Father Of Local Woman Run Down By Car

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Tarpley, well known residents here, with their several children residing here, went to Lamesa Tuesday to attend funeral services for Mrs. Tarpley's father, Reuben B. Covington, aged 85, who died Monday morning of injuries sustained when struck by an automobile as he was attempting to walk across Big Spring highway, near his Lamesa suburban home. The body was transported overland to Long Branch community near Cisco, for interment in the Cisco cemetery, on land he had many years ago donated to the local church there. Investigating officers thought the accident unavoidable.

Sheriffs Take Prisoners To Huntsville

Sheriff Joe B. Price, accompanied by Sheriff Ed Hofack, of Levelland, left Tuesday with J. C. Williams, colored, convicted here recently of theft, and Russell C. Tyson and Juan Laureles, under sentences from here and Levelland for forgery, for Huntsville, where they are to enter State prison.

Car Stolen From Local Home

A gray Plymouth passenger automobile belonging to Mrs. Sturges was reported stolen, from her home, Monday night. The car had not been located up to Tuesday evening.

Mr. Sturges is manager of the chemical plant east of town.

J. K. Woosley Joins Dan Davis

J. K. Woosley, who until recently has been associated with the B. E. Needles Co., Lubbock, has formed a partnership with his brother-in-law, Dan Davis, local Cosden agent.

Davis and Woosley, who are both wholesale and retail dealers, plan to add a complete line of tires as soon as they are available.

Woosley is the brother of Mrs. Spencer Kendrick and Mrs. Dan Davis.

Local Car Dealers Organize

At a banquet at Thompson's Cafe, Monday night, attended by several guest dealers from Lubbock and all of the local new car dealers here, a local car dealers association was perfected, with Buddy Teague at president, C. E. Ross vice president and C. L. Truly of the Portwood Motor Co. at secretary-treasurer. They expect to meet monthly and discuss automobile problems. They will also be affiliated with the State and National New Car Dealers Association.

Robert L. Noble New Appraiser For Vets

It was announced here lately that Robert L. Noble, prominent real estate and insurance man, had been appointed as appraiser for veterans loans.

His office is located over Kyle Grocery, where veterans who wish to obtain loans, will find him.

Airport Hanger Contract Pending

While the Commissioners Court and City Council recently accepted the bid of $9,173.00 for a 60 by 84 steel hanger for their jointly owned airport east of town, made by an Oklahoma manufacturing concern, the final contract is yet under negotiations.

Local authorities said, as the Government has recently appropriated aid for such projects, and final action may be further deferred.

Eight Complete First Air Course

Eight Brownfield residents completed an American Red Cross Instructor's first aid course last Friday night at the Brownfield Funeral Home. Each of those finishing the course have had at least forty-five hours of first aid training and are qualified to instruct other in Terry county.

Civic organizations, gins, oil mills, oil companies, Boy and Girl Scout troops, church groups, community groups, or any group of persons who wish to receive first aid training are asked to arrange with the following instructors or the Terry County first aid chairman, Lewis Simmonds, for classes. The instructors are Glen Akers, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hardin, Kathleen Hardin, Leo Holmes, Les McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Simmonds, and Eunice Jones.

First Aid training does not take the place of a physician's services but serves to put the victim of an accident or sudden illness into the care of a doctor with a better and more rapid chance for recovery and to relieve their suffering from pain, if possible. The correct knowledge of a way to transport an accident victim to a doctor's care will more than repay a person for the few hours he would spend in a first aid class.

Local Bankers Attend Convention

Mrs. Era Lewis, wife of Moury Lewis, sustained serious injuries when hit by an automobile, last Sunday noon, while she was walking across Lubbock highway, at the intersection of Broadway.

Another car parked, obstructed her view of one approaching south on the highway. The impact knocked her down on the pavement and against the curb, causing many bruises and face and head lacerations. She suffered also a broken thigh bone, but attending physicians at the local hospital indicated her injuries were not critical.

The passenger automobile, with several passengers, was driven by a Mr. Beavers, of this city, who stopped and rendered all aid possible. Investigating officers and the family considered it an unavoidable accident.

Candidate Bob Thompson Has Twin Boys

About midnight Tuesday, Mrs. Bob Thompson, wife of one of the candidates for sheriff, gave birth to twin boys. Haven't heard their names as yet.

Anyway, Bob will perhaps forget that he is a candidate for a few days and be busy rocking and kissing his own instead of voters' kids. He is passing out cigars.

Sundown Road Still Pending With Commission

The Highway Commission who recently heard the several interested parties claims on the Sundown cutoff highway, has not rendered a final decision.

The Sundown school board, and Hockley county authorities, desire the road on different route, making it two miles longer, but accommodating more people, while the highway commission, who are to pay for it, surveyed it on direct route, angling sections. This the land owners also opposed.

Miss Della Walls spent the weekend visiting her sister, Miss Della Walls in De Leon.

County Agent Gives Low Down On Fertilizer

Since the problem of what commercial fertilizer to use on which vegetables often arises, R. N. McClain, County Agent, offers the following on the subject.

Commercial fertilizers that are available from most seed stores are 4-12-4, 5-10-5, and 6-8-4. For leafy vegetables such as lettuce, mustard, kale and spinach, Mr. McClain advises 6-8-6 because the higher percentage of nitrogen will stimulate rapid growth of the foliage. For root crops such as beets, carrots, radishes, and turnips, a 4-12-4 mixture is probably best. For tomatoes and peppers, as well as eggplant, a 5-10-5 mixture is recommended. If only one fertilizer is to be used for all vegetables, a 5-10-5 would be the best choice.

In applying fertilizer, the proper rate is five pounds per 100 feet of row space. The fertilizer should be thoroughly mixed with the soil before the seed are planted. Where vegetables already have been planted, fertilizer may be used as a side dressing. In side dressing, take the corner of the hoe and open the furrow three to four inches deep on either side of the young growing vegetables. Sprinkle the fertilizer in the furrow, then mix it with the soil and refill the furrow. To make cucumbers "grow like magic," a side dressing of 5-10-5 will do the job.

After the plants have begun to grow and have reached the height of 12 to 18 inches, a second furrow toward the ends of the runners with an application of three to four pounds additional fertilizer will keep them coming.

