Brownfield Officer Promoted in Italy

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, ITALY.—Thomas T. Kizer, Brownfield, Texas, recently was promoted from second to first lieutenant, while serving on the Fifth Army front in Italy.

He is now a battalion motor officer with a field artillery battalion for the 85th "Custer" Infantry Division. Formerly, in civilian life, Kizer was an automobile salesman.

He entered service in May 1942, and was commissioned a second lieutenant in December of that year at Fort Sill, Okla. He served there and at Camp Shelby, Mississippi; Fort Dix, New Jersey; Camp Pilot Knob, and Coxcomb, Calif. Kizer received his combat promotion December 18, 1944.

His wife, Mary A., lives at 211 South 6th Street, Brownfield, Texas. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom T. Kizer, also live in Brownfield.

The lieutenant has two brothers serving in the army, Technical Sergeant W. L. Kizer, with the air corp in France and Pfc. Hollis D. Kizer with an engineer unit in the Philippine Islands.

Wage Statement Not Complete

Lubbock.—Wage statements requested by the Social Security Board by individuals for anticipated use in making out income tax returns is not complete for the last quarter of 1944 and therefore, cannot be used for income tax purposes, said Sam Leifesta, manager of the Lubbock Social Security Board Field office.

It was explained that any statement of such wages from this source would not include the latest report of earnings made to the collectors of internal revenue covering the last quarter in 1944, because of the time involved in posting such data to the records.

Mr. Leifesta said that several inquiries had been received regarding this matter owing to the fact that the time has arrived for considering paying income taxes for last year. Anyone desiring to secure a statement of his wages for income tax purposes can expect to receive from his employer a W-2 report including this information.

Sgt Snipes Commended By Gen. Douglas

A 7th AAF HEAVY BOMBER BASE IN THE MARIANAS—(delayed)—As a member of the famed 11th Heavy Bombardment Group of the 7th AAF, Sergeant Tracey L. Snipes, Brownfield, Texas, has been commended by Major General Robert W. Douglas, Jr., commanding the 7th AAF, for his part "in the campaigns which have taken a large section of the Pacific from the enemy's hands."

General Douglas issued his commendation along with a personal message of congratulations as the group rounded out its fifth year, one of the oldest, most travel heavy bomber outfits in the Pacific.

Based where its B-24 Liberators bomb, strafe and harass the enemy at points within 600 miles of the Japanese mainland, the 11th Group has participated in almost every major move of the great offensive that has rolled 3,000 miles to their own front yard.

Its fighting tradition began at Hickman Field when the group was all but destroyed in the Pearl Harbor attack. The 11th later sent bombs crashing down on Wake, and Guadalcanal.

It precision-bombed northward through the Gilberts, the Marshalls, the Carolines, the Marianas, bringing such targets as Truk, Tarawa and Guam within its bombsights. Now the Bonin and Volcano Islands are the targets for its attacks.

"The valiant record of your group is the valiant record of its men, both as a unit and as individuals," General Douglas declared.

Sgt. Snipes, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Snipes live in Brownfield, was graduated from Lorenzo high school and was engaged in farming before entering the Army January 28, 1941. He joined the 7th AAF in June, 1943 and is now a mechanic with an 11th Group Liberator squadron. Three brothers are also with the armed services. Buford is a private with the Field Artillery in France; Wilford is a Private First Class with the Air Forces in England, and Vernon is a private with the infantry.

They may only be cashed within the United States and are good for only two calendar months from the date of issue.

A gilt was donated to the chapter by the Sears Roebuck Company, so there will be four gilts given to the outstanding boys at the close of school this year.

In a shooting affray, about 10:30 Saturday night, in the flats in north part of Brownfield, Daisy Goobsbey, a negress, was shot six times in the torso, one or more shots penetrating the intestines from which she died late Monday evening, after receiving surgical aid. She was visiting in the two room home of Katie Ann with several other persons present.

Witnesses told investigating officers, the victim had exclaimed she seen someone peeping in the window, in a few minutes a Mexican came in the front door and went to shooting, with the above results.

Artega Alberta and Anselmo Sanchez, both from Lamesa, also were hit, one glancing across the breast, the other through the leg.

The Army Post Office of which Pfc. Malcolm is a member has, for the past year, been furnishing mail service and postal facilities to several heavy bombardment groups of the Second Bombardment Division, Eighth Air Force.

