

Second War Veteran Killed In Car Wreck

Hillard Fuller, 24, discharged two months ago from the U. S. Navy after three years service mostly in the south Pacific, was instantly killed, about 2 o'clock a. m., last Sunday morning, when the car he was driving careened head on into a Butane gas truck on the highway, just south of Meadow. His two sisters, Ethel, 12, and Thelma, 14, sustained lacerations and bruises necessitating hospital treatment. One of them is in the local hospital, in a critical condition.

Fuller had been to Brownfield visiting another sister, Mrs. Hazel Madden, a waitress in a local cafe and was returning to his parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fuller, a few miles northwest of Meadow. The truck was coming south. It was thought a tire blew out on the Fuller car, causing it to make the sudden turn in path of the truck.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church at Meadow, Tuesday at 3:30 p. m., followed by burial in the Meadow cemetery. Military honors were accorded the victim, at the graveside by the Howard-Hinson post of the American Legion, of Brownfield.

He is survived by his parents and the three sisters and a brother, G. D. Fuller, now in the army, but who is expected to be discharged in the next few days, if not already. The funeral was deferred in an effort to reach him in transit. The Fullers have lived near Meadow for four years.

This is the second war veteran killed by automobile accident in the county recently. Roy H. Shue, who had just returned from four years with the Marines, in combat service in the south Pacific, was instantly killed on Dec. 14, three miles south on Seagraves highway.

Opening Up An Upholstery On Highway

Mrs. Ralph Hyman was in this week and informed us that her husband was opening an upholstery business in the old Highway Laundry location at 214 S. First St. He has purchased the equipment of the late John Dumas, and will have experienced workmen to do the job for you.

They will do all makes of cars, including tailor made seat covers, side panels and headings. Ralph is in Dallas this week making purchases of stock. They'll make the inside of your car look like new.

Five Tons Of Clothing Shipped From Here

Oliver (Slim) Schillinger, chairman of the War Clothing drive, just ended, reports they have collected and shipped ten thousand pounds of clothing, donated by the people of Terry county. He was loud in praise for the liberal help of the schools. Jesse G. Randal, and West Ward school collected 6100 pounds. The other schools, did excellent work, too. Plains brought a liberal collection.

The Lions clubs, sponsors of the drive, have been busy for three nights early this week, assorting and packing them for shipment to Fort Worth warehouse for overseas shipment. Thanks goes to the city trucks for such prompt response in hauling from various depots to Sids warehouse. All the Tailor shops responded helpfully. It was learned that most of the clothing and shoes were in good condition, and no doubt will be eagerly accepted by the millions of shivering children in war torn Europe, people who had nothing to do with bringing on the war.

The school children here who so valiantly worked to collect these articles have cause to be happy, for the relief they bring to others. Those most directly responsible for the war will likely be clothed,

Preston E. Smith Announces Candidacy For Re-Election

Preston E. Smith, Lubbock theater owner and state representative for the 119th district, has announced that he would seek re-election to the post in the Democratic primaries during the coming summer.

PRESTON E. SMITH

"I'm offering for re-election simply because I believe with the experience gained during the past session of the legislature I am better equipped to serve the people of the district than a new man who goes to Austin," Smith said. "I am convinced, more than ever, that what we need in the legislature is experienced men, those who know their way around down there, who to see, and how to get things accomplished."

Cites Redistricting Problem
"Of primary importance to the people of West Texas is the matter of redistricting the state," Smith said. "We've got to get this task accomplished next session if possible and it certainly can't be done with inexperienced legislators from West Texas in Austin."

Smith said another incentive for his seeking re-election to the post was his ambition to secure equal recognition and consideration for Texas Technological college, not only in the matter of appropriations, but in division of the permanent fund for higher education, commonly called "the university fund."

Waged Fight On Fund

Fox And Mayfield Open New Business

Featuring a complete line of Cook's paints, varnishes and wall-paper, as well as other builder's needs, Ted Fox and Ed Mayfield are now open for business in their new building at 114 North 6th, just north of Cobb's and across the street from Higginbotham Bartlett Lumber Company.

Fox, who has recently received his discharge after serving four years in the Army, is a son-in-law of T. C. Hogue. Mayfield has been a Brownfield resident the past ten years and is well known here, having been formerly in the service station business.

While their stock is at this time almost entirely complete and they are prepared to take care of your paint and paper needs, Ted and Ed are deferring their formal opening until a later date when a representative from Cook's plant in Kansas City will be here to assist them in staging the affair. Watch your paper for their formal opening announcement.

Many a sailor who thought his wife was a mate has discovered since his discharge that she is the skipper.

soon, in a well know raiment, not found in the homes, and if they are scarce on them over there, we will be very happy to send over a chip load of shrouds.

Slim was also thankful to the local papers for their free advertising.

Note: The Herald is always glad to aid in all such, and other public affair.

Voting Strength Of County Increases

3061 poll taxes were paid up to Feb. 1st, according to County collectors records. This does not include approximately 600 veterans who are exempt from this years payment. Nor the overs and unders, that's anybody's guess at the number, but some estimate at 400. Which brings the total county vote to near 4,000, an increase of about 500 over 1944, the last election year.

The collector also estimated about 90 percent property taxes paid.

Mrs. Jones Gives Annual TB Report

Mrs. O. L. Jones, President, and Miss Geraldine Pyeatt, secretary, handed in the following annual report of finances of the Terry County Tubercular Association:

Total collections since organization	$1771.84
Twenty percent sent to State Office, Austin	327.35
Postage and Ed. supplies	212.43
Xrays	66.25
TB Patches	54.00
Balance on hand	$1111.81

Carlton Discusses Rotary Magazine

Discussing the articles and various features of the Rotary Magazine, Riley Carlton, at last Friday's meeting of the Rotary club, pointed out that the publication is a standout in magazines of its class; that articles by some of the most prominent men in the world appear regularly in its pages, and that each issue contains matter that can be thoroughly enjoyed by thinking people.

Further discussion on the proposed Rotary Park is scheduled for the near future, and actual work on the project is expected to get under way while the season for planting trees and shrubs is still good.

LOCAL FIREMEN BECOME DISTRICT OFFICERS

At last Sunday's meeting of the Permian Basin Firemen's Association, Eunice Jones was elected President and Cecil Smith, Secretary. Clyde White of Kermit, Vice President.

Aschenbeck Becomes Manager Of Shallowater Yard

Bill Aschenbeck, who has been employed as assistant manager of the Higginbotham-Bartlett Lumber Company here, has been appointed manager of the Higginbotham-Bartlett yard at Shallowater and took over his duties at that place Monday of last week.

Aschenbeck spent approximately forty months in the Army, 33 months of which were overseas service. He had been with Higginbotham-Bartlett four years prior to his induction.

Bill is a hard worker, well deserving this promotion, and the very best wishes of his numerous friends go with him.

Boy Scouts Take Over City-County Tuesday

From the 8th to the 15th is National Boy Scout week. The four local troops' scout masters have tentatively designated next Tuesday, the day for them to take over all city and county offices. Car drivers had better watch their Peas and Q's and stop signals. This is an annual affair, principally to teach the boys the ways of local government.

The fines collected go to the Scout fund. There are four scout troops here and all are very active. Their honor and talents, prove them good and useful citizens in the making. A little encouragement and tolerance by the public may help a lot to that goal.

Names of who are to fill the offices had not been arranged as we go to press.

SCOUTS BANQUET PARENTS

The Boy Scouts of Troops 49 and 74, banqueted their paws and maws at the Legion Hall, Thursday night of last week. The occasion was attended by the District Committee. About 85 persons were present.

The meeting was held at Odessa.

Season Ginnings Pass The 4000 Mark

According to a report given us by R. O. Black, special agent of the Dept. of Commerce, Bureau of Census, as of Jan. 16, Terry county had ginned 4250 bales of cotton, compared to 38,115 for the same date last year.

This is one of the smallest crops since the first gin was established in Brownfield in 1919. That year it was around 800 bales, but in a few years it had gone far above 4000 bales.

Loop Child Suffers Severe Burns

Lanora Smith, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Smith, suffered second degree burns about the arms, face and front part of body when a long "dress-up" costume she was playing in caught fire from burning trash at their Loop residence on Thursday of last week.

In tearing the burning clothing off the child, Mrs. Smith also received burns on her hand.

The child was brought to the Treadaway-Daniel Hospital, where she is getting along as well as could be expected considering the seriousness of her injuries.

T. A. Elmore, Tokio, Starts 10-Year Club

Ten good and true readers of the Herald marched in this week without a hauler on, and planked down a five spot or check for the Herald to visit them for the next five years without bother. They will look for their paper ever week for the next 260 weeks, but forget all about a notice from us in that time. They are:

Hiram Bingham, Rt. 2; Mrs. E. D. Yeatts, city; Mrs. L. J. Dunn, city; E. P. Stanford, Plains; F. M. Ellington, Tokio; Dr. A. H. Daniell, city; Mrs. W. D. Winn, Rt. 2; Dr. T. L. McIlroy, city; J. A. Parks, Tokio; and J. E. Burnett, El Centro, Calif.

