

On the Right Track

Picture Parade

In Chicago, the world's greatest railroad center, hundreds of trains arrive and leave daily over a network of tracks. Gliding through the "yards" on a streamliner from the Pacific coast, passengers see suburban trains going west, others going north, passing and re-passing each other. Unseen, but directing this complex flow of traffic is the train dispatcher, who calmly sits at his desk making marks on a long sheet of paper. Telephone, telegraph and teletype are at his command. There is no fuss or bother in this quiet room which should—by all standards of human behavior—be a madhouse of activity. At any given moment, the dispatcher can report the exact position of every train on his division, no small feat in a railroad center like Chicago.

Accidents are almost unknown in metropolitan terminals like Chicago and New York, certainly much less commonplace than in outlying districts. One of the leading safety factors has been the block signal, which divides trackage into sections and automatically stops trains at danger points.

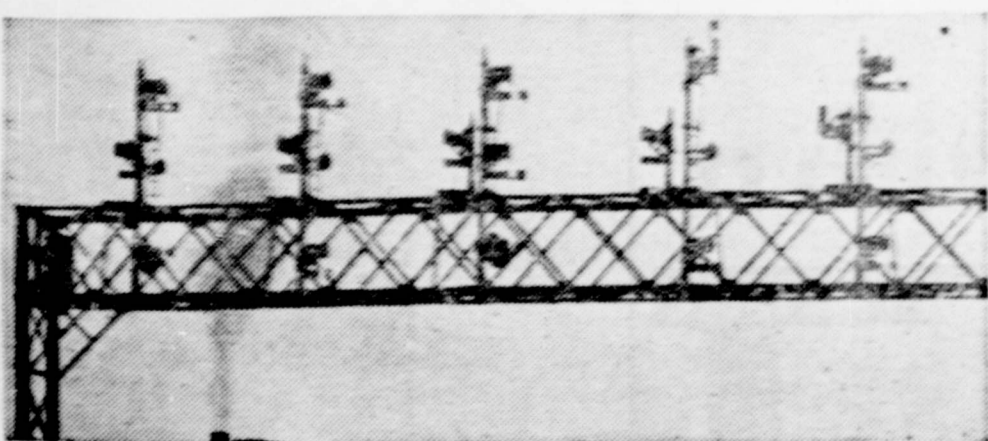

There are several thousand miles of trackage in the Chicago area, but the dispatcher knows the exact position of every freight car. He determines their fate and watches solicitously over their contents, especially if they contain rush shipments or perishable commodities which must be directed to their destination immediately. Freight pickup and delivery from such bustling points as Chicago's huge Merchandise Mart constitutes a mammoth task in itself, but the dispatcher takes it in his stride.

Adding to the dispatcher's duties in a center like Chicago are the numerous trains from other rail systems which use his tracks part of the time, or which switch freight from their line to his. Many of these changeovers are daily, scheduled occurrences. Others happen unexpectedly.

Snow blocks the tracks of a "hot box" is reported. Immediately the dispatcher sends working crews and equipment to the scene of trouble so that trains may continue to move. A few minutes later he is advised that an incoming train carries an invalid. Result: The dispatcher sends a "red cap" to meet the train, armed with a wheel chair. He is truly the "nerve center" of a railroad system, a man whose stupendous responsibility dwarfs the duties of law makers and captains of industry. Yet he lives unknown to all but the fellow railroaders whose actions he guides.

D. E. Erwin and family are leaving this week for their old home at Mineola, Texas. Mr. Erwin has had charge of the Sinclair service station here for some time, and made good, but stated to us that his little boy was just big enough to run right out in front of a car or truck. Mr.

THE DANGEROUS JEW

He is not much given to acts of physical violence, but to dictators who would destroy him the hopeless Jew is the most dangerous thing this side of purgatory. Jews are dangerous to mushroom governments and self-starting dictators, not for what they do to governments and dictators, but for what some rulers and tyrannical dictators do to Jews. History, back to civilization's dawn, proves this.

The Psalmist wrote about "The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God". In our day, with courage born of swaggering bravado, the irruptive and arrogant Hitler anoints himself alpha and omega, shrugs his shoulders as he holds high carrousel atop multitudinous heartbreak, and thumbs his nose at requitative destiny. He mocks justice and scorns the immutable law of retaliation, breaks laws that will break him, and soon — not late — he and others like him will crash into head-on collision with one or two inexorable denouements: He who lives by the sword shall perish by the sword—and —The nation that persecutes the Jew even now works its own destruction.

Joseph, a Jew, was sold into Egypt

by his envious brothers. There he may have worked in the CCC or WPA, but after being doubled-crossed by the glamorous Mrs Potiphar young Joseph was promoted and became Vice-President to King Pharaoh. Now, in those days being the Vice-President meant something, and Joseph's portfolio of office made him not only National Chairman of the party in power and Postmaster General over all patronage, but also chief of the Brain Trust and Secretary of Agriculture in Pharaoh's cabinet. In this capacity he organized the farmers during Egypt's seven years of over-production, thus inaugurating the very first crop conservation project—and by storing surplus to meet the seven lean years, successfully operated the original ever normal granary. He also owned the only dependable weather bureau. Joseph's flair for guessing the weather fourteen years ahead afforded him a distinct advantage over the present-day planners, in that he could discount and minimize the political effect of depressions before they hit.

