Do Gremlins Ride Our Fenders?

—GWN—

The R. A. F., early in the war, attributed their many mishaps to the Gremlins, a new word for an invisible little Elf, an offspring of Lady Luck and Father Evil, that would stow away on the wings or fuselage of their planes, and cause an often fatal miscarriage of their missions.

Our recent greatly increased motor casualties prompts one with superstitious lapses, to wonder if these Gremlins have not followed our boys home, to perch upon our fenders and steering wheels, and continue their bloody sabotage.

Twice in the last year, the Department of Public Safety have given out in published reports, a list of automobile mishaps, showing Terry county to nearly double in numbers, each, over Dawson, Lynn, and Hockley counties, our same size, and almost as much as Lubbock, four times our population. Why this difference? Some thought because the more alert highway patrolmen stationed here, reported every accident, while other counties, either not having the number, or having less alert patrolmen, overlooked many minor mishaps. Yet the many, too many, headstones in our cemetery, mutely evidence an awful truth.

One motor death per month seems to be the county's average this year. Following, on Dec. 14, the horrible death of young Shue, a recent discharged Marine, three miles south on the Seagraves highway, we have: Feb. 3, Hillard Fuller, near Meadow; Feb. 15, Dillard Graham, at the Deluxe Motor Inn; March 2, Mrs. Dunlap, an expectant mother, near Union; June 2, Robt. Howard Johnson, a mere boy, three miles out on the Lamesa road; June 15, Mr. Holsenbeck, just over in Yoakum, enroute home from Brownfield; In July, Felix T. Lea, ex-Navy man, who near Seagraves, was run over and killed; August 1, Mrs. Ritchey, 4 miles north on Lubbock highway; August 8, Aubrey W. Jones, while near Lovington and with a Brownfield caravan; August 16, Billie Joe Davis, an 8-year-old child, near the school buildings. A month or so back was the Flowers child in Ropes, by a Brownfield car, and B. L. McPherson, by accident of a road machine.

This does not include the many other non-fatal automobile mishaps. What's the cause? The remedy? The direct causes are varied. The most universal one is fast driving. The driving public is saturated with a spirit of speed. State speed laws permit dangerous driving. Drivers test laws can't flourish on the foolhardiness in the applicant. The real causes are beyond the reach of patrolmen, or the legislature; it's the Gremlins.

AQUAPLANE STAR SPILLS . . . Fred Kerwin races for a fall in trial run during preparation for the National Aquaplane races to be held off the California coast along Hermosa and Manhattan beaches the middle of August. Aquaplane races were largely discontinued during the war. Many returned servicemen acquired the art in Pacific waters and promise to give strong competition in the sport. It has been estimated that several thousand will compete in aquaplane races in various parts of the United States during 1946.

The father of them all, the most weird, half-blind, dark complexioned ugliest old Gremlin bears the biological name of "Dontgiveadam." He dwells in the person, in and out of cars. His motor misery is called "speed," a very affable gremlin well met, often invited to sit on the steering wheel, a welcomed hitchhiker. Tolerated by the law and the public, making him the most popular killer in civilian life. He has many other offsprings: "Haste and Hurry" are twins. A popular son, called "Step-on-it," an enticing maid, named "Hilarity." There are pretty gremlins, blondes and brunettes. There are some literary ones, called, "Personal Liberty," "Freedom," "Private Rights," whose class motto is "this is a free country." You don't talk back to them. Their theme is "ignorants," one idea, one thought at a time, don't burden yourself with thought or care for others; let that be their hard luck (and usually is). Their class color is green, meaning "GO."

However, they are optimists. If they can't see around the corner, the curve or over the hill, through the rain, the dust, or blinding lights, presume it clear and plunge on, the law will excuse you. Don't be a pessimist and imagine death or danger lurks, unseen. Plunge on, and end the journey before you get there.

Public Good

Freedom of the press has been talked about more in the last few months than in the previous few years. Comment began when the Supreme Court ruled in favor of an editor who had been haled into court by a notable who felt (perhaps justifiably) injured by something the editor had published. Not everybody thought the case would turn out as it did. Many were surprised.

I would not wish to review the case here, even if there were room for it, but I am glad the Supreme Court surprised a lot of good people and set them studying and talking about this purely American liberty, freedom of the press. Let me say this: You don't publish stories in the old country that hurt the feelings of potentates and get away with it!

America Is Different

In this country, it is assumed that a man is not fit for public office unless he can take all the razzing and criticism that goes with it and still hold his temper and do a good job. Think how long a crooked official might stay in office if he could protect himself from criticism all the time, and yet encourage newspapers to magnify the faults of other men who ran for his office.