T. A. Elmore also set a precedent and maybe a move for a ten year club by planking down a ten spot to put his paper up to 1956. Maybe by that time we'll be sailing over T. A.'s farm and dropping his paper from an airplane. A. C. Holcomb was a three year renewer, and a whole host of two yearers, as follows:

M. Simpson, Rt. 5; R. H. Castleberry, Meadow; R. G. Hartman, Seagraves; K. B. McWilliams, Hillsboro; C. K. Wilmeth, Tokio; W. H. Brown, city; Hugh H. Harred, Rt. 5; T. L. Lowe, Rt. 5, and W. H. Stallings, Rt. 4.

The following renewed for one year, all in trade area: W. R. Lanier, V. L. Hudson, E. G. Lampp, J. H. O'Connor, J. E. Thompson, Kyle Adams, Mrs. C. F. Holt.

Welcome New Readers
In the trade area alone, the following have become new readers since last issue: Tom Cornett, J. A. Benson, A. H. Patton, Houston Hamilton, J. C. Prestridge, W. J. Smith, Mrs. Ola Wall, and T. T. Miller. About the same out of trade area.

Deputy Collector To Be Here Feb. 18-19

The Herald has been requested to announce that Deputy Collectors Claude L. Hale and R. E. Cox will be here in Brownfield February 18th and 19th to help those who wish their assistance in making out their income tax for this year, and will be assisted by these men free of charge.

Remember that March 15 is the dead line, and the sooner this job is off your mind the better. They will be at the City Hall here on the dates above mentioned.

Red Denton, candidate for City Marshal, returned this week from Hereford, where he met some of his buddies who were on a submarine during the war. Red said they had a picnic and party together, and a general good time.

Death Claims Terry's First Settler

E. A. (Aut) Graham, well known pioneer ranchman, and thought to be Terry county's first settler yet living, succumbed to a six months illness, last Friday night in Lubbock Memorial Hospital. He was 69 years of age.

E. A. (AUT) GRAHAM

Funeral services were held in the First Baptist Church in Brownfield, at 3:00 o'clock p. m., Sunday, conducted by the Rev. Preston Murphy, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. Ed Tharp, former pastor of the Methodist Church here. Interment made in the Terry County Memorial Cemetery, under direction of Brownfield Funeral Home.

He is survived by his wife, three sons, Blue Graham, prominent farmer here; Sawyer Graham, recently discharged from military service, and Gillham Graham, of Texas City; two daughters, Mrs. Wanda Amo of Little Rock, Ark., and Miss Twilla Graham, at home here. Three sisters, Mrs. Ada Allen, Oklahoma City; Mrs. Maud Thornton, of Farwell, and Mrs. Edna Kelly of Houston. Also by seven grand children. His parents and three brothers passed on several years ago.

March Of Dimes In Terry Over A Thousand Dollars

W. T. McKinney, county chairman of the recent March of Dimes drive, ending February first, announced early this week that while they are not quite through auditing, and some late returns are coming in up to Monday, the committee had received about $1,004.00, as follows:

Brownfield School	$241.17
Meadow School	106.25
Union	48.20
Wellman	111.62
Womens clubs	40.00
Collections boxes	135.00
Donations business men	160.00
Birthday ball	144.00
Phyllis Wheatly
School (colored)	24.00

This fund is sent to a National fund, to be used in maintaining hospitals, in combating infantile paralysis, in the nation. When it is remembered this contribution will aid several afflicted children to regain their health, perhaps save some lives, we should all be proud of our donations.

CARLTON ATTENDS CONSERVATION MEET N LUBBOCK

Riley W. Carlton, local head of the Soil Conservation Service, attended a District meeting in Lubbock, Tuesday where he made a report on the accomplishments of his territory in 1945 and assisted in setting up a program for 1946.

M. Carlton stated that the theme of this year's program would be the stressing of increased production in all crops.

Humus increases the water holding capacity of the soil—Grow green manure crops.

Uncle Jimmy Clips Off Ninety Years

As clipper and spry as many men in their sixties, Uncle Jimmie O'Connor entered the nonagenarian class Wednesday the 6th, being born April 6, 1856, and that was a long time ago in any man's language. Uncle Jimmy gets around and looks after his own business, attends his garden, chickens and cow. His hobby is collecting buttons.

Owing to travel conditions, few of his widely separated children and grand children were able to attend his birthday. His widowed daughter, Mrs. Nannie Hamilton who shares his home, and her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. David Mills, of Seminole, and another daughter, Mrs. Lillian Rogers, of Amarillo, were all able to be with him.

One son, Lester of Missouri, and two sons and a daughter, Norvell and Eustice, and Mrs. Edna Cook all of California, could not be present. Uncle Jimmie and wife came to Brownfield in 1924, Mrs. O'Connor passing on seven years ago at about the age of 70. Both he and wife are natives of Tennessee.

Uncle Jimmie O'Connor doesn't let anyone fill his place at church, either, and you can find him any Sunday at just about the same location in the Main Street church of Christ. He has a host of friends, and if any enemies, we never heard of them. He grows older gracefully; he is no crank about anything, and will crack a nice joke with you as quickly as the next one. In fact, he told us a pretty funny one Wednesday about a Tennessee boy that took a load of tobacco to Georgia to sell.

A great and good man that has made the world better for his being here.

Charles Wood Buys Interest Of Monty George

Arrangements were completed Monday whereby Charles Wood, who has been employed as chef at the Grill Cafe took over the interests in this establishment of Monty George. Raymond Warden is the other business partner.

Wood, who has resided in Abilene twenty-five years, and the past 21 as an employee of the American Cafe in that city, is a veteran of both wars, serving as Mess Sergeant at the Officers Mess at the Carlisle, N. M. Army Air Base prior to receiving his discharge from the Army, recently.

The Woods are making their home at 319 North 5th Street.

McAdoo of Seagraves Speaks To Lions

L. M. McAdoo of Seagraves, auto dealer and a leading member of the Lions Club of that city, made an enthusiastic address to the Local Lions at the Wednesday luncheon. He highly praised Lionism, the good it was doing, and commended the Brownfield Club, on its usefulness to the community.

Murphy May, now re-located at Seagraves, Bryan Rogers, former resident here, now of Amarillo, and Mr. Melz of Slaton, were guests. Mr. May announced the Zone meeting of the Lions of this district, would be held at Seagraves, February 28th.

School Committee Goes To Austin

T. A. McCollum, Superintendent, and J. M. Teague, a trustee, are to leave Saturday to confer with State Superintendent and Board of Education, in regard to refunding bond issue, and rebuilding the West Ward school building, which is antiquated.

It was the first brick school house in this town, being built about 1917.

"SCOUTS OF THE WORLD BUILDING TOGETHER"

Boy Scout Week
February 8-14

Nearly 2,000,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Senior Scouts will mark the 36th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 8th to 14th. The theme of the celebration is "Scouts of the World—Building Together." Members of the Movement are helping brother Scouts throughout the world to reorganize. Their "World Friendship Fund" of voluntary contributions and their "Shirts-Off-Our-Backs" project of donating Scout Uniform parts and equipment, will assist Scouting overseas and help develop understanding among the boys of the world. Above is the official poster marking the event.

According to Rev. Atticus Webb, former leader of the anti-saloon league in Texas, neither "fixers" nor politicians were responsible for the poll tax laws of Texas, but rather the prohibitionists, who wanted a fair vote in local option elections in the days before the other war. Most of the opposition is coming from politicians in other states, who want to run Texas, and this seems to include Harry Truman.

It seems that both the Young Democrats and the Democrat organization in Texas are seeking ways and means of discarding the "Regulars," whom they hate worse than they do Republicans. Have they forgotten that Texas people one time got so fed up on "holding the line" no matter who ran, that they came within an atom of electing a Republican, Mr. Butte, for Governor, and gave the electoral vote to Herbert Hoover? If the Young Dems are too young to remember that, they might ask dad and mother.

Many are editorializing that Texas should become a two party state. That might improve matters some, but if we are any judge of what we read in magazines and newspapers, there are some states in the north and east fairly well divided between Republicans and Democrats, that Texas at its worst, could not hold a light to their bondholding. And according to some ex-Texas that we know, politics are pretty well played in our neighboring state to the west.

Who said that labor was scarce. In last Saturday's mail the Herald got four, or was it five, offers to do our editing. All we would have to do, just sit back and let So-and-So do the writing for us, pay them so much per week, and watch the Herald subscriptions roll in like Pharaoh's grasshoppers, and collect the money. Maybe our subscription list would grow like Jack's bean stalk, but the wrong way.