Time and dust bowls conspired to bring his erring brothers into Egypt in search of Federal Relief. It was here in his role as Federal Relief Administrator that Joseph met his betrayers again, but blood proved thicker than old animosities and he took them under his wing. Thus the seed of Abraham was planted in Egypt, and there it was left to spawn and multiply—until they were declared a menace and placed in captivity. They yearned to leave Pharaoh's jurisdiction, and in trying to negotiate passports by sabotage a young founding by name of Moses invented locusts and other pests, whose descendants swarm over our valleys and dust bowls to this good day—only we have added politicians. Moses finally led them from bondage, but during the fracas Pharaoh's army encountered high water and suffered catastrophic casualties. Perhaps an ancient TVA dam had gone out.

Pharaoh condemned the Jews to hard labor, compelled them to mold brick and to build. Now these are callings a Jew never follows by volition. In fact it has been whispered about that all too often the Jews elect to earn his living by his own sweatshop rather than by sweat of his own brow.

The Pharaohs have perished from the face of the earth. Egypt of the Jew-baiting Pharaohs has long since crumbled into dust and been scattered across the trackless Sahara. Today, all the pomp and splendor that once ruled over the Nile are but sword and bayonet stings on the fickle sands of oblivion. The Jew survives, albeit as a wanderer without a country, a homeless vagabond trekking across the sands of the centuries, a pilgrim in his eternal quest for that elusive Promised Land, always searching yet finding only nights of terror and exile.

History insists upon repeating itself. Such inflated goals of world drama as the Pharaohs fail to impress the blast of fatty sausage which is supposed to be a dictator's brain. A flyspeck with human features struts before a magnifying mirror and goes loco over his magnitude. But destiny is as irretrievable as scrambled eggs, and on second glance it is not his own importance he sees — it is History playing a return engagement. Retribution singing an encore. Death taking a curtain call!

THE KIND OF DEVELOPMENT THE SOUTHWEST NEEDS MOST

If the industrial growth which C. J. Crampton of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce forecasts for the Southwest, takes place, the future of this area is secure.

World conditions no longer justify any section of this country in depending upon the production and sale of raw materials alone. Every section, to enjoy stable prosperity, must have factories and processing plants.

The three major raw materials of the Southwest are cotton, oil and cattle. Texas produces a surplus of each of these commodities and of a number of others that are of great importance.

As long as an unlimited market for these materials existed, Texas continued to grow rapidly. But, throughout the world, production of almost every variety of raw material has increased. To meet this changed condition, the Southwest must have factories for turning its raw products into consumer goods.

Other states which specialize too extensively do not relish competition with the Southwest, but they also should diversify. Every region must strive for a more balanced economy, if the nation as a whole is to be uniformly prosperous. The enactment by the Texas legislature of any measure that penalizes the industries we have or trends to keep new industry out of the state constitutes a disservice to future prosperity. — Dallas Times-Herald.

Scholastic Increase of 182 Over Last Year

In conversation this week with Mrs. Travis Bynum, who is taking the school census for the Brownfield Independent school district, she stated that she was about through with her work and would begin in the next few days making the rolls, which we understand will have to be completed before May 1st.

She stated that she had found 1245 in the scholastic age in the district compared to 1063 last year, an increase of 182. Based on $21.00 per student which they draw from the state, this means an extra $3,822.00 from the state, or $26,145.00 total.

In the meantime, if you know of any student within the school age that has been missed, notify her at once, or Supt. Baze, who will see that they are listed.

Candidate For Attorney General Visits City

Lewis M. Goodrich, of Shamrock, Texas, candidate for Attorney General, was a pleasant caller at the Herald office last Friday, in company with his old friend, J. O. Gillham, vice-president of the Brownfield State bank, who formerly lived at Pampa.

Mr. Goodrich, who has been both city attorney of Shamrock, and District Attorney of that district for the past several years, has a very brief platform, among them: "No political debts to pay." We understand the people of his city and district are supporting him almost 100 per cent.

Interesting Hiway Meet Held at Dalhart

While Brownfield failed to have a delegate at the meeting of the National Parks Highway Association, meeting at Dalhart week before last, a good report comes from the secretary that tells us that a very interesting meeting was held, and that states to the north of Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Nebraska and the Dakotas are very enthusiastic, and say their states will be ready to build a real highway.

Among those who addressed the meeting were A. B. Davis, of the Board of City Development at Lubbock, who stated that while the highway missed Lubbock 30 miles, they were behind the project with all the influence they have. Datus S. Prosper, Ex-Manager Texas Good Roads Association of San Antonio, also delivered a very interesting address.

The next meeting of the association will be held in Levelland the last of May or first of June.

The Homemakers class of the Baptist church enjoyed a lovely party at the home of Mrs. E. C. Davis, Thursday night.

Mesdames Jim Graves, Mon Telford, Ike Bailey, W. A. Bell and L. M. Wingerd have returned from a month spent seeing the beautiful southern states and Cuba. They report a grand time and a most interesting trip.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harley Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cave spent Sunday in Lubbock visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stewart of Lamesa were Sunday guests in the W. H. Dallas home.

Miss Virginia May is home from the Southern Seminary in Buena Vista, Va., for a weekly visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom May.

Chisholm Reports Good Hatches This Spring

John Chisholm informed us one day recently that he had had some of the best hatches this year he ever experienced. We remarked that this was probably on account of warm early spring.

On the other hand, he stated that often the colder springs showed up the best hatches, and we had always been told that a chilled egg was a total loss.

But John says that an egg that is frozen can gradually be thawed out and will hatch.