The APO is based with the 392nd Heavy Bombardment Group commanded by Col. Lorin L. Johnson, of Payson, Utah. This Group is one of the oldest members of the Division, commanded by Major-General William E. Kepner.

The 392nd participated in the long struggle to cripple decisively Germany's war machinery, bombing submarine and shipyards, airfields, aircraft factories, synthetic oil works, and flying bomb sights. On its logs are missions to Berlin, Friedrichshaven, Gotha, Bremen, Ploitz, and other targets in Germany, Poland, Belgium, Holland, Norway and France. Its 100th mission was made on D-Day in support of the initial landings in France and its 200th mission was made on Armistice Day. Since then the bombers of the 932nd have made many missions in support of the ground troops.

Do You Know What Was Done At Dumbarton?

Neither did we? Fact of the matter is, we read a brief review of the meeting, which newspapers sometimes call "the high points." That was all. But, as far as the full text of the agreement was concerned, this herd rider for the Herald knows just about as much of what took place at that beautiful old resort, a few miles outside of Washington, as we know about Banco's ghost.

And, Congressman Geo. Mahon is thinking along the same line, if you ask us. Being right up there where the treaties have to be made, and with nothing (?) else to do, he just decided, and perhaps more wisely than he admits, that out of 138 million people in the United States, all but 137,900,000 of them read what really took place at Dumbarton Oaks. Giving big odds, he thinks perhaps that 100,000 Americans read the agreements that were reached, at the conclave.

So, he has asked leave for the publication of a limited number of the documents for free distribution, where they "will do most good." He (George) missed it on us, perhaps, but we did receive a copy, read it and preserved it, and all those who care to read it, may have a gander at it at this office.

As George explained in a short attached note, "its long and fine print, but am sending one." We are not sure that many of the dailies, paper shortage being what it is, printed the full text.

Props Knocked Out From Under Prophet

On January 20th, after Stalin had taken Wasaw, and was going so strong into Germany, GWN who is often prophesying, got enthused and bet the firing would cease in Europe by Washington's birthday. Several local sports called him on it.

Later when the Reds reached the Baltic sea, and the Oder river, he couldn't find his bettees. But Thursday was the famous birthday and the deadline, and the guns have not ceased to boom in Europe.

So now, GWN swears he never bet with half the number that are now calling on him, and he is using an alibi that he didn't say what year.

T Sgt. Howard Keeps Radios in Repair

A FIFTEENTH AIR FORCE SERVICE COMMAND SERVICE SQUADRON, ITALY.—Technical Sergeant Joseph W. Howard, of Route 1, Brownfield, Texas, who is a Radio repair supervisor with a Fifteenth Air Force Service Command air service squadron that received the following commendation from Col. Arthur C. Agan, of Corpus Christi, Texas, commanding officer of the oldest fighter group in the AAF, which the squadron has served since Oct. 13, 1943.

"The excellent maintenance record of the group has been made possible by the exceptionally high standard of work done by its service squadron," the commendation said. "The vigorous efforts of the service squadron to secure replacement parts necessary to keep aircraft in commission has kept a maximum number of planes in operation."

The squadron's engineers have repaired 126 fighter planes and one heavy bomber since it started serving the group, and none of them has been returned to the service squadron for readjustment. Col. Agan pointed out. The sheet metal shop was able to manufacture camera mounts for all planes in the group by operating 24 hours a day.

Among the many items manufactured by the squadron were auxiliary fuel tank guards to protect flaps when the tanks are released, an oil pump adapter permitting change of engines, and an acetylene generator.

T/Sgt. Joseph W. Howard is the husband of Helen Howard, Rt. 3, Medford, Okla. He has been a member of the United States Army since June 27, 1941, and has been overseas since August 23, 1943.

Local Banker Tries Radio Products

A well known local banker, semi-retired, has greatly aided the Radio Sponsors between the newspapers, to prevent a manpower shortage in listeners. Having become reconciled to his recent transition, from the era of telling his patrons what to do, to his present status of being told what to do, just fell in line as a good Democrat should, and decided to go totalitarian, and try everything advertised over his radio.

So, last Saturday, he went to his favorite store as directed, and procured one or more of each item, he had heard so irresistably sponsored.

