle.

"That's out," snaps the director. "Crazy idea anyway of that writer putting a soft-eyed cow gag in the script. Fine—I didn't want it anyway." And from what I can see and hear that's about the way writers and directors, and actors too, sometimes don't hitch up no more than a mule and a ox.

So after all the trouble they'd been to getting a "soft-eyed cow" they didn't use her anyway. But that's just like these movie people are a lot of the time. Awful funny ideas just like old Sam Rose said.

Then the directors yelled "action" again and the actress started to milking. At least she squeezed and squeezed and kind of pulled down on the teats and then began to look kind of worried cause they wasn't any milk coming. The director saw it too and yelled "cut" right away and then yelled for props and jawed him for bringing a cow that was dry! Well the props boy was pretty much up a tree cause the cow had been all right in the morning. He said she hadn't been milked since the day before. But it was pretty near noon now and what with that and all her nervousness the cow just wouldn't give down. I knew that all along but no one else could seem to see why.

So they had to hustle round while the director fumed and everyone else just waited and joked as though it didn't matter. So the props brought over a couple of rubber tubes that had air pressure in them from a tank just like the air hose for car tires. Well one of the prop boys stood behind the shed while the actress made the motions of milking and he let the air spurt out on a big piece of brown paper, first one hose then the other, and say you're surprised how much it sounded like milking into a bucket when it's all foamy. Well the director said that would do so that's how they made the movie of an actress milking a dry cow. Made me think of old Ira Simpson out in Cassville who invented so many dingfoogles he got tangled up in them and broke his leg, but I bet that milking sound with air hose has even got him beat.

Gosh folks they sure have a lot of troubles making movies, but they've got more people, I guess, figuring out ways to do it than there is in all Vermont trying to figure out how to make a living milking cows.

Well love to all the folks and say howdy to Margie.

—From Cy P. S. I'm sending Ma a couple of shirts in the parcel post to get some buttons on. Maybe Margie'd like to sew them on for me seeing they're going to be worn out in Hollywood.

The Rest of The Record
By James V. Allred

As this is written I have just returned from Bismarck, the capital of the State of North Dakota, where I spoke at the Jackson Day dinner. I found many enthusiastic Democrats there, and according to all reports the people are overwhelmingly behind President Roosevelt, just as they are in this State.

Incidentally, when I saw the President in Washington recently and he appeared to be in the best health and happiest spirits of any time I have ever seen him. He seemed to appreciate it when I told him that the people of this State were behind him almost 100 per cent.

"Pay your poll tax!" That should be the slogan of all good citizens from now until February first.

One of the most important offices filled by vote of the people is that of Lieutenant-Governor. Generally little attention is paid to it by the voters, but it is a powerful office.

The Lieutenant-Governor presides over the State Senate and appoints the various senate committees. This is especially important when a conference committee is appointed. The Lieutenant-Governor's rulings can generally determine whether a bill is to pass or not pass. For this reason you can see how important it is.

Several candidates are being discussed, though none have made a formal announcement. Among them are:

1. Senator Will D. Pace, of Tyle, who is chairman of the State Affairs committee, where all the tax bills died during the regular session of the legislature. At the beginning of the regular session Senator Pace voted against race track gambling, but later switched to the other side and voted with the gambling crowd all the way during the remainder of the regular session; and even in the special session when the race track gambling law was repealed.

2. Coke Stevenson, who was twice elected speaker of the House by the Ferguson forces; and whose ruling as speaker first made it possible to legalize race track gambling.

3. Senator Wilbourne Collie, who voted for repeal; and

4. Senator G. H. Nelson of Lubbock who introduced the bill to outlaw race track gambling and successfully pushed it through.

This is part of the records of those who have been discussed as candidates. If definite announcements are made I shall be glad to give you "the rest of the record" as to the records of these gentlemen from time to time.

Regardless of whom you expect to vote for, for Governor, for Lieutenant-Governor, or for any other office—"Pay Your Poll Tax!"

DEAR FOLKS!

Well it's taking most as long to tell about this movie cow star as it did them moviepeople to make their picture. Well after the cow stopped eating her alfalfa I saw her ears were twitching and every little while she'd toss her head round to see what was going to happen next and then the director thought everything was all ready so he had the leading lady say "So-o-o bossy" and move in with her stool and bucket. Well I'll say this for the actress at least she knew you had to hold the bucket tween your knees.

