

National Bank To Undergo Extensive Remodeling

Clovis Kendrick announced Wednesday that the First National Bank is to undergo extensive remodeling, both inside and out. Plans have already been drawn up by the architect and work is to begin as soon after the first of the month as possible. The building was erected in 1919. The interior has at various times undergone renovations since completion.

Existing partitions of the structure are to be removed and the vault, storage room and safety deposit boxes are to be placed below ground. Tellers' cages, space for bookkeepers, etc., are to be on the west side and the lobby is to be on the east side—the reverse of the present floor plan. A mezzanine floor is to be constructed in the rear part of the 30x75 foot building.

Exterior plans call for a styling that is a harmonious blending of dignity and modernity. The front and west side of the building are to be faced with a light-colored terra cotta stone.

Simultaneously, with his announcement of building plans, Mr. Kendrick announced that Mr. R. B. Menefee, of Denton, would join the bank as cashier. Mr. Menefee, a recent Naval dischargee, was previously engaged as an assistant National bank examiner and was also with the Mercantile National Bank of Dallas.

The Herald is very happy to make this announcement and joins the numerous friends of the officers, directors and personnel of the First National in extending to them the heartiest of congratulations.

FLOWERS THAT BLOOM IN THE SPRING, ETC.

Denton, Tex. — Members of the Pi Phi Pi fraternity at North Texas State College are not nature lovers. This does not signify that they are the pale, indoor type, but has something to do with allergy.

Recently the fraternity held its Spring dinner-dance, a formal affair that was considered a success—until—several days later, members of the decorations committee discovered that the ivy in the decorations was not the innocent building type, but POISON IVY.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Aycock and daughter, Frances, of California, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brown, Tuesday night while on their way to Carlsbad to visit relatives.

LAST RITES FOR MRS. LALPH CARTER

Services for Letha Faye Carter, wife of Ralph Carter, was held Friday afternoon, May 24th at the First Baptist Church here, of which she was a member.

Mrs. Carter died suddenly Wednesday afternoon about five o'clock after taking a potion of poison which she evidently mistook for some regular medicine she had been taking from a similar bottle. Her general health was considered good; however she had been ill since Monday night with attack of pleurisy and was taking sedatives.

Upon realizing her mistake, she immediately called the ambulance, but lived only ten or fifteen minutes after reaching the hospital.

Officiating at the last rites for Mrs. Carter were Rev. C. J. McCarty of Lubbock and Rev. Sam Brian of Brownfield. Pall bearers were L. B. Forbus, W. R. McDuffie, Leo Allen, Johnny Haynes, Orb Stice, and Dr. E. C. Davis. Interment was in the Terry County Memorial Cemetery with the Brownfield Funeral Home in charge. Flower girls were members of her Sunday school class.

Survivors besides her husband include: two daughters, Joe Anne and Mrs. Pat Hart; Mr. Lee Hardin, father and Mrs. Hardin of Plainview; four sisters, Mrs. Hubert Douthett of Plainview, Mrs. Jack Warden of McKinney, Mrs. Ennis Huffstetler of Sherman and Mrs. Walter Price of Amarillo; four brothers, Raymond Hardin of Tatum, New Mexico, Arch Hardin of Lawton, Okla., Frank Hardin of Roswell, New Mexico and Doyle Hardin of Los Angeles, Calif. All were in attendance.

Other out of town relatives attending were: Rev. R. D. Carter and Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Henslee of Anson; Mr. and Mrs. John B. Carter of Houston; and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Phillips and daughters of Ft. Worth.

All 4-H girls will take part in the judging of the work of each other. The county winner will be at least fourteen years of age and must have had at least three years of club work. One of these winners will be a club reporter, while the other one will be a 4-H club president. All reporters will be asked to write the news story of the county dress revue. A committee who judges these stories, will determine the county winner, who will have her story published. In preparation to determining the winning president, each one will write a story of her club work, by using a given outline. Each president will also make a short talk about her 4-H club work. The highest ranking president will also attend the district meeting.

Accompanying the winners in the dress revue, the reporter and the president will be one club sponsor and Miss Helen Dunlap, county home demonstration agent.

Storm Damages Crops In County

It was a drunken wind that surged across the county and South Plains last Monday evening, at least the country looked level Tuesday morning. While most of the farmers are waiting for rain to plant, a great many had crops up to a fairly good stand. These, according to reports, were mostly wiped out by the excessive wind and sand, Monday, necessitating replanting—"if it rains." No rain in the county was reported.

GIRL SCOUT MEETING

The Cheerful Helpers Girl Scout Troop 2 met Wednesday, May 29, 1946 at the Presbyterian church. Ten members were present, due to the fact that many are now taking vacation. As there were so few present at this meeting we played games and sang songs.

All members of this troop, No. 2, are urged to please try to attend the next meeting at 4:00, June 5th, at the Presbyterian Church.

Senior Claims Examiner Here June 5

Senior Claims Examiner, Mr. H. W. Richardson, will be here Wednesday, June 5, 1946, at 9:00 A. M. He will accept unemployment compensation claims and veterans' readjustment allowance applications at the Courthouse.

The Servicemen's Readjustment Allowances are payable to veterans who qualify under the G. I. Bill of Rights, either as unemployed or self-employed earning less than $100 a month.

Mr. Richardson said that both the Texas Unemployment law and the G. I. Bill provide that refusal of suitable employment disqualifies the UC claimant or veteran. Other disqualifications under both laws are for discharge for misconduct and leaving employment voluntarily without good cause, he said.

Soft Ball Tourny Gets Under Way

The first two games of the soft ball agenda, scheduled for last Monday night: Jaycees vs Mack's Oil Well, and Furr-Newsom Gin vs Primm Drug Store, were blown out, spectators were given a sand check.

Tuesday night, with pretty weather, a large crowd was thrilled by the artistic pitching of Littlejohn of Meadow, for Herman's Gin team, when they scored 14, over Sinclair Service team's 1. In the second game Gene Gunn's team scored 14, to 4 over Hamilton Tire.

