Terry Badly Draging On War Bond Quota

J. O. Gillham, Chairman of the Terry County War Loan drive, stated Wednesday, that up to Saturday, only $60,281.25 had been subscribed on our large quota of E bonds, while about $91,000 of other series has been sold. This is a long, long way from our E quota of $290,000, and the overall quota of $445,000.

Mr. Gillham urges that you get into line right now, and help boost the bond sales in every way you can. If you have already bought, buy some more if you possibly can. Those boys over there in the fox and shell holes of Okinawa are depending on the home people to back them up.

If they are willing to risk their very lives over there, it is mighty little we can do here at home by INVESTING our money in the world's greatest securities. Do it today. Don't wait for someone to call. The committees are busy folks just like you. So don't take their time up by having them call on you personally. You should not be expected to be begged to buy these bonds.

It almost seems silly to the Herald to have to write the above appeal. We hear such appeals over the radio and in the dailies. It does appear to us as valuable as these bonds will be in a few years, and as sure as they are, we would not almost have to drag a bloody shirt before people to get them to invest in these bonds.

Capt. Murphy May Among the "Firsts"

This week we happened to see some commendations from the high ranking flying officials to Captain Murphy May of this city, which stated that most any competent flyer can fly on the beam, but that it was some special honor to be among the "firsts" to fly to and from captured enemy air fields.

Among the signers of this document was, Curtis A. Keen, Colonel, Air Corps Commanding. He was joined in the commendation by Major S. L. Greenfield; Lt. Col., Fred M. Glass; Col. John R. Killgore and Col. Robert M. Love.

Last but not least, let an old friend from the babyhood of Capt. May join these high ranking officers in congratulating Murphy. They know his ability from performance; we know it from appreciating his determination at all time to do his duty.

Memory of Service Men Commemorated

On Memorial Day the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs will commemorate the memory of all Texas boys and girls who have given their lives in this war. A pecan tree will be planted on the grounds of the Federated Club house in Austin.

Members of the various federated clubs were asked to send a pound of dirt in order for each county in the state to have a portion of soil around the base of the tree. Mrs. E. C. Davis mailed the pound for Terry county from the Maids and Matrons Club, Monday.

The Old He Gets a Few Chigger Bites

Yeah! this week kseems kinder like old times back 40 some odd years ago when we lived in central Texas. Between times when we are trying to write copy, keep the linotype or news press going, grabbing a bite to eat, or a nap, we have a fierce engagement sometimes with a very minute insect some folks call a "red bug," while others refer to them as "chiggers." Anyway, they are small and red and they are evidently a bug, and the only reason they are so visible, they have a deep red pigment against your more or less white or tanned skin.

The little runts are hog wild after human flesh, and in just a few hours they have raised a big red bump 100 times their size or more that itches and stings like all get out. But people who like to fish regard them as one of the hazards they have to face to get their fish. Personally, we are not crazy about fishing—never was, but this is not saying we don't like cooked, fresh fish. We had plenty of perch and two sizeable channel cat while at Brownwood lake over the week end.

By the way we think we have found a new near way to Brownwood. Post to Rotan, via Clairmont, Rotan to Hamlin, Anson, Abilene, Coleman, etc, 263 miles. Just a bit of trouble going, at Coleman, where our battery played out, as brushes weren't working on the generator. Got a quick "charge," although at 11 p. m., and rolled into Brownwood, where the juice recuperating device was worked over next day.

Found the kids and pup all hunkadora, and Herman hauling some passengers in his big fast motor boat at the State Park section of the lake, but failed to get us into that contraption again. We are allergic to too much water; a bathtub full is almost too much water to suit us. We are kin to that gal whose mother advised her to "hang her clothes on a hickory limb and not go near the water."

Anyway, we had a delightful time, as the chiggers did not bother until we returned home. But after being down in that section, from Snyder on, where some crops are up and planting is in operation, and much of it too wet to get in the fields, everything green, etc., it made us almost sick Sunday night when we returned home to find that a sandstorm had raged all day, and a bad one at that.

Why can't the weatherman devise a better system of distribution?

LANIER BARN BURNED MONDAY NOON

The Service Men's Dependants Miss Benefits

Judge C. L. Lincoln, county service officer, stated this week that he had encountered a number of dependants of service men, who had not obtained benefits allowed them under government regulations, because they failed to know their rights, or had been ill advised.