Well here was where they were going to get those "big soft eyes" in the movies. They figured to have the cow turn round and look at the

HOW TO ENHANCE AND PRESERVE YOUR CHARM

An effective and beautiful make-up can be attained only when the skin itself has been kept lithe and lovely. Needless and ugly little lines must not be permitted to remain. The surface of the skin, if it is to have the delicacy of texture, the subtle glow of youthful health, must be nourished and protected and safely—yet effectively—cleansed. Then it becomes possible for a skillful make-up to wonderfully reveal all your natural charm.

MARTHA TURNER'S NOMAL SKIN TREATMENT (Night)

- 1—Clean skin with Cleansing cream—remove.
- 2—Apply Nourishing Cream, patting in three to five minutes—allow to remain over night.

PEACE AT ANY REASONABLE PRICE

Despite all opposition thrown against it by Administration forces, the Ludlow resolution for war only by a vote of the American people showed remarkable strength in the House. The main objective of the bill was to prevent Congress and the President—any Congress and any President—from taking hasty action in precipitately dragging this country into a foreign war. 188 House members voted FOR, with 209 voting AGAINST it.

Let us examine the surprisingly heavy vote for this allegedly extreme measure in the light of the following historical facts. At no time in the life of our country has any president rushed the Nation into a foreign war, nor has Congress at any time voted a declaration of war until after the public demand for war had drowned out every opposing voice, and there remained no other way for appeasing the people; that President William McKinley and Woodrow Wilson, respectively, shunned war almost to the point of sacrificing personal prestige, and it was freely charged of both that they could not be "kicked into war;" that President Roosevelt and Secretary Hull have consistently and unmistakably indicated their determination for keeping the country at peace. It might be correctly stated, too, that no President and no Congress could drag us into a war against public sentiment—that simply cannot be done in this country. In the light of all this the near approach to a majority vote in Congress for the so-called radical Ludlow was referendum amendment is significant.

The result indicates a very healthy trend toward peace at any reasonable price. It further indicates that Congress it is no longer sufficient for one man—any man—to solemnly promise to keep us out of war. It is not enough, according to the 188 who voted for the bill, for Congress—any Congress—a mere handful of men, and being men vulnerable to human weaknesses, themselves be- yond fighting age, to be able at will to lead our sons into the trenches of blood and murder.

SOUTH'S CONGRESSMEN DANCING BIG APPLE

In Alabama's election of Rep. Lister Hill to the Senate some progress to see hot and troubled waters ahead for Southern Congressmen and Senators who opposed and who still oppose the late and, by them, unlamented wages and hours bill. Senator Hill made his campaign as a partisan champion of President Roosevelt's wage-hour bill. His opponent, the venerable Tom Heflin, bitterly opposed it, and went down to defeat. There are those who translate this into prophetic handwriting on Southern political walls, and as sounding forth the trumpet blasts of defeat for those in Congress who fought Mr. Roosevelt's pet labor control bill, or other pet measures. I am not too young, nor am I a Daniel, therefore I cannot get by with posing as a Young Daniel. But even mice may look at kings, so let's look into this and see what we can see. The wage and hour proposal could not have been such a burning issue in Alabama at the time, because it was assumed that Congress had already killed it, and even had it been alive the voters of Alabama do not so easily warm up to the melting point and come down with hydrophobia on mere issues, except vital issues. As a rule they vote for their man. In this case Lister Hill was considered the up-and-coming progressive, while the opposing Mr. Heflin, although loved and respected, was a figure from out of the past—with the stigmata of former defeat, advanced age and physical handicap mitigating against him.

Since the Alabama primaries some prospective Southern candidates for re-election are dancing the Big Apple, yet we are forced to offer this suggestion. Had the candidates been reversed on issues, with Mr. Heflin campaigning FOR the wage and hours bill and Rep. Hill AGAINST, instead of fighting as they did, the election result would not have been different. Lister Hill would have been sent to Senate—with a majority just as great approximately.

CIVIL WAR RESUMED

The vocal boys in Congress are making good in the Capital City—but only in the direction of economic destruction through political cussedness. This challenge includes members of both parties, but not all the Democrats nor all the Republicans fall into that category. We can still be thankful for those who are statesmen. Some members of the House and Senate have gone not only vocal, but sectional and infantile to the point of imbecility. If we paid much attention to some of their carryings on we could very well believe ourselves living in the 1860's. The late special session was wasted in making protracted political rumpus, and the same hoot-nanny technique now threatens to hamstring the 1938 session.

Elected as servants of the people, our national lawmakers are supposed to act like adults—but they do not, all—and not make of themselves Exhibits A in simian roles of political buffoonery and half-baked lunacy—but some do. With the country facing vital issues of men and destiny and food, with President Roosevelt urging Congressmen to do something and they do it not, the demagogic splutterings of the political simpleton falls nothing short of treason.