Editors better not get careless and publish uncomplimentary statements about their neighbors, or about things their neighbors have to sell; courts make them pay for the damage, if any. Editors dare not get mean and print malicious lies about people because courts send writers to jail for that. Publishers can't do whatever they please. That's apart from freedom of the press.

For the Public Good

It is recognized by law in the United States that the people are entitled to know what goes on. Public information is for the public good. In line with this very principle, the Post Office Department will move 60 times more news tonnage for the money than letters which are private, not public. Our government considers spreading news an important public service.

If a publisher makes known things that are true and in the people's interest, it is for the public good and he has the protection of law. When the keen lash of publicity strikes the corrupt deeds of public payrollers, let the hit dog yelp. The press is a vocation of "checks and balances." Publishers have power they don't have to use, but if they use it they must use it for the public good.

A Parallel Case

Some day, I believe, these same checks and balances will control the enormous powers of labor unions which have done more to improve the living standards of the American people than any other organized movement. They have enhanced American freedom. The right of collective bargaining is as sacred as the right to vote, but some labor leaders have been known to abuse their power.

In a republic, power is abused when it is used destructively, in a manner that injures, rather than benefits, the public. The famous Case Bill is dead with all its miscellaneous regulations for labor unions. Many conservative thinkers will concede that it will be better if the unions regulate themselves for the public good, rather than having it done by law. Industrial peace must be achieved. Reform is inevitable. The workers can do it better than some bureau.

Brownfield Produces Boxing Champion

Starting at the bottom, Tom Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Adams, quickly boxed his way to the top, winning the state light heavyweight championship of the Texas Amateur Athletic Federation in Ft. Worth, which was held August 14, 15 and 16.

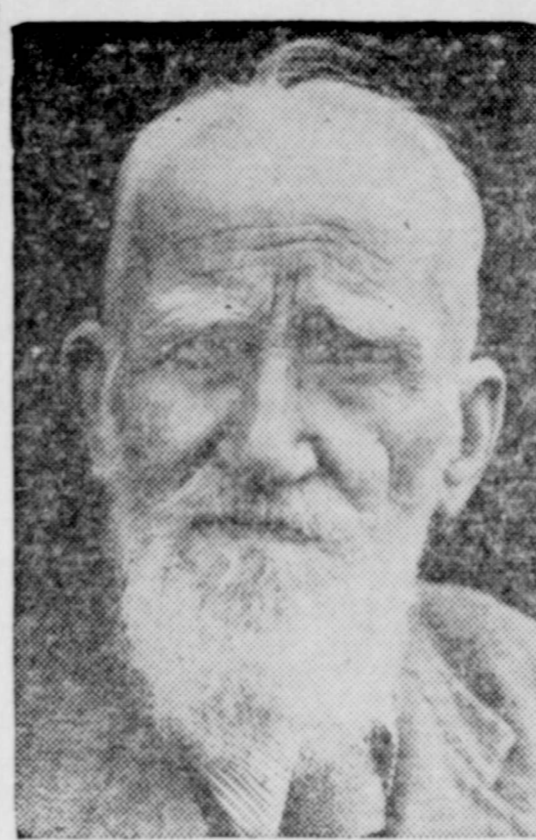

J. T. Ticer, flyweight, Leroy Thomas, welterweight and Tom, light heavyweight, won the district T. A. A. F. championships in Plainview, August 5, 6, and 7. By winning in Plainview they were all sent to Ft. Worth to represent the Plainview district. Ticer's and Thomas' opponents were a little too hefty for them in the Ft. Worth contest.

These boys have trained under Mr. Bill Higgins, who is working toward making boxing an outstanding sport in Brownfield. He conducts classes at the High School gym on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 7:30 to 9:00 o'clock. All boys interested in boxing are eligible.

The public is invited to come and watch the boys on these evenings while they are training.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kendrick announce the birth of a baby daughter, August 14th in the local hospital. The baby weighed 8 lbs. at birth and is named Irma Jean.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bishop, who have been in business in Amarillo since Mr. Bishop received his discharge from the Air Corps, have decided to make Bryson City, North Carolina their home, having purchased a drug store there. Mr. Bishop is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bishop of this city.

SANTA FE CARLOADINGS

Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending August 17, 1946, were 26,953 compared with 23,105 for same week in 1945. Cars received from connections totaled 11,911 compared with 14,033 for same week in 1945. Total cars moved were 38,864 compared with 37,138 for same week in 1945. Santa Fe handled a total of 39,660 cars in preceding week of this year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bishop will have to travel to visit their sons as one has moved to North Carolina and the other, V. L., with his wife has moved to Raymondsville, Texas, where he plans to purchase a small farm. They have been making their home on a farm near Tahoka.