For tomato plants use 2 table-spoons of fertilizer to a gallon of water. Pint of mixture to each tomato plant.

Well, It Can Rain When It Tries

A welcome shower, amounting to 39-100 inch visited this section Monday night, amidst a rather vivid display of the heavenly artillery. If it had rained in accord with the amount of electrical display, we would have received two or three inches of rain.

Anyway, the shower was welcome, and the elements gives promise of more rain before many hours, this, Tuesday AM. And it goes to show that J. Pluvius can prime his pumps and put out a bit of moisture here on the Plains if he wills.

Something Different For Candidates

Here is good news for the dear old candidate, who like Mr. Milk-toast, of the funnies, are always being imposed upon, but can't say anything. So the Union community is going to do something about it, according to Supt. W. R. Dunlap of the Union school.

Instead of asking the candidates to come, speak, eat and pay and pay and pay, Union will put on an interesting program to which the candidates are invited as guests, but will be allowed time to tell their wishes.

And here is the best part. Hold your breath, candidates, and remember there IS a Santa Claus, once in awhile. There will be no admission charges, nor will there be a collection.

We'll bet every candidate in Terry county, as well as some of the district brethren will be on hand.

NEW FOUNTAIN AT COURT HOUSE

The Commissioners Court are installing two new drinking fountains in the corridor of the Court House. They have removed the old one which has been in operation for over past year.

This will be a convenience appreciated by the public.

W. H. Hare Buried Here Sunday

W. H. Hare, aged 74, well known farmer, died at his home six miles east of town, at 8:00 o'clock A. M. last Saturday morning following an illness of two months. Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church, by the pastor, Rev. R. N. Huckabee, at 4:00 o'clock P. M., followed by burial in the Brownfield cemetery.

He is survived by his wife and five sons: C. B. Hare of Los Angeles, who attended the funeral, Meers, Junior, Lester and Vester at home, and a daughter, Mrs. Oscar Blackwell, also here. Another son Van, was killed in military service, near Manila over a year ago. Also one sister, Miss Stella Hare of North Second street here.

The family moved here from Red River county, some twenty years ago. Mrs. Hare is a sister of Mrs. W. P. Forbes, and Mrs. N. R. Marchbanks, well known people here.

Coleman Park Being Improved

With the prompting of the Maids and Matrons club, and the Alpha Omega club, the city dads are having Coleman Park renovated, having plowed some, set out new and more grass and flower beds, are installing water sprinklers, and are otherwise beautifying and adding more facilities to it. It is requested that the public refrain from using it for the next two or three weeks, that the flowers and shrubbery may get set and start to growing.

Phillips Station Adds New Cleaner

Robert Heath, owner of the Phillips 66 Service Station, corner 4th and Main, announces that he has added a Hydro-Air vacuum cleaner to his washing and greasing equipment. The action of the new-type cleaner is thorough and positive and leaves the interior of the car as spotlessly clean as it was the day it left the final assembly line.

Mr. Heath invites you to call at his station for a demonstration of the new cleaner and discuss his automobile washing and greasing service with you.

Leonard Williams Training At Air Center

The Anti-Air Craft Training Center at Fort Bliss, Texas, reports that Pvt. Leonard M. Williams, 18, son of Mrs. Effie Anna Williams of this city, is now in training at Fort Bliss. He was inducted in February. After complete training, he will be assigned to the occupation forces abroad. He is qualifying as a sharpshooter with rifle.

He will also be given training with the 40 mm automatic gun. Leonard is well known by the younger set around Brownfield.

A Trip Down In Old Johnson

Two years ago when fooling around Ft. Worth, we tried once to visit Zebidie Meeks Stricklin and daughter, Miss Violet, but it rained most of the time we were in the city, and as Meeks has a stretch of unpaved and ungraveled black land approaching his place either way, we gave it up as a bad job. But getting back to Brownwood from San Antonio, late in Feb., just ahead of a three inch rain on Sunday, we thought we would have to call off the trip again.

But Monday dawned fair and bright, and we had a bit of work done on the Chivvy, and as Tuesday was still fair and windy, we decided it was a good time to try to navigate that half mile of black waxy. So, in the afternoon, off we went along with the Frau and daughter, Mrs. Trigg, through Comanche, through Stephenville, through Glenrose and Cleburne, reaching the Jonah spot just before sunset, and by maneuvering the car astride the ruts, we made it fine at 5 MPH.

Just brother and daughter are all there is at home now. Both sons married and gone, and his wife passed on some 8 years ago. One would suspect they would be quite lonesome, but they were so glad to see us that if there is any lonesomeness, it was not evident. On account of a heart ailment, he has been forbidden for years to do hard work, but he does help look after the several milk cows and horse, chickens, hogs, pecan orchard, etc. Both he and daughter seem to join hands in any kind of work, even in the kitchen, and soon a good old farm supper with all kinds of home canned stuff, burdened the table. As it had been many moons since we talked much, it was a bit over into Wed. when we went to bed.

As usual, the lady had to get some sprouts down on Chambers creek, but we begged off, going up to the Bentons to talk. Well, the Mrs. got mixed up with a bunch of poison ivy, and came home and had a long session with her physician and a lot of lay doctors. Don't know who finally cured her, but she finally got caught up with her scratching. Speaking of the Bentons, Meeks' wife was the eldest member of that family, who live a few hundred yards east of him. That once large family has now dwindled to three. Mr. and Mrs. Benton have both passed on, and two other of the girls have married, leaving only John and Will—twins—and Miss Lochie, their now eldest sister at the old Benton place. But if the family has become small, not so the chuck. Man alive, we had one of those old farm dinners around noon Wed. that would make a rabbit battle a bear. And you feel like you are one of the family while in that home of love and good cheer.

But we had to be off, as we wanted to call just a few minutes with Mr. and Mrs. Knox McWilliams of Hillsboro. Mr. Mack had a serious stroke last fall, from which he has not fully recovered. And Mrs. Mack was expecting the death of her sister of Greenville, momentarily. In spite of all that, it was a hard matter to keep from spending the night with them. Only a positive promise to visit them later this spring would satisfy them. Too, we knew Knox would insist in staying up as long as any of us, and he needs all the rest he can get. He still buys cotton, but he goes up stairs in the morning and does not come down until time to close. We compromised by having supper (dinner) with them at Hillsboro's swellest cafe.