MRS. JETT PASSES

Mrs. L. A. Jett, 57, passed away last Sunday morning slightly after midnight, and was buried Monday afternoon at 4 p. m., with her pastor, Rev. Ike Bredlove, officiating at a service at the grave. Brownfield Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Jett was a native Tennessean, but the family came here from Florida some five years ago. Mrs. Jett was in ill health at that time, and for the past year has been an invalid.

Besides her husband, who is employed here as postal clerk, she leaves two sons and a daughter, Mrs. Nan Reiver, of El Paso, Gordon of the same city, and R. L. Jett, of Bunnell, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lucker have a mighty sick baby at the hospital, but understand it is doing better at this writing.

Mrs. Robert Forrester and mother, Mrs. R. R. Hughes, of Tahoka, were here Sunday visiting their brother and son, Dr. R. R. Hughes.

Col. Ernest O. Thompson will open his campaign for governor at Waco, on the night of April 12th.

Rev. D. H. Beebe, wife, and Dr. Tabor were entertained at the Joe Price home Wednesday noon.

PANHANDLE-PLAINS DAIRY SHOW, APRIL 19-23

PLAINVIEW, April 4.—The eleventh annual Panhandle Plains Dairy Show, scheduled here April 19 to 23, will be the greatest from the standpoint of program features and number of exhibits in the history of the association, if present prospects are a fair indication, say officials in charge of the five-day event.

Prize money for the livestock and dairy products divisions will total $2,600 and premium money for the four-day rodeo will boost the cash awards above the $3,000 mark, Pete Smith, manager, said.

With preliminary and production contests slated to start on Monday, April 18, the exposition is to officially open at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

STAR ROUTE CARRIERS MEET IN LUBBOCK

LUBBOCK, April 4.—Star route mail carriers from over the entire state of Texas will gather in Lubbock, April 9 and 10, for their annual convention, according to Price Bankhead of Big Spring, The Texas Star Route Carriers Association, of which Bankhead is president, is affiliated with the National Association.

Co. Ernest O. Thompson, Railroad Commissioner of Texas, is the principal speaker, and will address the convention body Saturday evening, April 9, at 7:30 o'clock at the Hilton Hotel. Durwood H. Bradley, City Attorney, will give the address of welcome. The annual banquet will be held Saturday evening. Beginning Sunday morning, the regular business sessions will take place throughout the day.

Officials estimate approximately 300 delegates will register for the two day meeting.

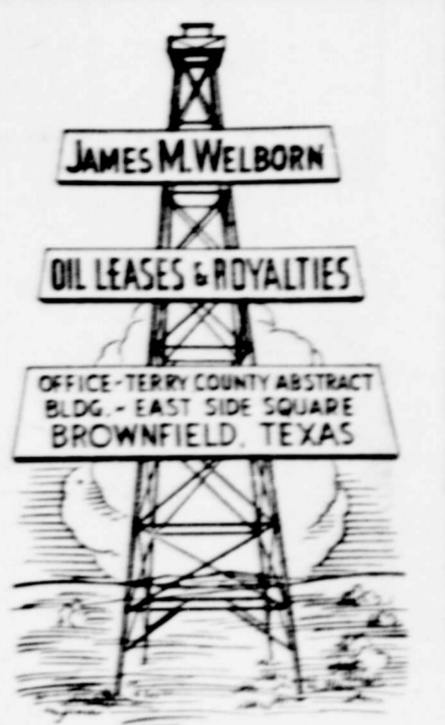

Mrs. Stricklin was carried home Monday after spending a week in the local hospital. She seems to be on the road to recovery.

The flower exchange held in the county judge's office was such a success Monday that it was decided to hold another one next Saturday, April 9. The same ladies will preside over the exchange, Mesdames Money Price, M. G. Tarpley, J. E. Moore and Miss Olga Fitzgerald.

Senator G. H. Nelson of Lubbock, opened his campaign for Lieutenant Governor at Hughes Springs, April 2nd.

Mrs. Clyde Bond, who was operated on March 27th, had a very bad day Sunday, but is fast pulling out this week.

Mrs. Helen Duke was at home over the week end.

Terry Allotted 79,000 Cotton Acreage for '38

From what was estimated to be around 120,000 acres last year to less than 80,000 acres this year, is quite a big cut in the acreage in cotton, as everyone will admit. Some doubtless will not comply and run up the acreage. However this represents a one-third cut from the 1937 crop.

While this is a big cut, the Herald believes that by planting good seed, and giving his acreage intensive cultivation, that the average farmer, with an average season will be able to produce within some 15 or 20 per cent of what he gathered last year, and get more actual money for it.

In other words, the Herald believes that it will be possible for Terry county farmers to produce around 40,000 bales on that amount of land, which is way above an average crop for the county.

Last Saturday evening while Alton Romie Green who lives 11 miles north of town was plowing, the rest of the family having gone on a short visit, unknown persons entered their home and took all of their good clothing. The next morning calamity again overtook him and he broke his arm while cranking his car.

Marlin Hayhurst of McCamey was a visitor in town Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Rasco will spend this week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rasco, in Memphis, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Webb have moved into the new Smith home.

Dr. Tabor, evangelist, who is holding a revival at the First Christian church, spoke at the high school Tuesday morning. His address, while of a humorous nature was educational.

Miss Hallie Howze of McCamey visited relatives and friends over the week end.

DALLAS, April 5.—Every county in Texas is now organized for the purpose of selling Easter Seals for Crippled Children. The campaign is being conducted by the Texas Society for Crippled Children of which Charles F. Ashcroft of Sulphur Springs is president. The sale of seals commenced April 1, and lasts until Easter Sunday.