He points out that the GI Bill of Rights, together with pre-existing laws cover a wide field, and naturally is complicated, and no doubt many service men and dependants are missing their just dues.

Judge Lincoln has made special study of the subject, and is prepared to advise and aid these people, without charge.

Freedom of the Press

GW
If every person and corporation, in this country, were as sensitive about their rights, as the newspapers are the "freedom of the Press" this would be one helluva noisy place. Earthquakes and boiler shops would be mere whispers, and riveters would die from silence. From the Daily's eternal squawks, one would think, this government is founded on paper, and ink is the staff of life. That commentators are of Divine lineage, and reporters have haloes on their pens, that the country would fall down and go boom, if the press should miss a bus. That all those many other hobbies in the Bill of Rights, and Constitution, are mere twinkles, out shone by the Saturn of the Press.

Every individual is restrained and limited through life, from dropping dope in the new baby's eyes, to grandpas death certificate. Every business and industry is licensed, inspected and reports required. Every official has limited authority, even to the Courts. But let, even the Army General thumbs down a moment on the correspondents—it's anathema.

Of course, the press has its good uses, as does everything else. We like to read of the news of the world, good or bad, we can believe it or not, or take it or leave it. But news is not news until it happens, and then only when we hear of it. The public doesn't profit by its promptness, nor lose by a few hours delay. Old John Q. is not interested in rumors, and unconfirmed reports, of our military activity. General Ike, is making the news; let him say when to divulge it.

The recent tempest in the ink-pot in France over news of the surrender is fair sample, of the necessity for army censorship.

Its alright for the family hound to sit outside and bark when dinner is late, but for him to wedge plum into the kitchen, and smell of what's cooking, then run out and bark it to all the neighbors, what we are going to have, why blame the cook to slam the door in his face, or whichever end may be the last out.

Present company, in this case is excepted. The good old country weekly takes its time. Gatherers and records the incidents of his community after they have happened, and announces coming events. It indulges the utmost respect for those named in its columns, and due regards for the moral welfare of its country. It has a more all-out purpose than a "scoop."

The press is in less danger from the loss of its freedom, than the country is from too much Freedom of the Press Excessiveness and intemperance, always brings about restraint. Often necessary. Correspondents are no better than the rest of us, and should be held no less amenable.

Mrs. L. Robinson Jr., of O'Donnell, visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bynum, last week end.

Where Did it Rain Saturday Night

There was a rumor current around town, early this week, that during the quiet and peaceful hours of Saturday midnight several persons, seen the lightning flash and heard the that our local weather duration thunders roll, and in their joy was ended turned back to happy dreams. But it seems these, like some other famous rumors here lately, in unconfirmed.

We would be glad to make an official announcement, but after checking, and fine combing with diligent inquiry of visitors from all parts of the county, found only dry alibis. It must of been one of those hit and run freaks of nature, that run before it are skeptical, that the thunder hits. Being on Saturday night we they heard, was for coming home so late.

Heave Ho! To The Mighty Seventh

GW
The word "heave" means to raise up, lift, to pant, pull and push over. It was the common signal used by sailors, and meant for all hands to raise the sails, so the ship could move, or to raise the anchor, loosening the ship so it could move on its way. It was commonly used when several were to act together.

Churchill revived the word a few month ago, when he said: "One big heave and Germany will topple." The Allied armies did heave together, and Germany toppled. Another heave or two, and Japan will go over and down. Our army, navy and air force in the Pacific are heaving together, but the home folks must heave with all the world means, to raise and push over the top, the Mighty Seventh War Loan Bond issue, now in its second week.

J. O. Gillham, County Chairman of the drive, showed the first of the week returns of $60,000 in E Bonds, and $90,000 in all others, which indicates that old Terry will heave up its quota of $455,000. Though we are far short so far, with everyone doing their fair part as usual, it is expected that the retreating Japs will get no respite through this county's delay.

David Perry Writes From the Marianas

David Perry SF 1/C, "sot down and writ" us recently from his base in the Marianas, mostly to renew his Herald which he said he carelessly let expire. But some other thought got working among his brain cells, and he deposed and said a lot.

Among other things, David, who was practically reared here, and married a charming Brownite, says that while he has been away about five years, this is still home to him, and many, many people he knows are mentioned each week. Also, that another Terryite, O. D. Hicks, and a "big devil" is in his battalion, and that he (David) feels quite comfortable in having a big Texan like O. D. by his warm side. O. D., he says, also gets the Herald.