So, off to Brownwood again, via Waco, Gatesville, Goltwhaithe, arriving there about midnight.

Sure there is hunger in Europe and Asia, especially in the vast over-populated sections of those countries. And the more or less well fed American, north and south of our borders, and we mean national borders, feel for them. Hunger is a word we really know little about. True, a few of us have been put on the spot by being lost, snowed in, etc., a few times for a short while. Very few of us have ever gone more than a few hours without food. We don't realize the pangs of hunger, and hunger really has pangs. We have been told that it is one of the most horrible of deaths, to become a living, breathing, skeleton and finally pass out. All of us should do what we can to share food with the world's hungry people. Yet, since a boy—and that has been a long period by any measure—we have been hearing of people dying of hunger in Asia, especially over-populated India and China. A neighbor took the Christian Herald, and we don't remember seeing many issues but there were gaunt, stark pictures of starving men, women and children. Really this is nothing new to that section, but rare to most sections of Europe where people are a bit more progressive. But as long as both Europe and Asiatic people insist that dictators and racketeers govern them, they are going to be hungry, have wars and devastations. If they ever have the gumption to rule themselves, and live in peace with each other, perhaps their lot will improve.

A lot of us home folks, including the run of the mine laborers, white collar workers and farmers, wonder why our government up at Washington keep kicking us around; tell us what and what we cannot do, yet let an organized minority do almost as they please. Well, it may be like the negro's near beer: "we jist ain't got no organization." It seems however, that Congress, especially those from the south and agricultural sections of the north are becoming fed up on this arrangement, and are not taking all the orders that the administration and John L. Lewis hand them. Farmers, for instance, have been given orders for the past five years to produce more than ever, and despite shortage of help and wearing out farm tools have nobly responded. They have not struck, and there is no serious talk of a strike now, but conditions are grating on their nerves. John L. and his crowd have refused to produce needed coal that has tied up all industries in a knot, and before that, farm implement strikers had slowed up production of new farm tools. From this distance it appears that Boss Lewis does not ask for a settlement in money, but wants a royalty on all coal produced by his workers. As one farmer expressed it to the Herald this week—the Boss refuses to lay his cards on the table.

Congressmen and Senators from the south and middle west are being cursed and slandered by the manufacturing sections of the north and east—and this includes some news commentators—just because they refuse to go along with the administration on all its socialistic plans. What the Herald would like to see above all other things in this race is for Sid Hillman to name a congressman for this the 19th district, and put him out against Mahon. We would just like to see how many votes he would get. We have an idea, however, that a half blind man could count all that would be cast for Sidney's man in the 19th district in half an hour.

That organized labor has its place in our governmental setup, cannot be denied. Even the big mass production corporations had rather work union labor, as that relieves them of work and worry of keeping tab on who will be on the job today and tomorrow, or all the week to keep the machines rolling. In fact the labor organizations see that a regular or a substitute is on the job. We have been told by management of daily papers, for instance, that it is better and more economical to use union labor. The only trouble is that when they get too large and powerful, they get entirely out of hand and rule or ruin. And we might add, it seems that in some instances at least, management gets just as bull-headed as labor, and when such a time arrives, you have a mess. There ought to be some way to devise a law fair to both labor and management, and at the same time protect the public, which in the long run is the real sufferer from long drawn out strikes and idleness. We should be well on our way to reconversion, but instead, we are still in the cellar.

THE ROAD TO RUIN

Naturally, the higher the benefits and the longer the period each year for which they are paid, the more difficult it will be to recruit help. Retail stores, garages, and many other trades find workers unwilling to accept work, even when thousands are being laid off from war industries. Farm help is almost impossible to get at any price the farmer can pay, to raise food at a figure demanded by the government.

Sooner or later we are all going to get down to earth and work and save, or we will starve. All the hot air to the contrary, government can't take money away from the people in taxes to furnish the handouts now proposed. Legalized loafing on the government payroll will break any nation ultimately.

—Clyde Herald.

"Agenda" A New One That Bothers R. M.

—GWN—

Marshall Kendrick is terribly perturbed over the new word "Agenda," that, like a song hit, is sweeping the country. The UNO started it. He remembers, in his grammar lessons the difference in masculine and feminine genders, but is non-plussed over such wide use of the present word.

Don't be surprised, in your next letter from the bank, reciting in substance: "According to our agenda, your note is," etc. Or soon hearing our Judges announce: "The next case on the agenda, is Bill Dunwith-versus, Sallie Dunwithin. UNO the nature of the case." Or the smiling waitress hands you that little folder, enclosing the "agenda" for lunch, with brown bread and white gravy. Or, the bus station posting on a board, or folder, the agenda, showing the bus leaves Brownfield at a certain time, arriving at destination, when it gets there. And on public meetings, a printed agenda, with welcome address by Mayor Jordan, followed by what have you.

Besides what about candidates who don't tell you theirs. The Republicans will soon put out their agenda but the Democrats will have to fight awhile over theirs.

Lockney's grade school was completely destroyed by fire last week.

Denver City, Tex., Legionnaires have purchased a building and moved it here for their local post.

Mulshoe business men have financed a Jersey cattle program for its community, all stock to be registered.

Andrews votes this week on a $1,475,000 bond improvement issue as varied as this progressive city could name.

For Something Old, W. E. Winn Has It

If the new modern bride has any trouble getting "something borrowed," or "something old," when they get hitched to the man of their choice, they could call on candidate Willie Winn, of Gomez, and he dare not refuse them while in the race for county clerk. Recently he was in with a lot of stuff that is interesting to even a person no older or younger than the Old He.

Among the things that Willie had was two pair of those old time "specks," not glasses, built on a huge brass adjustable frame with small square leps. The kind that you gay ninety students remember seeing on pictures of elderly people in your old McGuffey and Swinton Readers. Then there was an array of coins, pennies, nickles, dimes, half dollars, etc., with mintage dates running back to the middle of the nineteenth century.