As this paper sees the matter, Texas Tech has a real chance to train some GI's who want to become printers instead of journalists. The woods were full of the latter during the war, when it was almost impossible to get a printer. If printers and pressmen and linotype operators could be partly trained by the college, it would be an easy matter for them to be absorbed by local area print shops, but most shops do not have the time nor facilities to properly train them. A young man called to see us this week from another town, but as we are full up, we could not take him on. The government pays most of the salary while the GI's are training.

Mr. Groundhog, if any hereabouts, just took one peep out of his hole in the ground last Saturday, stretched, yawned and retired for another 45 days nap. A guy living west of the 100th meridian and north of San Antonio would have to be a confirmed super-optimist to even dream that spring was here in early February.

Military men as well as newspaper correspondents returning from Germany say we will have a long, hard row to hoe to make that a democratic nation. German people for ages have been ordered around with a bayonet in their back, and they don't know anything else. They don't even want to take the trouble to think. They want a leader to do their thinking and acting for them.

Most of the big shots are taking Gen. Bradley's part in his row with Commander Stelle of the American Legion. There may not be much merit in Stelle's allegations, but where there is a lot of smoke there has been SOME fire. We have been hearing complaints about the department Gen. Bradley heads, since and prior to Dec. 7, 1941, and a lot of them while Bradley was still in Europe.

Under ordinary circumstances we would deplore a filibuster in Congress. But we heartily approve the filibuster on the so-called Fair Practice bill which is now being carried on. As a matter of fact there is nothing fair about the bill. It seems that the so-called social reformers are hell bent on making the people of the South employ the negroes on an equal basis as they employ whites. While we do not profess to know much about the negro, it certainly does not take much intelligence to prove that the negro, generally, is not the intelligent or social equal of the white. Why he is not just that is not our problem. But when the government of the United States seeks to make all employers hire help without regard to race or color, we say that the government is seeking to stick its nose into the business of its people where it has no right to interfere. The Fair Practice boys down at Dallas attempted to prohibit the Dallas News from carrying want ads for negro workers. These so-called social reformers ruled that the newspaper could not differentiate as to color when advertisements for help were printed. Fortunately the Dallas News has a mind of its own, and it told the reforming government snoopers just where to head in. But if this bill becomes a law, the employer will have no choice. When he wants help, he will advertise for help, and some government snoopers will be standing at his door to see that he hires the first who come, black or white, regardless of the will of the employer. Such nonsense is what makes good citizens rebel against their government. And the President of the United States is sponsoring this piece of foolishness.

Our good friend, Mrs. A. V. Taylor, one of the pioneer ladies of old Terry, sends in her renewal from her present home, Muleshoe. The A. V. Taylors were well established in Terry when the editor came here 37 years ago.

Pfc. Jack Thompson, who is now located in Chicago with the USA, is home on a 15-day furlough, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thompson of the Harmony community. Jack says he don't know the direction of his next move. He trained on the Pacific coast. Jack is a fine young man that any mother and dad could be proud of.

Joe F. Kizek, Agricultural Engineer for the Soil Conservation Service, was in Morton Wednesday and Thursday of this week assisting a number of Cochran county farmers in developing their irrigation projects.

Mrs. Edna P. N. Figley and Edie Wilson were in Lubbock Tuesday shopping.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Royce House

At least once to every man comes a moment when he touches the hem of Romance's robe, no matter how drab his daily round of life.

Herman Hackmeyer sold hardware for a San Antonio house over Southwest Texas. He was short and pudgy of figure, red of countenance, with mild eyes and a harmless expression. Yet even the prosaic "Hack" had his fleeting minutes of glory.

Probably you are incapable of imagining such a thing to be true but there was a time when wrestling was a sport and not a hippodroming affair. This was years before World War I. Frank Gotch, the Iowa Farmer, otherwise the Cornhusker Giant, was champion of the World and the title-holder of Europe was Hackenschmidt, the Russian Lion. Hackenschmidt was short, thick-set and tremendously powerful.

It was inevitable that the two should meet and Kansas City was chosen for the battle. Gotch arrived early and set up training camp; but two weeks before the match, "Hack" had not yet appeared and so the fans were excitedly expecting him momentarily.

And it was at this juncture that Herman Hackmeyer was dealt his prize hand by smiling Fate.

The hardware drummer stepped from a train in Kansas City and, as he entered the Union Station, an acquaintance called out, "Hello, Hack."

Now it was a cold day and the traveling salesman was wrapped in a huge overcoat that gave his fat form the appearance of a stump-like physique of great power.

A "red cap" murmured in an awed tone to the traveler whose suitcase he was carrying, "Gee, dat's Hackenschmidt!" — and the word swept across the station. There were cries on all sides of "Hurray fer Hack" and Hackmeyer acknowledged the acclaim with bows.

As he walked to the hotel, the tidings had preceded him; newsboys, shine-boys, messenger boys, brewery wagon drivers, fruit vendors, ice men, in short the citizenry in general called out, "Hyah, Hack" or "Good boy, Hack." A few of the bolder stepped forward for a handshake, and so was born many a boast in the John L. Sullivan tradition, "Shake the hand that shook the hand of Hackenschmidt."

Hackmeyer, with his shoulders thrown back, swung along with stately tread, for during that walk he felt himself indeed to be the Russian Lion.

"That was years ago and it lasted only fifteen minutes," he said with a sigh and a smile in the lobby of the hotel at Cotulla, "but it was the climax of my life."

England is supposed to borrow 4-billion and some-odd right soon without security or promise to pay back. Those favoring the bill say it is to build up good will and make for better trade. The commercial corporations ought to profit from it. The GI's will not. That amount would house every GI in the land and then have some left. Give it to those who saved the nation—not bled it.—Clarendon Leader.

Old Hill county has been heard from. K. B. (Knox) McWilliams sends in four dollars to stave off the $3 per year proposition as long as possible. Good news was that he is feeling better. He had a pretty bad heart attack last spring. Mrs. "Mac" as he calls the Mrs., is also doing nicely. See you later this year, KB, we hope.

Geo. Lane has moved to Dallas where he directs his paper to come from now on. OK, George, here she comes.

Jimmy Applewhite came in Monday from Camp Fannin in Tyler where he received his discharge papers from the army after several months service in California. His wife Doris met him in Big Spring.

The names of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Gaasch are now included in the town's younger set. After five years in service he resumed his position with Stanolind Pipe Line and has been transferred here from Tulsa.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bowers left Tuesday for Urban, Ill., to attend the graduating exercises of their son, Marion C. Bowers, from the engineering dept. of the University of Illinois. He will receive his commission as ensign and is nineteen years old.

SIDELIGHTS From Washington

By George Mahon

As this is being written we are making the final push to have the barracks and housing at Lubbock Army Airfield actually available to Veterans who wish to enter Texas Tech for the new semester just beginning. In early January I attended a meeting with President Whyburn, of Tech, and city officials at which plans were made to try to get occupancy of LAAF housing by February 1 for the use of Veterans. Plans were made for accommodating as many as 500 Veterans.

Upon my return to Washington presented the matter to high officials of the Army urging the elimination of red tape and the quickest possible action.

Officials of the college and city have been on the job making proper contacts with the U. S. Army Engineers, in Dallas, and with the Public Housing Administration, in Fort Worth, the agency under which the city will operate the housing facility. The exact extent of the housing to be available for Veterans at LAAF is not yet known but it is certain that several hundred Veterans will be accommodated.

A suggestion has come to me from a Haskell County citizen that flame throwers which were used in the war be made available to counties to combat Johnson grass, cockleburrs, and sunflowers along country roads and public highways. For those who hate Johnson grass, as nearly everybody does, this is an intriguing suggestion. But the War Department says no—that the flame throwers are too dangerous for such work and would not be practicable anyway.

A State agency in Mississippi tried out the flame throwers the underbrush along the lower Mississippi River. The idea was abandoned.

The ordinary portable flame thrower has a capacity of four gallons of fuel. It has a maximum range of 60 feet and exhausts itself in nine seconds. The tank type flame thrower has a range of 100 yards and a capacity of 270 gallons of fuel which is exhausted in one minute of operation.

So the answer to the Johnson grass menace is yet to be found. It is too bad that the deadly ferocity of the flame thrower cannot be released against it.

West Point Cadet Max Minor, of Tahoka, broke two records and won top honors at a track meet at the United States Military Academy a few days ago. His home town of Tahoka did not get due credit in the big write-up about him in the Washington Post. Max was referred to as the speedster from "Cahokia," Texas.

Miss Helen Jackson, of Pyote, spent the weekend in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haynes, of Plainview, were in El Paso on business this week.