Band News

The High School band got a good work-out last week with three parades scheduled and one concert played. This is the type outfit we want though—one that will be called on to do things. There were several compliments passed our way on the performance of the band. This was the first time many had ever been in a parade and these members seem to be showing improvement all the time.

The band gets a little breather while Mr. Horn visits his parents this weekend. Band will be resumed, however, the following Tuesday in preparation for another concert the 31st.

We will need to start about 30 or 40 beginners this September, so if you are interested in starting your youngster see Mr. Horn right away. —Reporter

Texas' Only Woman Governor Endorses Jester

Austin — Beauford Jester's longtime active opposition to the Ku Klux Klan drew public endorsement from Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, Texas' only woman governor, who came out strongly in support of Jester's candidacy for governor.

She said that she had not intended to make a public statement in the present campaign, but that things have come to her attention which convinced her that she should speak, in the interest of fair play.

Venereal Diseases Curable In Early Stages

Austin, Texas — Because of the fact that a venereal disease is no respecter of persons, rich or poor, educated or ignorant are numbered among the victims, asserts Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

"Venereal diseases are among the most vital health problems in the State of Texas today," Dr. Cox said. "The amount of suffering, economic loss, insanity and even death from venereal diseases cannot be accurately estimated but would reach a shocking figure if disclosed."

The State Health Officer pointed out that self-diagnosis and self-treatment are extremely dangerous and advised consulting a physician for determining definitely whether or not a venereal disease is present.

"Only a reputable physician can properly diagnose such a disease. The presence of gonorrhea is not disclosed by a routine blood test, and the diagnosis of syphilis requires more than a blood examination," declared Dr. Cox. "Both syphilis and gonorrhea are almost 100 per cent curable if discovered and treated in their very earliest stages. Thousands of deaths annually could be prevented," Dr. Cox said, "if sufficient attention were given to the early diagnosis and thorough treatment of syphilis. Delay reduces the chance of cure and in many cases is the direct cause of death."

Dr. Cox urges that every person who might suspect a venereal disease infection have a physical examination, so that if present, the disease can be brought under treatment at the earliest possible date.

School Bus Driver Schools To Be Conducted

Austin — Dr. L. A. Woods, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, announced plans today for school bus operators schools to be conducted under supervision of county school superintendents.

These training institutes are optional one or two day programs and will include discussion of the authority and responsibility in transportation of students, qualifications of school bus operators, first aid and driving procedures for bus operators, care and maintenance of school bus and discipline of students on the bus.

These institutes are to be a joint project of the State Department of Education, the Department of Public Safety and the Texas Safety Association.

"No person in our school system has a more responsible position than our school bus drivers," Dr. Woods stated in announcing the program. "The fact that 6,100 school bus drivers transport daily to and from school more than one-third of the school children of Texas and the fact that last year eleven children were killed as a result of school bus accidents offer a serious challenge to us to do everything possible to upgrade the driving ability of each of these drivers," he said.

Similar institutes were attended by 5,500 school bus drivers last year. It is hoped by leaders of the program that the county school superintendents will schedule institutes this year so that one hundred per cent attendance will be had.

Plans call for completion of institutes not later than October 15.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

I just see where in Dakota the Govt. is busy as a bird-dog on another dam and which is costing another 100 million as a startin' arte. Also I see where it is on a Reservation and according to an old and legal treaty, the Indians living there cannot be up-rooted or moved off. They do not choose to leave. But that is not stopping the dam builders. When the waters start to rise and the Indians must be evicted—the Govt. will evict them. It may cost an extra 100 million to do so, but dams is what we must have—legal or not legal—Indians or no Indians. That is Sambo—in the dam business.

And when the power business is in the Govt. fist—Sambo will have more time to devote to talking' over other kinds of outfits like maybe the barbers or the milliners, etc. But Uncle Samuel as a barber or a milliner, I reckon he should be as good there as over on the river, making kilowatts.

Army Seeks Testimony For Tokyo War Trials

A nation-wide campaign to contact 2,661 former American prisoners of the Japanese—discharged Army and Navy personnel and civilians—was initiated today by the Army in a concerted effort to obtain depositions concerning war crimes and atrocities for use as evidence in the war crimes trials at Tokyo, the War Crimes Branch of the Civil Affairs Division announced.

Both the Veterans Administration and the Attorney General's office will cooperate with the Army in taking the statements of the ex-POWs. Branch and regional offices of the VA and all Federal District Attorneys have been provided with lists of ex-POWs who have been requested to give depositions, and have been briefed also in the procedure for taking evidentiary statements.