Tonight's schedule is: first game, Jaycees vs Furr-Newsom Gin; second game, Mack's Oil Well vs Primm Drug Store. The girls also have two teams, totaling 27 members. They played Tuesday evening on their private field, the score being: the Brownettes 4, and the White Bears 24.

Good playing was noticed among all teams, attracting good attendance.

Summer Band Classes To Start June 3

The Herald received a letter last Monday from C. L. Horn, who with his wife and father-in-law, Jack Holt, are vacationing at Brownsville.

Summer Band Classes will begin at 9:30 A. M., Monday, June 3, Mr. Horn states, "unless the fish get to giving us so much trouble that we can't get home." At this time, the group will be classified into Junior and Senior Bands will be formed.

"It is imperative," Horn continues, "for all the Junior Band members to be there the first day so that they will be placed properly. Some who were in the Junior Band last semester will be promoted to the Senior Band. All beginners will be put in a separate group, while the senior band will meet each Tuesday and Thursday nights at 7:30.

"The first concert, June 8, will be played by the Junior Band. Everyone is going to have to make all rehearsals they possibly can during the summer to make our concerts a success.

"Parents are urged to remind their boys and girls to be present every time."

Horn closed by saying that Jack, Jackie and himself were really having a good time and would be seeing everyone in a few days.

Chisholm To Build New Hatchery

Joe Chisholm, who has successfully operated a commercial chick hatchery here for the past 16 years, announced early this week he had let contract for construction of a 50 by 100 foot tile building on the corner of Fifth and Tate. It is to be modern in every way and specially designed for his increasing hatchery business, which he will carry on, including feeds and seeds. This industry has been turning out about 150,000 baby chicks per year.

The present building where he has operated so long, was recently sold, and will soon be occupied by a furniture store.

Gossett, McNeil And Sears Released From Navy

Most recent and very proud owners of honorable discharges from the U. S. Navy are Edgar D. Gossett, Darrell Mage McNeil and Ernest Sears. Gossett and McNeil were released at the Personnel Separation Center, Terminal Island, San Pedro, California on May 21 and Sears received his discharge at Camp Wallace, Texas on May 25. The three enlisted April 21, 1944.

Gossett had duty at Coronado, Calif., and was stationed aboard the Sanborn (APA 193). He participated in battles at Iwo Jima and Okinawa, for which he wears two stars in his Asiatic-Pacific Theater ribbon. He also has the Victory Medal.

McNeil was also stationed for a time at Coronado and then aboard the LCI 1019 and the USS Argonne. In addition to the Victory Medal, he is entitled to the Asiatic-Pacific, American Area and Philippine Liberation ribbons.

Sears, a radioman, was stationed aboard the new carrier Lexington, and visited Babe Lincoln, Richard Green and the writer, who were stationed at Pearl Harbor, when his ship put in at that place. Ernest plans to go to college for at least two years.

Mrs. Ivy Savage, of Lubbock, visited her mother, Mrs. J. C. Green, over the weekend.

Mrs. A. H. Shi, of Stratford, Okla., is here visiting in the home of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Smith.

Mrs. Cleo Barnett returned the last of the week from a two weeks visit with her mother in San Francisco, Calif.

Troop 49 To Take City Census

Boy Scout Troop No. 49, under the direction of Scoutmaster Johnny Kendrick, will take the census of the city of Brownfield. All residents are urged to cooperate with these boys in every way possible, and above all, to have the correct information ready for them when they call at your home for it.

Brownfield has had such remarkable growth during recent years that city officials and civic clubs feel the 1940 Federal census no longer presents an accurate picture of our population and that a new census is justified.

Rev. Murphy Conducts Memorial Program

Rev. Joe Murphy, Presbyterian minister, had charge of the Memorial program at last Friday's Rotary Club meeting at the Wines Hotel. Meeting was in honor of the war dead and of deceased members of the local Rotary club.

Rev. Murphy called attention to the fact that the privileges we today enjoy were made secure by the heroes who gave their lives in the several wars of this country's history. He also stated that our honored dead present a direct challenge to the living to preserve these liberties and privileges for which they so dearly paid.

Tribute was paid to Earl Jones, M. L. Copeland, L. Nicholson, and Dr. Graves, Rotarians who have passed on, by E. G. Akers, Homer Winston and J. D. Miller.

Visiting Rotarians were Marcus P. Kennedy, J. V. Morton and Roy D. Brown, all of Levelland.

RESERVES WILL NOT BE FORCED TO LEAVE JOBS FOR MILITARY TRAINING

The War Department, in response to numerous questions from veterans and industrialists, today assured employers that activity in the Enlisted and Officer Reserve Corps is entirely voluntary, and that the Government has no intention to force workers to leave their jobs for periods of military training.

The decision as to whether a man will take time off from his job to undergo "summer camp" or other military training rests entirely with the man himself, the War Department pointed out. An Enlisted Reservist normally signs up for a definite term in the reserves, and during that time may, if he desires, take advantage of military training and special schooling which the Army plans to offer, but he will not be forced to undergo this training. He has the option, at the end of his reserve "hitch", of reenlisting or of severing his connection with the Reserve. The same conditions apply to Reserve Officers, except that commissions are limited to five-year terms.

The purpose of periodic military training will be, in addition to furthering a man's military, mental and physical skills, to qualify him for promotion in the Reserve. If he does not choose to undergo this training, he will relinquish his right to advancement. A reservist is not required to notify his draft board when he leaves active service, nor is he any more readily subject to call to active duty in the present emergency than any other American citizen of military age who has served in the armed forces. There exists machinery for the mobilization of all personnel in future emergency periods.

However, the War Department stresses that it does not contemplate calling up reserves during the emergency which still exists and will continue to exist until Presidential or Congressional action is taken to terminate it.