Well here's how Mr. and Mrs. Winn came by them. The Black family originated down in Stephens county when that was as pioneerish as Terry was forty years ago. But the country became crowded—a family every ten miles or so—and grandpa and grandma George Black, Sr. decided to get out where they could get some fresh air. So, they hitched up the hosses, Will and George, Jr. rode the herd and they landed in the Canyon section. Soon Uncle John Santa Fe built to that town and they were crowded again, and they hit the trail for old Terry. Uncle John followed them with the rails in 1917, but too late. They refused to move that time.

Then there was the Winn side of the family, who got crowded down in old Collins county, and came in about Knox, which soon got too many folks and they came to good old Terry, too. Willie and wife were just kids, but we bet they soon began casting sheep's eyes at each other. And so they lived happy ever after.

For fear Dube Pyeatt, who also wants to be your next county clerk, gets mad at us, let him bring us a mess of back bones and he'll

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

For years, I have broken out into a sweat when the dentist began drilling on one of my teeth—but recently, he drilled and I smiled sweetly. The ravages of time had made a bridge necessary and he was drilling on the bridge while holding it in his hand.

I can understand the sentiment of the cowboy who had a tooth pulled and said he wanted to keep it in a glass and look at it and say, "Now, ache, darn yuh!"

Traveling over Texas: Bluebonnets seem earlier than usual this year; saw my first ones just north of Ennis on April 2 . . . Little lambs along the hillsides in Coleman and Runnels counties . . . Just out of Athens, beside the highway, a big dogwood tree, with thousands of blossoms; and near Rusk a thicket against a hill with so many dogwoods in bloom that the trees looked as though they were sprinkled with snow . . . Approaching Jacksonville, plumes of smoke hovering over a valley at twilight; they came from burning sawdust piles and were held low by the damp air; fresh sawdust burning has a fragrance of its own.

South of Alto, the Neches was in semi-flood and a house on stilts was surrounded by water. Seated on the porch was an old negro, unconcernedly reading a newspaper . . . Judge Hal Leaverton who was mayor in Breckenridge and then county judge of Gregg County is now living in Carthage . . . Timpson was probably the smallest town in the United States (about 1,500 inhabitants) with a daily paper; the daily was discontinued, however, a year ago after 43 years . . . A sign in Stephenville, "If you are too busy to go to church, you are too busy."

Millions Lost By Burning Cotton Burs

Lubbock—Between ten and fifteen million dollars worth of cotton burs which could be processed into commercial products are being thrown away or burned each year in Texas, according to C. G. Rook, associate director of the chemical and textile phases of the Cotton Research Committee of Texas located at Texas Technological College.

Commercial material economically procurable from cotton burs, research has shown, are a boiler water treating compound which acts as a scale inhibitor in hard water; furfural, an important chemical compound; a building board substance; plastic filler, and fertilizer.

Furfural, one of the most important products obtainable from the cotton bur, has many various uses, including use in the synthesis of plastics, in fixing motor oils, in making aniline dyes, as a fungicide, and in the synthetic rubber industry in the recovery of butadiene. One Texas rubber plant alone uses approximately $2500 worth of furfural daily.

For the past two years Rook has been working on cotton bur research at Texas Tech under sponsorship of the Cotton Research Committee of Texas. He has developed a pilot plant for experimental work to determine substances which could be obtained from the cotton bur, and if such products could be produced economically in industry.

From experimental results to date, indications are that it would be economically sound to process the cotton bur, Rook says.

Filipinos Need Clothing Badly

American people are being asked to donate cotton clothing to the Filipinos, who are in desperate need, reports Miss Helen Dunlap, County Home Demonstration Agent. Garments specially needed are Women's dresses; children's clothing of all kinds; cotton underwear; sox, not to exceed size 8½; faded and worn garments in good condition; bath towels; feed sacks, with needle and thread.

This clothing may be taken to people in the following communities, where they will be packed ready for shipment:

Gomez, Mrs. Kenneth Hodges; Harmony, Mrs. A. J. Bell; Meadow, Mrs. M. W. Fox; Pleasant Valley, Mrs. Delbert Davis; Johnson, Mrs. H. Joyce; Pool, Mrs. Roy Barrier; Scudday, Mrs. Victor Herring; Tokio, Mrs. Everett Brantley; Union, Mrs. Lloyd Shepherd; Wellman, Mrs. Clyde Heafner.

Clothing in these communities will be packed at some central place in the community ready for shipment before being brought to Brownfield.

People in Brownfield may bring the clothing to the court house for shipment. All people throughout the county are urged to bring clothing to one of the centers, in order that it may be mailed by May 11.

San Antonio A City Of Contrasts

Of all the cities we have ever visited, San Antonio and New Orleans take the cake for contrasts. First, they are a conglomeration of the modern with the old. Second, they are just different from all other cities we have ever seen. The first is a semi-borrow from old Spain or Mexico, and the latter a replica of France, in spots at least. Therefore both are interesting places to visit.

As stated last week, the Old He has a nice there, has lived in that city many years, and who have a nice home and a good business. In fact we think her husband owns all the juxbox and weighing machines in SA, and the surrounding towns. So heavy is his intake of pennies and nickles, that he has a machine to count each of them. That family comes nearer being rich kin folks than any relations we have, if you ask us. They have one son in his senior high school year, who leans to being what a lot of us term a long haired musician, specializing on the piano.

This boy has had the best teachers in San Antonio for years, and after high school will attend a foremost school in Philadelphia, and has ambition to go on and finish in Vienna. We are not giving you their names as the reader will probably never see them. But those who love classical music may in the years to come hear this boy. All his teachers say that he has a very bright future. He attended the summer session of Baylor U. last summer, and was given the same encouragement there.

As to the Holden family (just he and wife) will state that Roy is several years older than his sister, Mrs. Stricklin. He was with the older MacArthur in the Philippine insurrection in 1900. Was later a locomotive engineer on the Chicago-Northwestern from Kansas City to Omaha; later went to California and was a policeman and jailor for the city of Los Angeles—well long enough to retire on pension. So, with a Spanish war and police pension, he and wife are taking their later

That Cotton Surplus Melts Away

Dallas—Fear of a cotton surplus, which has so long haunted Cotton Belt farmers, is vanishing as the so-called surplus rapidly disappears, with many better grades of lint already scarce, according to A. L. Ward, Educational Director, National Cottonseed Products Association.