President Roosevelt should not presume to dictate to Congress its policy, but Congress can cooperate, and cooperation might lead the way out. Instead they persist in fighting the Civil War anew, while the guns of depression thunder louder in our souls than all the cannonade of Fort Sumter or Gettysburg. Right now some Members of Congress seem to be engaged in fighting the battle of Bull Run all over again—except omitted Run from the battle's title.

If they must re-enact the Civil War let them dig out the battered muskets and obsolete side arms of threescore and fifteen year ago, align their forces along opposite shores of the Potomac and fight it out—so the whole country may benefit in proportion to the number of direct hits scored by both sides.

OLD AGE ROLLS SHOW DECEMBER DECREASE

AUSTIN, Jan. 10.—A reduction of 1,313 in state old age pension rolls during the past month has been announced by acting Director W. A. Little.

The director said 113,563 checks, totaling approximately $1,555,881, would be mailed the needy aged between Jan. 10 and 15.

"We recently received a social security quarterly grant of about $2,000,000," Little said "and with state matching funds coming in regularly from liquor, beer, cigarette and other revenues, it seems there is no need for worry over money matters through the month of March."

January payments will increase the cost of pensions for 19 months to more than $21,000,000.

Texas Fire Loses In 1937 Were Low

AUSTIN, Jan. 17.—Texas experienced the second lowest fire loss year in its history during 1937, Marvin Hall, State fire insurance commissioner, announced today. An unofficial check of the Commission's record show that only the 1935 total of $6,008,363 was below the total during the past twelve months of approximately $6,400,000.

"When contrasted with the losses of former years," Commissioner Hall explained, "the 1937 losses are surprisingly small. The 1931 losses amounted to $17,565,457, the 1930 losses to $17,225,417, and the 1929 losses to $15,664,858. Such a large decrease in so few years definitely reflects great progress in fire prevention and control."

Since he took office on January 4, 1937, Hall has been a leader in prevention activities. His policies in this respect are largely responsible for the low loss record of the past year.

According to Hall, for the first six months of 1937 the losses dipped under any other six month period on record, but an increase in fires over the State generally from July to December pushed the year's total up to right above that of 1935.

"Such a low fire loss as that of the past twelve months means a direct saving to the people of this State of approximately $2,000,000 as the fire record of each city and town plays an important part in the determination of the cost of insurance," Hall said. "In addition to this fact, the low loss reflects a period of prosperity, not a business recession; the records of this Department show that high fire losses invariably go hand in hand with times of depression."

"The 1937 record is a compliment to the efficiency of Texas firemen, and proves what can be done when the people of this State cooperate in an effort to reduce wasteful loss of life and property through fires. The aim of the Fire Insurance Department is to help Texas citizens set an all-time record low in 1938."

WHAT STUDENTS EXPECT OF THEIR MATES

FORT WORTH, Jan. 18.—The boys and girls of today ask a lot—not the least of which are "brains" and "personality"—when they go hunting for their ideal in the opposite sex.

That, at least, seems a fair conclusion to The Skiff, Texas Christian University newspaper, after a campus survey.

The boys, in sketching their feminine ideal, sum it up about like this:

"The ideal coed should possess both brains and personality. She should be reasonably good looking, know how to wear clothes attractively, know a bit about the political situation and have a philosophy of life. She should dance well, know how to order a meal, understand sports, and not think it her object in life to spend a man's money. She should know when to have a good time and when to be serious."

The girls, in turn, specify for their ideal boy-friend:

"He should know his way around, have personality plus a sense of humor, be clean, considerate and friendly. He need not be handsome but should be definitely masculine and know how to dress well. He should be able to carry on an intelligent conversation as well as dance. Above all, he should not get the idea that he owns a girl just because he takes her out some evening and spends a little money entertaining her!"

Mrs. Roberson of Lorenbo, was here Sunday visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lee O. Allen.

Herbert Carter, cousin of Ralph Carter, and formerly of this place was here last week. He now lives in Fort Worth.

VERSE TO A BUSINESS MAN

Soek him on the kisser, put him on the pan, Tolly him in the gutter—He's a business man.

Pillory the sucker, poke him in the eye,

Jump upon his torso—He's a business guy!

Has he built a business to enormous heights?

Brand him as a cheater—Never mind his rights!

Does he give employment? Is the payroll big?

Put the bum in irons! Toss him in the brig!

Does he pay in taxes what the law calls for?

Why, the dirty reptile should be paying more!