The only reservists whose call to active duty is contemplated prior to the termination of the current National emergency are those who upon the termination of the Medical Army Specialized Training Program were transferred to the

Elsewhere in this week's Herald is an advertisement ordered by the Newton Tire and Implement Company, local dealers for J. I. Case implements. Main subject matter of this ad is a letter from W. L. Clark, Vice, Pres. of the J. I. Case company to all Case dealers. The letter starts off with the title: "Need Farm Machinery? This is Why You Don't Get It!" He goes on to state: "The scarcity of farm machinery and repair parts is explained by just one word — STRIKES!" In continuing, Mr. Clark does a very creditable job in presenting his company's side of the question. Knowing there is always two sides to every question, we have little doubt the strikers could also present a capable case. We do not at this time propose to judge just who is right and who is wrong. We, who have never seen a picket line except in pictures, are scarcely qualified to judge. But we are in full agreement with Mr. Clark when he says scarcity is the result of strikes—not only the scarcity of farm implements, but EVERYTHING. Something is wrong somewhere; whatever it is, must be found and remedied in the very near future or this country is going to face a worse crisis than ever before. Did you ever stop to think and really try to determine who really suffers from a strike? Formally, the strike is against the company, but win, lose or draw, the company suffers less than the individual worker. As an example, a little paper work will reveal that the Workers who win a wage increase of 5% after a strike of one week have to work 20 weeks at the new rate to make up their lost wages, those who win 10% after three weeks have to work 30 weeks, and those who win 25% after 13 weeks have to work one year.—From "Keeping Up With the World," Colliers, May 25.

General Motors worker, in spite of his gain, will have to work for one helluva spell before he can make up for the money he lost while on strike. Many will never make it up. When the strike ended the new car market was as big or bigger than ever. The company's real loss was time; the worker's real loss was money. In this case time was not exactly money, so, which would you rather lose? BUT, who really does the suffering? Who stands in lines where there were never lines before, waiting for some item that was once common as dirt? Who does without when there are no goods to be had? Who pays for the wage increases the workers gain? Who gets the end of the stick that doesn't smell like roses? Yes, who really gets it in the neck? That someone, my little man, is no one else but YOU! Yes, you, the consumer—the poor, neglected, down-trodden, overlooked consumer. And the sooner you get busy fighting for YOUR side of the question—the THIRD side—the better it will be for all and the sooner we can settle back to a normal existence.

An article in a recent issue of the Dawson County Currier revealed that a proposed extension of the Santa Fe from Seagraves to Seminole and Andrews and a loop back to join up with that company's Lamesa branch, was declared by Santa Fe officials as being "not warranted." Now we are sure that the officials acted and based their judgement on information presented them. We are not so sure that the extension could have been built even had Santa Fe so desired—there would still be the Interstate Commerce Commission to convince, and the boys in that outfit can be very stubborn at times. But the thing that bothers us is: Why didn't the individual or group trying to get this extension ask for a little help from the towns on the existing and proposed lines? We contacted members of the local Board of Development and asked them if they had heard of the matter: it was "news" to them. We are sure that other towns affected were as much in the dark. While the proposal might still have failed to go over, everybody would at least have been satisfied that an honest effort had been made. This country wasn't built up through the efforts of an individual or clique, but through the combined efforts of everybody working together for the benefit of all. We suggest that the next time such an opportunity comes up, that the party or parties trying to put it across ask for a little help from the rest of us. We are sure that at least a better selling job can be done.

SIDELIGHTS From Washington

By George Mahon

This is Saturday noon. The president is scheduled to address a joint session of Congress at four P. M. today.

The intolerable industrial strife and strikes of recent months are retarding production, producing inflation, and wrecking the economy of the Nation.

A straightforward labor-management policy, which some of us have long advocated, would have avoided this tragic situation. Before Pearl Harbor, during the war, and since the war, the House of Representatives has passed legislation designed to protect the public from disastrous strikes and labor-management trouble, and the same time give labor and management a fair deal.

But the efforts of the House have been ineffective. Why? Because the U. S. Senate has willfully failed and refused to take favorable action on what the House has done. In fairness it must be said that the Texas Senators have not been parties to this inexcusable delay.

To be more specific: On June 7, 1940, the House passed a bill to revise the National Labor Relations Act by a roll call vote of 258 to 129. It went to the Senate Committee on Education and Labor and died there. On December 3, 1941—four days before Pearl Harbor—the House again passed a bill for this purpose by a vote of 253 to 136. This bill also went to the Senate Committee on Education and Labor and died there. On February 7, 1946, the House again passed a bill which is commonly referred to as the Case Bill. That bill passed the House by a vote of 258 to 155. It also went to the Senate Committee on Education and Labor and remained there until a few days ago. I am among those in the House who voted for

CANDIDATES OF LATIN-AMERICAN DESCENT SOUGHT FOR SCHOLARSHIP

Lubbock — Candidates are being sought for the $1400 Parks scholarship, awarded annually to high school graduates of the Panhandle and South Plains area of Texas who are of Latin-American descent. Dr. C. B. Qualla, head of the foreign language department at Texas Technological College, has announced.

The successful candidate will receive $350 annually for four consecutive years at Texas Tech in any course he or she may choose. Selection will be based on character, scholastic record, need of assistance and promise of leadership presented by applicants.

Letters of application, accompanied by letters of recommendation and the scholastic record of the candidate, should be addressed to the Foreign Language Department, Texas Technological College, Lubbock, Texas. Dr. Qualla has urged applications be mailed as soon as possible.

each of these bills. It is fervently hoped that those in the Senate who have blocked appropriate legislation in the past will now, at long last, join in a program of action for the common good of our Nation.

Behind the Scenes in American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Manufacturers and retailers are changing their merchandising techniques to stress quality rather than price. This policy has developed not only because people have more money than in prewar years, but because they would rather pay more than to take inferior products. A recent survey of the housing market shows that of five price brackets for refrigerators, the second highest was the most popular with prospective buyers. Ethyl Corp. says 46.5 per cent of its customers' sales are now in premium gasoline compared with 11.1 per cent in 1941. A greater proportion of glass sales are in plate glass, with both home and car owners buying the highest quality obtainable for replacement. One retailer reports heavy demand for highly publicized names which are known hallmarks of quality. Numerous other buying trends indicate that although most people are reluctant to pay higher prices, they are less willing to take inferior products.