"Combined with the highest prices in two decades, the American cotton supply situation offers farmers in 1946 the strongest encouragement for increased production that they have had in many years," he pointed out.

"Farmers, who recall the way in which so-called surpluses of corn, wheat and other crops became shortages, can easily foresee the possibility that cotton supplies may soon be insufficient to meet the demand.

"Cottonseed products, especially oil and feed products, are critically scarce and have been for a number of years; and the need is acute for increased production to meet American and foreign requirements for meats and fats."

Ward stated that value per acre of cotton was far above the average for other crops in most Cotton States last season, when yields were very low and prices less favorable than today; and that, on the average, cotton is both the most dependable and valuable crop that most farmers can grow.

From the standpoint of both income and the need for its products, the outlook for cotton is very favorable this season where farmers make it the keystone of a balanced farming and livestock program, and follow practices that will increase yields and lower production costs, he added.

days very lovely. They decided that San Antonio would be a better and milder climate to spend their life, so they sold their home in LA and bought a nice one in SA.

Last, but not least, we went out to south San Antonio to see Mrs. Belle Hilyard, who spent some ten years an employee of the Herald. She is now working on a neighborhood paper in that section as Linotype, or rather Intertype operator. That gal was busy tapping 'em out when we went in and made ourself acquainted with the editor, and she never saw us until we slapped her in the back and yelled. She had been rudely interrupted by us so many times in the past that she knew who it was without looking around.

They have a nice little plant, well equipped and get out a very interesting little paper, and do a whale of a lot of job work. Since we left there, however, her boss has taken very ill, and the last account we had, he was still confined to his bed. We hope he has a speedy recovery.

We had a fine time with these families, and as Roy had nothing else to do, we took in the old

Alamo town, top side and bottom. It was our first visit to the old home of the Spanish governor, now owned by the ladies clubs of that city, and it is rather educational to see how the Spanish Dons lived two centuries ago, including desks, tables, beds, chair, writing material, swords and firearms. Also visited famous Breckenridge park, but the Old He let the rest of them do most of it as we preferred a nap in the car to a lot of walking. But don't go to San Antonio and just see the Alamo and decide that is about all the stuff to see. That is just the beginning.

See the other old missions, and make the Spanish and Mexican governors' mansion a must.

MAKE YOUR COTTON PLANTING SEED GO FARTHER
Here Is How
Let us delint your seed by the Kemgas Process then you can plant half as many seed and secure a better stand.
Why Is This True?
The Kemgas Process removes all the lint then recleans, grades, and treats the delinted seed with eeresan. Seed processed in this manner will germinate 3 to 5 days quicker than fuzzy seed. Tractors plant 25% more seed land in a day because there is absolutely no lint to choke planter boxes and one filling of the planter box will run 3 to 4 hours.
Planting Attachments
No special planting attachments are required—just an ordinary corn plate will plant these seed.

Dandelion Killer Given By County Agent

Some questions are being asked about the eradication of dandelions in lawns and yards. According to R. N. McClain, County Agent, probably one of the best methods is the application of the chemical 2,4D. The chemical may be bought in powder or liquid form. When the powder is used dissolve 1 oz. in 5 gallons of water which gives a solution containing approximately 1% 2,4D, applying 5 gallons of solution per 1000 square feet. The liquid may be purchased in as small amounts as 1 1/2 oz. bottles which usually make about 1 gallon of solution when mixed with water.

An ordinary hand spray may be used to apply the solutions. Be sure to get all leaves of plants wet. The best time to apply is when temperature is above 60 degrees. For the best results do not apply in late evening. Do not sprinkle lawn for about one day after application.

If the spray gun is to be used for other sprays be sure to thoroughly rid the gun of the 2,4D before using. Otherwise bad results may occur. Don't expect an immediate kill as this "weed killer" is somewhat slower than some of the other poisons.

Mrs. Elsie Kendrick and sons spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. T. C. Bouchier, in Abilene.

THE AMERICAN LEGION PLAN OF UNIVERSAL TRAINING

The above is a chart of The American Legion plan of universal training for national security which is being offered as an amendment to the Gurney-M y Bill now pending in Congress. In this carefully prepared program The American Legion believes it has met the objections of the clergy, educators and parents to other plans. Under this plan the young man upon reaching the age of 18 or upon graduating from high school, whichever is later, would take a four months' basic military training course which could be given during the summer months. Thereafter he would have five options for completing his advanced training. He would thus be able to select the course that would not interfere with his schooling or business plans. The American Legion believes this is the best plan of military training yet advanced for both the nation and its young men.

Sundown Festival A Real Success For Brownfield Band

A most profitable and enjoyable day was spent in Sundown last Thursday when their Music Festival was held. The event was started off by a parade which covered the entire downtown district. The parade was a long one, the first band reaching the school before the last entries had swung into line. Bands from Levelland, Morton, Whiteface, Plains, Brownfield, and Sundown were interspersed with the various floats from the Sundown school and businessmen's clubs. Many beautiful horses were entered too.

A free movie was then enjoyed by everyone and after that a good feed furnished by the Band Boosters Club. The movie was sponsored by the Lions Club.

Then we got down to serious business at hand which included a rehearsal of our mass band numbers. This was carried on under rather difficult circumstances, the wind blowing music, and the 300 odd bandsters a little hard to keep together. Then, each band did a special maneuver on the football field while the guest band director from Shamrock, Major Ed Chanette, made comments and criticisms. He commended the Brownfield band very highly on our maneuver and said it was really remarkable what we had accomplished in so short a time.

Then came the highlight of the evening: A concert of six numbers played by the massed bands. Mr. Short, bandmaster from Sundown directed "Military Escort;" Mr. Lindsey, from Whiteface, directed "Saskatchewan," Mr. Le Maire of Levelland directed "Symbol of Honor" and C. L. Horn directed "Over the Waves." Major Ed Chanette took the remaining two numbers: "Gypsy Festival Overture" and "Parade of the Republic." The latter number was arranged by the Major.