Blast him in the headline, charge some crooked acts,

Let this be your slogan: "Anything but facts!"

Has he made some money? Get his scalp today!

Say, where does he think he's living, anyway?

EXPENSIVE MESSAGES

DENTON, Jan. 17.—"Feeling like a postage stamp" would not have been so bad back in the days of the Texas Republic, when stamps ran up into real money. The fee for carrying a letter containing a single sheet of paper a distance not exceeding twenty miles away was 6 1/4c, or for fifty miles, 12 1/2c an so on up. If one had so much to say it took two pieces of paper the price was doubled, and for three pieces, tripled. No wonder the pioneers were known as men of action rather than words.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carnett of Lubbock, were guests in the A. W. Turner home, Sunday.

Strange Wedding Customs

Picture Parade

PEOPLE get married each day in all parts of the world, but very country has its own unique ceremony. In America, where tradition has been thrown to the winds, people are likely to get married any place. In Los Angeles, for example an enterprising photographer caught the above wedding under water. It was a publicity stunt and participants were equipped with microphones. In Holland (left) the bride feeds her husband a traditional mixture of brandy and nuts. He's making a very face but she says you might as well get used to my cooking now, young man!"

In Japan, where many a romance has recently been shattered by war, brides follow age-old customs in preparing for their wedding day. The coy miss at the right, atop her father's horse, is en route to the neighboring village where she will join her husband to be at the wedding.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN—A thorough and complete sifting of the activities of alleged "vacancy hunters" and the operators of the State Land office was scheduled to get under way in Austin this week, as the Senate investigating committee, headed by the vigorous veteran, Tom Holbrook of Galveston, prepared to begin a searching investigation. The probe resulted from a conference between Gov. Allred, who took the initiative against what he termed improper practices in the Land Office, when he hired Everett Looney, his former Assistant General to bring suit to cancel a lease renewed by Land Commissioner Bill McDonald. Allred has also bitterly criticized the practice instituted by McDonald of leasing school lands for mineral development on a basis of small cash payments and contingent payments out of oil, instead of larger cash payments and the usual one eighth royalty to the State.

Full Probe Assured

With Holbrook, known as one of the ablest investigators in the State, in charge, it is assured that a complete airing of the controversial facts upon which the governor and the Land Commissioner have differed, will result. Vacancy hunters have been especially active in several Gulf coast counties in Holbrook's district, where oil has recently been discovered, and the people of the district are greatly aroused. Holbrook was co-author of a Senate resolution at the last session, in which the Attorney General was asked to bring vacancy suits against landowners in Polk, Matagorda and adjoining counties within those counties, rather than in Austin, and he has expressed himself on several occasions in his characteristic vigorous fashion in condemnation of the "vacancy hunting racket." The Senate probe committee also includes Senators Stone, Weinert, Hill and Collie.

Oil Slash Is Due

The Texas Railroad Commission Monday held its monthly prororation hearing, and in view of a record that indicated the greatest stocks of crude oil and gasoline in history above-ground in storage, a sharp reduction in allowable was expected when the February prororation order is issued late this week. The Commission, contrary to its usual custom, did not issue an order immediately after the hearing, but with the evidence of overproduction in the record withheld action until the quarterly meeting of the Oil States Compact at Oklahoma City, scheduled for Tuesday. The Texas representatives, Rail Commission C. V. Terrell and Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson—the latter chairman of the Compact body—thus to Oklahoma in an excellent "trading" position, with holding action to reduce Texas oil production until they had a chance to see what other oil producing states would do about a general cut.

Political Notes

With general acceptance by politicians that neither Gov. Allred nor "Ma" Ferguson will be in the Governor's race, the Jackson Day Dinner at Dallas set off the political fires burning throughout the State. Attorney General Bill McCraw was in the East conducting hearings on the Green inheritance tax case, but promised a formal announcement around March 1st when he returns to Texas—Thompson forces were actively at work, beginning the week with a huge banquet at Kilgore, where oil operators honored the red-headed rail commissioner and gubernatorial candidate, and his commission associates. . . The Attorney General's race cleared up somewhat, with reports that neither Everett Looney, rumored as a prospective candidate, nor Senator Will Pace of Tyler, will offer. . . Pace has definitely determined to run for Lieutenant Governor. This leaves Lt. Gov. Walter Woodul, actively campaigning for months, and generally regarded as the top candidate, with Gerald Mann of Dallas; speaker Bob Calvert of Hillsboro; Judge Ralph Yarbough of Austin, and Lewis M. Goodrich, district attorney at Shamrock, as avowed candidates. Goodrich demonstrated his sincerity by sending in a $100 check—the first filing fee received by State Democratic Secretary Vann Kennedy. . .