DYED IN THE METAL — Metallurgists, not to be outdone by textile men, are now dyeing aluminum much the same way as textile mills dye wool, by dipping it into a large vat of chemicals. That final process, however, is the only USS FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT is one of the three largest aircraft carriers in the world. All three of the carriers will serve on active duty with the post-war Navy. The Roosevelt and Midway will serve in the Atlantic while the USS Coral Sea will sail the Pacific.

similarity. Prior to that stage, the metal is put through an electrochemical treatment developed by engineers of Aluminum Company of America. This treatment provides a thick, uniform oxide coating on the surface of the metal and this in turn is impregnated with dyes. The resultant finish, known as Alumilite, combines the brilliance of color with the lustrous sheen of the metal. To the housewife, it means that metal furniture or accessories may be available to match the decorative scheme of the home. This is but one of the new finishes some of which have been developed over a period of 20 years in the laboratories of Alcoa. Others give the metal a smooth satin slivery finish, a chromium plated finish, a lustrous mirror-like surface, or a scratch brush finish having a rough grainy texture. All of these finishes were shown recently at a private showing in the Biltmore Hotel in New York.

THINGS TO COME—A water-mix oil enamel which dries to a glossy finish. Nearly all other water-mix paints dry to a dull finish. . . . Another paint which is highly resistant to acids, alkalis, oils, brine, oxygen and alcohol solutions. . . . Asphalt has been combined with aluminum to produce an insulation paint, claimed to be acid, corrosive, and water proof. . . . Artificial fog for fighting fires. It is created by forcing water under pressure through a specially designed nozzle. Said to be more efficient than a solid stream of water, the artificial fog is claimed to be particularly effective against burning oil and other inflammable liquids. . . . Suits made from peanuts. The Agriculture Department has developed a peanut protein fiber which it thinks eventually might be worked into a cloth for suits. . . . Paper and container board made from cotton stalks. It is believed practical to manufacture, the only drawback being an inexpensive method of harvesting the stalks.

HOTHOUSE HATS—Right on the heels of this column's discussion of the hat industry last week comes news from Boston about a horticultural offshoot of the millinery business. A Boston florist, Eleanor O'Neill, has discovered that she can harvest extra dollars with her posies by transforming them into women's hats. These bonnets made of real, fragrant flowers are designed for the individualist who shudders at the thought of finding a replica of her own hat nodding at her across the bridge table. They last for about five days, provided they are popped into the ice box at night, and sell for from $10 to $40 each. Offhand there seems to be little connection between hats and a company that manufactures home thermostats, but Miss O'Neill has found that by using automatic temperature controls made by Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Company it is possible to time growth of greenhouse flowers so they will bloom on any predetermined date. Thus, she can accept the order for a certain type of hat for any festive date in the future.

BITS O' BUSINESS — Summer resorts are getting ready for a

Davis Stationed Aboard Huge Carrier

Waymond Nathanian Davis, aviation metalsmith, second class, son of Mrs. Gloria Jane Davis, Brownfield, Texas, is serving aboard the USS Franklin D. Roosevelt, a new aircraft carrier now on maneuvers with the 8th Fleet in the Caribbean Sea.

The Roosevelt left Trinidad, B. W. I., on May 4, for Guantanamo, Cuba, where it will continue on extensive maneuvers until her arrival in New York about May 27.

Flagship of the armada, the Roosevelt is carrying 8th Fleet commander Admiral Marc Mitscher, on board. Maneuvers aboard the carrier will include launching and landing of aircraft under simulated battle conditions, target and drone firing, and refueling and re-arming at sea.

Mrs. Rebecca Ballard and Twilla Graham were in Seagraves on business Saturday.

Mrs. Edna Holt spent the week in Sweetwater visiting her sister.

Messrs Kenneth Hill and Cotton Neely spent the last week in El Vado, New Mexico, fishing.

Glynda Dean Breland, of Olton, spent the week here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jim Quinton and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Worsham.

record business. Atlantic City expects to top last year's record by at least 25 per cent. . . . Automobile dealers wonder how to sell cars and retain friends. For every customer they retain by selling a car, they lose several. . . . Sole leather may become more difficult to get because of black market operators. Big packing houses employ skilled men to remove hides, but black market operators often ruin them. Result: less shoelather. . . . Office of Economic Stabilization still has "wartime authority to freeze wages" which could be used against John L. Lewis if the miners ask too much. . . . The new crop will not end the worst rye shortage on record. This year's harvest is expected to be half the 10-year average and indicated plantings are the smallest in 65 years. . . . The French wheat harvest is expected to be 75 per cent to 85 per cent of prewar levels. Meanwhile, the wheat pinch here grows sharper daily and new crop relief is still more than a month away.

NEW KIND OF OBSERVANCE

College Station — A spirit of sharing and giving characterized observance of National home demonstration week throughout Texas, according to reports reaching the home demonstration staff of the A. and M. College Extension Service.

A Dallas newspaper reported that women in that county were shipping 100 boxes of cotton clothing, towels, feed sacks, sewing kits, and other material to Manila for distribution throughout the Philippines. Miss Orena McClellan, county home demonstration agent, paid tribute during the week to Mrs. M. B. Sparkman of the Rose Lawn club who has been in home demonstration work 31 years, longer than any other Dallas County woman.

The Dimmit County home demonstration council announced it would contribute a case of canned food for overseas relief, and individual club women will donate clothing and sewing kits for the Philippines. A similar plan was adopted in Duval county and Brooks County, where collection boxes were placed at convenient places in the county seat, Falfurrias, for public contributions.

Tribute to the late Mrs. Maggie W. Barry, Extension adviser on rural organizations, was paid at a tea for Archer County home demonstration club women. Laura Underwood, Cameron County home demonstration agent, spoke on the observance from a Brownsville radio station and asked for cooperation in the nation's famine relief program.

Kleberg County clubs arranged educational exhibits in Kingsville store windows, on the week's theme, "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World," in addition to collecting cotton clothing for the Philippines. A similar plan was followed in Bell County. Club exhibits there featured leather tooling, hand weaving, bedroom improvement, and other topics. A Temple newspaper devoted three pages to the observance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Page, of Denton and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Page and daughter, Gail of Fort Worth, spent the week here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tomlinson and family.