Abe Golberg, Port Arthur business man and philanthropist, is actively in charge of organization work. He has been for many years vice president of the society.

Money raised by the sale of Easter Seals will be spent exclusively for crippled children in Texas to provide them hospitalization and treatment, to buy them braces and crutches and to pay transportation between their homes and various hospitals throughout the state. There will be no distinction in regard to age, race, creed, color or the nature of the disease. Children crippled from birth or through accident will be given aid by the Society as well as those crippled by infantile paralysis provided their families lack money for treatment. The Easter Seal sale is endorsed by both the State and Federal governmental departments interested in educational and rehabilitation work.

Chairman Ashcroft announces the committees for the Easter Seal Sale for Terry county as follows:

- Clyde Cave, Chairman, Brownfield.
- J. M. Teague, Vice-Chairman.
- J. O. Gillham, Treasurer.
- Ed Shelton, Director of Publicity.
- J. M. Telford
- Mrs. A. J. Stricklin
- Malcolm Thomason
- M. L. H. Baze
- J. B. Bell
- J. B. Taylor
- E. G. Akers
- Jim Miller
- John Cadenhead

In Terry county five crippled children have received treatment and one child is now awaiting treatment.

L. A. Jett is spending some time with his son, Gordon, and daughter, Mrs. Nan Reiver, in El Paso.

Maybe This Will Prove A Lesson to All Drivers

Below we are printing a letter from Miss Lynette Tinsley of Tahoka to her friend Miss Louise Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leonard of this city. The Herald is not saying the Tahoka young people, who were killed or hurt March 24th, were driving carelessly, but if this article will teach just a few to drive carefully, young or old, then we shall have been well paid for our expense and trouble:

Tahoka, Texas
March 30, 1938

Dear Louise:

I guess you heard about the terrible wreck over here Sunday afternoon. This has been the saddest, awfullest week of my whole life, I think. Sunday afternoon we all intended to go to Coopers Canyon on a picnic. Norman Carver, Delma Carver, Dorothy Holland, Joy Reid, Randal Fults, Johnny Lane, Turner Rogers, Clarence Overman and Ethelda Schaefer, were all in a '34 model Ford car, two door. They were in Norman's car and they had just gone out to T-Bar after Clarence. It was about 4:30 then. Margie Donaghey and I were supposed to be with them and they were going to get us and then go after Clarence (I was to go with him) so that we could go on to Coopers Canyon from there because it is about 10 miles closer.

They couldn't find us after hunting for about an hour, so they went on after Clarence. As they were coming back after Margie and me, they had the wreck. There were nine in the car.

Louise, you know how you will fill up a car like that and not think a thing about it. Norman, Ethelda, Delma and Jay were sitting in front. Johnny, Randal, Dorothy, Turner and Clarence all in the back. They were double decked, all but Johnny. They were going along about 40 or 45 miles an hour when the steering gear locked. Norman began to try to stop but before he could the car shot across the road right exactly in front of a '38 model Chevrolet. Ethelda's neck was broken. The head-on crash probably threw her up against the top of the car. Delma's neck was broken and also Jay's neck was broken. They said Johnny's body was torn up the worst of all. They said the poor boy's head was simply cracked open all the way around, and there was a big hole in the back of his head. He always combed his hair straight back, with no part, but to hide the fractures they had to part it and comb it down on the sides, of course that made it impossible for him to be natural. Randall and Clarence were thrown out of the car and Clarence got a broken leg and Randal skinned up a little. Turner escaped with a sprained ankle. Just think of that, and four killed.

Dorothy has a broken leg and a few other things. Norman was almost killed but he wanted to come to Delma's funeral on Wednesday, so he came on a stretcher. Delma died about half way between Tahoka and Lubbock on the ambulance. Johnny arrived to talk to his mother after he got to Lubbock. The ambulance was about to leave Lubbock with Delma's body when the doctors told them to wait, because Johnny was dying. They just waited, and waited for him to die. Doesn't that sound terrible. Ethelda started to say something and as she opened her mouth, blood gushed out and she died. She was killed almost instantly. Jay was killed in the ambulance. I guess I was just plain lucky Sunday afternoon when they couldn't find me.

Jay was buried Monday; Ethelda Tuesday; Johnny, Tuesday and Delma Wednesday.

We haven't had school all week. Poor Johnny was buried at Haskell, so we didn't get to go to his funeral, but I was flower girl at all the others. Ethelda was 14; Dorothy and Delma, 14; Johnny 17; Clarence 15; Randall, 17; Turner 15; Norman 18; Joy 21.

That was the first Sunday afternoon I hadn't been with them since we all started going some where on Sunday afternoon together. All the kids were my best friends and it was all so unexpected and such a shock. I will always remember those dear kids.

The last time I saw them alive, Saturday, Johnnie and I were talking, when he got ready to leave he said, "Well so long, I'll be seeing you." I saw him but he didn't see me.

Answer soon.
Love,
Lynette Tinsley, Tahoka, Texas

AROUND THE CLOCK

by e. g. d.

AROUND THE "DIAL?"

She bathed in sparkling April rain,
Below the budding trees;
And then her form was slowly dried,
By lilac scented breeze.

April again—lilac bushes in full bloom—daffodils, hyacinths, and tulips lending their splashes of color—and Easter Day just around the corner.

Statistically speaking, farming is America's most dangerous occupation.

A new use for nail polish, and since patent leather is one of the seasons "must haves" should be of interest to all the girls, simply apply polish at the first appearance of a crack in the leather—and go right on where you started.