Some Hot Senate Races

Several hotly contested races for places in the Senate loomed, as announcements came thick and fast. In Dallas, Claude Westfield apparently will have strong opposition, with Fred Harris and Sam Hanna of the House, and Ex-Senator George Purl as prospective opponents. . . Rep. Penrose Metcalfe, of San Angelo, will oppose Senator E. M. "Efe" Davis of Brownwood; Rep. H. L. McKee of Port Arthur will seek to replace Sen. Allan Shivers, his fellow townsman; and Rep. George Moffett of Chillicothe has told friends he will oppose Sen. Ben O'Neal of Wichita Falls. Rep. Charles Tennyson of Wichita Falls is also reported out for this Senatorial seat.

Hot Contest In Valley

A hot contest in the Rio Grande Valley senatorship looms, with Rep. Augustin Celaya of Brownsville, Lon Messer, and District Attorney Rogers Kelly, of Edinburg as prospective opponents of Sen. Jim Neal of Mirando City. This is the largest Senatorial district in Texas, both in area and in population, and the bulk of the vote lies in the Valley counties. Kelly, a dynamic personality and an excellent speaker, has attracted attention from state political observers. Neal is reported to have great strength in the Kingsville neighborhood, due to his efforts in behalf of appropriations for Texas A. & M. College. Rep. Homer Leonard, of McAllen, who was reported considering entering the race for the Senate or a county office, has announced he will seek re-election to the House. Rep. Bryan Eadbury of Abilene, administration floor leader, has also decided to seek another House term. W. H. Fox of Taylor, A. P. Cagle of Waco, an Herman Jones of Decatur, has announced they will retire from the House.

PONTIAC PLEASSED WITH 1937 BUSINESS

Pontiac Motor Division of General Motors Corporation has finished the year 1937 with the largest volume of sales since the introduction of the first Pontiac twelve years ago. Its share of the total business done by the automobile industry was greater than ever before, it is pointed out by C. P. Simpson, Pontiac general sales manager. "Business at the present moment is not a good reflector of what the whole year has been," said Mr. Simpson. "During the twelve months ending December 31, our dealers in the United States delivered 211,772 new Pontiac cars and 393,700 used cars. This compares with 178,931 new cars and 327,842 used cars sold in the calendar year of 1936. The largest previous year's sales of new cars were 196,096, in 1928. "A comparison of sales throughout the world by model year instead of by calendar year is even more striking. Sales of 1937 model Pontiacs totalled 236,198 while in 1936 they were 173,137. The average height of men in America is five feet and eight inches, and of women, five feet and four inches. Aut Graham is in Big Spring on business. Mrs. Lee O. Allen was a Lubbock visitor, Monday. Ed Thompson and son, Phillip, of Hood county, are here visiting friends and prospecting.

Making Reports on C. of C. Activities

J. E. Shelton, faithful and efficient secretary of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, is making a series of reports on the activities of the C. of C. for 1937. These mimeograph sheets are being mailed out to each member, and one can read between the lines that Mr. Shelton has not spent his time or the money of the Chamber in crowning queens of this or naming sponsors for that.

If a man makes a real good secretary-manager of a Chamber of Commerce, it takes a world of work but a minimum of hot air. He has to be almost a walking encyclopedia, and must have a row of statistics at his finger tips. All transactions, agreements, etc., must be filed for future reference, especially as regards state and national highways. A change in engineers may mean a change in plans.

Many trips must be made, many different persons must be contacted and interviewed. Pleading must be made before this and that bunch of officials, and almost danced, dined and wine-d to get their ok on things beneficial to the community.

PAYMENTS UNDER 1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM UNDER WAY

COLLEGE STATION—Payments under the terms of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program are being made in considerable volume, according to Geo. Slaughter, Wharton chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee.

The conservation program terminated two months later than was the case in 1936 when the final date for compliance was October 31. Farmers had until December 31 to carry out conservation practices in 1937.

First payments went to farmers in Brazos, Morris, and Jasper counties, Slaughter said. The state AAA office on the campus of Texas A. and M. College is auditing 2,000 applications for grants a day, and is equipped to handle as many as 3,000 a day if the volume received from the field justifies.

In spite of the fact that the compliance date fell two months later, the program as a whole is further along than in 1936, according to Slaughter. He pointed out that 167 counties had been approved for final adjustment as compared with 52 on the same date in 1937, and that some 99,000 applications for grant have been typed and returned to the counties. On the same date in 1937, this figure stood at 36,000.