The Battle of the Bulge in Europe in December, 1944 cost the Americans 60,000 casualties—killed, wounded and missing. For this Nation that was the costliest engagement in World War II, yet in the long run, measured by the total dead or maimed in the Battle of the Bulge was a mere scrimmage compared to the "Battle of the Bumpers" here at home", stated Pierce Brooks, State Director. "Automobiles will shortly be killing 60,000 persons per year. That would be 50 per cent more than lost their lives in the last pre-war year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watson and family, of Denver City visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam White Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCarver and son of Andrews and Mr. Jerry McCarver of Ada, Okla., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Walls.

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Daniell returned Friday from a two weeks stay in New Orleans, where Dr. Daniell took a post graduate course. Scharlyn and Ronnie visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Fouts, in Rule, while their parents were in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Purcell, former residents of this county but for the past few years at Burnett, Texas, spent this week here visiting their daughter, Mrs. Henry Chisholm. Mr. Purcell reports abundant rain in his section, and fine small grain crops.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Howard had as their weekend guests, Mrs. Howard's sisters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Archer, of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Proctor and son, of Anson, and her father, Mr. E. E. Hodges, of Nugent.

Mrs. Mary Jane Johnson and Mrs. E. B. Sandage of Heber Springs, Ark., arrived Thursday, May 23, to spend a few weeks visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sandage of Rt. 5. Mrs. Johnson is the mother of Mrs. Jacob Sandage and Mrs. E. B. Sandage is a sister-in-law of Mr. Jacob Sandage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Banks are in Los Angeles, Calif., visiting their son, Col. W. H. Banks, who is in the army air service and is commander of March Field. He has been in the service for nine years and says he will remain in. Mr. and Mrs. Banks, before leaving for California, had just returned from a month's vacation spent in visiting their daughter, Mrs. Eula Spigel and family in St. Joseph, Michigan, a brother of Mrs. Banks in Oklahoma City, and also a brother and sister in Tulsa and a nephew, Mr. B. W. Wilson in Amarillo.

Sgt. Leonard Ellington, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Ellington, of Tokio, writes from Yokohama, Japan, that he is enjoying the beauty of the cherry trees in bloom, but not the frequent rains. He is doing clerical work in the headquarters company there.

A Normandy lace cloth over pink satin was used on the tea table which was centered with an arrangement of pink poppies, white larkspur and baby breath. White candles in crystal holders flanked the arrangement. The buffet was decorated with a bridal couple and sprays of English ivy. Miss Garnett presided at the punch bowl with Mary Jo Jones assisting with the serving.

Mesdames Settles and Edwards displayed the many lovely gifts. Members of the houseparty wore corsages of pink sweet peas and the honoree white carnations. Bowls of spring flowers carrying out the pink and white color scheme were used throughout the entertaining rooms.

Behind the Scenes in American Business

By John Craddock

NEW YORK, N. Y. — Manufacturers are wondering just how soon it will be before they will have to turn a good part of their efforts to selling rather than producing. During the war years, when the government took a great percentage of manufactured goods, business found little use for its regular sales force. Even now, while demand far outweighs the supply of available goods, stress is on the ability to procure raw materials rather than on disposal of manufactured products. When demand catches up with supply, manufacturers are likely to find some weaknesses in the retail merchandising field. Dun's Review points out that more than 260,000 retail outlets were closed between December 31, 1940, and the end of 1943. These store closings followed fairly closely the scarcity of goods during the war years. In the radio and appliance field, where supplies were practically shut off, some 33 per cent of the retail outlets closed. The meat shortage was a factor in the closing of 26 per cent of these stores, while gasoline rationing closed 25.6 per cent of the filling stations. Since 1943, more stores have probably been opened than closed, however, and the gap between 1940 and 1946 may be less. According to Dun's Review, the deficiency has probably not yet been completely made up.

MIRRORS—It was nothing more than a simple question posed innocently enough one night on the "Quiz Kids" radio broadcast. But what was food for the intellectual small fry proved a tart sauce to the men in the mirror manufacturing industry. The question: What must be the minimum height of a mirror on a vertical wall in which you can see your whole person? As related in "The Classic," monthly magazine of Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Company, the question was finally submitted for arbitration to the research department of the Mirror Manufacturers Association. The answer, illustrated by elaborate diagrams with geometric projections and high-flown mathematical terms, produced this formula: A mirror must be no less than half a person's height to reflect his full stature.

THINGS TO COME — Frozen tropical fruits. An American company has been granted an exclusive contract to process fresh fruits in Costa Rica. Many are too delicate to ship here unfrozen. . . . A new thermoplastic injection-molding compound introduced by Rohm & Haas. It has high chemical resistance to acids and is said to exhibit marked strength over similar compounds. . . . A protective plastic coating for leather which keeps the shoes clean during various manufacturing operations. . . . A new rust preventive that reacts chemically with metal not only removing rust by destroying chemicals which would develop it. . . . A new golf club, with an adjustable hitting surface which makes it usable as a putter or a niblick.

JOBS FOR VETERANS — Although the first anniversary of Japan's surrender is still many weeks away, a large part of America's wartime Army and Navy has been demobilized and millions of fighting men have quietly resumed their peacetime jobs. Helping to speed and facilitate this vitally important phase of the transition from war to peace, business executives burned the midnight oil reading plans to assure that these veterans could return to their prewar employment, if they wish, with the least possible delay and inconvenience. With 1,515 employees in the armed forces on V-J Day, Schenley Distillers corporation's first postwar move was to set the serviceman's mind "at ease" with a concise booklet summarizing all essential steps necessary for a veteran to obtain his full privileges under the "GI Bill of Rights," as well as added benefits, including higher pay and advancement merited by special training in the armed forces and full credit for military service with respect to the company's liberal retirement and insurance benefits, awaiting him on his return. Other opportunities and assistance were mapped for handicapped veterans. As the result of careful planning for re-employment plus continual contact with employees while they are in uniform, Schenley veterans are returning to the company almost as fast as they are being discharged from the Army and Navy. . . . 90 per cent of those who have returned to civilian life are already back on the payroll.