It was pointed out that the majority of these bands were first year bands and the work done was of an excellent calibre. Chanette's comment about the Brownfield Band was that the marching routine was good, however the cadence was a little slow. The lines were straight and the step was kept. All the other bands did some good marching routines too but none drew the favorable comment that ours did. All the band members had a very good time and want Brownfield to sponsor such a show next year. Mr. Short reported that the sponsors at Sundown had voted to make the Music Festival an annual affair using the same date next year. Sundown was a gracious host and did everything possible to make it the success that it was.—Reporter.

GOT $2,000 HANDY

The U. S. national debt will total $275,000,000,000 by July 1 of this year, according to Secretary of the Treasury Vinson, who ought to know. This would be about $2,000 for every man, woman and child in the nation.

What is your GUESS?
on our profits...

SOMETIMES, although an idea is wrong, it does no harm. Like the idea that a square jaw is the sign of will power. That winters aren't as severe as they used to be, or that red hair denotes quick temper.

But there are other wrong ideas, which are definitely harmful to public confidence in and understanding of industry. One such idea is the current "guessing" about profits made by large business organizations.

Many people are apt to grossly exaggerate the money made by business. So Opinion Research Corporation (an independent organization) made a survey to learn just what the public thinks about profits. Compare these guesses and yours with the International Harvester profit figures given below.

rate of profit in normal times. Many large businesses, including ourselves, would consider it a banner year if we could reach this figure. Our average profit for the last ten years—four war and six peace—was 6.43%—more than a third less than what the public considers fair.

All these figures show that our profits are not high. As a matter of fact, the entire farm machinery industry is a low profit industry. In 1944, the Federal Trade Commission published a list of 76 industries ranked in order of their ratio of profits to sales. The farm machinery industry was 57th on the list.

What About Current I H Prices?
When the War ended and we planned our peace-time production, we had hoped to be able to serve our farmer customers at the same level which has held since 1942, regardless of war-time increases in costs of wages and materials up to that time. But recent developments have forced a change in our plans.

There has been no general increase in our prices since they were frozen by the Government early in 1942.

So our situation today is that what we BUY costs us 1946 prices. We will be paying average hourly wages 56% above 1941. For what we SELL we get only 1942 prices. This condition cannot long be met out of our present low rate of profit.

Future Prices on I H Products
It is plain that price relief will be needed to meet the increased wage and material costs which we must carry.

We regret this necessity. We prefer to lower prices, when possible, rather than raise them and we know our customers prefer to have us do that. We had hoped to be able to "hold the line," at least.

But we do not see how we can avoid operating at a loss if our prices continue to remain at their present frozen levels. We will NOT "cut corners" on any of our products, because QUALITY IS THE FOUNDATION OF OUR BUSINESS.

Our customers can be certain that we will seek no more than a moderate profit, both because of our policies and because we have approximately 300 competitors fighting us vigorously for your business. Our request for price relief will be no more than is necessary to insure continued service to our customers, continued work for our employees, and a reasonable return for our stockholders.

It All Happened In The Hometown

—By Edie—

Portwood Knows His Ford — They say the thing to do when your car is ailing is to take it back home—at least that's the way Ford service is advertised — so when I got locked out of my Ford the other day and the key wouldn't unlock it, I naturally called the Ford dealer—and, what do you know! Portwood and Truly couldn't make the key work either—what's more, they said in my case, a key wouldn't do a bit of good—but were they stymied? Not a bit—and they didn't have to break out a glass either, which would have been very hard to replace right now. They simply raised the hood, took a long wire hook made from a coat hanger and reached the inside door handle through a small hole under the dash board—that is, they reached it after quite a bit of persistence. I probably would have lost patience—that's the reason I can't catch a fish—much less a door handle.

What I Want To Know Is—Can you Buy a Purple Chick? I'll bet you can at Joe Chisholm's. I went in to sell Joe an ad the other day. He turned the tables on me fast by trying to sell me something. I gave him what I considered a smart comeback by asking for a dozen "Red" chicks—red being the most ridiculous color for a chick I could think of at the moment. Imagine my surprise when he handed me a box. I said, "What's that?" He said,

HD Clubs To Collect Clothing For Philippines

Community parties and entertainments with used clothing being used for admission, are being sponsored in rural communities next month by home demonstration clubs. Miss Helen Dunlap, county home demonstration agent, reports this as a method the people are using to gather clothing to be sent to the Philippine people, whose homes and possessions were destroyed by falling bombs during the war. In order to help them re-equip their school laboratories, the county home demonstration council voted to send them some money next month, in addition to that given by the home demonstration clubs. The Tokio Club planned a forty-two party for May 10, when they will take a free will offering to be added to the council donation. They will also pack the used clothing ready for shipment May 11.

Next week, a schedule of radio programs will be given, depicting the work of home demonstration club women over the nation. These programs will be given in observance of home demonstration week, which is May 5 to 12.

"Your Chicks," I said, "But I asked for red ones." He said, "Well, you got 'em—Rhode Island Reds!" Joe looked pretty disgusted when he had to put 'em back—but what would I do with a dozen baby chicks!!!

The History of Coffee

The fragrant cup of coffee which makes us civil every morning and renews us so often during the day links many nations in a long and romantic history. Just when it first appeared as a beverage no one can say exactly. But that it was an Arabian discovery seems very likely in view of the fact that coffee grew wild in that part of the world before the ninth century after Christ, and fanciful Arabian nights tales have been handed down about the first brew.

The most popular legend concerns Kaldi, an Arabian goatherd, whose dull life on the hillside made him a gloomy Joe indeed. But he picked and ate some of the berries his goats were fond of nibbling, because he noticed that after eating these berries, the goats became gay creatures. Kaldi himself became a new man. Thereafter coffee berries were indispensable to his diet, and so carefree and lively did he become that he often joined his goats in a merry dance.

A monk, to whom Kaldi confided his experiences, prepared a drink from the beans and served it to the members of his order. They found the beverage sustained their energy and helped them to pray and meditate longer, so they adopted the drink and cultivated the plant.

Gradually the popularity of the beverage spread to Turkey, where, in 1554, the first public coffee house was established. It was introduced in 1644, the English and Viennese in 1650, and it was brought to North America in 1668. But promptly the power of the beverage to stimulate clear thinking and plain talking converted the popular coffee houses into discussion clubs. And political debate that exploded into dissension, direct action and resistance made coffee houses the targets of tyrants like Charles II of England, who termed them seminaries of sedition.