The fact that the expenses of administering the program within the counties must be deducted from the payments going to farmers makes it impossible to make payments to any one county until at least 75 per cent of the applications from that county have been received by the state office, Slaughter said.

Around 36 million dollars will be distributed among approximately 200,000 Texas farmers under the 1937 agricultural program, Slaughter estimated.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. J. H. O'Connor had a stroke early Monday morning, which seemed to effect her vocal cords. She was reported to be resting very well Wednesday morning.

It has been estimated that in a day the average farmer walks twenty-six miles a letter carrier twenty-two, policemen fourteen boys fifteen, girls eleven and a half, and housewives eight.

UP-TO-THE MINUTE WAR TECHNIQUE

The up-to-the-minute war technique is to invade a country, kill soldiers and civilians and devastate and capture its cities—but not declare war. Perfect example of this is provided by the Sino-Japanese conflict. Neither country has broken off diplomatic relations with the other. China is represented in Tokio and Japan in Nanking. In theory there is no war. In actual fact, one of the most sanguinary conflicts in history is being waged.

Another up-to-the-minute technique is for a country to pay lip service to peace—and at the same time take steps that must inevitably lead to war. The two principal Fascist dictatorships, Germany and Italy, and their ally, Japan, are past masters of this. Japan invades China—and claims she is doing it in the interest of peace. Italy conquers the Ethiopian empire by armed force—in the interest of peace. Germany reoccupies the Ruhr, and threatens her neighbors—Agh, with peace as the battle cry.

It is a mistake to look at the various undeclared wars that have taken place the past few years as individual, unrelated events. For all these conflicts are part and parcel of a closely-knit, ominous pattern. The Fascist countries, in brief, are aligning solidly against their enemies—the Democratic countries. And in this, each side will likely have some curious allies.—Community News.

BABSON'S PRAISE OF CHEMICALS IS TOPIC FOR TEXAS

DALLAS, Jan. 17.—Nomination of chemicals as the "industry of the year" for 1938 by David Babson, famed economist, emphasizes the desirability of cultivating these industries' development in Texas, which has many natural attractions to offer them, says a report of the All-South Development Council.

Babson, whose previous predictions as to the nation's pace-setting industries scored bullseyes with selection of building construction in 1936 and aviation in 1937, chose the chemical industry for leadership in 1938, basting his choice on its "research progress, all-inclusive diversification, conservative management, and its protection against war, inflation, politics and labor."

Because of her wealth of the raw materials, both mineral and agricultural, used in chemical manufacturing and the fast-expanding chemical process and synthetic materials industries, the reports points out, Texas could logically be in the forefront of this sort of progress. A program of state "salesmanship" to industry, it said, could bring great gains for Texas in this field provided it were backed by a cooperative rather than antagonistic official attitude toward business.

As it is, although Texas products such as petroleum, sulphur, gas, salt, lime, clays, carbon black, potash and coal tar are prime bases of the chemical industry, the state accounted for little more than half of one per cent of the nation's chemical manufactures values in the most recent official census. Louisiana, whose $7,324,036 output in that listing almost doubled Texas' $3,849,071, has in the last year added, under its "welcome to industries" plan, $5,540,000 worth of new and expanded chemical plants.

In addition to these mineral assets, the report notes, Texas has pine forests, ability to grow virtually all of the cellulose-containing plants now finding new industrial uses through current discoveries of the "chemical age," and of course a monumental supply of cottonseed and lint, a prime source of cellulose used in plastics.

While recognizing that "a new plastic or a novel synthetic substitute for rubber or leather puts romance into the industry," the Babson statement points out that the chemicals industry's leadership is based on more fundamental reasons, that chemistry is the "father of all industries," and that it has "built up a vast back-log of demand for industrial essentials."

SOMETHING NEW IN MEAT DISHES

If you tire of the same old foods on your dinner menus day after day, here is something new and different. Lamb shanks stuffed with barley!

Lamb shanks are decidedly practical meat cut, because while the supply is rather small, the demand is still smaller, so they represent good "buys" on the market, it is pointed out by Inez S. Wilson, home economist. For stuffing, the shanks are simmered in water until the meat is tender and loosened from the bone. The bones are then removed, and in their place place is put cooked and seasoned barley. These are placed in a casserole dish with a very little broth over them and allowed to become thoroughly heated. Serve them from the casserole dish while very hot.

These stuffed lamb shanks make the main dish of a really substantial meal. Each shank makes a generous serving for one person. They need be supplemented only with green vegetables for the complete main course.