Just an hour's drive to Lubbock and West Texas' largest stock of monuments. We buy in carlots, for cash, with great savings in freight and cash discounts. All work set by experienced workmen. Come whenever convenient; you are always welcome.

Poor Sports But Good Smokers

The last issue of Cub's Den to reach us had many things to commend in both the faculty and student body. But it registered two very serious complaints. One of them was, that despite the fact that many signs are up in the gym forbidding smoking, many of the confirmed teasers of lady nicotine just have to "fire-up."

This might be called to the smoker's attention in a nice gentlemanly way once, and then after that offer him his money back, and if that don't work, get two or three huskies like the Price boys to play bouncer with the guy or guyenne as the case may be.

As to the poor sport business, the Cub Den stated that part was mostly from the sidelines and not the players, and was aimed sometimes at not only the opposition coach, but the visiting school heads. Maybe if the game was halted sometime, that some fellow with a silver tongue might be persuaded to illustrate to these dopes just how little they made themselves, the school and the city look to visitors.

Taint none of our business, but there should be something done about the smokers and roughnecks.

We Caught Judge Neill Off Balance

Guess we will have GWN for our next door neighbor soon. We caught him in an unguarded moment and unloaded the vacant lot, just adjacent to the Herald plant, twice and the hospital. He is hastily assembling material to erect a building on it, in which he will maintain an office and rent out the balance.

He got tired of wandering the streets, since retiring from county attorney's office, January 1st, and couldn't find a hole in nobody else's wall, and says it's too cold in the band stand, so he will just build one.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending February 2, 1946, were 24,050 compared with 23,897 for same week in 1945. Cars received from connections totaled 10,020 compared with 14,119 for same week in 1945. Total cars moved were 34,070 compared with 38,016 for same week in 1945. Santa Fe handled a total of 32,706 cars in preceding week of this year.

Had a card last week from Mrs. E. Brown, who stated that she and daughter, Ola Belle, were visiting in Dumas. She also said that her youngest son, Glenn was out of the army, and that he and Roland were running a cafe in Dumas.

Miss Helen Jackson, of Pyote, spent the weekend in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haynes, of Plainview, were in El Paso on business this week.

Texas and Annexation

THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN OF 1844 DETERMINED ANNEXATION

(Fourteenth in the series of articles on annexation by Dr. Eugene C. Barker, Professor of History, The University of Texas.)

The campaign of 1844 is said to have begun in 1840. To the surprise of the country, Martin Van Buren, the Democratic candidate in 1840, was defeated by the Whigs, who supported William Henry Harrison and Tyler. The Democrats thought it good strategy to continue to back their defeated candidate, so that the nomination of Van Buren in 1844 seemed to be a foregone conclusion. It was well understood in Whig councils that Henry Clay would finally receive his reward and succeed Harrison. He had earned the chance and had been a receptive aspirant for many years. Harrison's death and Tyler's succession threatened Clay's hopes, while Tyler's raising of the annexation issue ultimately side-tracked Van Buren's nomination and defeated Clay for the presidency.

Just before the Whig national convention in Baltimore, Clay published a letter declaring that he did not favor immediate annexation of Texas. About the same time an officious friend asked Van Buren's views and he answered at great length. Since 1837, when he rejected Memucan Hunt's overtures, he had convinced himself that annexation would not violate the constitution, but he was not ready to act until Mexico recognized Texan independence and made peace. Clay's views were accepted even by Southern Whigs in the national convention and he received the nomination on May 1, 1844. Van Buren already had nearly enough votes pledged to nominate him and many of the instructed delegates were on the way to Baltimore when his statement appeared. Those from the South knew that his attitude was opposed to the wishes of their states, but there was not sufficient time to hold new state conventions and get other instructions. The traditional two-thirds rule of the Democrats offered a way out. After a few ballots, delegates complacently decided they had fulfilled their instructions and switched to James K. Polk, of Tennessee, the first "dark horse"

A new one-watt fluorescent night light, guarding Dad against stubbing his toe after he bounces out of bed to warm baby's bottle, has been developed by Westinghouse engineers. The walnut-size lamp, which burns a month for 2 1/2 cents worth of electricity, produces enough light so objects can be seen readily yet its soft glow will not disturb the most sensitive sleeper. The bulb also is useful on stairsteps and to provide convenient lighting in hallways and kitchens.

in a national convention. Polk was known to favor annexation, and to have the support of Jackson, the old warrior in the Hermitage. After the ninth ballot Van Buren's name was withdrawn and the convention stampeded to Polk.

The democratic platform contained a strong expansion plank. Controversy with England over the boundary of Oregon was active, and Oregon and Texas were linked together in the demand for "the re-occupation of Oregon and the re-annexation of Texas at the earliest practicable period." *he play on "re-occupation" and "re-annexation" begged important historical questions, but they were good slogans with which to excite voters. In the November election Polk won a popular plurality of 40,000 votes over Clay, and his electoral vote was 170 to 105.

England had used strong diplomatic pressure to induce Mexico to reorganize the independence of Texas and make a peace guaranteed by England and France, hoping thereby to make the prospect of national independence so attractive to Texas leaders that they would reject annexation, but Mexico would not yield. Then the governments of England and France contemplated a joint declaration against annexation in the hope of winning votes for Clay and the anti-annexationists. Fortunately they consulted their respective ministers in Washington and were told that no action they might take could contribute more to the victory of Polk and annexation.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

This speech of Uncle Harry's, the one about the state of the nation and the mess we are in, well, there was one part where the president was 100 per cent on the beam—and right—and steppin' on nobody's toes. And no difference about your politics, you can do as Uncle Harry says—or we can keep on being in a mess. He says, write to Congress. So I took his advice. And I wrote the boss-man himself direct, and sent a copy to our senator.

I says, Mr. President, your program like you explained on the air, where you want to put Uncle Sambo in the game and be everything from playing first base and second base and right and left field, etc. versus just being the umpire, it is 100 per cent wrong. I didn't mince words. The U. S. A. is not headed for a crack-up, and chaos is not around the corner, and no revolution is brewing, I says, if you don't let the boys with the horn-rimmed specs lead you off the path and into the ways of how it is there on the Volga. Two million guys, I says, in all kinds of bureaus, they can think up plenty. And with 2 million still there, it is no wonder there is dirty work at the cross-roads. Don't be misled and be a sucker, I says—and I thank you for asking me to write.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

CAREFUL FOOD HANDLING VERY IMPORTANT

Austin—In a vigorous campaign to elevate the state health level by preventing the spread of communicable diseases which might be transmitted by foods, the State Department of Health is conducting training schools for food handlers in many sections of Texas, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Food handlers are being taught the sanitary methods of preparing, handling, and serving foods for public consumption, Dr. Cox said. "Actual experience has shown that an insanitary eating establishment is one of the surest sources of spreading infection. Public health is menaced by the lack of proper sanitation in food handling and our goal is the education of cooks, waiters, butchers, bakers, fountain men, and all other food handlers to such a level as will insure the elimination of this health hazard."

The training schools consist of elementary courses in bacteriology, communicable diseases, medical zoology, foods, disinfection, sterilization, personal hygiene, and sanitation.

Methodist Leader Praises Scouts

"A most useful builder of boyhood and an aid to the church" is what Bishop Charles C. Selecman of Dallas, Texas calls Scouting in a statement made in recognition of national Boy Scout week, Feb. 8-14.

Bishop Selecman, now president of the Council of Bishops of The Methodist Church, has long been interested in youth. For 15 years prior to his election in 1938 as bishop, he headed Southern Methodist University. During World War I he served with American troops abroad under the Y. M. C. A.

Bishop Selecman's Boy Scout message follows:

"For more than a quarter of a century it has been my pleasure to observe the work of the Boy Scouts of America. As a result of this observation I am convinced that it is one of the most useful builders of boyhood in body, mind, and spirit that has come to the aid of the home and the church.

"Because of this conviction, I have urged the pastors in my area to offer every inducement to Scouting and to acquaint themselves with the work of the organization. In many cases our pastors have become actively engaged in some phase of Scout work.

"It is my personal opinion that the home, the church, and the school should welcome the cooperation of the Boy Scouts of America and should offer every aid and encouragement possible."

'AMBIDEXTROUS' GLOVES

More than 293,000 pairs of white cotton gloves, enough to cover the hands of everyone in St. Paul, Minn., last census-taking time, were bought last year for the Westinghouse Lamp Division's plant in Bloomfield, N. J. Known as "reversibles," the gloves fit either the right or left hand so there is no problem of matching freshly-laundered pairs. Gloves guard electric lamp and electronic tube parts from the hand moisture of assemblers.

FAT SALVAGE WEIGHTY

More than three tons of used fats have been salvaged at the Westinghouse Lamp Division cafeteria in Bloomfield, N. J. since the fat conservation started during the war. The collection is continuing.