But, according to Disraeli, London and Paris coffee houses of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries held the mirror to "the manners, the morals and the politics of a people."

Here in colonial United States, too, the coffee house became the meeting house of the town fathers, and after a time changed from purely social centers to focal points of merchant trade and political discussion. Daniel Webster called Boston's Green Dragon Coffee House "the headquarters of the American Revolution."

The Dutch took the coffee plant to South America back around 1718, with a result that every sixth grader knows. Today's coffee plantations in Pan-America produce three-fourths of the world's coffee. And because we are the world's greatest coffee drinkers, of course we're the biggest customers for the Pan-American yield. All previous invoices were topped in 1945, when the United States imported 20,279,690 bags of coffee, each containing 122 pounds.

"Cures" For Colds 60 Years Ago

Schenectady — Fantastic remedies suggested for the common cold 60 years ago were described here by Dr. Louis C. Jones of the State College for Teachers, Albany, N. Y., in a G-E Science Forum address over WGY.

"The Albany Times in 1886 suggested that, in the realm of preventive medicine, the best thing to do to ward off a cold was to take a bath in hot whiskey and rock salt twice a year," Dr. Jones said. "I suppose the rock salt is there so you won't drown."

"There are some less expensive remedies for colds that I am also glad to pass on to you," the speaker, who is editor of the New York Folklore Quarterly, pointed out. "For example, it was 'discovered' down in Caloon, N. Y., that if you take the skin of the leaf lard from the left side of a pig, put it on your chest and keep it there, you'll be over your cold in no time."

"If that, by any chance, doesn't work and you are still able to get around despite your hacking cough, you might try crawling through a double-rooted briar moving from west to east," according to old legends.

Increased Grain Planting Urged

Texas farmers are being urged to increase their planting of grains, especially corn and sorghums, in order to help alleviate the critical feed shortage. Prospective acreage reports, based on intentions to plant as of March 1, indicate that Texas farmers are falling far short of reaching the acreage goals set for corn and grain sorghums, according to R. N. McClain, County Agent.

The corn planting goal for 1946 is 4,950,000 acres, while prospective acreage is only 3,921,000 acres, 79 per cent of the goal. For sorghums the goal is 7,800,000, and indicated acreage is 7,045,000 acres, 90 per cent of the goal.

The Texas record for wheat and oats planting is much better, McClain declared, with 5,994,000 acres of wheat planted, 115, per cent of the 5,200,000 acre goal. The oats acreage is 1,849,000, slightly more than the 1,830,000 acre goal.

With feed supplies short and with great amounts of wheat being exported to starvation areas, the demand for all grains will continue.

Denison Celebrates Eisenhower Day

Austin, April 17 — General Dwight D. Eisenhower today heralded his return to Denison—his birthplace, which is celebrating "Eisenhower Day" Friday, April 19—with a whole-hearted endorsement of the American Legion's proclamation that for Americans there is only one "ism"—Americanism.

To Fred F. Florence, president of the Republic National Bank of Dallas, and state chairman of the $15,000,000 national campaign of the Americanism Endowment Fund, he sent word, "I am thoroughly in sympathy with your objectives."

"General Eisenhower's word was 'objectives', Mr. Florence commented.

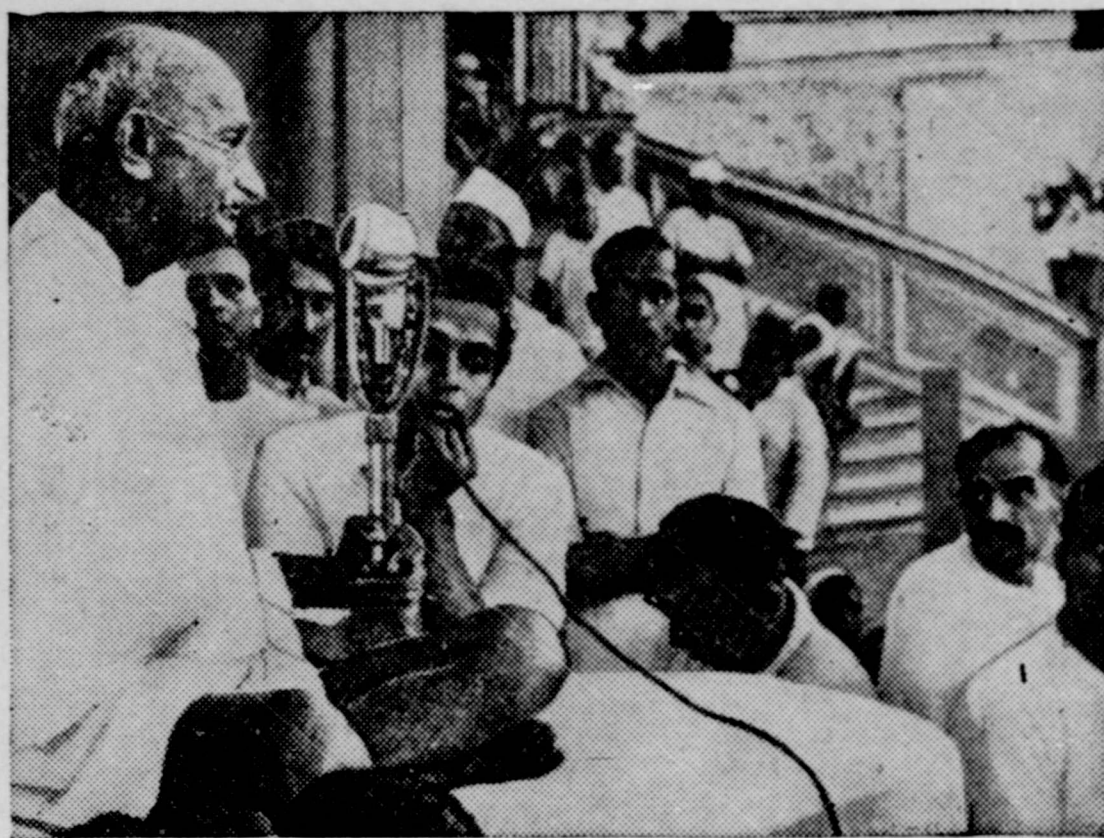

That is a fighting man's term, and I'm glad he used it, for all of us must fight together to gain two objectives.