Sunday morning, after taking his usual number of vitamins, he arose with War Time, although his Madza was still brilliant, the clouds low ceiling, and misplacing his binoculars, his visability was limited to a dm-out. Being disgusted with reading instructions, he decided to take first and read afterwards. In his haste, he sprinkled Irium on his hair, and poured Krenl in his oatmeal, Salhapatica in his Sanka, washed his teeth with Lifebouy, and now wonders why his cigarets taste differently. He blushed lightly when he poured Apple Honey in his Bull Durham, and turned red all over when he plunged into his bath filled with Gebharts.

As he yelled, Good Gulf, here came Jergens out of that like the Flying Red Horse. And when his wet feet hit the Glotice, he Rinsed across the floor, with only a Minit Rub, when he found himself so "Firm, so Fully Packed" into the northwest corner of the room, he then exclaimed, "well, I Swani!" Can you top this?

Moral: Always read instructions first.

TEXAS TUMBLEWEED

Across the Texas Plains roar driving winds

That roll the tumbling weed that often clings

To stunted trees; the twisted mesquite lends

A bough of thorns to hold the ghostly things.

The cattle stand and watch with stolid eyes,

The ashen ball that shadows as it flies

Against the rocks and dust of shallow ground,

In slippers, silver spiked that make no sound.

NEW CHIROPRACTIC LICENSING LAW

Austin, Tex., Feb. 20.—A new Chiropractic Licensing Law bill, designed to replace the law passed by the Forty Eighth Texas Legislature and later invalidated by the Court of Criminal Appeals, has been heard in committee and referred to Attorney General Grover Sellers, for an opinion as to its constitutionality.

As usual the Chiropractic licensing law bill is highly controversial and, after a spirited debate, the measure was sent to the Attorney General on a 11 to 10 vote with the chairman breaking the tie.

The measure, as proposed, follows the lines of the law passed by the last session of the Texas Legislature, removing certain features declared unconstitutional by the Court of Appeals. It provides for a Chiropractic Licensing Board, fixes penalties for violations, and provides extremely educational requirements.

The measure will be returned to the Committee on Public Health of the House of Representatives after a thorough study by Attorney General Sellers.

ITS SPRAYING TIME FOR TERRY ORCHARDS

Dormant spraying pays well for the time and money spent. Dormant spraying of peach and plum trees is done to control brown rot, scab and curculio. Pears and apples may also be sprayed. Curculio is the name of the little worm that gets into peaches and plums later in the season. Dormant spraying is done with Lime Sulphur solution which may be obtained commercially and used according to directions during February and early March. Orchard owners are cautioned not to use this type of spray after buds begin to swell noticeably since it is sufficiently strong to damage growth of the trees at that period. One application is sufficient to control most of the diseases of peach and plums.

The man who has apple trees will want to spray to prevent codling moth damage. The codling moth lays eggs in the apple blossom and later in the bud end of the apple itself from which the larvae hatch and bores into the apple causing it to be wormy and drop off at a later date.

The codling moth is controlled by spraying with a lead arsenic solution (Note, must be agitated constantly since lead arsenic will not dissolve readily) while the blossoms are on the tree. Spraying should be done when the owner estimates that 10 percent of the bloom petals have fallen off. Use 2 pounds of lead arsenic to 50 gallons of water. Spray trees liberally making sure no live stock are permitted near the trees for sometime afterward since lead arsenic is very poisonous. Repeat at two to three weeks intervals till apples are half grown if codling moths are observed flying in or around trees. Trees should not be sprayed if apples are near maturity since arsenic residue may accumulate.

Tech Recommends Adobe Graineries

Lubbock, Tex., Feb. 20.—"Why Use Dobe?" is the title of a bulletin edited by Dr. W. C. Holden of Texas Technological College in which recommends dobe construction for barns, granaries and other farm buildings. Instructions for building with dobe, supplemented by illustrations, make it easy for the farmer to take the bulletin and do his own building.

There are three reasons, Dr. Holden points out, why dobe construction is timely. Lumber is exceedingly scarce now, and the amount of dobe available is limited only by the energy and effort one wishes to expend. When lumber can be obtained, for many uses its price is prohibitive. And dobe furnishes an ideal building material in the Southwest—cool in the summer and warm in the winter.

In comparing the relative cost of building a grainery 20 feet by 24 feet by 8 feet, material for such a building at the present price of lumber would cost $671. Built of dobe the cost of materials would be $198.50. Dr. Holden says that dobe construction, if done properly, will last indefinitely. The Taos Indians, he points out, are still living in the same dobe houses they were inhabiting many generations before Columbus was born.