The War Crimes Branch of the Civil Affairs Division, War Department, will act as the coordinating agency for the project. Eight officers from the Legal Section of General Headquarters, Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers, Tokyo, have returned to the United States to supervise the over-all plan. These officers will set up headquarters in the six Army areas. Statements will be forwarded from the Areas to the War Crimes Branch in Washington, where they will be collected and then sent to Tokyo.

Letters have been sent to each former PW from whom a deposition is desired, urging him to visit either a Federal District Attorney's office or a Veterans Administration office. Local addresses of these offices are included in the letter.

Originally an attempt was made to contact every former PW immediately on his release from confinement and have him fill out a questionnaire, the answers to which would reflect his personal knowledge of war crimes, and its potential value as trial evidence. It was hoped that this would provide an adequate basis for the presentation of war crimes evidence.

If a questionnaire indicated that the PW had information which would be of value, he was questioned further by trained investigators and his testimony reduced to writing.

However, as the trial's progressed, it became increasingly apparent that the statements available for use represented only a small percentage of the total number of Americans who were held prisoner by the Japanese and, further, that particular points needing coverage often were not included in statements that were possessed by the prosecuting teams.

The present plan was devised to avoid the necessity of having the prosecuting teams request statements or additional information from PWs as each individual case arose and, also, to complete the record of the war crimes trials in Japan for historical purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bailey and Sandra, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wingard and Marion, Laura Lou Bailey, of Lubbock, Wanda Stafford and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shirley returned the latter part of last week from Ruidoso.

GENERAL EISENHOWER'S REPORT

Mention has already been made of the skill and devotion of our service forces whose efforts, both in the field and at home, made an essential contribution to our victory. To them, and to the civilian workers of factory and farm who provided us with unstinted means, we are forever indebted. Our enormous material superiority gave us an unchallengeable advantage over our foes. While Germany's own war potential crumbled, that of the Allies rose to heights unprecedented. No army or navy was ever supported so generously or so well. Never, during the entire campaign, were we forced to fight a major battle without the weapons that were needed.

More important even than the weapons, however, was the indomitable fighting spirit of the men of the Allied nations who wielded them. The courage and devotion to duty which they exhibited throughout the campaign, in the grim days of the Ardennes counter-offensive as well as in the excitement of the dash across France and later the advances into the midst of Germany, were unsurpassable. It was the spirit that had enabled them to withstand the shocks of Dunkirk and Pearl Harbor which brought us at the last to Lubeck, to Torgau, and to Berchtesgaden.

Underlying this invincibility of spirit was the confidence in Allied unity and the justice of the common cause which permeated all who were engaged, directly or indirectly, in the struggle. The comradeship which had been first exemplified in North Africa carried us to new triumphs in northwest Europe. Within my own Headquarters the American and British personnel worked harmoniously together, obliterating all distinction of national outlook in their zealous service to a single organization, while in the field of battle the men of the Allied armies fought shoulder to shoulder under my supreme command.

These civilian volunteers who shared the rigors and dangers of campaign that they might brighten the existence of our men have the assurance of our warmest gratitude.

The United States of America and Great Britain have worked, not merely as allies, but as one nation, pooling their resources of men and material alike, in this struggle against the forces of evil engendered by Hitler's Germany. In the Expeditionary Forces which it has been my privilege to lead, both in the Mediterranean Theater and in Northwest Europe, an Allied experiment unprecedented in the history of the world has been carried out with decisive results.

Joe Belden Poll "Misses The Boat"

One of the casualties of the July primaries was Belden's Poll. It had Homer Price Rainey far in the lead in the Governor's race with Jester a fairly good second. The election placed Jester far in the lead with Rainey as a poor second. There must be some serious defect in the method used by Belden in gauging public sentiment. If he can not find this defect and apply the remedy, he will be out of business after the next election. A little miss is sometimes fatal for just a comparatively few votes may change the entire complexion of an election.

A miss of that kind put the Literary Digest out of business several years ago when it was undertaking to predict the result of a Presidential election. It failed to survive the error. If Belden can not come closer to the truth than he did during the recent campaign, millions of people will suspect that he was just pulling a propaganda stunt.—Tahoka News.

Prepare to weep: The so-called educational director of the State Democratic Committee has resigned to devote her entire time to the campaign of Rainey. A former social worker in New York she came to Texas to tell the Democrats how to run the state—especially to induce the Negroes to vote for Rainey. However, she did not resign until Attorney General Sellers threatened to make a fight on the state committee during the coming state convention for its support of Rainey. Sellers proved that this "educational director" was using state committee letter heads to write to friends, and was devoting her entire time and the prestige of her position to the Rainey campaign. Her resignation proves the statement of Sellers. We hope that no future state committee will be foolish enough to appoint another "educational director."—Canyon News.