Mrs. Roy Lewis and Mrs. Loyd Brown and children, of Levelland were in Memphis, Texas, visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Craig, recently.

BEAUTY WEARS BAG

Yes, it's a cotton bag apron that lovely Joy Jemison of Whitehaven, Tenn., wears to protect her Sunday best, and it's a cotton bale she's holding in her hands to denote her cotton heritage. The attractive apron is done in white and magnolia green bag cloth.

$30,000 ELECTRIC BILL

The monthly electric power bill at the Westinghouse Lamp Division's headquarters plant in Bloomfield, N. J. averages approximately $30,000, equivalent to supplying the electric requirements of 9,000 homes. There are 7,000 electric sockets alone in the life test laboratory, where lamps and electronic tubes are burned around-the-clock in endurance tests. Monthly gas bills for the plant average about $6,000 and telephone service costs $5,000.

BUILT TO LAST

Giant tanks which store nitrogen and argon gas at the Westinghouse Lamp Division plant in Bloomfield, N. J., will withstand an internal pressure greater than the weight of a 10,000-ton pocket battleship. Each 22-foot tall tank holds enough gas to fill one million 60-watt bulbs. A mixture of these inert gases is pumped inside the bulbs to retard evaporation of burning filaments, assuring longer lamp life.

Many GI's Are Registering At Tech

Lubbock — Discharge in hand, determination on their faces, the veterans of World War II seemed serious about getting an education as they presented themselves for enrollment for the second semester at Texas Technological College.

Over 50 per cent are first term freshmen who enlisted in the armed services after high school graduation. Most of them had planned to go to college anyway but agreed that the GI Bill was helping them to get an education they could not have afforded otherwise.

Engineering is the most popular course among the veterans, with over 45 per cent being enrolled in some branch of the field. Arts and Science Division is next in enrollment, with Commerce and Agriculture receiving about equal numbers.

Most of the veterans are native Texans but a large number come from New Mexico and Oklahoma, and a few from Wisconsin, Indiana, Louisiana, Florida and other states. One veteran who flew down from Pennsylvania to register reported that his buddy on Saipan had attended Tech and convinced him that the Texas school was the best. "If Tech was good enough for him, it's good enough for me," he said.

NEW KIND OF FREEDOM

The United States supposedly fought a second world war to bring freedom to the world. But what has happened at home while men were killed abroad? A worker cannot get a job in a basic industry without first paying labor organizations for his constitutional right to work.

A returned veteran of four years' standing—three years and two months overseas—writes a frank and interesting letter. His home is in Detroit. He is anxious to work and jobs could be had by the thousand if strike orders did not prevail. At such a time, while politicians wrangle about the passage of fantastic full employment bills, and the nation is begging for men to work, he writes:

"Never drew unemployment compensation before, but decided to now. I got my union card. Boy, what a racket that's turned into! One guy can't do a thing about it. The other dopes just sit around and let the officers pass anything they like. It's one big mess. To put it in a nutshell, it's the union that runs the men—not the men, the unions."

And this man fought for freedom for foreigners. Now he draws unemployment compensation in Detroit while he is forced to remain idle regardless of his desire to work.—Canyon News.

MRS. NEWSOM RITES HELD HERE SUNDAY

Mrs. Minnie S. Newsom, aged 70, passed away last Saturday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Burnett, on south 3rd street. She had been in failing health sometime.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Ed Tharp and Rev. L. C. Hester, at 4:45 p. m., Sunday at the Methodist Church, and interment made in a local cemetery.

Her husband, W. W. Newsom, preceded her in death, in 1939 here. She leaves surviving, her daughter, Mrs. Burnett, and one son, R. L. Newsom, who just recently returned from military service. A sister, Mrs. McAdoo, lives here, one other sister, Mrs. S. T. Myers of Aspermont, and her son, attended the service. Another sister, Mrs. Dorsey, of Corsicana, could not attend. She also leaves 11 grandchildren and one great-grand child.

The Newsoms have lived here since 1918.

When he asks for our daughter's hand we'll gladly let him have the one that's always in our pocket.

Introductory Tea Given For Mrs. Auburg

One of the most attractive social events on the February social calendar was the tea given by Mrs. J. T. Auburg in the home of Mrs. W. M. Adams Wednesday from 4 to 6 o'clock introducing her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Burdett Auburg. Mrs. Adams was co-hostess with Mrs. Auburg.

Receiving the guests were Mesdames Adams, R. A. Brown, J. T. Auburg, Burdett Auburg, the honoree, and H. Kenly, of Post, mother of Mrs. Auburg.

Mrs. Archie Karr, of Allred, sister of the honoree, registered the guests in a white leather book with streamers of white satin marking the pages. A doll dressed as a bride was used for decoration on the table. The bride's chosen color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the living room with bowls of pink and white flowers and pink tapers flanking the arrangement of snapdragons on the mantel.

The refreshment table was laid with a white cut work cloth with silver and crystal table appointments. A large bowl of pink carnations with white satin ribbon forming a large bow among the flowers was used as decoration for the tea table. A bridal couple surrounded with white satin and net with pink rosebuds scattered about centered the buffet. Pink tapers in crystal candelabra flanked the table arrangement and buffet decoration.

Mrs. J. F. Ruehs, of Odessa, sister of Mrs. J. T. Auburg, poured spiced tea from a silver tea service while Mrs. Wayne Brown and Miss Nell Burdett, of Lubbock, also a sister of Mrs. Auburg's assisted with the serving of pink and white mints, salted pecans

W. M. U. MEETS IN CIRCLES

The Women's Missionary Union of the Baptist church met in circles Monday afternoon for their monthly Bible study. The Lucille Reagan circle met in the home of Mrs. Ella Green and completed the years Bible study course. The next meeting a new book, "The Doctrinal Teachings of the Early Churches" will be started. Mrs. Green taught the lesson Monday. Those present were: Mesdames R. E. Townzen, A. A. Brian, Fannie Day, H. D. Leach, J. T. Auburg and Ruth Auburg.

The Lottie Moon circle met in the home of Mrs. W. H. Collins with Mrs. W. M. Adams teaching the Bible study. Those present were: Mesdames H. B. Grant, Jessie Cox, Roy Phillips, A. R. Tyler, L. C. Heath, D. L. Patton, Ame Flache, Charles Didway, Carl Johnson, Jim Jones, J. D. Shewmake, Jerry Dumas and J. B. Ray.

Mrs. Tom Asher and daughter, De Zavala, of Seagraves were in town shopping Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Griffin and Judy were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Peachee in Lubbock Sunday for dinner, the occasion being Mr. Griffin's birthday and the dinner was especially for him.

Other members of the houseparty were: Mesdames C. C. Primm, Marner Price, J. R. Wright, Lawrence Dean, Stuff Moorhead, Wayne Brown, W. L. Auvenshine, and Arthur Brown. All members of the houseparty wore corsages of pink or white carnations.

Mrs. J. E. Smith and Glynn Ross added a musical background to the occasion with their many piano selections.

MRS. HEROD HOSTESS TO IDEAL CLUB

Mrs. Roy Herod entertained the Ideal Bridge club Wednesday afternoon. High and second high and Bingo prizes were given the winners.

A salad course, boston cream pie and coffee were served to Mesdames R. N. McClain, Harold Crites, Al Muldrow, C. W. Winford, Bruce Zorns, P. N. Figley, C. F. Simes, Reagan Peeler, O. L. Peterman, Wilson Collins, Joe McGowan and Dick Myers.

MRS. POWER TEACHES

Mrs. Tobe Power was leader in an interesting lesson on the Bible taken from the Gospels, when members of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the church on Monday afternoon.

Those attending were Mesdames G. M. Thomason, Will P. Brigance, Cleve Williams, Bill Culver, J. H. Carpenter, Tobe Power, Glenn Harris, Jim Ward, N. T. House, W. B. Downing, B. L. Thompson and Ray Frazier.

Mr. J. C. Powell came in Monday with discharge papers from the navy. After a short visit in the home of his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gillham, he and his wife and baby will make their home in Lubbock.

The following women of Brownfield attended an all day school of instruction for the Brownfield association of the W. M. U. in Tahoka Tuesday: Mesdames Carl Johnson and son, Jim Jones, Guy Willhort and children, H. B. Grant, Gladys Moorhead, R. M. Moorhead, C. E. Ross and Orland Cary.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Privitt spent Sunday in Tahoka visiting Mrs. Privitt's family, the Applewhites.

Mesdames Jack Hamilton and Jack McLaughlin were in Lubbock shopping, Monday.

BOBBY NEAL GREEN HOME FROM HOSPITAL

The Herald is glad to report that little Bobby Neal Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Green, has been brought home from the Scottish Rite hospital at Dallas. The doctors there put him on crutches to keep his weight off his injured leg as much as possible, and think he will soon be back to normal.