Only six more weeks of school and the younger set making "big" plans for vacation days—as some public speaker recently said, "the three 'R's' of the good old days has been replaced by Radio, Reel and Rumble seat and the generation coming on would be just as good—just as smart—and a whole lot quicker, on account of the new design of learning."—we hope.

Loaded with what its owner described as the world's longest chain, 4200 feet long, the cable ship Lord Kelvin has left New York harbor to conduct a "plowing under" expedition on the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean. A telegraph company, the owners, said the ship will attempt to plow ocean cables into the bottom of the sea to protect them from damage caused by fish net drags. The experiment will begin in fishing waters off the coast of Iceland.

A nice thought, the following lines from the Bryan Eagle:

I am a little thing with a big meaning,
I am a little thing, with a big meaning,
I help everybody.

I create friendship and happiness,
I unlock doors, open hearts, dispel prejudice.

I inspire respect and admiration,
Everybody loves me.

I bore nobody, I violate no law,
I cost nothing.

Many have praised me; none have condemned me.

I am pleasing to those of high and low degree,
I am useful every moment of the day.

I am "courtesy."

CELEBRATES GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Glover, pioneers of this county, observed their 50th wedding anniversary, April 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hunter of this city. All five of their children were present, and had a great day with their mother and daddy, as follows:

Mrs. Sherman Mitchell, Carlsbad, N. M.; Mrs. Verne Snodgrass, son and daughter of Fluvanna, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Glover and sons, Colorado, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Vance Glover and daughters, this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hunter, Brownfield. Others who attended were Mrs. Joe Barlow, Lubbock and Boone Hunter, city.

A wonderful day was reported, and the Herald wishes this fine old couple many happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Shipp of Lubbock were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitney. Mrs. Shipp is a former Supt. of the Lubbock Sanitarium.

Mrs. Boyd Moore of Ft. Stockton was a week end guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bowers and children visited in Vernon and Fort Worth over the week end.

KOLONIAL KARD KLUB

Mrs. Earl Jones was the charming hostess to a novel April Fool's party last Friday when she entertained four tables of bridge at her home.

Club high score was made by Mrs. Clyde Cave and guest high by Mrs. W. C. Smith, both receiving lovely gifts. Table cuts were awarded Mesdames Lester Treadaway, Cecil Smith, Clyde Cave and Ned Self.

The guests list included Mesdames Cave, Daugherty, Earl Anthony, Pete Tiernan, Cecil Smith, Treadaway, A. A. Sawyer, Davis, Self, Akers, Dallas, W. C. Smith, R. N. McLain, W. R. McDuffie, Money Price and Herman Heath.

QUILTING CLUB

Mesdames E. D. Ballard and B. L. McPherson were cohostesses to the quilting club at the home of Mrs. Ballard on March 30. A delightful afternoon was spent quilting after which delicious cake and coffee was served to the following guests:

Mesdames Redford, Carpenter, Elliot, D. P. Carter, L. E. McClish, Tittle, G. W. Graves, Howell, Ray Brownfield, Gainer, Jess Smith, B. B. Broun, Bandy, R. T. Breedlove, J. W. Hogue, Walters.

Next Wednesday the club will be guests at the home of Mrs. Jess Smith with Mrs. McBurnett cohostess.

BAPTIST CHURCH

A B. T. U. revival will begin Sunday, April 10, at the local Baptist church and continue through Sunday, April 17. Dr. T. C. Gardner, State B. T. U. Secretary will speak at the local Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, when the churches of the Association will come together with the local church.

Rev. Dee Carpenter will direct the revival here. Rev. Carpenter is an efficient B. T. U. worker. It is hoped that the entire membership will avail themselves of this privilege.

There will be a book taught for each group.

Sunday School, 9:45; Preaching, 11:00 and 8:00 o'clock; B. T. U., 7:00 p. m.; Mid-Week Service, 7:45, p. m. Young Peoples Monday Night Meeting, 7:30 p. m.

There were 250 in Sunday school last Sunday. Let's make it more next Sunday.

METHODIST W. M. S.

The Methodist W. M. S. met Tuesday afternoon in a social meeting with Mrs. W. B. Downing, assisted by Mesdames Breedlove, Elliot, Carpenter, Cox, Harris, Herod, Williams and the hostesses.

The hostesses served a refreshment plate of caramel ice cream, ice box cookies and punch. Those present were Mesdames Breedlove, Elliot, Carpenter, Cox, Harris, Herod, Williams and the hostesses.

THE METHODIST CHURCH

A good attendance is expected at the morning and also at the evening services next Sunday. Brother Florence brought the sermons last Sunday while the pastor was preaching at Seminole in a meeting. Bring your friends to the friendly and helpful services. We were glad to have had Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reid and Judge and Mrs. Cain from Tahoka with us last Sunday evening. Again, the young people's class, Seniors, led the school in attendance. Who said all the youngsters of this day were going to the bow-wows? Whoever he was, he did not know ours. They go to church on Sundays. The world will be safer in their hands when we turn it over to them.

Style Show By Local Merchants Great Success

The Style Show put on by the Brownfield Ready-to-Wear stores and sponsored by the merchants of Brownfield was a real success in every way. The Venetian Auditorium was a perfect setting for the display of lovely Spring Ready-to-Wear and a fine crowd enjoyed the parade of beautiful models who showed what the well-dressed maid and matron will wear this year.

Messrs. Tankersley and Holt are to be congratulated on their show and we hope they will make it a yearly affair.