Tom Connally Speaks On Anti-Lynching Bill

The public is often deliberately misled. Misbranding and false labeling is a common abuse. An appealing and sonorous objective often cloaks an unholy scheme. The so-called anti-lynching bill is a case in point. The public is told it will prevent lynching; that those who oppose it are opposed to this desirable objective. Both are false.

The bill makes no effort to punish individual members of a mob. Its authors admit the Federal government has no such constitutional power. Instead of punishing members of a mob it proposes to punish state sheriffs and state peace officers who may be unable to prevent a lynching. It further proposes to punish the innocent tax-payers of a county, whether the lynching occurs in a county or whether the seizure is made in such county. Though the tax-payers may be lawabiding and anxious to prevent mob violence, they may be assessed not less than two thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars, which funds are awarded to the relatives of the person lynched. It makes the Attorney General of the United States the agent to collect such damages and pay same to the family.

The bill is purely a political gesture. It is a gratuitous insult and thrust at the Southern states. It deliberately exempts from its operation gang murders, though committed by a mob of gangsters or law-breakers. The bill contains the following provision in Section 2:

"That 'lynching' shall not be deemed to include violence occurring between members of groups of lawbreakers such as are commonly designated as gangsters or racketeers."

Lynching in the South has almost disappeared. Sentiment against it and the vigilance of courts and peace officers are getting the job done. In 1936 there were only 8 lynchings in the entire United States. In 1937 there were only 8. Criminals charged with the most heinous and diabolical crimes have been protected by peace officers and the National Guard and trials according to law have been had. In 1937 in 56 instances officers prevented lynchings. Fifty-one were in the South and five were in the North. A total of 72 persons were protected by state officers. The South will stamp out lynching. The bill is plainly, palpably, admittedly a political gesture to capture the colored vote in Harlem and in a few so-called pivotal states. Its admitted purpose is to pillory and insult the South to gather a few colored votes in a sordid political game.

The bill is wholly unconstitutional. It is a plain invasion of the police power of the states. We who oppose the bill do not condone lynching. It is murder. We are against it. If the Federal government can punish one kind of murder it may punish all kinds of murder. It may take over the enforcement of the entire criminal laws of the states. If it may control the courts and states officials in this case it may control them in all cases. It may wipe out the governmental and judicial system of the forty-eight states.

We are against the destruction of the states. We are against the emasculation of state courts. We are against the subordination of state officers and state authorities. We believe that through the responsibility of state officers supported by public sentiment lynching is being suppressed. Lynching has almost vanished. Gang murders—organized murders in the great cities and in many other sections, have increased rapidly and definitely. This bill exempts by specific terms gang murders. It encourages and accelerates the mad waves or crime in other sections while insultingly pointing the finger of scorn at the South, where lynching has almost entirely disappeared.

Scudday News

There's lots of "flu" in our community this week, and sore throats. Bro. Joe Chisholm filled his regular appointment Sunday. He and wife and children took dinner with J. E. Tired of Croquet? Try Kendo!

ALL you need is a broomstick, a catcher's mask, a sadistic impulse and a bathrobe. Then you're all set for the gentle pastime of Kendo fencing, as taught by Prof. T. Mori (I), champion of Japan.

Kendo fencing teaches Japanese youth the arts of self-control, poise and self-defense. Ceremonial robes must be worn throughout a match, and traditions such as bowing, manner of holding the "sword," spoken greetings, etc., must be strictly adhered to. Participants fence in bare feet, wear rugged headgear, breastplate and gloves, but there are many exposed parts of the body that come in for some pretty hard blows during the encounter. Plenty of bruised shoulders here!

Try it on surly neighbors or over-persistent bill collectors. Invite your rival for your girl's hand to try a round or two of Kendo fencing. At least it'll be good for a laugh. In fact, it'll practically slay you!

Even his own mother wouldn't recognize a Kendo fencer, once he is all dolled up for the fray. No chances must be taken in seeing that the headgear is laced up tightly. (2) A slip of the mask at just the right (or wrong) moment might result in a beautiful capillary car or a bashed-in nose. Broomsticks can be pretty dangerous weapons in the wrong hands!

But one battle seldom ends a war, and the boys square off again.

BED ROOMS IMPROVED

Approximately 65 bedrooms have been improved by Yoakum County 4-H club girls in the past three years. There are 15 permanent bedrooms of demonstrators that are home owners. Eighty articles were made this year for the girls' rooms, consisting of dresser scarfs, bath mats, and waste baskets. $39.42 was spent by the demonstrators in improving their rooms. The girls have encountered the problems of clothes storage, bedding, refinishing walls, and furniture, cleanliness in the room, bathing facilities, and arrangements of bedroom accessories in their three years study of bedrooms.