Then he tells of us a little memographed paper his outfit puts out of which he is to send us a few copies, and he feels that we may even find a few of the jokes copied from the Herald. His letter came by air, but presumably the paper is coming by slower method.

Last but not least, David let it out of the bag that most of the battalion is composed of damn-yankees, and that some of the stuff they put out is hard for Texans to get under, but mostly they are swell guys, he says.

As a farewell message, he says the islands are beautiful and like our son, Junior is by Hawaii, he "lows as how it would be a fine place to spend a vacation—if a guy could leave when he wanted to do so. Come again, David.

We have been told that traveling broadens one. One sure does learn by just a little travel these days, and one of them is, that everyone is doing just as we are doing here at home—using inefficient help. During our recent little trip, some of the service (?) stations we stopped at, the attendant was so old he hated to get up out of his chair to get one a coke, or they were so young they scarcely knew which end was up. And that goes for cafes and other places the traveler usually stops at. But of all the joints we go was at a sizable county seat town Sunday afternoon. Before the war, if you wanted road information for the next 100 or so miles—just ask a service station operator. We asked a guy apparently between 40 and 45 year of age if there was pavement between his town and town A, 17 miles northwest, and then to town B, 20 miles west of town A. After some hesitation he was a bit sure that it was paved to A, but thought there was some dirt roads between A and B. This left us to wonder if the guy ever got out of town, or ever looked at a road map, rather hard to get now. A competitor across the street gave us the information we wanted, and we learned the paving all the way to B had been in for several years. "Where ignorance is bliss" etc.

Finally after years of fighting, arguing, many trips to Washington, and the expenditure of a lot of money for legal talent and the like, the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington has finally handed down a decision that freight rates should be alike all over the United States without discrimination to any section. The south and west are rejoicing over the victory, but the north and east, especially the down east Yankee section of New England, are taking the decision to heart since they maintain that wage scales are lower in the south, as well as lower living conditions. But what they want is the old privilege of being able to ship from New England to Kansas City cheaper than a manufacturer in Dallas can ship the same item to Kansas City, several hundred miles closer. If it is any satisfaction for them to live in that ice bound region, it's no skin off our heels. But it sure did make those old reprobates mad at the south, and to get even we shall soon hear from them on their old insult—social equality and the poll tax question. If they wish social equality, which they really do not, that is their business; if we southern people do not want it, it should be our business. The Herald does not mean by that we oppose equal economical opportunities, if the qualifications are equal.

The Canyon News in an editorial last week, brought out some very timely comment on the autocratic censorship of news dispatches from the east front. The News stated very correctly that many times articles were published in London and Moscow a day or two before being released to US papers. This was true of the story of the invasion of last June. The News closed the article with the wish that MacArthur and Nimitz would not allow foreign domination of the news on the Asiatic front. Maybe they wont, Editor Warwick, but all of us are quite familiar with the fact that the Japs have been telling us of invasions in that area days and sometimes weeks before our hard-boiled censors give a release "held for military purposes." Just what these "military purposes" are, long after the whole world knows it, they don't state. Like the News, the Herald has a rather vague idea that some of the big boys just want to show their authority. Our country is becoming so disgusted with dictators at home and abroad, that after the war is over, there will be another, perhaps bloodless, we hope, to rid our land of them, or else freedom as we once knew it, goes over the back fence.

A Tech Prof. has written a book of 600 pages, think of that, which he entitles "W. Lee O'Daniell and Texas Politics" and covers the period from about 1938 to 1942. There are a lot of people here who do not believe Pappy would read 6 pages, let alone 600. Neither does the Herald intend to use the three typewritten pages of advertising about the book sent us by Tech college prop. in a department. About all the time we have to read is devoted to Capt. Easy. And we imagine the average reader feels the same way. Few will want to read 600 pages to find out what might be said in six.

There are a few people who think the government can do a better job running a business than private individuals or corporations, that have long been trained to do the job. But we older guys had a fair sample of government operations of railroads during the other war. We paid double rates for poorer service. When people get the idea that some "wise guys" at Washington with no railroad experience whatever, can do as good a job running them as men who have come up in railroading the hard way, they are just nuts. And veterans say no one gets such well organized service in government about those here in the United States, as in private hospitals, where the physicians, and not some "planner" has the last say.

Destroying the Greatest Freedom Of All

The chickens of labor radicalism are coming home to roost. The action of the great labor monopolies in expelling members who refuse to pay assessments for political action which they oppose, should alarm every free thinking man and woman.