A copy of this bulletin free and postpaid will be mailed to anyone interested. Requests should be made to the Tech Press, Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas. Seven full page drawings in the bulletin are by Prof. W. L. Bradshaw of the Tech department of architecture.

Our fine old brother-in-law has been ailing of late down there at Coahoma, and his wife, a sister of our frau, has been trying to get us to visit them some time, but business and no help, prevented. But late Saturday, we just decided to make the jaunt anyway, accompanied by Mrs. Bernard Lay and daughter, Jo Ann.

Got in there just about dark, and found all up, but Joe is confined to his room pretty close with a kidney ailment, that is pretty sapping to a man of his age. Had lots to eat and a good bed, but as usual those old Tay and Pay trains roaring through at all hours of the night, are rather disturbing to a guy off a branch line with one mixed train a day.

Found lots of land up and ready for the next crop in Terry, Dawson and Howard counties. A new oil well is going down in the Welch section, where there are already several producers. As we neared Big Spring, we ran into those always on hand, raven by the thousands. We hope they never take up in this country, and probably won't as we have no good roosting places.

A mighty good place to visit for a bit of change of scenery and rest or a couple who are having to take the place of two or three young people.

Horace Rambo called in to renew, last week.

Staff Sgt. Thomas A. Hicks has notified his wife and other relatives that he is now in France. He had received some copies of the Herald which he had read with very much interest.

Ms Donavon F. Stafford and daughters Suzanne and Sandra, visited Donavon in Monahans, last week.

The Santa Fe railroad report rather serious box car shortage in the United States on account of big blizzards in the northeast which stopped the movement of loaded as well as unloaded cars. For that reason, we of the southwest, where weather has been almost springlike, are asked to unload cars as soon as possible after arrival.

Relatives of the C. E. Yeatts family living here, had the paper started to them this week at Santa Barbara, Calif. Their comment was that they liked California, but couldn't do without the old home town paper.

J. J. Whitley was in this week to renew, and reported his son and daughter who visited them a few weeks ago, are now back in California, and "hard at it again."

Mrs. Glenn Harris brought in the renewal of her mother-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Harris, last week, making around 40 odd years this name has been renewed.

J. D. Wilson, city, is another brand new reader. All are welcome.

Malcolm Timmons was down from the Meadow community, and dropped in to renew.

HAVE YOU HEARD THE GOOD NEWS?

Bro. Davis, formerly of Jacksonville Texas, has moved to Brownfield, and is going to preach and do personal work in connection with the north Second Street Church of Christ.

Bro. Davis, wife and three children, will reside at 808 east Broadway, and extend to each and everyone a most cordial invitation to hear him preach, and visit in their home. Are you a brother in Christ? The church needs you—you need the church.

Church services at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. each Sunday.

North Second St. CHURCH OF CHRIST

CITY ORDINANCE

State of Texas, County of Terry, City of Brownfield:— Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Brownfield, Texas:

All commercial garages having washracks shall discharge into a two-compartment sandtrap made of concrete. Blueprints and specifications may be obtained from the plumbing inspector. Details of plans to be strictly followed by contracting plumber; waste to not less than four inches cast iron heavy soil pipe to three feet of outside wall of building and where inclosed the same shall be re and local vented as per blueprint. Local vent shall not be allowed to connect with vents from sewer side of any trap.

Any building or place of business where gasoline, benzene, naphtha or other inflammable oils or compounds are used, shall be provided with traps as garages.

All laundries, cleaning plants, creameries, bottling works, abattoirs, canneries and vegetable and fruit cleaning or processing, or any other user of the city's sanitary sewer, which in the opinion of the plumbing inspector or shall have catch basins, grease traps or other protective traps, may obtain plans for such traps from the City Plumbing Inspector.

Any person, firm or corporation who fails or refuses to comply with the above, upon conviction, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not to exceed $200.00.

The fact that the City of Brownfield does not have an adequate ordinance to protect its sanitary sewer system, creates an imperative public necessity that the rule requires three separate readings, and said ordinance is placed on its last reading.

Passed and approved this the 16th day of February, 1945. (Signed) Jesse D. Cox, Mayor, City of Brownfield

Attest: Herbert Chesshir, City Secretary 31c

Marion Bowers, who is taking an engineering course in the Navy V-2 unit, in the University of Illinois, at Urbana, left Wednesday to spend a few days between semesters with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bowers. He will probably arrive today.