Bobby is to report to the hospital for a checkup, and we hope by that time he will be found well on the road to final recovery.

Mr. Walter McDonald and Mrs. Willie McDonald and two sons, George Allen and Sam Wayne, of Kosciusko, Mississippi, are visiting in the home of Mrs. J. D. McDonald and other relatives.

Mr. E. O. Berry has been confined to his bed for the past two weeks with the flu but was able to return to work Tuesday.

Mrs. Jack Thomas, of Lubbock spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Settles.

Mr. L. B. McDonald, of Santa Anna, California, is here visiting his mother, Mrs. J. D. McDonald and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Purtell are the parents of a baby boy born January 24th, in the Plains hospital in Lubbock. The baby, named Jimmy Lee, weighed eight and one half pounds at birth.

Mrs. E. J. Jarratt, of Junction City, Kansas, is here visiting in the home of her brother, Mr. L. M. Lang.

VET RETURNING HOME

Pearl Harbor, T. H.—S/Sgt. John B. Ashburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Ashburn, of Meadow, Texas, is one of 964 Army veterans returning to the States for discharge aboard the USS Kwajalein, an escort carrier of the "Magie Carpet" fleet, which left Saipan, January 18, and is scheduled to arrive in San Pedro about February 2. The USS Kwajalein operated as a transport during the Pacific war when this ship was used to supply airplanes and pilots to Admiral Halsey's Third Fleet.

Faye Marie Lang spent Sunday night in Lubbock as guests of Miss Evelyn Garnet.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Peterman and sons spent the weekend in San Angelo.

Scout Leaders Formulate Plans For Yearly Program

The District Committee of the Comanche Trail District meet in the County Court room to formulate plans for the year 1946. The meeting was presided over by Lee Fulton, District Chairman. All Scouters present expressed themselves as thinking that scouting was on the up-grade.

The members of the District Committee are as follows: Lee Fulton, District Chairman; Leo Holmes, Finance; R. A. Simms, Advancement; Virgil Burnett, Organization and Extension; Walter Breedlove, Health and Safety; Virgil Crawford, Leadership Training; E. G. Brownlee, Camping and Activities; and Riley Carlton, District Commissioner. The above men, with the help of the Institutional representatives, make up the planning group for the District.

This was one of the most important meetings of the year and all plans were made for the yearly program which includes training courses for the new scouters the orderly registration of troops, proper training in Health and Safety, District and Troop court of Honor to be conducted regularly, and a rich and varied program for the out-of-doors which is one of the high points in Scouting.

Meetings were planned for the District Committee and Scouters for the year. The next meeting was scheduled for February 12, 1946. All Committee Members, Troop Committee Chairmen, and all Scoutmasters are urged to be present at this next meeting.

Alfred C. Smith, Field Scout Executive, was present and gave the high-lights of the Council program for the year.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Today for my lecture—or seminar, as we usually say here at Hickory—I will discuss education. Everybody seems to be for education, so it boils down to what kind. Like with a simple question such as eggs—everybody is for eggs—but what kind, is the rub. There are good eggs. Also, there are some that are no violet or honeysuckle when you open a 3 minute boiled one.

So now, with the good egg or the 3 minute example fresh in mind, we will proceed to education, where my research leads me to conclude that there are as many kinds and shades—or off shades—as there are kinds of hen's eggs. Some is wholesome—some is

FOR WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

It's fun to plan something special for the red-letter days on the calendar, even if it's just an extra fillip to the family dinner table setting, or a special dessert. Washington's birthday is one of those occasions when it is nice to do that little extra thing. The tale of the cherry tree furnishes a theme for decoration and cherries, hats and colonial figures can be used for attractive center-pieces for the table.

For dessert have cherry pie, by all means, or you might prefer cherry tarts. Very appropriate or the day is a cake made in the shape of a log, representing the chopped down cherry tree.

If you are entertaining a few friends informally, special attention should be given to the beverage you serve. Fruit juices have a valuable place in the diet and drinks made with fruit juices as a base are delicious and liked by most people. As a mixer for such drinks use sparkling water or club soda to add tang and flavor. Bottled or canned fruit juices combine with sparkling water as well as fresh fruit juices. Citrus fruits mixed with sparkling water are a natural combination and since these fruits are plentiful now you may like to serve them in drinks. One and a half cups of grapefruit juice, sweetened to taste, will make six drinks. Pour the juice into six glasses and fill the glasses with sparkling water. Use sugar syrup to sweeten your drinks as it makes a smoother drink with no sugar wasted in the bottom of the glass. Corn syrup may be used as a sweetener if you are feeling the pinch of the sugar shortage. Grapefruit juice and lime juice combine to make a delicious drink in the recipe below.

Grapefruit Lime Sparkler
 1 cup grapefruit juice
 2 tablespoons lime juice
 2 tablespoons light corn syrup
 Sparkling Water
 Combine grapefruit juice, lime juice and corn syrup; mix well. Pour over ice in 4 tall glasses. Fill glasses with sparkling water. Serves 4.

C. V. Ball Has Something To Show You

If you happen out on Hamilton Avenue, be sure to drop in at the C. V. Ball Implement. He has a surprise for you. He is agent for the Bolen Products, which cover everything for the small gardener or yard man. He has some power grass cutters or mowers that are really the stuff.

One of his power lawn mowers would be just the stuff for the man who has several yards to care for, and attachments can be put on so that it can be used to cultivate fairly large truck patches.

Guess you noticed that we used the original townsite designation of what you perhaps call Lubbock Road or Lubbock highway. The Herald was taken down a button-hole or so last week by the Uncle Joe Hamilton girls. They stated that it was named for their dad long years ago.

That suits us fine, but let's all learn to call it the same thing so there will be no confusion. That part of the city is growing fast. Let's all be of the same mind and speak the same things.

Cubs Drop Two To Westerners

The Cubs were the perfect hosts—though unwillingly so—at the local gym last Tuesday night when they entertained the Lubbock

Westerners who returned to their home city with the big end of the score in two cage games.

In the "B" game, the visitors had the Cubs under control all the way and emerged victors to the tune of 28 to 12. Dalton and Samson shared scoring honors for the locals.

The Westerner "A"-team had little less trouble than their younger brothers in walking off with a 51 to 38 victory. Wheatley proved himself one of the standout players of the entire district when he managed to account for over half of the Brownfield scores. At the end of the third period, he had 20 of the 25 Cub scores to his credit.

No More Static In Gins?

College Station—The end may be in sight for static electricity in gins, according to F. E. Lichte, cotton gin specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

When both cotton and air are very dry, static electricity is generated by the movement of cotton through the gin. In many West Texas points, Lichte says, static is often so bad as to force gins to stop work for several days at a time. Even if the gins can operate, the lint cotton is often so fluffy and resilient when it goes into the press that it is impossible to put out a bale of standard weight. Such cotton is penalized by the buyer.

The problem has been investigated by the U. S. Cotton Ginning Laboratory at Stoneville, Miss., and preliminary tests indicate that a fine mist of water and sulphated oil may be the answer. The mist, when sprayed on the cotton as it goes through the gin, has permitted both continuous operation and compression of bales to standard weight.

Miss Margie Beuels And Fred Nicholson Are Married

Miss Margie Beuels, of Brownfield, daughter of Mrs. Donnie Beuels, of Broken Bow, Okla., and GM 3/c Fred R. Nicholson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Nicholson, of Brownfield, were married Feb. 2nd, at 6:00 o'clock in the First Baptist church. The single ring ceremony, read by Rev. A. A. Brian, was performed before the altar which was decorated with lovely white winter flowers. Bobby Helen Brian played the traditional wedding music softly during the ceremony.

The bride, a graduate of the high school in Broken Bow, Okla., was dressed in a suit of powder blue with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

Mr. Nicholson is a graduate of the Brownfield High school and was enlisted in the navy in 1943. After 30 days he will report to Patomac River Command, Washington, D. C., for further assignment.

YANDELLS HOSTS TO A FAMILY GATHERING

Mr. and Mrs. S. Yandell were hosts to the following for a family get-together, Sunday, Jan. 27th: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yandell and family, and Mrs. W. F. Yandell, of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Yandell and family, of O'Donnell; Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Condra and family, of Ropesville; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Walker, of Levelland, and Mrs. Lee Walker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Walker, and Miss Jean Mixon of Brownfield. Messrs. Fred, Reed and Desmond Yandell had just returned from overseas duty in Pearl Harbor, Germany and Japan.

Faye Belle Oliver, James Thurman, Thelma Lee and Charles Beaver spent Sunday at Buffalo Lake enjoying a picnic and sports.

FAMILY REUNION HELD AT GILLHAM HOME

A very happy day for the Gillham family was Sunday, when a family reunion was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gillham. All members of the family and their children attended the morning services at the Methodist church.