Nobody Can Or Will Vote For You

It is coming up again folks. Again tomorrow, the sovereign voters of Texas will be confronted with the task of electing their officers for the next two years, including a governor and lieutenant governor. We say elected, advisedly. The proper word is nominated by the Democratic party, but since that is equivalent to election in Texas, we usually use the word, "elected."

In the north and east the people talk a lot about Texans and the south in general of their carelessness in voting. And they have some right to criticize us, we'll all have to admit. However, as we pointed out in these columns last week, it is not the lack of a poll tax receipt in many cases, but carelessness. When the primaries are over, Texans and southerners decide they have finished the job, and go into hibernation for 2 years.

Nothing like the number of qualified voters cast their ballots in the July primary. Not more than two thirds of the folks over 60, like the Old He, who do not have to buy a poll tax receipt, cast a vote. Why? Well, they just weren't interested.

But let a bunch of the European and Asiatic dictators come over here and try to tell the people of Texas and the South that they CAN'T vote, and see how many of them do vote, just to show the would be bosses that they are not bosses at all. Yep, they'd fight like blazes with guns and what have you to vote.

During the Carpetbagger rule in the South after the Civil War, all the "baggers" backed up by armed negroes and yankee troops did not keep them from voting, although many of their votes were thrown out. But now, what a difference.

Listen folks. No one can vote for you. No one is trying to tell you how you MUST vote. You, and only you can cast a ballot, and that is a sacred trust. No one must tell you how to vote, but—VOYE SATURDAY.

Hard To Keep His Faculty Put, Says Supt. McCollum

We business folks are not the only ones with a worry and a headache. That condition right now is very much in evidence with the trustees of the Brownfield schools, and Superintendent T. E. McCollum. While a visitor at the Herald office one day last week, the superintendent let us know some of his worries, and while still able to smile about the matter, he was not at all sure that the schools would start with a complete faculty.

Here's the situation, according to Mr. McCollum: This week we think we have a full quota of teachers, and will start school early in September without this handicap. In the next few days we are notified by one or more teachers that they are resigning, "as they have been offered better paying positions in private industry." Then the whole matter must be gone over again.

Mr. McCollum stated that most of those leaving the teaching profession for better paying jobs, and full year employment, were not to be blamed. They spent their own money for an education. Their time is their own, and they are not obligated to teach in any school.

To the folks who say that teachers are overpaid, and we hear someone say that very thing occasionally, just let them try teaching. A few years ago, $125 per month for nine months looked pretty good. But what about some four months during the summer when they had no job, at least a regular one, and used up what little surplus they had in living until school started again.

They sometimes have had to spend the little surplus for a post graduate course. They must keep up, you know. They must learn all the latest teaching methods. A lot of this is not just guess work. We happened to have a brother that followed the profession for 45 years, and he always had to run a farm in conjunction with his teaching to make ends meet.

We also have a son-in-law who decided on teaching as a profession. He quit several years ago.

Pat Harris was in Lubbock Monday morning on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Redford announce the birth of a baby daughter August 13th, at the Treadaway-Daniell hospital. The baby weighed 7 pounds, 3 1/2 ounces, and is named Diane Roberta.

Mesdames Prentiss Walker and children and Sam Privitt left Sunday to spend the remainder of the summer in Cloudford.

WHERE DOES OUR WATER COME FROM

Pappy John Powell brought in a nice stalk of irrigated cotton from the field of his son-in-law near Lubbock, one day last week. Pappy John stated that Mr. Rush had about 100 acres, and the stalk was an average. Then the discussion turned to our water supply, when PJ asked us if we thought the increased irrigation of the future would greatly effect our water supply.

As we told PJ, we are no water engineer, or even a geologist, but we do have some confirmed ideas about this water supply we have here on the Plains. To our notion, it would take about 200 inches of rain annually to penetrate the caliche laying underneath our land, and another 200 to penetrate the caprock, through which well drillers tell us they always have to drill to get to water.

The only possible shot for our 18 inch average rainfall to penetrate all the solid masses stated above, would be to find a prairie dog hole down in some low place that penetrated the water level, which generally is around 100 feet under the surface, OK, says you, where does it come from.

We got the idea when we first came to the plains and have not changed it, that it comes from the

Mrs. Homer Craig and son, Herbie, of Artesia, New Mexico, spent last week with her mother, Mrs. B. L. McPherson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Richardson and children spent Sunday in Big Spring visiting Mrs. Richardson's sister, Mrs. C. B. Edwards.