Expulsion of six of its members who objected to their union leaving a compulsory tax on them for political purposes contrary to their beliefs in the election last November, is announced by the A.F. of L. Painters' Union local in Los Angeles. This is in line with the expulsion of Cecil B. DeMille. All are denied the right to work at their trade or profession.

Will the American people stand for this kind of treatment of war veterans when the rule is applied to them? And yet if we tolerate such dictation to helpless workers now, through the failure to pass remedial legislation, what can the veterans expect? When any organization can deny a man the right to work in the United States, this nation is no longer a free country — for the greatest freedom of all, the right to earn a living, has been destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rouidon, and son, are moving back to Ft. Worth this week. They have been located here since Sept.

Mrs. V. R. Gressett writes in from Brownwood that she is getting lonesome without the Herald. And enclosed the dough for its weekly visits. Mrs. Gressett is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Goldston, old settlers of Terry, now of Denver City.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

I reckon, first and last, in his philosophy, my grandpa — like Shakepeare—touched on every subject. Here are some of the sayings that Bartlett and Stevenson left out of their big books of quotations because they didn't know my grandpa:

A chicken is a wonderful animal; it's good to eat before it's born and after it's dead.

Logic and theory are all right—but you can whip a cow and still she won't give whipped cream.

If a rabbit's foot means good luck, how did the rabbit ever lose it?

A practical joker is the most impractical person there is.

Here's an old saying: "The Lord Looks After Fools and Drunkards." The word "fools" includes both.

Maybe that old saying is true but who looks after the families of drunkards?

The Greens were the richest people in our town when I was growing up. They had a pair of matched bays and a fine carriage and a driver who wore a plug hat—(some other clothes, too, of course but I remember the plugged hat in particular). But when the Greens went to the world's fair in St. Louis in 1904, they came back very indignant. They said: "Nobody paid any more attention to us than they did to anyone else."

Old Brother Smithers is my kind of folks. Sycamore Hollow was having a drouth and the food supply was about to run out, so a special service was called and Parson Browning was praying, "Oh, Lord, send us 20 sides of meat; five barrels of flour; a barrel of salt; a barrel of pepper"—and Brother Smith-

A letter came from Albert Endersen of Fort Worth, he and wife both being old timers. Albert enclosed the mazuka for another year and stated, "The Herald comes in on Monday, and we then sit down and read the whole paper."

T-5 William D. Jones is visiting friends here while on a 21-day furlough, after 35 months overseas. He will report to Hot Springs, Arkansas for re-assignment after his furlough.

Mrs. Eldora A. White received a postcard Tuesday from the Temple Baptist Church in Los Angeles, saying her son, S2-C Ted White, had visited there on Sunday May 13.

The Methodist Vacation Bible school will begin May 28th at nine o'clock. Children from four years to fourteen years of age are invited to attend.

Miss Mattie Sue Powell of Lubbock, who is the Northwest Texas Youth Director will be here June 23rd through 29th at the Methodist church. She will be here to help with the Youth Caravan. The Presbyterian church will collaborate with the Methodist in this enterprise.

Sixty-four persons had crossed the Atlantic Ocean by air before Charles Lindberg made his solo flight. Several airplanes and the English dirigible, R-34, had made trips across.

ers broke in, "That's too much pepper; five pounds will be plenty."

You won't plant a garden because you have to wait so long to get a mess of string-beans and potatoes? Well, try planting a garden and, the same day, borrow a hundred dollars at the bank, due in 60 days, and see how time flies!

It's important that the gardening you do this summer brings good results. You certainly don't want to waste all the time you put into it—all the seed and other supplies you use. To insure a successful garden, use our success-aids in precision tools.

A HINT TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT

None of us like to gripe at anyone who does not return the gripe. It appears that we have lost that much effort and breath if the gripe fails to return the gripe of the griper. Evidently our late society editor felt that way about the matter, but newspaper folks always have the last word, even with women. The following long, last gripe appeared on our desk the day that Mrs. Coleen Hord resigned, and is fairly typical:

"Dear Mr. Stricklin: Gripe, Gripe, Gripe! Here is $1.00 for a year subscription as I won't get the Herald anymore complimentary. If you need any more griping, call 363-J. I'm at your service."

1500 Miles... and No Service Stations!

BOEING B-29 SUPERFORTRESS

The round trip to Tokio

is over water all the way. There aren't any emergency landing fields—just those endless, marching lines of big, green Pacific rollers.