Those present were: Mrs. Etta Gillham, Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Gillham of Crosbyton, Mr. and Mrs. Ewing McGhee of Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Elwanda Marie Wilborn, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Wilborn of Brownfield, and T/Sgt. Winston M. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Watson of Lubbock, which took place recently in Riverside, Calif., with Rev. J. C. McKey reading a double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a two-piece suit of powder blue with black and white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. She recently received a discharge as Staff Sergeant in the Women's Army Corps. The bridegroom is receiving his discharge after three and one-half years of service in the Army Air Corps. The couple will return to Lubbock to make their home.

Aubry Jones has accepted a position in Stratford as salesmanager of the Yates Drug Co.

Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Parrish and children, of Hobbs, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hill, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Brantley and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Criswell and children, of Anton were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bond, Sunday.

Miss Campbell And Guy Brown Exchange Vows

Miss Louise Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doc Campbell, of Route 4 and Guy D. Brown were married Tuesday, Jan. 29th in Seagraves. Rev. Roy M. Clayton read the marriage ceremony.

Miss Helen Howard, of Brownfield was maid of honor and Dale Brown, best man. Other attendants were: Miss Bea Shirley and T. P. Brown.

The bride wore a grey suit with black accessories and a red carnation corsage. She carried out the tradition of something old and something new.

Mrs. Brown has been employed by the Southwestern Asso. Telephone Co. for the past two and a half years. Mr. Brown has been serving overseas with the army.

After a wedding trip through New Mexico the couple will make their home here.

McGOWANS ENTERTAIN NIGHT BRIDGE CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGowan were hosts to the Night Bridge club Thursday evening of last week with a buffet supper and games of bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Reagan Peeler were winners of high scores.

Guests were Messrs and Mesdames R. L. Bowers, Reagan Peeler, O. L. Peterman, Everett Latham, John O'Dell, and Bill McGowan.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud James and children of New Home visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tiny Nelson Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Quinn, of Eunice, New Mexico, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jackson over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Browder and daughter visited in Plainview Sunday.

Miss Sue Hairston And J. C. Seaton United In Marriage

Miss Sue Hairston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hairston and J. C. Seaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. U. Seaton were united in marriage January 30th at Six o'clock in the home of the bride's parents.

The single ring ceremony was read by Cline Paden, minister of the Church of Christ. The couple stood before an arch of pink carnations and fern flanked by tall urns of white calla lilies and fern and candles in tall brass candelabras. Before the ceremony, Ruby Nell Hairston and Cora Rose Seaton, sisters of the bride and groom, lighted the candles. Miss Joyce Smith was maid of honor and Ira Seaton, brother of the groom, was best man.

The bride wore a dress of aqua blue with black accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations. She wore a strand of pearls belonging to the maid of honor, as something borrowed and a diamond ring belonging to her mother, as something old.

Mrs. Seaton is a graduate of the 1942 class of Hurley High school and was employed at the Santa Fe depot prior to her marriage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Hairston home for the families and close friends of the couple. A four-tiered wedding cake and punch was served.

The couple will make their home in Brownfield.

Phone The Society Editor At 321-W

Hardly a day passes, especially during the first part of the week that our phone fails to call for the society editor several times. If the reader will just notice under the big heading "Social Events of the Week," they will find that Mrs. Ralph Ferguson is listed as Society Editor, and her phone number is given as 321-W—not No. 1, which is the Herald office.

When the ladies phoned Mrs. Ferguson at the Herald office, they first get some member of the force, who has to tell them where to call, which takes up our time and their time. Mrs. Ferguson is furnished a typewriter at her home, and stays there most of the time for two or three reasons, the main one being there is generally machinery running in the office, and it is hard to take items over the phone.

Some of these days, the Herald hopes to have a front office cut off to itself, and kinder sound proofed to where one can understand a phone conversation without yelling back into the back shop to "stop that machinery, please."

But until that great day, we ask the ladies to please PHONE ALL SOCIETY ITEMS TO 321-W.

WELLMAN HD CLUB MET JANUARY 31

Mrs. Sewell Dean gave a demonstration on bottoming chairs, January 31, at the school cafeteria.

The chair had been out in the weather for several years. After sandpapering, varnishing and the new bottom had been put in, which was made of twisted binder twine, it was made useable once more.

The chairmen of the committees were appointed as follows: Mrs. Clay Bevers, Year Book; Mrs. Joyce Phillips, Marketing; Mrs. Sewell Dean, Recreation; Mrs. Gibbs Phillips, Finance; Mrs. Clyde Heafner was elected as possible delegate to the district meeting.

A double meeting will be held February 22 at 2:00 o'clock at Mrs. Clyde Heafner, for a demonstration on pruning fruit trees, then from there to Mrs. Gibbs Phillips for a yard demonstration. Miss Dunlap will meet with us.

Mr. Ralph Ferguson was in Hobbs Wednesday on business.

Mr. Ned Self was in Lamesa on business Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. F. Riehs, of Odessa, was a houseguest of her sister, Mrs. J. T. Auburg, Wednesday and Thursday.

Mesdames Orb Stice and E. L. Sturges and their children were in Lubbock Saturday, shopping.

Mrs. A. P. Daugherty returned Saturday from a five weeks visit with her daughter in Qumado, Texas.

MAIDS AND MATRONS CLUB

The Maids and Matrons club met at the home of Mrs. J. R. Wright, Tuesday afternoon. Following roll call and a short business session, Mrs. C. F. Simes presided as program chairman.

Mrs. Money Price discussed "Stephen Foster, His Influence on American Music," and Mrs. M. G. Tarpley led the group in singing several of his songs. Mrs. Jot Akers gave a very interesting review of the book "Ruggles of Red Cap."

Apple pie and coffee were served to Mesdames W. M. Adams, Jot Akers, Lal Copeland, E. C. Davis, Ralph Ferguson, Lee Fulton, Money Price, C. F. Simes, A. R. Smith, M. G. Tarpley, Mon Telford, Looie Miller, and T. E. McCollum.

HONORS DAUGHTER

Mrs. J. W. Nelson honored her daughter, Donna Sue, on her sixth birthday, Saturday afternoon. Parlor games were played until time to cut the birthday cake, which was beautifully decorated with six white candles in pink candle holders.

Refreshments consisted of birthday cake, sandwiches and punch. Plate favors were red miniature guns, candy hearts and gum drops.

Mesdames J. K. Miller, Earl Allen, Paul Marshall and Miss Burdett Auburg, of Lubbock were guests of Mrs. J. T. Auburg, Wednesday.

ERNEST SEARS COMPLIMENTED WITH DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. O'Dell Sears complimented Mr. Sears' brother, Ernest, with a dinner at their home, Wednesday evening. Ernest is here on leave, having returned from overseas duty with the Navy.

Guests were: Ruth Hogue, Harold Stice, Claudine Garrett, the honoree and hosts.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY MEETING

Women of the Christian church met in the home of Mrs. E. D. Ballard Monday afternoon for a lesson on the Acts of the Apostles. Mrs. Kathryn Brown taught the lesson. Mrs. Crawford Burrows was elected president of the organization.

Spiced tea and cake squares were served as refreshments. Mrs. F. E. Walters will be hostess next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

ATTENTION

The doors of the Christian Church will be opened for Sunday School Sunday morning at ten o'clock. There will also be a speaker for the eleven o'clock worship service. All members of the Christian church and those not attending any other are invited to come.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Taylor, of Dennison, are guests in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Jack Stricklin, Jr. Mrs. Stricklin met them in Lubbock Tuesday.

MULDROWS ENTERTAIN WITH HOT DOG SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. Al Muldrow entertained the young adults of the Presbyterian church with a hot dog supper in their home Monday evening. After the delicious meal a business meeting was held and a young adult Sunday School class was organized. Mr. Muldrow was elected president, Mr. James Harley Dallas, vice-president and Mrs. Ralph Ferguson, sec. and treas. Rev. Joe Murphy was elected as teacher.

Guests were: Messrs and Mesdames David Perry, Phil Gaasch, L. E. Hamilton, James Harley Dallas, Bruce Zorns, Sam Privitt, Ralph Ferguson, K. D. Snedeker, Rev. and Mrs. Joe Murphy and Mrs. C. L. Buchanan.

LA FIESTA CLUB

Mrs. Terry Redford entertained the members of the La Fiesta club with two tables of bridge Thursday evening of last week. When scores were tallied Mrs. Ralph Ferguson received high and Mrs. Cotton Neely, low. Mrs. Kenneth Hill won traveling prize.

A salad plate was served to Mesdames Kenneth Hill, Tommy Zorns, Ray Hailey, Slim Schillinger, Ralph Ferguson, Cotton Neely, and C. A. Kebodeaux.

Sgt. Gene Hill is here on terminal leave visiting his mother, Mrs. Ben Hill. He has been stationed in the Philippines for the past several months.