Rocky mountains. Millions of tons of snow and ice melt annually in the Rockies, drift down through the foothills, to or near the more arid areas, where it sinks into the sand. From there it comes underground not unlike a spring back in the old states, to spread out under the surface of the Plains.

Now we know the water engineers talk about the water level being lower or higher some years. Naturally, we tap more of this water dry years than wet ones. We had little use for water other than for drinking in 1941 and 1942, and the water level rose.

We would like to see some of the science boys cover an acre of ground, and put just 18 inches of water on it in a year, keeping off all other water, and see just how far it would get underground.

We have observed the digging of many graves here in the caliche at the old cemetery, and we have never seen that stuff wet. We have never seen it wet any more than 24 to 30 inches.

Harve Harris Attends The Rodeo

When there is any horse flesh or for that matter any cow flesh abouts, you might be able to see Harve Harris, of the Bronco section of New Mexico. So, that individual was here during the rodeo, and was certainly enjoying himself.

He had one of his favorite mounts with him, and while Harve, like the writer, is getting a bit too old to take part in riding and roping, he can make a show in the parade.

Harve Harris has seen the plains section come and—almost go—never entirely went. He had faith in its comeback, and so far it always done just that, and went again. Some of these days the brass in the sky will change to dark leaden color, and the rain will descend again, and there will be a lot of nice green grass a field crops.

And when it does, Harve Harris will be right here to see it and enjoy it. Only death will separate Harve from his beloved southern Plains of Texas and New Mexico.

MEN OUT LIVE THEIR INCOMES

Old age does not arrive as suddenly, as dramatically or as tragically, as does death. The process is so slow that neither the man nor his family is aware that his earning power is tapering off, until it is too late to do much about it. Yet Old age is no less devastating to earning power than is death. LIFE TOO LONG IS AS CRUEL AS DEATH TOO SOON.

And men do live. The chance of a man's living to age 65 or age 70 or even 75 are far greater than we ordinarily assume, as the following excerpts from the American Experience Mortality Table clearly indicates.

Advices About Possible Polio Spread

With occurrence of Polio cases within the area of the South Plains Health Unit Dr. Frank P. Miller, director, calls on the citizens to redouble their efforts to prevent the spread of the disease.

Greater than usual care should be taken to see that fly breeding is prevented which calls for proper protection and disposal of garbage, proper cleaning and spraying all stock lots, relocation and fly tight construction of privies and the general use of DDT for insect destruction.

The director also warns that lack of consideration among the milk consuming public may be a factor in the spread of polio. Individuals are warned that where milk is not properly handled, cooled and protected from contamination it may be a dangerous transmitter of this disease. The community peddler of so called extra milk where no protection is given the public is one of our greater nuisances.

Since the period from now until the end of October is the season within which we may have polio in epidemic form, every citizen must put forth unusual effort in the way of cleanliness and other recommended precautions if we are to avoid further wide spread outbreaks.

If any obscure symptoms of disease exist the patient should see their family physician at once.

Sworn Circulation Law Signed By President

By The American Press

Before October 1 every weekly newspaper in the country must file a sworn statement of circulation with the Post Office, as a result of a new law recently approved by President Truman. The circulation figure must be included in the statement of ownership filed by the newspapers. Previous to this year publishers have all had to file an ownership statement, required of all publications using second class mail, but have not been required, as have daily newspapers, to include a figure on circulation.

The new law is expected to do much toward gaining greater acceptance for the circulation figures reported by weekly newspapers. Because no standard method of reporting circulation, except for the Audit Bureau of Circulations members, has been used in the weekly field, advertisers were inclined to discount, by from 25 to 50 percent, the figures given out by weekly newspapers. This acted as a severe penalty on those newspapers which were reporting their circulation honestly.

HEAVY PENALTIES
Since heavy penalties are provided for false reports to the Post Office, it can be assumed that the comparatively few publishers who did inflate their circulation figures will discontinue this practice.

Advertisers and advertising agencies have been particularly interested in the sworn circulation bill because they saw it as a quick way to get accurate circulation reports on all newspapers. For in addition to including the figure in the report filed with the Post Office, it must also be included in each newspaper when the publisher prints his ownership statement.

The purposes of the measure were explained by Rep. McKenzie of the Committee on Post Office and Post Roads, when he said:

"H. R. 2543 would put all newspapers on a par; it would improve the standards of the weekly newspaper profession; it would result in giving advertisers and advertising agencies sworn statements of the paid circulation of weekly newspapers; it would cause publishers of weekly newspapers to pay more attention to their circulation and to the keeping of proper records.