BITS O' BUSINESS — The flow of wheat to Europe has been slowed by box car shortages. They may also hamper movement of southwest wheat which is nearly ready for harvest. . . . Americans will buy an average of four pairs of shoes apiece this year, the Department of Commerce estimates. Last year they averaged 3.3 pairs. . . . Heavy demand for candy bars has enabled manufacturers to cut selling expenses and thus continue the five-cent price. . . . Capacity crowds indicate the popularity of Coast-to-Coast Pullman travel without stopovers. . . . If all demands by John L. Lewis are met, coal prices should rise 50 cents to 60 cents a ton. . . . No real relief is expected for the butter shortage which appears to be getting more acute. Stocks now aggregate 10 million pounds compared with 45 million pounds a year ago. . . . Army-Navy purchasing agents would like to buy 120 million board feet of lumber by the end of July. They have just begun to comb 700 pine and fir mills in 10 western states for it. . . . Lard supplies are critically low. On May 1 they totaled 70.5 million pounds against a five year average for May 1 of 231 million pounds.

CHINESE CADET KILLED IN ANGELO PLANE CRASH

GOODFELLOW FIELD, TEXAS, May 22—Chinese cadet Han-Kuang Chauang, was killed yesterday when his PT-13 training plane crashed 6 miles south of Goodfellow Field while on a routine training flight.

CULL POULTRY FLOCKS NOW

College Station — The present ceiling prices on corn, wheat and other grains and protein concentrates means that heavy culling must be done in farm and commercial flocks if poultrymen hope to stay "in the black" on egg production, according to S. A. Moore, poultry husbandman of Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. "It takes around 11 pounds of feed to produce a dozen eggs from a hen that is laying at the rate of 80 eggs per year," Moore said. A 200-egg hen will lay a dozen eggs on 5 pounds of feed.

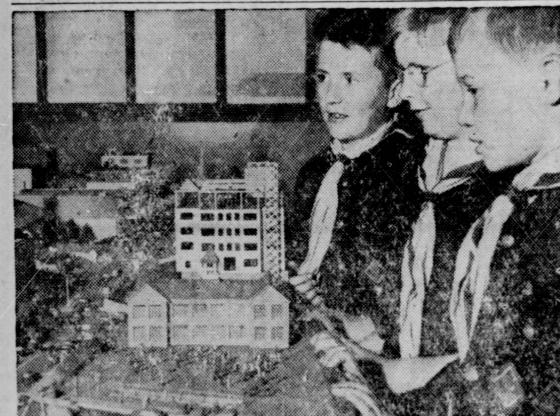

The poultry specialist estimated that 3 1/2 million Texas hens, or about one out of seven in the average flock, was costing her owner money instead of bringing it in.

While culling "boarders" from the flock is always good business, it is especially necessary now because of the feed situation, he said. Many low-producing hens in poultry flocks are eating feed at the rate of four to five pounds per month, so two birds culled out now will save a sack of feed in the next year.

The feed so saved can go to relieve the food and feed shortage elsewhere, or two young birds can be raised up to production on what one old one would eat in the meanwhile.

Lubbock voters went to the polls Saturday to decide the $1,850,000 issue for municipal improvements.

QUARTER HORSE SHOW IN CONNECTION WITH STAMFORD RODEO

The American Quarter Horse Association again accepted the invitation of officials of the Texas Cowboy Reunion to hold an "Official" American Quarter Horse Show at Stamford, Texas in connection with the Rodeo on July 2, 3, and 4.

Mr. Jno. C. Burns, Executive Secretary of the American Quarter Horse Association, and Mr. R. A. Brown, Director of the organization met with officers of the Texas Cowboy Reunion to work out the prize list and other details of the show this week. Mr. Burns stated that in addition to the regular cash prizes offered, the association would offer, for the first time, a trophy to each of the first place winners of the open Calf Roping Contest, and the Cutting Horse Contest, provided the stallion, mare, or gelding winning the contest is registered in the Stud Book or Registry of the American Quarter Horse Association.

Roy Arledge, Chairman of the Quarter Horse Committee mailed entry blanks and prize lists to breeders in the Association this week. A record entry is expected from breeders over the nation.

An Allegory

In the midst of a forest there was a shrewd mouse-trap manufacturer who turned out a dependable item. His was a home industry. Son Joe worked hard for long hours making steel springs by hand. Mother kept the books and wrote the letters. Dad did the assembly work and finishing. There were no sales problems. Customers already had beaten a path to his door—and formed a waiting line.

But there was beefing in the line. Deliveries were slow and service was bad. Finally one day, in a stack of third-class mail, Mom found an advertisement for spring-winding machines. It was very timely because Joe's work-bench was the bottle-neck. Nobody else could make springs and he was always rushed to keep up with Dad. So Dad bought Joe a spring-winding machine.

Industrial Unrest

Turning out a better trap than ever, and a lot more per day, business was fine. Prosperity came. Dad was flush, declared Saturday afternoons off, and raised pay all the way around. About the time the general good feeling was at its height, Joe married a cute little communistic viewpoint. Then it was that the rodent extermination industry started to undergo complete reorganization.

The little c.v. convinced Joe that he ought to have a half interest in the business, and there wasn't much Dad could do about it. After the 50-50 partnership was formed, the c.v. started telling Mom off right regularly, making quips about faked accounts, and gifts from buyers, to shock the F.T.C. Mom had to keep books with the c.v. looking over her shoulder, eating an apple.

Industrial Strife

At length the junior partner made bold to demand a spot on the payroll for the c.v., at Mom's pay, with authority to watch Mom and keep her honest. That was the day the spring-winding machine broke down. Repairing it seemed quite useless to Dad, what with a shop full of headaches, padded payrolls, no profits, and all departments working at cross purposes. He'd just quit! Retiring from active duty (but retaining an interest) Dad pulled out and took Mom on a fishing trip. New people had to be hired at top scale to operate the finishing department and run the office. Joe missed a few payments on the new spring-winding machine he'd bought on credit after junking the old one. Now nobody but little c.v. could think up a way out of the dilemma.