PURCHASES BEAUTY SHOP

Mrs. Sam Houtchens has purchased the Hollywood Beauty Shop from Mr. and Mrs. Joe Young.

Mrs. Houtchens has lived here several years and is well known as an expert cosmetician. She will continue to handle the Ex-cel-cis line of cosmetics in conjunction with the Beauty Shop and will be glad to meet all of her old friends and customers at her new location.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

The young peoples organization of the Baptist church met Monday night at the church with 30 young people present and a most interesting program was in order. On Wednesday night, a missionary educational program was enjoyed by 32 young people.

BAPTIST W. M. U.

At the W. M. U. last Monday afternoon, 24 ladies enjoyed the study of Missions. Next week the Little Moon circle will meet with Mrs. Fred Hinson, the Reagan and Lockett circles will meet with Mrs. Bagley.

SO THEY SAY

Mr. Cleve Holden and daughter, Mildred, of Sudan, Texas, were visiting his sister Mrs. A. J. Stricklin, Tuesday.

Mrs. Clarence Hudgens and Miss Sharleen Graves were Lubbock visitors, Monday.

TECH STUDENT'S PAPER WINS AT REGIONAL MEET

LUBBOCK, Texas, April 4.—Paper by Lester Mueller, senior mechanical engineering student at Texas Technological College, placed first in the southwestern regional meeting of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers at College Station this week. The paper, "Cotton Boles as an Insulating Material," was selected from sixteen papers of competing schools.

Paper presented by Louis Jack Powers, junior Tech student from Glendale, Calif., on "A Study of Vibration in Machines" won ninth place. Tech was chosen as 1939 host to the regional meeting.

Let's Talk About Clothes

DENTON, April 4.—Like a magnetic ball rolling along and gathering everything in its path, the vogue for femininity has swept through dresses, hats, coats and now—shoes.

It's characteristic of Miss America that when she goes in for a thing she goes all the way. A year or so ago the outdoor girl fever hit the country and she prided herself on buying heavy, ultra-comfortable shoes and masculine clothes.

Now, claim the girls at Texas State College for Women, she wants grace and beauty in a shoe as well as a dress. Gabardine and suede are easy to beautify with dressmaker touches punchwork and lacing, and manufacturers are ably meeting the demand for glorified feet.

Colors are lovely, and although black patent holds the lead in many places because of its ideal season-changing qualities, the livelier shades are due to gain in prominence. In the new alligator line one finds butterscotch, Brittany rose, cornflower, amber, copper and ebony.

Caution is necessary in matching the varied copper shades with other accessories, but most stories today will have that problem already solved.

Spring shoe lines could hardly be called feminine were they not filled with novelties. First in the roll call are the wedge-soles, and next come the "pattens" or shoes with platform soles, while the evening sandals take the prize for fragility with net inserts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whitson were Sunday guests of the Basil Webbs.

Mesdames Redford Smith, W. G. Hardin and Basil Webb were Lubbock visitors, Saturday.

Mesdames Money Price and E. C. Davis spent Wednesday in Lubbock.

Paul Goodman, who has been an employee of the Cave store for the past year, has had a nice promotion and will be in charge of the new store recently opened in Seagraves.

Mrs. Orb Stice of Midland has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Kendrick.

Five Thousand Subjects Bow to This New Queen

Miss Mary Ann Walker of Wichita Falls was chosen by her classmates at Texas State College for Women to reign over the annual Cotton Pageant at Texas A. & M. College, April 8. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Walker, she is the seventh cotton queen.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By Julian Capers, Jr.

AUSTIN—With Karl Crowley of Washington, solicitor of the Post-office Department, definitely entered as a candidate for Governor, and Bill McCraw and Ernest Thompson at work on platforms which they expect to make public within ten days, the week end saw the Governor's race in Texas pretty well shaped up. Only the action Jim Ferguson planned to take remained a doubtful factor. The Ferguson enthusiasts insistently circulated reports here that Mrs. Ferguson will enter the race, and will make her announcement "in a few days," but this is the same story they have been telling in the Austin Hotel lobbies for weeks. Some newspaper speculation that "Farmer Jim" might support Crowley was heavily discounted here, because Crowley's announcement, if it reflects what he believes in, is diametrically opposed to most of the things that Ferguson stands for. Of late years, Ferguson has advocated the sales tax, almost to the exclusion of every other issue. There was nothing in Crowley's announcement to indicate he embraces the Fergusonian school of political thought. As a lone wolf, the experts here do not concede Crowley a place as a leading candidate, unless he surprises the folks and turns out to be a super-campaigner. His slashing attacks upon utilities and natural resource developers are not calculated to enlist the interest which contribute most liberally, as a rule, to campaign funds, and even the candidate himself did not appear to be very hopeful of his success. His talk of $2,000,000 campaign funds for Thompson and McCraw drew a laugh, and McCraw, talking off the record, remarked: "If he'll show me where there is a $2,000,000 campaign fund, I'll give him half of it, and get out of the race."

McCraw Off To Florida
The Attorney General was scheduled to leave the state for several weeks about April 11, to appear in a hearing on the Grech estate tax case at Miami, Fla. He was planning to announce his platform before he leaves, and resume active campaigning soon after his return.

Thompson, preparing also to announce a platform, was busy making arrangements for the opening of his campaign at Waco, April 12, where supporters from many Central Texas counties will gather to hear him fire his opening gun. Crowley has returned to Washington, to wind up his affairs and resign from his Federal job, since Federal regulations require such action when employees enter an elective political race.