MAJORITY HONEST
"Unfortunately a few weekly newspapers, although they are in the minority by far, at the present time make fictitious and spurious claims about their circulation; they will pad or exaggerate their circulation in the hope of receiving more national advertising. The great majority of honest, reliable newspapers must suffer for the padding and spurious claims which are made by a small minority of weekly newspapers.

"This legislation will rebound to the benefit and advantage of all weekly newspapers."

Longevity Of The American People

In 1944, for the first time in our history, the average length of life (expectation of life at birth) of the American people, including military personnel within the country, exceeded 65 years, according to the Statistical Bulletin of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. The actual figure, 65 1/8 years, is almost sixteen year greater than at the beginning of the century. As a result of this truly remarkable gain, the person of age 20 now has, on an average, as many years of life remaining as the new-born child had in 1900. Even more striking is the observation that whereas according to the earlier mortality only three quarters of the babies would attain age 25, under present conditions three quarters of them will reach age 57.

For white females in 1944, the average length of life was 68.95 years, almost exactly one year short of the biblical three score and ten, which, it should not be overlooked, was not intended to represent an average, but rather the extreme of life. As a matter of fact, white females who have attained their first birthday anniversary will live, on an average, to age 71. For those who have attained their 49th birthday, the future is 75 years.

The increase in longevity among white females in 1944, as compared with 1943, was two-thirds of a year. Although white males in 1944 reached a high level of 63.55 years in average length of life, their record was a little below the peak attained in 1942. The chief factor in this slight setback is the relatively high mortality from accidents among men in the military

Mexico To Have Exhibit At State Fair

That the Mexican Government will send a big exhibit to the State Fair of Texas this year, for the first time since 1924, was announced by W.H. Hitzelberger, vice president and general manager of the Fair, this week. Hitzelberger stated that he had received word from the Mexican Tourist Department at San Antonio that the exhibit would arrive at Fair Park about September 15.

More than a thousand articles of Mexican silver, pottery, leather and rare lacquers will be included in the exhibit, as well as a large collection of colorful Mexican regional costumes. The exhibit will occupy some 1500 square feet in the Foods Building.

The exhibit was procured through aid of Fernando de la Garza, San Antonio offices of the Mexican Tourist Department; Gustavo Ortiz Herman, Mexican Consul General; and Alejandro Buelna, head of the Tourist Department, Mexico City.

Mr. and Mrs. Layton Webb, of Lubbock were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mon Telford, Sr., Sunday.

Pension increases recently authorized by Congress will be made automatically to veterans in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi, VA's Director of Claims, said this week. "Inquiries from veterans about their pensions are not necessary and will only delay the administrative work required to effect the new rates," he said.

The increases will be included in payments made September 30, he added.

Allan Shivers Releases Final Statement

Austin — Confident of an overwhelming lead in Saturday's primary, Senator Allan Shivers, high man in the lieutenant governor's race, said that his opponent is "clawing the air to try to influence the voter's favor by his mud-slinging, venom and poison."

The 38-year-old legislator and ex-serviceman said his second-place opponent is trying to make light of his (Shivers') record both as a veteran of the army and a veteran of the Texas Senate.

"I have not attempted to make potential capital of the fact that for two years I served overseas in the army and earned 5 battle stars. I have said repeatedly that I want the people of Texas to vote for me because of my training and qualifications—not because I am the only veteran in this race," Shivers stated.

"Yes, I am a veteran of the army and a veteran member of the Texas Senate," he added. "For both of these honors I am proud and grateful. For my record in both I have no apologies. My tall tale-telling opponent is trying to make light of both because he has service ratings in neither.

"He is notably silent on his experience and qualifications for the office of lieutenant governor," Shivers continued, "because he lacks the training which the thinking people of Texas demand that an office seeker have before electing him to a high position."

"In his reckless anxiety to overcome my lead, my CIO-PAC opponent is grabbing and throwing everything in sight. He is even lapsing into the art at which he is most adept — that of telling and writing tall tales."

Inspectors Capture 10 Illicit Stills

Texas Liquor Control Board Inspectors in July reported the seizure of 10 illicit stills.

Destruction of the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 405 gallons, prevented the potential evasion of $8,928.00 in State taxes.

With the stills, inspectors captured 990 gallons of mash and made 9 arrests. 6 3/4 gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

Four stills were taken in Marion County, 2 in Bowie County, and 1 each in Henderson, Anderson, Smith and Red River Counties.