"The first is to preserve in peace what our fighting men and women won in two world wars . . . freedom.

"The second is to do everything possible to ensure world peace.

"Our objectives can be won by educating our children—and re-educating ourselves—in the full understanding of the American form of government. That is our bulwark against all subversive forces. It is our duty to our neighbors in the world community to set an example, and help them find a way out of the confusion and bitterness which could lead to utter devastation.

The Americanism Endowment Fund's $450,000 campaign in Texas, the first state in the country to undertake the drive, will open May 20, by proclamation of Governor Coke R. Stevenson. Governor Stevenson is honorary state chairman. President Truman is the national chairman.

GANDHI TALKS OVER RADIO . . . Following the announcement of Prime Minister W. Clement Attlee that India may elect her own freedom, the great leader of India, Mahatma Gandhi, went on the air to tell his followers what kind of a freedom he wanted for India. ### The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Today I doff my chapeau to the Old Dominion—and to the Governor of same. That Governor gent—he is made of prime stuff. His vertebrae is not synthetic. It is okay with him, he says, if you choose to join a union or not join a union—it is up to you—but you get tough about it and start pushing other people around and interfering with the peace and tranquility of Virginia, there is gonna be some pushin' back. He will do the pushin' back.

It is refreshing to see such stamina versus like out there where the Governor of California had started for the opening of the season ball game, but where a couple pickets got there first, and the Gov. turned around and sneaked home.

Of all the sad things that our U. S. A. puts up with—but should not—it is pickets. With mosquitos we can get a fly-spray that works pretty good, but with pickets, we hesitate. Anyway we been doing so quite regular, until this old Virginia Soreback got his dander up. That boy is no sissie. He should have 3 cheers—and a pat on the back. He is no mediocre kind of governor.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

The city and the land should be congenial partners.

STAMP TO HONOR VETS . . . This special three-cent stamp honoring veterans of World War II will be issued on May 9. It will be of standard size and will include a facsimile of the honorable discharge emblem now seen on so many lapels.

WEATHER 'UNIONIZED'

The weather-man in St. Louis, Mo., either must join the union, or stop telling the citizenry over the radio what the weather outlook is, the American Federation of Radio Artists (AFL) has notified radio station KSD.

Protect our forest resources.

Drunk Driving, Pedestrians Both To Blame

Austin—Colonel Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, took a drink today.

This was unusual indeed, since everybody knows that his annual quota of alcoholic stimulation is somewhat less than one conventional highball.

Into his office strode N. K. Woerner, chief statistician of the Department, with a drink in one hand and a piece of paper in the other. Woerner handed Garrison the drink and said, "Here, keep this handy. You're going to need a drink in a moment. I am going to blast you out of your chair with the figures on this piece of paper."

"An atomic bomb disguised as a sheet of paper, huh? J. Edgar Hoover will be interested in this," Garrison said, placing the glass on his desk.

"It's a bomb, all right," Woerner insisted. "But not atomic. It's alcoholic. These figures show that in 1945, 29 per cent of all drivers and 41 per cent of all pedestrians involved in Texas collisions were under the influence of alcohol."

"Good Lord!" Garrison exclaimed, "do you mean that one-third of our accidents are being caused by drunken drivers and pedestrians?"

"Not necessarily drunk, in the usual sense of the word," Woerner said. "As you know, our accident reports show 'had been drinking' as the classification for the presence of alcohol, in whatever quantity."

"Well, it's the same difference," Garrison said. "The tipsy driver is more dangerous than the one who is sloppy drunk. And even if the average person does refuse to believe it, just an ounce or two of alcohol will befuddle his reflexes enough to make him dangerous in traffic. What do your figures show concerning fatal accidents?"

Fifteen percent of all drivers cause 85 percent of the accidents.

They Do Not Choose To Work

Individuals who are drawing unemployment insurance or currently living on personal savings are contributing little to the national economy. They may have some value as consumers but they are not producing anything. The nation is missing the wealth that might be created by filling the jobs available.

If this situation means anything, it should demonstrate to Congress the folly of voting great benefits for the unemployed or appropriations for made work when so many legitimate jobs are open. If the jobs that are available were filled the production and business activity resulting would create still more jobs. This is always true of an expanding economy.—Hempstead Review Star.

Legion Backs House Red Probers Against Smears

Indianapolis, Ind. — All - out American Legion backing of the House Committee on un-American Activities against the smear campaign launched against it by radical elements has been pledged by National Americanism Director Elmer W. Sherwood.
"Communists and other subversive groups want to discredit, abolish and starve the House investigating body by cutting off its appropriations because they don't want any probing of their current aims and activities," Director Sherwood said. "The Commies at present are carrying on a nationwide 'Build the Party Drive' in which they are seeking to enlist key workers in basic industries and returning veterans. They have orators stumping the country. They are planning record-breaking May Day demonstrations."
Director Sherwood said Communists are seizing on every possible grievance to fan fires of national disunity, including high taxes, unemployment, housing shortage, surplus property sales, racial hatreds, religious prejudices and other controversial issues.

Rollin' 'em faster on the Santa Fe

Santa Fe serves the Southwest with two main lines.
The northern route runs across the plains of Kansas, southeastern Colorado, and goes over the mountains at Raton Pass.
The southern route leans south in eastern Kansas, runs through Oklahoma, the Texas Panhandle (where it is joined by other Santa Fe lines serving Texas), crosses central New Mexico, and joins the northern route again near Albuquerque.
Along these main lines Santa Fe has increased its yard facilities, straightened out curves and lengthened sidings to handle more freight trains.

Centralized Traffic Control systems have been installed, virtually adding another "main line" to important parts of the Santa Fe.
A great new double-track steel bridge across the Colorado River removes the "bottleneck" created by the old single track bridge it replaces.
80 giant 5400-horsepower Diesel locomotives—the most powerful freight Diesels in the world—are pulling heavy freights over our steepest mountain grades.
These increased facilities on the Santa Fe are ready to "roll 'em faster" for shippers even more efficiently than before.