Phares Is Ousted
Capt. L. G. Phares, organizer and chief of the State Highway Patrol, fell victim to the political storm which has broken about his head several times in recent years this week, and was removed from the Highway Patrol job by the Public Safety Commission. He will be assigned some inferior post in the department, members of the commission said. Capt. Homer Garrison, who has been Phares aide, was named to succeed him. The Commission reported he was removed for "incompatibility and a lack of cooperation with other units of the Department." The action is an aftermath of the bitter political rivalry that has existed between the Highway Patrol and the Rangers, ever since they were combined under one directing head. Phares was named first director of the department of public safety, but only after a bitter fight made by Rangers and their friends, and he finally succumbed to this pressure and resigned after a short service, returning to the Highway patrol job. Phares, ill at his home, has asked the Commission for a full explanation of his removal.

Col. House Passes
Simple burial rites of the Episcopal church, with burial at Houston for Col. Edward M. House removed from the Texas political scene one of its most influential figures, following his death in New York. Col. House, a mysterious figure who disliked publicity, was the "maker" of three Texas governors, and rose to be the closest friend and adviser of Woodrow Wilson, in whose cabinet he placed three distinguished Texans. President and Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, and many high ranking foreign officials, sent flowers offerings for the final rites of the soft-spoken Texan who wielded a powerful influence in national and international affairs after graduating from his political apprenticeship in Texas.

Names and News
The Court of Criminal Appeals sidestepped passing upon the eligibility of Judge Harry N. Graves, when it ruled the contest of Graves' eligibility brought by Waxahachi attorneys, contending he couldn't sit on the court because he was a member of the Legislature that raised the pay of the judges, was standing. Lawyers here say the only way Graves' eligibility could be attacked would be a quo warranto proceeding by the Attorney General, and few believe such an action will be brought. . . . The Federal Bureau of Public Roads has approved highway projects in Texas costing $15,900,000, on which the U. S. matches the State funds, for the 1939 program starting July 1. The Highway Department is several months ahead of last year in preparing its road plans for the new 1939 program. . . . Rail Commissioner Ernest Thompson, who offered to go to jail in a contempt case brought in a Dallas District court in connection with litigation by the Lone Star Gas Co. to keep the Rail Commission from aiding El Paso and other cities in a gas rate battle, won't have to go to jail, after all. The Fifth Court of Appeals held the Dallas court had no jurisdiction, and the litigation will have to be brought in Travis County courts, upholding the contention of the Railroad Commission. . . . Karl Hoblitzelle, theatre magnate and civic leader of Dallas, has undertaken to head up the movement to raise $500,000 by public subscription, with which to finance Texas' participation in the San Francisco and New York world fairs. . . . Seizure of foreign oil properties in Mexico will do little to relieve the surplus oil situation in Texas, officials here believe, since only about 9,000,000 barrels of Mexican oil were sent to the U. S. last year—equal to a week's run of Texas oil. The prospect now is that the Sunday shutdown policy will have to be continued at least another month, as surplus production continues to pile up in this country. . . . Seeking to make the unicameral legislature plan an issue in the Lt. Governor's race, Sen. G. H. Nelson of Tahoka opened his campaign this week at Atlanta, in East Texas. The Lieutenant Governor couldn't do much about this unicameral legislature, since it would require a vote by the people on a constitutional amendment to try it in Texas.

A Statement to Ginners of Texas
As Commissioner of Agriculture I wish to again remind the ginners of Texas of the importance, both to themselves and cotton farmers, that cotton must be not only properly ginned but that the bagging and ties with which the bale is wrapped MUST be of proper quality and weight. If the pattern of baggings and ties weighs less than 21 lbs. the farmer suffers an actual loss; his loss will vary according to the price of cotton. As the farmer sells his cotton after it is wrapped (gross weight) if less than 21 lbs. per pattern of bagging and ties are used as wrapping he loses the difference just as surely as if that much cotton lint was taken from the bale without his consent. Everyone familiar with the facts knows that under the trading rules and sales system now in common use, the price which is paid to the farmer for his cotton is based on the farmer being furnished about 21 lbs. per pattern of bagging and ties at the gin. The ginner, like any other good business man, will serve his own interest best by serving the farmer well. I sincerely hope all Texas ginners will protect the cotton farmers' interest by using full two pound bagging in wrapping the 1938 cotton crop. —J. E. McDONALD, Commissioner of Agriculture.

Terry County Gets $35,000 Auto License

According to Office Deputy, Sam White of the Sheriff-Tax-Assessor and Collection department of the county, there were 1829 cars registered in the county, and 400 trucks, divided almost equally between commercial and farm trucks. There were 50 trailers, 5 dealers, 2 buses and 3 motorcycle license issued.

The total was 2289. From these cars, trucks, etc., the county of Terry reaped the sum of about $35,000, which goes mostly into the road and bridge funds. There being no bridges in the county, it of course is used in maintenance of farm to market roads.

Quite a nice sum, and we believe our county officials will use every dollar of it judiciously.

Welborn Goes Into Oil Business Right

Our good friend, James M. Welborn and wife have recently returned from a visit to the Fat Stock show, as well as relatives and friends down at Alvarado in old Johnson county, where they saw Pete Pope and a lot of the other old timers. Other places were also visited while they were away.

We know you saw Jim's well rig ad in last week's Herald. Well, Welborn wants to buy your royalty, if the price suits. If you are a trader see him at his office in the Headstream building on the east side of the square. And tell him you saw his ad in the Herald—otherwise he might stop his ad.

