"Gives You Texas"

Texas had had many colorful figures on the bench—like Judge Roy Bean, the saloonkeeper, and Emanuel Dubbs, the buffalo hunter—but history has rather slighted Colonel Smithers (we'll call him that), who was justice of the peace at Fort Griffin when that town was the liveliest spot on the frontier.

Justice Smithers was a former army officer. He held the rank of colonel during the War Between the States, but with the close of hostilities he had to step back to his permanent rank as lieutenant. He came to Fort Griffin for a tour of duty shortly after the war and after a time resigned and settled down near the fort to make a home.

The judge was well regarded in the community and when the citizens came to see the need of a justice of the peace he was elected to the office without opposition—and held the post until the fort was abandoned and the Griffin 'Flat' became a country village.

The ex-colonel, so say those who knew him, was one of 'the boys' always ready to take part in a game of chance, or go the rounds of the saloons—and more than once, after a festive night, he appeared on his bench in the morning sporting black eyes and a swollen countenance. But this didn't, in the least, interfere with his administration of justice.

Sitting back in his chair, he would assess a fine on his comrades of the night before without the slightest hesitation, notwithstanding their looks of astonishment and their muttered comments. But they knew better than to protest too openly for the Colonel used more than law books to back up his decisions.

He kept in the pigeon holes of his desk—prominently placed so that all might behold—an ornate brass-barreled horse pistol and a long-bladed Turkish knife, and when the effects of too much fire-water made some of his defendants obstreperous, Smithers emphasized his decisions by letting his right hand rest near the butt of the pistol or the haft of the knife. It seemed that the weapons—commonly called "The Colonel's peacemakers"—had the desired effect for the justice never had to use them. The big horse pistol became almost legendary.

As one cowboy described it:—"The Colonel mows prairie grass for his hen nests with that gun. He just fills it to the muzzle with bird shot, then steps down into a gulch so that his arm can come on a level with the grass, then gives a sweeping motion as he pulls the trigger and down goes the grass."

Anyhow, such stories were told that rone among those coming up for arraignment ever dared question the judge's ruling—especially after getting a glimpse of his sitting on the bench picking his teeth, as he sometimes did, with that terrible Turkish knife.

APRIL RETAIL SALES IN TEXAS HIGHER THAN MARCH

Austin, Texas—Independent retail sales in Texas were 65 per cent higher in April than in March, according to estimates of the Bureau of Business Research at the University of Texas, based on reports from more than 600 stores. Of the 21 lines of retailing reporting to the Bureau, only three did less business in April than in March. They were food stores, restaurants, and drug stores.

Mesdames Gene Gunn and children, and Milton Addison and boys spent the week at Possum Kingdom Dam fishing. Their husbands joined them the later part of the week.

CITIZENS' DUTY TO HELP MAINTAIN HIGH HEALTH LEVEL

Austin, Texas — If every case of suspected communicable disease could be promptly visited either by the family physician or the local health officer, thousands of susceptible persons would be protected from disabling illnesses, according to the State Health Officer.

To quote Dr. Geo. W. Cox, "The old fashioned theory that it is a good thing for children to have a number of the catching diseases and get them over with, has long since been known to be a serious and sometime fatal error. The longer a child can keep from having these diseases, the better it is for him. Every child should be completely protected by vaccination or inoculation against these diseases where an immunity can be produced."

Prompt diagnosis, isolation, good medical and nursing care give the patient the best chance for a satisfactory recovery without the serious complications that sometimes accompany even the mild forms of communicable diseases. Dr. Cox emphasized that obeying the public health laws regarding isolation and quarantine of communicable diseases protects not only the patient, but helps prevent others from contracting the illness.

"The State Health Department," Dr. Cox said, "is doing everything in its power to protect the health of the people of Texas. It is the duty of every man and woman to do his share to maintain a high level of health and help prevent the spread of communicable diseases."