Such a Brilliance

Here was the solution c.v. worked out: Raise wages again, all along the line, and boost the price of traps. Even Joe favored it, and he was general manager now. It was done. The very next buyer showed an unpleasant reaction. Word drifted back along the line of buyers which melted down to a third of its average length. Joe ran after the customers but didn't catch many. That was Friday. Early Monday morning a man of few words came in a truck with some unpaid installment notes. He took the spring-winding machine away, leaving the whole crew wondering where to go to look for a job. Some say the machine was offered to Dad, cheap, but he was not interested. By this time, old crafty Dad was busy with research on an odorless electronic, destined, in due time, to put mouse traps off the market entirely.

CLOSING DATE FOR SMITH-DOXEY NEAR

College Station—Deadline dates for filing application for Smith-Doxey service are August 1, east of the 100th meridian and August 15, for counties entirely or for the most part west of the 100th meridian, according to F. E. Lichte, cotton gin specialist, Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

While these are the deadline dates, the USDA Production Marketing Administration, which provides the service, has set up goal dates of July 1, and July 15. Applications cannot be filed until cotton is planted, but should be sent in as soon as acreage for a given cotton group can be determined.

The Smith-Doxey Act, now in its ninth year of operation, provides free classing service so that farmers will know the actual grade and staple of their cotton is a guide to selling it. Samples from each bale of cotton raised by members of organized groups are sent to central points by cooperating ginners for classing by government employees. A market news service gives the market price for the various grades and staples.

In 1945 a total of 1422 gins, or 62 percent of those in the state, signed up for the program as a service to their customers, and 43 percent of the cotton grown in Texas was classed under the Smith-Doxey Act. Almost five million acres of cotton produced by 96,626 farmers, were covered by the 1945 applications.

Instructions and application blanks may be obtained from county agricultural agents or from

Need Farm Machinery?
THIS IS WHY YOU DON'T GET IT!

The scarcity of farm machinery and repair parts is explained by just one word—STRIKES!

This is just a simple statement of facts—an outline of the reasons why it is impossible to buy certain new J. I. Case Company farm machinery at this time—and difficult to get certain replacement parts.

Production employees in the Racine and Rockford, Illinois, plants of the Company have been on strike since December 26, 1945. Employees in the Rock Island, Illinois, and Burlington, Iowa, plants—who went on strike at the same time—voluntarily returned to work within a few days after the strike was called and are now on the job 100%, turning out more production than ever before. This, in itself, is conclusive evidence that working conditions at the Case Company are not as objectionable as the Union officials claim. Further evidence is the fact that more than 1600 Case employees at the Racine plants alone have been with the Company for more than ten years.

In the five months lost at Racine and Rockford, farmers have lost the benefit of a scheduled production of thousands of farm machinery units, even taking into consideration the fact that strikes in other industries and shortage of materials would have drastically decreased our output of farm machinery.

Unfortunately it is the farmer and dealer who are innocent victims of the situation. Throughout the war the farmer had to work long hours under the most difficult conditions. Now he is called upon to do even more than during the war, though deprived of necessary equipment because of demands of Union agents.

You, as a Case Dealer, are fully aware of his hardship; and are often the target for his complaints. This is a condition brought about entirely by Union representatives. We, just as you, are eager to get going again, but are powerless to do anything about it in view of the unreasonable demands of the Union.

WHAT DOES THE UNION WANT?

Here are SOME of the things that the Union demands:

That the Company shall force employees to join the Union by refusing to keep on the payroll any but Union members;

That the Company shall arbitrarily collect dues and assessments for the Union by deducting the amount from pay checks, thus acting as collector for the organization;

That the Company shall not discharge any employee without Union approval;

That the Company shall discharge any employee not in good standing with the Union;

That Union officials, stewards, etc., shall be paid by the Company while engaged on union business;

That an increase of 30% in wages be granted.

These demands mean that the Union is attempting to take over control from Management without assuming its responsibility. This would interfere with the control of quality and increase the cost of farm machinery.

Let us consider in greater detail the demands of the Union and state the position of the Case Company in each respect. The following gives you the reasons why the Company cannot agree to the Union demands:

1. A 30% wage increase.

Case's policy is to pay the prevailing wage scale in the communities in which it operates for all comparable jobs in its plants. Case does not believe in low wages, but it also does not believe it is in the interest of its farmer-customers to yield to excessive demands which necessarily will be reflected in higher prices for farm equipment. Wages are not the real issue. At the time the strike was called, wages in the Racine plants averaged $60.50 a week, and adjustments had been offered which would have increased this take-home pay.

2. A Closed or All-Union Shop.

We believe that no employee, no farmer, NO ONE, should be forced to join a Union or other organization in order to work. The Union seeks power to dictate when and under what terms a person may work.

3. Payment of Union Representatives for Time Spent on Union Business.

If this was granted, these costs would be added to the expense of manufacturing our products. When employees are working for the Union, it is only fair that they be paid by the Union.

4. The Check-Off System—Requiring the Company to Collect Dues and Assessments for the Union.

This means that the employees must help finance the Union whether or not he is a member, and whether or not he is in accord with its principles. If the Union organization is acting in the interests of the employee, it should be able to collect its dues the same as any other organization, and it should not be necessary to use compulsion.

The management of the Case Company does not believe that it is in the interests of either the stockholders of the Company or its employees, dealers, or farmer-customers to yield to these demands which spell Union domination of the manufacture of its products.

Very truly yours,

OVER MILLION TEXTBOOKS TO BE RELEASED

Following up an announcement last week that the war Assets Administration would release to Veterans approximately 1,500,000 textbooks used in Army and Navy training courses, Hamilton Morton, WAA Regional Director, Fort Worth, said Wednesday that the books would be transferred to the Veterans Administration and channeled to Veterans through the educational institution where the Veteran is enrolled.

The Library of Congress will distribute the books to educational institutions, which will in turn handle distribution to Veterans, Morton said. Veterans are urged not to write or call the Library of Congress or the Veterans Administration regarding the books, but should keep in touch with the educational institution where they are enrolled.

G. I. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. May a veteran pay off a guaranteed loan before it becomes due?

A. Yes, the regulations give the veterans that right.

Q. Can a guaranty of loan be obtained if the proceeds are to be used by a minor or a person under legal disability?

A. This can be done only if the loan and liens are valid under the state law governing the transaction. Many states have enacted statutes removing disability of veterans, and for the wives of veterans who are minors, to enable them to make such loans.