PREPARED to face the FUTURE

The Boy Scout motto is "Be Prepared" and in this year of transition—it has deeper, fuller meaning than ever in its history. For in 1946, the Scouts of the world are preparing to face the future—of building a new world—one in which construction—and not destruction—is the goal. A future that knows only peaceful living, where every man is a brother to every other man regardless of his race, creed or color. It is the youth of today that will be the world leaders of tomorrow. So, on this 36th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts, we pay tribute to this great organization for the work it has done in the past—for the work it will do in the future as the Scouts of the World Build Together for peace and happiness.

Scouts Of The World Building Together

Peace once again reigns over all the earth while a torn and bleeding world rehabilitating itself. It is now that we have our greatest opportunity to lay the groundwork for a better life in a better world. It is now that we must root out all evil and "Together Build for the Future" on a firm foundation of good faith and good fellowship among men and nations. The job is an arduous one, but already the Boy Scouts of America have set themselves to the task. All of us might well follow their example . . . put behind us all thought of greed and work harmoniously that enduring and universal tranquillity might live on forever. By dedicating ourselves to the accomplishment of this great work we honor the Boy Scouts of America on this, their 36th Anniversary.

Plant Trees Soon As Possible

If you plan to set out some new trees or shrubs on your place this year, don't wait much longer. Before you know it, the sap will be rising and buds will be swelling with a spell of mild weather.

And once spring has set in for good, your good intentions may be wasted. For trees set out late don't stand much chance of survival, says R. N. McClain, County agent.

If you can, do that planting or transplanting job as soon as possible and preferably after a rain. That way your trees and shrubs will be well established before leafing out time. And in case you didn't know, leafing out uses up a good deal of a plant's vitality.

When you put out trees it's best to ball and burlap them to keep the roots from drying out. Now about the planting job itself: Use a spade or a long handled shovel for digging the hole, and make it deep enough that the trees will be about an inch deeper in the ground than they were in the nursery or the woods. Be sure the hole is large enough around to hold all the roots without crowding any or curling them up toward the surface.

After you've set the tree, pack moist soil firmly around the roots by tamping it. If it's possible, a good watering will help settle the earth and get the tree off to a good start.

And when you have time and good weather, remember that winter is the best time for pruning shrubs, particularly evergreens. McClain says that'll promote heavier growth of leaves and twigs.

Outstanding Features Of Boy Scouts

Scouting emphasizes, not the man-made differences between peoples, but the splendid heritage of the boyhood of all nations, says Dr. Elbert K. Fretwell, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America in a statement for Boy Scout Week, Feb. 8 to 14, marking the 36th anniversary of the movement in America.

Dr. Fretwell's statement follows: "The Boy Scouts of America are a great team, a team that works and plays together. All for one and one for all, that is the Scout spirit.

"Together they explore the wilderness. They help each other over rough places and share their work and their adventure."

"For thirty-six years the Boy Scouts of America have been building citizens equipped for the great adventure of life."

"Our anniversary theme, 'Scouts of the World—Build Together,' extends our field. Scouting emphasizes, not the man-made differences between peoples, but the splendid heritage of the boyhood of all nations. In practically every civilized country on earth, Scouts are building together the foundations of world friendship through Scouting."

Gov. Stevenson Tells FPC To Keep Hands Off

Houston—Governor Coke Stevenson warned the Federal Power Commission here today to keep hands off the production of oil and gas in Texas.

"At the opening session of the Commission's hearing on the natural gas industry," he officially welcomed the commissioners to the State, and in the same breath frankly declared the State would not submit to their control over production of oil and gas.

The Governor expressed a fear that nationalization of the gas industry might be achieved indirectly, with "conscious obscurity" to hide such a move until accomplished. The Federal Power Commission regulates transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce under the Natural Gas Act of 1938.

Stating the Commission will be told Texas has more than 80 trillion cubic feet of gas, the Governor declared:

"It cannot be reasonably expected that we will quietly submit to federal control over producing, gathering, and processing of this valuable state resource. We believe that in this field the rights of Texas are paramount and that the federal government should abstain from any exercise of power therein."

"We will not intrude upon the appropriate field of federal regulation and the federal government should scrupulously abstain from entering the field of State control."

"Administrative policy-making must not be the vehicle for accomplishing a nationalization of our natural resources."

Quick Frozen Meat Is Very Tender

College Station—Meat may be frozen at temperatures as low as 40 to 114 degrees F. below zero in the future should the resulting tenderness prove worth the extra cost of such very low temperatures, Roy W. Snyder, meat specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, has predicted.

Beef frozen at 18 degrees and then thawed is about 9 per cent more tender than comparable unfrozen beef, he said. The usual freezing temperatures now in use are from zero to 10 degrees.

Snyder explained recent findings of the U. S. Department of Agriculture research workers which showed that beef frozen at 114 degrees below zero was 29 per cent more tender than unfrozen beef by pointing out that the increased tenderness was due to action of ice crystals.

In slow freezing at 18 degrees large ice crystals form between muscle fibers. These draw water, the fibers as they form and push the fibers out of shape without breaking them.

In fast freezing at 10 degrees, smaller crystals form within the crystals because there is not time for the water to be drawn out. As they form, the crystals break the fibers.

The lower temperature and the faster the freezing, the more small crystals form within the fibers and the more the fibers break, Snyder said.

At 114 degrees below zero the freezing is so rapid that nearly every fiber in the meat splits.

Texas License Plates To Be Ivory And Black

Austin, Texas—Texas' 1946 motor vehicle license plates will have a solid black background with letters and numerals of ivory color, the Highway Department said Wednesday.

Only one plate will be issued for each vehicle again this year. Truck plates will be the same as passenger car license with the exception that the word truck will appear at the bottom below the number.

License plates will be distributed starting Feb. 1 and can be placed on the vehicles after March 1. Licenses may be purchased until April 1 without penalty.

DEATH CLAIMS—

His marriage in 1908 to Miss Alice Sawyer, daughter of the late M. B. Sawyer and Mrs. Sawyer, was the first church wedding held in Brownfield.

Aut, as he was most generally known, came from McLennan county in early manhood, about 1898, working on ranches in Terry and Dawson counties. He, his father and brothers, settled the OBR ranch, just south of the Union school, in 1900. They filed on 16 sections of land there, when it came on school land market early in 1902. Sold entire body to officials of the Texas Central Railroad Co., in 1906, who then expected that road to build on out from Rotan. A townsite was tentatively laid off for the terminus, but was never built. Graham later acquired a ranch in Yoakum county, which he maintained till his death.

He was a lifetime cattleman but had retired from active work several years ago, on account of his failing health. He and family lived on south Fourth street, for the past 25 years.

Active pallbearers, nephews of the deceased, were: J. P. Kelly, Raymond Graham, Walter Donelson, Alvin Allen, Ed Donaldson, and Ray Donelson.

Honorary Pallbearers were: Seth Campbell, Kermit, Texas; Vance Sibley, Odessa; Lane McKinney, Temple; Col. H. P. Saunders, Jr., Roswell; N. B. Davidson, Big Spring; W. P. Murphy, Plains; Jay Donelson, Amarillo; L. B. Cabe, J. F. Winston, H. H. Longbrake, W. C. Smith, Fred Smith, Wood E. Johnson, Jno. S. Powell, J. O. Gilliam, Jess Smith, W. H. Collins, A. R. A lot of married couples are so inseparable that people have to pull them apart.

Before they are married she calls him handsome. Afterwards it's simply "hand some over."

Then there was the Scotchman who saved his toys for his second childhood.

Every time we come home late at night the wife is hoarse the next morning.

She may leave you holding the sack. But she will keep the things that came in it.

He and W. G. Hardin.

Out of town relatives and friends attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Allen, Okla. City; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. fight during the past session for division of the fund among other state schools and in the end had more votes for his bill than the university group had for another proposed amendment designed to counteract Smith's proposal and tie up the university fund for more than 15 years.

Smith declared that another project he intended to push, if re-elected, was the hard-surfacing of the farm-to-market roads over the area.

Must Get Farmer Out Of Mud

"We tried to raise highway revenues so that funds would be earmarked for the purpose," Smith said, "but the big city boys, oil companies and other pressure groups beat us 'country boys' out, but we intend to wage another fight during the next session to 'really get the farmer out of the mud'."

Smith has been a resident of Lubbock since 1930, when he came here to attend Texas Tech. He graduated in 1934 and entered the theater business, establishing the Tech theater opposite the campus. He is a former resident of Lamesa and Gaines county, where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Smith, now reside. Smith's home is at 2520 Twenty-first. He is married and has two children.

Larger profits are ours if we feed the soil by returning something to it each year for what we take away in food.

Rich lands yield rich crops.

Sorry land yields sorry crops.

The richer the land, the lower the cost of production.