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Flenniken and children, of Levelland, were in town Monday shopping.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

To see anything good in this era where everybody is unhappy—but with a pocket full of mazzuma—you gotta be a blown-in-the-bottle optimist. But there is one gleam that will make almost anybody blink. It is 30 Governors getting into bed together—18 Republicans and 12 Democrats. Anything can happen from now on. These 30 are demanding that the Govt. live within its means.

And to be as helpful as we can, every person, when he sees a Government "frill" that could be dispensed with, he should tell the Governor—or even drop a note to Uncle Harry. And to start off the "useless frill campaign" I will report on the BLS—the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The BLS after years of delving, reports that if you choose to move to, say Buffalo from Indianapolis that you can save 8 per cent in rent. But when you get to Buffalo you will find clothing costing 8 per cent more than in Indianapolis. And when you get moved it is your baby to find yourself a job—not the BLS. Also it says maybe you will have trouble finding a vacant house in Buffalo.

And all around there are goings-on—like the State Dept. sending potters to Japan to show 'em how to make dishes as good as ours. And after they learn how, we can close our plants—and go on relief, or something. So folks, if your governor is not one of the 30 ask him how come. Yours with the low down, JO SERRA

If you choose to read Freud or the wispy words of the psychologist, you will maybe conclude that discipline for a sapling is a terrible thing and will stunt and upset for life, a young person. But anybody who has brought up one offshoot or a flock of same, or has worked with youngsters like in the Boy Scouts or the Girl Scouts, they know what happens when you let down the bars—and have no discipline.

Proceed, says Henry, if you think you have anything important to expound. It is how, I says, they been using the Freud system on labor leaders—and look at the mess. The folks we been electing to high places—and even lower places—they been coddling the bossy boys in Labor who have been leading the worker around like as if he had a ring in his nose. And now—on every side—the union top squawks are makin' faces at Uncle Sambo and giving him the horse-laugh and tellin' him to go on home—and cross no picket lines. And the folks in Govt. are now as unimportant and ineffective in getting anything done as is a Freud mama telling her 17-year-old to get home before 4 A. M.

Some backbone and gumption in Govt. is what this country could use more of.

TEACHERS LEAVING JOBS FOR BETTER PAYING PROFESSIONS

The Texas State Teachers Association has just completed a survey among city and county school superintendents to determine the condition of the teacher personnel in Texas. Replies were received from 945 superintendents representing 36,057 teaching positions or about 80 per cent of the total in Texas. Since the opening of school in September, 3,633 teachers have resigned their positions which represents about 10 per cent of the total. Of the teachers included in the survey, 5,546 were listed with sub-standard qualifications which represents approximately 15 per cent of the total.

Local districts are exerting every effort possible to keep teachers in the classrooms but many superintendents report that it appears impossible to fill all of their positions this coming year because of the low salaries paid and the number of resignations which are anticipated at the close of the current school year. Practically all of the cities in Texas report resignations averaging 13 per cent. Many local school districts are voting to increase their tax rate or will increase property valuations in order to secure more revenue for teachers' salaries. 110 independent school districts have voted a tax increase above the rates they levied a year ago and 143 report that they plan to hold elections for tax rate increases soon. In 40 counties, one or more common school districts have increased their tax rates and 10 counties report that they plan to hold elections for this purpose soon.