It's no wonder, then, that the flight engineer on a B-29 is one of the most important men aboard. They call him the "gasoline salesman"—the fellow who nurses that big baby along and makes every single drop of 100-octane fuel count. And we think there's a pretty good moral in his story for you folks.

After all, you're the "flight engineer" of your car. And though you won't get a ducking in the Pacific if you let her run out of gas, you still can't afford to neglect your car's running order. Because you have a direct responsibility to your Uncle Sam to "Care for your car for your country!"

Too many cars are going off the road these days just because of needless neglect. And those irreplaceable cars are part of our vital war-time transportation system!

But you can easily take that added ounce of precaution which will keep your car purring along—and your Phillips 66 Service Man will be delighted to help you!

He'll check your tires for cuts and bruises and criss-cross them with the spare; he'll check your oil and water and brakes; he'll look at your battery and oil filter, and he'll keep his eyes open for loose nuts and bolts, too. In fact, your Phillips 66 Service Man will do all the things he does for many of your neighbors—all of them part of the Phillips Car-Saving Plan that keeps 'em rolling!

For your car's sake as well as your country's—stop in the next time you see the Orange and Black 66 Shield... the sign of famous Phillips 66 Gasoline and Phillips 66 Motor Oil.

YOU'RE ONLY A FOOT FROM TROUBLE ✓✓✓ CHECK YOUR BRAKES!

American Prisoners say:

"WE WANT TO GET BACK AT THE JAPS!"

MATCH THEIR SPIRIT in the MIGHTY

7TH WAR LOAN DRIVE

YES, despite their long months and years of privation and suffering, those gallant men, just released from filthy Jap Prison Camps, still have their good old fighting spirit. They're itching to get back into the fight and give the Nips a taste of their own medicine.

Let's show them that we're not quitting either! Let's match their spirit with our dollars! Let's make this MIGHTY 7th War Loan the mightiest of them all!

But to come even close to matching their sacrifices, everyone here at home must buy War Bonds until it hurts. Buy double or treble the extra War Bonds you've bought in any previous drive. Remember, this is really two drives in one. In the same period last year, you were asked to subscribe to two War Loans.

So let's go, Americans. Our hard-fighting Soldiers, Sailors and Marines are giving their ALL. The least we can do is to lend our dollars.

Why the Biggest Job in town carries no pay!

WHAT is the biggest job in your town—in anybody's town, between May 14th and June 30th?

It's that of the man or woman who will ask you to buy extra War Bonds in the 7th War Loan.

It carries no pay because the people who are doing this work are good Americans. In addition to buying extra Bonds themselves, they're willing to give their time to a job that's as important as anything outside the battle lines.

It's important—and it's big. Making our quotas in the 7th War Loan is a man-sized job for everybody.

Uncle Sam needs 7 billion dollars from individual Americans in the 7th! That's a bigger quota than ever before. It's bigger because this is really 2 loans in 1—last year, by this time, we had bought Bonds in 2 Loans instead of one.

And it's bigger because the need is bigger. We're building up a whole new air force, with new jet-propelled planes and even huger bombers. We're building more tanks, mortars, and everything for the increasingly bitter struggle with Japan. And we're paying the mounting cost of victory—taking care of wounded men who are arriving in this country by thousands every month.

So—be ready when one of these War Bond workers comes to you. Open your door, your heart, your purse—for the 7th War Loan. Help America to make its quota—by making yours!

FIND YOUR QUOTA . . . AND MAKE IT!

FUTURE HOMES MOSTLY WOOD CONSTRUCTION

Austin, Texas, May 17.—Homes in Texas of tomorrow will continue to be built of wood, but much hollow tile and gypsum plaster will be used, and interior finishings will be different.

These predictions are made by a University of Texas chemical engineer, Dr. W. A. Cunningham, who has made a study of gypsum plaster and other materials. Plastic and magnesium alloys will be used for window trimmings, door trimmings, for certain household appliances, and plastic will be used for screens, he says.

"Hollow tile is especially good or homes because the outstanding production is in Texas, it has excellent insulating values, and it is adaptable to air-conditioning."

Another important feature of the homes of the future, according to Walter T. Rolfe, chairman of the department of architecture, is that homes will be built to take advantage of sunlight. The use of glass to permit sunshine both summer and winter, simplicity of lines, and utilization of natural environment will mark the new homes, he says.