Sallie Lynn Forrest, a bedroom demonstrator in the Plains 4-H club reported:

"My rest center was comfortable, the bed was firm and substantial and light enough in weight to be moved about easily but I didn't have any pillow protectors, mattress pad, mattress cover, spring cover or quilt protectors. I had a good mattress and springs with steel runners therefore I didn't need to add any slats as there should be a slat to every row of coils in bedsprings. I made my spring cover out of straw ticking for the bottom and snapped the sheet to the top after I had fixed it to fit. My mattress pad was made out of an old quilt that I cut down to fit and covered with sugar cloth and quilted. I used two unbleached pillow cases I had to make my pillow protectors out of. I cut them off and put five button holes in each. I completely remodeled my room for $15.55." Three other rooms in Sallie Lynn's home were improved as a result of her becoming interested in bedroom work.

In 1936, 32 girls refinished pieces of furniture to be used in their homes. 21 girls provided light weight covers for their beds, 40 girls made towels to be used in their bathing centers. In the 3 years bedroom work has been carried in Yoakum county approximately $240.00 has been spent by bedroom demonstrators in improving their bedrooms. $116.00 has been spent by cooperators making improvements in their homes.

—Ora Anderson, Yoakum County Home Demonstration Agent.

Mrs. Daniel Chesshir has had as her guest her sister, Mrs. Bettie Moon, of Erath county. She left Wednesday for a visit with her daughter at Seagraves.

GOOD HIGHWAYS INSTEAD OF BATTLESHIPS

The military cliques in the U. S. as well as in all other nations can secure billions by throwing a war scare. They are now talking a billion dollars for U. S. war ships. Why throw money away on ships that serve no good purpose, and that will be obsolete in a few years. It would be a wiser move to spend one-third the amount for airplanes, cost demenses and long range guns, and use the balance of the billion toward building a network of military highways across our nation. In time of peace these highways could be utilized as toll highways for passenger cars. A charge should be made that would soon pay for the cost of construction. These should be super-highways with all street and other intersections eliminated by overpasses or underpasses. Every auto owner would be willing to pay a stiff price to drive on such a safe and sane highway system.

Since we have no war of conquest in prospect our big problem is simply one of home or self-defense and airplanes and coast defense—not war ships should be our first consideration—with a military highway criss-crossing the nation as the next essential. Such a highway building program would insure employment for every able-bodied man who desired to work and would do more to insure prosperity over a long term of years than any other plan that could be devised.—Ex.

Arthur Sawyer had an operation on his right eye Saturday at Lubbock for Pterygium. He will have the other one operated on as soon as this one heals. This condition finally causes blindness unless removed by operation.

Fight at Auditorium Next Thurs. Night

Cye Tankersley has announced the opening series of fights to be put on at the Venetian Auditorium through this season, the opener to be next Thursday night. He has again engaged Woodie Windham, himself a former champion in his class to manage the fights.
The program for next Thursday night had not been completed when we got ready for press, but Messrs. Tankersley and Windham promise some good matches by people who will make the leather pop. So be on hand and have a good time.

LET'S TALK ABOUT CLOTHES

DENTON, Jan. 17. — Fashion's costing season is here again—the time when madame is looking toward Spring while the weather restrains her ideas to winter. Suits are the answer.

Well-known for their between-season qualifications suits have been given their big chance this year by manufacturers and retailers alike. The two and three-piece creations make it possible for you to keep your January and February wardrobe from being the stepchild of the year.

Softly tailored classic suits are as good as ever, with capes added to many of the simple, short-jacket types. Slate blues, banker's gray and other like tones are featured in herding bone woreds and other smooth weaves. Girls at Texas State College for Women find that twill gabardine also makes an unbeatable suit for this season and can be worn later than the worsted.

Natural blue fox is being pushed ahead as the best trimming for late costumes. This soft shade is particularly successful because it blends so well with the new colors that are showing up all along the style horizon—beige, blues, rose shades, navy, and mauves.

Details are playing a large part in giving dash to the newest creations, with pockets rating high in the list. Often they are set into panels in the short and three-quarter length coats, thus emphasizing the panel but not distracting the eye by the addition of another line.

We call your attention to the withdrawal announcement of Mrs. C. R. Rambo, for the office of County Treasurer, elsewhere in this issue, in which she states her reason. Mrs. Rambo has made us a mighty fine Treasurer, her office being open as much or more hours perhaps during her administration than any recent one, for the accomodation of the people.