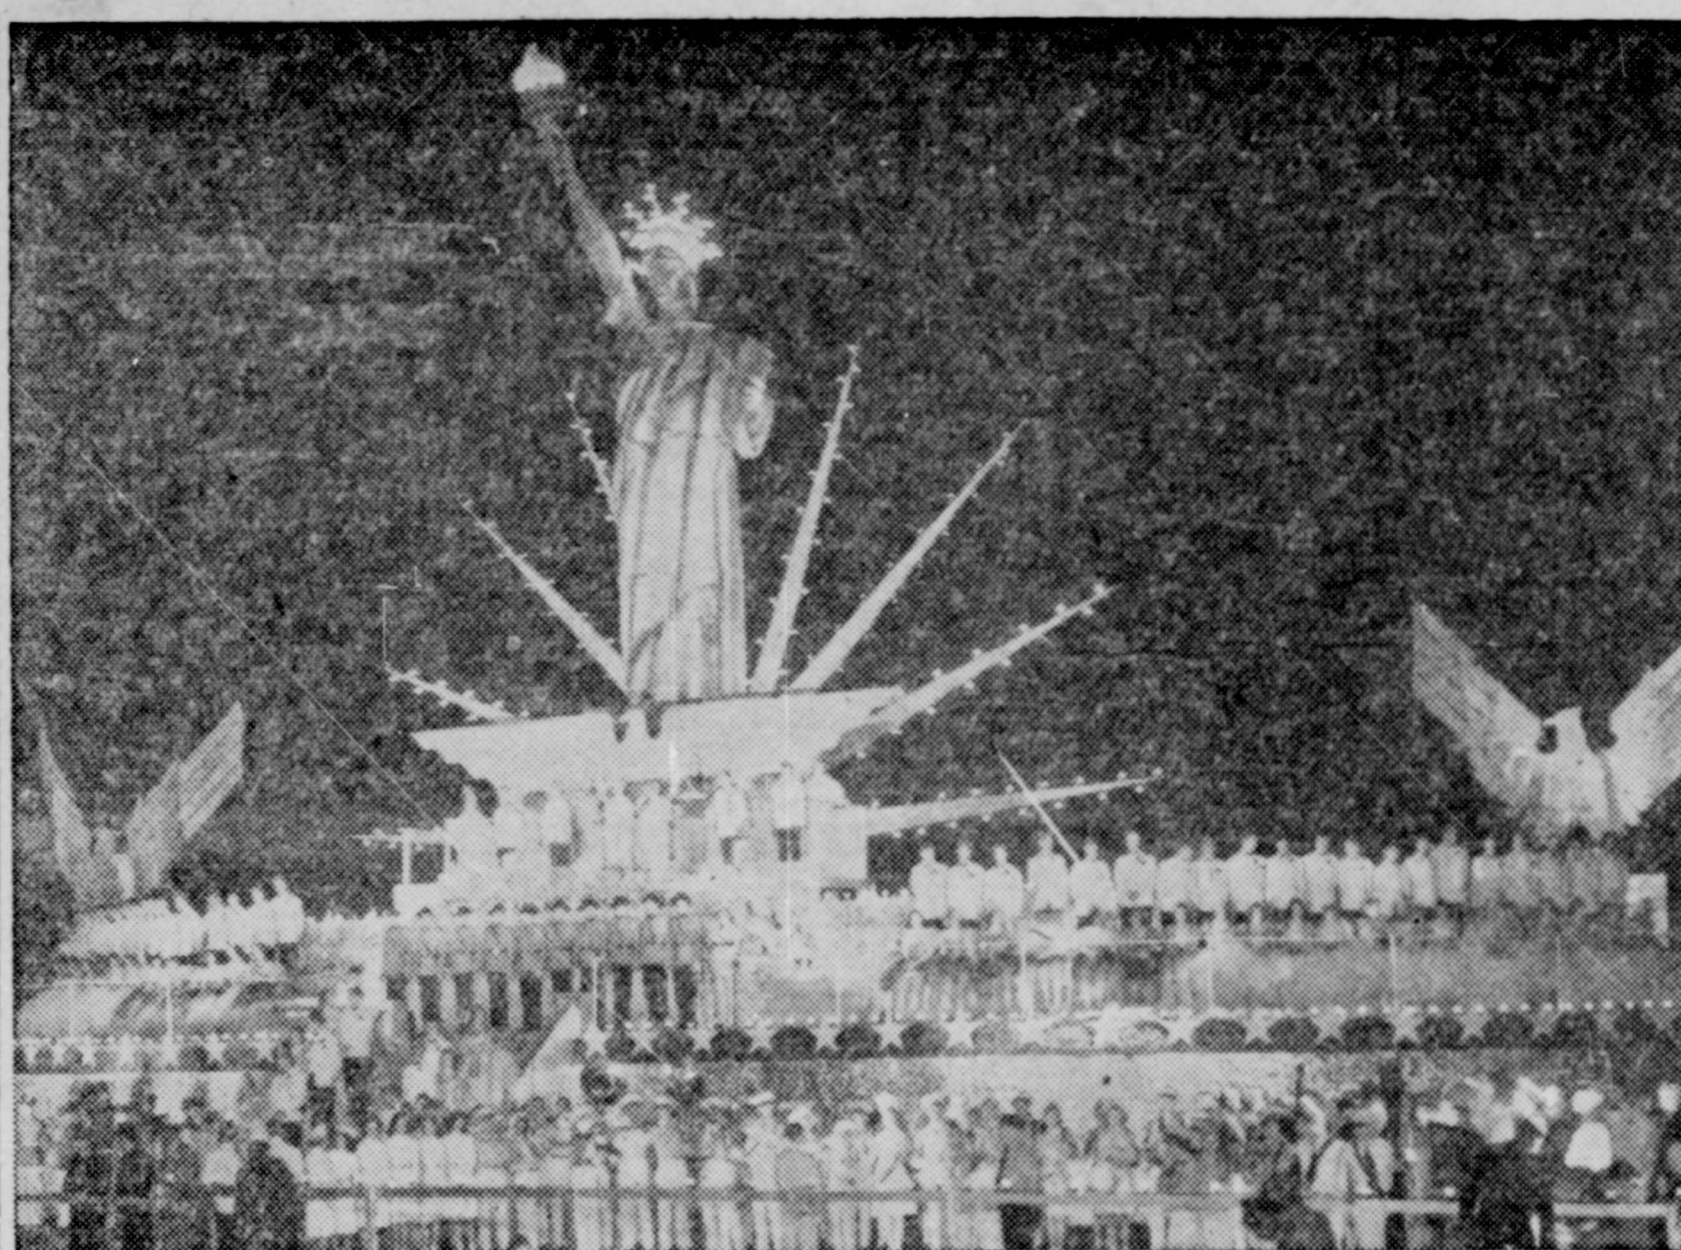

It is estimated that 8,500 Texas teachers entered the armed forces and industry from September 1941 through 1945. However, only 1,277 have returned to teaching.

In looking over the results of the survey, Elizabeth Koch of San Antonio, President of the Texas State Teachers Association, said: "If we are to keep a staff of well trained teachers in the public schools of Texas, we must materially increase salaries. There is no other solution to the problem. The continued exodus of our teachers from the classrooms presents an alarming condition. We must give our attention to this problem immediately with the hope that local communities and the next session of the legislature will provide greatly increased support for the public schools."

An historical and educational collection of Japanese Samurai swords, knives, dirks, spears, and firearms gathered on Kyushu by men of the Fifth Marine Division will arrive in Lubbock May 25th, 1946 and be on display for the general public, civic organizations and school students in Lubbock vicinity two full days, it was revealed today by Sgt. Ralph J. Metcalf in charge of the Lubbock, U. S. Marine Corps recruiting office.

Perhaps the finest collection of its kind, Sgt. Metcalf said, the weapons are on display in a Mobile Museum now touring the nation, stopping briefly for public showings in major cities sustaining Marine Corps recruiting stations.

Arrangements have been made with city officials in Lubbock to have the display located at Texas and Broadway, on Texas Avenue. The "mobile museum" painted a Marine Corps red and yellow, contains nearly 100 of the Samurai weapons collected by the Fifth Marine Division on Kyushu, in the home islands of Japan.

Sgt. Metcalf further announced that this exhibit stands for some of the finest steel in the world. The swords, especially, fashioned by craftsmen who kept the steel formula a family secret down through the centuries, were as traditional in their manufacture as was the tradition that the families for whom they were forged should maintain eternal possession of them.