Q. Are veterans of World War

I eligible for benefits under the GI Bill?

A. No. Its benefits are for World War II veterans only.

Q. May funds from a loan guaranteed by the Veterans Administration be used to pay operating expenses on a farm?

A. Yes, but the veteran must actually operate the farm.

Q. Must a veteran put any of his own money into a business, a home, or a farm in order to get a guaranty of loan?

A. No., this is not a requirement for guaranty or insurance. It is a question which is settled with the lender. The only bearing it has on the guaranty or insurance of a loan is that in the case of a farm or a business it may affect the likelihood of the veteran's success in the venture.

Q. May a loan to buy an automobile or truck be guaranteed or insured?

A. Yes, but only if the automobile or truck is necessary to the conduct of the veteran's own business or farming operations, or the conditions of his employment require that he have such a vehicle for use in carrying on his work but not merely for transportation.

VET ORGANIZATIONS BAND TO HELP WIPE OUT SURPLUS PROPERTY ABUSES

Five leading veterans organizations have agreed to support efforts of the War Assets Administration to wipe out abuses of certification to buy surplus property, Hamilton Morton, Regional Director WAA, Fort Worth, announced Wednesday. The agreement was reached following a meeting last week in Washington of the Veterans policy committee of the WAA, consisting of representatives of the organizations and WAA officials.

Joseph F. Carroll, director, compliance enforcement division had uncovered indications that a small minority of veterans had acquired surplus property for others after

A tribute to our teachers, entitled "Builders," written by an unknown author:

A builder builded a temple; He wrought it with grace and skill, Pillars, groins and arches, all fashioned to work his will. Men said when they saw its beauty, "It shall never know decay.

"Great is thy skill, O builder, thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher builded a temple with loving and infinite care, certifying that the property was for their own use.

Under a war regulation, any evidence of irregularity in the acquisition of surplus property is reported to the Department of Justice. Investigation is thereupon taken over by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and prosecution by the Department of Justice.

Some of the cases which the Department of Justice is now preparing to prosecute involve dealers who have induced veterans to obtain substantial amounts of property for the dealers, certifying that it is for their own use in setting up or maintaining a business.

Members of the Veterans Policy Committee at the meeting were Omar B. Ketchum, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Millard Rice, Disabled American Veterans; Herrick J. O'Gara, American Legion; Chat Patterson, American Veterans Committee, Inc.; and Robert E. McLaughlin, American Veterans of World War II. WAA officials present included Mr. Carrol, Scott W. Accurate Pressure Gauges Eliminates Food Spoilage

"Do not wait until your canned food spoils to have your pressure cooker gauge tested," says Miss Helen Dunlap, county home demonstration agent. She says that if your gauge is not working properly, it is best to purchase a new one and have it tested. Not all new gauges, she says, registers accurately, and they should be tested before they are ever used.

Since Miss Dunlap has no place to test these gauges, clinics are being scheduled over the county for this purpose. She urges all who have pressure cookers that have not been tested since last year, to have it done at the nearest clinic. This work is done free of charge, and she feels it pays to know about your cooker before using it for canning.

Miss Dunlap says that all people who expect to have their pressure cookers tested, should loosen the gauge on the top before bringing it to the clinic.

The following clinics will be held, beginning at 2 P. M. Tuesday, June 4: Union, at the home of Mrs. Frank Sargent; Friday, June 7, Pleasant Valley, at the home of Mrs. W. R. FAST FEEDING . . . Jimmy Slyter, 19, receives food through tube from thermos bottle during his Los Angeles-Catalina island swim try. The navy veteran was forced to abandon his attempt after two hours and 49 minutes of paddling, approximately five miles short of the 22 mile route. He was pulled aboard exhausted. Judges believe that he struck his head on boat which caused collapse.

JUNIOR MAY BE IN FOR A BROOKING FROM DAD AGAIN

It's just the old story of the complicated electric train, which fathers proverbially buy for their sons, then play with all the time, themselves. Only this time, instead of trains, it's kites.

Kites which can be made to dive and maneuver like airplanes, originally designed for use as aerial targets for wartime training of anti-aircraft gunnery crews—have been placed on sale by the War Assets Administration.

The kites are of two-stick, diamond shaped "Eddy" pattern, with a five-foot span and are five feet in height. They are covered with water-repellant fabric and are fitted with twin control lines and a rudder. An experienced operator can make them do many of the maneuvers that piloted aircraft can perform.

At an exhibition held recently in Washington, the designer of the kite demonstrated to newsmen and representatives of some of the nation's largest retail stores how the kite could perform. He dived a kite from altitudes of 100 feet or more to within a few feet of the ground, and then made it climb again.

WAA has approximately 130,000 of the kites and is offering them for sale at $2.65 per kite when purchased in quantities of 7,500 or more, and $2.79 if bought in smaller lots. The kites are packed 10 or 25 to a crate and minimum purchase is a crate of 10. All purchases must be in multiples of 10 or 25.

Orders for kites should be submitted directly to the office of aircraft disposal, 425 Second Street NW, Washington 25, D. C. Price of the kites is F. O. B. location. They are stored in warehouses in various sections of the United States, and orders will be filled from the point nearest to the buyer.

DR. COX OFFERS POINTERS ON CIVIC CLEAN-UPS

Austin, Texas — A good old fashioned spring house cleaning in every city and community in Texas would do a great deal toward furthering good health in this state, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who said in Austin today. "From a practical standpoint the old adage that 'Cleanliness is next to Godliness' is still well worth emphasizing."

A general clean-up program of state-wide proportions with the objective of bettering health conditions for our citizenship should include surface cleaning, drainage, the graveling of streets and alleys, the cleaning of all parks and playgrounds and the clearing of weeds and rubbish off of vacant lots.

"The destruction of mosquito breeding places and rat harborage, the proper disposal of garbage and trash and the general cleaning up of all premises will be," said Dr. Cox, "of inestimable value in helping to keep down summer health hazards such as dysentery, typhoid, and poliomyelitis. Good