Former African Missionary To Speak

Miss Dora Jane Armstrong is to speak at the First Methodist church here Sunday night, August 25th. She has done missionary work for seventeen years in the Belgian Congo. Graduated with honors from the John Hopkins school of nursing, she was a pioneer in the training of African nurses, in public health nursing, and in experimental work with African foods. She assisted a John Hopkins pediatrician to work out a formula for peanut milk which has been successfully used and in which the Belgian Colonial Government became actively interested.

In the field of leprosy work, she assisted Dr. Charles M. P. Sheffey—like herself a Virginian—to establish the first care of people with leprosy in the Congo.

In these several phases of missionary work she traveled hundreds of miles by foot, bicycle, motorcycle and car, ministering to the needs of the African people whom she loves and who love her. For the past two years she has been the southeastern secretary of the American Mission to Lepers, where with high success she has brought hundreds of friends into both spiritual and material fellowship with those who suffer from leprosy.

She has an interesting story to tell about the first hospital for people with leprosy in the Belgian Congo and about her work as a missionary nurse.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Everybody is dipplin' in his oar—as he puts on a studied and learned look—and is trying to ride into the limelight via the atom. And if you would quiz half of them on "what is the difference between an atom and a molecule," you would get a blank stare. And not knowing for sure my own self, I hauled out my dictionary and while hunting for ATOM I run across ATLAS. And Atlas intrigued me so, that I will drop the atom for the nonce, and will take up Atlas at our seminar today.

And my reason for taking up Atlas is because via research we will maybe find out what has always bothered me. It is, who is going to be the Atlas guy to hold up the earth and the heavens and the Govt., and be the last man on the tax-roll—the final and last taxpayer—after the Govt. finishes taking over all business and is down to the very last free citizen.

So folks, any ideas will be appreciated. If you think it will be somebody besides yourself, speak up and say who you got in mind, and when it will happen—figuring the Govt. will keep up its present clip of taking over everything where it has a foot in the door now, or will have soon.

BUTLERS HAVE VISITORS FOR SUNDAY

There were about eight families at the Butler's home Sunday, August 18. Had dinner outside and had several games for the groups to play. The small children played with toy guns all day. The women that wanted to, played "Pollyanna." But the main game of the day was volleyball. Believe it or not we sure have some great players. Only they would be better in the circus, such as L. V. Durham, Joe Butler, Charles Reid, Faye Day and Kenneth Watkins. They will take the cake any time (and eat it too).

Charles Reid seems to be in the lead for putting the most balls over the net. He served as high as ten without losing the ball. Of course with the help of other players.

Well maybe some day they will have a great team.

To The Voters And Citizenship Of Terry County

In my final words to you people before you go to the polls Saturday, August 24th to say who shall be your next Sheriff, I am ready for you good people's verdict. If I am your choice and am elected your next Sheriff, I will be found there trying at all times. In regards to who my deputy might be, if elected, I have never given that a consideration yet, but will say if elected I will have 4 months to do that in, and I will be very cautious in that.

I thank you one and all and will sure appreciate your vote tomorrow, Aug. 24.

Respectfully,

Large Money Safe Stolen From Local Firm

Late last week, unknown persons broke into the Newman Bros. mill office and took a money safe, weighing approximately 1,000 pounds and dumped it in the middle of a lateral road four miles west and three north of town, where it was discovered by a passing farmer, who reported it, about the time Newmans opened up. About $50.00 in money was taken, all papers and checks left intact. Officers have made no arrests. It was thought more than three men participated.

Friday of last week, some alert person took over $200.00 out of the local bus station cash drawer,

Dr. Richardson, Optometrist, And Wife Move In

Dr. Gordon E. Richardson, associated with Dr. Millard F. Swart, the famous optometrist of Lubbock, has opened his offices in the Wingerd building on south side of the square, and reports an already good business.

Dr. Richardson, a dischargee from military service early this year, has set up the latest and most modern equipment, and was fortunate in procuring a large stock of lenses. One is a stereoscopic machine that serves to straighten childrens' eyes by building up the muscles controlling them. He does most of his own grinding of lenses in his well equipped laboratory. He occupies the entire building.

Mrs. Bill Webb, the former Florence Williamson, long-time resident of this city, is receptionist. Doctor and Mrs. Richardson have established living quarters in the rear of the building, until a dwelling can be procured.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Holgate, of Amarillo, visited in the S. H. Holgate home and Mrs. W. E. Steen, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Capell, of Weslaco, Texas, are here visiting in the home of their niece, Mrs. Homer Winston, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Obie Atkinson and children, of Portland, Oregon, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jenkins. Mrs. Atkinson and Mr. Jenkins are brother and sister.