The Marine Corps exhibit will be on view Tuesday evening, May 28th and from 9:00 o'clock in the morning until 9:00 o'clock P. M. May 29th and 30th.

PUBLIC GETTING FILL OF BLACK MARKET LUMBER

"The public is finally becoming aware of the fact that OPA created black market lumber is green lumber, and it isn't worth using in home building," stated Gene Ebersole, executive vice-president of the Lumbermen's Association of Texas this week.

Recently returned to Houston from a swing through north and west Texas, Mr. Ebersole talked to retail lumber dealers from Pampa, Abilene, Amarillo, San Angelo, Dallas and Fort Worth. He declares that it's the opinion of these men that real estate transfers have dropped off during the past thirty days because people are finally coming to see that homes built with green lumber are not worth the price now being asked.

"One lumber dealer told about some acquaintances of his," Mr. Ebersole said. "They bought lumber to build their home from a trucker who had gotten it green off the saw from a small mill, and they paid prices high above legal ceilings. Shortly after this house was completed, the doors started to stick, the window frames warped badly, shelves curled up, and the entire house sagged out of line. Those people realized they weren't so smart after all to patronize the black market. They had a house, all right, but what kind of a house? They are now trying to unload it on some one else."

Mr. Ebersole continued: "Since people are refusing to buy this green, poorly milled lumber with the sap still running out, the black market truck operators who dealt with small mills are becoming fewer and fewer. The public is to be commended for refusing to buy homes built with lumber from these disreputable operators." Mr. Ebersole concluded, "As the people realize they're getting a very bad bargain indeed, it is hoped that a buying strike will take place, and the folks will wait for the reputable lumber dealers to get in quality stocks, from which good substantial homes can once again be built. This will happen as soon as these truckers cease to operate."

The first Poppy Day of peace, Saturday, May 25, will see more than 25,000,000 Americans wearing memorial poppies in honor of the dead of both world wars, Mrs. James E. Mecom, of Kansas City, Missouri, Chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary's National Poppy Committee, has estimated.

Mrs. Alex Humphrey, of Ft. Worth, and Mrs. O. N. Graves of Compton, Calif., sisters, are here this week visiting their mother, Mrs. W. D. Winn, of the Johnson community.

STATE COMMANDER OF AMERICAN LEGION ENDORSES BLUE CROSS PROTECTION

Herman G. Nami, State Commander of the American Legion, in a written endorsement commended the newspapers of Texas for their part in extending health protection to the returning veteran through the newspaper's May 10 to June 10 unrestricted enrollment campaign for World War II veterans in the Blue Cross Plan.

"The veteran, after having served his country on the world's battlefields, is now attempting to readjust himself to normal civilian pursuits, and he is entitled to every possible consideration," Nami writes. "Enrollment in a Blue Cross nonprofit hospital plan will provide for the veteran, and his family as well, assurance that an unexpected illness will not retard his readjustment financially."

The enrollment campaign is a national program sponsored by the newspapers of America through cooperation with the Blue Cross Plans of the nation.

The two factors which Nami stresses as making this program particularly necessary are the fact that government facilities will not be fully available to the veteran for some time and that this health protection plan not only cares for the veteran but for his family as well.

"It is particularly significant," Nami adds, "that two non-government agencies — the newspapers and Blue Cross—have undertaken this public service on behalf of the veteran; and, as State Commander of the American Legion, it is with considerable pleasure that I endorse this project and recommend to all veterans that they enroll themselves and their families during the special enrollment campaign open from May 10 through June 10.

This health protection campaign is a special enrollment privilege for veterans, open to World War II veterans and their families. Membership will be extended to those veterans who request membership prior to June 10.

a group of three University of Texas home economists.

Miss Jet Winters, who is in charge of nutrition for the home economics department, Miss Jennie Wilmot, in charge of food, and Miss Mary Goldmann, in charge of home management, offer practical suggestions. In trying to save bread and conserve flour, they suggest:

Serve only one slice of bread with each meal. Omit bread at meals in which potatoes, macaroni, rice, or hominy are served. One small serving of potato is equal to a slice of bread nutritionally.