Mrs. Madison Weaver is at home after undergoing a major operation in Lubbock.

Miss Vivian Moser and her mother, Mrs. W. A. Moser were visitors in Littlefield, Sunday.

O'Donnell Editor a Visitor Here Sunday

Editor and Mrs. W. G. (Bill) Forgy, of the O'Donnell Press were visitors in our city Sunday afternoon. Forgy Bros., until recently publishers in Haskell, moved their plant to O'Donnell, and have issued about four editions.

The Forgy Bros. are newspaper men of experience, having been in business in Oklahoma many years before coming to Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Forgy were over visiting their friends Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Taylor, who came from Haskell a few months ago, and put in a gent's store here.

THANKS TO VOTERS

John Vickers a Real Son Of Real Pioneers

From both sides of the house—family tree—John Vickers, candidate for Representative of this district, comes from pioneers of this section. His father came to this section soon after the writer, but settled in Lubbock, while we chose Brownfield. He was appointed by Gov. Colquitt the first district attorney of the new 32nd judicial district.

On his mother's side, his people were here before the organization of either Terry or Hockley county set up to housekeeping, his granddaddy being the Jarrott ranch on the line of the two counties. That was when his mother, Bessie Jarrott, was just a small girl.

By the way, John seems to like Brownfield mighty well. He was down last week, and came back to see us this week, but was on his way to Seagraves and Seminole.

ATTENTION PESSIMISTS

"Building for the future" is a reality as well as a slogan in Texas, if the amount of building permits is a true indication. Not including public works, a total of $4,475,942 worth of permits were issued in January, 1938. The largest amount was in Houston, where $1,177,795 went into construction work, and the next was in Dallas, with $965,343 worth of permits.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. McGowan visited her parents in Quanah, Texas over the week end. Mrs. Radford has been quite ill.

Mrs. Bill Jarrell is recovering nicely from a minor operation.

Price Cutter Has No Place in Business

Not one printer in a thousand (that's an optimistic statement) knows how much he must increase his volume when he cuts his prices 5 per cent. A manufacturer friend, Harold B. Neal, uses some figures to show what happens when a man doing business of a 25 per cent margin of profit starts to cut prices. He may know that in order to make the same money he will have to increase his volume, but he seldom knows how much. Here are some interesting figures:

- A cut of 5 per cent requires 25 per cent increase in volume.
  - A cut of 10 per cent requires 61 1/2 per cent increase in volume.
  - A cut of 12 1/2 per cent requires 100 per cent increase in volume.
  - A cut of 15 per cent requires 150 per cent increase in volume.
- Another delusion entertained by price-cutting printers is that by reducing the price they can increase their turnover and thus equalize the loss of profits. How much does turnover have to be speeded up? Look at these figures.
- A cut of 5 per cent requires a turnover of 1.32 times.
  - A cut of 10 per cent requires a turnover of 1.85 times.
  - A cut of 15 per cent requires a turnover of 2.29 times.
  - A cut of 20 per cent requires a turnover of 6.25 times.

Take those figures into some quiet place and do your own editorializing. You may also do the good Samaritan act by sharing them with other printers who may not know as much as you do about the evil results of price-cutting not based on common sense.—Panhandle Publisher.

CONSULT YOUR LOCAL INSURANCE AGENT

Of all the things any man purchases in his life time, life insurance should be bought with the greatest care. It is a tragic fact that a very large percentage of insurance buyers, knowing of underwriting or the tremendous scope of policies available, simply pick out a type of policy that "seems all right" and let it go at that.

These men don't realize that the face value of their insurance, or their annual premium, isn't the only arbiter of adequate coverage. You may pay five hundred dollars a year for insurance—yet be badly insured. And you may pay only two hundred a year—and be well insured.

It is here that the trained, conscientious insurance underwriter can and does perform an immensely valuable public service. Given a chance, he will investigate your case, analyze your obligations, personal needs and problems, and draw up a policy to fit. The knowledge and abilities of insurance agents have risen greatly in late years and a confidential talk with a good local agent can save you money—and, infinitely more important, give you the proper kind of insurance for your case.

A PROCLAMATION

By Gov. James V. Allred

Calling upon all citizens of Texas to cooperate in the campaign to wipe out tuberculosis, Governor James V. Allred today issued the following proclamation in connection with the eleventh Early Diagnosis Campaign of the national, state and local tuberculosis associations:

"WHEREAS, the prevalence of tuberculosis goes back to the individual—man, woman or child—as the key person in the prevention and in the eventual elimination of the disease; and

WHEREAS, the entire campaign against the tuberculosis would make greater headway if each individual, rich and poor, urbanite and ruralite, young and old, would regard it as his individual responsibility to know how he, his family and his community stand in relation to tuberculosis; and

WHEREAS, the Texas Tuberculosis Association, during the month of April, will sponsor an educational campaign emphasizing the responsibility of the individual to ascertain that he and his family are free from tuberculosis disease; that community facilities are available for the discovery of early cases; and that "open" cases of tuberculosis are properly isolated and treated until they become non-infectious;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JAMES V. ALLRED, Governor of the State of Texas, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 1938, as

FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS MONTH in Texas, and urge every man, woman and child of the State to learn the basic facts about this disease, and its prevention, and to cooperate in the state-wide effort to eradicate it from within our borders."

Mr. and Mrs. Murpha Luna and daughter of Plains were Brownfield shoppers this week.

Mrs. Hubert Gober of Meadow was in Brownfield, Monday.

Bob Schleusner of Dallas was a business visitor in town Tuesday.