Use old bread in puddings, stuffings, for casserole dishes, bread crumbs, and cookies. Stale cake makes good puddings. Serve less cur-using desserts, and use fresh fruit for desserts when they are in season.

In order to conserve fats, they recommend cooked salad dressing instead of mayonnaise, and the use of bacon or pork drippings in seasonings and stuffings.

"Use sirup and honey, in addition to sugar, or in place of sugar, in making desserts," Miss Goldmann says. "Deep dish fruit pies conserve pastry, may be made with honey, and are perfectly delicious."

She also recommends a jelly frosting, in which only tart jelly, an egg white, and lemon juice are used.

QUARTER HORSE STUD ESTABLISHED AT TECH

Lubbock — Initial step in the establishment of a stud of Quarter Horses was made at Texas Technological College recently. The department of animal husbandry at Tech purchased Sir Chubby, two-year old stallion, at a recent auction in Plainview.

Sir Chubby is a registered Quarter Horse having for his sire, Chubby, a stallion owned by the Hooper estate of Plainview, who is famous as a sire of outstanding Quarter Horses. Sir Chubby's dam, Madame Waggoner, a registered mare, was bred by the W. T. Waggoner estate of Vernon. Two foundation Quarter Horse families appear in Sir Chubby's pedigree. Through his sire, he traces to Peter McCue and through his dam to Joe Bailey.

Purchase of Sir Chubby was made possible through a gift to the animal husbandry department by Hemphill-Wells company of Lubbock.

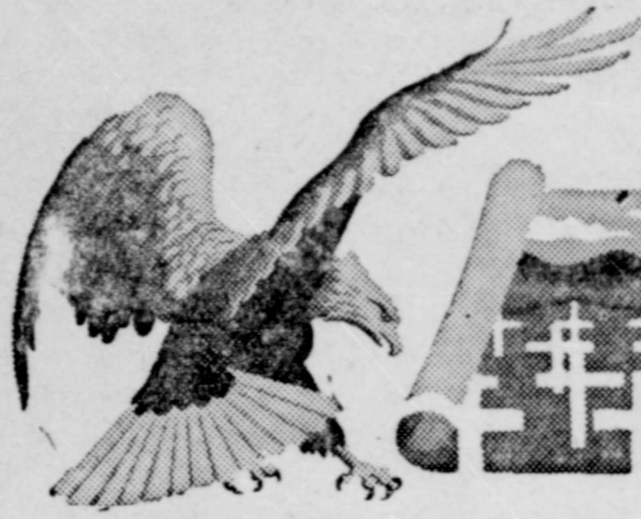

It is planned to obtain a small band of Quarter mares to complete the establishment of a Quarter Horse stud at the college, according to W. L. Stangel, dean of the Division of Agriculture.

Without question, the Quarter Horse is the most popular breed of horses in Texas and will continue to be popular for he is recognized as an ideal cow horse and Texas still is and will continue to be a cow country," Stangel says.

Mrs. Sam White attended market in Dallas the first of the week for Cobb's Dept. Store.

Loss Heavy At Western Stockyards Fire

Fire which resisted the efforts of the local fire department for over an hour and a half before it could be brought under control, destroyed two feed crushers and engines and an estimated four to five thousand dollars worth of feed, including alfalfa hay at the Western Stockyards last Tuesday night.

Jim Nelson, on duty as watchman, first discovered the blaze and attempted to extinguish it, but the fire soon grew beyond his control. Origin of the fire was undetermined.

NAVY DRONE PLANE REHEARSES FOR BIKINI

Trailed by two "mother" planes, a pilotless Navy Hellcat (Grumman F6F) soars over the San Diego area in a dress rehearsal for similar air data operations planned as part of the atomic bomb tests at Bikini atoll this summer. The drone (foreground) is controlled by the "mother" Hellcat immediately in the rear while a second plane serves as standby should the first one fail. During the tests four drones, each with two control planes, will be launched from the USS Shangri-la and will be controlled first from the carrier's deck, then from a mother plane in the air and finally from the ground control operator on Roi island where they will land. ### BROWNING ITEMS ADDED TO BAYLOR COLLECTION

Waco, Texas — Three pictures and 12 Elizabeth Browning chairs have been received recently for the Browning collection of Baylor university, announces Dr. A. J. Armstrong, sponsor of the Browning collection.

One of the pictures is a 100-year-old portrait of Eliza Flowers, Browning's first sweetheart and the author of the hymn, "Nearer My God To Thee." The portrait was painted by Miss Flowers' sister.

Another of the recent acquisitions is a portrait of Browning by Rudolf Lehman. The third, a picture by Browning's son, Barrett Browning, is being given by the Browning study club of Dallas in honor of Mrs. A. A. Cooke, head of the Browning clubs of Dallas.

Completing the list of recent contributions is the $15,000 gift made by two former students of Dr. Armstrong for the marble staircase of the proposed Browning building, and a donation of $5,000 for a stained glass window.

Mrs. G. W. Hicks is a medical patient in the Lubbock General Hospital this week.

LAVENDER CHAMBRAY

Pat McGehee, daughter of Rep. and Mrs. Dan McGehee of Mississippi, models this cotton chambray held in Washington in honor of the 1946 Maid of Cotton. A Dorris Varnum original, the lavender chambray is one of the hits of the new season. The black embroidery, just below the waistline, hints of the hip fullness that grandmother achieved with hoops and starched petticoats.

TEXAS DAIRYMEN JOIN MARKETING ORGANIZATION

Fort Worth — For the second year Texas dairymen will join those of 36 other states in united action to secure and extend markets for all dairy foods, by making contribution to what might be termed an insurance policy for the entire dairy industry, by supporting the program of the American Dairy Association.

The American Dairy Association, organized in 1940 as a non-profit corporation, has for its purpose the maintenance and increasing of consumers' demands for all milk products, for the benefit of milk producers, processors and distributors alike. The program embodies advertising campaigns in magazines, newspapers, billboards and radio—stressing the health-giving properties of all dairy products. Research work is conducted in a dozen leading colleges and universities from coast to coast to develop new facts about milk and its products. These studies range from the nutritive content of milk to pasturage value of various soils, to the best way of packaging cheese.

The ADA is supported by voluntary deductions made at the plant from farmers' milk and cream checks, at the rate of 1c per pound of butterfat marketed during a stipulated period — in Texas, the first 15 days of June. This deduction amounts to approximately 10c per cow.

Speaking of the program, Mr. D. T. Simons, Treasurer of the Texas Division of American Dairy

Association, says: "America's dairy farmers—five million strong—are united in the ADA movement as the best way to keep on providing the nation the food it needs. Through the joint effort of dairy farmers in Texas, and 36 other states, producing 90 percent of America's milk, it will be possible for Americans to get the amounts of these foods that they really want—and really need. Most certainly Texas dairymen's contribution of the dime per cow is negligible indeed if this can be accomplished."

Denton, Texas — Through the courtesy of Dr. H. A. Juangernorth of Corsicana, the library of North Texas State College has been able to microfilm a series of valuable historical letters written from Mexico by Hugh Laing from February 19, 1831 to January 16, 1836, according to Dr. Arthur Sampley, librarian at NTSC.

The letters tell of Laing's arrival on the Texas coast and his trip overland by mule team on a forty-day journey to Chihuahua and one of the letters refers to the revolution in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Newberry returned last week from a month's visit in Arizona. They visited in Phoenix, Tucson and many other places of interest, and also made several trips into Old Mexico. Their niece, Mrs. Jack Crosby, of New York and nephew, Mr. Earl Buchanan, also of New York, returned home with them for a visit.
